Of course this party was in honor of the hero who "chased all the frogs from all the logs, and snakes from out 'ould Ireland." This is called for the inevitable shamrocks in the house decorations. And what would St. Patrick's party have been without his potato race, his telegrams and his ultra-modern jig-saw puzzles of Irish Potatoes?

The Irish motif was used in favors. Refreshments of golden glow salad, potato chips, tuna fish strips, olives, divinity-nut candy, and iced tea were served to Mesdames W. P. IN LITTLE OLD NEW YORK by CARL H. GETZ

Heard of a man this week who has stored $4,000 worth of canned goods in the basement of his home. Said he was going to eat no matter what happened.

A New York shop is trying to encourage men to wear cloth flowers in the lapel buttonholes of their coats. The florists don't like the idea.

The other morning a great New York hotel gave each of its guests a red carnation with a small printed card which read, "Wear a flower and smile." Guests said it was easy to wear the flower but with the federal and state income tax days approaching, it was a little difficult to smile.

Tobacco shop owners here complain that more and more New York men are rolling their own cigarettes. And this despite the fact that the manufacturers recently slashed prices to a new low.

There is a New York department store which sells automobiles. This is unusual because department stores usually insist upon the right to control the prices of the things they sell. In this instance the manufacturer fixes the price.

One New York department store which happens to be 75 years old took in a million dollars on a recent Saturday.

An automobile dealer here invented a huge mirror in his showroom so that the prospective buyer could see himself at the wheel of the car—could see himself as others would see him. The mirror actually stimulated sales.

Dr. Norbert L. Lederer lives in a roomy apartment in the West Seventies with his wife, two thousand tropical fish, a canary, two bulldogs, and a Galapagos turtle. He has the largest private collection of fish in town.

Farrish's Chop House, 42 John Street, boasts that from 1563 to 1931 it has served 6,570,908 patrons. During the same time 1,525,551 steaks were ordered as well as 777,615 lamb kidneys.

It is common here to see garbage men wearing spats while at work. The reason is that the spats keep the ashes from shoes.

Black bath towels for blondes are being offered by New York department stores.

Two tiers of railroad tracks are to be found beneath the New York Central Building here.

There is a broker on Wall Street who dislikes going to barber shops. He has had a barber chair installed in a small room adjoining his office and has his barber come to him.

The 66th, 67th and 68th floors of the Chrysler Building here are occupied by what is known as the Cloud Club.

There is hardly a bank in New York which hasn't a number of so-called dead accounts—money deposited by persons no longer living or have disappeared.

Cone Johnson, 72-year-old veteran of political and State affairs, was buried in Tyler Sunday among the surroundings which he was familiar and close to the people he went to the State Legislature to serve. Johnson died Friday night seven weeks after his physicians sent him to beg from what they described as general physical exhaustion. He had been unable to fill out his sixth year as member of the State Highway Commission, although his appointment expired only a few weeks—Feb. 15—after he became ill.

FRANK JONES GIVEN 50 YEARS FOR KILLING OF PIERCE AT MCGIRK

The case of the State of Texas versus Frank Jones, 24 years of age of McGirk, indicted by the recently adjourned grand jury in Hamilton for the alleged murder on January 17, this year of Ocie Pierce, 35 years old, also of McGirk, went to trial in the 52nd District Court in Hamilton on Tuesday morning of last week and closed Friday of last week the jury giving Jones fifty years in the state penitentiary.
The charge against the defendant, Frank Jones, was for the murder with malice aforethought. He pleads self defense.
It appears that the defendant, Jones, was living in the home with deceased, Ocie Pierce, making a crop on the shares. Differences arose between the two men which finally led to the alleged killing of Pierce. The defense contends that Pierce was a dangerous character, and had previously threatened the life of the defendant, Jones, and at the time of the alleged killing had attempted to assault or attack Jones, and pushed him out of the house onto a porch where the killing occurred.

Allotment Made On R. F. C. Funds For Hamilton County

(Hamilton Herald-Record)
A meeting of county-wide interest was held at the court house Friday afternoon, March 10, upon call of Dr. A. G. Livingston, chairman of the local committee for the distribution of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation fund of $2,000 allotted to Hamilton county for the month of March.

The fact was made very plain at this meeting, attended by representatives from Hico, Carlton and each of the rural school districts in the county, that the funds were to be used only for the relief of the distressed unemployed with dependents, and who depend exclusively upon their daily labor for bread for themselves and those dependent upon them.

The purpose of the meeting was to determine just who are eligible to participate in the funds under the rules of the National Board and to allocate the amount proportionately due each applicant. The fund was distributed to Hamilton, Hico and Carlton as independent school districts, and to the rural school communities approximately: Hico $460; Carlton $200; Hamilton, $90; and the rural school communities, $440.

Members of the local committee are Dr. A. G. Livingston, chairman; C. B. James, William Lemmons, R. F. Moore, Mack Morgan, E. D. Grant, O. R. Williams and H. W. Henderson.

Representatives at Hico are Lawrence N. Lane and Judge Edgar H. Persons.

Representatives at Carlton are W. H. Vick, Grady Laws and J. W. Jordan.

In the distribution of the R. F. C. funds in the various school districts the following trustees will officiate:

Eliza, James W. Harris; Genetys Mill, Dan Maloy; Mt. View, Cecil Pendleton; Sunshine, E. B. Adams; Dry Fork, S. B. Tudor;

ON TEXAS FARMS
By W. H. Darrow, Extension Service Editor

The new home economics building at the University of Texas is to be supplied a hooked rug by a Cameron county home demonstration club member, Mrs. J. K. Siderius of Los Fresnos. Thousands of these early American rugs were made at home last year by home industries demonstrators.

The spirit of helpfulness that moves country folk to help each other make a living on the farm is illustrated in the story of Emmet Nickel of Red Deer Community in Roberts county. He learned the "A and M Way" of butchering and cutting up hogs and beavers from an Extension Service specialist while visiting a neighboring county. Since then he has helped neighbors butcher 40 hogs and 10 beaves, the home agent reports.

Finding no sale from his acre of peanuts grown as a 4-H club demonstration, Robert Heath of Wesley Chapel in Houston county roasted his crop from week to week and sold them in little bags in town every Saturday. With his nickles and dimes he has bought 5 settings of eggs and is going into the chicken business.

The cost of a home orchard large enough for a family of five ranges from $4.50 to $8, says the county agent of Marion county who has planned 100 new home orchards with farmers this year.

Following beef butchering demonstrations in Fisher county, the county agent is helping several farmers tan the hides into leather to be used in repairing harness, furniture and soiling shoes.

The entire egg production of 4500 turkeys has been contracted to northern turkey egg buyers by the Brady Cooperative Poultry Producers Association. A new movement, begun last year, the sale of turkey eggs for breeding purposes to distant markets is expected to give an income of about $4 per hen, says the county agent.

Milk production from 8 cows doubled in 10 days after they were turned onto oat pasture an hour in the morning and an hour in the afternoon. It is the herd of J. W. Webster, dairy demonstrator in Jackson county. The oats were sown broadcast on a listed field, a method which has kept the soil from packing badly during wet weather.

Killing, dressing, grading and packing on the farm his 98 turkeys raised in a 4-H club demonstration, J. L. Irish, Lubbock county boy, shipped his birds to Chicago where he received 16 cents per pound for them. Shipping cost $64.30. He made $129 net profit for his year's work.

Forty six rose gardens were recently set out by home demonstration club women in Victoria county for a total cost of $13 for 485 roses obtained in a pooled order. Cutting beds have started by 131 women with 123,991 cuttings donated by town people and court house authorities. It is all a part of a county-wide farmstead beautification program.

For every dollar spent last year by farmers in fighting insects and diseases attacking field crops in Texas, $12.50 was returned in increased income. A total of 166,452 acres was protected by 6669 farmers with the aid of county agents.

Plenty of home grown feed saves cash, helps the living-at-home program, and makes possible larger livestock profits. Last year 12,674 men and boys cooperated with county agents in growing 189,853 acres of feed crops by demonstration methods from which they received for labor and investment an average of $70 apiece.

The old notion that alfalfa won't grow in Texas is rapidly giving way to an enthusiasm for this valuable crop. A barrage of demonstrations in 63 counties last year in which 665 men grew alfalfa on 13,192 acres has furnished ed convincing proof that with proper methods it's a good crop in many parts of the state. The demonstrators made an average of 2.68 tons of hay to the acre, county agents report, and more than half of them got some grazing besides.

An average return of $250 for labor and investment was made by the 4397 Texas farmers and 411 club boys who conducted demonstrations in cotton growing last year. The demonstrations averaged 28 acres.

With more than half a million pounds of cured meat and lard in Cottle county smokehouses before the end of the hog butchering season, all records for home pork curing were broken this year, says the county agent.

Childless county patries are displaying airtight boxes of cookies, peanut butter, and crackers in addition to all the other kinds of food as a result of work by the home demonstration agent. Women and girls have learned to make peanut butter, cheese straws, vanilla wafers, and butter and whole wheat crackers.

Six self-feeders for hogs were built recently by Harrison county farmers for feeding hogs by county agent methods. Hogs are allowed half tankage and half cottonseed meal, and corn, free choice.

Raising 80 bushels of corn on one acre, making another acre produce 1020 pounds of cotton, raising a flock of 120 pullets which are now producing a monthly income, and on top of all this making his hogs pay him a net profit of $56, this is the accomplishment of Alvin Weidener, 4-H club boy of Long Point Community in Washington county.

A county beautification association has been organized by home demonstration club women in Van Zandt county to promote the beautification of home yards, screen unsightly places, improve the appearance of highways, and preserve natural beauty spots throughout the county.

At a cost of less than half a cent per bushel, 4312 Texas farmers saved 1,439,983 bushels of stored grain from weevils last year using high-life by methods shown by county agents. The saving was estimated to be $83,071.

A total of 17,512 farmers in 138 Texas counties butchered, cut and cured 53,431 hogs last year the "A and M Way" with the help of farm demonstration agents. It is estimated that at least five times as many farmers used these methods which were shown in hundreds of demonstrations in all parts of the State.

More than half the 903 dairy demonstration herds in Texas last year were provided rich permanent pastures for grazing, at the rate of about 2 1-2 acres per cow. Grazing almost the year 'round can be had in East Texas pastures where improved grasses and clovers are sown. One acre per cow is enough in some of the best pastures.

About 10 years ago a series of kitchen improvement contests for rural housewives was conducted in successive years by home demonstration agents. The improvement is still spreading, for 1521 kitchens were made into modern workshops in 1932 on Texas farms as a result of the earlier demonstrations.

Paris—In Lamar county 6,751 acres of pasture land have been improved by demonstrators and cooperators working with County Agent A. L. Edmiston, who reports that they received a value of $27,546.63 from it in grazing and that 3,699 more acres have been improved by other farmers who have observed the value of permanent pasture to the farming business. Bermuda, dallis, rescue, rye and blue grass have been used in these pastures and sweet, white Dutch, black medic and burr clover together with lespedeza, yellow hop and assaike.

Wallace Hatchett of the Delhi section deposited some gold coins of rare history in a bank at Lockhart. Mr. Hatchett said that he had turned into the First National Bank five $1 gold coins given to him 41 years ago by a friend at Prairie Lea, with the request that he keep them during his lifetime and pass them at his death to one of his descendants. The coins were taken to Prairie Lea, Mr. Hatchett said, by an overseer of a large plantation in Alabama in the early fifties, and were buried during the civil war. Prairie Lea, during the reconstruction following the war, was headquarters for the Union soldiers, and all valuables owned by the people were buried.

Eight thousand checks totaling $700,000 representing the first installment of the 1933 crop loans, were mailed from the Southwestern Crop Production Loan office in Dallas Monday. The manager said loan applications up to Saturday night from farmers of Texas, New Mexico and Arizona, totaled 12,840. The deadline for loan applications is midnight, April 30.

Warning
Don't be misled by false statements. Calomel, salts, mineral waters, oils, laxative pills and drugs have no effect whatever on the liver or its production of bile. The truth of this statement can be proved by consulting the authoritative medical textbooks published during the past five years.

There are only two known substances which will actually stimulate a torpid or sluggish liver to cleanse and purify itself by increasing its production of bile. Sargon Soft Mass Pills contain both of these substances, and no other advertised medicine on the American market today does contain them.—(adv.)
