Lewis, Government Talk New Wages

By HAROLD W. WARD

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The government sat down to talk over new wage demands with John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers Friday as the private owners of the coal mines contended any new concessions to Lewis would be "a public disgrace".

Lewis sent a delegation headed by John O'Leary, vice-president of the AFL Mine Workers' Union, to represent him in a conference with Federal Coal Mines Administrator N. H. Collison. Lewis himself was absent when the meeting opened.

Shell To Test Top Of Ellenburger In I-E Scarborough

By JAMES C. WATSON
Oil Editor

Shell Oil Company, Inc., No. 1-E Scarborough, Northwest Andrews County wildcat, was bottomed at 9,428 feet, in a dense, lithographic Ellenburger limestone, and was to take a drillstem test.

Top of the formation was picked at 9,390 feet, on an elevation of 3,335 feet. Most geologists correlate it extra high to the nearest points of control.

Operator reported that no oil stains had appeared in the drilling cuttings washed up from the section of the Ellenburger so far penetrated.

The project is in the Union area, where the current production is from the lower Permian above 7,000 feet. The location is 662 feet from south and west lines of section 11, block A-31, rd. survey.

Locations for wildcats in Southeast Dawson County, and in Central-West Pecos County were reported Friday, for immediate activity.

Ray A. Albaugh of Lamesa filed application with the Railroad Commission of Texas to drill his No. 1 O. H. Morris, in Southeast Dawson to 4,000 feet, with rotary, starting at once.

It is 660 feet from north and east lines of northwestern quarter of section 23, block 34, TP survey, and is four and one-half miles northwest of Ackerly.

The Pure Oil Company No. 1 J. S. Gates, 672.6 feet from west and 1,979.2 feet from south lines of section 11, block 121, GC&SF survey, and 20 miles southwest of Fort Stockton, will drill with cable tools to around 2,500 feet to explore the top of the Permian lime.

It is five miles east and one and one-half miles south of the same company's No. 1 Harrison, old dry hole at 5,000 feet, near Chancellor, which is to start operations at once to deepen to 10,000 feet, and possibly deeper.

Stanford Oil & Gas Company and Westbrook-Thompson Holding Corporation No. 35-A Hendrick, Central-West Winkler County wildcat, four miles west of Kermit, swabbed 14 hours on perforations in the top of the Ellenburger at 13,385-560 feet, and recovered 129 barrels of salt water. Swabbing was continuing.

Water And A Little Oil
Stanford No. 1-GG University, Northeast Crockett County prospector was swabbing on the Ellenburger at 8,298-8,381 feet.

In last 24 hours, reported, recovery was 145 barrels of water and 14 barrels of oil. The formation had been acidized and had also been shot with nitro-glycerine.

Fred Turner, Jr., No. 1 Fisher-Shell, North-Central Andrews County wildcat, in northeast corner of section 16, block A-36, psi survey, and in Shafter Lake, had reached 3,380 feet, in anhydrite, and was drilling ahead.

Hallowe'en Rough Over State, But Orderly In City

By The Associated Press

The witches were wild in Texas Thursday night and police in several cities said it was the roughest Hallowe'en in years.

Corpus Christi officers said it was the most destructive Hallowe'en observance in the city's history. Tricksters there smashed several downtown plate glass windows, showered buses and cars with rocks.

Midland police had nothing but praise for the youngsters of the city Friday morning after a check-up of Hallowe'en damage. There was not one item on the police records of wanton destruction. In fact there was not one notation of harmful pranking.

Parent-teacher sponsored carnivals accounted for the good record in Midland, Police Chief Jack Ellington pointed out.

Hundreds of citizens, many of them masked, scurried through the business district, marking store and car windows with soap, tooting horns, and generally making merry, but most were just on the way from or going to Hallowe'en parties given by schools, churches, or in private homes.

and turned hijackers by blocking streets and demanding money from motorists, threatening to damage or steal parts of cars if money was not paid.

Norma Jo Darby, 15, suffered a head injury when she fell from a rear bumper of a city bus where she had hitched a ride with other Hallowe'en pranksters.

Fire departments reported numerous false alarms.

At San Antonio, among the more serious tricks was throwing gasoline on lawns, and setting fire to it. This prank was blamed for a blaze which caused $125 damage to a garage and store room.

Between 25 and 30 fire hydrants were turned on in the Alamo City. Struck By Car

Busy with thoughts of Hallowe'en, Lewis wisely, 9, of Dallas was struck by car and critically hurt as she raced across a street, masked and gaily clad in a black and red Hallowe'en dress.

It was a wild night in Dallas, but mostly just good, clean fun. One woman was treated for firecracker burns.

Police frequently had to clear streets of piles of cans and boxes. A streetcar ran off the end of the line where some prankster had greased the tracks.

The Hallowe'en prank that had created possibilities occurred near McAllen.

Police discovered an eight-foot railroad tie placed across the Southern Pacific tracks inside the city limits.

They removed it just before the night passenger train en route to Brownsville from San Antonio and Houston arrived.

Downing Becomes C Of C Manager

Delbert Downing, Midland resident since 1939, Friday became manager of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, O. C. Harper, president, announced.

Downing succeeds Bill Collyns who held the position since September 15, 1936. Collyns resigned to become editor of The Midland Reporter-Telegram.

Collyns will leave Friday night for Washington where he will represent the Chamber of Commerce at a hearing before the Civil Aeronautics Board Monday. The Midland Chamber is an intervenor in the hearing in which Continental Air Lines, Inc. is seeking permanent authorization for its Hobbs-San Antonio flight via Midland.

A former president of Midland Jaycees and an active civic leader, Downing resigned as assistant manager of the Scharbauer Hotel to become Chamber of Commerce manager. He served 17 months overseas as a Red Cross field director during World War II. Downing came to Midland in 1939 as manager of Safeway Stores, Inc.

Cephelia Greene, office secretary at the Chamber of Commerce, will continue in that position.

Chinese Pirates Kill Four, Wound Seven

CANTON—(AP)—Four persons were reported Friday to have been killed and seven wounded by a band of 15 Chinese pirates who boarded a Canton-Wuchow passenger vessel, engaged in a gun fight with the crew and made off with a fortune in Chinese currency.

Chinese Army Makes Gains On Communist

PEIPING—(AP)—Chinese Government armies, increasing the tempo and range of their civil war, rushed vanguards to within 33 miles of Dairen Friday, encircled 10,000 fiercely fighting Communists in Chefoo, and engaged their countrymen in half a dozen other sectors.

The pro-government Jih Pao said vanguards reached Pulantien, only 33 miles north of Dairen on the border between Manchuria and Kwantung Peninsula. Their objective is to cut off the Liaotung Peninsula Communists from the Manchurian mainland. The Nationals had driven south down the Mukden-Dairen railway.

Government sources previously said Gen. Tu Li-ming's troops, fresh from capturing Antung, would not menace Dairen itself.

Nationals struck at Chefoo and the Shantung Peninsula to cut off the Reds' Yellow Sea route to Manchuria. One of the four largest ports on the northern coast, and engaged Chinese Red forces in two others.

Public Panel On How City Can Aid Children Planned

A public panel discussion on "The Child Challenges the Community," led by Judge Cecil C. Collings and including other civic leaders, will be held at 7:30 p. m. Thursday in the City-County Auditorium.

Held under the auspices of the Midland County Child Welfare Board, the discussion will include talks on the child challenges the courts, the child challenges the schools and the child challenges the home.

District Collings, justice of the 70th District Court, will present the point of view of the court which handles dependency situations and adoptions.

Other Speakers
Judge Elliott H. Barron will speak as judge of the Juvenile Court, while Frank Monroe, superintendent of schools, will discuss the child as he comes to the school, how the school can meet the needs, and how the child as to his needs.

Mrs. George D. Putnam will talk on the child and the home and how the home can meet the needs of the child.

Sheriff Ed Darnell and Police Chief Jack Ellington will sit in on the panel.

Following the talks, the public will be requested to take part in the discussion, ask questions, and express its point of view.

Houdini's Ghost Fails To Appear At Seance

DETROIT—(AP)—The ghost of Harry Houdini shunned a Hallowe'en seance Thursday night, disappointing 13 magicians who met at midnight in a candle-lit room in an effort to contact the magician's spirit on the twentieth anniversary of his death here.

Promptly as the clock struck 12, and while sounds of Hallowe'en celebrations echoed through the downtown area, the ceremony started. The participants included professional magicians and amateurs—ranging from business men to a police sergeant.

Quietly seated themselves in a circle, leaving a fourteenth chair vacant. On it were placed mementos of Houdini's life—his favorite handkerchiefs, an autographed picture, a broken magician's wand and a copy of one of his books.

As the lights were dimmed, magician Bob Underwitter called on the spirit to make itself known. Tensely, the group watched the fourteenth chair. Not a sound was heard as the room remained in almost complete darkness for five minutes.

Underwitter was philosophical about the failure to make contact beyond the grave.

"We didn't fail, we just haven't succeeded," he said.

Earthquake Recorded

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A "very strong" earthquake, apparently in the Aleutian Islands off Alaska, was reported Friday by Georgetown University.

Father Edward R. Powers, seismologist, said the disturbance began at 6:25 a. m. (EST), reached a maximum intensity at 6:58 a. m., and still was being recorded at 7 a. m.

He calculated it occurred 4,300 miles northwest of Washington and said this place was in the Aleutians.

Weather

Not much change in temperature; possible clouds Saturday. Maximum temperature Thursday was 87 degrees, minimum 70 degrees.

Queen Of North Texas State College

To choose a queen from the large number of lovely girls from North Texas State College at Denton, Texas, was not easy, but Beauford Jester, right, governor-elect of Texas, did not shirk his task. He invited all the charming girls to Austin for luncheon, after which he chose Miss Rose Marie Royall of Athens, Texas, as the new queen of North Texas State College.

Security Restrictions Clamped On Palestine

JERUSALEM—(AP)—Rigid security restrictions were clamped on all Haifa Friday as 1,200 Jewish refugees were transferred from a dangerously listing immigrant ship to two British vessels for deportation to Cyprus.

Two thousand Jews, leaving a Haifa mass meeting which protested further deportations, marched on British street barricades toward signs in Hebrew and English reading "disperse or we fire". They dispersed after singing nationalist songs.

Meanwhile, the Palestine Arab Army Futuwwah was summoned for a parade and mass meeting in Nablus, 33 miles north of Jerusalem, and some Arabs pictured this as a "show of strength".

Haifa's 60,000 Jews were idle from 8:30 to 11 a. m. in a general protest strike. They held a mass meeting on Hadar Hacarmel as the immigrant ship, apparently lashed to two minesweepers, appeared in the harbor.

The British Army meanwhile counted a three-day toll of five soldiers' lives. Two were killed Thursday night and two others were wounded critically near the all-Jewish city of Tel Aviv when their truck hit a road mine.

Two Councils Join
The Inner Zionist Council and the Jewish National Council joined in denouncing methods of underground Jewish extremists. One of the underground groups, Irgun Zvai Leumi, broadcast a declaration that it was prepared to fight both the British and any Jewish organization which attempted to interfere with it.

Off Haifa, the immigrant vessel, identified as the San Dimitros but called in the Hebrew the Latrun, after the Palestine detention camp, listed so badly part of her keel paint could be seen.

All the port area was under a rigid curfew and the security regulations were so strict that even customs, health and immigration officials were barred from their offices.

A general strike of all Palestine Jews was proclaimed for Sunday to protest the new deportations.

Search Pressed For Killer Of Forney Man

WICHITA FALLS—(AP)—Search for the killer of Marlin Camp, Dallas, and Wichita Falls newspaper distributor shot to death Thursday near Bowie, centered Friday in the vicinities of Alford and Fort Worth.

Camp's bloodstained automobile was abandoned near Alford. His body, two bullet wounds in the head, was found beside the highway, several miles away.

E. R. Browning, Texas highway patrol officer at Fort Worth, headed the search for a curly-haired man seen with the 26-year-old victim in Wichita Falls shortly before he left on the return trip to his home at Forney, Kaufman County.

Camp, an ex-service man, distributed the Dallas Morning News to Northwest Texas agents, and carried the Wichita Falls Record News on his return trips.

Paying Power Might Want Half Of Control

By LARRY HAUCK
LAKE SUCCESS—(AP)—Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg (R-Mich.) Friday sharply attacked the proposed United Nations budgetary plans with the flat assertion that the United States was not ready to pay 50 per cent of the administrative costs as suggested.

Vandenberg, a United States delegate to the UN, leveled his broadside at the whole financial setup of a general assembly split into 51-nation committees to begin the task of debating more than 50 items on a crowded agenda.

Coupling his stand with a strong appeal for economy, Vandenberg told the financial committee that the United States felt that the capacity-to-pay yardstick advanced by the UN as a sole basis for assessments to be "inadequate and unreliable".

"The United States is unable to accept the flattering concept that its economic system is so good that it gives five per cent of the people 50 per cent of the earning capacity of the world," he said. "If our economic system is that good we might suggest that the other United Nations adopt it."

Vandenberg said that his government was ready to pay 25 per cent, which he wanted established as a permanent ceiling on the total to be assessed against any one government. However, the senator said his government was ready to urge Congress to approve 33 per cent for 1947 on a strictly temporary basis.

U. S. Might Want Control
After the meeting, Vandenberg told newsmen that any nation paying "one-half would soon want half the authority." He stressed that he was discussing only the administrative budget, and that the United States was willing to pay more of operational expenses covering such agencies as the international relief organization.

The committee received tentative budgets for $19,627,964 for 1946 and $23,790,008 for 1947.

So far the United Nations has been paying bills from a $25,000,000 working capital advanced by the 51 nations. The assessment basis for the regular contributions will be decided at the current assembly session.

"Peace is worth whatever it may cost," he said, "but the UN will regress when any peace-loving nations can no longer afford to belong. It also will regress if it concentrates too much of a burden on one or two members."

Vandenberg said he could not accept any plan to "manipulate" assessments so that the burden falls on a few, declaring that it would not be long before the few would be insisting on special rights.

"Equality of nations could not survive a fiscal system giving 50 per cent of the budget to any one nation out of 51," Vandenberg declared.

Dr. C. L. Hsia of China immediately took the floor to agree with the senator's statements.

Permanent Sites Discussed
On another front the United States asked the UN to broaden its consideration of a permanent site to include the Flushing Meadows area of New York City, where the assembly is meeting, and the San Francisco Bay area.

In a formal statement Warren R. Austin, chief of the U. S. delegation, said he favored including these two locations in the possible areas along with New York's Westchester County which has been under study by a special commission.

Meanwhile, the United States delegation was reported considering its approach to the question of the big power veto in the assembly committee. While no definite decision was made on the exact stand to be taken, it was previously understood that the United States opposed any charter amendment but instead hoped to get private agreements among the major powers to limit use of the special voting right.

First GI Leave Pay Check Arrives Here

GIs of Midland, your bonds and checks are on the way.

What probably was the first terminal leave pay to reach here was received by Merritt F. Hines, former GI and Midland County service officer, Thursday.

A bond for him came in Thursday's mail and then a check. Checks for GIs are for amounts below $50.

Hines believes he was the first ex-soldier to mail his application for the terminal pay due former enlisted men. He has assisted many Midland County boys in forwarding their applications and said "yours is coming, fellows."

LATE NEWS FLASHES

ST. LOUIS—(AP)—President Truman arrived here by train exactly on schedule at 11 a. m. (EST), Friday and immediately appeared on the rear platform and greeted a crowd there to see him.

HOUSTON—(AP)—Three persons were killed and three others critically injured Friday when their car left the Galveston highway and crashed into the Simms Bayou embankment.

FORT WORTH—(AP)—A plane, reported to be a twin-engine light bomber, crashed Friday morning in Hood County south of Cresson while apparently attempting an emergency landing in a rainstorm. Two persons were reported killed. The crash occurred on the Burnett-Driskill ranch.

BOMBAY—(AP)—Police and civic bodies took precautions to avert intensified Hindu-Moslem outbreaks during the impending Mohammedan holidays as communal rioting entered its third month here Friday.

Strange Censorship

Strange indeed are the workings of the censorial mind. And none of recent memory is stranger than the mental process which evolved the decision to ban a Japanese newspaper editorial which informed the Japs that General MacArthur was not a living god, and counseled them to begin thinking of him as a symbol of democracy and not "the reincarnation of the Emperor Jimmu".

This editorial first appeared in a paper bearing the fascinating name of Jiji Shimpo. The censors didn't mind its being printed for and read by the Japanese. But when it was translated into English and reprinted in the Nippon Times (whose circulation is largely among Allied occupation troops) the occupation government put the lid on.

By the best American standards, the Japanese editorial was eminently sensible. It deplored the ancient and persistent Japanese habit of hero worship. It pointed out that many who think the American general the last word in human perfection had thought the same thing about Hitler. It cautioned that such thinking might lead to a search for a "superman" dictator, after General MacArthur's departure, who might revive the conditions and thinking that led Japan into the recent war.

Further, the newspaper gave its readers this pertinent definition and admonition: "Democracy means freedom. It asserts human rights and does not entail divine rights or the deification of personalities. If the conception that government is something imposed upon the people by an outstanding god, great man or leader is not rectified, democratic government is likely to be wrecked."

The only objection which we can conceive of, might be to this added piece of advice—but the objection would have to be on military rather than democratic grounds: "The way to express the gratitude of the Japanese people toward General MacArthur for the wisdom with which he is managing postwar Japan and for his efforts to democratize the nation is not to worship him as a god but to cast away the servile spirit and gain the self-respect that would not bow its head to anybody."

Perhaps the occupation authorities prefer a servile people as being easier to manage. It may be that they think of themselves as conquerors rather than as educators who, for the good of world peace as well as of the Japanese, must lead the former enemy nation toward the enlightenment and sense of human dignity which are prerequisites of self-government.

We do not know that this is so. But we are reasonably sure that the Japs are also studying the editorial and wondering at the reasons for keeping it out of the hands of the soldier-citizens of a democratic nation.

It could scarcely be hoped that whatever conclusion they reach would be flattering. And they might have a right to think that if it were not against occupation policy for a Japanese newspaper to preach democracy to its readers, at least it was against that policy to permit the occupation troops to know it.

The identity of the person who issued this censorship order is not revealed. It does not sound like the work of General MacArthur. But whoever is responsible seems not only to have committed a senseless error, but also to have hurt our effort to "sell" democracy to Japan at a time when, beyond the broader and more idealistic aspects of the program, it is decidedly to our national self-interest to do a positive, effective job of salesmanship.

What About That Streamlined Congress?

Now that the meat question is settled, it might be well if the voters heard something from the various candidates for Congress about their present feeling toward congressional reorganization.

There was a lot of enthusiasm and a big vote in favor of the LaFollette-Monroney reorganization bill when it was passed at the last session. But some of the members' pious ardor seems to be cooling.

Old ways of thinking and doing are hard to give up. And some congressmen give evidence that they might like to retain some of the traditional practices which were largely responsible for the streamlining. This seems to be particularly true of committees, whose membership and particularly chairmanship carry prestige and patronage.

The LaFollette-Monroney act trimmed the Senate committees from 33 to 15, and those in the House from 48 to 19. This is all to the good. The old spate of committees was cumbersome, inefficient and time-consuming. But now some of the boys want to stick to the old horse-and-buggy techniques.

This apparently would be possible because, though the reorganization bill is law, no outgoing Congress may impose its rules on its successor. So apparently the new Congress could adopt the old rules when it meets next January.

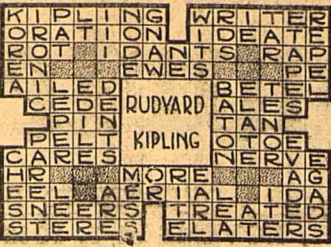

There is some muttering about other provisions of the LaFollette-Monroney act, though some of its reforms are reasonably sure of adoption—especially the one that ups congressional salaries from $10,000 to $15,000. So, since the 79th Congress voted the 80th a raise, perhaps it would be a good idea for the aspirants to express themselves on the subject of doing a more efficient and workmanlike job for their money.

A New Mexico college finds that girls' grades top those of men. It's probably just male courtesy to let the women be first.

North Goldsmith Project
Stanolind No. 1-C R. B. Cowden, is a new exploration on the outside of the proven area for Devonian production in the North Goldsmith field, in Northwest Ector County.
It will be 510 feet from south and east lines of the north half of section 4, block 45, TP survey, T-2-N. It is to drill to around 8,800 feet, starting at once. Operator has filed application with the Railroad Commission for a permit to drill to 8,800 feet. The Devonian pay in the area is around 8,100 feet. It may be that this prospector is slated to explore the Ellenburger. Definite information on that point is not available.
Official report on a drillstem test to 4,880 feet in the Glorietta on Stanolind No. 1-B Staly-Smith, North Ward County wildcat, about three miles west of Mcmahans, had not been released in Midland at noon Friday.
An Unofficial Report
Unofficial sources report that oil stains have been logged in Ray Pool No. 1 Peterson, Northeast Edwards County wildcat, 15 miles northeast of Rocksprings, and in section 44, NF&P survey, in the Ellenburger between 4,445-4,620 feet.
It was indicated that an electric log survey was to be run and that was to be followed by a drillstem test.
No official verification of the report was available.

Lubbock Boy Dies In Airplane Crash

LUBBOCK—(AP)—Orville J. Davis, Jr., about 24, of Lubbock, war veteran and student of Texas Technological College, was killed about 3 a. m. Friday morning when a plane he was piloting crashed into a back yard and alley in the residential section.
He served in the ground forces of the Army Air Corps during World War II, and had been piloting since returning from service, friends said. His parents and two sisters live in Lubbock.
The plane crashed through telephone cables, power lines and an elm tree border.

JayCees Have Girl Scouts As Visitors

Girl Scouts of Midland, who are observing their National Week, were guests of the Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce at its weekly luncheon meeting Friday at the Scharbauer Hotel.
The girls presented the program. Presenting a "shadow story" and singing were Kathryn Myrdal, Marilyn Little, Jeannine McDaniels, Joan Turner and Mary Ann Searles. Girl Scout leaders Mrs. I. A. Searles and Mrs. M. F. McDaniels were present and Mrs. Searles outlined the aims and goals of scouting in Midland and its area. Bill Collyns announced the drive for funds in the city.
Ed Metzger was program chairman. Ted Thompson gave a "get-out-to-vote" talk. Lou Frazen handled a special ticket project. James Mims announced the Jay-Cee-sponsored paving project in Midland was underway.
Tanner Laine, vice-president, was in charge in the absence of President Pootsy Jones.

Cleburne Churches Fired By Unknown

CLEBURNE—(AP)—Investigation officers Friday pressed a search for what they called a "phantom pyromaniac" who set fires to three Cleburne churches early Thursday, and as a guard against further action by the alleged arsonist or arsonists officials of more than 30 churches in Cleburne placed special night watchmen at their churches.
Chief of Police Dewey Jiles said that investigations proved "conclusively" that the fires Thursday were incendiary in origin.
The first fire started at 2 a. m. in a negro church. The building, which was fully ablaze when firefighters arrived, burned completely. The loss was estimated at $1,000. The second fire, reported at 3:30 a. m., was brought under control quickly. Loss was estimated at $400.
The third fire was discovered at 4:30 a. m. by the Rev. E. L. Dennis, minister of the East Side Church of Christ. He extinguished the blaze before much damage was caused.

THE REPORTER-TELEGRAM, MIDLAND, TEXAS, NOV. 1, 1946-3

Fall Tea At Midland Country Club Closes October Social Activities

Closing the social calendar for the month of October Mrs. Alden Donnelly and Mrs. James N. Allison entertained with a Fall tea Thursday afternoon at the Midland Country Club.

Receiving guests at the door were Mrs. Donnelly and Mrs. Allison, who with other members of the houseparty, wore corsages of gladiolas.

The country club reception room was decorated with arrangements of yellow mums, white chrysanthemums, and pyracantha berries.

At the tea table, which was centered with an October arrangement of fruits and vegetables, Mrs. Joe Crump and Mrs. J. B. Richards presided during the first hour and Mrs. Cary Butcher and Mrs. Harvey Conger, the second.

Two pumpkins holding yellow lighted candles centered the table arrangement with nuts, fruits and vegetables forming a mound around the pumpkins.

Other members of the houseparty were Mrs. C. L. Griffin, Mrs. A. Knickerbocker, Mrs. William Y. Penn, Mrs. George Todd, and Miss Ann Lloyd.

READING, HEALTH STRESSED BY SCOUTS IN WINDOW DISPLAYS

"Become acquainted with your library" is the theme of the Girl Scout window display at Dunlap's in connection with National Girl Scout Week now being observed by troops in Midland.

The exhibit, sponsored by the City-County Library features two dioramas of a cave nursery in North China and a school for gifted children near Chungking. They were contributed by the China Aid Council.

At Smith's Men's Shop health is stressed by the Girl Scouts in a tuberculosis window display. "Girl Scouts Recommend Yearly Chest X-Rays" is the theme.

Coming Events

Record Crowds Jam School Carnivals As Youngsters Celebrate Hallowe'en

If a boy or girl in Midland attended one school Hallowe'en carnival Thursday night, he probably attended two or three. For each school carnival was crammed and jammed with 500 to 1,000 happy, hilarious youngsters dressed in masks and the traditional Hallowe'en costumes, making the Hallowe'en parties the most successful in the history of the Midland schools.

Officials in charge estimated a 1,000 youngsters, their parents, and patrons attended the West Elementary School carnival held in the City-County Auditorium; a 1,000 celebrated Hallowe'en at the North Elementary School; 700 jammed the South Elementary carnival and at least 500 persons masqueraded at the High School carnival in the school gym and the Junior High party at the High School stadium.

A "Spook-House" was a favorite with the children at West Elementary, with bingo, a fish pond, fortune telling, a beauty parlor and a general good time also vying for honors.

Loops Live Ducks
At North Elementary, the youngsters threw loops at live ducks, were "made-up" in a beauty parlor (One little girl said she had her face manicured), fished for prizes which included 200 live goldfish, went in a silhouette booth, and consumed 60 cakes and 100 pies, besides candy and soda pop.

South Elementary students and parents had a gay time at a "country store," had their fortunes told, entered a cake-walk, were re-made at a beauty parlor, and played bingo.

With the football stadium as its setting, the Junior High carnival featured a House of Horrors, knocking-down-the-dollies, bingo, plenty of eats, drinks, and a good time for all.

Penny pitching, throwing the bean bag, and dancing kept the high school party-goers busy having a good time. They threw confetti, ate hotdogs, popcorn, candy and helped make Hallowe'en in Midland this year a great big success.

Vet Housing Forum Scheduled Friday

AUSTIN —(P)—American Legion members, Federal Housing Administration officials, an American Federation of Labor spokesman, and a representative of the state government will hold an emergency veteran's housing forum here Friday.

The forum was announced by Bertram E. Giesecke, American Legion Department commander, who said it was the forum's objective to get a roof over the head of every Texas veteran and his family.

Governor Coke Stevenson has named Governor-Nominate Beauford Jester as his personal representative at the meeting.

R. C. Cadwallader, Baton Rouge, La., national vice-commander of the American Legion, will direct the forum. He was named at the Legion's national convention at San Francisco to head a seven-man committee to make an intensive veterans' housing survey in every state in the union.

In France, India ink is called Chinese ink, because it originally came from China.

Midland Looks For Tennessee Horseman

Midland is on the lookout for Jimmy Bennett of Tennessee, who is riding horseback from there to the West Coast.

Bennett left Fort Worth October 20 and is traveling west along Highway 80.

A former Coast Guardsman, Bennett is 23 years old and a tobacco farmer.

Synod Ends Meeting

SAN ANTONIO —(P)—The 91st session of the Synod of Texas of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. (Southern) ended its three-day meeting Thursday after adopting a budget of several hundred thousand dollars.

The Synod instructed its program committee to ask the Synod of Texas, Presbyterian Church, U. S. A. (Northern), to arrange for a joint meeting of the two bodies as early as possible. Dr. R. P. Miller, moderator, said that these two branches of the Presbyterian Church are negotiating for a reunion on a national level. They were separated in 1881 at the beginning of the Civil War.

Refinery Leases Land

EDINBURG —(P)—Bonuses of from $3 to $25 an acre were paid for leases covering 58 acres of land in the McAllen area by Coastal Refineries, Inc. The company recorded the transaction here Thursday with the Hidalgo County clerk.

The company also leased 30.28 acres to be incorporated by March 31, 1947, into a communized drilling block with a well other than the card producer on the east city limits of McAllen, the first to be completed.

T U Children's Home Is Dedicated

GALVESTON —(P)—The Stewart Convalescent Home for children, presented to the University of Texas School of Medicine by Maco Stewart of Galveston, was formally dedicated here this week in connection with a pediatrics conference being held at the school.

Speakers included Dr. Arild E. Hansen, professor of pediatrics and director of the university's child health program, and Dr. Chauncey D. Leake, vice-president and dean of the medical school.

TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Leaving early Saturday morning to attend the State Baptist Student Union convention in Waco will be Ruth Elaine West, educational secretary of the First Baptist Church of Midland.

Miss West will sing at the morning services Saturday. The meet, which begins Friday will close at the morning services Sunday.

Texas Schoolboys Hit Championship Stretch

By The Associated Press
Thirty-four conference games Friday night bring Texas schoolboy football into the championship stretch.

Every district is involved with the top battles at Houston where Milby, a favorite that was upset, seeks to get back into the title running in a game with undefeated John Reagan, and Lamar and Jeff Davis—both unbeaten—clash.

Five of the state's undefeated, untied teams have games but none appears in any danger. Borger meets Plainview, Sherman tackles Greenville, North Side (Fort Worth) engages Pampa, Marshall plays Henderson and Orange tangles with Brownsville. The other three teams with perfect records—Graham, Odessa and Austin—do not play this week.

Four games were run off in the state Thursday night with Amon Carter - Riverside beating Fort Worth Tech 48-7 in the Fort Worth District and San Jacinto edging Stephen F. Austin 7-6 in the Houston District.

In nonconference games Adamson (Dallas) crushed Jesuit (Houston) 55-6 and Sam Houston (Houston) lost to St. Thomas (Houston) 20-0.

RETURNS HOME

J. Roy Jones, 310 South Marienfield, returned Thursday from a visit at a Hot Springs, Ark., hospital with his wife.

Willis-White Motor Company Have Grand Opening Saturday

The grand opening of the Willis-White Motor Company in its spacious and modern new building at the corner of Missouri and Baird Streets in Midland will be held Saturday.

Midland citizens are invited by J. J. Willis and Robert K. (Bob) White to attend the opening and see the fine setup of the company in its new brick building of 10,500 square feet.

The Willis-White Motor Company features Willy's Overland Products and Packard automobiles. It also has GMC products. Sales and service are offered by the company. The service department is featured especially. It has 7,500 square feet of floor space and expert mechanics will service all makes of motor cars.

The sales room and office space of the company occupies 3,000 square feet of the building.

Midland knows White. Displayed for the opening will be the world-famous Willy's Jeep and Jeep Station Wagon and the 1946 Packard Clipper Deluxe and other units which the company offers.

Co-owners of the Willis-White

Motor Company are Willis and White.

Willis is well-known in West Texas automobile sales and service circles. He has extensive automobile and trucking interests in this area. He also operates a ranch southwest of Midland and is well known to Midlanders.

White is a Midlander known by most everyone. He attended Midland High School and was an all-around athlete, starting in football. He was in service four years and was a prisoner of war a year and a half. White was a bomber pilot with the Eighth Air Force.

The service department of the Willis-White Motor Company is one of its prides. Jess Bush is shop foreman. He has many years of experience as a service manager and foreman. He has a fine reputation over Texas for his ability as one of the best in his line.

Mechanics Are Skilled

All mechanics in the shop are highly trained for all types of automotive service. They include Frank E. Allen, who has been serving Midland people 15 years and has 31 years GMC service experience; Winfred W. Simmons, with eight years experience; Binton Newberry, experienced mechanic; and Frank R. Smith, Packard specialist with 15 years automotive service experience.

Duke Jimerson is in charge of the parts department. C. A. Stroud is the bookkeeper.

Three men will be on duty at all times, in uniform, to handle wash and lubrication jobs.

Equipment of the Willis-White Motor Company is the finest and most modern obtainable. Included are high pressure car washers, motor analyzers, complete vacuum cleaning equipment, radiator flushers, Bear front end machine for wheel aligning and balancing.

The concern is conveniently located to downtown locations in Midland. It has three, 16-foot clearance doors for admittance of trucks.

Texas And SMU Meet In Tough Conference Battle

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor
The Southwest Conference football race may be cut to three teams Saturday as Texas, Southern Methodist and Arkansas make their last stands.

Rice, one of the leaders, is safe for the time being as the Owls play outside the conference this week; Texas A&M could have its chances bent but not broken by a defeat, but for Texas, SMU and Arkansas this is the showdown.

Southern Methodist and Texas get together at Austin in an elimination battle. The loser will be considered out of the race for all purposes because it will have two defeats. A tie would virtually kick both elevens out of the battle.

Texas A&M, undefeated in conference play, engages Arkansas at College Station. The Razorbacks must win to cling to a mathematical chance at the title.

Texas Christian, already out of the race with two defeats, plays Oklahoma in one of the few remaining intersectional games on the conference slate. Baylor, which faded from consideration several weeks ago, rests this week preparing for a battle with Texas November 9. Tech Plays Rice

High and mighty Rice takes on Texas Tech of the Border Conference at Houston Saturday. The Owls will be selected at every turn to take this one but indications are that it will be quite a battle. Rice reached a peak against Texas and it won't have the incentive this week against Tech. The Red Raiders, if you don't know, are seeking a clean sweep over Southwest Conference teams. They've already bounced Texas A&M, Southern Methodist and Baylor.

Most of the fireworks are due at Austin as upsurging Southern Methodist goes after a Texas team that's bound to be down in spirit after its unexpected loss to Rice. The Mustangs probably will match the Longhorns in passing and that means a lot of scoring.

A&M is favored over Arkansas but for no particular reason. On the basis of the season record Arkansas should have an even chance at least.

Jet propulsion is being utilized in motorboats. The water-jet outboard motor is considered a cheap means of obtaining faster water transport.

Shade of Sycamore

By PERCY MARKS Author of "The Plastic Age" "A Tree Grown Straight" Etc.

XXXV
GAYLE was disturbed. The campaign glorifying Bart was lasting too long. There was a purpose behind it, something subtler than she had realized. Then a letter came from Nate Kent, and she thought she had at last found the reason. Nate was in a California hospital with a shattered leg.

the Japs showed up, his commanding officer laid him out. The fellows said he threatened to bust Bart and send him home. Anyhow, Bart went into one of his rages. He'd been in the Army long enough to know he didn't dare say a word to the C. O., but the fellows said he raved to them. They told him to shut up.

"I'm afraid I'm out of it for good," he wrote, "but I may hang on to my leg; so I'm not complaining. I don't feel sick, and I have all the time in the world on my hands. I've been planning this letter to you for weeks; now I'm going to write it."

"It gave me the shock of my life to get back here and discover that Bart had been made into a great hero. I've seen some of the stories they've published about him, and I tell you, they've made my blood boil. I guess there's nothing I can do about it; but I can tell you the truth, anyway, and I'm going to."

"Two fellows who were in the fight were with me on the boat coming home, and I got the whole story from them. They don't think Bruce Bartlett's a hero; I can tell you that."

"I think I wrote you once he wasn't a good soldier. He wasn't. He ought to have been in command of a bomber, a man his age and with his experience; but he wasn't considered fit to command. They wouldn't trust the lives of other men to him, but they had to hang on to a crack flyer in times like these; so he was given a fighter to fly where he couldn't endanger anybody's life but his own."

"Here's what the fellows told me actually happened. A big flight of Jap bombers came over escorted by Zeros. No, I've got to tell you about the bawling out first. Bart was in wrong with pretty nearly everybody by then, and he was acting sullen as the devil. Then about half an hour before

"THEN the Japs came. I'm not telling any military secret when I explain the strategy. Everybody knows what you have to do in situations like that. We were badly outnumbered. We didn't have half the fighters the Japs had, but we had one advantage: we could outlast them. They had come hundreds of miles, and if the bombers couldn't get in fast to do their work, the fighters would give out of gas—and the bombers couldn't come in at all if the fighters weren't there to protect them. Those Jap bombers are just sitting ducks if they aren't protected by fighters; so our boys went up with orders to climb clear to the ceiling and stay there. They were on top of the Japs then, and if the Zeros couldn't get them to come down and fight, the bombers had made their trip for nothing."

"Well, the Zeros did everything but thumb their noses at our boys to get them into a scrap, but everybody obeyed orders except that great hero Bruce Bartlett. Maybe he was going to show the C. O. what he could do. I don't know, but my guess is he was just mad. Anyway, he kept coming down and taking cracks at the Japs. They made it easy for him. They were willing to lose the Zeros if they could give the bombers a chance. And Bart was a marvel in a plane. Even the fellows admitted that. He got six all right, but when three of them ganged up on him, another chap couldn't stand it. He came down to help him out. They got him—and they got Bart. You haven't heard anything about that lad. He wasn't a hero. And two of the bombers got in. Three men were killed on the ground, and I don't know how many wounded. You haven't heard about them either."

Gayle sat still for a long time when she had finished the letter. So that's why Octavia Bartlett and Joel Dwight were running their campaign. . . . Probably they knew the true story, too. They couldn't protect Bart in the South Pacific, but they could protect him at home. They could make him such a glorious hero that no one would believe the true story if the Army ever let it slip by its censorship.

ONE day when Gayle came home from work, Mrs. Mays told her a photographer had been there. "Kent and I came home from doing our shopping," she said, "and there this man was with a big camera on a tripod taking pictures."

"What of?" Gayle asked. "The house. I asked him what he wanted them for, and he said he didn't know. His boss had sent him out to get half a dozen pictures of the house, but he didn't know what for. He said he guessed they were for the finance company."

"Whatever for?" "I asked him, and he said they always had pictures of houses they held mortgages on. I don't think he really knew."

"Probably not," Gayle agreed and forgot the incident. It didn't seem to mean anything. But it came back to her mind two days later when she was leaving the plant. She saw two men looking at her and whispering to each other. Somehow, she felt sure they were reporters.

But for two full weeks nothing happened to her directly, though stories about Bart began to appear once more in the newspapers. One hinted that he was to receive posthumously the Distinguished Service Cross, and it was hinted further that the award would be made to Lieutenant Bartlett's small son. "Not if I know it," Gayle told herself. "Never!"

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY America's Card Authority Written for NEA Service

A new event will be inaugurated this year at the Winter National Tournament at the Hollywood Beach Hotel, Hollywood, Fla., namely, the men's national team-of-four championship. It will be held on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, Dec. 11 and 12, concurrently with the national women's team-of-four championship.

The men's pair championship has for years been considered one of the finest of all tournament events and undoubtedly, had it not been for the war, a men's team-of-four would have been started long ago.

Now with all the bridge players planning to attend this winter vacation tournament in Florida, there should be plenty of men on hand to make this a popular event. To win a men's championship, a player has to be on his toes, just as the declarer was on today's hand from the knockout team-of-four contest. West could have made four no trump without any trouble, but the 100 honors influenced the bidding because in knockout team-of-four play, honors are still counted.

At the five-club contract West's natural play would seem to be to win the queen of hearts and pick up the clubs, but this would mean losing two spades and a diamond. This declarer allowed the first heart trick to hold and now the hand could not be beaten. A diamond was discarded on the king of hearts and the fourth diamond established for declarer to get rid of the losing spade.

Although this looks like a double dummy play, the establishment of the fourth card of a suit is the type of play for which all experts are constantly on the alert.

Injury Jinx Hits TU

AUSTIN (P)—The injury jinx hit the Texas Longhorns again this week, and as a result the team's No. 1 and No. 2 tailbacks are expected to be sidelined during Saturday's battle here with the Southern Methodist Mustangs.

A leg bruise suffered three weeks ago and aggravated in subsequent games has kept Ralph Ellsworth out of practice this week.

Byron Gillory, scat back, limped out of practice Tuesday with a foot injury that will permit only limited—if any—service.

And Now There Are Ten

Bulldogs Play Bobcats

Time: Kickoff is at 8 p. m.
Place: Is the Midland High School Stadium.
Event: 3-AA Conference game between the Midland Bulldogs and the San Angelo Bobcats.

Coach Barnes Milam's Midland Bulldogs, the smartly-coached and fast eleven men in Purple and Gold, step into battle Friday night against an invading Bobcat team, which may be fired up and tough for the night.

Midland has everything to win and that goes for losing too. The Bulldogs can win and stay in the district flag race. A loss would eliminate them. San Angelo is out of the running in the conference and wants to drag Midland down with it.

Pep legions of both schools will be on hand and a full stadium is expected for the always colorful battle between the two teams.

Pups Win 27-0, "B" Bulldogs Lose 14-0 In Seminole Tilts

By TANNER LAINE

SEMINOLE—The Pupps of John M. Cowden Junior High School of Midland won a ball game here Thursday night, 27 to 0, over the Seminole Juniors but the "B" Bulldogs ran into a fired-up Indian eleven that smacked them down, 14 to 0.

Coach Ken Kearns' Pups had the situation well in hand as they methodically mowed down Seminole in the first game. The little boys in Purple roared down to a touchdown after taking the opening kickoff. The drive was good for 54 yards. Bobby Holt swept right end for the score from five yards away. Roy Mann ran over the extra point for an early Midland lead that was never threatened.

In the second quarter Mann found a hole at tackle and ran 13 yards for a touchdown. The drive involved 44 yards. Holt ran over the extra point. It was 14-0 Midland at the half.

A pass, Mann to Dwayne Bush, end, was good for 34 yards and the third Pup score in the third quarter. Holt ran over the extra point. Olgin Scores

To make it a touchdown in every quarter the Pupps tallied in the fourth with Frank Olgin, a Mexican lad, running 16 yards wide to the left and cutting back for a touchdown. Pass for point was incomplete to Bush. Score: Midland 27, Seminole Juniors 0.

The starting lineups:
Midland (Pups) Pos. Seminole
Gilmore LE McNew
Mackey LT Matthews
Blackwell LG Friberger
O'Neal C Mann
Kinbrell RG Jordan
Cline RT Thames
Bush RE McWhorton
Holt B Hood
Drake B Marcus
Blansett B Mathis
Mann B Smith

Contributing also to the Pup win were these boys: English, tackle; Kennedy, end; Crowley, end; Masey, tackle; Glass, back; Decker, tackle; Moss, back; Woods, tackle; Culp, guard; Pyle, end; Johnson, center; Locke, end; Thomas, guard; Throckmorton, tackle; C o m e r, guard; Scoggins, back; Dupre, end; Sloan, back.

'B' Bulldogs Hit Snag
Fumbles and a fired-up Seminole "B" outfit beat the "P" Bulldogs. Also a great kicker, Richard Stanfield, field, tackle, kept the Midlanders backed up all night. The little certain Pittsburgh in a non-conference game.

Missouri and Nebraska, tied with Oklahoma for the lead in the Big Six, will attempt to eliminate each other at Lincoln, Oklahoma and Kansas have non-conference dates, the Sooners invading Texas Christian and the Jayhawks entertaining Oklahoma A&M.

Two games are on tap in the Southwest Conference, where Texas A&M shares the lead with Rice after the latter's upset over Texas. These send Arkansas to Texas A&M and Southern Methodist to Texas, while Rice steps out of league play to entertain Texas Tech.

Powerful UCLA, unbeaten leader of the Pacific Coast Conference, also drops out of its title race momentarily to meet St. Mary's at Los Angeles Friday night. But Saturday will find Oregon at Southern California, Stanford at Oregon State, and Washington State at California.

BOWLING

Scharbauer Hotel took three games from Burl's Standard, Tot's Gulf won three over Mabec Drilling, Honolulu Oil tabbed two for Midland and Tire's one, and Permian Well got a couple while Continental Airlines was getting one in matches of the major bowling league of Midland at Plamor Palace Wednesday night.

The Hotelers rolled high team game with a score of 912 and high series with a tally of 2,612. Schneider of Honolulu kegger high individual game with 226 and high series with score of 570.

Mobley Heads Border School Groundgainers

TUCSON, ARIZ.—(AP)—Rudy (Little Doc) Mobley of Hardin-Simmons, dominating individual football performances in the Border Conference, has helped his team out in half University of Arizona's lead in total offense.

Official conference statistics released Thursday credit Mobley with obtaining more than twice as much in ground rushing and twice as many points as any player in the nine-member circuit.

The Little Doc has packed the ball 84 times and gained a net of 245 yards in 52 carries.

Arizona continues to top the conference in total offense with 1922 net yards in five games, but Hardin-Simmons now has a total of 1773 yards in second place. Unbeaten Hardin-Simmons has outrushed Arizona, 1352 to 1195, but the Wildcats compensated for it by passing 727 yards to 421 for the cowboys.

Interscholastic League To Consider Policy

AUSTIN —(P)— Interscholastic League officials will consider policy on several controversial issues when the league's legislative advisory council meets here Saturday.

Up for discussion are the return of the semester rule regarding eligibility for football, the practice of allowing coaches a percentage of athletic game receipts, and high school football trips to colleges and bowl games.

Committee reports on baseball, restoring boys' and girls' debate in Conference AA, the Spring training rules and reclassification will be made.

Between the years 932 and 953, the major Chinese classics were printed in 130 volumes.

Penn, Georgia, And UCLA Risk Perfect Records

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR

NEW YORK —(AP)— Army and Notre Dame, looking ahead to next week's classic which brings the nation's two top football powers face to face, warm up against teams with unimpressive records Saturday as other major elevens attempt to promote a semblance of order in the various conference campaigns.

The first weekend in November finds only half a dozen major teams still in the all-victorious class and not a single conference which can point to any one outfit as making a runaway of the title race.

Pennsylvania, Georgia, UCLA and Harvard, which with Army and Notre Dame make up the select circle of unbeaten and untied teams, all face opponents capable of sending them to join the victims of last week's major upsets — Tennessee, Texas and North Carolina State.

While Army tangles at West Point with West Virginia, Notre Dame will move into Baltimore to test its guns against Navy.

Pennsylvania, the country's No. 3 team, risks its perfect record in an Ivy League game at Philadelphia against the Princeton Tigers.

Georgia pits its 5-0 record against an invading Alabama team, beaten once in six starts, in the Southeastern Conference, where Vanderbilt will be at Auburn and Mississippi at Louisiana State.

North Carolina, unbeaten but tied once, goes to Tennessee, and Georgia Tech plays Duke.

Northwestern goes after its third conference victory against invading Ohio State, which has a win, a loss and a tie in league play. The Missouri and Nebraska, tied with Oklahoma for the lead in the Big Six, will attempt to eliminate each other at Lincoln, Oklahoma and Kansas have non-conference dates, the Sooners invading Texas Christian and the Jayhawks entertaining Oklahoma A&M.

Two games are on tap in the Southwest Conference, where Texas A&M shares the lead with Rice after the latter's upset over Texas. These send Arkansas to Texas A&M and Southern Methodist to Texas, while Rice steps out of league play to entertain Texas Tech.

Powerful UCLA, unbeaten leader of the Pacific Coast Conference, also drops out of its title race momentarily to meet St. Mary's at Los Angeles Friday night. But Saturday will find Oregon at Southern California, Stanford at Oregon State, and Washington State at California.

NEW YORK—(P)—Jack McCrane of Teaneck, N. J., and Lou Viau of New Orleans, stars of the Kings Point football team, are pals but Jack apparently hasn't caught Lou's Southern drawl—in last week's Fordham game, McCrane downed a Ram back with a vicious tackle—as he struggled to his feet, the Fordhamite remarked: "You all tackle pretty hard."—"You all?" Jack replied. "I'm the only guy who tackled you."
