Soviet Accused Of Spying On US Defenses

Red Agents Still Operate In Canada

OTTAWA — (AP) — Indications that the three nations which hold the atom bomb secret may confer on Russian spy activities were seen Tuesday following publication of an official Canadian report that Soviet agents, who "may still" be operating in Canada, had flown samples of uranium 235 to Russia.

The report, issued by a royal commission composed of two of Canada's seven supreme court justices, asserted that many top secret military developments already had been compromised because of Russian spies, and that Moscow was seeking information on post-war defenses of the three countries—the United States, Britain and Canada.

"Information of the greatest importance" on radar was obtained by Russian spies, the report said. Also compromised was a wiring diagram on a new type of fuse, information on a submarine detection device and secret data "of great value" on propellants and explosives, the report added.

The commission said the Russians had been largely balked, however, in their efforts to ferret out details of atomic secrets.

New Charges Made
In addition to reviewing previously published accusations, it made these new charges:

1. That the Russians sought and obtained "top secret" political information on the policies of the American, British and Canadian governments. The nature of these secrets was not disclosed.

2. That Moscow was after information "related to research developments which would play an important part in the post-war defenses of Canada, the United Kingdom and the United States."

3. That the Russian government "seems" to have operated not one but several parallel under-cover systems through its Ottawa embassy, and that these systems "may still be operating in Canada."

4. That "the Communist movement was the principal base within which the espionage network was recruited," and that "secret members of the Communist Party" infiltrated through the government and through various organizations "not only for espionage but for propaganda and other purposes."

5. That a "basic policy" of the party is "to get control, through the election of secret members to the directing committees, of as many types of functional organizations as possible, including trade unions, professional networks and broad non-party organizations such as youth movements and civil liberties unions."

Wheeler Outpost Flows Oil From Silurian Section

Good flowing production from the Fusselman-Silurian, on the northeast side of the Wheeler field, in East Winkler County, has been indicated at Cities Service Oil Company No. 1 Wheeler.

That outpost ran a drillstem test at 9,215-9,350 feet, with the tool open for two hours and 57 minutes. Gas showed at surface in five minutes. Drilling mud flowed to the top in one hour and 45 minutes and oil started coming out of the drill pipe in one hour and 46 minutes.

Flowed For One Hour
It was turned to tanks in one hour and 57 minutes, and in one hour of flowing made 30.41 barrels of 30.4 gravity oil, with gas-oil ratio of 942-1. The fluid showed no water.

At last report operator was pulling the testing tool and was slated to drill ahead.

This is said to be by far the best indication of production so far shown by any well drilled in the Wheeler district.

The exploration is 1,380 feet from north and east lines of section 10, block 46, TP survey, T-1-S, and is just inside the east line of Winkler County.

U. S. ARMY TO HAND OVER SOVIET SPY SUSPECTS —

Russians Release Missing Yank And His Wife

BERLIN — (AP) — The Russians handed over a missing American warrant officer and his petite wife to U. S. Army authorities early Tuesday, and soon afterward the Americans announced they were releasing three Russian espionage suspects to the Red Army.

The civilian-clad Russians, two of whom claimed to be Red Army officers, had been arrested in the U. S. zone two weeks ago, it was announced.

The Americans, Warrant Officer and Mrs. Samuel L. Harrison of San Antonio, Texas, disappeared 15 days ago when they ventured 500 yards into the Russian occupation zone to see a pet shop dog kennel. Harrison said he was held two days in virtually a dungeon; his wife said she was questioned repeatedly and at one time cried during an interrogation.

Two other Americans still were missing somewhere in the Russian zone. Gen. M. Dratvin, Russian deputy military governor, advised U. S. Army authorities the Red Army still was "collecting data" on the men in the neighborhood of Oranienberg, a Russian army district headquarters.

The missing men were Capt. Harold Cobin, of Newark, N. J., and Lt. George Wyatt, of Oklahoma City, who were last seen July 4 boarding a train for Oranienberg, 20 miles north of Berlin.

Maj. Gen. James A. Keating, American commander in Berlin, said strenuous efforts were being made to secure their release. Harrison and his wife, Helen, were released to Keating at 1:45 a. m. at Russian headquarters.

American intelligence officers said they had no trace of Cobin and Wyatt since the driver of their jeep left them at a Northern Berlin railway station.

Brig. Gen. Edwin L. Sibert, chief of the U. S. headquarters intelligence division, said in a statement the three Russians had been held on suspicion of espionage in the U. S. zone of Berlin.

"The arrest of these civilian-clad, foreign clandestine operatives in the U. S. zone of Berlin in no wise violated any written, oral or implied quadripartite agreement in that city," the statement said. "Our policy in the future must be the same or more severe, depending on the circumstances."

Key Munitions Figure
Dr. Henry Garsson, key figure of the so-called "paper empire" of munitions firms now under congressional scrutiny, leaves the Senate Office Building in Washington, after being excused from testifying before the Senate War Investigating Committee. Garsson demanded and was granted his constitutional right not to testify against himself.

DALLAS — (AP) — Tight restrictions on commercial and industrial construction in effect for the last 45 days have been extended indefinitely, Robert C. Watson, deputy regional manager of the Civilian Production Administration, has announced.

Watson's region covers the states of Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and New Mexico.

The CPA, Watson said, is making a survey on building materials and supplies to see if the restrictions should be tightened or eased.

Acting to bring construction into balance with building materials and supplies, CPA ordered field officers on May 29 to cut dollar valuation of authorizations to two-thirds.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — By a vote of 211 to 64, the House Tuesday rejected the Senate OPA Bill and sent it to a House-Senate Conference Committee for a new effort to write a compromise price control measure that President Truman will sign.

LONDON — (AP) — The Belgrade radio reported Tuesday rejection of Gen. Draja Mihailovic's appeal for mercy after his sentence to death Monday on charges of collaboration with the Germans. The broadcast said appeals of his 23 colleagues who were also found guilty of collaboration and treason had been rejected too.

WARSAW — (AP) — Outlawed NSZ bands operating in the Kielce district were reported Tuesday to have seized nine Jews as hostages for nine Poles who were convicted of setting off the July 4 pogrom at Kielce and—it was disclosed Monday — executed. The nine Jews, according to these advices, were threatened with death at the time of their seizure if the lives of the Poles were not spared.

Dallasite Arrested After Widow Says He Took Money, Refused Marriage

DALLAS — (AP) — Gage Williams, 44, publisher, poet, short story writer and expert linguist in African tribal languages, is being held in the Dallas County jail on charges of theft brought by a 53-year-old Dallas widow who claimed in a petition filed in court that she gave him more than $39,000 in cash and jewelry in expectancy of marriage.

Williams, in a county jail pending posting of a $10,000 bond, denied he had obtained money by fraudulent pretext and said Mrs. Human, a student in his school here, had invested the money for profit. He is charged specifically with theft over $50 in a complaint filed in Justice of the Peace W. L. Sterrett's court.

In her petition, Mrs. Human alleged Williams had left her with only $200. She declared she furnished Williams with $12,694 in cash and gave him $9,000 in jewelry, that he purchased a house in Dallas in his own name and furnished it. She said she gave him other sums totaling $17,350.

She alleged he set the date for their marriage on June 18 but postponed it, that he renewed his declaration of love for her as late as last Saturday and promised they would be married Monday.

Williams said he is married and lives with his wife in Dallas.

Hearing on a permanent injunction is set for Friday.

Travis County Bar Endorses Smedley
AUSTIN — A strong recommendation and endorsement of the candidacy of Associate Justice Graham B. Smedley for an elective term on the Texas Supreme Court has been registered by members of the Travis County Bar.

The endorsement was regarded as highly significant, inasmuch as the 127 Travis County lawyers who signed it have had the best opportunity to observe the judicial career of Judge Smedley at close hand.

The former Fort Worth attorney rose to the Supreme Court after an outstanding legal career which included service as Midland County attorney, six years as an assistant attorney general, many years of private law practice, and 10 years as presiding judge of Section B of the Supreme Court Commission of Appeals.

War Firm To Return Money

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Munitions Maker Allen B. Gellman told the Senate War Investigating Committee Tuesday that he had accepted Henry Garsson, his wartime associate, as a "super salesman" because "the proof of the pudding was in the eating of it."

Gellman testified that Garsson had backed up his claim of ability to obtain government munitions orders by (1) getting a big advance contract and (2) by showing him a letter from the chemical warfare service expressing hope that he (Garsson) would "share" in future business.

He denied, however, that Garsson had ever told him that he had "special influence" in Washington. Testimony has been introduced to show that Garsson obtained help from Representative May (D-Ky.) on problems of an Illinois munitions combine.

He declared that the government would get back "every cent it has coming from interests in which he and J. T. Weiss are associated."

Gellman said that he had made a "mistake" by not having Garsson, his added wartime partner, more thoroughly investigated before they decided to go into the munitions business together.

The witness testified Monday that "appearances" misled him into association with Henry and Murray Garsson, brothers.

Gellman, describing himself as "deeply humiliated" by earlier testimony dealing with the background of the two brothers, told the Senate War Investigating Committee Monday he had "cut loose" from the Garssons so he could "fight my own battle."

FBI reports read into the committee's record have identified Henry Garsson as a dismissed internal revenue agent and Murray Garsson as a one-time associate of Dutch Schultz and Owney Madden, as well as a former investigator for the Labor Department in 1931 and 1932.

Truman Signs British Loan Bill
WASHINGTON — (AP) — The United States risked an open split with Russia Tuesday in an attempt to force economic unification of Germany.

Secretary of State Byrnes declared Monday night that orders giving Russia a choice between cooperation or "economic paralysis" in Germany will go forward "this week" to Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, American military commander at Frankfurt.

The orders will be to cooperate with any or all of the other occupying powers—Britain, France and Russia—in finance, transportation, communication, trade and industry.

In a radio report to the American people on successes and failures of the four-power council of foreign ministers at Paris, Byrnes asserted: "We will either secure economic cooperation between the zones or place the responsibility for the violation of the Potsdam agreement."

Russia declined at the Paris meeting to go along either on economic measures, guarantees for keeping Germany disarmed for a quarter of a century, or the writing of a peace treaty for Austria.

On those points, Byrnes observed, the conference "made no progress at all." He pinned the blame squarely on Russia.

"I do not believe," he declared, "that the Soviets realize the doubts and suspicions which they have raised in the minds of those in other countries who want to be their friends by the aloofness, coolness and hostility with which they have received America's offer to guarantee jointly the continued disarmament of Germany."

Peace Conference Gives Hope
But on the success side of the ledger Byrnes listed the calling of a peace conference for July 29 to consider treaties, drafted in tentative form at the Paris council, for Italy and the former Axis satellites.

Prospects are bright, he said, for treaties that will let the people of five occupied states "live and breathe as free people." He added: "We are on the road back to peace."

But the four powers had a "great struggle and tremendous difficulties" in harmonizing their views as much as they did on peace treaties, the secretary said. He presented a grim picture of the tugging and hauling that went on over Germany and Austria.

30 Sent To Prison For Slaying GIs

DACHAU, GERMANY — (AP) — An American military court sentenced 43 veteran German SS troops to death Tuesday for the slaughter of 900 American soldiers and Belgian civilians during the winter battle of the Ardennes bulge.

The crimes were committed during Germany's last offensive around the Christmas season of 1944.

Prison sentences ranging up to life were given the other 30 of the 73 officers and men convicted last Thursday.

Col. Joachim Peiper, who gave the fateful order that the SS troops were to take no prisoners, was one of those doomed. Testimony was that he ordered frozen, exhausted and disarmed American prisoners shot during the battle and that the Germans sang songs of massacre on the eve of the offensive.

Col. Gen. Josef (Sepp) Dietrich, veteran of Adolf Hitler's abortive beer hall putsch in 1923 in nearby Munich and commander of the German Sixth Panzer Army, was sentenced to life imprisonment. His troops spearheaded the December-January battle.

Lt. Gen. Hermann Priess, commander of the First SS Panzer Corps, was sentenced to 20 years in prison.

Grig. Gen. Fritz Kraemer, chief of staff of Dietrich, was given 10 years.

Testimony at the trial showed that 750 American prisoners were slaughtered and 150 Belgian civilians also were put to death.

Officer Laughs At Sentence
Peiper, the highest ranking officer among those sentenced to die, laughed when a photographer's flash bulb exploded in his face when the sentence was pronounced.

Peiper was the dazed commander of the "Task Force Peiper," an armored formation which included his own First SS Panzer Regiment. It was his men who participated in the massacre of American prisoners of war at the Belgian town of Malmedy, a key in the decisive battle.

The formal death sentence provided for hanging.

The doomed men asked the court for permission to be shot, instead. The court announced that a recommendation to that effect would be made to Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, commanding general of American forces in Europe.

Robert Lee Lake Is Offered As Source For Permian Water
The Upper Colorado River Authority at Robert Lee has urged representatives of the five cities recently formed into the Colorado River Municipal Water Association to obtain their water from the imminent Robert Lee lake at a "minimum cost. Addition of 25 miles of pipe to the 100-mile proposed pipeline system would substitute for the additional dam upriver, the UCRA said.

The Colorado River Municipal Water Association is studying the possibility of constructing a dam near Colorado City and laying a pipeline to Colorado City, Snyder, Big Spring, Midland and Odessa to supply those cities with much needed water. Cost of the project is estimated at $10,000,000.

A meeting Monday in Robert Lee of representatives of the five cities and the UCRA, at which the offer was made, was harmonious throughout.

It was the second consecutive month Bissell has won the honor. He scored 5,440 points in obtaining membership during the month.

Winston Hull, who was top Wrangler the first month of the organization in May, was second with 3,100 points.

Fourteen of 16 Wranglers attended the breakfast. Clint Dunagan, foreman, presided. He reported the Cowhands amassed 8,610 points to 5,800 for the Roughnecks this month.

Wranglers voted to act as liaison between the businessmen and the Chamber of Commerce and to furnish suggestions, ideas and complaints they receive from businessmen to the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

Present Tuesday were: Tommie Wilson, Al Boring, Hull, Dunagan, Fred Fromhold, Paul Davis and Tom Sealey of the Roughnecks, and T. Paul Barron, R. J. (Doc) Graham, Pat Ruckman, Chester Sheppard, Bissell, Jim Daugherty, and Henry Murphy of the Cowhands.

It was reported that memberships in the Midland Chamber of Commerce are nearing 500. Ridge-way, Jr., West Texas Tile Company, Chicago Pneumatic Tool Company, George E. Failing Supply Company, Midland Motor Car Company, Lee near Colorado City and laying a pipeline to Colorado City, Snyder, Big Spring, Midland and Odessa to supply those cities with much needed water. Cost of the project is estimated at $10,000,000.

Rehearsal Of Second Bomb Test Set Friday
ABOARD USS MT. MCKINLEY — (AP) — The trigger that will set off the second atom bomb blast at Bikini will be tried out next Friday July 19, by exploding a simulated missile during the full-scale rehearsal of the second, underwater test.

A flash bomb loaded with powder to be exploded by a remote control radio impulse, will be mounted on a floating drydock anchored at the target center. The atom bomb itself will be slung beneath a craft especially modified for the purpose for the real test.

Vice Adm. William H. P. Blandy, atom test commander, said that no delays were foreseen for the test itself, scheduled for July 25, Bikini time (July 24, U. S. time).

Taxpayers May Get Ad Valorem Holiday
AUSTIN — (AP) — A one-year holiday from state general fund ad valorem taxes for Texas taxpayers was considered likely Tuesday by Gov. Coke Stevenson.

If the possibility develops last year's ad valorem tax rate of 72 cents per $100 evaluation would be slashed to a maximum of 37 cents for this year.

Governor Stevenson said he has called a meeting for Monday of the automatic tax board, charged by law with setting the ad valorem tax rate each year. Last year 35 cents was allotted for general fund support, 35 cents for the available school fund and two cents for the Confederate veterans' pension fund. Each division of the rate was the maximum permitted by law and the constitution.

Law On Exemption Certificates Upheld
AUSTIN — (AP) — A law requiring citizens over the age of 60 in cities of 10,000 population or more to renew their exemption certificates annually as a prerequisite to voting was held unconstitutional in an attorney general's opinion Tuesday.

The law was passed by the last legislature.

Competent observers estimated the effect of the opinion would be to enfranchise at least 100,000 persons over 60 who otherwise would not have been able to vote in the July primary.

SALLY couldn't have told what she ate that evening. The letter in her pocket weighed heavily. She knew it was from Richard Gregory. What had he discovered—if anything? He must have found out something else he wouldn't have written. In her room some time later she drew out the typewritten pages and scanned them with foreboding. One sentence stood out from the page in letters of flame:

"Capt. Blair Canfield is due in Washington on July 7th at which time he is to receive the Congressional Medal from the hands of the President of the United States."

Sally sat down suddenly in the nearest chair. What should she do? What could she do? It would be in all the papers. Jim Hallock would know she had lied and despise her. She picked up the letter again. Blair Canfield lived in Iowa. His father would accompany him to Washington. Oh, why had she chosen that name? What evil spirit had possessed her? She read on, scarcely comprehending the information Richard Gregory had written.

"The elder Canfield has connections in the East—believe it or not, my dear—in Lintonville. They plan to stop off in your town for a visit with certain distant relatives but—and this is a break for you—there is to be no fanfare—no entertaining moment. "Hop in and we'll go together."

She got in beside him just as the crowded bus lumbered past. Sally sighed in relief. "I'm glad I didn't have to sandwich myself into that crowd," she told him gratefully. "You must be gifted with second sight, Jim," she went on impulsively. "I was wishing you would come along."

"HONESTLY, Sally?" he asked, his face flushing with pleasure. "I wish I dared believe that."

"You may," she told him gingerly and the little car swerved dangerously as he turned to look at her. "But—do you know where I'm going, Jim?"

"Sure. Where I intend taking you. Out to the Bacon cabin. Right?"

"Right. Were you invited for dinner, too?"

"I was, and I knew you were; but was told you couldn't make it. Then when you changed your mind, Carol phoned me and I stuck around hoping to pick you up before the bus did. Swell people, the Bacons!"

Sally laughed. "Swell match-makers or they think they are," she said demurely.

"Do you mind?" he asked almost dubiously.

Sally laughed again. "Not a bit," she told him. "It is all so terribly obvious a child could see through them. Of course," she went on softly, "if it were any other man it might prove embarrassing, but—"

"But what, Sally?" he whispered and the car slid gently into the shallow roadside ditch and settled with what appeared to be permanence while the two in the shabby, battered coupe were quite unaware of what had happened.

"You—you're nice, Jim!" the girl whispered in her turn.

"O-oh, Sally!" he breathed and held her close while his lips found hers and clung for a long ecstatic moment.

Eons passed while the earth spun crazily and the stars sang together the age-old melody reserved for lovers.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority

Today's hand, from Dick Kaplan of Asheville, N. C., involves another trump coup but a variation from the one given yesterday. West's strong bidding led Kaplan (East) to believe that the contract would be safer at four spades than at three no trump.

After winning the first trick South continued with the ten of clubs. Kaplan had nothing to lose by playing dummy's jack, and when it held, he discarded a small heart. A spade was led, Kaplan won with the ace and returned a low spade which South won with the queen.

Now South might still hold the king of spades, in which case North would have only the ten, but Kaplan decided to provide against a bad trump break.

South led back the jack of hearts, dummy won with the ace and immediately cashed the king of hearts. A small club was ruffed and a low diamond played to dummy's king so that the king of clubs could be ruffed. This reduced Kaplan's trumps to the number held by North.

The diamond queen was cashed, and a diamond was led to the ace. North had to trump the next trick, which allowed Kaplan to make his jack of spades.

The purpose in this hand was to avoid losing three trump tricks. The nice play was in cashing the second heart before ruffing clubs, as otherwise North would have discarded a heart.

Musial Sparks Cardinals As St. Louis Drives Within Game And Half Of Lead

By RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Boston can have Ted Williams, its colorful thumping outfielder. St. Louis fans will take Stanley Frank Musial who is punishing National League hurling at a .367 clip and leading Eddie Dyer's Red Birds in their drive to overtake the league lead from the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Musial, who roamed the outfield for the Cards prior to this season, has been holding down first base since early June and the left-handed slugger has been playing the bag as if he never performed at another position, in addition to belting the ball in his prewar style.

MAAF Subdues Equitable, 10-9

Midland Army Air Field climbed a notch in the JayCee city softball league Monday night, downing Equitable Life Insurance, 10 to 9, with a last inning rally.

The victory shoved MAAF within striking distance of the league-leading JayCees and Oil Scouts, who have won three and lost one each. MAAF has won three and lost two.

Equitable scored five runs in the first half of the seventh to go ahead, 9 to 8. Jennings, pitcher, tripped and scored three runs ahead of him.

Hits by Dimmy, Wilson and Frazer accounted for the other two runs in the frame.

In the last half of the seventh, the Army accounted for two runs it needed and that was the ball game. Brown of MAAF got on base on an Equitable error and scored on Stevens' fielder's choice. Then Dunlap, pitcher, hit one that the right fielder just flagged and scored Stevens for the winning run.

Dimmy hit a homerun for Equitable with the bases loaded in the third.

Mackey Storms Burl's, 16 To 13

Mackey Motors beat Burl's One-Stop, 16 to 13, in an exhibition softball game Monday night, but it was quite a battle.

The Macks forged out ahead in the second inning with an eight-run barrage. Burl's came back in the sixth and tied it up.

Then the Macks, playing good ball this second half of the city chase, went on to win.

It was an inter-league fracas with Mackey Motors from the Blue and Burl's from the Red.

Midland Schools May Get Additional $17,974

The increase of the state's per capita scholastic apportionment to $41 next year, announced Monday by the State Board of Education, would mean an additional $17,974 for the Midland Independent School District. Supt. Frank Monroe said Tuesday. The figure is based on 2,979 scholastics.

Action of the state board is conditioned on a ruling of legality from the attorney general.
