

Reappraisal gets underway

Tax appraisers started Monday on the five-month chore of reappraising all real property in the county.

Under the requirements of a constitutional amendment adopted by Texas voters in 1978, all real property must be appraised at its current market value rather than by the traditional "ratio assessment" method.

Conducting the reappraisal here is the Hereford tax-appraisal firm of McMorries & Co. The firm will make a "uniform appraisal" of all real property in the county, and its figures will be used by the county, its three cities, three school districts, hospital district, water district and state.

The local taxing entities are sharing the $89,000 cost of the reappraisal.

Previously, each taxing jurisdiction had the option of making its own appraisals and taxing individual properties on a percentage of their estimated market value.

But under the new method, all taxing jurisdictions will use the same appraisal figures, based on current, local market value, and their tax rates will be lower. The new method will take effect in 1981.

The new appraisal method is an outgrowth of the "truth in taxation" move across the state, aimed at equalizing the proportion of property taxes paid on homes, land, industries and business properties.

"Equalization is what we're primarily interested in," said Olin Cosby of McMorries & Co., "and the best way to achieve equalization is to go by today's market value. That's why the new law is written the way it is."

James McMorries Jr. added that the new assessment values here "will be based on the actual current sales values in Castro County, not those of some other county or city in this area." He said his company will study recent real-estate sale prices recorded here to affirm the current local value on homes, land and business properties.

McMorries and Cosby started going door-to-door Monday in West Dimmitt, and said it will take "close to a month" to appraise all the real property in the county.

There will be no need for appraisers to go into homes, they said.

Later, their appraisal team will expand to a "full strength" of four, including a land agronomist who will re-evaluate farm and ranch land.

"In the rural areas, we'll be paying particular interest to irrigation wells, to determine what the wells are actually producing," McMorries said.

Appraisal of farmland, McMorries explained, will also include such factors as type of land, slope, production history, etc. The appraisal formula was written into the new law.

"The productivity aspect will be a saving for the farmer," DISD Tax Assessor Andrea Ethington said, "because the productivity value of the land will be lower than the market value."

The new law includes some significant exemptions, McMorries said.

For instance, homestead owners over 65 "will never pay more school taxes than they paid in 1979, no matter what their tax rate or appraisal are," because the school-tax burden for this group of homeowners was "frozen" at the 1979 level by the new law. To get this exemption though, homestead owners over 65 must file for it each year.

Also, home furnishings are no longer taxable, so taxing jurisdictions won't be faced with the chore of estimating the value of a home's contents. Bank accounts are specifically exempted from taxation, too, although they traditionally haven't been taxed anyway, McMorries said.

He emphasized that his [See Reappraisal, Page 16]

JUBILANT—Hart's Longhorns and fans gather at midfield after Friday night's Castro County shootout to celebrate their 26-0 victory over Nazareth's Swifts. The Longhorns taped the word "REVENGE" on their helmets to remind them of last year's 7-0 loss to Nazareth, and used long-distance passes and runs to clinch the victory.

It's Homecoming week at Nazareth

Three queens and two kings will be crowned Thursday and Friday nights to highlight Nazareth High School's 1980-81 Homecoming activities.

The weekend's events also will include a pep rally, taco supper, football game and Homecoming dance.

The Homecoming Pep Rally will begin at 7:30 tonight (Thursday), and will be highlighted by the crowning of this year's Spirit King and Queen. Candidates are freshman Cheryl Hoelting and Eric Wilhelm, sophomores Simona Schacher and Randy Hartman, juniors Loretta Book and Virgil Huseman, and seniors Dianne Schulte and Joe Hochstein.

The pep rally will be held at the football field. There will be no bonfire this year. Before and after tonight's pep rally, the NHS Student Council will serve a taco supper. Serving hours will be from 6 to 7:30, and after the pep rally until 9:30. Prices are $2.75 for adults and $1.75 for children.

A Band King, Band Queen and Homecoming Queen will all be crowned in ceremonies before the Homecoming game Friday night at Swift Field.

The band will crown its royalty at 7:30 p.m., and the Homecoming Queen will be announced and crowned at 7:45.

Candidates for Band Queen are Tammy Heck, Jeannie Wilhelm, Dorothy Wilhelm and Edith Durbin. Band King candidates are Francis Kern, Frank Wortham, Val Hatla and Damien Wilhelm.

Candidates for Homecoming Queen are freshman Liz Albracht, sophomore Tammy Heck, junior Karen Huseman and senior Joyce Schacher.

The Homecoming game at 8 p.m. will feature the Swifts Antelopes, with the Swifts favored to win.

The Homecoming Dance will be held after the game in the community hall, with Cross Fire providing live music. Admission price is $3 per person, and the dance is open to the public.

Area woman's program will be televised

A television special entitled "Friends" will be aired Tuesday at 5 p.m. over the Christian Broadcasting Network, Cable Channel 9.

The half-hour show was written and produced by Catherine Weinaug, sister of Mrs. Kent Birdwell of Dimmitt.

Mrs. Weinaug, who lives in Houston, writes children's books and programs.

In the show, a girl named Leslie has become lost in a forest while looking for someone to befriend her. She is being followed by two villains, Bilibious and Ghastly, who want to prevent her from finding the book (the Bible) that would lead her to God, "the best friend of all."

Puppets and child actors are used in the show, which has a theme of becoming friends with God and with each other.

The program was produced by Ministry to Children, Inc., a non-profit organization which hopes to make a Christian series to present Biblical truths in non-sectarian, contemporary style.

Mrs. Weinaug and Mrs. Birdwell were raised in Plainview. Their father, Hugh Tatum, lived in Dimmitt seven years until his death in 1953.

Mrs. Weinaug has just had a book published entitled "Puppet Parables . . . The White Lamb Adventure," aimed toward the 4-9 age level.

Museum group will meet tonight

The Castro County Historical Museum Association will hold its regular meeting tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 in the museum on West Halsell Street.

No one yet for alderman

Oct. 3 is the deadline for filing for the vacant post on the Dimmitt Board of Aldermen.

No one had filed for the post by Wednesday morning, city officials said.

The vacancy was created by the resignation of Alderman Joe Josselet, who stepped down to avoid conflict of interest after accepting a vice-president's position with the First State Bank.

Candidates are not required to circulate nomination petitions, City Manager Garnett Holland explained.

"All they have to do is come in and tell us they want to run, and we'll help them make out the application," he said.

The special election will be held on general election day, Nov. 4.

History book sales extended

Because of a delay at the press plant, the order deadline for the new Castro County History Book has been extended to Oct. 15.

The deadline for the huge volume of local history originally was this week, but the Historical Book Commission extended it when Taylor Publishing Co. announced a delay in the press schedule.

The history books cost $35 each, and only one edition will be printed.

Those wishing to order one may call the Castro County Museum at 647-2611, or contact Clara Vick at Cowser Abstract & Title Co.

The process the grant coming from windfall profits taxes.

Nathan Martin of the Dept. of Human Resources in Lubbock met with the commissioners last month requesting that the county implement the program locally. He added that if Castro County would not handle the program he would turn to the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission (Council of Governments) or to the Community Action Corp. for help.

The commissioners approved Al Maurer's motion to adopt the resolution drawn by County Judge M. L. Simpson asking that the Dept. of Human Resources implement the program because it "has a better understanding of the need of the individuals concerned."

In further action, the commissioners court: — Approved the purchase of the commissioners' court room of a Good-Air Ecologizer to remove smoke, odors, pollen and dust from the air.

— Approved Edd Wilson's motion to advertise for two bids on the purchase of two pickups, less their trade-ins from Precinct 2 and from the Extension Service.

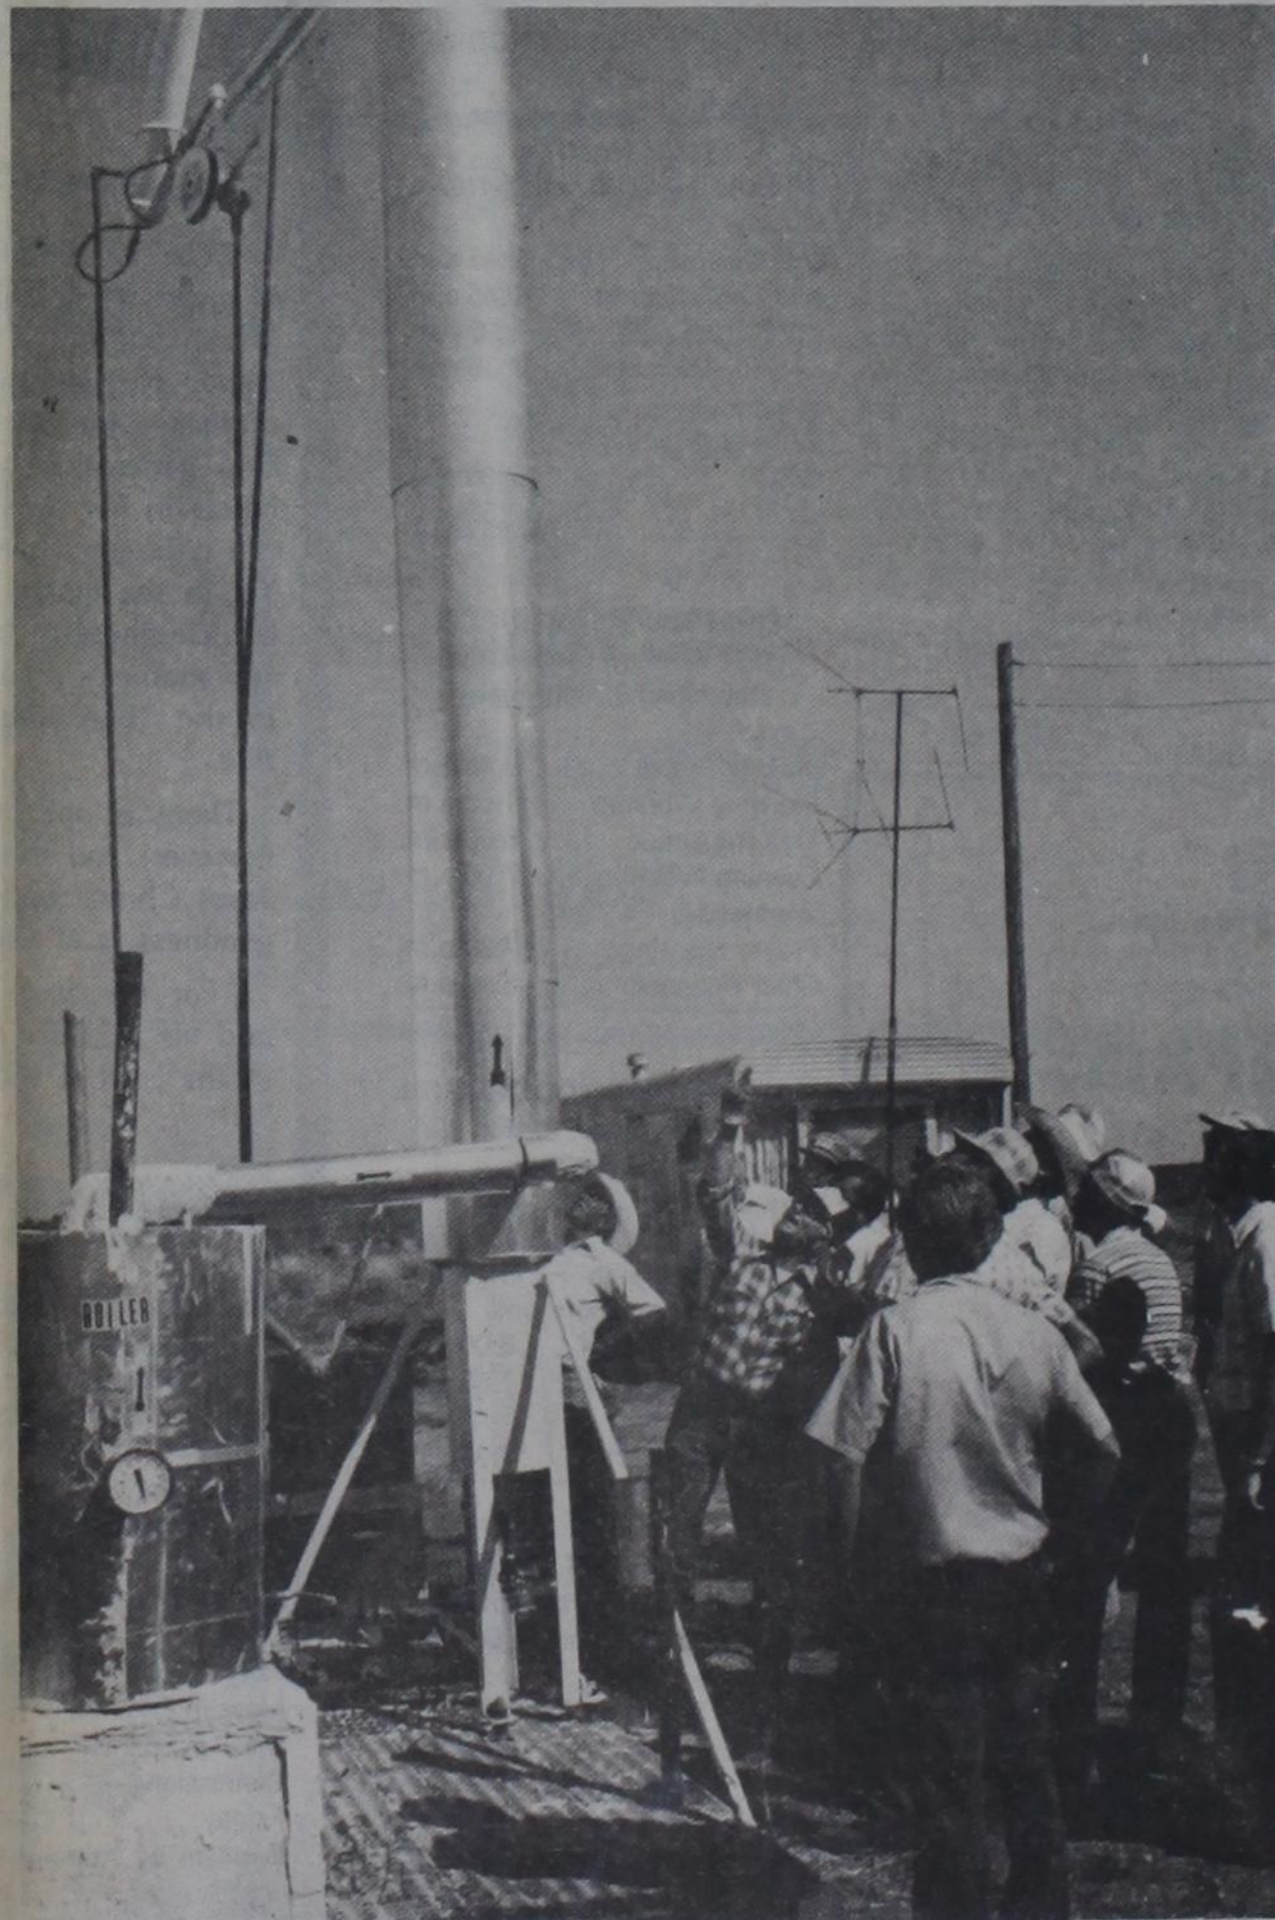

Grand Jury indicts six

A 242nd District Court Grand Jury indicted six persons Tuesday on felony charges ranging from DWI to felony theft.

The Grand Jury indicted Barty Jack Bartlett, 23, on a charge of theft over $200. Bartlett is accused of removing automotive parts from a storage area at Reeve-Fleming Chevrolet, Pontiac, on June 14.

Billie Joe Agee, 50, of Route 2, Hereford, was indicted on a charge of forgery by passing. She was arrested Sept. 10 on a charge of passing three forged checks at Taylor & Sons Grocery in Dimmitt, and with attempting to pass other bogus checks.

Indicted for felony DWI (second or subsequent offense) were Weldon Douglas Skipworth, 66, of Friona; Jessie C. Leyja, 40, of Dimmitt; Jesus Alaniz Alaniz, 51, of Hereford; and Gilberto Martinez, 31.

TOMORROW'S FUEL—During last Thursday's "Water and Energy Conservation" farm tour, Charles Richard [in checked shirt] explains the workings of a still which he and Trent Downing have built on the Downing's farm in Easter. The still produces fuel alcohol from corn. Richard said the fuel alcohol can replace both gasoline and gasohol as motor fuel, and that a carburetor has been designed to burn 100% fuel alcohol. Incidentally, this isn't the kind of alcohol a person would want to drink, Richard said.

Starting Friday, when you approach the intersection of Highway 194 and FM 168 at Hart, you'll have to stop — no matter which direction you're traveling.

The State Dept. of Highways and Public Transportation announced Friday that it had approved funds to modify the intersection, and that four-way stop signs would be installed this Friday.

Previously, drivers on the north-south FM 168 were required to stop at the intersection, while those traveling east or west on Highway 194 had "through" access.

Several Hart residents had requested that something be done to improve the safety at the intersection after W. T. Sanders of Hart was killed in a car-truck collision there Aug. 21. Hart residents also circulated petitions.

On behalf of the concerned Hart residents, County Attorney Jimmy Davis appealed to the district highway engineer by letter, and County Judge M. L. Simpson made aerial photos of the intersection to illustrate the problem.

"Many concerned residents believe that a speed limit of 50 or 55 mph is dangerous in this immediate vicinity," Davis said in his letter to the state highway department. "This is an area where there are several major grain elevators, retail businesses and dining facilities."

Davis relayed the Hart petitioners' request that either the speed limit be reduced near the intersection or four-way stop signs installed.

The state responded quickly, and announced that it preferred the four-way stop. The state department approved the modifications last Friday and ordered them to take effect this Friday.

Youth is hospitalized after pickup rollover

Two teenage boys "are lucky they're still alive," state troopers said, following a pickup accident Monday morning 17 miles southwest of Dimmitt on FM 1055.

The mishap occurred shortly after midnight at a curve in the paved farm road. DPS officers said the 1979

Other modifications at and near the intersection will include advance warning signs with amber flashing lights to alert motorists to the new stop condition, replacement of the present flashing lights with bouncing beacons, and some new pavement markings.

The Dept. of Highways and Public Transportation said crews will be working on the modifications during the coming week, and urged motorists to use caution when approaching the intersection.

Sarpalius will talk to Rotary

Bill Sarpalius of Hereford, Democratic nominee for the Texas Senate, will speak Friday to Dimmitt's Rotarians and their wives.

The luncheon meeting in the Colonial Inn dining room is open to all persons interested in hearing Sarpalius' remarks.

Sarpalius' opponent in the November general election, State Sen. Bob Price (R-Pampa), will speak to the Rotary Club the following Friday, Oct. 3. (The News erred in its last issue on the date when Sen. Price would address the club.)

Kiwanis sets banquet date

The Kiwanis Club of Dimmitt has set Thursday night, Oct. 9, as the date of its annual Installation Banquet.

The event will be in the Richardson Elementary School's east cafeteria, and will feature a catered buffet dinner.

Officers said the pickup skidded off the road and careened more than 400 feet. As it ran out of control it re-crossed the road, ran into a deep culvert and then went airborne, landing on its side. The young driver was thrown through the windshield when the pickup hit the ground, then the vehicle skidded another 40 feet, officers reported.

The driver was hospitalized with a broken shoulder blade, cuts and bruises. The passenger, who received cuts and abrasions, was treated and released at Plains Memorial Hospital.

"The driver said that when the pickup went into a skid he didn't know to steer into the skid, so he let go of the wheel," the investigating officer said. "Then later, he tried to hit the brake but hit the accelerator instead."

Heart board hears reports

The American Heart Association board last week heard reports from local and district spokesmen on programs designed to educate the public on heart care.

District 2 AHA Director Carolyn Moore of Lubbock announced that the Lubbock office has a supply of films that are available to schools, churches and other organizations wishing to use them.

Allan Bradley, director of nurses at Plains Memorial Hospital, reported that hospital personnel will teach cardio-pulmonary resuscitation (CPR) to school health classes this year.

Mrs. Bradley also discussed new heart-care equipment that the hospital needs.

Two new officers of the local board were present at last week's meeting. They were Danny Rice, new vice-president, and Jean Petty, new secretary.

Others present were Betty Huckabay, Beral Hance, Barbara Keel and Bruce De'Armond.

Brent Lemons helps host America's Cup tour group

By MYRTLE SHEFFY

On a recent Wednesday Ceal Carlile and I met my sisters Mrs. Roland Moore, Ethel Gillham of Claude and Mrs. Bower Sikes of Slaton at a cafe in Plainview, for dinner and a visit. And while there I talked with Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lemons of Plainview, formerly of Hart. Warren is Sonny Lemons' brother, who we see at South Hills Manor. And they are with the Central Savings and Loan Association. Mrs. Warren Lemons tells us their son Brent, a public relations manager for Alcoa Aluminum, is a host on the yacht "The Island Queen" this week. He is helping entertain the group watching the Americas cup yacht races off Nantucket Island - Brent is living at Palestine, Texas.

And as I walked out of the cafeteria, I talked with Jackie Powers. He is from Dimmitt and works at Goodpasture. He introduced me to Andri M Jaeggi, whose home is Switzerland. He is stationed in New York for four years but is going over the U.S. as a Service Engineer. Jackie is helping show him our area. And down the street we talked with Nora Lancaster and daughter Diane Bailey of Hart. I talked with all of these in an hours time at Plainview.

Leonard and Jimmie Schulte and sons Don and Bruce and their crew, who are Bob Hochstein and Frank Wilhelm are home from a long harvest trip. First they were at Chandler, Ariz. That was in May. They cut wheat there for two months, then to south Texas at Alice where the corn and milo were ready. Then on to Port Lavaca. While there Jimmie fell while coming out of the travel trailer, broke her ankle, is doing okay now. They did go fishing at Port Aransas, caught a lot of fish, had a good time and harvest. They all came home just ahead of Hurricane Allen.

and the Dunn brothers, Joe from Big Spring, Herbert and Mrs. from Levelland. They visited brother Coy and all made music Saturday night at South Hills Manor. Quite a crowd were out there. I saw Truman Cotton of Anton; Bob Copeland from Floydada and Wilton Graef of Hale Center. She has a new grand baby. Connie and Gene just happened to have pictures.

From Earth came Mr. and Mrs. Truman Stine and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Maxey and Eddie and Sherry Haydon from Sunnyside. They visited the Howard Bridges.

We saw many longtime friends at the golden wedding reception for Marie and Curtis Tate Sunday afternoon.

Such a beautiful table with floor length satin cloth, tall candelabra with golden flowers arranged in the top part. I met Peggy Tate and Shirley Tate DeWald who served the punch and cake. They are the daughters of (the former Jewell Tate, Curtis's brother.) Jewell's wife was there. She is Louise Tate. And the former Lorraine Tate, the sister of Curtis. I knew them when they were very young. Marie or Don Nelson will tell you about it.

Maurice and Grace Huffaker of Tahoka were Sunday guests of their daughter Leasa and John Thomas and Leah Beth, the pretty baby. John teaches math at middle school among other things.

Quite a few people plan to go to Ruidoso this weekend to see the "Mule Races." I hear they are fun, since they never know what the animal will do. I will try to tell you all about it next week.

I met Brent Henderson, the grown up son of Pat Tate and husband Ken Truelove, also the tall son of Jim and Judith Tate. His name is Tal.

The Senior Citizens Party time Tuesday evening was attended by 56 people with a big buffet supper and games of bridge, "42," "84," and others. All are happy to have Mae Cox back with us after her long illness.

We are all sorry to hear about W. B. Hammonds and Joe Scott's strokes. We wish them both well.

Lena Martin of Abernathy was in town last Tuesday to see the Scotts. She visited with Mrs. George Bradford and had dinner with Dorothy Elder.

Mrs. Noel Gollehon was the book club member responsible for the book review last week. Mrs. Carol Farris did the book about Harriet Paige Potter, as guest reviewer for Oleta.

Gary and Rhenea Webb are the parents of a new baby boy. His name is Kurt Matthew and he came Sept. 17 at 1 a.m. and is a nice big fellow. The grandparents are Carroll and Waldine Webb and Bob and Joy Baker. Waldine says they now have three grandsons, no girls yet.

Gladiola Shipley was hostess to the Friday Bridge Club with games and a good dinner with Jessie Silva and Wilda. Had good fudge cake for dessert. Guests were Carolyn Copeland, Betty Renfro, Josie Bradford, Bobbie Damron, Retta Cluck, Myrtle Sheffy and Betty Cartwright. Betty Renfro and Bobbie were high score winners.

Oleda Schumacher was hostess to the newest Bridge Club Thursday. The group had lunch at the Senior Citizens Center where they play. Jonnie Vannoy won high score, with Betty Cartwright coming in second. Others are Suzie Reeves, Emily Clingsmith, Faun Welker, Cleo Forson, and Elizabeth Huckabay.

Cleo is doing fine since her eye surgery for removal of a cataract two weeks ago at Lubbock.

My longtime friend Esther McRee is gone. She died Saturday after a long illness. I knew Esther at Eldorado and Carmel, Okla. many years ago, and next at the Flagg Community. The ranch sold out to settlers in 1926-27 or thereabouts. All the people went to church in the community building, and the different clubs where friends met to visit.

George and Gaylynn Copeland and girls Rachel and Renee of Lubbock came up one day for a visit with his mom Carolyn Copeland and granddad Leland Lee.

Daisy Langford is recuperating from recent surgery she had at Plains Memorial Hospital.

getting the corn harvested to go places. Next will be maize, then the cotton. We are thankful for the good crops in spite of the hot dry summer.

Floyd and Nell Copeland go to Ruidoso this week to winterize their house there. They stay in Dimmitt during the cold days. They saw the mule races last year, say they are fun.

Moss and Hattie Howell are here from Weatherford for a visit with sons Jimmy and Jack and families, also Hattie's brothers, Jim, George and Ivor and families.

At the Shoe Tree I met Gayleen Garrett of Plainview. Her husband Joe Bob and Rynta Paul are here for the corn harvest and later maize. His mother, Marguerite Garrett, has been here for a visit.

Carole Dyer and Mary Nell King were hostess at a get acquainted party on a recent Tuesday for Carol Schroeder, a teacher at Junior High - much visiting with coffee by teachers and neighbors in the Maple Street area. Carol and her husband Lyman Schroeder moved here this fall from Oklahoma. I didn't get the town. Lyman is a coach at Junior High School.

Sunday Carole and Goldman Dyer were hosts at a birthday dinner for six-year-old April Bennett of Hart. She is the first granddaughter, also the daughter of Harold Bob and Ruth, who were there, as were Joe Bob and Diane Sanders and babies, Cindy and Bernie Ford of Lockney.

Lynn and Brenda Buchanan and his mother Nora went to San Angelo last weekend to visit Lynn's brother Lee and both entered the Big Bass fish tournament. The fishing was in Nazworthy Lake with 218 men fishing and Lynn came in third with the most. His prize was three hundred dollars. Lee is with the fish and wildlife department there.

The twin sons of Lynn and Brenda, they are Brad and Cary, stayed here with grandmother LaVerne Bernethy.

Robert Rroehner, son of Nolan and Evie, was in town for a visit last week. Robert is currently in Fort Worth, having just completed a three-year residency in family practice at John Peter Smith Hospital, where he was chief resident during the last year. He is now practicing emergency medicine and has just joined the emergency department at Harris Hospital-Methodist in Fort Worth. He said he had come home for some of Evie's good peas and cornbread so he wouldn't suffer from withdrawal symptoms.

Sunday night the Froehners met Dr. and Mrs. Jim Burleson of Dumas for dinner in Amarillo. Robert went home with them for a brief visit before flying back to Fort Worth. Robert is a doctor of medicine and a very good musician. He did the special music at the morning worship at the Methodist Church, "Largo" from Xerxes, on the saw with background organ music. He also accompanied the choir with the organ.

What joy in life is seen in those eyes. That smile is given freely to everyone. Now look at them both. Which one am I talking about? Aren't they both the same? No, she's not an exact, carbon copy, of her mother - for when you look again, you see that there is a generation between them. She wears the bright colors in her dress with the cute designs. Her dreams are different than her mothers. She is more outgoing. Yet in the mother you can see a quiet humor and in her closeness to her daughter, a gentle protectiveness. Her mother's dreams are sometimes too ambitious, but in the "Encouragement Department" she works just fine.

There is one dream and ambition they both have, however; and that is to be like our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and to be of service to the church. Their goodness is of God.

"For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil." I Peter 3:12.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE
The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

IRRIGATION EFFICIENCY TEST—Standing near an irrigation well and ditch on the Bart Kaderly farm west of Dimmitt, those taking the "Water and Energy Conservation Farm Tour" last Thursday hear Dr. Leon New, Extension irrigation specialist, summarize the testing procedures for determining the efficiency of a pump. Field tests are available now with the use of equipment furnished by the Soil Conservation Service. With electronic monitoring equipment hooked up to Kaderly's well, Dr. New explained that draw-down and air are two major factors that affect fuel consumption and optimum efficiency of a well.

Seedling trees now available

Applications are now being accepted for windbreak seedlings from the Texas Forest Service. These seedlings, grown from seed collected in West Texas and eastern New Mexico, are produced in the state's greenhouse in Lubbock and in a field nursery near Halfway. Conifer species available this season include Austrian pine, ponderosa pine, Arizona cypress and red cedar. These containerized seedlings cost $1 each and are sold in multiples of 30 seedlings only. Hardwood species include honey locust, mulberry, native plum, Russian olive, and sawtooth oak. These bare root seedlings are priced at $20 per hundred. Seedlings ordered now will be ready for pickup and planting in March 1981. Trees sold by the Texas Forest Service may not be used for landscaping or ornamental purposes. For applications and information on windbreaks, contact the Texas Forest Service, Route 3, Box 216, Lubbock, 79401, (806) 746-5801. Applications also are available from the county offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, Soil Conservation Service, and extension agents.

WINTER PASTURES VITAL
Winter pastures could really give a lift to beleaguered livestock producers this year, says a forage specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Due to lack of warm-season grazing, producers must try to develop winter pastures to ease feed bills this fall and winter. Keys to successful winter pastures include good seedbed preparation, early planting and a good fertility program.

Social Security in Castro County
By JANICE ULMER

In 1977, Congress enacted several amendments to the Social Security Act. One of the most controversial of these amendments concerns government pension offset. This could affect anyone who receives a federal, state or local pension based on his or her government employment, which is not covered by Social Security. The Social Security Act requires that under specific conditions a social security benefit based on his or her spouse's earnings record will be reduced dollar-for-dollar by the amount of the government pension.

The important word here is SPOUSE. This offset provision does not apply to social security benefits received as the result of work on one's own record. Furthermore, Congress included an exception in this amendment. If a person is eligible for (whether or not a pension is received) or receiving a government pension any month from December 1977 through November 1982, and this person meets the entitlement factors for a spouse's benefit as they were interpreted in January 1977, the offset does not apply. For example, Mary Jones is a teacher who qualifies for a teacher retirement benefit in October 1982. Mrs. Jones doesn't retire until 1989 when she is 62 years old and her husband, Harry, decides to retire and draw his social security. Mary's social security wife's benefit will not be offset by the amount of her teacher retirement pension because she was eligible for that pension between December 1977 and November 1982, even though she did not take it. She also meets the social security requirements for wife's benefits as they were in January 1977. One final note: If Mary had not been eligible for teacher's retirement until January 1983,

TRS counseling session planned
Individual retirement counseling for Amarillo area members of the Teacher Retirement System who plan to retire in 1981 will be conducted Oct. 29 and 30 at the Holiday Inn in Amarillo. Deadline for scheduling an appointment is Oct. 3. Counselors will have a complete retirement estimate for each member at the meeting and will be able to discuss the retirement options available and application procedures. The area counseling program, scheduled for 26 locations across the state this year, brings professional retirement counseling close to each TRS member.

Longhorns use big plays to down Swifts, 26-0

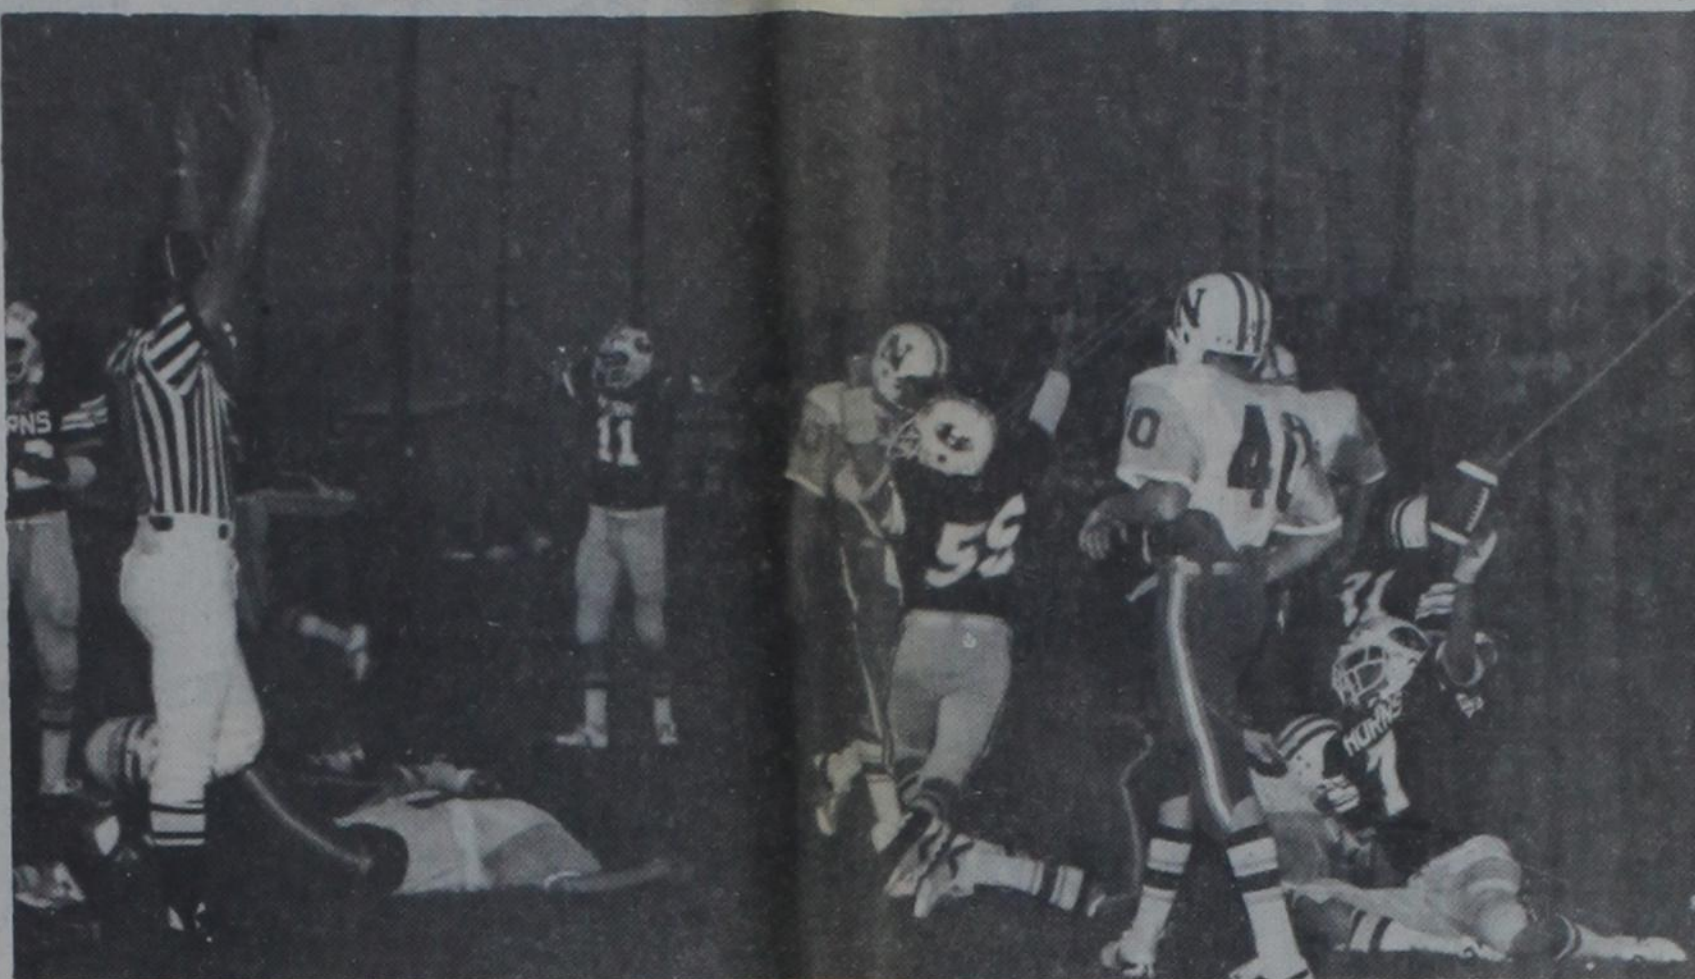

With the word REVENGE taped across the fronts of their helmets, the Hart Longhorns used big plays on their home field Friday night to blank Nazareth's Swifts, 26-0, in the annual Castro County shootout.

There wasn't that much difference between the two teams, though. Hart made the big plays that counted, but Nazareth gained more yardage on the ground (202-188) and made more first downs (16-12). And Nazareth's premier running back, Bryan Huseman, made his presence known as he gained 162 tough yards on 35 carries to lead in the individual rushing department.

passing attack and their stifling pass defense were major factors in the contest. They hardly used their passing game, but when they did it was gangbusters time. Quarterback Derek Rich completed two or three — both to Chad Black — for a whopping 137 yards, one TD and one set-up.

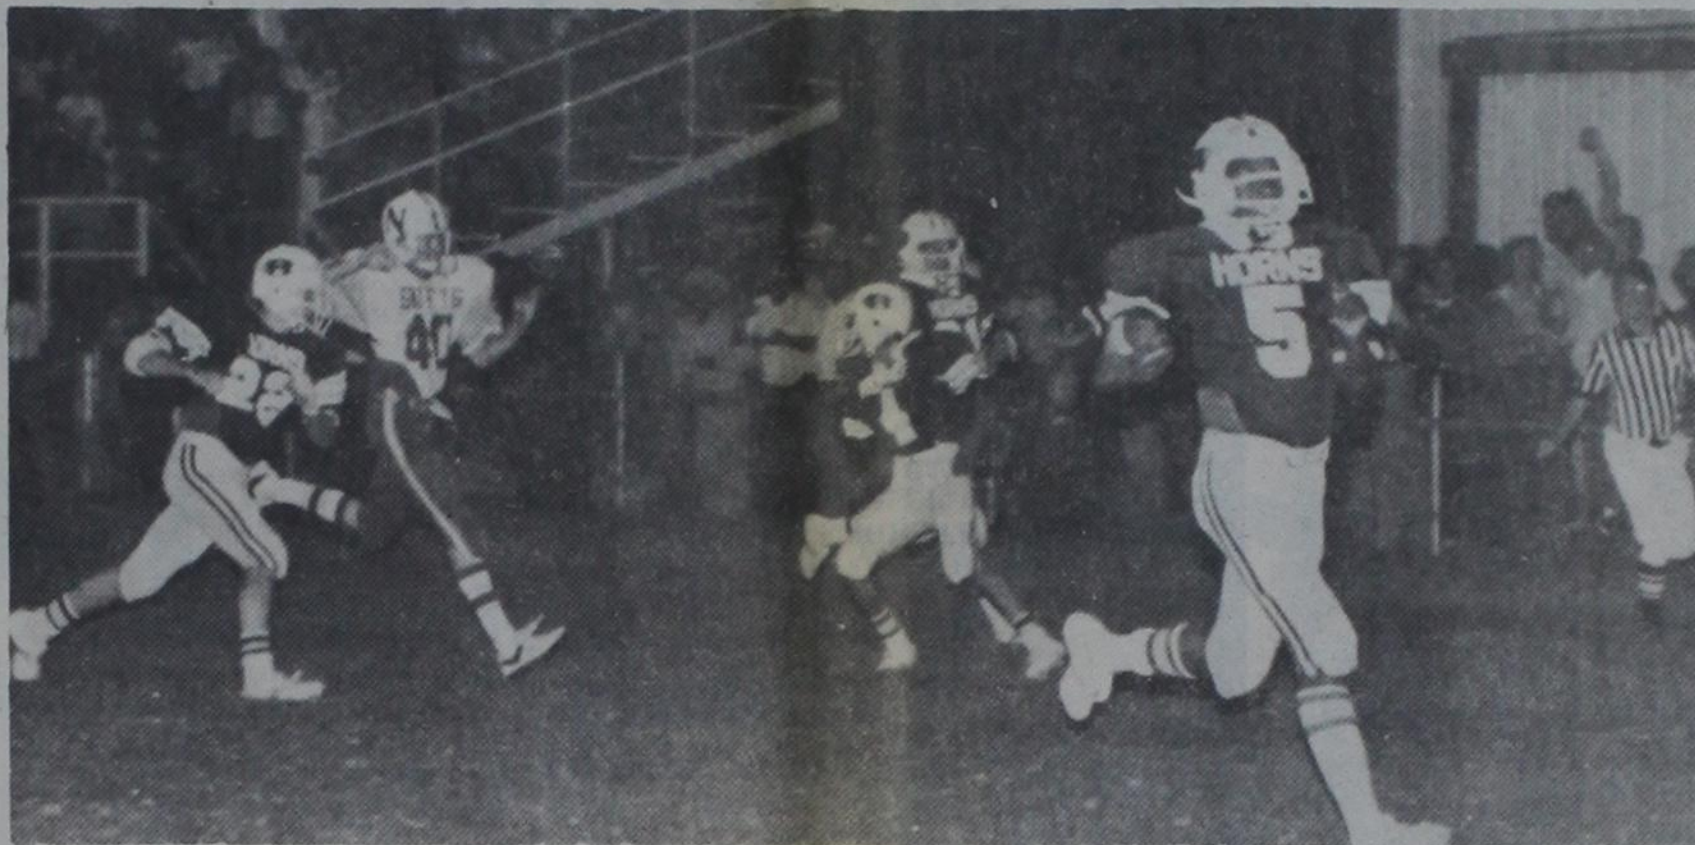

Meanwhile, the Longhorn secondary picked off two of Nazareth's six passes, and held the Swifts to 31 yards on three completions.

Another major factor had to be that Hart now has the head coach — Eddie Hooper — who guided the Swifts to a 7-0 victory in last year's Castro County shootout. NHS Coach Bruce Bagnall and his Swifts had to feel that no matter

TOUCHDOWN NO. 1—Hart tailback Isaias Ponce [7, far right] pulls himself up and joyfully raises the ball into the air after scoring Hart's first touchdown against Nazareth Friday night. Meanwhile, the referee signals the TD and Ponce's teammates, Danny Rodriguez [55] and Derek Rich [11] jump with joy. In foreground is Nazareth's Wayne Backus [40]. The TD came on Hart's third play from scrimmage.

TOUCHDOWN NO. 3—Hart's Leonard Washington races across the goal line on a 47-yard scoring run in the Longhorns' game against the Nazareth Swifts Friday night. Washington's long-strike TD came on a second-and-25 play with 7:33 left in the third quarter. Hart followed with a two-point conversion to hike its lead to 20-0, then tacked on a fourth touchdown in the final period for a 26-0 victory.

weaving and dodging toward the opposite sideline. The speedy Longhorn back picked up a trio of blockers, broke several tackles as he angled upfield, and didn't stop running until he was in Nazareth's end zone with Hart's fourth TD.

The PAT kick was again blocked, leaving the Longhorns with a 26-0 advantage with 14 seconds remaining in the third period.

Early in the fourth, a key interception by Hart's Phillip Hawkins — his first of the season — turned back another Nazareth drive and gave the Longhorns possession.

After driving for two first downs, the Longhorns fumbled and the Swifts took advantage of the miscue. Starting from their own 33, the Swifts began to march down the field. Behind good blocking from Lester Backus, Neal Hoelting and Joe Hochstein, B. Huseman again started to ramble. But on fourth down and four from the Horns' 11-yard line, Schulte was sacked by Joe Portillo to end any hopes of the Swift scoring.

The Longhorns ran with little time was left off the clock to preserve a hard fought 26-0 victory. With the win, the Horns upped the record to 2-0-1, while the Swifts saw their record fall to 1-2.

 Librarian

What is one of the most popular questions at the library?

Is it about a new, intriguing best seller? No.

Is it about one of our new services? No.

Might it concern some highly sophisticated work of literature that has just come out? No.

Just listen up folks, and you'll hear what your kids are up to.

One of the most popular questions at the library is, "Do you have any jobs there?" We get that question sometimes nine or 10 times a week through both winter and summer. The questioning parties are age 8 through 17.

It isn't that we don't have the work. We do. There are basketfuls of cards that need to be filed. There are dictionaries of words that need to be typed. There are yards and yards of book shelves that need to be checked. Yet everything has to be done in a specific and ordered way.

One of the things libraries are supposed to do is to keep things orderly so items can be found easily. Anybody who works in a library, therefore, should have his or her head together. One also has to be able to read. These two things alone disqualify most youthful applicants. Twenty percent of the applicants are not very good at either one.

Since libraries strive to be more or less uniform for convenience sake, they demand that one learn the intricate organization procedures.

All the applicants note that working conditions must be tops in a library. They are. It's quiet, cool in the summer, warm in the winter, and there are no manual or heavy jobs to do. However, it must be also mentioned that library work is repetitious, and sometimes downright boring.

These are the characteristics of life in a library. You might pass them down to your younger set if they mention a "library" job.

what tricks they tried, their mail had already been opened.

The Longhorns wasted no time in unleashing their big plays. After the Swifts ran three plays and punted, the Horns took over at their own 44. On Hart's first play from scrimmage, Rich found Black behind the Swift defense and threw a perfect strike.

Black gathered in the ball at the Swifts' 30-yard line and ran it down to the 6 before being hauled down.

Two plays later, tailback Isaias Ponce carried over from the 3 behind good blocking from Black, Augie Perez, Abel Reyna, Danny Rodriguez, Benny McLain and Roy Martinez. The PAT kick was blocked, and with 9:19 still left in the first quarter, the Longhorns led, 6-0.

As the second quarter unfolded, the Swifts used a perfectly placed punt to force the Horns back to their own 1-yard line. For two plays the Swifts stifled the Longhorns in the shadow of their own posts, but on a crucial third-and-eight play, Ponce broke through left tackle and rambled 17 yards for a Longhorn first down at the 20.

Then, on the next play, Rich and Black did their long-bomb act again. Black broke behind the defense, Rich's pass was right on target, and the speedy end never broke stride as he hauled in the aerial at the 50 and raced untouched for the score. A two-point conversion run failed, and with 7:08 left in the half, the Longhorns owned a 12-0 lead.

The rest of the second half belonged to the Swifts. After Hugh Wilhelm returned Hart's kickoff to the 17, the Swifts put together an impressive 81-yard march. Of the 19 consecutive plays that the Swifts ran in this longest drive of the night, Bryan Huseman carried on 11 of them, gaining 61 yards — including four straight carries for 22 yards midway in the march.

But as the march progressed goalward, the Swifts had to battle the clock as well as Hart's stiffening defense. The Swifts used all their time-outs and were on Hart's 2-yard line when they ran their final play of the half. Danny Rodriguez threw B. Huseman for a one-yard loss as the clock ran out, and Hart still owned its 12-0 lead.

The second half opened with Nazareth kicking off. Unable to move the ball, the Longhorns were forced to punt. Taking over on their own 36-yard line, the Swifts' Hugh Wilhelm raced around right end for 11 yards and a first down. Three plays later, Swift QB Calvin Schulte threw downfield, but Longhorn safety Clay Barnes intercepted and returned it 25 yards to the Swifts' 35. After two five-yard penalties and a QB sack, the Horns faced a second down and long. That's when HB Leonard Washington found a crease up the middle, cut back to his left and scampered 47 yards for the third Longhorn touchdown. TB Daniel Guzman ran for the two points to push the count to 20-0 with 7:33 remaining in the third quarter.

After several possession changes, the Swifts punted from their own 30. The ball took a somewhat crazy bounce, Ponce grabbed it going away, then started

Bobcats win, 6-0, over error-prone River Road

By JOHN BROOKS
Even Norman Rockwell couldn't have reproduced the smile affixed to Dimmitt Head Coach Wayne Garner's face Friday night.

He looked like one of the finalists in the 1980 Pepsodent Talent Search.

And so did the rest of the team.

The Dimmitt Bobcats were able to turn a River Road turnover deep in Wildcat territory into the only score of the night in taking a 6-0 win over the north Amarillo school.

River Road used the power running of Bill Martin to rack up a sizeable statistical lead in the game (204-131 in yardage, 12-6 in first downs), but was beset by five 15-yard penalties and six untimely turnovers.

Dimmitt was more effective with its inside game Friday night than in the first two outings. In fact, the Bobcats didn't run the outside veer option until late in the first half. The Bobcats completed but one pass in five attempts, a 15-yarder from Richard Guzman to Fermin Gonzales.

The Bobcats opened the game with a brisk 30 mph wind in their faces. After Tim Lay picked up 15 yards in two rushes, the Cats found the running rough, and Ricky Gonzales was forced to punt on the sixth play of the game.

The into-the-wind kick traveled only 26 yards, giving the Wildcats good field position at their own 40.

But on first down, the Bobcats forced their 16th turnover of the season as quarterback Pat Rogers misconnected on a handoff. Fermin Gonzales fell on the pigskin at the River Road 36. The Bobcats opted to throw on first down, but safety Gary Pavelich ranged back and intercepted the pass at the Wildcat 7.

On first down, fullback Martin rambled for eight yards, but tackle Trent Armstrong knocked him loose from the ball. Armstrong fell on the ball, setting up the Bobcats for a 15-yard scoring drive.

Lay picked up six yards on first down, running off-tackle on the right side. On second down, the Bobcats ran the same play on the other side, giving the ball to Adrian Stanton. Stanton ran untouched through a gaping hole for the only touchdown of the night. The snap for the extra point try was fumbled, and the Bobcats claimed the lead at 6-0 with 7:23 left in the first quarter.

The game was highlighted by a big-play Dimmitt defense and a big-penalty River Road offense. River Road was whistled for 80 yards in penalties, including four holding calls that offset completed passes, and an ineligible-receiver call in the fourth quarter at the Dimmitt 19 that forced the Wildcats to turn the ball over on downs.

The Wildcats were given a golden scoring chance late in the first quarter when they recovered a Dimmitt fumble at the Bobcat 29. But the teams decided to play hot-potato with the football again, as Fermin Gonzales covered tailback Lynn King's fumble at the 31 and the Bobcats were intercepted at the 34 three plays later. As the first quarter ended, River Road was forced to punt after the first of four holding penalties negated a pass completion from Rogers to split end Gary Webb at the Dimmitt 13.

The two teams engaged in a punting clinic in the second quarter. Each team punted twice in the period. River Road also showed a foretaste of offense to come with the outside option play. From the split-backs set, Rogers deftly pitched out to Martin, who racked up 52 first-half yards, and to Jerry Reynolds, who carried eight times for 21 yards, including 17 yards on five carries in the second stanza.

Dimmitt was presented another chance deep in the first half when a Duke Sanders punt carried only 12 yards into the wind, setting up the Bobcats at the River Road 49. But the Wildcat defense allowed the Bobcats only eight yards, and took over at the River Road 41 in the last minute of the half. River Road used its three first-half time-outs to move to the Dimmitt 26, but, with seven seconds left in the half, linebacker Sid Sageser picked off a Rogers pass to kill River Road's scoring chance.

In the first half, Dimmitt gained but three first downs, including the touchdown. Guzman was 0-3 passing, and the ground game gained but 43 yards.

River Road, meanwhile, had 94 first-half yards, 81 of them on the ground, and six first downs.

River Road moved the ball effectively against the Dimmitt defense in the third period, mixing up Rogers' passes to ends Sanders and Webb with option pitches to Martin and Reynolds. But the Wildcats were their own worst enemies. Two holding calls inside Dimmitt territory eventually led to punts. Dimmitt, meanwhile, was beset by dropped Guzman passes and an anemic running attack. It took a defensive gem by Ricky Gonzales after his brother, Fermin, had just missed two interceptions to keep the Wildcats at bay. Rogers had moved the Wildcats to the Dimmitt 33 when he found wide receiver Webb open at the 20. As the pass arrived, so did Ricky.

Gonzales and Webb fought for the ball, and Gonzales finally ended up with it as the third quarter ended.

the wind at its back — completed its only pass of the night, a 15-yarder to Fermin Gonzales.

ADRIAN STANTON gets all the running room he needs — plus a whole lot more — as he breaks through the line and races nine yards for Dimmitt's winning touchdown at River Road Friday night. Bobcats win ... wins women's

Reynolds gaining good outside yardage. But it was the big mistake that finally did the Wildcats in, with the ineligible-downfield call spelling their doom.

The Bobcats appeared to have done River Road in on first down when they went to their bag of tricks. Split end Fermin Gonzales got the call on an end-around, going to the Wildcat 35 — a 42-yard scamper — with just over one minute to play. But the next play, Stanton fumbled to the Wildcats.

However, Dimmitt's defenders went to the well again. Rogers was dropped for a five-yard loss and Reynolds lost one yard, forcing the Wildcats to throw. A Rogers pass against the brisk breeze was short, and Martin was stopped after a gain of four yards.

The Bobcats dropped to the ground with the ball, ending the game and giving them their first win, 6-0.

The Bobcats face another new opponent Friday night as they return home to play Frenship High School of Wolfforth.

Frenship returns two members of last year's regional champion sprint relay team in quarterback Pat

Gaston and halfback Johnny Johnson.

The Tigers run from the veer formation. They have had good success on the ground, but have suffered in the passing department. In last week's game with Lorenzo, they completed but one pass in several tries while falling, 13-8.

The Tigers have a 1-2 record (same as Dimmitt's) and have faced a common opponent in Floydada. The Tigers dropped an 8-0 decision to the Whirlwinds. They won their season opener against Denver City.

For the Bobcats, two-way end Chevo Ortiz is doubtful after suffering an ankle injury against River Road. Linebacker John Laurent, who missed the last two games with a shoulder injury, is expected to return.

Game time is 8 p.m. Friday at Bobcat Stadium.

7A rolls to 38-16 victory

Dimmitt's 7A football team rolled to a 38-16 victory over Plainview Coronado White last Thursday to hike its season record to 2-0.

Every member of the seventh grade "A" squad saw action in the game, which was played at Plainview.

Mark Smothermon scored Dimmitt's first three touchdowns, all in the first quarter. He raced 45 yards for the first, returned a pass interception 30 yards for the second and broke loose on a 30-yard run for the third.

Then Woody Glass got into the act, scoring still another first-quarter Dimmitt touchdown on a 10-yard run. When the first quarter ended, Dimmitt owned a 24-8 lead.

Plainview notched another TD and two-point conversion in the second to make the halftime score 24-16.

Dimmitt extended its lead in the third as Glass scored on a 15-yard TD run and Smothermon added a two-point conversion run. Glass got Dimmitt's final TD in the fourth with a 20-yard run to make the final margin 38-16.

Glass on offense and Smothermon on defense were listed as the game's top players.

Dimmitt's 7A team will host Frenship today (Thursday) in its first home game. Kickoff time is 5 p.m. at Bobcat Stadium.

Shottenkirk wins women's championship

Audrey Shottenkirk won the Castro County Country Club ladies' golf championship Saturday and Sunday with a score of 85-90 — 175.

First flight winner was Mozelle Lilley with a low net of 94-85 — 179.

In the second flight, Bobby George was first with 97-92 — 189, while Jo Hamilton won low net with a 99-94 — 193.

The tournament was sponsored by the Ladies Golf Association. Membership is open to all interested women. Members of the association are now making plans for their fall and winter events at the Country Club.

8A wins, 30-0 over Plainview

Dimmitt's 8A football team, which had sputtered to a 6-6 tie with Hale Center in its first game, got it all together last Thursday in a big 30-0 victory over Plainview Coronado White.

"This was the best this team has ever played," Junior High Coach Jerry Durham said afterward.

Dimmitt started its scoring binge on its first offensive play, when end Doug Nelson hauled in a halfback pass from Nathan Nelson and raced to paydirt on a play that covered 25 yards. Michael Love ran a two-point conversion, and Dimmitt's 8-0 lead stood throughout the first period.

On the first play of the second quarter, quarterback Steven Bagley capped a 20-yard drive by racing four yards into the end zone for Dimmitt's second TD. Nathan Nelson ran the two-point conversion.

Fullback Darrell Washington made the longest scoring run of the game later in the second as he raced 31 yards for Dimmitt's third TD. Bagley passed to Nathan Nelson for a two-point conversion, and Dimmitt led by 24-0 at halftime.

The game's final score came in the third period when halfback Ray Cameron raced eight yards to paydirt, capping a 40-yard drive. The extra-point attempt failed.

The victory hiked the 8A team's record to 1-0-1.

Listed as Dimmitt's top defensive players were Darrell Washington, Nathan Nelson, Jimmy Thomas, Ignacio Sifuentes and Steven Hightower.

Pacing the Dimmitt offense were Doug Nelson, Greg Sava, Ray Cameron, Steven Bagley and Darrell Washington.

The team will play its first home game today (Thursday) when it hosts Frenship at 7 p.m. at Bobcat Stadium.

One of the problems faced by any farmer keeping laying hens may be solved as the result of new processing a marketing research recently completed in New York State. The problem is the insignificant market value a hen has after her laying days are over. Traditionally, its only been about five or ten cents a pound. Now researchers say they have developed a processing method where a tough old bird becomes a likely candidate for a chicken burger. Frozen Minced Chicken was sold successfully in a test-marketing drive in two areas of New York at prices comparable to hamburger. Promoters of the minced chicken say it can become the main ingredient in dishes such as: chicken tacos, chicken noodle casseroles, chicken burgers and chicken chili. It could also be an important ingredient in increased profits for our egg producers.

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Richard Book are now at home in Houston, following their recent wedding in the Holy Family Church of Nazareth.

The bride is the former Becky Sue Hand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hand of Denison, Iowa, formerly of Dimmitt. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George H. Book of Nazareth.

A Dimmitt High School graduate, the bride attended Texas A&M University and will attend the University of Houston.

The groom is a graduate of Nazareth High School and the Spartan School of Aeronautics in Tulsa, Okla. He is employed by Texas International Airlines in Houston.

Their double-ring, formal wedding ceremony was performed by Father Stanley Crocchiola, assisted by Deacon Jerome Brockman, the groom's uncle.

Maid of honor was LaDonna Brockman of Nazareth, cousin of the groom. Bridesmaids were Kelly, Gayle and Loretta Book of Nazareth, sisters of the groom, and Barbara Marshall of Dallas.

Tony Brockman of Nazareth, the groom's cousin, served as best man. Groomsmen were Larry Hand of College Station, brother of the bride; Nick Book of Plainview and Gary Book of Nazareth, brothers of the groom; and Kenny Brockman of Nazareth, cousin of the groom.

Ushers were Ed Sandoval of Houston; Greg Miller of Bryan; and the groom's brothers-in-law, Sidney Birkenfeld of Nazareth and Steve Koch of Grapevine.

Teresa Brockman of Nazareth, cousin of the groom, was the candlelighter, and Joshua Book of Nazareth, the groom's brother, was the ring bearer. Flower girl was Julie Mumme of Hondo.

Deanne Clark of Dimmitt, organist, and Roger Rohlf of Denison, Iowa, French hornist, performed the professional and recessional. Rohlf also performed "Legend of the Hills" during Communion. Vocal soloist was Pat Brockman, who sang "Ave Maria," "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," and "Wedding Song."

The bride and groom were escorted and presented to each other by their parents.

The bride wore a dress of white organza. Bishop sleeves accompanied the U-shaped neckline that was trimmed in raschel lace. The skirt had a tapered, pleated center panel, and the cathedral train included a full lace panel. The skirt was edged in Chantilly lace. Her veil had white Chantilly lace and baby seed pearls covering the Juliet cap, and from the cap flowed the chapel-length, double-lace veiling. Her bouquet was white roses surrounded with pastel carnations in the colors worn by the bridesmaids.

The bride's attendants wore

Each wore a different pastel shade — apricot, lavender, yellow, pink and blue. Short white eyelet capes were worn over the shoulders. Each bridesmaid carried a bouquet of white long-stemmed silk rose and forget-me-nots tied with a bow in the color to match her dress.

The wedding reception was held in the Nazareth American Legion Hall, with Leanne Crozier of Dimmitt registering the guests. Amy Merritt, Donna Schilling, Lynna McGuire and Gainell Minnick served cake and punch from a table that was centered by a floral arrangement in a silver wine cooler. Also, finger sandwiches were served from a silver award tray. The wine cooler and tray belonged to the bride's brother, and had been presented to him upon winning the Outstanding Showman award at the Little Southwestern Livestock Show at Texas A&M.

Following their wedding trip to Lubbock and Houston, the newlyweds are making their home at 8500 Broadway, Apt. 216, Houston, 77061.

Young Homemakers' goals are mainly educational

The Dimmitt Young Homemakers chapter was formed exclusively for educational purposes with particular reference to the area of homemaking as follows:

- To develop skills and gain information on new and improved methods of homemaking and keep informed on matters affecting people engaged in homemaking.
- To develop a deeper understanding of the home and its influence upon the community.
- To plan and carry out activities designed to improve our home and community life.
- To provide wholesome social and recreational activities.
- To become better acquainted with the products and information of consumer trends.
- To plan and carry out a program for recognizing and honoring local members and others for outstanding achievements.
- To support the Future Homemakers of America and other groups working for the improvement of homemaking.
- To maintain the spiritual values of the home.
- To encourage democracy in home and community life.

It's an active group

Dimmitt Young Homemakers have held two regular meetings this month. A cancer program and film presentation was given by the local chapter of the American Cancer Society. The hostess gift from the club's kitchenware party was given to the high school homemaking department.

The club will have two parties this year and a joint Awards Banquet with the Dimmitt Young Farmers.

Annually, the women's club hears an AFS foreign exchange student, participates in the Halloween Carnival, walks for the March of Dimes and helps with other charitable campaigns. Each Christmas, DYH helps to decorate South Hills Manor, sets up decorations on the county courthouse lawn and has home tours.

Other programs planned by the club concentrate on education and on learning crafts.

Young Homemakers of Texas Week

OFFICERS of the Dimmitt Young Homemakers this year are (from left) Cindy Ellis, president; Joyce Wright, first vice-president; Judy Damron, secretary; Teresa Parsons, treasurer; Betty Hoover, reporter, and Debbie Annen, parliamentarian.

Not pictured is Rita McDaniel, second vice-president. The Young Homemakers meet the first and third Thursdays of each month in the Dimmitt High School homemaking lab.

Style show highlights week

Dimmitt Young Homemakers and Future Homemakers of America invite the public to attend their joint "Fall Fashions" style show Sunday at 3 p.m. in the Dimmitt High School auditorium.

Cooperating in the style show will be the Perfect Fit, the Village Shop and the Shoe Tree. Models will include members of both DYH and FHA.

The affair is one of several events being held during Young Homemakers of Texas Week. The women's club had a bake sale earlier this week and presently has a special window display at the Village Shop.

Young Homemakers' Creed

The creed of YHT says, "We the Young Homemakers of Texas seek to strengthen the bonds of family with knowledge, love, understanding and faith in God, in order that our homes may be established in the firm foundation of our community, state, nation and the world, upholding the right of each individual to dream, to work and to assume the privileges and responsibilities of the democratic way of life."

DYH meets twice a month

Dimmitt Young Homemakers meet on the first and third Thursdays each month of the regular school year in the high school homemaking lab at 7 p.m. The next meeting will be Oct. 2, with a program - "Women in the World."

The local chapter serves the area of the Dimmitt Independent School District and has as its sponsors the high school homemaking teachers, Joanne Snider, Estella Hotel and Pat Bagley.

Any person interested in homemaking not enrolled in high school and not over 35 years of age is eligible to become an active member of Dimmitt Young Homemakers.

BRYAN HUSEMAN [30], Nazareth's premier power runner, picks up a first down at the Hart 31-yard line in the second quarter of Friday night's Longhorn-Swift shootout. Although the Swifts lost, 26-0, Huseman was the game's leading ground-gainer with 162 yards on 35 carries. This run kept alive a drive that continued to the Hart 2-yard line before time ran out for the Swifts in the first half. Other identifiable players are Hart's Joe Portillo [41], Benny McLain [61], Danny Rodriguez [55], Daniel Guzman [4] and Guy Scoggins [62], and Nazareth's Calvin Schulte [12].

ISAIAS PONCE, Hart's elusive tailback, makes a big 18-yard gain to get the Longhorns out of a bad situation in the second quarter of Friday night's Hart-Nazareth game. The Longhorns were facing third-and-eight from their own 3-yard line when Ponce broke this run up the middle. On the next play, quarterback Derek Rich and end Chad Black pulled their patented "long bomb" pass play for an 80-yard touchdown strike. Although he played with a painful knee, Ponce was Hart's leading rusher with 74 yards in 11 carries, and scored two of the Longhorns' four TD's. Other identifiable players are Hart's Chad Black [31] and Nazareth's Virgil Huseman [20] and Calvin Schulte [12].

Pickup overturns Sunday evening

A local man escaped serious injury when his pickup overturned at 8:30 p.m. Sunday 12 miles northwest of Dimmitt on FM 1057.

Dept. of Public Safety troopers reported that Benito Aranda Ortega was driving north when his 1967 Ford pickup ran off the right side of the road. Ortega overcorrected while steering the pickup back onto the pavement, officers said, and the vehicle ran back across the road, went airborne and overturned when it hit the ground. The mishap caused moderate damage to the vehicle, officers said.

Make time for self

By TERESA L. CRISWELL County Extension Agent

A man's home may be his castle, but for his working wife the house can be a monumental burden. After an eight-hour day at office, factory or store, the average working wife returns home for another one or two hours of housework. Finding time and energy for these responsibilities is a major concern for today's two-career woman.

The solution is applying principles of industrial efficiency to household chores. Use the same efficiency methods at home as you use on the job.

—Delegate responsibility. Make your family aware of the demands placed on you and ask them to share the housework. If they don't sympathize immediately, make a list of all things you have to do on a given day and ask them to do likewise. Compare lists.

—Learn to say "no." Saying no to a boss or associate may be easier than turning down a daughter or husband, but sometimes this must and should be done. The word no used promptly, properly and with courtesy can avoid serious conflicts. If you can't say no, look for short cuts. If your daughter asks you on short notice to make a new dress for a party, propose a quickly made skirt instead.

—Organize your home as efficiently as your office, keeping housework tools where they do the most good. Have tools and supplies at point of use even if it means duplicating items.

—A To-Do list with which to start each day is an effective home management tool. Each Sunday, list household chores that have to be accomplished that week. If several errands have to be run, organize them geographically so you're not wasting time covering a territory more than once.

—Cut overwhelming household chores to a manageable size by doing small tasks every day. Instead of devoting Saturdays to housecleaning, do a few chores each morning or evening. For instance, sweep the carpet before you go to work, put laundry in the washer during a favorite evening TV program.

Stephenville. The family provided enough birthday cakes and punch that all other residents of the nursing home could help celebrate the occasion, too.

C. W. Boothe turns 100

"A hundred years is a long time," C. W. Boothe commented as he started his second century last Thursday. Relatives and friends gathered in the dining room of South Hills Manor to help the pioneer Dimmitt grain dealer celebrate his birthday. Mr. Boothe has lived in Dimmitt for 52 of his 100 years. He came here in 1928 — "when the railroad came in" — to go into the grain-dealing business on his own. He had been in the elevator business with his brother in Floydada before he came here. Not long after he moved here, he built a wooden elevator on the east side of town. Later, he built a concrete elevator, which he operated until his retirement in 1951.

Born Sept. 18, 1880, in Marshall, Mr. Boothe married Fannie May Shaw on July 5, 1905, in her parents' home in Abilene.

They had six sons and a daughter. Of their seven children, five are still living. William, the second oldest, and Lon, the youngest, are deceased.

Their oldest son, C. A., is a painting contractor in Amarillo. James is a semi-retired farmer-stockman at Stephenville. Truett is in the building business here. Dan is semi-retired from the propane and oil business in Hollis, Okla.

Their only daughter, Bessie May Bradley, has lived here ever since she was a young girl.

"Oh no, I wasn't spoiled," she said about being the only girl in the family. "When you've got six brothers, they don't spoil you!"

During World War II, the Boothes had one of the few five-star banners in their window. It meant that four of their sons and their son-in-law — Bessie May's husband, Dent — were serving in the armed forces.

As a goodly crowd of friends, relatives and fellow residents of South Hills Manor gathered in the dining room to enjoy cake and punch last Thursday afternoon, Mr. Boothe recalled some of the high points of his life — how he worked on the railroad as a young man, his years in the grain business here, his love for his family, his religious conviction.

"When I was 14 years old I accepted Jesus, and He has been with me all these years," Mr. Boothe said. "I love the Lord, and I love my family."

NISD board adopts budget

After holding its budget hearing last Wednesday night, the Nazareth School Board adopted a 1980-81 budget of $541,010.

The budget figure is $5,836 below the school district's anticipated income of $546,396 during fiscal 1980-81.

School trustees set the NISD property tax rate at $1.25 per $100 assessed valuation. The figure includes $1.11 for local maintenance and 14 cents for interest and sinking fund.

The board also raised the hourly wages of non-teaching employees by 25 cents per hour, approved the state application for funds, and signed checks to pay for roof repair.

VETERAN'S SERVICES

By BEDFORD W. SMITH
County Service Officer

Following is a release from the VA Regional Office in Waco. We have the application forms in our office and will assist claimants who may apply.

A new Veterans Administration benefit has helped pay for headstones or grave markers for almost 40,000 veterans buried in private cemeteries since it first became available in 1979.

The legislation permits VA to reimburse part of the cost of an individual headstone or marker placed on the grave of a veteran buried in a private cemetery. The reimbursement cannot exceed the average cost of headstones purchased by VA for this purpose. The current amount is $53.00.

Families of veterans who select a burial site for a deceased veteran in a private cemetery now have two options for VA assistance in marking the grave. VA will provide a headstone or grave marker free of charge and ship it to the consignee designated on the application. Cost of placing the marker in a private cemetery must be borne by the applicant, however. If a marker other than the VA standard is chosen, VA will reimburse up to $53 toward its cost.

The VA assistance on headstones is in addition to the $300 VA burial allowance and a $150 plot allowance.

More about

Reappraisal gets underway . . .

[Continued from Page 1] company "has nothing to do with the taxation itself. All we're trying to do is to carry out the reappraisal so all local property conforms to the law of the land."

He said his firm's appraisers are now checking the accuracy of property measurements and descriptions on the Dimmitt Independent School District's appraisal cards. "After we get through enumerating, we'll go back through to make sure we have consistency on our appraisals of all properties," McMorries said.

If any property owner has a question, or wants to point out a unique situation that might affect the appraisal of his property, McMorries said, "he can call one of the taxing jurisdictions — the school district business office, the county or the city — and they can get the word to us, and we'll try to get back to see what the people want us to see regarding their real property."

He added, "We can't make appointments to see people, because we never know where we'll be at any one time."

In the future, he said, "We'll be setting up some town hall meetings to explain some of the 'whys' behind the reappraisal and answer any questions that property owners might have. We'll also be glad to meet with civic clubs and other groups to explain the new appraisal methods."
