Chinese Troops Launch Drive Toward Dairen

Two-Pronged Force Attacks Stronghold

By TOM MASTERTON
PEIPING—(AP)—Wily Gen. Tu Li-Ming scored one of the biggest surprises of the civil war Monday by launching a two-pronged offensive against Chinese government troops against Dairen, the chief port of Manchuria, in a move to control the entire South Manchurian Coast, and cut off the Chinese Communists from support by sea.

The Communists and everyone else expected General Tu to resume his northward advance toward Harbin in Central Manchuria. But instead he sent two armies southward down the Liaotung Peninsula from Anshan and Antung to catch the enemy napping. icy weather in the north may have dictated the change in strategy.

Both prongs were approximately 90 miles from Dairen, the big seaport 30 miles from the Russian naval base of Port Arthur.

Capture of Dairen probably would pose intricate complications. Travelers from that area have reported the city full of Soviet troops, and there was a question whether in that case Nationalist troops would be welcome.

Number of Reds Unknown
There was no indication here how many Chinese Communist troops were occupying the city.

Entry of the generalissimo's forces into Dairen could well bring about another tense occupation situation such as existed early this year at Mukden, where both Soviet and Chinese government authorities sought to run the city.

The Nationalists severed the Communists' overland supply route between North China and Manchuria in their vigorous North China offensive which culminated in the capture of Kaigang. Now general Tu's troops, in concert with a government attack on Chefoo, at the tip of the Shantung Peninsula in North China, threatened to sever the Reds' sea route.

Most of the 350,000 Communist troops now in Manchuria were transported in junks across the strait from Chefoo to the South Manchurian Coast.

Truman Tells Arabs More Jews Should Be Allowed In Palestine

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman has sent a message to King Ibn Saud of Saudi Arabia regarding his belief that steps should be taken to insure the immediate substantial immigration of refugee Jews into Palestine.

He told the Arab leader that he could not agree with the latter's statement that there was inconsistency in the American position.

The president said he still adhered to the belief, "widely shared by the people of this country," that nothing would contribute more effectively to the alleviation of the plight of homeless Jews "than the authorization of the immediate entry of at least 100,000 of them to Palestine."

Communist Party Wins In Bulgaria

SOPIA, BULGARIA—(AP)—The Communist-dominated Fatherland Front was reported by the government Monday to have won 296 assembly seats to 83 for the united opposition parties in returns from 89 districts in the Sunday elections.

The assembly will have 465 members and thus the Fatherland Front already was assured a working majority.

The announcement said most of the candidates elected were of the Workers' Party (Communists).

In Sofia, complete returns gave the Fatherland Front parties 277, 323 votes to 95,535 for the united opposition, election officials said.

Reds Poll 141,942
Of the parties in the Fatherland Front, the Communists were said to have polled 141,942 votes.

Two Men Critically Wounded In Gunshot Flurry At Houston

HOUSTON—(AP)—Two men lay in Houston hospitals critically wounded Monday and the estranged wife of one of the men was under arrest on a "hold" charge, after a flurry of gunfire at 1 a. m. in a cabin at a tourist court.

One man was admitted to Hermann Hospital with a .38 caliber bullet wound over his heart. He was found lying on the floor of the cabin, according to C. S. Eddy, court manager.

A car with two people in it, one of whom appeared to be a woman, roared out of the court immediately after the shooting, Eddy told deputy sheriffs.

At 2:15 a. m. a night watchman called police and reported finding a man lying beside a car. They sent him to a hospital in an ambulance. He was admitted for treatment of a .32 caliber bullet wound in the head.

Officers reported they found $4,587 in cash, $5,000 in cashier's checks and personal checks totaling $2,000 in the second man's pockets.

A woman was taken into custody by Deputies Troy Foster and H. L. Cwens in the cabin where the man was found wounded, placed in city jail, and marked "hold." She refused to make any statement and denied knowing anything about the shooting.

Neither wounded man was able to make a statement Monday morning. No charges had been filed, pending further investigation.

Robbers Loot Stores In McCamey, Rankin

McCAMEY—Two drug stores and Eason's Nu-Way Grocery Store in McCamey and a drug store in Rankin were entered early Sunday and looted of approximately $5,000 in cash and checks.

The robbers stole $3,500 in cash and checks from the Nu-Way Grocery, then moved 18 miles to Rankin where they obtained $1,500 more in currency and checks plus an undetermined amount of jewelry from the Mitchell Drug Store.

The robbers also broke into the Echo and the Fisher Drug Stores in McCamey, but nothing of value was taken.

Some of the checks taken from the Eason Grocery were payable to checks drawn on the TP Coal & Oil, Humble, Shell, Continental, and other oil companies.

No suspects have been arrested by peace officers.

10 Suspects Arrested In Esslingen

No Persons Hurt In Window Explosion

FRANKFURT—(AP)—The American military government announced Monday that terrorists, striking for the second time in eight days, exploded a bomb on a window sill of the De-Nazification Board office at Esslingen Sunday night.

By noon Monday 10 persons had been taken into custody for questioning, including one person who was said to have been seen running away from the building a few minutes after the explosion.

Three bombs were exploded October 19 outside a United States military jail and two German de-Nazification courts in the Stuttgart area.

Sunday night's bombing damaged only the outside of the building at Esslingen, the announcement said. No one was hurt. The bomb was believed to be of the same type as was used in the Stuttgart explosions.

Army agents said they believed the bomb was planted by the same man or group responsible for the previous trip bombing in and near Stuttgart, which is only six miles northwest of Esslingen.

Soon after the blast rocked the town, security troops and German police rushed to the scene. Patrols were combing the area for the culprits.

A group of officials of the Standard Oil Company (New Jersey) and of that concern's operating affiliate in Texas, the Humble Oil & Refining Company, arrived in Midland late Sunday in three company airplanes for a visit to the Humble's division headquarters here, and for a tour of some of the concern's properties in the Permian Basin.

Henry C. Wiess, president of Humble, headed the party. Other Humble executives were Hines H. Baker, executive vice president; David Frame, vice president and director in charge of production; Morgan J. Davis, manager of the exploration department; and Carl J. Reistle, Jr., general manager of the production department. All are from the company's general offices in Houston.

Standard of New Jersey officials, all from the New York headquarters, include E. B. Howard, R. T. Haslam, George H. Freyermuth, Howard W. Page, W. E. Hoagland and W. R. Finney.

Midland representatives of Humble who accompanied the visitors in the field tours were John W. House, division superintendent; J. P. Ruckman, assistant division superintendent; R. S. Dewey, division petroleum engineer; J. W. Graybeal, associate division petroleum engineer; V. C. Maley, division geologist; W. E. Dougherty, assistant division geologist; and J. C. (Peck) Cunningham, division landman.

The trip to this area was made to give the New Yorkers an opportunity to become better acquainted with operations in the West Texas-New Mexico region.

Midlanders Give Funds To TCU

FORT WORTH—Cash gifts of $150,000 by two West Texas families to be used in furthering ministerial education and for support of weaker churches, activities sponsored by the Bible College of the Bible at TCU and the Texas Christian Missionary Society, respectively, were announced here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ratliff of Midland and Mrs. L. C. Brite of Maria have provided $100,000, their gifts divided equally, for the Intensive Effort for Ministerial Education.

Mr. and Mrs. Ratliff have given an additional $50,000 to become a part of the Texas Christian Missionary endowment for work among weaker churches.

Mr. Brite and her late husband in 1911 established the first endowment for TCU, and by a gift in 1914 provided the funds that made the Bible college, named in their honor, possible.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Ratliff, according to the Rev. J. E. Montgomery, TCU field man, are especially interested in the ministerial education phase of TCU. Ratliff is an elder in the First Christian Church of Midland and is a former chairman of that church's board.

Three of the Ratliff's daughters, Bonnie Sue, Frances and Dorothy, have been students at TCU.

It is to dig to around 4,200 feet, with cable tools, starting by November 1, to test for production in the Clear Fork-Permian.

New Orleans Mayor Helps Gather Garbage

NEW ORLEANS—(AP)—Mayor Deshaussier S. Morrison and other city officials donned old clothes Monday to direct a crew of volunteers in picking up five days of garbage left stranded on the sidewalks by a strike of garbage collectors.

The youthful mayor and Property Commissioner Theo O. Hotard announced that 45 motor vehicles would be used by the volunteers who were requested to report in old clothing. The city will furnish the necessary gloves.

Meanwhile, the New Orleans joint board of Textile Workers' Union of America, CIO, condemned the volunteer program and suggested a meeting of CIO locals Monday to protest the action.

Morrison and Hotard emphasized that the move to collect the five-day accumulation of refuse by volunteers was "purely a civic proposition" pending recruitment of employees by the Department of Civil Service.

Thieves In London Strike Again As Scotland Yard Clears U S Deserters

LONDON—(AP)—Gem and fur thieves, striking again in London, looted two homes of some $20,000 in valuables over the weekend.

Adelaide Hall, American-born singer, was robbed of an ermine coat and cape, a silver fox fur and $12,000 worth of jewelry by burglars who jimmied open her front door while she and her husband dined with a neighbor Sunday night.

David Lowe, British customs official, lost $3,000 in jewels to thieves who apparently climbed through his kitchen window Saturday night while he and his wife were out to dinner.

Meanwhile officials of the Royal Palace of St. James disclosed Monday that $3,200 worth of diamonds reported stolen Saturday "have been found in tact in the palace."

A palace spokesman said, "It is now clear that the jewels had never left the apartment of Lady Leigh," American-born wife of Sir Piers Leigh, master of the king's household.

The jewels—a ring, bracelet and brooch, all set with diamonds—"were put away too carefully, so that they could not be found for two days," the spokesman said.

The London Evening Standard laid the way of robberies to "a powerful and determined gang formed x x x on the lines of a self-contained army unit."

Scotland Yard denied a report published in the Sunday dispatch that a band of American Army deserters was suspected of the thefts. One police official said both thieves and receivers were "men born and bred in this country."

United States Army sources here declared they knew nothing to support the dispatch's story that Army officers had joined the hunt for the robbers.

Supreme Court Upholds Georgia Voting System

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Supreme Court Monday refused to disturb a lower court decision upholding Georgia's county unit voting system.

Under the system, Eugene Talmadge recently won the Democratic nomination for governor, although he trailed James V. Carmichael in popular vote.

A special three-judge U. S. District Court in Atlanta decided the system violates no constitutional guarantees of equal rights.

Three Georgia voters appealed to the Supreme Court to review the case and reverse the decision. The high tribunal announced its decision in a brief order refusing to review the case.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

MIAMI, FLA.—(AP)—The Miami Herald Monday quoted a cable message from Manuel de Moya at Ciudad Trujillo as saying Communists began a wave of rioting in the Dominican Republic's capital.

NEW YORK—(AP)—Cotton futures tumbled the permissible daily limit of $10 a bale at the opening Monday. Heavy accumulation of selling orders over the weekend accounted for the sharp decline and minor rallies from time to time met with little support.

Another Industrial Conference?

It is almost a year since representatives of management and labor gathered in Washington, at the secretary of labor's invitation, to work out a formula for industrial peace and speedy reconversion. We don't remember much about that conference except that at one point John L. Lewis said to Philip Murray, "Nuts to you", and Murray replied, "Nuts to you too, sir".

We believe, however, that the recollection is an accurate synthesis of what took place. Rival union groups bickered. So did labor and management representatives. The sorry industrial history of the ensuing months reveals how little was accomplished.

Now Walter Reuther, president of the CIO United Automobile Workers, has asked the automobile industry to join with the UAW in petitioning President Truman to call another labor-management-public conference.

Reuther seems worried, as well he might be, over the present uncertainty of industrial output. He points to layoffs at the Briggs and Chrysler plants due to a steel shortage. He cites the lack of freight cars. And, of course, he could mention a great many other bottlenecks. The problem, he has decided, can only be solved at the "national industrial level".

There are a couple of interesting points to the UAW leader's proposal. This time it is a labor representative and not a government official who is suggesting a conference. The tone of his statement suggests his conviction that the situation is too serious for wild claims, wilder demands and mutually bitter accusations such as have distinguished UAW-industry dealings in the past.

Well, perhaps another conference would do some good. We believe that the facts are already at hand, and that the greatest need is for the responsible parties to face them squarely and act upon them. But it still might be well for labor and management and the public to get together again in the light of the bitter industrial lessons 1946 has taught.

Perhaps labor and management are ready at last to take open minds and good manners to the conference table and attempt a really sensible production program. We don't know.

But we do feel certain that Reuther is being unwise in excluding government from his projected meeting. At last year's conference the government role was largely that of host and adviser. Yet another glance at the first nine months of 1946 reveals that government played a leading part in a sorry economic drama.

Neither Truman nor Secretary Schwelienbach can commit Congress to a course of action. But they, along with Steelman, Porter, Small and others directly involved, could and should give any such conference some outline of government policy and intention toward wage, price and material control.

Labor, management and the public might bring the best will in the world to the problem of ending the wave of strikes, getting production going and halting the inflationary spiral. But they could not hope for much success without at least a general idea of what and how much the government plans to do, and when.

Favorable Vote Is Urged On Proposed Road Amendment

Members of the Midland Chamber of Commerce were urged, at their meeting Monday noon in the Scharbauer Hotel, to vote November 5 in favor of the proposed Texas Good Roads Amendment which would freeze the allocation of revenue from gasoline and oil taxes as it now is for highways and schools. Fred Wemple, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce highway committee and a past-president of the Texas Good Roads Association, explained the proposal and urged all citizens to study it and vote for it.

The proposed amendment would prevent diversion of highway funds to other programs. The public school fund now receives 25 per cent of the funds. Wemple told of endorsements including that of the Midland Chamber of Commerce for the proposed amendment.

County Judge E. H. Barron also endorsed the plan and said failure of the proposed amendment may result in an increase later in county taxes.

Downing Is Welcomed
Delbert Downing who Friday becomes manager of the Chamber of Commerce, succeeding Bill Collins, was introduced and said he was entering the position with enthusiasm. He urged continued cooperation of all members. Collins has resigned to become editor of The Midland Reporter-Telegram.

A Girl Scout program was staged at the meeting in connection with the observance of National Girl Scout Week. Guests were Mrs. John DeFord, a leader in Scouting, and Dona Manning and Peggy Lou Whitson, Girl Scouts; and Mrs. E. D. Richman, a leader of Brownies, and Peggy Hoover and Wynell Richman, Brownies. Miss Whitson told of Scouting activities and outlined the program of the organization.

Coal Crisis Headed Into Showdown

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The pre-election coal crisis headed into the showdown stage between John L. Lewis and the Truman Administration.

While Lewis himself appeared to be on something of a spot with his implied threat of a walkout by his 400,000 soft coal miners Friday, the immediate pressure was on the White House.

The big decision that has to be made there is whether: (1) to give in again, as the government did when Secretary of Interior J. A. Krug signed a contract with Lewis last Spring to end that 59-day strike; or (2) to let the miners quit work four days before the elections and take whatever political consequences there might be. Krug, who declined last week to break off his Western inspection tour to meet Lewis here on the Friday deadline, still holds the top presidential assignment to solve the dispute.

Helping out are reconversion Director John R. Steelman and George Washington of the Solicitor General's Office, who is poring over the Krug-Lewis agreement of last May to determine whether the United Mine Workers' chief is right in saying that his contract with the government can be reopened November 1.

Truman Plans To Keep Present Cabinet Intact

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Highly placed Administration officials said Monday President Truman will try to keep his present cabinet intact during the year ahead.

One top rank aide, describing Truman's primary personnel problem as the accumulation of vacancies in other high level posts, added: "Everybody seems to talk about cabinet changes except the boss himself."

This official, in daily touch with the Chief Executive, said Truman will be guided largely by the wishes of Secretary of State Byrnes in naming a new ambassador to London. W. Averell Harriman was brought home recently to replace the ousted Henry A. Wallace as commerce secretary after Wallace took issue with Byrnes' foreign policy.

Acid Throwing Marks Battle In Calcutta

CALCUTTA—(AP)—At least 12 persons were killed in hand-to-hand fighting, stabbings and acid throwing during continued Hindu-Muslim clashes here Monday. Twenty-two others suffered knife wounds.

Government authorities said 57 home-made bombs were discovered in a raid in North Calcutta. Buses and taxicabs remained idle as workers refused to resume their duties until assured of adequate protection. Monday's casualties, together with 11 killings Sunday, brought the death toll to more than 60 since the latest outbreak of communal disorders began Tuesday. Thirty cases of arson were reported.

Budget Furs Go Glamorous

Beaver brown mouton pea jacket appeals to the teenager's style sense with its reefer collar and bold gold buttons. Its low price has purse-appeal.

By EPSIE KINARD
NEA Staff Writer
NEW YORK (NEA)—Young campus sophisticates straining for luxury furs can swing them this fall on a small high school budget, thanks to science's new wizardry in transforming sheepskin into fancy moutons.

The newest fling at glamor of up-and-coming moutons is a whirl at pastel dyes which turn sheepskin into Cinderella furs of mountain haze blue and luscious peppermint pink.

But the junior who wants her $200 investment—or thereabouts—to yield an all-purpose coat will settle

Fancy moutons are easy on the slim budget of the junior who yearns for a fur coat. Resembling beaver, the coat, left, has a detachable, fur-banded hood of sage green wool which is also used for the lining. Jaunty belted mouton coat, right, is bound at waist and pockets with suede wool studded with gold nailheads.

For a mouton that takes its color cues from beaver or nutria, plus postwar chemical fineries that make fur invulnerable to spotting or matting in rain or snow.

"Gingerbread man" swaggers, belted and cowed coats and pert pea jackets are the high style innovations that meet the Junior Miss's exacting specifications.

Besides its boxy fulness that eases over bulky suits and its reefer collar into which a frosty face can duck, the fashion-right pea jacket

Farmers Urged To Save Part Of Feed Crop For Reserve

Cooperators with the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District are urged to save part of their feed crop for a feed reserve this year, Herd Midkiff, district supervisor, announced Monday.

Midkiff has a stack of about 50 tons saved two years ago. With this feed reserve he has not had to buy high priced feed during the drought. Maintaining feed reserves is only one of the measures Midkiff follows in his complete Soil Conservation program.

As another part of his conservation program Midkiff built some small diversion dams across a pasture road last week. Heavy rains this fall had started washing a gully down the road. The diversions will stop the gully washing and spread water on the pasture, Midkiff said. The Soil Conservation Service, assisting in applying conservation measures, helped Midkiff locate the diversions.

Applications for planning a complete soil and water conservation program on farm and ranch land have been made to the district supervisors by Leslie Hull, A. L. Stewart, and Frank Midkiff.

O. C. Collins has made a plan for Soil and Water Conservation on his farm five miles south of Midland in the Valley View Conservation group.

The antlers of all deer, elk, and even the giant moose are manufactured and discarded each year.

Mail Christmas Packages Soon

N. G. Oates, acting postmaster, Monday called attention to the fact that the mailing period for shipment of Christmas packages to servicemen overseas expires November 15.

Packages destined for the Pacific area should be mailed by November 1 to assure delivery by Christmas, he said.

Oates reported only a few overseas packages have been mailed here to date.

Packages weighing up to 70 pounds will be accepted for shipment, and senders may send one package a week, Oates said.

Home-Mixed Syrup Relieves Coughs Quickly

Saves Big Dollars. So Easy! No Cooking.

A real surprise awaits you, in your own kitchen, for the relief of coughs due to colds. You can easily mix a cough syrup that gives you about 10 times as much for your money.

Make a syrup by stirring 2 cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup. No cooking needed—it's no trouble at all. Then put 2½ ounces of Pinex (obtained from any druggist) into a pint bottle. Fill up with your syrup, and you have a full pint of wonderful cough medicine. It never spoils, lasts a long time, and children love it. This mixture takes right hold of a cough in a way that means business. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and quickly eases soreness and difficult breathing. XXXI

GAYLE'S brother Jimmie always said, "When Gayle gets her back up, look out. She's dangerous."

When Mr. Godfrey made clear that her custody of Kent might be threatened, she became more dangerous than she had ever been in her life. She was ready to fight Bart or his mother, or both of them, in private or in public; and she was ready, too, to use any weapon that would strike the hardest blow.

She lay long awake that night thinking and planning, and the next morning she began to put her plans into effect. She dismissed the maid and Miss Norton, the nurse.

It hurt her to tell Tom he wasn't needed any longer, but he made the situation as easy as possible for her. "I've been thinkin' I ought to go to Bridgeport," he said. "I'm a good mechanic—pretty good, anyhow, and they need 'em bad in the factories. I think we're goin' to be in the war pretty quick, Mrs. Bartlett."

"So do I, Tom," she said. "I thought you'd be glad to get away from here. You can get a job—not right away but in the next few months. You can get another job."

"I told you I wouldn't be fired," Mrs. Mays said quietly. "I thought you needed me."

"Oh, I do," Mrs. Mays turned her hands palms upward in her lap and studied them thoughtfully.

not very subtle. I wanted you to come in here because I—well, there's a new relationship. Oh dear, I don't know how to put it."

Mrs. Mays smiled. "I'm not the cook now?"

"No! Oh no! That's just it. Don't you see, I'm talking to you as a friend."

"I thought that's what you meant. I'm glad you feel that way, Mrs. Bartlett. I know about Jane and Tom and Miss Norton, of course. I was going to tell you I wasn't ready to be fired."

She hesitated, and then added firmly, "I'm staying."

"Bless your heart!" Relieved, her faith in Mrs. Mays complete, Gayle began to talk, all confusion gone. "I've been thinking over everybody I know. I've been having a bad time. I didn't want to worry my parents, and I haven't said a word to them yet—and it didn't matter whom I thought of, I wasn't satisfied. I wanted to talk things over with a woman. I want help and advice, and finally it dawned on me, I'd rather talk about this with you than anybody else, even Rose Beecher. I'm going to tell you everything, friend to friend, and then I'm going to ask your help."

"I know you won't. If I didn't know it, I'd never tell you any of it." Then Gayle told the story up to, and including, her talk with Mr. Godfrey. "And so, you see," she concluded, "I've got to rearrange my entire life. I've got to get a job—not right away but in the next few months. You can get another job."

"I told you I wouldn't be fired," Mrs. Mays said quietly. "I thought you needed me."

"Oh, I do," Mrs. Mays turned her hands palms upward in her lap and studied them thoughtfully.

Then she looked up, and her quiet smile lighted her face. "It comes down to this, doesn't it, Mrs. Bartlett: somebody's got to take care of Kent, and somebody's got to work to earn enough money—and you'd like for us to work it out some way together? Isn't that it?"

"Oh yes—exactly! But I won't be able to pay you even—"

"Pay me?" Mrs. Mays drew herself up in her chair. "I thought you said we were talking as friends."

Gayle flushed painfully and cried, "We are! We are! But I don't want to ask sacrifices of you. I haven't any right to ask sacrifices. No matter what happens, I gain and you lose. I've tried and tried to see my way around that, and I can't. You're always the loser."

"Mrs. Bartlett," Mrs. Mays' voice was quiet but her blue eyes were serious, almost stern. "At my age you're never the loser when you're needed and wanted."

THE next morning Gayle wrote to her parents, to Nate Kent, who was in an Army camp in California, and to Rose. To Rose, she confessed, "You told me in plain words. I give you leave to say, 'I told you so.'"

She sent the letters air mail and then set about putting her affairs in order. On Mr. Godfrey's advice, she transferred her account to a different bank. "If you don't," he had explained, "you're likely to find money deposited in your name, and that would be an embarrassment."

Then she set about selling all her jewelry, her pearl necklace and the pearl set left her by Mr. Bartlett excepted. It was a shock to find that the jewels would bring only a small part of their value, but even that small part totaled several thousand dollars, quite enough to ensure Kent's education. When the money had been invested in government bonds, she felt braver and stronger. If the need ever arose, she could produce evidence conclusive enough for any judge that James Kent Bartlett was in no need of assistance from his father.

Florida Winter Nationals, is visiting many tournaments now to invite players to come to Florida. At Cedar Point, Ohio, I saw him play today's hand for a top score.

The opening lead was won in dummy with the ace of diamonds and the jack of trumps was led. West won and returned the jack of diamonds.

At most tables declarer made the mistake of ruffing this with the nine of hearts. East overruffed with the ten and led a club. Then West returned another diamond, assuring East of another trump trick.

Stresau refused to trump the jack of diamonds; he discarded his losing queen of clubs. West continued with a diamond, and now Stresau trumped with the deuce of hearts. East overtrumped with the six-spot, but Stresau could win any return East made and pick up the trumps.

The very nice safety play that Stresau made in this hand may seem difficult to recognize. It is this type of play and many others similar to it that put a player in the expert class.

Tools Wins Top Money In Roping At N. Y. Rodeo

NEW YORK (AP)—The rodeo has moved out of Madison Square Garden after a month-long stand that ended Sunday night with award of $15,000 in prizes to the bronzing contestants.

Only one champion of 1945 was able to repeat—Toots Mansfield of Rankin, Texas, who has made a habit of winning the calf-roping championship at the garden each fall.

Mansfield's first was worth $2,660, not counting the substantial "day money" he picked up en route to the title. The "champ" and each of the other departmental winners also received new saddles as gifts.

Jerry Ambler of Portland, Ore., who finished second in the saddle bronc event last season, won first money this time in a close finish with two others. He just edged out Jackie Cooper of Newhall, Calif., and Stub Bartleman of Portland, Texan Wins Bronc Riding.

Bud Linderman of Red Lodge, Mont., probable winner of the 1946 year-round championship cowboy award, had to settle for second cash in the bareback bronc riding event won by Bud Speelman of Fort Worth.

Steer wrestling brought the closest finish. Dave Campbell of Las Vegas, Nev., finished a fraction of a second ahead of Wilber Plaughter of Fresno, Calif.

Wag Blessing of Glendale, Calif., was crowned wild bull-riding king by a scant edge over Pee Wee Morris of Custer, S. D., and Ken Roberts of Strong City, Kan.

Buff Douthitt of Roswell, N. M., captured the wild cow-milking prize by a comfortable margin. Metropolitan are estimated to have paid about $1,500,000 to see the cowboys perform.

The baby, Sheryl Kay, and mother, Mrs. Roland Crutcher, are reported "doing nicely." Mrs. Crutcher was temporarily taken from the lung during the birth of the baby, but was placed back in the lung after delivery. Hospital attendants and doctors expressed "great relief" that the birth was normal.

NEW YORK — (AP) — Mayor Roger Lapham of San Francisco Saturday renewed a bid for location of the permanent United Nations headquarters in the San Francisco Bay area and announced that he was prepared to offer the UN a free site worth $2,000,000.

Lapham said the site he had in mind was a three-square-mile area in the Crystal Springs Lakes area of San Mateo County, south of San Francisco, a watershed of the city's water supply system. The property is owned by the city, he said.

Rice Slated To End Tech Attack On S'west Loop

By MAX B. SKELTON

Associated Press Staff Writer
With Rice Institute's feathered flock of Owls perched in the driver's seat following their well earned 18-13 victory over the Texas Longhorns, the Southwest conference this week settles down to an elimination process which will determine whether there is to be a team to press the Owls in their quest for the 1946 crown and the Cotton Bowl bid.

Results of games next Saturday at College Station and Austin will carry much weight in the final season standings.
Arkansas' Razorbacks, humiliated after a 9-7 loss to underdog Mississippi, take on the Aggies of Texas A&M, who won their second conference game in two starts by whipping Baylor Saturday, 17-0.

Southern Methodist, whose followers have been predicting would break loose before the season's end, visits the Longhorns after taking a 17-0 upset over Missouri at Columbia, Mo.

Rice is slated to end the attack on the Southwest Conference as leveled by the Texas Tech Red Raiders who hold wins over Texas A&M, SMU, and Baylor. The two teams collide Saturday afternoon at Houston.

Texas Christian, 7-6 loser to Oklahoma A&M last Friday night, will entertain Oklahoma's big, bruising Sooners at Fort Worth. Baylor's trampled Bears lay off to prepare for the Texas invasion next week.

Defeats to Arkansas, SMU or Texas this week would all but mathematically eliminate them from the championship picture. Texas A&M, currently tied with Rice for the Number 1 spot, would have to overcome an Arkansas defeat by taking SMU, Rice and Texas later in the season to keep in the running.

An Arkansas win over the Aggies, however, would place all-out emphasis on the Little Rock clash next week between the Razorbacks and the Owls.

Both the Razorback-Aggie and Mustang-Longhorn tilts should be thrillers.

Bulldogs Go Into Drills For Bulky Bobcat Invasion

By TANNER LAINE

The bulky San Angelo Bobcats will invade Midland Friday night, and Monday the "comeback" Midland Bulldogs started practice drills to get ready for the Tom Green County clan.

Monday's workout was expected to be devoted in the main to working out the kinks from the 27-12 victory over Abilene. Several of the lads got hard licks in that one. For example Dunny Goode, ace wingback, got a crimp in his back from throwing a block.

The weight chart shows just how bulky the Bobcats are: Harold Headrick, tackle, 195 pounds; Bill Gill, tackle, 180 pounds; Jimmie Haralson, tackle, 210 pounds; Robert Ellis, end, 197 pounds; Robert Minica, halfback, 180 pounds; and so on down the line.

Headrick Is Good
Headrick, the big tackle, is the sole of San Angelo's defense and is a strong candidate for all-district. The "Cats will be tough for Midland as they hope to come back from a terrific 64-0 licking administered by Odessa last week.

Season performances indicate Midland should handle San Angelo, provided the boys aren't overconfident.

The Bulldogs will depend on spinners and quick-opening holes at the middle and passing. Speed in this game is all Midland's although San Angelo has Brian Roberts, scabbard, who can step it off quickly.

The Texas schoolboy football campaign rattles into November with only eight undefeated, untied teams but with favorites pronounced in all of the sixteen districts.

This week really starts the championship grind with all districts having conference games.
The downfall of Wichita Falls and Galveston featured last week's play and shoved Highland Park (Dallas), loser of two games by one-point margins, into the top tier of state rankings.

Highland Park, which fell to Sherman and Marshall, walloped highly-rated Wichita Falls 20-0. Meanwhile, Graham was pushing its way into the favored spot in District 2 by crushing Electra 55-0, a team Wichita Falls beat by four touchdowns.

Galveston was eased aside 7-6 by Orange which took over the leadership in District 14. Galveston outplayed Orange but couldn't outscore it.

Eight Perfect-Record Teams
The list of undefeated, untied teams in the state now reads: Borger, Graham, Odessa, Sherman, North Side (Fort Worth), Marshall, Orange and Austin. In addition to Galveston, Brackenridge (San Antonio) also tumbled but this was expected. However, the Eagles played mighty Austin to the hill before losing, 21-14, auring trouble aplenty for the Maroons when they meet Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio) next week. Jefferson, the critics say, is stronger than Brackenridge.

With the toppling of Wichita Falls, there are five teams left without defeat but which have been tied. They are Pasadena, Sweetwater, Laredo, Thomas Jefferson and Lamar (Houston).

Few of the unbeaten teams appear in danger this week. In the first place Graham, Odessa, Austin and Thomas Jefferson do not play. Laredo appears to have the toughest row, meeting once-beaten but still powerful Corpus Christi.

As the field swings into the November stretch the district favorites look like this:
1—Borger. 2—Graham. 3—Odessa. 4—Ysleta. 5—Sherman. 6—Highland Park. 7—North Side. 8—Sunset (Dallas). 9—Brackenridge. 10—Waco. 11—Marshall. 12—Lufkin. 13—Lamar. 14—Orange. 15—Austin. 16—Brownsville.

Army And Irish Remain Immune From Upset Bug

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK — (AP) — Army and Notre Dame, still immune to the "upset epidemic", led the parade Monday as the college football campaign headed into its final month. With UCLA, Pennsylvania, Georgia and Harvard they remained the only undefeated, untied major elevens.

Army made it 24 straight with a 19-0 win over a stubborn Duke team; Notre Dame cracked its Iowa jinx by blasting the Hawkeyes 41-6; powerful Penn rolled over Navy 32-19; UCLA's Bruins moved a step nearer to the Rose Bowl with a 33-7 romp over Santa Clara; Georgia pulverized Furman 70-7 and Harvard squeezed by Holy Cross 13-6.

Three teams—Texas, Tennessee and North Carolina State—boasting untarnished records up to last Saturday, fell by the wayside. Northwestern, Oregon and North Carolina U., each tied once, remained unbeaten.

The pigskin spotlight next week will center on the South where the Georgia Bulldogs take on Alabama. The Crimson Tide, Rose Bowl champions, bounding back from an unexpected defeat by Tennessee with a 21-7 win over Kentucky last Saturday, will provide the sternest test yet encountered by Georgia, which has knocked off five foes in a row.

Georgia Tech tangles with the Duke team which gave Army some anxious moments, and in Knoxville, Tenn., where the once-beaten Tennessee Vols attempt to hang the first defeat on North Carolina.

In the Southwest, Rice and Texas A&M, tied for the conference lead, take on Texas Tech and Arkansas, respectively, in a pair of games that may scramble the standings. Texas, victim of a stunning 18-13 upset by Rice's fighting Owls, tries to regain some of its fading glory against formidable Southern Methodist.

The Big Nine dominates the Midwestern section. Illinois takes on Iowa. Michigan plays Minnesota. Ohio State meets Northwestern, and Wisconsin plays Purdue. Indiana clashes with Pittsburgh.

The Far West presents three important games, headed by the UCLA-St. Mary's tussle Friday night. On Saturday, Southern California meets Oregon and Stanford tackles Oregon State.

While Rice's victory over Texas rated as the week's most amazing upset, Wake Forest's 19-6 triumph over Tennessee was wholly unexpected.

KILGORE — (AP) — Four teams, Tyler, Henderson, Jacksonville and Lufkin, have withdrawn from the East Texas Baseball League and will join four other city representatives, Kilgore, Marshall, Longview and Bryan, to form the Lone Star League next year.

The action was taken here Sunday at a meeting of East Texas League officials, the meeting being attended by representatives of seven cities which did not participate in the circuit's operations this year.

East Texas officials plan to operate during 1947 as a Class B league, while Lone Star officials plan to seek Class C classification.
