Kitty's Korner

By
Kitty Montgomery

The hassle over getting rid of Maude (the zillion-pound flat-bed press) ended almost as it began last Thursday afternoon. I hate to say "I told you so," but from the beginning I felt the gigantic piece of machinery had to be cut up to get it out of the building, and as it ended up, that's exactly the way it went.

We had 500 different opinions, all of which were vetoed. Then, as luck would have it Tom found Tite Bishop, who said he had never seen a piece of machinery he couldn't demolish. Other welders we talked to said they wouldn't put a torch to it under any circumstances. They mentioned danger of fire, puddling (whatever that is), damage to the building, etc.

We had some misgivings, but when Steve Kenley, Bob Falkner and some other members of the fire department came in and said they would stand by, we decided to go ahead with it. We almost backed out again when Steve promised to keep the fire contained to this building, should one occur, but after the weeks of hassle we decided to at least give it a try. There was some smoke (everybody in town came by to see what happened) and oil and ink made a mess on the floor. But after a few hours, it was R. L. P. Maude.

After years of voicing ideas to my male superiors and hearing the dubious compliment "Good for you Kitty, you think like a man," I finally get to say to a man "Good for you Tite, you think like a woman."

I had been trying to get in touch with Gene Lilly for several weeks and as luck would have it, saw him in the drug store the morning after Maude's demise. He said he had gotten my message and knew with a certainty what it was all about. He said his idea would have been to lift off the roof and hoist Maude out through the top. I think he was kidding, but that was a new idea, or I might say, different.

As a sequel, Saturday afternoon our new computerized machinery arrived.

Everybody swore the building had to be built around Maude. After reading the installation manual, it appears the building must be re-built in order for the new machine to operate properly. It seems it requires special wiring and refrigerated air. The salesman never told me about this.

Coveted A&M Scholarship To Brian Gries

Brian L. Gries of Ozona has been named a President's Scholar at Texas A&M University.

The Ozona High School senior holds the honor distinction this year and enrolls at Texas A&M in the fall of 1977 with a President's Scholar award of $1,250 a year.

The President's Scholar scholarship remains in effect for up to four years of undergraduate study. The award is the most prestigious given at Texas A&M. Few others surpass it in value.

President's Scholars are selected for top scholastic ability and exceptional leadership qualities. They are chosen by A&M's Faculty Scholarships Committee from nominations by Texas high school principals.

Robert M. Logan, student aid director, said the honorees are in the top seven percent of the nation's seniors, by National Merit Scholar qualifying test results.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Terry H. Gries, Box 1026, the 1976-77 President's Scholar ranks first in the 58-pupil Ozona High senior class this fall. Brian participated in football and track activities and has held the position of president his freshman, sophomore and junior years. He is also a member of the Student Council.

A passenger, Michael Predy, also 18, was treated and released at Shanon Hospital in San Angelo. Harrison was pronounced dead at the scene by Peace Justice John Harkey of Mertzon.

Funeral services for young Harrison were held Monday at 4:30 p.m. from the Ozona Church of Christ with burial in Cedar Hill Cemetery under the direction of James Funeral Home.

He was born April 21, 1958 in Ozona and had lived here all his life. He was a 1976 cum laude graduate of Ozona High School.

During his high school years, he participated in football and track and was FFA Star Greenhand. He was an all-district guard last season, Star Chapter Farmer and Senior Class Favorite.

He had enrolled at Texas State Technical Institute at Waco.

Ozona Lions Win Season Opener Over Big Lake 27-7

By - Brian Gries

The Ozona Lions downed the Reasan County Owls 27-7 in the first game of the season Friday night in Big Lake after failing to score in the first half of play and trailing 7-0 at the half.

The Lions' second half come back in last Friday night's game with the Reagan County Owls was a prime example of Lion spirit. In the first half of the game, the Lions were plagued with difficulties. No score was made in the first quarter, but with only a minute and a half left in the second quarter, a punt by Vaden Aldridge was blocked and recovered in the end zone by the Owls for six points. The PAT was good. At the end of the first half, the Lions were trailing 7-0 with only 36 yards rushing and 12 yards passing. Ozona's 12 yard pass was the only pass completed by either team during the game.

As usual, Coach Sewell transferred his enthusiasm to the team during half time. The spectators saw a new Lion team running onto the field at the start of the third quarter.

With only three minutes into the third quarter, Orlando DeHoyos returned a punt for 41 yards to give the Lions field position on the Owls' 19 yard line. Three plays later Blake Moody dashed 11 yards for the touchdown. The PAT failed.

With two minutes 19 seconds left in the third quarter, Gary Warren ended a 32 yard drive by running five yards for a T.D. The total time required for the drive was one minute 15 seconds. Vaden Aldridge then skampered across the goal line for two extra points.

With the fourth quarter just started, Vaden Aldridge ran a keeper for 39 yards to put the Lions on the Owls' four yard line. The next play, it was Aldridge again on a keeper with four yards and six points. John Galvan kicked the extra point.

Book Seller's To Host Elmer Kelton

Barbara Davidson, owner of the Book Seller's, at 910 Ave. E. has announced that Elmer Kelton will be in the store Friday, Sept. 17, from 3 until 5 p.m. to promote his most recent book "Long Way To Texas."

Kelton, well known West Texas author, will personally autograph all copies of the book sold during the day. The book was written under the pen name, Lee McElroy, as was "Joe Pepper."

Other popular Kelton books include "The Day the Cowboys Quit," and "The Time It Never Rained."

All cowpokes, Livestock Weekly readers and Kelton fans are invited to come by for a visit. The store was formerly Lotie's Book Shop and is located in the old bank building.

With seven minutes left in the fourth quarter, Orlando DeHoyos made a one yard dive for six. This drive was good for 20 yards and lasted one minute. The PAT failed. The final score was 27-7 in favor of the Lions.

The leading rushers for the Lions were DeHoyos, Warren, and Moody with 50, 48, and 44 yards respectively. Outstanding defensive players were Clyde Bailey with 11 tackles, Ricky DeHoyos with 11 tackles, and Sterling Lay with five tackles, two quarterback sacks, and one recovered fumble. Outstanding offensive linemen, according to Coach Sewell, were Mike Fay, Eugene Hood, and Ricky DeHoyos.

Coach Sewell said the Lions did very well for the first game of the season, especially during the second half. He said that Marfa, the Lions' next opponent, has the best team that they have had in 10 or 15 years, consequently, he feels it will be a tough game and a good one to watch.

The Lions had 14 first downs to the Owls' nine. They rushed for 188 yards while the opponents ground out 93 yards. The Lions were one for eight in the passing department while the Owls attempted four passes but failed to complete. The Lions lost one fumble and the Owls lost four. The Lions punted five times for an average of 38.6 yards and the Owls punted eight times for 34.6. The Lions drew five penalties for 45 yards while the Owls had nine for 76 yards.

LEADING THE CHEERS FOR THE CUBS, Ozona Junior High, will be this bevy of beauties. In foreground are Nancy Womack and Kim Sinclair, at center are Lisa Hohertz and Sue Cantu and in back are Tilly Kramer and Michele Martinez.

THE JOY BUS - Recently purchased by the Ozona Church of Christ, the bus will pick up and deliver for both worship services Sunday and for the Wednesday night service. There will also be "bus hosts," who will help children to the bus and to the proper class at the church as well as see that they are returned home safely.

A LITTLE FIRE AND A LOT OF SMOKE and the ancient flat-bed press, which stood for the life of The Stockman at the back of the press room, was reduced to scrap metal last Thursday afternoon. Tite Bishop, demolition expert, pauses for examination during the surgery, while firemen Steve Kenley and Bob Falkner stand by for action.

Newspapers and The American Revolution

One of the most exciting, and largely ignored, stories about the American Revolution is the role that was played by the newspaper publishers throughout the colonies. From the time the "shot heard round the world" was fired at Lexington on April 19, 1775, until the fledgling Congress declared the end of the war on April 11, 1783, the people in the New World depended largely upon three sources for the news: private letters and packets of official or semi-official documents; sermons from the pulpits of the churches, where the great principles underlying the Revolution were constantly enunciated; and weekly newspapers then being published in the thirteen States.

On the day of the battles of Lexington and Concord, there were thirty-seven newspapers in publication. Only twenty of those survivors the war. The seventeen papers which died do not represent the total war casualties, however, because in spite of the great risks and privations, eighteen additional papers were brought into print only to be wiped out before the war was over. Nevertheless, courageous publishers and printers persevered, so that when Cornwallis surrendered at Yorktown, there were thirty-five papers to carry the news of the great victory to the people—only two less than at the beginning of the war.

The heroic efforts—and the tremendous sacrifices—of the publishers of the weekly papers would fill many a book. When the British captured Norfolk, Virginia, early in 1775 they set fire to the town—but not before they had seized the printing plant of John H. Holt's Virginia Gazette and taken it lock, stock, and type aboard one of Lord Dunmore's ships where the Redcoats continued to print until the paper stock ran out. Whatever happened to the printing plant—whether pitched overboard into the Atlantic or taken back to England as war booty—no one knows.

In Newport, Rhode Island, the patriot paper was the Mercury, published by Solomon Southwick. But when the British captured the town in 1776, Southwick set the torch to his beloved paper and burned it to the ground rather than let it fall into the hands of the enemy. Southwick managed to escape with his life, continued to print in other towns, and when the British finally abandoned Newport, he returned to launch again the Mercury.

When Charleston was captured in 1780, the editor of the South Carolina Gazette was made a prisoner of war and his paper destroyed.

When our patriot publishers said that they were pledging their lives and fortunes to the cause of Liberty, they were not simply printing empty phrases.

Shades of James Bond!

That truth is often stranger than fiction can easily be verified by reading the press these days. No mystery story writer can hope to compete with the bizarre and altogether guesstimate story of the Mafia and the alleged CIA plot to murder Fidel Castro. The tale even has a femme fatale, Judith Campbell Exner, who revealed that she had a "close, personal" relationship with the assassinated President Kennedy from 1960 to 1962, at the very same time when she was a "friend" of two gentlemen by the names of Sam "Momo" Giancana and Johnny Roselli.

"Momo" Giancana didn't live very long after Ms. Exner talked. In June, 1975, he was found murdered in his suburban home near Chicago—just before he was due to be questioned by the Senate Intelligence Committee.

This year, on July 28, Johnny Roselli left the home of a relative in Plantation, Florida, to play a round of golf. He was never heard from again—until Saturday, August 7, when his badly decomposed body was found stuffed in an oil drum picked up by three fishermen at the edge of the Intracoastal Waterway north of Miami. The drum had been weighted down with heavy chains to make sure that the body would never be found.

All of which brings to mind a goodly number of questions. How come three people, all known to and known by Ms. Exner (could there be more we don't know about?) died violent deaths? We know who killed President Kennedy—but why? And why were Giancana and Roselli killed? Who killed them, and for what reason? And isn't it rather interesting that the killer of Lee Harvey Oswald, who murdered the President, had strong Mafia ties, even as Giancana and Roselli?

At the time of his death, Roselli was appealing a U. S. Immigration Department action to deport him to Italy. His appeal was based on his contention that it would expose his life to danger by the Communists.

It is time that a new criminal investigating team be assigned to reopen the investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy and pick up where the Warren Commission left off. There are too many unanswered questions. These recent murders only add to the list.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights
by Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Southwestern Bell Telephone Company has asked the new Public Utilities Commission to approve a rate increase that would cost consumers about $300 million a year.

PUC may act within five months, a member indicated.

More than $110 million of the requested increase would come from increases in local service.

Rates, under the proposal, would go up from $9.20 to $11.50 monthly in Houston, from $8.20 to $10 in Dallas, from $8 to $9.45 in Fort Worth and from $7.35 to $9.45 in San Antonio.

Other proposed increases: Corpus Christi, $6.90-$8.50; McAllen, $7.05-$8.15; Amarillo, $5.85-$8.50; Lubbock, $5.90-$8.50.

Business telephone rates also would increase sharply. Five to six dollar a month hikes would be common. The increase for business lines in Lubbock and Amarillo would be about nine dollars.

Bell seeks another $8.1 million in additional revenue from a 20-cents per call charge in pay telephones, where a dime now does the job.

The company also wants more money for key telephones, private branch exchanges, Centrex service, private lines, WATS service, miscellaneous equipment, touchtone phones and other items.

Bell's new vice president for Texas, Doyle E. Rogers, said the increases would boost the company's return (after taxes) on fair value of its investment from 6.16 percent to 9.5 percent.

Action by Atty. Gen. John Hill last year scaled down a long distance rate hike from $40 million to $25 million.

Bell now proposes to charge customers for information calls on telephone numbers if they make more than three such calls a month. Revenue increase from this alone would be $26.5 million in Texas.

Bond Fight Launched

A new group has formed to fight the $400 million state water bond issue to be voted on November 2.

John Henry Faulk of Madisonville, humorist and broadcaster, is chairman of the group, "Citizens Against Water Taxes."

Faulk at a news conference here charged proponents of the bonds would seek to revive the $3.5 billion Texas water plan which was defeated in 1969. He also noted that Texas Water Development Board has spent only $201 million of an earlier $400 million bond issue.

Chairmanship Row Heats

Both Democratic and Republican parties now have blistering contests for their state chairmanships.

Incumbent Democratic Chairman Calvin Guest is opposed by John Henry Tatum of Lufkin, the Angelina County chairman. Tatum blasts Guest as a do-nothing chairman who doesn't aid Democratic candidates and hasn't made full disclosure of party finance records.

Guests defends his record, boasts of cutting the party's deficit from $150,000 to $110,000, encouraging increased participation by all segments and emphasizes he has filed regular audit reports on Democratic contributions and spending.

Ray Barnhart of Pasadena, leader of Texas Ronald Reagan forces, is challenging Ray Hutchison of Dallas for Republican chairman.

Barnhart said he is a friend of Hutchison but feels the chairmanship should be decided on the basis of which candidate can "best build our party and mobilize strong support for our candidates."

Republicans will decide their contest at the GOP state convention here September 11 and the Democrats will settle theirs in Fort Worth September 18.

AG Opinion

City investigation findings on equal employment opportunity complaints are public information, Atty. Gen. Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded: A city regulating utility rates can require companies to furnish information on profits and losses outside municipal boundaries.

Teaching assistants at public universities must be members of the teacher retirement system if classified as fulltime, regular salaries (as are most who work half the standard work load).

Texas Commission on Alcoholism has no authority to certify persons as "alcoholism counselors" or to require private corporations to follow its standards for such certification.

Welfare Pay Cut

Welfare payments in Texas were reduced nearly 13 per cent during the last year, according to studies released in Washington.

Expenditures nationwide jumped about 11 per cent during the same period (April 1975-March 1976).

Statistics indicated welfare recipients decreased 12.5 per cent in Texas, while the national figure was increasing about two-tenths of one per cent.

Major cost program for Texas in April was $10.8 million a month for aid to families with dependent children (AFDC) with 348,803 beneficiaries.

Only Georgia and Maine had larger percentage payment reductions (21 per cent and 13 per cent respectively).

Maine cut its caseload 23.5 per cent and Georgia 21 per cent.

you and the LAW
PRESENTED BY THE STATE BAR OF TEXAS

Q: My ex-husband and I have been divorced for eight months. At the time of the divorce, I was not sure of my health and I let my husband have custody of our little girl. Now, I have been cured of my physical ailment. How can I get custody of my daughter?

A: In order to change the provisions in a divorce decree awarding custody of the child to one of the parents, the other parent must bring suit to have the decree changed. The burden of proof will be on the parent seeking the change to show how the change can be justified on the basis of circumstances which have changed since the divorce. The paramount consideration will be the best interests of the child.

Q: Is it possible to amend a birth certificate after it is filed with the Birth and Death Records Section of the State Department of Health?

A: Yes, it is possible to amend a birth certificate in most instances by filing an affidavit swearing to the truth of those sections which require changing. This procedure applies to statistical information as well as other sections on the certificate. The Birth and Death Records Section makes an independent determination, and will either allow or deny the amendment.

Q: A city police patrol car has been using a church parking lot to check traffic with a radar unit. The pastor of the church says the church has not authorized the use of their parking lot for this purpose. Is this allowed under state law?

A: There is no state law prohibiting law enforcement officers from entering a public parking lot. Any parking lot open to the general public is considered a public area regardless of whether it sits on privately or publicly-owned land.

Q: I've lived with a man for several years but did not change my name. Are we considered to have a common-law marriage? And, what effect does this have on the loan I signed to buy the car we are using—he wants to leave but he wants to take the car or get back the money he has paid on it.

A: Common law marriage requires both that the partners live together and that they hold themselves out to be husband and wife. Unless the couple tells others that they are husband and wife, merely living together does not constitute a common law marriage. Property rights between persons who are not married depend on the agreement of those persons. These rights are not controlled by community property laws which determine ownership and management of a married couple's property.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

The bountiful rains of the last two weeks should have given you more time to enjoy your garden, and our great out-of-doors this time of the year.

Since the soil should lie in a good shape to work for fall gardening there is still time to raise some tender, warm-season vegetables such as sweet corn, squash, cucumbers and snap beans if planted soon. Lettuce, beets, turnips, chinese cabbage, mustard, and radishes can be seeded now for fall crops since they require cool weather for best quality. It is important to check the number of days to maturity for the variety you wish to plant, counting back from average fall frost date of our area. This is especially an important step for frost-tender vegetables.

Its bulb time again for an array of vibrant colors from the "little" bulbs which are too seldom used. Among these you will enjoy are many that are easy to care for and do not need the routine replacement so often necessary with the larger and more common kinds. The small bulbs are best used informally in clumps between and under shrubs, in lawns, in perennial beds or ground covers, around trees, or wherever you want a touch of color for a spring day. Good soil is as necessary for them as for any bulb. Work in peat moss, leaf mold, or other organic matter and also a high phosphorus fertilizer prior to planting. As with other bulbs, allow foliage to brown and die off naturally after flowering in the spring. These small bulbs are easily planted, but follow directions as to the depth to cover. Some of the favorites are Galanthus (snowdrop), Crocus, Grape Hyacinth, Chionodoxa, Scilla Sibirica, Anemone Blanda, Tritelia, Ornithogalum Umbellatum (Star of Bethlehem) Schilla Campanulata hispanica, Fritillaria Meleagris (guinea-hen-flower) and Puschkinia Libanotica (stiped quill).

Debra Says

by Debra Price

It's as modern as moon travel, as convenient as your pantry, and as dependable as our dairy. It's simple to use and offers you a milk supply that never runs dry. Just measure, mix, and pour.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture says that nonfat dry milk is in abundant supply this month. In June, new government purchases of nonfat dry milk were about 22½ million pounds, or over 20 percent of its production during the month.

Nonfat dry milk is always an economy measure. You sacrifice little in the way of nutrition, for nonfat dry milk is milk processed and refined to an instantly soluble form with only the fat and water content missing. What you gain is a low-cost milk that is instantly available.

You can keep it for emergencies or for use in cooking. Use it as your daily milk drink or add it to regular milk to extend your fresh milk or simply to give yourself a protein, mineral and vitamin boost.

Take it camping or travelling. It packs light and can be mixed in only the quantity you can use immediately. It requires no special care or attention. It's convenient and easy to use in such camping food favorites as pancakes, scrambled eggs, or biscuits.

It can be used effectively in most recipes calling for milk. It need not be reconstituted for baking purposes. Add it in powder form to the dry ingredients and add water for the liquid measure.

Mix it with ice cold water and beat vigorously for a dessert topping that is the consistency of whipped cream. Or, mix it with a concentrated fruit juice for a great but light dessert that is nutritious and blissfully low in calories.

Nonfat dry milk stores well in your pantry and has a shelf life of about 6 months. It should be tightly covered to avoid absorption of any moisture. Once reconstituted, of course, it must be treated like fresh milk.

Buy it by the box, mix it by the quart, and drink it by the glass. Whatever your family requirements, mix what you need when you need it.

Fruit Layer Salad Mold
Oiled Salad Mold (6 cups) or 8 Individual Molds

Layer 1-1 package lemon flavored gelatin, 1½ cups boiling water, 3 tablespoons lemon juice, 1-3 oz. package cream cheese, ½ cup instant nonfat dry milk.

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water, add lemon juice, cool until slightly thickened. Beat cream cheese in mixer until softened, add instant nonfat dry milk and gelatin. Beat until fluffy. Turn into mold and chill until set.

Layer 2, 1 can (9 oz.) crushed pineapple, drained, 1½ cups hot pineapple juice and water, 1 package strawberry flavored gelatin, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 cup sliced strawberries, ½ cup chopped pecans.

Drain pineapple; add enough water to juice to make 1½ cups; heat to boiling, add gelatin; stir until dissolved, add lemon juice; chill until slightly thickened. Fold in drained pineapple, strawberries and nuts. Spoon over first layer. Chill until firm. Unmold on watercress or lettuce.

SYMBOL OF NOBILITY

The bald eagle, a noble bird, emblem of America.

And yet it was not the choice of Benjamin Franklin, one of our wisest patriots.

To emphasize the differences between the world's first democracy and the warlike, aristocratic powers of Europe, Franklin chose the docile turkey, so common to America—instead of a bird of prey—to symbolize the United States.

But the eagle, long a sign of courage, freedom and power, caught the fancy of Franklin's fellow patriots gathered at Philadelphia in 1787.

To them "noble" meant more than hereditary rank.

Noble also meant "an exalted moral character, admirable in conception, stately"—all qualities epitomizing the democratic experiment called the United States.

And to this day the United States strives to retain that noble character symbolized by its emblem, embodied by its spiritual heritage.

PUBLIC NOTICE
SUMMARY OF PROPOSED
CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS
GENERAL ELECTION NOV. 2, 1976

NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 49)

Repealing Sections 49-d and 49-d-1 of Article III of the Texas Constitution, S.J.R. 49 amends Section 49-c of Article III of the Texas Constitution to provide for and authorize an additional $400 million in Texas water development bonds that may be issued on approval of two-thirds of the members of each house of the Legislature for such water development purposes as the Legislature may prescribe.

The amendment contains a specific prohibition against the use of state funds for the development of water resources from the Mississippi River and also requires that before any single water development project may be undertaken requiring the expenditure of more than $35 million in bond proceeds, it must be approved by resolution of the Legislature.

The amendment removes the constitutional requirement that certain revenues must be used to retire water development and water quality enhancement bonds and removes the constitutional interest rate limit on such bonds.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing an increase of $400 million in the amount of Texas Water Development Bonds that may be issued on approval of two-thirds of the legislature; amending and consolidating provisions of Sections 49-c, 49-d and 49-d-1 of Article III of the Texas Constitution; and repealing Sections 49-d and 49-d-1 of Article III of the Texas Constitution."

NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT (H.J.R. 99)

H.J.R. 99 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution to increase from $100 million to $200 million the aggregate principle amount of Texas water development bonds which may be issued and outstanding by the Texas Water Development Board to provide grants and loans for water quality enhancement purposes as established by the Legislature.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"A constitutional amendment to increase from $100 million to $200 million the amount of Texas Water Development Bonds that may be issued for water quality enhancement purposes."

Imagine a light bulb without filaments to wear out that lasts many years but uses only one-fourth the electricity of a standard bulb.

Mrs. Janice Carberry, a family resource management specialist, says that the technology needed for producing a longer-lasting, less expensive light bulb has been known for many years.

She is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"According to a report called 'The Short Life of the Electric Light Bulb,' published by the Government Activities Subcommittee of the Committee on Government Operations, the idea has only been partially developed because of the posed threat to the light bulb industry.

"The Energy Research and Development Administration (ERDA) liked the idea and awarded a California company a $310,000 one-year contract to produce the energy-saving bulb," she said.

Houseguests in the home of Mrs. A. M. Huffman over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Nick Nichols and children, Katrina and Justin, and Mrs. Doris Simms and her donkey, Carl.

Hard work, dedication and long hours are still essential to success in farming or ranching. But they no longer assure it. Today, it takes capital. And good money management with careful attention to cash flow. That's why there are Federal Land Bank loans on so many of America's best-managed farms and ranches. Proper Energy Management Can Save You Money!

Reddy's Helpful Tips For your Home Laundry

- Utilize the washer's full capacity. Wash larger loads — wash less often.
- Same goes for dryers: dry more than just a few items at a time.
- Use the washer's load selector to save on hot water when you must wash small loads.
- Use a cold rinse whenever possible to conserve hot water.
- For more efficient drying, clean the dryer lint screen after each load.
- If your dryer has an automatic cycle, use it to prevent unnecessary overdrying. Also, when allowed to overdry, clothes tend to wrinkle, thus require more ironing.
