Brownell Resigns As GOP Chief

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Herbert Brownell, Jr., has notified party leaders that he intends to resign as chairman of the Republican National Committee.

The resignation will be submitted formally at a meeting of the committee here April 1.

Brownell, political associate of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey for more than 14 years, has decided to give his whole time to practicing law in New York.

Johnny Meets A Playmate

O'Dwyer Pleas For Murray To Prevent Transit Strike

General Marshall Witnesses Signing Of Unity Contract

CHUNGKING —(AP)— An agreement merging Central Government and Communist forces into one national Chinese army was signed Monday at a ceremony witnessed by General Marshall, special U. S. Reorganization Committee.

"This agreement represents the hope of China," General Marshall asserted after the signing. "I can only hope that its pages will not be soiled by small groups of irrecon-cilables, who for a selfish purpose would defeat the Chinese people in their overwhelming desire for the right to live in peace and prosperity.

The agreement provides for reuction of government forces to 50 livisions and Communist troops to 10 divisions within 18 months.

Signing the document were Gen. Chang Chih-Chung, for the govrnment, and Gen. Shou En-Lai Communist representative. To Speed Rehabilitation The agreement states that its obect is to facilitate the economic ehabilitation of China and provide basis for development of an ef-ective military force capable of afeguarding national security. It provides for a force consisting of armies of three divisions each, with service troops not to exceed 15 per cent of their total strength. Reports circulating in Chungking political circles said 14 top-ranking generals had petitioned Generalis simo Chiang Kai-Shek recently Plan To Broaden against reducing the army at a time "when the third world war is in the making," but that Chiang refused to halt reduction. In Shanghai several thousand young Chinese staged a noisy dem-onstration at the Russian consultative general. Students in Chungking, encour-

Maj. Gen. James P. Hodges, commanding general of the command, said the move was for "purely economic reasons.

"At this time the emphasis of the Air Forces is on economy," he said. It would be a losing proposition for the Air Forces to continue leasing office space here when it has adequate accommodations at Barksdale Field."

During the war years the training of more than 2,000,000 officers and men was formulated, and conducted from the Texas and Pacific Building in Fort Worth. In Retrospect

The tugboat strike that tied New York City in knots for 10 days was replete with object lessons in what not to do and in how not to do it.

A mere 3500 men jeopardized the health and safety

A mere 3500 men jeopardized the health and safety of more than 7,000,000 men, women and children. The victims probably came closer to numbering 10,000,000, in been reported. It is understood that view of the thickly populated suburban area that gets vital supplies through New York harbor.

That statement is not intended to indicate any opinion as to the merits of the wage controversy that underlay the strike. The published pay scale, to anybody who has seen New York harbor tugs at work, would warn against casual judgment on the merits.

Nevertheless, 3500 tugboatmen-or, if you prefer, less than 100 tugboat operators—should never have been permitted to keep food and fuel from 7,000,000 or 10,-000,000 persons in the north temperate zone in the year's coldest month.

The strike was ended by agreement to arbitrate—eventually. Why couldn't it have been prevented in the beginning by agreement to arbitrate?

It was important enough in the eyes of Washington to warrant seizure of the tugs. But the men wouldn't work gas or water. for Uncle Sam, either. Is there a right to strike against the government? Is there any way to find out whether such a right exists? Wasn't it Washington's duty to ascertain whether there is such a right? Hasn't that vital issue been compromised by default?

If seizure was warranted, then operation by any available means was required. The Navy is full of men yearlings 15.50-16.50, choice to 17.00 capable of operating the tugs. Many were held from discharge, and sat in Philadelphia waiting for the call medium shortfeds 13.50-15.00, few that never came. The situation became so grave that New York's 9.00, canners 6.50-7.75; sausage bulls mayor declared a state of disaster emergency and closed all but a few specific essential businesses. March 26.51, Why could a business or professional man not go to his May 26.52, July 26.50. office to get papers on which to work at home?

Apparently the tugboat strike showed just how defenseless, how unprepared our big cities really are—how little thought has been given to the meeting of major emergencies. We can be happy that we did not discover this under war invasion conditions. We might do a little planning against a repetition of what happened to New York, and to Philadelphia in the transit strike, and what threatened Pittsburgh in the power plant controversy.

WE DEAL IN ATOMS

The "Atomic Age" is centuries old in pharmacy. CAMERON'S pharmacists work with atoms every day because the chemical formulae for prescription drugs are given in terms of atoms; for example, to the pharmacist, bi-carbonate of soda is NAHCO3-one atom of Sodium, one of Hydrogen, one of Carbon, and three atoms of Oxygen. He must know and recognize hundreds such formulae because upon his knowledge depends the health and welfare of the people he serves.

If indeed we turned by its own weight to the question of the twins and Mr. Willson finally counseled patience He felt that the twins were in good hands and that if we waited that angle might solve itself. Fletch agreed with him and while I don't think my Miss Jenny did she held her tongue. I fully agreed with Mr. Willson. With all her faults, and in spite of the fact that she was not very maternal, Phillipa, I was sure, had done nothing that would harm the twins. Mr. Willson at that point voiced the same opinion, and Uncle Andrew said, "Why would she? They were money in the bank for her." The district attorney's office called shortly after dinner to ask Fletch and Mr. Willson to come down there. It was something about releasing Phillipa's body. When they came back, they had a copy of the Sun. Daniel Corliss had gathered up his staff and gotten out a paper. Editor's Note: Annually for the past 15 years, Mr. McKenney has selected the outstanding players of the year for his All-America team. We think you will agree he has selected a truly All-America card team. This is the first of six articles on his selections.

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY America's Card Authority

As captain of my All-America team this year, I name Maj. Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, former chief of staff of the Fifth Army, and later of the Fifteenth Army Division. I was he who got the autographs of General Eisenhower and Gen. Mark Clark on the playing cards used at our bond rallies, through which the American Contract Bridge League sold over $8,000,000 worth of War

Generals Eisenhower, Clark and Gruenther are all enthusiastic bridge players. Gruenther overcame his jinx on the club suit when he made seven odd with today's hand, and it was a very pretty play. The first trick was won with the ace of diamonds in dummy, the other two diamonds were trumped with the ace and king of clubs, and the losing spade discarded on the third round of clubs. There was still a club left in dummy for the heart

Bi-District Playoffs Feature Cage Play In State Class AA Race

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor
Champions of 127 districts of Texas schoolboy basket ball battle this week for spots in the state tournament at Austin with only 24 of them to make the trip. Most of the titlists in the three divisions-Class AA, Class A and Class B—were determined over the weekend with a scattering of playoffs set for Monday night.

Five of the teams that competed in the state tournament from the Class AA division last year still are in the race but all of them could be kicked out this week in the bidistrict round.

Amarillo meets Graham, Abilene tackles El Paso High, Greenville continues its series with Sulphur Springs, Paschal (Fort Worth) plays Crozier Tech (Dallas), Brownwood engages Waco, Henderson takes on Lufkin, Jeff Davis (Houston) plays Goose Creek and Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio) meets Kingsville.

Of this group Paschal, Greenville, Lufkin, Waco and El Paso were at Austin last winter with Paschal winning the championship.

In this week's bi-distrct round to determine the eight teams to play in the state tournament they are lined up like this: Amarillo vs Graham Tuesday night, at Amarillo Thursday night and a game Saturday night, if necessary, at a site to be determined. Abilene vs El Paso at Abilene Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Greenville vs Sulphur Springs at Commerce Tuesday night in second game of series, Greenville having won the first. They will play at Commerce Friday night if a third contest is necessary.

Paschal vs Crozier Tech at Fort Worth Tuesday night, at Dallas Thursday night and if a third game is needed will flip for the site. Brownwood vs Waco at Brownvood Tuesday, Waco Friday, Waco Saturday.

Henderson vs Lufkin at Hender-son Tuesday, Lufkin Thursday, Nacogdoches Saturday. Jeff Davis vs Goose Creek at Houston Tuesday, at Goose Creek Thursday. Jefferson vs Kingsville at Kingsville Tuesday, at San Antonio Thursday.

In Class A the district champions will determine places at the state meet in regional tournaments and it will be the same in Class B. Defending state champions of both divisions still are in the race —Sidney Lanier of San Antonio in

Oklahoma Aggies May Receive NCAA Bid

Southwestern Wins Texas Loop Title

If Abilene Christian College de feats Texas Wesleyan it is assured Class A and Prairie Lea in Class B. of finishing second place. But if TWC wins and the two contenders defeat the cellar-dwelling Austin College five, ACC and TWC will be in a deadlock for second place.
