If half the rumors could be confirmed we hear each week in Ozona, we'd have a paper to surpass the San Antonio Light in sensationalism. But alas, it usually turns out that only half of what we hear is true and that's usually unprintable. Guess we should take pride in the fact that "when you read it in the Stockman, it's the gospel."

kk
By now the polls are closed, we know who the president will be come January 1, and all other political races are settled.

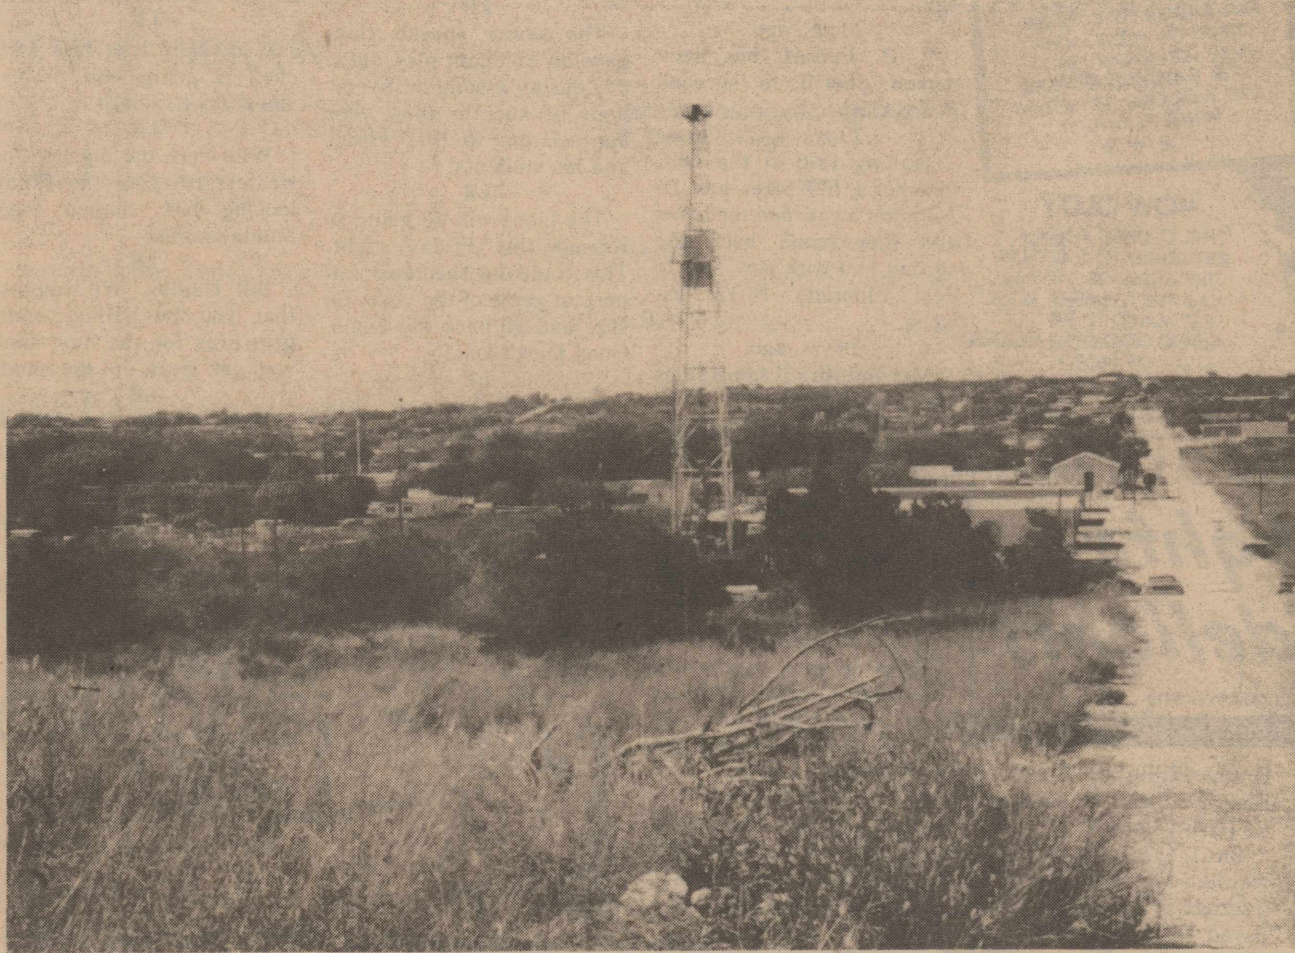

However, as of this writing, nobody knows anything. We do know that local and state officials were in for a surprise when the polls opened Tuesday. The voter turnout was much heavier than predicted all over the state and as of late afternoon it looked like a record turnout for Crockett County. This comes to you as I sit here waiting for the local results. It looks like we will be up much later than usual getting the paper to bed following a Tuesday election. I wish they would do something about that "first Tuesday in November" date for a general election. I guess if we had a Wednesday deadline, it would be the "first Wednesday in November." Oh well, as someone once said, "all things come to him who waits." Sitting here waiting, we have to wonder about that.

Looking back over the week just passed, we are thankful everyone in the community got by with a safe, sane Halloween. We thought we were wasting our time and money to buy Pumpkin Insurance from the Girl Scouts, figuring we had by now lost our popularity with the home-wrapping set. However, we woke up Monday morning and found the mesquite tree in our garden most beautifully and tastefully decorated with ropes of pale yellow toilet tissue. True to their word, the Girl Scouts had removed all decoration by the time we made it home Monday.

After all the spooks were tucked in bed Sunday night we had a visit from a couple of spooks, with spoofing on their mind. It was a fun finale from John L. Henderson and company.

kk
Sitting here waiting for the election results, a thought has entered my mind. When we go outside these early fall mornings, why don't we smell the crisp, cool smell of fall? Because oil and gas wells are converging on the town. I've thought the past few days that skunks were residents in the area were wondering what all the noise was. After having lost ten nights of sleep from the noise of a rig located two miles out of town on Hwy. 290, Ozonans were not at all happy about this one right in town.

Makes Recommendations -

Crockett County Grand Jury Winds Up Investigations

The Crockett County Grand Jury wound up its investigation into the effectiveness of the various law enforcement agencies which serve Crockett County and related matters last Thursday. Several recommendations were made to the 112th District Court to pass on to the Crockett County Commissioners Court.

The jury made several recommendations with respect to the Crockett County Sheriff's Department. Concerned about the lack of a full deputy staff in the department and the large turnover of employees in that area, the jury recommended that in order to secure a professional deputy staff, an immediate raise of $75 per month must be granted. Furthermore, they recommended a quarterly review of performance be made of each deputy and an incentive raise of up to $25 per month be granted upon a successful review. In this area, they also recommended that the sheriff be provided raises in like manner.

In order to relieve the Sheriff and his staff from menial tasks and free them to enforce the law, the Grand Jury recommended that the Commissioners Court immediately hire a janitor to clean and maintain the jail.

Much testimony was heard about the growing population and problems of law enforcement that growth brings. In view of this the Crockett County Grand Jury recommended that the staff of the Sheriff's Department be increased from four to five deputies and that the Sheriff

Last Week's Rainfall 3 In. And Up Here

After over three inches of slow-falling rain the last part of the week, October made its exit with a respectable 5.93 inches of rainfall for the month and turned one of the best rainfall records for the year.

Rain fell in everything from a drizzle to heavy showers the clock around from Thursday through Friday of last week. Oct. 28 fall was measured at 1.10 inches, Oct. 29, 2.01 inches and Friday a total of .03 of an inch was recorded for a three-day total of 3.14 inches.

Temperatures also dropped to record lows for the month, but a warming trend set in over the weekend and the mercury was in the 70's at mid-afternoon by Tuesday.

be directed to continue the system of hiring deputies that he has recently instituted.

The jury also heard testimony concerning the prosecution facilities in the county and made several recommendations. The jury made note of the fact that it is common knowledge that the county has been without a county attorney for some time and that the duties have been assumed by the district attorney, who resides in Crockett County. Due to the work in a rather large district, the district attorney cannot effectively function as both district and county attorney.

Realizing that this problem is varied and complicated, the Grand Jury recommended that ways be found by the commissioners court to relieve this situation and that proper methods be employed to bring another attorney who perhaps could be elected to this post in order that Crockett County can be at full staff in prosecution of law breakers. As an interim measure, until a permanent solution to the county attorney problem can be found, the Grand Jury further recommended to the 112th District Court that an investigative-assistant district attorney be secured.

The recommendations of the Grand Jury were submitted to the District Court Thursday, Oct. 28, with further instruction that a full report be made on the status of the recommendations to the District Court and to the Grand Jury no later than forty-five days from last Thursday.

Pedestrian Auto Mishap Injures One

Cristovall Villarreal was treated and released Saturday night at Crockett County Hospital after being struck by a car as he was attempting to cross Hwy. 163 at 8th St.

The car, a 1970 Ford, driven by Jimmy Gillit, struck Cristovall as it was traveling north on 163. The accident occurred at 11:40 p.m. Trooper Manuel Hartnett, DPS, was the investigating officer.

Gunshot Is Fatal To Eva G. Moran

Eva Galindo Moran, 31, was fatally wounded Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock when she received a gunshot wound in the back. In Crockett County Jail, charged with murder and denied bond, is Arturo Lara, 32.

The gunshot was the result of a domestic quarrel between the two at the home of Mrs. Dora Lara on Santa Rosa Street. Mrs. Moran had started toward the door when the bullet hit her in the lower back. She was dead on arrival at Crockett County Hospital. The autopsy showed the bullet severed an artery.

Lara was arrested immediately following the incident and will be bound over to the Crockett County Grand Jury.

Funeral services for Mrs. Moran were held Tuesday afternoon in Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church with burial in Lima Cemetery under the direction of Janes Funeral Home.

She was born May 15, 1945 in Del Rio and had been an Ozona resident all her life.

Survivors include her mother, Mrs. Margarito Galindo, of Ozona; a daughter, Lizzie Moran, of Ozona; 2 sons, Martine Moran and Jim Bob Moran, both of Ozona; four brothers, Mario Galindo, Daniel Galindo and Reynaldo Galindo, all of Ozona, and Margarito Galindo, Jr., with the U.S. Army in Germany; one sister, Mrs. Teresa Castaneda of Sheffield.

8 wins, no losses -

Lions Remain Undefeated After 13-0 Rout Of Crane

By Brian Gries

The Lions kept their record spotless and won their first District game here Friday night, by defeating the Crane Golden Cranes 13-0.

The Lions couldn't get a drive initiated until the very end of the first quarter, but their efforts finally paid off. Midway through the second quarter Vaden Aldridge dashed for three yards for the touchdown. This drive, began in the first quarter lasted 4 min. 50 sec., consumed 60 yards, and took eleven plays. John Galvan added the extra point to make it 7-0 Lions. Neither team was able to start another sustained drive, and the score remained 7-0 at the half. The Lions had managed to hold the Cranes to 24 yards total offense to the Lions' 173 yards.

With two minutes gone out of the third quarter, Mike Fay recovered a fumble to start another Lion drive. This drive took five plays and ended in a 20 yard field goal by John Galvan. This boosted the Lions' lead to 10-0.

The last score came only two minutes later when Galvan was again called on for a field goal attempt. This time his kick sailed 37 yards to split the uprights. Galvan attempted another field goal later, but this try was barely wide, and the Lions remained undefeated with a 13-0 win over the Cranes.

Leading rushers for the Lions were Gary Warren with 106 yards, Blake Moody with 101 yards and Vaden Aldridge with 34 yards.

Outstanding defensive players were Ricky DeHoyos with 6 tackles and four quarterback sacks, Clyde Bailey with 9 tackles, Mike Fay with 7 tackles and 2 recovered fumbles. Gary Warren with 7 tackles and one recovered fumble, and Orlando DeHoyos with 7 tackles.

Coach Sewell said that this week's game with Kermit will be a tough one, and the Lions won't be able to let up. He said the district is very well balanced, but Kermit will probably be the Lions' toughest opponent. It should be a very exciting game, and all Lion fans are urged to attend. Advance tickets may be purchased at the Superintendent's office until noon Friday.

The statistics were extremely lopsided in favor of the Lions. Ozona had 16 first down to Crane's 6. The Lions had 247 yards rushing and 49 yards passing for a total of 296 yards, to the Cranes' 6 yards rushing and 39 yards passing for a total of 45 yards. Ozona attempted twelve passes and completed 4, but Crane attempted 12 and completed 5. The Lions punted 3 times for an average of 41 yards and the Cranes' punted 6 times for an average of 40.2 yards. Ozona received 9 penalties for 113 yards and Crane received 2 for 30 yards. The Lions gave up only one fumble to the Cranes' three.

Heavy Turnout For Election Surprises Local Officials

Local and state officials were surprised at the voter turnout in the county and in the state as both exceeded the forecast by a large number of voters. Crockett County recorded an all time record for a general election with a total of 1657 votes cast.

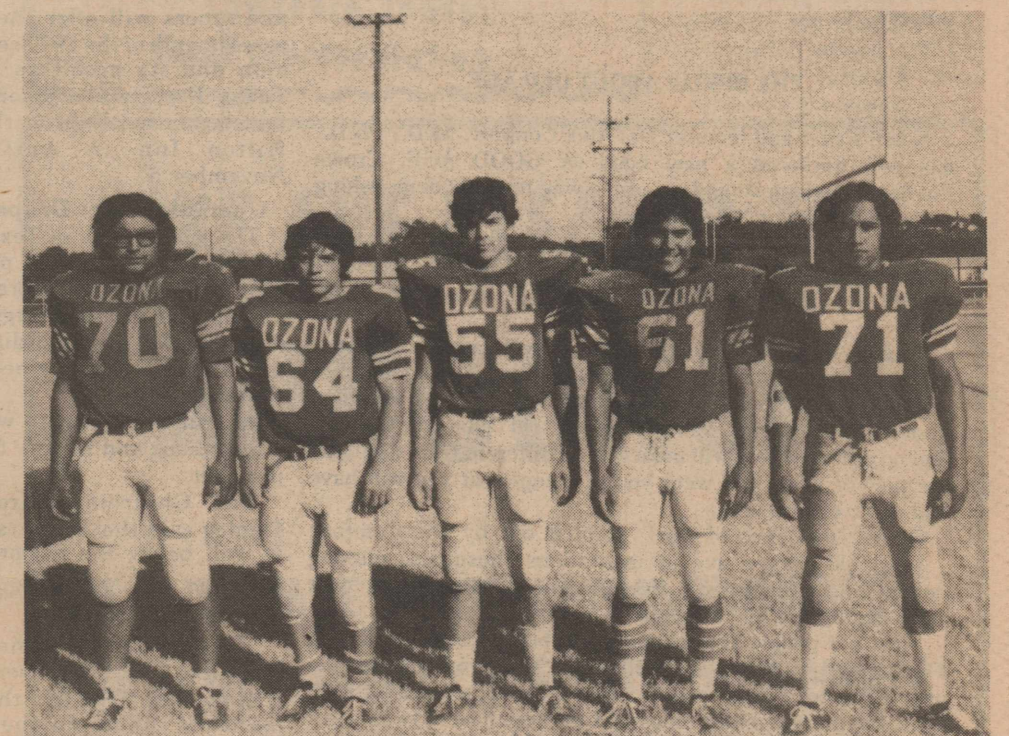

County totals came in at 9:45 p.m., the latest count to date in the county, possibly because of write-in votes in the various county elections. However, write-ins did very little, in fact nothing to change county elective seats from the totals in the Democratic Primary elections.

When county results were in at 9:45 p.m. Tuesday, the county went along with the rest of the state by a narrow margin, giving 804 votes to Jimmy Carter and 802 votes to President Ford. Incumbent senator Lloyd Bentsen won in the county 1,041 to 393 for Republican challenger Alan Steelman. Robert (Bob) Krueger, incumbent congressman for District 21, smashed challenger Bobby A. Locke by a count of 1187 to 195, as was reflected in the rest of the district. For Railroad Commissioner, Democrat Jon Newton polled 1021 votes in Crockett County to 250 for Republican Walter Wendlandt, while Raza Unida Party candidate polled a respectable 99 votes.

Don Yarbrough, Democratic nominee for Associate Justice, Supreme Court, Place 1, easily won Crockett County as he did the remainder of the state, in spite of his 20-some-odd fraud convictions and facing a disbarment procedure. Yarbrough won Crockett County with a total of 793 votes to write-in opponents, 291 for Sam Houston and 12 for Tom Lorance.

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION MEMBER 1976

THOSE "TAX LOOPHOLES"

The Wall Street Journal summed up the new tax laws as well as anyone: "The new tax provisions will affect a great many people - but not that much."

Unquestionably, the best tax "break" for the little fellow is the revised Estate Tax provision, which allows for increased exemptions.

Perhaps the most confusing element in the discussion of taxes - especially during an election year - is the attack by some politicians against "tax loopholes."

The fact is, our tax laws are saturated with "loopholes" for which most of us, and especially the poor, can be very grateful.

Or, the provision that interest charges are deductible. This recognizes that a rich person can pay cash for an automobile, house, or other possessions.

"Equality under the law" has been a major objective of the United States from the very founding of our nation.

THE BIG LIE ABOUT OLD AGE

Noted writer and lecturer Dr. Alex Comfort, M.D., Ph.D., has now authored a new book (A GOOD AGE, Crown Publishers) which should go a long way towards demolishing many myths about "old" people.

"The typical aged American today is white-haired...inactive...unemployed...slightly deficient in intellect...tiresome to talk to...unemployed because old age is second childhood..."

So goes the myth. But the fact is, explains Dr. Comfort, that "old" people are people who have lived a certain number of years and that is all.

Other "nonsense of age" pointed out by Dr. Comfort: Most old people live in institutions (hospitals, nursing homes, etc.).

Most old people are constantly in bed because of illness. Fact: they get fewer acute illnesses than younger people...1.3 illnesses per person per year as against 2.1 for all ages.

However, because of such myths, it has been widely assumed that everyone should be forced to retire after a certain age level is reached...

"Only two kinds of people really are happy conventionally retired," says Dr. Comfort, "those who were always lazy, or those who have waited to get around to a consuming interest for which they have studied, prepared and planned."

Thanks to our more enlightened civil rights laws today, older folk cannot be denied equal employment opportunity and they must be compensated with equal pay for equal work.

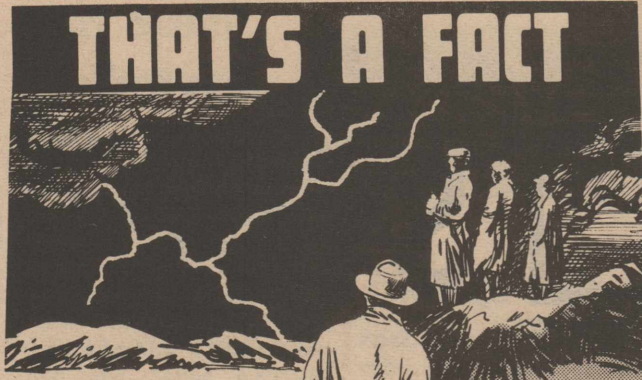

LETTERS

Dear Mrs. Montgomery: Thank you for printing the article and pictures in the Ozona Stockman concerning the problem of vandalism to highway signs.

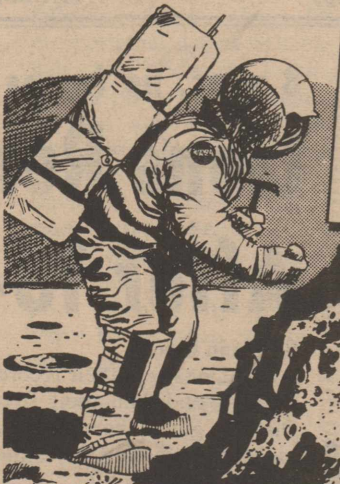

If through this article we are able to stop one person for thoughtlessly or wantonly destroying a sign, it will be worth the efforts. Each sign is placed where it is for instruction to the travelling public, and a destroyed or defaced sign may be the cause of a needless accident and resulting property damage, personal injury or possibly a fatality.

Thank you for your fine cooperation. Sincerely, D.R. Watson District Eng.

AUSTIN - Texas legislators will be heading back to Austin next January for another historic session.

One of their priority items - public school finance - already has been laid out for study and opinion sizeups.

A House sub-committee submitted a $1 billion plan for the state to assume 100 per cent of school costs. Gov. Briscoe unveiled his long-awaited 1977 school finance proposals, together with cost estimates and district ability to pay data, this week.

Fortunately, lawmakers will have another windfall surplus estimated at from $2 billion to $3 billion.

They can afford a school plan and still have cash left over, but inflation and increasing demands of state agencies will make budget-making as difficult a task as ever.

Legislators, apparently, are in an economy-first frame of mind. Certainly, state leaders - including Gov. Dolph Briscoe, Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby and House Speaker Bill Clayton - are.

Briscoe, Hobby, Clayton, Comptroller Bob Bullock and others will offer their assessments of the 1977 session and its problems at Texas Press Association's legislative briefing at the Hilton Inn in Austin November 5.

Unemployment Drops The jobless rate in Texas dipped slightly to 5.4 per cent in September, representing the third straight month of decline, according to Texas Employment Commission.

In August, the rate was 5.5 per cent and in July 5.8 per cent.

TEC Chairman Harold Dudley said the Texas rate is well below the national level of 7.4 per cent for September.

"This pattern of decline is traditional for the season," Dudley said. "The fact that monthly unemployment rates are following seasonal trends indicates...we can remain optimistic about Texas' future."

Rates vary widely by areas.

Air Service Recommended A Texas Aeronautics Commission hearing examiner has recommended approval of Southwest Airlines' application to add Austin, Corpus Christi, El Paso, Lubbock and Midland/Odessa to its system.

Examiner John G. Soule's recommendation will go to the commission which has a tentative meeting date set for December 1.

Southwest now offers economy air service between Dallas, Harlingen, Houston and San Antonio.

If new routes are approved, non-stop service will be added to the following city-pair markets: Austin-Corpus Christi; Austin-Dallas; Austin-Harlingen; Corpus Christi-Houston; Dallas-Lubbock;

Dallas-Midland/Odessa; El Paso-Midland/Odessa and El Paso-Lubbock.

PRESENTED BY THE STATE BAR OF TEXAS

Q: The man I used to live with has been threatening me and won't leave me alone. How can I make him quit bothering me?

A: A peace bond can be used to protect someone from another person who is harassing them. Once a complaint has been sworn out before a justice of the peace, the justice then decides whether to arrest the person to bring them to justice court.

Q: I'm a middle-aged man of modest income and savings, married, have three children, and would like to draw up a will. Must I consult a lawyer, or is there another way that may be less expensive?

A: The number of factors involved in drafting a will, ranging from the choice of a guardian for children to co-ordination of life insurance and other benefits into an estate plan, are so varied for each person that each will should be individually prepared.

Q: I've been living with my boyfriend for almost five years and I'm referred to as his wife. We're living in his home, which is in the name of his brother and mother. Even the checking and savings accounts are in his brother's and mother's name.

What rights do I have? A: A man and woman living together and holding themselves out as man and wife are considered to have a common-law marriage.

Q: If a husband files for a divorce, but wants to raise his daughter, what chance would he have to get custody of the child? What grounds are needed to prove a mother unfit? A: The Texas Family Code specifically prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in a judge's decision of which parent should get custody of the children in a divorce.

Q: I've been living with my boyfriend for almost five years and I'm referred to as his wife. We're living in his home, which is in the name of his brother and mother. Even the checking and savings accounts are in his brother's and mother's name. What rights do I have? A: A man and woman living together and holding themselves out as man and wife are considered to have a common-law marriage.

Spotlight on HEALTH

HEALTH & SCIENCE DIGEST Psychological factors must be considered for successful weight reduction, a University of Tennessee School of Medicine faculty member contends.

Eighty-five per cent of hemorrhoid patients can be treated without surgery, a Clinical Professor of Surgery at the Milton S. Hershberg Medical Center contends. Nine out of ten of the others can have the necessary surgical procedures carried out in their physician's office or in the outpatient department of a hospital.

Next to bleeding, itching is the most frequent complaint accompanying hemorrhoids. One of the newest medications to alleviate this condition is an aerosol foam called Proctofoam. It contains soothing emollients to relieve pain and itching.

The term vaginitis covers a number of vaginal infections. A physician can determine the exact type a patient has by taking cultures and smears. He is then able to determine what specific course of therapy to prescribe. The doctor may also suggest internal cleansing as an adjunct to his choice of medication.

Tips For Gardeners

From the Ozona Garden Club by Mrs. Bailey Post

In the Southwest, November is usually one of our most delightful months. Too many save this time of the year for vacations and weekend trips. Most of the Texas trails will be featuring colorful foliage and fall flowers. Since our wonderful rains the last two months the autumn should be perfect for such pleasure.

As for the work phase of activities, preparations for fall planting of trees and shrubs will soon be underway.

After the leaves have fallen, clean the gutters and drains to prevent stoppage of their functions. Drain garden pools before freezing.

Bluebonnets should be coming up thick since the recent rains in a space where they can reseed. If not, it isn't too late to get them planted.

Perennials of nearly all kinds can still be set out, divided and transplanted this month.

Proceed with basic soil improvement work until a hard freeze. The surface of ground turned over in the fall should be left rough so that the maximum benefit of winter rains is received.

To continue landscape plants of last week, for the past several years, plant breeders have developed excellent hardy, dwarf type plants. They are much more useful in the landscape than the old standard varieties. Some of these are nandina, flowering quince, pyracantha, crepe myrtle, and several types of juniper. These plants are all good selections for mass plantings. Other small plants that do well in partial shade are fatsia, aucuba, holly fern and Indian hawthorn and Japanese black and mugo pines.

November is the best month for planting anemones in most of Texas.

Watch for notice of our annual bulb and plant sale Nov. 9 to be south of the park downtown on Hwy. 290, weather permitting.

Mixing is the latest trend for attractive informal table settings. Patterns mixed with solids or other patterns allow unique expressions of personality and denote seasonal changes. But be careful to give tables and buffets an altogether appearance. The personalized look should control the mix and match look and not create clutter.

Before beginning combinations, ask yourself these questions: Do dinnerware, glassware and linens complement each other? Do selected mixables fit into the overall decorating color scheme and desired mood? Is there a good balance between selected table patterns and patterns of the floors, walls or windows?

Mixing coordinated patterns of dinnerware or a pattern with a solid will increase numbers--and show the hostess' innovative spirit. If unsure about mixing patterns, alternate favorite patterned plates with solid white ones.

A striped yellow placemat put next to or overlapping with a white and brown polka-dotted one can add special interest. Playing deep colors against beige or white can be a subtle way of introducing fall to the family and guests. Use mirror placemats for an extra treat. For a different look, cover a table with cloths that reach to the floor, or make table runners that match a hostess dress.

If a family member collects sea shells, rocks or jade, select a few prize possessions to mix in with the table setting. In this manner, children might enjoy their opportunity to show off their latest treasures to guests.

Be creative, resourceful and sensible when creating a personalized table. But do not use all possible 'mixables' at one meal. An attractive table set in good taste will enhance the food's good taste.

A NATION'S GREATNESS

During this Bicentennial year, we remember especially the covered wagon—and the days when vast stretches of fertile farming land and rich mining country lured the pioneers across our western plains.

Packed in these lumbering vehicles were camping materials, stores of food and medicines, clothing and tools and weapons, for danger lurked everywhere.

These were the rugged people who settled our West, and bore the torch of civilization across plain and mountain to the Pacific.

But the covered wagons carried something besides the pioneers and their material belongings westward. They carried the faith of a great people, and they planted it in every village and settlement.

Faith is the foundation on which the West was built—and the East had been built before it. Faith in God and the right, in people and work and prayer... this is the true source of a nation's greatness.

Every church spire pointing heavenward blazens the secret of our country's strength.

Natural Fibers Tend To Shrink

Some garments made of natural fibers and woven fabrics may shrink more in washing than the consumer had planned. Such shrinkage can affect the utility of a garment, Marlene Odle, a clothing specialist, says.

"Although today most fabrics are pre-shrunk to eliminate such a size problem, most garments or fabric over-the-counter that has two to three per cent residual shrinkage can change the size of a garment noticeably. Garments marked as such usually have special care instructions to prevent shrinkage, which can be controlled with special treatment. A good example of this is cotton gauze shirts or tops," she said.

Miss Odle is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"If uncertain about the shrinking qualities of a garment, flatwork ironing tends to stretch fabrics. Dry the garment on a flat surface. Arrange the garment for pressing by applying some tension to the fabric to straighten the yarns. Press the garment lying in this position. Mechanical tumble drying can cause more shrinking," the specialist said.

If, however, the consumer finds that the shrinkage is excessive, even after hand ironing, the garment should be returned to the stores where it was purchased, she advised.

"Fabrics by-the-yard used in homesewing should be washed and machine dried before the garment is cut out. This will eliminate any surprises after the garment is washed."

Good Nutrition Does Not Change With Aging Process

Don't tell your age by your eating habits--you may be aging, but you can eat young. Frances Reasonover, foods and nutrition specialist, says.

She's with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Caloric requirements are the only difference between what young and old people should eat--nutritional needs are generally the same. The body doesn't need any one particular food--it needs components of food: protein, fats, carbohydrates, vitamins and minerals, called nutrients."

"Daily caloric needs decline with each decade over 50, so caloric intake must usually be reduced. Requirement for most other nutrients remains fairly constant during older life," she explained.

Foods furnishing nutrients are grouped into four basic groups.

"Major sources of protein in the American diet are red meat, poultry, fish and eggs. This group also contributes iron and some thiamine (Vitamin B 1). The excellent protein contribution of milk and milk products is often overlooked. Dried peas, beans and peanut butter, especially when combined with meat or milk proteins are also good protein sources. Cereal protein and meat protein, combined in a frozen entree, provide useful protein at mealtime."

Calcium is the nutrient most likely to be consumed in amounts below recommended levels in the diets of the elderly. Milk and milk products furnish most of this important mineral. Those who do not drink milk may enjoy cheese, yogurt or milk desserts. Also, small amounts of calcium are found in vegetables, especially the dark leafy varieties. The milk group also supplies riboflavin and, if fortified, Vitamin D. Two cups of milk or equivalent calcium in dairy products is needed daily, she said.

"The fruit and vegetable group furnished Vitamins A, C, some calcium and iron. In the American diet, orange juice has become the major source of Vitamin C. But should be under the care of a physician who may prescribe cabbage, broccoli, vine-ripe tomatoes, green tomatoes and peppers and such fruits as strawberries and cantaloupe. stitute products. Most elderly persons can continue to eat a diet rich in Vitamin C if they use moderate amounts of salt used for seasoning food."

"Think 'green' and 'or-Do not use salt substitutes ange' for food sources to furnish Vitamin A. Deep green leafy vegetables, winter squash, carrots and cantaloupe are all excellent sources of carotenes, which are converted to Vitamin A by the body. Liver is a rich source of Vitamin A. Vitamin A is stored by the body, and one serving is needed every other day."

Four servings of the bread-cereal group are needed daily. Cereal products contain the B vitamins: thiamine, riboflavin and niacin. These three vitamins are mentioned together because they normally appear in the same foods. Along with iron, they are the three vitamins added when cereal products are enriched. Whole-grain cereals are the most common source of these B vitamins. In addition, riboflavin is found in dairy products, while pork is a good source of thiamine or Vitamin B1.

"No single food has a high iron content. The dietary intake must come from small amounts of iron found in many foods. Meats, eggs, cereals, whole-grained or enriched, dark leafy green vegetables, dried apricots and raisins all add to the daily iron intake."

"Dietary fiber provides bulk necessary for the efficient function of the gastrointestinal tract. Food sources of fiber are fresh fruits and vegetables, whole grain cereals, dried fruits and nuts," she said.

Water is an important component of all body cells. It functions in the regulation of body temperature and the removal of waste products from the body.

This means liquid intake is important. Much of the water consumed is in the form of food, beverages and soup. The amount needed varies with the individual and the food eaten, but everyone needs the equivalent of seven-eral glasses of water each day, Miss Reasonover said.

"Sodium and potassium play a major role in maintaining the fluid balance in the body. Many people retain liquids because of excess salt intake or failure of the kidney to function efficiently. Persons with this problem should be under the care of a physician who may prescribe salt restriction. Sometimes do-ried products. Most elderly persons can continue to eat a diet rich in Vitamin C if they use moderate amounts of salt used for seasoning food."

"Think 'green' and 'or-Do not use salt substitutes

Oatmeal Cake: A Notable Tote-Able

In the made-from-scratch category, oatmeal cake wins the popularity contest for "take-along" favorite. It's a crowd-pleaser whenever it goes to a picnic, potluck, or party.

This updated recipe for oatmeal cake includes the natural flavors of whole grains, complemented by the natural sweetener, unsulphured molasses.

- OATMEAL CAKE
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
 - 1 cup rolled oats
 - 1 cup boiling water
 - 1 cup granulated sugar
 - 2/3 cup unsulphured molasses
 - 2 eggs
 - 1 tsp. vanilla
 - 1 cup all-purpose flour
 - 1/2 cup whole wheat flour
 - 1 tsp. baking soda
 - 1 tsp. baking powder
 - 1/2 tsp. salt
 - 2 tsp. cinnamon

Pour boiling water over oats, and butter or margarine in a large bowl; cool to lukewarm.

Combine sugar, molasses, eggs, and vanilla. Add dry ingredients and the oatmeal mixture. Beat until smooth.

Bake at 350°F. for 35 minutes in a greased and floured 9x13-inch pan.

While cake bakes, make topping:
2 tbs. butter or margarine
1/2 cup granulated sugar
2 tbs. unsulphured molasses
1/2 cup chopped nuts
2 tbs. milk
1 tsp. vanilla
1 cup coconut, optional

Heat topping over low heat until it can be spread on the hot cake. Then place under broiler for 2-3 minutes.

unless suggested by a physician."

Just as 5 p.m. once was "quitting time," 7 a.m., 12 noon and 6 p.m. signify it is time to eat. How many times a day should a person eat? There is nothing magic about three meals. Five small meals a day are fine, as long as the appropriate number of servings from each food group are consumed daily and the caloric intake maintains reasonable body weight, the specialist said.

If efficiently used, a small refrigerator-freezing unit is large enough to allow for variety in meals. Family-size recipes can be prepared and leftovers can be stored in the freezer in small casseroles or boil-in-the-bag pouches for later use.

Confirmers Completed In County Field

Amoco Production Co. completed two Strawn gas confirmers in the Crockett County portion of the Whitehead multipay field, approximately 24 miles southeast of Ozona.

The No. 1-C J.F. & M. E. Sudderth, fourth producer and a 2 1/2 mile south extension, was finalized for a calculated, absolute open flow of 7,525,000 cubic feet of gas daily, through perforations at 8,973-9,211 feet, which had been acidized with 4,000 gallons.

Drilled to 9,401 feet, with 4 1/2 inch casing set at 9,235 feet, it is plugged back to 9,212 feet.

Location is 1,800 feet from the north and 1,420 feet from the east lines of 6-G-GC&S. The Donham multipay field of Crockett County gained its fourth San Andres producer and a location southeast extension to that pay with completion of Bill J. Graham, Midland, No. 2 Joe Bean, 17 miles northwest of Ozona, for a calculated, absolute open flow of 1,950,000 cubic feet of gas daily.

Production was from open hole at 894 feet, where 7-inch casing was set, and 1,420 feet, total depth. Location is 2,173 feet from the south and 1,320 feet from the east lines of 48-UV-GC&SF.

Cattle Feeding Increases

Although many people are talking about the return of grass-fed cattle because of increasing feed prices, the latest cattle-on-feed statistics show significant increases are still coming in cattle feeding, notes a livestock marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Dr. Ed Uvacek points out that the number of cattle on feed in the seven major cattle feeding states on Sept. 1 was up 8 per cent over last year's totals, at a total of 6.4 million head. In Texas, the number of cattle on feed was even up higher—10 per cent above year ago levels.

Placement of cattle and calves on feed during August was up 10 per cent over last year in these seven states, while Texas figures showed a 25 per cent increase in feedlot placements during that month.

On the marketing side, Uvacek points out that fed cattle marketings were above a year ago by 31 per cent in the seven states during August, while Texas marketings showed a 38 per cent jump.

"The interesting thing about this data is that they indicate a somewhat more positive attitude about cattle feeding among Texas feedlots," contends Uvacek. "It might also indicate that more cow-calf operators are placing their stock on feed, rather than selling them as feeders."

RRC Reports Crockett Consolidation

The Texas Railroad Commission, Oil & Gas Division, has announced the consolidation of the Howard Draw (Grayburg conglomerate) and Howard Draw, Northeast (1165 San Andres) fields of Crockett County, effective Nov. 1.

The field will be designated as the Howard Draw (Grayburg-San Andres) field.

Bullock Announces New SA Mgr.

Comptroller Bob Bullock announced Tuesday the appointment of Thomas M. Goff as manager of his San Angelo field office, effective immediately.

Goff, 30, an attorney, had been in private practice in San Angelo prior to the appointment.

A 1968 Colorado State University graduate, Goff earned his law degree from the University of Houston in 1974.

The San Angelo office, located at 1900 Sherwood Way, is open from 8 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. It serves Tom Green, Coke, Concho, Crockett, Irion, Kimbel, Mason, McCulloch, Menard, Reagan, Runtless, San Saba, Schleicher, Sterling, Sutton and Val Verde Counties.

Shortages To Affect Holiday Baking Habits

Short pecan and raisin supplies will raise prices on those holiday-baking items, but plentiful dried prunes can help alleviate the situation somewhat, Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt says.

Wet weather in California's San Joaquin Valley caused the raisin shortage which will result in price increases for that fruit, she added.

"However, dried prunes are plentiful—with production estimated to be seven per cent higher than last year. In many recipes, dried prunes can be substituted for raisins."

Mrs. Clyatt is a consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Lower prices may be in store for cranberries as the season advances—with production above last year's crop to such an extent that it is the second largest on record, the specialist noted.

Economical fruit choices currently include apples, pears and grapes. Top vegetable buys, in terms of economy and quality, are cabbage, cucumbers, squash, green peppers, dry onions and potatoes, Mrs. Clyatt said.

Greater potato acreage planted is increasing output to possible-record totals—all resulting in "attractive prices."

"Generally, the most economical potato choices are 'by-the-bag' if consumers can use that quantity," she added.

Head lettuce continues in the "high-price" bracket due to adverse weather conditions in growing areas recently, Mrs. Clyatt said.

Annual H.E. Christmas Program Set

Doris Richards, home economist with West Texas Utilities Company will present her annual Christmas Program on Tuesday, November 9th, 2:00 p.m. at the Civic Center. The program is sponsored by West Texas Utilities Company and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. All homemakers are welcome to attend.

This year's program theme will be "The 12 Days of Christmas". The demonstration will include holiday recipes, gift wrapping ideas, and home decorations.

The food ideas will include cakes, breads, candy, cookies, snacks, jam, and appetizers. Doris will demonstrate how to make various decorations for your home. Some of the projects will be a lighted holiday apple tree, a lighted fruit basket, a gilded bird's nest, felt pear tree, holly wreath and a holiday tablecloth.

Growth doesn't stop at maturity

Everyone knows U.S. Savings Bonds reach full maturity in just five years. But they don't stop there.

Bonds keep accumulating interest year after year after year.

So if you're enrolled in a Payroll Savings Plan at work (or the Bond-A-Month Plan where you save), you don't have to rush out and cash your Bonds at maturity.

You can sit back and watch them keep growing. The older they get, the better they look.

Series E Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 7 years (4 1/2% the first year). Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

COOKING HINTS

RICE THAT'S DIFFERENT: LONG GRAIN

If you're one of those people who say "Rice is rice-it all tastes and looks the same," there is something you should know.

Although the various types of rice are similar, there is one type, American long grain rice, that is different and of premium quality. Look at a package of long grain rice and you'll see slender, long grains, snowy white in color. After cooking, long grain rice is tender, separate, and light. Its flavor is delicate and complementary to almost all foods.

Some other people say rice is difficult to cook. The truth is, long grain rice is very simple to prepare. Follow these directions for perfect rice every time: bring to boil 2 cups water and 1 teaspoon salt. Stir in 1 cup American long grain rice, lower heat; cover, simmer 20 minutes. If there is a "trick" to cooking rice, it's that the heat should be turned low enough to prevent "boilovers," but high enough that a small amount of steam escapes around the edge of the saucepan. This steam tells you that the rice is cooking and that it will be done.

Rice cookery is necessary to many cuisines, but it is especially important to Creole or Southern recipes. One favorite Southern rice recipe, Country Captain, consists of economical chicken simmered in a mild curry-tomato sauce and served over fluffy, tender long grain rice.

COUNTRY CAPTAIN

- 1 frying chicken, cut in serving pieces
- Salt and pepper
- 2 tablespoons vegetable oil
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 2 cans (1 lb. ea.) stewed tomatoes
- 2 packets MBT instant chicken flavored broth
- 1/2 teaspoon thyme leaves
- 1/2 teaspoon curry powder
- Dash hot pepper sauce
- 1/4 cup raisins
- 1/4 cup toasted, slivered almonds
- 3 cups hot, cooked Carolina or Mahatma long grain rice

Season chicken pieces with salt and pepper. In heavy skillet over low heat, saute chicken in hot oil. Remove chicken from skillet. Add onion, green pepper, and garlic. Saute until tender. Blend flour into pan drippings. Stir in tomatoes, chicken broth, thyme, curry, hot pepper sauce, raisins, and almonds. Return chicken to skillet. Cover and simmer 20 minutes. Serve over hot, fluffy rice. Makes 6 servings.

What Does "I'm Sorry" Really Mean To Children

Patients admitted to Crockett County Hospital October 26-November 2:

For your Knots and Needs, see SOUTH TEXAS LUMBER.

People use the phrase "I'm sorry" countless times daily. It is a magic combination, a cure-all for the guilty, which serves primarily to gloss over what has happened, Debby Johnson, a family life education specialist, says.

"It doesn't really matter that one isn't truly sorry--what matters is that one has apologized for the accident, mistake, misunderstanding or whatever."

Miss Johnson is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Unfortunately, saying 'I'm sorry' won't make a broken heart heal, a missed opportunity reoccur, a lie become a truth, or a loved one come back to life. Many of us would like to believe these things could happen, based on the frequency--and often insincerity and thoughtlessness--with which we spiel off the words."

"Teaching young children, I noticed early that many, deliberately or not, hurt another person, and when I discussed the incident with them, they simply said they 'were sorry.'

"In most cases, children are 'forced' by their parents and teachers to apologize constantly, saying 'Tell Jimmy you're sorry you tripped him,' or 'Tell your sister you're sorry you broke her toy.'

"What if the child isn't sorry? True, children need to be taught right from wrong at an early age, but parents are really teaching two other concepts: first, the child is lying to himself and to the other child, and second, he learns that 'I'm sorry' will correct all wrong and smooth over the misdeed," the specialist said.

But what should parents do when their child hurts another child or destroys someone else's property? "It's okay for one mother to apologize to another mother for what her child did with something like 'I am sorry David broke Tim's truck.' Then privately discuss the situation with the destructive child, find out why he did it and suggest other ways of dealing with anger and frustration.

"You might try, 'When you are mad at Tim, tell him you are with words,' or 'I understand that Tim made you mad, but if you only hit him, then he doesn't understand.'

"If after that, the child is truly sorry for what he did and understands his own feelings, he may take it upon himself to say he is sorry. The point is that as a parent, you have not forced 'I'm sorry' on your child as the solution to all problems. Instead, you have taught him to respect the meaning of the words and to internalize his values so that he himself knows when they are appropriate," she pointed out.

This phenomenon doesn't end in childhood--it follows right into adulthood. Think of a marriage in which every conflict is followed by "I'm sorry," with no explanation or discussion. Most adults simply are not satisfied with such superficial means of dealing with a problem, she noted.

"Just imagine the reaction if someone made a grown adult say 'I'm sorry' when he didn't mean it. So is it really fair to perpetuate internal dishonesty by emphasizing an apology in every situation?"

"What this says, in effect, is that feelings are our innermost thoughts and should always be dealt with honestly. It is only when we have a clear understanding of our own feelings that we can ever hope to have a mature relationship with anyone. The groundwork is laid early in life, for healthy emotional development--the meaningless use of apologies seems to teach mistrust, not truth," she pointed out.

Depression Is Often Undertreated Disease

"Depression probably causes more human suffering than any other condition," said Carroll B. Bryant, president of the Texas Association for Mental Health, "and the suffering it causes is almost totally unnecessary."

Bryant explained that current methods of treatment have been successful in relieving depression and its consequences, but that most people who have the condition remain untreated. "What we face," he said, "is primarily a problem of attitude. People who would seek treatment for any other serious illness feel that depression is something they should bear, like a punishment, without complaint."

Depression, according to Bryant, is common in all segments of society--young and old, rich and poor, male and female, educated and uneducated. It is thought by some experts to stem from a chemical imbalance in the brain. This imbalance makes the person susceptible to the condition, which can erupt at any time and is particularly likely to strike during periods of stress.

Common symptoms of depression include headache, sleep disturbances, fatigue, loss of appetite, anxiety, inability to concentrate, loss of interest in people and activities, feelings of guilt, helplessness, remorse, fear, exaggeration of minor obstacles, and other feelings that diminish self-esteem and make even routine activity difficult or even impossible.

According to figures obtained by the Mental Health Association, about 1,500,000 people are currently being treated for depression.

Locally, Karl L. Lovelady, who was on the ballot in spite of the fact that he has been unable to perform his duties as Crockett County Attorney, received an amazing 881 votes. In the race for Crockett County Sheriff, incumbent and Democratic nominee Billy Mills easily outdistanced his write-in opponent Jim Goss by a vote of 1140 to 407. A smattering of votes were cast in the write-in column for Max Morris, who challenged Mills in the Democratic Primary in May. Gene Williams, incumbent constable, running unopposed polled 1,224 votes.

In precinct 1, a write-in failed to materialize, and Jesse Marley, incumbent commissioner for precinct 1, received 362 votes to 53 write-ins for Sostenes DeHoyos, who lost the Democratic Primary to Marley in the run-off.

Jack Williams polled 353 votes for commissioner in Precinct 3. Jim Marks received 6 votes. He lost to Williams by a narrow margin in the primary.

making their way through town, but it's really the acrid smell of the wells. You would think that Crockett County, being one of the largest in the state, would offer plenty of location sites for drilling, without surrounding the only town in the county. For the first time in my life, I can sort of see the side of the Eastern liberals, who had rather use Texas gas and oil than have any drilling in their own state. However, I'd rather tolerate the smell than freeze in the winter and burn up in the summer, and I sure as heck resent the fact that they neither tolerate the discomfort nor do they pay as much for Texas gas and oil as Texans do. Good grief! Is this a sign that Crockett Counties are going to have the worst of two worlds?

Rev. Carter Methodists' Guest Sun.

The Rev. James Lee Carter of San Antonio will be guest preacher at the Ozona United Methodist Church on Sunday, November 7, 1976. At the present time, the Rev. Mr. Carter is associate Director of the Conference Council on Ministries, with headquarters in the Methodist Building, in San Antonio.

Previous to his going to San Antonio, the Rev. Mr. Carter was pastor in San Angelo. He was appointed to the Angelo Heights United Methodist Church in 1972. This church was the outgrowth of a former Methodist Protestant Church, which was relocated and renamed the Angelo Heights Methodist Church in 1950, under the leadership of the Rev. Ben Bohmfalk. Because of the fact that the highway was to go through that area, the Angelo Heights Methodist Church had to be relocated again, under the leadership of the Rev. Mr. Carter, and this time it was renamed the "Sierra Vista United Methodist Church."

Pastor Bohmfalk will be in Gonzales to officiate at a wedding for his grand-niece.

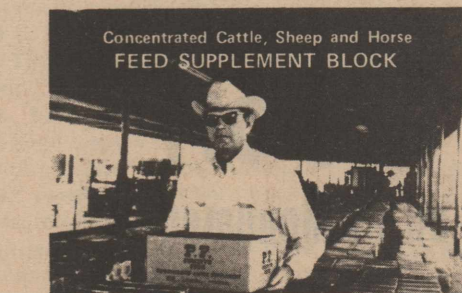

Rev. Lanham Castle Gap Moderator

Rev. Nelson Lanham, pastor of Ozona First Baptist Church, was elected moderator of Castle Gap Baptist Association at a meeting in Big Lake last week. The association serves a 5-county area of which Ozona and Crockett County are a part of.

Rev. Lanham is in Dallas today for orientation to train association leaders for the Good News Texas Program, sponsored by the Baptist General Convention of Texas and due to unfold in 1977.

Rev. Lanham will leave for India January 6, for a three-weeks revival in that country.
