4-County Stock Show Will Start Tuesday

By TANNER LAINE
 Finest West Texas stock, bred, fed and groomed by 4-H Club and PFA boys of Midland, Martin, Upton and Glasscock Counties, will be exhibited and many of them sold at the first postwar annual stock show Tuesday and Wednesday at the arenas of Midland Fair, Inc., site of the famous Midland Rodeo.

The scene is set and over the weekend the boys were making the animals ready for the big show, their climax to many months of planning, feeding and work at tending the show calves, barrows and lambs. Monday they will put them in trailers and bring 'em in.

More than $300 in premium money, subscribed by Midland businessmen, await the winners in many classes.

Eager buyers are ready to purchase the choice exhibited stock at the annual sale scheduled at the Texas Cattle Sales arena beginning at 1 p. m. Wednesday.

Corps of workers will be busy over the weekend, bringing in bedding hay, making the pens ready, cleaning the entire site of the show, and executing the vast amount of paper work necessary in staging a big show.

Opens At 9:30 A. M. Tuesday. This first show to be held at the Midland Fair Grounds, having been moved from downtown Midland, will get underway at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday. Midland County stock will be judged in the morning and the district show is scheduled for the afternoon.

A big parade of horsemen is scheduled at 1 p. m. Tuesday. It will move through the city district, advertising the show. Area and Midland riders are asked to join it. Afternoon judging begins at 2 p. m.

The stock barns at the rodeo grounds will be open Tuesday night so visitors may inspect the animals entered in the show. Plenty of lighting will be available.

Home demonstration clubwomen of the county will serve hot drinks and food during the show. City Bus Lines will run specials to the grounds Tuesday and to the sales barn Wednesday.

More than 75 entries had been posted this weekend. They are divided thusly: milk-fed calves 11, dry lot calves 19, fine wool lambs 11, cross-bred lambs 10, barrows 15, gilts 10.

The divisions and times of judging are set as follows: County stock, at 9:30 a. m. Monday, heavy-weight dry lot calves; 9:45 light-weight dry lot calves; 10 a. m., milk-fed calves; 10:15, heavyweight fine wool lambs; 10:45, lightweight fine wool lambs; 11:15, heavyweight barrows; 11:30, lightweight barrows; 11:45, gilts.

District Show Listed. The afternoon district show for Midland, Martin, Upton and Glasscock counties will open at 2 o'clock dry lot calves and continues as follows: 3 p. m., lightweight dry lot calves; 3:30, heavyweight milk-fed calves; 3:45, heavyweight fine wool lambs; 4 p. m., lightweight fine wool lambs; 4:15, heavyweight crossbred sheep; 4:45, heavy fat barrows; 5 p. m., light fat barrows; 5:15, gilts.

The sale begins promptly at 1 p. m. Wednesday with M. G. (Mac) McConal as auctioneer. There will be no OPA ceiling price on stock sold at the sale and bidding is unrestricted. Most stock from stock purchased at the show is covered by OPA regulations.

Prize winning stock will be exhibited in the lobby of the Scharbauer Hotel Tuesday night and Wednesday morning.

Reconversion Of UNO Into World Federal Government Proposed

By FRANK CAREY
 WINTER PARK, FLA.—(P)—Re-convention of the United Nations in general conference to make sweeping changes in UNO's structure was proposed Saturday night by a group of prominent Americans who urged creation of a world federal government "capable of averting the catastrophe of another war in the atomic era."

Declaring UNO should convene to amend its charter, a Rollins College conference of scientists, statesmen, churchmen, business men, educators, writers and labor leader proposed a seven-point amendment program with this as the primary objective:

1. "That the United Nations be transformed from a league of sovereign states into a government deriving its specific powers from the peoples of the world."

The document, to be sent to all members of UNO's General Assembly, to President Truman, members of the Cabinet and Congress and to the governors of the 48 states, proposes:

2. "That the General Assembly (of UNO) be reconstituted as the legislative branch of world government, in which the citizens of the member states are represented on an equitable basis.

3. "That the General Assembly have the power to make laws prohibiting or otherwise controlling weapons of mass destruction and regulating the uses of atomic energy, and to maintain such police forces as necessary for law enforcement.

4. "That independent judicial tribunals be created with jurisdiction over cases and controversies arising under laws enacted by the General Assembly or involving questions concerning the interpretation of the charter of the United Nations.

5. "That a bill of rights be designed for the protection of persons affected by laws enacted by the General Assembly."

Canada Not To Break With Reds, Press Told

OTTAWA—(AP)—A high government official told the Canadian press Saturday that Canada was not considering a breaking off of diplomatic relations with Soviet Russia as result of reports by the Royal Commission investigating said Moscow directed spy activities in this country seeking data on uranium, electronic armament, secret explosives and other matters.

Britain Seeks Soviet Friendship Treaty

Bevin Blasts Aggression By War Of Nerves

LONDON —(AP)— Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said Saturday night that his offer of a 50-year friendship treaty was "seriously proposed and seriously meant" and that he would pursue it "notwithstanding all the disappointments."

Referring to Winston Churchill speeches in the United States, Bevin told a dinner audience in Port Talbot, Wales, that "the policy this government is responsible for was defined in my speech to Parliament on February 21."

At that time, Bevin told the House of Commons that he wanted "friendship with the Soviet Union for all time," and said he would advise the government to seek to change the Russian-British 20-year friendship treaty to a 50-year treaty.

On March 13, Generalissimo Stalin, interviewed by Pravda, Communist Party newspaper, attacked Churchill's speech at Fulton, Mo., and asserted that "one cannot take seriously the beautiful statement of Churchill's friends in England that the treaty between England and Russia could be prolonged."

Denounces Aggression. "I will do nothing that even savors of aggression," Bevin declared. "I make an appeal to other countries, whatever their historical reasons, to eschew aggression either by propaganda or wars of nerves or by action which keeps other countries on the jump."

Referring to Churchill's Fulton speech, Bevin said, "I want to assure you that there was not the slightest consultation with the government and, also, that I had nothing to do with it."

"What he said was on Churchill's own responsibility," Bevin declared. The different philosophies of Great Britain, the United States and Soviet Russia, Bevin said, would adjust themselves in time if each nation would be patient and not dogmatic about its own philosophy.

Asserting there were "no two greater friends in the world" than Andrei Vishinsky, Russian vice minister of foreign affairs, and himself, Bevin said "I never had a cross word with Vishinsky personally, x x x You don't upset friends because you present your case forcibly one way or another."

Funeral Rites Held For Cardinal Glennon

ST. LOUIS —(P)—The body of John Cardinal Glennon, who at the age of 83 lived less than three weeks as a cardinal, was laid to rest Saturday in the great Catholic cathedral that stands as a monument to his 32 years as archbishop of St. Louis.

He died seven days ago in Dublin. The pontifical mass of requiem was celebrated by the apostolic delegate in Washington, Archbishop Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, and in the hush of the huge Byzantine interior the eulogy was given by a man consecrated by Archbishop Glennon in 1918—Bishop Christopher E. Byrne of Galveston, Texas.

AMERICANS HELP HALT TROUBLE — Marshall Foresees Peaceful Return Of Manchuria To China

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
 WASHINGTON —(AP)— Gen. George C. Marshall disclosed Saturday that urgent measures are being taken jointly by American and Chinese officers to extend into Manchuria a peace formula consistently successful so far in other parts of China.

The general, here to report to President Truman of his efforts as the Chief Executive's personal trouble shooter in the Far East, called the situation in Manchuria "a critical state of affairs."

Throughout a long news conference, however, the military-leader-turned-diplomat took a tone of general optimism conditioned by two requirements which he said were elementary: that the United States give assistance to the Chinese and that other nations do not scheme deliberately against reincorporation of the rich Manchurian territory into a unified, peaceful China.

He laid heavy emphasis on the operations of "unity" teams of American, Nationalist and Communist officers who are dispatched to trouble areas for on-the-spot pacification.

In other parts of China, Marshall said, these groups have succeeded where it was impossible to succeed by force.

Arrangements for the operation of such teams in Manchuria were completed, in principle, the general said, only about 10 minutes before he left China on his way here.

Marshall did not talk about Russian or Communist policies in China although when he was asked whether he knew whether the Russians are evacuating Manchuria at the present time he said the United States has no observers in there and reiterated that he considered the situation in that country critical.

1. An army of American-trained Chinese troops, the best in China, is "now embarking for Manchuria," he said, "to establish and maintain order to take over control there. Meanwhile minor clashes involving Communist troops are going on in that country and there is much restless moving about. The Nationalist-Communist agreement provides definitely for the Central government to take over."

2. Meanwhile United States Marine and Army forces, the latter all non-combatant, are being cut to a minimum as fast as possible.

3. While the Chinese are carrying forward a peace effort in their own country "almost without precedent," Marshall warned that the accomplishments may still be wrecked "if China is ignored or if there is scheming to thwart the development of unity and present aspirations."

4. He appealed for American assistance to China, describing financial help as very necessary along with supplies of railroad equipment, cotton and factory machinery.

En route home, he reported, he stopped off in Japan to see General Douglas MacArthur, discussed with MacArthur the use of Chinese troops in Japan, and he expects an announcement of the Chinese participation to be made very soon.

United States Will Not Form Any Alliances

NEW YORK —(AP)— Secretary of State Byrnes rejected Saturday night any idea of an alliance with Russia against Britain or Britain against Russia. He declared the United States bases its hopes for security on the United Nations organization "as the path to enduring peace."

In a speech prepared for a meeting of the "Society of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick" at the Hotel Astor, Byrnes called for extension of the Selective Service Act beyond the expiration date of May 15.

Even now, he said, the leaders of the government "are alarmed" at the lack of physically fit men to keep the Army up to strength and unless the draft law is renewed "the situation will become critical."

Byrnes expressed his "whole-hearted and unequivocal endorsement of the proposal for universal military training" as a long-term assurance of trained reserves.

U. S. Looks To UNO
 "I cannot emphasize too strongly," he declared, "that the United States looks to the United Nations as the path to enduring peace."

"We do not propose to seek security in an alliance with the Soviet Union against Great Britain or in an alliance with Great Britain against the Soviet Union."

Byrnes did not say who if anyone has proposed such an alliance. Recently the idea has been much discussed as a result of Winston Churchill's speech at Fulton, Mo., advocating a special association between the United States and Britain. Churchill subsequently denied he was asking for a military alliance. He explained here Friday night what he had in mind would be more than that.

Byrnes described, without specifying any particular issues, present world difficulties as "serious" but said they could be solved "if all of us approach those difficulties in a spirit of conciliation and good will."

"It takes time to pass from the psychology of war to the psychology of peace. We must have patience, as well as firmness."

"We must keep our feet on the ground. We cannot afford to lose our tempers."

Plans Made For World Economic Police Force

SAVANNAH, GA.—(P)—Plans for a sort of international economic police force were outlined in rough form here Saturday as the initial meeting of the governors of the World Fund and Bank drew near its close.

Plans for the police force meanwhile passed beyond the tentative stage. The international agents would not have the power to arrest but could investigate. Offenders could be called to account by Fund and Bank officials in Washington.

The agents would be concerned principally with checking on applications for loans from the $9,100,000 bank and the use made of the borrowed funds. They also would investigate foreign trade matters and foreign exchange transactions handled through the $8,800,000 monetary fund.

Foundation for the force was laid in a committee report adopted by the governors.

It authorized the executive directors to "establish and maintain agencies or branch offices at any place in the territories of other members whenever it is necessary to do so in order to facilitate the efficient conduct of business" of the Bank and Fund.

Army Quick To Deny Reported Transfers Of Precious Metals

By The Associated Press
 The Moscow newspaper Pravda, in a dispatch from Vladivostok, Saturday, charged the United States Army is moving millions of dollars worth of valuable metals from Japan to America.

Denial of the report was quickly made by General MacArthur's economic chief, who scoffed at the newspaper's story and declared that the precious metals and jewels, valued at $250,000,000, still are in Japan.

Pravda quoted Japanese newspapers and the Army's Tokyo Stars and Stripes on specific seizures of gold, silver and jewelry. These items were based on releases by MacArthur's public relations office announcing the seizures to the Allied and Japanese press.

"The millions of dollars worth of gold, silver, platinum and jewelry are still under military guard in the vaults of the Bank of Japan," said Maj. Gen. W. F. Marquat, chief of the economic and scientific section of SCAP (Supreme Commander, Allied Powers). Further Denial Made

A further denial of the newspaper's dispatch came from General Marquat's civilian financial aide, C. F. Thomas, of New York, who said "Not a single thing has been moved."

"Disposition of this wealth is not a matter for our section and we merely are guarding it," Thomas explained.

"It is up to the Allied powers to decide what is to become of it—not just the United States."

"As rapidly as this wealth has been turned in by the Japanese or located when it was not reported, we have put it into the vaults for safekeeping," said Thomas.

"It has not been moved around but has been left right there."

Asked whether any Russian representatives participated in the seizures, he said, "they have not even asked to see it."

Soviets Shuttle More Troops To Tehran Gateway

By JOSEPH C. GOODWIN
 KARAJ, IRAN —(P)— Approximately 3,000 Russian troops, including women soldiers, have arrived at this gateway to Tehran during the past three nights.

Nightly trains from Kazvin, Russian headquarters in Northern Iran, have brought ammunition and mechanized supplies, including tanks. Residents of Karaj, police officers, railway workers and foreign military observers say 60 carloads of troops and equipment in three nights have increased the previous number in the garrison to nearly 3,000.

Armed troops walk through the streets and gather in shops. Saturday my "Americanski" was insufficient as a passport. In fact, it caused a ten-minute delay and repeated questioning before my friends and I were permitted to enter the town.

The car in which we were riding was halted by four young Soviet soldiers with tommy guns. The first question was "are you Americans?" Then, "where are your passports and documents?"

Told we had no Russian travel permits, the sergeant in charge sent for a lieutenant, who questioned us and permitted us to proceed only after we told him by word and sign that we only wanted to visit the agricultural school in the town and would return immediately.

Pity The Poor Solons

After more than 16 years in Congress, Robert (Pensions for Congress) Ramspeck resigned because he no longer could afford to serve the people of the Fifth Georgia District.

In an article in Collier's Magazine the retired congressman still advocates the pension plan that brought him, as "Bundles for Congressmen," an assortment of crutches, old shoes, old pants and lurid insults three years ago. He thinks, however, that his original proposal was overmodest, and would also raise the active salary by 50 per cent.

Out of his $10,000 gross salary, minus income tax, a congressman must maintain two homes; travel back and forth between district and capital; entertain visiting constituents, run errands for the folks at home, carry on a large correspondence by mail, telephone and telegraph. He must be a setup for every worthy charity and many others, including the party campaign fund.

Every two years he must run for re-election in primary, election or both. Ramspeck says his biennial costs of this were between $2500 and $5000. He is from a safely Democratic district. The representative from a doubtful area spends more.

When he gets all through the average congressman has nothing left toward a nest egg for old age. He is not even a member of the Social Security old-age system. He is lucky if he does not draw a little, every two years, on whatever savings he had before election.

What can a congressman do about this situation? He can neglect his legitimate duties to get time to supplement his income with private enterprises. It is our good fortune that so few solons have permitted selfish interests to compromise them with easy money assistance, or have taken advantage of their inside positions to mix up in unethical ventures.

He can fortify his political position by becoming a handy man for constituents; ducking controversial issues so as not to make enemies; letting others do his thinking because he has no time to study public issues and no courage to face them.

He can play the game straight and, like the late Senator Norris, retire eventually to an impoverished old age. Or, like Ramspeck, he can resign, take a position in private business at salary commensurate with his ability, and give his family a break.

He ought to have a fifth option: To remain in Congress, attend to his duties intelligently and courageously, live on his salary with moderate comfort, and have some insurance for his and wife's old age.

What Hogs Can Do

The Chesapeake & Ohio and the Nickel Plate railroads do not really think we could be happier if we were hogs. Their occasional advertisements merely suggest that if a hog can ride from New Jersey to California without changing cars, your wife and child ought to be able to do likewise.

The enforced change at Chicago, St. Louis or New Orleans, for passengers on the most de luxe extra fare trains no less than for lowest rate situps in coaches, has long been a reproach to the generally efficient American railroad system. We're frank to admit that we can't imagine why other roads so calmly ignore the C. & O. Nickel Plate plea for through coast-to-coast service—or why we, the fare-paying riders, permit them to do so. Only stockholders in air lines should favor the present setup.

Poker Face

Washington's Congressman Coffee wants to know if the forthcoming atom bomb tests are designed "to intimidate the Russians." The answer is No.

Russia is a land power, not naval. These tests are primarily naval. They are to determine what an atom bomb will do to warcraft and what naval strategists ought to do about the atom bomb.

If Russia was not intimidated by what happened to Hiroshima and Nagasaki, these tests will not worry her. If she was so intimidated, then Heaven protect us against playing stud poker with Joe Stalin.

A Job For Mr. Hoover

Herbert Hoover is not the most popular man in the United States. But however his political views may be regarded, few can quarrel with President Truman for sending his only living predecessor in the White House to survey Europe's food needs.

In World War I Hoover did an excellent job as wartime food administrator and, after the armistice, carried out the Allied relief programs in Europe. During World War II his experience was not utilized, and he labored vainly to persuade the western Allies that they should at least make an attempt to get food through to the hungry people of occupied countries.

Hoover's specific job will be to weigh the relief requirements of the various countries seeking our aid. It may be hoped that from his experience and humanitarian instincts there will also come some wise suggestions for speeding up our present relief program, which, at the moment, seems bungled and inadequate, as well as belated.

Council To Hear Applications For Building Permits

Applications to build business structures outside the regular business zone of the city will be considered at a public hearing at 4 p. m. Wednesday, J. C. Hudman, city secretary, said Saturday.

Property owners and tenants residing within 1,000 feet of the locations of five proposed structures may appear at the meeting and voice their feelings regarding the matters.

Applications to be heard include those of:

- A. E. Baker, for permission to construct a 16 by 16 foot sheet iron building for use as a welding shop on South Marlenfield Street;
- C. W. Denney, for permission to erect a 50 by 75 foot concrete block building for a retail grocery store at Baird and Florida streets;
- Fashion Cleaners, for permission to build a 25 by 60 foot stucco front, asbestos or metal siding building for a dry cleaning plant on South Main Street;
- J. E. Peterson, seeking to build an 18 by 19 foot addition to the front of a residence on West Illinois Avenue for use as a watch repair and jewelry business, and
- Harold L. Robinson, for permission to construct a 25 by 50 foot tile building for a washeteria laundry on South Baird Street.

Three 36th Vets Will Ask Military Group For Inquiry

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Three veterans of the 36th Division Association from Texas will try to convince the House Military Affairs Committee on Monday that Congress should investigate the Rapido River crossing operation which cost the division heavy casualties.

One committeeman, however, predicted that a majority of the members will listen to statements by the Texans and that "no further action will be taken."

Chairman May (D-Ky.) and some other members had agreed, he said, that if Representatives Kilday and Thomason, also committeemen, wanted the Texans to be heard, three of them would be permitted to make statements. The hearing will be held behind closed doors.

The members said the committee does not plan to investigate tactics at Rapido, but merely to decide whether there should be an inquiry.

Passed Resolution at Brownwood
About six weeks ago, the 36th Division at a reunion at Brownwood, Texas, adopted a resolution requesting investigation of the Rapido operation. A resolution also criticized Gen. Mark Clark.
Kilday and Thomason placed the request before the committee and Thomason asked that the War Department make a full report. After the report was received, some committee members expressed belief that nothing more could be done about it.

Thomason then moved that the committee invite the association officials here to inform the committee why they believed there should be an investigation. His motion was adopted.

Colonel Miller Ainsworth, president of the division association, has informed Thomason that he and two or three others, possibly including General Fred Walker, will come here for the hearing. The congressman said he was not informed of the names of those who will accompany Ainsworth.

WILSON'S

Shamrocks, Green Popular Sunday

By TANNER LAINE
 Me name is not Mike but begorra we are Irish and sure St. Patrick's Day will be observed and acknowledged in Midland Sunday.

Because there are Kelly's here, There's Bernard Kelly, J. J. Kelly, Neva Kelly, Otis Kelly, R. T. Kelly, Thomas Kelly, and other Kelly's amongst us. Even Kelly's with the "e."

And there's the O'Donnells, the O'Neills, and the O'Neals.

Ah, there are many Mc's until you can't distinguish between them, and the Scotch, McAdams, McClures, McCormicks, McCoy, McDonald, McKee's, McWilliams, McGure's, McElroys, and many, many more.

There's Dennis Murphy, Tom J. Murphy, and W. C. Murphy.

'Tis a shame there are not many Sullivan's.

There's Alden Donnelly, J. M. Flanigan, Ruth Flanigan, A. H. Flaherty.

And we most forget a real son of Eire, George Doyle.

There's a Gallagher and Guffey's.

And Sweeney's.
 And Lynch's and Googin's.
 Good Irish boy is Steve Hannifan, himself.

My goodness and my saints, can it be there are no Kelly's, no O'Hara's, no O'Sullivan's, no O'Toole's, in Midland?

There are many Irish folk here, as all over the world. There are the leaven of the melting pot of the world. For whom else would be the policemen?

They are found the world over with a philosophy very much like the one of the old biddle, maybe of Midland, who found some kids fighting in the street, and exclaimed: "Hit him, Mike, 'til we find out who he is!"

Wear green Sunday in Midland if you are Irish.

We write from personal observations of the Emerald Isle: they have a brogue, they are proud, they like to fight for the fun of it, they are generous and religious, they jig, they smoke pipes, they wear Shamrocks, well they are just Irish.

Are you by any chance?

The guinea pig, not from Guinea and not a pig, is a South American cavy, distantly related to the rabbit.

Only Three Seek School District Board Positions

Deadline for filing candidacies for places on the Midland Independent School District board was reached Saturday with only three persons seeking the posts, Mrs. W. H. Gilmore, secretary, said Saturday night.

Lloyd Mackey, Jerry Bridgewater and D. W. McDonald are candidates for the three places to be filled at the April 6 election.

Bridgewater, now chairman of the board, seeks reelection, and Mackey and McDonald are asking election to places they now hold by appointment. Mackey was appointed to replace Paul Nelson, resigned, and McDonald succeeded the late Percy Mims on the board.

Holdover members of the board are Mrs. Gilmore, secretary; Vaughn Maley, Hamilton E. McRae and George Abell.

Sons Of Eire Parade Down Fifth Avenue

NEW YORK —(AP)— It really was a great day for the Irish on Fifth Avenue Saturday as 75,000 sportive wearers of the green paraded in bright sunlight in honor of Ireland's patron saint.

The proverbial luck of the Irish held for the first time since 1935. In the years intervening New York City weather for the annual St. Patrick's Day parade was as wet and misty as the old sod itself.

Maybe the box of 400 double-lucky shamrocks received by Mayor William O'Dwyer from Peadar S. Doyle, lord mayor of Dublin, had something to do with it.

As police-estimated 1,500,000 New Yorkers, many wearing green ties, green shirts—even green bobby sox—lined the route of the 116th annual parade, shouting, laughing, sometimes doing impromptu clog dances on the sidewalk.

The skirt of bagpipes and the staccato sound of fife and drum made jaunty marching tunes for

Phillips 66 Oilers On Spot In National Meet

DENVER—(AP)— The Phillips 66 Oilers of Bartlesville, Okla., with their feared five-alarm offense, will be on the spot as favorites when the National AAU tournament, billed as "the fastest basketball show on earth," gets under way Sunday.

But it'll be no easy chore for the Oilers to hang on to the title they've won three straight seasons. For this year's 64-team field, says AAU President Bill Greim, is just about the toughest ever entered in the world series of amateur cagedom.

A 24-game program Sunday will launch the AAU's annual classic and for seven consecutive days the country's top amateur teams will continue to batter the hardwoods.

the paraders, led by veterans of "The Fighting Irish," the 165th Infantry. Behind them were veterans of the old 69th and Rainbow Divisions and representatives of many Irish-American societies.

Highway Patrolmen Warn Out-Of-State Motorists About Tags

Texas Highway Patrolmen White and Roberts, who cruise between Midland and Odessa Saturday night issued a warning to motorists driving with expired out-of-state licenses.

The officers pointed out many state licenses had expired and to operate an automobile in Texas the owners must secure new tags or buy Texas plates.

They arrested a Californian recently here without new tags.

Snead Pulls Ahead In Jacksonville Tourney

JACKSONVILLE, FLA. — (AP) — Sam Snead, who concedes "playing pretty good golf these days," fired a six-under-par 66 Saturday to pull six strokes ahead at the half-way mark of the $10,000 Jacksonville Open golf tournament.

The long-driving pro from Hot Springs, Va., defending champion, went out in 31 and took a 35 coming back to put his 38-hole total of 130.

In second place is the veteran stylist Henry Picard of Oklahoma City, with 136. Following are Lawson Little of Monterey, Calif., and Pete Cooper of Gainesville, Fla., with 138's.

Steers Start Season With Win Over Sailors

AUSTIN—(AP)— The University of Texas baseballers opened their season here Saturday afternoon by coming from behind to defeat the Ward Island Naval Technical Training Center, 12-6, with foot-baller Bobby Layne being credited with the triumph.

Trailing into the fourth frame, the Steers counted three times, then scored in each of the subsequent innings, their biggest being the seventh when Third Baseman Ransom Jackson hit one out of the park with two aboard.

Chisox Blast Cubs In Initial City Meeting

LOS ANGELES —(AP)— The Chicago White Sox blasted the offerings of two of the National League champion Chicago Cubs' first-line pitchers for 12 hits Saturday and defeated the Cubs, 6-2, in the first meeting of the season between the city rivals.

Thornton Lee, the Sox starting pitcher, was given credit for the victory.

Wind Rips Down Pole In City; Sparks Fly

Storm winds Friday in Midland ripped down a power pole on Cuthbert Street and the flying sparks resulted in an alarm to city police and firemen.

A transformer was on the pole.

Thank You, Midland

We wish to take this opportunity to express our sincere thanks to you for the wonderful response you gave us on Thursday, the opening day of our new store.

The way you came in and the way you conducted yourselves with such a crowd was perfect.

From the depth of our hearts — Thank you.

'Block 31' Field Extended One-Half Mile East; Prospectors In Gaines, Andrews And Ector Hold Attention

By JAMES C. WATSON, Oil Editor

A one-half mile due east extension to the Ellenburger production area of the "Block 31" field in East-Central Crane County, has been assured by The Atlantic Refining Company No. 1-F University.

That project ran a one-hour drill-stem test at 10,388-450 feet, in the Ellenburger topped at 10,340 feet. Gas came to surface in 30 minutes. Recovery, when all the drill pipe was broken down, was 4,150 feet of clean oil.

This test has also shown oil in the Devonian. Operator is expected to run casing to the top of the Ellenburger pay, and attempt a dual-completion from the two sections.

The new well is 660 feet out of northeast corner of southwest corner of section 34, block 31, University survey, and one-half mile east of initial producer for the field.

Amerada Petroleum Corporation No. 1-C Jones, Northwest Gaines County prospector, 1,980 feet from south and 662 feet from west lines of section 2, block A-6, psi survey, and one-half mile east and same distance south of discovery for Devonian production in the Jones sociation of America, for 1946. —J. E. (Ed) Warren of Carl B. King Drilling Company and affiliated concerns, is a member of the oil and gas production committee, and James S. Noland, district landman for Phillips Petroleum Company, is on the membership committee.

OLSEN BUYS INTEREST IN WINKLER PRODUCTION —R. Olsen Oil Company of Oklahoma City is reported to have bought a 38.75 interest in the holdings of the Tribune Oil Company in the shallow Henderson field in Winkler county.

—Consideration is understood to have included about $250,000 cash. Property involved has 29 producing wells.

COMPACT MEETS IN TULSA, APRIL 11-13 —The Spring quarterly meeting of the Interstate Oil Compact Commission will be held in Tulsa April 11-13. A feature of the session will be an open forum for discussion of matters pertaining to the conservation of oil and gas.

—The general theme of the meeting will be the advances made in recent years in scientific industrial research as applied to oil and gas. Nationally prominent scientists will give papers on the subject at a public session of the compact.

RICHARDS WILL RECEIVE AAPG PRESIDENT'S AWARD —Dr. Horace G. Richards, Philadelphia, has been named the second recipient of the President's Award of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists, for his paper on "Subsurface Stratigraphy of Atlantic Coastal Plain Between New Jersey and Georgia."

The honor will be conferred on Richards, associate curator of geology and paleontology of the Philadelphia Academy of Natural Sciences, during the annual AAPG convention April 1 in Chicago.

Honorary memberships in AAPG will be conferred at the meeting on Dr. William H. Emmons, Minneapolis, former head of the department of geology at the University of Minnesota, and Dr. Elias H. Sellards, Austin, former professor of geology at the University of Texas.

RAY HAS NAMED WTGS COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN —Bernard A. Ray, president of the West Texas Geological Society, has announced appointment of committees of the organization for 1946.

—Chairmen of the groups are: —Constitution, Leo R. Newfarmer; Development Paper, R. L. Boss; Editorial, John M. Hills; Education, Samuel P. Ellison, Jr.; Field Naming, B. L. Pilcher, Jr.; Field Trip, Surce J. Taylor; Library, R. V. Hollingsworth; Merit Award, R. I. Dickey; Program, George R. Gibson; Publicity, James C. Watson; Sale of Publications, R. K. DeFord, and War Effort, W. T. Schneider. All are of Midland except Boss, who lives in Hobbs, N. M.

—The society has issued and distributed a list giving name of each of the 244 members, their mailing addresses and business telephone numbers. The list also includes the committee assignments.

—The society has 21 members in cities other than Midland. There are six in Odessa; five live in Lubbock, three in Hobbs and three in Abilene; two in San Angelo, and Monahans, Big Spring, Artesia and Jal each have one member in the WTGS.

Ranch field, was making hole below 11,278 feet, in Devonian lime. Devonian Top Picked

Top of that formation was picked at 11,191 feet, on an elevation of 3,685 feet. That put it 24 feet low to the same point in the initial producer. Top of the pay was at 11,192 feet. There has been porosity and oil stain all the way down, in good streaks. No tests of production have yet been made.

Atlantic No. 1-Unit A-University, Central Southwest Andrews County wildcat, 1,845 feet from north and 2,635 feet from east lines of northeast quarter of section 1, block 11, University survey, one mile east and one mile south of the discovery for Ellenburger production on southeast side of the Martin field, was bot-tomed at 8,555 feet, in the Wad-dell section of the lower Simpson, and was to make second attempt to get a drillstem test.

After encountering some good oil saturation in sand, in the Waddell, operator tried a test Friday—but packer slipped and there was no test. This project has already shown good production in the McKee, upper Simpson.

Phillips Petroleum Company, et al, No. 1 Eidsion, Southwest Ector County wildcat, in northeast corner of section 25, block B-15, psi survey, was reported by operator to be making hole under 7,942 feet in lime.

An Unofficial Report —Unofficial sources indicated that the project was drilling in the Simpson, middle Ordovician. No official top on the formation had been reached. It is understood that it is still running at least 500 feet high to the nearest point of correlation.

Phillips No. 1-B-A-TXL, in northwest corner of section 39, block 45, TP survey, T-1-S, and east of production on southeast side of the TXL field, in West Ector, had reached 10,324 feet, and was drilling ahead in lime.

S. W. Richardson No. 1 Dawson, Southeast Crane County wildcat, in section 2, A. L. Brigrane survey, certificate 139, had progressed below 8,130 feet, in lime, and was going ahead.

It is reported that this project is frequently going back and forth into, and out of, Ellenburger zones.

Atlantic No. 1-A Texu (University), old dry hole to 10,760 feet, in the Ellenburger, in northeast quarter of section 9, block 12, University survey, in Southwest Andrews County, had cleaned out to 2,800 feet and was to run 7 5/8-inch casing to that point, and then resume the cleanout to the Devonian, to test that formation.

Shell Oil Company, Inc. No. 1 Nelson, West Andrews County wildcat, in southeast corner of section 8, block A-40, psi survey, was making hole below 9,963 feet, in lower Simpson lime and shale.

Placid Oil Company (H. L. Hunt) and Gulf Oil Corporation No. 1 Thornberry, Central-West Andrews exploration, in southwest corner of section 8, block A-40, psi survey, had progressed below 9,447 feet, in lime and shale, in the Mississippi.

Sun Oil Company No. 2 Martin, on northeast side of the Martin field, in Central Southwest Andrews County, and 1,980 feet from east and 660 feet from south lines of section 17, block A-41, psi survey, had reached 8,371 feet, in lime and shale, and was drilling ahead to the Ellenburger.

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 E. P. Cowden, extreme Southwest Andrews County prospector, in northwest quarter of section 13, block A-55, psi survey, and about one-third of a mile southeast of discovery for Devonian production in the Dollar Hide field, had penetrated past 8,926 feet, in lime, and was drilling ahead.

Still Making Hole —Honolulu Oil Corporation No. 9 Hovenkamp, South Yoakum County exploration, in section 890, block D, John H. Gibson survey, had progressed below 9,387 feet, in lower Permian lime. It is contracted to 10,000 feet, or production in the basal Permian at a higher point.

Humble No. 1 Vick, Southwest Kent County wildcat, to 8,500 feet, in northeast quarter of section 45, block 5, H&GN survey, about two miles west of A. G. H. Cowden, had penetrated under 7,675 feet, in dolomite, chert and shale.

Shell No. 1 Wilson, Sutton County exploration, in section 38, block 14, TWNG survey, was making hole past 5,036 feet, in an unidentified dolomite.

Argo Oil Corporation No. 1 Roberts, Reeves County wildcat, 13 miles northeast of Balmorhea, and in section 294, block 13, H&GN survey, had reached 9,917 feet, in lime and sand, and was continuing.

Humble No. 1-B G. H. Cowden, East Crane County exploration, in southwest corner of section 14, block X, CCS&DRNG survey, scheduled to dig to around 8,500 feet, had reached 7,215 feet, and was to resume drilling after being inactive for several days while fishing for lost tools.

Stanolind Oil & Gas Company and Westbrook-Thompson, Central-West Winkler County prospector, in section 33, block 20, psi survey, about four miles west of Kermit, was drilling ahead under 9,565 feet in lime and shale.

Stanolind No. 1 Kayser, Central Ector County deep wildcat, in section 34, block 43, TP survey, T-2-S, and scheduled to go to around 13,400 feet to explore the Ellenburger, had reached 11,149 feet, in lime and shale.

Cities Service Oil Company No. 1 Parker, Central-West Ector exploration to the Ordovician, and in section 20, block 44, TP survey, T-2-S, was still bottomed at 10,378 feet, in lime and shale, fishing for bit cones.

Honor Scientist

Robert P. Russell, head of the central technical and research organization of Standard Oil Company (New Jersey), who will receive the American Institute of Chemists 1946 gold medal for "noteworthy and outstanding service to the science of chemistry," citing particularly wartime achievements in production of aircraft fuels, explosives and synthetic rubber.

Russell is president of the Standard Oil Development Company, a petroleum research organization that has made major contributions to the development of new and improved petroleum products and processes. Among them were the fluid catalytic cracking process which made possible enormous increases in the output of 100 octane aviation gasoline; a process for permitting production of unprecedented quantities of synthetic toluene for TNT; and a catalytic process for making butadiene from petroleum for synthetic rubber.

One Man Injured When T&P Freight Is Derailed

JEFFERSON CITY —(AP)— One man was injured when the engine and 25 cars of a Texas and Pacific freight train were derailed three miles east of here Saturday, blocking the tracks.

H. W. MacIn, fireman of Mineola, was pinned under the engine cab but was freed by other crew members. He was taken to the T. & P. Hospital in Marshall. His injuries were not considered serious. A wrecker from Mineola was expected to clear the tracks by midnight.

The train, en route from Texarkana to Dallas and Fort Worth, was composed of five loaded and 20 unloaded freight cars, all of which were derailed.

Cause of the accident has not been determined. During the great earthquake of 1811, the Mississippi River temporarily flowed north.

Tide Water To Dig Ellenburger Test On Northeast Side Of Brunson Field

HOBBS, N. M.—Tide Water Associated Oil Company No. 2 Sticher, 660 feet from south and 810 feet from east lines of section 4-22s-37e, is a new exploration to the Ellenburger, on the northeast side of the Brunson field, in East Lea County, near Eunice. It is to drill to 7,850 feet, or production in the lower Ordovician, or granite, starting immediately.

It is almost one-half mile north and one-quarter of a mile east of nearest completed Ellenburger well, and it is one location north of closest well now drilling to the deep pay.

Another Well Completed —Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 10 Brunson-Argo, 1,880 feet from north and 1,990 feet from east lines of section 9-22s-37e, and farthest out northeast well so far completed in the Brunson field, was finished for a flowing production of 253 barrels of oil in 14 hours.

The production came from 90 casing perforations at 7,880-95 feet; from 90 perforations at 7,835-50 feet, and from 150 perforations at 7,810-35 feet. Total depth is 7,901 feet, in granite. Gravity of the oil was 40.4 degrees, and gas-oil ratio was 865-1.

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 3-S State, 1,980 feet from north and 720 feet from east lines of sections 2-22s-37e, and on north side of the Paddock field, where production is from the Holt-Permian, and also in the area adjacent to Eunice, was completed for a 24-hour flowing potential of 528 barrels of 37.6 gravity oil, from the middle Permian, through perforations at 5,100-70 feet, and at 5,035-80 feet. Those openings had been treated with a small shot of acid. Gas-oil ratio was 680-1.

The Ohio Oil Company No. 2 Lou Wortham, also on north side of the Paddock area, and 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 11-22s-37e, flowed for a 24-hour potential of 1,092 barrels of 38.7 gravity oil, with gas-oil ratio of 796-1.

The production was from open hole in the Holt-Permian at 5,085-5,152 feet, where 2,000 gallons and 4,000 gallons of acid had been injected. Eddy Area Extended Forest E. Levers No. 2-B Levers, 660 feet from north and east lines of section 34-16s-29e, and one location from discovery well in the Forest field, in North Eddy County, flowed for a daily initial production of 144 barrels of oil, from pay at 2,630-84 feet, which had been shot with 70 quarts of nitro-glycerin.

George P. Livermore, Inc. No. 1-A Maxwell-State in East Chaves County, on southeast side of the Caprock field, and 1,980 feet from south and east lines of section 1-13s-31e, and on the outside of the proven area in the pool, completed for a daily flowing production of 80 barrels of oil from red sand pay at 3,022-34 feet, which had been shot with 50 quarts of nitro.

No Out Shows in Wylie —Lion Oil Company No. 1 Wylie, East Lea County lower Ordovician wildcat, in southwest quarter of northwest quarter of section 5-23s-39e, one-half mile east of closest lower Permian production on southeast side of the Drinkard field, was drilling ahead from 8,193 feet, in the lower Simpson, middle Ordovician.

A drilling break developed at 8,184-87 feet. Operator cored from 8,187 feet to 8,192.5 feet. Recovery was three and one-half feet of fine, hard sand. There were no shows of oil or gas in the specimen. It is drilling ahead toward the Ellenburger.

Humble No. 1-B Hardison, lower Permian exploration, about two miles north of closest production in the Paddock field, in East Lea County, and 1,980 feet from north and 440 feet from east lines of section 34-21s-37e, was making hole below 6,032 feet, in dry lime.

Southern Union Gas Company No. 1 English, Central Lea County wildcat, between the Tonto and Corbin fields, and in southeast quarter of section 26-18s-33e, had progressed below 3,869 feet in lime.

Conoco Shots Skaggs —Continental Oil Company No. 4-B-23 Skaggs, outpost to production from the Pennsylvania, on the Skaggs Deep field, in East Lea County, and in southeast quarter of section 23-20s-37e, bottomed out at 7,900 feet, in lime, and was to shot the zone at 7,690-7,735 feet, with nitro in an effort to stimulate production, from shows of oil and gas in that interval.

Humble No. 1-B Federal-Leonard, extreme Southeast Lea County Ellenburger exploration, in northeast quarter of section 12-26s-37e, and one-half mile north of the initial Ellenburger producer in the Dublin field, had reached 9,868 feet, in lime and shale, and was continuing.

Culbertson & Irwin, Inc. No. 1-D State, South-Central Lea County wildcat, located 3,262 feet from north and 660 feet from west lines of section 4-21s-34e, about three miles northwest of the West Eunice field, has been plugged and abandoned on a total depth of 4,005 feet, in lime. No shows of oil or gas were reported.

Grayburg Oil Company No. 10-A Keeley, North Eddy County wildcat in section 24-17s-29e, and contracted to 6,500 feet, had penetrated below 4,057 feet, in lime, and was continuing.

Dublin & Franklin No. 1 State, in section 3-17s-29e, Eddy County exploration, had made hole under 2,493 feet, in lime, and was drilling ahead.

Union Oil Company of California No. 1-A McMillen, South Otero County wildcat, in section 9-25s-31e, had drilled under 3,240 feet, in lime, and was still getting water from up the hole—two strings of casing having failed to shut it off.

Southern Union Gas Company No. 1 Lucas, Northwest Roosevelt County prospector, in section 5-22s-30e, was making hole below 6,993 feet in lime and chert.

The section at 6,552-73 feet was drilled stem test. It had some salty, slightly gas cut drilling mud. Cores from 6,936 feet to 6,943 feet had show sand, with no indications of oil or gas reported.

Texas Longhorns Nose Out Oklahoma A&M At Southwest Track Meet

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
FORT WORTH—(AP)—The University of Texas racked up a raft of seconds, thirds and fourths Saturday to repeat as champion of the university division in the twenty-third Southwest Exposition Track and Field Meet.

The Longhorns got only three firsts but that didn't keep them from rolling up 39 points to give them a 12-point margin over Oklahoma A&M which produced the individual leader of the meet in Ralph Tate Baylor, dash star, Bill Martinson, vied with Tate for top honors of the day, closed out in third place with 9 1/2 points.

Texas was announced as a 12-point winner over the Aggies by the clerk of the meet but a recheck showed the margin was much closer and that Baylor had 2 1/2 more points than credited in the official totals.

West Texas State, coming to the meet unheralded as a Cinder path power, loped in with first place in the college division, making 30 1/2 points. North Texas State was second with 28 and Abilene Christian College was third with 23.

Paschal Wins Division
Paschal of Fort Worth triumphed in the high school class—the first time a local school ever has won in this meet. It required the mile relay to decide the issue. Woodrow Wilson of Dallas had 18 points and Paschal 20 going into this event.

Adams of Dallas, through a blistering quarter-mile by its star, lanky J. R. Tucker, won the relay but Paschal was second and Woodrow Wilson was shut out.

The high school division produced the only record of the meet—Bill Lambeth of Maud, Okla., leaping 6 feet 2 3/4 inches in the high jump to best the existing mark by three-quarters of an inch. Bunch of Greenville set the record smashed by Lambeth, back in 1929.

The University of Texas never has failed to win the title in the history of the exposition meet but Saturday's victory was one of the closest.

A crowd of 2,000 saw the meet run off in sunshine but with a stiff wind handicapping the sprinters.

Country Clubbers Will Tour Course Against Jack Redmond

Midland golfers like to de-crown the champion golfers. Sunday, beginning at 1:30 p. m. over the Midland Country Club course, Bill Barker and Bill Zylstra will compete against Jack Redmond, trick-shot artist and visiting dignitary, who will be partnered with Jimmy Smith, Midlander.

Barker and Zylstra recently took the measure of Joe Kirkwood, another trick-shooter and his partner, Zylstra that day was hotter than the bricks on the Memorial Day Speedway during a race.

Country clubbers and citizens are invited to form a large gallery for the Redmond match.

Immediately following the special match, Redmond will perform his entourage of trick shots. He comes here on a very successful tour of Texas.

Numbers of Midlanders Sunday are expected to get in practice links for the approaching open handicap benefit tournament for the Midland Memorial Hospital March 31.

Graftage was known to horticulturists at least two centuries before Christ.

Bulldogs Prep For Big Spring Relays

The Midland High Bulldogs took weekend track workouts and prayed the sand wouldn't blow at Big Spring next Saturday when they will compete in the Relays.

Finals of the Big Spring joust are booked for Saturday night beginning at 8. Preliminaries will be that afternoon.

Midland can count on points from Dunny Goode, the sprinter; Bobby Cole, the hurdler and the quarter-miler; Bobby Drake, the miler; and possibly enough others to be in the top bracket for point making.

Thirty-five area schools are entered in the Big Spring meet, including defending champ, Abilene, and strong Odessa.

Triplicate Sets New Mark At Santa Anita

ARCADIA, CALIF.—(AP)—Fred Astaire's Triplicate Saturday romped away with the $50,000 San Juan Capistrano Handicap, Santa Anita Park's closing day feature, by five lengths. War Valor was second and Old English third. Rated carefully by Jockey Job Dean Jessop, Triplicate was timed in 2:28 2/5, beating the track record for the mile and one-half by four-fifths of a second.

While War Valor and Be Faithful were setting the pace for more than a mile, Jessop kept Triplicate in contention, no worse than fifth at any point. Coming through an opening on the far turn, the five-year-old son of Reigh Court turned on the heat and ran away from his rivals in the stretch.

Triplicate paid $22.60, $12.50 and $8.30. War Valor paid $18 and $9.80, while Old English closed fast to return $7.60 for the show.

Triplicate's win was worth $40,030 to Astaire. War Valor brought Mrs. Howard Hawks $10,000 for his place while Old English earned $5,000 for E. B. Johnston. Louis B. Mayer, the track's leading money-winner, picked up $2,500 for Be Faithful's fourth.

The 3-1 favorite, Texas Sandman finished last in the 10-horse field. Others who ran were Bail Bond, second choice at 7-2; Challenge Me, Jeep, Eric A Bac and Wise Eagle.

Entry Blanks Go Out For Benefit Bowling Tourney

Entry blanks for the Midland Memorial Hospital Benefit Bowling Tournament went out this weekend and are expected to come pouring back in time for the big event March 30-31 at Plamor Palace. Deadline for entry is March 27.

A guaranteed first prize of $100 is offered and there are over $200 in cash prizes. The event is sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Midland and is expected to draw entries from area cities and heavily from Midland citizens.

Anyone can enter and anyone can win. Play will be on a handicap basis. A 50 per cent handicap ranges between high and low entries. There will be a 50 per cent handicap to 175 average. A total of eight games across eight alleys will be rolled.

The entry fee is $10 and includes a $2 bowling fee for the Midland Memorial Hospital Benefit Bowling Classic.

There will be one or more squads for beginners only and one or more squads for ladies. Citizens are urged to go to Plamor and establish an average and receive free in-

Segura Takes Indoor Tennis Championship

NEW YORK — (AP) — Francisco (Pancho) Segura of Guayaquil, won the United States indoor tennis singles championship Saturday, defeating former titleholder Don McNeill of Orange, N. J., in the tournament final at the Seventh Regiment Armory, 1-6, 6-3, 6-4, 7-5.

An entry blank is published in the Sunday Reported-Telegram. It should be mailed to Jack Mashburn, P. O. Box 1006, Midland, Texas.

Former Texas End On Virginia Grid Staff

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA.—(AP)—Head Football Coach Arthur L. (Art) Guepe Saturday announced the appointment of Ned L. McDonald, former University of Texas star end, as line coach at the University of Virginia. McDonald will also be varsity wrestling coach.

McDonald, recently released from the Navy where he was a lieutenant commander, succeeds Al Thomas, who was taken to Marquette University by Frank J. Murray, former Virginia coach, as his line assistant at the Milwaukee, Wis., school.

DOWN SPORTSLANE TANNER LAINE

Once when in Kentucky in the late afternoon sun we saw an old darkie walking a racehorse. More to open the conversation than to actually learn much, we asked that greying old man: "Is that a quarterhorse?"

Marty, his name was Marty, and he didn't know how old he was, wrinkled his brow and almost growled: "Dat am a racehorse, you dog-nabbed Texican," he said.

"Pray don't mind us, old man," we went on. "Just wanted to get you to tell a little about racehorses, captain."

He brightened at the title.

Then he warmed to a subject so dear to his heart. "Now this is Clara Belle out of so-and-so, sired by such-and-such," rambled, rambled, he went on.

We walked with him along a secluded road there in Kentucky, flanked by their famous "blue grass". And then we had to go to camp and he back to the stables.

"Glad to see you, boy," he parted. "But I reckon you strangers to Kentucky will never learn more than Kentucky is famous for fast horses and pretty women, and you are not terrible interested in the horses, you soldier boys."

Here are some nominations for the 1946 Derby, which have figured in stakes competition of two-year-olds in 1945: Star Pilot, Air Rate, Spy Song, Athene, Marine Victory, with Pleasure, Challadette, Lord Boswell, Knockdown, Colony Boy, Mist 'O Gold, Mighty Story, Honeymoon, Southern Pride, Pellicle, Billy Bumps, Here's How, Fighting Frank, Assault, High Shine, The Dude, War Kilt, Look-out Dice, Twenty-Six, Me Again, Tidy Bid, Lycos, Yesnow, Hamul, Desert Ration, Please Me, Mr. Chairman, Warf, Windfields, Islam Prince, Matruth.

Lordy, don't ask me where they get those names. But we note very much a wartime turn of names, re: Star Pilot, Spy Song, Marine Victory, Fighting Ration, War Kilt, Mighty Story, yes and Lookout Dice.

Speaking of names, here's some derby winners for a few years back: Hoop, Jr., Pensive, Count Fleet, Shut Out, Whirlaway, Galahadion, Johnstown, Lawrin, War Admiral, Bold Venture, Omaha, and Calvacade. That's from 1945 back to 1934.

St. Petersburg Title Captured By Yankees

ST. PETERSBURG, FLA.—(P)—Joe DIMAGGIO's home run with two on in the eighth inning enabled the New York Yankees to come from behind and defeat the St. Louis Cardinals 3-2 in an exhibition game Saturday.

The victory was the Yankees St. Petersburg spring title for the New Yorkers over the National League club.

Phils Blank Baltimore

HOLLYWOOD —(P)—Manager Ben Chapman's Philadelphia Phils blanked Baltimore of the International League, 4 to 0, Saturday for their sixth victory in nine exhibition contests.

Yank Campers Win 6-0

TAMPA, FLA.—(P)—The New York Yankees' Brandenton camp team exploded for six runs in the ninth inning Saturday to shut out the Cincinnati Reds 6-0 in an exhibition game.

Bengals Lose Fifth

LAKELAND, FLA.—(P)—The Detroit Tigers lost their fifth straight exhibition game Saturday, 4 to 3, to Washington's "B" team—the third time the world champions have been whipped by Clark Griffith's seconds.

Miss Marian Newton Named Honoree Of Shower And Tea At Guffey Home

Miss Marian Newton was named honoree of a lovely shower and tea Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Frances Guffey, 1305 West Tennessee. Hostesses for the occasion were Misses Guffey, Joyce Melancon, Carolyn Oates and Mrs. Hugh Bliss.

Miss Newton will become the bride of Charles Reeder of Midland in marriage rites to be solemnized at 7 p. m. Monday at the First Methodist Church.

Reception rooms of the Guffey home were attractive with a profusion of spring flowers.

As the guests arrived they were presented by Miss Guffey to the honoree and her mother, Mrs. Horace Newton.

The dining table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of jonquils and iris. Complimenting the centerpiece were tapers in candelabras.

Miss Alice Fleming and Mrs. Conrad Watson, Jr., alternated at the punch bowl during the calling hours from 4 to 6 p. m. Gifts were displayed by Misses Beth Prothro, Lois Terry, Chichi Brewer and Mrs. R. C. Sheetz. Mrs. Marion Culler, sister of the honoree, was in charge of the bride's book.

Mrs. Midkiff Plays
Incidental piano selections during the afternoon were by Mrs. Lige Midkiff.

All members of the house party wore corsages of jonquils and glad-toli with the exception of Miss Newton, whose corsage was of white carnations.

Miss Newton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Newton, of Midland. She has been employed at the Midland National Bank the past four and one-half years.

Served With 36th Division
The groom-to-be is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Reeder of Abernathy. He recently received his release from the U. S. Army after serving overseas with the medical corps of the 36th Infantry Division.

On the guest list were: Mmes. B. W. Broadbuss, Bertie Boone, Holt Howell, Otis Ligon, J. M. Prothro, Frank Prothro, J. L. Tidwell, H. C. Watson, C. C. Watson, J. M. Flanagan, Howard H. St. Patrick Theme Featured At Ladies Association Luncheon

The St. Patrick theme was carried out in the decorations at the Ladies Association luncheon Friday at the Midland Country Club. Hostesses were Mrs. J. K. Hazlip and Mrs. S. P. Hazlip.

Shamrock appliques decorated the walls of the clubhouse and miniature shamrocks were placed on either side of the white and green crepe paper runners used down the center of the T-shaped luncheon table. Adding to the decorations were attractive bouquets of spring blossoms.

Mrs. Bob Franklin, president, presided during a brief business session. Announcement was made the hostesses for the luncheon meeting next Friday will be Mrs. George Slentz and Mrs. F. L. Hawk.

Games of progressive bridge were played during the afternoon.

Mrs. Leif Olson won the high score prize and Mrs. Franklin won second high. The bingo prize was presented to Mrs. Payton Anderson.

Present were Mmes. Anderson, Joe Beakley, James H. Chapple, Faye Cowden, Frank Downey, D. R. Dickson, Irby Dyer, J. P. Gibbins, Hawk, S. P. Hazlip, J. K. Hazlip, Franklin, David Johnston, William L. Kerr, Ted Lowe, L. G. Lewis, Olson, J. B. Richards, R. E. Roark, Leonard Stewart, B. R. Schabarum, Ross Williams, J. C. Velvin, Slentz, Jimmy Brooks and three guests, Mrs. A. L. Lindsey of Odessa, Mrs. Poteet of Crane and Erma Nichols.

Baylor University Student To Speak At MHS Senior Banquet

W. J. Wimpee, student secretary of Baylor University in Waco, will be guest speaker at the annual banquet for Midland High School seniors at 7 p. m. Tuesday in the Young People's Department of the First Baptist Church. Members of the WMU will be hostesses for the entertainment.

Wimpee is an outstanding student leader at the university and is an interesting and inspirational speaker.

James Mims will be toastmaster for the program which will feature the entertainment by the girls' trio in addition to the appearance of the guest speaker.

Mrs. J. M. White, WMU president, and Mrs. B. F. Wack, education chairman, have been working along with their committee members to make this banquet a success. Invitations have been sent to all graduating seniors.

CUVELIER HOME IS SCENE FOR STAR CLUB ENTERTAINING
Mr. and Mrs. John Cuvelier entertained with a covered-dish supper Friday evening at their home, 809 North D, honoring members of the Star Club and their husbands.

A color scheme of green and white in observance of St. Patrick's Day was used in decorating the entertaining rooms. The same motif was used in the napkins, table cloths, placecards and refreshments.

During the evening games of forty-two were enjoyed. High score prize was won by J. B. Wright and low score award was presented to Mrs. M. A. Floyd. Traveling prizes were won by Mrs. Sherwood O'Neill and G. G. Hazel.

Present were: Messrs. and Mmes. J. B. Wright, Fred Wycoff, G. G. Hazel, W. C. Murphy, M. A. Floyd, Sherwood O'Neill, John Cuvelier, Mrs. Bernard Collins and Mrs. Leo Baldrige.

The next meeting of the Star Club will be held in form of a covered-dish luncheon at 1 p. m. Wednesday at the Masonic Hall.

Wed in Recent Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Peniel D. Pederson are shown cutting their wedding cake following marriage rites solemnized March 3 at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. John W. Cranford, in Waco. Mrs. Pederson is the former Patsy Tull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Tull, of Midland.

Miss Patsy Tull and Peniel D. Pederson Are Wed in Double Ring Rites Performed in Waco

Miss Patsy Tull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Tull, of Midland and formerly of Clifton, became the bride of Peniel D. Pederson, son of Ole C. Pederson of Clifton, in impressive double ring rites performed March 3 in Waco at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. John W. Cranford on the Temple Road.

Vows for the ceremony were directed by the Rev. Woodson Armes as the bridal couple stood before an improvised altar formed with baskets of pink and white gladioli, sweetpeas and greenery. Tapers burning in candelabra provided soft illumination for the setting.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Cranford played the traditional wedding march and accompanied the bride's mother as she sang "Because." "Reverie of Love" was played softly as the marriage vows were repeated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose a street-length dress of ice blue crepe designed with a draped skirt. Her small black hat was fashioned with flowers and a shoulder-length veil. Completing her attire were long black gloves. She carried a white prayer book topped with iris and satin streamers interlaced with stock.

Matron of Honor
Mrs. Roy Thompson of Waco who attended her cousin as matron of honor was attired in an aqua blue dress and wore a shoulder corsage of split carnations.

Miss Margaret Mims of Midland and student at the Texas Christian University in Fort Worth was maid of honor. She wore a yellow crepe dress and a corsage of white carnations.

S. H. Pederson of Waco, brother of the groom, was best man. Groomsman was E. Z. Rice also of Waco.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held. A lace cloth covered the dining table which was centered with a two-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Encircling the cake were sweetpeas and fern.

Mrs. R. H. Sweatman, aunt of the bride, served the cake and Mrs. H. C. Pederson presided at the punch bowl. Signatures of the wedding guests were secured in the bride's book by Miss Ollie Mae Pederson.

Go to New Orleans
After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Pederson left for a wedding trip to New Orleans. For travel Mrs. Pederson chose a suit of black and white wool check styled with dolman sleeves and fitted waistline. Completing her attire were red accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The bride is a graduate of Midland High School and attended Texas State College for Women in Denton.

Mr. Pederson is a graduate of Clifton High School and attended Clifton Junior College and Kilgore Junior College before entering the armed forces. He served overseas four and one-half years with the 36th Division.

They will make their home in Clifton where he is associated with the Service Drug.

Discussions On Housing Heard By Voters League

An interesting program in form of a panel discussion on the subject "Housing" was presented following the luncheon for members of the League of Women Voters Saturday in the Scharbauer Educational Building of the First Methodist Church.

Opening the program were talks by Mrs. E. H. Davidson and Mrs. J. E. Beakley. "The Extent Our Housing Supply Falls Short of Meeting Our Needs" was chosen by Mrs. Davidson while Mrs. Beakley used "The Cause of the Current Housing Shortage."

Other discussions were: "The Reasons for the Lumber Shortage," Mrs. George Vannaman; "Newest Materials for Building Houses," Mrs. C. R. Steinberger; "Veterans Aid in Housing Crisis," Mrs. Taylor Cole; "Patman Housing Bill," Mrs. David Johnston; and "The Wagner-Ellender-Taft General Housing Bill," Mrs. Lamar Lunt.

Mrs. O. W. Wall spoke on "Price Control in Midland County" giving answers on what it is and what the citizens can do about it. She emphasized four points in her talk: Don't pay more than ceiling price, don't ask more than ceiling price, report all over-charges to price control board and volunteer as a price panel representative.

Concluding the program for the afternoon was a report on the progress made during the past several weeks by the newly-organized Community Theater by Mrs. John P. Butler.

Guests were: Mmes. A. W. Cole, George Abell, G. C. Clark, Tom Fowler, John Butler, B. R. Schabarum, O. G. Morgan, Jack Bliss, L. G. Yarborough, E. J. Pierce, J. G. McMillan, Fred Wright, Alton Donnelly, Ralph Geisler, and Bill Imb.

The following members were present: Mmes. V. W. Rogers, Frank Ashby, William L. Kerr, Selman Lones, E. H. Davidson, George Turner, R. L. Gates, Taylor Cole, Karl Mygdal, William Hilsweck, Leonard Thomas, W. M. Osborn, Eric Bucher, William Cones, C. R. Steinberger, Winston Hill, Beakley, George Kribbs, Johnston, H. E. Shaw, Carl McAdams.

Also Mmes. James N. Allison, Lloyd Mills, Payton Anderson, Lamar Lunt, R. A. Estes, James Nolan, Olin Prather, Paul Schaefer, William Penn, L. R. Newfarmer, W. A. Yeager, F. H. Fuhrman, Wall, Surce Taylor, Vannaman, Leland Davidson, Effie Sanders, John Redfern, Putnam, Lindley Latham, J. Duvall McClure and Miss Marie Spencer.

Beta Sigma Phi Will Sponsor Book Review Benefit March 23

Mrs. Glee Munro of San Angelo will be presented in a review of "The King's General" written by Daphne Du Maurier, by the Midland chapter of Beta Sigma Phi at 3 p. m. March 23 in the Crystal Ballroom of the Scharbauer Hotel.

Proceeds from the review will be donated to the Midland Memorial Hospital and American Red Cross funds.

Mrs. Munro received her BA degree in speech arts at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene where she was a member of "Players" for four years and the college girls' debating team for three years.

She has worked with the Little Theater in Abilene and taught speech arts several years in the San Benito Public Schools where she had charge of directing plays, declamation and extemporaneous speaking in the high school division.

For the past two years Mrs. Munro has been a private speech arts teacher in San Angelo. She is a past president of the Federation of Women's Clubs, having been active in federated club work for a number of years. At present she is a member of the state board of the Texas League of Women Voters.

Mrs. Munro has been presented in book reviews on numerous occasions not only in San Angelo but in neighboring vicinities of West Texas.

BOOK REVIEW WILL BE PRESENTED AT HIGH SCHOOL P-TA

Highlight of the program to be presented at the Midland High School P-TA meeting at 8 p. m. Tuesday at the school will be a review of "Sure Enough—How Come" by Mrs. E. L. Phillips.

This book written by Frieda von Emden is a clever takeoff on Texanisms in poetry. The author is Dutch and was born in England. After living in New York several years she was married and came to Texas with her husband to make their home.

Mrs. Phillips To Review 'Sure Enough—How Come'

Mrs. E. L. Phillips will present a review of the book "Sure Enough—How Come" by Frieda von Emden at a meeting of the Woman's Council of the First Christian Church.

Preceding the afternoon's program, luncheon will be served at 1 p. m.

Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bryan

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bryan of Midland celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with a dinner and open house Friday at their home. They were married March 15, 1896, in Duhonoga, Ga., and 10 of their 12 children are living.

Dinner was served to the honorees and seven of the children and their families who are living in Midland. They are: Mrs. J. A. Brown, Mrs. C. T. Adams, Mrs. R. S. Culp, Mrs. R. W. Culp, W. H. Bryan, S. W. Bryan and F. W. Bryan. Three of the couple's children live in Tennessee.

One son, S/Sgt. Gus Bryan, was killed in action in 1944.

The honorees were the recipients of many lovely gifts.

Refreshments were served during the afternoon to Messrs. and Mrses. J. M. Hughes, B. T. Haie, Elvis Barrington, E. M. Jones, the Rev. and Mrs. Roy Jones, Mrs. Nettie C. Romer, Mrs. Susie G. Noble, Mrs. R. L. Carpenter and J. H. Adams.

Monahans Show Starts Monday

MONAHANS—The eleventh annual Monahans Livestock Show, opening here Monday for a two-day run, is expected to draw entries from throughout West Texas. County Agent John Mogford, general superintendent, said Saturday. The show is open for all entries in the horse and dairy cattle divisions but is restricted to Ward, Reeves, Winkler and Loving counties in 4-H and FFA club entries.

A parade in the downtown business district at 10:30 a. m. Monday will open the show. Judging of livestock will start at 1 p. m. and continue until 4 p. m. A dance at the American Legion Hall at 9 p. m. will close the day's program.

Judging in the horse show will start at 10 a. m. Tuesday. An auction of club calves and lambs will be held at 2 p. m. Tuesday.

The Turks introduced coffee to Europe about 1883.

RUPTURE SHIELD EXPERT HERE

H. M. SHEVNAN, widely known expert of Chicago, will personally be at the Settles Hotel, Big Spring, Wednesday only, March 20, from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.

Mr. Shevnan says: The Zoetic Shield is a tremendous improvement over all former methods, effecting immediate results. It will not only hold the rupture perfectly no matter the size or location but it will increase the circulation, strengthen the weakened parts, and thereby close the opening in ten days on the average case, regardless of heavy lifting, straining or any position the body may assume. A nationally known scientific method. No under straps or cumbersome arrangements and absolutely no medicines or medical treatments.

Mr. Shevnan will be glad to demonstrate without charge. 6509 N. Artesian Ave., Chicago 45. Large incisional hernia or rupture following surgical operation especially solicited.

First Assembly of God Church

A convention for the First Assembly of God churches in the Pecos District of West Texas will be held at the Midland church Monday and Tuesday.

Ministers from the territory from Midland west to El Paso and south to Del Rio as well as other ministers of this denomination in nearby towns will attend.

The Rev. H. M. Sheets of Lubbock, district superintendent, will have charge of the services. Miss Mollie Baird, missionary to India, will be another feature of the two-day service, beginning at 2:30 p. m. Monday. On Tuesday evening a Christ's Ambassadors rally is scheduled under the direction of the Rev. Frank Mack of Lubbock, district CA president. The district superintendent will speak Tuesday morning.

Many Attend Cox Family Reunion At Garden City

GARDEN CITY—Mrs. Sallie Cox, 88, missed her first Glasscock County 4-H and FFA Stock Show Friday, but she is happy anyhow.

Wednesday of last week Mrs. Cox had her family together for the first time since 1924, when the late Mr. Cox died.

They got together at her home here for a dinner and reunion. There were six sons and five daughters, and more grandchildren and great-grandchildren than were counted.

The boys include: Fred of Lovington, N. M.; Phin of Garden City; Jim of Las Cruces, N. M.; Sam of Tarzan; John of Snyder, and Charles of Garden City.

The girls were: Mrs. Virgie Brooks, Havana, Kan.; Mrs. Essie Chaney, Big Spring; Mrs. Eva Cunningham, Tarzan; Mrs. Iva Bryans, Garden City, and Mrs. Jennie Teale, Garden City.

Mrs. Cunningham (Eva) and Mrs. Bryans (Iva) are twins. Charles is the youngest son and Fred the oldest.

Mrs. Cox was ill and could not make the stock show Friday.

White Shirts Guilty Of Inciting Mob

NEW YORK—(P)—New Yorkers have formed lines that extended around a city block for movies, liquor, cigarettes, meat, nylons, butter, or what have you. But it required the cops to handle a mob that gathered in the Times Square section when a haberdasher advertised white shirts.

The crowd not only hampered automobile traffic but interfered with such serious business as the attendance of bobby-soxers at an early movie show.

One of the last of 3,600 white shirts went to a man who declared: "Without this I don't know how I could get married tomorrow night!"

ISLAND OF SARK—(P)—The tranquility of Sark, one of the smaller English Channel islands, which was rudely upset by motor vehicles during the war, will be restored by an act of Sark's parliament.

The island's pre-war law forbidding the importation of automobiles and trucks will be renewed when British troops have departed, and motor cars will be banished forever, in the words of the Dame of Sark, Mrs. Sybil Hathaway.

"You have no idea what our roads look like," she observes. "The surfaces are torn to bits." Until the Nazis landed in 1940 with heavy armored vehicles, many Sarkese had never seen an automobile.

Only 90 Vehicles On Walters Surplus List

Only 90 vehicles are listed in the surplus property sale to be held at Camp Walters March 18 through March 25, Mrs. M. B. Arjek, clerk of the Midland Price Board, said Saturday. A copy of the list may be seen at the board's office in the courthouse.

Only a few pickups and general service trucks are available.

Right Dress Is Aid For Too Short Neck

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Stop fretting because your neck seems too short to wear choker beads, dog collars or high-climbing scarves. Remember that your time to shine comes at night when the long-necked girls won't look as ravishing as you do in off-shoulder gowns.

Wear your party-going frock as low-cut as you like. The expanse of exposed shoulders will give the illusion of all the added inches that you want your neck to have. Using the same shade of foundation-tint and powder for your neck and shoulders as you do for your face will also help to put this illusion across.

Hollywood-trained actresses say the studio experts don't worry about how short or long a girl's neck is, but how well she carries her head. A tip from one actress who carries her head as proudly as a queen—Mimi ("The Bamboo Blonde") Berry—is one to remember: Mimi says that in order to keep her neck out of her shoulders she tries to walk, stand and sit as though an unseen hand were pulling her hair at the crown of her head.

'Packaged Kitchen' Eases Housewife's Headaches

RESIDENT REPORTS CAMERA STOLEN FROM HOME

Mrs. H. E. Skipper, 605 S. Weatherford Street, reported to city police over the weekend a camera had been taken from her residence. She had been out of town for several days and missed it when she returned.

proved mechanical equipment and better utilization of space.

New appliances displayed recently at the Chicago housewares show indicate that designers and manufacturers have given deep thought to streamlining the kitchen and laundry room, centers of heaviest housework. Budget-guided housewives, yearning for a modern kitchen, will be attracted by the "packaged kitchen" idea. These kitchens are planned in units—refrigerator storage unit, sink and work table unit and cooking unit. They are standardized so that equipment for each may be purchased separately, as the budget permits.

Some of the new kitchen sinks boast not only an electric dishwasher but an electric garbage disposal attachment which fits into the sink drain and chews up a mealtime's accumulation of garbage. One company has turned out a super-compact unit that has a sink and a combination dishwasher and clothes washer, all in one cabinet.

No Defrosting
A refrigerator that doesn't require defrosting and has a built-in frozen food locker is another eye-opener for housewives. This same model has a lamp which kills bacteria and ends annoying food odors. Stoves have come in for their share of redesigning. One of the most notable improvements is the deeper broiler compartment so constructed that the broiler rack swings or pulls completely out of the heat zone when the door is opened. Coffee makers that brew the beverage at lightning speed and keep it hot indefinitely, electric egg beaters so slender they fit in a drawer and portable electric broilers are other practical boons to serious cooks.

JEAN LOVE: Habits differ.

for clothing—if hers isn't adequate—or tide her over with loans until the duds she brought will be right for the season.

If her habits of eating are different from yours—here Australian-born radio and concert singer Jean Love steps up to speak for the girls from "down-under"—remember that both table manners and foods differ in various countries.

Jean says that in all probability the Australian girl has never tasted the juice of the grapefruit, the prune or the tomato. So, if she doesn't drink these juices or give them to her baby, don't criticize or even raise your eyebrows.

Don't mark her table manners as being in bad form, just because they differ from yours. According to Jean, an Australian girl who arches the tines of her fork downward, picks up peas by the difficult method, and keeps her fork in her left hand when transferring food to her mouth is following the approved custom of her country.

EXERCISE FIRMS MUSCULAR GIRDLE

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer
Your front-line defense of a good figure is your own muscular girdle.

For the first exercise, sit on the floor with legs outstretched. Without bending your back, come forward from the hips and try to touch your toes.

For the second, lie on your back on the floor with arms outstretched above your head. Keeping arms up and heels glued to the floor, pull up to a sitting position, using your abdominal muscles to hoist you.

Return to position and relax; take this one only a few times at first. Increase the count daily as soreness in abdominal muscles gradually disappears.

Flapper's Cloche Stages Comeback

By EPSIE KINARD
NEA Staff Writer

Clara Bow, the "It" Girl of the 1920s, set the flapper's fashion pace with this neat bonnet pulled well down over her curly windblown bob.

NEW YORK—(NEA)—The Clara ("It" Girl) Cloche is back. Although inspired by Broadway's kidingest musical, the "Billion Dollar Baby," which pokes hilarious fun at the flaming 20s, the hat that's been pulled out of the show is not a gag.

There was no tongue in the cheek of Manhattan's swank milliner, Sally Victor, who designed it. And proof that girls who're buying it are not foolin' are the orders on the books, which she says are terrific.

"Of course," says the designer, "they'll wear it with trim little suits—not with beaded dresses with waists that come down to here." To indicate where (in the torrid 20s), Mrs. Victor bent down and touched her knees.

The next day after this cloche was launched—worn with a "flapper-girl" wig which wasn't a fright-wig, either—Manhattan's hair-dressers were busy chopping off "scrub-lady" buns. Proof that the wind-blown bob is not a gag? Girls don't yield their long locks to the scissors just for fun.

The modern version of the flaming flapper hat is this head-hugging cloche of pumice gray felt, trimmed with dotted gray veil and ribbon streamers.

Red Tape Cut In Sale Of Surplus Equipment Here

A sale of surplus property at the Midland Army Air Field under a new streamlined method will be held Monday, March 25, Lt. John Watkins, salvage officer, announced Saturday. The procedure for the sale was set at a conference in San Antonio recently.

The new method does away with most of the red tape formerly connected with surplus equipment sales. No contracts and no advance deposits will be required, Lieutenant Watkins said. Veteran's priorities do not apply to the sale and only military personnel and civilian employees of the War Department are ineligible.

The surplus supplies, in lots, will be made available for inspection from Monday, March 18, through Friday, March 22, at the salvage warehouse, building T-525, at the field. The warehouse will be open daily from 9 a. m. until 4 p. m., and bid slips may be obtained and sealed bids on designated lots may be deposited in the building. Bids may also be sent to the salvage officer by mail.

Other Sales Planned
Bids will be opened publicly by the salvage officer on Monday, March 25, in the presence of the contracting officer. Awards will be made to the highest bid on each individual lot, and the successful bidder will be notified by mail, telephone or other methods. Purchasers will be allowed five days in which to pay for and claim the property, and the property must be removed by the buyer at his own expense.

The right to reject any bid which does not represent the best obtainable price as compared with prevailing market prices is reserved by the supply officer. The property will be sold on a "where is, as is, all or none" basis, Lieutenant Watkins said.

Other sales will be held at regular intervals in the future, it was announced.

KNUCKLE MASSAGE HELPS SKIN TONE

JOAN MARLOWE: Uses Knuckles

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

"Walking" your little fist up the muscular paths of your face describes knuckle massage, which cosmeticians say is the best way to keep skin in tone and contours safe from slips.

Taught the trick by a famed masseuse, career-girl Joan Marlowe—she's co-publisher of the Theater Information Bulletin—says she uses it to give herself the equivalent of an expensive facial.

Her technique is to make a loose fist and to "walk" it by its second joint knuckles up from the chin line, all around her face. Joan applies a good night cream to her skin before she begins her knuckle massage. When skin warms up and the first application of cream vanishes, she smooths on a second film of cream, and knuckles some more.

Try her method and see if it isn't an improvement over those half-hearted measures of stroking cream on your skin.

BIG SPRING VISITOR

M/Sgt. James C. McNeil, local Army recruiter, was in Big Spring on business Saturday.

Ex-West Texas Cowpuncher Passes Through City On Cross-Country Trip

Dave Satterwhite blew into Midland along with the high winds and sand Friday afternoon.

His progress wasn't near as speedy as that of the sand, because he was riding a six-year-old half-Arabian mare, and has been for 24 days.

Satterwhite, a 59-year-old ex-West Texas cowboy, ex-37th Artilleryman of the first world war, and ex-Navy civil service employee, left San Diego, Calif., on February 8 on a cross-country horseback ride which he hopes will put him in New York April 15. He has been on the road 33 days, but has had several lay-overs at various points to rest both himself and his mare, June.

In Good Condition
He and June both are in excellent shape, although he has a bad cold picked up in New Mexico. He was pretty tired after battling strong winds since leaving Odessa at 1 p. m. Friday, the Long Beach, Calif., man admitted as he caught up on his letter writing in the lobby of the Buckner Hotel.

He arrived here at 5:15 p. m. June was spending the night in a corral near the Farmer's Co-Operative Gin, resting up for resumption of the trip at 6 a. m. Saturday.

Satterwhite hopes to be the first man to officially make a cross-country tour on horseback. Already he has been hailed as the first person to cross the Great American Desert using only one horse and having no assistance in providing food and water for himself and his mount.

At Pecos he was informed he had beaten by about 19 hours the Pony Express record run from the Pacific Coast to that Reeves County city. He registers in each town he passes through.

Once Visited Here
"I'm back in familiar country now," Satterwhite said, "and the going will be easier." He visited Midland in January, 1928, when he and several other cowboys came here to load cattle purchased from the Diamond H Ranch by Joy and Charlie Graham of Dundee and Abilene. He was born and raised at Wichita Falls.

The idea for his journey was born when doctors advised him to spend some time on a dude ranch to recuperate from a general run-down condition caused by his service as a Navy civil service employee in the Hawaiian Islands. Rather than risk his neck among the dudes, he started his long trek eastward. He averages about 40 miles per day, and makes one- or two-day rest stops about every 500 miles. He was in El Paso Tuesday, March 5, where June was fitted with her second set of shoes for the trip. The shoes put on her there were plated with horseshoe borum, a metal said to be harder even than diamonds, and was guaranteed that the shoes would carry him through to New York City. So far the shoes haven't shown a sign of wear, Satterwhite said. He left El Paso Thursday, March 7.

Gaining Weight
He is riding with a stripped saddle and carries only a blanket roll and a slicker. He ships his changes of clothing ahead at each rest stop, and he expects to get out of his dust-soaked overalls and jumper at Abilene Tuesday.

Satterwhite says the trip already has aided his health and that he is gaining weight. He has had no ailments since he started his journey, although he hadn't ridden a horse since 1934.

He expects to be back through Midland in early summer, but this time it won't be on horseback. Satterwhite plans to drive a bright new automobile back to California.

June? She'll be in a luxury trailer hooked on behind, the leathery-faced rider says.

Aslin Jumps From Pfc. To Sergeant Same Day

D. W. Aslin, who last week volunteered for re-enlistment in the Army Air Forces as a private first class, received a quick promotion. On the day of his acceptance he was promoted to the grade of staff sergeant.

Aslin, who was discharged from the AAF Oct. 16, 1945, was made a sergeant under provisions of a new regulation authorizing certain specialists to be re-enlisted in their former grades. He formerly was a staff sergeant with the 426th Base Unit. He served five years and three months before re-enlisting at the Midland Army recruiting station.

Mrs. Aslin resides at 400 South Pecos Street.

THE TRUTH ABOUT HOME BUILDING in 1946

IT'S TIME VETERANS AND ALL CITIZENS WERE TOLD THE TRUTH ABOUT THE HOME BUILDING SITUATION.

The main bottleneck to home construction is production of materials and equipment.

No legislation, Presidential announcement, government control plan, or system can produce a single additional home until production of materials is speeded up.

Lumber Dealers and the Building Industry are eager to build homes for veterans and all citizens who need the m. The reason few homes are being built is because materials are not being produced.

WHY?

1. Governed by OPA's war-time pricing formulas, it is still more profitable for lumber mills to make items for export—and the items formerly required for war use, than it is to make lumber usable in Home Construction.
2. OPA's war-time pricing formulas are still keeping thousands of small mills out of production.

3. OPA's enforcement policies have allowed the creation of a large black market in lumber which is moving outside of regular channels of trade.
4. OPA's slowness in adjusting mill ceiling prices on hardwood flooring, siding, millwork and plywood has contributed to the difficulties mills are having in securing necessary manpower.

With 400 brick and tile plants closed, it took 6 months for OPA to adjust prices. Now an additional 125 plants have opened and production is up 35%.

Clay sewer pipe, cast iron soil pipe and Gypsum board manufacturers have experienced a similar OPA delay in the granting of price adjustments to make increased production possible.

No amount of juggling with an insufficient supply will produce a single home more than can be built with material available.

The OPA can hardly hold present price ceilings when it has no control over volume of employment, labor wage rates, cashing of government bonds, and installment or credit expansion—BUT THE OPA CAN ACT AS A BLOCK TO RECONVERSION BY CLINGING TO UNREALISTIC WARTIME PRICE CEILINGS.

Unblock the production of materials caused by unrealistic wartime price controls and the building industry will build enough homes for veterans and all Americans!

Any government program that does not FIRST remove the obstacles blocking production of materials will simply add additional difficulties to the problem facing the building industry.

HERE ARE WAYS TO CONCEAL YOUR AGE

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer
There comes a time when, to be youthful, a woman needs to work at it.
Interested in ways? Study these five pointers, and see if you don't agree with experts that they provide good strategy:

1. Don't talk about age. When you do, you're apt to invite speculation about your own.
2. Keep in stride with style. Nothing so betrays age as dated make-up, hair-dos or clothes.
3. If slang splices up your speech, keep it up to the minute. Such old-timers as "horse feathers," "apple sauce," "no kidding" and "I mean, really," date you.
4. Watch your posture. The best stand to take against age is a superb stance.
5. Keep elbows off arms of chairs or table tops. When elbows are propped up, hands start to fidget. Face-feeding, hair-patting, bead-fingering, scale-playing and other nervous gestures betray age as much as wrinkles.

Monroe Elected Head Of District Teachers Group

Frank Monroe, superintendent of Midland Public Schools, Friday was elected president of the West Texas Teachers Association at its annual conference in Lubbock. About 80 teachers from the Midland school system attended the meeting.

Monroe had charge of the Friday morning session of the program, which was attended by about 1,500 teachers and school officials of District 4 of the state association.

W. A. Miller of Odessa was named vice-president of the unit, Miss Lucas of Odessa was elected secretary, and Clarence Guffee of Floydada was named treasurer. Tom McCollum of Brownfield was chosen state executive committeeman.

Several outstanding educators made talks at the conference.

Plants Shelter Belt, Wind Erosion Break

B. C. Bryson has planted a shelter belt strip of chinese elm trees on his farm north of Midland this spring. Bryson planted the trees as part of his complete program of soil and water conservation in cooperation with the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District and was assisted by the Soil Conservation Service. The shelter belt will serve as a wind break in helping to control wind erosion, Bryson said, and also will help make the farm more attractive.

Conservation plans have been completed on the San Preston Ranch, and on the farms of Ellen Ray and Sherwood O'Neal in the Valley View Soil Conservation Group and the G. M. Kinsey farm in the Pleasant Valley Soil Conservation Group. The plans will be reviewed by the district supervisors and upon approval will become a part of cooperative agreements between the land owners and the Soil Conservation District.

Limbering-Up Exercise For Creaking Joints

MRS. LAURITZ MELCHIOR: Exercise keeps her limber.

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Ever hear your joints creak when you stretch beyond your reach? Ever groan over muscular soreness that sets in after a strenuous stint? You'd never be reminded by creaking joints or muscle-bound stiffness that you're losing your youthful limberness, if you exercised every day.

JayCee Officers Are Nominated

A. A. (Poostie) Jones for president, Bill Neely for vice president, Tanner Laine for second vice president, and Ted Thompson for secretary-treasurer, have been nominated by the Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce's nominating committee for election scheduled March 29.

Other nominations may be made from the floor.

The Rev. Hubert Hopper, present president, will become a member of the board of directors.

New directors nominated for a two-year term include: Ernest Neill, Dr. Henry Schlichting, Frank Woods, Lester Gifford, Glyde Garrison, Newline Ellis and Murray Fasken.

Holdover directors are: Ted Crane, Graham Smoot, L. W. (Sandy) Sandusky, and Harlan Howell.

Any kind of exercise will stave off stiffness, says Mrs. Lauritz Melchior, wife of the Metropolitan Opera tenor. Although married 20 years, her friends boast that she is as limber and lithe-figured as a young girl.

Her secret? A work-out on an exercycle—a stationary bike which she pedals fast and furiously. Since there is a flexible handlebar which allows her to do some fancy stretching, she tosses that in for extra good measure.

You may not have a stationary bike to use, but how about slipping into the saddle of one which moves? Or taking up a sport which will make you move your muscles? Bowling will. So will ping pong. So will a daily dip in an indoor swimming pool.

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat, right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barconate (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Space for Rent—No Ceiling

An enterprising property owner hopefully displays a "for rent" sign on what is left of a Manila store building, reduced by bombings to only a shell. Manila, once proud "Pearl of the Orient" with modern, glistening buildings and spacious boulevards, is beginning to rebuild with temporary wooden structures. These will be replaced later by concrete and steel buildings when materials are available. Photo by Dave Davis, NEA-Acme correspondent.

Babies Provide 3-Corner Flags For Transport

By KATHRYNE IRVIN
AP News Features
PEARL HARBOR—"Homeward-bound" pennants vary in size. The old tradition is that each foot of bunting represents one of the ship's members. A blue star in a field of white, flown from the top of a mast, represents an officer aboard. In ships where the number of the crew is large, several pennants may be flown.

The USS Diseman recently went home... Sea-dogs of old may have winced had they seen her three-cornered "flags" fluttering in the breeze, but Capt. F. A. Leamy and his men took it all in stride. The Dickman even took a heavy squall in stride—not the squall signifying a tropical storm but the squall made by 16 babies.

Carrying 1,828 military personnel and 600 civilian passengers, the Dickman found many of the women had babies in the diaperable age. The officers and men collected 1,000 diapers for free distribution to the mothers.

No one asked how so many had been collected. The Navy simply proved itself equal to a crisis unique in naval history. It was estimated that because of the lack of washing facilities for diapers, 1,000 would be needed.

So, the Dickman headed for home proudly flying in the place of the usual colorful bunting, a pennant of 16 freshly laundered diapers.

Elmer Wanders Afar; Rangers Are Puzzled

MISSOULI, MONT.—Forest service officials here are puzzled over the case of Elmer, the wandering elk.

Wildlife Chief C. A. Joy of Forest Service Headquarters reports: Elmer had an identification tag fixed on one ear at Yellowstone National Park, on the Montana-Wyoming border, in 1939. That same year he and other elk were moved and "transplanted" northward to the Deer Lodge National Forest in Southwest Montana.

Recently forest rangers in Idaho reported finding Elmer near the Coeur D'Alene River. At least the number of the tag they found in an elk's ear there corresponds to the one on Elmer's tag.

"It seems impossible that an elk could travel that far," said Joy, pointing out that Elmer would have had to travel several hundred miles and cross two mountain ranges in order to go from the Deer Lodge Forest to the Coeur D'Alene River.

Ontario Hens Speedup

TORONTO —(P)—Ontario hens laid 2,338 million eggs last year to lead Canada's provinces in the campaign for increased production for export. Despite a 30 per cent decline in labor supply, Ontario's agriculture production in 1945 jumped 60 per cent over 1944.

'Mother' Planes Will Control Atom Test Robots

Mechanics at the Naval Aircraft Modification Unit, Johnsville, Pa., are pictured above working on two of the planes which will serve as radio-control "mothers" of pilotless "drone" aircraft scheduled to obtain minute scientific recordings of the atomic bomb tests at Bikini Atoll in May.

Price Board Seeking Volunteer Assistants

A call for volunteers to check consumers' complaints and to make monthly surveys was issued Saturday by Mrs. Marie Wall, chief clerk of the Midland Price Board.

Volunteer price panel assistants will find the work interesting and will be doing a job for the benefit of the community, Mrs. Wall said. The surveys are conducted to determine if prices of various commodities are conforming with ceilings set by the Office of Price Administration, but workers will not be "snooping," since a majority of businessmen welcome such checks, the price board clerk said.

Four surveys have been assigned for this month, and since the office has only two paid clerks, they must be made by volunteer workers, Mrs. Wall explained.

Veterans May Purchase War Surplus Materials

Qualified veterans are eligible to purchase several items of surplus military goods listed in circulars received last week by the Midland County Selective Service Board. The merchandise includes rick sacks, adjustable pipe wrenches, impermeable aprons and gloves, and pick matts.

Full information concerning surplus property available for purchase may be had at the Selective Service office in the courthouse.

Tusk Luck

LUSAKA, NORTHERN RHODESIA —(P)—During 1945 more than 27,000 pounds of ivory worth $44,500, was taken from 695 elephants killed. Elephants are a crop menace in Northern Rhodesia, and a shortage of rifles has handicapped control.

Motorists Urged To Purchase Tags Early

As the deadline of March 31 approaches, Tax Collector J. H. Fine has visions of long lines of impatient vehicle owners waiting to register their vehicles during the last few days of March.

He urges all Midland County vehicle owners to get their documents in order and apply for registration to avoid waiting in line.

Under the laws of Texas, a certificate of title in proper order and the current year's registration receipt must both be presented at the Tax Collector's office before new license plates can be issued.

New Citizens Should Enumerate Children

New citizens of Midland who expect to move their families here before the next school term should enumerate their children immediately with the Midland Independent School District.

School Supt. Frank Monroe said that students who intend to enter Midland schools and who have not been enumerated should be registered with the schools. Midland's annual school census is nearing completion and officials hope to perfect it soon.

No Castor Oil On Its Art, Says City Hall

NEW YORK —(P)—Castor Oil is not being used to restore the $3 million collection of oil paintings in New York's City Hall, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

Georg Lorber, executive secretary of the city art commission, made this solemn announcement when the Metropolitan Museum of Art protested reports that castor oil was used that way many years ago, but that turpentine is the principal agent employed now.

Employers Insurance Association Luncheon Is Scheduled Monday

L. A. Guthrie, vice-president and claims manager of the Texas Employers Insurance Association, will present its annual report to policyholders of this district at their annual luncheon Monday noon in the Crystal Ballroom of the Scharbauer Hotel.

Under the laws of Texas, a certificate of title in proper order and the current year's registration receipt must both be presented at the Tax Collector's office before new license plates can be issued.

Spellman Travelled Million Miles To Visit Boys

By NEA Service
NEW YORK — Francis Cardinal Spellman spent a quiet boyhood in the small New England town of Whitman, Mass.

Here the boy who was destined to become world-famous, worked at a county store, washed wagons, polished harnesses and pitched hay. Here he learned to love those things closest to God—the rolling hills, and the singing birds, people and their struggles with life. He was sensitive to these things, and first expressed them in a prize-winning high school composition.

The Spellman home in Whitman was large and roomy. Frank did not have to work, but chose to do so of his own volition. He saw how his parents, William and Ellen Conway Spellman, practiced self-denial to assure their children an education. His appreciation for their labor and love led him to lend what aid he could to the family of seven.

Francis Cardinal Spellman was first brought into the church as an altar boy at 10. At the time he thought much about the wonderful life a priest had, but did not feel that such a life had a formal relation to himself.

After graduation from high school, Frank went to Fordham University, where he entered into sports and debating. Here he was with priests of the Society of Jesus, but still years were to pass before his decision to become a priest became firm.

Instead, he turned over in his mind the lure of all the professions and of each business. He was graduated from Fordham in the class of 1911, and within the month went to a Jesuit retreat. He was 22 when he told his parents in Whitman:

"I think I'd like to try to study for the priesthood."

Spellman went off to Rome, where he spent five momentous years as a seminarian at North American College. He had chosen to follow the calling of God in this distant land and he settled down to few material things and great spiritual and intellectual enterprises. He was assigned to a small room that had no carpets on its tiled floors, one chair, a cot, a desk with shelves for books, an oil lamp and a washstand.

The new Cardinal received the degree of the Doctor of the Sacred Theology from the University of Propaganda, and on May 14, 1916, was ordained at St. Appollinaris Church.

Father Spellman offered his first mass in America in St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York. Long after possessed of full honors, he said the happiest day of his life was "the day I came home ordained, after five years away, and said mass for my Mother and Father."

Later, Father Spellman was made an attaché of the Papal Secretariate, the first American to be paid that respect. At the end of seven years Pope Pius XI made him a bishop, saying at the end of an interview:

"It was with some sacrifice that I made you bishop, for now you must leave me."

He left the city, where he so recently walked from historic Sistine Chapel to kneel before the Pope and receive the red hat of a cardinal, and took up duties as auxiliary bishop of Boston. Several years later he was called back to the Vatican City and promoted to archbishop of the Metropolitan See of New York.

Enjoys Walking
Since his assignment to New York, walking has been the Archbishop's only exercise, although he took up golf when he was a bishop and played a fair game. He is a brisk walker and often discusses church affairs with a secretary or priest who joins him on his hikes. He says hello to all and often stops to exchange friendly words with the timid.

As Military Vicar of the Armed Forces, the whole world was his parish. His Army and Navy diocese was the largest ever known. He covered more than a million miles in pilgrimages to all parts of the world, wherever Catholics fought in American uniforms.

His writing as a result of these travels have been best-sellers and have already earned more than $250,000. His works include "Action This Day," "No Greater Love," "The Risen Soldier," and "The Road to Victory." The highest sum ever paid for 8,000 words has been offered for "The Risen Soldier," which will be made into a movie. Royalties have been turned over to Army and Navy Relief and a wide variety of charitable organizations.

Gasoline production in the United States in 1900 was 7,000,000 barrels; in 1945 it was 750,000,000 barrels.

School 'Dry'? — Well, Listen

(An Editorial)

"But I don't have a date to the all-school party at the gym—so I can't go."
 "What—you mean you're going to let an 'ol boy keep you from having fun? I have just as much fun with a bunch of girls, acting silly, as with a boy. After all—he probably does too!"
 When the Student Council and teachers plan a party—they don't plan for just six or seven couples. After all—those couples don't take all the space in the gym.
 You've heard kids say, "In this town, we have to go out and make our own fun." Well, this time, we've got help, and it saves us work, while we have fun enjoying what they plan for us.
 If the gym can hold two hard fighting basket ball teams, with their supporters, it certainly can hold boys and girls with dates, and boys and girls without dates. After all, there's fun either way you go!
 Try it and you'll see school isn't so "dry" after all.

Two One-Act Plays Are Rehearsed For Contests In April

Miss Verna Harris, high school speech teacher, is directing rehearsals in two one-act plays for the Interscholastic League contests. Whether "So Wonderful in White" or "Overtones" will be entered in the district meet here in April will be decided later.
 The cast for "So Wonderful in White" includes Barbara Brown, Dorothy Butler, Mary Nell Casselman, Joan Chapman, Sharon Cornelius, Virginia Dunagan, La Juan Dunlap, Dorothy Faye Holt and Pat Ruckman.
 Billye Jean Jones, Mary Lee Cowden, Joan Chapman and Marilyn Miller have been selected for "Overtones."

Miss Harris announced the names of students who are entering Interscholastic League declamations and urged others who want to participate to contact her this week.
 There are junior and senior divisions for both boys and girls. The senior groups include those between 14 and 18 years of age. Those in the junior-divisions are 14 or younger.
 Girls in the senior divisions are Billye Jean Jones, Betty Joyce Gerald and Marjory Murray.
 Senior boys are Jack Howell, David Dickinson and Robert Roripaugh.
 Those in the junior girls' declamations are Helen Caffey, Evangeline Theis, Beth Choat, Emma Sue Cowden, Mary Lee Cowden, Maurine Denton, Norma Jean Hubbard, Barbara Ellis, Mona McGraw, Peggy Lou Whitson, Royce Raye McKee, Lois Black, Patsy Bray, Donna Lou Manning and Sarah Lew Link.
 Paul Dale Smith, Bob Short, Jimmy McGraw and Joe Dorsey are entering the junior boys' division.

Quill And Scroll Membership For Year Announced

Members of this year's chapter of Quill and Scroll, the international honorary society for high school journalists, have been announced.
 Those who have met the requirements and had a sample of their work approved are: Joan Chapman, Dorothy Butler, Marilyn Miller, Billye Jean Jones, La Juan Dunlap, Monta Jo Glass, and Sharon Cornelius from the Bulldog staff, and Doris Denton of the Cattie staff.
 Initiation will be held in the near future, Miss Ruth Carden, sponsor of the Bulldog, said. Membership cards and Quill and Scroll lapel pins will be given to the new members.
 Midland's membership charter was granted January 3, 1943. Qualifications are: a candidate must be of junior or senior standing, have a B average in all subjects, must have done superior work in some phase of journalistic or creative endeavor, must be recommended by local supervisor, and be approved by the executive secretary at Northwestern University.

Who's Who - Barbara

Barbara Ann Brown

The student director of the A Capella Choir is the hazel-eyed, brownette, 5' 3" senior, Barbara Ann Brown.
 Barbara was born July 2, 1929, in Merkel, and moved to Midland 11 years later. In her freshman year she was one of the heralds in the coronation and an angel in the Christmas pageant.
 She was in the school quintet her sophomore year and played the saxophone in the band. She was in the Junior Trio and the Junior play, "Headed for Eden."
 This year she is in the Senior Trio. She sang a solo, "Stairway to the Stars," in the coronation, was student director for the all-school play, "New Fires," and will play the part of the new girl in "So Wonderful in White." She is a member of these four clubs: Dramatics Club, D. V. V., Junior Civic Music Club, and is an honorary member of the Sub-Deb.

In Barbara's pastime she is either talking on the telephone or just having fun with the "gang." Among the movie actors, Dana Andrews and Lorraine Day are tops. Football games, basket ball games, sport clothes, eskimo pies, and olives are also on her list of favorites with "Always" and "I Can't Begin to Tell You" tying as her favorite songs. Like most people, Barbara has a favorite saying—"nuff said."
 "People who arouse my curiosity about something and then won't explain it is a pet peeve with me," exclaims Barbara.
 Barbara plans to enter Hardin-Simmons University this fall, with voice as a major. When asked about her secret ambition she says, "I'll let time take care of that."

Midland Teachers Attend Convention In Lubbock Friday

"Better Schools Through Better Homes" was the theme of the convention held by District Four of the West Texas Teachers Association at Lubbock on March 15.
 The first general session of the convention began at 9 p. m. with Frank Monroe, superintendent of Midland schools, vice president of the West Texas Teachers Association, presiding. An address, "Education for the Home of Tomorrow," was given by Dr. Robert E. Goodrich, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church at El Paso. This was followed by "Partners in New Educational Methods—Parents and Teachers," an address by Dr. Robert L. Sutherland, of the Hogg Foundation, Austin.
 Mrs. Evelyn Duvall, National Council of Family Relations, spoke to the delegates Friday afternoon at the second session on "Tomorrow's Family."
 At the third general session Friday night both Dr. Sutherland and Mrs. Duvall gave their second address to the convention. The title of Dr. Sutherland's was "Modern Allies of the Home and School" and Mrs. Duvall's was "New Skills in Family Relations Will Help the Homes and Schools of Tomorrow."
 The sessions took place in the Lubbock Senior High Auditorium.
 Students in the Midland County schools received a holiday all day Friday so that the 79 members of the West Texas Teachers Association might attend the convention.

MHS Debate Teams Travel To Dallas For Tournament

Three debate teams from Midland High School, coached by Miss Josephine Weaver, participated in the annual Sunset High School Debate Tournament in Dallas Saturday.
 Teams entering from Midland included La Juan Dunlap and Stella Shattuck, Harold Barber and Lawrence King, and Bill Hamilton and John Drummond.
 Debaters were invited from over a large area of Northwest Texas. All teams entering were allowed to engage in three debates Saturday morning. Those who won all three or who won two debates and had a recommendation from one of the judges, were allowed to enter the semi-finals Saturday afternoon. Finals were held late in the afternoon and on Saturday night.
 The Midland group left early Friday morning with Miss Weaver and Mrs. Elsie Magee. The debating teams spent Friday and Saturday nights in Dallas and will return to Midland Sunday.

Quotes And Notes Add Zip And Zest To MHS Bookcovers

Few things in MHS have the dashing originality of the average bookcover. There, tender dedications such as "In memory of those who died waiting for the bell" are found. A quotation that ranks with Patrick Henry's is, "They made me take it, but I didn't wanta."
 Civic-minded students proudly display safety tips such as "In case of flood, stand on this. It's very dry." Some pupils, however, prefer books, so the name of that great literary masterpiece, "Ham in One Volume," decorates many history and geometry texts.
 Future drive-in operators use class time to think up names for their cafes. Example, "Open all night, closed all day."
 To be absolutely honest, other "students" are not happy with their schoolbooks, either. Remarks such as "In case of fire, throw this in first," and "If found, please do not return" also have been inscribed.
 At last, though, we come to the school poet, that person who writes down the tender emotions of every day life. There, in distinguished script, is found such gems of emotion as "Hubba hubba" or "Catch me, Jackson, I'm annihilated."

Small Talk

MONDAY: Bright, shining, gay and intellectual people trooped through the doors of M. H. S.—naturally they weren't the students. The day was brightened by a test in chemistry.
TUESDAY: We now know who rules Midland. One of our fellow inmates snapped her fingers and the lights came on. The lights should have gone out later—for the convenience of all.
WEDNESDAY: And it was very convenient! At the time of the last report, 523 students had given "no lights" as an excuse for not getting their homework. What are the foods girls trying to do—torture us? Or maybe they made all those cookies for the style show.
THURSDAY: "Once upon a time there lived—" Does this sound familiar to you speech students? This day was definitely NOT brightened by the chemistry test!
FRIDAY: Isn't it wonderful how much some of us think of the teachers? We just can't bear to be without them so we just go to Lubbock, too! NO SCHOOL!

Speech Classes Tell Stories To Schools

The speech classes of Miss Verna Harris, speech instructor, took a field trip Thursday morning to the North Elementary, South Elementary and Latin-American schools. The purpose of the trip was to tell stories to the children. The first year speech class went at 10 p. m. and the radio speech class went at 11 p. m.
 The students prepared their stories and told them to the class before they presented them to the children. The stories included fairy, animal, adventure, history, and folk tales.
 The 25 speech students on the project were: Burton Stringer, Maurine Denton, Emma Sue Cowden, Francine Weaver, Betty Nell Gossett, Lloyd Henderson, Frank Sheppard, Loretta Russell, Beth Choat, Irene Harwell, Evangeline Theis, Mary Nell Casselman, Mary Lee Cowden, Barney Hightower, Enid Wheeler, Mona McGraw, Billie Dean Alkire, Barbara Ellis, Marjorie Murray, John Scroggin, Deane Debnam, Loes Shelburne, Fred McMurray, Norma Jean Hubbard and C. C. Tull.

A&M Is Virtually Sure To Get Ordnance Plant

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Virtual assurance that the 18,000-acre Bluebonnet Ordnance plant at McGregor, Texas, would be turned over to Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College for farm research was given a Texas delegation by the War Assets Corporation here.

Prospects that the huge plant, where bombs and shells were manufactured during the war, would be conveyed to the college within two weeks were seen by Carl L. Estes, Longview, Texas, newspaper publisher, one of the group which conferred with officials of the agency.

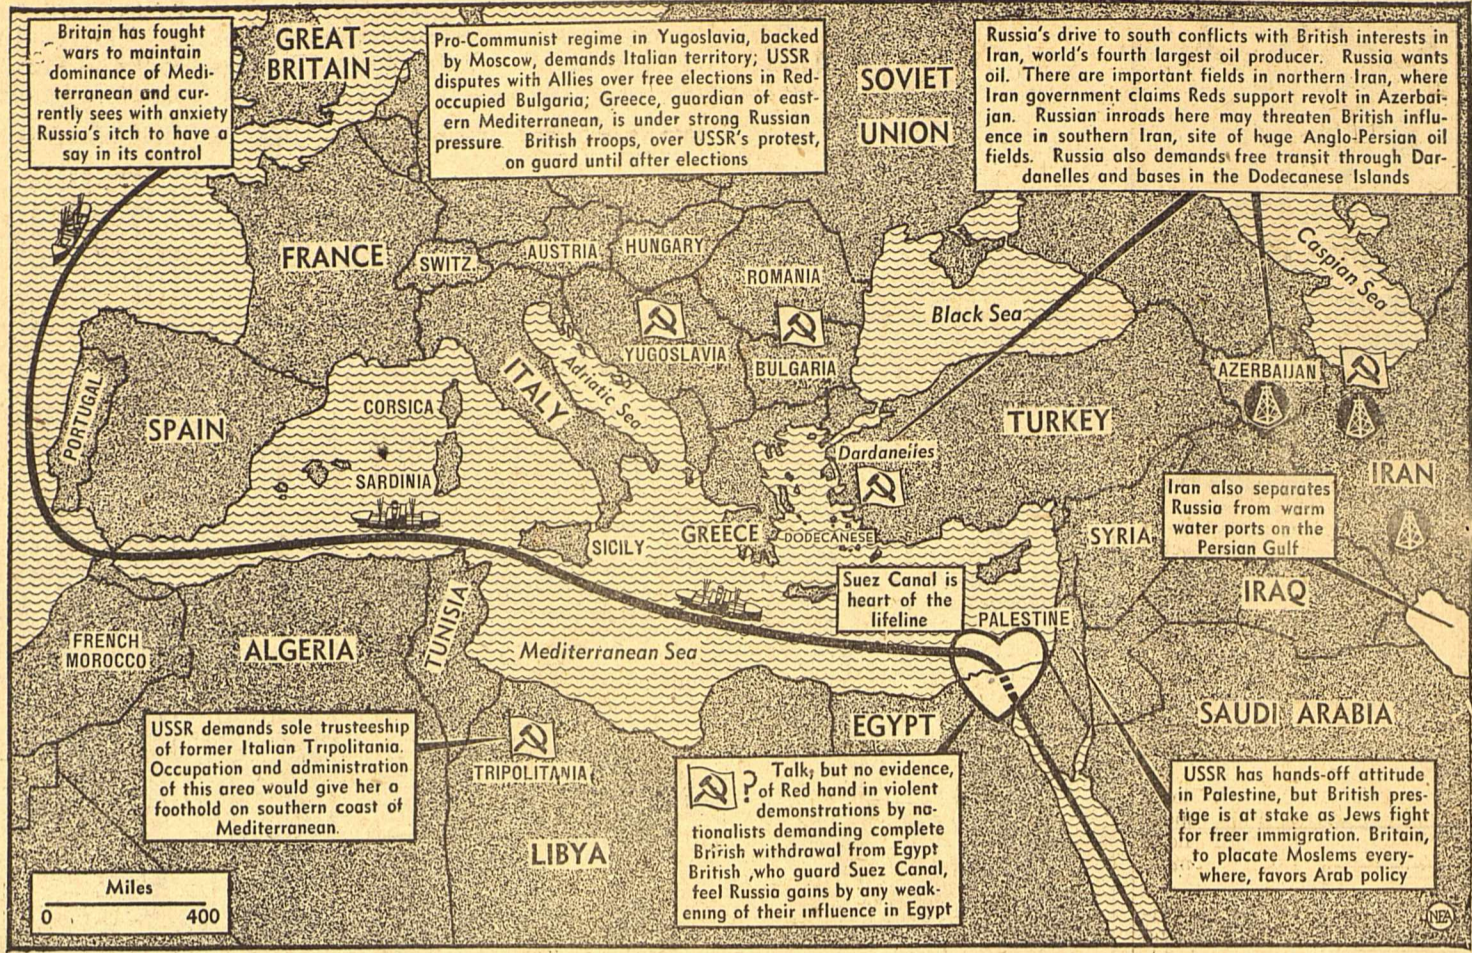

"A few details have to be worked out yet, but there is little doubt that the whole transaction can be finished within a few days," Estes said after a talk with Col. John M. Kenderdine, special assistant to Lt. Gen. E. B. Gregory, WAC chairman.

Reps. Luther A. Johnson and Poage, Texas Democrats, urged approval of the application, asserting that savings would accrue to taxpayers over the years if the Bluebonnet facilities were used for educational purposes rather than disposed of piecemeal.

Estes said he would fly to Fort Worth for a conference with A&M President Gibb Gilchrist.

The United States contains one and one-half million square miles favorable for the accumulation of oil, only half of which has been explored.

Flashes Of Life

VANCOUVER, WASH.—(AP)—Two men spent the night in sleeping bags on Vancouver's main street to be the first in a line of 650 persons for a nylon stocking sale.

Walter Williams, breakfasting on cold hamburger, explained: "My wife said I shouldn't come back without 'em."

"I'm engaged," said Karl Kindler, "and she said she wouldn't marry me unless I got her a pair."

Classie Begins Term As Assistant Coach

John Earl Classie, Midland High's new 6'1", 225-pound assistant coach, arrived Wednesday morning for his duties as physical education teacher and football assistant.

A graduate of Rice Institute with a major in physical education, he comes from Orange High School where he was assistant coach. Classie is a veteran of four years of Army service. He spent 26 months overseas in England, Scotland, Ireland, Africa, Sicily, Sardinia, Corsica, and Italy with the American Spitfire Squadron in connection with the R. A. F.

Mrs. Classie is a graduate of T. C. U. with a major in music. She was formerly sponsor of the Choral Club in Orange—until I made her quit," said Mr. Classie. She was a professional soloist for the First Methodist Church of Fort Worth and Trinity Methodist Church of El Paso.

A tentative query of how he liked Midland met with a prompt—"I like it" from Classie.

'Shorty' And Foster Represent MHS In National Magazine

Goodman "Shorty" King with his calf, Foster, were shown in the picture chosen to represent Midland in the government magazine, "Schools at Work."

Shorty is 17 and a sophomore. His favorite subject is V. A. but, he added, "that's easy to understand as we haven't got a teacher." Shorty also belongs to the 4-H Club and after finishing school plans to be a West Texas range hand.

Foster, Shorty's Hereford calf which shared the picture honors, was named after Sherwood Foster, well-known West Texas cattle rancher, from whom he was bought. Shorty plans to enter Foster in the Midland Stock Show, March 19 and 20.

Teachers Association Elects New Officers

The Midland County Teachers Association Monday elected new officers for the coming year and selected delegates to send to a Teachers Association convention in Lubbock.

The officers elected were: president, Dean Bennett; first vice president, Miss Mary Lowry; second vice president, Mrs. J. C. Moore; secretary, Mrs. Lucy Mashburn; and treasurer, Miss Minnie Lee Hawkins.

The delegates elected to go to the meeting in Lubbock were Miss Helene Miley, Mrs. Inez Luce, and Miss Sybil Rutherford. The alternates are Mrs. Gladys Tolbert, Miss Verna Harris, and Miss Mary Louise Yoe.

Miss Helene Miley, 1946 president, announced that there would be a picnic for the Midland County Teachers Association at Cloverdale in May.

Midland Team Third In Volleyball Tourney

The girls' volleyball team, coached by Miss Sudie Pearl Muirhead, journeyed to Odessa last Saturday for an all-day tournament. They drew Grandfalls for the first game and the score was 35-20 in Midland's favor. In the second game Monahan rallied in the last few minutes to defeat Midland 26-25.

Odessa placed first in the tournament, Monahan placed second, and Midland placed third.

Andrews defeated Midland in three out of five games Tuesday night in the gym.

Tennis Eliminations Reach Semi-Finals

Tennis eliminations narrowed down to the semi-finals last week. The winners will play in the district meet, April 27.

In the girls' singles there will be a run-off between Elizabeth Ann Cowden, Dorothy Faye Holt, and Florence Larsh.

Phyllis Chancellor played Betty Joyce Gerald Friday.

In boys' singles Jimmy Edwards reached the semi-finals. J. C. McNeal, Charles Vertrees and James Urice are in the quarter-finals.

In boys' doubles Bobby Cole and Barney Hightower, Wilbur Yeager and F. B. Hale, and Dunny Goode and Howard Mickey are in the semi-finals.

Bond Stamp Report

Forty-Eight per cent of the students of Midland High School participated in the bond and stamp campaign last week, an increase of 10 per cent over the previous week.

The room numbers, teachers, and percentages of students buying bonds and stamps are: Harris, 101, 25 per cent; Stuart, 306, 77; Farham, 309, 18; Moore, 109, 36; Phillips, 102, 100; Jackson, 204, 92; Miley, 205, 88; Hine, 207, 11; Craig, 202, 0; Howard, 307, 40; Lowe, 305, 24; Weaver, 310, 50; Carden, 304, 100; Magee, 107, 22; Klapproth, 206, 10 per cent.

Picture Gives View Of Everyday Russia

Miss Josephine Weaver's history classes saw a picture on Russia entitled "Red Russia" Wednesday. The film showed the life of the Russian people of today and carried the first picture of Joseph Stalin's mother ever to be released.

The history classes have been studying Russia through the "Weekly News Review" and the picture was to acquaint them with life in Russia.

Colorado City Born Honolulu Editor Tells Of Texas Celebration

By JACK RUTLEDGE Associated Press Staff
Many mighty wartime military centers in the Far East are ghost towns and cities, but the Pacific is still full of Texans.

Riley H. Allen, editor of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin and himself Texas-born, writes a Texas friend that the island military population which once had probably half a million men is now down to a few thousand. But, he says, some Texans are still there. And those who were there but are now gone are still remembered.

Allen said Hawaii particularly recalled the great Nimitz Day at Honolulu.

"We had to engage a public park (borrowing it back from the Army which was temporarily occupying it) to accommodate the 6,000 Texans and 3,000 others who jammed the place."

"We got 60,000 bottles of beer for the occasion. By 4 p. m. the thirsty Texans had exhausted the supply and were calling for more."

154 Cooks Prepared Barbecue
"It took 154 cooks, most of them negroes from down Texas, way, loaned to us by the Navy, to prepare the barbecue beef along a line of specially-made grills more than 150 yards long."

"Amos G. Carter (Fort Worth) sent out three wonderful hats—for Admiral Nimitz, Army Commanding Gen. Robert C. Richardson, Jr., and the territorial governor, Ingram M. Stainback.

"That well-known ditty 'The Eyes of Texas Are Upon You' was sung an estimated 685,000 times that day."

"The Texans are not only the salt of the earth, but supply most of the pepper."

Allen was born in Colorado City, Texas, and although he hasn't been back since he was a child he feels Texas isn't so far away now.

He predicted that soon one could fly from Honolulu to Dallas in less than 24 hours—probably 15.

Oahu remains the mightiest single fortress in the world, he said, but "many of its populous garrisons and shore stations are ghost towns and cities."

Contrary to GI gripes, he said demobilization is moving fast in the Pacific.

Movie Studios Vie In OSS Productions

HOLLYWOOD—(P)—If you'll step in a little closer, we'll talk about "O. S. S.," the first picture which a movie studio wants to keep a secret.

Whether or not it stays a secret when it is released remains to be seen, but until that time Paramount has clamped down security regulations which would make the atom bomb secrecy seem like common gossip. "O. S. S." stands not for "Oh So Secret," or as the art director claims, "Over Seventy Sets," but for the Office of Strategic Services, the hush-hush wartime agency that worked behind enemy lines.

But patriotism is not the reason for the close-lipped attitude. You see, Warners and 20th-Fox are also making O. S. S. films and the word about plot and action might get around. I tried to cross examine Geraldine Fitzgerald about the role she plays in the picture.

"I can't tell you whether I am a good or bad character," she said. "You'll have to judge by how I look." Miss Fitzgerald always looks good to me, so that was not help.

"I had to swear to secrecy before I signed for the role," she explained. "Before I signed, I couldn't even see the script. Parts of it were read to me over the phone. Now Alan Ladd and I are the only players who have complete scripts."

She indicated there was no truth to the report that parts for bit players were written in ink which disappeared after 24 hours.

Joint Group Suggests Large Reduction in Congress Committees

By JAMES MARLOW WASHINGTON —(P)—Congress now has the chance to modernize itself or just shadowbox with the idea. One year ago it set up a joint committee of Senate and House to suggest ways of improving the machinery of Congress.

This committee, after a year of listening to suggestions by Congressmen and civilians, has now turned in a report, a list of recommendations for making the work of Congress better, faster, easier.

It suggests, among other things, that Congress raise its salary from $10,000 to $15,000 a year, that Congressmen set up a pension system for themselves.

But then the committee comes down to the meat with this: "Your committee believes that no adequate improvement in the organization of Congress can be undertaken or effected unless Congress first reorganizes its present obsolete and overlapping committee structure."

In the Senate there are 30 standing committees. The joint committee says these should be reduced to 15 and that the 48 standing committees in the House should be reduced to 18.

Committees Are Powerful These committees have grown through the years and their work does "overlap." Committees are powerful. So is membership on them.

A bill introduced in Congress is assigned to a committee which can with few exceptions, kill it by ignoring it. But before a bill gets up on the floor for full House and Senate vote, a committee must approve it.

Therefore, the committees have almost a strangle hold on what kinds of bills are passed to become laws.

Membership on, and chairmanship of, many committees carry great prestige and, of course, power. A newcomer is lucky if he can get on a committee of his own choosing.

But he starts at the bottom of the list and becomes chairman only if he outlives or outlasts all those who were on the committee before him.

And a man becomes chairman only if his party has a majority in House or Senate. Right now Democrats have a majority in both houses. So all the committee chairmen in both are Democrats.

It isn't likely some of the senators and representatives will like the idea, or go along with it.

Cairo Street Salesmen Make College Boys Look Like Shrinking Vines

By HAL BOYLE CAIRO—(P)—Egypt is the world capital of the "go getter" street salesman.

If you think you can get out of Cairo without buying a horsehair fly swatter, a braided leather black-jack or a 1937 issue of "Paris Nights" you reckon without these nightrobed Abdullahs.

They are the most passionately verbal peddlers on the face of the globe and make the average college boy brush salesman back home look like a shrinking vine with an inferiority complex.

The only place you are really safe from them is inside Cheops old tomb in the biggest pyramid at Gizeh.

One other day I was riding along in a two-horse gharry when one of these portable dime stores bore down on me through the traffic. Before I could leap out and run into a movie—that slows down these fellows because they hate to buy tickets—he had climbed into the seat opposite me and began waving a fistful of riding crops and swagger sticks in my eyebrows.

"Look Abdullah," I told him, "I don't need a riding crop because I don't own a horse. Besides my import-export balance is already unbalanced."

Then he leered over to me and asked: "You like pretty girls?"

"Abdullah," I answered suspiciously, "who doesn't?"

Abdullah reached deep into his striped kimono and pulled out a small jar which he surreptitiously handed over to me after a well staged glance around as if to see no police were looking.

"Elkhir Of Youth?"

"How much you give?" he said. "Very good, very good. Many Yank soldiers buy this from Abdullah."

The box contained "Elkhir of Youth," which modestly proclaimed itself to be a "veritable open sesame to elderly people who would for a time reenter the portals of the realm of youth."

"Now, Abdullah, really," I said, handing back the box, "do I look like I need an 'Elkhir of Youth'?"

Abdullah shrugged noncommittally. He reached deep into his bathrobe and began pulling out more wares.

My resistance cracked when he hauled out "several horsehair fly swatters. He said that even if there weren't many flies I could use the swatter to "brush beggars away."

"You want to buy something else?" asked Abdullah. "I find you anything."

I thought I would stump him at last.

"Matter of fact, Abdullah," I told him with a deadpan expression, "I am in the market for a combination ice-box radio—and a phonograph with mothproof lower drawer to keep my stamp collection. But it's so late in the afternoon now I don't suppose you can find one for me today?"

"No," said Abdullah, "what time you want it tomorrow?"

Baby Holder For Plane Trip Easy To Locate

NEWARK, N. J.—(P)—An airlines clerk at Newark Airport who must have thought he was still in the Army came up with a regulation that a mother of twins must find an "under-sitter" for the extra youngster if she wanted to take them to Omaha.

The obliging mother bought two adult tickets, the extra one for the "under-sitter"—an adult over 16 to hold an infant under one year old.

When the airlines explained later that the regulation really meant she had to buy two tickets but did not have to supply the baby-holder, Mrs. Enrichetta Groves said she had found a "wonderful girl who wants to live with relatives in Omaha and she's going to hold Theresa Ann while I hold Robert."

Stock Show Success Spurred By Exhibit And Sale To Climax Months Of Hard Work By 4-H Club Members Officers And Committeemen

The men who make a show go over, who plan and direct it so as to foster fine livestock raising in Midland and its area counties, are the general show committeemen and officers of this year's event.

Contributing to the success of the 1946 stock show in Midland are these men:

Officers: E. H. Barron, president; Vernon Young, secretary; and John P. Butler, treasurer.

M. F. (Forrest) King is general show superintendent and he has a big job. Sherwood O'Neal and Raymond McCarter have the responsibility of engineering the cattle show. Kelly Lewellen directs the hog show. In charge of the sheep show are Dick Midkiff and Warren Skaggs.

The auction sale will be directed by A. G. Bohannon and M. G. McDonald.

The publicity committee, which carried "the word" of the '46 event is composed of Bill Collyns, J. M. McDonald, Jim Kelly of Stanton, and Tanner Laine.

The task of carrying the load of the entire stock show and seeing that it goes well has been delegated to these interested stockmen and citizens: George Glass, Tom Sloan, Paul McHargue, Bob Hill, Leonard Proctor, Midkiff, J. C. Miles, E. B. Dickenson, T. Paul Barron, L. W. Sandusky, H. G. Bedford, Skaggs, Clint Dunagan, M. L. Alexander, J. H. (Buck) Green, Butler, Harris Eastman, Bohannon, S. R. Preston, Collyns, and Bob Miller, all of Midland.

And: Horace Blocker and E. F. White of Stanton; Hudson Hanks and Tom Workman of Rankin; Clarence Sparkman and Charlie Cox of Garden City; J. J. Willis of Odessa; and J. C. Sales of Tarrant.

One of the most important dates on the calendar of 4-H Club and Future Farmers of America members in this area will be reached Tuesday with the opening of the eighth annual Midland Livestock Show at the rodeo grounds.

Many months of planning, studying and serious work will be climaxed in the annual event and in the sale which follows it. Now the youths are hoping that their efforts will be recognized by the judges and by the purchasers of the animals they will exhibit and sell, and that their ventures also will be financially successful.

They have tended their animals through the winter, often giving up recreational activities and devoting extra hours to the work. They have been concerned with proper feeding practices and treatment of various conditions which have developed. They have learned a lot about livestock breeding and raising which will be helpful in making them better qualified for their chosen work in future years.

In addition to the work done by the youths, county agents and vocational agriculture teachers have made several visits during the year to each boy who raised animals. The teachers and agents have examined the stock, and have advised and assisted the club members in the methods they have followed in raising the show animals.

Raising stock for the show, despite the constant work and worry, is proving more popular each year. Many of the exhibitors have had stock in the show for the past several years, and the majority of those exhibiting this year for the first time will be back next year.

Last year's show drew 141 entries, including 39 calves, 90 lambs and 12 hogs. In 1944, 22 calves, 55 lambs and 13 hogs were entered.

Leland Howard's calf won the milk fed division championship in the 1945 Midland County event, and George Knox exhibited the champion dry lot calf. The champ fine wool lamb was shown by Billy Brown and Jerry Oliff's 245-pound hog was judged county swine champion.

Bob Cox of Martin County displayed the district champion in the milk fed calf division, and L. R. Shoemaker of Martin County showed the champion dry lot calf. Janet Hightower of Garden City took off honors with her crossbred lamb, and Fields Branch showed the champion fine wool lamb. Jerry Oliff's Midland County prize-winning hog also took the district title.

Blue ribbon winners in the lightweight dry lot calf division were George Knox, James R. Currie, Jean Conner and Glenn Williams; in the heavyweight milk fed division, Jerry Bohannon and W. D.

Chandler, two calves; Manis Standifer, Leland Howard, Benny Kelly, Goodman King, Hazelle Midkiff, T. O. Midkiff, John Midkiff and Jerry Currie.

Blue ribbon winners in the lightweight milk fed calf division were W. D. Chandler, Elmer Criswell, Weldon Free, John Bob Kelly, W. B. Criswell, Alton Free and Wayne Church.

Many of the boys who exhibited animals last year now are in the armed forces.

Midland Stock Show May Be Enlarged

Prospects of enlarging the Midland Stock Show to include a horse and registered sheep shows has been discussed.

At a recent meeting of the show officials it was pointed out the overall event might even be made larger to include more counties. This is a postwar aim.

Stockmen and horse fanciers have requested the two shows be added.

No Ceiling Prices On Stock Sold Here

OPA ceiling price restrictions on sales of livestock at the Midland Livestock Show have been removed, Vernon O. Young, secretary-treasurer, has announced. As a result, the sale will be exempt from ceiling prices and bidding will be unrestricted.

Young obtained the approval last week from the Fort Worth district OPA office.

Brisk Buying Is Anticipated For Club Stock Sale

Brisk bidding and good prices are anticipated for the sale of club stock to be held following the annual Midland Livestock Show. The show committee hopes a large number of buyers will be on hand when the stock goes on the block.

The sale following last year's show set a high mark which it is hoped will be equalled or bettered this year. A total of $15,000, well above the open market price, was paid for 141 animals. An average price of 34 1/2 cents per pound was paid for the 39 calves shown, while 90 lambs went for an average of 41.88 cents per pound and 12 hogs brought 34.6 cents per pound.

In 1944, 42 calves sold for an average of 31.4 cents, and 13 hogs brought an average price of 21 cents per pound.

L. R. Shoemaker's grand champion dry lot calf in the 1945 sale was sold to the A&M Packing Company for 60 cents per pound. The Martin County boy's animal weighed 990 pounds. A Faskin of Midland purchased the 890 champion milk fed calf exhibited by Bob Cox of Martin County for 45 cents per pound. Iva's Jewelry of Midland paid $1.25 per pound for William Wayman's 106-pound lamb, then donated it to Glascock County 4-H Clubs. The champion fine wool lamb exhibited by Fleids Branch of Upton County was purchased by Dunagan Sales Com-

Midland Stock To Show At Odessa

Some of the calves entered in the Midland Livestock Show here Tuesday and Wednesday may be exhibited in the Sand Hills Hereford Show at Odessa Thursday, Friday and Saturday, show officials said. Several Midland County Hereford breeders plan to show animals at the Odessa event, and many of the county's ranchers and stockmen will attend.

About 100 club calves are expected to be entered in the Sand Hills show.

George Glass of Midland plans to sell two bulls and two heifers at the registered Hereford sale at 1:45 p. m. Saturday. Mrs. A. G. Bohannon and son, Jerry, plan to sell two bulls.

Glass is a director and member of the executive committee of the show. Other Midland County men on the executive committee include H. G. Bedford, A. G. Bohannon, F. D. Breedlove, Millard Eidson, Roy Parks and J. E. Parker.

John W. Olvey, right, of Olvey's Hereford Ranch, Tallulah, La., bought the bull for $10,450 at the Southwestern Fat Stock Show and Exposition being held in Fort Worth.

About 50 Youths Participating In 4-H Club Program

Approximately 50 Midland County youths are participating in the 4-H club program this year, with beef calves, sheep and hogs their major projects. They range in age from 7 to 18, but only those boys who are 10 years of age or older are permitted to exhibit their stock in the Midland Livestock Show.

Among the county's active club members are:

Norman Drake, Glen Drake, Billy Seals, Robert Mellon, Alfred Franks, Roland O'Donnell, Ira Lee Livingston, Bobby Jo Evans, Billy Jack Evans, Don Bizzell, Dale Bizzell, Randall Smith, Junior Franks, Morgan Stewart, Weldon Free, Berry Boone, Jean Conner, Clinton Morgan, Charles Locklar, Griff McConnals, Ben Gray, T. A. DeFore, Johnny Kennedy, James Locklar, Kermit Lewis, John Addis Gray, Frank Locklar.

Superintendent

M. F. King, Midland County rancher, is general superintendent of the Midland Livestock Show.

Widely Known Men To Judge Show Entries

Two widely-known West Texas agricultural experts will serve as judges at the annual Midland Livestock Show at the rodeo grounds here Tuesday and Wednesday. Each has served in these capacities here and in other livestock expositions of this area in past years, and both were judges in the Midland event last year.

Frank Newsom, county agent of Brewster County, will judge the beef cattle. He has maintained in his present post an outstanding record gained when boys under his direction raised a large number of prize-winning cattle in Mason County. A calf raised and cared for under his direction took one of the top divisions at the recent Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth.

Sheep and hog entries will be judged by H. M. Carter, vocational agriculture teacher at Sterling City for many years.

Both men are well known throughout the four-county area comprising the Midland show district.

the arrival of Manolete, "The Monstrous Stupendous One," they have been held as often as four times weekly.

pany for $1.15 per pound, and the champion crossbred shown by Janet Hightower of Glascock County was sold for 60 cents per pound to the Scharbauer Coffee Shop. Jerry Oliff's champion hog was bought by the Dunagan Sales Company for 50 cents per pound.

In the 1944 show sale the champion dry lot calf brought 90 cents per pound, and the champion milk fed calf sold for 85 cents per pound.

Veteran Auctioneer To Handle Sale Of Club Stock Tuesday Afternoon

If you don't want to buy some of the calves, lambs or hogs exhibited at the Midland Livestock Show this week, stay out of range of M. G. McConal's voice Wednesday afternoon.

"Mac's" double-talk and rapid-fire trilling lures out the bids in most of the sales of stock in this area and has gained for him an outstanding record and great popularity. He's an expert of the chant and has been at it for 25 years, all because an auctioneer wanted too much financial reward for selling some horses in 1920.

McConal, then a 17-year-old horse and mule trader, had some animals at San Saba in 1920, but his finances were limited and he wouldn't pay the price an auctioneer asked for selling them. Several other stockmen felt the same way, and one who had had some experience in auctioneering volunteered to do the job free. The man's vocal chords, unused to the strain, gave way in the middle of the sale and "Mac" took over.

That was the start. With only that one sale, and a little experience raffling off sweets at picnics behind him, Mac started getting bids to handle other sales. His name soon became synonymous with stock sales throughout West Texas, and today he conducts the majority of them in this section.

This will be his fifth year at the Midland Livestock Show, and he expects the strongest competition and most spirited bidding the sale has ever had. The Texas Cattle Sales, Inc., owned by McConal, Earl Ray and J. C. Miles, has charge of the affair.

An auctioneer must know as much about his product as his buyers, and Mac is well qualified to handle stock sales. He has been connected with the industry since boyhood, served as a vocational agriculture teacher at Huckaby and Wells for a number of years, and has devoted much study to livestock. In addition to special sales, he handles the auction staged each Thursday afternoon at the Texas Cattle Sales, Inc., barn.

The biggest kick he has ever gotten out of a sale, he thinks, is when he set a world's record for average prices on 4-H Club calf show sales at Monahans in 1940. The youths exhibiting their stock in the Pecos Valley show were given the best encouragement they possibly could have received by the top prices paid, he recalls.

That "fortwofortwofortwo" who'll makeitfivefivefive" business which seems to roll out of his mouth at the sales isn't so much gibberish, Mac claims. It is easily understood by buyers and the rapidity with which he transmits it helps to speed up the business. If one will listen carefully he will soon get on to the chant, he declares.

Throat trouble? No, Mac isn't bothered with it. He has two main rules to keep himself in shape: stay warm all over, and don't let the back of the neck get cold whatever else.

WELCOME... AND GOOD WORK

4-H and F.F.A. Club Members

Many youngsters will come with their calves to compete in the 4-H Club and F.F.A. Show and Sale. They come from many surrounding counties . . . they come with high hopes that their calf will be judged just a little better than the rest. These boys are engaged in a serious and important business—the business of properly feeding livestock. They deserve all the support we can give them. Let's attend the Show and Sale.

Our interest in these young men is natural, for we can proudly name scores and scores of cattlemen who are our customers. Their fathers . . . yes, and their grandfathers, were customers before them. The Midland National Bank works with the cattlemen . . . knows cattlemen . . . understands their problems.

Future Farmers Unit Is Active

Despite the fact they have been without a full-time instructor for some time, members of the Midland chapter, Future Farmers of America, have remained active and many of them will have stock on exhibition at the Midland Livestock Show Tuesday and Wednesday.

Harlan Howell, vocational agricultural teacher for several years, was named principal of the high school some time ago and since that date the FFA members have been without an instructor. Howell has served as advisor to the chapter since his promotion to the school post.

J. P. Cuffman, recently discharged from the Army, has been appointed

Glass To Enter Four Animals At Monahans

George Glass, Midland County stockman, plans to show two bulls and two heifers at the Monahans Stock Show Monday and Tuesday. Several Midland County ranchers and stockmen plan to attend the annual event Monday.

VA teacher for the school, but has been delayed in reporting. He is expected to assume his duties this week.

Billy Brown is president of the chapter and Glenn Drake is vice president. A. C. Treadway is treasurer. Charles Ponder is reporter, and J. L. Sawyer, treasurer.

The chapter held its annual banquet on February 24.

Strict Rules Govern Entries And Judging In Annual Livestock Show

Strict rules designed to assure fair play for each exhibitor govern the annual Midland Livestock Show, to be held Tuesday and Wednesday at the Midland Fair, Inc., show grounds.

The rules and regulations are drawn by the general show committee and are strictly adhered to throughout the event.

The regulations follow: Entry in the show will be limited to Martin, Upton, Glasscock and Midland Counties and those served by the county agent of Ector County.

All animals were required to be entered by March 15.

The show reserves to the show committee the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations, and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions, or differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, or connected with, or incident to the show.

All calves entered in the show must have been born after Sept. 1, 1944 and prior to Sept. 1, 1945.

Two calf classes: Classes will be provided for dry lot fed calves and for milk fed calves.

All calves entered in the dry lot division must have been taken off their mothers or nurse cows by Nov. 1, 1945.

All animals exhibited must be owned by a regularly enrolled 4-H Club or Vocational Agriculture member. He must have personally fed and tended to his animal or animals, under the supervision of the county agent, a staff member of the Extension Service, or a teacher of vocational agriculture.

All lambs or hogs entered must have been owned by the exhibitor since Dec. 1, 1945.

Judging for Midland County livestock will begin at 10:00 a. m. and judging for the district show will begin at 1:00 p. m. on March 19. All animals must be in the show barns by 9:00 p. m. March 18.

Protests in Writing: All protests must be made in writing to the show committee, and accompanied by $15. If the protest is proven, the money will be returned to the person making the protest. If the protest is not proven, the money goes into the general show fund.

All sheep entered in the show must be wether lambs of either fine wool or fine wool crossbreeding. A lamb to be eligible for the show must retain all of his lamb teeth.

All hogs entered in the show must be top market hogs.

Competent judges have been obtained for the placing of all animals and the judges' decisions are final in the placing of all animals in the show.

A sifting committee will examine all animals and animals not worthy of exhibition must be removed from the barn by 9:00 a. m. March 19.

Feeder Must Show Stock

All animals must be shown by the owner except when a boy has more than one entry in a class or can not be present to show his animal. In these cases any other 4-H Club or vocational agriculture student taking part in the show may exhibit the animals. Parents, teachers, extension agents, or other adults will not be permitted to show.

The auction sale will be handled by the Texas Cattle Sales Company. There will be a standard charge on the different kinds of animals and it will be optional whether the owner sells or not. Buyers will be entitled to a 3 per cent shrinkage from the official sale weights.

A boy may sell two animals in each class. Each boy will draw for his sale order after the champions are sold. Note—agents and teachers have drawn for their boys in the past.

Sale Order Set: The general order of the sale will be one calf, two lambs, and two hogs.

A boy may enter not more than three animals for exhibition in each class provided they meet the necessary qualifications of that class.

Stalls will be assigned by the superintendents.

Each boy will furnish the bedding for his animals. An effort will be made by the show committee to have hay available.

Prize money will be awarded on a classification basis.

Weight Determines Class

Baby beef division:

1. Calves will be weighed on arrival.

2. Calves weighing the average and above will be in the average classes.

3. A champion in each division will be determined from the blue ribbon calves and a suitable award will be made.

Fat lamb division:

1. There will be classes for cross-bred and fine wool lambs.

2. Lambs will be weighed on arrival and all lambs weighing 100 pounds or over will be in the heavy weight class. Lambs weighing under 100 pounds will be in the light weight class.

Two Classes for Hogs

A champion will be determined in each division from the blue ribbon lambs and a suitable award made.

Hog division:

1. There will be two classes of hogs:

a. Fat barrow.

b. Gilts under two years old.

2. A champion will be determined and a suitable award made. Animals to be shown at the Sand Hills Hereford Show at Odessa will be released by 7:00 p. m. March 19.

Democracy Operates In Bitter Root Area

HAMILTON, MONT.—(AP)—As in the old days, there was keen interest among Bitter Root Valley ranch folk in a district court trial of one rancher charged with grand larceny in the theft of cattle.

The courtroom was crowded long after midnight while the jury deliberated seven hours. Defendant, prosecutor, state's witness, clerk of court and Judge C. E. Comer played pinocle as they waited.

The jury filed in. The game broke up and the crowd stopped its chatter to hear the verdict—innocent.

"Democracy," commented the judge, as he watched the sleepy crowd head out on the long roads home.

Horseback Riders Are Urged To Join Parade

Horseback riders are invited and urged to join the parade planned to advertise the Midland Livestock Show Tuesday at noon. They are asked to be at the high school grounds before 12:30 so the parade, which will wind through the business area at 1 p. m., can be started on time.

Route of the parade will be east on Texas Avenue from the high school to Loraine, south to Missouri, east to Main, north to Texas, and east on Texas to the Catholic Church where it will be disbanded.

Prize Beef To Be Shown In Scharbauer Lobby

Midland, this cattlemen and ranchers' capital of West Texas, really goes for a "stock show" of its baby beef.

Both the milk fed and dry lot champion calves of the annual Midland 4-H Club-FFA Stock Show will be exhibited in the lobby of the Scharbauer Hotel, the stockmen's hangout.

In Midland they bring the beef right into the house, on the hoof.

City Bus Lines To Run Specials To Stock Show

Bus service to the Midland Stock Show will be operated by the Midland City Bus Lines special for the event.

Buses will run to the grounds and return to the city every 30 minutes, from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. Tuesday. They will run to the Texas Cattle Sales Barn for the sale every 30 minutes during Wednesday from 10 a. m. to 12 noon.

Start point for trips to the stock show is the postoffice. The bus will swing by the Scharbauer Hotel and thence proceed to the grounds. A return trip will be made immediately. The same start point will be used for trips to the sales barn.

Midland's new 27-passenger, air-conditioned, modern bus will be used for the stock show service. It was volunteered by the city lines for the convenience and comfort of visitors and citizens.

There are about 1,900 varieties of milkweed in the world.

Boys Assume Big Task In Feeding Calves For Show

When a 4-H Club boy or a Future Farmer starts to feed a calf for the Midland Livestock Show he assumes a big task.

The boy must exercise care in the choice of a feed lot. It should be located and fenced with respect to other necessary factors such as storage barns, haystacks, silos, wind-breaks, water facilities, shade and drainage.

The lots should have sheds with 20 square feet per animal to protect calves from the weather and assure the best gains. A minimum of 75 square feet of feed lot space per calf is necessary under the best conditions.

Water is very important and the trough should be kept as clean as possible. It should be located to allow waste water to drain outside of the feed lot. A calf will consume from five to eight gallons of water daily, depending upon weather conditions and the kind of feed.

Before selecting a calf or calves to feed, the boy must study the points to look for in choosing an animal.

In choosing a calf to feed there is perhaps no one point more important than the back, experts say. A wide, straight, strong back with well sprung ribs is essential. The girth of the animal should be large. This means room for the vital organs and assures a better constitution.

The head is often an excellent index to the character of the feeder. The calf with a wide head is usually a good feeder, and one that will grow thick through the body and wide across the back. Width of muzzle also is important because it indicates capacity for feed consumption and for good breathing.

Shoulders should be evenly covered, compact and wide at the top. The shoulders should blend smoothly with the neck meet. Toward the rear, the shoulders should blend well into the back and sides.

Short Legs Desirable
Short legs are desirable for they contribute to the general compactness of a choice feeder calf and indicate an animal of high dressing percentage.

Symmetry of outline, or balancing of parts, is very important in selecting a calf. By symmetry is

This Holstein produces as much milk as several ordinary cows. She has established an all-time Texas record, regardless of breed, of producing 20,701 pounds of milk and 777 pounds of butter fat during a 10-month period. The Holstein is owned by Neale Farms, Waco, and was shown at the dairy cattle tent at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth.

Area Stock Writers Invited To Midland

West Texas livestock writers have been invited to attend the Midland Stock Show.

Special invitations were mailed to Frank Reeves, Harry Holt and Dave Shanks.

Reeves writes for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram. His "Chuckwagon Gossip" is widely read.

Holt writes "Chousin' Around" for the Abilene Reporter-News. He has a large following of West Texas readers.

Shanks does "Top of the Windmill" for the San Angelo Standard-Times.

A dinner for the visiting stock writers probably will be held with Midland newspapermen and the Chamber of Commerce as hosts.

County Agent Has Important Part In 4-H Program

Much of the credit for the success of the 4-H Club program and the attendant special events such as the Midland Livestock Show which give members a chance to demonstrate the results of their work goes to the parents who help and encourage the youths in their projects.

A lot of it goes to the business men and other individuals who generously contribute, through purchases of club stock at the show sales and by other means, to assuring the youth that his efforts and investments will not be unrewarded nor unacknowledged.

A part of the credit goes to the established ranchers, farmers and livestock men who lend assistance and encouragement to the 4-H Club members so that the youths may better prepare themselves for their chosen avocation.

But among the main reasons why the program is successful and continues to grow from year to year is the active interest and help offered by the county agricultural agent. His job is to combine encouragement, expert knowledge, and personal efforts into aiding the youths gain and maintain interest in their projects and into helping them make a success of their work.

His success is measured by the quantity and quality of the animals and crops the 4-H members produce, and the interest they display in seeking knowledge of their projects.

Vernon G. Young, Midland County agent and secretary-treasurer of the four-county show to be held here Tuesday and Wednesday, has built an enviable record since his entrance into agricultural work in 1934.

Young was graduated from Texas A. and M. and became AAA assistant at Snyder in 1934. After serving with the triple-A and aiding in county agricultural work in Dawson and El Paso Counties, he went to Glasscock County in 1937 as agricultural agent. In 1940 he accepted the position of county agent in Midland County, serving until his entrance into the Army as a first lieutenant in 1941. He was given an indefinite leave of absence by the Commissioners Court, and returned to duty January 20 of this year.

At the time of his separation from the service, Young had advanced to the rank of lieutenant colonel. He served overseas with the 34th Field Artillery Brigade of the Ninth Army.

Upon his shoulders must fall a large portion of the planning and preparations for the show to be held here this week. In addition, he must carry on his duties as county agent, and continue to pick up the "loose ends" which developed while he was in service.

If all amounts to a lot of work and the spending of a lot of hours, but, Young says:

"It's good to be back."

Mackenzie's COLUMN

By DEWITT MacKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

VIENNA—Your correspondent has come away from a highly interesting but informal conversation with Gen. Mark Clark, American commander-in-chief in Austria, with the distinct impression that he would like to see all the Allied forces of occupation — Russian, British, French and American — withdrawn from this country by next fall and the administration turned over to the Austrian government.

As a matter of fact, I understand that there is before the Allied Council a proposal for a withdrawal. However, one suspects that if I've interpreted the general's feeling correctly, he is indulging in a wish rather than any strong expectation that such a withdrawal may take place.

While the British, French and Americans might be prepared to pull out under a four-power agreement, I've found no indication that the Russians would subscribe to any such procedure at an early date.

I found General Clark viewing the Austrian position from a horse-sense standpoint based on a wide knowledge of the whole European problem.

We had our chat in his private office at the American Headquarters and he promptly robbed it of any formality by coming out from behind his big desk to shake hands in a friendly fashion and then leading me across the room to some easy chairs.

Having heard that Mrs. Clark was coming to Austria, I asked when she was arriving, and the general's grin broadened as he opined she would be among the first contingent of soldiers' wives to arrive in this zone next month. It was clear he was as pleased as punch.

I believe one of his main reasons for wanting to see Austria turned back to its own government as soon as feasible is that the military occupation is a terrific financial strain on the little country and will bleed it white if long continued.

Austria, of course, hasn't been placed by the Allies in the category of Hitlerite Germany as a menace to peace. Austria was overrun by the Nazi dictator, and so was perhaps more stung against than sinning, although that doesn't absolve her from blame. However, those are points I didn't discuss with General Clark and are my own observations.

Colorado City Congressman Knew Of Atom Project, Thinks Secrecy Wise

WASHINGTON —(P)— A Texas member of Congress who knew of the atomic bomb while it was still the world's best kept secret says the time is not ripe to share it with the United Nations Organization. He is Rep. George Mahon of Colorado City, a member of the House Military Affairs Appropriations Subcommittee, a small group which the War Department took into its confidence because they had to provide the $2,000,000,000 needed for the project.

Discarding any idea of sharing the secret with individual nations, the quiet-mannered tall West Texan declared:

"Certainly I hope and pray that the atomic bomb will be used as an influence for peace. It must be so used, and it is so powerful an instrument it can, if properly controlled, contribute to the success of the United Nations Organization. But until the UNO is a much more seasoned and stable body, we cannot afford to entrust in its hands this most terrible of all weapons invented by man."

Mahon expressed keen interest in the forthcoming atomic bombing tests on obsolete vessels out in the Pacific. He declared the test is "highly desirable" and added:

It may revolutionize our concept of what should comprise a Navy and Naval strategy. In fact, it has revolutionized our whole concept of war . . . period."

It was only upon the recent death of Rep. Buell Snyder (D-Pa) that the part played in the atomic bomb development by the House Military Appropriations Subcommittee was brought to light. Snyder was head of the group. Feeling that recognition should be paid to the Pennsylvania, even in death, Mahon contacted the War Department to learn if he could tell of the committee's work. His request was not only approved but he was encouraged to disclose facts not previously made public.

Excerpts from Mahon's remarks on the House floor follow:

"Mr. Snyder was at his best in handling a project about which nothing was ever said on this floor, the atomic-bomb project — that hush-hush project of the days of the war prior to the dropping of the bomb on that August day of 1945."

"Many months and years before that bomb was dropped General Marshall (George Marshall, retired Army chief of staff) came to the committee, and behind closed doors, impressed the members of the subcommittee with the necessity of money for this project. He received the cooperation of the committee from year to year, and every proper effort was made to disguise the funds that were placed in the bill for the atomic-bomb project. The success of our committee in keeping the secret has become historic. For that much credit is due Speaker Sam Rayburn, Mr. Snyder and the members of our subcommittee."

"On May 27, 1945, the clerk of the committee, Mr. John Pugh, called me on the telephone and he said: 'Mr. Mahon, can you be over at Chairman Cannon's (Rep. Cannon of Missouri is head of the Full Appropriations Committee) office promptly at 12 o'clock?' I said, 'sure, if it is important.' When I got on the elevator to go up there I found that the Honorable Henry L. Stimson, secretary of war, was on the same elevator. I noticed that he walked into the same room, Chairman Cannon's office."

"Those present were Chairman Cannon, Mr. Taber, Mr. Engel of Michigan, Maj. Gen. Leslie R. Groves, manager of the atomic-bomb project, Mr. Snyder, and myself. The secretary of war said, 'Gentlemen, this project for which so much money has been expended is more than 99 per cent assured of success,' and, addressing Mr. Cannon, he said, 'I want you gentlemen to go down to the Oak Ridge project in Tennessee and see something of the good work you have helped to make possible.'"

"So, we went down to the project. We observed the amazing processes and listened to the explanations of the scientists. In going from building to building, I happened to be seated in the car with Mr. Snyder, an Army car which was assigned to Brigadier General Farrell. Mr. Snyder kept saying, 'George, this thing may save a million lives.' I do not know whether it did or not, but I suspect it might have."

Visitors Urged To Return For Annual Rodeo

Visitors to the Midland Livestock Show are extended an invitation to return to the city for another Western event on May 30 through June 2.

The annual Midland World Championship Rodeo on those dates will be held at the same location used by the livestock show, the Midland Fair, Inc., grounds. The rodeo is one of the most colorful events in the Southwest and draws the top cowboy contestants and thousands of visitors each year.

The 1946 rodeo is expected by officials to be the biggest and best ever held, and stock show visitors are urged to mark the date down on their calendars.

Another date to be remembered is the annual Labor Day roping event on September 2, when Toots Mansfield of Rankin, five times world champion calf roper, will contest Homer Pettigrew, four times world champion bulldogger and runner-up in last year's roping contest here. Other top competitors of the roping business will also compete.

The population per square mile of arable land in Japan is 2,430; in Germany, 587; in Italy, 500; in the United States, 102; in Russia, 68.

Home Fires Burn For Two Berners In Bern

BERN, SWITZERLAND —(P)— The city councilors of Bern sat up and took notice recently when two Americans from Berne, Ind., dropped in.

They were Elmer R. Nussbaum, electrician, and Sherwood Sprunger, a carpenter, both on furlough. Descendants of Indian settlers, the visitors explained that Berne, Ind., was founded about 1840 by immigrants from the Emmental area near Bern, Switzerland.

And to the surprise and delight of the city fathers, Nussbaum and Sprunger still spoke the local dialect, "Berndeutsch."

The U. S. date crop has grown from one to 18 million pounds annually in the past 20 years. Radar equipment was first used experimentally aboard a U. S. Navy ship in 1938.

Martin Boys To Enter 25 Calves

STANTON — About 25 Martin County 4-H Club calves will be entered in the Midland Livestock Show Tuesday and Wednesday, a check this weekend revealed.

Included in the entries will be the grand champion and reserve champions of the Martin County 4-H Club Calf Show held here February 24, shown by Benny Kelly and James Holloway, respectively.

Those planning to enter club calves follow, with the number and the weights of the calves at the time of the Martin County show: Bruce Key, three, 900, 925, 800;

Charlie Cunningham, one, 740; Bob Cox, two, 850 and 860; Benny Kelly, two, 775 and 865; Virgil Holloway, two, 830 and 725; G. I. Madison, one, 890; N. D. Chandler, one, 785; Fredric Church, one, 530; Wayne Church, one, 875; Norris Standefer, one, 875; Elmer Lee Criswell, one, 820; W. B. Criswell, one, 770; and Carl Lee Howell, one, 855.

At the Amarillo Fat Stock Show a calf shown by Benny Kelly won seventh place, one exhibited by Fredric Church took twelfth place, and one by James Holloway won fifteenth place.

Will Serve Food, Coffee At Show

Home demonstration clubwomen of Midland County will serve food and coffee at the Stock Show here Tuesday and Wednesday.

The club ladies will be on hand with sandwiches and coffee and homemade cakes if sugar is available.

All clubs of the county will participate and share in the proceeds. Nettye Belle Messick, home demonstration agent, is in charge. She said the food and hot drinks will be served as a convenience to the show visitors.

Martin County's Agent Unable To Attend Show Here

Martin County 4-H Club boys will bring about 25 head of beef cattle to the Midland Livestock Show Tuesday and Wednesday, but their county agent will not be able to attend.

Lt. Col. George Bond several months ago was in Stanton to make arrangements for his return to his job as county agricultural agent immediately following his release from Army duty. He and his son were making a swing about the county to renew old acquaintances when they became involved in an automobile accident.

The youth escaped without serious injury, but Bond suffered a dangerous head injury. He has been confined to a hospital since that time.

County Agent Vernon G. Young of Midland County, W. I. Marschall, district extension agent, and other interested parties have devoted much time to assisting with the agricultural extension program in Martin County, and with Hubert Martin, Wheeler County agent, they helped make the annual Martin County Livestock Show in February a great success.

Midland's Texas A&M Club Is Active, Plans To Get Charter From Aggieland

The Midland A.&M. Club is an active organization of ex-students and alumni of the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College.

It recently was organized here and now boasts a membership of more than 30 Aggies. President is R. S. Elliott. James Mims originated the idea for the club and called the first meeting.

A banquet meeting was held recently and woman guests of members were present.

Plans now are underway under direction of Clifford Hogue for the annual Aggie Muster, scheduled April 21. Observance of this event is an Aggie tradition. Hogue will direct observance here and he plans to have church memorial services honoring Gold Star Aggies.

W. B. (Bill) Harkrider heads an important committee of the Midland club. It is the employment group, which assists former Aggies in securing employment, especially returned veterans of A.&M.

Also the club actively will support Texas A.&M. athletics, serving as observers for athletic talent and seeking to interest this talent in attending A.&M.

Members of the club include: Mims, Harkrider, Elliott, Murray, Pasken, E. A. Vollva, Miles Stanley, Sam Giesey, Ernest Tisdale, James R. Ray, J. K. Doran, J. H. Green, L. E. Slagle, Joe W. Haygood, Newell Ellis, G. L. Porter, Buck J. Miller, H. D. Murray, C. D. Hodges, L. L. Bevil, S. A. Debnam, R. M. Crane, M. W. Collie, Jr., W. N. Keising, F. M. Edwards, V. G. Young, Hogue, George Webb, Charles Halliman, and Charlie Cox of Garden City.

Although the club was organized in Midland, it embraces Aggies in the area. Texas A.&M. students of surrounding cities are urged to join. And more Midlanders are invited.

A meeting will be held each month, including some social affairs for wives and sweethearts. The Midland chapter will seek a charter from the college. Its organization fits requirements.

Range Feed Conditions Improve In Most Areas

AUSTIN—(AP)—Range feed conditions and small grain pastures were improved in all Texas areas except some extreme Southern and Western counties where drought conditions still prevailed on March 1, a U. S. Department of Agriculture report said Saturday.

Cattle wintered well except in local areas of the South and Southwest and were in average condition. Favorable weather prevailed during the last half of February and the necessity of supplemental feeding was reduced, the report said.

It was predicted that spring marketings would depend largely upon the amount of feeding was reduced, the report said.

It was predicted that spring marketings would depend largely upon the amount of rainfall during March and upon the availability of range feeds during the spring.

The condition of sheep was reported at slightly above the February estimate and the same as the 20-year average. Production of shorn wool in Texas in 1945 was estimated at 79,151,000 pounds, a million pounds less than the 1944 production. The price of 43 cents per pound was a cent lower than in 1944.

Mohair production for 1945 was placed at 20,360,000 pounds, an increase of 12 per cent over the 1944 clip. The average price was 56 cents per pound, five cents lower than the 1944 average price.

The condition of early lambs was reported as being fair to good.

Unemployment In Texas Continues To Increase

AUSTIN—(AP)—Unemployment increased in Texas during February and is still rising, with 176,500 workers jobless and 12,117 openings filed with the United States Unemployment Service, C. E. Belk, state director of that agency, reports.

Cities having major unemployment problems are San Antonio, Texarkana, Longview, Lufkin, Beaumont and the Sherman-Denison area, Belk declared. There are no longer any areas in the state where the local demand exceeds the local supply of labor.

Areas of unemployment include Austin, Lubbock, Orange, Wichita Falls, Dallas, Fort Worth, Tyler, Waco, Temple, Port Arthur, Brownwood, Abilene, San Angelo and Marshall. The only areas now listed in the balanced job and labor class are Houston, Corpus Christi, El Paso, Amarillo, Borger, and Galveston-Texas City.

During February, Belk said, 72,396 workers applied for jobs, five thousand less than during the previous month; while placements by the USES totaled 27,043, an increase of 13 per cent. It was pointed out that the agency put on a drive to contact employers during February, while the demobilization program of the armed services slowed down.

An employment increase of 3.1 per cent in the smaller towns since V-J Day was observed.

It Happens Here — Calves Spend Night In Scharbauer Hotel

By TANNER LAINE
If you don't believe it, come around and see it!

Champion calves of the Midland Stock Show will be exhibited overnight in the lobby of the Scharbauer Hotel, the cowman's hangout. This would happen in Midland, the cattle capital of West Texas, and always does—bringing the beef into the house on the hoof.

Reminds us of a couple of stories, which rib our Yankee friends a little and provide a good belly laugh for the cow pokes.

The last time Midland held an exhibit of its champion calves in the hotel lobby an Eastern couple stopped at the hotel and tried to get a room.

The hotel was full and the clerk promptly told the visitors so. One of the champion calves stirred around a little in bedding down and the woman let out a squawk, heard clear to New England.

"Wild Steers" In Hotel
"What! You people keep 'wild steers' in the hotel and won't give us a room, what kind of a town is this?"

Well, lady, the clerk didn't answer you, but we shall, politely, "It's a cow town."

And then there was the wife of a soldier who came all the way from New Hampshire to see her husband stationed in Midland. When she got there he could not meet her and so she walked to the hotel from the railroad station.

And nearly had a fit when she saw two "animals" in the lobby, contented as you please.

This was the Yankee miss' first trip west.

And might have been her last for all we know.

The battleship New York was the first naval vessel to use radar equipment. The first steamship to cross the Atlantic was the Rising Sun, which made the voyage in 1818.

Well, Children, It Looks As If Spinach Crop Will Fall Off

AUSTIN—(AP)— Well, children, it looks like there is going to be not quite so much spinach, but it will be of better quality.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture said that winter areas of Texas, Louisiana, and Florida will likely produce 7,316,000 bushels, which seems a lot, but it is less than the 7,708,000 bushels harvested in 1945.

Favorable weather in February produced good quality spinach in Texas for March harvest, and supplies should be fairly plentiful during the month," a report by the department said.

There will be about three per cent more beets, but the forecast of winter cabbage dropped off 10,000 tons to 370,200 because Florida planters did not plant as much as anticipated.

But planting of potatoes in Texas is up 12 per cent.

Early spring production of strawberries has the best prospects since 1942, the department reveals. And it looks like a great year for watermelons, with an all-time record in the number of acres being planted to that delicacy.

Ten times as many Americans paid an income tax after World War II began than before—the number of tax payers rising from 4,000,000 to more than 40,000,000.

COMING ATTRACTIONS!

YOU may or may not care for double features in the movies. But here's a triple feature that's sure to make a hit with you.

It's the New Freedom Gas Kitchen... a clean and pleasant room where everything works together to save you steps, time and energy.

This most modern and carefully planned of kitchens will be built around three major work areas:

1. The cooking center—with a new and attractive CP gas range that includes every improvement to make cooking easier, faster, better.

2. The refrigeration and preparation center—beautified by a silent, spacious and economical gas refrigerator with no moving parts to wear and become noisy—plenty of space to store frozen foods.

3. The "clean-up"—where an abundance of hot water for dish washing is supplied automatically and economically by gas. The skillful combining of these three centers in pleasing harmony will make the co-ordinated gas kitchen—yours to enjoy.

House Ads Humorous But Situation Isn't

NEWARK, N. J. —(P)— Weary house-hunters are exercising their ingenuity in their futile quest for a place to live.

One homeless party prefaced an advertisement in a local paper with the plea: "Did you ever live with your in-laws?"

Another local ad ran: "Exasperated executive, rapidly developing ulcers from restaurant food, desperately needs apartment."

Girl Uses Her Right To Change Her Mind

NEW YORK—(P)—Muriel Dwyer, a petite blond traffic agent for the Eastern Airlines, had a change of heart in the cool gray dawn of the morning after. She went to a police station before breakfast and told the desk sergeant that during a spat with her boy friend she had thrown a $400 string of pearls through the grating of a storm sewer.

Would the police please get her pearls back for her?

An obliging department of sewers retrieved the necklace from a catch basin two hours later.

"I just didn't sleep well last night," Muriel explained.

Sultan Gets Off Lion To President

AP Newsfeatures

TANGIER—A sultan of Morocco who wanted the United States to establish a protectorate over his dominions once tendered the President the gift of a man-eating lion.

This Arabian Nights tale is buried in archives of the American diplomatic agent and consul general in Tangier in a series of messages dating from January, 1945.

"It is a big lion and apparently very fierce," says the first frantic note to the State Department. "It came in a cage and with an expert keeper to look after it."

"Please send immediate instructions."

The department wrote back that the President "cannot find any use for the lion in Washington." But the agent, knowing the sultan would feel insulted if his gift was not accepted, arranged to ship the beast just the same.

Weeks later, the records show, the lion sailed for America with its keeper and an interpreter for him—each on the State Department payroll at $30 a month.

There's nothing here to indicate whether the lion ate the interpreter en route, but the sultan didn't get his protectorate.

Don Budge Says Yank Will Win Davis Cup

WASHINGTON—(P)—Don Budge isn't among those who think Australia is a cinch to retain the Davis Cup tennis championship in the renewal of the international matches this season.

To the contrary, the big red-head disagrees with the experts and predicted that "we will win the cup quite easily."

Now engaged in a 25-match cross-country series with pro Bobby Riggs, Budge had this to say at the Touchdown Club:

"We'll beat Australia in the challenge round by 4-1 or 5-0. The only match we might—and I say 'might'—lose is in the doubles."

Budge forecast this lineup of the American Davis Cup squad:

"We'll have Frankie Parker, national champion, and Jack Kramer in the singles, and either Parker and Kramer or Kramer and Ted Schroeder in the doubles."

"I've played all of their present crop of cup players except Dinny Pails—John Bromwich, Adrian Quist and Jack Crawford—and they're not up to our top men," Budge added.
