

EARLY COWBOYS HAD GREAT TIME AT BIG REUNION

MORE THAN EIGHTY OLD TIMERS GATHERED FOR REUNION.

Many Other Than T-Anchor Boys Are at Wragge's Park for Annual Cowboy Celebration.

The annual reunion of the old time cowboys held last Thursday was certainly an affair of great success and pleasure judged from the words of praise heard during the celebration and after the close of the pleasant day spent at Wragge's Park. Cowboys as a rule are few in words, but there was a deep feeling of pleasure that could not be submerged in the firm, friendly handshake and the hearty greetings of comrades of the frontier as the old timers met old timers whom they had not seen in years.

The T-Anchor reunion brought out the boys of the '80's. They came from all over the Plains, and more than a dozen well known ranches of twenty-five years ago were represented in the reunion.

Gus Lee, old negro cook of the T-Anchor outfit of 1883, presided over the dinner, which fulfilled every detail of a typical frontier chuck wagon feed. Gus was the center of attraction throughout the day, and enjoyed his place of distinction.

The following old time cow boys were present:

On account of so few attending the Commercial League meeting Monday night, no action was taken regarding the employment of a paid secretary for the Randall County Commercial League.

All those present believed that it would be an excellent investment for the people of Canyon to employ such a secretary, and each one will use his influence to see that one is employed by the city within a very short while.

It is likely that definite action would have been taken Monday night had the attendance been larger.

Call Made for High School Students to Enroll Saturday

The first step toward the organization of work for the coming term of Canyon Public Schools will take place at the new high school building Saturday, Sept. 1st, 9:00 a. m. All Seniors and Juniors are expected to enroll in the forenoon. The Sophomores and Freshmen will be enrolled Monday, Sept. 3rd, beginning at 3:00 p. m. All other grades will be enrolled at the beginning of school, Monday, Sept. 10th.

After the High School students are enrolled they will not be required to report at school again until Monday, Sept. 10th. The reason for enrolling before the opening day is to give an opportunity for securing the proper number of text books for those subjects in which the books are not furnished. It is very important that all high school students report at the time specified above, otherwise they will not have sufficient text books when school opens and will be handicapped in the pursuit of their studies. No pupils below the eighth grade will be enrolled before Monday, Sept. 10th.

Furniture for the New High School Building Here; Opens Sept. 10

A big car of furniture arrived Monday for the new school building.

All of the new desks for the students, the teachers' desks and chairs, the auditorium seats and the office equipment for the superintendent and principal have arrived. A man will arrive from Dallas this week to install the pupils' desks and the auditorium seats.

The lockers for both the boys' and the girls' cloak rooms have been installed several days.

School will open on September 10. The principal furniture and equipment will be in place by that time. There are much equipment that is necessary and will have to be bought in order to make the building complete, and it is likely that a small bond issue will be called for within the coming month or so in order to complete the equipment of the building.

Sometimes it is our fault because of forgetfulness, but it is generally the fault of the person who knows about it and does not report it to us. DISTRICT COURT ENDS SESSION OF FALL SATURDAY

PAYNE MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL DENIED BY JUDGE BISHOP.

Very Little Civil Business Up for Attention During the Entire Term of Court.

The fall term of the District Court came to an end Saturday and Judge Bishop is holding court in Potter county starting with this week.

All of Thursday was consumed with the arguments for a new trial in the D. L. Payne case, in which he was convicted of manslaughter for the death of J. Sveaza at Crosbyton in May, and given a sentence of five years in the penitentiary. Judge Bishop overruled the motion.

Two indictments were returned by the grand jury Thursday.

In the case J. T. Swink vs. Floyd Wilson et al, judgment by default was given plaintiff.

In the case J. T. Swink vs. Florence O. Wilson et al, judgment was given by default.

In the case Ama A. Ward vs. S. E. Magnus et al, verdict was given the plaintiff.

With the exception of the Payne case, which was transferred from Crosby county, there was little business before the court this term.

Lieutenant Governor Greeted by Large Audience Here Sunday

Lieutenant Governor T. W. Davidson spoke Sunday morning to a very large audience at the Baptist church.

Governor Davidson spoke along lines of law enforcement.

Mr. Davidson is at present lieutenant Governor of the state and a candidate for Governor next year. His address in Canyon had nothing to do with his political aspirations, as he was on his way to attend the Tech rally and stopped over Sunday to visit the College and see his old friend, Prof. J. S. Humphreys.

Governor Davidson spoke Sunday night in Amarillo at the Presbyterian church.

NEW LIGHTS ARE ON.

The new ornamental street lights at each corner of the public square were turned on Friday night for the first time, and the lighting effect on that part of the street was highly praised by the citizens of Canyon.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE NEXT WEEK

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS THURSDAY BY MISS NEAL

LARGE NUMBER OF DEGREES, DIPLOMAS, CERTIFICATES.

Greatest Year in History of Institute Closes Thursday With Fitting Commencement Program.

The thirteen year of the West Texas State Teachers College came to a close Thursday in the commencement exercises. President J. A. Hill stated that 2451 students had enrolled in the institution during the past year, and that it had been the most successful in the history of the institution.

Mr. Hill expressed the appreciation of the College in having a member of the Board of Regents to give the final address of the year, and introduced Miss Margie E. Neal of Carthage as a woman greatly interested in and informed about the Teachers Colleges of Texas. Mr. Hill believed that the Board had never had a member more interested in the Colleges that was Miss Neal.

Miss Neal expressed her appreciation in being present and entered into a discussion of education and educational programs in a most interesting and inspirational way.

Miss Neal gave wholesome advice to the graduating class, which was just starting out into life. She termed educated men and women as the glory and salvation of the state and of the nation. Taking their place as teachers, the graduates would find it more blessed to give than to receive. If they did not make the world better, they would not live up to their responsibilities and opportunities. The greater the success in life, the greater work there is to do for this individual.

Miss Neal urged the graduate to keep on the right track. The best days were not childhood days, but the days ahead. She urged to keep going not to stop—there is new life in going ahead. She urged that the individual have direction in life; that they overcome obstacles, as there is accumulated strength in overcoming obstacles.

PAVING WORK STARTS.

The laying of brick started this week on the College campus and will be rushed to completion. The property owners on the south side of the campus are signing up for a thirty foot pavement to be put in on this side.

From present indications it will not be possible to connect the paving between Houston and Evelyn streets on the logical streets west of the square owing to the attitude of some property owners.

The paving crew will move to Temple as soon as the work is completed in Canyon.

CANYON SCHOOL TO OBSERVE SATURDAY FOR WEEKLY HOLIDAY INSTEAD OF MONDAY AS DURING PAST YEARS

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees last night it was voted to change the day of the weekly holiday from Monday to Saturday, as is observed in other towns of the state. Monday has been given as a holiday in the school during the past few years, this being installed while the College was on the five day schedule, and Monday was taken as the holiday. Class work will start in the public schools on September 10th and continue through the first five days of each week.

At the meeting last night Mrs. Agnes Thomas Dean of Sugar Grove, Illinois, was elected Expression teacher in the public schools for the coming year. Mrs. Dean comes with exceptionally fine recommendations and letters of recommendation from school authorities.

Tuition will be charged for Expression and Music as in the past.

Fees are set by the Board for three departments of the school: Domestic Science, $3.00 per semester; Manual Training, $2.00 per semester; Physics Laboratory, $1.00 per semester.

Practically all of the work on the new high school building has been completed, and Supt. Payne states that everything is in readiness for the opening of school.

Mr. Walker wishes the News to express to the people of Randall county his great appreciation for the cooperation extended him while County Agent in Randall county, and assure the people that he has enjoyed his work in the county.

Mr. Walker has not disposed of his property in the west part of town, and if he does not like his new work says that he will return to Canyon to make his home.

People's Store and Martin's Variety Moving to Their New Buildings

The People's Store and Martin's Variety Store are moving to their new building on the west side of the square and hope to have their stocks of goods arranged by the end of the week.

The new buildings were constructed by Henry Bradford and R. A. Bellah, Mr. Bradford having the two buildings which are leased until Jan. 1930 to W. A. Warren of the Peoples Store, and Mr. Bellah having leased his store to Mr. Martin for five years.

The three store buildings are among the very best in the Panhandle and give excellent quarters to these enterprising businesses.

Formal openings for the stores will be held after the stocks of goods have been arranged in the new buildings.

C. Shuman Elected to Superintend Construction Methodist Church

Evacuation for the basement is nearing completion. Mr. Shuman took charge of the work yesterday, and will start concrete work on the foundation within a short while.

Mr. Shuman is moving his family from Happy where they have lived for the past year. His son, L. Shuman, is also moving to the city and will work on the new church.

Mr. Shuman constructed the Bisher Garage building, the bakery building for S. H. Heyser and did the brick work on the three new buildings on the west side of the square. He lived in Wichita Falls for a number of years and has built some of the best houses in that city.

A commercial club is a mighty hard organization to keep alive in a small town, under the best of conditions, but right now it would seem that it was exceptionally hard to get people to take an interest in the commercial welfare of the city. Three meetings have been held in Canyon during the past two weeks with a view of attempting to revive interest in the Randall County Commercial League and start a program of real constructive work to rebuild the city. Only half a dozen men attended the meetings of the League. All present were anxious to do something for the benefit of the town, but could have no idea as to what the other fifty or sixty business men of the city would do regarding the matter. It takes lots of time for a committee to get out and explain to fifty men a proposition, which could be attended to within a few minutes if all would come out and discuss the matter freely together. Canyon has better opportunities for growth and development than many towns in Northwest Texas, but, too few of our citizens seem willing to push along this opportunity for growth and development. Too many of us are willing to let well enough alone, and just wait until our town grows all by itself. A real enterprising citizen wants to get out and do something to help the town along—to make the town grow. If Canyon citizens would only realize the importance of action, the town would have a live Commercial League with a paid secretary devoting his entire time to the commercial interests of the town and the county.

A drive over Randall county shows very clearly that the row crop this year will, on the whole, be almost up to the average of past years. The early crop was hurt by the dry weather but the late crop is going to make a bumper grain yield. There are several places in the county which will not have a very large row crop yield of either the early or the late crops, while many farmers are reporting that they have the biggest crop yield in a number of years. The price is going to be good from all indications, with an increased price every week. Those who thought the Penhandle was in for another hard year are doomed to be disappointed. Things are going to rock along, with conditions gradually getting better instead of worse.

With the resumption of flogging all over the state, and the implication of various peace officers who either have a part in the flogging or winked at those taking a part in the flogging parties, Governor Neff can call the attention of the state to the fact that he attempted to have passed by the legislature a bill authorizing the removal of officers who refuse to do their duty. The law was defeated because it is an extreme law, in many respects, and gives undue powers to the chief executive, who might be inclined to abuse his powers.

Canadian Record: We don't look at the European situation as most people do. Germany started the war. Germany ravished France, destroyed her industries, demolished her homes and public buildings. Germany sank passenger vessels and took lives with submarines all under the guise of the necessities of war. Germany committed every outrage and every assault against non-combatants and defenseless people under the cloak of militarism. That was the time to think about the possibilities of losing the war. When Germany lost the war and was hopelessly burdened with indemnities, the nation should never have been permitted to continue as a nation. But Germany did continue, and at once took the attitude of an assaulted and aggrieved combatant. Germany has been yelling for the police and squealing for help ever since the last war gun has been silenced, and has been able to fool some sympathetic people. If the German nation had been dissolved and then the German people had been oppressed we would have some sympathy for them. But a nation to remain as such must pay the fiddler when she starts a dance. We admire France's occupation of the Ruhr, and her determination to make Germany pay her bills. The taking of millions of lives and the expenditure of billions of dollars is too big a thing to be cancelled under the cloak of sympathy. Let Germany pay or haul down her national flag.

Penhandle Herald: A Ballinger couple celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary a few days ago. When the marriage vow was assumed the husband was 17 and the wife 18, and the husband says that if it were all to do over he would marry earlier. It all depends upon the stuff there is in 'em, as to whether marriage in the teens is for the best. Fifty-five years ago when a young couple assumed the marriage vow they did not hesitate to go out into the woods and by hard work build for themselves a home and make ample provisions for a happy and contented close as the shadows of life's evening sunrays gathered about their wrinkled brows, but in this age of automobiles, movies and swimming pools, it is a pretty safe bet that marriage should await a more matured age than seventeen.

THE SMALL TOWN PAPER

The small town newspaper, whose enterprise and influence is the most important factor, in the growth and expansion of its town and territory, invariably receives ready recognition from its contemporaries of the great cities.

As to this recognition, in its own section, the Spokane Spokesman-Review says:

"The story of the rural newspaper published in the village or the small town, has significance for the student of American society. The influence of the rural press is close, constant and pervasive. When the paper of a small town appreciates its opportunities and is judiciously conducted, it becomes a member of every family within its field in a way that the great newspaper of the large city cannot rival."

When the people refer to the editor of the weekly newspaper as "our editor," they give the best evidence of local pride in what the paper has done and is doing for the good of the community. "They want to put our editor in the legislature," writes a country correspondent of a country paper, "but we need him here at home, in a bigger job than that!" That's another illustration of town and country pride in the home paper; and where that sentiment is universal there is real community prosperity.

For it means loyalty to the town's best interests, and the most effective work on the pull-together plan.

And pretty soon the local weekly becomes the live little daily; it "branches out" in every way.

It is the friend of every home, and the best home builder of them all.—Atlanta Constitution.

HE WAS A LIAR

Live grasshoppers will eat dead grasshopper. A Missouri farmer mixed Paris Green and bran together and let a grasshopper eat it. He died. Twenty ate him up. They died. Four hundred ate those twenty and they died. Eight thousand ate those four hundred and they died. A hundred and sixty thousand ate those eight thousand and they died and the farmer was troubled no more. The man who did the counting is not dead, but a champion liar.—From the Haskell Free Press of 20 years ago.

A large meteorite that recently fell in India appears to include three kinds of matter. There is igneous rock of a slate-gray color, rather heavy and marked with spots of dark turquoise blue; a quantity of jet-black, highly glazed lavy with turquoise blue veins; and a material that resembles coke in appearance and weight.

The only trouble with "the height of fashion" is having to wear it a long time after the "height" has changed.

WHAT'S THE USE OF BEING BLUE

Plainview News: The editor of this paper was born and raised in West Texas—on the frontier, you might say. For more than forty years he has experienced the prosperity, the moderately good times and the hard times that have alternated in the western half of the state. He has observed the development of the country, from an almost unpopulated waste (the last Comanche Indian raid was made into Erath county only a month before he was born in that county) then through the "cattle country" period, and finally it emerged into one of the best agricultural sections of the nation. He remembers the great drouth of 1886 and 1887, which almost devastated that section from Fort Worth to San Angelo and west. He remembers other drouths that have in cycles prevailed. In those days people of West Texas grew only a few crops, they did not know how to farm for the country was young, hence the drouth hurt them more than now. But in the many years we have never heard of a person in West Texas starving—they have always managed to pull through, and have profited as a whole by the experience of each drouth and each hardship.

Drouths prevail in most every section under the sun, at least in practically every agricultural district in the United States. One of the worst drouths we ever saw was on a trip through Arkansas in about 1897. Drouths occur in Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, and all the Northern and Southern states. In these states crops do not "stand up" like they do in West Texas, and two or three weeks of dry weather cut down the crops; here crops continue without moisture for months, and then make good yields.

And, just when it seems that everything must go to the bow-wows, here in West Texas there is always a rain, which rejuvenates the crops. There has not been anywhere near a complete failure of crops in the Plainview country during the thirteen crop seasons this editor has been here. There have been several bumper crop years and many good years. The people always raise quite a good deal of farm produce and live stock. One kind of a crop may fail, but there are so many other crops grown that each year several of them hit and make good. There are at present nineteen major crops growing on the syndicate demonstration farms east of Plainview, so we are told.

So you can depend upon this country always pulling out of any drouth or hard times that may afflict it. It always has; it always will.

The wheat crop this year was shorter than usual. The feed crop in many communities has been cut short. Most of the cotton is looking fine and has plenty of time, to make a bumper crop, and produce enough money to put this section in good financial shape.

The people of the Plains are optimistic. They never give up the fight. They know that better times are coming, for they have always come following untoward conditions.

So, there is no need of being blue over conditions. Being blue don't help matters the least. Let's keep a stiff upper lip, work like the devil and trust in God to come to our help when we have done all we can.

GREEN PASTURES

That the pastures are just a little greener over on the other side of the hill is a sentiment that has caused many to make failures of their lives. Short crops and unsatisfactory economical conditions are going to cause a lot of people to leave their present locations and go over on the other side of the hill. And most of them are bound to meet with disappointment. For when they get over on the other side and look back they are going to be awfully surprised at the verdure and prosperity of the side from whence they came. History and records show that prosperity does not come and go from place to place. Even the wisest cannot follow her in all her ways. In fact he who is wise entertains her well while she is with him and as soon as she is gone he at once begins to prepare for her return.—She is due to return in all her glory in the near future and those who are wise will remain here to greet her on her return and receive from her bountiful arms the rich gifts she will bring with her.—Ashland, Kansas Clipper.

TAX-DODGING

A discussion of tax-dodging by Edwin Lefevre in the Saturday Evening Post tells about the tax-exempt bonds. "The first thing the surtax did," he says, "was to drive those super-capitalists who were to pay so many millions of dollars into Uncle Sam's yawning pockets into investing in tax-exempt bonds. The rate was not attractive to the small investor, but it is estimated that the amount of tax-exempt bonds in the United States, excluding such Federal Government issues as are partly exempt, is about eleven billion dollars. This compares with about five billion ten years ago."

"At this writing municipal bonds are coming out at the rate of well over one billion a year, and farm loan bonds are also being issued pretty fast. The interest in these tax-exempt bonds outstanding represents an income of well over four hundred million dollars a year that does not pay the income tax. Of course, it is impossible to estimate just how much tax the government does not get—probably not less than one hundred and sixty million a year, which is the equivalent of four per cent on four billions of capital."

Tax-free securities are increasing at the rate of $5,000,000 per day and the public wonders why taxes are high on homes and the tools of industry.

On September 22, unless Congress meets in extraordinary session before that time, the office of national fuel distributor will lapse, for that is the anniversary of the passing of the act that created the office. If the miners and the mine owners fail to agree on the terms of employment, there is likely to be quite as much need for such an official as there was last year; and even if mining goes forward under a new agreement, there may be complications and difficulties in distributing coal that the national official might well attend to. Even the Interstate Commerce Commission will have no real authority to deal with the situation after the emergency act expires on September 22.

Mangus Johnson, Senator-elect, in an interview, is quoted as saying: "The United States Government must obtain the exact cost of production, and the farmer should be paid accordingly, with a plus profit."

"The death house at Sing Sing prison now has its radio set to give the condemned their last contact with the outside world.

MULE WASN'T HURT

Two Missouri negroes were driving a sad-eyed mule along a country road. A bee stung the mule. The mule autographed the head of one of the black boys with a flying hoof. The colored lad fell off the wagon apparently dead, and was "brought to" only with much difficulty.

A stranger who had seen the circus ran up to the scene and asked, "Is he hurt?" "No, boss," was the reply. "Dat mule will walk kind of tendah for a day or two. But he ain't hurt. No, sah; he ain't hurt."

The American Farm Bureau Federation proposes to withdraw two hundred million bushels of the current wheat crop, store it on farms or in co-operative elevators and finance the affair by means of money made available by the new intermediate credit act. Farm bins would be designated as bonded warehouses by the government and the farmer, through the credit system, could borrow up to three quarters of the value of his wheat, which he could hold until prices advanced to a satisfactory point. Mr. Bradfute, president of the Federation, thinks that the plan would raise the price of wheat to $1.40 or $1.50 a bushel. There would be some danger, however, that the rise in price would lead to planting more instead of less wheat and consequently to a still larger surplus next year. Until the foreign market is in a position to take our wheat at good prices whatever we raise in excess of our own needs seems likely to be a drag on the market price.

Forty-one big printing plants in Berlin do nothing but print money night and day, seven days in the week. In the first week of July the incredible amount of nearly three trillion marks was added to the paper currency. Nothing smaller than a thousand-mark note is printed now, for it costs more to print a note of a smaller denomination than the note itself is worth when printed. The situation is so absurd as to be almost incredible.

PERSONAL DYNAMICS

"Sambo, I don't understand how you can do all your work so quickly and so well."

"I'll tell yuh how 'tis, boss. I just sticks the match of enthusiasm to de fuse of yenergy—and jes' naturally explodes, I does."

Help Get Canyon Clean!

JUST SUPPOSING?

Tax exempt bonds are issued by cities, counties, state and nation. The holder of these bonds pays no taxes on the income derived therefrom.

But Jones whose income results from his labor and investments in industries pays every known form of taxation and he pays considerably more than is just, in order to make up for amounts he lost to the government through "tax-exempt" incomes.

Supposing everybody tried to get tax-exempt bonds, where would the money come from to run the government?

The continued issuance of tax-exempt bonds drains money away from productive enterprise and increases the tax burden on all those who do not hold the bonds.

The Siwa oasis has long been one of the "inaccessible" spots on the surface of the earth. It lies four hundred miles west of the Nile in the midst of the great Sahara Desert. Long before the birth of Christ it was a famous place, for the great temple and the oracle of Jupiter Ammon were there. Until recently it could be reached from Cairo only by camel-back—a long and difficult journey across the trackless desert. But the other day two automobiles of the Desert Touring Club made the trip from Alexandria in forty hours. The oasis is seventy-two feet below the sea level. Thirty miles long by six wide, it has two hundred wells, which supply water for a population of four thousand, and produces the finest dates and olives in the world.

High School Foot Ball Training to Begin Next Saturday

The foot ball training season for the Canyon Eagles will open in vigorous style at the High School grounds on Monday, September 3rd. The equipment will be issued on Saturday, September 1st, just following the enrollment of seniors and juniors. All men who have old equipment are urged to bring it out as there will be many entrants.

Coach Webb states that the prospects for a winning team are the best in the history of Canyon High School. Most of the old back field and line men will be hot contestants for their places on the team this year. In addition to the veteran players Canyon High will go into training with many new men who will make the competition for places very keen.

The Canyon Eagles will offer a line that not only has the weight but the speed and flight that will make the best teams in the Panhandle think hard before they break through. The back field will show a combination of speed and judgment seldom attained. And above all is Coach Jim Webb whose high ideals of clean sportsmanship have won the supreme respect and confidence of every man on the team. This is Coach Webb's second year with the Eagles and it was in preparation for this season that he took his men through much preliminary training last year. Webb knows the science of the game and keeps his men trained in the latest tactics. His Eagles bid fair to give a hot fight for high honors.

The support received from the Canyon business men and others last season was highly appreciated by the boys and they are expecting stronger support and co-operation this season than ever before. The people of Canyon are promised the strongest High School team this year that they have ever had and every one is invited to co-operate for its success. If you are a friend of the school the boys are counting on you. Will you disappoint them?

Bought to Better Serve YOU!

THE FINEST PRESS IN WEST TEXAS

The Randall County News has taken a step forward in equipment by installing the finest press in the entire West Texas territory. The press is bought with a view of giving the buyers of printing in Canyon better service and better printing.

The News is the best equipped plant in West Texas. Everything in our equipment is up-to-date and the very finest in its individual line. The equipment of this printing plant would be a credit to a town ten times the size of Canyon.

Buyers of printing sometimes get the idea that some mail order outfit can do a better job than the local plant. This is just as much a falacy as to think the farmer can get better goods by buying from a mail order house.

Every dollar of printing money invested in Canyon will make this plant a bigger and better plant to serve the needs of this community. Every dollar YOU send away for printing takes just so much away from the possibilities of a better plant to serve YOUR needs.

Invest your printing money in CANYON.

Firm, Plump, Flesh!

MANY are the eyes that are turned to gaze with keen admiration on the well developed, healthy girl no matter where she may be—on the rapidly moving thoroughfare or gliding gracefully over the dance floor.

All eyes turn because we all appreciate the girl with the figure so firm and plump—the girl with radiantly red cheeks, cheeks that carry a touch of roses from nature's own garden—the girl with the sparkling eyes, keen and sharp—the girl with buoyancy and the swing of youth.

Not necessarily an out-of-doors girl. Just a girl with ever increasing blood cells. Just a girl filled with the vim and vigor of youth.

S. S. S. since 1875, has stood for increased blood cells. S. S. S. means restored strength—rekindled vitality—added energy. Take S. S. S. and watch the bloom of youth return to your cheeks. Watch that flabby, ill nourished flesh fade away before flesh that is firm and plump. Red blood cells will do it and S. S. S. will build them. It contains only pure vegetable ingredients. S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores. The large size bottle is more economical.

British archaeologists have been at work on the site of Sparta, and, though they have not yet uncovered anything of first rate historic importance, they have found a variety of ancient carvings, vases and articles of personal adornment that show that the Spartans were not always of the astute and harsh character that distinguished them during the classical period. In the great days of Greece Sparta was a military power, but it possessed almost no art. In the earlier ages, following the appearance of the Dorians in Laconia, there was a lively and promising art that shows evidences of having been influenced by work from Cyrene in northern Africa.

Here's a new kind of union. The mathematicians of Germany have organized to spread abroad the practical and cultural significance of mathematics throughout Germany, where, they say, there are to be observed, "unfriendly tendencies" toward mathematics. We have always understood that a good many of the younger students in that study did not feel kindly toward it, but we had not supposed that their influence was strong enough to make a union of schoolmasters necessary to fight it. Perhaps the Germans have become disgusted with mathematics by the daily necessity of figuring up to the third or fourth decimal just how much the mark is worth.

Face Powder is Latest Product of Kafir Corn

DALLAS, Aug. 27.—Men are now consuming corn four ways—on the cob, in bread, out of fruit jars and now—eating off girls' faces in the form of powder.

W. F. Craddock, manager of the Texas Grain Sorghum Growers' Association, said Monday morning the association has received several orders from manufacturers of face powder for kafir corn with which to make powder.

There is still romance on the sea, though sails have given place to steam and internal-combustion engines. Did you read the story of the Trevesa, a British cargo boat that went down in the Indian Ocean in June? Rescue ships failed to find any trace of the crew, but the forty-four men were all the time sailing westward in two ship's boats toward the nearest land—fifteen hundred miles away. The captain's boat reached the island of Rodriguez after twenty-two days at sea, and the mate's boat was picked up off Mauritius three days later. The sailors in the first boat, says the Spectator, encouraged by an old salt sixty years of age—a reincarnation of Masterman Ready,—kept cheerfully to a daily ration of one biscuit and as much water as would fill the cover of a cigarette tin. They had a week's supply left at the end. The men in the other boat were less fortunate or less frugal and much of the time had to depend on catching such rain water as fell. Several Lascar seamen died of drinking sea water, though they must have known, as Homer's Greeks knew, that it was fatal. Thirty-six men survived the remarkable voyage.

Eight hundred thousand ladybugs valued at $5,000 were recently distributed to the orchardists of the Rogue River Valley, Oregon. They are to be used to clear the orchards of scale and aphids.

AIN'T IT FINE TODAY?

Sure this world is full of trouble,
I ain't said it ain't,
Lord, I've had enough and double
Reason for complaint.
Wind and storm have come to fret me,
Skies are often grey,
Thorns and brambles have beset me
On the road; but say,
Ain't it fine today?

What's the use of always weepin',
Makin' trouble last?
What's the use of always keepin'
Thinkin' of the past?
Each must have his tribulation,
Water with his wine.
Life, it ain't no celebration:
Trouble, I've had mine;
But today is fine.

It's today that I'm a livin'
Not a month ago;
Havin' losin', takin', givin',
As Time wills it so.
Yesterday a cloud of sorrow
Fell across the way;
It may rain again tomorrow,
It may rain—but say,
Ain't it fine today?—Selected.

So far as we can judge, the quarrel between Governor-General Wood and some of the Filipino politicians, which led to the resignation of the native members of the cabinet, was not a matter of real importance. It arose over the attempt of Filipino officials to discipline the chief of the government secret service, who had offended by trying to put a stop to open gambling in Manila. The affair appears to have been the result of personal pique, for the Governor-General has done many other things that his enemies could have turned into political issues with some semblance of dignity and sincerity; but to those things the Filipino officials have submitted; they chose to resign because a police officer who was too active for their convenience was reinstated after being dismissed.

In three hours a commercial aviator dusted poison over four hundred and sixty acres of cotton near Corpus Christi, Texas, for a price of fifteen cents an acre. Whether the poison applied in that way is effective against the boll weevil is not yet known.

LOST MONEY IN THE DEAL

A good story comes from a rural community in this section, where the good people have been afraid to attend meetings for fear that somebody would steal their chickens during their absence from home.

A peddler came through the country, and at a farm house offered the lady to buy her poultry the next morning if she would pen them that night. To show that he meant business he produced a well filled pocketbook.

This agreement having been made, the chickens were put up that evening, but the next morning the lady was chagrined to discover that all her chickens had been stolen during the night. However, there was balm in Gilead, for in the chicken house she found the peddler's pocketbook containing over one hundred dollars.

The peddler showed up that day and sympathized with the lady for losing her chickens, but did not say anything about his loss, though he kept nosing about the place. The lady did not think it worth while to volunteer any information, as her chickens had been well paid for.—Quannah Tribune, Chief.

Erich Ludendorf, one-time quartermaster general of Germany's armies, won a victory in the Munich Court recently when Dr. Wiener, editor of the official organ of the Central Association of German Citizens of Jewish Faith, was sentenced to pay a fine of 150,000 marks and the costs of the trial, and publish the verdict in his paper. Wiener wrote and published article based on an alleged interview with Ludendorf in which he was quoted as saying hard things about the republican government of Germany and German Americans.

Flying scholarships for men and women in the 1,000 largest cities of the country have been offered by the National Aeronautic Association to stimulate interest in aeronautics. One scholarship will be awarded for each 25,000 population of the cities. Candidates must be seventeen years of age or over and must be physically fit to fly. The scholarships call for instruction in flying at the leading flying schools. It is part of the association's plan to put "America first in the air."

Gasoline bootleggers are operating on the outskirts of Los Angeles, California. The bootlegger buys casing head gasoline at the oil fields close by for nine and ten cents a gallon. It is then either blended with benzene or kerosene or sold straight. The result is a wild and dangerous fuel, causing the motor to back-fire and overheat.

Woodrow Wilson recently wrote, "Capitalists have often seemed to regard the men whom they used as mere instruments of profit, whose physical and mental powers is was legitimate to exploit with as slight cost to themselves as possible, either of money or of sympathy."

At a novel toy balloon festival held recently at the Dutch fishing town of Volendam, 2,000 air vessels were sent up for long-distance competition. The winning balloon came down two miles from Bremen, Germany.

MISSOURI GOVERNOR PRAISES HOME PAPER

"Back your home paper," is the central idea in a recent speech delivered by ex-Governor Francis of Missouri. Mr. Francis served under President Wilson as Ambassador to Russia, and was for a long time chairman of the board of regents of the University of Missouri. He says, in part:

"Each year the local paper gives from $1000 to $1500 in free lines to the community in which it is located. No other agency can or will do this.

"The editor, in proportion to his means, does more for his home town than any other ten men. And in all fairness, he ought to be supported—not because you like him or admire his writings, but because the local paper is the best investment the community can make.

"Your local paper may not be brilliantly edited or crowded with thought, but financially it is of more benefit to the community than the preacher. Understand me, I do not mean mentally; and yet on moral questions you will find most of the papers on the right side. Today the editors of the local papers do the most for the money of any people on earth."

A good human machine should not wear out in seventy years, says Dr. MacCabe, the English army doctor who has written on human life, its enjoyment and prolongation. Over against the opinion of the Psalmist he quotes Genesis vi, 3. "And the Lord said: 'My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh, yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.'" Arguing from scientific analogies, Dr. MacCabe points out that most of the higher animals enjoy a life span that is approximately five times their growing period. If man falls short of that, it is mainly owing to some kind of intemperance, he believes. Moderation in all things is his rule of health.

The Panama Canal has paid a profit in all but three of the nine years since it was completed, but the profit last year was much greater than in any previous year. Colonel Morrow, governor of the canal, says: "Receipts from canal tolls are paying all expenses of operation, upkeep, depreciation, interest at three per cent on the canal bonds and so forth, leaving a net balance of from $60,000 to $70,000 a month. We have written off about $100,000,000 of the canal bond issue of about $375,000,000."

Oil well good for white man. Heap bunk, for Injun. Long time Injun happy. Bimeby oil come. White man come, say, 'Here, take money.' He bring money, money, money. Scopolamine, the drug that is supposed to render its subjects incapable of lying, does not find favor with all of the medical profession. Some physicians have lately pointed out that the drug is obtained from henbane, deadly night shade and prickly pear, that all it does is to produce intoxication and cause the victim to talk freely. There is no certainty that the accused criminal will tell only the truth.

Child-birth

Here is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers!

When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says: "With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes." Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Broadfield Regulator Co., BA 46, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

The site of the pioneer village of Schoenbrun, the first settlement in the Northwest Territory, near New Philadelphia, Ohio, has been determined by an archeologist. The old village was founded in 1772 by a Moravian missionary. Fragments of brightly colored glass resembling Venetian glass, such as traders gave Indians for skins of animals, fragments of clasp knives used for hunting, large sheets of pure beaten copper, flintlocks used in muskets, tomahawks, wrought iron nails, human bones and potteryware were found in the cellars. The village passed from existence in 1782.

At the recent Pan-American Conference the delegates of twenty-one republics of the New World approved the proposal to erect a great "Columbus Light" as a monument to the discoverer and pledged their peoples to share in the expense and credit of the undertaking. The favored plan calls for a light house rising above a stately tomb in which the mortal remains of Christopher Columbus shall rest for all time. It is generally agreed that the monument shall be built at Santo Domingo, Haiti, where Columbus planted his third settlement, the one that took root and lived.
