A Bomb Sinks 2 Ships, 5 Subs

TWO LESSER VESSELS 'DISAPPEAR' AS WATER COLUMN SHOOTS 5,000 FEET HIGH

By HOWARD BLAKESLEE

ABOARD USS APPALACHIAN, BIKINI LAGOON—(P)—The first underwater atomic bomb, exploding with an awesome roar that thundered upward into a beautiful cloudy geyser, destroyed the battleship Arkansas and sank the huge old aircraft carrier Saratoga and seven lesser vessels Wednesday.

Associated Press Correspondent Don Whitehead, in the best position to view the blast from a B-29, said it was so powerful that the Arkansas was shoved far out of her original anchorage just before she plunged and other target vessels near the center of the fleet of 75 were tossed about like toys.

First to go in the mighty plutonium blast that was the second chapter of the Army-Navy "Operation Crossroads" was the old 26,100-ton battleship Arkansas. She and two small craft, a yard oiler and a tank-landing ship, simply disappeared in the pink-fringed mist at 8:35 a. m. (3:35 p. m. CST Wednesday).

Seven hours and 32 minutes later, at 11:07 p. m. the 33,000-ton Saratoga, war-worn old carrier, settled protestingly to the bottom of the Bikini Lagoon. Her prow nosed upward as if her stern were resting on the bottom, then disappeared.

A little later five submarines of the six that had been submerged in the lagoon were found to be resting on the bottom. Whether they were crushed or had sunk through some defects in their air lines was not known.

Fisher, Winkler Wildcats Show Oil And Gas Signs

By JAMES C. WATSON
Oil Editor

A Fisher County wildcat was showing for possible production from the Palo Pinto zone of the Pennsylvania and two Southeast Winkler County prospectors had developed signs of oil and gas in drill-stem tests, and both were making more hole Friday to look for more petroleum shows.

Skelly Oil Company No. 1 Huddleston, in southwest quarter of section 11, block 19, TP survey, in Southeast Fisher and about three miles west of the Noodle Creek field, which is in Southwest Jones County, was to run a second drill-stem test to total depth at 4,400 feet, in the Palo Pinto lime, which was topped at 4,371 feet, on a tentative call. Elevation is 1,854 feet.

In Palo Pinto Lime
The section from 4,383 feet to 4,400 feet carried some pinpoint porosity and oil stain. A drill-stem test was taken at 4,378-4,400 feet, for three hours.

Gas showed at surface in 15 minutes and there was a blow of gas the remainder of the period. After 160 stands of dry drill pipe had been pulled, 60 feet of drilling mud was recovered and then the drill pipe was unrolled an estimated 2,250 feet of heavily oil and gas cut mud. The 60 feet of clean oil, of 42.6-gravity at 78 degrees, was recovered. That was followed by 1,850 feet of heavily oil and gas cut drilling mud.

Operators were not satisfied with the test, as it developed that the drill pipe leaked under the packer. A new string of drill pipe was being carried to the location and the test was to be re-run late Thursday.

Lowie Gets Shows

Ralph Lowe No. 1 Sealy-Smith, about two and one-half miles west of the closest production in the North Monahans field, in Southeast Winkler County, and in southwest corner of section 71, block A, G&M&B&A survey, was drilling ahead below 5,007 feet, in middle Permian lime, after a 53-minute drill-stem test at 4,966-5,005 feet.

Recovery was 350 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud. No formation water had developed. Operator has not definitely identified the zone showing the possible production. Some geologists think it could be an upper section of the Holt middle Permian.

Operator was to make more hole and if more signs of oil and gas develop in the samples another test will be run.

Another in Winkler

Stanford Oil & Gas Company No. 8 Sealy-Smith, in northwest quarter of section 48, block A, G&M&B&A survey, and one and one-quarter miles south of closest producer in the North Monahans field, was coming from 5,185 feet, in the middle Permian.

A drill-stem test was taken at 5,092-5,185 feet, for one hour. Recovery was 85 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud, with no show of water.

Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company No. 3 Brown & Altman, one location south of the closest production from the Holt lime on the east side of the Emmeror-Holt field, in South-Central Winkler, is taking a drill-stem test on the section at (Continued on Page 4)

TO TESTIFY FRIDAY—

May Intervened In Army Court Martial Of Garsson's Son

Captain Found Guilty Of Disobeying Command And 'Relieved From Active Duty'

WASHINGTON—(P)—The War Department said Thursday that Representative May (D-Ky.) twice intervened with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower during the court martial of Capt. Joseph H. Garsson, son of a Midwestern munitions maker under congressional investigation.

In response to inquiries, the department said the House Military Committee chairman sent two letters to Eisenhower in behalf of young Garsson who was court-martialed on a charge of wilfully disobeying a lawful command of a regimental commander.

The letters went to Eisenhower in the European Theater. They handled in the "routine manner," the department said, and had "no influence whatever in the disposition of the case."

Garsson is the son of Murray Garsson, one of the promoters of the Midwestern munitions combine whose war profits are under scrutiny of the Senate War Investigating Committee. May, who has acknowledged intervening with the War Department in behalf of the combine, is scheduled to appear before the committee Friday.

Captain Garsson was brought to trial last April 2 in Europe. The War Department said the court found him guilty and sentenced him to dismissal, but recommended clemency. Garsson eventually was "relieved from active duty" January 22.

The department said a "summary of the facts" in the case showed: Captain Garsson was ordered to place his chemical mortar in a certain area near Gries, France, on Jan. 2, 1945. He protested, saying the position was "tactically unsound."

On the following day, the regimental commander of the 143rd Infantry (not further identified), ordered Garsson to move into the position. Garsson refused that order, as well as a second one from the commander. He was then relieved of command, and the charge of wilful disobedience was filed. Commander Orders Trial

An investigating officer on February 28, recommended an administrative reprimand, rather than a trial. However, in March, the commander of the 6th Corps ordered the court martial.

Evidence at the trial "discloses," the department said, that officers testifying for the defense backed up Garsson's assertion that the position at Gries was tactically unsound. (Continued on Page 4)

Yanks Break Up Riot Between Jews And Germans At Munich

Conferees Request Civilian Control Of Atomic Energy

WASHINGTON—(P)—Senate and House conferees agreed Thursday that the proposed atomic energy control should be composed exclusively of civilians.

They agreed also that the director of the division of military application should be a member of the armed forces.

The agreements, announced by Senator McMahon (D-Conn.), head of the Senate conferees working with a House group to adjust differences over atomic energy legislation, represented a compromise.

The House had insisted that at least one, and not more than two, members of the commission should be members of the armed forces. The Senate had insisted that all be civilians.

However, the House won its argument that the director of military application should be a military man instead of a civilian as recommended by the Senate.

The decisions of the conferees, however, are not binding on the Senate and House and must be approved by both chambers before becoming effective.

No agreement was reached over the controversial patent section and a provision in the House bill authorizing the President to direct the atomic energy commission to permit the armed forces to produce atomic weapons.

McMahon told reporters the conferees would meet again Thursday afternoon in an attempt to reach final agreement.

Communists Release Seven U. S. Marines

TIENTSIN, CHINA—(P)—Seven U. S. Marines who were captured July 13 by some 80 armed Chinese Communists were released Wednesday night to a special executive headquarters truce team, the Marine commandant announced Thursday. They were unharmed.

The Marines were seized by the Chinese at a small village 22 miles southwest of the port of Chinwangtao, where they had gone to obtain food.

Marine headquarters for the first time described the captors as Communists.

The Marines were identified as Sgt. John J. Herndon, Pfc. William O. Wick, Pfc. George A. Sullivan, Pfc. Robert P. Wright, Jr., Pfc. Wallace R. Maisel, Pvt. James W. Shipley and Pvt. Arthur Maldonado. Home addresses were not given.

They were turned over to the truce team at Nicheing, about 50 miles southwest of Chinwangtao, and were returned to their base Thursday.

Search by land, sea and air was conducted for six days after the Marines were seized. The hunt was called off to permit the truce team to negotiate with the Communists.

Marine headquarters offered no explanation of the incident. High Marine officers previously expressed the theory the Communists seized the men in an effort to make the Marines "lose face" in China.

Senate Passes Bill By Vote Of 53 To 26

Three-Man Decontrol Board May Be Named

WASHINGTON—(P)—President Truman probably will state whether he will sign or veto the OPA revival bill at a news conference scheduled late Thursday.

At the time of a White House announcement to this effect, the bill had not reached Truman. Although passed by Congress, it still had to go through the hands of the speaker of the House and the president of the Senate for their signatures.

It was expected to get to the White House soon after noon.

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross told reporters that the President's action on the legislation, approved early Thursday by the Senate, will not be announced in advance of the news conference.

The decision, Ross said, will be accompanied by a message to Congress in explanation of his action.

If the President signs the bill, Ross said, he will name the three-member price decontrol board it provides "very promptly."

Ross would not forecast the President's action, although other White House officials say privately and House Democratic Leader McCormack has said publicly, that he will sign the measure.

Except for rents many of the agency's wartime powers will be curbed or removed.

No Doubt on Capitol Hill
But on Capitol Hill, virtually no one expressed any real doubt that the President will sign the extension bill which the Senate passed a few minutes after midnight, 53 to 26, and sent to the White House.

The House previously had approved the measure, 210 to 142.

When signed by Truman, the bill automatically will re-establish rent and many of the price ceilings which lapsed July 1. OPA's plans are to follow quickly with a number of temporary adjustments on prices, pending calculation of new and higher ceilings required under the measure.

The bill gives OPA life through next June, but it prohibits restoration of price controls at least until August 20 on such major market basket items as meat and dairy products, as well as on grains, petroleum and tobacco.

Besides divesting OPA of much of its authority over prices of manufactured goods, the bill in the case of farm commodities gives all authority to the secretary of agriculture and ultimately to an independent three-man board.

This board is to be named by the President and confirmed by the Senate.

The legislation prohibits restoration of price controls before August 20 on meats, dairy products, eggs, poultry, petroleum, tobacco, cottonseed and soybeans, and their products. It also bans ceilings until at least that time on grain and livestock and poultry feeds made from grain.

How Board Works
The control board could rule by August 20 whether or not ceilings should be re-established on meats, dairy products, grains, cottonseed and soybeans. If it failed to act, ceilings would be restored automatically.

On the other items, ceilings could not be re-invoked even after August 20 unless the board gave its permission.

The bill also sets up a new pricing standard for fixing ceilings of manufacturers, producers and processors. These ceilings would reflect 1940 average industry-wide prices on each product, plus cost increases which have occurred since that time. Under the old law, 1936-39 was the price base.

Another provision requires OPA to restore the pre-war profit margins of dealers handling such so-called "reconversion" items as automobiles, radios, and household appliances.

On autos, where these margins had been cut 45 per cent, OPA has estimated that the cost of popular-priced cars would be raised an average of at least $75.

The bill also sets up a new formula for calculating price ceilings on cotton and woolen textiles. OPA officials said they expect this would necessitate considerable higher prices on these items, and consequently on clothing.

Subsidies amounting to $1,000,000 for the present fiscal year are authorized under the bill, but none could be paid on any ceiling-free products. The Administration had requested $2,000,000 in subsidies.

Charges And Counter-Charges Mark Battles On Texas Political Fronts

By GARTH JONES
Associated Press Staff

Communiques from the Texas political battlefront show no indication of an armistice before "E Day" on Saturday.

There appears to be no shortage of ammunition—or targets.

Wednesday night Candidate Governor Sellers continued his offensive against the State Democratic Executive Committee.

He again challenged the committee officials to affirm or repudiate the statement of a New York newspaper that Texas Democratic Party machinery is supporting Homer P. Rainey.

"You are entitled to know," Sellers told a Dallas audience, "so that when you go to your precinct conventions you will be able to determine whether you want to continue the present officials of the Democratic State Executive Committee in office."

Sellers threw flank attacks at Rainey and Beauford Jester. He accused Rainey of being a Communist and Jester of "using the whip of his railroad commission office, in which he still has four years to serve, to enforce the support of railroads, bus lines, oil and gas companies."

Jerry Sadler also bombarded Jester and Rainey.

"Beauford Jester said at Austin that he could defeat any other candidate in the run off," Sadler said at Hillsboro, "but I say that W. J. Minton of Sherman, who has withdrawn from the race, could have defeated Jester. The people of Texas are awake to the wealth behind his campaign and they are not going to let the special interests dominate the governor's office any longer."

Sadler said Rainey was "in the same boat."

"Rainey has obligated himself to special interests and special isms groups. He has gone contrary to Texas traditions. Men who have grown fat on war contracts are backing Rainey with all their might."

John Lee Smith joined Sellers in the attack against the State Democratic Executive Committee.

In Longview, Smith accused the body of trying "to create a black and tan Democratic Party in Texas."

"When I am elected governor I propose to restore the Democratic Party to its rightful owners—the white Democrats of Texas."

Smith asserted that negroes over the state have been meeting this week to pick their candidates. He said "reports have been received from Houston, Temple, Tyler, Lufkin and Texarkana that negroes in these cities will vote solidly for Rainey."

"If Dr. Rainey is in the runoff," Smith declared, "it will be because of the negro vote. I predict one-third of the Rainey vote will be cast by negroes."

Rainey charged in Houston Wednesday night that "big newspapers who own radio stations" were discriminating against him in reporting his campaign.

"Some of the big newspapers, who own radio stations, fail to publish my statements in full," Rainey declared, "or they pick out only a part of any statement I make, so that the opposition can play upon words and misrepresent my attitude on public questions."

Rainey again charged that "the same forces that got out the pamphlet questioning my patriotism, the same forces that repudiated The O-Daniel News attack on me" were responsible for a New York newspaper story, datelined Houston and signed by a Steve Potter, saying that the Communist Party had endorsed Rainey.

"My friends here in Houston have been unable to locate any such person as Steve Potter, either in the telephone directory or the city directory."

Jester, in Lufkin, leveled a barrage at such political methods as "for-men-only" meetings.

He promised that women would have a prominent part in the state government when he is governor.

"All my meetings are just like this one, open to men, women and children," he said. "All my literature is readable by everyone and will cause no embarrassment to women and children."

Jester then declared that he intends to appoint "many of the fine women of Texas to office when I am elected governor."

The candidate spoke before a large crowd including delegations from seven surrounding counties at a rally boosted as "Jester's East Texas victory rally."

Caso March casually tendered a warning to one of his opponents Wednesday night.

He said he would be in Throckmorton, hometown of Candidate John Lee Smith, Thursday and intended to "take Smith apart, piece by piece."

In Abilene Wednesday night, Larry Mills, candidate for lieutenant governor, assailed the Texas Regulars and W. Lee O'Daniel, whom he described as a puppet of special interests.

"The distasteful methods employed by these autocrats are a shame and disgrace and an insult to the intelligence of the loyal Democrats of the state," Mills said.

In Dickinson, Jo Ed Winfree, candidate for lieutenant governor, urged Texas voters to "turn the light of examination upon my indelible record during 12 years in the legislature."

He asserted that he fought for renewal of tax remission for seawall purposes at Galveston, Port Arthur and Freeport, as well as drainage in Hidalgo County. He said he "helped take graft out of the Colorado River and opened thousands of acres in Wharton and Matagorda counties."

Attorney General Candidate Pat Neff, Jr., at Crockett declared it "something new under the sun" when experience in a position of public trust is not recognized as a recommendation for promotion in the same department.

"A deliberate effort has been made to fool the people into believing that my eight and a half years in the attorney general department is a handicap and that there is something sinister in the fact that all of my former chiefs recommend me as an assistant and as a qualified lawyer," he said.

55 Peaches On Branch Two Feet Long Grown By Midland Family

Mrs. L. L. Comer, 1002 North Big Spring Street, challenges any peach grower in the county—or anywhere else for that matter—to beat her record in growing peaches.

She and her husband and two children, Lou Ann and Ronald, returned from a week's vacation in Colorado Wednesday to find the branches of two trees in their back yard bowed to the ground with clusters of peaches, and one branch had broken off from the weight.

Fifty-five tinted almost ripe peaches were counted on a branch not more than two feet long and three-fourths of an inch in diameter.

This is the first summer the Comers have lived at the North Big Spring Street home, but Mrs. Comer said neighbors had informed her that the trees, which are the Frank variety, are just three years old. A third tree, an Elberta, had numerous peaches, but not so many or near so ripe as the Franks.

Mrs. Comer said she was better peach grower than vacation fisherman. "I caught only two fish while we were fishing on the Junction River in Colorado," she said. "But they were big ones," she quickly added. In referring back to the peaches, she said, "I've got some canning to do."

Governor Urges Annual Air Day In Texas

AUSTIN—(AP)—Gov. Coke Stevenson has urged establishment of an annual air day in Texas in a proclamation setting September 7 as the state's first air day and designating Harlingen as host city.

Rio Grande backers of the idea told the governor they want to make air day the occasion for an annual aviation show, both spectacular and educational, with participants from every state in the union, from Mexico and other Latin American nations.

Hawthorne Phillips, Harlingen, headed the delegation which flew here for the signing of the proclamation. Phillips is chairman of the air day committee.

Phillips said preparations are being made for 80,000 visitors for the first annual air day show at Harlingen.

Colonel Thompson Says Proper Petroleum Conservation In Texas Brought Victory

DENTON—Texas was able to oil the Allied nations to victory in World War II because of proper petroleum conservation, Col. Ernest O. Thompson of the Texas Railroad Commission said in an address prepared for delivery here Thursday to southwestern educators attending a resource-use workshop.

"Texans can proudly and truthfully say that Texas oilled this war," Thompson declared. "It was due to ten years of strict proration and waste prevention in Texas prior to Pearl Harbor that Texas was able to supply four-fifths of the war oil."

Thompson, former chairman of both the Interstate Oil Compact Commission and Railroad Commission, outlined the program of conservation developed by this state and its petroleum industry. The workshop, sponsored by the regional Committee on Resource-Use Education, is being held at North Texas State College to work up information on natural resources conservation for Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Arkansas schools.

"We have moved into an oil age and it has advanced our standard of living," Thompson said. "Our economy today is largely supported by oil and gas. This is particularly true in Texas, where our present and future economy is closely tied in with the success of oil producing, refining and marketing. The petroleum industry in 1945 paid 52 per cent of all state business and property taxes in Texas. Surely it is to Texas' interest to prevent all possible waste of oil."

Defining waste prevention as the use of "those methods which will leave in the ground, never to be recovered by man, the least possible amount of oil," the commissioner traced the development of oil conservation practices.

"It is entirely possible now to ascertain, within very reasonable limits, the amount of oil in each acre-foot of the oil bearing reservoir," he explained.

Thompson discounted any predictions of an oil shortage.

"Let the law of supply and demand be free. Keep the government out of the oil business. Keep the oil business on its historic keenly competitive basis. Gasoline is far better today than it was 20 years ago and sells for about one-half of what it did then. Competition and research did this job—free enterprise at its best."

Court Martial

(Continued from Page 1) They also testified that the officer who replaced Garrison was not required to occupy the position. With the recommendation for clemency, the report of the case went to the 6th Corps headquarters where the corps judge advocate endorsed the clemency recommendation.

The 6th Corps commander, however, forwarded the case to Eisenhower's headquarters without such a recommendation.

There, Brig. Gen. Edward C. Betts, staff judge advocate and his assistant reviewing officer urged suspension of the sentences "in view of the circumstances and the previous creditable record of the accused."

On May 15, Eisenhower confirmed the sentence but followed Betts' recommendation and suspended its execution. Eisenhower, the War Department said, "made it a practice" to suspend sentences in cases where purely military offenses were involved and the court had recommended clemency.

Garrison returned from Europe on Oct. 22, 1945.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) demanded Thursday an immediate examination of a general who, he said, carried a clemency plea from Rep. May (D-Ky) to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in behalf of a munition maker's son under court martial.

Ferguson named the message bearer as Maj. Gen. Alden H. Waitt, now chief of the chemical warfare service.

The Senate War Investigating Committee released correspondence Thursday which showed May wrote Eisenhower twice the interests of Capt. Joseph H. Garrison, son of one of the promoters of a Midwest munitions combine under investigation.

Elkin Suggests Midland Develop Grape Industry

F. F. Elkin suggested that Midland develop a grape industry, in an address to rotarians at their meeting Thursday noon in the Scharbauer Hotel. County Agent Vernon Young and County Home Demonstration Agent Nettie Messick also discussed the excellent possibilities for a grape industry here.

"Grapes could provide a new industry for Midland," Elkin suggested. "If there is a fruit that has come down to us from the Garden of Eden, it is the grape."

He told of successful production of European varieties of grapes in California and the Southwest and said the Mission grape became a foundation for the grape industry in California.

Elkin, Young and Mrs. Messick emphasized the adaptability of the Zinfandel grape to this area.

Grapes, Elkin said, are adapted to soil of the type found in Midland County.

"We have the essentials here," he continued. "They are sunshine and plenty of it, dry, balmy air, no humidity dews and showers to mildew the ripening fruit; and a non-acid soil."

It has been estimated that the Midland country or trade area can qualify as large an area as the grape district of California.

He discussed possibilities of irrigation and the fact that sunshine easily can turn the grapes into excellent raisins.

From Zinfandel grapes, he said he had received net $400 per acre this year from two year old vines and at five cents per pound.

"At the same price, these vines should bring at least $1,000 per acre at four year olds."

Young discussed soils, means of preventing disease in vineyards and control of insects. Mrs. Messick detailed uses of grapes and their importance as a money crop and urged development of a grape industry in Midland County.

Dick Prather called attention to the club's new bulletin, Rotary Speaks, and said credit for the first issue goes to Dan H. Griffith and Delbert Downing.

Art Cofe was program chairman and praised the vision and foresight of Midlanders.

Dodgers Regain NL Lead As They Beat Chicago; Giants Down Red Birds

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Those who have started to count the Brooklyn Dodgers out of the National League pennant race because of their recent near-disastrous road trip, have done so without taking into account Brooklyn's amazing home record at Ebbets Field where they still have 38 games to play this season.

Forced to share the National League's top berth with the St. Louis Cardinals for four days after leading the parade for more than two months, the Dodgers wasted little time upon their return home Wednesday to regain undisputed possession of first place.

This they did by the simple medium of notching their 30th victory in 39 home games, at the expense of the third place Chicago Cubs while the Cardinals were thrashed by the New York Giants.

The Dodgers eked out a brilliant 2-1 triumph over the Braves, principally on the fine hurling of Southpaw Joe Hatten.

The Giants shoved the St. Louis aggregation one full game behind the Brooks when they beat the Cards for the ninth time in 14 meetings this season by a 3-1 score on the strength of Johnny Mize's 20th home run in the ninth inning with one mate aboard.

Red Sox Beats Chicago
In the American League, the pace-setting Boston Red Sox maintained their 11 1/2-game margin over the runner-up New York Yankees by taking advantage of a pair of miscues to defeat the Chicago White Sox 4-1.

The Yankees kept pace with the Red Sox by coming from behind to defeat the St. Louis Browns, 5-3.

Cleveland's Bobby Feller racked up his 18th win and seventh shut-out of the campaign in pitching the Indians to a 1-0 triumph over the Philadelphia Athletics. The Tribe fireballer fanned nine to raise his season strikeout total to 220.

Bob Newsom, veteran Washington righthander, duplicated Feller's feat by outpitching Detroit's Dizzy Trout, 1-0.

A pair of former American Leaguers collaborated to give the Philadelphia Phillies a 2-0 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates. Veteran Righthander Schoolboy Rowe, former Tiger ace, limited the Bugs to seven scattered safeties to notch his tenth victory with Jim Tabor, former Red Sox infielder accounting for both Philly runs with his sixth home run in the third inning.

Cincinnati shaded the Boston Braves, 2-1.

BOWLING

One more week remains in the summer bowling league at Plamor Palace and Murray-Young Motors can win with one more game.

Newsboys Tie Burl's Team In Practice Tilt

The Reporter-Telegram's carrier boys softball team maintained its record of having encountered no defeats when it played catch-up ball Wednesday to tie Burl's One-Stop team of the City Softball League, 6 to 6, in a practice game on the high school athletic field.

The game was called at the end of six innings due to darkness after a carrier rally tied the score in the frame.

The carriers made two runs in the first inning, and the Burl's team retaliated by running up six scores in their half of the first. Burl's was held scoreless during the rest of the game as the news carriers gradually tore down Burl's lead and tied up the ball game in the sixth.

Wiley pitched for The Reporter-Telegram aggregation.

The carriers held two victories over The Odessa-American newsboys, and Tuesday defeated the young people's team of the First Baptist Church, 18 to 16.

HOW MANY CHANCES DO YOU TAKE EVERY DAY?

Do stairways in your home and barn need repairs? Do you have stairways cluttered with boxes, toys, brooms? Are they unlighted? Do you have ladder or hay-chute openings without handrails? These often cause falls... falls which account for 39% of all fatal accidents in farm homes!

Do you leave safety shields off power shafts, gears and chains? Wear loose-fitting clothing that may catch in machinery? Operate the tractor on dangerous inclines or banks? Then tragedy may strike... for mishandled machinery and equipment are involved in 30% of fatal farm accidents.

U. S. shipment of food abroad for alleviation of famine in many parts of the world, what President Truman called "an impressive record," is illustrated by Newschart above. Continuing shortages of food abroad assure the relief program will have to be continued for at least another year. Newschart is based upon figures from the Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion.

Shotgun In Golf Bag Good For Birdie

SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA — (P) — Golfers at the country town of Narrromine are packing shotguns in their bags to shoot flocks of crows which swoop down on their glistening white golf balls. Gunfire is the only thing which will scare off the petty thieves.

Indian Official Predicts Peace

BCOMBAY — (P) — One of India's best-known governmental administrators predicts that the racial and religious differences which now divide his country will disappear under the pressure of economic and social problems if independence comes.

Sir C. P. Ramaswami Aiyer, deewan (prime minister) of Travancore State, says that the Indian National Congress and the Moslem League would be too much occupied with overcoming mutual obstacles to expend energy on maintaining their present differences.

"Although at the present moment the questions of race and religion loom large," he said, "yet the moment the work of administration commences under an interim government and a permanent constitution is set up, the cleavage will soon become economic and social."

He said he believed disputes then would be "between capital and labor, industry versus agriculture, maritime interests against the interior," and the like.

New Pay Increase And Rigors Of Civilian Life Send Thousands Of Veterans Back Into Army

By DOUGLAS LARSEN

FORT BRAGG, N. C. — (NEA) — The rigors of civilian life are forcing thousands of veterans back into the Army and making its sheltered life mighty attractive to new enlistees.

This, more than the Army's new increase in pay, is responsible for the current success of its recruiting program. This report is based on recent interviews with scores of men at induction and reception centers in seven of the nation's largest military reservations.

Whether this spurt in recruiting will materially help the Army's drastic manpower shortage isn't known yet. It is too soon for the figures to be gathered from all over the country and it isn't known how long the influx will last.

The typical reason for wanting to get back in the Army came from a corporal who had been sweating out a discharge here for several months after coming back from overseas. He had only been out a short time when he showed up in the office of his surprised former commanding officer. He said:

"Please let me back in sir. I've been out four days, spent $300 and had to come back to the post to buy a beer."

It's the same story with slight modifications from most of the enlistees. A private came back after being out for three months. He said:

"I was making $35 a week when I was drafted. I got my old job back at the same salary when I got out. That was fair money before. Now it doesn't mean a thing. I just couldn't get along on it. And new jobs were hard to get."

Their Business Is In Its Infancy

SALT LAKE CITY — (P) — "Rock a Dry Baby."

With this as their slogan, two Navy veterans and brothers-in-law, Paul Howells and Lorin Moech, are doing a thriving business in diaper laundering.

The partners say they went into business for themselves because "we just didn't want to take orders anymore from one another."

I hope things will be straightened out in a couple of years. I know I'll eat in the Army."

Here's the typical attitude of a new enlistee at Greenville Army Air Base, S. C.:

"A young fellow can't get a job that pays enough money to live on, let alone get married. I plan to get married now that I am in and my wife can get her allotment. After three years things should be better outside and under the GI Bill of Rights I can go to college."

But the tour of the seven Army installations revealed that Army life today isn't what it was during the war. The purse strings of the War Department are being pulled tighter and it is even being felt by the enlisted man. Most of the thousands of temporary barracks which mushroomed all over the nation at the start of the war. Only built to be used for four years, they are in bad shape. Roofs leak, the plumbing is going bad, and as a result of the rugged GI use given them during the war they aren't very livable.

Maj. Gen. James M. Gavin, commanding general of the famed 82nd Airborne Division now stationed here said:

"If we expect to get and keep good men in the Army we've got to give them decent places to live in first. The barracks they're in now just aren't fit. We must provide them good comfortable day rooms and plenty of recreation facilities."

Some of Gavin's officers have used their own money to buy paint for their men's barracks.

There is a brighter side for the officers stationed at the old permanent posts, however. There has been a rather rapid return to the old graceful Army social existence. Most posts are operating five days a week, with Wednesday afternoons off. The swimming pools and golf courses are crowded.

Morale among the officers and men varies greatly from post to post and among outfits. Many of the younger officers are on edge waiting for Congress to decide how many of them will be permitted to get permanent commissions. The older officers are uneasy, waiting to see if the trend toward letting the Army sink to its decadence of the '30s will continue.

Both the men and officers are angered by the sudden change of the civilian attitude toward them. "The war is over, bud; you're just another soldier now" is heard with increasing frequency. And signs reading "No Military Personnel Allowed" are slowly beginning to appear in cities and towns near Army posts.

The housing shortage for the families of soldiers and officers is more acute now than it was before the war. Men who have been overseas for several years and have been assigned to posts still aren't able to live with their families. Here and at Fort Benning, Ga., and Fort Knox, Ky., commuting 50 miles a day is not unusual.

Morale among men who have re-enlisted is good. Among those who are sweating out discharges it is bad. The big gripe among both groups is still concerned with the inequalities of the caste system.

Shows Bob Hope How To Act In Prison

By HOWARD C. HEYN

HOLLYWOOD — (P) — Bob Hope marched into the death cell of San Quentin. And Warden Clinton Duffy was on hand to see that the proceedings were authentic.

Duffy was invited by Paramount to supervise prison sequences in "My Favorite Brunette." It was his first trip to a movie studio, although he has advised many companies on such scenes.

The handsome, middle-aged warden was intensely interested in the photographic proceedings and more than willing to report on the movie situation in his prison.

"We show our 4,000 inmates movies on Saturday," he reported. "There are three showings: noon, 3 p. m. and 7 p. m."

"Movies are big events for the prisoners," he said, "and they stay on their good behavior lest they lose their privilege cards, for without those cards they see no movies."

"Their favorite types of films are, in order, drama, comedy, musicals, and Westerns."

No crime pictures are shown, and the Westerns are not the "shoot-'em-up" variety.

I asked whether he would sanction the Hope picture for the inmates, since it depicts the prison and death-row.

"The men have asked to see it," he said. "Bob Hope suggests that it be premiered at the prison. I think it will be O.K."

In case you have any notions about moving to San Quentin just for the movies, forget it. Warden Duffy has a housing problem too. The number of inmates is nearly double the designed capacity.

Australia was named "Australiia del Espiritu Santo" in honor of Austrian-born Philip III of Spain, and in translation the name was misspelled Australia.

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your drugist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcenate (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

Bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Farm Boys Invent Hay Lift Machine

COLLEGE STATION—The gears of a Model T and the brains of J. H. Hens and some neighboring Farnes County farmers put 15 men out of work. According to County Agricultural Agent A. P. Morris the farmers fashioned a fork lift on their tractor with the Ford parts to pull rake their hay and put it into eight-foot ricks. The home-made lift also will be handy in loading the hay on wagons if it is found necessary to haul it to the barn or stack it in feed lots, he says.

The man power the machine would replace is Morris' own estimate.

Displaced Radios

WARSAW —(AP)— German troops nearly stripped Poland of radio sets. Poland had 1,200,000 before the war. Now there are only 150,000. Germany is reported to have 5,000,000. The Polish Radio Conference is asking return of at least 1,000,000.

MAYOR LEFT FUNDS IN 1801 WILL — St. Ives Villagers Dance, Sing And Drink To Carry Out 146 Year Old Rite

By ED CAMPBELL
ST. IVES, CORNWALL, ENGLAND—(AP)—A century old tune is being hummed in this old Cornish settlement as the seamen, the fishermen and the tinnars celebrate the feast of St. James and the spending of another 44 pounds ($176) from Johannes Knill's legacy.

Knill, once mayor, constable and customs collector of the borough, created in his will a perpetual annuity so that from the year 1801 onward every fifth anniversary of the feast day should find "no tongue is mute or foot is still, but me and all are on the hill."

This year the feast day came on Thursday.

Early in the morning the three great locks on the ancient iron chest holding Mister Knill's festival funds were unfastened by the St. Ives mayor, customs collector and vicar, each of whom is the traditional keeper of one key.

Just before noon, ten little girls, all under the age of ten and the daughters of seamen, fishermen or tinnars, reported to the committee-men, and each received a white hair ribbon and the sum of two shillings (40 cents) for which "to music furnished by a fiddler," they danced for 15 minutes around a 50-foot granite pyramid erected to Knill's memory on Worvas Hill. After the dance, the children recited the One Hundredth Psalm.

The fiddler was paid one pound

($4) and two widows, 64 or older, were given a pound each for supervising the dancing and certifying that the terms of the bequest were carried out. Another pound was spent for the girls' ribbons and a shilling for the fiddler's hat.

The St. Ives parent or parents who have reared to the age of ten or older the greatest number of children without parochial assistance was given another five pounds of the day's expenditures.

Some wife, between the age of 26 and 36 who since last December 31 has been deemed by the trustees to be "most worthy because of her duty and kindness to her parents or her friends" was awarded another ten pounds ($40). Five pounds ($20) was awarded the St. Ives woman deemed to be the best knitter of fishing nets and to the best packer or curer of fish.

Topping off the festival, the three trustees each accompanied by two guests, spend the final ten pounds on a feast for themselves at a village tavern.

Former Nazis Rebuild Munich By 10 Rules Denouncing Party

MUNICH —(AP)—Many thousands of former Nazi party members today are shouldering pickaxe and shovel to help clear away rubble in Germany's bomb-torn cities.

Disgruntled over the moodiness of his fellow-shovelers and disappointed with the sloppiness, one former Nazi decided to cheer up work squads by composing "10 commandments for rubble removers." He posted them on telegraph poles and trees in the Munich suburb of Milbertshofen. They included:

"Do not forget that the Hitler salute has been buried, thus you can work with both hands."

"Do not forget that during the past 12 years you have been taught to denounce people. Thou shalt throw this black mark overboard."

"If there is an inspection of the site it is no longer desired that you turn around and stand at attention."

"Should a non-party member watch you at work who was known to have been a good Nazi, take a big rock and throw him (the rock) —onto the wheelbarrow. The spectator undoubtedly has a clean slate."

"After work take a bath if you have the fuel to heat the water. Gas chambers and other showers are not available."

The newspaper Sueddeutsche Zeitung reported that the idea already showed results in that workers no longer idled and had discarded that sad look.

Chinese Civil War Poises Diplomatic Questions For US

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Mounting evidence of undeclared civil war in China seemed almost certain Thursday to kill for this year American plans to help develop a modern, million-man Chinese army.

Both Senate and House leaders agreed privately that legislation to authorize the United States to help organize, train and equip such an army has practically no chance of passage in the few days that remain before congressional adjournment.

There was some belief at the Capitol that a last minute appeal by Secretary of State Byrnes might bring action. But there was no indication at the State Department that any such move is being planned.

The military aid bill is one of the key pieces in the government's Chinese policy built on the assumption that Gen. George C. Marshall, President Truman's special peace maker, would succeed in his efforts to unify the Nationalists and Communists forces.

American officials are still hopeful. But the flow of reports during the last ten days or so telling of increasing military operations by both the Communist forces and those of Chiang Kai-shek have started discussions among some authorities of what the United States might be able to do if unrestrained civil war should be declared.

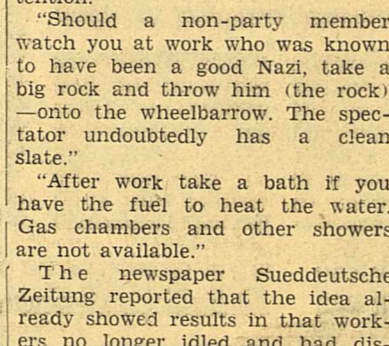

At the moment, while United States policy remains unchanged, the talk seems to be along two major lines:

1. Whether the United States should continue to give its full support to Chiang Kai-shek, if worst comes to worst, or;
2. Whether it should adopt some other attitude, possibly involving recognition of the Communists as legitimate belligerents.

Already, under the specially prolonged authority of the otherwise expired Lend-Lease Act, assistance to Chiang has dropped off to tiny fraction of what it once was. What aid is continuing is based mainly on the theory that Chiang needs help in completing the repatriation of Japanese troops and in occupying the areas from which they have been removed.

Word To Curious Saves New Paint Job

WINNIPEG —(AP)— There's a painter working on Simcoe St., in Winnipeg's west end who combines a knowledge of his craft with a good insight into human nature.

He posted a sign which reads: "Wettest damn paint you ever saw: test on edge, please."

The hippopotamus, giraffe and gazelle belong to the same order.

In the 16th and 17th centuries coffee cost nearly $30 a pound.

Earth Does Move

DEUVER —(AP)— Australian authorities wanted to test the suitability of a certain type of earth for construction of a reservoir. Instead of calling in experts, they moved the mountain to Hahomet by shipping 2,865 pounds of soil from the proposed damsite to Denver in insulated crates for examination by Bureau of Reclamation scientists.

Life Will Be All Beer And Pictures In Pubs Of London

LONDON —(AP)—“Ale and art” is the new slogan of British brewers. Henceforward, the Englishman in his pub will be surrounded by paintings executed by some of Britain's best artists.

This has been assured by the Central Institute of Art and Design, in collaboration with four London brewers, who are installing over 100 paintings of contemporary English life in inns and taverns in London and environs.

Augustus John, one of the best known British artists, who opened the first exhibition of these paintings in “The Cogers,” immediately off Fleet Street, commented, “Artists have always been staunch supporters of the brewing industry. Now there has been reciprocity.”

He welcomed this patronage of the arts by British brewers as

Birds Of Feather Now Room Together

DENVER —(AP)—Occupants of an apartment house were puzzled to see a pigeon repeatedly banging its head against a brick wall on the roof. They called Humane Officer William B. Wheeler.

Wheeler climbed up and found a ventilator that had been sealed with bricks. Twenty-eight of the pigeon's pals were imprisoned inside.

Mrs. Gertrude Hamm, owner of the building, was so impressed by the pigeon rescue she promised to turn the attic over to them.

bringing “a breath of fresh air into the sometimes rather stale atmosphere of the British pub.”

As he sits in his favorite pub, the Englishman will gaze at the work of over 30 artists, many well known in London galleries.

Although the brewers financed the scheme and made some suggestions as to subjects, the artists had a more-or-less free hand.

Children Love Cool Beverages

Sparkling citrus drinks—let the children mix their own.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

On hot days, the youngsters like tall, cool drinks, too. Encourage them to use orange and grapefruit and lemon juices as much as possible. Let them add carbonated water and flavored ice cubes. Then they'll be both healthy and happy.

Here's a drink that requires no squeezing of fruit.

Citrus Sparkle
Buy or make your favorite ice (lime, orange, or raspberry). Turn the ice into trays of your mechanical refrigerator, and, when smooth and partly frozen, put ice cube separator into tray and finish freezing the ice into cubes.

Allowing one glass per serving, put two flavored ice cubes into each tall glass, fill 2/3 full of canned blended orange and grapefruit juice, fill with sparkling water, and serve at once, with straws and a flaky cracker.

Orangeade Cooler
(Makes 2 Quarts)
Three cups orange juice, 1/2 cup lemon juice, 3/4 cup sugar syrup, 3 cups ice water, thin slices of orange.

Combine orange juice, lemon juice, and sugar syrup. Pour over cracked ice or ice cubes. Add water.

Serve with thin slices of orange.
Berry Orangeade
(Makes 3 Cups)

Dissolve and make use of every grain of sugar by making a sugar syrup to sweeten your summer beverages.

Safe Mining

DU QUOIN, ILL. —(AP)—Marion W. Cox, 86, Illinois' oldest coal miner before his retirement last year, not only worked 75 years without an injury but, he claims, “I've never even had a man working with me who got hurt.” Cox has been given the Joseph A. Holmes Safety Association award.

Hale Named Assistant Extension Editor

COLLEGE STATION — Appointment of Leon Hale of Abilene, effective July 1, as assistant extension editor has been announced by Dr. Ide P. Trotter, director of the A&M College Extension Service. Hale will handle the extension news service.

A graduate of Texas Tech last June with a B. A. degree in Journalism, Hale served nearly three years in the Army including nine months in Italy as a radio operator and gunner on a B-24. He was discharged in Nov. 1945, and returned to Lubbock last February to complete his college course.

Snowbound Sheep Dying In Australia

SYDNEY —(AP)—Australia, which has a reputation for scorching droughts, is losing sheep this mid-year winter as a result of snow.

The heaviest snowfalls in years late in June covered thousands of square miles of grazing highlands south of Canberra. Low temperatures kept the snow there.

Sheep station owners, unaccustomed to lasting snow, had made no adequate arrangements for handfeeding their flocks, running up to 20,000 sheep. Many animals starved.

If They Don't Get Cars, They Auto

HENDERSON, N. C. —(AP)—Car-hungry buyers waited all night for an automobile sales company to open so they could apply for new models.

Sleeping bags, thermos bottles of coffee, radios and beach chairs appeared on the sidewalk as 34 persons lined up. By morning the number had increased to 100, and by midday around 150 had applied for new cars, some to wait until winter for their priority. Dealers required a $200 deposit with each application.

In some instances, sitters were hired to hold seats in line. It was reported one applicant paid a sifter $15 for the night.

Everything Was Rosy Once He Got His Bait

HANCOCK, N. H. —(AP)— Martin Smit is only six years old, but listen to his fish story: Martin, unaware of shortages, had trouble finding bait. He couldn't find any worms and his request to his mother for some bread dough was turned down. Young Martin did not give up, however, but fastened two rose petals on his hook. Almost instantly, he hooked a perch. And, using the same bait, caught a second one. The fish were about seven inches long. That's Martin's story, and his family backs him up.

Spare That Tree— It Has Initials

SALT LAKE CITY —(AP)— When he was a boy of 13 herding sheep near Fish Lake, Elmer Draper, now 63, carved his initials and the date in a quaking aspen tree back in 1896. Recently Draper returned to the area for the first time since and found the initialed tree still growing.

TEXAS TODAY — Sheriff Wants 'More Respectable Citizens' In Dawson County Jail

By JACK RUTLEDGE Associated Press Staff
Double-takes; or little items in the news you may have missed but shouldn't:
Sheriff Buck Bennett of Dawson County, after three jail inmates set fire to three mattresses in a week and a fourth threw a stove out of a window and then sawed his way out, exploded with the statement that what he wanted was "more respectable citizens" in his jail. . . In Dallas, they took direct action by riding four gangsters out of town. Three were hotshot Chicago gangsters, who Sheriff Smoot Schmid said, were trying to muscle in on Dallas rackets. . . The attorney general ruled that cops don't have to be in uniform to issue tickets to speeding motorists. . . Texas' own Homer Garrison, of the Department of Public Safety, went to sea to help them select a new chief of police.

Roy Lee of Dallas owns a $20,000 imported Rolls Royce but it's not all fun. He took it to a garage for repairs. They kept it six weeks, then phoned him to come and get it—they had it apart, but couldn't get it back together again. . . Over in Paris, candidates can do all the horn-tootin' they want. Tom Ray, who makes fox horns, is offering one free to the person who can blow the loudest.

In Tyler, the Rev. W. R. Swain of the Methodist Church has rented a commercial parking lot for Sunday so his congregation can use it during sermons. . . San Antonio predicts the greatest tourist boom in history. . . Texans are spending a third more cash this summer in retail stores than they did last summer. . . Bruceville was without water—fire destroyed a pump house and motor used at the town's artesian well. . . It was cooler at Elctra: the mercury dropped from 114 to 107. . . The annual state convention of Sacred Harp Singers was held in Athens.

Abraham Lincoln was a detective story fan, as were Woodrow Wilson and Theodore Roosevelt.

12,500 Orphaned By War in Warsaw

WARSAW, POLAND —(AP)—The war and long German occupation left 12,500 orphans in the ruined city of Warsaw, but most of these are getting a new start in life through the work of the famous Jean Badotien orphanage. This institution, reopened in February, 1945, shortly after the Nazis cleared out of the capital, acts as a "clearing house" for the orphans, of whom 3,500 are crippled. The United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation administration's mission in Poland is supplying most of the clothing and food.

Blueberries Win Summer Praise

Midsummer specialty—poached fillets of sole with blueberry-studded sauce.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer
Here are two midsummer specialties that will win you praise and popularity.
Poached Fillet of Sole
(Serves 6)
Six fillets of sole or flounder, 1/2 cup water, 1/2 cup white wine, if desired, 1 1/4 teaspoons salt, 1/8 teaspoon white pepper, 2 tablespoons flour, 1/2 cup cultivated blueberries.
Place fish (any filleted white fish may be used) in a buttered baking dish and cover with water and wine. Add 1 teaspoon salt and pepper. Cover with greased wax paper and place in oven at 350 degrees F. for 15 minutes. Remove and keep fish hot.

Melt butter or fat over low heat. Remove from heat and blend in flour with a wooden spoon. Add the stock the fish was cooked in and bring sauce just to a boil. Add 1/4 teaspoon salt and stir in blueberries carefully.
Pour over fish and serve.

Blueberry Roll
(Serves 10)
Five eggs, 1/2 cup sugar, 3 tablespoons sifted flour, 2 3-ounce packages cream cheese, 2 tablespoons milk, 1 cup cultivated blueberries.
Separate the eggs. To the yolks add 5 tablespoons of sugar, and heat. Beat the whites until very stiff and fold into the yolks with the sifted flour.
Oil a cookie sheet lightly. Cover bottom and sides with wax paper, and oil the paper very lightly. Spread mixture on cookie sheet and bake in oven at 350 degrees F. for 10 to 15 minutes, or until golden brown. Remove.

Sprinkle top of cake with 3 tablespoons sugar and loosen cake from the cookie sheet. Turn out onto another sheet of wax paper and carefully remove other paper on top of cake. Roll up like a jelly roll without any filling, and place in refrigerator to cool.
When cake has cooled, unroll it very carefully. Cream the cheese with the milk until it is soft enough to spread easily, then spread smoothly over the cake. Add a layer of blueberries.
Roll up the cake and serve in slices, with or without additional blueberries.

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The mortal mind through which truth appears most vividly is that one which has lost much materiality—much error—in order to become a better transparency for truth. Then, like a cloud melting into thin vapor, it no longer hides the sun" (page 295).

INDEPENDENCE, MO. — (P) — Councilman T. Reuben Lynch asked that something be done for his Third Ward constituents, upset by the "annoying and excessive whistling" of a switch engine.
Roger T. Sermon, Democratic mayor of President Truman's hometown, suggested it would be unwise to stop the whistling since dangerous intersections were involved.
"But mayor," protested Lynch, "we might need these people (the constituents) two weeks from Tuesday" (That's the date of Missouri primary election).
"If the train doesn't whistle at those intersections," retorted Sermon, "they may not be here two weeks from Tuesday."

Society Note:
Lion Visits Murrays

DURANGO, COLO. —(P)— C. L. Murray didn't mind camping on a picnic ground near Durango's city limits while waiting to move into a new home, until his wife heard a deep cough in the night.

A flashlight revealed a mountain lion. Murray ran to his car for a rifle—while the lion sauntered across his bed, past his wife and out into the dark again, unhurried by two parting shots. Before dawn the lion made another visit and another clean getaway.

Next night, the Murrays kept a two-hour watch, heard a noise, shot—and killed a coyote.

Australia has a total area of 2,974,581 miles and more than 12,000 miles of coastline.

Expert Says Rationing Made Swedes Healthier

STOCKHOLM —(P)— Does moderate food rationing have a favorable effect on public health? It seems to have done so in Sweden, where Prof. Gunnar Nystrom of Uppsala University claims the Swedish people never were healthier than during the war.

In the Swedish Medical Magazine the professor disclosed that deaths sank from an average of 12 per 1,000 population in the Thirties to 9.9 in 1942, when rations were lowest. Maladies like hemorrhage and arteriosclerosis caused by alterations in the blood vessels showed an abrupt decline.

Nystrom stated his opinion that the sharpened rationing which started 1942 led to a diet well adjusted to people with blood-vessel diseases.

Baby Run Over By Car But Escapes Injury

SHERIDAN, WYO. —(P)— Billie Lou Sweet, 18 months, was playing on a pile of dirt beside the driveway at her home when her mother, Mrs. James Sweet, started to drive off in the family car.

One wheel passed over both the little girl's legs, but close examination disclosed no bone fractures and she showed no other ill effects. The softness of the baby's young bones and the cushioning effects of the loose dirt were credited with saving her from injury.

Light In 'Egypt'

CAIRO, ILL. —(P)— Crime has taken a holiday in Alexander County, embracing this river city, and for one of the few times in recent years there was no need to convene a grand jury.

Sound-Dollar Statistics

There are a lot of interesting figures and statistics floating around these days, bearing with them fearful or wonderful implications. Follow them, in the serene confidence that figures don't lie, and you may possibly find yourself in the midst of half-truths and erroneous conclusions.

For example, there is the Bureau of Labor Statistics figure showing that the American factory worker's average wage in May was at a new high of $1.07 an hour, or $42.67 a week. Then there was the New York Stock Exchange announcement that earnings of 475 leading American companies averaged 37.5 per cent less in the first quarter of this year than in the same period of 1945. What's more, 110 of those companies had losses after taxes.

We can just see some heads wagging over those amounts and percentages. For it might seem to those heads that labor was killing its source of golden eggs, getting gricher and richer at the expense of industry, which provides jobs, creates more jobs and, through research, expansion and higher efficiency, raises the standard of living and guarantees national prosperity.

Or it could mean to those wagging heads that a radical government was trying to regiment production, force businesses to the wall and bring about nationalization of basic industries. Or it might even mean that a conservative government was trying to make labor fat and contented on high wages, and thus force labor's thinking and voting toward the right.

Statistics that permit such not-too-far-fetched conclusions obviously don't tell very much. The BLS figures on earnings neglected to express them in terms of 1946 buying power. Peter Edson, in a recent Washington column, ferreted out some other BLS figures to show that in 1939, when the average weekly factory wage was $35.25, $23.86 would buy the same amount of goods and services that $42.67 would in May, 1946. In other words, $23.86 a week in 1939 was just as good as the record 1946 earnings of $42.67.

The Stock Exchange figures also fail to tell a good many things. For instance, how typical were the first-quarter earnings of these 475 companies in 1945, a wartime year of cost-plus-fixed-fee contracts when the great concern was winning the war rather than spending money carefully? What was the relation of these companies' first-quarter earnings in 1946 to their average for the same quarter in, say, 1935-40?

What was the reason for loss after taxes of the 110 companies? Strikes, reconversion, increased labor costs, OPA regulations, or other factors? It would be interesting to know—necessary, too, unless one wanted to risk a complex diagnosis on the basis of one symptom.

It may seem that some of the various statistics hurled at us today are deliberately calculated to mislead. But it may be suspected that their incomplete information often arises from the more innocent habit of thinking of the dollar as an entity of unchanging value, rather than in terms of what it will buy or in its relation to other dollars of other days.

Maybe that is short-sighted thinking. But right now there is cause for cheer in that habit of thinking, too. For as long as the dollar remains in our minds as a concrete thing of value in itself, to be reckoned with and sought after, we are on pretty solid ground—and a long way from ruinous inflation.

Visas Go A-Begging

In this day of general scarcity, there is one American commodity whose supply exceeds the demand. And that, oddly enough, is the American visa in the hands of our diplomatic representatives in Britain and Europe.

There just isn't the expected rush of immigrants. Newspaper stories are credited with stemming the tide. British and Continental papers are playing up our strikes, housing shortages, unemployment, high prices and threat of inflation. America, at least temporarily, has ceased to be the land of promise.

One would think that even these drawbacks would be preferable to the misery which is reported from many parts of Europe. But a trip to America requires capital, and an uprooting. Even with money, the love of home is a strong tie, though home may be a place of cold and hunger and discomfort.

And perhaps it is just as well. America, even in happier times, has been a sad disappointment to many deluded immigrants. And certainly we can offer a minimum of luxury and golden opportunity now.

Army Pays Better Than Truck Driving

CENTRALIA, ILL. —(P)—Albert George, 34-year-old Centralia father of seven children, tried in the war to enter the armed forces but was rejected because his truck driving at the St. Louis Ordnance depot was regarded as essential. A year after the war, George was accepted as an Army private with allowances and base pay amounting to $258 monthly. He said he had averaged $33 weekly as a truck driver.

French Order Part Of Rhineland To Saar

PARIS —(P)—The French general commissariat for German and Austrian affairs said here that Gen. Pierre Koenig, French occupation commander, had ordered the transfer of 11 rural communes from the Rhineland to Saar.

The transfer is intended "to adapt the administrative organization of the Saar to economic reality," the commissariat's communique said. "The communes attached will enter, in effect, in the economic orbit of the Saar and a notable part of their inhabitants will work in the (coal) mines."

INVENTIVE FISHERMEN MAKE OWN RODS

GRAND FORKS, N. D. —(P)—The high cost of fishing rods isn't stopping some fishermen from going to their favorite lake without proper equipment. They're buying auto radio aerials, welding three loops on one end, and a handle on the other. It adds up to a perfectly working rod—and the cost is about one-fifth the price of the real rod.

Mims And Crane Keeps Abreast Of Times And Growth Of Midland

Mims and Crane, pioneer Midland general insurance and real estate firm, is abreast of the times and the growth of the city with its services.

One important service the company is endeavoring to accomplish is to keep insurance up to value on dwellings. It is pointed out by Mims and Crane that policies of 1941 and 1942 on Midland dwellings are as much as 30 per cent deficient in insurance value. All citizens, whether customers are not, are invited to visit the company offices at 205 West Wall Street and check their insurance with the present value of their holdings.

A new insurance that Mims and Crane is featuring is a policy on drilling rigs. Drilling contractors will be interested in this service and are invited to contact the company.

A new filing system has just been installed at Mims and Crane, which gives the office personnel fingertip availability of data about each customer's insurance or real estate contracts. It is the Remington-Rand system and provides quick reference to each customer's status.

Mims and Crane has kept complete data on all land transactions for several years in its abstract department. All instruments recorded in the courthouse also are recorded by Mims and Crane.

Army Longnoes Being Measured—Right To Tip

FORT LEWIS, WASH.—(AP)—The Army longnoes are being measured—right down to the tip. And that tip may have something to do with the size, length and type of gas mask future GIs will wear—just as 63 other measurements being taken of 12,000 men at Fort Lewis may have a large scale effect on almost every describable piece of Army equipment.

Juvenile Vandals Retard London Housing

LONDON—(AP)—Hooligans are endangering London's housing program by malicious damage. Magistrate Basil Henriques said in juvenile court as he bound over three 11-year-old boys who broke into a new house, stole workmen's tools, drilled holes in the floors and upset containers of water and paraffin.

The magistrate said hundreds of houses in the course of erection had been damaged recently.

Near the washing machine is shown a large extractor.

Cosden Products Offered At Two Midland Stations

Cosden's improved peacetime higher octane gasoline can be purchased at two stations in Midland.

The Baker Oil Company on East Highway 80 is the consignee and operates the R. B. (Bill) Baker Station. The L. H. Chivers Cosden Service Station at 2110 West Wall Street is the other Cosden service firm.

Midland customers know Bill Baker and the high quality motor fuels he handles as wholesale and retail dealer for Cosden products. His telephone number is 82.

Develops Business
L. H. Chivers, who operates the Cosden location on West Wall, leased it about two months ago and is building a name for himself in service. The telephone number at his station is 2344.

In addition to Cosden gasoline, motorists will find the highest quality motor oils at the two stations.

NEW MOTORS TO SAVE FUEL

A petroleum authority predicts a 20 per cent saving in gasoline consumption per car within the next few years as engines are designed to take advantage of improved fuels.

including Quaker State oil, Pennzoll, and Veedol.

Motorists find they have a first-last chance to stock up with quality Cosden products coming into and through Midland—Chivers' station on the west and Baker Oil on the east, or vice-versa.

Why DO THEY FENCE ME IN?

Gee! The room is full of tempting objects . . . that China dog on the coffee table, for instance. If I could get my hands on that, think of the fun I could have!

But no! They fence me in. And it's just as well . . . for I sure do get into trouble when they turn me loose.

Later on, when I grow up a bit, I won't have to be fenced in. You see, I'm going to learn what's right and wrong. And I'm going to form convictions and live by them. Yes sir—my Daddy is sure of this—I'm going to be a man of character.

How can Daddy be so sure? Well, he's already planning to send me to Sunday School . . . to the church that he and Mother attend. And Daddy says that every little boy who has the advantage of religious education in the church and the right Christian example in the home can become a man of character.

My parents are giving me the right start. Then it will be up to me!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday.

LET'S QUIT FIGHTING AT HOME— WHY NOT TRY HARMONY!

BEAUFORD H. JESTER

Who He Is — What He Has Done What He Stands For

- Beauford Jester is a Native Texan. He loves Texas and its glorious history—its inspiring traditions—its vast territory and its great people.
 - Jester was born in Corsicana, Texas, on January 12, 1893, where he still resides. He is married and has two daughters and one son. He was educated in the schools of Texas and is a graduate of its great University.
 - At the outbreak of World War I he volunteered for service and entered the First Officers Training Camp at Leon Springs, Texas. Upon its organization, he was assigned to the Fighting 90th Division and led his company thru the St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne drives and into Germany with the Army of Occupation. He offered his services in the second World War.
 - Jester is a respected and successful lawyer and is a past president of the Navarro County Bar Association and a past director of the Texas Bar Association. He is a practical farmer and stockman.
 - Jester is a Methodist and since 1924 has been the teacher of a Bible class in his home church. He is a past president of the Corsicana Y.M.C.A., a trustee of the Methodist Home, Waco, Texas, Wesley Foundation at the University of Texas and chairman of the board of trustees of the Methodist church at Corsicana. He was formerly commander of the Corsicana American Legion Post and president of the First Officers Training Camp Association and the 90th Division Association.
 - Jester was a member (1929-1935) and chairman (1933-35) of the Board of Regents of the University of Texas. During this administration the Regents and Faculty enjoyed complete harmony and the University had its greatest building expansion. He has always taken an active part in the affairs of the University and will continue to work for its future advancement.
 - At present Jester is a member of the Texas Railroad Commission and shares with the other two members its splendid record for harmony, achievement and services to the Armed Forces during the war.
- BRIEFLY, JESTER ADVOCATES—
1. Equal responsibility of both labor and management—responsibility to the Public itself.
 2. The path of democratic principles in Government—the path taken by the pioneers who built this State.
 3. Putting an end to capitalistic monopolies and labor monopolies and any attempt of the C.I.O. Political Action Committee or any other foreign element to dominate the people of Texas.
 4. Payment to the old folks of the $40 per month voted by the people of Texas in August 1945.
 5. Termination of all Boards, Bureaus, Agencies and other restrictive bodies as fast as conditions justify—STRICT ECONOMY IN GOVERNMENT AND NO NEW TAXES.
 6. Farm to Market Roads.
 7. Stricter enforcement of the pardon and habitual criminal laws for confirmed criminals to prevent them from again and again preying on the Public.
 8. The divorcement of our Educational Institutions from Politics and the establishment of adequate separate schools for negroes.
 9. A substantial increase in the Salaries of the school teachers of Texas.
 10. A Government of the People of Texas for the Home, the Church and the Schools.—Your vote for him on July 27 will be deeply appreciated.

Texas is on the eve of its greatest industrial and agricultural development. The friends of Beauford Jester believe the people of Texas are entitled to a Governor most capable of bringing harmony, cooperation and unity of purpose out of the political chaos, confusion and antagonisms now existing between its many groups and factions. There is an apparent attempt by certain interests, organizations and selfish individuals to divide the people of Texas, create hatred between labor and management—between neighbor and neighbor—dissension in our educational institutions—and to continue the strife and turmoil which has existed thruout the world in recent years.

Some candidates for the high office of Governor have resorted to personal ridicule, and false and insinuating accusations against each other and against the many factions and groups supporting the others. The outstanding exception is Beauford Jester, who has consistently refrained from engaging in personalities—has confined his statements to informing the Voters of his constructive Program and Platform—and has emphasized that only the people of Texas are entitled to first consideration in all Public Matters.

Some men's lives have been a pathway of dissension and fighting. Jester's life has been along a path of harmony and constructive achievement which Texans love and so richly deserve. In his every activity and many positions of responsibility, both Civic and Religious, and as a soldier and public official, his splendid record reflects his ability to work in Harmony with whomsoever he is associated, to bring unity out of dissension and to quickly achieve the desired objective.

Internal Strife again threatens our unity and progress! Certainly Texas now needs such a well qualified, capable and courageous leader as Beauford Jester.

Nothing is gained by Internal Strife! Let's unite and work in Harmony.
