Glasscock Project May Be Opener Of A New Oil Field

By JAMES C. WATSON
Oil Editor
Shell Oil Company, Inc., No. 1 Clark, North-Central Glasscock County wildcat, about eight miles north of Garden City, and in southwest quarter of section 5, block 32, ps1 survey, has apparently discovered a new oil field, of some sort.

After treating through perforations at 9,740-55 feet, in a lime section, with 500 gallons of acid, the well kicked off and in the first three hours after the treatment, flowed 45 barrels of oil and 14 barrels of water, through a one-eighth inch choke.

In the following nine hours the flow was 27 barrels of oil, cut with two per cent salt water. Then in the next nine hours, it flowed 64.5 barrels of oil, with a shakeout of four per cent salt water and five per cent sediment, through a one-quarter-inch choke. Gas-oil ratio was 967-1.

The well then flowed a total of 188 barrels of oil, with a cut of four per cent salt water and six per cent sediment, in nine hours, through a one-half inch tubing choke. Gas-oil ratio was 1,895-1. Testing was continuing.

That showing indicates that the project probably will be completed as some sort of a commercial oil well and a discovery.

Net oil recovered in the last nine hours of testing was 167.4 barrels—while was at the rate of 18.6 barrels per hour.

Wildcat In NW Dawson
Ray Abaugh of Lamesa has filed application with the Railroad Commission to drill No. 1 Lillian Scanlon as a 5,000-foot wildcat to test for production in the San Andres lime, in extreme Northwest Dawson County.

It will be 660 feet from south and west lines of south half of southwest quarter of section 85, block M, EL survey. That puts it approximately three miles west of nearest production in the Welch field, and about the same distance north-east of the Cedar Lake field, in Northeast Gaines County.

The test is on a farmout from Stanolind Oil & Gas Company. That concern retains acreage on all sides of the dillsite. Operations are to start at once.

Good Stains, Some Porosity
Operator had logged good oil stains and a trace of porosity in the 80 feet to be covered by the test. It is understood that the section below the top of the Gloriaetta, but it had not been officially identified by operator representatives.

The prospector is 2,310 feet from north and east lines of section 20-18s-38e.

Phillips Petroleum Company No. 3-M University, on the southeast side of the Fullerton 8500 field in Northwest Andrews, has been officially completed for a 24-hour flowing potential of 1,567 barrels of 45 gravity oil, natural, from perforations in the casing opposite the Devonian at 8,500-8,675 feet. Total depth is 8,750 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 1,262-1.

Commission Votes To Free Danube Trade

Soviet Objection Overriden As Group OKs Setting Up Conference To Apply Control

By JOSEPH DYNAN
PARIS—(AP)—A peace conference commission decided over Russian objection Monday to write a declaration on Danube River shipping into the forthcoming peace treaties with Balkan states after U. S. Sen. Arthur A. Vandenberg urged a clause guaranteeing freedom of trade on the vital inland waterway. The vote, in the Balkans Economic Commission, was nine to five along the usual East-West lines of division. It foreshadowed probable adoption of a French amendment, supported by both the United States and Britain, which would establish freedom of navigation as a principle binding upon Romania, and would require a conference of river-bank states, plus the Big Four, to apply the principle within six months from the time the treaty takes effect. Vandenberg opened the United States' campaign in the Balkan Economic Commission on one of the most controversial issues remaining before the treaty conclave. His statement drew immediate support from Britain's Gladwyn Jebb. Echoing Russia's position on the issue, Yugoslav Delegate Stanoje Simic declared that peace treaties were not the place to establish a regime for the river. Conference To Write Statute

The senator submitted a new projected text supported by both Britain and America. Previously the two nations had agreed on all proposed Danubian clauses except the make-up of a conference to write a permanent statute for the stream. He told the commission the United States had a direct temporary interest in the Danube because of American occupation zones in Austria and Germany and a broader long-range interest because "avoiding international-made barriers which invite discrimination and friction" was important to peace.

A five-member sub-commission assigned the task of drafting a statute for governing the future free state of Trieste was unable to reconcile its differences and dumped the problem back into the lap of the Italian Political and Territorial Commission, with five different drafts of a statute.

Other Issues On Docket
Other issues remaining to be settled as the delegates of the 21-victor nations strove—under a strict gag rule—to meet an October 5 deadline for opening plenary session work on the five peace treaties now being written, included Italian reparations, the proposal for freedom of navigation on the Danube and Czech demands on Hungary.

Lover Juarrel Ends In Students' Deaths
COLUMBUS, OHIO—(AP)—Two students at Ohio State University who had been keeping company for a year were found shot to death Monday in what police described as the climax of a lover's quarrel.

The couple, both juniors in the College of Engineering, were Alice Krone Patterson, 20, daughter of Allan DeWitt Patterson of Lock Haven, Pa., formerly chairman of the appointment division in the University Bureau of Educational Research, and Donald Thorne, 20, son of Mrs. Alma G. Thorne of Eau Claire, Wis.

The bodies were found in the front yard of a residence next door to the home of Dr. Robert Hiegy, director of the university radio station, WOSU, where Miss Patterson lived. The pistol lay beside the bodies. Friends of the couple said Miss Patterson recently had tried to break off the courtship but Thorne had persisted in his attentions.

Gang Kills Yank In Raid On Manila Post
MANILA—(AP)—An unidentified gang using machineguns killed one American soldier and wounded another Monday in an attack on Fort McKinley, U. S. Army authorities said the incident was being investigated.

One group of armed men fired on a jeep patrol on the eastern side of the U. S. Army reservation in Manila's southern suburbs. The patrol returned the fire and asked reinforcements. Aid was sent from the west gate guard, and this enabled a second group to penetrate west gate quarters.

SEATTLE—(AP)—Thirteenth Naval District headquarters reported Monday the patrol plane Truquent Turtle had messaged passing Midway Island Monday on its Australia-United States flight. The distance was estimated as past the midway point on its planned 9,000-mile course. The Lockheed P2V was averaging 218 miles an hour ground speed.

20-Inch Pipeline Will Be Built From Midland To Oklahoma

HOUSTON—(AP)—A 1947 pipeline construction program, estimated to cost approximately $15,000,000 and including a 440-mile, 20-inch carrier from Midland, Texas, to Cushing, Okla., with a capacity of 150,000 barrels per day, was announced here Monday by B. E. Hull, president of the Texas Pipe Line Company. The line from Midland to Cushing will be built by the company in association with other interests.

Field work on two South Texas projects will get under way immediately, Hull said, but actual construction of the two crude carrier lines near here will be delayed until mid-1947, due to delays in securing materials and equipment. The two South Texas lines will have a combined mileage of 140.

One new line will be a 60-mile, 16-inch carrier, capable of transporting 90,000 barrels of crude per day from West Columbia to Houston, where it will connect with the company's existing facilities. The second South Texas pipeline will be an 80-mile, 22-inch carrier to provide a maximum daily capacity of 100,000 barrels between Houston, Port Arthur, and Port Neches. The line will pass south of Beaumont to Port Arthur and Port Neches, where Texas Company refineries are located.

No details of the line from Midland to Cushing, Okla., were revealed. If such a carrier is constructed it will be the large single line out of the Permian Basin, and its capacity will be greater than that of any other one line serving the West Texas-New Mexico district.

70th District Court Jury Selected As Fall Term Opens
The 70th District Court convened in Midland Monday and selected a grand jury at the morning impanelment. Grand jurors are: H. G. Bedford, George Abell, Frank Aldrich, Walter Anguish, T. Paul Barron, Ben Black, L. T. Boynton, J. P. Carson, Sr., C. W. Chancellor, H. H. Conger, Paul Davis and Reese Cleveland.

A heavy docket is on the agenda of this term, including two murder trials. Civil cases will occupy the first two weeks of this Fall term. There are 123 divorce cases pending. Already docketed is the re-trial of Earl Hamilton Williams charged with murder in connection with the death of his wife, Beulah, in a Glasscock County ranch house on July 6.

Judge Cecil C. Collins declared the first trial of this case in Garden City a mistrial September 6 after the jury failed to reach a verdict.

Lillie Mae Pate, negro, will be tried on a charge of murder in connection with the fatal stabbing of her husband, Edgar Pate, in Midland May 8.

WAC Given Five Year Sentence In Hesse Jewel Theft
FRANKFURT, GERMANY—(AP)—Former WAC Capt. Kathleen Nash Durant was convicted Monday by a military court of stealing $1,500,000 worth of Hesse family jewels, and was sentenced to five years imprisonment at hard labor, with dishonorable discharge.

Mrs. Durant displayed no emotion as the nine-officer court handed down its verdict of guilty on three counts of larceny, embezzlement and being absent without leave from her military post. The 43-year-old defendant had been in charge of the Hesse family castle, used as an American Army officers' club, last Winter when the jewels disappeared. The Durants were married on their return to the United States from Germany.

Mrs. Durant's attorney pleaded that she was being made the "scapegoat" for all the looting done by American soldiers in occupied Germany. "Thousands of others have done the same thing," said Lt. Col. John S. Dwinell of Brooklyn, N. Y., in his closing appeal for mercy. "It is unjust to point the finger at this woman and say 'you will now pay the penalty for something that the whole world knows many, many people have done with impunity.'"

King Strikes Back As Board Probes Canal Project

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Admiral Ernest J. King demanded Monday that the Senate War Investigating Committee retract its criticism of him in connection with the joint chiefs of staff's 1943 recommendation for completion of the Canal project.

King was the wartime chief of Naval operations. He read to the committee a statement in which he declared that in "justice and fair play" the committee should "publicly correct the injustice which you have publicly done me."

In its fifth annual report, filed September 1, the committee said that King as a member of the joint chiefs of staff had recommended completing the $134,000,000 oil-highway project in Canada despite a stand by then Secretary of the Navy Knox that it should be dropped.

Says Was Staff's Decision
King told the committee that he considered the report also "to impute to me individual responsibility" for the chiefs of staff's decision.

American Legion Opens Convention
SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—Strongly worded foreign policy declarations were in the making Monday at the American Legion national convention as the powerful veterans' organization tackled serious matters after a festive night touched off by a noisy "40 and 8" parade up Market Street.

At the same time, a determined struggle for control of the Legion was shaping up, with World War II veterans openly demanding much greater representation and voice in the organization's affairs.

The convention wasn't the same, somehow. For one thing, no one had thrown a piano out of a hotel window yet. Still, the convention was young.

Then there was the faint air of wistfulness which this year set apart the old Legion of the graying hair and the comfortable paunch.

The familiar trappings were there and the horseplay. It was just that old heroes had given way to new ones.

Navy Bomber Crashes Into Bay At Corpus

CORPUS CHRISTI—(AP)—A large Navy patrol bomber which the Navy said had five men aboard crashed and burned in Corpus Christi Bay here Monday.

A Navy rescue crew was rushed to the scene. It picked up two persons, but their condition was not determined immediately.

The crash occurred while the ship was taking off on a routine flight. The Navy did not announce the names of those aboard. They identified the plane as a PBM-5 Martin "Mariner."

German Generals Called Disgrace To Profession

NUERNBERG—(AP)—The international military tribunal branded Germany's generals a disgrace to the "honorable profession" of soldiering but held that the general staff and high command were not criminal organizations, "certain groups" of the Leadership Corps, the SS (Elite Guard), the SD (a department which operated a spy system) and the Gestapo were convicted on that charge.

The first part of the 100,000-word verdict by judges of the United States, Great Britain, Russia and France strongly indicated that Hermann Goering, Rudolf Hess, Joachim von Ribbentrop and the other defendants—politicians, diplomats, military leaders, financiers and party functionaries—would be convicted on one or more of the four counts in the indictment.

The court stressed that nothing it said about the organizations absolved any individual members of liability to prosecution on their own account.

31 Injured In Interurban Crash At Denison
DENISON—(AP)—Officials of the Texas Electric Railway Company Monday were continuing investigation of a head-on collision of two interurban passenger cars that resulted in injury to at least 31 persons three miles south of here Sunday night.

Thirty persons were treated at a Denison hospital while another was taken to a Sherman hospital. Others received treatment at private clinics.

All had been released but Mrs. E. F. Dale of Paris, skull injury; O. T. Bartlett of Whitehall, and Mrs. Ollie Webb of Dallas, head injury.

Several passengers received cuts about the head. Plasma was being used to treat the victims. All doctors and nurses in Denison were called into service and requests for blood donors were issued.

The accident occurred on a straight piece of track within a mile of a location where two similar collisions have taken place in the past two years.

The two electric cars of steel and wood construction collided with terrific force and were telescoped together.

One car was southbound, en route to Dallas, while the second was northbound from Dallas. The line operates between Denison and Dallas.

K. T. Mize, Denison, motorman of one car, received a broken ankle, and L. C. Jones, Van Alstyne, sustained a broken wrist and knee injury.

EISENHOWER DECREES WAR PESSIMISM

BERLIN—(AP)—General Eisenhower, back in Berlin where the Four Big powers are cooperating in running occupied Germany, said Monday that there was "too much pessimism in the world about international relations and too much discounting of progress that is being made."

"We have evidence here," he told a news conference, "that international cooperation is not a dead issue in the world, but something that is growing and will continue to grow."

Tribunal Will Read Verdicts On Tuesday

Court Indicates All To Pay For Supreme Crime

NUERNBERG—(AP)—The international military tribunal declared Monday that the initiation of war "is the supreme crime," and indicated strongly that 22 Nazi ringleaders it has tried on war crimes charges over the last 10 months would be convicted—as charged—of conspiring to commit that crime.

Final verdicts and sentences will be delivered Tuesday when the tribunal concludes the reading of its 100,000-word judgment on the evidence presented by prosecutors for Britain, France, Russia and the United States since the trial began on Nov. 20, 1945.

The tribunal described as "overwhelming" decisions adduced on the main counts in the indictment, and while naming no names in the early stages, ruled that aggressive war is a crime, that conspiracies existed to wage aggressive war, and that war crimes and crimes against humanity had been committed.

Gestapo Called Criminal Group
It acquitted the German general staff and high command, the S. A. (Brown Shirts) and the Reich cabinet of charges that they were criminal organizations, "certain groups" of the Leadership Corps, the SS (Elite Guard), the SD (a department which operated a spy system) and the Gestapo were convicted on that charge.

The first part of the 100,000-word verdict by judges of the United States, Great Britain, Russia and France strongly indicated that Hermann Goering, Rudolf Hess, Joachim von Ribbentrop and the other defendants—politicians, diplomats, military leaders, financiers and party functionaries—would be convicted on one or more of the four counts in the indictment.

The court stressed that nothing it said about the organizations absolved any individual members of liability to prosecution on their own account.

Evidence Overwhelming
A 5,000-word summary of the judgment, rendered after 10 months of a trial such as the world had never seen before, indicated that smaller Nazi party functionaries who might not have been sufficiently important to participate in the main conspiracies would be caught in other counts of the indictment. The court said evidence was "overwhelming."

The demeanor of the men listening to their fate generally was grim. Goering and Field Marshal Wilhelm Keitel both indicated they believed themselves doomed to death. Hjalmar Schacht, former wizard of German finance, sat aside from the other defendants with a pained expression on his face. Hess rolled back and forth in his seat with slumped cramps and had to be taken from the rigidly guarded courtroom.

Before the reading of the judgment was an hour and a half under way, Hermann Goering, once the No. 2 Nazi, virtually conceded that he was on the way to the gallows by telling defense lawyers:

"I did not expect that they would go through all this to kill us."

Most of the defendants appeared reconciled to the belief they would be condemned to death.

The tribunal rejected flatly the plea of some of the defendants that their acts had been committed under orders from Adolf Hitler.

Hitler Had Partners
"Hitler could not make aggressive war by himself; he had to have the cooperation of German military leaders, diplomats, and business," the judgment said. "With the knowledge of his aims, they gave their cooperation and made themselves party to the plan he had initiated. That they were assigned to their tasks by a dictator does not absolve them from their responsibility for their acts."

Dr. Alfred Thomas, defense counsel for Alfred Rosenberg, who was the Nazi party's official philosopher, declared during a morning press that he would appeal any sentence of his client to the Allied Control Council and added that if Rosenberg were sentenced to death he would ask that he be shot, instead of hanged or beheaded.

Human Gesture

Big corporations are traditionally pictured as soulless. But the action of the A. & P. management in New York during the trucking strike seems at odds with this time-honored portrait.

When, as a result of the strike, the chain's 500 New York stores had to close because of lack of supplies, the 8000 employees were informed that they would be paid in full for the duration of the shutdown, since they were not to blame for the closing and shouldn't be penalized.

Certainly this was no more than just. But it seems a rather kindly and human gesture, too. Incidentally, the gesture cost the company something like $400,000 a week—which isn't hay, even for a rich corporation.

We can hardly wait until the Army gets that transmitter by rocket to the sister planet. We hope that security will not require the return broadcast to be in code. We want a first-hand reaction to that bright new world into which the rocket is to be sent. And we are hoping that the Man in the Moon, with brutal candor, will say into the Army's microphone exactly what he thinks of what he has been watching on this Earth during the past few years. It might be deflating, but such an objective opinion should do us good.

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—Crest of the flood waters of the San Antonio River, was approximately 100 miles from the Gulf Coast Monday after reaching a depth of 46 feet at all City, 45 miles south of here.

Meanwhile, the death toll from the flash flood which struck here near midnight last Thursday has risen to eight. Two small boys were drowned Sunday in backwaters of the San Antonio River on a municipal golf course.

Police said the bodies of Thomas W. Trainer, 7, and Ernie Hagy, Jr., 6, both of San Antonio, have been recovered. Friends said the boys had gone in wading and evidently stepped into deep water.

JayCeos Plan Big Paving Campaign

Plans for a two-week campaign to sign up as many citizens as possible to pave streets in front of their property were announced by Midland JayCeos Monday noon at the membership meeting of the Midland Chamber of Commerce in the Scharbauer Hotel.

A. A. (Poosty) Jones, JayCee president, said the JayCeos are interested in promoting paving both from a city beautification and a safety standpoint. Twenty-one JayCee committees will devote their energy to the paving program for two weeks, he explained.

Both Jones and James Mims, who outlined the paving program of the JayCeos, urged all citizens to cooperate and work in the program. Faving Ordered Mims said all property owners in the following blocks have ordered paving, 100 Riddlea Drive, 100 Club Drive, 1700 West Texas, J between Indiana and Missouri, Indiana between J and K, seven blocks in Grafeland, and 400 Holmesley.

The Johnson Construction Company is moving equipment to Midland to start work and city engineers are busy making preparations. Berte Haigh told of a recent investigation he made which showed costs of the paving are "in line."

Mayor Fred Hogan praised the JayCeos for their work and answered questions concerning the paving program.

Ed Froehhold, representing the Johnson Construction Company, which will do the work, outlined its plans.

Collins Thanks Members
Bill Collins, who soon will retire as manager of the Chamber of Commerce to become editor of The Midland Reporter-Telegram, thanked members for their fine cooperation during the last ten years and urged the same fine cooperation for his successor.

John W. House, Chamber of Commerce past president and director who presided, praised Collins and his work and said "no one could have done a better job."

Collins announced that the Wranglers had obtained 15 new members last month, bringing the total membership to approximately 530. Bud Bissell was top wrangler for the fourth straight month. Winston Hull was second and Clint Dunagan was third.

The silks of Harry Payne Whitney were carried by the greatest number of horses ever sent to the post in the Kentucky Derby in any one name. Whitney has had 19 starters in Derby races.

OCTOBER 5th is an important date

All men who volunteer for the new Regular Army on or before October 5, 1946, are guaranteed the full educational benefits of the G. I. Bill of Rights for the complete term of their enlistment—1, 1½, 2 or 3 years, whichever they choose.

For men enlisting after October 5th, benefits under the G. I. Bill of Rights will accrue only so long as the period of emergency exists. Upon official termination of the war, these benefits cease.

These benefits, which include the opportunity to get a full college, trade or business school education, are very important to every man who plans to enlist in the new Regular Army. Be sure you get all the facts before October 5th from your nearest U. S. Army Recruiting Station.

You'll usually hear

promptly...

We are working hard at the job of bringing telephone service to people waiting. To serve everyone, we need more wires and cable and equipment. They are on the way, but complex switchboards take time to make and install.

Meantime, we are connecting more and more telephones to already crowded switchboards. Thus many on the waiting list are getting service sooner than otherwise. In spite of this emergency measure most calls go through quickly and accurately. Now and then you may be inconvenienced by having to wait a few seconds for the telephone operator's "Number, please?"

However, you'll usually hear "Number, please?" promptly. And when more switchboards are installed, we can put in telephones for those who are waiting, and give everybody telephone service that's better than ever before.

MISS POWERS, Gracious.

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Formula for being a successful hostess: encourage your guests to expand.

When you do, says concert violinist Dortha Powers, also famed as a hostess, a guest overcomes shyness and responds to you and to others in the group, thus adding her considerable bit to the success of the gathering.

How to make guests feel expansive and happy? Miss Powers says the introduction should be flattering. To make it so, our mentor says you need to be a sleuth as well as a hostess and find out more than the guest's name. Maybe she grows prize dahlias. Is chairman of a community drive. Has a hobby, a career or special pursuit.

Stating her qualifications when you introduce her not only encourages her to expand, according to Miss Powers, but gives your other guests a helpful conversational cue.

THE STORY: Gayle, daughter of a college professor, has just become engaged to handsome Bruce Bartlett, famous athlete and scion of wealth. His home and parents for the first time, she is frightened by the splendor in which they live. Although Mrs. Bartlett greets her kindly, Gayle feels that she can never be happy amid such extreme luxury. She looks forward with dread to meeting the invalid Mr. Bartlett.

VII
Gayle had a blurred impression of many windows, brilliant sunlight and of foliage and flowers. But Van Dyke Bartlett she saw clearly, and almost instantly her fear dissolved into pity. He looked very old, infinitely tired, and pathetically frail. His white hair was hardly whiter than his cheeks, and even his brown eyes behind his spectacles seemed to have faded. He was half lying, half sitting in a wheelchair. A nurse in a white starched uniform rose as soon as Gayle appeared and vanished through a door in the rear of the conservatory.

Gayle walked close to Mr. Bartlett and looked down at him. He held out his wrinkled right hand, and she took it in hers. "Forgive me if I stare," he said. "I know I'm cruel, but I want to look at you a long time."

"It's all right," Gayle assured him. "I was scared a minute ago, but I'm not now. Bart said no one could be afraid of his father, and now I know what he meant."

"Thank you, my dear. That's a compliment I'll treasure. This must be very hard for you." He released her hand. "Sit down. I can look just as well if you're comfortable."

When she had selected a chair, he touched the bell at his side. "I find I can't."
Almost instantly the nurse appeared. "Will you lift me up a little, Miss Wallace?" Mr. Bartlett asked. "I want to be able to look at Miss Kent in comfort. Miss Wallace," he said to Gayle, "is the kindest of nurses, and," he added, looking upward, "Miss Kent is my son's fiancée. I suppose you've heard."

"Of course," the nurse said, smiling to Gayle in acknowledgment of the introduction. "The house is ringing with the news." Gayle laughed. "And I thought it was a secret until next week."

"Bruce has no secrets," said his father. "He was home one day last week. That was enough. Thank you," he said to the nurse. "That's fine."

"Now," Mr. Bartlett said, "we can talk. And may I say my first impression makes me very happy?"

"You may, indeed," Gayle replied, laughing and blushing in her embarrassment. "I expected to be looked over, of course, but I didn't know it would be quite such an ordeal. My only comfort is that Bart will have to go through it next week."

"He won't suffer a bit. He has no nerves. He's always relaxed. A coach told me once that that was the secret of Bruce's athletic success."

"It's so strange," said Gayle, "to hear him called Bruce. All his New Haven friends call him Bart. I don't think anyone calls him Bruce away from here. You must feel we're talking about a stranger."

"In a way, I do. It gives me an uneasy feeling. I suppose that's silly, but I think of him as Bart." "I don't think it's silly," he smiled at her unexpectedly. "It does like what I see. Forgive me for being so personal, but Bruce's engagement is a very personal matter to me—and I'd worried about the girl he might marry. You're my kind of girl. I can see that at once. Everything about you makes me happy, even your pink fingernails. I have a horror of red ones."

"Just like my father. He's a New Englander and a professor. I don't know which he hates more, scarlet fingernails or heavy lipstick. I come from an old-fashioned family, Mr. Bartlett, and I suppose I'm old-fashioned too."

"No, no, you're not," he contradicted quickly. "I've seen no girl with more style, and I'm glad you have it. I've never had any, but my wife has always had it, and so has Bruce—in a man's way, of course. I'm afraid a girl without style would find it hard to come into this family."

"You make me feel so comfortable," Gayle told him earnestly. "This great house frightened me. We're simple people, and I hadn't expected so much grandeur—but somehow you make it unimportant." She smiled at him. "You don't frighten me any more than my father does."

"I'll tell you why, my dear. The grandeur is unimportant to me. It took me years to find that out, but eventually I did." He looked past Gayle to the doorway behind her. "Good morning, young man."

"Good morning," said Bart. "Hi, Gayle. You must have been up with the birds." He bent to kiss her and smiled at his father. "Isn't she perfect?"

"An embarrassing question," his father replied, "and it's fortunate I can agree with you honestly. Otherwise I might have one of my attacks. I'm afraid I must send you away now. If I don't, Miss Wallace will. But if tomorrow is sunny and I am well enough, will you sit with me for a while in the garden—not you, Bruce, just Gayle?"

Gayle stood up. His request moved her. It was almost a plea. "It's a date," she said, "and nothing can break it. What time?" "Ten o'clock. It ought to be warm enough by then."

Feeling strangely sure of herself, Gayle bent and kissed his cheek. He caught her hand and held it. "Thank you, my dear. Thank you. You're going to be really my daughter."

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY America's Card Authority

Every bridge author points out to the beginner the danger of doubling slam contracts. In rubber bridge there is really not much to gain by doubling, but also there is not a great deal lost if they make it unless they redouble. In tournament bridge, however, you are bound to get a good score if you defeat a six contract, and you are sure to get a bottom score if you double a six contract and they make it.

Today's hand is an ideal example of the fallacy of doubling a slam.

The opening diamond lead was won in dummy with the ace and the ace of hearts is cashed. Declarer realizes that he is bound to have a bad trump break because of West's double, so instead of playing more trumps, he cashes the three top clubs, discarding two of his diamonds. Then he takes the high spade finesse, cashes the high spade and ruffs a spade in dummy. A small club is ruffed and dummy entered with the queen of trumps. Now all West can take is a trump trick.

If West passes the six-heart contract, not many declarers would play the hand along the above lines.

THE MINE!

I'M SURE YOU COULD HAVE TRANSLATED THE NOTE YOURSELF IN TIME I'LL BE SHOWING OFF IN A MIN!

IT'S ROUNDUP TIME AND I'VE GOT PLENTY OF WORK TO DO ON MY RANCH!

VIC FLINT —By MICHAEL O'MALLEY and RALPH LANE

THORN KILLED TWILIGHT AND YOU KILLED THORN. A GOOD JOB, FLINT. TWO GOOD JOBS.

I HAD TO KILL HIM, GROWL. HE HAD A GUN AND TRIED TO USE IT.

In the next room, Libby Lang was comforting Marcia Melcroft.

FATHER'S NAME WAS STILL HE. HE WAS A MURDERER. THE MAN WHO ADOPTED ME, LASH THORN, ALIAS YORK MELCROFT, WAS A MURDERER AND A THIEF. WHAT DOES THAT MAKE ME?

DON'T BE BITTER, DEAR THORN WAS A BLACKGUARD, BUT STILL WAS THE VICTIM OF A FRAME-UP. VIC FELT THAT ALL ALONG.

THAT'S RIGHT, MARCIA. YOUR FATHER WAS ON OUR SIDE. THAT'S HOW I GOT INTO THIS CASE.

I'LL NEVER SET FOOT IN THIS HOUSE AGAIN. I'LL NOT TOUCH ANOTHER PENNY OF THE MELCROFT MONEY.

HENDERSON — (AP) — Pampa's Oilers hold a two game lead over Henderson in the West Texas-New Mexico and East Texas Leagues playoff.

The Oilers used four double plays Sunday to halt Henderson threats as the West Texans won the second game of the series, 5-2. The clubs will meet again here Monday night after which they will move to Pampa to resume play on Wednesday.

Virgil Richardson, Oiler first baseman, connected for his second four-bagger of the series and found one man on base, Jack Riley, with a double and two singles, teamed with Richardson for the Pampa team's heavy hitting.

Ben Hogan Captures Golf Open At Dallas

DALLAS — (AP) — Little Ben Hogan came in with a three-over-par 73 on the final 18 holes but it was good enough to give him first money in the Dallas Open golf tournament Sunday, the Hershey, Pa., professional finishing with 284 for the 72 holes.

Hogan shot a 37 on the front nine and 36 on the back stretch over the par 35-35-70, 6,787-yard Brook Hollow course to go with his 211 for the previous three rounds and capture the $2,000 top money.

Paul Runyan of Pasadena, Calif., who posted a 71 and Herman Keiser of Akron, O., who had a 73, wound up in a tie for second place with 286. Each won $700.

Tied for fourth were Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago, Dick Metz of Chicago, Harry Todd of Dallas, Ed Furgol of Pontiac, Mich., and Raymond Gafford of Fort Worth and amateurs Earl Stewart of Dallas and Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., each with 287.

Furgol shot the final 18 holes in 6—the lowest round of the day.

Playoff Begins Tuesday As Both Cards, Dodgers Lose Final Tilts

By JACK HAND
ST. LOUIS — (AP) — St. Louis and Brooklyn have backed into a situation unique in the annals of baseball—an exact first place tie for the National League pennant.

Each club had a chance to pick up all the marbles and a World Series date with the Boston Red Sox of the American League by winning Sunday's final games. Each lost and will play for the title in the best two of three games.

Eddie Dyer's Cardinals probably can find the most reasons to kick themselves Sunday, for they knew full well the Dodgers were having a rough afternoon with Boston's Mort Cooper before the Redbirds "blew" their finale 8 to 3 to Chicago's Johnny Schmitz.

Each of the 34,124 paying customers that produced Sportman's Park's largest crowd of the season drew all about it. The Braves had opened a 1-0 gap on Brooklyn and the Cardinals were showing the way to the Cubs, 2-1, with George (Red) Minger cracking along in fine style.

Cugs Crack Up
Then came the fatal sixth in which the St. Louis pitching and fielding collapsed during a dizzy spell that yielded five Chicago runs on a double, three infield hits and a wild throw by Stan Musial. The toss by Musial, over the head of Mury Dickson who was covering first base, broke the Cards. They were through, and made only a few disconnected moves at pating Chicago's lead.

When the inning was over it mattered little that the scoreboard carried tidings of Boston's 4-0 win over Brooklyn.

Naturally the fans were disappointed, and so was Manager Dyer, who sat in the stilled Cardinal clubhouse after the last play had left.

He only said, "We just lost because we played bad ball... It was just bad play... nobody can call it bad luck."

Dyer said he would use either Howie Pollet or Mury Dickson in the first game of the playoff series here Tuesday.

Leo Durocher named Ralph Blanca as his first game starter.

The next two games are scheduled for Brooklyn.

The tie means the World Series will start next Sunday, October 6, instead of next Wednesday. Meanwhile the Red Sox will pass the time playing an all-star squad in several exhibition games.

Midland One Of 35 Undefeated Teams In State

By The Associated Press
With conference games already edging into the schedule, 35 undefeated Class AA high school grid teams are preparing for the fourth round of the 1946 campaign and chances are that by the end of the week nearly a dozen of them will have lost their perfect record status.

Included among the 53 games on deck for next Thursday, Friday and Saturday are seven clashes between undefeated teams, 14 in which the undefeated take on inter-district rivals, two interstate contests and one international tussle.

Teams that have not met defeat are Borger, Amarillo and Plainview of District 1; Graham, District 2; Midland, Odessa and Sweetwater, District 3; Gainesville and Sherman, District 5; Highland Park, District 6; Paschal, Arlington Heights and North Side, all of Fort Worth, District 7; Waxahachie, District 10; Marshall, District 11; Conroe, District 12; Milby and Lamar of Houston, District 13; South Park of Beaumont, Ball of Galveston and Orange, District 13; Coppus Christi, Laredo, and Austin and Thomas Jefferson and Brackenridge of San Antonio, District 15, and Edinburg, Harlingen and Kingsville, District 16.

Teams With Ties
Tied but undefeated are Wichita Falls, District 2, Bowie of El Paso, District 4; Amon Carter-Riverside of Fort Worth, District 7; Hillsboro, District 10; Pasadena, District 14; and McAllen, District 16.

Of the perfect record roster, Midland this week will meet Plainview, Sweetwater will go to Wichita Falls, Graham will visit Arlington Heights, Highland Park will journey to Sherman, Milby will take on Amon Carter-Riverside, and Thomas Jefferson will clash with Laredo and Kingsville with Harlingen in conference affairs.

'B' Bulldogs, Pups Both Play Thursday

Games are on tap for the Midland "B" Bulldogs and the John M. Cowden Junior High Puppuhs this week.

Both play Thursday.

The "B" Bulldogs take on Rankin here at 8 p. m. in the high school stadium.

Dixie Series Entry Determined Monday

By The Associated Press
If the Atlanta Crackers can maintain the pattern they have followed in 13 games of the Southern Association's Shaughnessy playoffs, they will come out of Monday night's seventh game with Memphis ready to resume the Dixie Series with Dallas, the Texas League winner.

The pennant-winning Crackers edged New Orleans in the first round, four games to three by winning all the odd-numbered tilts and losing all the even-numbered ones. They have followed the same routine with the Chicks, and Memphis won the sixth game Sunday, 4-2, to draw even with Atlanta.

Monday night's tilt at Atlanta is expected to have Bill Ayers, Atlanta's ace righthander, opposing Wimpy Willis, the star lefthander of Memphis.
