has ever had the privilege of entertaining the visitors to the track meet. The events have previously been held at the county seat, and it was thought by some that the task would be too big for Hico cit-izens. But this is all bosh, for we are capable, ready and willing to take care of all phases of the affair in the best manner possible. However it wil be necessary for each one to put his shoulder to the wheel and work. Homes must be opened to those who care to spend the night, and they should be made to feel that they are welcome, and be left impressed with Hico's hos-

It might not be a bad idea for everyone to put in a little time on cleaning up around the house or store. The condition of property will be noticed, and it would be much nicer to have the town bright the tail end of a hard winter.

Spread yourself in making the visitors enjoy their stay. We know this will be done if everyone realizes that we only have a short time in which to work; what we want impress on our readers is that the time is short-we will have to

Mr. W. McKenzie Died Suddenly At Carlton This Week

Hico friends were shocked Wednesday by the news that Mr. W. McKenzie, well-known merchant at Carlton, whose health had been bad for sometime but who recently showed signs of improvement, had died suddenly that afternoon.

Mr. McKenzie had gone with other members of the school board on a visit in the country, and remained in the car while they walked across a field to see a man. When they returned they found that he had become paralyzed, and rushed him to his home where he died immediately after-

Inviting Hico's Friends to the County School Meet

This week's issue of the News Review is devoted largly to individual invitations from Hico business and professional men, urging attendance of people over the county at the annual meet of the Hamilton County Interscholastic League, to be held next week, March 13, 14 and 15, in Hico.

Although it was a physical impossibility to see all of those who would like to join in extending this invitation. the representation gives assurance that the visitors will be welcome, even more so because of the fact that this is the first time the meet has ever come to Hico.

Many extra copies of this paper are being distributed, and the News Review wishes to add its welcome to that of other Hico business institutions.

Lundberg-Williamson

Miss Edra Williamson and Garrison Lundberg were married at the residence of Rev. Allen near Meridian Saturday afternoon, February 22. Mrs. Lundberg is the daughter of Elbert Williamson of near Iredell, having lived here most of her life and known here and loved and respected by all. She is a model young lady. I have known Edra all her life and she is a fine young lady, well behaved, has a fine Christian character and is very beautiful in appearance. She is very industrious and will be no doubt a fine housewife. Never heard a harm word spoken of her nor heard her speak harmful of anyone. Mr. Lundberg is to be congratulated on winning Edra arto Mrs. Lundberg, who live in the Pikeville community, is said to be a fine young man and a hard working boy. He is well known and well thought of here. The happy couple will live on the place that was vacated by My. Tom Lundberg and children since the death of his wife. The happy could e have the best wishes of their friends here and when the sun of life gives down, may they both make a saft landing on the other side.

Shower For Bride-Elect

A miscellaneous shower was given to Miss Edra Williamson on Friday afternoon at the home of her aunt, Mrs. John W. Parks. The following program was rendered and enjoyed by the large crowd. Song, America, a reading by Miss Fern Carter, a song, I Love You Truly by Mrs. McLaughlin. After the program was rendered Miss Vella McIllheney came in with a parasol and said to the bride-elect: "I think it is going to shower" The colors, red, white and blue were used throughout the rooms. Little Miss Lavern Davis, dressed as Martha Washington, came in drawing a little express wagon loaded down with many useful gifts to make the heart of any young bride-elect proud to receive, Little hatchets were given as favors. The refreshments of punch and cake were served.

Birthday Dinner

An enjoyable day was spent at the residence of Mrs. Mary Squires on Wednesday, February 26, the occasion being her 72nd birthday. A fine dinner was prepared by her self and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Willie Horton. Everyone enjoyed the day and dinner. Mrs. Squires is a fine old lady and ever ready to lend a helping hand to anyone in need, has lived here for some time and is good company and respected by all that know her. She has a host of friends here who wish for her many more happy birthdays. She received some nice presents from her friends. Those present to enjoy the day with this fine old lady were, Mr. and Mrs. George Squires and children of near Dublin, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. French, Mrs. Snell, Mrs. Laura Lambert, Rev. Mr. Sanders, Mrs. Lee Priddy and son, Mrs. Fannie Cox, Eiland Cox, Mrs. Clyde Cox and son, Mrs. J. B. Parks, Mrs. Deatherage and Miss Stella Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Willie Horton and children.

Mrs. Opal New Lundberg Mrs. Opal Lundberg was born in 1901 and died February 16, 1930 in the Baptist sanitarium at Waco at 2 o'clock Sunday morning. She leaves a husband and two children, James and Imogene, two sisters and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. New. She was a member of the Baptist church and lived a christian life, tried to lead her little children in the right way. She was conscious to the last and talked to her loved ones. I have known her for a long time as she has visited in our home and was a quite well behaved young lady. She was well thought of by every one. No doubt the sorrows of life came to her but we feel sure by the life she lived she is now at rest. She was a beautiful character and did what she believed to be the right thing. If she made a mistake 'twas of the head and not of the heart. The funeral was held in the Baptist church at Walnut on Monday in the presence of a large crowd of sympathizing relatives and friends. The funeral was in charge of Rev. Lloyd Lester. The floral offerings were beautiful, which told of the high esteem she was held. Several Iredell people at-tended the funeral. The body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Walnut. She lived close around here and was loved and respected by all. She will be missed in her home and by her relatives and
