Manchuria Peace Negotiations Crumble

Riots Accompany German Voting

Church Party Holds 2-to-1 Victory Lead

FRANKFURT — (AP) — Germany's fast growing new political party, the right-of-center Christian Social Union, won an overwhelming victory in weekend county council elections in the American zone, marred by rioting and pro-Nazi activity.

Conservative rural voters gave the church-supported party almost a two to one lead over its nearest rival, the slightly left wing Social Democrats.

The Communist Party polled only a bare 5.4 per cent of the 3,136,347 votes cast in the second free election in the area in 13 years.

While 6,042 elected county officials took their seats on rural councils Monday, four United States Army agencies were investigating a street battle between German voters and more than 5,000 Jewish displaced persons in Diessen in Bavaria.

Six persons were reported still in hospitals out of 18 treated for stab wounds and beatings in the riot which finally was quelled by American soldiers.

Search was underway Monday for two Jewish guards whose disappearance prompted the displaced persons to rush the German polls after a report circulated that the guards had been murdered by civilians.

Counter-espionage agents were probing the appearance of Nazi swastikas in another Bavarian town and the setting fire to a Communist meeting hall.

Rural Voters Boost Majority

Rural voters in staunchly pro-Catholic Bavaria gave the Christian Social Union its big total of 1,779,203 votes to the Social Democrats' 936,763 by overriding the majority the latter secured in more industrialized Greater Hesse.

It was in the province of Greater Hesse that the Communists won their biggest vote, polling eight per cent of the total vote of 1,090,850 cast in the state, which includes the industrial cities of Frankfurt, Wiesbaden and Kassel.

The trouble began in Diessen, according to military government officials, when between 5,000 and 6,000 Jews swarmed into the town, which is 34 miles southwest of Munich, accused the Germans of murdering two Jewish guards and then rushed the polling booths.

Five and a half hours later the riot was quelled and American soldiers forced the displaced persons back to their camp. An early curfew was imposed on the town. Twenty-five of the rioters were arrested, but 1,000 Jews in mass formation blocked MPs from arresting three others.

A curfew was also clamped on three other Bavarian towns, where U. S. counter-intelligence agents and German police are investigating election eve disorders.

Held For Kidnaping Own Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Hungerford, of Denver, Colo., as they appeared in the Orange, Texas, jail, after being caught in Leesville, La., following the kidnaping of their former daughter, Barbara Baker. Mr. and Mrs. Hungerford had been divorced but remarried and decided to take Barbara back with them. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Baker of Orange had adopted the little girl and when the Hungerfords took her they had the police pick them up and return the child to them.

Senator Proposes OPA Use Vets As Anti-Black Market Police

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Senator Murdock (D-Utah) proposed Monday that the OPA use veterans in a strong enforcement arm to stamp out black markets as the AFL urged Senate rejection of House amendments to price control laws.

Murdock's idea was called "a very good suggestion" by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor.

Green told the Senate Banking Committee, at hearings on legislation to continue price controls that some House-passed proposals on OPA would "amend price control to death."

After Green had commented that "we can't surrender to the black market," Murdock made his suggestion, adding: "I believe a lot of veterans could do the job."

Senator Capehart (R-Ind.) accused the Administration of indulging in "a 100 per cent black market" deal in its corn subsidy arrangement.

When the government sought to get corn for its famine-relief program, it found it had to pay a 30-cents-a-bushel premium, Capehart said.

When business men pay above ceilings to get commodities needed to keep running, Capehart said, they are called black marketers.

"Now the government is doing the same thing," he said.

Britain And Soviet Expected To Clash Over Colonies

PARIS — (AP) — The four-power foreign ministers' conference ran into its most crucial session Monday, with the future of Italy's colonial possessions in North Africa and the Dodecanese Islands in the Mediterranean on the agenda.

It was on these questions that Russian Mediterranean interests and Britain's empire communications were expected to clash directly. There were indications that discussion of the Italian colonies, particularly the disposition of Tripolitania, would take up most of the session.

The Russians have asked for a trusteeship over Tripolitania, but British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin has declared such a grant would cut directly across Britain's Mediterranean communications to the Middle East and India. The United States has proposed a United Nations trusteeship for Libya, which includes Tripolitania, as well as for Eritrea in East Africa.

Andrews Wildcat Flows 52 BOPH From Fullerton

By JAMES C. WATSON
Oil Editor

Superior Oil Company, et al. No. 1 Coopwood, West-Central Andrews County wildcat discovery from the Fullerton-Permian section at 6,848-7,000 feet, flowed 260 barrels of oil in a five-hour drillstem test Sunday, and was to run casing and complete. The well is about 12 miles west of Andrews.

After the tester was opened gas came to surface in three minutes; oil cut drilling fluid flowed in 16 1/2 minutes and the drill pipe started flowing oil in 21 minutes. It was turned to tanks and allowed to flow five hours.

Made Clean Oil

At the start of the flowing the shutout was 2.6 per cent drilling fluid. At the end of five hours there was only a very slight trace of mud in the oil. Corrected gravity was 42.5 degrees. Gas-oil ratio was estimated at 1,600-1.

Operator plans to cement 7-inch casing at about 6,845 feet and complete the discovery, which is about one and one-half miles southeast of nearest production on the south-east side of the Fullerton field, from the open hole.

Magnolia Petroleum Company owns an east offset to the new well and Stanolind Oil & Gas Company has the north flanker. Both steps out are due to drill shortly.

Funt Oil Company, et al. No. 1 Hill, Southeast Winkler County wildcat, in southeast quarter of section 9, block B-11, psi survey, about eight miles south and east of Kermit, ran a two-hour drillstem test at 5,018-5,099 feet.

There was a fair blow of air for the full period. Recovery was 270 feet of gas cut drilling mud; 290 feet of black, gas cut mud, and 360 feet of black, salty, sulphur water.

Top of the Holt zone was at 5,040 feet, and operator reports that the water shown in the drillstem test might be coming from the basal section of the San Andres.

Will Try Again

Another drillstem test of the top of the Holt was to be undertaken, by setting the packer below the base of the San Andres.

Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company No. 2 Brown & Altman, South-Central Winkler County exploration, in southwest quarter of section 25, block B-5, psi survey, one-quarter of a mile southeast from the discovery for Holt production in the Emperor field, had apparently shut off water from above the pay section, and was preparing to test. Total depth is at 4,805 feet.

Union Oil Company of California No. 2 Cowden, 1,980 feet from north and east lines of section 7, block A-55, psi survey, and one-quarter of a mile due north of the initial Devonian producer in the Dollar Hide field, in extreme Southwest Andrews, was making hole below 7,345 feet, in lower Permian.

High To Discovery

Informed sources report that this project is at least 40 feet high to the Dollar Hide discovery. That exploration did not show for any appreciable signs of production in the lower Permian, while the Union prospector has found such evidences.

A drillstem test at 6,810-7,093 feet, open for two hours, recovered 840 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud. Operator is planning to do more test log in the Permian shortly.

Found Ellenburger

Harley Sadler No. 1 Halfmann, Southeast Runnels County wildcat, three miles southeast of Ballinger, and in section 501, CH&H survey, topped Ellenburger at 4,115 feet with a derrick floor elevation of 1,715 feet.

At last report it was making hole past 4,267 feet. There was a slight show of gas at the top of the Ellenburger, and at 4,245 feet.

Ray Abalugh No. 1 Middleton, North Dawson County exploration, in section 69, block 8, EL survey, had progressed below 3,464 feet in lime—possibly the Grayburg-Permian—and was drilling ahead.

Top of the anhydrite was at 1,720 feet and top of the Yates frosted quartz grains was at 2,410 feet. Elevation is 3,040 feet.

GREEK OF 2,000 YEARS AGO WINS — Boy Halts Cal-Lifting Marathon

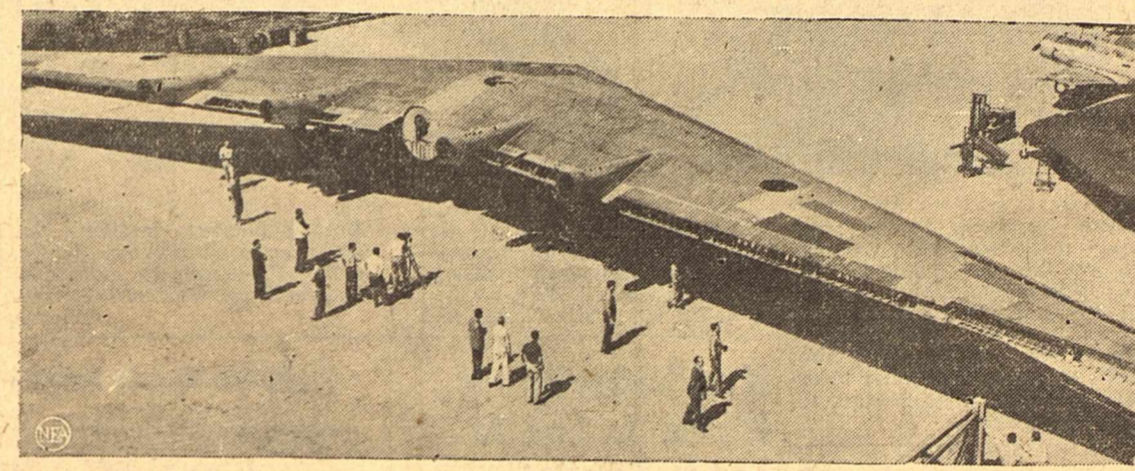

SOMERVILLE, N. J. — (AP) — Allen La Fever has decided to end his calf-lifting marathon, now that Phoebe weighs 365 pounds and he tips the beam at a mere 149.

For more than six and a half months, the 17-year-old high school senior has been lifting Phoebe every day in an effort to duplicate the feat of Milo, the Greek strong man of 2,000 or more years ago, in lifting a calf daily until it becomes a cow.

Phoebe, who weighed 72 pounds when it all started October 9, has become a prize-winning heifer and is now being groomed for the National Dairy Show in Columbus, O., in October.

"Milo was a full-grown man," said Allen Monday, "and I'm not. Besides, we decided I'd better not ruin my health by continuing."

Army Unveils XB-35 Flying Wing Bomber

Picture shows Army's hitherto secret "Flying Wing", designed as the XB-35 bomber. In construction since 1943, the plane was completed at Northrop Aircraft's Hawthorne, Calif., plant. Designed as a bombardment-type plane of extraordinary range and heavy load capacity, it may now be adopted as a cargo plane. Its wing span of 172 feet compares with the B-29's 141 and its gross load weight is 209,000 pounds, contrasted to the Superfort's 140,000. The Flying Wing's range was announced as more than 10,000 miles. Compares with the world distance record of 8,198 miles set by a B-29 last November.

CHARGED WITH CRIMES AGAINST PEACE AND HUMANITY —

Tojo, Pals Indicted For Murder

TOKYO — (AP) — Japan's warlord Hideki Tojo and 27 other militaristic leaders were indicted by the Allies Monday as war criminals. They will be arraigned May 3 on 55 specific charges ranging from murder of thousands of Americans on Pearl Harbor Day to conspiracy to hammer the whole world into slave states of the Axis.

Defense counsel are expected to be given reasonable time to prepare their cases before trials begin before an 11-nation tribunal.

Tribunal members heard Chief Allied Prosecutor Joseph B. Keenan read the indictments at the Japanese war ministry building, then called U. S. Navy Capt. Beverly M. Coleman, who will head the defense, into a brief conference.

As he presented the indictments, Keenan outlined three categories of charges: crimes against peace, "conventional" war crimes, and "crimes against humanity." Offenses thus ranging from maltreatment of individuals to world conspiracy, and Keenan made it plain that the whole 18-year story of Japan's bloody bid for world power will be told in the forthcoming trials.

Hirohito Not Named

Not mentioned in the indictments were Emperor Hirohito and a half dozen of Tojo's former cabinet ministers.

Keenan did not refer to them, but commented that omission of a name "in no sense implies" exoneration; other names may be added.

Indictments included specific charges of starting the war against the 11 Allied nations, and 16 of the prisoners—including Tojo—were accused of murder by "ordering, causing and permitting the armed forces of Japan to attack territory, ships and airplanes" of other nations in the Dec. 7, 1941, sneak attacks. The charge listed as "murdered some 4,000 Americans at Pearl Harbor and others in the Philippines."

"It may seem strange to include charges of murder," said Keenan, "but it is high time that promoters of aggressive, ruthless war and treaty-breakers should be stripped of glamour—and exposed as they are—plain, ordinary murderers."

Twelve were charged with killing many thousands of Chinese civilians and 14 were charged with murder of Russian troops in 1938-1939.

Other Major Charges

Other major charges: "That the indicted leaders were, in the course of many years, continually preparing for war" against Russia.

"That Japan, her people's minds systematically poisoned by military propaganda and their rights throttled, sought with Germany and Italy "to secure military, naval, political and economic domination of the whole world."

"That the indicted prisoners were responsible for 'mass murder, rape, pillage, brigandage, torture and other barbaric cruelties upon helpless civilian populations.'"

Prentice Cooper Named Ambassador To Peru

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Prentice Cooper, former governor of Tennessee, was nominated by President Truman Monday to be ambassador to Peru.

Cooper will succeed William D. Pawley, recently named ambassador to Brazil.

Cooper long has been associated in the Democratic Party activities with Senator McKellar (D-Tenn.), president pro tempore of the Senate.

Reds Seek Land Taken In Battle

CHUNGKING — (AP) — Efforts to settle the fighting in Manchuria broke down Monday, the utmost efforts of General Marshall proving insufficient to bridge the chasm between the Chinese National Government and the Communists.

All sides revealed that settlement of the civil conflict faced indefinite delay, with the Government refusing the newest truce proposal and the Communists demanding strongly favorable terms on the basis of their military successes.

Informed Chinese sources said Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek had rejected the Democratic League formula for the "cease fire" agreement which would have left the Communists in possession of a large part of Manchuria. The sources indicated that the generalissimo preferred to wait until his armies had fought their way northward and had recaptured Changchun before halting hostilities.

Marshall, who has been conferring almost ceaselessly in recent days with Chiang and Communist leader, Gen. Chou En-Lai, in an effort to reach an agreement, gave the order to transfer his headquarters to Nanking Tuesday.

Talks May Resume

The Communist spokesman confirmed that negotiations had ended in Chungking, but said they would be resumed in a few days in Nanking, where the Communist delegation is moving.

Chiang Kai-shek also is expected to go to Nanking May 3.

During the past week Marshall, Chou En-Lai and Chiang Kai-shek considered various proposals to halt the fighting in Manchuria. The latest, drafted by the Democratic League, had the approval of both the Communists and Marshall. It was presented Sunday night to Chiang. The breaking-off of the negotiations was accepted as indication that he had rejected it.

Informed sources said the Communists, who a month ago were willing to surrender their claims to Changchun, the Manchurian capital, Harbin and the Mukden-Harbin rail line in return for a cease fire order and retention of the interior areas of Manchuria, now were insisting that a "status quo" settlement, leaving the Communists in possession of approximately eight-ninths of Manchuria, be negotiated.

Marshall Does Utmost

It is known that Marshall had been doing his utmost to halt the fighting before the Government troops driving northward from besieged Szeepingkai (still in Communist hands) encountered Communist troops blocking their route into Changchun.

The pro-government peace Daily News published a dispatch dated Mukden and asserting that nearly 2,000 peace preservation (Government) troops from the former Changchun garrison had escaped the Communist ring encircling them near Szeepingkai after a long march through Communist territory. The number is nearly half of the original Changchun garrison.

A Democratic League spokesman said earlier that if the shift to Nanking interrupted negotiations there may be a long delay before negotiators can re-assemble in Nanking.

Cows Don't Like New Time, Town To Strike

CLEARFIELD, PA. — (AP) — Dairy-men supplying milk to this Western Pennsylvania community Monday threatened to strike unless the town rescinds its action adopting daylight saving time and moves its clocks back one hour Monday night.

The milk producers asserted farming operations weren't suited to fast time and that, among other things, the cows refused to give as much milk when their milking hour was changed.

Fall Of Changchun Described By One Of Six Americans Engulfed In Battle

(Editor's Note: The following eyewitness account of the fall of Changchun was dispatched by Tom Masterson, Associated Press correspondent who was trapped in the Manchurian capital when Chinese Communists attacked it. Masterson and six other Americans in Changchun have been reported safe, but their immediate whereabouts are unknown.)

Monday that truce teams might soon arrive from Mukden to stop the fighting and straighten out the Manchurian middle.

(These hopes proved vain, dispatches from Chungking Monday—nine days after this dispatch was filed—saying that peace negotiations had broken down.)

Whether the new Government First Army, still reported some scores of miles south of Changchun, will be able to recapture the city remained to be seen.

The defense forces consisted of 10,000 poorly-equipped men, including puppet Japanese troops as well as local conscripts and the government soldiers.

Up to 30,000 Communists assaulted the city the night of April 14, two hours before the last Soviet soldiers withdrew from the city.

Not once during the succeeding four days did the onslaught let up. The Communists mercilessly pounded the city with artillery, mortar fire, machine guns, and rifles and finally broke through in a (Continued on Page 4)

Former Midland Man Publishes Western Novel

SUNSET RIM, by Curtis Bishop, $2.00; publication date, May 7, 1946; The MacMillan Co.

Curtis Bishop, who once lived in Midland as well as in numerous other cities of Texas, very naturally turned to the Lone Star State for the locale of his first full-length fiction venture. Though born in Bolivar, Tenn., Bishop has lived in Texas most of his life, attended the University of Texas where he twice edited the college magazine, now lives in Austin.

In "Sunset Rim" he captures the flavor of the Old West—the days when Texas Rangers were at their glory. Here is a western crammed with night rides, gun fights, challenges and escapes, a western which should satisfy the most hardened fan. Throughout the book he conveys the mood of loneliness and tremendous sweep of the cattle country of the Great Southwest which has spelled romance to Americans for so many generations.

Bishop, who once was employed on a Big Spring newspaper, has ridden the ranges he writes about, has travelled with rodeos, and during a newspaper career much of his writing was devoted to feature stories of characters, landmarks and institutions of the West.

"Sunset Rim" will make enjoyable reading to those whose nostalgia for the golden days of the Southwest makes them want to live for a brief time in the era of cattle rustlers, gun battles, and cowboys who never dared to yodel.—J. S.

Tuesday at the Settles Hotel in Big Spring.

The report was made by A. Langley Coffey, chairman of the eighth regional WSB, Dallas.

For this reason, I am asking that all builders, contractors, sub-division developers and craft union officials meet with Scott Tuesday."

The chairman explained that there is need to re-emphasize the board's enforcement policies and to renew its efforts to enforce the regulations applicable to wage payments in the construction industry.

Musical Program Is Presented Sunday By Estrellito Orchestra

A representative audience was present for the spring concert presented by the Estrellito Orchestra of the Watson School of Music Sunday afternoon at the North Elementary Auditorium.

This program was presented in observance of National Music Week. Miss Lydia Watson gave an explanation of the significance of music week. "More than 20 years ago, a group of musicians met in Dallas and decided to set aside one week in May for music," she said. "The plan became so famous that it later became a national observance."

The orchestra, under the direction of Ned Watson, presented numbers as a climax of the winter's work. It will be featured again in the concert to be given May 26 and 27.

Featured on the program were the following selections: Cornet, "Polka de Concert," W. L. Thompson, Jr., with accompaniment by Wilma Dee Vaughan; piano, "Romance" (Sibyllus), Marilyn Boynton; piano duet, "Quartet from Rigoletto" (Verdi), Shirley Lee Winter and Dorothy Walston; and numbers by the violin choir composed of young children.

Twenty members of the Moment Musical Club responded to roll call at the Saturday meeting held at the Watson School of Music Sunday. Glenda Hambleton and Wanda Lou Still presided at the attendance cards.

Birthday greetings were extended to Larry Clark on his tenth birthday.

Wanell Green, a visitor, attended the program with Glenda Hambleton. Carolyn Gray presented her guests, Kay Edmund and Charles Longcope, and Carolyn Burke and Pat Anderson were introduced by Janice Burke.

The following piano program was presented: "The Sea Rover," Larry Clark; "Polka Dot Polka," James Wolfe; "Come Trip Along," Joan Thomas; "Swaying Daffodils," Lavonne Clark; "Wigwam Dance," Carolyn Gray; "Chinese Chatter," Letitia Ann Simmons; and "Second Mazurka" (Godard), Mary Jo Heil.

Beauty Comes Of Age At 30

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Stop envying a young girl her fledgling attractions, you who have outgrown your salad days. The coming-of-age of a beauty is her 30th birthday.

Who's talking? Walter Thornton, the model man. His list of 10 American beauties, named for 1946, are all women of 30 or over.

"True beauty," says Thornton, "is not achieved until a woman has matured. Poise, intelligence and the practiced art of projecting your looks—the yardsticks by which I measure beauty—only come with the years."

Naming his choices of the 10 most beautiful, he picks women from every field. Here are his selections and why. See how your own endowments tally.

Ann Sheridan, chosen from the movies, is a beautiful woman who behaves like a gentleman. Turning 30 on February 21, she slipped into the list just by an eyelash. According to Mr. Thornton, Ann has long, graceful legs which have been developed on America's tennis courts and in swimming pools.

Socialites Included
Mrs. Harry Goetz, the former Washington socialite Catherine Conner who may run for Congress from California against Helen Gahagan Douglas in the next election, was named for her southern charm and mentally alert look. Mrs. John Fell, Jr., a New York socialite, was chosen for her elegance of carriage and aristocratic beauty.

Model Betty Metcalf—who incidentally is not one of Thornton's models—makes the list for her madonna-like brunette beauty, while the opera's Helen Jessup gets her rating for her Brunhild looks. For her luxurious sense of humor, laughing eyes and sensitive face Ruth Hussey, starred in Broadway's "State of the Union," is named.

The housewife chosen for graciousness, lively personality and good looks is Mrs. Lawrence Tibbett, who is a grandmother. Thornton's choice of a business woman is Mrs. Constance Luft Huhn. The president of a cosmetic company, she combines warmth and femininity with intelligence and efficiency.

Glamorous author of the best-seller "Manatee"—Nancy Bruff—makes the list because of her healthy outdoor looks of a pure Yankee type, and radio's Annamary Dickey is named for her vibrant and dramatic beauty.

Roy Miller, Director Of Roosevelt-Garner Texas Campaign, Dies

BALTIMORE, MD. — (AP) — Roy Miller, 63, important figure in Texas politics and business and president of the Louisiana-Texas Intracoastal Canal Association, died at Johns Hopkins Hospital here Sunday.

Miller was stricken with an abdominal obstruction December 23, while visiting at the ranch of a son, Harry Miller, near Junction, Texas. Miller, intimate friend of former Vice President John Garner, was born at Blue Rapids, Kan., and was a graduate of the University of Chicago. He received his doctor of philosophy degree there and he moved to Houston as a youth.

A resident of Corpus Christi, he was known as "the boy mayor" of that city from 1913 to 1917. He was for years editor and publisher of the Corpus Christi Caller, but sold his interest in the paper in 1923.

Funeral will be in Corpus Christi but the date has not been set yet. As publisher of the Caller, Miller was active in the fight against the Ku Klux Klan in South Texas. He started his career as a newsboy on the streets of Houston and later was a reporter for the Houston Post.

Miller was state president of the Navy League for 18 years and was one of those responsible for securing location of the Naval Air Training Station at Corpus Christi. He also was a leader in the movement that established the Port of Corpus Christi.

Miller managed the first Roosevelt-Garner campaign in Texas.

White Leads Noble In Editorship Tabulation

AUSTIN — (AP) — With the editorship of The Daily Texan, student newspaper, still undecided, other students of the University of Texas Student Association Monday were declared elected as the result of run-off contests Friday.

Jim Smith of Houston was elected student president; H. D. McElroy of Dallas was elected vice president; George Hopkins of Denton was elected chief justice; Bill Ferguson of Houston was elected Cactus (yearbook) editor, and Billy Andrews of Dallas was chosen as outstanding athlete.

Leader Of Uprising In Warsaw Leaves For U. S.

LONDON — (AP) — Sources close to Lt. Gen. Tadeusz Komorowski, leader of the ill-fated Warsaw uprising against the Germans in 1944, expects to leave London by plane Thursday en route to the United States.

Komorowski, also known as "General Bor," is planning to go to Chicago to attend a celebration Sunday commemorating the signing of the Polish constitution of 1791, this source said.

Hirohito's Birthday Is Hardly Noticed

TOKYO — (AP) — Unlike bygone days when between 25,000 and 30,000 people used to gather at Nijubashi Bridge, the emperor's entrance to the palace grounds, to wish Japan's ruler a "happy birthday," only several hundred were present Monday. Most of them were American GIs. The emperor is 45.

Noted Explorer And Aide Of Adm. Peary Dies In New York

NEW YORK — (AP) — Robert Abram (Captain Bob) Bartlett, 70, noted explorer who was a colleague of Admiral Robert E. Peary in his 1909 discovery of the North Pole and who "commuted" to the Arctic 40 years, died here Sunday.

He entered the Harkness Pavilion of the Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center last Wednesday with what doctors said was an acute kidney and heart condition.

Captain Bartlett never reached the pole himself—although he took Peary to within dog-sled distance of it.

He first achieved fame as skipper of the vessel on which Admiral Peary sailed for his historic trip to the pole. The dash to the pole was made with the aid of a series of supporting parties, the last of which was commanded by Bartlett.

In the winter of 1913-14, Bartlett was the central figure in an Arctic disaster which came close to cutting short his career when he went with the explorer Vilhjalmur Stefansson through the Bering Straits. Bartlett's ship was crushed to pieces by ice floes, but he led his party to safety on an island, and then made a perilous journey across the ice and down the Siberian mainland to help—1,000 miles away.

Bartlett never married.

Fashion Frock of the Week

STRAIGHT TALK
The T formation steps into the 1946 fashion lineup! Shoulders are extended to give exciting width and to form the merest bit of cap sleeves. And the length of the dress falls straight as a plumb line from the broad shoulders.

The liquid lines of rayon faille and the rustling whisper of plaid taffeta are combined in this Fashion Frock of the Week. The cap sleeves are winged and slashed open, and then cut deep into the armhole to bare pretty arms. The season's lighthearted softness is found in the shoulder shirring and in the shirred plenum that ripples in cutaway fashion from the waistline. That's a Fashion designer's trick for making your waist look smaller than ever before. The separate skirt is slim and true to the T formation.

Ladies Handbags Are Now Made Of Elephant Skin
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. — (AP) — The Ladies' handbag of today is serving nicely on overnight trips which, 25 years ago, would have called for a trunk for milady.
Such was the observation of the International Ladies Handbag, Luggage Belt and Novelty Workers Union (AFL) publicity chairman, Aaron Troger, as the union gathered for the opening of its annual convention Monday.
Women now carry cigars, makeup kits and numerous other items in their oversized pocket-books, Troger said, are meeting the trend this year by using elephant skin.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. — (AP) — The feet of today's young lady are getting bigger and bigger, mainly because of the soft, slipper-like shoes she wears, the Chiroprapist Society of New Jersey, Inc., has been informed.
Dr. Jonas C. Morris of Audubon said at Sunday's closing session of the society's convention that a survey of shoe retailers showed the younger set with feet two to three sizes larger than their mothers.

New Course In Barber College

A CIO official has suggested to a convention of the Barbers and Beauty Culturists Union of America that members might serve a useful purpose by giving their customers two-minute talks on "A Better America."

There does seem to be a lot of cheerless and negatively critical conversation to be heard these days. And though it is distinguished by a common pessimism, its subject matter is in violent disagreement.

In the first group are the followers of a new or revived isolationism. This is the no-draft-extension, no-foreign-loan, no-this-and-that group.

In the other group are people whose thinking is exemplified in recent speeches by Senator Pepper and earlier ones by Secretary Wallace. They have a way of painting "American imperialism" in darkest hues.

These people, deliberately, innocently, or through an excessive zeal for international understanding, follow a pattern of thought laid down in Moscow.

Sometimes it may seem that the millions of ordinary people in the United States are not very forcefully articulate or influential in the conduct of their foreign affairs.

It isn't a pretty world now, to be sure. But it certainly would be no worse if all of us would strive for a saner and more hopeful habit of thinking and speaking.

Folks who aren't fired with ambition these days are likely to be when the boss finds out.

Never lend them is one of the first lessons in book keeping.

If you don't think America is the land of the free, look up the number of divorces granted last year.

Chinese Reds Admit U.S. Planes Not Involved

CHUNGKING—(AP)—The Chinese Communist Party, through its new China Daily News, Monday admitted its charge that United States planes had strafed Communist lines in Manchuria was a mistake.

The charges, the paper said, resulted from the use by the Chinese National Government of non-permanent paint in covering the markings of aircraft purchased from the United States.

WILL ANNOUNCE SOON - Truman Makes Selection For Supreme Court

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman, his mind made up on the Supreme Court, turned Monday to a search for means of settling the nationwide soft coal strike before industrial paralysis sets in.

The President's choice of a new chief justice to replace the late Harlan F. Stone and of a new member of the court to succeed the man who will be elevated to the presiding spot are expected to be announced early this week—possibly Tuesday.

That much was known definitely, but White House confidants for the most part declined to verify this rife speculation: (1) that either Robert H. Jackson or William O. Douglas will be moved up to head the court and (2) that Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson, a Republican, will be added to its membership.

Jackson, a close friend of Truman, is serving as chief U. S. prosecutor at the Nazi war crimes trials in Nurnberg and probably would not return to the bench before the June adjournment even if he gets the nod. The new court term opens in October.

Some Capitol Hill friends of the President said they think that if Patterson is moved into the tribunal, W. Stuart Symington, assistant secretary of war for air, might be considered for the cabinet post.

Meanwhile, Truman's concern over the dwindling coal supply was reflected in the solemn demeanor of Reconversion Director John W. Snyder, who also accompanied the President back to Washington from Quantico, Va.

Snyder told reporters he could offer little tangible hope for an early settlement of the 29-day walk-out.

The reconversion chief reportedly told the President that if the 400,000 soft coal miners remain out of the pits another two weeks the paralyzing effect of the strike will be felt all over the country.

He hit the steel industry hard, Snyder told Truman, and coal is being borrowed from some big railroads to keep freight moving on some smaller carriers.

Changchun Falls.

The government's final rebuff was the military headquarters in the large modern Central Bank Building, garnished with sandbags and barbed wire.

On the first night the Communists captured the main airport, cutting off the only hope of supply for the government forces.

On April 15 they penetrated deeply into Changchun's suburbs, and the following day seized the Yamato Hotel.

Maj. Robert Rigg of Chicago, U.S. military attaché for Manchuria, and his pilot, Sgt. Clayton Ford of Portland, Ore., were staying at the Yamato.

Five U. S. Correspondents. They had arrived by plane April 13, the same day as five American correspondents. These were: this correspondent, George Weller of the Chicago Daily News, Henry Liebermann of the New York Times, Reynolds Packard of the United Press, and Charlotte Eberner of the International News Service.

All were billeted at the home of Mayor C. H. Chao, a graduate of Wisconsin and Norwich universities.

Two days after the battle began, the mayor's home came into the path of the fighting as the Communists swept past on their way to the Tatum Circle, center of the defense ring where the best Government Troops were concentrated.

Ten thousand Communists commanded by Maj. Gens. Chen Ching-tung and Sun Chen drove in from the south and west while two other similarly strong units attacked from the north and southwest.

The City Hall set afire. The City Hall, on the circle, was set afire by Communist artillery as the final phase of the battle opened on April 18. Three hundred Government troops were captured inside the building.

Next the Communists seized the broadcasting station and the police station, also on the circle, and concentrated on Government Army headquarters.

Maj. Gen. Liu Teh-Yu, government deputy commander, with 100 men, repulsed the first Communist assault. The attackers fell back and used artillery until they set the headquarters aflame.

Branding his pistol, the government commander, Maj. Gen. Chen Shih-tsen, then led a dramatic and desperate charge of 1,000 men out of the blazing headquarters.

They dashed straight into the teeth of murderous Communist fire. The general fell with a bullet in

WORLD POLITICS - Truman To Make Decision On Food As Political Move

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER. WASHINGTON—(AP)—With food becoming a powerful weapon in world politics, clashing State and Agriculture Department views over American famine relief methods appear certain Monday to reach President Truman for decision.

The State Department under Acting Secretary Dean Acheson is demanding much more drastic measures—such as seizure of some wheat reserves in the hands of millers—than the Agriculture Department under Secretary Clayton P. Anderson has been willing so far to order into effect.

The agriculture secretary, returning from a Midwest tour Saturday, predicted swelling supplies of grain once spring planting is done and called for greater cooperation to meet deficits in grain exports.

Twenty-four hours earlier Acheson had indicated at a news conference his belief that cooperative methods had failed. Saying much more drastic measures are needed to get the grain abroad, he added that the solution could lie in seizing the wheat or flour as necessary to meet shipment schedules.

Anderson made no direct reference to the possibility that some millers' stocks of grain might be requisitioned, but he emphasized that the government has no intention of seizing supplies held by farmers.

Diplomatic authorities here said Acheson's position reflects the views of the State Department's own food supply experts who expect explosive political results unless famine needs are met more speedily than the food surplus countries are meeting them now.

Riots are feared in Germany and Japan, where the safety of American occupation troops is a direct concern of the War Department.

The use of food directly for political ends is seen by diplomats in two recent developments. One is Russia's current delivery of a half-million tons of grain to France specifically at the request of the French Communist Party leader.

Another instance occurred in South America where the Argentine government of Juan Peron, newly elected strongman president, is said to be out to get the present pro-United States foreign minister of Uruguay thrown out of office.

Argentine's wheat shipments to Uruguay were suspended. Two days ago it was officially announced that United States wheat would go to Uruguay in place of that from Argentina.

Generally, diplomats agree that the growth of extremist political parties and of political doctrines not well-liked in the United States, Britain and other Western powers may be expected throughout the European countries where hunger flourishes.

Gen. Eisenhower Leaves On Tour Of Pacific Bases. the leg and his men, seeing their commander out of action, surrendered.

The Communists said that altogether they captured about 2,000 Government troops in the Tatum Circle area.

Communist casualties were declared to be comparatively light and Government casualties heavy.

First non-self-governing territories to come under United Nations trusteeship will be those shown on map above—one-time German colonies mandated to Great Britain and Belgium after World War I. The three British mandates total eight times the area of England itself.

Russia Holds Out Alone That Franco Inquiry Is Useless

NEW YORK—(AP)—The United Nations Security Council is expected to order an investigation of Franco Spain Monday unless Soviet Russia, only opponent of the move, delays action by attempting to invoke the veto.

As the delegates prepared to meet Monday afternoon, they were lined up 10 to 1 in favor of Australia's latest proposal to set up a five-man subcommittee to determine whether the Franco regime is threatening the world peace.

The council, with this same lineup, had been prepared to vote for the investigation Friday, but, in the hope that Russia might reverse her position and make the vote unanimous, it agreed to defer action until Monday afternoon.

At least one delegate—Rafael De La Colina of Mexico—attempted to win Soviet Delegate Andrei A. Gromyko over to the side of the majority in the interest of unanimity, but there was no evidence that he was successful.

THE STORY: Debby and Joel finally had their first kiss. Debby can't understand why he seems unfriendly to Joel.

XIII

THEY stopped at the doctor's on the way home. It was one of the small houses in Ellie's wrist, the doctor said, and although he strapped it up, he didn't seem half so worried about it as he was about the chills Ellie had been having. He told him to get home right away and get those clothes off and get into bed and stay there. And he gave him some medicine to take. Debby was glad to hear him say to get home right away, because she thought that if she had to wait another half hour she would starve to death.

While Agnes was putting Ellie to bed, Debby started to cook up some ham and eggs and fried potatoes for her and Joel, but Joel wouldn't wait. He said it was a dirty trick to leave Bart out there in the boat looking for Ellie. Debby said of course it was a dirty trick, but 15 more minutes wouldn't matter now, and when you were that hungry—

But he wouldn't wait, and he went off alone in the beach wagon. They must have got themselves a dinner over at the guest house, because it was almost dark when they came back, and they had brought both cars, so they could leave the beach wagon. In the meantime the doctor had come, and sure enough by the time he got there Ellie had one of the sorest sore throats anybody ever had.

All Agnes would let Bart and Joel do was look in the bedroom and say hello. Ellie winked at Bart and pointed to his throat. He didn't even seem to see Joel, and Debby hurried them out into the dining room; she couldn't figure it out. They weren't planning to stay, but Debby found a kettle of chowder in the icebox and warmed it up, and she finally persuaded them to eat it with her and Agnes.

They went right afterwards. It wasn't 7 o'clock yet, but she went up to bed, and she didn't know until after she came down at 8 the next morning that the doctor had been there again the evening before, and that Agnes had been up most of the night. Debby tried to make it up to her by cleaning the house up and cooking the meals and washing the dishes and carrying all the wood.

That day the doctor came three times. Bart and Joel came three times too, to inquire, but they didn't stay long, and Debby didn't seem to care whether they stayed or not.

The next morning the doctor came again right after breakfast and Debby sat out in the dining room, listening. She heard Ellie's croaking voice and the doctor laughing, and when he came out he said it was all right; he guessed it wasn't going to be pneumonia after all.

JOEL and Bart didn't come that morning, and it was almost 3 o'clock before they drove in, looking all cleaned up and shaved and with their hair combed. Agnes and Debby met them in the yard and told them Ellie was going to be all right and everybody sort of laughed and stood around looking pleased. They had gone out into the marsh at daybreak, they said, and made a blind beside a little slough hole. They had got three ducks and Bart was pretty sure Joel had hit one of them.

Then they had come in from hunting at 9:30, planning to come over right after their second breakfast to see how Ellie was. But after they ate they had stretched out on the cots just for a minute, and when they woke up it was 1:30.

Everybody was feeling good, because Ellie was going to be all right and they were all caught up on their sleep. It was a mild day, almost like summer. Agnes said Bart could come in with her to see Ellie for a while, and she avoided looking at Joel and blushed. Debby was kneeling in the grass beside the porch, scratching Bull behind the ears, and she watched Joel. If he noticed, he didn't show it.

He pointed an accusing finger at her and said, "Hey listen, you," and he went over to the car and came back with a big book in his hands. "You've been misinforming me," he said, pretending to be mad. "There's no such thing as a sheldrake in eastern North America."

Debby looked up at him with her lips parted for a smile. She pointed with her thumb toward the barn. Then she made her mouth round and said in her Cape Cod drawl, "They's a sheldrake hangin' on the bawn, ain't they?"

For just a second he smiled appreciatively. Then he got make-believe serious again. He flipped the pages professionally. "No-where," he said, "is the sheldrake mentioned."

She took the book disdainfully and turned the pages, looking down her nose at the pictures. Suddenly she put her finger down on the page. "There," she said triumphantly.

Joel came and looked over her shoulder. He read aloud from the bottom of the page. "Red-breasted Merganser. Adult female, winter plumage." That's what it is," he said, taking the book away from her and carrying it over to the barn, where he compared the picture with the bird. "A Red-breasted Merganser, adult female, winter plumage."

She was rocking slightly back and forth on her knees, her mouth open, looking at him out of the corner of her eye. "Funny," she said, "a man should write a book about birds when he don't even know their right names."

He laughed helplessly. "You're just a little bit nuts," he said, and his voice was more friendly than it had ever been.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

America's Card Authority
Waldemar von Zedwitz and I have often discussed the fine defensive skill of the western players whom we encountered on our trip to the Pacific Coast in 1941. We know that the delegation of eastern players who will invade the west on May 29 will find good competition.

One of the outstanding players in San Francisco is Earl Ackerman, a vice president of the American Contract Bridge League. Ackerman held the East cards in today's hand, and it was not difficult for him to read his partner's opening lead as a singleton.

Contract Bridge League. Ackerman held the East cards in today's hand, and it was not difficult for him to read his partner's opening lead as a singleton.

Probably most players would have returned a club for West to ruff, but then the only other trick they could have taken would have been the ace of trumps.

After winning the first trick with the ace of clubs, Ackerman decided to return a spade. Declarer went up with the ace and led a trump which Ackerman won with the ace. Now he led a club for West to ruff, and West then cashed the king of spades, defeating the contract.

Texas Electric Voted Into City Softball Blue League

Texas Electric was voted into the City Softball League Sunday at a meeting of the Board of Directors.

The Power boys will replace Log Cabin Inn on the schedule. Log Cabin never fielded a team.

Three forfeit losses were loaded on the new entry but they can be erased with makeup games, which the league moguls sanctioned. Managers of the three teams in question agreed to play the games.

Now full 12 teams comprise the circuit with Texas Electric coming into the Blue division.

The board turned down a quick pitch protest by Earl Glassie of Burl's One-Stop.

Monday night's schedule:
Mackey Motors vs. Reporter-Telegram.
Midland Army Air Field vs. JayCees.

Fort Worth Cats Boost Stock By Lambasting Oklahoma City Twice

By The Associated Press

The Fort Worth Panthers, rocking along in third place in the Texas League baseball standings, boosted their stock Sunday by taking two games of a doubleheader, 5-2 and 1-0, from luckless Oklahoma City, which has lost 10 straight and won only one league game.

Roy Schalk, Oklahoma City manager, protested the second game, claiming Jake Phillips, Cat left fielder, made an illegal catch of a fly hit by Schalk. The Indian manager said Phillips "trapped" the ball illegally against the fence.

Dallas, in second place, split a doubleheader with Tulsa 6-3 and 3-7; league leading San Antonio defeated Beaumont, 3-2, and Houston split with Shreveport, 5-0 and 4-5.

Bob Hogue of Dallas, with three victories in as many starts, was robbed of a shutout in the first game by Joe Rullo's homer with two on in the ninth. He allowed nine well-scattered hits until that inning. In the second game, Dallas' Bob Uhle, expected to be a pitching mainstay, was knocked out of the box in the second frame.

Sig Jakucki of San Antonio also won his third victory in three attempts as the Missions won from Beaumont 3-2. He blanked Exporters until the eighth, and in the ninth with the bases loaded and two out, retired the side without further harm.

Roman Brunswick came through with a shutout performance for Houston in the first game of the doubleheader with Shreveport.

Moe Santomauro, Fort Worth right fielder, hit a home run in the second inning of the second game with Oklahoma City for the game's only score. Boles pitched five-hit ball to blank the Indians, while Dorsett of Oklahoma City gave up the same number of blows.

Boston Dreams Of All-City Series As Sox, Braves Win

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Pennant-starved Boston, which hasn't boasted a championship team since 1918, has good reason for dreaming Monday of its first flag winner in 28 years, and with a little luck could possibly be the center of an all-city world series next October.

Both Boston Representatives—the Red Sox and Braves—swept doubleheaders from their Philadelphia rivals Sunday to change the pennant picture. The Red Sox whipped the Athletics 2-1 and 5-1, and the Braves took the measure of the Phils 6-1 and 2-1.

The coupe de grace engineered by the Red Sox placed Joe Cronin's hopefuls at the top of the American League, a full game in front of the New York Yankees. The Braves, still rebounding from a hipless afternoon against Brooklyn's Ed Head last Tuesday, are in third place after four straight victories. Only one game separates them from the front-running Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals.

It's been exactly a dozen years since both Boston Clubs finished together in the first division and never have they won the flag simultaneously. In fact, the Braves have enjoyed only one championship season, coming on to win in 1914 after most of the experts had reserved the cellar for them. So Boston fans are keeping their fingers crossed hoping that Mort Cooper can come up with another 20-game season and that the money which bought Johnny Hopp and Ray Sanders from the Cardinals holds out. As for the Red Sox, nothing less than a first place finish will satisfy the Hub fans.

The Brooks and Cards, one-two in the senior circuit, each suffered a double reversal. The New York Giants supplied the knockout punch to their interborough rivals, 7-3 and 10-4, and the champion Chicago Cubs gave the Redbirds a thorough going over, 9-7 and 3-1. Knuckleballer Roger Wolf knocked the Yankees out of first place 3-1 with a well-pitched seven-hitter.

The Tigers disappointed the largest crowd in Detroit's history—57,149 paid admissions—by bowing to the Cleveland Indians 3-1 in 12 innings to sink deeper into third place.

Cincinnati's unpredictable Reds gained their fourth straight victory over Pittsburgh's Pirates 7-1.

Aged Ted Lyons of the Chicago White Sox registered his 260th triumph, his first since his release from the U. S. Marines, by taming the St. Louis Browns 4-3 in the first game of a double header. The Browns, scoring nine unearned in the first frame, won the second contest 11-8.

Ward County 4-H Youths Feted At Rally Saturday

MONAHANS—Two hundred and fifteen Ward County 4-H Club boys and girls were entertained and fed home-grown barbecue at a rally in the City Park Saturday. Hosts to Ward County's future ranchers, farmers and housewives were John Mogford, county agent; Miss Ozella E. Hunt, county home demonstration agent; Monahans Chamber of Commerce president, Glenn Ratliff; the Monahans Home Demonstration Club; and Fern Tatom, secretary of the Monahans Livestock Show. Captain Mattison of Pyote Army Air Base furnished transportation to pick up boys and girls at their respective clubs in Grandfalls, Pyote, Wickett and Barstow.

Hefty appetites were worked up during a morning of softball, races and contests in which the girls carried away more than their share of the laurels. Noon found a line reminiscent to Mogford of his recent four years in the Army. Over 200 pounds of barbecue and bushels of ranch style beans and all the trimmings prepared by the home demonstration ladies disappeared down the line.

After chow, Mogford presented Oscar Walters, 12, Monahans, with the Thomas E. Wilson Award for feeding out the grand champion 4-H Club calf in 1945. The kids en masse were afternoon guests of George Duesler, manager of a Monahans theater.

Visitors were Mrs. Leslie O. Wray, Pecos, Reeves County home demonstration agent; Mrs. Hattie G. Owen, Odessa, Ector County home demonstration agent; William R. Smyers who with Mogford had spent all night keeping the fires burning under the barbecue, and Monahans home demonstration ladies who did the serving.

Osmena Concedes Poll Victory To Roxas

MANILA (AP)—President-elect Manuel A. Roxas, who will guide the Philippines Republic through its crucial first years, received the good wishes Monday of Sergio Osmena, who conceded defeat.

With tabulation of last week's election nearly completed, Roxas held a 183,000-vote lead over Osmena, incumbent president.

"I wish my successor well and pray that he will be given wisdom and strength for the great task he will shortly assume as first chief executive of the Philippines Republic," Osmena said in a formal statement conceding the election. "He will carry very heavy responsibilities for us all, and we must support him in everything that is right."

Fanatical Italians Demonstrate For Duce

ROME (AP)—While police continued to press a nationwide search for Benito Mussolini's body, Italian newspapers reported Monday that fanatical followers of the Duce had staged two demonstrations Sunday on the first anniversary of his death.

In Rome a group of youths estimated to number 300 interrupted a mass in San Carlo Church by singing a Fascist hymn praising Mussolini. The youths later paraded through the center of the city singing.

A Florence dispatch reported that a Black Fascist flag had appeared Sunday morning over the Giotto belltower but was quickly pulled down by police.

Visitors were Mrs. Leslie O. Wray, Pecos, Reeves County home demonstration agent; Mrs. Hattie G. Owen, Odessa, Ector County home demonstration agent; William R. Smyers who with Mogford had spent all night keeping the fires burning under the barbecue, and Monahans home demonstration ladies who did the serving.
