Subcommittee Recommends Unification

WASHINGTON (P)—A three-member Senate subcommittee Tuesday recommended legislation to the Senate Military Committee to abolish the present War and Navy departments and create a single new "Department of Common Defense."

The action served to make public the proposed bill. The measure is intended to carry out President Truman's request for unification of the armed forces.

Drafted after months of closed-door sessions, the bill would raise the Air Force to equal rank with the Army and Navy and place all three under a single new cabinet member, to be known as the "secretary of common defense."

Although a complete new plan for organization of the armed forces for abolition of the present War and Navy departments would be determined by the President.

Girl, 4, Suffers Broken Leg In Traffic Accident

Midland marked up another accident on its growing list Tuesday after Camilla Roberts, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Roberts of 709 North Baird Street, suffered a broken leg, abrasions about the head, and other cuts and bruises when she reportedly ran into a pickup truck near her home Monday evening.

Her condition Tuesday was reported as satisfactory by hospital attendants. Doctors said she suffered no internal injuries, as was first feared.

John V. Pliska, driver of the truck, was absolved of blame after the child's mother told police the accident was unavoidable. Witnesses said Pliska was traveling at a slow rate of speed on Baird Street when a companion of the girl ran across in front of his vehicle.

Pliska stopped immediately, placed the girl and her mother in the pickup and took them to the hospital.

Police, meanwhile, continued their search for a hit and run driver who struck down and killed Anna Ruth Snider, 4, on South Fort Worth Street last Wednesday.

Funeral services were held Monday at Proctor for the city's third traffic fatality, Sam Davis Roch, 53, of Proctor. Roch died shortly after being struck by a car at Main and Missouri streets about midnight Saturday. He formerly worked here and in Odessa as a cook.

Russia has filed with the council a demand for complete dismissal of the Iranian case.

should be made to attain greater understanding between the people of the world.

In explaining its rejection of the entire $4,150,326 fund requested for the department's new intelligence program, the committee said all the proposed functions "can and should be performed by the established units of the department."

The intelligence unit has been under fire of the House Military Committee, which has made what it called "strong representations" against asserted "pro-Soviet leanings" of some of the unit's personnel. However, the Appropriations Committee in eliminating the fund did not mention the military group's action.

In the section of its report dealing with the Commerce Department, the committee publicly expressed to Secretary Henry Wallace "its disapproval of the practice of reasons (Commerce Department) business of soliciting letters from business to members of the Congress endorsing or urging requests for appropriations."

Census of Business
The committee lopped $5,350,000 from the Census Bureau's budget, but allowed $10,000,000 for the new census of business and $5,000,000 for a new census of manufacturers.

It also pared $11,000,000 from the Civil Aeronautics Administration fund for establishment and maintenance of air navigation aids, saying the CAA should consider placing the aviation industry "more on its own."

In shaving $5,820,000 from the budget of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, the committee said many of the proposed aids to business "are superfluous and many of the proposed services reach too deeply into the problems of individual management."

The average business man, the committee commented, "does not want to be led by the hand." For the Department of Justice, the committee recommended only $1,602,800 below budget estimates.

It approved in full the $28,700,000 estimate for the Federal Bureau of Investigation and promised the FBI additional money "if a crime wave, concerning which Director Hoover is most apprehensive, develops to such proportions" that more funds are needed.

Mr. Reuther's Victory

The apprehension felt by many toward the communist influence in American labor unions is no ordinary "Red scare." Communists control the policies of several unions, if they do not actually head them. Their group in organized labor is relatively small, but it is composed of persons whose formidable energy has brought them to positions of considerable prominence.

Their stock took a sharp drop, however, when Walter P. Reuther managed to squeak through to win the presidency of the United Automobile Workers.

Reuther is described as a right-wing socialist. Personally, he seems to stand considerably to the left of his opponent in the election, R. J. Thomas. But, though he has lived and worked in Russia—or perhaps because he has—Reuther is a bitter foe of the UAW communists.

In his bid for re-election, Thomas was supported by the UAW's right wing as well as by the communists. He seems to have appreciated the communists' support without embracing their views, while they apparently appreciated his acquiescence. The dubious unity resulting from this association was visibly disintegrating for some time before the UAW convention.

Now the communists have suffered defeat in one of the country's largest and most powerful unions. They have suffered defeat by the supporters of a dynamic young veteran of the industrial wars who did not fear to carry the fight to them frankly and openly.

Reuther has promised a truly unified union and an end to the factional strife which tore the UAW from top to bottom. That may not be an easy promise to keep. But if Reuther succeeds in keeping it he will have dealt the communists in his organization a hard blow. For unity is not to their liking, unless it is a unity that they themselves can impose with an iron hand. Nor do they thrive in an atmosphere of calmness or of anything resembling acceptance of the status quo.

Reuther's expected housecleaning of communists within the UAW will be watched with interest outside as well as inside the field of organized labor. So, too, will his strategy of labor relations, now that he is top man in the CIO's biggest union.

The new UAW president recently led the General Motors workers through the longest, costliest strike in American history. It was an unhappily protracted affair that reflected small credit to the bargainers. Yet the result of the UAW election indicates that the auto workers were satisfied with Reuther's strategy and tactics.

One stratagem was Reuther's great stress on the company's "ability to pay," and his loud demands that General Motors "open up the books." Later Reuther admitted that this was just "a maneuver to win public support and get the company over a barrel." Now, since his election, he has said again that "ability to pay is a determining factor in collective bargaining and always will be a factor."

You Can't Eat Idealism

Now comes the not surprising word, from the New York Herald Tribune's Buenos Aires bureau, that Britain refused to join the United States in denouncing the Peron regime's Axis connections because Britain gets a good part of her scant supply of meat from Argentina. Foreign Secretary Bevin is said to have told Secretary Byrnes that Britain would join in issuing the White Paper if, in exchange, America would guarantee Britain's meat supply.

That is stripping the confusion of politics and economics down to the bare and ancient framework which still exists for all our hopes and efforts to bring a new decency and idealism to world governments. It still seems that one's own freedom from want is more important than one's neighbor's freedom from tyranny. People don't bite the hand that feeds them, however unclean that hand may be.

WIENER ROAST HELD FOR BROWNIE TROOP AT CLOVERDALE PARK

The ingredients—A Brownie, a long stick, a wiener, and Cloverdale—the results, a good time. Perhaps a little sand got on the wieners, but sand is just as important to flavoring a wiener as mustard.

Troop 11 of the Brownie Girl Scouts is of this opinion anyway.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Troy Stevenson and Mrs. E. D. Richman, the Brownies received instruction in campfire tending, and safety was mixed in with turns at play on the swings and see-saws at the park.

Troop 11 is sponsored by the South Elementary School P-TA and has 14 registered Brownies. Its meetings are held each Wednesday in the Calvary Baptist Church.

Brownie Troop 15
Troop 15, second grade Brownies of the North Elementary School, keeps things hopping. Reorganized three weeks ago, this group of 18 eight-year-old girls has managed to find time for a cowboy movie party, leather craft work resulting in completed pocketbooks and lapel gadgets in the shape of dogs.

Friday they will work off Brownie steam with a jeep ride to Cloverdale and a play period on the swings.

Members of the troop are Judy Bliss, Susan Alstrin, Jaynan Edwards, Fredda Black, Georganne Bennett, Ann Hamilton, Jill Lederbur, "Pinky" Howell, Edna Earle Read, Jerry Hughes, Nancy Breedlove, Alice Ann Berry, Jane Park, Barbara Hall, Suzanne Deats, Suzanne Hoel, Robbie Opp, Dianne Perkins. Leaders are Mrs. Ed Alstrin and Mrs. Jack Bliss.

Mrs. Hal Peck Gives Study Lesson At Meet Of Episcopal Women

Mrs. Hal Peck continued the discussion on the theme "Miracles of Calvary" at a meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Trinity Episcopal Church Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Joe Crump. Opening prayers were repeated in unison.

During the business period plans were made for the senior girls tea April 29 in the First Methodist Scharbauer Educational Building. The entertainment will be under the sponsorship of the United Council of Church Women with the Episcopal Auxiliary serving as hostess.

Plans are under the direction of Mrs. Reese Cleveland and Mrs. J. D. Dillard.

The Sewing Guild will meet at 1 p. m. Thursday at the home of Mrs. S. P. Hazlip. Announcement was made by the Rev. R. J. Snell that confirmation classes will start this week with the adult classes on Friday night and the children's group Saturday morning.

After the benediction by Mr. Snell, a tea hour followed.

Organization Meeting Of Wesleyan Service Guild Is Held Monday

An organization meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church was held Monday evening under the direction of the WSCS, a nationwide organization for working women.

Mrs. George P. Bradbury, WSCS president, greeted the guests and directed them to the register presided over by Mrs. Will Wyche.

After a prayer by Mrs. Frances Ferguson, Mrs. E. L. Phillips gave a devotional on "Peace Through the Cross." An outline on the purpose of the guild was given by Alice Flemming.

Tommie Smith was elected president; Beth Prothro, vice-president; Lotia Williams, recording secretary; Ida Louise Pettey, corresponding secretary; and Carolyn Oates, treasurer.

The program was closed with a prayer by Carolyn Oates.

An Easter motif was carried out in the decorations. Centering the speakers table was a lighted cross flanked with lapers. Miss Oates served punch from the lace covered table. An Easter bunny was used for the centerpiece.

The next meeting will be held April 22.

WCS members assisting Mrs. Bradbury were: Meses. C. H. Shepard, Howard H. Hollowell, Luther Tidwell and Wyche.

Others attending were: Meses Oates, Flemming, Billie Wood, Pettey, Mary Louise, Yoe, Smith, Theresa Klapproth, Williams, Frances Umberson, Lois Perry, Beth Prothro, Jean Butler, Ferguson and Meses. E. L. Phillips, John Ficke, S. H. Gwyn, B. H. Gray and Nellie Feeler.

Girl Scout Council Budget Approved At Business Meet Monday

Using the old prescription that when you spread it thin it goes much further, George Perry, treasurer of the local Girl Scout Council, Monday night offered for approval the 1946 budget.

The Midland Girl Scouts have a total of $3,081.80 with which to give Scouting to all girls in the city. The council meeting in the educational building of the Presbyterian Church approved this budget.

Broken down the budget of $3,081.80 looks as follows:

Charter Fee	$ 45.00
Area Pledge	1,500.00
Building Fund	791.89
Training	250.00
Program	100.00
Day Camp	250.00
Organization	20.00
Public Relations	50.00
Administrations	75.00

And where does this money come from? There was a balance left in the 1945 Girl Scout Budget of $692.50 according to Perry's accounting. The remaining $2,389.30 came from the Community Chest contributions of Midland citizens.

The largest item on the budget is the area pledge. Out of this $1,500, Midland pays its Girl Scout executive leader, Miss Mary Miller, who divides her time between Midland and other Scout areas in this vicinity.

Scout Commissioner Mrs. S. P. Hazlip called the Monday meeting to order for the members present. They were: Mrs. Don Johnson, leader representative; Miss Mary Miller, executive; Miss Richard Looby, radio publicity; Mrs. Holt McWorkman, organizations; Mrs. K. M. Slough, Day Camp; George Perry, treasurer; Rev. R. J. Snell, deputy commissioner, and Mrs. J. E. Bliss, publicity.

That Midland Girl Scouts had been and were being trained in International Friendship was nothing new to council members. However, it was news to them when Mrs. Johnson reported that 25 friendship bags had been made and sent by local Scouts to girls in war torn Poland.

A new organizations committee was announced by Mrs. McWorkman. It consists of Mrs. C. S. Longscope, Mrs. William Walsley, Mrs. L. G. Byerley and Mrs. C. E. Bissell.

Tentative plans for the all Girl Scout Play Day to be held at Lackey Field early in May were discussed. Mr. Snell was selected to represent the Midland council at an area meeting in Sweetwater Thursday night.

Mrs. Slough reported tentative plans for the Day Camp the first two weeks in June. Last year more than 90 Midland Girl Scouts attended the camp. This year more are expected. The budget for the Day Camp is set at $250. Many volunteer leaders will be necessary to insure the accomplishment of this camp, according to Mrs. Slough's report.

Helpful Hints On Cooking Studied At Meeting For East Side Club Members

Helpful hints in cooking were presented at a meeting of the East Side Home Demonstration Club Thursday at the home of Mrs. C. A. Barton at the Magnolia Tank Farm.

The program on cooking included sugarless cakes, vegetables and frozen desserts.

Present were Meses. Guy White, A. B. Cramer, V. L. Red, R. L. McCormick, A. D. L. Price, Floyd Stanley, G. P. Bradbury, E. P. McEl-downey, Doyle Maples; two visitors, Mrs. Robert Turner and Mrs. Roger Helm, and two new members, Mrs. Roy Jones and Mrs. Jack Brown.

Mrs. Corbett Attends Red Cross Clinic

Mrs. Lillian M. Corbett, executive secretary of the Midland County Red Cross chapter, attended a two-day clinic of the American Red Cross in Lubbock.

Instructions were given home service workers on new legislation in regard to veteran claims, pensions and insurance. Ralph Husted, Red Cross field director with the veterans administration in Waco, was in charge of the clinic.

Similar clinics will be conducted each time new legislation develops in regard to veterans such as veterans' benefits, insurance, conversion, methods of filing claims, hospitalization, and the GI Bill of Rights.

Plans are being made to send representatives from the local chapter to these sessions in order that the office will be in a position to render the best service possible to the returning veterans.

PIN-WORMS NOW CAN BE BEATEN

The miseries of Pin-Worms have been known for centuries, and millions of victims have sought a way to deal with this pest that lives inside the human body.

Today, thanks to a special, medically recognized drug, a highly effective treatment has been made possible. This drug is the vital ingredient in P-W, the Pin-Worm tablets developed in the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son.

The small, easy-to-take P-W tablets act in a special way to remove Pin-Worms. So don't suffer with the embarrassing rectal itch caused by this ugly pest. Ask your druggist for JAYNE'S P-W and follow the directions.

"I've got a job!"

● A brand new telephone operator... that's me. Just started today.

Like it? Yes, indeed...especially one thing...everybody is so friendly. I felt at home right away. It's a nice clean place to work, too; pleasant surroundings, and the switchboard is really fascinating. I'm going to enjoy working for the telephone company.

And here's a tip, if you're looking for a job. More operators are needed right now. Experience isn't necessary because you learn as you go along.

The chief operator at the telephone office will be glad to tell you all about it. Why not see her?

The Heart To Find

by Hazel Heidergott

Copyright Macrae-Smith-Co. Distributed by NEA SERVICE, INC.

IT was a long and very bitter night for Colin. He had reached his decision by the time the first rosy streaks of dawn appeared in the gray sky. He bathed then, and as he looked in the mirror while shaving, he saw that those long hours of mental turmoil had taken their toll. He observed with something of a shock that there were gray hairs at his temples. Of course they hadn't arrived overnight; but he had never noticed them before. "I look three years older than God," was his candid opinion.

Colin fixed breakfast, and then looked in on Ann. She was awake, and she made a face at him. "I feel beastly," she greeted him. "Do I or do I not have a vague memory of your giving me some dope last night?"

"It seemed like a good idea at the time," Colin admitted. Breakfast was a rather silent meal. Colin didn't want to be the one to bring up the subject of the previous night's alarms and excursions, and he didn't know if Ann remembered it. The morning air was chilly, and he had built a fire in the library fireplace, so they went in there for their post-breakfast cigarette. Ann finally said, "What did Nina say last night, Colin?"

"She said that Jock had been in a smash-up—that he was drunk—and that the girl with him had been killed."

"Poor Jock," Ann said softly. "Poor girl," Colin corrected her, rather sharply. Then he remembered his decision. "Ann—last night—Ann, how did you know something had happened to Jock? Was it a dream, or what?"

Ann shook her head. "It wasn't a dream. It was—rather awful. I don't know how I knew, but I knew he was in dreadful trouble, and—" practically knew it by heart. But why did you do it, Colin? Why?"

"LOOK, Ann," Colin said urgently, "would you mind if we get things straightened out one at a time?"

"No, I wouldn't mind." "First—when I offered you your freedom, it was an offer born of a sleepless night and the conviction that it was what you wanted. Do you?"

"I've answered that. No." Colin swallowed hard, and was silent for a few moments, lest his voice betray his emotion. It was steady by the time he continued, "Do you really want a baby now?"

"Of course, Colin. I made up my mind to that months ago—when I was in the hospital. One of my first conscious thoughts."

"Was the reason you were so nasty to me yesterday that you thought I'd been seeing and consulting Millicent about my book behind your back?"

Ann nodded, and looked a little ashamed.

"Ann, Ann, and I thought you trusted me! Of course I haven't—yesterday, while I was away, Millicent called. Mrs. Larsen was here cleaning, and she knew Millicent, of course—she showed her into the library to wait for me. Millicent—well, I guess she was looking for something in the desk, and she found the carbon copy of my book manuscript, and had read it before I returned." There was a little silence, and then Colin went on, with a chuckle. "Millicent is honest, anyway. She told me that you must be a much better wife than she had been—because at long last I seemed to have learned about women, as witness the book."

"Colin," Ann said softly. "Yes?"

"Will you come and get the kiss I didn't give you last night?" "My dear," said Colin, as he took her in his arms.

Later, Colin said, "I say, Ann—I promised Nina I'd drive in today. Do you want to come along and see Jock?"

Ann was silent for a moment, considering it. Then she said, "I think I'll stay here, Colin."

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY American's Card Authority

In conversation with a friend recently, I said that when your partner opens the bidding and you have an original bid in your own hand plus some jacks or tens, there should be no question in your mind of a game. You should start to think about a slam.

Later in the evening my friend and I were partners in a bridge game, and I opened the bidding on today's hand with a spade. To my amazement my partner jumped to six. As it happened, six spades was made because the king of spades and king of diamonds could be finessed.

When the hand was over I asked my partner why she had jumped to six, and she replied, "You told me that if my partner opened the bidding and I had an original bid plus some jacks or tens, I should start to think about a slam. Well, I had all the jacks, so why think about a slam? Why not get there?" Perhaps she did have something there.

Bulldogs Show Fight As Training Opens

By TANNER LAINE

The Bulldogs came out fighting! Midland High School opened spring football training Monday—and opened it right.

Not since they trotted out and won a regional championship has there been anything like it around here.

Seventy-one huskies were in full uniform and 25 more needed suits—and largest athletic turnout in Midland High School history.

This is not a dictated piece. You can see it for yourself in the high school stadium now.

At long last a fighting football team is wearing Purple and Gold this spring and Bulldog fans hope to heaven it lasts all fall.

That noise you heard Monday came from Lackey Field. Big and

Softball Directors Called To Meeting Tuesday Nite At 7

Softball directors, a representative from each team of the city league, are called to a meeting at 7 p. m. Tuesday on the mezzanine floor of the Scharbauer Hotel.

Czar Barnes Milam and Secretary Lou Frazen will meet with the directors.

More softball players are needed, officials reported. Two teams of the 12-team leagues need players. All sponsors or managers should place playing rosters with the secretary as soon as possible, so that new players may be directed to the clubs needing manpower, officials pointed out.

Play opens April 15. Several practice games have been played.

Monday evening The Reporter-Telegram tied O'Neal's 66 in a three-inning game, 2-all. Midland Hardware romped on Equitable Life Insurance, 3 to 1. Sunday the newspaper boys won over City Bus Lines and O'Neal's 66 also beat the busmen.

A schedule will be drafted Tuesday night at the meeting and soon will be published in The Reporter-Telegram.

Owen Heads Back For Brooklyn After Short Mexican Flirtation

SAN ANTONIO — (P) — Mickey Owen, roving Dodger catcher, was headed back toward Brooklyn Tuesday after a short flirtation with the Mexican Baseball League.

Saying he expected to rejoin the Dodgers in 10 days, Owen and his wife left San Antonio by automobile Monday following his announcement that he had turned down an offer to join the south-of-the-border league.

The catcher's quest for greener pastures wound up in a conference here with Alfonso Pasquel, one of five brothers who operate the Mexican League, over an offer to become player-manager for the Torreon Club.

Owen said he had talked by telephone with Branch Rickey, Brooklyn president. The player is still under contract to the Dodgers for half a season.

At Nashville, Tenn., Harold Parrott, traveling secretary for the Dodgers, announced Monday night that Rickey hasn't changed his mind about Owen and still plans to sell or trade him.

The day after the catcher said he was going with the Mexican League, Rickey said: "Owen will never play with the Brooklyn club again. If he doesn't decide to go to Mexico he will either be sold or traded. He will not be signed for a nickel more than his contract called for when he entered service."

Owen is reported to have received $12,500 a year from the Dodgers.

"The nearer I got to Mexico, the more I decided I was making a mistake," Owen said.

He added that he and Pasquel parted on friendly terms and that he would return the money advanced him by the Mexican brothers to show "good faith" in the contract offer. Owen never returned the signed contract to the Mexican League officials, he stated.

Boxing Association Says Champions Must Fight Twice Yearly

WASHINGTON — (P) — The National Boxing Association insisted Tuesday that champions risk their titles against leading challengers once every six months, and that goes for Joe Louis or Billy Conn.

The new ratings:

Heavyweight — Champion, Joe Louis; logical contender, Billy Conn. Outstanding boxers, Tami Mauriel-lo, Joe Wolcott.

Light heavyweight — Champion, Gus Lesnevich. Logical contenders, Archie Moore, Freddie Mills.

Lightweight — Champion, Ike Williams. Logical contenders, Bob Montgomery, Enrique Belances.

Featherweight — Champion, Sal Bartolo. Logical contenders, Willie Pep, Phil Terranova.

Bantamweight — Champion, Manuel Ortiz. Logical contender, none listed. Outstanding boxers, Bennie Goldberg, Tony Olivera.

Flyweight — Champion, Jackie Patterson. Logical contenders, Dade Marino, Joe Curran.

The first woman pilot to fly the English Channel was Harriet Quimby, who made the trip in 1912.

"Our backs don't make touch-downs without us," Milam confided in his 30 linesmen and he toiled with a flock of "down under" boys until he had to call a halt and get his voice back and their tongues were hanging out.

Up on the other end of the grass, Coach Earl Glassie worked the backs. He had two dozen of them. One was just as good as the other. Jack Mashburn worked 20 ends. The lettermen aren't wearing crowns anywhere on the field. Next fall they've got to earn their salt or ride the bench—and Milam means it.

"It's Been a Long Time"

We will tell you more about them Wednesday, who they are and what they play. Right now we are going to make a phone call to tell a guy who figured us out of the 1946 3-AA race he had better get out the correction fluid.

It's been a long, long time, folks, but we think it finally has come home to all those conference teams which have been mauling us—the kid in the Midland block has grown up. He just won't be bullied. Not anymore!

Odessa, Abilene, Big Spring, Lamesa, San Angelo, and Sweetwater, don't walk by him with that chip on your shoulder—you might get it knocked off.
