Ship Unions Seek World Support

Some AFL Unions To Back CIO

WASHINGTON (AP)—AFL maritime unions appeared to be splitting Monday on supporting the strike of CIO seamen and dock workers scheduled June 15.

The CIO-dominated committee for maritime unity said Monday it has received a pledge from Captain Harry Martin, president of the AFL Masters, Mates and Pilots Union, that his members will respect CIO picket lines.

Previously, the CIO leaders had claimed similar support from John Hawk, secretary-treasurer of the Atlantic and Gulf District, Seafarers International Union (AFL).

On the other hand, Joseph Ryan, president of the AFL International Longshoremen's Association, denounced the threatened strike Saturday as "political."

AFL President William Green said recently that AFL maritime workers would fulfill their contracts with ship operators in the event of a strike.

Cablegram To Paris Meantime America's maritime crisis Monday was taking on a broader international aspect.

Harry Bridges and Joseph Curran, kingspins of the CIO's maritime unions, sent a cablegram to the World Federation of Trade Unions (WFTU) at Paris in which they renewed their criticism of Truman's assertion that he will operate the merchant ships with armed forces if necessary.

They said the president had "seriously jeopardized" the possibilities for a peaceful settlement.

They asked the WFTU in the event of a strike to declare any merchant vessels manned by the U. S. government to be "scabships." They also asked for any other help the WFTU could give.

The CIO is affiliated with the WFTU (the AFL isn't). Also affiliated are millions of union members in Russia, Britain, France and other countries.

The WFTU executive council has a meeting scheduled in Moscow on June 16-18.

It was not clear whether the WFTU would or could influence the dock workers of Europe, for example, to refuse to load and unload American ships.

Midland Wildcat Is Still Fishing For Lost Tubing

By JAMES C. WATSON

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Cressel East Midland County wildcat, nine miles southeast of Midland, was still trying to fish out a section of lost tubing Monday.

That activity has been underway since Friday. Some of the pipe has been recovered, but some of it is still in the hole.

Humble No. 1 Gaines, in extreme Northwest Andrews County, and in section 14, block A-39, psi survey, was bottomed at 8,403 feet, in shale, and was rebuilding the derrick, which was blown down Sunday afternoon by high wind.

In Dollar Hide Area Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1-B Cowden, one half mile north and same distance east of nearest Devonian production in the Dollar Hide field, in extreme Southwest Andrews, had progressed below 8,295 feet, in lime, and was continuing.

Humble No. 1 E. P. Cowden, on southeast side of the Dollar Hide area, had reached 9,923 feet, in lime and shale, likely still Mississippian, and was continuing.

Humble No. 1-B G. H. Cowden, East-Central Crane County wildcat, to the Ellenburger, in section 14, block X, CCSD&RGNG survey, was making hole below 8,855 feet, in lime and chert, of unidentified formation.

Gaylord H. Chizum, et al, No. 1 University, Northwest Ward County wildcat to 5,300 feet, in section 27, block 18, University survey, about 14 miles northwest of Pryote, had penetrated to 4,070 feet in salt.

High To Gas Well Informed sources revealed that on a break in the formation at 4,002 feet, it correlated 97 feet high to the same point in the Slack No. 1 Hayes, which was completed for a 21,000,000 cubic feet per day gas well from the Delaware, about six miles southwest.

House Calls Labor Leaders In To Air Opposition To Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman's emergency strike control bill came bouncing back to the House Monday—straight into a rump hearing called to air organized labor's opposition to it.

Sixteen members critical of the measure—both in its original strike-draft form and as modified by the Senate—invited four top union chiefs to the unusual afternoon session.

They also called upon all their colleagues to attend the gathering which Rep. De Lacy (D-Wash.) said was designed to "stem all this hysteria."

The House passed the measure 306 to 13 a week ago Saturday less than two hours after it was re-quested by Truman. The Senate passed the bill early last Saturday morning.

Truman has until midnight, June 12, to sign or veto the legislation. Invited to testify Monday are President William Green of the American Federation of Labor; President Phillip Murray of the CIO; Secretary-Treasurer A. E. Lyon of the Railway Labor Executives' Association, and President Harvey Brown of the International Association of Machinists.

As passed by the House, the bill would give the President broad powers to seize essential plants if work stoppages occur and to draft individuals necessary to run them. The Senate deleted the draft authority, but left in the power to take over industries.

Both bills require union and management leaders to take "affirmative" action to halt work stoppages in plants seized by the government.

400,000 Are Back In Soft Coal Mines

By The Associated Press As 400,000 coal miners trooped back to government-operated mines Monday, the nation's total of idle in labor disputes dropped to 371,000—lowest in several months.

However, 75,000 Pennsylvania hard coal miners remained out; 115,000 New York City commuters felt the effects of a strike in the Hudson River tubes, and CIO Maritime Union leaders solicited foreign aid for their strike threatened for June 15.

John L. Lewis, who obtained a welfare fund and a 13 1/2 cents hourly wage raise for the soft coal diggers, arrived in New York for talks with the anthracite operators.

The hard coal miners, like those who work in the bituminous mines members of Lewis' AFL United Mine Workers, reportedly also seek a welfare fund, though the union's specific demands have not been made known.

Return of the bituminous miners will have its effect on employment in other industries. The United States Steel Corporation had laid off 41,000 workers during the soft coal famine. A company spokesman said it would take several weeks to get them all back on the job.

Supervisors May Quit Posing the threat of a new mine shutdown, a spokesman for 75,000 soft coal mine supervisors, members of a UMW affiliate, asserted they will not work without a contract when the colliers are returned to private operators.

Workers streaming into New York after the weekend congested the ferries and vehicular tubes under the Hudson River, because of a strike on the Hudson and Manhattan Railroad Line which normally carries 115,000 of the commuters.

At issue in the four-day strike was a union demand that the company should grant the 13 1/2 cents hourly pay boost accepted by the major railroad lines.

The company's position is that it cannot afford the raise, because it carries no freight and cannot seek a freight rate increase. The unions announced they would start picketing the Pennsylvania Railroad ferries between Jersey City and New York, but would not interfere with ferry service.

French Reds Lose Assembly Seats In Empire Election

PARIS (AP)—French Communists received their second setback within a month Monday as returns from Sunday's election for a new constituent assembly showed that the middle-of-the-road Popular Republican Movement (MRP) had become the nation's strongest political party.

Socialists took an even sharper defeat than the Communists, as the political pendulum swung away from the left, continuing the trend noted in the May 5 referendum when a Communist-Socialist constitution was rejected.

Although returns still had not been received from the colonies, which hold 60-odd seats, the MRP was assured of at least 10 more seats than the Communists, their nearest rivals.

The MRP victory also was shown in the popular vote from France and Corsica which gave it a plurality of approximately 360,000 over the Communists, their nearest rivals.

The popular vote showed that the Communists, although they gained in total vote, were not able to match the gain of the MRP. Of the three parties, the Socialists alone lost in popular strength.

Georges Bidault, present foreign minister, is the leader of MRP.

Record Attendance

Despite the reduced crowd of about 1,500 Sunday night the 1946 Midland Rodeo proved to be one of the best attended and best performed of the long line of good shows. Officers of Midland Fair, Inc., which brought to the city and West Texas another great event, are: Leonard Proctor, president; George W. Glass, first vice president; Tom Nance, second vice president; and J. H. Epley, secretary-treasurer.

More than $7,500 in prizes and purses were awarded at the 1946 Rodeo, which was sanctioned by the Rodeo Cowboys Association and International Rodeo Association. Midland's show is one of the top three in the United States.

depressions on many paved streets in Midland slowed traffic, and numerous cars were temporarily stalled when they became "drowned out" after splashing through the streams. Dirt streets became quagmires in the early evening as the water formed into pools or forced its way along low spots to join with the streams flowing eastward along the paved streets.

Gravel placed on streets being sealed in the west portion of the city was washed toward the business district and was left pitter in gutters. A fine silt covered pitted areas Monday morning.

High winds throughout the Permian Basin caused some damage Sunday afternoon. The derrick of the Humble Oil & Refining Company's No. 1 Gaines in Northwest Andrews County was blown down. Electric service to the Midland area was unaffected, however.

Rain Was General

Reports from other areas indicated the rain was general throughout West Texas. Seminole on the north, Monahans and Cessna on the west, Big Spring on the east all reported good rains. The Seminole area was said to have received about two inches of rain, accompanied by hail.

Other areas of the state also reported cooler temperatures. The Associated Press reported, Crisp weather led the Dallas Weather bureau to predict that "Santa" will be coming soon.

Unseasonably low temperatures prevailed as a very strong polar high pressure area moved in from Northern Canada.

The mercury dropped to 47 at Amarillo. The 54 recorded at Dallas came within one degree of tying an all-time record for the day, set in 1919. The 59 at Austin was a June low equalled only once before in 13 years.

Continued brisk weather was forecast for Monday afternoon and night.

Temperatures over the state included: Denison, 52; Big Spring, 55; San Antonio, 62; Houston, 65; El Paso, 64; Galveston, 70; Corpus Christi, 69; Tyler, 57; Sulphur Springs, 56.

Operator reported that corrected top of the Strawn was at 5,200 feet, on a derrick floor elevation of 2,317 feet. That is said to make this project the highest on the top of the Strawn of all explorations so far drilled in the Cooper region.

Samples at 5,350-5,410 feet had some shows of gas. That is in the regular Cooper field gas formation. It is slated to drill to around 5,700 feet, and then run casing and perforate and test opposite promising horizons.

Phillips Petroleum Company No. 1-K University, in northeast corner of northwest quarter of section 40, block 31, University survey, and on southeast side of the "Block 31" field, in East-Central Crane County, was drilling ahead below 8,644 feet, in Devonian lime and chert.

We're glad it rained even if it did disrupt our service and aims. We needed the rain that we got, and plenty more, too. The one thing we're sorry about is that our awning gave way during the rain and it will necessitate closing a day or two for repair.

Enrollments were held May 25 and graduation exercises are planned for Friday.

Classes are in session from 8:30 to 11 a. m. at the Calvary Baptist Church for ages beginning at three and through 16. The Rev. Fred McPherson is in charge of the five departments, nursery, beginners, primary, junior and intermediate.

Training is underway for children in the nursery on through the 16-year-old age group at the First Baptist Church. Classes are held from 9 to 11 a. m. The nine departments include one nursery, two beginners, three primary, two junior and one intermediate.

The First Presbyterian school is in session from 9 to 11:30 a. m. for young people from four to 14 years of age. "Life of Christ" is the theme for study in the four departments, beginner, primary, junior and intermediate.

Young people attending the First Methodist school arrive at the church at 9 a. m. and attend classes until 11 a. m. Training is in four age groups, kindergarten, primary, junior and intermediate.

Similar programs are being held by all of the churches including Bible study, handicraft, recreation, and sing-songs.

Doodles Decorate Teen-Age Togs

Doodle-printed cotton makes summer dresses for teen-agers as fresh as their lighthearted patter. Left, eyelet embroidery points up the squared-off shoulders and huge pockets of the doodle-print scrawled in black on strawberry and peppermint plaid. Center, blue and tan plaid is background for the print made up with buttoned basque bodice, full skirt and eyelet trimmed pockets and sleeves. Right, a demure round neckline, puffed sleeves and hand-span waistline are style features of the lime and gray plaid print.

By EPSIE KINARD
NEA Staff Writer

NEW YORK—That inveterate user of the telephone—the teenager—who doodles as she jive talks, will be wearing her pencil scrawls on her cotton dresses any day now.

Lifted from the scratch pad and transferred to fine-combed cottons are doodle designs, refined, made uniform and printed in dye-fast pencil lead black in an all-over design on fresh new colors. Background-plaided in pastel combinations of strawberry-and-peppermint, blue with sunset tan and lime with gray, these cotton prints are as launderable as a teen-ager's face.

The doodle print is the first of a series of fabrics which one house intends to launch with novel styling ideas particularly aimed at the jive set. The first to make its debut has inspired a maker of fine teen-ager fashions to design four dress styles, as typical of the young thing who is going to wear them as her 10-inch swing platters and her telephone patter. The waistlines of these pert dresses can be hand-spinned. Pockets are jumbo-sized. Shoulders are as squared off as the Winged Victory's. Eyelet embroidery which furnishes the frills looks as naive as that on a toddler's pants.

These are the style gimmicks that are calculated to draw teen-agers, like steel filings to a magnet, to fashionable dress racks. What will attract mothers and pull them into the fitting rooms are the right size and age of these fashions which clearly distinguish dresses for their growing-up daughters from those marketed for misses and juniors.

Losing A Chance to Get More Soap?

Steady there, Mrs. America. We're not kidding. Last month, women all over the country threw away enough used fats to make over twenty million big boxes of soap powder.

Maybe some women think they don't need to save used fats any longer. Perhaps others are doing half a job...or saving only now and then.

THE TRUTH IS: there won't be more soap until your country's industrial fat supply is much increased.

By turning in every drop of used fats, you'll help bring back more soaps sooner. You use soap every day, so save used fats every day. One pound helps make about two pounds of needed soaps...gets you 4¢ a pound from your butcher.

Where there's fat—there's soap

Rights And Duties

Harold Stassen said something in a speech recently about the need in this country for "an increased sense of duty to produce, to keep pace with the right to consume, whether through profits or wages, (and) of an increased sense of duty to work to parallel the right to strike."

Probably that isn't the most popular tack to take in discussing present-day economics. It's old-fashioned talk, and some would call it reactionary. But it seems rather nice to hear somebody bring up again the all-but-forgotten relationship of rights to duties.

We hear a great deal today about the rights of free speech, free assembly, and free enterprise, the rights to work and bargain collectively and earn a decent wage. But it seems a long time since much has been said about the duty of doing what used to be called "an honest day's work" for that decent wage, or of turning out the best possible product for a fair and decent profit. At least, it hasn't been said recently by representatives of large groups of workers or manufacturers.

Maybe it is because times and the national economy have changed. There are proportionately fewer self-employed persons than in grandfather's or father's day. Consequently, there is less direct incentive and less opportunity to experience the joy of personal accomplishment in the course of earning the daily bread.

The incentives and joys are by no means absent today. But there is an increasing number of workers swallowed up in big corporations, doing routine jobs of deadly sameness. Grievances, demonstrations, and strife may offer the only touches of drama in a life of occupational drabness.

Then, too, there are the workers' unions, which must produce results in order to survive and grow. And as the unions have grown strong they have emphasized an ever-growing list of workers' rights—most of them right and proper, to be sure—while soft-pedaling the parallel duties.

So we hear of unions disciplining members who, yielding to personal incentives, work too fast, produce too much, and thereby set an "exhausting" example for their fellows. We hear of requests for the same wages for 40 hours' work as were recently paid for 40 hours plus 14 more at extra pay. We hear talk of 30-hour weeks at 40-hour wages.

And maybe that is all to the good. This country has come a long way from the 60-hour week, dingy workshops, child labor, and starvation wages, and it can go farther. But progress is smoothest in a friendly, reasonable atmosphere. And that is not present when duties are forgotten and rights exaggerated. Instead, there is created an atmosphere which fosters selfishness, breeds disunity, and eventually stalls progress.

Stassen seems wise in asking that we pay a little more attention in our thinking to a reasonable balance between effort and compensation. Otherwise, there is danger that a sizable segment of a new generation might have to unlearn rather painfully the notion that society owes them a living which they feel no particular obligation to earn.

It's funny how a new dress can make one girl look slim and other girls look 'round.

The annual crime bill of the U. S. runs way up into the billions. Crime may not pay—but we do!

Maj. Hernbestel Helps Wife Get Settled At Leper Colony Hospital

CARVILLE, LA.—(AP)—Maj. Hans Hornbestel helped his wife get settled at the Letterman General Hospital here Monday, completely happy and thankful that her disease is leprosy instead of cancer or tuberculosis.

"My wife and I are completely happy," declared the tall, grey-haired Marine veteran, who unsuccessfully requested admittance to the hospital to be with his wife. "We feel lucky that her ailment is not cancer or tuberculosis or other painful malady."

"I intend to devote much of my future life to telling the people that leprosy is not so dangerous as commonly believed. I'll be in a position to do so."

A group of patients was on hand when the Hornbestels arrived. Mrs. Hornbestel chatted with other patients and asked about recreational facilities at the hospital. She told them she liked long walks. She will have plenty of opportunity for her hobby on the spacious grounds of the hospital on the banks of the Mississippi.

Doctors said she would probably begin receiving treatment this week, most likely with promin, a sulfa drug, or the newer streptomycine.

Fifty-One Nations Team Up for Ocean Rescues

Born of an Anglo-American system set up during the war, which has functioned smoothly ever since, plans for a permanent world-wide network for air-sea rescue have just been completed by representatives of 51 nations, meeting in Paris as "PICAO"—Provisional International Civil Aviation Organization. Map above shows how the system works. Upon receiving a radioed distress signal, powerful listening posts on both sides of the Atlantic "fix" the location of survivors and the nearest co-ordination center dispatches planes and ships to the scene. Thirteen weather ships will be maintained at fixed stations. PICAO was organized with an eye to the greatly expanded post-war transoceanic travel.

CIO-PAC Active As Elections Set In Six States

WASHINGTON —(AP)—A big month of primary balloting got underway Monday as Iowa Republicans chose between a second term for Gov. Robert D. Blue and a crack at the office by George Olmstead, World War II brigadier general.

Five more states hold primaries Tuesday—Alabama, California, New Jersey, New Mexico and South Dakota.

These six states will select candidates for six governorships, three U. S. Senate seats, and 49 U. S. House memberships. Eight additional states hold primaries and party conventions this month.

As in last month's pre-election voting, the CIO Political Action Committee is taking sides in many primary contests. But this time it is supporting both leading candidates in some primary battles.

Will Rogers, Jr., Runs

The GOP governorship contest in Iowa got top billing in that state's voting Monday. In California chief interest will be in the battle for the Democratic Senatorial nomination between Rep. Ellis Patterson of Los Angeles, and Will Rogers, Jr., both of whom have the support of the state CIO-PAC.

Alabama has a run-off primary between James E. Folsom, insurance man backed by the CIO-PAC, and Lt. Gov. Tandy Ellis, to decide the Democratic nomination for governor.

The CIO-PAC has endorsed candidates outright in nine races in New Mexico, which picks candidates for governor, and two representatives-at-large. But it hedged in the two top races.

In endorsing Senator Chavez for re-nomination on the Democratic ticket it said it did not wish to imply that Gov. John J. Dempsey, Chavez' opponent, it not qualified for the senatorship. It also commended Dempsey's record as governor.

Unionists Protest Truman Strike Stand

Among thousands of union members who protested against the drastic anti-strike legislation demanded by President Truman were 250 New York CIO members who went to Washington to voice their disapproval in person. Above, some of the delegation present their protest to Sen. James M. Mead, upper left.

Irate Landlord Destroys House To Move Tenants

(NEA Telephoto) After a long and unsuccessful effort to evict tenants from a converted filling station on his farm near Atlanta, Ga., R. L. Ballard got fed up and started to tear the structure down over the tenants' heads. Here the irate landlord of the Ballard-Jett feud rips off another plank. The strange controversy stood at a deadlock with both sides having lost a livable dwelling.

Philippines Ask U. S. For Loan To Rebuild

MANILA —(AP)—President Manuel Roxas asked the Philippine congress Monday for authority to reorganize and streamline all government offices and bureaus and proposed an offensive against "inflation, lawlessness and economic inaction," financed largely by American loans.

The new president, reading a 15,000-word state-of-the-nation message to a joint session of congress, disclosed he had asked the United States for a rehabilitation loan of 500,000,000 pesos ($25,000,000). The U. S. already had been asked for a loan of 80,000,000 pesos to cover expected government deficits of the next five years.

Roxas' message also called for higher taxes, new rights and responsibilities for organized labor, strong wage, price and rent control, and an army of 12,000 plus an expanded state police force.

When English was in its infancy, many words were pronounced differently; pair for pear; marchant for merchant; clerk for clerk; o-ween for own; hyer for her and hay for he.

NAPLES —(AP)—Deep sea divers joined a search Monday for the bodies of 22 missing persons aboard a U. S. Army transport plane which plunged into the sea near here Saturday while en route to the United States from India with 38 returning U. S. military personnel.

Only eight persons were rescued from the four-engined ship, which a survivor said caught fire in the air. The bodies of eight others were recovered from the sea after the crash.

Army officials said the crash occurred after passengers, trying to escape the fire, ran to the tail of the ship, throwing it into a tail spin.

"MAKE IT A MILLION!"

Since last September over three-quarters of a million men have joined the Regular Army as volunteers. Many of them are veterans of World War II, who know and like Army life. Others are younger men—alert and ambitious—who have recognized their responsibility to serve their country and to relieve from duty men who took up arms against our enemies.

Never before in American history has the Army had so much to offer in good pay, travel, education and adventure. And never before in peacetime has your country needed such a strong and modern Regular Army for world-wide protection of peace and security.

If you are qualified, mentally and physically, for Regular Army enlistment, you have everything to gain and nothing to lose by finding out all the advantages the Army has to offer you. Stop at your nearest U. S. Army Recruiting Station today!

General Duty Nurse

CHAPTER I

"APPLE POLISHER!"

The jeering voice reached the girl in the hall of the Nurses' Annex and she paused abruptly. Who was Holden panning this time? She had not long to wait for another voice indignantly refuted the accusation in no uncertain terms.

"She is not! Sally Maynard is the sweetest, most accommodating girl in Linton and you should know it. She certainly has done you plenty of favors."

That was Margaret Adams speaking and the girl outside felt an uprush of affection for her advocate. But just what did Norma Holden have against her? She turned away but before she could pass out of earshot she heard Norma say, angrily:

"She's too smooth—too eager to please for my money, Adams, and just because a certain few of you fall for that sweetness and light method she has of getting what she wants is no reason why I should. She doesn't pull the wool over my eyes. I can see through her. 'Oh yes, Doctor!' 'Certainly, Miss Sunderlin!' 'La-de-da—blah-blah-blah, Phooey!'" entirely given them up. Sara Elizabeth Maynard had been a rather lonely child, serious beyond her years and somewhat given to introspection. She had early developed a feeling of responsibility toward life—a self-discipline and integrity that amazed and troubled her worthy and socially minded relative. However, Sally was naturally happy though never boisterous and Miss Maynard felt certain that, given her head, her charming girl would in due time come to her senses, which meant, come to her aunt's way of thinking.

But Sally completed her three difficult years of training and instead of retiring to a life of ease and social conquests had listened to the pleadings of Doctor Richards, Linton's chief of staff, to remain at the hospital as a general duty nurse. The hospital had been badly hit by the war. With so many of its doctors and nurses entering the service the sadly depleted staff was but a mere skeleton of its former rather impressive body. It was only then that Miss Maynard became reconciled to the path Sally had elected to follow. She might have done as so many members of her profession had chosen to do—gone into service to unthought-of dangers and unspeakable conditions. So Miss Maynard—Aunt Clem—held her peace.

IT hadn't been easy for Sally to adjust herself to the rigid discipline required by the faculty of Linton Memorial Hospital. But she had done so and now, a year after graduation, she had no regrets. Aunt Clem had opposed her becoming a nurse and Sally had spent months convincing her that nursing was what she wanted and what she intended following as a career. In the end the good lady capitulated, though not at all gracefully. She had entertained other plans for her lovely young grandniece and even yet had not sure she had never been arbitrary—it wasn't her nature. She had been willing and docile because those traits were a part of her make-up. It was her nature to like people and to try to get along with them. She supposed she had succeeded; but apparently she had not—if what Norma Holden said was true. Of course she must never reveal to anyone what she had heard. It had not been intended for her ears. She smiled wryly. How true it was that listeners seldom heard anything good about themselves.

The ambulance left the courtyard and Sally went to the window to watch its progress down the hill to the town below. It was a wild night and traveling was hazardous. She hoped the poor soul for whom it had been sent was not suffering too much. Suddenly she felt very tired. It had been a hard day and tomorrow morning at seven she was due to go on a new case. She had heard about this Mrs. Hobbes—heard she was something of a tartar and had twice already demanded a change of nurses.

A light broke. That was it. Holden was being replaced and she didn't like it. Norma had been day nurse in room 249 and was being replaced by Sally. Why, Sally had no idea. She shrugged but felt relieved. She could cope with a thing like that and she didn't intend letting it bother her one bit. Well, it was now too late for a party. She was glad she had left the ginger ale downstairs in the refrigerator until the last minute. She buried the carton of cookies in the bottom drawer of her dresser and prepared for bed. Tomorrow was another day and from all reports it would be a trying one for her.

She heard Norma say, angrily: "She's too smooth—too eager to please for my money. 'Oh yes, Doctor!' 'Certainly, Miss Sunderlin!' 'La-de-da—blah-blah-blah, Phooey!'"

Trick Topper

Said to be the first new male hat style in over a decade, the cap shown above was recently designed by Alan Kline, ex-Navy lieutenant, who found that civilian hats weren't as comfortably easy to wear as service uniform headgear. It's a civilian version of the officer's garrison cap. Above, it is modeled by Lew Parker, musical comedy star, at New York fashion show.

Legislature Will Be Asked To OK Memorial

AUSTIN—(AP)—The 50th Legislature will be asked to give its approval to construction on the Capitol grounds of a $15,000 cenotaph in honor of the memory of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

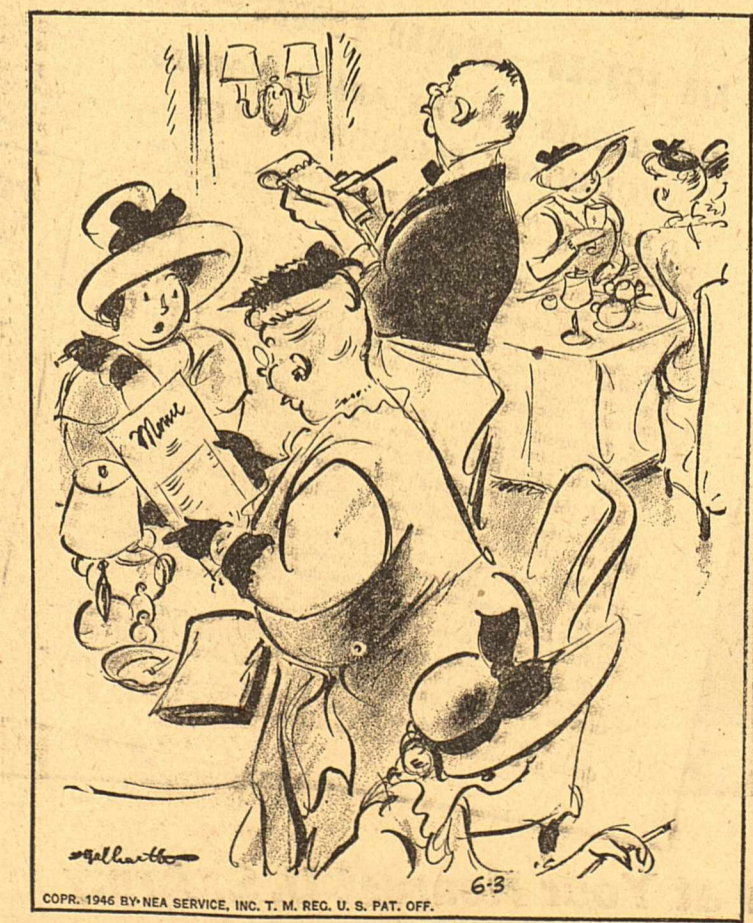

The trustees of the Roosevelt Memorial Foundation, sponsoring the monument, decided here Sunday to seek this permission after the Board of Control withdrew a previously-granted permit for the memorial.

Chairman Weaver Baker of the board told the trustees that the withdrawal was necessary after it had been found that law enacted by the 42nd Legislature provides legislative approval must be had of any structure built on the Capitol grounds.

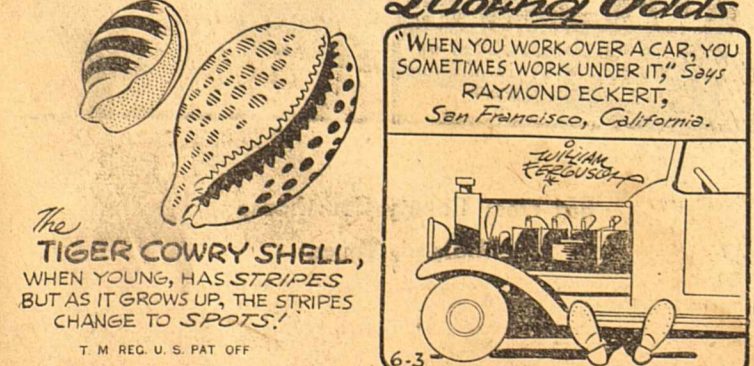

The foundation in a ceremonial here Sunday unveiled a scale model of the cenotaph. The memorial will be financed by $1 contributions.

Giants Beat Cards Two Games, Thanks To Home Runs By Cooper, Blattner

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The St. Louis Cardinals, pre-season favorites in the National League, may wind up among the also-rans because of their inability to win at home.

Including Sunday's double loss to the New York Giants, which dropped them three and a half games behind pace-setting Brooklyn, the Redbirds have won only six of 15 games at Sportsman's Park.

Never has a pennant winner lost a majority of its home games.

Failure of the Cards to win at home has the baseball sages puzzled since the Redbirds have been little short of sensational on the road where they've triumphed in 17 of 24 contests.

In sharp contrast to the Cards, the Brooks have won 15 and lost only five at home.

A pair of former mates—Bobby Blattner and Walker Cooper—beat the Cardinals Sunday. Cooper knocked a home run as the Giants won the opener 1-0, then Blattner homered in the 11th inning of the nightcap to give the New Yorkers a 7-5 decision.

Dodgers Beat Reds Twice

Getting superlative pitching from its so-called secondary hurlers—Les Webber, Art Herring, Hugh Casey—Brooklyn gained two full games on the Cards by defeating the Cincinnati Reds 2-1 and 1-0.

In the only American League game—the others having been rained out—the Detroit Tigers walloped Washington's Senators 10-2 as Hal Newhouser fanned 13.

The Chicago Cubs split with Boston's Braves to move into a third place tie with the Reds. The Braves, with Mort Cooper notching his third win, won the opener 6-3 and the Cubs captured the nightcap 8-2.

Pittsburgh had to be satisfied with a split in its twin bill with the Philadelphia Phillies. The Pirates cooped the opener 5-1. A seven-run seventh inning won the finale for the Phils 10-3.

Assault May Challenge Whirlaway In Parade Of Jackpot Winners

NEW YORK—(AP)—They're tabbing Assault as "The Mini" around these parts Monday, because the club-foot comet from the wide open spaces is now in a spot where he can have a bank roll of over half-a-million dollars by early fall.

The chocolate champ zoomed over the $300,000 mark—up to $320,770, to be exact—Saturday when he laughed his way home in the Belmont Stakes to become the seventh winner of the triple crown in turf history. This moved him up to 11th on racing's all-time money-winning list and the way he did not indicated that he might even be challenging Whirlaway, who heads the parade with $561,161, before the year is out.

Saturday's scramble, in which the Texas terror ran his best race—stumbling at the start and coming on to win from ten lengths back—was worth $77,400. In getting to the paying teller's window first he proved once and for all that Lord Boswell and Hampden, who've been chasing him all spring, are going to need new valves and considerably higher octane gas if they ever hope to catch him. They were fifth and fourth respectively, in Saturday's mile and a half.

Oklahoma City, Cellar Club, Shuts Out Cats, 3-0, In Major Upset

By The Associated Press

The cellar club Oklahoma City Indians made news in the Texas League Sunday night with a 3-0 shutout of the loop-leading Fort Worth Cats.

In the rest of the circuit, Dallas picked up a game on Fort Worth by downing Tulsa, 6-2. The Houston Buffs swept a two-game series with a 5-2 win over San Antonio. Beaumont beat the Shreveport Sports, 2-0.

It was the first shutout of the year for Fort Worth. Although touched for 10 hits, the Indians' Valle Eaves out-pitched Roy Boles of the Cats. Boles was hit for two runs in the first inning and his own wild throw to first in the sixth inning led to an unearned tally.

The Dallas Rebels came from behind to score six runs in the sixth inning to down the Tulsa Oilers. Hank Oana of the Rebels chalked up his ninth victory of the season. The Oilers threatened repeatedly but left 11 runners stranded.

Clarence Beers of Houston allowed nine San Antonio hits. Ned Graver for San Antonio was credited with his fifth straight defeat.

The Beaumont Exporters bunched two singles in the fifth and tallied in the eighth with two more singles. The Shreveport Sports failed to get a runner past second base.

Baseball Clinic For High School Boys Set

DALLAS—(AP)—Adamson (Dallas) and Hondo were the favorites Monday as 16 teams squared off for the ninth annual Texas High School Baseball tournament.

Adamson, last year's state American Legion champion and Dallas city champion this season, sees its first action Monday night, meeting Garland. Hondo, former state champion and barely edged out by Adamson in the quarter-finals last year, has a record of 14 victories against two losses in this year's campaign.

The Dallas News will present its second annual clinic for high school players and coaches Tuesday through Friday with Manager Al Vincent of the Dallas club of the Texas League in charge.

Saturday night there will be an all-star tilt and from this game will come a player to represent North Texas in the all-American boys game at Chicago. The Dallas Times Herald will sponsor a tryout camp Saturday afternoon. The Times Herald also conducts the selection of the boy for the all-American major leaguer, and Hap Morse, former Dallas Texas League manager, will coach the rival all-star teams in Saturday night's game.

Man Given Life Term In Brownsville Slaying

BEEVILLE—(AP)—Victoriano Salazar has been sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of Alfred Beasler, Brownsville police captain, March 9, 1945.

Salazar was found guilty by a jury here Sunday morning in the second trial of the case. At the first trial a year ago, the defendant was assessed the death penalty but the case was reversed by the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Attorney for the defense gave notice of appeal.

Britain Set For 163rd 'Darby' On June 5

EPSOM, ENGLAND—(AP)—Britain's famous "Darby" returns to its home track at Epsom Downs June 5 for the 163rd running over what Britons boast is the "toughest mile and a half in the world."

Sir William Cooke's big colt, Happy Knight, has been established a strong favorite in the race. Two days after he won the two thousand guineas on May 1 he became the hot choice at 9-2.

At the latest call-over, the Knight's chief rivals were Khaled, 7-1; Radiotherapy, 17-2; Gulf Stream, 19-2, and Edward Tudor, 10-1.

Colts Lose Game

Midland Colts, Latin-American baseball team, dropped a 9-6 decision Sunday to the Colorado City Wolves in a game there.

Previously Midland won over their opponents in a game played here.

Illinois Runner Sets World 440-Yard Record

CHAMPAIGN, ILL.—(AP)—Herb McKenley, Illinois' newest "whiz" kid, Monday had a 46.2 second performance in the 440 yard for consideration as a world record, and may be only starting his big-time track career.

McKenley's time in the quarter mile at the Big Ten outdoor track meet Saturday clipped two-tenths of a second off the accepted mark held jointly by Ben Eastman of Stanford and Grover Klammmer of California.

Already McKenley is being talked of in terms of the 1948 Olympic games in London.

A native of Kingston, Jamaica, McKenley is a British subject and would run under the banner of the United Kingdom. With the Olympics in mind, several of his friends in the United States have suggested that he apply for American citizenship, but McKenley has not commented on these proposals.

Leo Johnson, Illinois track coach, suggesting McKenley might better his own 46.2 second time in the 440, says the Jamaican's best times were made despite poor weather conditions. A light rain fell during the race Saturday.

"I wasn't looking for a record Saturday, although I knew it could happen at any time," said Johnson.

Abilene Golfer Beats Bristow For Trophy In West Texas Meet

SAN ANGELO—(AP)—Doug Jones, methodical golfing stylist from Abilene, won the West Texas Golf Association championship on the San Angelo Country Club course Sunday, defeating Oble Bristow of Big Spring, 3 and 2.

The linksters bucked a heavy wind all the way.

Carroll Baird of Fort Worth defeated Jack Garrett of San Angelo, 1 up, to take the first flight trophy. Jack Gourley of Eastland won the second flight, defeating E. P. Whiteside of San Angelo, 3 and 1.

W. W. Price of Fort Worth defeated Bob Watkins of San Angelo, 4 and 3, for the third flight award. N. T. Hodge of Merkel won the fourth flight, defeating Cecil Arthur of San Angelo, 3 and 2.

J. C. Southworth of Sweetwater trimmed D. L. Hunter of San Angelo, 3 and 1, for the senior flight championship. Bill Stator of San Angelo beat Jack Williams of Plainview, 2 up, in the championship flight consolation.

Bob Featherston of Wichita Falls knocked out J. B. Coulter of Midland, 2 and 1, for the first flight consolation title. Kenneth Edwards of Fort Worth downed Earl Rogers of San Angelo, 2 up, in the second flight consolation final.
