(NEA Telephoto)

Pretty Mrs. Janie Venable Gantt, 19-year-old mother of a 3-year-old boy, shows police the grave which her estranged husband dug for her behind Maddox Park, Atlanta, Ga., and placed her in. Declaring, "I can't have you, no one else can," he forced her into the grave at the point of a knife and gave her the choice of being killed before September 1 "by stabbing or shooting." She escaped when he left to get her some food, thinking she could not climb out. Her husband, William Lee Gantt, Jr., a former Navy man, is out on $1,000 bond.

Molotov Throws Conference In Turmoil By Attacking Decision

Australian Minister Makes Counter-Attack And Accuses USSR Of Using Filibuster

PARIS—(P)—Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov threw the conference of Paris into turmoil Thursday by reopening the once-settled question of voting procedure and declaring the Russian delegation "cannot agree" to a Rules Committee decision on the question.

Molotov renewed charges that Britain and the United States had repudiated decisions agreed to in the Foreign Ministers Council and accused Herbert V. Ewart, Australian minister of external affairs who has led the fight for the small nations in the conference, with "acting to create opinion against Soviet interests."

Another 'Burger' Well Completed In Fullerton Area

Fullerton Oil Company No. 342-A H. M. Wilson, second Ellenburger producer to be drilled on the west side of the Fullerton field, in Northwest Andrews County, has completed for a 24-hour flowing potential of 932 barrels of 39.6 gravity oil, with gas-oil ratio of 250-1. The flow was through a 24/64-inch choke.

The production is from open hole from 9,783 feet to plugged back total depth at 9,906 feet. The well drilled to 10,026 feet, developed water, and plugged back.

The project is 660 feet from east and 2,132 feet from north lines of section 16, block A-32, psi survey, and 2,647 feet due east of the first Ellenburger well completed in the Fullerton area.

The pay was treated with 6,000 gallons of acid prior to completion. A High Wildcat

Brewer & Nelms No. 1 L. B. Cox, Jr., Central Crockett County wildcat, 24 miles southwest of Ozona, and located 330 feet from north and 1,650 feet from west lines of section 11, J. H. Gibson survey, had some slight shows of oil in the San Andres lime, between 994 feet and current total depth of 1,034 feet, along with some salt water, and operator is now underreaming 85/8-inch casing to lower to bottom, to shut off the water, so more hole can be made.

This project topped the San Andres, according to some geologists at 980 feet, on an elevation of 2,462 feet. That puts it 65 feet high, on some correlations, to the nearest test which has shown for production from the same formation—that being Loffland's No. 1 Perner, about five and one-half miles southwest.

No Oil Indicated

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Turner, East Midland County wildcat, about 12 miles southeast of Midland, was at 4,715 feet, in lime, and was preparing to take a drillstem test.

No shows of oil or gas have been reported from the zone to be investigated. It is understood that the formation has shown some porosity, and the test is thought to be to determine if there might be any sort of fluid in it.

Shell Oil Company, Inc., No. 1 Pinson, West Andrews County Ellenburger wildcat, was making hole under 10,662 feet, in a dolomite, reported to be the Johns. Operator was expecting to encounter the Ellenburger shortly.

Nearing Tubb Zone

Ralph Lowe No. 1 Sealy-Smith, West-Southwest Winkler County discovery for production in the Holt and in the Clear Fork zones of the Permian, had reached 5,833 feet, and was expected to enter the Tubb section in the next 30 to 40 feet.

UN Membership Group Quits Hot Albanian Issue

Takes Up First Of Six Uncontested Nations

NEW YORK—(P)—The United Nations Membership Committee turned Thursday from the unsettled controversies arising over applications of Soviet-supported Albania and Outer Mongolia to the first of six other bids for admission which are less likely to cause widespread friction.

First up for consideration at closed meetings Thursday and Friday was the kingdom of Afghanistan, which stands as a buffer between India and the Soviet Union. The committee undertook a schedule of two sessions daily to meet an August 20 deadline for a report to the Security Council, which will pass its recommendations on to the General Assembly in September. Membership is awarded by two-thirds vote of the assembly, but only after the applicants are approved in the Security Council, where the veto works as a black-ball.

Transjordan in Next

After Afghanistan in the order of consideration comes the kingdom of Transjordan. Transjordan has been a target of the Soviet press recently, but one committee delegation tentatively supporting her application said Transjordan was a "mandate grown to independence" and should be welcomed into the UN on the same basis as Syria and Lebanon.

There were no indications of opposition to the applications of Ireland, Portugal, Iceland, and Sweden.

Construction Worker Injured In Fall

George Mederias, 35, of Stanton, negro construction worker, fell from a ladder and was injured at the Weaver Service Station site in Midland Thursday when razing of the building is in progress.

The negro worker fell about 10 feet and was carried to the hospital in an ambulance. He suffered a fractured arm and head cut.

There may be other injuries, doctors said.

The station is being razed to make way for excavation for a large office building.

Vet Disability Pensions Increased 20 Per Cent

WASHINGTON—(P)—President Truman signed Thursday legislation increasing by 20 per cent the disability pensions of veterans of World Wars I and II.

The legislation also prohibits any reduction in pensions or disability payments during the time a veteran is being hospitalized. Under old regulations, veterans often received less while being hospitalized.

Survivors include his widow, two daughters, Margaret and Merle Ann; his mother, Mrs. Bessie Pilcher, who resides in Mexico; and a brother, Dr. John Pilcher, of Corpus Christi.

Pilcher left Midland July 31 to drive to Santa Fe, N. M., on business. The accident happened about 9 p. m., when he apparently went to sleep for a second and his car went into a ditch and overturned.

He was picked up unconscious and carried to St. Joseph's hospital. The major injury was a fractured right arm. Some of the nerves in that arm were reported to have been badly mangled.

He had apparently been in fair condition until Wednesday when a blood clot developed which was the direct cause of his death. Mrs. Pilcher and Earl W. Statton, Texaco district landman, were with him. C. I. Holliman, district superintendent for the company, Harold Soper, member of the geological staff, and Dr. John Pilcher were en route to Albuquerque Wednesday night.

Pilcher came to Midland three years ago as Texaco district geologist. He had been with the concern about 15 years and came here from Fort Worth, where he was in the company's division geological department.

WAC Captain Faces Conspiracy Charge

FRANKFURT, GERMANY—(P)—The U. S. Army announced Thursday that WAC Capt. Kathleen E. Nash Durant had been charged with larceny, embezzlement, conspiracy and being away without leave in connection with the theft last winter of the Hesse family jewels from Kronberg Castle.

Mrs. Durant will be the first to face trial of three officers arrested. Maj. David F. Watson, and Col. Jack W. Durant, the WAC's husband, will be tried later.

'RUSSIA AS MUCH INVOLVED AS U.S.'—Arabs Turn Down Invitation To Plan To Divide Holy Land

JERUSALEM—(P)—Lt. Gen. Sir Alan Cunningham, British high commissioner, said Thursday that Palestine Arab leaders had turned down an invitation to roundtable talks in London on the partition of the Holy Land.

Cunningham's statement said the Arabs had also raised the questions of reported government plans to halt unauthorized Jewish immigration into Palestine and of the release of Arab political prisoners. The statement gave no details on these questions.

London dispatches said a dramatic government statement on Palestine might be forthcoming within 48 hours. British government sources said Wednesday the cabinet was considered far-reaching military plans which might include a tight blockade of the Palestine coast to halt the flow of unauthorized Jewish immigrants and stricter control of displaced persons camps and frontiers in Austria, Germany and Italy to choke the underground pipeline feeding the immigrants into Italian ports.

The high commissioner's statement was issued after a 40-minute conference with Jamal Bey Hussein, acting chairman of the Arab executive who returned from Egypt Wednesday night after conferences with Arab League leaders.

The Arab rejection of the invitation to the London conferences said the Arab executive could not agree to take part in any discussion based on the partition of Palestine.

The possibility of Russia being projected into the situation was seen Thursday in a statement of the Arab office that there was no reason why "America should be a party to the Palestine case and not Russia."

Ahmed Shukairy, Arab office director, explained at a news conference that the Arab office is a "propaganda office supported by Palestine Arabs and responsible to the Arab world," but not necessarily reflecting the views of the Palestine Arab executive or of the Arab League in the present case.

Arabs May Visit Russia

The statement said "the question of sending an Arab delegation to Moscow has been talked of often, but never decided."

(Exchange Telegraph, British news agency, quoted Shukairy as saying discussions were proceeding for the Palestine Communist Party to send a delegation to Russia.)

The Arab office statement said that, should present diplomatic and political efforts fail to realize the Arab viewpoint, "the initiative for action will then be taken by our nation with the fullest determination and by endless means and ways."

Ben Pilcher Dies From Injuries In New Mexico Crash

Ben L. Pilcher, 40, district geologist for The Texas Company for West Texas and New Mexico, died in an Albuquerque, N. M., hospital at 1:45 a. m. Thursday.

His death came as result of injuries received July 31, in an automobile accident near Albuquerque. The body will be forwarded to Kaufman where funeral arrangements will be announced after the arrival of the body. Interment will be at Kaufman.

Survivors include his widow, two daughters, Margaret and Merle Ann; his mother, Mrs. Bessie Pilcher, who resides in Mexico; and a brother, Dr. John Pilcher, of Corpus Christi.

29 Quilify At Food Handlers School

Twenty-nine persons qualified for certificates at a foodhandlers school which ended Thursday. The school, attended by 60 persons, was sponsored by the City-County Health Unit and was taught by Graham Smoot, senior sanitarian.

It was reported 400 persons have qualified for foodhandlers certificates and licenses at three schools conducted in Midland. Approximately 100 foodhandlers yet must complete the course.

Committee Has Names Of Persons Who Looted Files

FBI Set On Trail Of Unidentified Persons

WASHINGTON—(P)—A daring attempt to forestall the Garsson munitions combine expose was disclosed officially Thursday with a Senate War Investigating Committee announcement that it has the names of the "individuals" involved. The committee formally set FBI agents on the trail of the prowler who looted its secret files months ago of documents collected for the inquiry.

Simultaneously, the committee obtained a promise of new expert assistance in its search for wartime fraud and anti-profiteering loopholes as another in a series of developments which included:

1. Official disclosure that some of the committee's documents—including details of the operations of Erie Basin and Batavia Metal Products companies, two of the concerns in the combine—have been missing since last fall.

2. Promise by Comptroller General Lindsay Warren to lend the committee two of his "ablest" auditors to go behind the figures in complicated war contracts.

3. An offer by Warren to supply "examples" of weaknesses in government procurement uncovered in its audits of war contracts.

4. Statement by Senator Taylor (D-Idaho) that there should be a general investigation of war profits by "corporate giants" with the claim that it would "lead to the steel, rail, motor and power monopolies and to the National Association of Manufacturers and the U. S. Chamber of Commerce." This came after Shipbuilder Henry J. Kaiser said he was "eager" for an inquiry into his wartime operations.

Slaughter's Defeat Hurts South's Power

WASHINGTON—(P)—Key members, Republican and Democratic, of the potent House Rules Committee agreed Thursday that the defeat of Representative Slaughter (D-Mo.) is an important feather in the Administration's cap.

Representative Michener of Michigan, who also is acting Republican leader, told a reporter that should the Democrats retain control of the next Congress, the Missouri's replacement would help the rules group "function in the way it is intended."

It was Slaughter's opposition within the committee to many Administration measures that led Truman to call publicly for his defeat in Tuesday's Fifth District primary in Missouri.

Chairman Sabath (D-Ill.) commented that with Slaughter's departure the Southerners on the rules body "no longer will control it."

The committee has 12 members, only four of them Republicans. But of the eight Democrats only two are Administration stalwarts—Sabath and Rep. James J. Delaney (N. Y.).

Because a tie vote blocks action on any measure under consideration, Slaughter and his five Dixie colleagues have been able to make their views prevail.

Pointing to specific legislative proposals whose prospects they say have been brightened by Slaughter's defeat, both Sabath and Michener cited measures to boost the minimum wage from 40 to 65 cents an hour and to create a permanent Fair Employment Practice Commission.

The shutdown was terminated a week later by an agreement between Lewis and Secretary of Interior J. A. Krug which gave Lewis's 400,000 shares of coal to the open market at a 10-cent hourly wage boost and a five-cent tax on every ton of coal mined for a health and welfare fund.

The Morrell agreement on the Jones and Laughlin supervisors was the outgrowth of that arrangement. Lewis's branch of the United Mine Workers for supervisory workers was certified as the bargaining agent for the Jones and Laughlin foremen.

The inevitable showdown on the whole issue moved a step closer by the government's approval of that contract. The company's petition to the U. S. Court of Appeals for a preliminary injunction to keep Morrell from putting the agreement into effect has yet to be decided.

Under terms of the agreement the supervisory workers get a pay boost of $1.85 a day, plus all the other gains that the production workers received in the Krug-Lewis pact.

William Heirens leaves the bedroom of Suzanne Degnan via the window as he re-enacts the kidnap-murder of the six-year-old girl following his confession to that crime and the murder of two other women.

Authorities Halt Heirens' Effort To Get Razor Blade

CHICAGO—(P)—Authorities Wednesday intercepted a razor blade concealed in a book requested by William Heirens as a grand jury named the confessed multiple slayer in a third murder indictment.

State's Attorney William J. Tuohy used the youth's voluntary confession to obtain a murder indictment.

CHICAGO—(P)—A psychiatric examination of William Heirens was ordered by the Criminal Court Thursday when the confessed killer of two women and a little girl was arraigned on the third murder charge against him.

After the appointment of two alienists, arraignment on the charge of murdering Mrs. Josephine Ross, 43-year-old widow, on June 5, 1945, and on two other murder charges was continued to September 4.

dictament against him in the fatal stabbing of Mrs. Josephine Ross, 43-year-old widow, on June 3, 1945, but the prosecutor refused to say whether he would waive a demand for the death penalty.

Sheriff Michael F. Mulcahy said the blade was secreted in the pages of one of four books Heirens requested from his own library—after confessing the kidnap-killing of six-year-old Suzanne Degnan and the fatal stabbing of two women.

The books were brought to the jail but examined carefully before being turned over to the prisoner. They were withheld after the discovery, the sheriff said.

Heirens was placed in a special cell in the observation section of the county jail more than two weeks ago to prevent any attempt at suicide. He has been under 24-hour observation daily by guards working in short shifts.

The confession was the only evidence the state had against the 17-year-old dual-personality University of Chicago student in the Ross case.

Fall Crop Practice Discussed At Meeting

Legume practices for fall were discussed by the Midland County committee of the ACA agricultural program in a meeting Wednesday at the courthouse.

Farmers were notified the winter cover and small grains practices of the past falls in Texas were not approved this year. The substitute plan of legumes, however, has been approved for Midland County.

The committee discussed the 1947 crop program. Additional information for distribution to ranchers and farmers is expected soon and will be distributed by the ACA office.

Soviet Paper Plays 'Up Byrnes' Paris Speech

MOSCOW—(P)—Pravda, Communist Party newspaper, printed Thursday the full text of U. S. Secretary of State Byrnes' speech Tuesday before the Rules Committee of the Paris Peace Conference.

Unmasked Men Act Cool In Walters Bank

Cashier Forced To Open Vault At Pistol Point

WALTERS, OKLA.—(P)—A band of five unmasked men held up the bank of Walters Thursday and fled with cash loot estimated by Cashier E. H. Minton at $35,000.

Minton said all of the men were armed.

No shots were fired. The cashier said three of the men entered the bank about 10:30 a. m. (CST) and forced the bank's staff and one customer to lie on the floor.

Then the leader, at pistol point, forced Minton to open the bank's vault, the cashier added.

The three men in the bank, described by Minton as cool hands, then scooped up the cash in the vault and on the bank counters and dashed outside.

Waiting outside the bank were the other two bandits. The three joined them and sped away in an automobile bearing Oklahoma license tag 64281, Minton added.

The cashier said the only man he could describe was a middle-aged man who acted as leader of the gang. He said the man was about five feet nine inches tall and was "dark complexioned and of sturdy build."

Sheriff's deputies, state highway patrolmen and local peace officers were notified and immediately organized a posse.

Walters is in Southern Oklahoma, not far from the Texas border.

Body Missing Texas Woman Found In Well

SHERMAN—(P)—Grayson County officers Thursday awaited laboratory reports in their efforts to solve the slaying of Mrs. N. O. Kragger.

The body of the 80-year-old Sherman woman, who had been missing since June 17, was found Wednesday in a shallow well on an unoccupied farm near here.

Two chemists and two X-ray experts of the Department of Public Safety at Austin were called in on the case. From their examination of the lime-staturated body Sheriff C. P. Gafford said it was hoped to determine how Mrs. Kragger was killed.

The officer theorized that Mrs. Kragger was slain somewhere else and her body later thrown into the dry well. He said indications were that a large quantity of lime was dumped on top of it.

Two sons, John Kragger, Sherman feed-store owner, and Willis Kragger, Church of Christ minister at Gainesville, identified the body as that of their mother Wednesday.

Mrs. Kragger was last seen alive on June 17 after she had cashed a check for approximately $8,300 with the explanation that she was going to buy a house.

Morris Collie Jr. Describes Alaska And Aleutians In Address

Morris Collie, Jr., who spent three and a half years in Alaska and the Aleutian Islands during the war, told Rotarians at their meeting Thursday noon in the Scharbauer Hotel that the Japs could have captured Alaska had they followed up the Dutch Harbor attack. "Alaska played an important part in the war," Collie said, explaining how close it is to Siberia.

He said a fog closed in during the Japs' attack and most enemy planes were lost. The Jap commander apparently lost his nerve and moved his forces away, Collie asserted. He said 50 per cent of the machine guns issued to Army troops in Alaska wouldn't shoot due to mechanical defects.

Discusses Country
Collie in an interesting talk discussed history, geography, people and customs of Alaska and the Aleutians.

Delbert Downing was program chairman and John Hughes introduced the speaker.

Dick Prather, club president, announced Barnes Milam would represent the Rotary Club on the Junior Canteen Advisory Committee. Prather also said Roy McKee and Marvin McCreo will be members of the program committee of the club.

Mrs. Ray Howard called attention to the party scheduled August 27 by the Federated Women's Clubs as a benefit for the Midland Memorial Hospital.

Joe Erickson entertained with a piano selection and Art Cole led the singing.

Appropriation Bill For GI Terminal Pay Signed By President

WASHINGTON —(AP)— President Truman Thursday signed into law an appropriation bill carrying $2,431,708,000 for enlisted men's terminal leave pay.

The President has not yet signed the terminal leave pay legislation itself. This is on his desk for action.

The bill signed Thursday also carries $30,000,000 for the purchase of especially-fitted automobiles for veterans who have lost their legs.

It also provides $26,000,000 for OPA, in addition to $75,000,000 appropriated earlier.

The terminal pay bill awaiting action would make an estimated 15,000,000 past and present enlisted men eligible to be paid for furlough time they didn't receive.

As it went to Truman, the legislation contained the "bottled-in-bonds" provision which House members have announced they will try to knock out early next year.

Estimated to cost as much as $2,700,000,000 most of which now has been appropriated, the law requires payment to enlisted personnel who have served at any time since September 8, 1939, for accrued furlough time up to 120 days. The time accrues at the rate of two and one-half days for each month of service, minus any furlough time actually received.

Interesting Argument

Among the leftovers on the Congressional agenda is an argument in the Government vs. Private Enterprise department which the next session will probably resume and settle. It isn't a world-shaking argument, and the subject isn't very dramatic. All the same, the outcome will be significant.

Briefly, and over-simply, the situation is this. The government wants to build some fertilizer plants and go into the business in a fairly big way. It also wants to use some of the plants' output to conduct demonstrations on 75 farms in each agricultural county, or on about 150,000 farms. Within five years it would dispose of the plants to co-operatives (if the co-ops want them) on 50-year leases.

The chief reason for this program seems to be a disputed claim that there was a wartime fertilizer shortage. Fertilizer manufacturers say this isn't so—that though there were local shortages due to lack of material, labor and transportation, capacity has always exceeded consumption.

Naturally the fertilizer people, including several farmer co-operatives, don't like the legislation which would authorize this. They say it isn't cricket for the government to set itself up in competitive business with tax money. They don't like the sales promotion of free fertilizer for 150,000 farmers, when those farmers' neighbors have to pay for their own and, through taxes, help pay for the government's gift besides.

The fertilizer people favor the experiments and demonstrations which are continually being carried on by various federal and state agencies. But they don't see why this necessitates the federal government's competing with them and perhaps driving some of them out of business.

The fertilizer industry is highly competitive. Its members hold that fact responsible for some remarkable benefits and improvements. They cite Agriculture Department figures to show that the price of fertilizer has gone down and its plantfood content has gone up steadily for the past 25 years.

There are ample statistics to show the increasing yield and value that money spent for soil improvement is bringing. But the fundamental question is whether this government is content to let a basic private industry carry on under a watchful eye, or whether the government, armed with subsidies, will enter the competition.

This question now affects only one industry, but its implications are broad. Government competition is not new. It exists in mildly socialistic Sweden. But there government competes on an equal basis, teaches lessons in efficiency, operates at a profit, and usually lowers prices to the consumer's benefit.

There is no promise or indication, however, that this government could make fertilizer cheaper or better. Apparently that isn't the point.

This is the season when cold germs don't seem to care anything about how important you are.

A check on your living expenses can always be cashed.

Father Divine Marries Canadian White Girl

PHILADELPHIA —(AP)— Father Divine, 41, self-styled "god" and negro evangelist who assumed the mantle of immortality in 1932 as the leader of a religious cult, married a beautiful, blonde 21-year-old white girl from Montreal last April 29 but he tells shrieking followers it's "in name only."

The marriage to Miss Edna Rose Ritchings in the Washington home of the Rev. Albert L. Shadd, negro Baptist minister, was revealed Wednesday.

Divine entertained members of his cult at a wedding banquet here Wednesday night and told the chanting, shrieking guests that his late first wife—Mother Divine—had approved the marriage.

The new wife, better known among followers of the cult in Montreal by her spiritual name of "Sweet Angel," formerly worked in a costume jewelry establishment in the Canadian city.

R-T Carriers Win Two Ball Games, Lose One

"Root" Harris twirled the winning game for Southern Ice when they downed the carriers, 13 to 10, Wednesday morning. Hitting for the R-T were Collyar, Hall and Friday. Southern Ice hitters were Devore, Kennedy and Harris.

Wednesday afternoon the carriers beat the young people of the First Baptist Church 18 to 9. Merriman, Wiley, and Shelburne hit homers for the newboys.

The carriers will play a team fielded by Jimmy Kennedy at 3 p.m. Sunday on the Main Street diamond. Probable R-T starters include Merriman, Collyar, Shelburne, Hall, Etheredge, Drummond, Friday, Stanley, and Ramsey.

Midland Represented In Silver Anniversary JayCee Publication

The United States Junior Chamber of Commerce has just released its Silver Anniversary Yearbook carrying the theme "Young Men At Work," and Midland JayCees are well represented.

A copy of the handsomely bound annual has been presented to the JayCees here by Taylor Cole, a national vice president.

Midland has won three state awards and one national award for Christmas activities.

Frank Monroe is pictured in the national book as vice chairman of the national committee on Christmas activities.

Clint Dunagan, a past state president, is included among pictures of Texas JayCees.

Taylor Cole appears in one picture as he heads a delegation of United States Junior Chamber of Commerce committeemen at a plane preparing to leave for the International JayCee Congress in Panama.

Jester And Rainey File Expense Accounts

AUSTIN—(AP)—Beauford H. Jester has spent $7,902 this far in his campaign for governor, according to his third expense account filed in the secretary of state's office.

Deadline for filing was August 6. His opponent, Homer P. Rainey, reported expenditures totaling $5,199.

Texas law allows spending of $10,000 in a campaign for state office, not more than 8,000 of which may be spent in the first primary.

Jester reported donations of $4,140; Rainey, $7,838.

PLANE LATE

The new Swift airplane scheduled to have appeared at Midland Commercial Airport Wednesday afternoon did not arrive until after darkness.

Jester Asserts Texas Should Seek Industry; Rainey Hits Waste

By The Associated Press
 Gubernatorial run-off, candidate, Beauford H. Jester, at Paris Wednesday night, predicted an "overwhelming victory" in the August 24 run-off, said the atomic bomb will cause decentralization of industries from the north and east and that Texas should try for a share of these industries, and charged that his opponent "seeks revenge" and "would make the people subservient to the state government."

At Amarillo, Homer P. Rainey, his opponent, charged that Jester had formerly represented the Magnolia Oil Company and the Southern Pacific Railroad and questioned why he had not put a stop to "the shameful waste of our natural gas." He again rapped his opponent for failing to resign from the Railroad Commission prior to announcing his candidacy for governor.

Rainey, in presenting his charge that Jester had not "put a stop" to waste of natural gas, asserted that the state's gas supply may be depleted in another 25 years.

"What will be left then for our school children?" he asked.

"What will be left for the state to tax for old age pensions, social security, public health and farm-to-market roads?"

North Favored In All-Star Cage Tilt

CORPUS CHRISTI —(AP)— The first of two all-star games being played as climaxing features of the annual Texas Coaching School comes Thursday night as the North meets the South in a basketball contest.

Friday night schoolboy squads clash in the 12th annual all-star football game.

The North basketball team, representing the upper districts of the Texas Interscholastic League, was considered a narrow favorite.

Pierce Pitches One-Hit Ball As Reporter Beats Oil Scouts, 3-0

By TANNER LAINE
The Reporter-Telegram beat the Oil Scouts, 3 to 0, Wednesday night in an exhibition benefit ball game which brought together two championship-caliber teams in one of the best games of the season, to help a buddy.

The Oil Scouts agreed to play the Reporter so a collection could be taken for Clifton Jones, R-T catcher, who broke his leg in a recent game. A swell audience of fans donated $127 taken up by JayCee solicitors.

Jones was brought out to the game and his team served him up a victory in a hard-fought contest.

It was a pitching battle between A. T. Pierce of the R-T, who whiffed 11 Scouts and limited them to one hit, and Dopey Crow of the Oilers, who struck out eight Reporter and limited them to five hits.

Errors hurt the Scouts.

The Reporter scored its first run in the fourth inning when Messier, who had walked to get on base, stole home to tally in a close play at the plate after Truelove advanced him with a hit, the first one off Crow. Two runs were added in the fifth. Jack McKnight, who got on base on an error, was sacrificed around by fielder's choice on Pierce's grounded ball and the McKnight scored as the Scout catcher errored and dropped the ball in a close play at the plate. Pierce scored on Yarbrough's hit. That was the tallying for the night.

Injuries Plague Big Leagues But Boston, Cards Win

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
"Old man injury" is in his most merciless mood in many a moon Thursday as key players of major league baseball teams join already overcrowded hospital lists.

Heading the list of currently ailing non-combatants are such top-notch performers as Bob Feller, Cleveland Indians; Ted Williams, Johnny Pesky and Mike Higgins, Boston Red Sox; Johnny Mize and Buddy Kerr, New York Giants; Johnny Berardino, St. Louis Browns; Pete Reiser and Harry Lavanetto, Brooklyn Dodgers; Stan Hack, Chicago Cubs and Schoolboy Rowe, of the Phillies.

The absence of Williams, Pesky and Higgins is causing no great alarm on the Hub front as the American League leading Red Sox have too commanding a lead with the season two-thirds gone. With the New York Yankees' 4-3 defeat by the Senators in Washington Wednesday night, the idle Sox increased their margin to 13 full games.

Scouts Hit Once
The Scouts had trouble finding Pierce. He struck out the first five men to face him and struck out eight of the first nine swing-ers. The first hit and only one off Pierce was by Burns McKinney in the sixth frame. He grazed one over the third baseman off into left field and about five feet inside of the foul line. The Scouts got a man on base in the third inning when McKinnney was safe at first, on a R-T error.

In the fifth inning Cones walked. Straughn got on by a fielder's choice in the sixth and advanced to second on McKinnney's hit. Crow got on base in the sixth on Pierce's error and Fowler walked in the seventh. Not a Scout got farther than second base.

Dick McKnight played a bangup game at third base for the Reporter. He made two magnificent stops of liners. Straughn, Scout keystone sacker, also shone with a great catch of R. McKnight's infield fly in the fifth. "Shag" went way over to the first base line to get it.

Score by innings:
Reporter ..... 000 120 0-3 5 2
Scouts ..... 000 000 0-0 1 7

Cards Down Pirates 8-1
It is an entirely different story with the Dodgers whose National League lead was trimmed to a mere game and a half Wednesday night when the challenging St. Louis Cardinals overpowered the last place Pirates 8-1 at Pittsburgh.

Tony Lazzeri, Mate Of Ruth And Gehrig, Dies
SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF.—(P)—"Poosh-Em-Up" Tony Lazzeri, former New York Yankee player and one of the Murderers Row of hitters with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig, is dead at 42.

The Indians fell three and a half games behind the fourth place Senators when the White Sox overcame a 3-0 deficit to nose out the Tribe 4-3 in Chicago.

Rained out of their game with the Dodgers Wednesday, the sixth place Boston Braves who were washed out of the twin bill with the Philadelphia Phillies.

The St. Louis Browns, edged out the Detroit Tigers 3-2 under the Sportman's Park lights.

Rain washed out the scheduled Red Sox as double header as well as the Dodgers-Giants contest and the twin bill between the Braves and Phillies.

CORPUS CHRISTI.—(P)—Baseball will be inaugurated as an official sport by the Texas Interscholastic League next year and there is a strong possibility that Class A football will be played to a state championship.

A Texas High School Coaches Association committee will report to the State Advisory Council on Class A football in November and if acted upon favorably the question would be submitted to a referendum of the membership.

The association named Harold Dement of Galena Park president and Gene McCullum of Port Neches vice president.

Anyway, THIS Pig Swims

The controversy over whether or not pigs can swim, touched off by reports from Bikini that atomic bomb test pig No. 311 was found swimming in the lagoon hours after the explosion, appeared in a Kirland, Wash., test. Tossed into Lake Washington from a bathing raft, shooed along by comely aquatic swineherds, "Gardenia," pig seen in photo, made the 60 feet to shore in 16 seconds.

100,000 Factory-Made Homes Is New Goal

WASHINGTON (AP)—Hopes of rolling out a quarter million factory built homes this year were cut back to 100,000 Thursday by Housing Expediter Wilson Wyatt.

But the housing chief still is aiming at his original target of actually starting work on 1,200,000 housing units before the year ends. "The goals can be achieved," Wyatt said as he discussed a detailed progress report on the veterans emergency housing program with newsmen late Wednesday.

He described as "too optimistic" the original goal of 250,000 prefabricated homes this year. But to offset the loss of 150,000 units in that field Wyatt called for increases in traditional on-site construction from 650,000 to 738,000 units, reconversion to increase occupancy of existing homes from 50,000 to 100,000, and temporary reuse projects from 200,000 to 212,000.

1. Exercised one-half hour.
2. Slept eight hours.
3. Downed six to eight glasses of water.
4. Had a daily bath (using deodorant twice a week).
5. Had a daily bowel movement.
6. Brushed hair well (shampoo weekly).
7. Eaten daily, two vegetables, other than potatoes; egg, meat or fish; fruits; cereal or bread; butter or margarine.

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

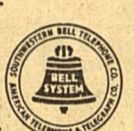

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barconate (formerly called Barcon Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles; just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Band-Leading, Song Writing Louisiana Governor To Play In Movie About Himself

BATON ROUGE, LA.—(AP)—For years the band-leading, song-writing governor of Louisiana, Jimmie Davis, has made his career in the entertainment world and public affairs advance each other.

Now he plans to take time out from the latter, and, without permanently relinquishing the governorship, star in a motion picture.

The title—"Louisiana." Theme—his own life. The screen play—to be written partly by himself.

"Sometime before spring" he will go for two weeks to Hollywood, where Monogram Corpoation will produce the picture, he said. The rest of the filming will be done in Louisiana.

There's plenty of movie material in the life history of 45-year-old Davis, whose hill billy band accompanies him on goodwill trips to other states and Latin American republics, and who customarily closes sessions of the legislature by leading the solons in his globe girdling juke box favorite "You Are My Sunshine."

Son of a Jackson Parish, Louisiana, tenant farmer, Davis struggled for his education, literally singing for his supper on the streets of Alexandria, La., while he attended Louisiana College. He taught psychology in a girls school, went back to classes himself to earn his bachelor's and master's degree.

Before becoming governor, he played small parts in several singing Westerns, and starred in two.

Mae Meets Muscle

"Mr. America," who is 22-year-old Alan Stephan, of Cicero, Ill., has a Hollywood rival who sneers at him as a "musclebound mess," but Mae West, considered something of an authority, thinks Alan's a bit of all right. Above, in their recent Chicago meeting, Mae puts his biceps and declares that he should be called "Mr. Absolutely Everything."

Health Of Midland Depends On How Food Handled

By TANNER LAINE

Because thousands of Midlanders eat in cafes and restaurants, some regularly, others periodically, it is literally true that the health of Midland is in the hands of several dozen foodhandlers. Midlanders want those hands clean, disease-free, and the handler to be licensed.

A recent check on eating and drinking establishments in Midland by representatives of the Texas State Department of Health showed that more than 21,000 persons daily are served in establishments here.

The survey further showed a need for greater attention in several of the establishments to the following: proper sterilization of utensils, keeping displayed food protected, holding milk and cream at a temperature of 50 degrees or below that until it reaches the consumer, serving food and drink in such manner that fingers do not contaminate the served food or drink, good personal hygiene.

Can Take Action

In only a few instances was it found necessary to take court action to get unsanitary conditions corrected. The great majority of Midland operators are cooperating with health authorities and realize the responsibility they have to the public.

Repeated violations of sanitary foodhandling in Midland can necessitate revocation or suspension of license. A city ordinance stipulates this. Good common sense adds its worth.

Most of the establishments in Midland where persons eat or drink have qualified for permits as required by city law. These will be ready for issuance next week.

A foodhandlers course, which will qualify attendants for foodhandlers certificates, will end Thursday at the City-County Auditorium. Graham Smoot, senior sanitarian of the County Health Unit, is the instructor.

The sea-lily is an animal and not a plant, but it grows at the bottom of the sea and is attached to it by a long, jointed stem.

MEN! GET PEP..

Do you want to feel young again? Why feel old at 40, 50 or more? Enjoy youthful pleasures again. If added years have slowed down your vim and vitality, just go to your druggist and ask for Casella tablets. Many men are obtaining remarkable results with this amazing formula.

Guam Hero Keeps His Promise

Navy radioman George Tweed, who for nearly three years escaped capture by Japs on Guam while living like a hunted animal in the island's hills, promised to send an automobile to Antonio Artero, one of the heroic natives who befriended him. He recently kept the two-year-old promise. At left, above, Tweed, now a Navy lieutenant (j. g.), and H. S. Arner, of General Motors, stand on a San Francisco dock, watching a new Chevrolet, addressed to Antonio Artero, being loaded aboard a Guam-bound ship. Inset shows Tweed shortly after his rescue in 1944.

MESSY HANDBAG IS SAD SATCHEL

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Your purse isn't a "sad satchel," is it? That's a title of derision, man-conferred upon a woman's untidy pocketbook.

To make sure that yours isn't, check on the following: Is the lining of your purse stained with lipstick or moist rouge? At the bottom, do loose make-up items hob-nob with tobacco particles? Does a freshly-folded handkerchief lie by side with soiled or crumpled tissues?

Does it harbor a disorganized clutter of nondescript articles, such as keys, a dog-eared address book, unpaid bills, scraps of paper and unanswered letters?

What saves a purse from being a sad satchel is a daily check-up on its contents to see that only what's needed is in there and that what's there is herded into its proper pocket and case.

That kind of bag is never the object of wicked verbal sallies from bus drivers, street car motormen or taxi drivers.

The figure covered combined sales of the E War Bonds, F and G series, which exceeded total cash-ins by $252,804,000.

Refuge and Strength

This elderly gentleman and his kindly-faced wife have come to the House of God for spiritual strength and comfort. The care or sorrow or need which brought them there is not important. It is important that the experiences of a lifetime have taught them that God is their refuge and their strength.

The beauty of faith and of years of right living shines in their faces, and from this devout worship they will go forth stronger in spirit. For they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength.

But faith is not the exclusive possession of age, nor is spiritual wisdom contingent upon the experiences of a long life. From childhood to the grave, man may find hope and comfort and peace in God. For faith banishes fear, overcomes difficulties and imparts new life to the faithful.

As human life grows more complex and dangerous, men need religion more than ever before. In the presence of vast powers hitherto unknown, they stand awed and many feel frustrated and helpless. Human problems lie heavy upon their spirits. But God is a Rock of Refuge and Pillar of Strength to those who trust Him.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday.

Rare Deal Gives Perfect Hands

DUNEDIN, NEW ZEALAND—(AP)—Four women members of the Dunedin Bridge Club received the shock of their lives when they were each dealt a complete suit.

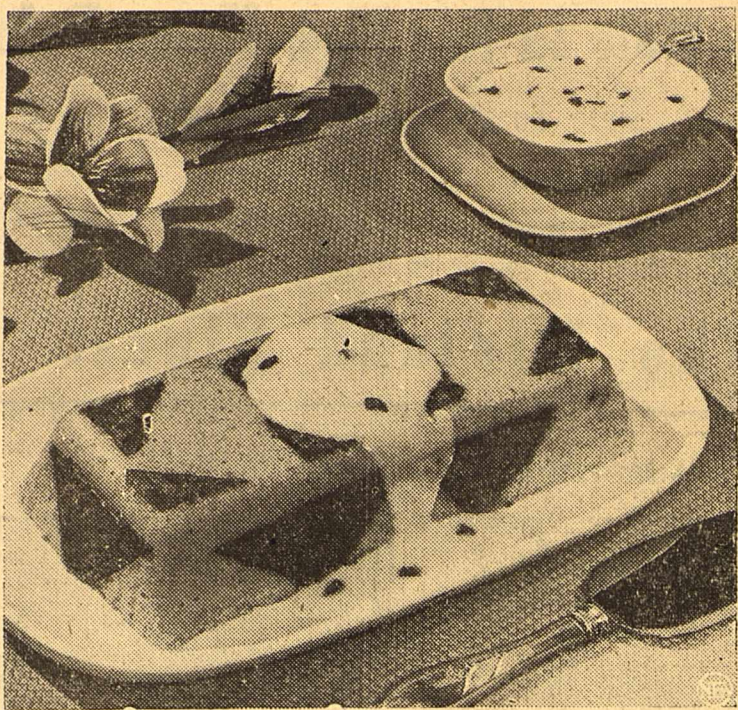

The deal occurred in the third hand of a rubber. The pack used was the same one used in the first deal when the players threw in their hands. The women are convinced the freak hands were the result of chance.

The dealer called seven spades, the others gasped and passed.

A club member said mathematicians have estimated that if the cards are shuffled correctly, such a deal should occur only once in a million players played 25 deals a day every day for 250 quadrillion years.

The Great Rift of Africa stretches for a distance of 5,000 miles and is the largest valley in the world.

Delicious sugarless dessert—peanut butter-graham cracker ice-box cake.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Using all your sugar for home canning? Then you'll welcome these two desserts, which need no sugar.

Peanut Butter-Graham Cracker Pudding
(Serves 6)

One envelope plain, unflavored gelatin, 1/4 cup cold water, 3 egg yolks, well beaten, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/3 cup sugar or light corn syrup, 1/2 cup peanut butter, 3/4 cup milk, 3 egg whites, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, graham crackers.

Line bottom and sides of oblong glass baking dish with graham crackers.

Soften gelatin in the cold water. Place peanut butter in bowl. Add milk gradually, beating until smooth. Add egg yolks, 3 tablespoons of the sugar or corn syrup and salt. Cook in top of double boiler until thickened, stirring constantly. Add softened gelatin and stir until dissolved.

Chill until very slightly thickened. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Add remaining sugar or corn syrup gradually. Fold into peanut butter mixture.

Pour half the mixture into glass dish. Cover with graham crackers and top with remaining filling. Chill in refrigerator until set.

Serve with cream or foamy custard sauce.

Frozen Crunch Pudding
(Serves 6 to 8)

One package prepared vanilla pudding, 2 cups light cream, 2 egg whites, 1 1/4 cups packaged chocolate chip cookie crumbs, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla.

Place pudding powder in saucepan. Add cream gradually, stirring constantly. Place over medium flame and stir until mixture is thickened.

Cool and fold in vanilla and stiffly-beaten egg whites. Turn into freezing tray.

When partially frozen (1/2-inch freeze around edge of tray), remove from tray. Stir until smooth. Fold in 3/4 cup of the cookie crumbs. Line freezing tray with waxed paper.

Sprinkle 1/4 of the remaining crumbs on bottom of tray. Pour in pudding and sprinkle with remaining crumbs.

Freeze until firm.

To serve, run thin knife around edge between pudding and paper. Invert onto platter and remove paper carefully.

Daughter Of Mine

Copyright, 1946, NEA SERVICE, INC.

By R. Louise Emery

THE STORY: Cecily has organized her own sorority. She has no companions about "dingling" black-balling—girls she doesn't like.

XVI
I ASKED unbelievably, "Cecily, you don't mean that you'd actually ding another girl—hurt her perhaps for life—?"

"She had no business wanting to join," Cecily returned, pouring my tea. "It wouldn't be a kindness to let her come in—she hasn't enough money to keep up with the rest of us and her father is nothing but a garbage collector."

"He contracts for the salvaging of waste products. He'll make more money as time goes on—it's a new project for him. And what difference does it make, anyhow? His daughter is pretty and sweet."

Cecily giggled. "Aunt Mavis—you're quaint."

"What do the other girls' fathers do?" I persisted.

"They're in businesses their families can be proud of," Della chimed in.

"I suppose playground work ranks with garbage collecting?" I queried. "Salvaging kids who aren't as lucky as Cecily and Ella May and Janine. Is that why Corinna hasn't been acceptable to your sorority, Cecily?"

Cecily went scarlet, but Della stirred her tea, unembarrassed. "I don't see where you have any kick coming. You've had your chances to amount to something. It isn't Cecily's fault if you like having Corinna hobnobbing with the scum of the earth."

We went on drinking our tea. Cecily was still uncomfortable, I saw, but Della seemed pleased. She thought she had settled my hash for not letting Corinna take the largesse she had offered. And sitting there, looking from one to the other of them, seeing their smugness, their utter incapacity for compassion except within the limits of their own charmed circle, I knew inescapably what I would one day do to break that stiff-necked pride of Cecily's. Knowing this, I could afford even to feel sorry for them. Cecily followed me into her room when I went back to hang the skirts in her closet.

"AUNT MAVIS," she said, "I wanted to put Corinna's name up—but I knew she'd never come in without Mercedes."

I paused with the skirts still over my arm. "Cecily," I said, "Mercedes is worth all the Ella Mays and Janines in the world put together, and some day you're going to have to see it. You can spare yourself a great deal in the future if you'll start now to look for something else other than money or social position in people."

"I think they're both terribly important, Aunt Mavis." The implacable opinion of the very young.

"So does a mole think the universe is entirely dark," I said. "But perhaps you consider his ignorance commendable?"

"It goes all right for the mole," Cecily answered flippantly.

"My answer was hard. 'It isn't going to do for you,' and then I despised myself for allowing her to see how unsteady my lips were."

"It doesn't matter to me that YOU haven't any money," she tried to make amends.

I felt that inevitable moment rushing upon us now, and the weapon I held was poised to strike and shatter all the strength of Della's golden one. I stepped away from Cecily dizzily, trying to push the time far from me, wanting to spare her—and myself—as long as I could.

I nearly spoke then but the years held me silent. I went down the hill blindly, seething with the pent up words. Corinna had dinner waiting for me and Robert took off my oxfords and rubbed my aching feet a little before he slipped my scuffs over them. There was such love and peace in this house of ours, my heart cried, why was the peace never enough for me?

I could not sleep that night. At last I made a pretense of not wishing to disturb Robert and slipped away from him to the bed that had been Cecily's.

THE next three years were momentous ones for the entire world and our lives did not escape the demands of war. First there was conscription in the United States and then came Pearl Harbor. Stevie Ralston came home from the East to stay until he should be drafted; the romance was on again more ardently than ever.

This time Myrtle Ralston offered no opposition, facing it squarely that there was no use in being too concerned about Steve's mature years. His young ones might be all he would ever have; if he wanted Cecily now he was free to marry her.

Della was all for it—Cecily a Ralston but with Steve away appealed to her as an ideal arrangement. Cecily, of course, would remain at home with Della. I waited tersely for announcement of their engagement, but it did not come.

Val had wanted to volunteer but Robert persuaded him to wait. He was majoring in chemistry in junior college and his professors said that he was a wizard. Robert felt that another two years of lab work, if he were fortunate enough to escape the draft, would make him much more valuable to his country.

"But Steve is aiming for the Air Force," I told Robert. "Val could make it easily. He wants Cecily and he can't possibly compete with Steve as things are."

"I doubt that Cecily would be good for Val."

"He'd be good for HER," I said. "And besides—" I broke off. And besides if she married Val she would be away from Della's influence. I could be with her often, teach her all the things Della had neglected.

Married to Steve she would be almost as inaccessible to me as she was now.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

America's Card Authority

A good many tournament players are looking forward to the revival of the Southern Appalachian sectional championships this year at Asheville, N. C. This was a most enjoyable tournament and the New York and Philadelphia experts who attended it in past years will undoubtedly be on hand again this year.

These include Charles H. Goren of Philadelphia, who during our recent trip to California brought out an interesting point of play in connection with today's hand.

With the club opening declarer was immediately down to four trumps. Now how should the heart suit be played?

Ordinarily, Goren pointed out, a small heart should be led toward the queen-jack to protect against four trumps in one hand. But in this case, another club would be returned and with a four-one break in trumps, declarer would be automatically defeated. One of the opponents would have more trumps than he had.

Therefore, with only one chance to make the hand, the correct play was to lead the ace of hearts, hoping to pick up the singleton king. That was actually what happened on this hand. Two more rounds of hearts were taken and Goren led diamonds until West took his high trump.

We all find ourselves in contracts that look hopeless. The average player will play this type of hand in routine fashion and lose it, but the expert takes the one chance that may make it possible to win.

Nazi Chart Shows Essen Coal Mining Dropped Sharply As Homes Bombed

By JAMES DEVLIN
ESSEN—(P)—Housing is second only to food as a problem to miners and their families living four to eight in a room in the Ruhr, Europe's greatest coal producing area.

The British-operated North German Control Commission is trying to improve the conditions of miners charged with the task of producing coal for Europe, but is handicapped by a lack of materials and labor.

Figures produced by the Bergwerke-Essen group of four mines show that of the 4,454 homes occupied by its workmen 62.5 per cent were totally destroyed, 27.3 per cent heavily damaged, 4.4 per cent suffered medium and 5.8 slight damage.

Most heavily hit were homes near the Salzer-Amalie mine, one of the Bergwerke-Essen group. Of its 1,608 homes, 81 per cent were destroyed totally.

One of the mine manager's charts, kept from the early days of the war for the Germans' own information, showed that one group of 2,500 houses was hit 10,000 times, or an average of four each, up to the end of 1944 when the figures reached the end of the sheet.

A number of miners' families bombed out of one house, doubled up with somebody else, only to be bombed out again.

In the early days of the bombings, strenuous efforts were made to repair the damage, but such work slackened as the raids increased in number and intensity.

In like manner, the charts indicated that production halted only briefly after the first raids. The line of slump and restoration of output resembled a narrow "V." But as the raids continued, the upswing line leaned further to the right and didn't climb back to its former height.

Good Cleansing Cream Must Pass Four-Point Test For Skin Care

By ALICIA HART
 NEA Staff Writer
 A good cleansing cream, needed as much during the summer as the winter by every woman who uses make-up, has a four-point program to fill.

It should spread at the merest touch. Wiped off, it should put oily skins under dirt and make-up but leave no greasiness behind it. It should have no particular absorbent properties—that's something for a lubricating cream to boast. It should soften up a skin for what is to follow.

You should know which of the two types of cleansing cream is formulated for you, but in case you don't, here's a quick review. If your skin is dry, a full-bodied, opaque but fluffy cream is your dish, because this type contains softening oils which allay dryness. If your skin is oily, you need the liquefying type which melts at skin temperature and cleanses without leaving any oils on your skin to aggravate the problem.

The highly-explosive compound, gun cotton, is made by treating cotton with sulphuric and nitric acids.

Use Natural Party Punch Bowl

Novel punch bowl—hollowed-out, daisy-rimmed watermelon. By GAYNOR MADDOX, NEA Staff Writer.

Midsummer social gatherings call for novel and lovely ways of serving food and beverages. Here's a splendid suggestion:

A party is coming up, and you have no punch bowl for it! The weather indicates that copious amounts of an icy thirst-quenching beverage will be needed.

And this is a real party, with all the fixings—a lawn party to introduce a visitor, a wedding reception for an August bride, or, perhaps, a christening party.

The punch will be blended and mixed according to a prized gala-occasion recipe and iced to the perfect temperature. And—a big surprise—it will be served in a natural punch-bowl. Anyone can make it.

Use a cool, lush green watermelon for the punch bowl!

First, scoop out all the red meat—the family can eat it for lunch—dessert the day of the party. Then press fresh-cut flowers into shallow slits cut all around the margin of the firm green rind. Daisies may be used—or sweet peas or pink rambler roses. If flowers are hard to get, small overlapping ivy leaves may be substituted, or fresh tender sprigs of aromatic mint, if you prefer.

Place in the center of a table covered with Irish linen with a floral pattern. Arrange pink glad-rolls at each end, and place gleaming punch glasses around it.

Here's a novel party beverage suggested by Genevieve Callahan in "The California Cook Book."

Mock Pink Champagne

One cup sugar, 1 cup water, 1 cup grapefruit juice, 1/2 cup orange juice, 1/2 cup grenadine syrup, 1 quart chilled ginger ale.

Boil sugar and water together 5 minutes. Cool. Add grapefruit and orange juice, and chill.

At serving time, add the grenadine and ginger ale, stir lightly, and serve in champagne glasses, goblets, or stemmed wine glasses. Makes about 3 pints.

Skiers Slide On Snow Over Hot Lake

AUCKLAND, N. Z.—First a hot lake, then a mass of red-hot lava, the crater of Mount Ruapehu, 9,000 feet high, in the center of the North Island of New Zealand, now has developed into a fine snow basin for skiers.

This crater lake, surrounded by icy cliffs several hundred feet high, had for years been one of New Zealand's foremost tourist attractions. Bluish-green in color, it was cool enough for swimming in some parts while in others it was almost boiling. It gave off a sulphurous vapor and at times there were minor upheavals in the lake. Otherwise the mountain gave no sign of activity and it was generally considered to be decreasing into an extinct volcano.

Last year, however, it burst into violent activity, sending shots thousands of feet into the air, and hurling out from the crater boulders as large as houses. The lake disappeared and only masses of lava were visible in the raging inferno of the
