At Least Four Killed In Plane Crash At Kermit

LAKE CHARLES, LA. —(AP)— Officers of Lake Charles Army Field here Tuesday were investigating the crash of an A-26 Army plane near Kermit, Texas, early Monday in which four men were thought to be killed.

Officials at the air field here reported that an A-26 plane left here Sunday for Biggs Field, El Paso, and had failed to arrive there.

Names of the dead cannot be released until identification is complete and next of kin have been notified, they said. Four billboards had been recovered from the scene of the wreck, but bodies were strewn for 1,500 feet in the area of the crash.

KERMIT —(AP)— Army officials Tuesday were continuing to probe the wreckage of an A-26 Army plane which crashed seven miles west of here during a rainstorm early Monday.

The mangled bodies of at least four fliers were found in the wreckage and surrounding area. Army officials, who said four billboards had been recovered, are withholding identification.

At Biggs Field, El Paso, officials said Tuesday night the plane was based at Lake Charles, La., and that the occupants were assigned to the 47th Bombardment Group.

The search for the plane began early Monday after Kermit residents reported hearing an explosion. Army planes from Albuquerque and Poyote Air Bases participated in the search.

Volcanic Eruption Shakes Pacific Island

SUVA, FIJI ISLANDS —(AP)— A violent volcanic eruption was reported Tuesday at the isolated island of Niuafoou in the Tonga group, some 450 miles east of Fiji.

A plane from Suva reconnoitering the smoking island, observed a Catholic priest and some of the 1,200 natives signalling from the outskirts of their village, partly covered by the lava flow.

Niuafoou is known among Philatelists for its "tin can mail" carried out to passing ships by swimmers. Its volcano erupted before in 1929 and in 1856.

NMU Workers Block Only Own Vessels

Thousands Of Maritime Workers Return To Jobs

By The Associated Press

The strike stranglehold clamped on America's maritime fleets for 13 days was broken Tuesday by a voluntary shortening of CIO seamen's picket lines so AFL sailors and longshoremen could return to work.

Within a few hours after Joseph Curran, president of the National Maritime Union (N.M.U.), announced his decision to restrict pickets to CIO-contracted vessels, thousands of AFL maritime workers reported for duty in New York, Boston, Baltimore, Portland, Me., and other ports.

Ships flying foreign flags also were released from CIO picket lines in Curran's order.

In Boston, six ships including cargoes of raw sugar, wood pulp, granite and goods from India were being unloaded. AFL waterfront crews went back to work at Baltimore without interference from CIO pickets.

In New York about 500 longshoremen were at work at six piers and hundreds more longshoremen were expected back on the job later Tuesday. At Portland CIO pickets quit three AFL-manned liberty ships, and workmen, who had refused to pass the picket lines, resumed delayed repairs to two of the vessels at the former New England Shipbuilding Corporation east yard.

AFL seamen began the strike September 5 in protest against a Wage Stabilization Board decision limiting negotiated wage increases.

All foreign ships not under contract to the NMU also were exempt from picketing under the new directive, issued Tuesday morning by NMU President Joseph Curran after a conference with his aides at union headquarters in New York and in the name of the national strike policy committee of the NMU.

Curran's order did not mention the future action to be taken by NMU members regarding ships manned by the AFL Sailors Union of the Pacific.

Free Ships To Sail

The NMU head said the union's action would free about 40 S.U. ships in the Port of New York, permitting them to prepare at once to sail.

Curran's directive followed by several hours a request by the AFL Maritime Trades Department that the NMU withdraw its picket lines around all vessels on the Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf Coasts except CIO-contracted ships "to eliminate the possibility of wide-open jurisdictional warfare along all docks in all ports."

Also involved in the strike is the Marine Firemen, Oilers, Wipers and Water-tenders Union, an independent organization.

The three unions struck Friday at the end of the AFL strike to enforce demands for pay raises equal to those won by AFL seamen.

Curran's order also came shortly after Harry Lundeberg, head of the S.U.-S.U.P. Seafarers International Union—Sailors Union of the Pacific—threatened in San Francisco to

Wallace Has Meeting With Truman, Warns Of Danger Of War With Russia

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Henry A. Wallace, whose speech on Russia last week churned up an uproar, is going to the White House Wednesday to talk things over with President Truman.

Wallace's oratory has presented the Chief Executive with the problem of permitting him to continue to speak upon a ticklish situation, as he has said he will do, or possibly asking him to resign as secretary of commerce.

Olson-Skelly Spot Devonian Wildcat In S-W Andrews

By JAMES C. WATSON
 Oil Editor

Olson Drilling Company and Skelly Oil Company have filed application to drill No. 1-A Lockhart & Brown, as a 9,300-foot wildcat to test to the Devonian, in Southwest Andrews County.

The drillsite is 1,980 feet from west and south lines of southwest quarter of section 21, block A-41, township 33N, range 10E, about two miles east of nearest production in the Martin-Ellenburger field. The closest Devonian production is several miles north on the south side of the Fullerton field. Olson will do the drilling. Material for the rotary derrick and rig is being moved in.

Kaysar Shows Water

Stanford Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Kaysar, Central Ector County wildcat discovery for flowing production from the Ellenburger, about six miles west of Odessa, was reported to have been flowing late Monday at the rate of about 10 barrels of fluid per hour—about 60 per cent salty, sulphur water and 40 per cent oil.

That flow is coming from perforated section at 13,480-570 feet, in Ellenburger, topped at 13,500 feet. The project started off flowing late Sunday and made approximately 100 barrels of fluid in seven hours, cut from 15 to 20 per cent water. Some observers said the water was wind water, others said it was bottom hole water.

Further testing will determine which side is correct.

The well is in southwest corner of section 34, block 43, TP survey, T-2-S, and about one and one half miles west of the South Cowden field, which produces from the Grayburg of the upper Permian.

At last report the prospect was still flowing to test. Some interested operators hope that it will be possible to eliminate the water by plugging back so some of the oil-bearing section can be left open.

Turner Had Show

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Turner, East Midland County wildcat, about 12 miles southeast of Midland, and 660 feet from west and 1,380 feet from north lines of section 37, in W. T. Holcombe survey 37, T-2-S, was making hole below 8,760 feet in Permian lime and shale.

A drillsite test was taken at 8,497-8,584 feet. The tool was open 77 minutes and then closed 12 minutes, before operator started pulling the drill pipe. A small blow of sweet gas showed at the surface after 30 minutes. Recovery was 160 feet of oil and gas cut mud and 40 feet of free, green oil.

Operator reveals that similar shows were encountered in the other two wells which have been

Liner Crash Lands In Grain Field Near Sweetwater

SWEETWATER —(AP)— A crippled Pacific National Airlines plane made a spectacular crash landing in a grain field at the edge of the rough hill country 11 miles from here just before midnight Monday without injury to the crew of three or 21 passengers—Navy men and discharged—aboard.

Passengers Tuesday credited the calm efficiency and judgment of the crew for their safety.

The plane, a DC-3, was chartered to transport its passengers from their Pacific Coast points of discharge or leave. Some of the men were going home for the first time in two years.

The plane, piloted by Capt. R. M. Kreig, San Francisco, Calif., developed motor trouble a few minutes before the landing at 11:57 p. m. The crew said they attempted to keep the plane in the air with one motor, hoping to reach the Abilene airport about 29 miles away.

The plane began losing altitude, and the passengers were told to prepare for a landing. As the big transport touched ground, it "bounced around considerably" the passengers reported.

Didn't Realize Danger

"We never realized danger until we stepped out of the plane. We thought the plane was landing on a poorly lit field. When we stepped out into a sorghum field we realized what had happened," one of the men said in describing the landing.

About a mile west of where the plane landed in this West Texas country stretches to low rocky hills covered with scrub cedar, mesquite and cactus. It is criss-crossed with deep gullies.

Captain Greig and Co-pilots R. J. Reuschler, Burbank, Calif., and Judd Reid, Glendale, Calif., and some of the passengers walked to Sweetwater from where they sent taxicabs to pick up the rest of the men.

The plane left San Diego at 3 p. m. Monday and was due in Chicago early Tuesday. It had stopped Monday night for an hour at El Paso.

Coast Guard Seizes Gambling Ship

LONG BEACH, CALIF. —(AP)— The Coast Guard announced Tuesday it had seized Tony Cornero Stralla's luxurious gambling ship, the Bunker Hill, "for a violation of federal law."

A statement from Commodore L. L. Bennett, commanding the 11th Coast Guard District, read:

"The Bunker Hill has been seized by the United States Coast Guard, at the request of the U. S. Department of Justice for a violation of federal law. She will be turned over to the custody of the collector of customs, by order of the commandant, U. S. Coast Guard, Washington, D. C."

Coast Guard officers said it could give out no further information.

The action came a day after Stralla and three co-defendants were bound over in Los Angeles for Superior Court trial on charges of conspiracy to violate the state penal code by soliciting persons to board the vessel.

Four Killed As Mexico Celebrates Independence

MEXICO CITY —(AP)— Mexico counted four dead, 26 wounded and six robberies during its Sunday and Monday independence holiday.

The morning paper Universal commented that the few crime reports "indicate our level of culture has risen considerably" and added "six robberies in a city of 2,000,000 inhabitants is nothing".

Yugoslavia Says Allies Seek Trieste For Use As Bridgehead

By JOSEPH DYNAN

PARIS —(AP)— Yugoslav Spokesman Ales Bebler accused the Western powers Tuesday of seeking to establish a bridgehead in the free city of Trieste for future military action against Yugoslavia.

Opening the Slav bloc's attack upon the proposed boundaries of the free territory, Bebler told a peace conference commission, the only reason these were expanded beyond the Trieste city limits was to "allow space for the deployment of armed forces."

Bebler referred to the government's powers in the free state as envisaged by Western nations, and said they could be explained only by considerations of power politics.

"He can even call it foreign troops," said Bebler. "But against whom? The object of their action is never named but is always implied—Yugoslavia."

Bebler spoke as statesmen lined up once again in the Italian political and territorial commission on opposing sides of the Trieste issue—this time in connection with the frontiers of the projected free area.

Bebler urged the adoption of a Yugoslav amendment which would push the boundaries back to the city proper, a proposal paralleled by a White Russian amendment and contested by South African and Australian amendments which would extend the free state south to Istria to include Pola and other Italian coastal communities.

Uphold Italian Disarmament

The military committee, meanwhile, upheld the Foreign Ministers Council draft of disarmament clauses in the Italian treaty after rejecting, 16 to 4, a South African amendment which would have held Italy to military and naval restrictions at least five years regardless of decisions made by the United Nations Security Council.

Only Australia, New Zealand and The Netherlands supported South Africa in this move whose defeat confines Italy to the military clauses until the United Nations Security Council makes some agreement with Rome for peace enforcement.

The Military Commission adopted without argument provisions for division of surplus Italian fleet units among the United States, Britain, France and Russia.

The vessels include the battleships Cesare, Italia and Vittorio Veneto, five cruisers, seven destroyers, one sloop, six torpedo boats, eight submarines and a host of minor craft and auxiliaries.

This same commission approved clauses ordering Italy to demilitarize her frontiers with France and Yugoslavia, as well as Sicily, Sardinia, Pantellera and smaller islands in the Mediterranean and Adriatic.

Italy Must Dispose of Subs

The military commission voted 19 to 1 for Article 49 of the Italian treaty, with Brazil absent, providing that Italy must dispose of submarines and non-operational ships within time limits and under conditions specified by the Big Four treaty draft.

Gen. Frank Theron of South Africa called for allowing Italy to salvage electrical equipment that could aid Italy's civil economy and in the ensuing argument suggested that even the steel from hulls could be cut up for Italy's industry.

"There was no question of what had been staked out or filed.

Congressman Short Says Japs Would Fight For U. S.

HONOLULU —(AP)— Rep. Dewey Short (R-Mo.), senior member of the House Military Affairs Committee, wants stronger American bases in the Pacific because "a strong policy is the only way to discourage and prevent further Russian expansion."

Short said the six committeemen who have been touring U. S. military establishments in the Pacific and Far East favor strengthening the defenses of Alaska, the Aleutians, Hawaii, Iwo Jima, Okinawa, Guam and Saipan.

"We should hold onto" Pacific islands now under United States control but formerly mandated to Japan, he added, "until the United Nations is functioning properly, with an international police force that can keep the peace."

Short said that the admiral, whom he did not name, "meant a war with Russia."

Sherrill Named Bishop Of Episcopal Church

PHILADELPHIA —(AP)— The Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, M. D., 55-year-old bishop of Massachusetts, Tuesday was unanimously elected the new presiding bishop of the U. S. A.

The 153-member House of Bishops received only two other nominations for the post to be vacated December 31 by the Rt. Rev. Henry St. George Tucker of Richmond, Va., who has reached the retirement age.

Others nominated were Bishops W. Bertram Stevens of Los Angeles and Richard R. E. L. Strider of West Virginia.

A moment after the bishops had completed their closed balloting, the House of Deputies—comprised of lay and clerical delegates—ratified the selection, also voting unanimously.

Britain, Argentina Sign Trade Agreement

LONDON —(AP)— Britain and Argentina signed a trade and financial agreement Tuesday settling their differences on sterling payments, meat purchases and British-owned Argentine railways and agreeing to continue an expired trade treaty until a new one can be negotiated, the British government announced.

The agreement, signed in Buenos Aires, was published simultaneously in London by the British Central Office of Information. The agreement came after weeks-long conferences which several times were near a breakdown.

The negotiators agreed that "discussions should be initiated immediately to prepare modifications to the Anglo-Argentine trade treaty recently expired."

Legion Demands Slav Sentence On GI Removed

BOSTON —(AP)— The Massachusetts department, America Legion, Tuesday demanded that an eight-year sentence imposed on a former U. S. soldier by a Yugoslav court be commuted or that "Marshal Tito's killers of our young fliers be given the same dose of Yugoslavian justice."

Famed French General Whose Armies Smashed Germans In 1918 Dies

PARIS —(AP)— Gen. Henri Gouraud, 78, one of the outstanding military figures of World War I and commander of the Fourth French Army which helped smash the great German offensive in July, 1918, died Monday at his Paris apartment. He had been in poor health for several months.

The one-armed "Lion of Champagne" assumed command of the Tenth French Division early in World War I, while it was operating east of the Argonne. He later commanded the French Expeditionary Forces at Gallipoli and lost an arm as the result of a wound sustained there the night of June 30, 1915.

Born in Paris, Gouraud was the son of a doctor. He graduated from St. Cyr Military School as a second lieutenant and was ordered off to Africa in 1890.

During the latter stages of World War I he gained the peak of his fame, as commander of the redoubtable Fourth French Army. His command included three famous American divisions: the 2nd, 36th and 42nd (Rainbow).

LATE NEWS FLASHES

NEW YORK —(AP)— Coast Guard headquarters said Tuesday an Army plane reported that it had sighted additional survivors of the Norwegian tanker Marit II on a raft about 70 miles due east of Cape Henry, Va. The number of men seen was not given.

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y. —(AP)— Canada, joining the United States in the fight to create an international refugee organization, warned the United Nations Economic and Social Council Tuesday that the peaceful recovery of Europe may be hindered and delayed indefinitely if a million non-German refugees are abandoned in occupied territory.

BRISBANE —(AP)— The "squatter" movement, launched recently in Britain, spread to Australia Tuesday when more than 100 families moved into vacant military camps in two Brisbane suburbs.

NEW YORK —(AP)— AFL truck drivers, cheering and applauding the proposals of their leaders, Tuesday voted a partial resumption of trucking in New York City by operating under agreements with operators who would agree to proposals advanced by two trucking concerns.

Strike—

classify the CIO strike as "a political strike" if picket lines were not withdrawn from AFL-contracted ships.

Conferences between the NMU and East and Gulf Coast ship operators were broken off Sunday night when the operators said discussions would be "fruitless" while the NMU coupled its demands with those of the MCS and MFOWW on the West Coast.

The operators also refused to continue the negotiations because of the NMU's action in withdrawing security watches from ships in Atlantic and Gulf ports.

Seek Parity Pay
The three unions are seeking parity with the AFL sailors who gained wage boosts of $22.50 monthly on the West Coast and $27.50 on the East Coast. The NMU last June won a $17.50 monthly raise for its members.

In other developments Monday, the first clash between CIO seamen and members of the AFL International Longshoremen's association occurred on a New York pier.

The clash started when 150 longshoremen crashed the NMU picket line at the docking of the French liner, Columbia.
Monday, also, the CIO Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association presented to 40 shipping firms on the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts demands for a 35 per cent wage increase and a closed shop in behalf of 12,000 members manning the engine rooms of between 1,400 and 2,800 ships.

Edward P. Trainer, business manager for Local 33 of the association, said a strike vote was being taken by mail and would be completed by September 25.

When Columbus landed at what is known now as Puerto Rico, it was the first and only time that his feet trod on what is now U. S. territory.

drilled in the adjacent area. The section making the small show is in lime and shale. At present it is not considered sufficient to make any sort of commercial production—even should the owner decide to make production tests.

The wildcat is contracted to around 11,500 feet, and it is understood that it will continue on that program.

Dollar Hide Outpost Flows
Humble No. 2 E. P. Cowden, about three quarters of a mile northwest of the nearest completed Devonian producer in the Dollar Hide field, in extreme Southwest Andrews County, ran a drillstem test in the Devonian, at 7,683-7,745 feet, for two hours and 35 minutes.

Gas showed at surface in five minutes; mud in 45 minutes, and oil started flowing out of the drill pipe in 50 minutes. It flowed 13 barrels of oil to tanks in one hour. Gas-oil ratio was 2,070-1. Operator was preparing to run 5 1/2-inch casing and complete the extender.

The Plymouth Oil Company No. 1 Alford, Reagan County wildcat, ran a drillstem test for three hours at 10,205-384 feet, in the Devonian. There was a fair blow of air after 30 minutes, which increased to a strong blow for the remainder of the period.

No Shows of Oil
Recovery was 180 feet of drilling water, slightly gas cut. There were no shows of oil. Operator will perforate and test up the hole in several zones which have offered promise of possible production.

Cities Service Oil Company No. 1 Parker, Central-West Ector County exploration had plugged back to 11,446 feet, in lime, and had perforated the casing at 10,520-608 feet, and at 10,660-694 feet, with a total of 488 one-half inch holes.

That horizon was to be treated with 3,000 gallons of acid and tested.

Pacific Western Oil Company (Skelly) No. 1 Cowden, 660 feet from south and west lines of section 4, block A-55, psi survey, and on the northwest side of the Dollar Hide field, was coring below 7,529 feet in dolomite, which had not been identified.

Core at 7,475-93 feet had some slight oil staining, a strong gas odor and some bleeding salt water. A core at 7,943-7,511 feet was reported to have had scattered porosity and fair stain—and no signs of water.

Devonian Well Completed
J. R. Sharp No. 1-D-A Crum, 660 feet from south and east lines of east half of the southeast quarter of section 7, block B-2, psi survey, and one quarter of a mile west of the first produced completed from the Devonian on the southeast side of the Keystone field, in North Winkler County, completed for a 24-hour flowing potential of 434 barrels of 35.5 gravity oil, with gas-oil ratio of 411-1.

The pay section above total depth at 8,034 feet, had been treated with a total of 8,000 gallons of acid, through 604 casing perforations.

Senator Pepper Hits Reactionaries Among Democrats

MIAMI BEACH, FLA.—(P)—Senator Claude Pepper of Florida Tuesday said he "did not like reactionaries within the Democratic Party" and said, if necessary, "even the parties must divide" to carry on the fight for labor.

Addressing the 28th Convention of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, Pepper said: "I am a Roosevelt Democrat and I don't like reactionaries within the Democratic Party any more than within the Republican Party. When you begin to clean house, do a good job."

He discussed the railway brotherhood strike which collapsed last May, and declared: "This is the cause of all men in America who earn their living. We must all join the fight. We must stand together, crossing the lines of parties if necessary."

A. F. Whitney sat beside him as he spoke, and Pepper termed the BRT head "the noblest Roman of them all" and urged the union to reelect Whitney to the union's presidency.

Whitney personally introduced Pepper, whom he previously had publicly endorsed as acceptable presidential timber.

In his own speech, Whitney referred to Truman as one who had encouraged Fascism in the United States. He said: "In one of the most tragic ironies of history, the proof that Fascism still flourishes came from a man whom labor helped to elect."

"Harry Truman, in using his powers to smash the strike of the railroad trainmen and engineers last May, gave greater encouragement to the reactionary and Fascist forces in our land than any president in our memory."

Whitney referred to "the twelve years of President Roosevelt as a period in which the brotherhood was awarded justice, and said Truman was approached in the same confidence."

"That was our undoing," he added.

Wallace—

Democrat National Chairman Robert E. Hannigan discussed the situation with Truman at some length late Monday.

As for Wallace, friends represented him as pleased over the results of his initial efforts to make a national issue of the state of American relations with Russia.

In Paris, Secretary of State Byrnes maintained complete personal silence on the whole question of Wallace's demands for a softer policy toward Russia. But there was ample evidence that State Department officials here were considerably disturbed by what they regard as an appearance of American disunity to the rest of the world.

It was understood from top officials that State Department leaders are considering a recommendation to Truman that any further speeches by Wallace on foreign policy should at least be subject to State Department clearance.

Pressure To Keep Wallace
Pressure to keep Wallace as a member of the government was reported fairly strong because of what many of Truman's advisers consider to be the commerce secretary's considerable political following.

Yet among lawmakers of both parties there were increasing demands for what Senator Kilgore (D-WVa) called "a unified front" in the handling of foreign affairs.

Kilgore told reporters that "Americans must present a unified front behind the Administration in dealing with foreign affairs."

Senator Byrd (D-Va) called Byrnes in Paris that "you have the overwhelming support and confidence of the American people in your valiant efforts to establish enduring world peace. Wallace and Pepper speak for a small minority."

Senator Pepper (D-Fla) spoke on the same program with Wallace last week and later lauded the commerce secretary's address.

Wallace announced his intention to continue discussing foreign policy issues and said that he would speak on that subject again "in the near future."

Immediately before he issued the statement at the Commerce Department, Wallace telephoned Truman. From persons close to the secretary it was learned he did not ask the President to approve the text nor did he read it to him. Instead, he simply expressed appreciation for the way in which the President upheld on Saturday his right to make last week's speech, adding that "he intended to issue a brief, innocuous statement."

Thus Wallace was without any White House assurances that Truman would do with German and Japanese submarines we take them out and sink them. I oppose giving Italy all this equipment peculiar only to submarines, an offensive weapon, and sinking only hulls. We can't let all that equipment go on the loose in an ex-enemy country."

Captain Phycy and A. V. Alexander, first lord of Britain's admiralty, debated interpretation of the draft treaty at length, with Alexander suggesting that the Italians be permitted to apply for such equipment as Italy wanted before sinking the submarines.

The Russian delegation sat by silently during the interchange. General Theron's motion was voted down 17 to 11, with Belgium and Holland abstaining. On the final vote only White Russia voted against the United States stand. The White Russian vote was obviously the result of a misunderstanding and brought snickers from the other delegates.

Karl A. Mygal, of The Pure Oil Company was selected as vice-president. Miss Jane Marie Johnson, of Anderson, Huffman & Johnson, consulting geologists, was elected secretary-treasurer. Bertie R. Haigh, of University of Texas Lands, was given the assignment as program chairman.

Approximately 45 geologists attended the session, which was in charge of Addison Young, retiring president.

Carbon monoxide and hydrogen combine to make gasoline and water in the presence of a catalyst—a chemical agent which promotes a chemical reaction without taking part in that reaction.

man would favor his continued campaigning on foreign policy questions, and both White House and State Department officials made it plain that the question remained to be decided.

Wallace has scheduled a speech next Tuesday at Providence, R. I., under sponsorship of the National Citizens Political Action Committee. He did not specify whether this would be the occasion for his renewal of the discussion.

MOTHER'S FRIEND, an exquisitely prepared emollient, is useful in all conditions where a bland, mild anodyne massage medium in skin lubrication is desired. One condition in which women for more than 70 years have used it is an application for massaging the body during pregnancy. It helps keep the skin soft and pliable, thus avoiding unnecessary discomfort due to dryness and tightness. It refreshes and tones the skin. An ideal massage application for the numb, tingling or burning sensations of the skin, for the tired back muscles or cramp-like pains in the legs. Quickly absorbed. Delightful to use. Highly praised by users, many doctors and nurses. Millions of bottles sold. Just ask any druggist for Mother's Friend—the skin emollient and lubricant. Do try it.

A REPORT on telephone progress in Texas

The first postwar year was the busiest year we've ever known, filled with work to give telephone service to those who are waiting and to improve service for everyone.

We have put in 240,000 telephones in Texas—nearly twice as many as in any prewar year. We are handling more calls per telephone now than in the rushed days of the war. And even this record-breaking performance has not been enough.

But we're glad to say we've been able to take care of most customers whose applications were held up by lack of facilities on V-J Day—and in most places, most of the time, service is fast and good. Operators are answering 9 out of 10 calls within 10 seconds.

Demand Up

On the other hand, more people than ever are applying for telephones—24,000 a month for the last six months. Prewar months averaged 11,000. Thus, as we go ahead on one front, there are increasing demands on another.

We want all those waiting for telephone service to know we are doing our best to get it to them. It is just as much an emergency to us as a hurricane—but this is country-wide.

Bell System factories today are working around the clock, three shifts a day. And—despite scarcities—are even breaking some records set in boom days years ago.

In Texas we're putting the new equipment to work as fast as we get it, and putting up new buildings to house it when necessary.

People Are Telephoning More

This first postwar year has also brought an extraordinary increase in telephone use. Local calls are now 7½ million a day in Texas—nearly 1½ million a day over last year. That rise would have taken several years in normal times. Toll and long distance calls are also at all-time highs.

We have increased our forces to handle your rising telephone needs. Now we have 48,000 employees in the Southwest—more than ever before. This is an increase of 11,000 since the war ended. About 6,000 are returned veterans.

It will take a great deal of money and some time to do all the things we have planned for your telephone service, but our 250-million-dollar 5-year expansion program in the Southwest is well under way. During the first postwar year alone we spent about 50 million dollars providing telephone equipment.

It all adds up to our desire to serve well everyone who uses the telephone. And to do it always with courtesy and understanding.

The Boat Has Sailed

The American economy, industrial and financial, has missed the reconversion boat. No people ever had so wonderful an opportunity to pull themselves up by their own bootstraps. But more than a year has passed since the fighting stopped, and today we're in worse straits than at the height of war production.

Theoretically it is possible now to buy an automobile, a tire, a refrigerator, a range, a suit of clothes, a shirt, some underwear. A few such items appear on sale here and there, and most of us know somebody who has been able to buy one of them at a price.

But meanwhile wear and tear has gone on. Our prewar stockpiles of consumer goods, held together with pins and baling wire during the war, now is falling completely to pieces. The meager supply of new goods is far from enough to replace depreciation.

For some, wages have gone up. For a few, salaries have risen a little. For all, living costs have sky-rocketed. We remain somewhat solvent because we have been living off our financial fat—spending, on inflated prices, what we saved to pay for capital goods that haven't reached the market place.

Hundreds of thousands are without decent homes. We faced reconversion with everything. We had a surfeit of plant capacity, and all-time high of relatively skilled labor, the world's greatest collection of production know-how, an almost unbelievable reservoir of fluid savings with which to buy, and a soul-consuming desire for everything from houses through automobiles to camera film.

We couldn't miss. Yet we have. A big part of the reservoir of savings, with which the economic pump was to be primed, has been dissipated on nothing.

Blame whom you will, or nobody. You can't dodge the fact. We have missed the boat, and it is getting harder to catch every day that it sails further from shore.

Nightmare For Lobbyists

The high-pressure boys of Washington are worried. What bothers them is "The Federal Regulation of Lobbying Act" which slipped through almost unchallenged in the new reorganization plan for Congress.

The act looks simple enough on paper. But when press agents, corporation lawyers, trade association representatives, and the paid agents of organized do-good societies try to fit their own operations into the bill, a hundred questions arise. Nobody today knows the answers—not even the people who wrote the thing. It will take time, and probably some court tests, to decide whom the law covers and how.

Section 307 of the act says that it applies to any person who in any way solicits or receives money to influence legislation or federal elections. Anyone making an open appearance before a congressional committee would be exempt if he confined his lobbying to that. Public officials acting in an official capacity would be exempt.

"Political committees," as defined by the Hatch Act, and state or local political party committees are also exempt.

But is the CIO Political Action Committee a Hatch Act political committee, and is it, therefore, exempt? It can't be denied that PAC and similar outfits try to influence legislation and elections.

The lobbying act provides that every person who gets money to influence elections or legislation must register every three months with the secretary of the Senate and the clerk of the House. Furthermore, every such person must file a financial statement showing all receipts, with the name and address of every contributor of over $500 included.

These statements must be filed between the first and the tenth of January, April, July, and October. They must be cumulative, showing all receipts from every source during a calendar year.

Prescription For Peace

A Boston man devised a decided improvement upon the old prescription for stopping and counting 10 in the heat of anger. He phoned the police and asked their permission to beat up his wife, who, he said, was "misbehaving".

We like that. It takes a full count of 10, surely, to lower the threatening arm, get to the telephone, and dial headquarters. It brings in a cool, disinterested third party to judge the feverish issues of a family brawl. And we'll bet by the time this ritual is gone through the tempers of most disputing pairs would be decidedly cooler.

In fact, what the irate Boston husband did is essentially what the United Nations are endeavoring to do in the cause of world peace. And we shall be happy when things work out as well in the UN as they did in Boston—where the cops said "No!"

Every dog may not have his day, and every cat may not have his night; but we firmly believe that every road hog has his Sunday afternoon.

The big hotels may have many stories, but there is one story they all have—"no vacancies".

As we grow older we discover that good manners and soft words will solve many a difficult situation.

"Run For Your Life!"

British Issue Injunctions Against Squatters But Labor Backs Invaders

LONDON—(AP)—The British government, acting in the face of threatened opposition by organized labor, obtained an interim injunction Tuesday against the invasion of government-vacated buildings in the spreading squatter movement.

In four cases testing rights of the squatters, the government obtained court writs restraining them from entering, remaining in or otherwise trespassing on premises occupied in a Communist-sponsored invasion last week.

Voicing the opinion that "everybody else concerned in this invasion has committed trespass and continues to commit trespass" the court added:

"If ever there was a case in which the court should intervene at the earliest possible stage in an action by granting an injunction, this is the case."

Britain's shop stewards—factory spokesmen for organized labor—took issue with the government Tuesday, calling for a nationwide union support for the fast-spreading, Communist-inspired squatter movement.

The newspaper quoted Maj. Gen. Harry M. Vaughan as saying that "our action in this matter is entirely passive. But I did tell Selective Service of the President's attitude."

The article said Vaughan added: "We take a very pale view of a man who accepts a West Point appointment during the war, accepts the money West Point gives him, accepts the $2,000 a year that is spent on his education and maintenance and then when the shooting is over and armored vest is not a necessity, resigns and then goes back home to play football."

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross said in Washington that there was "absolutely nothing" to the report.

Also on the agenda is a report by J. F. Friberg, commander, on the state convention held in Galveston September 3-6.

All members are urged to attend the meeting.

DANISH WOMAN FAILS IN ATTEMPT TO SWIM CHANNEL

"I've got a job!"

● A brand new telephone operator... that's me. Just started today.

Like it? Yes, indeed...especially one thing...everybody is so friendly. I felt at home right away. It's a nice clean place to work, too; pleasant surroundings, and the switchboard is really fascinating. I'm going to enjoy working for the telephone company.

And here's a tip, if you're looking for a job. More operators are needed right now. Experience isn't necessary because you learn as you go along.

The chief operator at the telephone office will be glad to tell you all about it. Why not see her?

Daughters Find Dad Thought Killed In First World War

OAKLAND, CALIF.—(P)—William M. Houghton, tragically separated from his family because of a report he had been killed on a French battlefield in World War I, has been reunited with his two daughters.

Monday Houghton met one of the daughters—Mrs. Georgia Kraeber of Oakland—whom he had not seen since he sailed overseas in 1915 to fight for his native England.

Next the 63-year-old veteran will go to Dallas to visit his other daughter, Mrs. T. D. Stribling. This is the story he told at the home of Mrs. Kraeber.

Some time after the erroneous report that he had been blown to bits reached his wife, she died. The daughters, supposed orphans, were adopted.

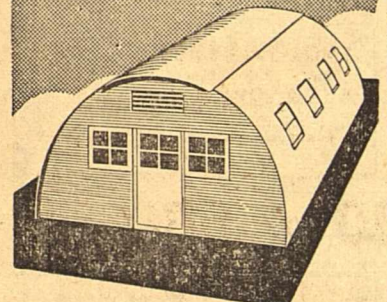

When Houghton returned from the war he could find no trace of his family. He searched for years, finally moving to Vancouver, B. C. Three years ago the daughters learned from their "mother" that they had never suspected—that they were adopted. They began a search for Houghton that never ended until they traced him to Vancouver.

10,000 Present At War Assets Sale

Verdicts On Nazis Delayed For Week

NUERNBERG —(P)—The international military tribunal announced Tuesday that its verdict against 22 first-rank leaders of Nazi Germany on war crimes charges will be handed down September 30, instead of September 23 previously planned.

One source said it was "physically impossible" for the court, which recessed August 31 to consider its verdict, to get through the mountainous heaps of evidence, exhibits and speeches heard during the trial, which lasted more than nine months, by September 23.

Before the court reconvenes to announce the verdict, stenographers and typists will be taken outside the city to prepare transcripts and will be held there until the day the verdict is handed down to insure against leakage of information.

There was no hint of disagreement among the tribunal's judges, representing Britain, France, Russia and the United States, and it was believed here the delay was due solely to the lengthy opinions which must be written.

WARREN REYNOLDS IS SPEAKER FOR B&PW PROGRAM MONDAY

Warren Reynolds, manager of the Midland office of the U. S. Department of Labor, was guest speaker at the B&PW Club meeting Monday evening in the Private Dining Room of the Scharbauer Hotel.

Reynolds discussed the problems of finding qualified men and women to fill jobs. He outlined the policy of the Texas Employment Service and how it helps in finding employment for people. In closing he said, "There is no reason why anyone who wanted to work in Midland could not do so."

"Can Women Hold the Line on Jobs" was the topic chosen by Mrs. Nettie B. Messick. She stated that while jobs are plentiful now and easy to get, it will not always be that way. Sex and marriage status were discriminating factors against women when jobs were hard to find before the war, Mrs. Messick reported.

Miss Laura Jesse discussed "Self Improvement." She stated that women can and should work to improve themselves and their communities. Plans are now being made to make a survey to determine employment conditions and problems to face in the future, the speaker reported in her closing remarks.

Present were Bertha Kenney, Eleanor Luton, Cordelia Taylor, Vivian Lafferty, DeAlva Brewer, Iva M. Noyes, Ophelia Greene, Laura Jesse, Nettie B. Messick, Flossie Vaughn, Mary Louise Rhodes, Ernestine Hough, Sue M. Simms, Maude Prather, Colysta Christian, Dick Looby and Neta Stovall.

Cotton Clothing Prices To Ascend

WASHINGTON —(P)—Retail price ceilings for about half the cotton clothing produced are going up still further—an average about one per cent—OPA announced Monday night.

This increase, as well as a fresh price boost of about 2 1/2 per cent for a big share of such items as cotton bed linens, towels and napkins, results from a new increase averaging 2 per cent in ceilings for cotton textiles produced by certain mills.

OPA explained that these are mills which are paying a 5 cent-an-hour wage increase approved last week by the Wage Stabilization Board. "More than half the total volume of cotton production" is covered by the higher textile ceilings, an OPA statement said.

Cotton textile ceilings previously had been increased a total of 18 1/2 per cent to meet requirements of the new price control law. OPA, in granting this increase last month, said it would push retail clothing price up 6 to 10 per cent.

The new textile price boost of 2 per cent also is required by the new price act, OPA said, explaining that approved wage increases must be taken into consideration in fixing textile ceilings.

The agency emphasized that the new textile increase "applies solely to mills paying the higher wage rates."

Rain Halts Playoff In Southern Association

By The Associated Press
Rain washed out both ends of the semi-final playoff series in the Southern Association Monday night.

Barring further showers, they'll try it again Tuesday night—the Atlanta Crackers entertaining New Orleans and the Memphis Chicks remaining at Chattanooga.

Atlanta and Memphis can clinch a spot in the final playoff by one more victory. The pennant-winning Crackers hold a 3-2 edge in the semi-final games and runner-up Memphis has a 3-1 lead.

Pampa And Lubbock To Open Playoff Finals

By The Associated Press

Pampa's Oilers and Lubbock's Hubbers clash Tuesday night at Pampa in the opening game of the West Texas-New Mexico League playoff finals.

The Oilers entered the final round Monday night by coming from behind to take their fourth game from the Amarillo Gold Sox, 4-1, at Pampa.

The finalists will meet twice at Pampa and then move to Lubbock to continue the four out of seven game series.

Pampa, second place regular season finishers, eliminated the Amarillo team, four games to two. Lubbock, who wound up in fourth place during the regular campaign, eliminated the first place Abilene Blue Sox, four games to one.

Early Day Driller Dies In Dallas Home

DALLAS —(P)—Funeral services were to be held here Tuesday for William Lyle Murrell, one of the original drillers of the Brownwood oil field.

The 55-year-old independent oil operator died at his Dallas home Sunday night of a heart attack. Several years ago he was associated with a chain of clothing stores in Seymour, Ennis, Cameron and Abilene.

There is always an even number of rows of kernels on a normal ear of corn.

AFL Plans To Organize Sourn's School Teachers

DALLAS —(P)—George L. Googe of Atlanta, chairman of the American Federation of Labor Southern campaign policy board, told a Southwest AFL labor conference here Monday that "one of the major activities in the Southern district is the organizing of school teachers."

Googe said Atlanta has had practically a closed shop in teacher employment since 1917.

GOOD LIGHT is needed for study...
BACK TO SCHOOL

Now that students are starting another year at school, see that they have a good light to safeguard eyesight and make studying easier. The lamp your child uses for reading or studying should have at least a 100-watt bulb to provide enough light. The shade should be wide to spread the light, and be careful to keep any glare from unshaded bulbs from striking the eyes.

XXVI
AT Mark's insistence, I went to my room, though I knew I could not sleep. And as I left I heard Mark say to Ellen, "I was always too harsh with the lad," his voice aching with remorse. And I heard Ellen's voice trying to soothe him, and Colin still wandering through the lanes of childhood.

I closed my eyes and tried to sleep, to lie shivering, instead, convinced that in spite of all I could do Colin would not recover. But he did recover, and the doctor, when he came, was most complimentary about the care I had given him.

"Dragged him back from the dead, Doctor," Ellen told him, sniffing and wiping her eyes.

And Mark said, "I'll never forget what you've done, Cecelia. For years you've been the one bright spot in this house and now—believe me, I am grateful to you."

Unbelievable, this from Mark Fitzgerald, the austere professor whom I had always feared a little. With this and the knowledge that Colin was out of danger, my heart was like a living thing once more, not dead way down inside me. I could sing and laugh. And I could sleep when my head touched the pillow.

My patient was recovering rapidly. And no spoiled brat in the children's ward, no cantankerous oldster on the men's floor nor wealthy neurotic woman in one of the expensive rooms at Saint Gregory's could run me as ragged as Colin Fitzgerald did during this time. He wanted me there beside the bed at all times, there was nothing either Ellen or Mark could do to please him. Sometimes he was content to have me merely sit beside him, but more often I had to wait on him. Some services he demanded, to be sure, were necessary, but a great many more were not.

I HAD to help feed him long after I suspected he was well able to do it himself. He was eternally asking me to fix his pillows, to tuck in blankets already tucked in. He had me read to him, poems for the most part, until my voice was strained to a whisper. And once, when carried away by the exquisite beauty of some line I paused and I looked up to ask if he, too, felt as I did about it, he said, "I love to watch your mouth when you read. You have a lovely mouth, Cecelia."

I threw the book down and marched from the room in a temper. Nor did I go back until that evening when Ellen brought me a scribbled note reading: "My dear Miss Hart: If you come back at once I promise to be the ideal patient. If not, I shall report you to the medical association or the Red Cross or something." I am sure my temperature is below normal. Pathetically, the poor unfortunate man in the red room, P. S. I have smoked three cigarettes already today. One must do something.

I went back at once and stood in the doorway, trying to look severe. He gazed back at me serenely.

"Oh, there you are," he said. "What have you been doing? I missed you."

"I shampooed my hair and had a nice nap—a nice rest from you," I told him. "And I have here a letter from Saint Gregory's telling me that I am to return as soon as possible. There's a flu epidemic in Barrington and the hospital is crowded."

He said nothing, just lay there, his dark eyes fixed on me. But I felt myself reddening under his gaze and my heart began acting queerly. I came into the room and sat down beside the bed and took out my knitting, glad to have something to do so that I would not have to meet his eyes again.

"So you're leaving me, little Saint Cecelia," he said quietly after a moment's silence. "They say it's a bad epidemic." I told him, "Every available nurse will be needed. And you're really well on the road to recovery."

"Of course," he said dryly. "All I need now is to take care of myself. You know," he added, "I had an odd fancy while I was delirious, or whatever it is I was doing."

"Yes?" I lifted my eyes then and looked at him.

"Yes," he said. "I thought I kissed you and you—slapped me."

And now there was no doubt about the color rushing into my face.

"People imagine all sorts of things when they're ill," I told him, knitting hastily away on the sweater.

"You haven't taken my temperature tonight," he said after another pause.

I laid down my knitting. "I'm sure it's normal," I told him. But I got the thermometer and proceeded to prove it to him.

And then, when I had assured him that it was indeed normal, he reached up suddenly and drew my face down to his and kissed me hard on the lips. And the thermometer fell to the floor and broke into bits.

"That wasn't delirium," he said softly, as he released me. "Don't look like that, Cecelia. I'm not the first man to fall in love with his nurse."

Wordless, I fled, not even stopping to pick up the broken pieces of the thermometer. Fled to my own little room, where I lay across the bed and hid my flaming face. Small difference then between the little 17-year-old girl I remembered and the nurse of 23 I had fancied so mature.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority
The American Contract Bridge League recently announced that the 20th annual winter national championship tournament will be held at the Hollywood Beach Hotel, Hollywood, Fla., Dec. 8 to 15, inclusive. This is the first time that this tournament has been taken into the deep South.

Southern players made a very fine showing at the recent summer session of the nationals. A Southern team won the world championship masters team-of-four title. Mrs. Joe Rosenfield, Jr., reached the semi-finals in that event and finished fifth in a field of 112 pairs in the masters pair championship. I predict therefore that in coming winter nationals in Florida, the Southerners will be hard to beat.

During the summer nationals one South player went down at two hearts—ousted on today's hand. Then I saw Mrs. Rosenfield play it, and, to my surprise she reached a contract of six clubs and had no trouble in making seven.

She trumped the opening diamond lead, cashed the ace of hearts and led a small heart, trumping with dummy's five of clubs. Returning to her hand with the king of spades, she led another heart and trumped with dummy's ten of clubs.

Now she led the queen of clubs, overtook in her own hand, picked up the trumps and all of her hearts were good.

Although Mrs. Rosenfield made seven, it would have been a bad seven contract. With a break in hearts, it would have been a difficult one to make.

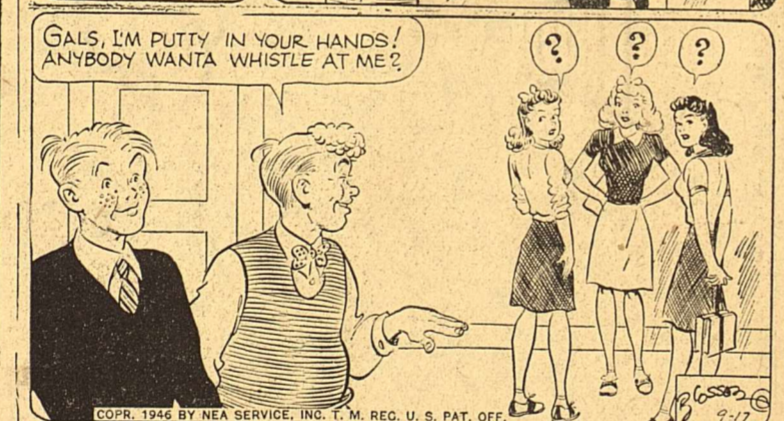

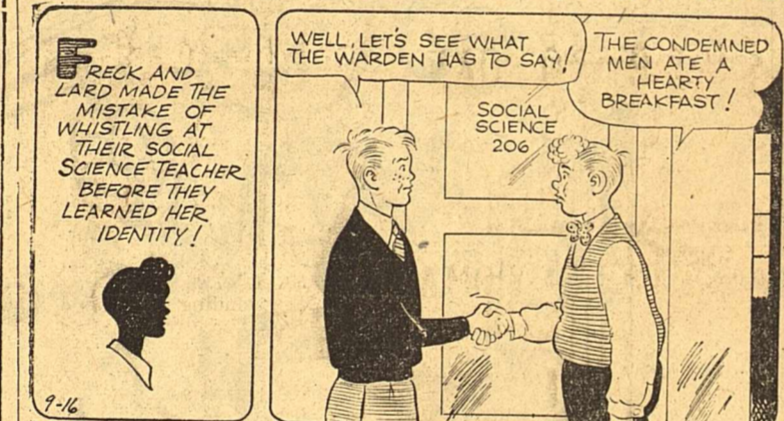

Even Sergeant-At-Arms Skips Senate Session

AUSTIN (AP)—Not even the sergeant-at-arms was on hand Monday, the date set by the State Senate for its second solo session. Lieut. Gov. John Lee Smith said he did not expect many—if any—senators to show up for the session. The Supreme Court ruled that the extraordinary session held last January for the purpose of acting on interim appointments by the governor was invalid.

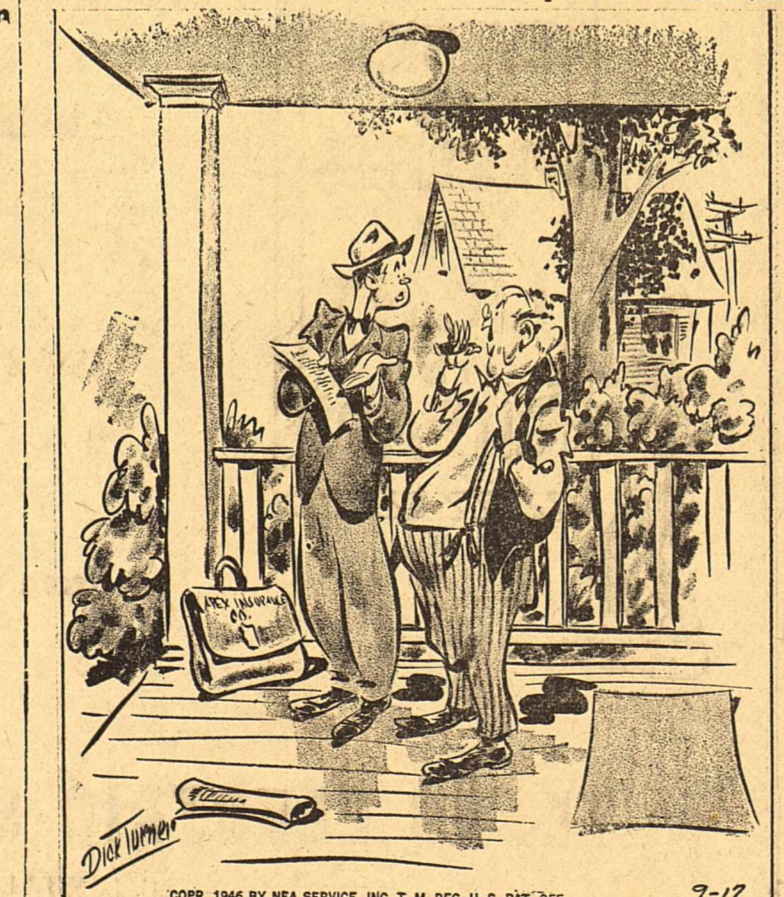

The Junction Hotel in Western Australia is surrounded by a four-foot fence made of empty beer bottles, known locally as "dead marines."

During the period 1919-1932, the Coast Guard, then a part of the Treasury Department, enforced prohibition.

Dallas And Fort Worth To Open Title Texas League Playoff Tuesday Night

By The Associated Press
Fort Worth and Dallas will renew their long standing Texas League rivalry Tuesday night as they open the final round of the circuit's championship playoff.

Although the league's pennant and a shot at Dixie Series money will be at stake in the four out of seven games series, the two clubs will also be out to settle an intercity feud they waged throughout the regular season, which ended with each having won 11 of 22 games played.

The clubs will meet in Fort Worth Tuesday night and Wednesday and then move to Dallas for a three-game stand. If additional contests are necessary, they will be played in Fort Worth.

The Cats have nominated their strikeout artist, John Van Cuyk, a left hander, to take the mound in the opener. While Dallas will use Tom Pullig, young right hander, Van Cuyk has won 18 games and lost seven this season, his last win being a two-hit performance against Dallas. Pullig has won nine and lost six.

Dallas entered the final round Monday night by shutting out the San Antonio Missions, 4-0, and completing the semi-final series with a four games to one advantage.

Fort Worth, first place leader in the regular season, entered the finals last Friday by taking a fourth straight victory from the Tulsa Oilers, fourth place finishers.

Dallas wound up the regular season in second place.

Big Hawaiian Hank Oana, the league's leading hurler, was in command at San Antonio as the Rebels clinched the final play-off spot.

Oana scattered five hits among the Missions and was never in serious trouble.

The Rebels scored three runs in the second inning on a double by Hal Hirschon, a single by Harvey Riebe, walks to Gene Markland and Al Carr and a double by Clint Conatser.

Conatser's double was a greeting to Al Lamachia who had taken over after the Mission starter, Ned Garver, had loaded the bases.

Third Baseman Red Davis doubled in the eighth, stole third off Eddie Cole, who relieved Lamachia, and crossed the plate on a fly by Riebe for the final Dallas tally.

The Rebels took nine hits off the three San Antonio hurlers, with Markland, Davis and Riebe collecting two each.

Victoria River Downs, cattle station in Australia's Northern Territory, covers 6,686,912 acres, more land than Vermont.

Bulldogs Drill Long And Hard For Friday Game At Brownfield

The Midland High Bulldogs put in long hours at dummy scrimmage Monday as they took to the practice field for the Brownfield game there Friday night.

Before the dummy scrimmage started, Coach Barnes Milam had the rough-and-tough center of the line boys—tackles, guards, and centers—at a two-on-one blocking session.

The dummy scrimmage was for timing practice as well as anything. It also stressed blocking and correct running by the backs.

As the varsity practiced, so did the Bulldog B team; and on another field, the Bullpups of Junior High. The total number of youngsters drilling Monday was around a hundred.

The 190-pounder Arnold Baker, back up from Junior High, reported to the Bulldogs Monday.

Another grueling session is carded for Tuesday.

Greenville, Henderson To Play Seventh Tilt

By The Associated Press
A final shot at the East Texas League playoff championship will be at stake Tuesday night as the Greenville Oilers clash with the Henderson Majors at Henderson.

It will be the seventh game of their semi-final round playoff, each club having won three times in the previous encounters.

The winner of Tuesday night's game will meet Texarkana, victory over Tyler in the second half of the semi-finals, in a four out of seven games series.

The Oilers had to come from behind Monday night to defeat the Majors, 6-5, and tie the series. Each club has won only its home games.

Henderson started off with a two-game advantage but the Majors took the lead, three games to two, during a three-night stand at Greenville.

UNLESS MIRACLE HAPPENS—

Joe Louis To Dance Through Easy Win Over Tami Mauriello Wednesday

By SID FEDER
NEW YORK—(AP)—Joe Louis sat there in his dressing quarters, glad the slow, fat-meeting, punch-sharpening grind of training was over, gave Wednesday's fight his final run-down, and admitted Tami Mauriello is easy to hit.

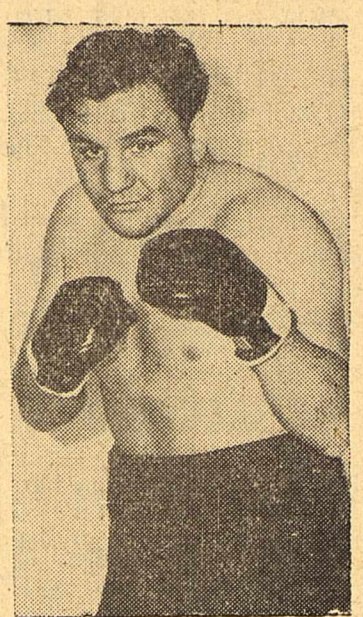

And you shuddered to think of what might happen to Tami in Yankee Stadium Wednesday night, because you remembered the assorted lumps and bumps the Bomber has raised on other guys he's been able to hit down through the years.

The heavyweight champion completed his final session of sparring with a four-round frolic against a quartet of punch catchers late Tuesday.

Joe showed just what he meant by that "especially the left".

Being a fellow who always gives the other man a chance, Joe included, in his final pre-fight look at the taffy pull, the possibility that the Bronx barkeep might conceivably hail him a lucky Sunday shot. But it seemed Joe had a hard time convincing even himself, let alone the boxing writers.

Although this one, on paper, looks like a quickie, Promoter Mike Jacobs revealed that the requests for working press accommodations Wednesday night are within a couple of dozen of the record journalistic jam that stormed into town for Joe's last outing against Billy Conn in June.

AP Says Inside Three
From what you hear along scrambled ear street, and saw during the training sessions, you get the idea this one will be over almost any moment after the scheduled post-time at 8 p. m. (CST). This corner picks Louis inside of three rounds, holding out for that long a run only because the up-town round man is a young fellow, 23 years old, and will get up off the floor a few times, like a bouncing tennis ball, before calling it a night's work and a night's pay.

Jacobs is still figuring on a crowd of 30,000 and a gate of $250,000 to $300,000. If it's $300,000, Joe's paycheck should run about $90,000 and Mauriello's just under $40,000 of the net.

Joe explained that he took this fight, after saying he'd only strut his stuff once this year—against Conn—"because Mike had an open date and he wanted me to fill it". Tami's explanation could be that the stadium is close to home and he can get there by subway.

The bookmakers are quoting any price against the uptown tap-room impresario, with 10 to 1 about the most frequently offered.

Gun Club Shooters Rack Good Scores

Ish McKnight, shooting skeet for record for the first time Sunday, scored 24 out of a possible 25 at a practice shoot held at the Midland Gun Club.

Other creditable scores, many by shooters breaking their first pigeons, included: Chapman 21, Chancellor 20, Westlund 20, Mascho 19, Neill 19, and Whitaker 17.

The first competitive shoot for the Midland Gun Club is carded at its fine setup on West Highway 80 Sunday. Midland merchants have donated many prizes.

Chicago's 10-7 Victory Over Brooks Gives Cards Two-Game Lead In NL

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
St. Louis' glee over Bill Nicholson's grand slam homer that sunk Brooklyn Dodgers should be tempered by the knowledge that Cardinals must face the self-same Chicago Cubs in six of their remaining 11 games.

If Nicholson, despite his anemic .223 batting average, suddenly reawakens in the final weeks of the season, it will be the Red Birds who will bear the brunt of his attack.

By that time it might make no difference for St. Louis holds a two-game advantage with time rapidly running out in their favor. The Brooks are now one down in the column and three on the winning side with only 13 to play as compared to 11 for the Cards.

Charley Grimm's Brins, obviously nettled by the cold statistics that prove they were just a "one-shot" champ, are pouring it on down the stretch, playing each game as though it were the payoff tilt in the World Series.

The Cubs' final 10-7 win went to Borowy over Rookie Paul Minner, an unfortunate relief choice by Durocher who made the mistake of throwing a fast ball to Nicholson with a 3-2 count and three on.

The youngster had joined the club only a week ago after the close of the season at Mobile in the Southern Association and was making his second major league appearance.

Billy Southworth's Boston Braves clinched fourth place, the first time they have finished in the first division since 1934, by shutting out Cincinnati, 4-0, in a night game.

Kenny Raffensberger whitewashed Pittsburgh, 2-0, in the other night game, witnessed by 19,274 fans at Shibe Park.

Detroit protected its 2 1/2 game edge over New York in the second place scrap in the American League by hammering Bobo Newsom from the hill in downing Washington, 11-7. Roy Cullenbine, subbing for Hank Greenberg who was out with an ailing back, hit a three-run homer off Milo Candini to make the Tigers' lead secure.

The New York Yankees outlasted the St. Louis Browns, 7-5, Joe DiMaggio driving in three runs to help Reliever Joe Page pick up his ninth win.

Boston, Philadelphia, Cleveland and Chicago in the American and New York and St. Louis in the National were not scheduled.

Tech To Open Season With West Texas State

By The Associated Press
The Lumberjacks from the Arizona State College at Flagstaff Tuesday sharpened their axes for their clash next Saturday night with the New Mexico Lobos. Albuquerque in a Border Conference football contest.

The Lumberjacks tried out their weapons Saturday at Flagstaff against the Williams Field Fliers, and found them sharp enough to score a 6-0 victory in the first game of the season for both clubs.

But they were held scoreless for the first half of the game, played in a steady rain, and Head Coach Frank Brickey says he thinks something should be done about that.

Wayne See finally carted the ball across the Flier goal early in the third quarter with the only score of the game after he took an 18-yard pass from George Henry of Laguna Beach, Calif.

The Saturday game is one of two conference meetings on top. West Texas State and Texas Technological College play at Lubbock in the second major league appearance.

Billy Southworth's Boston Braves clinched fourth place, the first time they have finished in the first division since 1934, by shutting out Cincinnati, 4-0, in a night game.

Kenny Raffensberger whitewashed Pittsburgh, 2-0, in the other night game, witnessed by 19,274 fans at Shibe Park.

Will Review Rules Decisions Of Last Week's Ball Games

The "blind toms", nickname for athletic officials, will meet at 8 p. m. Tuesday when the Midland Coaches and Officials Association convenes at the high school.

Decisions on rules made in Friday games will be reviewed. The session may be "stormy".

The Midland association plans to meet weekly during the football season. It recently conducted a successful rules clinic here.

VETERAN FILES PAPERS
The discharge papers of Robert Rast, former seaman first class in the U. S. Navy, were filed Tuesday at the county clerk's office.

Tempe also start their seasons Saturday. The Fliers go to Tempe to try their luck against the Bulldogs, Hardin-Simmons and McMurry play at Abilene, and the Aggies meet the New Mexico Teachers from Silver City, N. M., at Las Cruces, N. M.

The other conference teams—the University of Arizona, Tucson, and the Texas College of Mines, El Paso—open the following week.
