Storm Sewer Work Rushed to Make Way For Street Paving Program

Project Estimated to Be Three-Fourths Of Way Complete.

Work on the storm sewer project was being rushed this week in an effort to complete as much of it as possible by the end of the WPA fiscal year on June 30, so that arrangements may be made for a start on the part of the project involving the paving of 119 blocks of streets immediately following that time.

In conference with Mayor H. F. Sellers and other city officials and the project foreman, Robert Jenkins, Tuesday of this week were the following officials out of the Waco WPA office: D. A. Davis, district field supervisor; W. W. Stevens, assistant field supervisor; W. H. Beasley, district supervisor, division of operations; and J. M. Rudd, district supervisor in charge of finance and statistics. All of these men were reported to have been enthusiastic over the progress made on the project to this date, and the type of work noted. They stated that it was their belief that after the first of July the WPA program would be continued, and that the money would be available for the continuation and completion of Hico's entire project, involving a Federal participation of somewhere around $45,000, with a sponsor's pledge of $9,807.30. To date the Federal government has spent $4,506.29, while the City of Hico has put up $59,441, according to Mr. Jenkins report as of June 5th.

Further facts and figures divulged by the report on the project, which was started on February 12th, are that 1270 cubic yards of excavation have been completed out of an estimated total of 1900 cubic yards. The Federal cost on this item was $1,932.15, with a sponsor's cost of $357.02.

Of the estimated total of 1450 lineal feet of rock masonry on the storm sewer, the report showed that 923 were in place, with a Federal cost of $2,644.14, and a sponsor's cost of $428.70.

Shaping side ditches preparatory to street paving was estimated at 50,000 lineal feet on the whole project, of which 4,000 had been completed at the time of the report at a cost of $164.63.

Mr. Jenkins reported that there were 87 men on the payroll the first of the week, with an average of 60 men on the job daily. Forty-seven men were transferred two weeks ago to the local project from Road Project No. 1633 in Commissioner's Precinct No. 3. The transfer was effective on June 5th, with the men going to work on June 9th. Since that time rapid progress has been noted on the project, and it is possible to carry on the job something like the plans called for, which was impossible previously due to the fact that sufficient men were not available.

J. R. Massingill is the city's foreman on the project, and reports that he is endeavoring to keep the project going as fast as possible with a minimum convenience to citizens. Orders received this week were to use up as much of the material on hand as possible by the first of July, until which time there would be no more requisitions issued. After the first of July, however, Mr. Massingill looks for a resumption of operations on a scale approaching that anticipated when application was made for the Federal funds under the WPA program.

MR. AND MRS. J. L. TOOLEY CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY JUNE 7TH

A notable occasion at the City Park in Hico Sunday, June 7th, was the celebration of the Golden Wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Tooley, prominent citizens of the Olin community. Picnic lunches were brought by members of the party and the entire day was one of happiness for all who were privileged to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Tooley were married February 3, 1887, but owing to the extreme cold weather in the winter, they decided to hold the celebration at this time while the children and so many of the relatives could be present. The couple were married in the Dry Fork community, and have been around Hico since that time.

One of the most unusual things about the affair was the presence at this occasion of six friends who were in attendance at their wedding fifty years ago. They were: Mr. John Burney of Fair, Ed Tarver of Dallas, Mrs. Tennie Brown of Dallas, J. P. Columbus, Hico, Mrs. T. A. Williamson, Hico, and G. W. Smith, Hico.

The children and families present were, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Pierson, son, James, and daughters, Miss Marguerite and Mrs. Otis L. Barnett and her baby, Quata Faith of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Cole and daughters, Misses Norma Ruth and Mary Bess of Memphis, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Claud W. Newsom of Hamlin, Texas, and daughters, Mrs. Cecil Allison and son, Cecil Wayne of Wichita Falls and Mrs. C. S. Dickey of Aspermont; Mrs. Price Trimmer, son, Price, Jr. and daughter, Janella, of Benjamin; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cunningham and daughters, Kathryn and Nelda Joy of Fair; and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tooley and children, Patsy Ann and Jimmie Glenn of Olin.

Others present including relatives and friends were: Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Smith and sons, Harvey, Jack and Gene of Waco; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Smith of Waxahatchie; Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Clifton and children, Miss Mary Beth, Myrl and James Horace of Carlton; Mrs. Guy Cunningham and son, Feagin and daughter, Mary Alice of Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tarver of Dallas; Mrs. K. J. Pierson and daughter, Ann, of Hico; Mrs. R. T. Cole of Hico; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. C. Burney of Fair; J. P. Columbus and daughter, Miss Alta, of Hico; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Richardson of Olin; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Henderson of Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Busham and sons, Bill, Jo and Edward of Olin; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jones of Iredell; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Priest of Hico; Morris Bursby of Hamilton; Mrs. T. A. Williamson, sister of Mr. Tooley, and son, Jack of Dallas; and G. W. Smith, brother of Mrs. Tooley of Olin. There were fourteen grandchildren and two great grandchildren present, and only one son-in-law, J. P. Trimmer was absent.

Mr. and Mrs. Tooley are loved by every person in and around Hico. They are of the pioneer type, ready at all times to lend a helping hand to those in distress or in need of any kind. May they live to see many more happy years of wedded life is the wish of the News Review and their many friends over this section.

FAIRY GOOSE-EGGS STAR, 4 TO 6, IN SUNDAY'S GAME

It seemed like Dizzy Dean had come to town last Sunday, when Lefty Miller let the Star nine down with only three scattered hits. The Little Southpaw had everything on the old onion, and then some.

Oklahoma Hutton was on first base with the old familiar chant, "Hey Gang, where's the chatter out there?" He had boys grabbin' em? He had Pee Wee and Johnson Pitts robbing 'em of hits right and left.

Fairy drew first blood in the first inning, when Bridges singled, took second on an overthrow, and scored on Profit's drive to center field. In the third, with two out, Broyles beat out an infield hit, R. Waller walked and advanced on catcher's error. Allison singled, scoring Broyles and Miller. Hutton walked and Bridges scored Allison with his second hit of the game.

And by the way, the Meridian Creek Bridges batted in this game, getting three for four. Old Johnson Pitts, the ice (snow) maker from Hico, DOUBLED on the first ball pitched off Star's reliever in the third inning.

Fairy will not play a League game next Sunday, but in all probability there will be a game on the home grounds.

Harry Flentge Has Message For Voters In Formal Statement

Some time last March, I announced for the Office of District Attorney of the 52nd Judicial District, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary. Owing to the fact that it is impossible to see each voter personally I take this method of inviting an investigation as to my personal and professional character and ability to represent the District in prosecuting offenses against the law of Texas.

I made the race for this office two years ago leading the ticket in the first primary about nine hundred votes and was defeated in the run off by a small majority. However, contrary to some impression there is now no candidate for re-election to said office and because there is no candidate for re-election, I decided to again announce as a candidate.

I favor a fair and impartial investigation of all offenses by the officials. Candid opinions to the Grand Jury as to the sufficiency of the evidence to convict and sustain a verdict. Fearless prosecution but not persecution of all violations of the law.

I am thirty one years of age and have had about eight years of experience, both civil and criminal, and during said times also served four years as County Attorney of Coryell County.

Fearless and energetic prosecution is a vital necessity in stamping out crime and if I meet the necessary qualification your support will be appreciated.

Thanking you for your consideration, I am

Yours Respectfully,
HARRY FLENTGE.

DUFFAU H. D. CLUB TO SPONSOR FREE PROGRAM

The Duffau H. D. Club will give a free program and one-act play at the tabernacle Saturday night, June 20.

Ice cream and candy will be sold to raise money to help pay the expenses of a delegate to the A. & M. short course.

Everybody is invited to come.

REPORTER.

MRS. T. H. GREEN BURIED HERE WEDNESDAY AT 4 P. M.

Mrs. T. H. Green, who lived only a few days being 87 years of age, passed away at her home here Tuesday night at 8:15. The services were held in the First Baptist Church Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock by Rev. L. P. Thomas of Melvin, a former pastor of the Hico Baptist Church. Interment was made in the Hico Cemetery.

Mrs. Green had been in ill health since the first of the year. She had been under the care of Mrs. L. V. Moon who had made her home with Mrs. Green for the past three years. Everything that physicians, loved ones and friends could do for her was administered but her allotted time had been lived.

Mrs. Green was born in the State of Alabama July 7, 1849, and was Miss Bostick before she married Rev. Green. She and her husband first came to Cherokee County, Texas, 49 years ago located at Hico. Rev. Green passed away March 19, 1931. Five children were born to them, three of whom preceded them in death. Two sons now are living. They are Frank and John Green, both of Fort Worth.

Mrs. Green was a faithful member of the Baptist Church. She was a great helpmate to her husband during his ministerial work. She was a loving wife and mother and lived a consecrated christian life. Her many Hico friends will miss her.

Besides her two children, she is survived by six children, and several great grandchildren.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

E. E. Dawson, Pastor
Next Sunday at the morning worship hour, 11:00 o'clock, the Rev. Nat Tracy of Benton, La., will preach. He began his ministry under the leadership of the local pastor, Mr. H. H. Tracy, Sr. direct the music of the service.

At the evening hour, 8:30 the pastor will preach and special music will feature that service.

Sunday school looked up last Sunday. You will find a place for you in this interesting Bible study.

And there's always a cordial welcome.

Keeping Up With TEXAS

Fishing is good on the main street of Balmorhea, Texas, says Perry Wagoner, who stated he recently caught 14 fish in the canal that runs through the main street, C. R. Cross, druggist, offers to wager he can catch the limit in the ditch any day.

A $50,000 electric sawmill located 16 miles east of Cleveland, Texas, owned by the South Texas Hardwood Company, was destroyed by fire at 2:30 Sunday morning. Lumber yards adjacent also were destroyed. The cause of the fire, which started in the boiler room, is unknown. This was the only mill of its kind in that section. Only last Sunday the Cleveland Lumber Company lost two dry kilns by fire there.

Rep. Leon Friedman, darkhorse tobacco chewer from Natchitoches, La., walked off with spitting honors at the Texas Centennial Saturday after a furious contest with the Texas champion, Capt. Leonard Pack, chief of Centennial police. The winner was awarded a huge brass cuspidor. Captain Pack was disqualified for using snuff instead of cat's tobacco. Representative Friedman's best mark was 12 1/2 feet. Captain Pack's high was an arched effort of 13 feet, two inches before he was disqualified. The Texan, advocate of the twist technique, was disappointed at the verdict—but mightily proud of his heave. "If I had 'lowed for the wind a little more, I'd done better," he said.

An allocation of liquor revenues added $229,985 to the available old age pension fund Saturday, bringing the fund to a total of $1,550,914. The allocation also gave $40,954 to the permanent pension fund instead of $40,000. Representative Friedman's best mark was 12 1/2 feet. Captain Pack's high was an arched effort of 13 feet, two inches before he was disqualified. The Texan, advocate of the twist technique, was disappointed at the verdict—but mightily proud of his heave. "If I had 'lowed for the wind a little more, I'd done better," he said.

Fort Worth's youngest amateur pilot, 17-year-old Reba Dee Gunn, died in the crash of her private plane at the emergency landing field three miles northwest of the Municipal Airport at 2 p. m. Saturday. The girl, described by her instructor, Ed Ritchey, as "as good a student as I ever saw," was dead when motorists, who saw the yellow Aerona monoplane suddenly dive to the ground from a height of 200 feet, reached the wreckage. A W. Meadows, Department of Commerce inspector, said low flying and rough air conditions were responsible for the accident. Only 20 minutes before the girl aviator, daughter of Whitt Gunn, 2429 College Ave., had ordered mechanics to wheel out the craft which she purchased three months ago and tuned up the motor.

Mrs. Ethel Johnson, who last February was accused of murdering her son and daughter-in-law and whose case was reversed recently by the Court of Criminal Appeals, was released from the Dallas county jail Saturday night on orders from the Coryell County sheriff. Mrs. Johnson was tried at Gatesville. Her first trial resulted in a deadlocked jury and in the second she was given 25 years, this being reversed by the appeals court.

A straggly, gray house cat was the indirect cause of a head-on collision two miles south of Duncanville, 15 miles from Dallas, which took the life of a woman and seriously injured three other persons Saturday. Mrs. Duke B. Carroll, 50, of Cedar Hill, was killed instantly. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Harrington and their 18-year-old daughter, Catherine, also of Cedar Hill, were hurt seriously. All four were riding in an old model coupe. Harrington attempted to throw the cat out of the automobile as they drove on the Duncanville road at the top of a rise in the highway. The animal dug its claws into the arm and in the ensuing scramble the machine veered to the left side of the road. The car crashed headlong into the automobile driven by Raymond Coffman, 25, of Cleburne. He was accompanied by his father, D. H. Coffman. Both escaped injuries.

Fireboys Entertain Wednesday With Chicken Barbecue

Members of the Hico Volunteer Fire Department were hosts Wednesday evening, June 17, to a number of guests at a chicken barbecue at the City Park, which developed into one of the most delightful affairs of its kind ever put over here.

As is customary with the fireboys, when they start to do anything they do the job up right. And this does not half cover the expressions heard following the entertainment from those who were privileged to attend.

Almost the entire personnel of the fire department participated in the affair, to which their families were also invited. In addition the mayor and city officials, and others representative of various quarters where the fireboys secure cooperation were on hand. The firemen stated that they would have liked to make the invitation general to the entire citizenship, but naturally were limited as to funds and ability to serve so large a crowd.

Mack Whigham, Dick Adams and Elmer Horton served as a committee on arrangements for the entertainment, and that their work and plans were efficient was proven by the men they offered their guests when they assembled under the pavilion at 7 p. m. The plate consisted of barbecued chicken, potato chips, olives, pickles, lettuce, and light bread, with jellies and sweets on the table for those who cared for them. Sufficient plates were on hand for a second and third helping for the hungry ones, which included almost everyone. And an abundance of lemonade first quenched the thirst of those present and then served to make them comfortable when they yielded to the insistent demands of the boys to drink more and more.

After the eats had been taken care of, short talks were heard from Rev. P. L. Shuler, Mayor H. F. Sellers and others. All expressed appreciation at being included in the guest list, and thanked the boys for an excellent supper. Elmer Horton in turn thanked the visitors for their attendance, stating that no program had been arranged but that the best way to do this was to feed them.

The committee requests the News Review to express thanks on the part of the firemen for all favors shown, including the following firms who donated articles or services: Randalls Brothers, pickles; Campbell's Grocery, lemons; N. A. Leeth & Son, plates; Teague Variety Store, cups; G. M. Carlton Bros. & Co., crackers; Bell Ice & Dairy Products Co., ice; Golden's Grocery, potato chips; Hudson's Grocery, sugar; Hilltop Bakery, bread; Hico Bakery and M. V. Cotton, who prepared the chickens and baked them to such perfection in the large oven at the Hico Bakery.

MRS. W. C. RHOADES BURIED AT HICO LAST WEEK

Funeral services were held at the Hico Cemetery last Thursday afternoon, June 11, for Mrs. W. C. Rhoades who passed away at the family home in Hico, June 10, after being in ill health for some time. Mrs. Dollie Lynch and Mrs. Cantrell conducted the services at 4 o'clock in the afternoon after which the body was laid to rest in the Hico Cemetery.

The Rhoades family moved to Hico from Iredell about six months ago. Mrs. Rhoades was born in the Evergreen community below Hamilton 43 years ago. She was Miss Alla Slaughter before her marriage. Twenty-four years ago she was married to Mr. Rhoades in Jones County. To this union four children were born, all of whom survive. The deceased was a faithful member of the Holiness Church. She was a loving wife, a kind mother and a friend to all. She was very religious and lived a consecrated life.

Surviving Mrs. Rhoades are her husband four children, namely: Violet, Rosie and Verlin of Hico, and Mrs. Velma Ragsdale and husband of Corsicana one brother, W. R. Slaughter and wife of Hico; five sisters, Mrs. O. D. Montgomery, husband and children of Iredell, Mrs. Charles Adkinson, husband daughter of Walnut Springs, Mrs. S. R. Massingill, husband and children of Hico, Mrs. Mattie Smith and children of Gatesville, and Mrs. Ethel Smith and children of Waukegan, Oklahoma; besides a host of other relatives and friends.

FREAK IRISH POTATOES BROUGHT TO NEWS REVIEW BY SKEET ROBERSON SAT.

Skeet Roberson, who resides on Route 7 out of Hico brought in some of the most "freakish" looking Irish potatoes ever raised in this community. Several large potatoes were grown together in bunches and the lot weighed around 3 1-2 pounds.

Mr. Roberson raised the potatoes on his mother's farm across the line in Erath County, and said they had the best crop of potatoes this year the farm had ever produced. He also said they had enjoyed a fine garden, and had a lot of nice fruit. He brought the News Review force a sample of their delicious flavored peaches.

Those who know Mr. Roberson realize that he is a successful farmer and attribute his success to diversifying.

FIRE SATURDAY CAUSED LITTLE DAMAGE TO HOUSE

The fire siren sounded a little after noon Saturday, and the fireboys were summoned to the first house south of Higginbotham Bros. & Co. belonging to Miss Nettie Wieser and her sister, Mrs. George W. Anderson.

The fire started in the top around a fire, but the quick action of the fireboys immediately put out the flames and saved the huge structure.

The home was occupied by three families, Mrs. Hester Bruner and baby, Mrs. L. E. Stegall and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Wren and children.

Extent of the damage was a hole in the roof around the fire with no water damage to either the furniture or building.

TOWNSEND MASS MEETING NEXT TUESDAY EVENING

O. H. Moore of De Leon, district organizer for the Townsend Plan, has been in Hico for the past several days inaugurating plans for a Townsend Mass Meeting to be held at the City Park in Hico Saturday, June 20, at 7:30 p. m. Everybody is invited.

An effort will be made to get the Townsend Act before the whole people, according to Mr. Moore, who adds that there will be plenty of room, and that it will be cool and comfortable under the pavilion.

Former Hicoan Visits Here.
Robert Phillips of Monroe, La., was a week-end visitor of his mother, Mrs. James M. Phillips and family. Mr. Phillips had not been to Hico in five years, and enjoyed the short stay with relatives and old friends.

He came by way of Dallas and enjoyed the Centennial here last Friday which was Louisiana Day at the exposition. Louisianans who came at the same time with him said the exposition was more than they had ever dreamed it would be. They declared it was where the World's Fair left off.

Mr. Phillips returned home by way of Paris, Texas, to see his little granddaughter four months of age. It is his first grandchild, and he had never seen the youngster before.

Mr. Phillips has a number of old friends in Hico who always enjoy his visits to his old home town.

All Ex-Soldiers and Their Families Are Invited to Attend.

Big doin's for the soldier boys! Planned by ex-soldiers and members of the Junius Nash Post No. 291, American Legion, a grand celebration and get-together announced for next week is attracting wide interest, and plans are being made to entertain the boys and their families and friends at Hico next Tuesday, June 23.

W. M. Marcum, Post Commander, states that while the prime object of the celebration is to promote the interests of the local American Legion Post, still no-one is expected to do anything except have a good time. There will be no obligations attached to the gathering, in fact the general idea is to get together again and have a good time. The program as announced so far consists of a free picture Show at the Palace Theatre, compliments of Mr. Elkins, beginning at 2 p. m., followed by a meeting in the City Park later on in the evening.

Quite a few surprises are in store for the boys who make their plans to attend the party with their families and friends, according to Mr. Marcum, who promises refreshments consisting of iced drinks and sandwiches and enough entertainment for anyone who is hard to please.

The title of the picture offered for the entertainment in the early afternoon is "It Had to Happen" starring George Raft and Rosalind Russell. Tickets for this free show should be obtained from Mr. Marcum at the Southern Union gas office previous to the hour of the beginning of the show. See him today and get this fixed up.

On pages four and five of this issue of the paper will be found a double-page advertisement telling the details of the program. The advertisement was sponsored by the American Legion, the members having arranged for the space in the paper and sold the individual advertisements thereon on their own initiative. A share of the revenue remained with the Legion treasury to take care of the expenses of the entertainment next Tuesday.

Officers of the local legion post at present are: W. M. Marcum, Post Commander; H. N. Wolfe, Vice-Commander; S. W. Everett, Adjutant; H. E. McCullough, Service Officer; and J. V. Lackey, Treasurer.

Most of the veterans in this community have had business in Hico this week connected with payment on their adjusted service certificates. While the Legion is not taking it upon itself to suggest what the boys do with their bonds and checks, Mr. Marcum stated that the normal and financial support of all veterans would be appreciated by the organization which helped make payment of the bonus at this time possible.

Mayor H. F. Sellers has officially proclaimed next Tuesday, June 23, as Legion Day in Hico, and adds his invitation to those of various individuals and merchants of the town.

Veterans are not expected to spend a cent. It is only hoped that they will get into the spirit of the affair and make their plans to take part in the celebration, the first of its kind held locally in many years. In fact, Mr. Marcum states that he doubted if there had been such interest since the war, and he and other Legion officials are very anxious to have a representative crowd on hand to enjoy the various events.

METHODIST CHURCH

P. E. Shuler, Pastor
Sunday, June 21st, is "Father's Day" and will be observed with special services at the Methodist Church. Everybody is invited, but a special invitation is issued to the "Dads." More than 100 in Sunday School last Sunday, come early and let us make it 125 next Sunday, and then keep growing.
10:00 A. M. Sunday School.
11:00 A. M. Morning Worship. Father's Day sermon.
7:15 P. M. Senior League.
8:00 P. M. Evening Worship. Sermon subject, "O. K. Only."
8:00 P. M. Wednesday, Prayer Meeting. Brief discussion of some Christian doctrine by the pastor, and plenty of songs. Everybody come and let us make our Prayer Meetings a "going concern."

To Preach on Streets.

I want to preach on the streets of Hico next Saturday, June 20, between 3 and 4 in the afternoon. My text will be Luke, second chapter, 7th verse, and I'd like to see him in a manger because there was no room for them in the inn.

The question I want to try to press home to the dear people of Hico is their room in the home and like of the people of Hico for Jesus Christ.

GOES 'ROUND AND 'ROUND
And It Comes Out Here—

Dr. P. G. Hays is not minding the hot weather so badly, since he has something to look forward to in the way of a trip. He says he and Mrs. Hays plan to go to the Ozark Mountains sometime in July to enjoy a real fishing trip, rest and recreation. They will feel free to enjoy the shades and cool breezes and forget for a while about the heat and dust in Hico. We almost envy them, but hope they have a real vacation.

Morris Hareluk was looking "down in the mouth" a little this week and we asked him if he felt better again. He replied, confidentially that he was a little homesick to see the lovely nurses at Scott & White Hospital in Temple where he spent several weeks recently recovering from a major operation. Some of the doctors there told him he would not recover, but he told us that he didn't see how a patient could die when he could see so much right around him to live for. If he gets sick again, we'll almost wager that it will be "make believe" just to get to visit the hospital again. The surroundings must be perfect from the way he describes them.

We enjoyed seeing our young friend, Mrs. S. D. Purdom, at Glen Rose Sunday where she is spending the summer. She seemed to be enjoying life joining the youngsters in their sports. However we didn't see her riding a bicycle, and just wondered if she had taken up that sport yet. She was feeling fine and looking forward to the Purdom reunion which will be held there within the next few weeks. "Sallie" as she is known in Hico is loved by both the young and old.

Saturday from Dallas where he attended the Texas Centennial and is much enthused over what he saw there. He said those who had sense enough should attend this great exposition if he or she had to borrow the money to make the trip. He did not get to see half the things he wanted to and plans to make another trip there later in the summer. He saw the chief crown President Roosevelt, and many other things of interest there.

A stranger came into the office Monday and handed us $150 for the News Review for a year—name of whom was Z. T. Banks of Powell, Texas. A woman's curiosity gets the best of her sometime, so we asked him if he had some relative here he was visiting and he said he didn't know a soul around here. We were still not satisfied with our information, and asked him some more questions. He said he and two boys were passing through and the town looked pretty good and thought he would like to have the paper. He did ask a little about the oil situation, and said if any oil developments occurred he would probably see it in our paper. We believe he was looking for a location for some kind of business, and the town would welcome him and his family to our city if they could see fit to move here. We forgot to tell him we were going to have paved streets, but maybe he will see that in our paper too.

Jack Hollis, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Hollis of Hico, who left early Monday morning for points in California, said he had a ride as far as New Mexico, and from there he expected to go on the bus. But he had decided just for the fun of it to make one back door and ask for a meal, in order to have experience. If he doesn't make good in the State of flowers and beauty. We are well enough acquainted with Jack to know that he will make good wherever he goes. He has lots of Hico friends who will miss him, but perhaps he will get homesick and be back home before too long.

If you notice a scuffle at the Corner Drug Company between the soda dispensers, Geary Cheek and Bill Rusk, you will know they are both making for the front to wait on some good-looking girl. We have seen this happen a time or two and thought they were fighting but a little later discovered the trouble. Especially when an out-of-town girl makes her appearance the commotion is much greater. So if you get waited on in a hurry you will know you are attractive. We have waited several times as long as fifteen minutes before we received attention from the young men.

Hosea Warren is the new help at Porter's Drug Store since Jack Hollis left for California. Hosea, who is popular with all the young folk at Hico, is making himself right at home in the store and acts like he had been in the business for years.

The American Legion boys are wearing smiles a yard long since most of them have received their bonus bonds. Johnnie Farmer gave a whoop like a wild Indian, but most of the other boys were a little more calm about it. Several pictures of the legionnaires are on display in the window at C. L. Lynch Hardware Co. made several years ago, and it is interesting to look over the collection. J. P. Rodgers, Jr. was the first in Hico to receive his bonus bonds, but of course he had the advantage a little since he is an employe at the post office, and the first outside to receive his bonds was Goodwyn Phillips.

A Centennial Sale is going on at the Modern Cleaners, and for further information, it would pay you to read one of their circulars they had distributed this week.

Mrs. E. J. Parker is redecorating the inside of her home by adding a few coats of paint to the facings, etc. She is doing the work herself and knows the job will be done right.

Old Hico
By
Miss Margaret Proffitt

We sure have been having some hot weather this week.

Those who have been missing Sunday school, have been missing some fine lessons.
Mrs. Duzan Longbotham and son, Tommy, of Monhans has been visiting her mother and father-in-law. While here she also visited Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Smith Wednesday night and Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rainwater of Hico. She spent Saturday morning with Mrs. Audie Clark and went home Saturday afternoon.

The Sunday School took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Rainwater Sunday. It sure was a nice dinner.
Jess Massengale visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Proffitt while Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Proffitt entertained some of the neighbors with ice cream Saturday and Sunday night.
Jim Rainwater of Morgan has been spending a while here with his mother and father. He left Wednesday for Austin where he will stay awhile.

Bertie May Gossett spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. John Trammel.
Herman Spencer of Fort Worth is spending a few days here with his brother, Jim Spencer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Trammel spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. Gossett.
Several from this community attended the funeral of Mrs. Rhoades of Hico Thursday.

Mrs. Gossett and daughter, Bertie May, were in the home of Mrs. Foust while Thursday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. John Trammel and daughter were in the home of Jim Spencer Saturday morning.
Mrs. Fred Rainwater of Hico was in the home of Mrs. O. Longbotham while Friday morning.
Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Wright spent while with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shaffer Wednesday night.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD LAST FRIDAY AFTERNOON FOR DR. W. E. RUSSELL

Funeral services were held at the family home last Friday afternoon, June 12, at 3:30 o'clock for Dr. W. E. Russell, who passed away at the Baptist Hospital in Waco Thursday afternoon at 5:05 o'clock. Rev. E. E. Dawson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Hico, conducted the services.

Palbearers were E. H. Elkins, John Rusk, John Lackey, John Simonton, S. T. Hollis and H. F. Sellers.

The deceased had been in ill health for some time, but was only confined to his bed a few days prior to his death. Mrs. Russell accompanied him to the hospital and remained with him until the end came.

Dr. Russell, who had been a practicing physician in Hamilton and Erath Counties for the past forty years, was born July 16, 1864, at Walnut Springs in Bosque county. He was a son of the late Dr. W. H. and Mrs. Sarah Russell of Bosque County. He received his early education in Adran College at Thorp Springs, which is now known as T. C. U. of Fort Worth. For several years he was a registered druggist before attending medical school at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee, where he graduated in 1900, having practiced several years before graduating.

He was married to Miss Mollie Anderson July 16, 1890, at Hico. To this union six children were born, one son preceding him in death in infancy. The surviving children are: L. Col. C. W. Russell of Hamilton Field, San Rafael, California; Mrs. Rob. B. Mefferd of Stephenville; Mrs. John W. Clark of Hico; Mrs. B. B. Winn of Waco; and Mrs. B. W. Stewart of San Angelo.

Dr. Russell united with the Baptist Church in 1895, living a consecrated life until the end. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge, and took an active part in the organization as long as his duties and health permitted. Dr. Russell loved his family, his city, his work and his friends. He had met many thousands during his long career as a physician and they all respected and admired him. He spent his entire life thinking and doing for someone else, without thought of race or creed or religion. To him the philosophy of life consisted of kindness to all and an ever readiness to materially assist those less fortunate than himself. He made many calls to relieve suffering, knowing that he would not be paid in money. He was quiet of nature, but his kind deeds were shown by action more than words. In the passing of Dr. Russell the town as a whole has lost one of its most valued and loved citizens.

May his family find consolation in the priceless heritage of a perfect name and the heartfelt sympathy of all those whose privilege it was to call him a friend.

Besides his wife and children, Dr. Russell is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Wilbanks and Mrs. Jesse Jones of Walnut Springs, and Mrs. Kitty Yarbro of Van Horn, and a host of other relatives.
Out-of-town relatives attending the services were Jess Wilbanks, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. Jop Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. Pat Neal and daughter of Waco; Mrs. Joe Montgomery, Mrs. W. C. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Wilbanks, Toby Wilbanks, Russell Wilbanks, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Pool, Mrs. Whitley, and Russell Anderson of Walnut Springs; Mrs. Sallie Medley of Van Horn; Joe Holt, Stephenville; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bingham, Carlton; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Anderson and Mrs. Lizzie Anderson, Lankin; and Mr. and Mrs. John B. Sampley, Lometa.

All the children were present at the funeral, besides a host of out-of-town friends.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL HEARINGS ON STREET PAVING ASSESSMENTS.

All property owners owning property abutting on the several streets described in the Paving Ordinance passed by the City Council of Hico on June 14, 1936, and published in the Hico News Review under date of June 5th, 1936, are hereby notified to appear before the City Council on the 17th day of June, 1936, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. at the City Hall, to present their objections, if any, to the assessments against their properties for such improvements.

PAVING ORDINANCE

An ordinance providing for the paving of Fifth Street from Cedar Street to Mesquite, Green Street from Mesquite to Pecan Street, Grubb Street from Pecan Street to First Street, Fourth Street from Cedar Street to Grubb Street, Avenue B from Hickory to Elm, Hickory from Railroad Avenue to Avenue B, Rodgers Street from First to Railroad Avenue, First Street from Cedar Street to a point 350 feet West of Mary Street, Kirk Street from Grubb Street to North Street, Pecan Street from Railroad Avenue to North Street, Mesquite Street from North Street to Railroad Avenue, Railroad Avenue from Mesquite Street to Hickory Street (North Side), Cedar Street from First Street to a point 200 feet north of Fifth Street, Avenue A from Elm to Walnut Street, Railroad Avenue (South Side) from Hickory Street to Elm Street, Live Oak Street from Grubb to Avenue B, Walnut Street from Avenue B to Grubb Street, Third Street from Grubb Street to Cedar Street, North Street from Kirk Street to Mesquite Street, Elm Street from Second Street to Grubb Street. All in the City of Hico, Hamilton County, Texas, with caliche base course and Uvalde Rock Asphalt surface course, providing that cost of paving street and alley intersections are to be paid from funds available to the City of Hico for that purpose, and that property owners in residential areas be assessed ten (10) cents per front foot and in business areas twenty-five (25) cents per front foot. Providing for bearings to fix such assessments, etc., and declare an emergency.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF HICO:

Section 1: It is hereby ordered that the streets as above outlined in the City of Hico, Texas, be paved with a caliche base course of a minimum compacted depth of seven (7) inches, and a surface course of Uvalde Rock Asphalt laid seventy (70) pounds per square yard of surface, same to be rolled and treated as provided in the City Paving Project Plans approved by the Works Progress Administration.

Section 2: The said City of Hico, Texas, from funds available to them for that purpose shall pay the entire cost of paving street and alley intersections, and all costs over and above the assessment total.

Section 3: All adjacent property owners are hereby assessed per linear foot or front foot, in residential areas at ten (10) cents per front foot and in business areas at twenty-five (25) cents per front foot.

Section 4: All adjacent property owners shall, after due and legal notice, be heard at a public hearing before the City Council of the said City of Hico, Texas, on the questions of costs and respective benefits to their respective properties before assessments shall become binding.

Section 5: Upon the fixing of the amounts of assessments against each lot or parcel of adjacent property, the Mayor and City Secretary of Hico, Texas, are hereby authorized and it shall be their duty to issue the proper paving certificates in legal form to be secured by a prior and valid lien on each parcel of adjacent property as provided by the Revised Statutes of Texas. However, nothing herein shall prevent a property owner from paying his assessment in cash and upon such payment being made, no paving certificate shall be issued. Such paving certificates shall be payable upon terms and deferred payments shall bear the rate of interest provided for by the statutes of this State.

Section 6: An emergency herein is created by the immediate availability of Works Progress Administration funds requiring the suspension of the rules and this ordinance shall take effect immediately upon its passage and approval by the Mayor and publication.

Approved this 1st day of June, A. D. 1936.

Still Soars!

Members of Junius Nash Post No. 291, American Legion, are reviving their organization and hope to have the cooperation of every Veteran and citizen of this territory. Never will the days of association during the World War be forgotten, and there is no better way of keeping the old spirit alive than through an active American Legion organization. This double-page spread is sponsored by the local post, in the hope that interest will be revived. But whether you intend to take any further part in Legion work or not, we want you to come out next Tuesday and take part in the celebration we are planning for you and yours.

Texas Guns

by L. P. HOLMES

Third Installment.

SYNOPSIS . . . Silas Spelle, high-handed, low-principled cattle baron, is out to smash the local bank and force foreclosure on the small ranchers of the Kanab desert country so that he can seize their range lands. He is opposed by E. Starbuck, president of the Cattleman's Bank, and by San Juan Delevan, prominent rancher who has been crippled by a fall from his horse. Tex Whipple and his partner, Johnny Clehoo, are compunchers employed by San Juan Delevan to fight the rustlers and protect his interests.

NEW ON WITH THE STORY
"Better make the most of it, Silas," cautioned Tex. "Gosh knows when yuh'll get any more."
As soon as it was light enough to read a sign Tex got busy. First he rode in a wide circle about the Springs, peering closely at the dust and sand of the desert floor. Johnny followed closely at his heels. They completed a circle of about a mile when Tex pulled up and while rolling a smoke peered with keen eyes out to the northwest.

"Delevan had the right hunch," he drawled. "Wade an' the rest of those coyotes double-crossed their own boss."
Johnny, who had learned a lot about reading sign from Tex, nodded.

"Yep. They jest cut out ninety or a hundred head an' headed 'em northwest with two men on the drag. The rest they took on to the Box D. They coked up that yarn about rustlers as a blind an' figured the wind would wipe out the tracks before anybody could prove 'em a liar."

"Shore, yuh're learnin' son. Lemme see. Wade an' his gang musta left Skelton Springs about noon yesterday. The tracks show that's about right. Tha gives 'em about seventeen, eighteen hours start. They can't drive them cattle any too fast 'cause that long drive in to the Springs musta had 'em pretty well fagged. I gotta hunch we can catch 'em 'C'mon."

At noon Tex halted enough to loosen the saddle girths for a moment while he poured a mouthful or two of water from a canteen into the cup of his hat and let the three ponies wash the dust from their throats and nostrils. Then the ponies were taken up again and the steady grind resumed. At about three in the afternoon Tex rose in his stirrups and pointed ahead. There, maybe five miles distant, lay a drifting cloud of dust.

Tex increased the pace perceptibly and an hour later he and Johnny came to the edge of a wide dry lake, across the middle of which weary, thirsty lines of hereford cattle slowly filed. In the rear, hazing the cattle onward, two men were riding, swinging the ends of lariats across the backs of laggards, fighting the inevitable slowing down of the herd.

"Caught 'em," rasped Tex through cracked, dust-caked lips. "Reckon mebbe we're in for a fight, son. O' course they may ran for it, but I don't think so. Well, get yore hawgaig loose in the leather."
Tex and Johnny lifted their broncos into a gallop and pounded down across the quarter mile which separated them from the rustlers and the cattle. So absorbed were the rustlers in their work they did not guess at their pursuers' proximity until hardly fifty yards separated them. Then one of them happened to turn and look back. He shouted to his companion, jerked out a gun and wheeled his horse to one side.

"Watch yoreself, kid," yelled Tex. "I'll take the one on the right."
Both the rustlers were shooting now. They were desperate, fired men, their nerves on edge from weariness and bodily discomfort and faced with the knowledge that they were caught cold with the stolen cattle in front of them. To surrender was to put their necks in a noose. They would fight it out.

Johnny picked his man and went at him on a run, leaning low over his bronco's neck. He heard the whisper of flying lead above him, but he held his own fire until not twenty yards separated him from the rustler. Then he reined his horse to a sudden stop, sat up straight and loosed two careful, deliberate shots. In the interval between his first and second shot something lifted his sombrero from his head. But he did not flinch, determined to make the most of his careful shooting. Harum-scarum as the plan was it worked. With the second report of Johnny's Colt the rustler stiffened and pitched headlong from his saddle.

Then Johnny turned to see how Tex was making it. A gulp of fear rose in his throat. Tex's horse was down and kicking. He himself lay, half sat to one side, but shooting deliberately at the outlaw was backing away, holding the rear of his head and neck before him as a shield. Johnny gave a quick tug in the spurs, reined in on the rustler at a angle.

Johnny was shooting now, trying to draw the outlaw's attention from Tex. He succeeded but found himself suddenly clicking the hammer of his gun on empty cylinders.
Realizing his predicament Johnny kneeled his horse away, snicking back the loading gate and punching out the empty shells as he rode. Quick to grasp his opportunity the rustler poised himself for a careful shot at the fleeing Johnny. For a split second the rustler was stationary and Tex, now on his knees and aiming carefully over his left forearm, pulled trigger on the last loaded chamber in his gun. Close on the heels of Tex's shot came another. But the rustler's bullet went wild for he was already falling from the saddle, shot in the temple.

Johnny whirled his horse about and galloped back relieved to see Tex rise to his feet and come limp in forward.

"Yuh dang fool kid," barked Tex wrathfully, though he knew the wrath was merely a cloak to deep emotions. "What's the idee o' yore chargin' in thataway command. 'Ain't there anything but damn fools in this place? Move over to that cage door and unlock it. Keep yore hands in plain sight. One phoney move an' there'll be three dead men instead o' two. Hurry up!"

Moving with the mechanical stiffness of an automaton, Burney walked jerkily to the cage door. Burney was a mild little man, totally unused to scenes of violence, supremely contented with his position amid his endless columns of figures. What had just taken place had filled him with dread and horror and had stunned all thought and initiative.

Beyond the barrier the bandit who had done the shooting kept step with him. When Burney lowered his hands to the lock the bandit jabbed his gun through the bars until the muzzle nearly touched Burney's throat. The latter reached slightly. The stink of powder gas was strong in his nostrils. His fingers rumbled at the lock. The door swung back. Little as a weasel the bandit was inside, his gun buried deep against Burney's side. The second bandit crowded in at their heels.

He reined to a sudden stop and loosed two careful, deliberate shots with an empty gun? Wanta get yoreself salvated?"

"Shucks," muttered Johnny. "How'd I know yuh wa't hit? Yuh was down wa'n' yuh? An' him stannin' at yuh all the time? What did yuh want me to do, sit back an' lead the cheerin' section?"

"Well," growled Tex "Yuh might have some respect for my feelin's. If I'd o' missed him he'd o' got yuh shore."
"Mebbe-mebbe," grinned Johnny. "But believe me I was skeedadin' to heat hell."
"Where's yore hat?" demanded Tex irrelevantly. "I suppose yuh rode right up to that other jasper an' slapped him in the face with it?"

"Nope," retorted Johnny. "He lifted it off with a .45 jest before I plugged him. Well, it looks like we done got a herd o' cattle an' two daid rustlers on our hands. Tex. An' they's two broncos for yuh to take yore pick of. I'll round 'em up for yuh."
While Johnny was busy with this errand Tex rolled a cigarette with shaking, fumbling fingers. He was blinking his eyes rapidly to keep back the moisture.

"Yuh dang, heller-skelter, loyal, gully young cub," he muttered. "What would I do without yuh?"
Then he blew his nose loudly and set to getting his saddle off his dead bronco.

Tom Burney, book-keeper of the Cattleman's Bank in Carlliken, stared in a stunned, horrified, apathetic sort of a way at the doorway leading into Ed Starbuck's private office. Sprawled on his face across the sill was Ed Starbuck. His one arm was outstretched before him and a few inches in front of his extended fingers lay the heavy revolver the old man had not been swift enough to use. A little pool of crimson was beginning to spread on the floor near one shoulder of the still figure.

Almost at Starbuck's feet lay another body, that of Al Stinson, the Cashier of the bank. He also had made the mistake of reaching for a gun. Tom Burney wrenched his eyes from the dead men and stared through his window at the two masked figures beyond. The round, unwinning muzzle of the frontier model Colt which was trained just at his waistline seemed to possess some hypnotic quality. It had the same cold, magnetism suggestion which lies in the upraised head of a rattlesnake about to strike. A thread of vile smoke was trickling above it. Two shots and two men dead! A muscle twisting shudder rippled through Burney's body. He could feel the great blobs of sweat gather on his forehead. In a purely mechanical manner he started to lower his right hand to brush the moisture away.

"Keep 'em up!" came the harsh command. "Ain't there anything but damn fools in this place? Move over to that cage door and unlock it. Keep yore hands in plain sight. One phoney move an' there'll be three dead men instead o' two. Hurry up!"
Moving with the mechanical stiffness of an automaton, Burney walked jerkily to the cage door. Burney was a mild little man, totally unused to scenes of violence, supremely contented with his position amid his endless columns of figures. What had just taken place had filled him with dread and horror and had stunned all thought and initiative.

"Now the vault," ordered the killer. "Don't tell me yuh don't know the combination."
"I-I know it," mumbled Burney.
"Get busy then."

Burney bent over the combination. His fingers, fumbling and clumsy, twisted the dial. Once he overshoot a number and spelled the set up. The alert bandit snarled. "Don't stall for time. If anybody comes before yuh get the vault open yuh get a slug, savvy?"
Burney nodded mechanically and ran a furry tongue over his dry lips. He began again. This time he went through the numbers without a mistake. The final tumbler clicked. He wisted the handle and set himself against the weight of the vault door. The massive portal swung back. The next instant something crashed against the back of his head with terrific force and he felt himself falling—falling—!

The robbery when the bank failed to open its doors at the regular time. Burney was still alive but when Doc McMurdo, a hard-bitten, sour, silent old Scotchman examined him, he shook his head. He had Burney carried to his home where he did the best he could for the stricken man. Burney died just before four o'clock that afternoon from a concussion of the brain. Before he went he had a brief spell of delirium and throughout the broken jumble was a single phrase that he reiterated again and again. Doc McMurdo was alone with Burney at the time and as he listened a queer, calculating expression crossed his hard-bitten features.

The sheriff Gorman made a hasty investigation in a very imposing, mysterious manner, then wired for a bank examiner to handle the bank's affairs. Two days later he had vanished, taking the trail back to Westhaven. The bank examiner made some hasty calculations and pronounced the bank insolvent. The day after this was announced Silas Spelle rode into Carlliken and was closeted for several hours with the examiner. When he left, Spelle's face was twisted in a smirk of triumph. He had won again.

Hall of Religion Dedication.
The Hall of Religion at the Texas Centennial will be dedicated next Sunday afternoon, June 21, at 2:15 o'clock. The dedication services will be broadcast over stations WFAA, WBAP, WOAI and KPCC for thirty minutes from 2:15 to 2:45. The Rt. Rev. Harry T. Moore, Bishop of Dallas Episcopal Church, will deliver the address, and many prominent ministers of all faiths will have parts in the service.

Althart of South Gate, California; Mrs. John L. Hallen of Snyder, Texas; and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dickson of Huntington Park, California.

Miss Ruby Wood, who recently returned to her duties with a telephone company in Dallas, after a visit here with her mother and sister, Mrs. M. E. Wood and Miss Fannie Wood, received a fracture of the bone in one of her feet when she fell in Dallas soon after her return from Hico. She had the place put in a cast and at this time is getting along nicely.

Helping Hand Class Entertained at Mrs. Lackey's

The Helping Hand Class of the Methodist Church was entertained on the afternoon of July 9th by Mrs. John Lackey and Mrs. N. A. Leeth at the Lackey home. Much business was transacted. The class voted to help buy a bed and springs for the paragonage and to send flowers to Mrs. McFadden, convalescing from an appendicitis operation.

To add to the depleted class treasury, we had agreed previously to pay on that day a penny an inch of each individual's waist measure. The prizes were won by Mrs. Marvin Marshall and Mrs. Tyrus King. The plan for the monthly entertainment in July was made for a picnic at the park at 4 o'clock, each member bringing a stated part of the picnic lunch.

Delicious ice cream and cake were served to the following members: Mesdames Dick Hollis, John Dix, Owens, Shuler, A. L. Ford, George Stringer, Dave Jones, Whigham, J. B. Russell, Marvin Marshall, John Haynes, Tyrus King, Wyatt Malone, Tom Munnerlyn, Lusk Randals, Jim D. Wright, and Annie Waggoner. REPORTER.

Miss Sellers Complimented With Bridge Party Friday

Among the series of prenuptial parties for Miss Doris Sellers, bride-elect of Horton Harold Tracy, Jr. of Carrizo, New Mexico, was a bridge party given by Miss Pauline Driskell at her home last Friday evening.

The living room was colorful for the occasion with Summer flowers in bowls and vases about the room and each table was centered with white rosebuds. Plate favors were miniature brides and grooms.

In the games, Miss Sellers won high score and Miss Mary Helen Hall low, and both were presented with prizes. Miss Sellers also received a guest's prize.

At the conclusion of the games, Miss Driskell served a salad course to Mesdames Gertie Lee Oxford, Saralee Hudson, Thoma Rodgers, Emma Dee Hall, Jean and Jane Wolfe, Ann Persons, Mary Helen Hall, Doris Sellers, Marguerite Fairry, Mildred Hooker of Stephenville, and Mrs. Joe Clark.

Morning Coffee Given Tuesday For Miss Sellers

Among the many hospitalities extended Miss Doris Sellers preceding her marriage to Mr. Horton Harold Tracy, Jr., Saturday night, June 29, was a morning coffee at the Bluebonnet Country Club Tuesday from 10 to 12 o'clock, when Mrs. F. M. Mings, Miss Emma Dee Hall and Mrs. Paul McCullough, the latter of Goldthwaite, were co-hostesses.

A yellow and white color scheme was carried out. The table from which the coffee was poured was covered with a white lace cloth over yellow, the centerpiece of yellow flowers, flanked by white candles in yellow holders. Mrs. May Petty poured coffee the first hour, and Mrs. H. E. McCullough the second. Miss Pauline Driskell had charge of the guest book.

Those in the houseparty were: Mrs. Mel R. Summers of Wichita Falls, Mrs. H. F. Sellers, Miss Irene Frank, Mrs. H. N. Wolfe, Miss Pauline Driskell, Miss Mary Helen Hall, Miss Anna Lee Persons, Misses Jean and Jane Wolfe, Mrs. Ed Gilliam, Jr. of Goldthwaite, Miss Saralee Hudson, Mrs. Raymond Little of Goldthwaite, Miss Marguerite Fairry.

Mrs. Gilford Scott and Mrs. Rufus McKinney of Goldthwaite, and Mrs. Clyde Weatherby of Hamilton.

These famous smiles all in a row. The President and Mrs. Roosevelt enjoying Texas hospitality on their tour of the State last week.

Austin—Texans were host to the President of the United States and Mrs. Roosevelt last week. At least a million Texans greeted the noted visitors personally, with full throated yells of welcome, waving sombreros, flags and whistles.

Serving as official host and hostess for the Lone Star State were Governor and Mrs. James V. Allred, who met the President and Mrs. Roosevelt when their special train arrived at Texarkana last Wednesday night and accompanied them on the train during the three-day swing around the state, through Houston, San Antonio and Austin to Dallas.

Notes From Office Of Hamilton Co. Home Dem. Agent

My Work as a Clothing Demonstrator. When the Blue Ridge Home Demonstration Club chose me for their Clothing Demonstrator, I knew it was an honor to me, but I did realize the great benefit and pleasure I would derive from the work.

How My Club Work Has Helped. I began my first club work in September 1935, at that time I was elected Wardrobe Demonstrator. I felt very unfit for the place, as I had never done a lot of sewing, and others in the club had sewed so much more than I. But I was anxious to do the best I could, said Mrs. Ernest Dunn of the Indian Gap Club. She got a notebook to keep a record of the clothing purchased for her husband, her four-year-old girl and herself and recorded the articles of clothing that were on hand and the articles needed.

She planned their wardrobe around the clothing they already had, keeping in mind that she wanted to be economical. She ordered bulletins from A and M College at College Station, Texas, and from United States Department of Agriculture at Washington, D. C. on "Care of Fabrics" and "Guides in Sewing" and "How to Purchase Ready-Made Dresses."

How Demonstration Has Helped. "My foundation pattern ranks as my greatest achievement in my work as wardrobe demonstrator of the Tonkawa Club," said Miss Lillian Glover. I have also learned to aid in making patterns, kept records of clothing expenditures for my family, promoted the building of a new clothes closet and received help on being well groomed.

W. H. (BILL) McDONALD Of Eastland For State Land Commissioner

W. H. (BILL) McDONALD OF EASTLAND, OUT FOR LAND COMMISSIONER, VISITS HICO

A citizen of a neighboring county, W. H. (Bill) McDonald of Eastland, was a visitor in Hico on Wednesday in the interest of his race for State Land Commissioner.

"My opponent has been on the public payroll for 33 years and is staying on there now though out campaigning for office. He is a deputy in the Land Office and has drawn something like $75,000 from the people during his long tenure in office. The depression never worried him; he didn't miss a day's pay."

McDonald charged that assessors had been levied against employees of the Land Office to provide a political war-chest against him and that deputies were out electioneering and putting up the placards of his opponent.

The Eastland man said that his rival was supporting a policy to put the State into the business of hunting for oil on hundreds of thousands of acres—that dry holes would cost the taxpayers millions of dollars that could be used to better advantage in paying adequate old age pensions and that his opponent was in favor of using convict drilling crews when there are thousands of Texas citizens out of work.

McDonald, 36, a World War veteran, pledged businesslike methods that would increase the revenue and restore teachers' salaries to their former level. He worked his way through college as a railway yard clerk, studied law at night and has been a practicing attorney for nine years.

REHEARSALS UNDER WAY AT FRONTIER CENTENNIAL

PORT WORTH, June 15.—Rehearsals got under way Monday for two of the major productions of the Fort Worth Frontier Centennial, the 162 acre fun festival and theatrical round-up opening here July 1 under the aegis of Billy Rose.

Most elaborate of the shows and the one which gave Fort Worth this week the feverish excitement of Broadway before a big opening is the Frontier Follies, a lavish musical production to be staged in the cafe-theatre called Casa Manana.

The vanguard of Broadway show girls and male dancers were brought in to augment the vast array of Texas beauties selected for Casa Manana show. Principals will include Everette Marshall, famed baritone who appeared last season in Ziegfeld's Follies and has recently completed a moving picture for MGM.

The Lime Trio who appeared in the New York success "Life Begins at 8:40" and the team of Walter Dare Wahl will carry the comedy roles.

Paul Whiteman's Orchestra will play and stars such as Dick Powell, Fannie Brice, Maurice Chevalier and others hold the spotlight on successive weeks throughout the summer.

Other major show in rehearsal this week is the Wild and Whoopie show called "The Last Frontier," a hard-riding, shoot-up cowboy, soldier and Indian melee to be staged on a cast piece of the out-of-doors built up to look like a section of Palo Pinto County.

Virtually every well-known Roddey star, including the Western movie queen, Mabel Strickland, will participate in "The Last Frontier." So will the Black Horse Troop from the Second U. S. Cavalry at Fort Riley, Kansas, costumed in uniforms like those of their predecessors, the old Seco Dragoons who established Fort Worth.

Third major show of the Frontier Centennial will be Billy Rose's "Jumbo" brought down from New York where it ran last season in the Hippodrome.

CARD OF THANKS We wish to express our sincere thanks to all those who rendered assistance and kind deeds and for their sympathy during the illness and at the death of our mother and friend. FRANK AND JOHN GREEN AND FAMILIES. MRS. L. V. MOON. 4-1tp.

TEXAS HISTORY RECORDED IN GIGANTIC OAK TRUNK AT TEXAS CENTENNIAL

DALLAS, Texas, June 15.—The History of Texas from the cession of Louisiana to Spain in 1762 to and including the world war is recorded in a cross-section of the trunk of a gigantic oak tree which is part of the scientific exhibit in the federal building at the Texas Centennial Exposition.

The exhibit is labeled, "The Tree that Records History" and the tree, known as the General Gordon Oak grew on the estate of Mrs. Bettie K. Grieg, the old Governor Hamilton farm, near Austin. The tree was the result of the natural grafting of five trunks together and the cross-section of the trunk is roughly six-feet in diameter. The trunk shows three "rings" for each year and scientists have determined its growth began in 1756.

Groups of incandescent lights are arranged across the trunk in pairs with an arrow pointing from each light to its corresponding light. A row of electric buttons set into a specially made device and over each button is labeled some salient incident in Texas history. If the visitor pushes the button labeled, "Texas Revolution 1835," two lights will become illuminated showing the diameter of the tree's trunk at that time.

The great tree has a branch-spread of 40 feet and convenient limbs were frequently in demand in the hard days of Texas. There is a legend that on one occasion 21 men were hanged from the General Gordon Oak together. The tree died in 1934. The exhibit was prepared by Dr. E. M. Jones, professor of biology at Baylor University.

The entire scientific exhibit is a co-operative effort involving the Smithsonian Institute, the U. S. Public Health Service, and five Texas Colleges, Universities and Institutes, S. M. U. T. C. U., University of Texas, Texas A. & M. College, Baylor University and Rice Institute.
