

News of the World Told In Pictures

Two Little Fellers Needin' a Friend

NEW YORK . . . They were captured in the mountain wilds of China; they have traveled more than 10,000 miles; they are still less than a year old . . . and now they are housed in the New York zoo . . . where milk and honey seems plentiful. They are "mystery" cubs, zoologists now trying to decide whether they are Himalayan Browns, Oriental Grizzlies, Black Bears . . . or some rare and unknown species. Photo shows "Scotch" and "Soda" upon their arrival, being fed by Miss Florence La Baue who gained their friendship aboard ship.

New King and Queen of the Belgians

BRUSSELS, Belgium . . . His supreme hour of being declared "Leopold III, King of the Belgians," tempered by an agonizing grief at the sudden and tragic death of his father, Albert I, killed in a mountain fall, has further endeared the former Crown Prince to his people and today he has an entire nation's sympathy and support. Top photo, a most recent picture of the new King, Leopold III and his Queen, who was Crown Princess Astrid. Inserts; the late King, Albert I and portrait of Leopold III.

Advance American Art

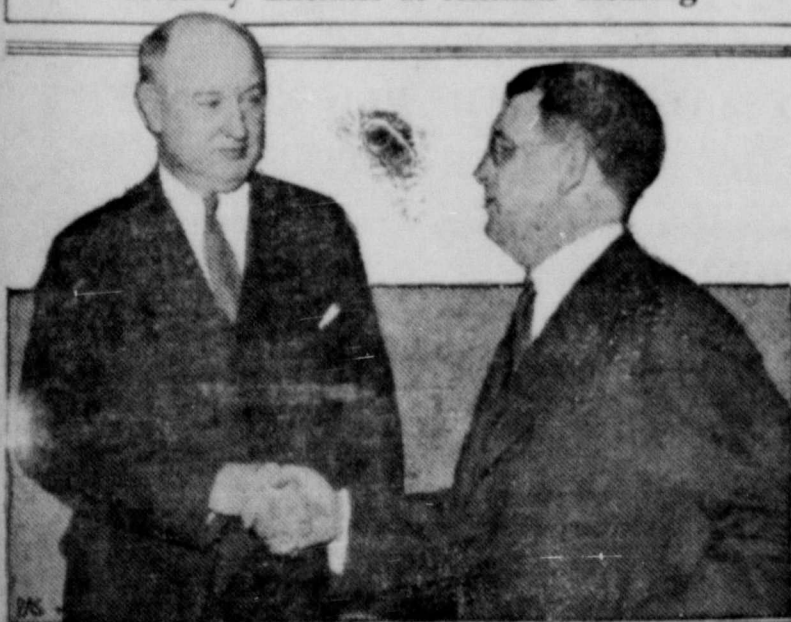

NEW YORK . . . Mrs. John T. Pratt, New York, (above) has been made chairman of the newly created Fine Arts Foundation which will inaugurate a three year campaign to further the cause of Art and the American artist. Among its endeavors the Foundation will aid in extending and bettering Art in our schools.

World Bowling Record

CLEVELAND . . . With three games of 238, 239 and 248, Mrs. Joan Radtke, shattered the women's world bowling record with a 775 series. The former three game high for women was 739 by Mrs. Floretta McCutcheon in 1927.

Friendly Enemies at Airmail Hearing

WASHINGTON . . . It was just before the "battle" . . . well maybe not battle but just before former Postmaster Walter Brown (right) of the Hoover cabinet, took the stand to testify that Postmaster James A. Farley (left) of the Roosevelt cabinet, said "Senator Black of the Senate Airmail Committee was a publicity hound" . . . which Farley immediately denied in his testimony. Anyhow . . . it's a swell hand-shake.

"THEIRS NOT TO REASON WHY" —By Albert T. Reid

A Spring Coiffure

NEW YORK . . . An insipid Spring season ahead, bringing it many new bonnets which incline those off-the-face models, and feminine thoughts to turn to attractive coiffures. The beautiful Miss Allen, screen favorite, is sponsoring this entrancing blown wave.

Slacks a la' 1934

MIAMI . . . Miss Jacquelyn Harley of Waynesville, N. C. was mighty colorful as she stepped forth for a cruise in these royal blue suspender slacks with a lightweight cruise sweater.

Loses Coal Mining Job

CADIZ, Ohio . . . Ida Mae Stine (above) has worked in coal mines here since she was 12 years old. Now Ida is mad because an O. M. Mines inspector says it is against state laws for women to work in mines . . . and at 34 she has to look for another job. Ida can mine and load an average of 5 tons of coal a day.

He Whipped Schmeling

PHILADELPHIA . . . A ring picture of Steve Hamas, New Jersey heavyweight, who upset the cart of the German former World Champion, Max Schmeling, in a round decision bout here. Hamas now ranks third in heavy weight.

JOE GISH

Dakota Badman

CHICAGO . . . Above is Verno Sankey, noted South Dakota outlaw rancher, who has confessed to the kidnapping of Charles Boettcher, 2nd, of Denver and Haskell Bohm, of St. Paul. His career is now being closely checked by Federal agents.

"Scandalous"

WASHINGTON . . . Brig. Gen. William Mitchell, retired, told the Senate Committee that Uncle Sam has been the victim of profiteers in army airplane contracts, spending $187,000,000 per year on military aviation and today having about 300 planes whereas we should have 1,000.

Contempt of Senate

WASHINGTON . . . Wm. P. McCracken (above) assistant Secretary of Commerce in charge of aeronautics under President Hoover was arrested for contempt of the Senate when he refused to produce files which the Senate Committee wanted to see in its investigation on air-mail contracts.

Casey Comes Back

BROOKLYN . . . Charles "Casey" Stengel (above), former outfielder with Brooklyn and big leaguer of other days, is the new manager of the Brooklyn Nationals, succeeding Max Carey.

President's Mother in Typical Roosevelt Greeting

Blue Eagle Exercises

BERMUDA . . . There being no code covering a Blue Eagle on vacation, Miss Dorothy Ford of New York (above) who is "Miss NRA of the U. S. A." free to express herself in the way she liked best on the Bermuda beaches, as the photo shows. Miss Ford, model for the best known illustrators of feminine beauty, was chosen "Miss NRA" last fall.

Beautiful Queen

BRUSSELS . . . Another beautiful Queen graces the throne with her King, Leopold III. She was Crown Princess Astrid, daughter of Prince Charles of Sweden and the Princess Ingeborg of Denmark. This new portrait study is said to be the favorite of the new Queen.

24 Hour Bride

CHICAGO . . . Lone Drew, 26, (above) was married Feb. 14th. That same day hubby "struck" her . . . and again the next day he repeated with a more healthy swat. She filed suit for divorce and was freed in 24 hours by Judge LaBuy. Lone claims a record.

Baseball's Greatest

NEW YORK . . . John J. McGraw (above), 60, called baseball's greatest figure, died last week with his beloved New York Giants as world champions. It was McGraw who picked and developed Manager Bill Terry and turned over to him the management when he left in 1932. No man was happier than McGraw last fall when the fighting Giants beat Washington for the world title.

Directing Army Flying of the Mail

WASHINGTON . . . Above are the flight officers making up the General Staff in command of the Army's job of carrying the air-mail under the order of Postmaster General Farley. They took over the job on Feb. 19th. No. 1, Brig. Gen. Oscar Westover, in charge of Army Corps mail operations with headquarters here; No. 2, Maj. Byron Q. Jones, Eastern division, Newark, N. J.; No. 3, Col. Horace M. Hickman, Central division, Chicago; No. 4, Lieut. Col. Henry M. Arnold, Pacific division, Salt Lake City. Insert, Army plane taking on mail at Newark.
