

Top civic awards to be given Monday

"Starting Anew in '82" is the theme of the 33rd annual Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce Banquet, scheduled at 7 p.m. Monday in the County Expo Building.

Tickets are $8 each and are still available through the chamber office.

Citizen of the Year, Citizen through the Years and Teacher of the Year awards will be presented to three local residents.

CofC Manager Delores

Heller said that under consideration were 13 nominations for Citizen Through the Years, six for Citizen of the Year and five for the teacher award. Some of the nominations were carried over from previous years, Mrs. Heller said, adding that a lot of good nominations from the past four years could be drawn on.

The chamber's 1982 officers and directors will be installed during the banquet, also.

Dr. Raymond W. Cook, veterinarian and humorist, will be the banquet speaker.

Dr. Cook is a graduate of Texas A&M University and taught there a year before beginning his veterinary practice in 1959.

"We extend a special invitation to Aggies to make our speaker feel at home," Mrs. Heller said.

For the past 15 years, Dr. Cook has been in demand as a speaker for groups ranging in interests from church to civic work, and service clubs to cattlemen's associations. He likes to motivate his audiences through humor to think in a positive way about life, even when confronted by daily problems and world crises.

Zelda Ellison, popular Dimmitt singer and recording artist, will provide the entertainment.

The decorations for the banquet will stress getting a fresh start and upward outlook in industry and in the community. A shiny new penny will symbolize the hope for good fortune in 1982. Heading the decorations committee is Pam Josselet.

Mrs. Heller asked that anyone interested in helping to decorate for the banquet meet at the Expo Building Monday at 10 a.m. Amstar employees will be setting up the chairs, she added.

County okays salary hikes

MRS. M. L. SIMPSON JR. TAKES OATH OF OFFICE SATURDAY
From District Judge Jack Miller

Mrs. Simpson named county's new judge

Mrs. M. L. Simpson Jr. has succeeded her late husband as Castro County Judge.

The County Commissioners' Court appointed her to the top county post Friday over 15 other applicants, and she took the oath of office Saturday morning.

The commissioners spent 2½ hours Friday interviewing applicants for the post.

The commissioners allowed five to 10 minutes for each applicant to meet privately with them. Of the 16 originally applying for the position, one withdrew his name and one was out of town, so 14 were interviewed.

The final decision came at about 1:35 p.m. Friday when County Attorney Jimmy Davis announced that it was the majority decision of the commissioners to appoint Mrs. Simpson.

The vote was three in favor and one against, with Jimmie Howell casting the dissenting vote. But Howell assured Mrs. Simpson that she would have his "full support and total cooperation."

64th District Judge Jack Miller administered the oath of office to Mrs. Simpson Saturday at 9:30 a.m. in the District Courtroom before an audience of more than 50.

Castro County Attorney Davis was master of ceremonies, and Mrs. Simpson's pastor, Rev. Edward Freeman of the Presbyterian Church, gave the invocation.

Mrs. Simpson's oldest son, Joe Bob Sanders, said on behalf of the family, "We love you an awful lot, and we're not prejudiced, but we think you're going to be the best judge in the whole state of Texas."

Before administering the oath of office, Judge Miller told Mrs. Simpson, "Of course, it (the county judgeship) is the leading county office, and your personality and leadership, the atmosphere which you bring to this office, will permeate down through all the other county offices and set the tone for the entire county government."

"I think that it is important, as you also step into the judicial part of your job, to note that justice is blind, but there are four 'I's' that you always need to keep open. You should make all of your decisions intelligently, impartially, independently and immediately.

"I know that you've had lots of practice bringing up a wonderful family, and you will need this to carry over in your work with the public, because the general public will be looking to you for guidance, and to seek solutions to many types of problems.

"You have already established yourself with the [See Mrs. Simpson, Page 13]

The new Castro County Judge, Mrs. M. L. Simpson Jr., began her first commissioners' meeting with a word of prayer Monday, and the commissioners set salaries for 1982 with pay increases for 27 county employees.

Sheriff Lonny Rhynes asked that the commissioners consider raises for his full-time deputies. It is hard to get good officers, he said, adding that he would like to keep the four he has.

After a lengthy discussion, the commissioners granted $40 increases to the four deputies of the sheriff's department, $40 to all elected officials except the judge, $15 to two deputies of the clerk's office and $40 to 14 maintainer operators.

Those affected include: —Sheriff's Deputies Ray Aleman Jr., W. J. Crews, Jerry Jansa and Ronald Jenkins.

—Commissioners Ed Bennett, Edd Wilson, Jimmie Howell and Al Maurer.

—Sheriff Rhynes, County-District Clerk Zonell Maples, Tax Assessor-Collector Billy Hackleman, Treasurer Oleta Raper and Justice of the Peace Marshall Young.

—Clerk's Deputies Joy Jones and Elsie Maxwell.

—All maintainer operators except the newest one, who will receive a $50 raise after working for the county for six months.

The vote to increase the salaries was 3-1, with Howell casting the dissenting vote.

Salary increases will total approximately $13,800. "Of course this increase isn't anything compared with the cost of living," Commissioner Wilson commented.

The county governing board tried to keep the increases in line with the present budget to keep the budget in the black, even though a 6.84% across-the-board increase had been allotted in the original budget. With the projected 6.84% increase, the budget would have shown a $24,000 deficit.

However, recent adjustments to the original budget included the unexpected receipt of $99,743.84 in lateral road funds, an accumulation of three years' funds plus interest.

With that additional capital and expenditures of micro-filming county deed records, the newer tractor purchase for the local fire department and the salary increases of $13,800, the county should operate about $79,000 in the black, commissioners said.

TCGA to present 'best lineup ever'

Congressman Kent Hance has confirmed that he will attend and speak at the ninth annual meeting of the Texas Corn Growers Association next Thursday.

The convention will be held at the County Expo Building, starting at 9:30 a.m., and will include a free barbecue lunch. Theme of the annual meeting will be "Farm Crisis of the 80's — Weathering the Storm in Agriculture."

Justice of the peace announces for new term

Castro County Justice of the Peace Marshall Young announced this week that he will seek re-election to the office, subject to the Democratic Party primary in May. He has served as justice of the peace for Precinct 2 since January 1975.

"I count it an honor to have served the people of Castro County for seven years as your justice of the peace. I appreciate the cooperation that I have received during my tenure in office so far," Young said.

Marshall Young

He added, "During my tenure as justice of the peace, I have completed the required 180 hours of continuing education from Southwest Texas State University in criminal law process, court procedure, misdemeanor and examining court, and inquest procedure."

Twenty hours of continuing education are required by the state each year, Young explained. "I have also acquired 20 hours through the National Judges Association for Non-Attorney Judges," he added. Young is a member of the Texas Justice of the Peace Association, the West Texas Justice of the Peace Association, and the National Judges Association for Non-Attorney Judges. He has attended the yearly seminars sponsored by each of those associations.

Young has been a resident of Castro County for 29 years and graduated from Dimmitt High School in 1961. He and his wife, Carolyn, have one daughter, Carlyn Kay, 14.

He enjoys hunting and fishing and works with Kids, Inc. each year in its basketball program.

"Your help and support will be greatly appreciated in the upcoming primary and general election this year," he said.

DISD sets 'final offer' on insurance settlement

The Dimmitt School Board at its Monday night meeting instructed Supt. Robert Ryan to make a final settlement offer to Texas Employers Insurance for water damages to Richardson Elementary incurred through the alleged negligence of Lydick Roofing, insured under the company.

Damage estimates compiled by the school total $73,379.17, while the amount the insurance company says it will allow is only $60,214.62.

School District Business Manager Gene King said that if the insurance company rejects the school's final settlement offer of a compromise amount, the school will consult its attorney and, as a last resort, take the matter to court for the full amount and attorney's fees.

Board members agreed to authorize Ryan to make the settlement offer, and agreed to resort to legal means if that fails.

King said, "I do not think our school taxpayers should have to pay any part of damages resulting from someone else's carelessness."

The board called for the 1982 trustee election to be held Saturday, April 3. The terms of board members Charles Wales and Jimmy Cluck are expiring.

Increasing enrollment in the school's Trainable Mental Retarded unit was reported to the board by Plan A Supervisor Nathan Lockmiller; and the unit's teacher, Mary Hunter, described the class's typical daily schedule and explained the teaching program used for the students who range in physical age from seven to 19 years and in mental age from six months to seven years.

Other top names on the agenda are Texas Agriculture [See TCGA to, Page 13]

The two remarked that visiting supervisors have praised the local unit and have taken note of the progress of several individual students as well.

The program uses materials from the Skills to Achieve Independent Living (SAIL) program and the Radea program.

"SAIL teaches personal management, home management, applied academics and community access, while Radea breaks down simple everyday skills into manageable tasks for the students," Mrs. Hunter said.

"One of our main goals is to teach these students acceptable behavior patterns, because the measure of acceptance they obtain from the community has a lot to do with the measure of success they will obtain," Lockmiller said.

In other business, the board: —Renewed Supt. Robert Ryan's contract through June 30, 1983.

—Accepted the resignations of fourth grade teacher Jo Crabtree, first grade teacher Rochelle Oldham, and Jana Mussett, Plan A Resource teacher.

—Hired fourth grade teacher Tina Burrell, special education teacher Darla Myatt and elementary reading resource teacher Centrie [See DISD Sets, Page 13]

Hance urges 25% set-aside

US Rep. Kent Hance has asked Secretary of Agriculture John Block to consider a 25% set-aside reduction in acreage of feed grains, cotton and wheat.

In a letter to Block Friday, Hance said farm prices are extremely depressed because of an over-supply situation created by the grain embargo of 1980.

Hance said the set-aside or acreage reduction program would be intended to "strengthen farm prices and restore agriculture as a more stable sector of our economy."

This should be coupled with a graze-out provision on the wheat acres which are to be set aside, he added.

To enforce this provision, Hance advised Block that farmers who choose not to comply with the set-aside program would then not be eligible to participate in any other government farm program, such as Commodity Credit Corp. loans or Farmers Home Administration loans.

"The adoption of such a policy would be a tremendous budget savings," Hance said, "because less money would be paid out on target prices."

"The farmers of West Texas have indicated very strong support for such a program and we all know that farmers cannot continue to produce food and fiber for this nation and the rest of the world at prices below the cost of production," he said.

Wilson seeks new term as Pct. 2 commissioner

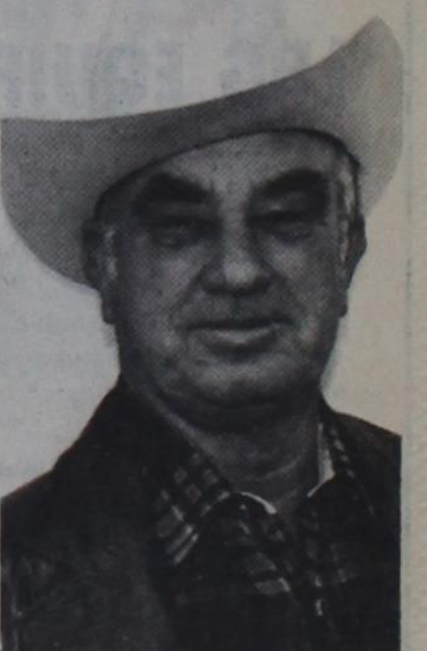

Edd Wilson announced this week that he will enter the Democratic Party primary in May for re-election to the office of Castro County Commissioner of Precinct 2.

He has served as county commissioner since 1974 and is seeking a third four-year term. Wilson is a licensed real estate broker and is engaged in farming. He has lived in Dimmitt since 1945.

"It is my desire to continue to work with the county court on the precinct lines and voting boxes to represent all the people of the county," Wilson said.

"In the past, the county and city, the police, sheriff's and fire departments and ambulance service have worked together to save tax dollars. I am most appreciative of the results of the cooperation by these organizations, and I wish to continue the relationship," he added.

He expressed his appreciation "for all the cooperation and support given to me from the entire county."

Edd Wilson

"I will appreciate any consideration shown me in this election and will try to make decisions in a fair and impartial manner," Wilson said.

Man has been seeking the answer to many questions since the beginning of time. Volumes of books, and encyclopedias have been filled with facts in answer to this quest for knowledge.

of this wealth of information, there is much to be learned, and man will never know all of the answers. However in spiritual matters, God has provided us with a book, filled with valuable information.

This book is man's guide to his relationship with God. For a better understanding of God's word and his will for your life attend church, so that others may help you in this search.

THE CHURCH IS GOD'S appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor.

Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish.

Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

HOT AND COLD—With the temperature hovering around 20 degrees and the wind-chill level at 4 below zero, Dimmitt volunteer firemen dig out and hose down smoldering cotton from a burning module Tuesday morning on the yard of the North Gin. Firefighting has been tough enough in this area this week, but conditions have been impossible in the Midwest as the massive cold front brought about the coldest week in a century.

Fire marshal reports on progress

Fire Marshal Ron Antelak reported to the Dimmitt Rotary Club Friday about the accomplishments in 1981 and the hopes for 1982 of the Dimmitt Volunteer Fire Dept. He noted that the local department has operated without any loss of life from a fire in Castro County for the past eight years.

In 1981, the department had 72 fires, 26 in the city and 46 in the county. Firemen also attended 49 drills and practices. The Jaws of Life rescue-tool system was purchased in 1981, and the department recently bought a 1973 Freight Liner tractor rig to replace an old tractor for a 2,500-gallon capacity tanker unit. Presently, the fire department has 23 firemen, but it is authorized to have as many as 27 firefighters. Seventeen of the men are state certified. This year, the department has plans for emergency management classes, the emergency medical technician (EMT) training program in March, an arson seminar for law enforcement agencies, the Texas A&M Fire School, and the firemen's annual convention in Amarillo.

Antelak said that the firemen want to use first-aid methods to inform and educate the general public about fire prevention and what to do in case of fire. "We want to continue to save lives and keep the loss of life down," he added.

Hog producers purchase Portales packing plant

Charles Axtell of Sunnyside is one of seven Panhandle hog producers who have formed a corporation to operate Hatch Packing Co. in Portales, N.M. "There was a need to develop additional markets for Panhandle pork, and this new venture has a good potential to do that," Axtell said.

The new corporation is Producers Group, Inc., and was organized Sept. 1 by seven hog producers and four investors. Owners in this area include Sunnyside Pork, owned by Axtell and Jerry Jones of Springlake; Olton Pork Producers, managed by Don Cure; Triangle Pork, owned by Bill Walden; and Walterscheid Hogs, owned by Larry, Leonard and Kenneth Walterscheid.

Hatch Packing Co. is now developing new markets for its pork products. Hatch sausage and fresh pork are now being distributed through Affiliated Foods, and are available locally at Dimmitt Super Market and Taylor & Sons.

Conservation Windbreaks valued at $1,500 per acre

Values of an effective farmstead windbreak are many. Such a windbreak, containing the right tree species properly located, will provide protection from hot, dry winds of summer and from icy blasts of winter winds and snow.

Besides making the farm living area more comfortable during winter months, savings on the annual household fuel bill can be expected where an effective wind barrier is present.

A publication from South Dakota, authorized by Irving Moore and titled "Suggested Guidelines for Estimating the Value of Field Shelterbelts and Farmstead Windbreaks," states that in dwellings protected on three sides by an effective windbreak, fuel savings may run as high as 30% annually. Also, an attractive farmstead windbreak could be valued at $1,500 to $2,000 per acre, Moore said.

Beautification of the farmstead is a prime asset of the well-planned and well-cared-for windbreak. Evergreens and flowering shrubs can be arranged to make the barrier most attractive, adding not only to monetary value, but making the home a much more pleasant place in which to live. A living windbreak is an excellent method of providing wind and snow protection for livestock. Dairy cattle produce more milk and beef herds hold gains better when protected from winter elements.

Living windbreaks furnish nesting places for numerous small insect-eating birds that otherwise might not frequent the area. Windbreaks also provide food and cover for game birds. In short, these greenbelts bring a segment of nature close to the plains rancher and farmer that he and his family might not otherwise be able to observe and enjoy.

The Running Water Soil and Water Conservation District is sponsoring a windbreak tree seedling program again this year. The tree seedlings ordered will be obtained from the Colorado State Forest Service. The tree cost will be $35 per 100 for bare root orders, and $30 per 30 for potted seedlings this year.

Orders are now being taken at the Soil Conservation Service Office located at Third and Bedford in Dimmitt. For further information, call the SCS office at 647-4324.

CINDY CARO AND JOHNNIE CAIN
... New faces at KDHN Radio

Cain buys KDHN

Johnnie Cain is the new manager of KDHN Radio Station in Dimmitt. He is from Bard, N.M. (36 miles east of Tucumcari).

His company, JLP Media, Inc., purchased KDHN from Plains Media, Inc., owned by Jerry Marvin and Susan Hanners. Stockholders in the newly organized corporation include Cain; his mother, Linda Haldane of Burk Burnett; and his grandmother, Madeline Cain of Bard, N.M.

His family has mainly been a ranching family before now, Cain said. The process of buying and selling the radio station began in September. The Federal Communications Commission approved the trade Dec. 22, but the business actually changed hands Dec. 30 when the "deal was closed," Cain added.

The process was completed sooner than he had expected. He said that he had expected it to take another month, at least. Cain's wife, Pat, and their children, Sherri, 3, and Steven, 1, hope to move here this week, Cain said, adding that they will move in a mobile home, but they would like to buy a home in Dimmitt next year.

"Dimmitt is friendly," he said. Another reason he wanted to buy KDHN, he added, was that Dimmitt is "close to home."

Cain had previous work experience in radio. He was with KQAY station in Tucumcari for about a year before buying KDHN.

Another new face at the radio station is Cindy Caro. She moved here in mid-November from Portales, and she has worked in radio for four years. Miss Caro lives with her parents, Ted and Sharon Caro, just south of Easter. She said that she hopes to rent a place in Dimmitt soon.

Other employees of KDHN include News Director John Brooks, Mark Broadstreet, Tony Garza and Paul Weaver. Cain said he plans to add another person to the staff.

He plans to spend the rest of January "getting everything straightened out." However, on Feb. 1, "we will start hitting the air with major changes," he added.

"We're going to revise our format, somewhat. We're still going to be country, of course, but we'll be adding some programs," he said.

The radio station will get new phone numbers later this month to handle two phone lines. They will be 647-4161 and 647-4162.

Office hours at the station are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Mondays through Fridays.

Candidates chosen for REC board

The 1982 nominating committee of Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative met Jan. 5 in the REC headquarters building in Hereford and chose candidates for three places on the cooperative's board of directors.

Selected to represent Deaf Smith County were incumbent Clark Andrews and Carl Kleuskens of the Hereford area. Also selected were Board President Sloan Osborn and Clarence Martin of Parmer County.

The committee decided that newly appointed Director Donald Wright of Dimmitt should run unopposed at this year's annual meeting, slated for March 6 in the Bull Barn at Hereford.

Comprising this year's committee are Bruce Fuller of Dimmitt, Allen Dobmeier of Nazareth, Mrs. Argen Draper of Hereford, Earnest Flood Jr. of Hereford, W. S. "Dub" Ingram and Lawrence Martin of Friona, and Clint Homfeld of Adrian.

Flynt to attend Oklahoma session

American Legion National Commander Jack W. Flynt of Dimmitt will attend the Oklahoma Mid-Winter Conference in Oklahoma City this weekend.

He will be the main speaker at the reception and banquet Saturday. The banquet will honor the department commander and department auxiliary president.

Flynt will also bring greetings to the Rehabilitation Conference on Saturday.

The commander will come home to Dimmitt Sunday afternoon and will stay in Dimmitt until next Thursday morning, when he leaves for Alabama.

PERSONAL bankruptcies have increased by 82% in the past year, primarily due to inflation and the Bankruptcy Act of 1978, says Linda McCormack, a family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Water district begins well depth measuring

The High Plains Water District has begun its annual program of measuring the depth to water levels in more than 900 observation wells scattered throughout the 15-county district.

Castro County irrigators may see a blue and white water-district vehicle in the vicinity of their property in the coming weeks while Don Smith of the district staff measures the 89 wells in the district's observation network in Castro County.

Since most of the wells to be measured are operational irrigation wells, January was chosen to begin observations to allow for a dormant period and well recovery from the cone of depression developed during the pumping season. Wells will be measured to find the depth of "static" water level. After measuring, each well will receive a red district identification tag for the owner's information.

Data gained from this program are used for decline rate projections, determining the amount of water left in storage, and as a basis for the income-tax depletion allowance claims on landowners' tax returns.

The annual measurement program is expected to be completed in February, weather permitting. Data on individual wells will be available within a few days of completed readings, but tabulated data on the entire network is not expected until mid-year.

Nominations due soon for cotton committee

Castro County farmers still have time to nominate the cotton producer of their choice for USDA's upland cotton committee.

"Nominations must be received in our Washington office by Jan. 22 to be considered," county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation official Melvin Barton said.

The Agriculture and Food Act of 1981 requires that a committee be established to study alternative methods of setting premiums and discounts for upland cotton.

The committee will be responsible for recommending optional ways of setting premiums and discounts that will accurately reflect true relative market values and actual market demand for upland cotton, Barton said.

The 10-member committee will include two cotton producers from each of the major upland cotton producing areas. One member will represent cotton merchants and one member will represent textile manufacturers. An alternate will be named for each committee member.

Barton said that nominations should include a biographical sketch showing name, date and place of birth, residence address (include congressional district), employer (include subdivisions and affiliates, business address and occupation), major source of income, membership and offices held, education, and civic activities.

Nominations of those to serve on the upland cotton committee should be mailed to the Director, Analysis Division, USDA-ASCS, PO Box 2415, Washington, D. C. 20013.

MRS. DAVID ALLEN BLAKE
... The former Sherri Marie Axe

Axe-Blake vows recited in Vega

Sherri Marie Axe and Davis Allen Blake exchanged marriage vows Jan. 2 in the Vega United Methodist Church.

Rev. Steve Campbell officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Axe of Vega, formerly of Dimmitt. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Jennings of Canyon and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Axe of Vega.

The groom is the son of Nancy Anderson of Thoreau, N.M., and Joe Blake of Vega. His grandmother is Juanita Blake of Amarillo.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Terri Axe of Vega. Serving as bridesmaids were Donna Duggan and Karen Axe, sisters of the bride, and Anita Blake, sister of the groom.

All the bride's attendants wore identical floor-length gowns of emerald green with draped fronts and short sleeves. Each carried a hand-made grapevine basket filled with baby's breath, pink and cranberry carnations.

Serving as best man was Wade Woods of Springer, N.M. Groomsmen were Ron Blake of Amarillo, Mike Anderson of Thoreau, N.M., and Cliff Gouddy of Wildorado.

Verlon Duggan of Vega and Brian Anderson of Thoreau, N.M., were the ushers.

Soloist was Mrs. Ron Blake of Amarillo, and Carolyn Slutz of Vega was the organist.

The sanctuary was decorated with sunburst candelabra covered with pink and cranberry carnations, flanked by arrangements of white gladiolas, pink and cranberry carnations. The pews were marked with white aisle candles decorated with pink and cranberry carnations and cranberry candles in glass globes.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a formal-length gown of white organza and Chantilly lace. The gown featured a lace-covered standup collar

Newlyweds will make home in South Texas Markley-Herrick vows are recited

After a wedding trip to New Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Steven Daniel Vines will be at home Friday in Tennessee Colony, Texas.

The couple were wed Saturday in the First United Methodist Church of Dimmitt in a formal, double-ring ceremony conducted by Rev. J. Allan Guthrie of the First Presbyterian Church of Sweetwater, a longtime friend of the bride's family.

The bride is the former Jeri Faye Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bradshaw of Dimmitt and the late Walter J. Mann Jr.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Vines Sr. of Palestine.

Escorted to the altar by Ed Standlee, the bride was given in marriage by her family, as pronounced by her mother.

The bride was attired in a candlelight satin dress which she made herself. It featured a modified sweetheart neckline with a stand-up collar in back. The bodice and long sleeves were overlaid with reembroidered lace. A formal-length skirt swept to the back in a chapel train, and the lower edge of the skirt was encircled with a lace ruffle.

The bride also made her fingertip-length veil on a lace framework and edged it in lace matching the dress's bodice.

She carried a bouquet of silk flowers, including white roses and small blue and white flowers intertwined with ribbon in a cascade arrangement. Pearls with a diamond drop worn by her mother at her own wedding were worn by the bride, along with her great-great-grandmother's wedding band. She also had a 1962 penny in her shoe.

Julia Mann of Dimmitt, sister of the bride, served as the maid of honor, and Jamie Skaugen of Lewisville was the bridesmaid. Each wore a taffeta dress styled with a square neckline, three-quarter-length sleeves and a long skirt with a ruffled flounce at the bottom. The maid of honor wore pale blue with a royal blue ribbon at the waist, while the bridesmaid's dress was royal blue with a pale blue ribbon. The maid of honor carried two long-stemmed white roses and the bridesmaid carried one.

Dyrlle Maples of El Campo served as best man and Jackie Gunnels of Tulia was groomsman. Tim Hucks of Pampa and Rick Bentley of Dimmitt served as ushers. Jeffrey Vines, nephew of the groom, served as ring bearer.

Laura Anderson and Debbie Dobbs served as candlelighters, while Lorrie Herber, niece of the groom, was the flower girl.

Music was provided by Mrs. Jim Peggram of Dimmitt at the organ and Kimberly Peggram at the piano, and vocal selections were "Color My World," sung by KaKa Bruegel; "Wedding Song," sung by Miss Peggram; and "The Lord's Prayer," sung by Mrs. Priscilla Teas, sister of the groom.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in Lamar Fellowship Hall. The serving table was covered with a sprinkled with pearls. Lace appliques scattered with pearls outlined the sheer yoke and cascaded onto the fitted Empire bodice, accentuated at the waistline with satin ribbon. Sheer bishop sleeves detailed with lace appliques were gathered into lace-covered cuffs. The A-line skirt was bordered with a lace-topped, gathered flounce that flowed into a chapel-length train.

The fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a lace-covered Juliet cap sprinkled with pearls.

She carried a cascading bouquet of white orchids, stephanotis and baby's breath atop a Bible covered in satin and pearls, designed by her Grandmother Jennings. She also carried wedding rings belonging to her Grandmothers Jennings and Axe for "something old."

A reception was held following the ceremony in the fellowship hall. The table was covered with a white lace cloth, and featured a white tiered wedding cake topped with pink and cranberry flowers. Silver and crystal services completed the arrangements.

Registering and serving at the reception were Andra Dorman and Kim Hall, both of Vega, Sheri Gouddy of Wildorado and Mrs. Ron Blake.

The bride is a graduate of Vega High School and attended West Texas State University in Canyon.

Blake is also a graduate of Vega High School and attended Texas State Technical Institute. He is employed in Perryton.

Sonia Gwen Markley and Brian Densmore Herrick, both of Dallas, exchanged wedding vows recently in the home of the bride's mother, Rosalie Hawkins of Dimmitt.

Roy E. Barringer, minister of the First Christian Church, officiated at the informal, double-ring ceremony.

Maid of honor was Darla Hicks, friend of the bride, and the best man was Lonnie F. Markley, brother of the bride.

Given in marriage by her mother, brother and sisters, the bride wore a navy blue suit with an orchid corsage.

Karen Markley, sister of the bride, sang "The Wedding Song." The bride is a graduate of

City, school filing dates announced

Saturday, April 3, will be a busy day with city and school board elections in Dimmitt, Hart and Nazareth and the board of trustees election for the Plains Memorial Hospital District. In city elections, Dimmitt has two aldermen whose terms are expiring, and a special election will be held to fill the remaining year of the term of the late Roy Lilley. Hart has one city commissioner, Ronnie Truelock, whose term is up. In Nazareth, Mayor John Slavik's term is up along with that of one commissioner. School board elections will have to fill two expiring terms in Dimmitt — those of Charles Wales and Jimmie Cluck. In Hart, three places will have to be filled. Those whose terms are expiring are Larry Lee, Elias Martinez and Mike Reed. The terms of Dennis Huseman and Clyde Hoelting are expiring in Nazareth, and a special election will be held to fill the remaining year of C. D. Kleman's term. Richard Hoelting is presently serving in the position by appointment.

"It will be next week before I have any information on the hospital election," Hospital Administrator Marshall Cook said.

Filings for the city and school elections will not be accepted until 60 days before the elections, or Feb. 2, and the filing deadline will be March 3.

Safety Corner

Home Safety
 You spend much time in and around your home. Make it as safe as possible.

- Test your smoke detectors. If you do not have them, install one near each sleeping area.
- Have a place for everything — avoid clutter.
- Some house plants are toxic. Teach children not to handle or eat them.
- Be sure the insulation you add to your home will not emit toxic smoke or gases if there is a fire in the house.

THE abacus is believed to be exclusively Oriental but it isn't. It was used in early day Greece and Rome and is still in use today in Russia where sometimes the waiters will show the diner an abacus indicating the cost of the meal.

GI life insurance to pay off in '82

Nearly 192,100 Texas veterans who have kept their GI life insurance policies in force will share in a record $664.6 million dividend during 1982. The Texas dividends will total more than $34.3 million, according to the Veterans Administration.

Because of higher interest rates earned by insurance funds, the amount to be paid to policyholders during 1982 is $45 million above the 1981 figure.

No application is needed. Dividends will be paid automatically during 1982 on the anniversary date of the individual's insurance policy.

Policyholders will receive varying amounts depending on the type of policy, the amount of insurance in force, the insured's age at issue or renewal and time the policy has been in force.

Nationally, almost $24 million will be paid to 78,000 World War I veterans with current policies. The average dividend for term policyholders will be $307 and for permanent plan policyholders, $303.

Some 3,124,000 World War II veterans with active policies will share $590 million. Average dividend for term policyholders will be $121. For permanent plan policyholders the average dividend will be $246 and modified life plan policyholders will receive an average of $116.

Korean Conflict veterans who kept their GI insurance in force — a total of 496,000 — will receive an average payment of $71. Their policies earned $35 million during the past year.

More than 161,000 disabled veterans of World War II and the Korean Conflict holding Veterans Special Life Insurance policies will receive an average dividend of $97. This is only the third year dividends will be paid in this program.

A greater share of the higher interest rates was earned by those veterans who converted their insurance plans to permanent type policies rather than continuing to hold the original term policies.

Each of the four participating insurance program funds are a separate entity, accounting for the difference in average dividends.

Guadalupe Ojas of Dimmitt was found guilty in the shooting death of Epifanio Salazar in November of 1980.

The verdict was rendered last Thursday in the 64th District Court before Judge Jack Miller of Dimmitt. Ojas was assessed a term of 15 years in prison.

She had admitted the shooting in testimony during the trial.

Defense attorneys indicated they would file motions for a new trial and an appeal.

Welborn is new youth director

DO SOME foods stick with you more than others? Experts call it "staying quality" or "satiety value," says Mary K Sweeten, an Extension Service foods and nutrition specialist. Fat foods have the greatest satiety value since fat remains in the stomach longer than protein or carbohydrates, she says. Next is protein and then carbohydrates.

Friday is Arbor Day

Friday is an important day for every Texas citizen — it's Arbor Day.

Arbor Day is a day set aside each year to remember one of our most valuable resources — the tree, said Ted Fisher of Austin, Travis County horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Arbor Day began in Nebraska and is now observed across the country during the month of April. However, Texas Arbor Day was set for the third Friday in January by the Texas Legislature in 1949 because January is an ideal time for planting trees.

As to the importance of trees, Fisher cites a number of contributions.

"In addition to providing lumber and paper, trees also purify and beautify," he said.

"They cleanse the air we breathe by absorbing carbon dioxide and returning oxygen to the air. They cool and humidify the air, reduce soil erosion, beautify our neighborhoods and communities, provide cover for fowl and wildlife, and offer a natural challenge for youthful climbers," he added.

"Bearing all these things in mind, trees actually work overtime to make our world a nicer place," Fisher said.

Planting a tree in the home landscape can be a family project while schools and other groups can be involved in tree planting at community parks and playgrounds.

"Nurseries usually have a good supply of different kinds of trees available this time of the year," noted the horticulturist. There are shade, fruit and nut trees adapted to different areas of Texas that can be admired for generations to come if they are planted now and cared for properly.

"Many of the trees we enjoy today exist because those that came before us cared enough to leave something lasting for future generations," Fisher said, adding, "We can do the same by planting a tree on Arbor Day, Jan. 15."

Watson tells Kiwanis 'People are friendly'

"People here are a lot nicer than I expected after watching 'Dallas' on television," Dimmitt High School's American Field Service foreign exchange student Robert Watson of Ireland told Dimmitt Kiwanis Club members in the program at their Monday meeting.

Club member Cliff Lewis invited Watson to speak to the group and show slides of his homeland. His remark about "Dallas" was in response to a question asking him to compare his attitudes about America now and before he came.

Watson also told the group that his homeland is mostly cold and damp in the winter, but that snowfall is a rather sparse occurrence because of the salt air.

He said his family has gas central heating in their home, but tries to supplement it as much as possible with burning various fuels in the living-room fireplace, because the gas is so expensive.

In the business portion of the meeting, club members were informed of a request by Dimmitt High School Principal Alex Glass for the club to once again participate in helping to send a local student to the Presidential Classroom program in July. Club President Jimmy Davis said the matter would be presented at the club's next board meeting.

The club has been invited to send a bowling team to an event sponsored by the Texas-Oklahoma Kiwanis District. Teams must register by Jan. 31. Davis said he thought the event is scheduled in February or March.

Key Clubbers Kim Howell and Angie Kitchens attended Monday's meeting, along with 20 club members and the club sweetheart.

Flynt lauds extension of registration

American Legion National Commander Jack Flynt sent a telegram to President Reagan last Thursday praising his decision to continue mandatory registration of 18-year-old males with the Selective Service System.

Flynt, en route to Little Rock, Ark., for a midwinter conference of the American Legion Department of Arkansas, told the President his decision would signal to the world America's resolve to defend itself and its allies.

"The American Legion along with all Americans who believe our nation is worth defending and sometimes requires personal commitment, congratulates you on your decision to continue draft registration," Flynt said in his telegram. "The American Legion will continue to encourage the fine young people of our country to register and to volunteer to serve. Your decision also tells the world that this nation has the courage and determination to do what is necessary to insure our future and that of our allies and friends."

View from the library

By BRICK AUTRY

This is the story of Herman. Some of you may know Herman. Herman is a recipe with an affectionate name. Herman is also a mess.

It all began when someone copied a recipe on the library machine and Lena, the most creative on our staff, fixed up a batch. At the proper time according to the directions she gave the Herman mixture to this writer.

Now what will a bachelor do with a pint of Herman?

She also left detailed instructions on when to cook with Herman and when to stir him down. She didn't say, however, that Herman was playful.

So as bachelors will do, this writer forgot to look in on Herman. Herman got lonely sitting there in the refrigerator, so he popped out of his little bowl and crawled all over the place.

Imagine the astonishment when, upon opening the door, the bachelor found lurid white tentacles of Herman hanging all over the left-over pork steak. And the smell was overpowering, too.

"Boy, just you wait." Herman responded by slopping in obscene drops into the lettuce.

"You're bound for the oven yet in a pone full of corn bread. Then you'll end up as bird feed." Herman just said "Splat!"

Beware of Herman if you are the inattentive type.

A new book genealogists may be interested in is "Memorial and Genealogical Record of Southwest Texas," a reprint of the 1894 original. More properly, the area is southern Texas. Though the brief biographies are somewhat pompous, the information found in them is good and probably correct since most of the subjects were alive when the book was written. It also includes a short history of Texas up to 1890.

NOTICE

It has been brought to our attention that there have been unauthorized visits to the library during hours it is closed. Patrons seem to have come in while another group was using the meeting room. The reason seems to have been to show visitors the library.

Another complaint arose when a Dimmitt resident was not allowed to show visiting relatives the library for reasons that seemed quite trivial.

Patrons are invited to call library staff in order to show

Social Security in Castro County

By JANICE ULMER

Considerable information has appeared in the various news media concerning erroneous social security payments to dead persons. We have received some additional information I would like to share with you.

The Social Security Administration and the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Health and Human Services are jointly investigating cases where social security benefits are being paid to individuals even though medicare records show them to be dead.

So far this cross check of records has revealed about 8,500 discrepancies out of a total of 20 million checked. Although this is definitely a substantial number, percentage-wise it amounts to less than 1%. The actual figure is .04%.

In some cases, uncashed checks payable to a dead person have been discovered and returned. In other instances relatives and representative payees have fraudulently endorsed these checks.

All cases known to involve fraud are being referred to the Justice Department.

There is also an aggressive effort underway to collect overpayments caused by this problem. The amount of money involved could be as much as $60 million in erroneous payments.

In the state of Texas, 381 cases have been discovered. The number varies from state to state. Wyoming and Alaska have the fewest number of these cases with four and five respectively. On the other hand, New York has the greatest number with 1,647 and California is second with 1,130.

The Commissioner of Social Security, John A. Svahn, has established an ongoing program to cross check Medicare death records with social security's records. In this way it is hoped the problem will be virtually eliminated.

One final reminder to the reader. Please report the death of anyone in your family who received social security as soon as possible. You may do so by calling our toll-free number, 1-800-392-1603. With your assistance and the cross-check already mentioned, we will soon solve this problem.

Brenda Durrett Schulte gets Hall of Fame honor

Sunday at 2 p.m. in Ordway Auditorium at Amarillo College, Brenda Durrett Schulte of Nazareth will receive the award as 1981's Tennis Coach of the Year from the Texas Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame.

In 1981 she coached the Nazareth High School boys' tennis team for the first year, and her boys' doubles team of Calvin Schulte and Perry Brockman won the state championship for Class B schools. Also, her girls' doubles team of Roxane Birkenfeld and Sharon Gerber advanced to the finals in state competition, losing to the defending state champions; and Brenda Hoelting advanced to the state semifinals in girls' singles.

Her girls' team has won the district team trophy for the past two years, and she also coached state champion girls' doubles players Rosemary Schulte and Rachel Pohlmeier in 1976, when she was previously honored as Tennis Coach of the Year.

"I'm very grateful to my students for working so hard," Mrs. Schulte said. "The recognition I have received is partly because of their hard work and being winners. It's been a pleasure coaching them."

Mrs. Schulte, who has a newborn daughter, is not coaching this year. However, she said she is looking into possible coaching opportunities for the next school year.

With last-second shot

Swiftettes knock Sudan from undefeated ranks

The first of the District 5-A "big shootouts" between the defending state champion Nazareth Swiftettes and the undefeated Sudan Hornets Friday night went right down to the final basket.

And it was Nazareth's.

Lofted from 15 feet by Rhonda Hoelting just before the buzzer, the final shot swished through the net to give the Swiftettes a 48-46 victory in an electrifying showdown between two of Texas' top Class A teams.

Hoelting collapsed to the floor of the Sudan High School gym after sinking the winning basket, while all her teammates jumped for the rafters.

The game had gone in spurts all night, with Sudan leading by as many as seven points in the first half and Nazareth by as many as six in the third quarter. The score was deadlocked during much of the final eight minutes.

The Swiftettes, shorter all down the line than the imposing Hornets, turned the trick with a fierce defense. Nazareth cut Sudan's usual point output (80-plus) almost in half.

Karen Birkenfeld held Sudan sharpshooter Lisa Wood (22.2-point average) to 12 counters and gave her no free throws. Liz Wilhelm, although five inches shorter than Sudan post forward Sharla Harrison, kept the 6-0 freshman whiz kid in check all night, blocking at least five shots and holding her to 11 points.

The key play for Nazareth as the clock wound down came with the score tied at 46, when the Hornets worked the ball in to Harrison for a shot, and Wilhelm blocked it. The play gave Nazareth the ball with less than 30 seconds left.

The Swiftettes ran the clock down to 12 seconds, then called time and set up a play. With Rhonda Hoelting well covered and Roxane Birkenfeld on the bench with five fouls as of 1:20, Sharon Birkenfeld was given the assignment of taking the final shot from the outside.

But Birkenfeld was covered when she got the ball. However, she spotted Hoelting open and passed off to her. Hoelting — who had shot only one field goal all night — put it up from 15 feet. When it swished through the net, she collapsed onto the gym floor.

"This was by far the closest district game we've had since the Silverton game of six years ago," Nazareth Coach Joe Lombard said. "Sudan is definitely the best team we've faced in a district game since I've been coaching here (four years)."

It was the first loss for the Hornets, who carried a 19-0 record into the game.

"Their record speaks for itself," Lombard said. "They beat Canyon by 41 points; their closest game had been 20 points; they had won the Slaton Tournament in a breeze."

Answering the obvious question, Lombard said, "No, I don't think we would have been able to pull it out if we hadn't been playing close games against good competition. If we had not been playing as tough a schedule, I don't think there's any way we would have won this game."

He added, "Our defense kept us in the game. They outrebounded us, but our girls did a good job of making them play at our tempo. We sure didn't want to get into a hully-gully game against them. We denied them their fast break, and their press didn't hurt us, so we came out way ahead on defense."

"Karen Birkenfeld did an outstanding job on defense, holding Wood way below her usual output," Lombard noted. "And Liz Wilhelm played a great defensive game against their 6-foot girl, and didn't let her dominate inside the way she has been doing against other teams."

When Hoelting's last-second shot fell, Lombard said, "I just felt very grateful."

"We didn't want to go into overtime with Roxane on the bench. We had set up the shot for Sharon, but I was glad for Rhonda to get a shot, too, because she's a good shooter. They had us well scouted, and Rhonda was pretty well covered all the game."

"We would not even have had the basketball if Liz hadn't blocked a shot right at the last," Lombard said. "In fact, they would have scored if she hadn't blocked that shot, and we would have been shooting just to try to tie it up."

Roxane Birkenfeld was the game's high scorer with 17, followed closely by Karen Birkenfeld with 14. Sudan's high scorer was Shanda Vernon with 13.

It isn't over yet. The rematch will be Feb. 2 in Nazareth High School's gym.

In the boys' game, the Swifts fought off a tenacious Sudan defense to capture their third district win, 42-36. Mark Huseman led the way with 11 points, the only Swift to score in double figures.

"They ran a diamond-and-1 on us, with one player going man-to-man against Calvin Schulte, and anytime he got the ball there were three on him," Coach Randy Johnson said. "I don't know if that's what messed us up or not, but we really didn't play very well."

Nonetheless, the Swifts came out of it still leading the district with a 3-0 mark.

The Swifts stretched their district mark to 4-0 Tuesday night with an all-important 43-42 victory over their toughest night with an all-important 43-42 victory over their toughest conference foe, Spade, while the Swiftettes were blowing away the Spade girls, 101-20.
