Book Review Presented At Modern Study Club Anniversary Tea

A review of the story of James Bowie, "The Tempered Blade" by Monte Barrett, was presented by Mrs. George Vannaman at the 20th anniversary tea given by the Modern Study Club Wednesday afternoon in the Scharbauer Educational Building of the First Methodist Church.

As the guests arrived they were greeted by Mrs. M. S. Dickerson, club president, who directed them to a table where they registered in a book attractive with a handpainted birthday cake on the cover.

The tea table was laid with a cream crocheted cloth and centered with an arrangement of vases containing floating pink carnations. Encircling this arrangement were garlands of pink carnations and fern. Tall pink tapers in crystal holders provided soft illumination for the table setting. The club colors of green and pink, used on the guest book, were carried out in the individual iced cakes and in floral arrangements in the entertaining room.

Mrs. J. Howard Hodge, first vice-president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mrs. Ernest Neill, president of the Midland City-County Federation, presided at the silver services.

Contributions made at the silver tea will be donated to the Midland Memorial Hospital Fund.

The Club expresses its appreciation to the following business concerns for donations made for the entertainment: Safeway Grocery Company, Midland Bakery, Midland Floral and the First Methodist Church.

Chinese Red Leader Says U. S. Policy Is Based On Soviet War

By BETTY GRAHAM
Veteran China Correspondent
SHANGHAI —(P)— Chou En-Lai, No. 2 Chinese Communist, announced Thursday he had quit the Nanking peace negotiations and asserted the Chinese and American government's Far Eastern policies are based on the assumption there will be a Russo-American war, with China as an important base. Chou, in an exclusive interview, said he personally does not believe such a war is in prospect "because neither the Soviet nor American publics wants war." He warned, however, "the outbreak of a third world war will inevitably lead to revival of Japanese imperialism and its penetration into China rather than victory for the Kuomintang (Chinese Government Party)." Chou based this conclusion on his opinion that the United States, if engaged in war with Russia, would rely upon Japanese support rather than Chinese "because Japan's economy is more stable and its manpower is more readily mobilized although North China and Manchuria would obviously become a major battlefield. "Such a war would result in nothing but tragedy for China." Chou said he would return to Nanking to resume peace negotiations only if Chiang Kai-shek agrees to reconvene the military committee of three—General Marshall and Chinese government and Communist representatives. The committee was set up in January in an effort to effect a truce in China's civil strife but has been impotent since June because of Kuomintang-Communist differences.

Beaumont, Port Arthur Bus Drivers Walkout

BEAUMONT —(P)— A strike of operators of city bus lines in Beaumont and Port Arthur began here at 1:15 a. m. Thursday. The drivers demand a pay boost from 83 cents to $1.10 an hour, according to George Troutwine, manager of the Beaumont City Lines. About 150 members of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Employees of America are involved. The company is the National City Lines. Troutwine said late Wednesday night that a compromise offer had been forwarded to the union's international headquarters. Local union officials said the matter is out of their hands. The union also seeks overtime pay for work over eight hours in one day instead of after 54 hours in one week.

Pampa Wins Second Game Over Lubbock

By The Associated Press
Pampa's Oilers journey to Lubbock Thursday night for the third game of the final round of the West Texas-New Mexico League playoff and the Oilers will enter the Hubbers' backyard with a two-game advantage. Pampa took a second straight game from Lubbock, Wednesday night, 2-1, at Pampa, as Right Hander Warren Hacker limited the Oilers to five hits in a tight ball game played before a crowd of 3,200. Al Johnston, Oiler utility man and hurler, entered the game in the second inning and drove in both Pampa scores with a single in the third and a double in the fifth. Lubbock's lone score came in the third as Gene Hodge tripled and crossed the plate on a single by Pitcher Paul Hinrichs. Johnston's hit in the third followed singles by Jack Riley and Virgil Richardson. The utility player's double in the fifth sent Joe Isaacs, who had reached base on a fielder's choice, across the plate. The last British king to take part in a battle was George II, who ruled from 1727 to 1760.

Petition Filed In Behalf Of Texas GI

TOPEKA, KAN.—(P)—A petition asking that a 26-year-old Army private be freed from an Army Court Martial conviction of rape has been filed in Federal District court here. The habeas corpus proceedings were filed Wednesday by Howard McCue, Topeka lawyer, in behalf of Spate Anthony, now being held at the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth. McCue alleged the Army trial proceedings were illegal and that the court martial board was not established in accordance with military law. He asks that the sentence be set aside and the former soldier freed. Anthony's original sentence of hanging has been reduced to 35 years imprisonment by the War Department. He was accused of attacking two German women on March 17, 1945. His wife and four-year-old son live in San Augustine, Texas.

Mines Closing Because Workers Can't Get Meat

WASHINGTON —(P)— John L. Lewis called upon the Decontrol Board Thursday to remove price controls on meat, saying that mines in three states are closing down because miners cannot buy meat. The United Mine Workers' chief told the board in a telegram that "grave unrest" is spreading throughout all the mining areas, because miners "cannot perform the laborious and hazardous work" of producing coal on a diet of cereals and vegetables. Lewis listed the three states in which the mines are shutting down as Virginia, West Virginia and Kentucky.

Man Kills Former Wife, Her Husband, Himself

HOUSTON —(P)— A verdict of double murder and suicide in the fatal shootings of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Holmes and Emil William Peterman Wednesday night was returned by Justice of the Peace Thomas J. Decker. Decker said witnesses told him that Peterman, Mrs. Holmes' former husband, shot the couple and then killed himself. The shooting occurred after Peterman returned his three-year-old daughter to her mother, after the girl had spent the afternoon with him, Decker said.

Texarkana, Henderson Meet In League Finals

By The Associated Press
Texarkana's Bears and the Henderson Oilers meet Thursday night at Henderson in the first game of the final round of the East Texas League playoff. The Oilers went into the final Wednesday night by staging a wild majors, 12-5, in the seventh and deciding game of the semi-final series. Henderson finished in first place in the regular season standings and Texarkana second. Wednesday night's game was a mound battle for six innings, with Greenville having a 2-1 advantage. The Majors pushed across four runs in their half of the seventh, only to allow five of their hurlers to be touched for eight hits and 10 runs in the mighty Henderson half of the eighth. Third Baseman Cecil McClung of the Oilers hit a home run in the fourth inning. The second game of the series will be played Friday night at Henderson, after which the teams will move to Texarkana for three games.

Maps above show former German territory between the prewar German-Polish border and the Oder River, now occupied by Poland, which the Poles insist on retaining in postwar settlements. Secretary of State Byrnes recently said that the U. S. does not consider Poland's border fixed at the Oder. Division of East Prussia, former German territory, between Russian and Poland, has been agreed to.

Midland County has agreed to a similar expenditure in financing the Child Welfare Bureau here. During the next 12 months administrative expenses are estimated at $1,355 compared with $894 for the past fiscal year, and service expenses at $1,200 compared with $900. The salary of the child welfare worker is paid by the state. The cost of the bureau per child was $3.25 last year and is estimated at $4.87 during the coming year. Proposed charges for garbage and sewer service were discussed by the council, but no action was taken. The officials pointed out that more funds are needed by these departments of the municipality. Electrical and plumbing ordinances of the city and proposals to change them also were discussed.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

U. S. Says Trieste, Slav Border Proposal All One Agreement

PARIS —(AP)— The United States served notice on the Slavic bloc Thursday that the four power agreement on Trieste and the Italian-Yugoslav frontier was "all one decision" which would stand together or not at all.

James C. Dunn, U. S. ambassador to Italy, told the Italian Political Commission of the peace conference that the American agreement included the creation of a truly free state of Trieste.

"The United States' agreement to one part of that program," he said, "is contingent on the acceptance of all parts of that decision and the creation of real rights and guarantees to assure the free territory's security and integrity."

Dunn spoke during discussion of the free territory's boundaries. Slav delegates want these restricted to the city proper and South Africa wants them enlarged along the Istrian coast southward.

Dunn reminded the commission that the Enclave agreement establishing two zones of military occupation along the "Morgan line" did not recognize Yugoslav claims in Istria and "in no way" would influence the ultimate division.

"When the Foreign Ministers decided, July 3, 1946, to cede all territory east of the French line to Yugoslavia, it also decided upon the creation of an international zone at Trieste under a statute to be approved by the Security Council," he said. "That was all one decision, one agreement."

Regional Restaurant Organization To Be Formed In West Texas

Midland restaurant owners and operators in a meeting Wednesday voted to join a district organization to be formed in a meeting here in October.

Restaurant operators in an area extending from Sweetwater to Pecos and from Lubbock to San Angelo will be invited to join.

The Texas Restaurant Association is fostering such regional organizations rather than individual city setups.

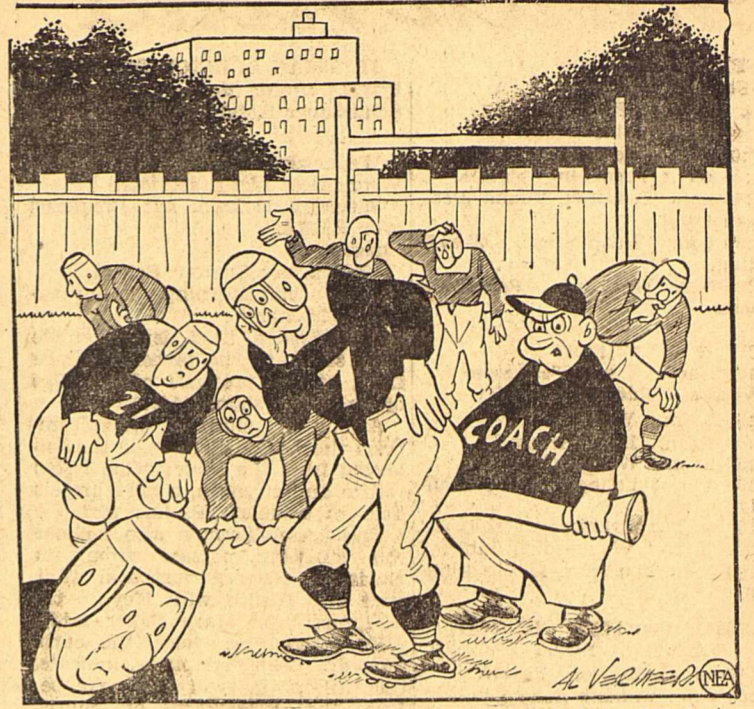

The regional setup, when organized, will meet in the various cities every two months and take up problems of the industry.

Pat Katman, Lubbock restaurant operator and a director of the TRA, presided at the meeting here. He said Lubbock would come into a district organization. Lamesa also was represented. He said El Paso and Amarillo had the only regional setups in West Texas. Lubbock has a city organization.

Seven Midland operators were present Wednesday.

A group discussion was held on CPA's rollback of meat prices. The group urged all operators to protest this to their congressman and the President.

South Carolinian Edits Non-Partisan Newspaper In Trieste

By JOHN MCKNIGHT
 TRIESTE —(AP)—When Reporter Darrell M. Price was chasing fire trucks and ambulances in Anderson, S. C., six years ago, he realized vaguely that Italian was a language spoken by some people on the other side of the Atlantic. The Williamson, N. C., newshawk never had heard of the Slovene tongue.
 In Trieste, hot-tempered postwar trouble center, Lieutenant Price is the American officer in charge of the Allied-sponsored Giornale Alleato, an Italian language daily whose non-partisan news policy has built its paid circulation to 65,000 in one year, and of Glas Zavezni-kov, its Slovene counterpart which prints 10,000 to 12,000 copies.
 So profitable is Giornale Alleato, Price says, that, although newsprint limitations force it to turn down more than half the advertising offered, it pays the freight for the Slovene Journal, which accepts no advertising, and still has something left over.
 Cut Loose Of Subsidy
 It is going so well that Allied Information Service (successor to the Psychological Warfare Branch) has cut it loose from official subsidy and set it up as an independent operation.
 Owners of the printing shop where Giornale Alleato, the Allies' Slovene paper and Trieste's four other dailies all are printed, have been so impressed with the commercial success of the straight news policy that they are planning another daily modeled after it.
 "In an area where propaganda comes from all sides," the stocky, blond Price says, "it's a tough job to put out an unbiased newspaper. We are jumped constantly from both sides, but the paper still sells."
 While the Allied-sponsored Trieste newspapers are permitted in Yugoslav-occupied Zone B of the disputed area, he added, reports filter back to Trieste that they are "held back" on newsstands until their foreign news, the biggest selling point, is out of date.
 Lieutenant Price, who says that he likes his job "in spite of the brickbats," got his education at Washington and Lee in Virginia and Wake Forest in North Carolina, where he was graduated in 1932.
 He was married April 29 to Signorina Anna Maldari of Bari, who works as his secretary.

News From Wild West: Fawn Hits Automobile

CHEYENNE, WYO.—(AP)—Tracy S. McCracken, Cheyenne newspaper publisher, saw a large deer beside a highway while driving in the dusk.
 But he didn't see a fawn that bolted into the road as he slowed the automobile. The little animal struck the side of the car, was thrown on the hood and broke the windshield, but then slid off and limped away.
 McCracken and his startled family escaped injury.

Divisional Insignia Become Cattle Brands

CHEYENNE, WYO.—(AP)—Reproductions of insignia worn into battle in the Second World War are beginning to appear on Wyoming ranges along with the familiar brands that long have denoted ownership of cattle.
 Among the brands of this type already registered are the patches of the paratroopers and the 89th and 34th Infantry divisions, and pilot wings centered by the owner's initials.

JUST WAIT UNTIL HIS WIFE GETS HOLD OF HIM

HOUSTON —(AP)—A 38-year-old Panamanian sailor an unwitting "stowaway" on the Samuel F. Dewing, was in Houston trying to figure out what to tell his wife back in Cristobal, Panama.
 He said he reached Cristobal on the Dewing, went ashore for a "little party" before going home to his wife, returned to the ship for his papers, and went to sleep. When he woke up, he was bound for Houston.
 His comment: "My wife, she will not think that so funny."

Swain Has Time, Girl; Minister Picks Place

FLORA, ILL.—(AP)—Love and Rev. O. E. Conner, laughed at mere man's boundaries—to the delight of a pair of young lovers.
 Eldon Yocum of Rantoul, Ill., and Ruth Nelson of Potomac, Ill., asked the Flora minister to marry them, but were desolate when he told them he couldn't honor their license from an adjoining county.
 The sympathetic minister led the couple to a spot just across the county line and performed the ceremony beneath the boughs of a big tree.

Poles Plan To Develop Ports

GDYNIA, POLAND —(AP)—The government and maritime engineers for the ports of Gdynia and Gdansk have outlined a development program to provide facilities for unloading 1,000,000 tons of goods per month.
 Engineers reported that the former German port of Stettin, now Szczecin, should be handling between 200,000 and 350,000 tons of cargo per month in 1947.

IS YOUR CITY SAFE?

Since we have seen pictures of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, we haven't been sure. What would an atomic bomb do to New York or Chicago—or your own home town? Would this towering skyline collapse like a house of cards? The very question makes us so nervous that we are already talking about building our homes and factories in great caves.

But the atomic bomb is not the most dangerous threat to your city. "Except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain." No tree can stand long after its heart has rotted. No city is safe if its people forget God.

Is your city safe? How strong and faithful are its churches? How enduring are its marriages? How disciplined and trustworthy are its people? How free are its youth from delinquency?

Does that sound hopeless? It isn't. For long ago, concerning a city notorious for its evil, God said, "If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sake."

Are you one of the "fifty" who make your city safe?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday.

Vegetables Thrive On Hiroshima Soil

HIROSHIMA—(AP)—On soil seared by the first atomic bomb ever loosed in warfare, the Japanese are raising a bumper vegetable crop, quieting fears the ground might be barren for years.

Kyoto News Agency says many individual yields are even better proportionately than in the surrounding countryside which escaped the atomic blast.

The citizens of Hiroshima have planted vegetable gardens around the temporary homes they have built among the city's ruins.

William II was the only king of England who never married.

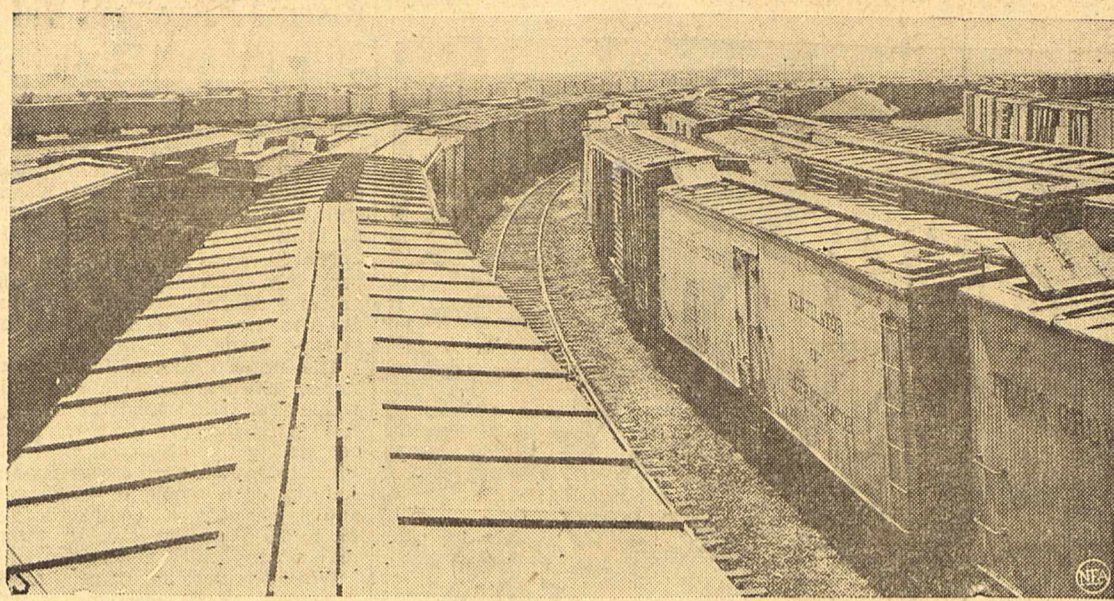

Note To Typesetter: Please Don't Go!

JOHANNESBURG—(AP)—First new immigrants to the Union of South Africa are likely to be printers and nurses. The government printing works is so short-staffed that application has been made to fly a government plane to Britain to bring back compositors.

Shortage of nursing staff has necessitated the closing of a section of the Groot Schuur Hospital, the largest in Cape Province, and permission has been given to recruit a staff in England.

A fountain pen with a point made of felt has been developed to enable writing on glass, wax and transparent plastic surfaces.

Shipping Strike Bottlenecks Railroads

One of manifold effects of the seamen's strike is shown above, where, in Pennsylvania Railroad's yards at Philadelphia, hundreds of freight cars are tied up. Many are loaded with merchandise destined for Europe, but are stymied until shipping paralysis ends.

Flowers To Be Cast On Seas To Honor Dead

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Special flower memorial services in honor of those who lost their lives at sea in World War II will be held in observance of Navy Day, Sunday, October 27, the Navy League of the United States has announced.

This year, as last, Navy planes and ships will scatter flowers on the waters of various sections of the world as a tribute to those whose bodies were never recovered.

It is requested that those who wish to participate send only one flower, preferably wild or home grown, addressed to the senior Naval chaplain at the nearest port.

The designated ports include Corpus Christi.

Biscuits From Britain

MELBOURNE—(AP)—Luxury biscuits shipped to Australia by British in her drive for export trade, are selling in Sydney and Melbourne for the first time in nearly seven years. The 1 1/2-pound tins retail at from 90 cents to $1.38 a tin. Chocolate-coated and cream-filled biscuits, plain crackers and ginger fingers are in the first consignments.

THERE'S PLENTY OF HOSE, GIRLS, KEEP CALM

WASHINGTON—(AP)—American women should have enough hosiery to meet all requirements this year unless poor distribution or "panicky buying" interferes, the Civilian Production Administration has announced.

Indians in Pow-Wow for 'Freedom'

Seeking to recapture the freedoms of their ancestors, delegates from 11 tribes, representing 30,000 U. S. and Canadian Indians, recently met in Detroit to formulate a central National Indian Government. They have prepared registration cards granting Indians exemption from taxes and from fighting in wars waged by the U. S.; the right to camp, fish and hunt wherever they please and other privileges. Pictured at the pow-wow are, seated, left to right: James Fox, of the Chippewas; Jules Sioui, Hurons; Clarence Gooft, Miami. In rear are Michael, left, Mount-janais, and John Chabot, Algonquins.

Cars Beat Antelope

CHEYENNE, WYO.—(AP)—Appealing to motorists to drive more slowly in game country, State Game Warden Archie Pendergraft said 25 antelopes were killed by automobiles in August on a single 35-mile stretch of highway between Highland and Shoshoni.

Venetian Glass Is Scarcer Than Before World War

VENICE—(AP)—Venice's famed glass industry, a war casualty, is not dead. But it is badly crippled.

Sergio Bacci, proprietor of one of the biggest factories, the Arte Vetraria Murano (AVEM), says only 10 of the 52 on Murano Island are producing. They employ some 250 persons. Before the war, 10 times that many were at work.

"The reasons for the curtailment, he says, are the lack of coal and wood for the furnaces, sand and silica to make the glass and tourists to buy the finished product."

"We used to get the coal and the silica from Germany, the sand from Fontainebleau in France, and the wood from Yugoslavia," he explains. "Now we get none of them."

You can expect, therefore, Bacci adds, that Venetian glass, with the intricate designs in gold and glass dating back six centuries, will be scarce and expensive for the next few years. Even so, he does not expect that Venice will lose her markets.

"Good Venetian glass," he contends, "can't be imitated. France and England and Germany and the United States all make good clear glass. But they haven't the workmanship in design that Murano has. And even if they did their labor costs would make the price too high."

The artists who put together mosaics out of minute pieces of colored glass, using as many as 5,000 for one postcard-size picture, work five to six days to complete one, but it sells for only $8.50.

"Some of it is not as good as it used to be," Bacci says frankly. But he adds with pride, "It is still the best in the world."

Oversight

DANVILLE, ILL.—(AP)—Bob Ingram was happy when his lost billfold was returned, although $28 had been taken from it.

Whoever found the wallet and took the $28 overlooked $250 in a hidden compartment. Dropped into a mail box, the purse was returned by a postal employee.

So Ingram contributed $10 toward the postmen's picnic fund.

Two roast chickens provide a welcome extra pair of drumsticks.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

An old American custom is baked chicken for dinner, plus enough drumsticks for those who want them. Herbs from the Far East, an Irish linen tablecloth and French china combine to carry out this week's United Nations theme.

Baked Chickens

Select 3 1/2- to 4-pound chickens. Rub them inside and out with salt and pepper and mixed poultry seasoning. When stuffed with your favorite dressing, and trussed, rub with softened butter or fortified margarine. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 20 minutes to the pound. Shrinkage will be slight, the bird tender and juicy.

Steamed Tomatoes With Herb Sauce
(Serves 6)

Six firm ripe tomatoes, garlic salt, butter. For herb sauce: 2 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, 1 teaspoon minced parsley, less than 1/8 teaspoon thyme and basil, 1 tablespoon grated cheese, if desired.

Cream together the sauce ingredients. Chill while cooking the tomatoes. Scald and skin the tomatoes. Make slashes down into the tomatoes, through the stem end, taking care not to disturb the surface.

Sprinkle with garlic salt. Dot tops of tomatoes with butter. Place in shallow pan. Add water to barely cover bottom of pan. Cover tightly. Cook gently over low heat until tomatoes are heated through, still holding their shape. Remove to platter. Top with herb sauce.

Nutmeg Squash
(Serves 6)

Three nutmeg squash, dash powdered nutmeg and cinnamon, 3 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, 3 tablespoons sugar, honey or molasses.

Cut squash into halves; carefully remove all seeds and clinging "strings". Dot centers with butter or margarine; sprinkle with spices and sweetening. Place in baking pan with a little water in bottom of pan. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) about 1 hour.

British And Russians Court Iran But Government And Natives Prefer U.S.

By JOSEPH C. GOODWIN
USEFABAD, IRAN (AP)—England and Russia, long feuding diplomatically in Iran, have extensive and expensive organizations for courting favor with the government and people, but the United States appears to be the foreign power first in the hearts and minds of most Persians.

From the Gulf to the Caspian and from Azerbaijan to this wind-swept village on the Afghan frontier, America is the promised land to the young and ambitious, the home of peace and plenty, of "mah-chines" and miracles.

The customs official promised his wide-eyed small son: "If you study hard I'll send you to the American school in Tehran and someday you can go to America." Usefabad is an isolated farm community of 6,000 none of whom speak English and few of whom ever saw an American.

The clerk in Mashad who issued me a pass to enter the holy shrine of the Shia Muslims remarked that he hoped to visit the Mormon Temple in Salt Lake City "and ride on your great railroads."

A mechanic coaxing an autobus across the desert from Mashad boasted of the power of the wheezy old vehicle and explained "it's American mah-chine."

U. S. Cars In Demand

U. S. cars and trucks are in great demand despite high import costs. U. S. planes and pilots fly for Iranian airways, U. S. products fill the bazaars and Iranian workers proudly display ready-made U. S. hats, dresses and shoes. Presbyterian mission schools and hospitals are overflowing.

Delegations of Iranian political parties repeatedly have asked U.S. embassy sponsorship of a "pro-American party," explaining that "there are pro-Russian and pro-British parties but the majority of people like Americans." They go away "puzzled and disappointed," an embassy official said, "after learning that the American government does not sponsor political parties abroad. They are told that we would prefer a truly pro-Iranian party."

The Iranian government, generally believed to be strongly influenced by Russia, retains American technicians in high places despite editorial criticism from the Left-Wing press. An American doctor directs the public health program. U. S. Army missions train the national police and advise the army. An American grain expert directs the government wheat and bread monopoly.

"America has all the things we want for Iran," said a Tudeh Party leader, "schools, hospitals, good living conditions and security for the working man, but Russia is helping us to gain those things. Naturally, we've turned to Russia."

DEVIL'S LAUGHTER

By Alice M. Laverick

XXVIII

HOWEVER, it was from Father Gene that I had most of my news of Colin during this time. Though he told it to me indirectly in speaking of Mark.

He loved Mark Fitzgerald like a brother, he told me, and was fond of Colin, also, though to a lesser degree.

"Mark and I were boyhood friends back there in Mayo," he said. "Colin was younger. And Honora spoiled him outrageously all his life—and Ellen did, too. He was a handsome lad and everyone took a hand at the spoiling, I guess. Ah, but he's been a thorn in Mark's side for years. That's the reason I'm so glad at the good reports of him now."

"He's doing well, then?" I hoped I sounded casual and was glad that I could not hear the thumping of my heart, I held my breath, hoping he would tell me more. For, though I had heard from Ellen from time to time that Colin was getting along well, wherever he was, she continued to be vague indeed about just what he was up to.

Father Gene, however, seemed to be taking it for granted that I knew the rather amazing facts. That Colin was working for a friend of Mark's, a man he'd known since his long ago college days, and who owned a huge estate in Louisiana. It seemed Colin had charge of the stud farm on this estate and was most enthusiastic about the work.

"Well, to be sure he was always crazy about horses," Father Gene said. "But you know, Cecelia, I can't somehow vision him working for someone else. He's such an independent kind of lad, Colin."

I ever heard one, Colin Fitzgerald such an independent kind of lad. But I, too, was finding it difficult to think of him taking orders, though I could see how the horses would interest him. Fair rapture had been in his eyes that day he had ridden into the yard at Innisfail on the Harrington black. Like a youngster riding the flying horses for the first time.

Father Gene told me then that Honora had never allowed horses at Innisfail. Colin's father had had a bad fall from a horse once back in Ireland, just before they came over.

"He was never the same again after that," the priest said. "And Honora felt it very keenly, it broke her all up to see him half-crippled. He was a big strapping fella, you see, very healthy, but the fall crippled him badly."

"I see," I said. And I tried to be glad that Colin was doing the sort of thing he liked, and that, at long last he was working and being a credit to the Fitzgeralds. In Louisiana, a most romantic place, I'd always heard. The land of the Mardi Gras and beautiful and seductive women. Women who were noted, if I remembered correctly, for always getting their men.

I pictured Colin again galloping up between the sugar maples on that day so long ago. Black Irishman, black horse, they belonged together surely, the two of them.

I was in the depths that night, perhaps because one of my old men in the ward had taken an unexpected bad turn, and perhaps because my heart was weary of torch-bearing.

SO, from time to time, they all spoke of Colin after that, Father Gene and Mark and Ellen, and continued to be pleased with

AND that, I thought to myself, is a vast understatement if

One of the outstanding women players of the country is Mrs. E. J. Seligman of New York. She does not play in many tournaments, but when she does, she ranks high in the final standing.

At the recent summer national tournament held at the Hotel St. George in Brooklyn, Mrs. Seligman won the national women's pair championship with Mrs. R. C. Young of Philadelphia. Mrs. Seligman gives a beautiful example of counting tricks in today's hand.

She won the first trick with the queen of hearts, and started to count. If she took the spade finesse and it lost, she would have three spade tricks, two hearts, five diamonds and a club, 11 in all. If she did not finesse the spade what they heard from him. And then there was the day when, in speaking of him, Father Gene said, "Now, if the lad would only get married, I'd be entirely convinced that he was in earnest about settling down and making a good life for himself."

He did not say this to me. It was to Mark, one day at Innisfail, and I overheard it from my favorite haunt, the library, where I was making an attempt to put the books into some sort of order. I remember I sat rigid, and it never occurred to me not to listen. "He's got some notion," the priest went on, "that he's not fit to marry anyone."

"What makes you say that?" Mark's voice was sharp.

"Something he told me once, before he went south, it was. He said, 'I'm bad luck for women, Father, I know that!' I said, 'Now that's a lot of nonsense and you know it,' but I could not convince him."

"That's my fault." There was bitterness in Mark's voice now. "What I said to him that time—the time I struck him—"

"Now, Mark, that's all over and done with. And as I told you at the time, we have no right to judge anyone. No one could hold Colin responsible for what happened. Oh, he was thoughtless, I'll grant you, but no more so than lots of others have been, and I think he paid dearly for it in terrible remorse."

"I was too harsh with him, Father. Always. I was trying to make up for the way everyone else spoiled him."

"I know that, lad. I've always known it. And if you were to write him now how you feel, I think it might help to show him that he has a right to some happiness as well as the next one."

"I did tell him that, Father. But he said—while Charlotte is like this—what chance is there for happiness for him?"

"Well, well," mused the priest, "so that's how it is, is it?"

RATTY TRICK

ST. JOSEPH, MO.—(AP)—The rats in the meat packing and milling district here are going to get a two-night feast this week and then—

Saturday and Sunday nights the sponsors have a surprise. They're mixing the meat with a fatal potion of alphantholthiurea (alphantholthiurea that is).

A combination of a serious shortage of meat and an oversupply of rats in the district prompted the wholesale extermination plan.

Natural gas is made up of four gases: methane, ethane, propane, and butane.
