Lamour Receives Extortion Note Arabs To Strike

Negroes Held In Earlier Jewel Theft

BALTIMORE -(A)- An attempt to extort $15,000 from Screen Actress Dorothy Lamour was disclosed Wednesday by an official source shortly after recovery of jewelry and valuables stolen from the actress in a $29,000 theft ast Thursday had been announced.

The official, who asked that his name not be used, said the actress received the extortion note in the mail Monday morning at the home of her husband, William Ross Howard, 3rd, in Pikesville, a Baltimore suburb. The note was postmarked in Baltimore Saturday, he said. The letter was turned over to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the official continued. Fred Hallford, special agent in charge of the Baltimore office of the FBI, de-lined to comment. The official described the note as being printed in pencil on manila paper inside a white envelope He reported the note said:

"Put $15,000 in the third pew right side of St. Ignatius Church at Sunday service."

The date of the service was not specified and the purported note was in error as to the address of is located at the specified address. Tip Leads to Jewelry

Plane Hits Cable, Kills Couple As They Took Bad News To Fisherman

GAINESVILLE -(AP)- A man and a woman, flying low to locate a man to notify him his sister had been badly burned, were killed when their plane struck a telephone cable and hurtled into the Red River Tuesday.

The bodies of Bernard Schumacher, 36, and Mrs. Clara Fette, 35, of Muenster, Texas, were found in the wreckage of their plane in the Red River near Burneyville Okla., near here early Wednesday. Officials said Schumacher, an experienced pilot, and Mrs. Fette were flying low over the river in search of Mrs. Fette's husband Steve Feete, known to be fishing

They wanted to notify him that his sister, Mrs. Herbert Meurer of Muenster, had suffered serious burns when her home caught fire. Muenster airport officials said they believed Schumacher and Mrs. Fette were so engrossed in hunting Fette they failed to see the cable in time to avoid it.

Their bodies were taken to a

Marietta, Okla., funeral home. Meanwhile, Mrs. Meurer is in a Gainesville sanitarium, receiving treatment for burns which are not believed critical. Firemen extinguished the fire in her home before it had caused much damage. Cause of the fire is not known.

Minus his boots, which police took, 15-year-old Edgar Willmont Hall, left, sits quietly in the Fort Worth city jail while being questioned. The youth and his companion disappeared 10 days ago with two rent horses and after riding them 75 miles turned the horses loose. Hall and Charles Goodson, 14, right, were captured in Midland by city police, who saw they were not real cowboys and the trail ended here in the heart of the Southwest cattle country. The youths have admitted the theft of horses, boots, and other western equipment on their jaunt through the western part of Texas. Their parents were cted from Midland and Hall was sent by bus to Fort Worth. Goodson's mother came here for him but he escaped from her.

What Price Fame?

"Who's Who" is a valuable publication, but hardly what you'd call snappy or provocative. It never occurred to us that anyone would study it, or, having done so, D. M. Bizzell, Claude E. Lewis, Jr. reach some ominous conclusions. But that's exactly what's David Bizzell, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. happened.

The bearer of the heavy tidings is Dr. Mapheus Smith, educator, author, sociolagist of the Selective Service system, and, of course, listed in "Who's Who." He has risen from his study of this thick volume of American biography with the sobering announcement that fame is unhealthy. In fact, he says it is likely to carry a person off before his

Our natural impulse, on hearing this, was to lock the office, throw the key away, stop trying to amount to something, and just concentrate on living out our normal life But before succumbing to the impulse, we decided to dip into "Who's Who" and confirm our worst suspicions. Mrs. T. O. Midkiff, Mrs. Frank Wol-The dip, we are happy to report, left us somewhat re- cott, Mrs. Thomas Flourney.

In the brief time that we dared spare, we decided to wards, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Turnell, sample the first 100 Smiths in the book. "Who's Who" is Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Cardwell, Mr. full of Smiths, and we didn't get over as far as Smith, and Mrs. D. M. Hutchison, Mr, and at 8 p. m. in the Crystal Ballroom (James) Mapheus. But our sample did afford what might seem a typical and prolific tribe of which Dr. J. Mapheus is a member.

The first 100 Smiths, we found, have an average age Mr. and Mrs. Fred McPherson, Mr. of 61, as against the average American's life expectancy and Mrs. Paul Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. at 10:30 a. m. at the library.

still more reasonable. Of course, all those Smiths may shortly succumb to the In Play, 'Uncle Harry' burden of fame. But right now they seem to be doing well. In fact, 11 of them are past 80 and still bearing the of Lettie in the Community Theburden with no apparent ill effects.

Dr. Smith thinks that fame ought to bring health and long life, since it also brings "wealth, education, medical parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Perkins. attention, and servants." We doubt that the many teachers, clergymen, and librarians among our 100 Smiths are in Red Cross hospitals in New bothered with much wealth or many servants. But, Guinea, Australia and the Philipgranted that education and medical attention contribute pines during the 23 months she to a healthy existence, why is it, then, that their great or musical productions for the GIs, small fame is cutting them down two to four years too and sang in the entertainments pre-

And if all of us tired, sedentary, overworked citizens in Birmingham, Ala., Hockaday are to take our rightful places in "Who's Who," the next edition is going to take up more room than Dr. Eliot's five-foot shelf of Harvard Classics.

It's too bad that Gromyko didn't accompany his United Nations colleagues to the season's opening ball game in New York. He probably would have been pleased to see how members of the Giants and Phillies had adopted his Security Council practices. Thirteen of them took walks.

Little Items Make Police Happier

Not all the news found daily on police blotters is bad. A happy little note now and then makes life for police a little happier. Little Jean Stobie, age 4, was reported missing. She is a little, blonde girl with long hair braided and she had on a blue play suit and was barefooted. Twenty minutes after she was lost, city police reported her found.

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY America's Card Authority

Here is a problem hand that I received from Bud Benjamin of New York, who said that it was published in the Cleveland Press some time ago but no solution was given. It is an unusual hand and I liked Mr. Benjamin's solution.

North trumps the opening heart lead and South under-trumps it The deuce of spades is led and the eight-spot finessed. The ace spades is cashed, a diamond led to the ace and the king of diamonds led. East refusing to trump and discarding a heart.

Declarer then leads the four of diamonds from dummy and trumps with the nine of spades. He goes over to dummy with the ace of clubs and leads three more rounds of diamonds, discarding the seven and eight of clubs from his own hand and trumping the last of the three with the ten of spades.

South then cashes dummy's king of clubs and leads the four of clubs which East has to trump with the seven of spades. South over-trumps with the jack and wins the last trick with the spade king. Perhaps you will have a different olution for this hand.
