Government Strives For Early End To Mine Strike

Second Meeting Scheduled After Morning Effort Fails

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The government and John L. Lewis failed again Monday to settle the strike that has halted virtually all soft coal production.

For two and one-half hours Lewis and the negotiating committee met with Secretary of Interior Krug, federal mine boss, and his deputy, Vice-Adm. Ben Moreell.

Rail Strike Ends

Midway through President Truman's speech to a joint session of Congress, Leslie Biddle, secretary of the Senate, interrupted with a note informing the President that the rail strike had been settled according to his proposal.

Humble 1 Crespi Swabbing After Acid Treatment

Six hours of swabbing natural, with the hole loaded with oil at Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Crespi, East Midland County wildcat, nine miles southeast of Midland, failed to make the project kick off to flow, and also failed to show any new oil in any fashion, operator representative reported.

Swabbing was continuing. It is expected that another 24 hours will be required to swab the hole out and obtain any sort of a definite test on producing possibilities of the Devonian section being investigated.

Applications to drill a 7,500-foot wildcat in East-Central Hockley County and a 4,500-foot prospector in South-Central Garza County, have been filed with the Railroad Commission. Both are scheduled to start by the end of the week.

Honolulu Oil Corporation No. 1 Burson, 440 feet from east and 2,200 feet from north lines of section 8, block A, R. M. Thompson survey, is the Hockley County exploration to 7,500 feet.

John J. O'Leary, vice president of the United Mine Workers, will accompany Lewis to the afternoon conference.

Some indications that an agreement was in the making came from the White House steps when Senate Democratic Leader Barkley (Ky) termed the prospects "hopeful."

Barkley talked to reporters after conferring with President Truman. The Army dispatched soldiers into Kentucky and kept other troops ready for possible strike duty in the chief coal producing states.

The apparent coal shutdown, a renewal of the 42-day-long strike that ended with the truce on May 13, poised a new threat to the nation's railroads, operating again after the dramatic settlement of the rail labor dispute.

Lack of fuel might bring the coal-burning locomotives to a halt again soon.

By The Associated Press Texas railway traffic was running on schedule Monday.

Most rail lines reported all trains moving Sunday, although some were behind schedule. Backlogs of mail and express shipments were being cleared up fast Sunday night.

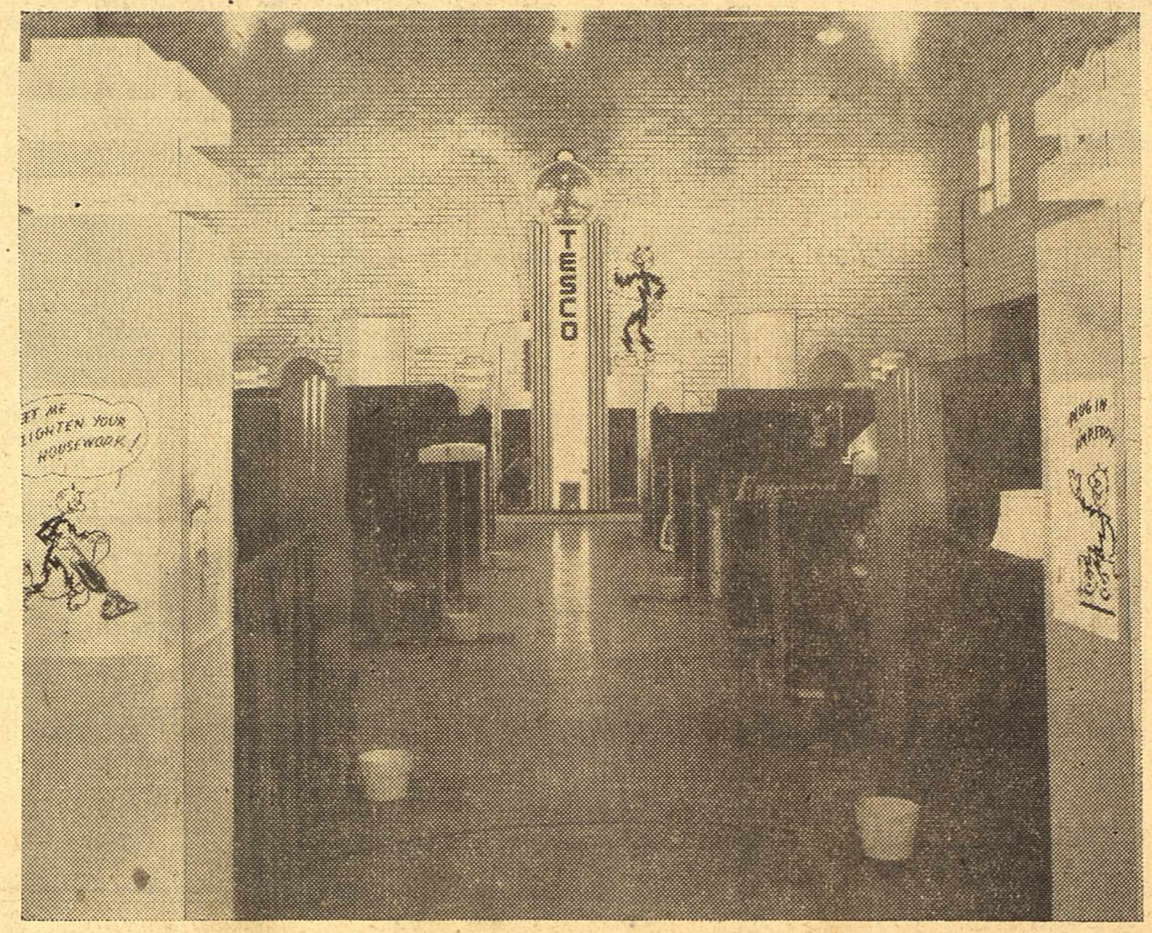

San Antonio reported all trains running with movements heavy in second and third class mail.

Extra clerks were called in at Fort Worth to handle a flood of second, third and fourth class mail. Officials said freight was moving again with no damage to perishables.

The Dallas union terminal reported normal operations late Sunday.

Scene At Texas Electric Show

The huge mirrored ball, the central display of the Texas Electric Show of '46, was in place Monday at Midland High School Gymnasium, as workmen readied other displays of electric equipment for the two-day show which opens at 4 p. m. Tuesday.

Texas Electric Show Of '46 Opens At High School Tuesday Afternoon

The huge Texas Electric Show of '46 rapidly was taking shape Monday as more and more trucks disgorged their loads of gleaming refrigerators, electric ranges and display material at Midland High School, where the show will be held.

The free show will open at 4 p. m. Tuesday afternoon and present to the citizens of Midland and surrounding cities an electrical extravaganza never before shown in this section of the country. More than 30 electrical manufacturers, including the largest in the country, are arranging displays for the show, which includes complete electric kitchens, latest laundry and ironing equipment, radios, home freezers, electric dish washers, and a host of smaller appliances of all kinds.

While the gymnasium of the high school will be filled with exhibits of electrical equipment, the school auditorium will be the scene of another interesting part of the show. There, a continuous program of short movie films will be shown, including technicolor cartoon films.

The star performer in one of these films is Reddy Kilowatt, who tells the history of electricity.

One of the features of the show will be the farm-ranch electrical exhibit, arranged with the assistance of the agricultural engineering department of Texas A. and M. College. This exhibit is in a tent adjacent to the high school and contains all types of farm electrical equipment for the typical poultry, dairy or livestock farm.

The show is designed not only to show West Texans the latest electrical marvels, but also to provide fun and entertainment for the entire family.

Woman Seriously Burned In 2-Car Collision Sunday Two persons were injured, one seriously, in a car and pickup truck collision on Highway 80 about two and one-half miles west of Midland early Sunday.

Mary Harvey of Odessa is in a serious condition in a Midland hospital Monday from burns and other injuries received in the accident, which Texas Highway Patrolmen said occurred when the car in which she was riding and one from behind collided.

AFL Chief Green Denounces Strike-Draft Bill As Fascist

WASHINGTON—(AP)—AFL President William Green Monday denounced President Truman's strike-draft program as "slave labor under Fascism."

Green declared in a statement that the AFL will resist the legislation, already passed by the House and now before the Senate, "to its last breath."

The measure requested by President Truman at a joint session of Congress Saturday, Green said, "ranges the government on the side of private industry against labor."

The legislation, against which Republican senators have opened a campaign of amendments, provides among other things for the military induction of employees who refuse to work for a government-operated plant.

Chief Says Unions To Spend Millions To Beat Truman

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A. F. Whitney's threat to stack the entire $47,000,000 treasury of his trainmen's union against a second term for President Truman set politically-conscious Washington buzzing Monday.

The big question was: What will organized labor do this fall and in 1948, now that Truman has gone "tough" on major strikes? Whitney so far is the first to venture a flat prediction. Bitter over the White House terms on which he and Alvanley Johnston of the trainmen's brotherhood were forced to settle the two-day railroad strike, Whitney told a reporter: "Truman never will be President again after 1948."

T. C. Cashen, president of the switchmen's union, said he agreed with Whitney's contention that the Chief Executive's call for vast new powers to deal with major strikes would be "harmful" to labor.

However, to a direct question whether he considered the President's handling of the railroad strike politically damaging, Cashen replied: "No, I don't think so. Why should labor criticize him for doing the only thing he could do under the circumstances?"

Cashen's union was not involved in the strike call. Other labor leaders steered clear of immediate comment on the fast-breaking weekend developments stemming from the rail strike.

Capitol Hill seemed inclined to the belief that Truman's quick, decisive action to end the railroad tieup had enhanced his prestige.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The White House reported Monday President Truman had "no comment" on the avowed intention of A. F. Whitney to use the resources of his trainmen's brotherhood to defeat Truman for a second term.

When he arrived in Cleveland from Washington, Whitney told reporters there: "We will spend upward of two and a half million. But that won't be necessary. Truman has defeated himself. By his action during the strike he signed his political death warrant."

6,000 Watch P-80 Jet Planes Land At Midland Field

A crowd estimated at almost 6,000 persons Sunday watched the arrival and departure of a flight of P-80 Shooting Stars, jet-propelled Army planes, at Midland Army Air Field, and inspected the craft at close range while they were being refueled.

The 27 planes, accompanied by a C-82 packet, buzzed Midland and Odessa before landing. One of the planes did not continue the flight because of a flat tire, but was expected to proceed to March Field Monday.

Several thousand people flocked onto the ramp at the field, while thousands of others watched the take-offs and landings from cars parked on Highway 80 and other roads adjacent to the field.

Delay On Truman's Bill Seen

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Ball (R-Minn.) said Monday that Republicans may attempt to knock out of President Truman's emergency labor legislation authority under which strikers in seized plants could be inducted into the armed forces.

Ball made this prediction after the Senate Minority Steering Committee named a group headed by Senator Taft (R-Ohio) to draft amendments to the bill which the House approved by a 306 to 193 vote Saturday after a personal appeal for speedy action by Truman.

At the same time, Senator Guffey (D-Pa.) announced that a group of Democrats opposed to the measure will join with Republicans in attempting to rewrite it.

"I'm going to vote for all amendments and then against the bill," Guffey told a reporter. "It is vicious legislation."

Ball told a newsman Republicans also discussed a limitation under which the broad emergency powers proposed for the President would be made applicable only to major industries, such as transportation, communication, coal, steel, oil and public utilities.

An amendment also may be offered to a section granting the attorney general the right to seek injunctions to halt strikes, Ball said, which will make it clear that it would not be a violation of the law for an individual to decline to work.

The talk of amendments came while Truman's legislative leaders were telling him that they will try to push his draft-striker program through the Senate.

Truman States Situation Senate Majority Leader Barkley (D-Ky.) told reporters after a White House conference that the legislative situation had been canvassed thoroughly with the President. Barkley was accompanied by Senator McKellar (D-Tenn.), temporary president of the Senate, Speaker Rayburn of the house, and House Majority Leader McCormack (D-Mass.).

"We think the bill should be seriously amended," Taft told reporters. "The Republican committee will meet Monday afternoon to try to draft amendments."

Taft previously had announced personal opposition, contending the powers it granted the President were too broad.

Barkley told reporters that he expected "several" amendments to be offered, a move he said is likely to delay any final disposal until later in the week. He indicated the Senate may continue night sessions in an effort to obtain early action.

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.), a member of the special Republican committee, told a reporter he believes the "whole bill must be worked over because it was very hastily drawn."

Others on the Republican drafting group included Senators Smith (N. J.), Ball (Minn.) and Knowland (Calif.).

Rep. Howard Smith (D-Va.) told reporters he will ask the House to concur immediately in Senate amendments to the case labor disputes bill. Should the House accede, the legislation would go immediately to the President, instead of to a Senate-House conference.

Opponents of the legislation were expected to resist Smith's move, however.

The renewal of the soft coal crisis, however, put the element of economic uncertainty back into the picture and gave supporters of the program new ammunition.

None Seriously Hurt As Train Jumps Track LITTLE ROCK—(AP)—The Rock Island "Rocket," streamlined train operating between Amarillo, Texas, and Memphis, was derailed four miles east of Carlisle, Ark., Monday but no one was reported seriously injured.

The Rock Island superintendent's office at Little Rock said "some persons were injured, but none seriously."

To Run Mines

Vice Adm. Ben Moreell, above, chief of the Navy's Material Division, was appointed to run the soft coal mines seized by the government. He operated oil refineries for the government when they were seized last fall.

Supreme Court Rules Veterans Don't Have Super-Seniority Rights

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Supreme Court Monday decided veterans do not have "super-seniority" rights to their prewar jobs.

The decision came on a suit by Abraham Fishgold, a Brooklyn welder and war veteran.

He contended that under the Selective Service Act, he was entitled to regular work for one year on his old job with the Sullivan Drydock and Repair Corporation—even though that would require laying off a non-veteran worker with greater seniority.

Justice Douglas delivered the court's 6-1 decision. Justice Black wrote a dissent. Justice Jackson took no part.

Fishgold worked at the Sullivan plant four and one-half months before he was inducted in May, 1943. He was discharged from the Army (Continued on Page 2)

He Thinks He May Be Phantom Killer

Ralph B. Bauman, 21, ex-Army Air Force gunner, ties his shoe while waiting to be questioned in the Los Angeles, Calif., jail. He told Los Angeles police he "thinks" he may be the "phantom killer" of five Texarkana residents. He was booked on suspicion of murder after Los Angeles police, acting on a tip, arrested him at a shooting gallery.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Soft coal mining by the United Mine Workers came to an almost dead-end stop Monday in the big coal producing states across the nation despite governmental operation of the mines.

BANGKOK, SIAM—(AP)—Three French raids on Siamese territory from Indo-China in as many days were reported by the Siamese government Monday and tension still gripped the Mekong River border after a night of sporadic firing.

 in July, 1944, and went back to his old job. Work slackened and he was laid off for nine days. Non-veterans continued at work.

Fishgold sued the company in U. S. District Court and won $86-nine days' pay. The union appealed to the Federal Circuit Court in New York City and won reversal of the District Court decision.

The Circuit Court said Congress intended that a veteran was to be assured of his job for a year, but that the place to which he was restored was to be subject to the same conditions as those affecting his prewar job.

Douglas for the majority said that the veteran in returning to his old job steps back on "the seniority escalator" at "the precise point he would have occupied had he kept his position continuously during the war."

Douglas summed up this way: "These provisions of the Selective Service Act guarantee the veteran against loss of position or loss of seniority by reason of his absence."

"He acquires not only the same seniority he had; his service in the armed services is counted as service in the plant so that he does not lose ground by reason of his absence."

"But we would distort the language of these provisions if we read it as granting the veteran an increase in seniority over what he would have had if he had never entered the armed service."

DDT Being Flown To Houston

A 450-pound drum of DDT is loaded aboard a Mid-Continent plane in Kansas City for a special priority flight to Houston to fight a polio epidemic. The rail strike had held up the regular shipment of DDT, making it necessary for city health officials of Houston to ask for a shipment by air.

Recreation Plan Outlined At C. Of C.

Midland's recreation plans for youths during the summer were outlined at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon Monday noon in the Scharbauer Hotel by city, county and school officials.

P. F. Bridgewater, chairman of the school board, said the schools hope to keep the youngsters busy and called on Supt. Frank Monroe to outline the program. He said that of the program will be directed by Coach Barnes Milam, assisted by Assistant Coach Earl Glassie. The program will open at 9 a. m., June 3, and continue until August 1 and salaries of the two men will be paid by the school district.

The program is designed to provide recreation for boys and girls from 9 to 18 years of age. It will include tennis, softball, swimming, track and field, dances, games and activities in the gymnasium.

Schools To Hike Budget

Bridgewater declared the schools' budget will be increased about 33 1/3 per cent next year and will approximate $310,000 or $315,000, and this will provide better instruction and a better recreation program.

He urged cooperation of parents, asserting the schools can't do the job alone, and invited citizens to attend school board meetings and make suggestions.

Mayor Fred Hogan outlined the city's recreation facilities and told of plans eventually to make Pagoda Park the recreation center of the community. The city's park program also was explained and the mayor said Pagoda Pool will not be opened for swimming until the city health officer gives his approval due to outbreaks of polio in the state.

County Judge E. H. Barron said county commissioners have agreed to participate with the city and the schools in the recreation program, and in financing it.

Plans of the Junior Canteen were outlined by Misses LaJuan Dunlap and Virginia Dunagan.

"We now have it and must keep it," Miss Dunlap asserted.

The recommendations of the Chamber of Commerce special committee on youth welfare were read

"Frustrated Peace Decision"
 "Having formed a bloc in their desire to impose their will upon the Soviet Union, the American and British delegations did not wish to reckon with the most legitimate wishes of the Soviet Union and frustrated the possibility of an agreed decision on reparations as well," he said.

"Certainly no self-respecting Allied state will allow the will of another state to be imposed upon it," Molotov continued.

"The Soviet Union is just one of such states."

To Plug Crosby Project
 Rogers Brothers of Wichita Falls have notified the Railroad Commission that they intend to plug their No. 1 Belding, South Crosby wildcat, on May 31. This project has been inactive several months. It had some slight shows of oil—but they were not sufficient to make any sort of an oil well.

Argo Oil Corporation No. 1 Roberts, Southeast Reeves County wildcat, 25 miles south and east of Pecos, was drilling ahead below 10,924 feet in black shale and lime.

Unofficial sources reported that a core around 10,894 feet had some signs of oil and gas. That report has not been verified.

No Shows Developed
 Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1-B Cowden, in southwest corner of section 3, block A-55, psi survey, three quarters of a mile north and one half mile east of the discovery for production from the Devonian, in the Dollar Hide field, in extreme Southwest Andrews County, was making hole below 7,998 feet in Devonian lime.

A drillstem test was taken for ten minutes at 7,750-7,923 feet. Recovery was 90 feet of drilling mud, with no shows of oil or gas.

Unofficial sources report that John W. Murchison No. 1 Fraser, West Ector County discovery for flowing production from the Devonian, in the undeveloped area between the TXL and the Penwell fields, had made a small amount of salt water during 12 hours of swabbing, after plugging back about four feet, with plastic, on original total depth of 8,563 feet.

It is understood that another short plastic plug will be pumped in, to try to eliminate the water, without covering up too much of the pay section.

Parker Making Hole
 Cities Service Oil Company, et al. No. 1 Parker, Central-West Ector wildcat which has shown some possibilities of production from the Fusselman section of the Silurian, was making hole past 11,478 feet in lime and chert.

R. R. Herrell, and others, No. 1 TXL, Southwest Sterling County wildcat, 1 1/2 miles southwest of Sterling City, and in northwest quarter of section 1, block 31, TP survey, T-5-S-5, tested for 6,800 feet of salt water, with a slight show of oil, from perforations at 1,825-50 feet, after an overnight shut-in, to make a fill up test—and will be plugged and abandoned.

U. S. Halts Reparation Deliveries From Reich

BERLIN—(AP)—The United States will make no further reparations deliveries from its zone in Germany until the Potsdam protocol to administer the country as an economic whole is put into effect by the occupying powers, it was disclosed Sunday night by Lt. Gen. Lucius D. Clay, deputy American military governor.

The Americans have stopped deliveries, said Clay, "to safeguard the economy of our zone," since it now seems highly possible the Potsdam agreement will never go into effect. In such an event, Germany would probably remain divided into two parts, a Russian-occupied eastern half and a western half occupied by the U. S., Britain and France.

"If Germany is (thus) to be divided permanently," said Brig. Gen. William H. Draper, Jr., chief of the U. S. military government's economic division, "our denuding of industry in our zone would merely give us the dubious pleasure of always having to support Germany."

Inquiry Asked After Ninth GI Baby Dies

NEW YORK—(AP)—As the number of GI babies to die in the past week rose to nine, a U. S. Representative called on the War Department Monday for "full information" on conditions aboard the bride ships where the infants became ill.

In Washington, Rep. Jackson (D-Wash.) said he would ask the department about the deaths, and "if I am not satisfied, I will ask the House Military Affairs Committee to call War Department officials before it and make a complete investigation."

He said he had been asked by Clarence Lervick, father of one of the infants who died, for an investigation into responsibility for the deaths.

Latest fatalities were two-month-old Alvin Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin H. Harris, of Fulton, N. Y., and 10-month-old Vinita Carter, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. H. S. Carter of Wellington, Texas.

The Harris boy died in a hospital in Fulton Saturday and the Carter girl in Fort Hamilton Station Hospital, Brooklyn, Sunday night.

Meanwhile, eight other babies were admitted to the Fort Hamilton Hospital Sunday as "a precautionary measure" suffering from what Army authorities said was "mild malnutrition." They arrived aboard the George Goethals.

Faculty And Students Call Meetings After Painter Accepts Post

AUSTIN—(AP)—A special meeting of the University of Texas faculty Wednesday was called Monday for the specific purpose of "receiving and discussing" the report of the committee of 12 that advised with the Board of Regents in selecting a president.

None of the 12 individuals suggested by the committee for the presidency was selected by the board, when they unanimously named Dr. Theophilus S. Painter as permanent president.

Dr. Milton R. Gutsch, secretary of the faculty, said he had received a petition Monday morning calling for a general faculty meeting. It had 100 signatures. Five signatures are required under faculty rules to call a special meeting.

A meeting of students to discuss Dr. Painter's appointment was called for 8 p. m. Monday, sponsored by the Student Committee for Academic Freedom.

The faculty and student sessions were called on the first school day following Dr. Painter's acceptance of the position in a statement calling for faculty and students and administration to pull together for making the university a greater institution.

Spokesmen For Humanity

Three nations dominate the United States Security Council. Five nations dictate its decisions. But neither the Big Three nor the Big Five speak for the millions who desperately desire peace and tranquility and a chance to recover from the horror and exhaustion of war.

It is to the representatives of the six smaller nations on the council that the apprehensive citizens of the world must turn for any assurance that the lofty and benevolent aims of the United Nations have not been forgotten in the great powers' bitter struggle to retain and advance their present eminence.

Unquestionably, the Russian representative's petulance and stubbornness have been chiefly responsible for the disharmony which has smirched the council's brief history and shackled its activities. His intransigent attitude is dictated from above. And it is the same attitude that has been disturbingly apparent from the very first meetings held to discuss the United Nations' formation.

But if the Russian representative has been the chief offender, it cannot be claimed that the British and American members have been entirely blameless. Granted that they have been forced into a defensive position. Still, there is a suspicion that their obstruction is sometimes for obstruction's sake, that their pride of sovereignty assumes too great an importance, that in blocking Russia's petty objections they have become a trifle petty themselves.

There is little enough that the representatives of the smaller nations can do to ease the hostility of the Big Three. Because of the Russian-sponsored, American-approved veto, their role is an impotent one. They could not carry a vote to save the world from another war if one of the Big Three should disagree or abstain from voting. And it seems unhappily certain that the Big Three cannot agree on any major issue.

But at least the representatives of the smaller nations can act as conscience for their colleagues. They can at least turn the thoughts of the great-power members occasionally to the broader objectives and ultimate aims. They can recall heavy responsibilities that have not been discharged.

Some of them already have done so. Colonel Hodgson, the first Australian representative, was a tireless gadfly. Hasluck, his successor, has chided the great powers with just logic. And Dr. Afifi, the Egyptian member, addressed a gravely impassioned rebuke to the council upon his retirement as chairman.

He told his colleagues that humanity is disappointed in them. He rebuked them in the name of humanity for trying to further their own interests instead of working as a united family. He spoke of humanity's essential decency, and of its simple wants. He assured them that war could be prevented and differences settled amicably if "the good earth that we inhabit" were "properly and, above all, justly exploited."

Those are simple, obvious statements, but they need saying. It is a tragedy that they cannot be put into action by men who, unambitious for their small countries, are greatly ambitious for the whole world's good. But the words must remain words so long as the United Nations operates on the assumption that the countries which have a monopoly of power also have a monopoly of wisdom, integrity, and good intentions.

It's funny what a difference just a few hours make—in the morning we eat and run and at noon we run and eat.

Services Abandon Hope Of Finding Missing Men

WASHINGTON—(P)—The Army and Navy Monday abandoned virtually all hope of finding more than 12,000 missing men for whom extensive search has been made in many parts of the world, particularly since the war's end. The search will continue but the War and Navy Departments said in a joint statement that reports from overseas commanders indicated that "there remains little or no possibility of finding any except a few who have been missing less than 60 days or were deliberately absent without authority."

Sellers Orders Special Election On Vet Lands

AUSTIN—(P)—County officials throughout Texas must hold a special election Thursday, Nov. 7, on the proposed constitutional amendment providing for purchase of public lands by war veterans, Attorney General Grover Sellers held in an opinion Monday. The date of the vote, through a legislative error, was set on Thursday, Nov. 7, instead of Tuesday, Nov. 5, date of the general election when other constitutional amendments will be voted on. The amendment would provide for a board to issue $25,000,000 in bonds to finance such purchases.

Hussein Becomes King Of Trans-Jordan Arabs

AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN—(P)—In a setting of dazzling regal splendor, bearded, 64-year-old Abdullah Ibn Al Hussein formally has accepted kingship over 300,000 subject, and called upon the rest of the Arab world to unite with him for a federation of Arab states. Surrounded by 300 distinguished guests in resplendent uniforms, the regally robed and turbaned monarch ascended the throne in a ceremony which lasted 14 minutes, climaxing one of the most important days in Trans-Jordan's 5,000-year history. Great feasting followed the enthronement ceremony. For the guests at the luncheon, 56 whole roasted sheep were served on hammered bronze platters. The new ruler of this British-protected kingdom assumed his throne by virtue of a treaty signed last month, ending Britain's League of Nations mandate government.

Milk And Butter Prices Expected To Rise Soon

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The government is on the verge of letting prices go up a cent a quart for milk and 10 to 12 cents a pound for butter.

Disclosing this Monday, officials who withheld use of their names, said also that cheese will cost about 5 cents a pound more.

These officials, predicting an announcement in a day or so, cited two reasons for the decision to boost retail price ceilings:

1. Grain and feed price increases earlier this month hiked dairy production costs.
2. Price stabilization officials have decided it would be futile to try to put through any new food subsidies in view of the opposition in Congress.

Labor And Management Agree On Rail Strike Settlement

Labor and management shake hands in Washington, D. C., after John R. Steelman, Presidential labor advisor, announced that the rail strike had been settled. Settlement came at the very end of the time limit set by the President and he was advised of the strike's end while in the middle of his speech to a joint session of Congress. Pictured at the Statler Hotel in Washington, where the negotiations took place, are left to right: Alvanley Johnston, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen; J. J. Pelley, president of the Association of American Railroads and chief negotiator for the management group; and A. F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

RECOMMENDS IN RANKS COMMAND TRAINING — GI Gripe Board Requests Abolishing Terms 'Officer' And 'Enlisted Men'

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Army's GI gripe board recommended Monday that the very terms "officers" and "enlisted man" be abolished as one step to narrow the official and social gap between them.

Reporting to Secretary of War Patterson, on its sifting of postwar complaints the inquiry group headed by Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle proposed a thorough revision of existing differences in pay, promotion, furloughs, decorations and food. It called too for new measures aimed at raising the standard of leadership in the Army.

But the big break with tradition came in the proposal that all military personnel be referred to merely as "soldiers."

Abolition of the hand salute except on Army posts and in overseas occupied areas, and wiping out any rules or customs which make rank a barrier to social associations were among other recommendations made by the board composed exclusively of veterans.

"Americans look with disfavor upon any system which grants unearned privileges to a particular class of individuals and find distasteful any tendency to make arbitrary social distinctions between two parts of the Army," the group concluded in its 53-page report.

"There were irregularities, injustices in handling of enlisted personnel, and abuses of privileges in the recent war to such an extent as to cause widespread and deep-seated criticisms."

On the other side of the picture was the conclusion that "in the strict sense, the phrase, 'caste system,' is inappropriately applied to our Army at the present time since the selection of individuals for commissioned rank is based on democratic principles."

The board's criticisms were tempered with the assertion that the Army, in meeting problems of a 40-fold wartime expansion, "did a truly magnificent job," and there were guarded indications that the War Department was not upset by the findings.

Patterson announced that "some steps already have been taken" to remedy problems set out in the report, but he noted that Congressional approval and appropriations would be required to carry out some of the suggestions.

The board ascribed poor relationships between commissioned and enlisted personnel to two main factors: 1. "Undeniably poor leadership on the part of a small percentage of those in positions of responsibility," and 2. "A system that permits and encourages a wide official and social gap" between officers and men.

To improve officer leadership, the board recommended specifically that previous military training—preferably one year in the ranks—be required of all appointees, except technicians, placed in command.

Proposing a complete review of the Army's system of promoting officers, the board urged that it be on a

Howat Uses 8-Iron To Take Bass From Lake At Golf Club

Jack Howat's fishing technique may be unorthodox, but it gets results.

Howat, 19, was searching for golf balls in the late on No. 7 hole at the Midland Country Club Sunday when a bass swam to the bank near him. Howat grabbed an 8-iron, hit the fish over the head and pulled it out.

The bass weighed three and one-half pounds, and it will be the piece de resistance at dinner Monday evening in the home of Howat's brother, Ken Howat, manager of the club.

When he was nine years old, Jack Howat pulled an umbrella out of a lake at Verona, N. J. In it he found a two-and-a-half pound trout.

Aerocade Greeted By Large Crowds Sunday

Midland's flying goodwill boosters returned to the city late Sunday afternoon after a rodeo advertising tour which carried them into New Mexico and several towns in West Texas on the final day of their two-day aerocade tour.

Good crowds greeted the fliers at each stop, and more than 2,000 people were on hand to welcome them to Artesia, N. M. Other stops were made at Odessa, Monahans, Pecos, Carlsbad, Lovington and Hobbs.

Saturday the aerocade visited Lamesa, Lubbock, Spur, Stamford, Abilene, Sweetwater and Big Spring. Fifteen planes, carrying some 32 persons, made the tours.

Colts Rap Monahans 17 To 6 In Baseball

Midland's Latin-American Colts baseball team won its fourth straight game Sunday, defeating Monahans, 17 to 6, in a game here.

The Colts scored five runs in sixth inning and six in the seventh.

Communists Poll Largest Vote In Czechoslovakia

PRAGUE—(AP)—The Communists emerged Monday as the strongest political party in Czechoslovakia on the basis of substantial returns from Sunday's parliamentary elections.

They won a plurality in Prague. Returns yet to come in from outlying districts held the answer of whether the vote of the Communists and other extreme leftists would be sufficient to gain a majority in the new assembly of 300 members.

The moderate National Socialists—the party of Eduard Benes until he became president—polled a strong vote, though it was not as heavy as expected. The comparatively conservative People's (Catholic) Party made striking gains.

With about half the nation's 7,500,000 votes counted, political writers made these observations:

To Expell Germans
Czechoslovakia, by giving more votes to the Communists than any other individual party, showed that it had veered farther left. This indicated that the provisional government's policies such as nationalization of industries, social experiments, and expulsion of Germans and Hungarians are basically popular.

Consequently, there probably will be few changes in the cabinet. The vote suggested that even Prime Minister Zdenek Fierlinger might retain his post, although his Social Democrats finished in the lurch. He is popular with the Communists, who may want help from his party in forming a powerful left wing.

The striking feature of the election was that the National Socialists, ordinarily considered a strong party in the cities, trailed the Communists in Prague, Pilsen, Kladno and Moravska Ostrava, although

Reds Badly Defeated By German Voters

FRANKFURT—(AP)—The Conservative Christian Social Union emerged Monday as the strongest political force in American-occupied Germany, with preliminary final returns showing it the victor in council elections in nearly all the 33 cities voting Sunday.

Although closely contested by the mildly leftist Social Democrat Party, the church-SUP—a post-war hodge-podge of liberals, moderates and reactionaries—repeated its performance of two previous elections when it won the overwhelming support of rural workers throughout the zone. The Communist Party, which had expected to make at least a fair showing in war-ravaged industrial centers, took a bad beating, winning only 47 of 1,025 seats in city councils.

They carried Brno by a slim margin.

The assembly is expected to convene, create Benes president and start drafting a new constitution. Benes is widely revered as one of the founders of the country.

DEBBY AND JOEL

DEBBY AND JOEL
XXXVII

JOEL came out of the door of the guest house and walked down the path toward them. Debby took a step back with a single glance, then looked back at Bart. Joel looked at her and a little heavier around the shoulders, but he still walked a little boy and his face still had that thoroughbred look.

When he got near enough, she smiled and held him and held her hand. "Hello," she said. "Do you remember me?"

"Did you think I'd forget you?" he asked. "I don't remember you, but I remember you."

"Of course," she said. "I'm Debby."

"They both laughed. 'I wouldn't have recognized you,' he said. 'You're looking better than I remembered.'"

She smiled a little too casually and asked, "And how about you? Have you been getting around and seeing a lot and having a lot?"

He said abruptly, "Don't rub it in. I've spent months squirming out what an ass I was that year."

She avoided his eyes. "I didn't suppose you'd ever remember it."

"There's very little you and I did to each other I don't remember," he said.

OMETHING did a somersault in Debby's breast. She swallowed. She was looking at her.

"I'm going in for ornithology," she said.

"Ornithology?"

"Yeah. Bird study. On ducks and shore birds."

"What do you mean, going in for it?"

"Studying them. Research. Going to Harvard next week, to do graduate work in biology."

"And then you're going to study birds all the time? A full-time job?"

"Why not?"

"Where?"

"Well, I'll have to cruise around considerably, all the way from the Gulf of St. Lawrence to Florida. Maybe even farther. But I thought I might make my headquarters somewhere on the Cape. It's a pretty good place for ducks and shore birds."

"Debby looked at Bart and said, 'Well, what do you know about that?'"

She looked back at Joel, who had an excited look in his eyes. "How about the factory?" she asked.

"Oh."

His eyes grew sober again. "I sold it."

She asked timidly, "And your father?"

"He died—last May."

"Oh."

After a while Joel's face brightened again. "I'm counting on you to help me, too—when I get down here."

"Me?" She shook her head. "I don't know much of anything about birds, except how to shoot 'em."

"That's just it. I've got a four-ten."

"What's that?"

Joel looked surprised. "Don't you know what a four-ten is? I thought there was nothing about guns you didn't know."

Again Debby tried not to look ashamed.

"Well, what I'm counting on you for," said Joel, "is to shoot for me. I hope to be able to get a permit to shoot shore birds—for scientific purposes only, of course—but I'll never be able to hit one."

Debby said, a little sulkily, "I don't know whether I can still shoot or not. I been busy with other things the last couple of years."

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority

The Southeastern Sectional Tournament at the Hollywood Beach Hotel, Hollywood, Fla., was a big success. However, Ned Tobin and I did not succeed in holding the pair championship title that we won last year. It went to Comdr. S. W. Kirtland of Miami and Mrs. Monte Meyer of New Orleans, La.

The defensive play on today's hand was missed at most of the tables, but not by Commander Kirtland. Those who missed it might be charged with carelessness, because the ace of spades opening should Deby nodded.

"I've thought of that day often," said Joel.

He sat there beside her, his arms wrapped round his knees just the way hers were, and he began to tell her things she had said way back there three years ago.

He talked on and on wistfully. All he seemed to want to talk about was what had happened back in those days. There didn't seem to be anything about them he had forgotten.

She used to have a funny, completely unselfconscious way of looking at people and smiling, he said; she had looked that way the first time he ever saw her, when she had walked out of the freight station leading Bull on a rope. She would be amazed if she knew how often he had thought about that while he was out there in Chicago, and about all the other things that had happened.

Debby stood up abruptly and said, "I've got to be going now," and she turned and walked away, leaving him sitting there. She tried to hurry, but as she trudged on and the sand near the parking space got looser and softer, it seemed as though she could hardly manage to put one foot ahead of the other. At last she reached the car, and she slumped into the seat behind the wheel and lit a cigaret, and when it was gone she lit another from it. She didn't know why she should feel as though the bottom had dropped right out of things.

mark West with a four-card suit. Certainly if South held four spades, he would have supported his partner's spade bid.

When the eight-spot was played from dummy, East should not go in with the jack but should play the four spot. By the rule of 11 South was marked for one spade. West would not underlead the ace of spades with North having bid that suit; therefore South's only spade must be the ace.

Where East played the jack, declarer simply went over to dummy with the ace of hearts and led the queen of spades through, taking a discard whether East covered or not. Now the spade suit could be established for two more discards.

GIs Told To Use 'Love And Kisses' On Geishas

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Congress waited Monday with mixed emotions the "love and kisses" of GIs in Japan who want to come home.

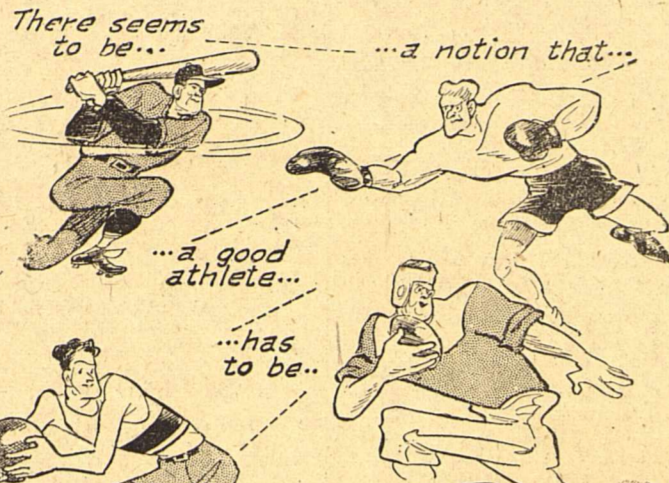

"Love and kisses" are code words with which servicemen in Tokyo are being urged to smother their congressmen. They mean "extend the draft."

"It's always nice to get love and kisses," said Senator Edwin G. Johnson (D-Colo.), "But they'd better use them on the geisha girls. They'd probably get more response."

More seriously, he told a reporter that "at the rate volunteers are enlisting, the problem of replacements is practically solved. Within a few months there will not be one man in the Army who does not want to be there."

Drivers Get Final Chance To Qualify For Speed Classic

INDIANAPOLIS—(AP)—The Indianapolis Motor Speedway gave drivers an extra five hours Monday to qualify for the 30th running of the 500-mile race May 30, but a couple of middle aged pilots already had grabbed about all the honors available in the time trials.

Fifty-year-old Ralph Hepburn of Van Nuys, Calif., veteran of 14 previous races, shattered the qualification records for both one and four laps Sunday in the rebuilt W. S. (Bub) Winfield car from La Canada, Calif.

The mild-mannered driver, who limps as a result of one of his crashes, gassed the ultra-streamlined blue racer around the two-and-a-half-mile course in one minute 6.94 seconds on his fastest lap for a speed of 134.449 miles per hour.

He will be the oldest driver in the race.

Hepburn's total elapsed time for the ten miles was 4 minutes, 26.77 seconds for an average of 133.944 miles per hour. The old records were 130.754 mile per hour for a single lap and 130.138 for four laps, both set by the late Jimmy Snyder of Chicago in 1939.

The California driver's pal, former movie stunt man Cliff Bergere of Indianapolis, already had won the pole position for the race by turning in the fastest time in opening day qualifications, May 18. Bergere, 49, and also starting his 15th "500," qualified at 126.471 miles per hour.

Vernon Stars For Washington As Nats Gain On Red Sox Who Split With N. Y.

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Those amazing Washington Senators practically are breathing on the necks of the second place New York Yankees and have closed within 7 1/2 games of Boston's American League leaders.

Overshadowed by the Red Sox with their spectacular early-season 15-game winning streak, the Nats, after a dismal start, kept pecking away and since May 12 have won 10 of their last 12 games to climb from deep in the second division to third place.

Spearheading the Nats' advance has been their GI first baseman, Mickey Vernon. Vernon remained on the Senators' roster only because, as a returning veteran, he was entitled to a 30-day trial. Meaningful Manager Ossie Bluege used Jack Sanford and Joe Kuhel at the initial sack. Then Bluege experimented with Vernon, and once in the lineup his began flying off Mickey's bat with astonishing regularity.

The Marcus Hook, Pa., boy currently is leading all major league hitters with a .405 batting mark and has hit in 22 consecutive games.

Vernon collected three of the Nats' eight hits Sunday, including his fourth home run, to pace Washington to a 3-2 triumph over Philadelphia.

The Red Sox, aided by Tex Hughson's masterful pitching, gained an even split with the Yankees Sunday for a 2-1 game edge in the "crucial" weekend series. Hughson blanked the Yankees with three hits in the opener to shade Floyd Be-
