

One of Hico's pioneer citizens, R. J. Driskell, celebrated his 88th birthday on Monday of this week. His great granddaughter, little Miss Pat Rosamond of Dallas who is here visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Anna Driskell, invited Mr. Driskell to that home where a delicious birthday dinner was prepared in his honor. A cake containing 88 candles centered the table. Despite the loss of one eye, and the weakness of the other, Mr. Driskell attends to all of his business as usual, and lives alone and does his own housekeeping. He comes to town twice daily most of the time and has a distance of several blocks to walk. He gets around much better than most men much younger than he, and seems to enjoy living. Mr. Driskell has many friends who enjoy chats with him about many things a pioneer has experienced.

A widow of a Hico farmer had some difficulty with her hens, and wrote the following letter to the board of agriculture: "Something is wrong with my chickens. Every morning I find two or three lying on the ground cold and stiff with their feet in the air. Can you tell me what is the matter? After a little while she received the following reply: "Dear Madam: Your chickens are dead."

J. P. Rodgers, Sr., who spent several days in Waco recently while his daughter, Miss Thoma, attended the Centennial in Dallas, says he is glad to be home again, and thinks the town of Waco might sometime be as good a town as Hico if it continues to keep growing.

Master Buddy Esry of Dallas, who is here visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Pierce who live on the McLarty farm near town, accompanied his grandfather to the News Review office on Monday of this week. We had quite a chat with Buddy and learned that his father was a knotype operator for the Board of Education in Dallas at the Tech High School. The boy has learned a lot about the trade and enjoyed watching our machine perform. Since he has been here, he has been on one fishing trip and besides catching fish, caught a number of frogs and turtles. He celebrated his 11th birthday on the 11th of this month while his grandfather's occurred on the 32th. Buddy has attended the Centennial at Dallas five times and plans to take his grandparents over the grounds if they will accompany him home. Buddy, the next time you come back to Hico, come around to see us again.

Connecticut newspapers report the case of a mother in that state tucked her three-year-old into bed, when he kicked up his heels, and broke the mother's jaw in three places. We have heard of unusual things happening in Texas, but not an incidence of this kind.

C. L. Woodward is enjoying life now for after banking hours he takes a horse-back ride. He keeps one of Jim D. Wright's fine horses at his home for this purpose. Mr. Woodward prefers this sport to golfing, swimming, pool playing or walking.

"Cookie," the dog belonging to E. F. Porter is being expertly trained by his master. According to Mr. Porter, since shearing the dog, the canine uses his bushy tail for a shaving brush when the master starts to shave. And at night the tail is sprayed with mosquito dope, and the dog running about the house keeps out the mosquitoes. Early Monday morning the dog further displayed his skill by bringing a nice-sized chicken and set it down in front of Porter's Drug Store and walked away. Since the chicken was not injured in any way, it walked away too. After so many citizens saw the occurrence of Monday morning, it was a little embarrassing to Mr. Porter, for some of them declared he had taught the dog to "bring home the bacon," and not to the store.

A minister in a neighboring town said in one of his sermons that if he had the power he'd dump all beer and other moonshine over there in the river. The choir leader then announced the song: "Shall We Gather at the River?"

The contest at the Corner Drug Co. will close on Saturday night of this week at the hour of 9:29 p. m. The children are working hard this week and probably by Monday afternoon they will know the winner of the bicycle. The five highest in the race are: Billy Jean Williamson, Louise Blair, Carolyn Holford, Bill D. Smith and Raymond Hefner.

Little Miss Betty June Hooper who spent the past four weeks in Hico visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hooper and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gamble, has returned to her home in Sweetwater. Betty June's visits to Hico are interesting to a number of people since the six-year-old child is such a wonderful character. In her conversations she springs some things that grown-ups are surprised at. She is a winsome little person.

A Hico youth the other day asked his mother if he descended from a monkey. The mother replied that she was not sure as she had never seen any of his father's people.

Following is an article handed us Tuesday by Robert Hancock, and this is the way he sees it: "The question was asked in last week's column just who the old lady would vote for. Well, I went to see her about it and here's what she told me. She said the wood I cut was too long for her stove, and also said I broke her axe handle. Then she told me Mr. Shelton was churning butter milk and wore out the churn dash. A cow ran into Mr. Stanford's fence and tore it up. Mr. Lane got the pension blank made out all o. k. but just for $13.10. But I'll tell you I knew — well when I saw Uncle Sam Clark building that bridge that was off with the rest of us. The bridge is still standing and the old lady is proud of it, so she let her conscience be her guide and voted for Uncle Sam. Congratulations, Uncle Sam."

TO THE VOTERS OF THE TWENTY-FIRST SENATORIAL DISTRICT:

With only a few votes yet to be counted in the district the returns show that I am some fifteen hundred votes ahead of my nearest opponent in my race for State Senator. I want you to know that I am eternally grateful for this tremendous support that has been given me and will certainly try to merit the confidence which has been expressed by the voters. I lead the ticket in four of the five counties in spite of last minute attacks which involved a tremendous expenditure of money. Again I can only say I am grateful and invite your support in the second primary. Sincerely yours,
J. MANLEY HEAD, Candidate for State Senator.

THANKS
By this method I wish to express my sincere appreciation and gratitude for the splendid support given me in my race for the office of Clerk of the District Court of Hamilton County, in the primary of July 25th, and I want to thank each and every one who voted for me or assisted me in any manner. I want to commend my opponents, who are all fine gentlemen, for the fair race and campaign which they made.

As the campaign has narrowed down to two contestants, a runoff being necessary as no candidate received a majority, and being in the runoff, I want to continue to present my candidacy for the consideration of the citizens of Hamilton County, and I shall make an active campaign as possible and endeavor to see every voter personally and solicit your support before the runoff primary, August 22nd. Being unable to own a car, I am somewhat laboring under a handicap, but will do everything possible to contact every voter. I cordially invite the public to investigate my standing as a man and my qualifications to fill the office which I seek and I feel sure that you will give my candidacy favorable consideration. May I assure you that I shall sincerely appreciate any favors shown me, and again I want to thank you. Respectfully,
KARL E. JACKSON,
Candidate for the office of District Clerk of Hamilton County, Texas.

Lets Talk About Clothes

TEXAS STATE COLLEGE WOMEN (CIA)

Denton, July 28.—Toward mid-summer clothes need very little attention. You probably have already purchased everything you will need for summer, and it's a little too early to begin planning your fall wardrobe.

So, attention is now focused on your physical appearance, and the first thing to consider is your skin. During the hot summer months your skin becomes very oily, it does not have a healthy glow and blackheads are present in unusual numbers. This is because hot rays of the sun draw out moisture from the surface of the skin and leave it here to dry and make blackheads.

To remedy this, beauty experts suggest a rather dry cleansing cream. It will thoroughly cleanse your skin, and will help to retain the natural oils that are necessary for a healthy appearance. After you have creamed your face, wrap an ice cube in cotton, dip it into your favorite freshener and smooth it over your face and neck. This is especially good before putting on make-up and you'll be surprised at the glowing results. Slightly diluted lemon juice serves as a splendid tonic for your skin.

In summer there's nothing that can take the place of soap and water. But be careful how you use this on your face. Soap has the tendency to draw out all the natural oils of the skin, and unless you use a foundation cream after it, your skin will become dry and rough. Be sure to use only slightly warm water, and rinse with plenty of cold water.

When making up your face, be careful how you put on powder. So often we see women who look like they have been "dipped in a flour barrel." Powder won't cover up blemishes, and it just clogs the pores and gives your face a flaky appearance. Put plenty of powder on, to be sure, but after you have finished, girls at Texas State College for Women (CIA) suggest that you gently brush excess powder away with a soft brush. Your natural appearance will be restored.

THE TORCH-LIGHT PARADE OF BY-GONE CAMPAIGNS

Nancy Hart's HOME NEWS

Let's get at the bottom of things to begin with. How are your feet being treated and how do they feel about it? Hot and tired and complaining? That means poor circulation. Most likely, try exchanging massage services with your daughter or neighbor.

When you're in a big hurry and a run in your stockings threatens to waste precious moments, stop it with a drop of nail-polish. The drop will withstand several washings. And while we're close to the subject of nail-polish: Have you ever found a man who liked bright polish on his wife's or girl-friend's nails? Whether or not it is smart will never be agreed upon anyway, so why not stick to what "he" likes?

A white pique jacket is an invaluable addition to the summer wardrobe. A sleeveless Eton can be made out of half-yard of material. Wear it over prints and pastels, with white accessories, and over black for the smart black-and-white effect.

Girls can do worse than trying a kitchen campaign on their Big Moment. Invest in the frilliest apron in town and make him some fudge. The secret of good fudge doesn't lie in the recipe. A friend of ours who makes the best fudge we've ever eaten does it mostly by guess. A couple of cups of sugar, enough cocoa to make the sugar dark, and milk to make a rather thin mixture. But she never stirs it once after the soft-ball test has determined that it has boiled long enough. And she never beats it until it is entirely cold. You'll have a hard time beating it, and will have to work fast the second it loses its sheen and should be turned into a pan. But you'll be rewarded by candy of unexpected excellence, as smooth as the most expensive butter-cream on the market.

We are giving thanks for some new rubber hair wavers. Too many restless nights have we spent trying to sleep on various kinds of metal curlers. The new rubber ones are inexpensive, too.

Household Hint: A lemon is never squeezed dry, except by an electric reamer. Utilize those few otherwise wasted drops of juice by rubbing darkened hands and elbows with the peels before you throw them away.

WHAT FARMING PAYS BEST? No truer words about agriculture have ever been written than these:

"Study it when and where you will, you will find this true in the long run: The farmer who farms first of all to have a good farm, and make a good living makes a good living and some money too. But the farmer who makes it a matter of farming only to make money makes neither money nor a living."

In Austin county 64 club girls have been improving their bedrooms. They refinished 115 pieces of furniture. They made bed inens, spring and mattress covers and pads, and towels. They added 36 pairs of window curtains, and screened windows. All this improvement cost the girls $210.15 and is valued at $455.55.

Don't mistake your own incompetence for a financial depression.

Sunday School Lesson

by Rev. Charles E. Duman

Phillip's Missionary Labors. Lesson for August 2nd. Acts 8: 26-40.

Golden Text: Acts 8: 4. Phillip the Evangelist began his career as a deacon. A lay preacher, he was well qualified, though not an ordained minister, to interpret the Bible and herald the gospel. And he was highly successful. Going to Samaria he captured the city by the magic of his speech, and the healing power of his gracious personality.

There is something very appealing about this mission of Phillip the Samaritan, who were of mixed blood, were cordially hated by the Jews. For Phillip to go into such a hostile center and bring to bear upon it the spirit of Christ is immensely heartening as we think of our own acute race problem today.

Our Negro population numbers about twelve millions. There are some 43,000 Negro churches in the midst with a membership of 5,200,000. The best music that has come out of America are the Negro spirituals. And how well these are sung by Roland Hayes, a full-blooded Negro!

Yet we are all aware of the very serious disabilities and discriminations against which our Negro brethren struggle, often in vain. The color line is drawn very tightly. And the same unreasoning, ungenerous prejudice is now at work in the prevailing attitude toward the Jew.

When Billy Rose set out to produce a new kind of circus he did. Truly it may be said that "Jumbo" is the first upset to tradition in the sawdust ring in 100 years. As Brainy Bowers, the comic character in the big show observes with scorn, "Women? Women in a coikis? Dames wid big muscles. No sex appeal. Sex appeal, dat's what dey want." And that's precisely what they get in "Jumbo" which is one of the main attractions at the Fort Worth Frontier.

The children are: Bascom and Ralph Mitchell of Iredell, Don Mitchell of South Texas, Mrs. T. C. Granberry of Stephenville and Mrs. Oliver Anderson of Fort Worth, and were here at the funeral. Maude was converted in her young days and joined the Methodist Church and lived a consecrated christian until the end. She was a regular attendant at church services when she could do so. She was in ill health a few years before she passed away. She died of pneumonia. She was well taken care of by her husband, children, doctors and friends. Everything was done for her that could be done. Her life was lived out and she went home to God without a struggle. The sweet influence of her life will live on and on. I have known Maude for many years. We were in school together and were classmates. I loved her very much. No doubt some of the middle-aged ones here remember the happy school days we all had. Several of our classmates have passed on to the home above. Maude had many friends for she was loved by all and was a friend to all. We all were sad by her death but we know she is now free from sorrow and pain and is watching for her loved ones and friends to meet her. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon in the Methodist Church in the presence of a very large host of friends and relatives who came to pay to her their last respects to her memory. Rev. Craig held the funeral, assisted by Rev. Jackson. The floral offerings were very large and beautiful which told of the high esteem she was held. Her husband has lost a loving wife and the children a fond loving mother. The town has lost a true friend and is missed by all. Dead Maude, you are gone from us but not forgotten. The remains were laid to rest in the cemetery east of

THANK YOU

Thank you, friends, for your loyal support given to me in the election last Saturday. I appreciate every consideration you gave which resulted in my election without a run-off. I felt that my friends would stand by me, and in return, I will continue to give the same efficient service I have always tried to give you. Thanks to everyone for their loyalty and faith in me.

Your friend,
R. J. (Bob) RILEY.

TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT NO. 3

The returns of the Primary placed me in the lead by 219 votes over my nearest opponent, and to the friends who made this success possible I express my thanks and deep appreciation.

In nature of things I can not return this favor in a personal way, but I hope that they may feel repaid by the work that I have done in the past, and what I may do in the future to build up the precinct and keep the County on the sound financial basis that for many years it has maintained.

I thank also, those of my opponents who have conducted their race on a high plane, and avoided personalities.

I trust that the supports of those no longer in the race will again consider my ability to carry on the work of the precinct, and I assure them and everyone, fair treatment and a courteous hearing at any time they may have business with the County.

Sincerely,
S. A. CLARK
10-11c.

MILLER THANKS VOTERS

For the support received in my race for Representative, which I conducted in as clean a manner as I knew how, I want to thank the people of the district. I feel that my youth and inexperience in politics and my inability to campaign over the entire district kept me from receiving sufficient votes to enter the second primary. I heartily endorse Mr. Livingston to the voters and believe that he should be the next Representative of the district.

JOHN E. MILLER.

TO THE VOTERS OF HAMILTON COUNTY

It is with a heart that wells up with gratitude, that I thank this method of expressing my thanks to you for the honor you have seen fit to confer upon me for the last eighteen years by permitting me to serve you as Clerk of the District Court, an honor acquired by few. Nor in accepting my defeat do I hold any ill will against any one, but still hope to count you as my friend, and that friendship may last throughout our earthly career.

Of the two gentlemen who were successful in gaining a place in the run off, permit me to say: It becomes my duty, as a citizen, to support one of them, and knowing the duties of the office, as I do, the qualifications necessary to its successful operation, I shall not be influenced by friendship, sympathy or financial condition of either party, but shall cast my vote for the one whom I think can and will make you the best officer.

Yours very truly,
L. A. MORRIS
10-11c.

CARD of THANKS.

To My Friends and Voters of Precinct 3:

From the returns of the Election board I find that you gave me your full support for Justice of the Peace.

Were I a master manipulator of the English language, I am sure that I could not find words that would fully express my deep appreciation to my many friends and all those who voted for me.

Believe me to be sincerely and loyally, your friend,

J. C. Rodgers
