Hail and five-inch rain demolish Easter crops

High winds and hail accompanied an estimated five inches of rainfall in a period of about 30 minutes Sunday night at the Easter community.

A spokesperson for Easter Grain said that no one knew exactly how much rain was received, because the strong wind caused the rainfall to miss the gauges.

The amount of hail received was unknown, but Eddie Matthews of Easter Grain reported that it drifted knee-deep in some places because of the high winds.

The storm stretched one and a half miles east and west of Easter, one mile south and four miles north of the community.

According to Matthews, the corn and cotton crops were "wiped out" and the maize was damaged, but it could come back. He estimated that 14 sections were destroyed in the storm.

An average of 1.8 inches of precipitation was received around Castro County Sunday night.

Precipitation amounts recorded in the county ranged from the estimated five inches in Easter to one half of an inch recorded by Jerry Wilhelm, five miles north of Nazareth and .60 of an inch recorded by James Wilhelm in the same area.

The only severe weather reported in the county was in Easter.

Flagg Grain reported 2.04 inches of rain Sunday evening, while Gale Sadler in Sunnyside reported that he had received 1.25 inches at his home, and 2.20 inches northwest of town.

Dewayne Brown at Farmers Grain in Hart recorded an inch of precipitation in the city, two inches east of town and 1.75 inches north of the city.

The official US Weather Observer for Castro County, KDHN

Radio, reported 1.10 inches of rain in Dimmitt for Sunday. "Goose" Ramey recorded 1.20 inches of precipitation and Russell Moran and Don Nelson reported one and a half inches at their homes in west Dimmitt.

The Simpson Dairy, halfway between Hereford and Dimmitt, reported .75 of an inch of rain.

Lynn Ehly of Oles Grain in Nazareth said, "Nazareth averaged over an inch of rain. It was a nice general rain in our area."

City seeks mosquito advice

The Dimmitt Board of Aldermen consulted Monday night with two men from the Region I office of the Texas Dept. of Health concerning the mosquito situation in town and sought their recommendations.

Bob Kennedy, environment and consumer health specialist, and James Norred, zoonosis specialist, both of Canyon, told the aldermen that the city's present course of using larvacide on standing water, weed control and limited space spraying should be adequate for maximum effectiveness.

The aldermen asked whether aerial spraying might be more effective. Kennedy replied that aerial spraying is the least effective and most costly method of mosquito control.

"Larvacide is the key to any kind of control program," Norred told the board. "Anytime after a rain, bodies of standing water need to be examined for larva development to determine if another larvacide treatment is needed."

Norred also noted that ground-based spraying rigs for space spraying to kill adult mosquitoes are most effective because of better control of the spray. He added that weed control also needs to be emphasized as an area in which each property owner needs to participate.

The men told the board that a horse in Hart has been found to have encephalitis. They said that no cases of the disease in humans has been reported so far this year.

Norred expected to trap some local mosquito specimens Monday night and send them off for examination as to species and any virus activity. He noted that a report should be available in a couple of weeks.

Two bids were received by the aldermen on a sewer cleaning machine, but the aldermen voted to hold the bids for further consideration at a later time.

A bid for $14,849 was received from Baker Equipment of Edmond, Okla. for a Sreco machine. Environmental Sales and Service Co. of Hurst bid $15,924.76 for an FMC machine.

The Sreco machine had a slight variance from the bid specifications, while the FMC machine offered apparently closer service facilities, which would be at Lubbock.

City Works Dept. head James Killough told the board that he felt the FMC was a better product and better known.

The aldermen agreed to have a roofer examine the roof of the city hall, particularly over the meeting room area, to recommend whether a patch job is needed or an entire new roof and to give an estimate of the cost. Then the aldermen will decide which way to go and advertise for bids.

The next meeting of the aldermen will be July 23.

Nelson will be honored Friday with reception

The News staff will host a retirement reception Friday afternoon honoring longtime publisher B. M. Nelson.

The reception will be from 3 to 5 p.m. in the News office.

Nelson, 78, is one of the deans of the state's newspaper editor-publishers. He started his career as an apprentice on the Rogers News in 1925, and in 1934 established his first newspaper, the Roaring Springs Reporter. He later owned and operated the Amherst Reporter and the Olton Enterprise before buying the Castro County News in 1943.

After the war he worked for paving of the county's highways, helped found the Chamber of Commerce and Castro Co-op Hospital (now Plains Memorial), and editorially supported every major bond issue for the progress of the county and its cities and the improvement of its schools. He also served as the community's "master of ceremonies."

In the mid-1950s he served as part-time manager of the Chamber of Commerce, performing the local research and development work necessary to establish a vegetable industry here. He also was a co-founder of the Dimmitt Produce Co. and Castro County Vegetable Growers Association.

He was named the county's Citizen of the Year in 1966.

After 59 years in the printing and newspaper field and a half a century as a self-employed publisher, Nelson has sold his interest in the News to his son, Don. The two have been partners in the local newspaper since 1966.

Dimmitt to host tourney

Dimmitt will host the District Junior Babe Ruth Baseball Tournament starting Monday, with four all-star teams vying for the right to advance in the playoffs.

The Dimmitt all-star team will place five members of the Astros and Pirates on the team. Three Giants will also play for the Dimmitt all-stars.

Kenny Kern, Todd Hill, Craig Huseman, Chris Schmucker and Alan Birkenfeld qualified from the Astros; Todd Durham, Phillip Vargo, Rodrigo Jackson, Ronnie Calderon and Grady Mason were selected from the Pirates; Emilio Arce, Mathew Maxey and Kevin Reed were the Giants making the team.

Alternates for the Dimmitt all-star team include Narciso Quiroz and Stacy Gonzales of the Giants, Paul Espinosa of the Pirates and Brad Klein of the Astros.

Teams from Plainview, Muleshoe and Hereford will join the Dimmitt all-star team in the tournament.

The tournament bracket is scheduled to begin Monday at 6 p.m. with Dimmitt meeting Plainview and Muleshoe facing Hereford.

BULLETIN

This tournament was rescheduled as the newspaper was going to press. Instead of being in Dimmitt, the tourney will be in Plainview, starting July 13. Details of the event will be in next week's issue.

In car accident

Bystander injured

A man who was working in his yard had both legs broken as a result of a two-car accident in front of his home last Wednesday in Hart.

W. H. Felder was not a driver or a passenger in either of the cars involved in the accident, but his wife, Nellie, received a citation.

Here's how it happened, according to State Trooper Ron Morgan:

While driving north on First Street, Mrs. Felder attempted to turn left, and her car struck a southbound car being driven by Sherlain White of Tulia.

In trying to avoid the collision, White swerved his car into the yard of the Felder home. Felder was standing next to a pickup in his driveway and was pinned between the pickup and White's car.

Mrs. Felder was cited for failure to yield right of way on a left turn.

Felder was treated at Central Plains Regional Hospital in Plainview, and is now recuperating at home.

Sodium chlorate approved

A crisis declaration by the Texas Dept. of Agriculture authorizes the use of sodium chlorate to kill weeds in wheat to facilitate harvest. Elvis Cozart, manager of the Pesticide Registration Section, emphasized that authorization applies only to the High Plains of Texas.

The use provisions are as follows:

1. Only sodium chlorate containing a fire retardant may be used.
2. The authorized application rate is 4 pounds active ingredient per acre.
3. The spray volume should be between 5 and 10 gallons per acre.

4. A pre-harvest interval of seven days must be observed.

5. Do not graze treated fields within 14 days following treatment.

This special authorization was requested by producers in this area because of rapid weed growth following recent rains. Heavy weed growth is causing problems in harvesting and with quality standards. According to Dr. Kirby Huffman, agronomist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, sodium chlorate is non-selective so caution is urged to prevent its application or drift to other crops in adjacent fields.

Rural boxes are 'grass roots'

Dear Editor:

We read in the June 21 issue of the Castro County News that the commissioners were to consider the consolidation of voting boxes 7, 11, and 16. Those of us not involved in those boxes felt no need to be present Monday, June 25 since those people seemed to have agreed beforehand to the consolidation. We learned in the June 28 issue of the paper that all rural boxes were involved — this without due notice.

I think I speak for many when I say that I resent the rural people getting the blame for a 40% turnout in the primary. I can only speak for voting precinct 10, but others must have a similar record. We had 92 registered voters on our roll for the May 5 primary. At least 12 of those were not eligible to vote because they have moved from Castro County. We had 47 votes cast in the first primary plus three absentee votes. In the second primary, 46 votes were cast plus two absentee votes. When you take off 10 or more Republicans in the precinct, you will find our turnout about 70%. How does this compare with the city boxes?

When you do away with the rural voting boxes, you do away with the majority of the rural vote. When you do away with the rural vote, you do away with the grass roots of the Democratic Party. If you think that "convenience hasn't spurred larger turnouts," wait and see.

The only ones who will profit from the combining of the boxes will be the Republican Party since they have no rural boxes.

The election code states, "Each county shall be divided into convenient election precincts by the commissioners court." It also states, "In counties of less than 50,000 population according to the last preceding federal census, the commissioners court may establish precincts of less than 50 voters upon the petition of 25 or more registered voters within the county." This indicates to me encouragement for the small rural boxes.

As for the "horse and buggy days" — yes, we have better transportation, more money, and more conveniences — but many do not have the time to drive 20 or more miles to vote. Some will take the time, but many will not because they are busy and it just is not convenient to do so.

As for the expense, there will be little difference. The larger boxes will just have to hire more clerks. The rural boxes use only a judge and two clerks, which the election code requires. But even if it does cost more, is not the freedom to express our convictions at the polls worth that much? No one hesitates to spend more money than that for much less important things.

If the defeated commissioners are angry with the rural people who drive over dirt roads all day, remember it was largely the same people who put them in office.

On the Go

with Mary Edna Hendrix, 647-3343

Happy Fourth of July!
The City-wide Patriotic Picnic, Songfest and Fireworks at the Dimmitt High School Stadium was an enjoyable evening until the rain came. The lightning gave all the spectators a thrill before the fireworks started! Joe Higgs was in charge of the program and he led the group in singing "The Star-Spangled Banner" as the American flag was raised. Zelda Ellison had planned a mini concert but due to the threatening weather she told the audience she would just play and sing three songs, but as the lightning grew worse she announced that she was changing it to two songs. We all watched the fireworks from our cars!

The Singing Group met at South Hills Manor for an hour of singing to entertain the residents. After the singing the group had an evening of fellowship and eating. Those enjoying the evening were: Gene and Connie Ivey, Coy and Dora Dunn, Newt and Alma Dunn, from California, Oleta Sanders, Mary Lou Frazier, Susie Reeves, Rev. Ed and Betty Freeman, Virgil and Geneva Justice, Irene Carpenter and Mary Edna Hendrix. Some of the residents I visited were: Becky Bridges, Myrtle Sheffy, Grace Winters, Essie Helsey, Leora Calhoun and Genevieve Howe.

Denise Fulfer, 15-year-old daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Kenneth Fulfer, graduated from Baribyon Modeling School in San Antonio. Denise was nominated for Most Photogenic and Best Model Look Book. She is a sophomore at Madison High School. Her grandmother, Mrs. Faye Cline, attended the graduation.

Joe Burkett and his son Todd from Scottsdale, Ariz. came last week to visit Joe's parents, Swain and Katy Burkett. Todd is 9 years old and he wanted to drive through in the Van so they could stop and sleep on the mountain. Joe's wife stayed at home since their other son was still playing ball.

John and Anita Stephens from Fredrick, Okla., spent a few days visiting Elzie and Serena Teague and the Clyde Damrons. John is the son of Rev. Ray Stephens who was pastor at Westway and other towns on the North Plains. He also conducted a study course at First Baptist Church in Dimmitt several years ago.

Jack Teague from Dexter, N.M. came by to visit his grandparents, the Elzie Teagues. Jack had been fishing with his aunt and cousin at Childress Lake and Baylor Lake. They were fishing from a boat so they caught several fish.

I went to Post and helped the two nieces with a garage sale, then on to Ruidoso, N.M. with Jess and Gladys Hendrix from Post and Travis and Doris Hendrix from Slaton. One niece has a lovely cabin up high on a mountain with a beautiful view of the Sierra Blanca Ski Area and the Ruidoso Airport. We drove around in the residential section and Ruidoso has changed since I was there. We went to Mescalero and had a cup of coffee at the beautiful Inn of the Mountain Gods. (That's all we could afford.)

Alan Daniel Ramirez was born June 8 to Dan and Frances Ramirez in Cedar Hills. The little one weighed 7 pounds and 10 ounces and is 20½ inches long. The grandparents are N. A. and Thelma Bryson of Dimmitt and Grandpa said the baby is a good-looking boy! The Brysons have just returned from Cedar Hills after several days of visiting their daughter and family.

Cletha George spent a few days with her son and daughter-in-law, Jack and Chollis George, in Tucumcari, N.M. Cletha reported a good time but it rained every day while she was there and everything was greener than she had seen it there in a long time.

Jackie Phillips from Lubbock came by Dimmitt and she and her mother, Betty Cartwright, went to Clovis to visit Pam Lockmiller and family. Pam has a new baby, Tara Layne Lockmiller, and this is Jackie's grandchild and Betty's great grandchild. They also visited K'Dawn and her new baby, Kelcey. Betty said with so many new babies in the family she knew they would really have fun for Christmas.

The Thursday Bridge Club met at the Senior Citizens Center for lunch with Alice Collyer as hostess. Beash Bradford won high score and Alice won second high. Others playing were: Johnnie Vannoy, Josie Bradford, Betty Cartwright, Rosalie Hawkins, Cleo Forson, Susie Reeves, Jo Gregory, Elizabeth Huckabay, Fernie Dickey, and Faun Welker.

Cletha George was hostess to the Friday Bridge Club that met at the Senior Citizens Center for lunch and a day of bridge playing. Cletha won high score and Josie Bradford won second high. Others playing were: Betty Cartwright, Retta Cluck, Opal Bearden, Gladia Shipley, Ruth Coleman and Betty Renfro from Amarillo.

Ed and Betty Freeman took a quick trip to Denver last week to visit their daughter Sally and their grandson Terry. They drove up on Monday and returned on Thursday. While in Denver they saw the space show "Hail Columbia!" at the IMEX Theater and the space show at the Planetarium where Terry works. They visited the Denver Museum of Natural History and saw the musical "The Quilters" at the Space Theater in the Denver Center of the Performing Arts.

The dreams of a lifetime were realized when Rayphard and Mary Lu Smithson, her mother, Mrs. E. C. Hofmann of Shamrock, and her brother and family, Tom and Lillian Hofmann, Jeffrey and Curtis of Graham, traveled to Switzerland in June. Their paternal grandfather had come to America with his family as a four-year-old child in 1881.

The first part of the trip was a flight to London, England, where they spent two days sightseeing. They were able to see the changing of the guard at Buckingham Pa-

What Does It Take To Build A Church?

Perhaps you glance at the church on the corner once in a while and wonder what it would be like to visit during a service. What is it that draws those people to that particular building every week? What built that church?

The only possible answer is — the love of God. Their love of God prompted them to sacrifice and give so that the sanctuary might be built. The love of God compels them to meet there with others who serve Him. Their love of God compels them to "go, and tell others".

We pray that you will be drawn to such a church this week and that you will align yourself with it. You can help build it into something even better.

Coleman Adv.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

lace, Westminster Cathedral, Tower of London, House of Parliament, Big Ben, and Westminster Abbey among other sights. The crown jewels on display in the Jewel House in the Tower were magnificent.

They were fascinated by the traffic in London. It never stopped! The big black taxis were thick and scurried in and out of the traffic like ants. Bicycles were also common on the city streets. They used the public transportation system and rode the underground, double decker buses, and the train. There were very few parking areas, and most people coming to town, rode buses or trains. They were all very helpful and polite to explain the routes and numbers so that they could catch the right one.

The next part of the trip began with a train ride to Dover to catch the Jet-Foil across the North Sea to Oostend, Belgium. From there they rode a train to Brussels, where they picked up a van for the rest of the trip to Switzerland. The highways are unique, as far as they were concerned. They had no numbers, for the most part, as they are accustomed to. It was confusing sometimes, but they "toured" until they found their way back, when they strayed. The Autobahns were really something. They were super highways with no speed limits, and the slow traffic stayed on the right. The traffic in the first or left lane really moved!

They were met in Bern by a young cousin, Hansrudolf, who led them to the restaurant, where they joined the other family members for a holiday meal. That afternoon some 50 or so people came to a special "cousins meeting," called in their honor, so that they could meet them. They spent several days in that area, visiting family and the special places important in the family history. Then, accompanied by Hansrudolf, they visited other places of interest in Switzerland.

They saw herds of cows being driven to summer pasture in the Alps, accompanied by the whole family, in costume, and the family dog, all on foot. The cows wore elaborate decorative collars, each with their bell attached. The sound was like a wind chime with all different tones. They drove over the Alps in a light snow and made snowballs in June! They visited Lucerne, Liechtenstein, one of the smallest independent states in Europe, Atdorf, where they saw the monument to William Tell, Thun, where they toured the Castle of Thun, now used as a museum, Sarnen, where they visited a glass factory making hand-blown crystal, and a wood carving shop at Brienz.

They enjoyed the beautiful scenery, the hospitality and the fabulous flowers. The different customs were especially enjoyable, such as the tea at 9 in the morning and 4 in the afternoon.

They recalled later that they did not see any pickups anywhere.

Vivian Pigg was the honoree at a Going Away Party Saturday morning in the home of Trish Elliott. Vivian and her family are moving to Marshall where her husband Carmon will be involved in law enforcement. Many friends came by to bid Vivian and her daughter Vanessa goodbye for now, and wish them well as they go to their new home.

Shirley and Harold Stephens went to Ft. Collins, Colo. this past week for a few days visit with her Aunt Eleanor and Ray Koehler. They reported the country was beautiful and green all the way. They have had so much snow and rain this year. The Koehler's live west of Ft. Collins in the "Foothills of the Rockies" near Horsetooth Reservoir. They went over to Eagles Park one day sightseeing and had "Brunch" at Nickey's Restaurant, a popular place to eat the year round.

Rita and Stan McDaniel and boys went to Fort Worth recently to Six Flags over Texas and to White Water Park. They all had a good time. Stan and Rita have been very busy this summer since they have purchased full ownership of the Dimmitt Motor Company. However, they do miss C. B. and Jean Lunsford, who have moved to Arkansas.

Myrna Cowsert has been hospitalized in St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo after suffering a fractured hip in a fall she received at the Dalhart Country Club on Sunday, June 24. She was visiting her daughter, Carole and Ronnie Farris and family in Dalhart for a few days when the accident happened. They had attended morning worship services at the Methodist Church and were having lunch at the Club. However, Carole reports that her mother is doing very well now.

Esta Vandiver had the needle-point "Lunch Bunch" last Friday in her home. There was very little sewing, but lots of conversation. She served a delicious salad plate to: Sue Merritt, Carole Dyer, Shirley Stephens, Dorothy Shetty, Myrtle Lois Moran, and Nancy Hays of Hereford.

A.B. and Melvina Oakley of 406 NW 3rd Street called their children, grandchildren and great grandchildren home for a long awaited family reunion. Most of the 33 people who were in attendance are from the Panhandle but some traveled from California and Missouri to attend. This is the first Oakley family reunion since 1973. There is a new generation added making five generations again. The last five generations in the family was in 1969. There were six generations in 1937 on both sides of the family.

Presbyterian happenings

There is a Sunday Church School class for everyone every Sunday at 10 a.m. The Adult Bible class meets at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Brown. All other classes meet at the Church.

"How God Watches Over the Child" will be the subject of Pastor Edward D. Freeman's sermon at the morning church worship service Sunday at 11.

The Session will meet Monday at 8 p.m.

WTSU offers courses and 30 scholarships

The College of Education at West Texas State University has received a grant from the Texas Bureau for Economic Understanding to conduct a special program which will deal with the free enterprise system.

The six-hour program, designed mainly for social studies teachers, will be offered during the 1984 second summer term.

Approximately 30 scholarships will be awarded. Those receiving scholarships will be able to enroll for six graduate credit hours, with the funds providing free tuition, fees, books and, in some cases, free housing.

The two classes that will be offered are "American Systems and Capitalism." The entire program will last only about three and a half weeks.

Those awarded six hour scholarships will be required to send a $25 registration fee, and those awarded three hour scholarships will be required to mail a $15 registration fee.

To apply for a scholarship, an applicant must be filled out and returned to West Texas with an official transcript of college credits. The deadline for making applications is July 10.

Fireworks sale is progressing

By Monday morning, the Dimmitt Kiwanis Club had already sold over $1,500-worth of fireworks in their annual fireworks selling project. Sales were scheduled to have continued through Wednesday.

After expenses are taken out, proceeds from the sale will be used for the various service projects of the club.

At Monday's meeting of the club, assignments were made for the club's turn to distribute Meals on Wheels. Members volunteering to help included Gene King, Jimmy Davis, Robert Benton and Alex Glass.

Although the compromise version has not yet been released, the state's new school reform bill covers at least 200 pages of information. In about two weeks an impact study will be released on how the bill will affect the local school districts, according to Corky Lockmiller, curriculum director of the Dimmitt Independent School District.

Lockmiller spoke to the 15 club members present at Monday's meeting.

Lockmiller said that recent implementation of State House Bill 246 "offers the best opportunity we have ever had to implement changes in curriculum delivery to the students, especially in the area of mandated remediation. This gives us a handle on things that we didn't have before."

WHITE AMUR is another name for grass carp, which are Asian imports that have been stocked in some areas to control aquatic vegetation.

Mobile office here Monday

Republican Senator Bill Sarpaluis will have his mobile office in Dimmitt Monday from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. at the County Courthouse.

Anyone interested is invited to come out.

A giant chasm at the bottom of Piccaninnie Ponds in southeastern Australia splits the earth to a depth of nearly 190 feet. National Geographic says that in this sink-hole realm the water is so clear that the divers feel as if they are floating in midair.

Cancer Society

Skin cancer is one of the most easily cured and easily prevented of all cancers. Yet some 7,000 persons will die of the disease in 1984.

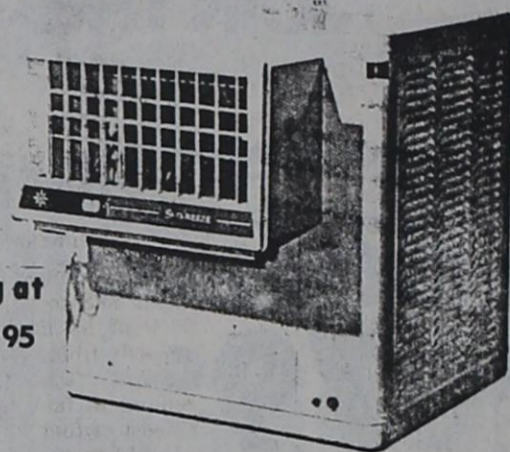

Most of the cases of skin cancer might have been avoided simply by putting on a hat or shirt or both. Prolonged over-exposure to the sun should be avoided, and even "sun-worshippers" should use common sense. Skin cancer is almost 100% curable when diagnosed early and treated properly.

A good rule to follow is: Have a look-see by your doctor if any sore, blister, pimple or newly developed blemish in the skin does not show signs of healing within two weeks. Don't stop with the skin. Any sore on the lip, tongue or anywhere in the oral cavity should be watched. These symptoms usually do not mean cancer, but only a physician can determine definitely whether cancer is there or not.

Barrels are blooming all over Dimmitt. The barrels were acquired, prepared and planted by the Mayor's Council for Beautification. Joe Higgs heads the Barrel Committee.

Merchants paid for the barrels and plants and must keep them watered. It is a project of cooperation with good results.

The Mayor's Council for Beautification thanks Keith Lowe and Kittrell Electronics for furnishing water for the barrels on their side of the square. Bill Harmon of Harmon's Department Store and Martha Jo Hyman of Tots and Teens set good examples for all Dimmitt merchants by doing a great job in maintaining their barrels, sweeping the sidewalks and stepdowns in front of their stores.

Efforts such as Mr. Harmon's and Mrs. Hyman's mean a lot in making Dimmitt an attractive place.

We are all thankful for the rain that has come to Castro County. With the rains, however, come weeds. Please do your part in your yard and alley, at your business and on any property you own in Dimmitt to keep your weeds cut. Your neighbors really appreciate all of your efforts.

The Mayor's Council for Beautification encourages all merchants to bag their trash. Trash blowing in our streets and alleys is ugly and expensive because the city crews must clean it up. Get the Bag Habit, merchants!!

Barrels with flowers planted in them, well swept sidewalks, chopped weeds, bagged trash...is all this important or just cute? It is more important than most of us realize. Dimmitt needs to keep businesses it now has and attract new business and industries. Other towns are trying to attract these same businesses. Be sure to know that a clean attractive town goes a long way in acquiring new businesses. Let's all go the extra mile to make Dimmitt clean and attractive.

Ever wonder if you're paying too much for car insurance?

Ladd named director of fuel acquisition

Kenneth L. Ladd Jr. has been named director of fuel acquisition and fuel administration for Southwestern Public Service company (SPS).

Ladd's responsibilities include planning for the current and future fuel needs of SPS, negotiating fuel contracts and working with fuel suppliers to guarantee that SPS has adequate and economical fuel supplies.

Southwestern Public Service uses coal and natural gas as primary fuels in the manufacture of electricity. About 55% of Southwestern's total expenses is fuel-related, SPS Executive President Bill Esler said in announcing Ladd's promotion.

Ladd began his 20-year career with Southwestern Public Service in June 1961 as a power plant operator. He worked as a chemist in power plants at Amarillo, Amherst, and Hobbs, N.M., and as staff chemist for Southwestern's in-house generation plant design group. Later, he became SPS's manager of licensing and environmental affairs.

In the fall of 1981, Ladd left SPS to accept an appointment with the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA). He worked as the special assistant and general engineer to the EPA's Assistant Administrator of Air, Noise and Radiation, and served on a White House Task Force that examined issues relating to electrical power in America.

He returned to SPS in June 1983 as manager of fuel acquisition.

Ladd has supervised SPS' required work with state and federal environmental regulatory agencies to assure compliance with air, water and solid waste regulations.

He is active in energy research, and heads special projects to study applicability of wind and solar energy to Southwestern's system. He was project manager for a seven-year, $2,000,000 investigation of a commercial-size fabric filter ("baghouse") environmental-protection system installed at Southwestern's Harrington Station Unit #2, near Amarillo.

He led development for SPS of marketing "fly ash," a by-product of coal combustion. The sales permit SPS to potentially market 100% of its coal ash materials. Proceeds from the sales of these so-called "waste products" are credited to fuel costs, and lower the cost of fuel to SPS customers.

Ladd has authored a number of technical articles on waste water treatment, water re-use, uses for fly ash, fabric filter research and other subjects related to his professional activities.

He has earned a bachelor of science in chemistry and mathematics from West Texas State University in 1964. Texas Tech University awarded Ladd a master's degree in engineering in 1978.

He is a member and past chairman of the Panhandle-Plains section of the American Chemical Society, and is a registered professional engineer in Texas.

Ladd, of 4414 Chandler, Amarillo, is married and has three children. Southwestern Public Service Company primarily provides electric utility service to a population of more than one million in a 70,000-square-mile area of the Panhandle and South Plains of Texas, eastern and southeastern New Mexico, the Panhandle of Oklahoma, and southwestern Kansas.

Frye wins office at Girls' State

Carla Frye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Frye of Dimmitt, was elected Health Officer of her city, City H, at the 1984 session of Texas Bluebonnet Girls' State held in Seguin June 12-22.

Five other county girls who attended are Patsy Birkenfeld, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carol Birkenfeld of Nazareth; Dorothy Durbin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Durbin of Nazareth; Christi Rowland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newlon Rowland of Hart; Kyla Boozer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Monty Boozer; and Gayla Kittrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kittrell.

During the 10-day session, citizens heard talks from several prominent persons including Ann Richards, State Treasurer; Carole Keeton Rylander, former mayor, City of Austin, and presently a member of the Texas Board Insurance Commission; Melissa Wington, an Austin attorney; George Strake, Chairman of the Republican Party of Texas; Wanda Konkel, president of the American Legion Auxiliary Department of Texas; and Betty Jean Jones, Mayor of Seguin.

These girls, along with 575 girls from around Texas, learned how to live together as a self-governing group and were informed of the duties, privileges, rights and responsibilities which they will assume when they become adults. They learn the problems of government by simulating the duties of city, county and state officials.

Each year citizens are selected at local levels from students who have completed their junior year in high school and who have achieved high standards in scholarship, leadership and character.

Beef breeders to meet Aug. 15-16

All purebred beef breeders have a stake in a symposium to be held on the campus of Texas A&M University, Aug. 15-16. The event will help breeders identify genetically superior purebred cattle, thus improving not only individual breeds but the entire beef industry.

"Numerous authorities from throughout the United States will be on the program," says Dr. Randall Grooms, livestock specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, and symposium coordinator. "The program will get down to the nuts and bolts of the purebred industry, including requirements of the commercial cattle producer and beef merchandising."

Initial registration for the symposium will be at the Ramada Inn in College Station from 6 to 8 p.m., Tuesday, Aug. 14. Follow-up registration is at 7:30 a.m. in the Exhibit Hall of Rudder Center. However, preregistration before Aug. 10 will save participants $10. Preregistration fee is $40 per person or $65 for husband and wife. After Aug. 10, the registration fee will increase by $10. Advanced registration and fees should be sent to Dr. Dennis Herd, Department of Animal Science, Texas A&M University, College Station, TX 77843.

The symposium is being planned and co-sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the following Texas breed associations: Hereford, Polled Hereford, Angus, Red Angus, Brangus, Red Brangus, Brahman, Simmental, Limousin, Chianina, Shorthorn, Santa Gertrudis, Maine-Anjou, Charolais and Beefmaster.

"This could be the most important program purebred breeders attend during the year," Grooms points out. "The future of the beef cattle industry is primarily in their hands. The better job the purebred breeder does in breeding and selecting high producing animals, the better the commercial cattleman will do."

Breeders, ranchers, scientists and beef industry representatives scheduled for the program include Sam Washburn, Ancel Armstrong, J. D. Sartwell Jr., Jim Theeck, Duane Penner, Dr. A. L. "Ike" Eller, Henry Gardiner, Dr. Jim Brinks, Roy Wallace, Anne Ilse Anderson, Carl Stevens, Charles Rollins, Glen Brinkman, Leroy Jordan, Doug Bennett and Jim Leachman.

Since blocks of motel rooms have been made available, motel reservations should be made early at the Ramada Inn, LaQuinta Inn, Inn at

She has also received several other scholarships. She is married to Clyde Birkenfeld. The couple reside in Nazareth and have a son, Mark.

Huseman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Huseman of Nazareth, received one of eight $500 scholarships presented by Diamond Shamrock Oil and Gas Unit. She is a junior accounting major and is a member of Phi Eta Sigma freshman honor society.

which is presented by the WTSU Alternative Energy Institute, are Jan Spears, senior, who received $200, and Shavawn Tackitt, junior, $50.

The scholarship was established in memory of Acker, who was electrocuted in March of 1982 while he was working on a construction project at the US Dept. of Agriculture experiment station at Bushland.

Acker, who was working with Alternative Energy Institute as a research associate in wind research, was killed when construction equipment came in contact with power lines. He was a 1972 graduate of Nazareth High School and had earned a Bachelor of Science degree in physics at WTSU in 1980.

The Patrick Acker Memorial Scholarship is awarded through interest on an endowment of $2,800.

The scholarships were presented to Spears and Tackitt by Dr. Vaughn Nelson, professor of physics and director of the Alternative Energy Institute, and Dr. Nolan Clark, director of wind energy research at Bushland.

Tackitt is the daughter of Billy G. and Judith Evans of Canyon.

DRINKING DRIVING DEATH

A Combination we CAN'T LIVE WITH!

Our Nation

"We the people, to form a more perfect union,"
Is the statement that started our nation!
The aims and thoughts were for freedom,
To have "representation" before "taxation."

There are so many kinds of government,
But can you find one that is better than ours?
So many oppress man's freedom to the extent,
That the power of those nations we abhor!

I love this Nation, with its liberty;
Where else can you choose without restraint?
When our laws are recognized with fidelity,
We have no remorse or complaint.

In this particular era, we have problems,
With the environment and energy, and our tax,
But Americans will meet the greatest challenge,
As aforesaid we have confronted each task!

For religion, I'll fight for each to believe it,
Our First Amendment stands this freedom forth!
Where else on earth do folks plaudit
The right of each to choose his own source?

I love The Star Spangled Banner!
There's no prettier flag in the earth;
When it's desecrated, the scene irks my temper!
Such people, from our shores should be sent forth.

So live on "O Land Of Columbia!"
With your wealth in the citizen's rights,
No other nation possesses your aura,
Your glorious future cannot be finite!

Bronco

Homeruns key victories

Home runs helped the Braves, Astros and Yankees gain victories in Bronco League action in the past week, but the Rangers weren't as lucky.

The Rangers' Robert Ruiz blasted a home run in the bottom of the third and also hit a two-run homer in the bottom of the fifth, but it was to no avail as the Astros Jason Griffith keyed a rally in the top of the sixth that gave his team a 9-5 victory.

The game started out evenly and continued that way until Griffith hit his homer in the final inning.

After five innings the score was 5-4 in favor of the Rangers. Griffith's homer was one of five runs the Astros picked up in the last inning to take the win.

Home runs were the key in the Yankees victory against the Braves in the late game.

In the top of the first, James Flores belted a two-run homer to help get the Yanks on the road with a 5-0 lead. Raymond Danes followed with a homer in the top of the second - the 15 point inning that blasted the game wide open for the Yankees.

Jesus Quiroz added another home run for the Yankees in the top of the fifth and they took the 25-3 victory over the Braves. Miguel Ontivera hit a home run in the bottom of the fifth for the Braves, but it came too late to help.

It didn't take the Braves long to bounce back after the defeat at the hands of the Yankees.

Two grand-slam homers by Ontivera and Griffith in Friday night's game against the Astros gave them the lift they needed for a 25-12 win.

They opened the game with Ontivera's home run and took a 6-3 lead. Eight more points in the second extended the margin to 14-3, and after four innings it was 20-7 in favor of the hot-hitting Braves.

The Astros were not without big plays either. Billy Ray Thomas blasted a two-run homer in the bottom of the fifth, but the Braves scored five runs in the top of the inning, and walked away with a 25-12 victory.

Ruiz was again the hot man for the Rangers in Friday night's action. He blasted two, two-run homers, but again, it just wasn't enough to win.

The Yankees edged the Rangers 16-15 with the help of a home run in the bottom of the fourth by Freddy Martinez.

Hart sets tournament

The Hart Tennis Association will be sponsoring a tennis tournament July 13-15 at the High School tennis courts.

There will be A, B, C, and elementary student divisions in the tournament.

Entry deadline for the tournament is July 11.

There is an entry fee of $6 per person per event entered.

Anyone interested in entering the tournament my contact Ruth Bennett at 938-2425 or Rhonda Aven at 938-2111 before five, and after five at 938-2235.

All proceeds from the tournament will go towards a fund for bleachers around the High School tennis courts.

Everyone is welcome to enter.

Donna Baker and Chris Fry

Pair to wed on Sept. 22

Paul and Glenna Fry of Dimmitt announce the engagement of their son, Christopher Alan, to Donna Kay Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Baker of Dallas. The couple plan to marry Sept. 22 in Dallas. The prospective groom is a 1979 graduate of Dimmitt High School and is presently working for Electronic Data Systems of Dallas. The bride-to-be is a graduate of Skyline High School in Dallas and is currently working for BancTexas of Dallas.

If you learn one new thing every day, you will know 365 new things by this time next year.

ABOUT 90 percent of all US households use beef as the major fresh meat item on their menus.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Calvin Myres are at home at 3407 31st in Lubbock after their June 23 wedding. The pair honeymooned at South Padre Island.

The bride is the former Debra Leigh Dannevik, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Dannevik of Dimmitt. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Clyde Myres of Lubbock.

Vows were exchanged in a formal, double-ring ceremony in a garden setting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Henderson in Lubbock, with Castro County Judge Polly Simpson, a close friend of the family, officiating.

Seating in the garden was arranged to form an aisle, which was decorated with lamps, mixed flowers and doves.

Traditional wedding music on tape was played, and soloist Randy Henderson of Loraine played the guitar and sang "The Wedding Song."

Leisa Dannevik of Lubbock, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Nancy White of Estes Park, Co., and April Kidd of Lubbock.

The best man was Jim Myres of Lubbock, brother of the groom, and groomsmen were Mike Neece of Lubbock and Paul Dannevik of Dimmitt, brother of the bride.

Steve Wilson of Lubbock was usher, and Marilyn Brown of Lubbock registered guests.

Given in marriage by her family, the bride was escorted down the aisle by her father. Her gown, made by the mother of the groom, was a formal length gown of coupe de ville material. The fitted bodice was overlaid with lace, and sheer lace formed the yoke and sleeves, which ended in petal points. A stand-up lace collar matched the lace used to trim the empire waistline, and attach the lace peplum. Seed pearls were used to decorate the lace. The gathered skirt formed a short train, trimmed with lace.

She made her finger-tip veil of illusion, which was crowned with a wreath of flowers and baby's breath interspersed with flower forms made of the illusion. Her bouquet was formed of gardenias, pink roses, baby's breath and stephanotis. She carried it on a white Bible her mother had used in her wedding.

For something old, she wore a lavalier that had belonged to her grandmother, the late Alice Caylor of Fort Worth. Something new was her gown. Diamond earrings belonging to her sister, Leisa Dannevik of Lubbock, were something borrowed. Something blue was her garter.

The feminine attendants all wore waltz-length dresses of pink taffeta overlaid with pink organza and accented with mauve satin ribbon at the waist. The ribbons were tied into bows in the back, with the ends forming long streamers. Each wore a touch of baby's breath in her hair and carried pink rosebuds tied with pink ribbon.

Hanging baskets, assorted plants and mixed flowers added to the garden scene for the reception.

The bride's table was covered with a white cloth trimmed with lace. It held the cake, made by Mrs. Patsy Taylor of Lubbock, a friend of the bride. Pink silk flowers decorated the cake, along with a Precious Moments bride and groom figurine on top. Silver and crystal serving pieces were used to serve finger sandwiches and an assortment of fruit, mints and nuts.

Servers were Pam Cleveland, Julie Click, and Mrs. Tom Morrison, all of Lubbock.

The bride is a 1974 graduate of Dimmitt High School, and attended Texas Tech University. She is employed at the First National Bank in Lubbock.

A graduate of Littlefield High School, the groom is a self-employed carpet installer in the Lubbock area.

Scout training workshop is set

An insect scout training workshop will be held at the Hale County Agriculture Center in Plainview on Friday, according to Allen Knutson, Extension Agent-Entomologist for Castro and Lamb counties. The workshop is open to producers and others interested in learning about identification and scouting for pests of cotton, corn and sorghum.

The workshop will begin at 8:30 a.m. at the center, which is located on US 87 business route south of Plainview.

Dr. Jim Leser, Extension Entomologist, will open the morning session with a discussion of cotton bollworms and budworms. Other cotton insects, including beet armyworms and aphids, will be the topic covered by Dale Spurgeon, Extension agent-entomology for Crosby and Floyd Counties.

Corn pests, including corn borers and spider mites, will be the topic for Knutson. The morning session will conclude with a discussion of sorghum insect pests by Dr. Pat Morrison, Extension entomologist.

Workshop participants will visit area fields in the afternoon, learning to identify pest and beneficial insects and how to scout for them. This session will be headed by Greg Cronholm, Extension agent-entomology in Hale County.

The workshop focuses on perfecting skills in identifying crop pests and making timely pest management decisions which can protect investments and yield.

TELEPHONES

Electronic telephones are becoming an increasingly popular choice for those who buy their own phones, says Bonnie Piernot, a family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Electronic phones can be programmed to perform special functions such as dialing frequently called numbers or preventing the person on the line from hearing while you talk to someone in the room with you. "People with physical disabilities can really benefit from some of the options such as automatic dialer, amplifiers, large dials and number pads that electronic phones make available," says the specialist.

X-RAY DETECTION
The American Cancer Society and the National Cancer Institute, in a joint Breast Cancer Detection Demonstration program, found that mammography — a low-dose x-ray examination can detect many more early breast cancers than physical examination alone.

THE RDA (Recommended Dietary Allowance) for iron is placed at an amount ten times higher than the body actually needs because of its poor absorption rate.
