

OPA Conferees Fail To Reach Agreement

Second Confab Of Day Set For Afternoon

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Democratic Leader Barkley (Ky.) said Friday a Senate-House conference committee had found "no common ground" for agreement on the terms of an OPA revival bill.

"It doesn't look so good," Barkley told reporters, when asked about chances of an agreement on the Senate-approved measure which administration lieutenants are seeking to revise to meet reported objections of President Truman.

Barkley said a proposal drafted by a subcommittee headed by Senator Radcliffe (D-Md) to provide for the restoration of price ceilings on major items exempted by the Senate was in such "rough form" that the committee made no progress in considering it.

He hinted at a possible compromise by which the decision on returning commodities to OPA control might be given to the Civilian Production Administration. He said this would eliminate contentions that the OPA would be arbitrary in its decisions.

The prospects for an OPA revival hit a new low as the CIO called for a national buyers' strike and a new round of wage increases.

Barkley talked to reporters after the conferees ended a morning session. He said they would meet again later in the day for another try at an agreement.

Alpine Residents Receive Threats

(Special to The Reporter-Telegram)

ALPINE—Brewster County officers, U. S. postal inspectors, and agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation are seeking clues in an effort to establish the identity of the person or persons who mailed threatening notes to at least 14 Alpine individuals, firms and organizations recently.

Each of the notes bore the typed line, "You are subject to murder," on a single sheet of paper apparently taken from a scratch pad.

The notes were turned over to the FBI agent here, and have been sent to the bureau laboratory in Washington for examination. Officers have not arrived at a conclusion as to whether the notes are the work of pranksters or other hoaxers, and are awaiting the laboratory report for possible clues.

Only two of the notes were sent to individuals, it was reported, with others being directed to firms or organizations, including the Baptist Church and the Border Patrol. It was reported that most of the recipients were members of the church.

CONTENDS INNOCENCE TO THE LAST

Guadalcanal Marine Executed For Death Of Government Girl

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Earl McFarland, Marine veteran, died in the electric chair Friday for the rape slaying of a young government girl.

The 25-year-old McFarland, who saw service in the Guadalcanal campaign, went to the chair in the District of Columbia jail at 9:05 a. m. (CST), and was pronounced dead seven minutes later.

He walked calmly to the chair, a cigarette dangling from his lips, to pay the penalty for the murder of 18-year-old Dorothy Berrum of Chippewa Falls, Wis., in October, 1944.

Just before he started on the last 100 paces to the execution chamber the boyish appearing veteran, a native of Knoxville, Tenn., issued a statement reiterating his contention of innocence.

Several hours earlier, he ate a breakfast of ham and eggs, toast and coffee. Thursday night, he had chicken for dinner.

McFarland helped jail guards to adjust the straps on the chair just before the powerful current flashed through his body.

An 11th hour attempt to delay the execution failed Thursday night when Chief Justice Vinson rejected a petition for a stay pending a lunacy hearing.

Col. Curtis Reid, jail superintendent, said McFarland's last request was for permission to walk alone from his cell to the death chamber. Two prison chaplains who would have accompanied him, went instead to an anteroom to witness the electrocution.

Indicted To Second Death

He was convicted of garroting Miss Berrum with her own snood. He was also indicted in the death of Mrs. Margaret Fitzwater, but was never tried. Mrs. Fitzwater's body was found in a lagoon near the Pentagon, a few days before Miss Berrum's death.

The Rev. Daniel Potter, Protestant chaplain who attended McFarland, said McFarland was baptized in the Protestant faith Wednesday night and took communion Thursday morning.

"He is prepared to meet his Maker. His spirit is at ease," the clergyman said.

McFarland apparently was resigned to his fate after his 12 days of freedom gained in a desperate escape with Joseph D. Medley, another convicted murderer, last April 3.

Medley was at large only half a day, but McFarland was not recaptured until April 15 in Knoxville.

The escape of the pair from the district jail was one of a series which led to a congressional investigation.

In his final hours, McFarland agreed to give his eyes to a blind person scheduled to undergo an operation in New York later in the day. The plan fell through, however, jail Superintendent Curtis Reid said, when McFarland's relatives objected to a post-mortem operation.

Reid did not disclose who had proposed the arrangement for transplanting the corneas of McFarland's eyes to the blind patient. Neither did he identify the patient.

Paige—state bee inspector—was hauling 80 hives of bees which were released in the crash.

Additional Controls Placed On Lumber

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Civilian Production Administration Friday ordered new controls on use of certain types of lumber in a move designed to boost output of hardwood flooring for veterans housing.

The agency estimated that the new order, effective August 1, will help increase production of such flooring by 38 per cent during the rest of this year.

To channel more flooring to homes, the regulation prohibits:

1. Builders from using beech, birch, hard maple, oak or pecan boards or dimension lumber for framing, wall or roof sheathing, boxing, siding or sub-flooring in any house or other structure.
2. Sawmill operators, lumber suppliers or distributors from delivering to a builder these kinds of lumber in the form of boards or dimension stock.

GOODLAND, KAN.—(AP)—A C-47 military transport plane crashed and burned west of here Thursday night killing 10 passengers and three crew members.

The crash, not discovered until Friday morning, apparently occurred during a severe electrical storm which swept this area Thursday night. Farmers living nearby said they saw a blinding flash in the vicinity but thought it was a bolt of lightning.

Bodies and parts of the plane were scattered for about a quarter of a mile around the scene, in a wheat stubblefield, three miles west and a mile north of this western Kansas city.

Sabath Called Firm To Obtain Pinochle Third

Barkley Denies Calls Although Son Worked While For Combine

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Senate War Investigating Committee Friday issued a subpoena for the appearance of Rep. Andrew J. May, Kentucky Democrat, at its war profits investigation into a Midwest munitions combine.

The committee has received testimony that May interceded on behalf of the Erie Basin Metal Products Company Batavia Metal Products Company and allied firms that got some $78,000,000 in war contracts.

Chairman Mead (D-N. Y.) said the board expects May to testify Tuesday. May told reporters he had "no comment."

May has said in public statements that he did not profit personally, that he was merely serving the war effort and doing what all other congressmen had done.

Chairman Mead (D-N. Y.) of the investigating committee read the constitutional restriction on arrest of members of Senate or House during a session, except on treason, felony or breach of peace charges.

Then he said: "The committee expects Congressman May to respect this subpoena."

May had indicated last week he might appear before the committee voluntarily if it would give him the right to call or cross examine witnesses or subpoena records. The committee refused to accede to such terms.

In issuing the subpoena for May's appearance, Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) remarked it should be made clear that the committee is "going to take all the steps the constitution allows" to bring the House member before it.

May is chairman of the House Military Committee.

Before it came up with the May subpoena, the committee heard Representative Sabath (D-Ill.) testify that two or three times he had called the Washington office of the combine—but only to get a third for a pinochle game.

Sabath told the Senate War Investigating Committee, however, that he never had been asked to help the group get war contracts.

He said he merely had played pinochle a few times with Murray Garson or Joseph F. Freeman, Washington representative of the Erie Basin Metal Products Company, Batavia Metal Products Company and affiliated firms in an outfit which got some $78,000,000 in war orders.

Earlier, Democratic leaders of both Senate and House disclaimed any dealings with the combine's Washington agency.

Senator Barkley said he never had been asked to help get contracts and had never personally telephoned the Washington office of Erie-Batavia. Representative McCormack (Mass.) said he never had made a call to the Washington agency or received one from it.

Son Employed by Firm

Barkley said that "it's true" that his son David worked for a while for one of the companies in the combine, although he did not know the title of the job.

After the son was discharged from the Army Air Forces after the war, Barkley said, he came to Washington and consulted various people about a job.

The senator said that Murray Garson, one of the brothers involved in the munitions group, found out in some way the son was looking for a position and had him come down to a meeting.

"When I got home that night, he had hired him," Barkley said. "I thought it looked like quick work."

Central Hockley Wildcat Area Is To Be Explored

By JAMES C. WATSON

Oil Editor

Ballard and Cody have filed applications with the Railroad Commission to drill two wildcats in Central Hockley County, about two miles northeast of closest completed oil well on the east side of the Levelland field.

The explorations will be on a lease acquired by those operators on a farmout from Skelly Oil Company.

Mallard and Cody No. 1 Talley will be 440 feet from south and west lines of the west half of labor 17, league 733, State Capitol Lands survey.

Ballard and Cody No. 2 Talley will be 440 feet from north and west lines of the same lease.

Northwest of Levelland

They are both projected to around 5,000 feet to explore the Levelland field. It is presumed that No. 1 will be drilled first, and in the event it is a producer the second location will be drilled. The lease is approximately one and one half miles northwest of the town of Levelland.

H. W. Snowden of Dallas has filed applications with the Railroad Commission to drill three explorations on the northeast side of the Fullerton field, in Northwest Andrews County.

The applications state that slotted depths to which the tests will go is 10,000 feet. That should reach the Ellenburger.

On Sinclair Farmout

The lease is northeast quarter of southwest quarter and north half of southeast quarter of section 22, block A-26, psi survey. It totals 120 acres and is a farmout from Sinclair Prairie Oil Company. It is understood that Sinclair retained rights below 7,500 feet, but it is possible that the explorations may be carried to the 10,000-foot level—even under that arrangement.

Snowden No. 1 Chesley will be at center of northeast quarter of southwest quarter of the section.

Snowden No. 2 Chesley will be at center of northwest quarter of southeast quarter of the section.

Snowden No. 3 Chesley will be at center of northeast quarter of southeast quarter of the section.

Swabbing After Acid

The Texas Company No. 1-P State, North-Southwest Andrews County possible wildcat discovery, was swabbing to clean out and test after treating at 7,170-7,250 feet, with 1,000 gallons of acid.

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1-B G. H. Cowden, East Crane County wildcat, was bottomed at 10,192 feet in line, and was understood to be taking a drillstem test.

Lion Chemical Corporation No. 1 Strom, West Seely County exploration, had reached 1,833 feet in line, topped at 1,715 feet, and was drilling ahead. Elevation is 2,342 feet.

Hunt Oil Company No. 1 Hill, West-Southeast Winkler County wildcat, swabbed an average of two barrels of fluid per hour from perforations in the Tubb-Permian at 6,100 feet. It was salt water with a trace of low gravity oil. Swabbing was continuing.

Cotton Reaches New Peak Of 36 Cents

NEW YORK—(AP)—"36 cent cotton" was flashed across commodity tickers Friday for the first time since 1923.

In a strong renewal of an almost uninterrupted advance lasting the better part of three weeks, cotton futures crossed the 36 cent line for two deliveries—December and next March—at the opening of the cotton exchange and other positions were not far behind.

At that level, the market was less than two cents a pound under the peak of 37.70 cents, established in the 1923-24 season.

Washington To Seek Kensington For Crime

DALLAS—(AP)—Sheriff Smoot Schmid Friday received a telegram from Sheriff Harlan S. Kallahan of Seattle saying extradition proceedings would be made to return William G. Kensington, 44, ex-convict, to Washington to face a charge of grand larceny.

Kensington, who last year setup short story writing schools in Dallas and Fort Worth under an assumed name, was held here in connection with charges by a 53-year-old Dallas widow that she had given him $39,000 on a promise of marriage.

TEXAN REPORTS ON PARIS CONFERENCE —

Connally Advocates 7-Point Plan To Prevent Future Wars

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Chairman Connally (D-Texas) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee outlined Friday a seven-point program for United States action to prevent the "unthinkable tragedy" of a third world war.

In a report on the Big Four foreign ministers conference at Paris, Connally told the Senate it would be "rank insanity" for any of the great world powers to desert at this time the objectives of the United Nations.

None of the major nations wants war, the Texan said. Urging this country to "pin its hope and faith" in the United Nations, Connally proposed:

1. That in international dealings "we must stand firmly on those principles of law and justice expressed in the charter" and "expect other nations to do the same."

2. "We should unhesitatingly make available to the security council our full quota of troops, planes and ships necessary for the maintenance of world peace."

3. "We must maintain a strong Army, Navy and Air Force so that we may protect our land and our people and fulfill our obligations under the charter."

4. "We must put into treaty form the inter-American machinery contemplated in the act of Chapultepec."

5. "We should accept the compulsory jurisdiction of the international court of justice over those strictly legal disputes which affect the United States and any other state which has accepted the compulsory jurisdiction of the court."

6. "We should do our utmost to secure at the earliest practicable time complete agreement with respect to the control of the atomic energy and other weapons of mass destruction."

7. "We should lend our full support to the economic, social and humanitarian program of the United Nations and thus help establish those conditions in the world which are essential for enduring peace."

Connally told his colleagues that while difficulties had been encountered in reaching agreements among the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, Russia and France "we shall not despair."

"We will fight for peace with the weapons of reason and logic," he declared. "We shall fight for it with all the bloody memories of the tragedy and misery in the centuries that have gone. We shall fight for it in high hope and trust in the years to come."

DENIES MOVE WAS ATTEMPT AT UNION BUSTING —

Army Fires Five Officials At Proving Ground

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Army denied "union busting" charges Friday in the wake of an announcement that it had fired five civilian employees at the Aberdeen, Md., proving ground—scene of many top secret tests.

reporter the action was "an obvious union busting device."

Harry Spector, president of the Aberdeen local and one of those dismissed, said, "This is strictly a union matter."

Members of a UPWA delegation which tried vainly to protest to Secretary of War Patterson said the union was carrying on an organizing drive at Aberdeen and contended the discharge of the local's officers was more than a coincidence.

Where Rockets Tested

Maj. Gen. Floyd L. Parks, director of the War Department's bureau of public relations, announced the action by Brig. Gen. Alfred E. Quinton, Jr., commander at the proving grounds, where secret tests are carried out on rockets and other guided missiles as well as on guns, tanks and vehicles.

Quinton acted under a law which empowers the secretaries of war and navy to remove "in the interest of national defense" any Army or Navy employees for subversive activities. Specific reasons for the discharges were not announced.

The five, removed from their jobs June 22, were described by J. H. Mason, Patterson's assistant in charge of industrial relations, as "not mere routine employees." He declined however to describe them as scientists.

They were identified by Parks as Harry and Irving Spector, brothers, Abraham Kotichuck, Phil Weiss and Rheaibel Mendelsohn, the latter a woman.

Why War Bonds Are Cashed

The wholesale wave of cashing in War Bonds, so freely predicted a year and more ago, has not materialized, and apparently it isn't going to. For the first six months of 1946, sales of all types of war savings bonds were half a billion dollars greater than redemptions.

The period of war-contract cancellations, of reconversion, has come and gone; a long, hard period of strikes has come and gone. And still over 71 per cent of all bonds sold are held by their owners.

Figures released by the Treasury's War Savings Division give total sales to date as totaling $42,000,000,000. Twelve billion dollars' worth have been cashed in, and $30,000,000,000' worth are outstanding.

If the percentage turn-in sounds high, it can be explained by a number of factors not visible in the figures themselves. Reasons given by persons who have cashed in their savings bonds provide good source material on what has happened to the financial condition of large numbers of persons in the last year.

The number of persons who are buying bonds on payroll-deduction plans has fallen off. The high was 27,000,000, last November. Today, it is 15,000,000.

Naturally, when there were cancellations of war contracts, lay-offs, strikes and other work stoppages, and when millions of War Bond buyers were discharged from the armed services, many people had to stop buying. But the idea that all, or a large part, of the wage-earners have had to turn in their bonds does not appear to be correct.

Those who have cashed their bonds are not necessarily the ones hardest hit by strikes. In the Pittsburgh and Detroit areas, which were the centers of steel and auto strikes that lasted nearly 100 days, redemptions, actually declined during the shut-down period.

Workers whose earnings in these industries were better than average weathered the strikes without having to sacrifice savings. Lower-income groups did not fare so well.

During the war years there were 10,000,000 persons making $15 a week or less. Half of them bought bonds.

In the next income group, persons earning from $15 to $35 a week, three-fourths bought bonds. Instead of buying $5 savings stamps, which were all they could afford and all that would have been expected of them, they bought higher-denomination bonds. When the war was over and their earnings declined, they had to cash in first, and they're out of the bond-buying market now.

Redemptions were highest last October. The Victory-Bond drive of November and December reversed that trend, and in January, always a good bond-buying month, sales were greater than redemptions.

STORY ABOUT CATS IS SELECTED FOR CHILDREN'S HOUR

"Cats and More Cats" by Diana Thorne and Connie Moran has been selected by Mrs. Paul Klatt as the story she will tell at the Children's Hour at 10:30 a. m. Saturday at the Midland County Library.

The story centers around a little old lady, Miss Buttonweezer, who was bothered with mice who ate her bread and cake and nibbled her black cat came to live with her. Before Miss Buttonweezer knew what was happening hundreds of cats had arrived to live at her home. The little old lady was happy because she was not bothered with mice, but after several days the cats became a problem.

Children of Midland County are urged to be present when Mrs. Klatt reveals the outcome of Miss Buttonweezer's situation. Members of the library staff are striving to build up the weekly attendance at the story hour and ask the cooperation of parents.

General Duty Nurse

WHEN Sally returned to her room she found Margaret Adams seated on her bed laughing at Dora's rhapsodies. Sally dressed in haste. She didn't want to discuss her engagement just now and yet she knew Margaret would be hurt if she didn't tell her. However, she was saved the trouble by Dora who blurted out the whole thing.

"And don't act as surprised at that bit of news as you did when I shot my bolt," she advised. Margaret laughed.

"It really isn't surprising at all," she said. "I'm awfully glad, Sally. Jim Hallock is a fine man and I'm sure you're going to be happy. But how are you going to square yourself with Sunderlin? That's what puzzles me."

"Listen," Sally said seriously. "It's Aunt Clem's prerogative to announce this engagement, girls. Personally, I should prefer keeping it entirely secret. It is really nobody's business, you know, and after all, rules are rules, and Jim is still a member of the staff, though not for long now. He may be released any day now."

"Just the same I feel in my bones that the Duchess is going to blow a gasket, whatever that is, when she hears about it," Dora announced. "She may be willing to make an exception in your case, Sally, but wait until she hears of my infringement of her sacred rules!"

The girls laughed at her. "You are not being especially frightened at the prospect, we can see that very clearly," they told her.

"And why should I be?" Dora asked. "If Linton can get along amazement at the sight of Sally Maynard in the arms of the resident that Sally lifted her head and accepted the big handkerchief he put into her hand.

"It is something the matter?" Norma asked, her face avid with curiosity. "Can I do anything?"

"Th-thanks," Sally gulped. "I'm all right now."

"MAYNARD'S just about worn out, Holden," Doctor Willoughby told the staring nurse. "If you're not busy right now you might take her over to her room and see that she lies down for a while. You might fix her a bromide—or, wait a minute, I'll give her something to quiet her. An hour's nap will put her back in shape all right." He went into one of the rooms down the hall and returned with a glass of water and a small tablet. "Take this," he told her, "and trot along to your room."

"I'm all right," Sally insisted, as Norma took her arm. "I am quite capable of going alone." Norma's arm dropped and she stepped back. "But," Sally added quickly, sensing the other's hurt, "if you aren't busy or needed for a minute or two I should be glad to have you come with me." She spoke diffidently and saw Doctor Willoughby's nod of approval. Had he sensed the antagonism between her and Holden? She drew Norma's hand through her arm and they walked slowly down the stairs and out through the side door where Sally paused for a moment to breathe deeply before going on to the Annex.

"They work us like horses in this place," Norma said tentatively as the two mounted the stairs to Sally's room. "But I didn't think you had been having it so hard as some of the rest of us. Shows how mistaken a person can be."

"I imagine a vacation wouldn't hurt any of us," Sally said, wondering if Norma, too, was aware of what Doctor Willoughby had said so perfectly obvious to the entire staff.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority
Tournament bridge eliminates luck in the cards because all pairs play the same hands. There is naturally an element of luck in the way the cards are played, although a judge once ruled that the element of luck in duplicate was in the position you sat at the table; and that the play of the cards did not involve luck, as that was either good or bad play.

However, Jay T. Feigus of Brooklyn, N. Y., thought that was exceptionally lucky on today's hand. At most tables South and West had passed, North bid one heart, East two diamonds, and South then bid two spades. With South the declarer at four spades, and the five of diamonds opening, declarer had to lose two diamonds, two clubs and a heart—down two tricks. A slip in defense might set the contract only one.

Feigus said he intended to bid one heart, but by mistake said a spade, which the next hand promptly doubled. When his partner bid four spades, Feigus realized his mistake but decided against taking a stab in the dark with five hearts or four no trump.

He won the opening lead with the ace of hearts, took three rounds of trumps and led the jack of heart, East winning.

East could have cashed the ace of clubs at this point, but he was still trying to defeat the hand and led the six of diamonds. Feigus won with the ace and discarded dummy's losing clubs and diamonds on the four good hearts.

If East had opened the jack of diamonds, he could have put his partner in to lead through the club. Thus this East-West pair also would have set the contract two tricks. Bridge players know there is no luck in where you sit at the table, and there is ample proof of the judge's point that the play of the hand is all skill.

According to Federal court interpretations an airplane is not a "self-propelled vehicle."

Cards Take Lead In National League As Dodgers Drop Sixth Straight Game

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
Brooklyn's fond dream of a 1946 pennant has exploded into a grisly nightmare Friday with the Cardinals back in first place and the Dodgers on a six-game losing binge. Seven games ahead on the July 4 tidling line, the Dodgers have crashed toward their doom on a fatal western jaunt while St. Louis, safe at home, has eaten up the entire lead and forged ahead by a half game.
All is not lost for the Dodger faithful if the Brooks can pull out of the tailspin before it becomes a habit for the Red Birds still have

Scouts Trim Burl's, 15-3

The Kids ran the bases with abandon and fast Thursday night but the older boys won, meaning the Oil Scouts beat Burl's One Stop, 15 to 3, to go into a tie with the JayCees for the Red League leadership.
The Scouts have won four and lost one this half.
The Gaylemen turned on the power early in the game and had a 10 to 0 leeway to play on. The last two or three innings were better. The Kids pepped up and scored three runs.

A triple with two men on the sacks produced two tallies. Then the tripler was bunted in to score. It was a case of a powerful team finally stamping a spirited challenger. Burl's Kids displayed fire and youth, but this was not enough to outscore the potent Scouts.

Elder Edges TE, By 15-14

Elder Chevrolet beat Texas Electric 15 to 14 Thursday night, and it was one for the books.
The teams were evenly matched, but Elder got the nod from Fate and Fortune.
Both teams erred themselves out of a decisive win. Both pitchers had wild moments.
It was just such a game as the score indicated: 15 to 14.

two long eastern tours before the curtain drops.
The discouraging factor to the Brooks is the certain fact that St. Louis appears to be leveling off for another of its famous stretch drives.
The Phillies, who kept St. Louis out of first place Wednesday, fought hard to bar the door Thursday night but finally succumbed, 5-4.
Shoddy defensive play and inability to bunch his off Bucky Walters sent the Dodgers down for the sixth time, 4-2, in Cincinnati.
Braves Beat Cubs, 9-3.
Bill Lee halted the Chicago Cubs' upward march with a six-hit, 9-3 decision for the Boston Braves.
Pittsburgh broke Dave Koslos jinx, downing New York, 7-3, after the rookie southpaw had beaten them four straight times.
The Boston Red Sox maintained their 11-game lead over New York by nosing out Chicago, 3-2, on Tom McBride's third hit and second double.

Joe Gordon's two-run homer in the fourth inning was enough help for Mel Queen in recording his first triumph since his discharge from the Army. Queen, a loose-jointed righthander with a blazing fast ball, scattered eight St. Louis hits in his 3-1 success for the New York.
Other encouraging news to Yankee fans was the word that Shortstop Phil Rizzuto probably will rejoin his mates Saturday.
Gil Coan's speed enabled Washington to trim Detroit, 1-0.
Cleveland got to Russ Christopher for five hits and six runs in a big second inning to defeat Philadelphia, 7-3.

Midland Teams Invade McCamey

Two Midland softball teams travel Friday night.
Combined Grammer-Murphy and Durrell Insurance girl softballers and City Bus, men's team, go to McCamey for games with All-Star clubs.
The trip will be made by bus. Players and fans are asked to meet at the City Bus Station at 5:30 p. m. City Bus is furnishing the trip for free.
