Inches Of Rain Dumped On County

Black rolling clouds obscured local skies Wednesday afternoon, June 9 sending residents scurrying to their storm cellars. The threatening clouds dumped rain and hail on the county, throughout the county ranged from 5 to 11 inches during the two day rain last Wednesday and Thursday. The county's playa lakes were filled and several overflowed covering highways. Two of the water-covered roads still giving trouble to motorists Saturday were located on Hwy. 86, east of Nazareth near the county line and on Hwy. 194, between Dimmitt and Hart. Texas Highway Department trucks stayed on duty at the trouble spots rescuing stranded motorists.

The east part of Castro County received the heaviest part of the rain plus damaging hail. Nazareth farmers suffered damages from hail which ranged from pea size to golf ball size.

The Wally Gravitt farm, located south and east of Arney received 11 inches of rain according to a report from that area. This was the largest amount of rain reported in this area.

Rainfall in the various county communities was reported as follows:
Dimmitt — 5.13 inches
Nazareth — 8 1/2 inches
Hart — 8 inches
Bethel — 5.01 to 5.65 inches
Jumbo — 4.50 to 5 inches
Sunnyside — 6 inches
Big Square — 5.25 inches
Arney — 7 inches
Frio — 6 inches
Easter — 6.26 inches

Law Emphasized

"I have noticed several refrigerators and ice boxes in Dimmitt sitting on the outside without hinges or locks being removed," states Sheriff Jack Cartwright.

"This is a misdemeanor according to Texas Penal Code and is punishable from $5 to $200 fine," continues the Sheriff.

Article 1721A. (Texas Penal Code) reads Refrigerators or air-tight containers:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to place or permit to remain outside of any dwelling, building, or other structure, or within any warehouse or storage room or any unoccupied or abandoned dwelling, building, or other structure, under such circumstances as to be accessible to children, any ice box, refrigerator, or other air-tight or semi-air-tight container which has a capacity of one and one-half (1 1/2) cubic feet or more and an opening of fifty (50) square inches or more and which has a door or lid equipped with a latch or other fastening device capable of securing such door or lid shut.

Section 2. Any person violating this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than Five Dollars ($5) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200), and each act done in violation hereof and each day that such violation continues shall constitute a separate offense and be punishable as such. (Acts 1954, 53rd. Leg., 1st C. S., P. 69, ch. 30)

Sheriff Cartwright says, "The enforcing of this law may save a child's life and it could be your child. So take notice of refrigerators in your area."

The fast accumulating flow of water from the downpours Wednesday and Thursday caused excitement at the Western Ammonia plant, south of Dimmitt. Water flooded the entire plant with the exception of the control room according to reports. A large underground gas tank was washed up by the small flood. Sandbagging and digging ditches were two methods employed to stop the rising water Thursday. The plant stayed in full operation despite the high water.

Agriculture in the county was aided by the rain according to farmers reports with the exception of the hail damaged areas. The wheat will be ready for harvesting in one to two weeks.

Grain sorghum and cotton suffered little damage in the county. Farmers in the hail-damaged areas will be replanting the crops they lost. Some wheat may be salvaged in the hail-stricken eastern part of the county. Several fields will be replanted in places due to water-erosion.

Over 970 Attend Annual Wheat Growers Meeting Last Thursday

In spite of thunderstorms and drenching downpours over 970 persons attended the 31st annual stockholders meeting of the Dimmitt Wheat Growers, Inc. Thursday night at the High School auditorium.

Business for the evening included annual directors report and election of directors.

It was noted that the director's report showed the annual profit was down this year. Profits to be distributed to members amounted to $106,439.90. In the manager's report Aaron Isaacs stated, "Our net income is down and I don't look for any assurance that the income will increase a tremendous amount next year." Reduction in profits is due to the government reducing grain in storage. The government only has about 40 per cent in storage now at Dimmitt Wheat Growers. According to Isaacs, the "Give Away" program of the government is what has helped out the profits this year.

Expenses of Wheat Growers are down comparable with the income reported Isaacs. He says, "We are cutting corners and departments wherever possible. We were short of equipment in fertilizer department this year due to money shortage."

Isaacs stated, "The organization is in sound financial condition. The Association has paid back to patrons about one million dollars in the last three years."

Other points of interest in the manager's report included that the Wheat Growers have leased an elevator in Dallas. Grain is staying in storage at Dallas and the grain here is being shipped to California markets. Isaacs says after long discussion the directors decided the leasing of an elevator in Dallas where grain is staying in storage would add a profit to the Wheat Growers books.

The local elevator is planning to hire an agronomist in the near future to work with farmers on fertilizer and other farm problems.

According to Isaacs, the support price for milo is going to $1.75 this year. Wheat price will be $1.25.

Dimmitt Wheat Growers, Inc. have total assets amounting to $2,566,965.73 according to the directors' report. Total liabilities are $657,008.96. The total patrons' equities amounts to $1,899,956.77.

Gross income for the Wheat Growers for the year ended April 30, 1965 was $771,406.86. Total expenses for the year amounted to $582,923.82. Total grain received this year at the elevator was 262,624,180 lbs. Total fertilizer sales amounted to 4,518 tons.

Calvin Petty was re-elected to serve on the senior board of directors. Phillip Haberer was elected to serve on senior board in the place of George Bagwell who is retiring.

Jaycees To Sponsor Penny Machines

Dimmitt Jaycees are launching a new program this week of sponsoring penny gum machines to raise money for many local projects.

According to present plans 30 penny gum machines will be placed throughout Dimmitt. They will be placed in all types of business places, restaurants, department stores, or anywhere people can see them. These machines will be set in space donated by the place of business so all of the retail profit from the machines will go into the Jaycees' general fund to supplement non-money making projects which benefit the community.

The placing of these attractive chrome machines dispensing only the highest quality branded chewing gum will require but a few square inches of floor or counter space. Each machine is topped with a miniature bill board acknowledging the merchants donation of the space for placing of the machine and stating that the money made will be used for local projects.

This method of raising money by clubs and organizations was begun more than 25 years ago by a group of women in Columbus, Ohio to obtain needed funds to operate their crippled children's hospital. The idea caught on and today more than 5,000 clubs and organizations obtain more than one million dollars annually from these machines which are placed under the direction and with the assistance of the nationally known and approved Fordway Program.

Members of the Dimmitt Jaycees will be calling on local business men to secure their permission to place these machines, under this program which is headed up by G. R. Huffines, project chairman.

Walter Rogers' WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

WASHINGTON VISITORS

June seems to be the most popular month for visits to Washington from Panhandle folks. A number of family groups, delegations here on business with the Government, and individuals have dropped by the office in recent days. It is always a pleasure to see and talk with visitors and, when possible, to assist them in making their visits to the Capital more enjoyable.

One of the groups here this week was representing Amarillo in its program of developing the Amarillo Medical Center at the west edge of the city. The delegation, which was here to explore avenues of Federal assistance in developing some of the Medical Center facilities, included Mr. R. Earl O'Keefe, President of the Amarillo Area Foundation; Mr. Emmett R. Johnson, the Executive Director of the Foundation; Miss Louise Evans, editor of the editorial pages, Amarillo Globe-News; and Dr. Robert F. Hyde, M. D. They held several meetings with high ranking officials of branches of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, and also consulted with a Special Assistant to the President. There are several Federal programs providing for direct grants and other types of assistance for which elements of the Amarillo medical complex may well be eligible.

The Panhandle's spelling bee champion, Wanda Carol Blurton of Perryton, made an excellent showing in the National Spelling Bee here this week. I had the pleasure of meeting her when she and her mother, Mrs. John A. Blurton, came by the office before the spell-down began.

As I prepare this newsletter, I am looking forward to a visit from a group of 19 ladies from Shamrock. They are touring by chartered bus and are on their way to Washington from Williamsburg, Va., the restored Colonial town that, like the Capital itself, provides so much of interest to visitors from the Panhandle. More about their visit next week.

A highlight of the week for me was to have had a chance to talk at some length with Mr. Lyle Robinson of Tulsa, the manager of the Swisher County Electric Cooperative, who had just returned to the United States from South Vietnam. Lyle was one of six rural electrification experts sent as a team to that war-torn country to determine ways in which, through electric cooperatives, good electric service can be extended to the Vietnamese people. Ninety-five industries would be greatly benefited by the planned extension of service. New industry would be attracted. Lyle reports that one of the major benefits could come as good electric service enables an increase in irrigation for agriculture. I particularly enjoyed talking with Lyle Robinson because of his great optimism for the future of South Vietnam. As all of us are aware, the war now raging is bitter and deadly and the stakes are extremely high; the freedom of all of Southeast Asia is involved. Lyle points out that vast areas of South Vietnam enjoy relative stability while battles rage in other sections of the country, and it is in these areas of calm where economic development is to be concentrated - to the benefit of all the Vietnamese people. Fewer than 100 of the country's 3,000 villages have electric service of any kind; the projects worked out by the team of which Lyle Robinson was a member will go a long way to fur-

A STRONG AMERICA with Rural Electricity...

Thanks to consumer-owned rural electric systems, more than 580 defense installations, from radar listening-posts to atomic missile sites, could be located in remote areas of the country. Without an ample supply of electric power, their strategic placement would have been much more difficult. Rural electric systems are helping to keep America's defenses at peak efficiency, and are contributing to our national security.

Number of registered voters in Texas dropped nearly a million from last year's record breaking number, according to figures released by Comptroller Robert S. Calvert.

Most of the decrease apparently came in the 50,000 to 150,000 cities, with the largest metropolitan areas and the rural counties holding fairly steady. Number of issued poll tax receipts and exemptions dropped from 2,832,670 for voting in the 1964 presidential elections to 1,970,381 for this off-year.

The five most populous counties - Harris, Dallas, Bexar, Tarrant and El Paso - actually increased their percentage of the registered vote by three points. They hold 44 per cent of this year's poll tax receipts.

However, this is not a specific indicator of their dominance over rural areas, since in cities of less than 10,000, elderly voters do not have to claim their exemption.

This year only 3,314 signed up for "free" poll tax receipts qualifying them to vote in elections for federal officials. But there are no federal elections slated for ballots this year. A total of 84,297 of these "poll tax-not paid" certificates were issued in 1964, first year they were available for presidential, vice presidential and congressional balloting.

As voting dates for constitutional amendments near, it is apparent that most Texans of voting age will be able to do no more than look and hope, for lack of a poll tax receipt. INSURANCE RATES GOING UP - State Board of Insurance Chairman Hunter McLean jolted auto owners with more bad news: their insurance premiums are going up at least 12 per cent.

Board meets officially on June 22 to set rates on basis of experience by areas. However, McLean already has served notice that there is no doubt rising motor accidents will make a stiff rate hike mandatory. There were 13 per cent more accidents last year than in 1963.

Rates dropped 1.2 per cent last year for the total insurance field, but should have gone up, McLean said. Auto liability insurance, although sometimes criticized as high priced, actually cost companies more than $1,000,000,000 during the last 10 years, he maintained.

Premiums vary in 26 rating territories of the state according to their accident records the previous year. BOUNDARY AGREED ON - Conferees have agreed on location of the boundary line between Texas and Louisiana, long in dispute, reports Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler.

Next step will be appointment of a boundary commission by governors of the states to approve the new line for concurrence. Congress also will have to ratify the line.

Dispute has involved some valuable mineral lands. Louisiana claimed ownership to the west bank of the Sabine River and Sabine Lake into Gulf Mexico. Texas claimed its line extended to the middle of the river and lake.

MIGRANT AID PUSHED - Governor's Office of Economic Opportunity is seeking approval of a $5,500,000 grant of federal "War on Poverty" funds for seven programs to help Texas migrant workers.

If the grant is approved, additional state funds and staff services will bring the total cost of the program to some $6,000,000, an average of about $46 for each of the estimated 128,000 Texans who migrate to do seasonal agricultural work.

Included in the programs would be an effort to retrain about 200 South Texas migrants in operation of farm machinery and irrigation control to relocate them for permanent jobs in West Texas, where the end of the bracero program has created a labor shortage.

Most of the money would be used for educational programs both for the children of migrant families and the parents who would be taught home-making and vocational trades. Also planned are rest stops where they can stop to cook meals, use sanitary facilities and spend the night while traveling across the state, and regional centers to test and screen migrants for tuberculosis and hospitalize positive cases.

COURTS SPEAK - District Judge Herman Jones of Austin postponed until July 15 final arguments in a major test case over the Railroad Commission's power to require natural gas purchasers to extend pipelines to all producers in a field.

Rio Grande Valley Gas Company appealed a commission order to join its pipeline to a well owned by Russell Maguire of Dallas in West Port Isabel Field, Cameron County. Company maintains there is no procedure to reach agreement on price of gas. Jones, after a three-day hearing, gave attorneys for both sides time to file more briefs.

Supreme Court will hear the case involving authority of Rice University trustees to disregard racial and tuition restrictions imposed by the institution's founder, William Marsh Rice, in 1891.

Supreme Court refused to consider an appeal by 39 ex-employees of a Weslaco television station, formerly owned by President Johnson's family, seeking payment from a profit-sharing plan.

Braves Attend Farewell Party

Baseball farewell party was held at the Bob McLean home Friday night honoring Charles McLean, member of Little League Braves. Charles left for summer camp Monday and was not able to complete the season with the Braves.

The weiner roast was co-hosted by mothers of the Braves. The team was served weiners and all the trimmings and banana splits.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Griffith, Mrs. Mackey Oldfield and Mr. and Mrs. Bob McLean and the team. Approximately 25 were present at the going-away party.

rehearing sought by former Pasadena Mayor Sam Hoover convicted as an accomplice in a torture-robbery case Court earlier has upheld a 60-year prison sentence given Hoover, 55, described in trial as "mastermind" of the March 11, 1964, robbery of Mr. and Mrs. Mair J. Schepps in Houston.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES - Court-appointed defense lawyers are entitled to no more than $10 per case on pleas of guilty before the court, Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr held in an opinion requested by Waller County Atty. C. W. Karisch of Hempstead. Carr said $25 a day payments are allowed only where cases go to actual trial.

Bread is bread, no matter what the baker labels it, and a loaf must weigh at least one pound, Carr told Agriculture Commissioner John C. White. White had asked if elimination of the word "bread" on labels and substitution of such phrases as "party slices", "rye slices" or similar terms exempt a product from standard requirements.

COTTON CONFERENCES - Agriculture Commissioner White is planning state conferences on the national cotton program for 1966.

White says cotton still is the No. 1 state crop and drastic cutbacks could hurt the agricultural economy. He points out that cotton production puts $800,000,000 a year in the pockets of growers and that the industry generates jobs and economic activity amounting to $5,600,000,000 a year in Texas.

TEENAGE JOBS SAFE - Liquor Control Board Administrator Coke Stevenson has clarified his two "administrative interpretation" bulletins which cautioned against hiring minors to work "on or about licensed premises." Stevenson says teenage workers will not lose their jobs if the stores comply with normal regulations.

He added that the bulletins from his office were meant to remind holders of beer, wine and liquor permits that they must separate a portion of their store by a guard rail and place an adult in charge of a check-out counter used for purchase of alcoholic beverages.

BROWNWOOD AREA PROJECTS APPROVED - Texas Water Commission has approved some $10,000,000 in U. S. Corps of Engineers flood control and water supply projects for Brownwood area.

A new $3,000,000 dam at Lake Brownwood, a $7,000,000 flood control reservoir on Pecan Bayou upstream and channel improvements on the bayou, Adams Branch, Tom Williams Branch and Willis Creek are included. The new dam is planned 800 feet downstream from the old one whose outlets never have worked properly since its construction during 1932 floods.

SHORT SNORTS - Gov. John Connally designated June as Youth Opportunity Month and asked Texans to help youths between 16 and 21 find their first jobs to help them continue their education and to assure the state of skilled manpower resources.

Land Commissioner Sadler has announced new rules pertaining to seismograph operations in submerged lands - explosive containers and caps must carry company label; seismograph operators must carry insurance in an approved company; regular employees must accompany each crew working - and warns that any breach of safety rules will result in cancellation of operators' permits.

Texas Employment Commission says Texas farmers have not shown much interest in the 5,000 A-Team high school students recruited to help meet the farm labor shortage expected to result from termination of the bracero program.

FROZEN FOODS A LA ESPAÑOLA

Spain is a land of vivid contrasts with a colorful national cuisine, at one time striking and subtle. Fields and orchards throughout the land produce some of the world's finest fruits and vegetables although the majority of the people cannot afford the finest.

In our country, frozen fruits and vegetables are actually more economical than fresh produce and the finest is well within the reach of even the most modest budget. Commercial fast-freezing and zero storage bring the American consumer garden or orchard-fresh products. With these high quality foods, the renowned, succulent dishes of Spain can be duplicated in any American kitchen, any season of the year.

JACKIE R. STALLINGS

Jackie Stallings Completes Lineman Course, June 11

Pvt. Jackie R. Stallings, 22, son of Mrs. Addie Stallings, 409 Avenue J, Hereford, Texas, completed a six-week lineman course at the Army Southeastern Signal School, Fort Gordon, Ga., June 11. Stallings was trained to construct and maintain open wire, lead-covered cables and field communication wires. He entered the Army in January of this year and completed basic training at Fort Polk, La. A former student at Hereford High School, Stallings was employed by Bryant Brothers Pipe Line Construction Co. before entering the Army.

Hi Folks! The Dimmitt Fire Department answered a fire call last week here. A man was putting Casite through his motor causing lots of smoke. He had the car partly in his garage, which made it look like the garage was on fire. We were glad it was nothing more than that. Monday morning we answered a call seven miles southeast of town on Plainview highway. An old car was on fire. Very little damage was done.

This reminds me that the Fire Department has an agreement with one or more fire equipment companies that can furnish most any size of extinguisher you would want for home fires or trucks and cars. These are mighty handy to have around. Contact any member of the Fire Department or call at the station. We will get you the size of extinguisher you need.

With harvest time coming up, we urge farmers and motorists to be extra careful in watching for sparks from exhausts, throwing lighted cigarettes out and general carelessness. Many thousands of dollars can be lost in a wheat fire. Dry wheat and a windy day can together wipe out 800 acres in one hour.

Remember an ounce of prevention is worth a ton of cure.

Colorado Group To Tour Plains Water District

A group of thirty Colorado farmers from Burlington, Colorado, will be in the High Plains Water District Monday June 14th and Tuesday the 15th. Bob Croissant, county agricultural agent from Burlington, Colorado is bringing the group to the High Plains of Texas to study irrigation practices and water saving installations of the High Plains Underground Water District.

The group will arrive in Amarillo at 3 p.m. on Monday the 14th and tour the Palo Duro Canyon. The visitors will observe the different geological formations which are exposed in the Canyon. Tuesday the 15th, the group will tour the area around Hereford, Friona, Bovina and Farwell looking at playa lakes, tailwater return systems, and other water conservation practices being utilized by High Plains irrigation farmers.

Tour arrangements are being handled by representatives of the High Plains Underground Water District.

Grain Sorghum Terminal And County Support Loan Announced

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced 1965-crop grain sorghum terminal and county price support loan and purchase rates.

The 1965-crop total national average support price of $2.00 per hundredweight for grain sorghum grading No. 2 or better was announced December 15, 1964. While the total support level is identical to those for both 1963 and 1964 crops, the 1965-crop support reflects an average loan and purchase rate of $1.65 per hundredweight with a payment-in-kind of 35 cents, compared to 1964-crop rates of $1.77 for loans and 23 cents for payment-in-kind.

All terminal price support loan and purchase rates for the 1965 crop reflect this 12 cents per cwt. adjustment in the loan portion of the support.

Rates for terminals in the Missouri River area where rail freight changes took place in 1964, are further reduced 8 cents per hundredweight so that the county rates based on these terminals will more nearly reflect historical price relationships with other areas. However, in reflection of freight rate differences and more recent historical price data, most county loan rates will be only 10 cents below the loan rates originally announced last spring for the 1964 crop. In "flat rate" areas adjacent to the Missouri River terminal area, the corresponding county adjustments from the original 1964 rates will be 11 cents per hundredweight.

An additional "Basing" terminal, Brownsville, Texas, with a price support loan and purchase rate of $2.17 per hundredweight (the same as the other Gulf Port terminals) is designated for the 1965 grain sorghum program.

For major producing areas, as in the past, terminal loan rates will reflect county loan rates plus the freight and handling charges needed to get grain sorghum to terminal markets.

County and terminal rates will be adjusted by discounts for grade and quality to determine rates for individual producers. The discounts schedule is unchanged from that in effect for the 1964 program.

Grain sorghum producers who participate in the 1965 feed grain program will be eligible for price support on 1965 production.

Price support will be carried out, as in previous years, through farm-and-warehouse-storage loans and purchases. Applications for price support can be made from the time of harvest through February 28, 1966. The grain sorghum price support loans will mature on March 31, 1966.

Following are 1965 terminal rates per hundredweight for grain sorghum grading No. 2 or better compared with 1964 rates. (The rates do not include the 35 cents per hundredweight payment-in-kind being made to cooperators under the 1965 feed grain program.)

A college football coach may have the biggest, fastest, smartest boys in the country. He may have the cleverest formation anywhere. "T", "A", "T", or what have you.

But if his team can't block and tackle he might as well play Podunk High.

That's why he's constantly teaching fundamentals.

Fishing is the same way!

You may have the best baitcasting rig on the market. You may be able to put a practice plug in the bucket at 30,40, and 50 feet. . . nine times out of nine.

But if you don't know more than that about the fundamentals of fishing, you'll never catch a black bass except by accident.

You've got to know THE FISH!

As often stated the black bass is an ornery critter.

He doesn't move around much except to forage for food. And he doesn't do that often because he home-steads in a place where he can hide and lie in wait for something edible to be washed to him by the current.

So look for him under an overhanging willow tree, close to the bank and where the water is deep. All kinds of goodies come falling out of the trees: caterpillars, baby birds, and mice.

If there are lily pads there, so much the better. It will be a home for frogs.

If the bank is muddy, that's fine. Crawfish will live there.

If there is a weed bed, that's wonderful. In that hideaway will be small bream and minnows that the largemouth can catch.

Point is if you want to catch fish, you have to put the lure where they are. You have to think like a fish. You have to figure out where he is at what time of day or season, and fish accordingly.

Let's take a lesson from the experts. They contend that most of the bass, and the biggest bass, are deep.

Yep, you can look at the color photographs in the outdoor magazines, and you can see the big blacks jumping after the topwater lures. It's spectacular! In fact, there's nothing else quite like it.

But if you want to catch bass - big bass and lots of them - don't concentrate on topwater lures. Fish deep!

This year the most bass and the biggest bass have been caught in deep water on black jigs. Sometimes a fisherman puts on a pork rind or a pork chunk, or a plastic worm.

There's no doubt about it, they add to the efficiency of the lure.

Remember the rule about not hurrying? Take it slow and easy!

That's the way to fish the jig if you expect results.

It must go to the bottom and sit there while the big bass looks it over. After awhile move it about two inches. The bass will inspect the jig with more interest. He thinks it might be something alive. But he's not likely to commit himself yet.

Remember you've got all day. Relax. Move the jig another couple of inches. . . then look out!

If you are in a likely spot, you may get action any minute. The largemouth bass is both cantankerous and ornery. But he is not entirely unpredictable. He takes a lure for three reasons. He is either hungry, angry, or protecting his nest.

That's right, I said his nest. It's the male of the species who makes the nest, fanning out a clean place in the sand or gravel.

He drives the female into this place, where she lays her eggs. He deposits his milt on them and then acts as watchman until the little bass hatch out.

He resents any intrusion and he will pick up any foreign matter and move it out of the nest by picking it up in his mouth.

If that's your lure, you've got a bass.

Other than during nesting time, the bass, male and female, will hit a lure from anger anytime it intrudes upon their peace and quietude.

Bass have no regular eating habits, like you and I. They eat when the opportunity presents itself.

A bass will lie in wait in the deep until something to eat comes along. Then he smashes it! He doesn't know what time it is. He doesn't eat by the clock. But he does know when he's hungry. . . which is most of the time.

"Action for Leadership" was the theme chosen by State President, Miss Sarah Tobolowsky, Dallas. Present at the opening meeting of the Executive Board were Miss Ray King, Fort Worth and Miss Lela Lee Williams, Dallas, International Founders. Miss Elsie M. Lingren, International Parliamentarian from Twin Falls, Idaho, speaker for the Presidents' Dinner, entitled her address "Sand and Salt," taken from a quotation by Randall Jarrell: "The tide comes in, the tide goes out, but the sand stays on the beach, and the salt stays in the sea." Miss Lingren throughout her talk challenged members to stand for quality in membership and for lasting values. She challenged members with the question, "What has happened to our ideals?"

At the Birthday luncheon, Mrs. Doris Hibbert, Sherman, presented the recipients of the State Achievement Awards.

Dr. Lola Beth Green, Lubbock, presented the recipients of the scholarship awards. Mrs. Evie Froehner, Dimmitt was granted the Edna Graham Scholarship at West Texas State University.

Senator YARBOROUGH'S REPORT

Dear Fellow Texans:

The Senate will have the Federal Excise Tax Reduction Bill before it in the near future, as it has recently been passed by the House of Representatives.

Under this bill excise taxes (most of which are sales taxes on goods or services) on many articles and services will be repealed, which will leave more money in the consumer's hands. For example, the 10 percent tax on ladies' cosmetics, jewelry, and handbags would be eliminated under this bill. Also, the 10 percent tax on telephone bills will be reduced to 3 percent, and then gradually eliminated by 1969. The tax would be removed on both local and long distance calls.

Most of these taxes were originally imposed as emergency wartime measures to raise revenues to assist our war effort, or raise revenues during the depression of the 1930's. Although they were needed then, the taxes are discriminatory in placing the burden on the users of particular articles and also because they do not consider the annual income levels of consumers, as a progressive tax does.

I strongly favor the repeal of these taxes, as it will end their discriminatory burdens, as well as leave an additional $4.8 billion in the hands of the consumers during the next fiscal year. The original emergencies requiring excise taxes were over a long time ago. Now the additional purchasing power created by repealing these taxes and leaving this money in the hands of the consumers will sustain the current upswing in this Nation's economy.

The bill will help many families in this Nation by eliminating taxes which tend to absorb a larger proportion of their incomes for consumption of these items.

Furthermore, when these taxes were enacted, the taxed items were considered "luxuries." Today, however, electrical appliances, telephones and telegrams, as well as cosmetics (so the women tell me) have become necessities.

I support the repeal of these taxes as a progressive step toward a Great Society.

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health

Today people are taking to the water like ducks, but unfortunately, they don't swim anywhere near as well.

A generation or two ago water sports consisted chiefly of leaping into the old swimmin' hole or rowing around the lake.

But today, more people than ever before are seeking their summer pastimes in an aquatic setting - and literally dying from it.

Several hundred will drown this year in Texas, according to a projection of previous records. On a nationwide scale, 6,000 persons are predicted to drown from a variety of aquatic sports and activities.

Scuba and skin diving, surfboard-ing, water skiing and high-powered boating have added to the hazards of conventional swimming, diving and boating. And the proliferation of municipal and private pools and public beaches have further compounded the opportunities for injury, infection and death.

Let's take a look at the type injuries that accompany the various sports, and from this investigation we can gain clues to prevention.

Sailing accidents often are head injuries from a swinging boom. Power-boating accidents are frequently lacerations and amputations from motor boat propellers and collisions.

Common injuries among water skiers are finger, wrist, nose and face abrasions or fractures, mostly occurring from a fall onto the skis while in motion.

Some of the dangers of skin diving and underwater swimming include hyperventilation, malfunctioning scuba apparatus, face mask squeeze, middle ear squeeze, water pressure, and the threat of underwater life such as sea urchins, coral, the Portuguese man of war and others.

The dangers from these aquatic sports depend, of course, on your proximity to water - fresh or salt.

If you live close to the water, or plan to vacation by the waterfront this summer, follow this plan.

Make sure you and your family are trained in survival treatment. Check with your local health department or civil defense director about the medical-self help courses.

Light from a single window breaks the dark expanse of a five-story building. Inside the room is a research scientist pouring over a pile of notes, trying to piece together bits of evidence which could possibly lead to a significant breakthrough in the battle against cancer.

Miles away in a small town, a secretary unlocks the door of the local health department and starts filling out requisitions for needed supplies. She is no scientist and the researcher hates the trivialities of order forms.

Yet both of these people have much in common. They are both engaged in a health career.

In the growing competition among industry, the professions, education, government service, welfare and the health services for skilled, competent personnel, a career dedicated to serving man through the health services can be rewarding both career-wise and personally.

Health careers include callings that care for the ill and the injured; and they include callings that help to prevent illness.

Training varies from about a high school education for some workers in a hospital to more than eight years of college for a physician.

The entire spectrum of working talents are offered in health fields including iologists, food service workers, housekeepers, statistical clerks, machinists, administrators, engineers, writers, artists, chemists and photographers. The list goes on and on.

A health careerist can be his own boss as a private physician or consultant or he can work as a skilled member of a highly organized team in a local or state health department, hospital or health agency.

However, high standards are demanded regardless of the precise job performed. Many Texas colleges and universities offer courses designed to train students for the various health careers.

The health sciences are just beginning to enter on a new threshold of achievement. Atomic medicine is providing better diagnosis and treatment of such ills as cancer, and thyroid diseases and epidemiology procedures in public health are solving more and more communicable disease problems.

High school students should consider a health career seriously.

LONGING

To every child there comes a time when they begin to wonder . . . Where did I come from? Who made the trees? Who made the mountains? EVERYONE has a desire to know their creator.

"O GOD, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee..."

This longing for knowledge of God should be satisfied at an early age.

"Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

Plan NOW to attend church with your family.

Senator Tower Reports From Washington

The Senate has been working on a Foreign Aid bill authorizing money for many nations over the globe. Some of these nations are our friends; some are neutrals. And, I am pleased to report, for the first time in several years no taxpayer dollars are going to nations which oppose American interests — such as Indonesia.

You may remember that last fall the Senate adopted an amendment I offered which cut off aid to Dictator Sukarno and prohibited the training by Americans of Indonesian military men. Unfortunately, heavy Administration pressure forced the Senate's amendment out of the final 1964 Foreign Aid bill.

Subsequently, as we all can recall, Sukarno threw the Peace Corps out of his Red-leaning nation and allowed the burning and sacking of the John F. Kennedy memorial library in Indonesia's capital city.

These final indignities served to convince the Administration that the Senate's 1964 wisdom should become 1965's reality. Consequently, there are no funds whatsoever provided for Indonesia in this year's Foreign Aid bill.

I am pleased that the Administration has accepted this position which, I think, a majority of Texans favored last year and continue to support.

I find that three Indonesian military officers still are receiving training at the Corpus Christi Naval Air Station as a part of 26 Indonesian servicemen still remaining in this nation. But, this training of men, who could be used against our ally Malaysia will come to an end by this October, and no more Indonesians will receive the benefit of American military instruction.

This is as it should be. It was an impossible situation to have American money training both sides of a battle in which one side was friendly and the other antagonistic to America.

I believe that a number of the lesser developed countries need to be informed that they have no inherent "right" to assistance from the United States, and that any American aid depends upon the maintenance of a climate of mutual cooperation and civilized behavior.

If America is to be a world leader, we must distinguish between right and wrong.

Wheat Crop Residue Is An Asset

Wheat crop residue should be considered an asset rather than a liability, according to Charles Hotel County Agent.

The advantages of leaving wheat residue on the soil is in maintenance or improvement of soil structure. This is reflected in better water intake rate, less runoff after rain and better soil tilth.

Under irrigated conditions figure on having about 180 pounds of residue for every bushel of wheat produced. A 40-bushel crop will produce about 3½ tons of straw.

According to Jim Valentine, Extension Soil Chemist at Lubbock, 3½ tons of straw contains about 47 pounds of nitrogen, 12 pounds of phosphorus and 82 pounds of potash.

With good management these elements contribute to the nutritional requirements of the next crop.

Hotel also mentioned these ideas on residue management:

(1) Leave part of the residue on the surface.

(2) Decomposition of residue by soil micro-organisms is influenced by available nitrogen, temperature and moisture. Nitrogen would be worked into the soil, at least partially, for best effect.

(3) Surface applied nitrogen on exposed residue cannot be expected to speed up the process and a portion can be lost to the atmosphere.

(4) Decomposition slows down as soil temperature drops. It proceeds fastest when temperature is ideal for plant growth.

Senator YARBOROUGH'S ★ REPORT ★

Dear Fellow Texans:
The educational prospects for underprivileged children and children in low-income areas in this country have been immensely improved during this Congress.

Increased opportunity will now come even before such a youngster has been enrolled in the first grade, through a program called "Head Start," administered by the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Under this program, deprived children will be provided eight weeks of training this summer before they begin school for the first time this fall. Whereas these children would normally enter school less prepared for education than their classmates from more fortunate homes, this eight weeks of pre-school training will provide diagnostic, remedial and child pre-school learning experiences.

Through this increased attention, the doors of a productive educational future will open to many young people who would otherwise become victims to their economic poverty. Project Head Start will give them the chance they need to share in the wonderful benefits of our educational system here in America.

During the last two months, more than 150 Head Start Projects have been approved for this summer in the State of Texas alone. Through these, more than 40,000 pre-school Texas children will be given supplementary training.

This has been made possible by grants from the Office of Economic Opportunity to Texas of almost $5 million. In addition, the Texas projects will provide paid jobs for at least 3,000 Texans to assist in training these children.

When this project is combined with the $85 million which Texas is to receive the first year under the newly enacted Elementary and Secondary Education Act, our state will be able to provide improved educational opportunities and benefits to all of our Texas youth.

SPORTS AFIELD

By Ted Kesting

Successful bait fishing is not just a matter of luck. There are many fundamentals involved, not only in choosing the right tackle, but in the bait itself.

Any angler who sticks doggedly to any one bait throughout the year, even when fishing is one limited area and for one species of fish, is probably handicapping his chance for success. Become a "fish-diet detective" — learn which specific baits each specific species of fish you are after is partial to in the specific waters and at the specific time of the year you intend to fish — and learn how and where to obtain these "best" baits. Remember, you can determine which is the "best" bait in at least three ways: (1) by test fishing with a variety of baits; (2) by observing baits being used by other successful anglers; (3) by analyzing the stomach contents of fish. Most often the "best" bait can be easily obtained in your local area.

Heat is the biggest enemy of most baits. Earthworms, night crawlers, crayfish, salamanders and hellgrammites can usually be transported long distances and will keep almost indefinitely if the containers in which they are carried are kept in your portable icebox. Most insect baits, such as crickets and grasshoppers, keep best in a wire cage in a cool place. And nearly all prepared baits will remain fresh if kept cool.

Remember, there is little sense in going to great lengths to get a bait to the stream or lake alive, then fishing it dead or half dead. Hook large minnows, salamanders and frogs through the lips so they will stay alive longer. Hook smaller minnows through the back halfway between the tail and midsection, using great care not to pierce the backbone. Worms and night crawlers should be placed on the hook so that plenty of each end is left free to wiggle. Crayfish should be hooked through the tail. When a live bait dies, put another live one on the hook. "Keep changing prepared baits at frequent intervals, for your chance of a strike is best with fresh bait," suggests Col. Dave Harbour in the current issue of Sports Afield Magazine.

Vernon White, Former Dimmitt Youth Drowns

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday afternoon for Vernon White, former resident here, at First Christian Church, Hereford.

Officiating were Rev. Loren Dickey, pastor of First Christian, Dimmitt and Rev. Eugene Brink, pastor of Hereford First Christian. Burial was in West Park Cemetery under direction of Gilliland Funeral Home.

White, 22, of Hereford was drowned about 3 p.m. Monday when a homemade raft capsized on "dry weather" lake 18 miles northwest of Hereford. Drowned also was Tom Carter, 12, who lived near the lake. A third youth, 17, swam to the shore of the nearly quarter-mile-wide lake after a futile attempt to rescue the men.

The lake, on the Rex Lee-Bob Owen farm, was formed by approximately 7 inches of rain which hit the area last week and was about 8 feet deep.

The surviving Owen told deputies he managed to swim to shore, but looked back and saw one of the men was unable to swim and grabbed the other.

The trio had retrieved the farm machinery from the lake and were "playing on the raft when it capsized," said Sheriff Lowell R. Sharp.

White's parents have farmed and lived near Dimmitt for 25 years before moving to Hereford in 1964. He was a member of First Christian Church, Dimmitt. The Whites formerly had worked for Jim Golding on the Ware farm.

White is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond White of Hereford, three brothers and three sisters.

USE FOR CHEESE CLOTH

Fresh beef liver makes a good catfish bait. But it is difficult to keep on a hook.

Try wrapping the liver in cheese cloth. Fibers absorb the blood and blend with the liver but hold the bait together.

So you're going to buy an outboard motor?

Well, we suggest you do considerable thinking before you buy. We're not against outboards. On the contrary, we are strong for them. We just think you shouldn't rush the deal.

Back in the early days there wasn't much difference in motors. Most of the brands were just about alike. They were small, didn't have much horsepower, and would push a boat only a little better than a pair of could get them to run. They were dirty, greasy, smokey, sputtery, and cantankerous.

Not so today!

Modern outboards are streamlined, handsome, and dependable. They start easily and quickly. Many of them have electric starters. They also have reverse gears. Furthermore, they run smoothly and quietly. And they come in all shapes and sizes, from 3 hp. to 100.

Maybe you haven't thought much about boats and motors until now. But you've just bought a place on the lake or near the coast, and you think it would be fun to get on the water.

Or maybe you've been a bank fisherman all this time. But now you yearn for greater mobility. . . so you can reach the big fish hideouts that can be approached only by boat.

Anyway, you're going to buy a motor. What kind?

Well, let's say you're buying just a motor - not a boat. You can rent a boat nearly anywhere for a couple of dollars a day. So you want a motor to carry in the car, clamp on the back of a rented boat, and go fishing.

If that's your situation, you want one of the smaller motors because it will fit handily into your car trunk and it is easy to move from car to dock. A little 3 hp. is fine. It's light, easy to carry and consumes a minimum of gas and oil.

But if you have to cover more than two or three miles, the trip is going to seem long. If your distance from dock to fishing hole is greater than that, you'll be happier with a 5 or 6 horsepower outboard. They weigh under 50 pounds. That's not too heavy and there is plenty of power in these small water-threshers.

When you get into bigger motors, the carrying job becomes a real chore. I would not recommend a 12 or 15 horsepower as a portable motor to anyone who isn't a pretty powerful hunk. And no more than that to anyone, if he's going to carry it very far.

But let's assume that you're in a different kind of situation. You are going to mount it on a trailer and haul it to the water.

In that event you want at least a 15-horse motor or possibly a 25. Now you've got enough speed to reach the more distant fishing holes quickly.

Most important of all . . . before you buy a motor new or used - check and double check to be sure you get the motor that meets your specific needs.

MR. AND MRS. KENNETH HILL

Sandra Johnson - Kenneth Hill Wed In Candlelight Ceremony Saturday

Wedding vows were read for Sandra Elizabeth Johnson and Kenneth Dale Hill, Hart Saturday night at 8 in the First Methodist Church, Dimmitt.

Rev. Norman Bishop, pastor of First Baptist Church in Roosevelt, Oklahoma read the double ring ceremony before an archway of greenery flanked by two seven-branched candelabra bearing white tapers. Two basket bouquets contained white mums and gladioli. Wedding aisle was marked with white bows and candles.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, Springlake Road, Dimmitt. Groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hill of Hart.

Mrs. Wade Maynard of Dimmitt played traditional wedding selections at the organ. She accompanied soloist Mrs. James Horton, Dimmitt who sang "O Perfect Love" by J. Barnby, "I Do" by Jos. Cassin and "Wedding Prayer" by Fern Glasgow Dunlap.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white gown of peau do sole fashioned by her mother. The gown featured an A-line skirt joined to fitted bodice. Long sleeves trimmed with small self-covered buttons tapered to a point over the wrist. Paneled chapel train draped over shoulders in front to join wide belt which fastened at back. Quacks Extort Millions With Phony Cure-alls and Gadgets, Says AMA

Today there are thousands of quacks promising quick cures for every disease known. They extort millions of dollars annually from their gullible patients.

Yet, the quack's promises, cure-alls and gadgets are as phony as a fixed gambling wheel or a "con man's" schemes, said F. J. L. Blasingame, M.D., executive vice president of the American Medical Association. "Healthy people usually laugh at or ignore the quack," he said, "but sick people may grasp at anything that offers a quick cure. Indeed, almost anyone can be fooled unless he knows how quacks operate."

Machines can be a blessing or a curse to medicine. In the hands of a skilled physician, certain machines are useful in arriving at a diagnosis or charting a method of treatment.

But some machines are a threat to your health. Any quack who passes off his device or gadget or "system" as a cure-all is cashing in on your limited knowledge of science.

Doctors of medicine are trained for years in reputable schools and hospitals. They are licensed only after they meet high medical standards. The legitimate doctor does not limit himself to a device or instrument or to any one "system." He does not limit himself to manipulations or adjustments.

Not so with the quacks. The quack pretends to medical skill. He invents a machine, device or scheme to defraud the public. He advertises that he has the one and only "cure." He may even purchase a phony medical diploma. All the quack needs is someone to believe him. And some sick people are easily impressed.

One alleged "doctor" testified he received four degrees from a "druggless practitioners college" he said he had attended for one year. He claimed to be a doctor of chiropractic, naturopathy, herbal materia medica and electro-therapeutics.

Another "practitioner," who came here from India, advertised that he has at least 15 degrees, including an "honorary M.D." He started the Spectro-Chrome Institute about 1920 and did a flourishing business until the Cap, caps and empty box were supposed to supply "ergone energy" with which a person could cure himself of many afflictions. No such energy exists, but thousands were deluded before this myth was exposed.

This device was supposed to cure cancer by playing a recording of "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes." Units sold for up to $500.

The lady in the glistening mask is supposedly being treated via short-wave radio. The machine, according to the gadgeteer who invented it, could neutralize the evil radio vibrations emitted from the diseased area. The device proved to be immensely profitable—for its inventor.

Micro-dynamometer, which sold to chiropractors for as much as $875 each, was billed as a device for diagnosing patients' ills. Actually, the only thing the device was capable of measuring was the moisture of the skin. Federal courts ordered it off the market.

government prosecuted him in 1947 for repeated violation of the federal food and drug law. At the trial it came out that the founder of the institute had told an elderly diabetic to stop taking insulin—that Spectro-Chrome was all he needed. The diabetic took the advice, and soon afterward went into a coma and died. Also at the trial an epileptic, testifying that the same device had benefited him, collapsed on the witness stand—from an epileptic fit.

A $20,000 fine was levied against the institute and its director, who escaped a prison sentence only because of his age (he was 75). He was put on five year's probation. However, when the term ended he was reported to be working again.

Some quacks are also licensed to practice a "healing art." Some cultist groups lobby powerfully for license recognition in various states. Well-meaning citizens often help to pass laws permitting limited practice, but this does not protect the public.

A woman chiropractor in Los Angeles was given a chance to demonstrate her alleged ability during tests made at the University of Chicago. According to the university's official report, she claimed she could diagnose illness from a drop of blood of a person who wasn't there. She "diagnosed" that the person had cancer, abnormal blood pressure and a very poor chance to recover. The spot of blood, the university reports, was taken from one of its staff physicians in the best of health.

Fantastic? Not at all. Each year thousands are fooled by quacks using phony machines.

"The American Medical Association," explained Dr. Blasingame, "does not bring charges against these quacks, nor prosecute them. Such action is the responsibility of law enforcement agencies."

You can best protect your health, he advised, by avoiding devices like the ones pictured here and, even more important, by relying on the advice of your family doctor.

County Has Eight Rural Accidents During Last Month

There were eight rural accidents in Castro County during the month of May, according to Sergeant W. E. Wells, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in thirteen persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $3,027.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county for the first five months of 1965 shows a total of 38 accidents resulting in one person killed, 31 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $21-982.00.

"Due to a man power shortage in the uniform services of the Texas Department of Public Safety, applications for the position of patrolmen are now being accepted until July 6," announced the Patrol Supervisor. Examinations will be given throughout the state on July 14 and July 15. The four month training school will begin on August 31 at the Texas Department of Public Safety Law Enforcement Academy in Austin.

Young men between the ages of 21 and 35 that are interested should contact the nearest Texas Department of Public Safety Patrolman or office for additional information.

WASH SPOONS in Potato Bath
Tarnished and dull spoons and spinners can be polished by soaking overnight in water your wife boils potatoes in. Next morning they gleam.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hance spent the week end in Panhandle with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hodges, Sheralyn, Kerl and Boyd.

Prevents Flying Scales
If you must clean fish at home, try inserting fish in large plastic bag before scaling. Clear bag allows you to see what you are doing, but loose scales can't escape.

Warm Boots Shine Best
When applying dressing to your hunting boots, heat inside of boot with hair dryer. Warm boot takes dressing much more readily than cold boot.

Church Installs Fallout Shelter

FALLOUT PROTECTION capability designed and built into a new church at McLean, Va., achieves shelter area for 300 persons on part of the first floor (shaded area in drawing at right) by increasing the ceiling slab for the first floor from 2-6 inches of concrete, and other supplementary measures. One of these measures is added radiation protection obtained from the retaining wall which helps to shield the part of the shelter area adjacent to the outside walls.

It's Integral Part Of New Building

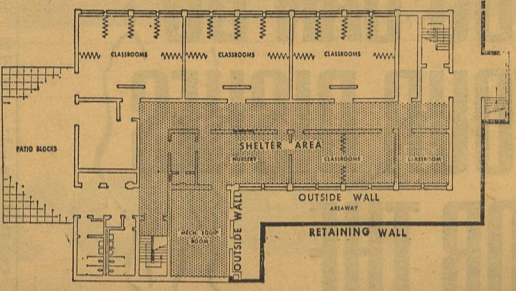

Fallout protection features built into the new McLean Bible Church at McLean, Va., are invisible to the untrained eye, as are similar measures built into many new structures springing up across the Nation. They are very real, nevertheless.

The church is one of 34 new buildings of various types which are cited in a new civil defense publication as examples of designing fallout shelter into structures at little or no extra cost at the time they are built, and without impairing their appearance or use. The shelter feature added only $900 to the cost of the $217,000 church, or about six cents of the $15.24 cost per sq. ft. of the building.

Copies of the publication "New Buildings With Fallout Protection" (TR-27), put out by the Office of Civil Defense, Department of Defense, are available without charge from the U.S. Army AG Publications Center, Civil Defense Branch, 2800 Eastern Blvd., Baltimore, Md. 21225.

WORKER FILLS the hollow cores of wall blocks with sand to provide added shielding mass against radiation—one of several techniques used to build low-cost fallout protection into a new church at McLean, Va.
