

Crime Line kicks off drive

The new Castro County Crime Line, Inc., is ready to go into action.

It has its charter, telephone, bank account, board of directors and working committees.

All it needs now is money.

Crime Line is a citizen-operated reward program designed to help law enforcement agencies solve crimes and recover stolen goods. It is supported entirely by contributions from the public.

Crime Line is seeking funds now so it will have reward money available when it starts soliciting "secret witness" calls next week.

Rewards will be established for "spotlight" crimes, and any caller who provides information that leads to an indictable arrest will receive a reward via the "drop" method. Callers' identities will remain anonymous to both Crime Line officials and law enforcement agencies.

Any business or individual wishing to contribute to the public reward fund may send his or her contribution to Castro County Crime Line, Inc., P.O. Box 1111, Dimmitt. Receipts will be returned for all contributions.

County-District Attorney Jimmy Davis announced at a directors' meeting last Thursday night that Crime Line is now chartered with the state as a non-profit corporation. The charter was issued just two weeks after a group of concerned citizens voted to organize Crime Line here.

"Certification of the corporation's tax-exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service and the Comptroller's Office may take some time," Davis told the directors, "but as soon as they come back, all donors can be notified that their contributions are tax deductible."

Directors adopted a set of bylaws last Thursday night which Davis described as "virtually the same" as those of Lubbock Crime Line, Inc., which is the prototype for many other Crime Line programs in North Texas. In Lubbock County, some 2,000 calls have resulted in more than 500 arrests and the recovery of more than half a million dollars' worth of stolen property.

Also, directors appointed men and women from all parts of the county to the Fund Committee, the Grievance Committee, and the Drop Committee.

The Fund Committee will solicit money, help establish rewards and see that the reward fund maintains a balance to cover all rewards offered.

The Grievance Committee will resolve any questions concerning payment of rewards.

Members of the Drop Committee will make the payoffs by collecting the reward money in cash and delivering it to a predetermined "drop" point, which could be anywhere in the county.

All three committees will work under the guidance of the board of directors, and in cooperation with city, county and state law enforcement agencies.

Sheriff Lonny Rhynes announced that the first donation to the Crime Line reward fund is a $500 reward which the American Motor Club paid recently to the Sheriff's Office for the recovery of a stolen vehicle owned by John Merritt, who is a member of the AMC.

Directors reported that several other residents of the county — especially farm owners plagued by nighttime thefts — have indicated they want to donate to Crime Line.

DISD calls hearing; tax rate up in air

The Dimmitt School Board will hold its annual public budget hearing next Thursday at 7 p.m. in the school Administration Building, even though the district cannot begin to estimate probable income for the budget until the effective tax rate for the school district is announced by the Castro County Tax Appraisal District office.

The appraisal office is waiting for completion and verification of property values in the appraisal district by McMorris and Associates.

After the values are determined, 20 days' notice must be given for the meeting of the board of review (or equalization), after which a specified formula will be used to arrive at the effective tax rate for the school district.

DISD Business Manager Gene King said that if the tax rate multiplied by the property values of the school district does not equal the amount of money needed for the coming school year, "I'm afraid a lot of changes will have to be made."

King said that state law mandates that a school budget must be in effect by Aug. 31, but added that the budget can be amended any time during the year.

The board discussed the tax situation and its effect on the budget at its regular meeting Monday night, which had been postponed from Aug. 9.

Student school insurance coverage was also discussed, with the board approving a plan that would keep down the costs of the insurance.

The system's previous insurer was Insurnational, but planned increases in rates caused the board to accept policies set forth by the Texas Association of Community Schools (TACS).

Last year, full coverage for varsity football players was $44 each, but it was scheduled to go up to $70 this year. The board chose a coverage plan that will cost only $35 per player, with a $50 deductible clause. Premiums for football coverage are paid by the schools for high school varsity and junior varsity players, but the players must cover the $50 deductible expenses if needed.

The rate for regular (non-football) coverage is $17 per student for schooltime coverage, and $44 for fulltime coverage.

Supt. Robert Ryan said that students covered by the football plan would also need one of the other coverages, if desired, once football season

Schools open doors today

School started today (Thursday) for students at Dimmitt and Hart, with Nazareth students getting to continue their summer until Monday.

Dimmitt Police Chief Don Franklin reminds motorists to watch for children walking to and from school and to observe the warning flashers on Bedford Street.

Dimmitt and Hart's students completed the registration process Wednesday, while Nazareth will register Friday and Monday.

High school students at Nazareth are to register Friday, with seniors scheduled from 9 to 10:15 a.m., juniors from 10:15 to 11:30 a.m., sophomores from 1 to 2:15 p.m., and freshmen from 2:15 to 3:30 p.m. All others will register Monday.

BEAUTIFICATION CONTINUES in Dimmitt, and it requires hard work, as Brad Murdock finds out while operating a rototiller in front of George's Exxon Station. The work is being done as part of the "Pride Up Week" activities in preparation for Harvest Days 1982. Businesses participating in the downtown beautification program will reimburse the city for the cost of plants and then maintain them.

Farmers State names Sharp

Farmers State Bank of Hart has a new president, Charles Sharp, a Tulia native, who began working at the bank last week.

Ed Harris of Tulia, director and former acting president of the bank, announced Sharp's appointment to the post.

Sharp had been serving as executive vice president of Carlsbad National Bank in Carlsbad, N.M., since September of 1981. He had resigned as senior vice president and member of the board of directors of the First National Bank of Tulia to take the job in Carlsbad.

A banker for 25 years, Sharp spent 16 years with the Tulia bank, also having worked in banks in Vernon, Lubbock, and Roswell, N.M.

A member of the Baptist Church, Sharp graduated from Tulia High School. After serving in the U.S. Navy during the Korean War, he graduated from Texas Tech.

He and his wife, Mary Dell, have three children, Marsha Sharp, recently named women's basketball coach at Texas Tech; Pam Martin of Lubbock; and David Sharp, who works for a Lubbock accounting firm.

A get-acquainted coffee honoring Mrs. Sharp is set for today (Thursday) from 10 to 11:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Joe Edd Carson, and everyone is invited to attend.

Aid for workers is urged

"We call on the US Secretary of Labor and Secretary of Health and Human Services to make available emergency funds which are under their control and which are designated for migrant and seasonal farm workers," said Bill Beardall, a Hereford attorney for Texas Rural Legal Aid, at a press conference here last Thursday.

The meeting was organized last week by Beardall and a coalition of individuals and organizations concerned about the plight of farm workers in Texas, and especially in the Panhandle.

The amount of work available to farm workers this year is substantially less than normal due to weather-related crop losses. Estimated crop failures are 50% of the cotton and between 50% and 70% of the onions, Beardall said.

"Virtually every farm worker family has been touched by this situation with loss of income," he added.

The "Call to Action" statement endorsed by the coalition said, "The loss of jobs and earnings resulting from this disaster threatens not merely bankruptcy, it threatens the very survival of many farm workers and their families."

Beardall said he received payroll comparison figures from a vegetable packer in Hereford. In July 1981, the packer paid a total of $450,000 to packing and field workers. This July, he paid only $78,000 — less than 18% of last year's wages, Beardall said.

The coalition promotes a general recognition among state and federal officials of the seriousness of the problem, and focuses on sources of disaster assistance that may be available for immediate needs, and wants to form contingency plans to deal with similar situations in the future.

BILL BEARDALL, attorney for Texas Rural Legal Aid, issues a "Call to Action" for North Texas farm workers during a press conference at the Castro County Agricultural Housing Project last Thursday. Beardall spoke on behalf of a coalition of organizations and service agencies, calling for federal and state emergency relief for farm workers who can't find jobs because of hailed-out crops and poor vegetable markets.

"We also call on the governor and the Texas Dept. of Community Affairs to direct some of the state's federal block grant funds toward this problem. We call on state and federal elected officials to advocate assistance for farm workers as strongly and effectively as they have for the struggling farmers," the statement said.

"Gov. Clements and his administration have tended to minimize the problem," Beardall said, adding that the governor's idea of assistance to the farm worker is presently limited to "private donations of food, clothing and soup kitchens."

"That is not the answer. It's not enough to meet the needs," he said.

"Gov. Clements doesn't want to represent the workers," said Jesus Moya, organizer of the Texas Farm Workers Union. "We want Gov. Clements to declare Texas a disaster for farm workers so they can get aid. They need long-range assistance to remedy the situation" for now and for the future, Moya said.

"President Reagan has cut more and more the social programs for farm workers" in favor of a stronger military budget, Moya said, adding that meanwhile "people here are without homes, food and transportation. They need immediate help."

A number of state and federal officials have ex-

LIGHTNING STRIKES STEEPLE—Rev. Richard Clymer points to one of five places where a bolt of lightning exploded brick away from the steeple tower of the Sunnyside Baptist Church at 6:30 a.m. Tuesday. The lightning apparently struck the metal spire and cap first, then transmitted its energy to reinforcement rods and bars in the masonry. Rev. Clymer — who had been kept by the rain from going to the church from the nearby parsonage at 6:20 — said the lightning's force sounded like an explosion and threw shattered brick as far as 200 ft. Note fragments of brick on roof in foreground.

Youtsuses visit in western states and Canada

By MARY EDNA HENDRIX

Elmer and Mauzee Youts had a wonderful trip in the Western States and Canada. They were fortunate to have relatives all along the way.

They went to Las Vegas to visit Mauzee's brother and family. Then on to Rocklin to visit another brother and wife who were celebrating their 60th wedding anniversary. This turned into a family reunion with about 200 people present, and a friend of the family catered the meal for the group including turkey, chicken, ham, salami, potato salad, fruit and tossed salad, baked beans and the wedding cake and punch.

On to Virginia City, Nev. to visit relatives, then to Twin Falls, Idaho to see more relatives. From Twin Falls to Sun Valley they went along the Salmon River. At Flat Head Lake they were joined by their daughter and husband Pat and A. P. Sligh from Monahans. From there they went into Canada via Glacier National Park. Mauzee said going to Sun Highway was most beautiful. They went to Calgary, Bonff National Park, Lake Louise, and Kicking Horse Falls where they saw a spiral railroad tunnel. From there they went north to Emerald Lake and the second highest waterfall in the world. They came back by Flat Head and fished for three days. The fish they were allowed to keep were restricted to 18 inches and Mauzee caught one that measured 17 inches. On the way home they stopped at Yellowstone National Park and saw Old Faithful erupt. They stopped at the Grand Tetons to see a nephew and on to Provo, Utah to see a cousin. At Moab, Utah they visited the Archies National Park where there were unusual rock formations. Elmer told me they drove 5600 miles.

On Aug. 4 a group of young women surprised Jackie (Schaeffer) Byrnes at her home with a lovely birthday and appreciation party. They served a beautiful cake decorated with a basket of flowers and mint lemonade. Jackie had helped the girls organize a new chapter, Alpha Chi Omega of the Sorority, Beta Sigma Phi, so they presented her with a gift. The members are Kim Hays, Sherri Matthews, Karen Robertson, Ronda Wise, Rhonda Schaeffer, Janet Mays, Bobbie Wooten, Nancy Fuller, Linda Langford, Sherry Irons, and Sue Rita Myatt.

Jeff and Karen Robertson and little two-year-old daughter, Kourtney, had a fun trip to Six Flags and International Wild Life Safari where there is 6 1/2 miles of road in Grand Prairie with live animals that the visitors can feed from the car. They also went to White Water, a water park that has ocean waves, six water slides, a cable car, a large pool and a small one for younger children. There are picnic tables and chairs for the visitors to enjoy eating and relaxing.

Little came up from Lubbock for the celebration. I met the parents of Duward and Joyce.

The Fitzgearld-Howell wedding was beautiful with pastel shades of peach, green, and yellow. I saw some of the Howells that I had not seen for awhile, Moss and Hattie from Weatherford.

The shower given for Kay Miller, bride-elect of Craig Vandiver, in the home of Carole Dyer was a lovely affair. Nancy Hays from Hereford was among the out-of-town guests.

Beral Hance has had company in and out all summer. Ron Hance, son of Kent and Carol, was here for a few days, Traci Compton, daughter of Linda Hance came by for a weekend on her way to Tech in Lubbock, and Kent, Carol, and Susan came for a short visit. Beral went to Lubbock with Jimmy and Joyce Davis on one occasion to hear Kent speak one night.

Also visiting Beral has been daughter Beth Hodges and son Boyd from Panhandle and daughter Linda Hance from Denver. Boyd will be leaving this week for San Marcos to attend college. Susan Hance is still visiting here and in Hereford, but her mother Carol left Monday to return to their home in Washington.

The "Three Musketeers" went to the Dinner Theatre in Amarillo last week to see Patrick Wayne in "The Tender Trap." Patrick is the son of the late John Wayne.

The coming attraction will be the Otwell Twins from Tulia and Tom Netherton with the Lawrence Welk Band.

Elvis and Joy Barker spent last week in Evansville, Ind. visiting daughter Pam and James Crookham and Chris. While there the group went to Nashville, Ind., and Brown County State Park, to Santa Claus Land and Lincoln Memorial Park in Boonville. This includes the farm where Abraham Lincoln spent 14 years while growing up. They also spent a day in Nashville, Tenn. and attended the Grand Ole Opry. The weather was cool and comfortable all the time they were gone.

Rita and Stan McDaniel and boys went to Six Flags in Fort Worth last week for an end of the summer vacation. They also enjoyed swimming in the "White Water" park.

Avis and Ralph Smith were hosts to their Dinner Bridge Club in their home last Saturday night. Smith served some of the fish that he had caught this summer at their place at Conchas Lake. Those enjoying the delicious "fish fry" were Myrtle Lois and Russel Moran, Dorothy and Ted Sheffy, Shirley and Harold Stephens, Sue and John Merritt, Carole and Goldman Dyer and Esta and Charles Vandiver.

The Thursday Bridge Club met at 10 a.m. with Opha Burks as hostess. The women ate lunch with the Senior Citizens and finished their bridge game by 3 o'clock. Betty Cartwright was high scorer and Louise Mears and Helen Richardson tied for second high. Others playing were Oleda Schumacher, Jo Gregory, Cleo Forson, Susie Reeves, Rosalie Hawkins, Retta Cluck, Ferne Dickey and Faun Welker.

Irene Carpenter taught the Sunday School lesson for the residents at South Hills Manor on Thursday morning. Myrtle Sheffy had two of her daughters visiting her, Dorothy Bond from Kerrville and Ruth Jackson.

The school teachers are coming back into town for the fall term. My neighbor, Maxine Myers, who spent the summer with her mother in Childress came in Friday with Ruth Cochran who spent the summer with her parents in Texarkana. These girls are librarians - Maxine in Richardson Elementary and Ruth in Middle School.

Marie Tate's mother, Maude Kay of Mooreland,

Okla. and her sister, Gladys Curtis Tate for a few days. Briix, of Vici, Okla. have been visiting Marie and Pat and Ken Truelove, and HAZARDS AND HEADACHES caused by the road construction between Nazareth and Dimmitt should be over by November, according to Rhea Bradley of the Texas Dept. of Transportation. The first layer of asphalt should be laid by then, he said. The final "riding surface" is scheduled to be put down next May.

95 grads college-bound

Sixty-six percent of Castro County's 1982 high school graduates are enrolled this fall in 23 institutions of higher learning — 95 out of 145 graduates for the three school systems.

This estimate indicates that the number of students opting to continue their education after finishing high school is up three percent.

Nazareth registered a high of 78% of its seniors going on for more education — 21 out of 27 students. This is the highest percentage recorded in the school's history. Only 41% of last year's grads went on to college or trade school.

Sixty-seven percent of Dimmitt's 1982 grads, 58 of 87, chose to further their schooling. This is down from last year's percentage of 76%.

Hart didn't show much change from the 52% it had last year. This year, 52% of HHS's 31 graduates — 16 students — chose to go for higher education.

Britt Mayfield of Dimmitt graduated from the Texas State Technical Institute in Amarillo last Thursday night with an associate degree in welding and fabrication.

Mayfield, a 1977 graduate of Dimmitt High School, is the welder at Goodpasture, Inc.

TSTI commencement exercises were held in the Tropic Room of Amarillo's Villa Inn.

Attending the graduation were Mayfield's wife, Missy; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Mayfield; his grandmother, Bertie McLain of Hart; his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Carter; and his parents-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. Howard Quiett.

There were 12 arrests made this past week. Seventy-five percent of these were related to the abuse of alcohol — six for public intoxication and three for driving while intoxicated.

One man was charged with driving with a suspended license.

Saturday night around 11 p.m., two officers were sent to the City Park to investigate a fight. After arriving, they arrested two men and took them into custody on the charge of disorderly conduct.

A case of criminal mischief was reported Friday by Jose Perez. Perez called the police at 9:20 a.m. after he found a window broken in his house. The window appeared to have been broken from the inside.

Eucharistic ministers are installed Sunday

By VIRGIE GERBER
During the 10 a.m. mass Sunday at Holy Family Church, 35 Eucharistic ministers were installed by Rev. Father Harold Waldow.

Vincent Braddock home this past weekend were Ben, Theresa and Kathy Arens of Orient, S.D., and Liz Brandt of St. Helena, Neb. On Sunday evening a supper was enjoyed by the guests and Elizabeth Schmucker, Lawrence Schmucker, Alvina Gerber and Veronica Klug of St. Helena, Neb. Veronica traveled to Texas with the Arens. All the Braddock children joined them later in the evening.

Tony and Mary Gerber had Veronica Klug of Nebraska at their guest this weekend. She also visited other Schmucker relatives and her aunt Elizabeth Schmucker. Fritz and Julene Gerber drove to Ranger this past week to bring Lori home. She has been working at a bank in Ranger for the summer and will now be going back to college.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Book and children of Houston, Kelly Book of Stephenville, Nick Book and Mr. Sisk of Lubbock spent the weekend with their parents, the George Books, Jr.

During the Saturday evening mass, Melanie Amber, infant daughter of the Chris Books and Cassie Leah, infant daughter of the Sidney Birkenfelds were baptized by their uncle Deacon Jerome Brockman and Rev. Father Harold. Grandparents are the George Books Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hand of Minnesota and John and Ida Gibson of Dimmitt.

The Phil Brockmans of Lazbuddie spent Sunday afternoon visiting relatives in Nazareth.

The Denis Hoelting children, Tim, Gretchen and Heidi of Colorado are here visiting their grandparents, the Greg Hoeltings. Denis and Judy will come on Thursday for a few days visit and they will all return to Colorado.

Sandee Hoelting, Meta Stork, Josephine Ball, Edna Hoelting and Sylvia Hoelting went to Plainview on Wednesday to visit Mrs. Kate Hankins and help her celebrate her 85th birthday.

Randy Birkenfeld, son of the Bryan Birkenfelds of Lubbock, is still in Childrens Hospital in Fort Worth. He had surgery on his leg Thursday and seems to be doing all right. Allen Dobmeier and Carol Birkenfeld went to Fort Worth to be with the family. Mildred Ball is a patient in High Plains Baptist Hospital and is being treated for a stroke.

Meta Stork enjoyed Sunday dinner at the home of Greg and Tammye Couch of Hart. Evelyn Hill of Lubbock, Terry, Belinda and Kent Hill of Hart were also there.

Traci Hill was admitted to Plains Memorial Hospital Monday morning. She is being treated for pneumonia. Donald Schilling is also a patient in the Dimmitt hospital after being bit by a rattlesnake on two fingers Sunday afternoon.

Many friends and relatives attended the wedding of Derwin Huseman and Vera Ramaekers at Holy Family Church on Saturday afternoon. A reception and dance followed the ceremony at the Nazareth Community Hall.

About Dimmitt...

As a result of his speech the congressional democrats rallied to his support, while many of the republican members of that body and many, if not all, of his most staunch supporters in the republican party are not only unhappy, they are mad. It is doubtful, if the republican national convention was to be held tomorrow, that he could be the nominee of the party. Until now the President had hewn to the line, and had done as best he could to fulfill his campaign promises. The fact that he opted for more taxes, higher taxes on some items and closing of some tax loopholes, ripped it so far as his supply side Reaganomics is concerned.

While the rank and file pressed concern, including Congressman Kent Hance, Beardall said, adding, "We need real and substantial concern."

"We must put pressure on the legislature to make sure the situation gets resolved," Moya said.

Coalition leaders said that the severe weather and lost crops affected approximately 80,000 workers, although Dr. Robert Guzman, Texas migrant advocate of Gov. Clements' office, earlier reported that the number of farm workers affected is closer to 8,500.

Dr. Guzman's figures were apparently based on a Motivational Education and Training Inc. program that covered only migrant workers who were heads of households in 15 counties, Beardall said.

Representatives of the coalition said the number of affected persons should include more than 70 counties, permanent residents and their families, migrant people and their families, and those who work in vegetable fields and packing plants.

The coalition reportedly consists of more than 30 organizations, councils and service programs in the state.

However, one of the organizations listed as part of the coalition — the Texas Farmers Union — indicated it did not necessarily endorse the "Call to Action."

Jerry Stump, Castro County Farmers Union agent, said the Texas Farmers Union sympathized with the farm workers' plight but did not endorse the specific recommendations contained in the "Call to Action" statement issued at Thursday's press conference.

Those listed as endorsing the statement were:

- Mexican American Legislative Caucus of Texas;
- Bishop L. T. Matthiesen, Catholic Diocese of Amarillo;
- National Association of Farmworker Organizations;
- League of United Latin American Citizens;
- American G.I. Forum;
- Texas Farm Workers Union;
- United Farm Workers Union;
- Texas Farmers Union;
- American Agriculture Movement;
- Mexican American Legal Defense and Educational Fund;
- Southwest Association of Farmworker Organizations;
- Chicano Bar Association of South Texas;
- Texas Migrant Council;
- Catholic Family Services of Amarillo;
- La Raza Legal Alliance of South Texas;
- Tony Bonilla;
- Motivation Education and Training, Inc.;
- National Lawyers Guild, Texas-Oklahoma Region;
- Mexican American Democrats of Hereford;
- Harry L. Johnson, Texas Reg. Dir. Church World Service/CROP;
- National Council of La Raza;
- Migrant Legal Action Program;
- Southwest Voter Registration and Education Project;
- National Migrant Health Referral Agency;
- Colonias Del Valle;
- Azteca Economic Development Corp.;
- Concilio De Clientes;
- Farmworker Policy Impact Project;
- Chicanos Unidos — Campesinos;
- Texas Rural Legal Aid;
- Defensa Corp. of Muleshoe;
- West Texas Legal Services.

democrats are giving their support to the President's suggested legislation, and the ultra conservative republicans are giving him everything but support, the Boll Weevils are trying to figure out the most expedient political course. That bunch of political hybrids are in a very unenviable position. They took advantage of his popularity in the last session of congress, by jumping on his bandwagon in his push to lower taxes. Now if they side with the President, when he wants to raise taxes, it will appear that they are riding his coattails all the way. But if they don't support his tax legislation and he prevails they will go wherever boll weevils go when cold weather arrives.

Tax loopholes are for people who have money in large quantities. Fact of the matter is they are the people that got those holes put in the loops to begin with. We are told that tax dodges are so plentiful that many wealthy people manage to avoid paying taxes altogether. Until I get a loophole of my own, I would like to see everybody pay every dime of taxes they owe.

While the congress is in the business of whittling down government spending they should set an example by getting their collective noses out of the feed trough. Millions of our tax dollars are spent for frills, such as junkets to foreign countries, many unnecessary trips to their home districts to mend fences, innumerable mail outs, excessive questionnaires and polls, etc.

The President should get the support of congress and the people on his latest tax proposal. There is no way to balance the budget, while fixed expenses are so high, if income is reduced. This fact was pointed out many times while the congress was debating the 25% tax cut in the last session.

YOU CAN always identify the overture. It's the first thing you hear when you go to an opera.

'Pride Up' work begins

The City and Chamber of Commerce have joined forces to sponsor "Pride Up Week" in Dimmitt, so the city will be looking in top shape for Harvest Days.

Ground cover and trees have been purchased. Weeds have been killed around entrance signs, and the landscaping of property on Broadway and part of Bedford began the first of this week. Planting is expected to start Thursday or Friday.

Merchants participating in the program are George's Exxon, Colonial Inn, Queen's Cabin, Dimmitt Consumers, Texaco and Sands Motel. Other land to be improved upon is the triangle across from Paxton Tire Co. and the lot between McGuire Refrigeration and Pat's Electric. These businesses will reimburse the city for the cost of the plants, which were obtained at wholesale cost.

Property owners are asked to get rid of weeds around telephone and light poles, to bag trash and to get their property as neat as possible.

The steam-driven turbine rotor at Tolk Station, our new coal-fired plant near Muleshoe, Texas, whirls at such great speed that if it were placed on the highway, it would travel the 125 miles from Lubbock to Amarillo in about 6 minutes. Other interesting facts about the power plant, which began generating electricity in July: At the speed the main steam — which drives the turbine — travels through the pipes, it could finish the Boston Marathon (26 miles) in about 12 minutes. At maximum output the turbine produces about 728,000 horsepower. It can provide power for 5,430,000 hundred-watt light bulbs.

Jim Mattheus, Generation Design & Construction Group Manager, Amarillo.

The primary fuel for Tolk Station is a low-sulphur, high-heat-value coal from the Black Thunder Mine near Gillette, Wyoming. Southwestern Public Service made the decision to buy this coal because the low-sulphur rating means we can comply with certain requirements of the Clean Air Act without installing extremely complex and extremely expensive pollution-control devices.

Leo Austin, Supervising Engineer, Roswell.

We'll turn things upside down to benefit our customers. Here's an example: We use a "rotary dumper" system to unload the railroad cars which carry coal to Tolk. The cars are unloaded one by one. Each is attached to a large wheel that literally turns the car upside down, pouring out the coal. The system allows us to use lighter weight coal cars. So our freight cost is lower, and so is the fuel cost adjustment our customers pay.

Jack Logan, Operations Superintendent, Muleshoe.

Jim and Judith Tate and son Tal, all of Amarillo, came down to visit the Oklahoma relatives.

I had a good visit with Louise Kemp over the telephone. LaDawn's daughter, Katy Reichling, from San Francisco has been visiting Louise while her parents Tom and LaDawn Reichling vacationed in Hawaii.

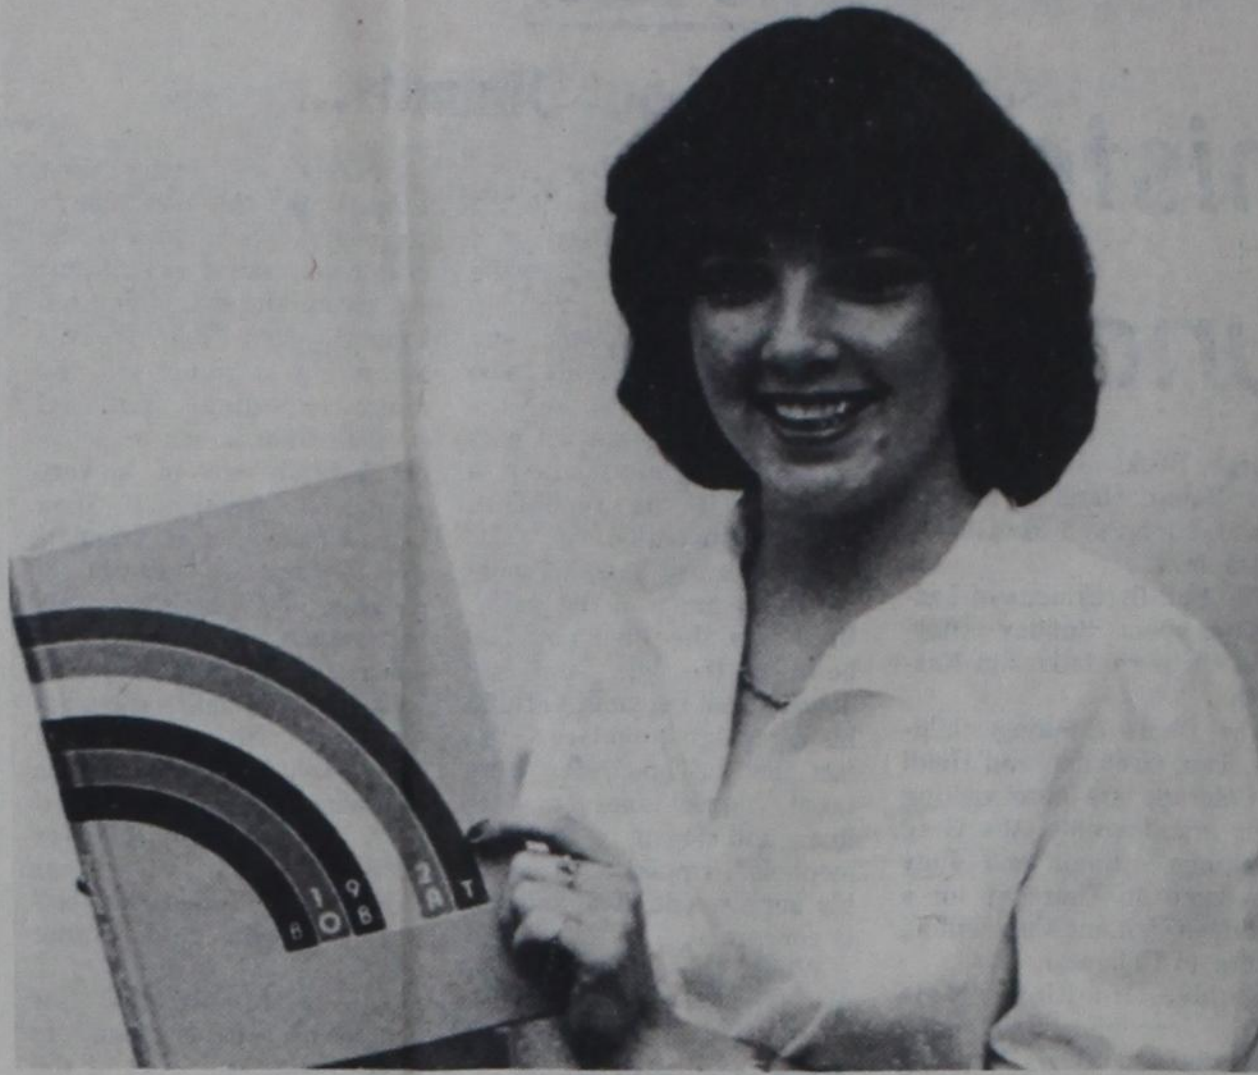

The new managers at K-Bob's are the Gieghorns. The children are hard workers, as well as the parents. We were really impressed with seven-year-old Justin. He will probably own the place when he is older! Some of the out-of-town visitors eating at K-Bobs were the Thompsons and Ethel Womble from Hereford. Ethel was babysitter on a few occasions for my grandson when she lived next door to my daughter's flower shop.

Several women are having backaches — so some have decided we have been picking too many beans and other vegetables and pulling weeds that have grown so well this year because of all the good rains.

On Thursday six young women from the class of 1955 met at K-Bobs for lunch and a lot of talking and visiting. Those enjoying the occasion were Regene (Reynolds) Blair from Bakersfield, Calif., Sandra (Hance) Honea from Dumas, Ann (Dowty) Heck from Nazareth, and Louise (Simpson) Nelson, Darlene (Carpenter) Dowell, and Darlene (Cates) Wooten, all from Dimmitt.

Jeanie Johnson accompanied daughter-in-law Tena Johnson to Biloxi, Miss., in July to join her husband Monte who is in the Air Force there. They pulled a U-haul trailer with the Monte Johnsons' belongings in it. They stopped in Fort Worth and visited with Jeanie's sister Judy Burlin and her son Wil. Spent the next night in Ruston, La., and visited more of Jeanie's relatives. Then on to Jackson, Miss., where Tena grew up. She introduced Jeanie to members of her family. They made all the tourist stops along the way and in Biloxi ate lots of seafood. One of the attractions they visited was the home of Jefferson Davis. Cowboy Johnson and Jeanie's brother Keith Pittman flew to Biloxi to join the group, then they all flew home together.

D.H.S. ANNUALS ARE IN—Lana Lane, editor of the 1982 Bobcat, proudly shows the first copy of the new yearbook. The light blue cover features a multi-color rainbow to accent the yearbook's theme, "Under the Rainbow at DHS." The annual also contains eight full-color pages. Copies of the yearbook are available now in Room 27 of Dimmitt High School; those who have paid in advance should present their receipts. A few additional copies are on sale at $20 each.

Community Action to help winterize homes

Free weatherization is being provided to qualified homeowners by the Panhandle Texas Community Action Corp. The Texas Dept. of Human Resources is sponsoring the program.

People who qualify are elderly, disabled, handicapped or have low incomes. Low income is defined as a family of one whose income does not exceed $5,850 a year or a family of two whose income is not over $7,775 a year.

The weatherization will include storm windows, weather stripping, caulking, glazing of windows and minor home repairs to stop air infiltration. The cost of the materials will not exceed $150. Priority will be given to persons who can do their own work or where labor is available within the community to do the work.

Community Action is also interested in any individual, retired carpenter, company or contractor who would be interested in contracting the labor or materials.

For more information contact the office at 218 E. Bedford, Dimmitt, or call 647-3244.

letter to the editor
AFS'ers parents express thanks

Dear Editor:
Through the medium of your newspaper, we would like to extend our thanks and appreciation, not only to Fred and Bobbie Bruegel but to the people of Dimmitt for their warm hospitality and friendliness extended to our son, Robert, during his stay in Dimmitt. Robert returned to Ireland on 16 July, having spent a year as an American Field Service exchange student.

When we first heard that Robert had received a placement on the AFS programme we were a bit dubious, as he had never been away from his family for such a long period before, and Texas is such a long way from Ireland. However, when we received the first letter from the Bruegels, our minds were soon set at ease and we knew that Robert would be well taken care of.

Robert gained some valuable experience during his year and was greatly impressed with the Texas way of life. We find he has matured a lot, is much more self confident, outgoing and positive in his attitudes.

Robert will always have happy and vivid memories of the time spent in Dimmitt High School, the teachers, the pupils and the sports he played. He will always remember the pig raising, the stock shows, the rock concerts, the C&W music, the trips in Fred's plane, the hunting and the water skiing, the football and basketball games, horse riding, dragging Main and especially his many friends, too numerous to mention. These are just some of the things Robert experienced during the past year in Dimmitt. We hope that, in return, the people of Dimmitt have benefited in some small way by Robert's stay, which after all is what AFS is all about.

Robert is having to re-adjust to the Irish way of life, which is considerably slower than in Texas. Hopefully, he will not have to wait too long to get a job.

Finally, let us say a sincere thank you to Fred and Bobbie Bruegel and family, who made it all possible by accepting Robert into their home, treated him as one of the family and took such good care of him.

Better bindweed control with a Banvel herbicide Between Crops Application.

Want to end your bindweed problems once and for all? Start planning a Banvel® herbicide Between Crops Application now.

Banvel herbicide works right into your fallow/rotation program. Go in after crop harvest this fall with up to 2 quarts of Banvel herbicide per acre on fallow land.

The fall application kills bindweed that would otherwise have time to store up nutrients before the winter freeze. A follow-up application in the spring will catch seedlings and escapes.

In addition to cleaning out bindweed, a

Banvel herbicide Between Crops Application controls many other annual, biennial and perennial weeds, including blueweed, lakeweed, and silverleaf nightshade.

Make this season the last that you're wrapped up in bindweed. Ask your ag chem dealer for between crop weed control with Banvel herbicide.

Schools announce free-meal guidelines

With time for school here again, it's also time to think about school lunches.

Dimmitt School Superintendent Robert Ryan said that the lunch and breakfast prices for Dimmitt will remain the same as was charged last year with lunch prices at 80 cents for students in kindergarten through third grade, 85 cents for fourth through eighth grades, and 95 cents for ninth through twelfth grades, and breakfast priced at 20 cents.

Reduced price lunches for all ages at Dimmitt schools will be 40 cents and reduced-price breakfasts will cost ten cents.

At Hart, all regular-priced lunches will be 65 cents and reduced-price lunches will be 40 cents, while all breakfasts will be 30 cents.

Nazareth will charge 65 cents for lunch for students in kindergarten through sixth grade and 85 cents for seventh through twelfth grades. All reduced price lunches will be 40 cents. Breakfast will cost 35 cents and reduced-price breakfasts will cost 25 cents.

DISD business manager Gene King said this year's guidelines for determining eligibility for the reduced price and free lunch and breakfast programs have been sent out by the state, and are the same for every school.

A family of one can only make $6,080 per year to be on the free meal program or $8,660 per year to qualify for the reduced-price meals. A family of two is allowed to make up to $8,090 to be on the free meals, and $11,510 to be on the reduced-price meals.

Three-member families who only make $10,090 per year can qualify for the free meals, or with an income of $14,360 per year may receive reduced-price meals; while four-member families with a yearly income of up to $12,090 may receive free meals and with up to $17,210 may qualify for reduced-price meals.

With five in a family, yearly income of up to $14,090 is allowed to still qualify for the free meals and up to $20,050 for the reduced-price meals. Six in a family can bring in $16,090 per year for the free meal program and up to $22,900 per year for the reduced-price meals.

Families with seven members can earn $18,100 per year for free meals and up to $25,750 for reduced meals. Eight-member families can earn $20,100 per year and still receive free meals and up to $28,600 for the reduced meals.

Each additional family member over eight is allowed an additional $2,000 per year in family income for free meals and $2,850 for reduced meals.

Applications for the free or reduced-price meal programs are being sent to all parents of school-aged children. The applications are to be filled out completely and returned to the school where the child attends.

"If needed information is missing from the application forms, the child will be denied the meal benefits," King said, adding that parents may obtain help in filling out the forms by calling the child's school.

Information on the application can be checked by the school or other officials at any time during the school year, and participants in the program must inform the school of any changes in income or number of family members that would change that family's eligibility.

King added that if families are not now eligible but meet the requirements later in the school year, they may make application for the program at any time.

More detailed information and weekly and monthly breakdown on allowed income levels are included with the applications.

"Children who get meal benefits are treated the same way as children who pay for meals," King said. "No child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, national origin, age or handicap."

Spray pilot walks away

Curtis Snitker of Hart, who has almost 15 years of flying experience and has logged 7,000 hours, had his first mishap Friday when his "Ag-Cat" plane flipped on its back when he was attempting a forced landing in a muddy cotton field.

Snitker was spraying corn for Vic Nelson and had dumped the chemicals, when his plane's engine quit. He went down on the land adjoined to Nelson's which is farmed by Jerry Watts.

He tried to land in a turnout, but two standpipes were in the way and he had to land in a cotton patch that had just been watered. The plane had almost come to a halt when it flipped over on its back.

Snitker climbed out and walked away with a scratched hand and abrasions.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Wooten saw the plane go down and went immediately to the scene. Snitker was coming out of the cotton field when they drove up and he commented to them, "Well, the Lord was looking over me."

Snitker flies for Doyle Davis of Davis Aerial Spray of Hart. According to Davis, the plane is fully insured.

The small chapel ceremony was attended by family members. Pew lights and candelabra at the altar were accented with white roses, gardenias, baby's breath and English ivy.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a Queen Anne gown with scalloped neckline adorned with silk motifs on Venice lace blossoms. The bishop sleeves also had Venice lace motifs with lace cuffs edged in a chiffon ruffle. The waistline flowed into a full skirt with a chapel-length train trimmed in a scalloping pattern, layered with pointed Schiffl lace and edged with a chiffon ruffle. Her fingertip veil was attached to a Juliet cap of Venice lace encrusted with pearls.

She carried a bouquet of white roses, gardenias and stephanotis with English ivy entwined.

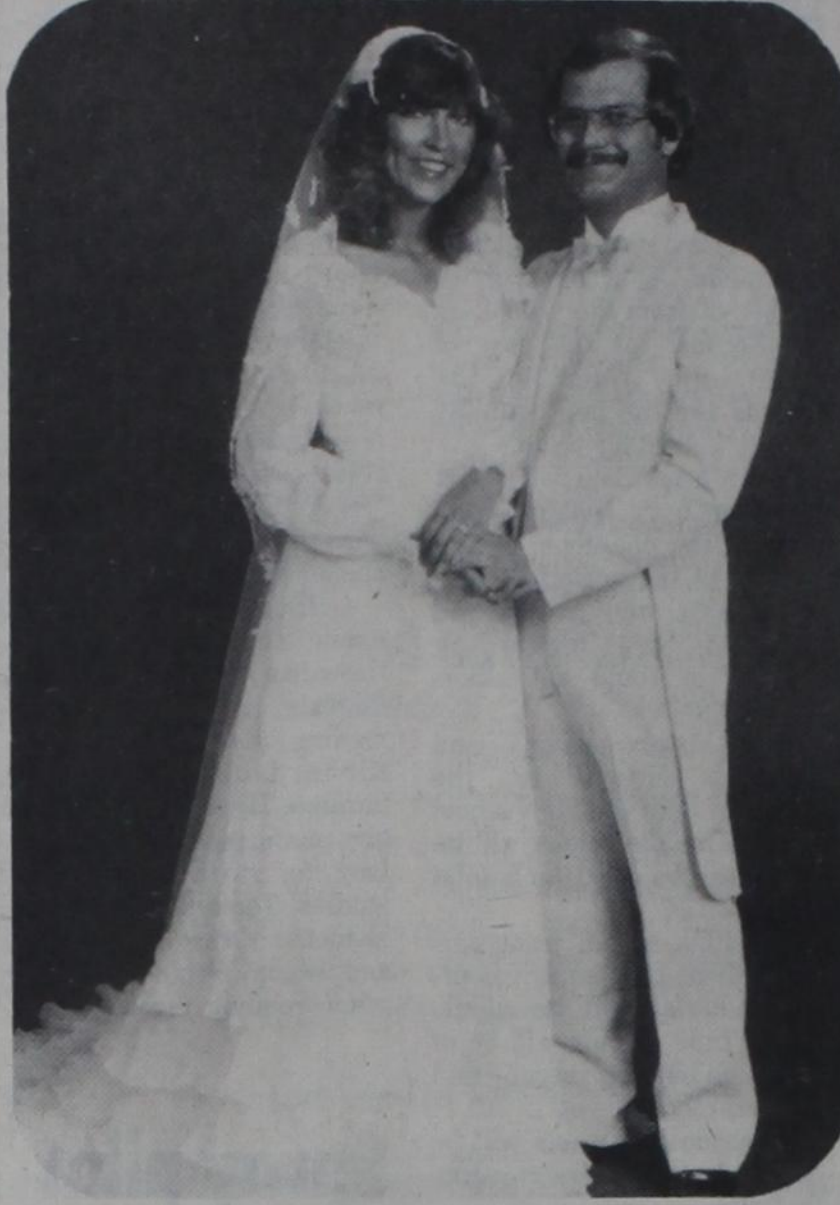

Mrs. Douglas Pummill presented organ music. Ushers were Arthur Treadaway and Kelley Hemphill.

At the reception following the ceremony, members of the houseparty were Julie Atwell, Terri Joyce, Mrs. Sam Hatton, Mrs. Stephen Hildebrandt, Kim Gatlin and Mrs. Mark Davis.

The couple will be at home in Dallas after a wedding trip to London, England.

The bride is a graduate of Texas Christian University. She is a senior programmer-analyst with Southland Corp. in Dallas.

Hutto-Ballinger

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ballinger are at home in Lubbock following their wedding trip to Mazatlan, Mexico.

They were wed July 17 in a formal, double-ring ceremony in the chapel of the First United Methodist Church of Lubbock with Rev. Elton Wyatt officiating.

The bride, the former Karen Ann Hutto, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Hutto of Dimmitt. The groom's parents are Dr. Irwin Ballinger and Barbara Ballinger of Fort Worth.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a formal-length white organza gown trimmed with Schiffl embroidery and Venice lace. The bodice featured a sweetheart neckline and long bishop sleeves. Scattered lace appliques and seed pearls accented the skirt. The hem was fashioned with crystal pleated ruffles that flowed into a chapel-length train. The matching waltz-length veil was secured by a Juliet cap appliqued with Venice lace.

She carried a floral cascade of silk roses in lavender and deep purple, accented by tiny white flowers and trimmed with ribbon streamers of deep purple.

Maid of honor was Dona Henley of Dallas, friend of the bride. Brenda Ballinger of Fort Worth, sister-in-law of the groom, was the bridesmaid.

Each attendant wore a purple spaghetti-strap gown that featured an off-the-shoulder ruffle. The floor-length skirt was highlighted by a bustle that draped down into a wide ruffle. Accessories included color-coordinated shoes and derbies trimmed with netting and pearls. Each carried a nosegay that matched the bride's bouquet.

Robert Wyatt of Fort Worth, friend of the groom, served as best man. Fred Ballinger of Fort Worth, brother of the groom, was the groomsman.

The best man and the groomsman also served as ushers.

Traditional wedding music was provided by Omega Hayhurst, organist, and Fred Ballinger, brother of the groom, soloist.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlor.

The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth and centered with a summer floral arrangement of white gladiolas and purple spider mums and daisies. Crystal and silver appointments were used to serve the three-tiered cake, punch, nuts and mints.

Presiding at the bride's table were Judy Lambert and Janice Inland.

For the wedding trip to Mazatlan, Mexico, the bride wore a plaid summer sun dress.

The bride is a graduate of Dimmitt High School and Texas Tech University.

The groom attended Texas Tech. He is currently employed by Sitton Drilling Co. in Lubbock.

Clark-Brewer

Mr. and Mrs. Krik Edwin Brewer are now at home at 600 S. Dearborn, Chicago, following their July 24 wedding in Lubbock.

The bride is the former Tonya Lynne Clark, daughter of Bill and Deanne Clark of Dimmitt. The groom's parents are Harold and Nancy Brewer of Marysville, Ohio.

The couple exchanged double-ring wedding vows in an afternoon ceremony in the First Christian Church of Lubbock with Rev. Gene Wisdom, pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Tahoka, officiating.

Susan Carr of Houston served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Jill Morrison of Austin and Betty Beseda of Houston. Each wore a sleeveless, waltz-length silk dress of dusty rose with an ivory satin belt which had a bow in front. The dresses featured narrow Mandarin collars and gathered bodices. The attendants carried arm bouquets of rose calla lilies and wheat, with gold bows and streamers. A similar bouquet decorated the chapel altar.

Best man was Glenn Brewer of Phoenix, the groom's brother. Ushers were Jim Harris and Steve Carr.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her formal-length wedding gown was of ivory silesta jersey, fashioned with a high neckline of silk Venice lace, an A-line skirt and chapel-length train. The full-length bishop sleeves were gathered into deep cuffs of lace. The full bodice was gathered into a late yoke, and a wide cummerbund encircled the natural waistline. A narrow band of lace formed the hemline of the skirt and train.

The bride wore a ring belonging to her paternal grandmother and carried a blue handkerchief belonging to her maternal grandmother.

In her shoe she carried a penny loaned to her by John Darrel McLain of Hart.

She carried an arm bouquet of ivory silk calla lilies and wheat with gold-wrapped stems and a large gold lame bow. She wore an arrangement of ivory silk flowers in her hair.

Elizabeth Hall of Lubbock provided music on the harp for the wedding ceremony and for the reception that followed in Lubbock's University City Club.

Cindy Harris and Carole Cook presided at the reception, at which an assortment of hors d'oeuvres and petits fours were served buffet style from a table draped in white, and champagne and cataba juice were served to the guests by waiters. The table was centered by a large clear glass bowl with floating gardenias.

For a wedding trip that included Kansas City, Mo., Des Moines, Iowa, and Chicago, the bride wore a red two-piece suit of crepe with a straight skirt and ruffled neckline, and pearl accessories.

The bride is a 1975 graduate of Dimmitt High School and earned a BBA degree in marketing from Texas Tech University in 1979. She is a grain merchandiser with Agri Industries of Chicago.

The groom graduated from the American High School in Madrid, Spain, in 1973 and received a bachelor of arts degree in 1977 from Syracuse University. He is employed by the public relations firm of Hill and Nalton.

MRS. SID RICKS
... She's the former Deborah Ka Wilson

Wilson-Ricks

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Ricks are at home in Lubbock after a honeymoon trip to New Orleans, La., following their Aug. 6 wedding in Lubbock.

The bride is the former Deborah Ka Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edd S. Wilson of Dimmitt. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Ricks of Childress.

The couple exchanged vows in the Garden Room of St. John's United Methodist Church of Lubbock with Rev. Doyle Reagle officiating.

Kay Lynn Rogers of Dimmitt served as matron of honor, and Bill Steffens of Levelland was best man.

Stacy Wilson of Dimmitt served as candlelighter, and Tanya Hutton of Corpus Christi sat at the registry table. They are both sisters of the bride. Jill Scarborough served as flower girl.

The groom's son, Jason Ricks of Levelland, served as ring bearer, and Randy Wilson of Lubbock and Robert Horton of Midland, brothers of the bride, served as ushers.

Gayle Nelson sang "Endless Love," "Sometimes," and "The Lord's Prayer." Organist was Mark Tabener.

The altar was decorated with greenery. Candelabras with white candles were set against a background of tropical plants. Accents included hurricane lights.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride observed tradition with something old, a handkerchief belonging to her grandmother Wilson; something new, a strand of pearls; something borrowed, a ring belonging to Ka Ka Ethridge; and something blue, a wedding garter.

She was attired in a formal, floor-length gown of peau de soie and Venice lace, designed with a scoop neckline bordered with seed pearls. The bodice featured lace appliques encrusted with seed pearls, and formed an Empire waistline. Long, pointed sleeves of Venice lace were accented by self-covered buttons. The long, flowing skirt formed a chapel-length train, which was also overlaid with lace appliques and seed pearls.

Her chapel-length veil of silk organza was attached to a Juliet cap of Venice lace accented by seed pearls and topped with a shoulder-length blusher of organza net. She carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias, white roses and baby's breath.

The matron of honor wore a peach-colored lace and silk formal in the Empire style, accented with pearl buttons. She carried a nosegay of daisies highlighted with peach-colored ribbon puffs. The candlelighter wore a peach organdy dress. The flower girl wore a floor-length peach silk dress, and carried an ecru lace basket filled with rose petals.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of Bob Jordan. The patio was decorated with clay pots of geraniums, hibiscus and ferns. Refreshments were served buffet-style out of copper and brass appointments.

The bride's table was centered with a cascade of peach roses and baby's breath. Silver and china appointments were used to serve the bride's cake, along with mints and fruit punch.

An arrangement of peach geraniums in a copper container was centered on the groom's table. Finger sandwiches, fruit, pizza and coffee were served with copper appointments.

Serving in the houseparty were Mitzi Jordan, Mrs. W. O. Reynolds and Mrs. Jimmie Lou Wilson, aunts of the bride, Kriss and Kamie

Fitzgearld-Howell

Crystal Fitzgearld and Gaines Howell exchanged wedding vows Aug. 7 in a formal, double-ring ceremony in the First Baptist Church of Dimmitt. Rev. Jack Lee, uncle of the groom, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Fitzgearld Jr. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Howell.

Maid of honor was Melody Neely, cousin of the bride. Beth Benton and Sharla Street served as bridesmaids.

Each attendant wore a nylon dotted swiss gown fashioned with an off-the-shoulder neckline that was highlighted by a ruffle. Lace and matching ribbon accented the dresses. Miss Neely's dress was peach, Miss Benton's was yellow and Miss Street's was mint green. Each carried three silk roses and wore combs in her hair, all coordinated to the color of her dress.

Matt Howell, brother of the groom, served as best man. Robin Ryan and Mark Cluck were the groomsmen.

Candlelighters were Curt Fitzgearld, brother of the bride, and Kennen Howell, cousin of the groom. Hollie Houck, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a peach dress identical to Miss Neely's and carried a basket of daisies.

Ushers were Curt Fitzgearld, Kennen Howell, Larry Robb, Rick Bagwell, Danny Underwood and Randy Bifford of Duncan, Okla.

Mrs. Dale Winders, organist, accompanied Zelda Ellison, who sang "Always and Forever," "He Has Chosen You for Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The altar area featured three candelabra, fronted by the unity candle. The altar rail was accented with greenery, gypsophilia and bows in the bride's colors. Lining the bridal path were candelabra and bows on the pews.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of white organza that featured a sweetheart neckline. Bows accented the shoulders, and appliques of Alencon lace enhanced the sheer puff sleeves. The fitted bodice was overlaid with Alencon lace and accented with pearls. The skirt draped into a scalloped lace hemline which swept back into a full chapel-length train. She wore a matching lace cojonantilla. Her veil of silk illusion was edged by a strand of pearls and was accented with lace.

Her bouquet featured a white catalaya orchid, centered in sonya and yellow rosebuds with stephanotis and baby's breath intermingled. The flowers were arranged on top of a Bible that her mother had carried in her wedding. Peach and yellow streamers flowed from the base of the bouquet.

Following tradition, she carried two handkerchiefs for something old - one which her mother carried in her wedding and the other which was her grandmother's, made from her great-grandmother's wedding dress. A gift from the groom, a teardrop diamond necklace, was worn for something new. She borrowed her mother's blue garter, which her mother had worn in her own wedding. In her shoes, the bride wore pennies minted in hers and the groom's birth years.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church's Fellowship Hall.

The bride's table was covered with her grandmother's white crocheted cloth laid over peach linen. The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with yellow roses and daisies.

The groom's table was covered with a peach and white checked cloth and set with brass appointments.

For the wedding trip to Santa Fe, N.M., the bride wore a gold slack suit with white accents and accessories. The couple is now at home west of Dimmitt.

The bride is a 1981 graduate of Dimmitt High School and is employed by Stanley Schaeffer, CPA.

The groom, a 1976 Dimmitt graduate, attended Texas Tech and is currently farming and raising Duroc pigs.

Play it safe with home-canned foods

The tasty flavor of "Mom's" home-canned fruits and vegetables could be spoiled by improper storing and preparation techniques, warned Mary K. Sweeten, a food and nutrition specialist.

Recommended storage time for home-canned vegetables is up to one year in a cool, dry cupboard, she said.

Areas with extreme heat such as garages or attics should be avoided, the specialist adds.

Never taste or eat canned foods that have evidence of spoilage — it may be your last meal, Sweeten warned. Prior to using canned foods, check lids to see that they are concave and that no bulges are present. In addition, if any off odors or colors are evident, throw the product out, the specialist continued.

Never serve spoiled products to your pets either, as it could be just as dangerous to them as yourself, Sweeten warned.

As an extra safety precaution, the USDA recommends that all home-canned low-acid products (vegetables except tomatoes) be boiled for 10-15 minutes over an electric or gas stove-top burner before serving, she pointed out. A product such as green beans containing liquid wouldn't need to boil as long as a thicker food like cream style or creamed corn, the specialist added. For example, boil green beans 10 minutes and the creamed corn 15 minutes.

Foods most often involved in botulism poisoning (often called food poisoning) are corn, spinach, green beans, peppers and asparagus, she noted.
