House Postpones Vote On Draft

(AP)—Associated Press

Induction Holiday Is Proposed

WASHINGTON — (AP) -The House wrote a fivemonth induction holiday and an end to the drafting of teen-agers into a Selective Service extension bill Saturday but delayed final action on the measure as a whole until Monday.

A decisive vote that would have sent the legislation to the Senate was blocked when Rep. Cox (D-Ga) demanded a reading of the formally engrossed bill with all amendments. Speaker Rayburn told the House such a copy could not be ready before Monday. So the House quit and put off the vote until then. There is nothing left to do now except pass on a motion to recommit, which is conceded practically no chance and take final action. There will be no roll call on the amendments. The Senate still has a say coming however, in a committee-approved bill lacking the restrictions the House voted Saturday. The House had been all set to pass the bill Saturday. It had decided by a threevote margin to prohibit any inductions between May 15 and October 15 of this year, although extending the draft law itself until February 1947, or nine months from its present expiration date. Votes Not Recorded There was no record vote on the "holiday" proposal, which went into the measure by a teller count of 156 to 153. The members turned down a request for a roll call vote on which the members would be recorded individually. There was no record vote, either. on the amendment raising the present minimum draft age from 18 to 20. It went into the measure by a committee's recommendations for a maximum service liability of 18 months for all drafted men; for an outright ban against the induction of fathers; for authority for local draft boards to defer farm workers, and for these ceilings on the July 1, 1947, strength of the armed forces: Army 1,070,000 officers and men; Navy 558,000; Marine Corps

Turned down were proposals to raise the pay of all service personnel; to give enlisted men the same terminal pay now granted to officers; to force the immediate discharge of all fathers now in the service, and to count service in the merchant marine as part of the 18 months maximum required for inducted men.

Army spokesmen who sat in the llery during the debate said prively they expected a manpower ortage as a result of the legislan. Their only hope, the told rerters, lies in the Senate.

Fetition Will Ask State Committee To Draft Coke

chairman of the Upshur County Democratic Executive Committee informed The Associated Press here Saturday night that a petition asking the State Committee to place Gov. Coke Stevenson's name on the ballot as a candidate for re-election would be filed early next week.

McIntosh, speaking from his home in Gilmer, said that 21 of the 27 members of the Upshur County committee had signed the petition.

He said the petition along with the $100 filing fee would be mailed to Harry Seay, state Democratic executive chairman as soon as he had obtained signatures of a few members of the committee whom he had not yet contacted.

"The best way to get Coke Stevenson's name on the ballot is to draft him as a candidate for reelection," McIntosh said. "It looks like we are going to have to draft him to get him to run. If there ever was a time Texas needed a stable man for governor this is it."

WASHINGTON -(A)- The Republican National Committee Saturday described President Truman's Minister Attlee and other officials first year in the White House as after urging the British to spare "It is a natural reflection of the man who didn't wish to be President," the committee said in a 3,500

"The record of Mr. Truman's year as President is a record of confusion— confusion in international relations, confusion in national affairs, and confusion throughout the administration."

The committee said when Truman got the news that he had become President "he felt, he said, 'as though the moon and the stars and all the planets' had fallen on him. During his year as President, Truman has shown that he never recovered from this catastrophe."

The committee said the Truman administration "is at war with Congress." And continued: "Mr. Truman failed to use his opportunities. He speedily ended his honeymoon with Congress, preferring to tread the leftward path of radical experimentation."

On foreign relations, the committee said the President "recites high-sounding statements of foreign policy. But these are far different from the actions which he approves." It asserted he "pays lip service to the United Nations," adding: "But he has failed to inform his representatives of official policy on vital matters, such as trusteeships and atomic energy control. He has thus added to the confusion of our international relations.'

Final Statement Withheld

Lt. Gen. Masaharu Homma, the "Beast of Bataan," kept his date with a U.S. Army firing squad the other day, just six weeks after his uniformed comrade-in-crime, Lt. Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita, "Tiger of Luzon," stretched a hangman's noose. Thus died, in the Philippine capital they did so much to desecrate, the two principal war criminals among Japanese field commanders. A most fitting end. Or is it an end?

Yamashita, who went to his revered ancestors in the "disgrace" of an undecorated fatigue uniform with only a rope for a necktie, favored his executioners with a gracious pardon for their injustice to him. But Homma, permitted an "honorable" death in full military regalia, refused to make a final statement. This is not necessarily to say that the "Beast" has been eternally denied voice. His "final statement," it seems to us, has merely been withheld for the time being. It is now being prepared, in Washington and in Tokyo, in London and in Nagoya, at Hunter College and at Tokei Institute. When at last it is released, it will determine which ideology truly won World War II, and whether the savage philosophy of Yamashita and Homma really died

The board ordered the company to cease encouraging its men to join the BRC or any other union. It ordered the company to reinstate this employe with full seniority and to reimburse him for any financial loss incurred.

Technically, the NLRB seems to have been right. It is probably as much a case of interference for a company to urge a man to join a union, even one not companydominated, as it is to threaten him with discharge unless he stays out. But what was the NLRB's motive-to protect the individual's choice of action, to protect the union from "domination," or to penalize the company for strikesettling tactics which must have been agreeable to both management and union?

Obviously the individual's right to choose wasn't the prime consideration, since that choice is denied in the NLRB-sanctioned closed shop. And as for domination, it would rather seem to an outsider that the NLRB might itself be trying to coerce the company and interfere in labor-management relations by its action. For, if the company is to avoid similar and further penalties, the only solution is a closed shop in which the worker has no choice but to join the union.

In other words, it is all right for the union to force union membership on a man under threat of company dismissal. But the company can't do the same thing. And the American Car and Foundry Company meanwhile is in the unenviable position of being damned by the government if it does, and damed if it doesn't.

JAQUES JR. POWER SAW

It's easy to clear your land of brush and trees with a JAQUES PORTABLE POWER SAW. Its 30" unbreakable saw, powered by a 5 to 6 HP. engine cuts through brush and trees in seconds, cutting them off level with ground. Once tree is felled, angle of saw can be changed quickly to cut trees into any desired length.

Why not clear that idle land now, make a profit on sale of timber at present high prices and convert the cleared land into profitable green pastures? The JAQUES SAW also has a definite place in the sawmill and pulpwood industry. Price of saw, complete, F. O. B. Denison, is only

POST-HOLE DIGGER

If there's a fencing or transplanting job to be done on your farm or ranch, the JAQUES POST-HOLF DIGGER is the answer. In ordinary ground, it bores 9" holes three feet deep in sixty seconds or less. Requires only one operator. Throws dirt out, leaving hole clean. Complete with 5 to 6 HP. engine, F. O. B. Denison . . .

If you prefer, you can buy the SAW complete with frame and engine for $379.50 and the Post-Hole Digger attachment, which is interchangeable with Saw, for $198.00 extra. Switch from Saw to Post-Hole Digger can be made in about five minutes.

BLOCK and TACKLE

JAQUES Block and Tackle have the built-in quality and rugged strength to do the toughest jobs. Whether it's a land clearing project, a road building, oil field or construction job, you'll be able to do the job better and quicker with JAQUES Block and Tackle.

TO THE PEOPLE OF MIDLAND

Dear Friends:

During the 10 years we have served you in the food business, we have tried at all times to be worthy of your friendship and good will.

Having now sold the H&H Food Store to Roy Furr, one of the outstanding food merchants of West Texas and New Mexico, it is our wish to express as sincerely as we can the deep thanks to you for the friendly way you have patronized our business. We believe in all sincerity that our successors, the local store of the Furr food system, is worthy of the same confidence and patronage you have given us.

Two of my sons are remaining with the Furr store, Brutus Hanks as store manager and Jack Hanks as market manager. Not only for myself, but also for my four sons, who are good citizens of the community, ! feel it necessary to convey this personal message of appreciation and thanks to you.

If it were possible without the most extreme kind of difficulties, it would be my wish to write a personal letter to each and every person who was helpful to us in every way.

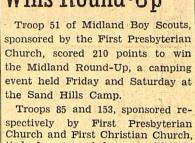

However, that task would be so huge, that I have chosen this medium of expressing my personal gratitude. I hope that you will receive it in the same spirit in which it is meant.

You have been, as individuals and as a community, gracious and pleasant, we would feel deeply ungrateful if we failed to make it as clear as possible the way we feel about your many courtesies and acts of friend-

This is not to say farewell to you, because Midland is our home, but I cannot refrain from expressing my thanks as well as I am able.

> (Signed) L. L. HANKS and sons.

HOW MANY MISTAKES MAKE EVERYTHING JUST

PROPONENTS in Washington are urging Compulsory Health Insurance, to be financed by heavy Federal taxes on payrolls and salaries. Such a program would empower a Federal Bureau, and thousands of bureaucrats throughout the country to regiment our Doctors, Pharmacists, Hospitals, Nurses, Technicians and all health services.

Such a mistake-once enacted into lawwould be hard to undo or correct. It would put tremendous power into inexperienced, political hands. No real American would advocate such a mistake, by either his silence or influence, if he realized the INEVITABLE result would be regimentation by dictatorial Federal employees ... BUT, in addition, experience has PROVED that in countries where such mistakes have been made, health standards and quality of medical service are lowered. We have the highest health level on earth-let's KEEP it going

Not only do these sets come in luscious pinks and blues, but in Kelly greens, yellows and white!

Don't forget the Kiddies Toggery has those darling pastel felt bag and glove sets you've been wanting for your tiny miss!

NEXT SUNDAY is Easter and I'll wager you're thinking seriously now of Easter baskets, candies and the fui-fui that goes with this! And seriously speaking, if you've been too busy to get in your child's Easter surprises, plan on shopping at Harris-Luckett's Easter counters Monday morning.

> pects them to "hop out the door" the first of the week-There's bunnies of all sizes and shapes and makes, candies to hide, dyes to color eggs, and lots of extra Easter surprises for your child at Harris-Luckett's!

'RABBIT HILL''—a darling story of rabbits, moles, field mice, skunks and all other small creatures that live close to man—is a timely gift book for this season of the year. It's sold by The Book Stall located in the First National Bank

The philosophy of Live and Let Live cannot be too early taught to your little ones, and how irresistibly this golden rule is presented in "Rabbit Hill"! The Book Stall carries this and many other beautifully illustrated tales to entrance all wee tots.

SINCE IT'S STORIES and more stories your children demand and love, here's another suggestion-How about an album of your child's favorite story in record form?

For instance-"Moby Dick"-an immortal story beautifully acted by Charles Laughton. He plays the part of Captain Ahab... and his or her little imagination will be swept away with Laughton's fine acting.

"Moby Dick", Treasure Island, narrated by Basil Rathbone "The King Who Couldn't Dance", narrated by Gene Kelly, and other children's fancies may be purchased at Wemple's . . . next to the postoffice.

Roosevelt's Home Becomes National Shrine

Pictured is the interior of the Franklin D. Roossvelt home at Hyde Park which, with the surrounding 33 acres of ancestral estate, was dedicated by President Truman Friday as a national shrine. The formal presentation of the home as well as the century-old rose garden in which the former president is buried and the surrounding acres was made by Mrs. Roosevelt. Secretary of Interior J. A. Krug accepted the tract as a national shrine on the part of the United States government. Friday marked the first anniversary of Roosevelt's death.

Si, Si, Amigo Or Something!

(An Editorial)

Si, Si, Amigo or something. This writer never took Spanish but he kinda imagines that Pan-American Day is something special from the way things begin shaping up about April 14 in MHS. Overheard conversations give such dope as the Pan-American Union is an international organization formerly known as International Bureau of American Republics. The purpose of the union is to promote better cultural, political, and commercial understanding among the 21 American Republics.

Just idle speculation would say that the relationships with the countries "down Mexico way" and the U.S. are strengthened through groups such as this and that the Good Neighbor Policy and Pan-American Day are practically synonymous. If you've never thought anything about Pan-American Day think for a while and you'll realize how fortunate the America's are to be such good friends and neighbors. MHS Typing Students

A Truly Modern Drug Store For The Needs Of A Modern Community

As Midland grows, there is an increased need for more and greater service to those who have long lived in Midland and also to those who have chosen Midland as their home city.

In response to this need for additional facilities, we are establishing Service Drugs. No effort has been spared to bring Midland as modern a drug store as can be found anywhere.

For many months contacts with market sources have been in progress so that merchandise would be available for you.

Planning and forethought have gone into the building of the structure which is to house Service Drugs.

Policies have been established with the sole view that you will participate in the kind of personal service you will like.

Realizing the modern trend in merchandising, we have established price levels that are competitive, yet not destructive of the local economic structure through indiscriminate disregard of the fundamental fair ethical practice.

L. A. ARRINGTON, Manager.

SODA FOUNTAIN EQUIPMENT DELAYED

Due to circumstances over which we have no control the beautiful, modern soda fountain equipment long ago ordered has not yet been shipped, and therefore it will be necessary to open the store without this equipment. However, we can uncompromisingly promise you that you will be delighted when our fountain is installed, which we have every reason to believe will be within the next few weeks. We ask your patience until this equipment is shipped, received and installed. A special announcement will be made at that time.

A DRUG STORE IN 1946 FOR THE MIDLAND OF 1960!

Some Outstanding Features

• FREE DELIVERY

You will be well pleased with this feature of our service to you.

PRESCRIPTION DEPARTMENT

With a completely fresh stock of pharmaceuticals from the leading manufacturers, we are prepared to give you faultless service. Bring your prescription to us or specify "Service Drugs" to your physician. All presciptions filled by Texas-registered pharmacists.

COSMETICS BAR

You will thrill to the flawless beauty and convenience of the Cosmetics Bar. Here you will find many of your old favorites as well as other nationally famous lines being brought to the women of Midland exclusively by Service Drugs. We will appreciate a visit from you—and you will appreciate the beauty you find.

PERSONAL SERVICE

No store of any kind can possibly be better than the personal relations between the personnel of the store and those whom they serve. At this great new store you will be pleased to observe that this policy of personal service is carried out to your utmost satisfaction. Truly, your wish is our pleasure.

• IDEAL LOCATION

Located at Illinois and Marienfield Streets, Service Drugs is opposite the High School, north and west of the downtown business section (three blocks from the County Court House), in the direction of the greatest residential growth now taking place in Midland. We believe you will like the feature of plentiful parking space.

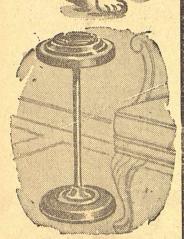

• COMPLETE EXPERIENCE

At Service Drugs you will be served by personnel long experienced in serving the people of Midland. This experience will be to your advantage in many ways, for your needs will be in mind when we buy merchandise and your better service will be our constant aim as we sell to you.

City's Dump Grounds Looked Like This

Midland's dumping grounds for years looked like a 30-acre magnification of this pile of cans, bottles, cartons and paper. In refuse such as this, flies, mosquitoes and rats lived and multiplied, creating a serious menace to the health of the city. For about 20 years smoke rose continually from fires in the area, and odors poured from the 30-acre tract.

This Tractor Dia The Dirty Work

A. B. Taylor, city employe, is shown operating the Cletrac tractor which has transformed the once unsightly dumping grounds east of the city into a cleared-off tract which shows little evidence of ever being the serious health menace it was. Tons of junk were buried in long trenches dug by the tractor.

Dumping Grounds Completely Transformed

Sanitary Fill Method Stops Health Menace

Been down in the dumps lately? Midland citizens who have in reent weeks visited the dumping grounds east of the city have come way awed at the change which has ome over the 30 acres the city has ceen using for some 30 years or more as a disposal place for all inds of rubbish and refuse.

The once unsightly area just east f the Latin-American section looks if it is has been swept clean of all the old car bodies, tin cans, paper boxes and other refuse which ong have dominated it. There's no rubbish in sight in this area which once comprised an ugly view on the approach to the city and which has for years been a great menace to the health of the city's inhabitants. Refuse Simply Buried

It hasn't been swept clean. All the refuse has simply been buried, along with the thousands of rats and innumerable flies, maggots, and mosquitoes. The city has taken a modernistic viewpoint in regard to ts dumping grounds, and has adopted the "sanitary fill" method of disposal. Until recently, garbage, dead aninals, tin cans, refuse of all kinds and the thousand and one items which find their way to a dumping ground have been scattered in the 0-acre tract owned by the city. In hese piles of rubbish mosquitoes have bred by the millions, and rats and reproduced by uncountable their germs. Maggots have wriggled and have turned into flies to add flies and mosquitoes are unable to to refrain from leaving it elsewhere 1 mile east of Cotton Center Gin. to the health danger. Over the entire section have hovered the sickening odors of death, decay and fermentation.

Last year the city decided to do omething about the years-old mess. Investigation disclosed that an incinerator, most commonly used method of rubbish disposal, would be both too costly and too inefficient. The cost of operation was estimated at about $30 a day, while the installation cost probably would exceed $90,000. All refuse would have to be sorted, requiring additional labor. After the dumped material was burned there still would be the problem of disposing of ashes and

Idea From Army Camps

The city, taking a cue from many Army camps, decided on the modand efficient "sanitary fill" method. Its success had been attested to by health officers of Army camps and by sanitarians in a number of cities throughout the coun-

To start its program, the city purchased a bull clam tractor and hired an operator. Then it took on the tremendous task of clearing off the piles of old automobile bodies, cans and other refuse which dotted the dumping ground and the streets and other areas of the nearby

Spanish-American section. Long trenches were dug with the bull clam, and much of the rubbish was pushed into it, thoroughly rolled, then covered over with two feet or more of dirt. Low portions of the area were filled with dirt, and the entire 30-acre tract was cleared and leveled. Under the dirt went the innumerable rats, mosquitoes and flies-buried and smothered, their breeding places destroyed. Gone were an estimated 1,000 old car bodies, including hundreds moved from areas near the highway approaches to the city; vanished

United States Navy and its reguations to back her up.

On their nuptial date, July 15, 1944, Cutshall was a seaman first class (equivalent to the Army's corporal) in the Navy. Mrs. Cutshall, the former Miss Naoma Lutz of The Dalles, Oregon, was a yeoman second class (staff sergeant) in the WAVEs. Since she outrated him, the wife was entitled to give orders to her husband.

Back to 'Frisco The marriage was performed in the chapel of the Armed Guard Center at Treasure Island, San Francisco. Cutshall was a gunner on a merchant ship, and went back to sea soon after the ceremony.

Ten months later he was sent back to the 'States for shore duty and was transferred to Treasure Island. There he was assigned to duty in the personnel office where his wife worked. He was rated yeoman third class, his wife advanced to yeoman first class. She saw that he had work to do, since hers was the job of running the

Report On Feeder Plane Routes To Be Announced

WASHINGTON-(AP)-Civil Aeronautic Board officials said Thursday that a report on proposed feeder airline routes throughout Texas and Oklahoma should be released within a few days.

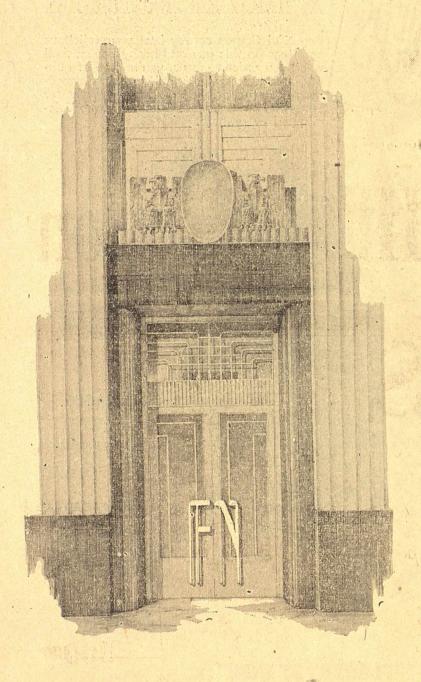

The report, based on hearings onducted over the Southwest several months ago by Assistant Chief Examiner Thomas L. Wrenn, is expected to include recommendations as to where new air services should be authorized. The board will act later on the recommendations.

The hearings were of an exploraory nature to determine what sort of policy should be adopted regarding service between small towns and communities with larger points on ranscontinental air routes. While dozens of applications to establish new feeder routes had been filed when the hearings were conducted, some requests since have been filed with the board, including that of Texas Air Lines, Inc. The company's proposed service would include a route from Brownsville to Amarillo, via Plainview. Other stops on the route are Weslaco, Laredo, Eagle Pass, Del Rio, San Angelo, Big Spring and Lubbock.

Although direct service from Plainview to Houston was not detailed on any of the 12 routes proposed in an application filed March 15 by Texas Air Lines, it is possible that connecting service might be inaugurated to link ne

Cabin in the Sky-Almost

Thornton McDonough and Bill Teare, 15-year-old Bay Village, Ohio, lads, solved their own "housing problem" by building the treetop cabin pictured above. No ordinary tree play shack, it is solid, insulated, weatherproof and equipped inside with coal stove, electric lights, radio, electric clock and toaster. It has adequate furniture and even has a separate bedroom. All the cartage, lifting, construction, electric wiring and decoration was done by the boys themselves, who sleep in the cabin about three nights a week. Total financial outlay was $14, $11 for the stove and chimney and $3 worth of paint. Pictured on the porch, above, are Thornton McDonough and John Favor, a weekend guest, with Bill Teare climbing ladder.

The prehistoric discovery of the FLAME was man's first step toward civilization; and from that ageless past to the present, the Flame has been keeping humanity warm, cooking its food and performing other services. However, no energy, even that of the FLAME, would be valuable to modern civilized society unless it would be capable of being controlled. It is interesting to note that it was this controllability that, early in our economic history, provided continued usefulness to the GAS FLAME—a usefulness that through the years has constantly widened and strengthened. Today this controllability reaches its highest point of development. And so, as in the past, the Gas FLAME will continue to release, even more effectively, its energy, remaining man's faithful servant for cooking, water heating, refrigeration and year 'round home comfort.

Probably the greatest thrill of the Eastern States Tournament this year went to Bob Hawk, of quiz fame. Bob, who has been most generous with his entertainment in behalf of American Contract Bridge League charities, was finally persuaded to enter a bridge tournament. When I asked Hawk for a hand, he gave me one in which he said he made a mistake and got a good score as a result.

Declarer trumped Hawk's third club lead in dummy, then led the other trump and finessed the tenspot. Hawk said he was not prepared for this play and played low. Declarer then figured that East must have held the king-jack and two small spades and consequently he was afraid to play for the trump break. He also misguessed the diamonds.

Development Of Acid Ointment For Burns Announced By Society

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. -(AP)-Development of a new "acid ointfor burns, which removes dead skin painlessly—without need of a surgeon's knife or brushingwas announced here to the American Chemical Society. The ointment-for treatment of econd degree burns—was described by Drs. Albert M. Mattocks and Wilbur A. Lazier of Southern Research Institute, Birmingham, Ala. They told the chemists, who complete their 109th meeting, that the pintment was basically a dry, stable, acid ointment effective for the cleansing of burns.'

When applied, it is a clear, jellylike substance, the doctors said, adding its action was to remove the dead skin from the burn surface "without pain or the destruction of islands of living tissue."

They said that before they and another group of investigators at Yale University had undertaken this line of research, the only method of removing dead tissue was "by surgery or brushing." Brain Concussion Detection

At the same time, Dr. M. Spiegel-Adolf and a group of colleagues from Temple University announced a new technique for detecting brain concussions.

It consists of employing invisible, ultra-violet light rays, directed against a sample of cerebrospinal fluid tapped from a patient thought to have a concussion.

If a concussion is present, cells in the sample of spinal fluid will be disturbed in such a way as to absorb rays of the ultra-violet light -and this absorption can be measured, the doctors said.

If there is no concussion, the cells in the fluid will absorb none of the invisible rays. The reason visible light cannot be employed for such tests is that cars. cerebrospinal fluid is colorless and does not show optical absorption in visible light.

Beginning with the raw materials and continuing every step of the way in its production, a single engine for military aircraft received an accumulated total of 50,000 individual inspections.

370,000. Why the sudden spurt of death on the streets and highways? People have gasoline, new cars are coming and they don't mind tearing around in their old ones.

The wartime controls, which called for slower driving and careful use of automobiles, are gone. As early as last December, seeing the rising death rate, President Truman took steps to save lives by the time warm weather driving

The only authority vested in VA is that of appointing local appraisers to see that the price of the property involved in the loan is "rea-

It used to "reasonable and normal." Since few values today are "normal," many otherwise sound

The veteran's honorable discharge tificate of eligibility. He doesn't have to apply to the VA for one.

Veterans who have no honorable discharge still have to make application to VA for the certificate of eligibility. The VA takes a keen look at the conditions surrounding his discharge, and if they are not dishonorable a certificate is issued. The new loan regulations also do these things:

1. Increase the amount of the guarantee to $4,000 on all real estate loans. The maximum used to be $2,000.

2. Extend the time during which veterans may take advantage of their GI loan privileges from two to 10 years after the official end of the war.

3. Extend the period in which loans must be repaid to 25 years for home loans and 40 years for farm loans.

VA Insures Loans 4. Provide for the VA to insure loans, instead of guaranteeing them. VA can insure 15 per cent of the aggregate of loans made by any one leader to any number of veterans. VA says this plan should broaden the scope of credit assistance to veterans.

5. Allow the cost of a lot on which a veteran wants to build a home to be included in the loan. 6. Allow GI loans to veterans for delinguent indebtedness.

7. Broaden and liberalize farm loans so that the loan may be used for practically every ordinary farming purpose.

8. Allow inventory and working

9. Extend loan privileges to men on terminal leave and servicemen who are hospitalized pending final capital to be included in business

If you're a veteran and want a GI loan, don't write the Veterans Administration about it. The VA lends no money. The place to go is your local bank or trust company

YOU CAN'T SAY LITTLE KENNY WASN'T CAUTIOUS

MILWAUKEE, WIS .- (A)-Kenny Kipen, 6, who had gone to play with his friend, Scotty Kuesel, came running back because, "there was a sign on the door."

"Did it say m-e-a-s-l-e-s?" his mother asked Kenny, who is learning his letters but can't read.

Kenny couldn't remember so he hurried over to Scotty's house again, this time with pencil and paper to make a laboriously printed copy of the sign. It read: "Please wipe your

In Regard To - GRAFALAND

There Is One Word Which Unfailingly Comes To Mind

THAT WORD IS

A Hallmark Of Homesites Solid As Sterling

NOTHING CAN BE

Two lovely homes have been completed and five others are under construction. When materials are available, many other ideal American homes will sprout from the soil of this ideally located subdivision. Please pay special attention to the very high type of Grafaland construction. Another important item to remember is that paving is to be started when practicable. No lots are to be sold for speculation. Each lot is a homesite.

You Have Heard Of The Engineered Planning! You Have Read Of The Residential Restrictions! You Have Been Told The Numerous Advantages!

BUT - Have You SEEN Grafaland?

Have YOUR OWN EYES Witnessed This Finest Of All Residential Developments East Of El Paso And West Of Ft. Worth?

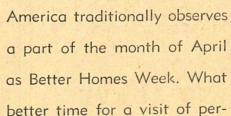

IF NOT, YOU OWE IT TO YOURSELF AND TO YOUR FAMILY TO VISIT GRAFA-LAND AND SEE FOR YOURSELF THE KIND OF BENEFITS YOU TOO CAN HAVE BY BECOMING AN EARLY GRAFALANDER!
