Home invasion: 4th suspect arrested

By THOMAS JENKINS
 Staff Writer
 Police officials say a fourth arrest has been made as a result of the investigation into the June 5 home invasion in the 600 block of State Street. Abel Guzman, 28, of 2911 W. Highway 80 Apt. 131, was arrested at a location in the 900 block of Martin Luther King

Guzman

Blvd. Wednesday on a warrant for aggravated robbery, according to a report from the Big Spring Police Department. Sgt. Tony Everett, public information officer for the BSPD, confirmed Guzman's arrest was a result of the investigation into the home invasion.

According to police reports, numerous suspects — witnesses stated there were between five and seven suspects involved — stormed the home of a Big Spring family on June 5, kicking in the side and front doors of the house at approximately 11 p.m. Everett declined to say exactly how many suspects were believed to be involved in the invasion, citing the ongoing investigation. The suspects were armed with handguns and a shotgun and were wearing bandanas or masks to conceal their identities.

"The suspects demanded money, and holding the family at gunpoint, ransacked the house," Everett said. "The suspects threatened the adults, and pointed their weapons at the couple's children, who are two and three years old. One suspect pistol

VA seeks help with celebration
 Herald Staff Report

Daniel Marsh, director of the West Texas VA Health Care System, is requesting assistance from local and area communities to ensure the hospital's 60th Anniversary recognizes those who have contributed to its history. Veterans, former employees, construction workers who helped to build the VA Medical Center and anyone else who can share stories or memorabilia to personalize the 60th Anniversary Celebration are encouraged to contact the VA Historical Committee. Sixty years ago on July 17, Big Spring VA admitted its first patient. The 60th Anniversary Celebration will take place on the VA Medical Center campus at 10 a.m. July 16. The celebration will begin with an outdoor program and will then move indoors to meet, greet, and visit with past friends and acquaintances. Tours of the medical center, along with refreshments, will complete the cele-

IT'S TIME TO RODEO

 Professional rodeo announcer Mike Mathis, pictured here hosting the Heritage Museum's Legends and Legacies dinner, will be in full form tonight when the annual Big Spring Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo opens at 8 p.m. at the Rodeo Bowl located adjacent to the Howard County Fair Barns.

Contestants, stock are all top quality

Special to the Herald

The people who produce the Big Spring Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo have a pretty good idea of what makes a great event. Not only is it celebrating its 77th year, but the West Texas community regularly welcomes some of the biggest names in the business to town for the rodeo. This year's championship will be no different, with champions displaying the talents through each of the three performances, set for 8 p.m. today through Saturday. "The talent runs pretty deep here every year," said Skipper Driver, president of the rodeo committee. He was talking about the cowboys and cowgirls who make their living in ProRodeo. But the same could be said about the animal athletes that make up half the equation in each of the events. When it comes to bucking horses and bulls, the Big Spring Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo is a hotbed of athletic ability, featuring the athletes from Dallas-based Carr Pro

Chamber fundraiser said success

By THOMAS JENKINS
 Staff Writer
 Members of the Big Spring Area Chamber of Commerce board of directors had plenty to discuss during their Wednesday meeting, as the group reviewed some of its most-recent projects and upcoming events. According to Scott MacKenzie, vice president of community development for the board, the organization's recent golf tournament was a huge success, bringing in approximately $4,000 for the local Chamber of Commerce.

Chamber treasurer Mark Morgan said the final tally for the tournament is a step in the right direction for the local agency.

"The success of the golf tournament is in a large part due to the hard work of the chamber staff," Morgan said. "They work very hard on these kinds of projects. Overall, the tournament brought in slightly more than $10,000. Once everything is paid for — which cost approximately $6,000 — we managed to come out around $4,000 ahead."

Also during the meeting, chamber president Steve Herren said the local economy seems to be bouncing back from last year's upheaval.

"Things seem to be picking back

Area coaches react to new UIL playoff ruling

BY ADAM COLEMAN
Sports Editor

The UIL's recent decision to allow three teams become playoff eligible instead of two in 2A and 1A high school football might be getting mixed reactions from coaches across the state.

But some of the coaches in the area believe the move is one that needed to be made and the chance to allow more students the opportunity to experience the postseason is an added bonus.

The UIL's ruling gives another new look to District 2-2A Division II, which includes a few new faces. Coahoma, Forsan, Post, Anson, Hawley, Idalou and Stanton will all be in the district and as the UIL ruled, three have a chance to get into the playoffs. It comes along with the UIL's previous ruling to split 2A and 1A into two divisions.

"With the size of the district, I think three playoffs teams is good," Forsan football coach Jason Phillips said. "I don't think it really affects the competition at all. Being in a seven-team district, in some sports, there's four or five. Some districts, there's four or five-team districts and they take three. So with us being in a seven-team district, I think it's fair as well."

What Phillips touched on could be a reason the UIL's decision is hard to accept. Stanton coach John Peterson said he can see the problem with letting three teams in the playoffs out of four-team district.

But this district doesn't have that problem.

Area coaches believe District 2-2A Division II will provide tough competition every week in the fall.

New Coahoma coach Trey Gardner has the

Bryant welcomes tough challenge in Lakers-Celtics Game 7

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Kobe Bryant yawned when he leaned back on the Los Angeles Lakers' bench to watch his teammates running through their final practice of the season.

That cool outer demeanor revealed none of the urgency running through Bryant's head. He knows the singular stakes when the Lakers host the Boston Celtics in Game 7 of the NBA finals Thursday night, and he isn't afraid to raise them even higher.

"I've said the whole season, (if) you don't win a championship, it's a failure," said Bryant, who hopes to have his hand full with a fifth championship ring. "It's as simple as that."

Nine months of preparation and eight weeks of postseason play for the NBA's two most decorated franchises will culminate in one pressure-packed game at Staples Center. Such showdowns once occurred regularly in the finals, including four previous trips to Game 7 for these teams, but this is the finals' first Game 7 since 2005 and just the third in 22 years.

It's a dream scenario for kids playing hoops in their driveway. It's a crucible of history both for Bryant's Lakers and the Celtics' veteran core. It's also simply an incredibly cool experience, according to the players who are mentally able to savor it.

"I just love the pressure," said Paul Pierce, who leads the Celtics with 18 points per game. "I love the fact that I get to play against the Los Angeles Lakers in a Game 7 on the road. I love the fact that if I don't win multiple championships that I probably won't be mentioned amongst the other guys in Celtic history that have done it before. That type of stuff motivates me. That's what the Celtics is for me, every time I put on this Celtic uniform."

The rivalry's history intermingles with the drama in Game 7. The defending champion Lakers are going for their 16th banner, while Boston is playing for its unprecedented 18th title in the NBA's two most successful franchises' second finals meeting in three years.

Exactly two years to the day after the Celtics ended the 2008 finals with perhaps the most frustrating loss of Bryant's career, he has the ultimate chance to make things right.

"(When) I look back, years from now, or even when I was a kid, (if) you'd talk about being in this situation, I'd be really excited," said Bryant, the series' leading scorer with 29.5 points per game. "But when I'm in the moment right now, I've got to play. I've got to focus on that. I can't focus on the hype about it."

Although Boston has the rivalry's Game 7 history on its side, the Celtics also have plenty stacked against them after an embarrassing 89-67 loss in Game 6 Tuesday night.

Boston won't have starting center Kendrick Perkins, who sprained multiple ligaments in his right knee in the first quarter. The Celtics' starting five has never lost a playoff series, but that five must change for Game 7.

Although Perkins is a role player next to Boston's Big Three and point guard Rajon Rondo, the Celtics must hope veteran Rasheed Wallace and youngster Glen Davis can make up for Perkins' inside defense and rebounding.

No visiting team has won an NBA championship in Game 7 since the Washington Bullets did it in 1978, yet the Celtics are a whole lot more worried about the Lakers than the Hollywood crowd.

"It's all-out," Boston's Kevin Garnett said. "It's for the marbles, it's for everything, all-out. You save nothing."

Young steps into history books, sets hit record as Rangers beat Marlins 6-3

MIAMI (AP) — Now that he has the Texas Rangers' all-time hit record, Michael Young says he'd like to put it "out of reach."

That task might not be too difficult for the perennial All-Star.

Young hit a two-run single in the eighth inning to break Ivan Rodriguez's club record, Josh Hamilton capped a fourth night with a towering home run in the ninth, and the Rangers overcame an early injury to starter Tommy Hunter to beat the Florida Marlins 6-3 on Wednesday night.

"I've played my whole career in one uniform.

Hopefully I can finish it in this uniform," Young said. "I think most importantly, we got it in a win."

Young has 1,748 hits, setting the mark in 91 fewer games than Rodriguez spent with the club. The record-breaker was clutch, with Young connecting on a 2-2 pitch from Jay Buente and giving the Rangers a 5-2 lead.

"You guys saw Michael Young a lot longer than I have," Rangers manager Ron Washington said. "You all know the consistency he's all about."

Nolan Ryan, the Rangers' president, called after the game, telling Young, "I just wanted to congratulate you and wish you the best for the rest of the year."

Said Young: "I knew it'd mean a lot, but now that it's finished, I kind of look back on the career I've had in Texas and the players I've passed, it means a lot."

The ball that became Young's recordbreaking hit was tossed softly into the Rangers' dugout for safekeeping.

The ball that became Hamilton's 16th home run an inning later was tossed back onto the playing surface by a fan, who retrieved it off the blue tarp in straightaway center, a few rows above the 404-foot sign. Hamilton hit it off Renyel Pinto, whom Florida designated for assignment after the game.

Ian Kinsler scored two unearned runs for the AL West-leading Rangers, now 11-4 in June. Young finished with two hits, as did Julio Borbon, including his first homer in 263 at-bats.

Chris Coghlan had an RBI double and Hanley Ramirez drove in his seventh run in the past seven games for the Marlins, who have dropped seven of their past 10. Highly touted rookie right fielder Mike Stanton went 0 for 4, and is hitless in eight at-bats during his first Florida homestand.

"We need to get a streak and win like 10," Ramirez said. "It hasn't happened yet."

Darren O'Day (3-2) threw two perfect innings of relief to be credited with the win.

Neftali Feliz pitched the ninth for his 17th save in 19 chances, striking out the side.

Hunter was bidding for his third win in as many starts after beginning the year on the DL with a strained left oblique.

He was strong in the early going, not allowing a hit in 2 1-3 innings, but then walked Marlins right-hander Anibal Sanchez and fell behind Coghlan 3-0.

That was all for Hunter, who left with discomfort in his right hip flexor after catching his spike on the mound on a pickoff move.

"It's not too bad," said Hunter, whom the Rangers are listing day to day.

A pair of infield singles by Hamilton and David Murphy in the first, following a throwing error by Sanchez on a pickoff attempt, allowed Kinsler to score the game's first run.

chance to take all this in for the first time next season.

He said he expected the UIL to keep the number of teams out of each district at two.

"It just depends on how you look at it," said Gardner, who will try to get Coahoma back in the playoffs after the Bulldogs' back-to-back 5-5 seasons. "As far as more kids with opportunities to get to experience post-season play, it's better. It's not what I expected. I really thought they were going to stay with two, but they chose to go to three."

Gardner said the UIL may even discuss taking it to four teams in October, but he is not sure if it will go that far.

In other classes, such as 4A and 5A, four teams are allowed to be playoff eligible and Peterson said it might be a little too much to apply that rule to 2A and 1A football.

But what the current rule does now, Peterson said, is prolong the season. He said a team's season could end with just a few losses if only two teams are allowed in the playoffs.

Now that the rule is set in place for next season, Peterson knows what to expect.

"I don't see this district as being a slouch anywhere," he said. "Up and down, Friday night, you're going to have to bring your A-game."

"The best teams that night are going to win. Doesn't mean you couldn't beat them on another night. That's the way it is."

Oswalt's arm leads Astros over KC

Oswalt's arm, Michaels' 3 RBIs lead Astros over KC

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Quick and efficient Roy Oswalt was the perfect pitcher for the Houston Astros a day after their debacle of a game.

The nine-year veteran threw first-pitch strikes to 21 of the 28 batters he faced, struck out seven and walked one in seven brisk innings Wednesday night while pitching the Astros to a 4-2 victory over Kansas City.

Instead of stumbling around and committing three errors as they'd done in a 15-7 loss the night before, the Astros played error-free and made several good plays behind their fast-paced ace. He went to a three-ball count only four times.

"Roy put us, as usual, in a good position," said Jason Michaels, who drove in three runs as the Astros snapped a four-game losing streak. "That was important, especially after a crazy night like last night. He did a tremendous job and we were able to get some runs for him."

One night after the Royals rapped out 20 hits, Oswalt (5-8) held them to two runs on six hits. The Astros won for the ninth time in their last 11 outings in Kauffman Stadium and snapped a four-game losing streak.

Oswalt earned his 142nd career win, all with the Astros, and two behind Joe Niekro's team record.

Bruce Chen (3-1) took the loss, his first since moving to the rotation on May 3. He went 5 2-3 innings and allowed five hits and four runs.

"The ball seemed like it was coming out of my hand pretty well," Oswalt said. "And I was keeping the ball low in the zone, not leaving balls in the middle of the plate the first pitch, and throwing some quality pitches. A lot of the pitches they let go were actually some good pitches on the corner that if they would have swung, they may have rolled over. I just felt in a groove early and was able to carry it through seven."

Matt Lindstrom pitched the ninth for his 15th save in 18 opportunities. It was his first appearance since June 8.

The game was delayed 1 hour, 25 minutes at the start by rain.

"We wanted to get to (Oswalt) early," said Royals manager Ned Yost. "We had some opportunities and then he really settled down. Our experience has been that if you're going to get him you better get him early."

David DeJesus was 4 for 4, tying his career high, and drove in Kansas City's second run with an RBI single in the third. He was 3 for 6 on Tuesday night and has reached 12 times in his last three games.

DeJesus came away as impressed as anyone with Oswalt.

"It seemed like he was 0-1, 0-2 on most of the hits," he said. "He was throwing changeups on the first pitch for strikes and a lot of guys don't like to swing at that pitch, and that just puts you in a hole."

Jeff Keppinger doubled in the first and scored on Carlos Lee's single to put Houston ahead 1-0. Scott Podsednik then tripled leading off for the only extra-base hit the Royals would manage off Oswalt.

World Cup bracing for possibility of early South Africa exit

JOHANNESBURG (AP) — It's crucial that South African fans show enthusiasm for other teams if their underdog home squad fails to advance to the second round, World Cup organizing chief Danny Jordaan said Thursday.

Jordaan, the CEO of the local organizing committee, called South Africa's 3-0 defeat to Uruguay on Wednesday a crushing disappointment for the host nation's zealous fans.

"As people walked home, for the first time the vuvuzelas were silent," he said, referring to the plastic horns that have created a din at World Cup matches.

South Africa still has a slim chance to advance with a victory over France next week, depending on how other teams in its group fare. But there's a strong possibility it will become the first host nation to fail to reach the knockout phase of a World Cup.

"What's important is the extent to which fans embrace the tournament beyond Bafana Bafana," Jordaan said, using the home team's popular nickname.

The government echoed the plea.

"This is not the time to pull back, regardless of the disappointment we may feel after Bafana Bafana's loss," said spokesperson Themba Maseko.

"Since the opening game... South Africans have heeded the call to be good hosts, coming out in numbers to create a thrilling atmosphere," he said. "We need to continue doing this, irrespective of Bafana Bafana's performance."

Aside from the home team's predicament, Jordaan said he was pleased by the tournament thus far.

Setting the stage: Utah receives invite to join the Pac-10

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Utah is poised to become the 12th member of the Pac-10 as the conference quickly pivoted Wednesday to invite the Utes after being turned down by Texas and four other members of the Big 12 two days ago.

Utah officials did not immediately say whether the invitation would be accepted, but it would be shocking if the Utes didn't leave the Mountain West Conference for the Pac-10.

Spokeswoman Liz Abel said the athletics department would not comment until Thursday, after the school's board of trustees meets to discuss the school's conference affiliation. A news conference was scheduled at the football stadium following the meeting.

Pac-10 officials are expected to attend Thursday's news conference in Utah.

Utah has been a member of the MWC since the league began in 1999 — and one of its most successful in football and basketball.

There had been speculation on Tuesday that Utah would be the next school to be approached by the Pac-10. When asked about the possibility, school president Michael Young told The Associated Press "we wouldn't anticipate making a move of this magnitude without the concurrence of our board of trustees."

A message left with Randy Dryer, chairman of the board of trustees, was not immediately returned Wednesday. If Utah bolts the Mountain West, it would be the latest in a string of conference affiliation changes.

Last week, Colorado decided to leave the Big 12 and accept an invitation to join the Pac-10. Nebraska has also said it will leave the Big 12 for the Big Ten, while Boise State is fleeing the Western Athletic Conference to join the Mountain West.

The Mountain West called a news conference for Thursday following Utah's.

Earlier in the week, Texas, Oklahoma, Texas A&M, Texas Tech and Oklahoma State re-committed to the Big 12 instead of hopping to the Pac-10.

That left the Pac-10 in need of another member to reach the 12 required to hold a football championship game. Pac-10 spokeswoman Danette Leighton declined to say when Utah would begin competing in the Pac-10 if it accepts the conference's invitation.

The addition of Utah now gives Colorado a geographical rival and travel partner.

The league is likely to divide into two six-team divisions and how that will shakeout is unclear.

The other members of the Pac-10 are USC, UCLA, Stanford, California, Washington, Washington State, Arizona, Arizona State, Oregon and Oregon State. Utah had already previously scheduled games with Oregon in 2011, and Washington State and Colorado in 2012 and 2013.

Utah officials have long been frustrated about their inability to play for a football national championship while in the Mountain West.

FINALS

You leave nothing."

It's too soon to say where these finals will fit in the rivalry's annals. Although the games had been uniformly competitive before the Lakers' blowout win in Game 6, they haven't been spectacularly played, with gritty defense trumping offense in most of the major moments.

Ray Allen's historic 3-point shooting barrage in Game 2, the Celtics' gritty victories in games 4 and 5, the Lakers' blowout win in Game 6 — all will be dwarfed by what happens in the deciding game.

"I guess it's going to be another decade that people look back and see the formation of this rivalry again," Lakers coach Phil Jackson said. "The '90s was missed, and the '70s was missed, but the '60s and the '80s were big decades."

Opening lead — three of hearts.
Cards that are seemingly unimportant insofar as making the contract is concerned are often played indiscriminately, but there are hands where very careful handling of such cards is required.
Consider this deal played by Rafael Bufill, well-known Spanish expert. There seemed to be nothing to the play when he took West's heart lead with the ace, but a complication arose when he cashed the king of spades and West showed out. Bufill continued with a spade to the ace, finessed the ten and then extracted East's last trump with the queen.
At this point, the 10-8-3 of diamonds appeared to be of little consequence, since they were destined to go on dummy's A-K-Q. But Bufill, anticipating danger ahead, made the precautionary move of leading the ten toward dummy.
West followed low, and Bufill, having no reason to expect East to show out, went up with the queen. This did not prove fatal, however, because he was able to return to his hand with a club to lead the eight of diamonds through West.
West covered with the nine, taken with the king, but was helpless when Bufill next crossed to his hand with a club and led the three of diamonds toward the A-7-4-2, trapping the jack and thus making the grand slam.
Observe that South would have gone down had he made the mistake of leading the diamond three initially instead of the ten. After West followed low and declarer put up the queen, there would have been no way to recover.
West would have covered the next diamond lead of the ten with the jack, but later would not have covered the eight with the nine, thereby preventing declarer from running the suit.

whipped the male victim in the head while his children were present."

Everett said moments after the suspects fled the victim's home police officers noticed a vehicle driving without its headlights on. Once the vehicle was pulled over, several suspects exited the car, fleeing on foot.

Felix Jaramillo, 31, and a 16-year-old juvenile suspect were taken into custody shortly after the home invasion was reported to law enforcement officials. Items stolen during the invasion were recovered from the vehicle. Both were charged with aggravated robbery.

Shortly after, 21-year-old Phillip G. Martinez was arrested on a number of charges, including theft, manufacture/delivery of a controlled substance in a drug free zone and aggravated robbery.

Anyone with information regarding this or any other crime should contact the Big Spring Police Department at 264-2550 or Big Spring Area Crimestoppers at 263-TIPS. Information leading to the arrest and conviction of criminals can be worth up to $1,000 in reward money.

Rodeo, which is in its fourth year providing stock in Big Spring

"We typically draw fans from three or four counties around here, and from the get-go, it's been nothing but positive comments about the stock," Driver said.

Over the past three years, at least 10 Carr animals have bucked at the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo, and the horses' and bulls' performances at rodeos like Big Spring is one of the reasons.

Another reason the rodeo is popular are the other professionals who are a part of it.

Mike Mathis, well known PRCA rodeo announcer will emcee the rodeo. Mike announces on horseback, which gives a family feel that adds to the excitement of the evening.

Mark Swingler of Austin will bring his unique acts and stunts to the arena in the form of an escaped prisoner car act and several unique skits — all designed to please the whole family. He has served on the PRCA board of directors and holds many awards for his barrel man and specialty acts.

There are some top acts planned outside the arena as well. Tonight's paid rodeo performance includes free admission to the Colgate Country Showdown at 9 p.m. in the Howard County Fair Barn. Tony Booth will perform Friday night at 9:30 p.m. in the barn. Admission is $10 per person. Saturday, Noel Olivas will open for headliner Aaron Watson at 9:30 p.m. That show is $20 per person.

Advance tickets for general seating are $8 for adults and $4 for children six through 12. Gate prices are $10 for adults and $6 for children. There is no charge for children under 6.

Advance tickets can be obtained at the Big Spring Area Chamber of Commerce, Ward's Boot and Saddle, Western Bank locations, Compass Bank, Wells Fargo, Citizens Federal Credit Union, H-E-B Grocery, Lonestar State Bank and the State National Bank of Big Spring.

up for us," said Herren, who also manages Harris Lumber. "Last year was a tough year for everyone, but it seems like people are letting go of a little of the money they were holding onto. Don't get me wrong, there's no big boom going on out there, but the improvements we've seen so far are very encouraging."

The board also discussed a Business After Hours event slated for July 22 at the Hampton Inn.

"We've expanded the hours for this Business After Hours, holding it between 4:30 p.m. and 6:30 p.m.," said the board's vice president of business development Terri Johansen. "This will give folks a chance to come and see the hotel. Also, Llano Estacado has agreed to hold a wine tasting in conjunction with the event, so we're really very excited about it."

AN ENCOURAGING WORD

By Eddy Pitchford

Timely rain and market cooperation separates cotton success from failure. Cotton thrives in some fields but languishes in others. Markets can be favorable one year and down the next.

The same is true of people. We succeed one day and fail the next. When I look at a thirty-year-old picture, I find that my hair has failed and my weight gain has succeeded!

More than physical change, I find my prayer life and awareness of God has greatly grown. My appreciation for relationships is rooted deeper. My willingness to give people the benefit of the doubt is much stronger. My desire for heaven is greater. My understanding of success and failure is much more focused than thirty years ago. Success to me is simply, "Will this bring glory to the Lord?"

Haynesworth sits out Redskins minicamp

ASHBURN, Va. (AP) — On the day he signed his $100 million contract, Albert Haynesworth famously said: "You're not going to remember Albert Haynesworth as a bust."

On Wednesday, the Washington Redskins used a more scathing word to describe the two-time All Pro defensive tackle: selfish.

Haynesworth was a no-show at the Redskins mandatory minicamp Wednesday because he doesn't like the team's new defense, escalating a months long show-down with coach Mike Shanahan. Players responded with some of the harshest comments that can be directed at a teammate.

"Albert made a very selfish decision," said linebacker London Fletcher, the team's most respected veteran. "When you decide to play a team sport, you have to look at it and think about everybody involved in the situation. This is not golf, tennis, things like that, where it's an all-about-you sport. What he's decided to do is make a decision based on all-about-him."

Fletcher and others went further, painting a portrait of a player who has been self-centered since the day he joined the Redskins.

"It's no different than his attitude and approach to last year's defense," Fletcher said, "about wanting everything to revolve around him and him making plays. And if it didn't benefit him, he wasn't really willing to do it."

Meanwhile, Shanahan revealed that Haynesworth was given the option of freedom or money — and chose money. The coach said he told Haynesworth in February that the Redskins would agree to release him and let him go to another team — in exchange for not paying him a $21 million bonus due April 1.

"Obviously, he took the check," Shanahan said, "so I was surprised he wasn't here today. ... Don't take our check and then say that, hey, you don't want to be part of our organization."

Bush pledges to help USC fight recent NCAA sanctions

METAIRIE, La. (AP) — Though Reggie Bush admitted no wrongdoing he did express regret on Wednesday over his involvement in an NCAA probe that resulted in major sanctions for Southern California's football program.

"This thing, regarding USC and the NCAA, is the closest thing to death without dying because I have such a great love and respect for the university," Bush said. "This has been one the toughest things I've had to deal with in my life."

Speaking publicly about the NCAA report for the first time since its release last week, Bush would not address the specific allegations of wrongdoing. Rather, he pledged to support USC however he could in an appeal of the sanctions.

"I believe that there's a lot of untold truth to this matter, there's a lot of fabricated lies to this matter, but it is what it is and I can't sit here and cry about it. I can't sit here and make up excuses," Bush said. "Ultimately, it's a responsibility that's placed on USC and my shoulders. It's because of me. So all I can do is continue to try to help them and move forward with the situation."

Favre surgery goes as planned

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Brett Favre's doctor indicated Wednesday that his recent ankle surgery went well and the quarterback has a few more weeks of rehabilitation before he'll decide if he'll return for a 20th NFL season.

Orthopedic surgeon Dr. James Andrews said there were no problems with last month's arthroscopic procedure, which removed scar tissue and bone spurs from Favre's left ankle.

"It went fine," Andrews said after speaking at the Charlotte Touchdown Club luncheon. "He's rehabbing and trying to decide what he's going to do. I talked to him yesterday."

Favre turns 41 in October.

He has a contract with Minnesota that will pay him $13 million if he plays in the 2010 season. He has given few hints in the offseason, other than the surgery, which has led many in the Vikings organization to predict that he'll be back.

"We've got a few more weeks of rehabbing," Andrews said. "I think he hasn't decided yet what he wants to do."

The tradition continues, Howard-Glasscock Reunion

Special to the Herald

One of the oldest traditions in the Crossroads area is the annual Howard-Glasscock Old Settlers Reunion.

Planned from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday at the Heritage Museum, the reunion is in its 86th year.

The event will include a dessert auction and recognition of two pioneer families — the Walker family of Howard County and the Pruitt family of Glasscock County.

Those attending can partake of free hamburgers, chips and cobbler. Drinks are $1 each.

2010 Howard County Pioneer of the Year Walker Family

Mack William (Sam) Walker arrived in Howard County in 1898 from Mississippi. He had been involved in a dispute with a crooked landowner. After a heated argument, Mack shot the landowner with his double barrel shotgun.

Thinking he had killed the landowner and afraid the law wouldn't understand, Mack changed his name to Sam and ran to Texas, arriving in Taylor County at Buffalo Gap around 1890, with his wife, Sallie, and several children following later in a covered wagon. Sam continued to worry about his wrong doing and spoke with the sheriff. The sheriff could not find where any charges had ever been filed. Several years later, Sam heard the landowner had survived.

The Walkers homesteaded land eight miles northeast of Big Spring, bought for $1 per acre. They had to pay a down payment of $16 for the $640 section of property, live on the land for three to four years to make their "claim," and had 40 years to pay the remaining balance.

Eventually, Sam Walker accumulated five sections of land. He gave each of his sons a quarter of a section.

The Walkers continued to cultivate more farmland each year. Sam and Sallie Walker had seven children — Henry, John, Nancy, Alexander, Georgia Ann, and the twins, M.W. (Bud) and Queenie.

"They hauled cotton, by mule, or horse-drawn wagon 40 miles to Colorado City to get it ginned. They had to carry the cotton up a ladder in huge baskets to gin stands. It took another day to get home," a family account details.

Bud married Georgia Mae Patton on Dec. 28,

The Walker family.

1903. The couple had 12 children — Veda, Willis, Johnie, Noble, Leslie, Shirley, Lillie, Deward, Dillard, Stella, Carrol and Jerrold.

"All of the trials and hardships that we as early timers went through were only accomplished by complete trust, dependence, and faith in the Lord. The verse that sustained me all of my life is "if any men lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not, and it shall be given him." James 1:5 — Stella Walker, 1981.

Bud, born Aug. 25, 1881, in Mississippi, used to tell about the year 1902 when rains came strong and heavy, causing the cotton stalks to grow taller than a six-foot man, which Bud already was by that time. He added, though, that the cotton was all stalk with few cotton bolls, and they produced very little that year.

Sam died Feb. 13, 1916, leaving his children to farm the land, and today, many members of his 200-plus direct blood descendants still make their livings by producing cotton. Half of the section Sam homesteaded for himself back at the turn of the century has been passed down and is now owned by two of Sam's grandsons, Carrol and Jerrold Walker.

2010 Glasscock County Pioneer of the Year Royce "Booger" Pruitt family

Royce "Booger" Pruitt was one of 11 children of Gulf Oil pipeline gauger Chester Pruitt and his wife Annie. Pruitt married Beverly Cox after his high school graduation and the couple moved to Garden City. He worked at a gas station across the street from the sheriff's office when Sheriff Buster Cox (no relation) asked Pruitt to go to work for him.

"With 11 kids, if you wanted anything, you had to work," Pruitt said, "Daddy was more like a brother than a daddy. He played with us a lot. He roped mostly and rode broncs and saddle broncs. We had Sunday roping and bullriding and the girls barrel raced."

Glasscock County Sheriff Royce "Booger" Pruitt began his career as sheriff of Glasscock County on Jan. 22, 1962. Pruitt is the longest tenured sheriff in the nation, according to references — just ahead of 75-year-old Dwight Radcliff of Pickaway County in south central Ohio.

Pruitt loves his job and said "It was the people. You know them and they all know you. You know the kids from the time they're born and with a lot of them even the names of their dogs."

Sheriff "Booger" received his nickname after his twin, Joyce

McFarland of Arlington, called him that when they were around 2 years old.

Pruitt is well known for "protecting" his people. For example, he suspected driveway pavers of taking advantage of citizens. The pavers had promised to pave a widow's drive three inches thick for $7,000. Upon inspection, Pruitt realized the pavement was only one inch thick.

"I wouldn't let her pay. I told them, 'You don't have to go home, but you can't stay here

(Glasscock County.)"

Glasscock County has 1,700 citizens, with 250 in Garden City and 1,000 in St. Lawrence. Most of the ranches are in the north and southeast and its principal crops are cotton and grain.

Sheriff Pruitt has cleared a number of murders, most stemming from fights. The biggest case was the Dec. 2, 1970, slaying of rancher Steve Currie.

Glasscock County is one of a dozen counties in Texas whose sheriffs also serve as tax assessors, but the duties are now being separated with assessor's clerks.

The Pruitts had two sons, Lonnie (now deceased) and Van of Stanton. They have three grandchildren, including twin granddaughters.

When asked what he taught his deputies, Pruitt said, "Mostly to treat people like they'd want to be treated. We're public servants and we work for them."

Casual cooking with Kris Soliz

Welcoming readers to my world where I enjoy simple, sometimes quick, but always delicious meals.

This week's recipe was given to me in 2002 and the name reflects some of our local landscape. For those who are more faint of heart I am providing a substitute title called Beef Surprise. This recipe is super easy and uses a less costly cut of meat like round steak, stewmeat, tenderized cubesteak or I used the other half of my beef fajita meat before making my mexican steak.

It calls for Rotel and you can use original to extra spicy. Guess which one I used. As a little extra bonus of information this recipe calls for beef ramen noodles. Keep in mind there are three other flavors that can be worked with — chicken, pork or shrimp. When making a meal with these other flavors don't be afraid to change things up a bit. You can add frozen veggies, make a spicy peanut sauce and use it with the chicken. If making the shrimp, remember it only takes about three minutes for shrimp to cook, turning slightly pink, so don't over cook it.

You can add a can of bamboo mushrooms, grate in a little fresh ginger, add sliced green onions, a little crushed red pepper flakes and you have different meal. The results are endless, so let your imagination shoot to the moon. Enjoy!

Texas Cow Pie

1- 2 lbs of choice of beef
6-8 packages of beef ramen

noodles
1 can Rotel
half of sliced onion
olive oil for sauting
splash or two of balsamic vinegar and or red wine (drinking wine)
no salt needed

In a large pot, add some oil, onion and cut meat into bite size pieces and brown meat on all sides. Pour in a couple of splashes of balsamic or red wine to deglaze the pan, scraping all goodies off the bottom. Add enough hot water to pan to just cover the meat and bring to a boil for about 20 minutes until meat is tender. Taking out the beef seasoning packages, pour them in to the water and meat mixture, stirring well. Add the can of Rotel and break up the noodles and stir them in.

This will not be a soupy dish, so you may need to add 1/2 cup of hot water at a time for your desired consistency. Stir occasionally, making sure all noodles get a hot bath and cook 3-5 minutes until noodles are tender and most of the liquid is absorbed. Serve with a green vegetable or side salad and hearty bread.

Tomorrow's Horoscope

It is said that an organization is only healthy as long as its communication lines are open and effective. And good communication is also the cornerstone of solid personal relationships. The moon in Virgo and the sun in Gemini conspire to help us order our thoughts, organize our intentions and relate to one another in a clear and productive way.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). Something will cause your priorities to shift. What you used to consider boring becomes one of the most exciting things you could devote yourself to doing.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). Your good taste is on display. You've assembled quite an impressive array of items, and you'll soon add to your collection. There's a chase involved in this deal, and that's the best part.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). You'll listen to your heart's crooning as if you were an impartial audience member. You'll patiently let it remember the sorrows and triumphs. You'll emerge from the experience with new compassion.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). It seems a project is dragging on for an eternity. Instead of being discouraged by that feeling, take it as a sign that your contribution will ultimately be substantial and important — things that take forever usually are!

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). What once shocked and amazed you now seems rather tame. Were you ever really that naive? Newsflash: You still are. It's wonderful to know so much and still maintain your innocence. You'll be shocked and amazed yet again.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Be more prepared than you think you need to be. Even if you think this won't be about you, you'll still be giving a job performance of some kind. And you'll be as relaxed as you are ready.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). You'll be required to be at your best. There's no magic pill for this. It's all inside you. Slow, deep breaths will do wonders for you. You'll get focused in exactly the most effective way.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). Change is slow, for the better and completely inevitable. There's no benefit in resisting. Go on and take the risk you've been afraid to take. You have a good instinct about where to take your life.

HOLIDAY

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). You want to take your time and make a plan. Sure, it's smart to target your efforts. But while you try to come up with the perfect plan, life marches on and opportunity is lost. Get going with what you have.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). The attention you give someone will show this person the depth of your feelings for him or her. It will also show everyone else around. So don't be surprised if your interactions inspire some jealousy.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). You may be moving too slowly to meet a certain deadline. It's time to decide whether to get help or get an extension. Also, the right tools will push the job along faster.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). You have strong ties to a certain family or business. To you, these might not seem that useful. It's such a natural relationship. But someone else wants to know who you know. Consider making the introduction.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (June 17). Your emotional core is strongly magnetic — you want to be adored and you will be. New friends will lead you on an unexpected adventure in July. Your more lavish tastes will be satisfied in September. A supportive partner may finance one of your dearly held dreams. Your charity is needed in December. Capricorn and Sagittarius people adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 40, 15, 34, 11 and 4.

ASTROLOGICAL QUESTIONS: "I'm a Sagittarius. I was told by an astrologer that I was born under a lucky trine, and my life has, up until now, been semi-charmed. It's not that I have always gotten what I wanted, or am overly rich or powerful, but I have a nice job, a good family and no major hardships to think of. But ever since February, it's been one thing after another. Some of my close friends betrayed me, my salary was cut, and I'm having financial problems and now health issues, too. Why? Why is this happening?"

Though "why" may be a good question, it's not really a productive one. When bad things happen to us, we really don't have time to wallow in the whys. With Jupiter as your guiding planet, luck is often on your side. But when it's not, your Sagittarian courage is put to the test. You are the adventurer of the zodiac, after all, and you can always make it your quest to rise above the situation and discover a new world. It takes adversity to find out how great you can be. This turmoil is your ladder. Climb outside your normal mode and experience a different level of living.

CELEBRITY PROFILES: Barry Manilow has sold more than 80 million records. This lifelong chart-topping entertainment giant is a bright Gemini with a hardworking and business-minded Capricorn moon. His natal passion planet Mars is in the sign of show business and the spotlight — that's Leo. Mercury and Venus in Cancer indicates soulfulness, emotional depth and a sensitive, nurturing spirit.

NOTICE OF DRAFT FEDERAL OPERATING PERMIT AND ACID RAIN PERMIT
DRAFT PERMIT NO.: 091

APPLICATION AND DRAFT PERMIT. Power Resources, Ltd., P.O. Box 2700, Big Spring, Texas 79721, an Electric Services facility, has applied to the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ) for a renewal of Federal Operating Permit and Acid Rain Permit (herein referred to as Permit) No. 091, Application No. 14585, to authorize operation of the C.R. Wing Cogeneration Plant. The area addressed by the application is located at northwest corner of Alon Refinery, 2 miles east of Big Spring and 1/4 mile north of Interstate 20, in Big Spring, Howard County, Texas 79720. This application was received by the TCEQ on December 15, 2009.

The purpose of a federal operating permit is to improve overall compliance with the rules governing air pollution control by clearly listing all applicable requirements, as defined in Title 30 Texas Administrative Code § 122.10 (30 TAC § 122.10). The draft permit, if approved, will codify the conditions under which the area must operate. The permit will not authorize new construction. The executive director has completed the technical review of the application and has made a preliminary decision to prepare a draft permit for public comment and review. The executive director recommends issuance of this draft permit. The permit application, statement of basis and draft permit will be available for viewing and copying at the TCEQ Center Office, 12100 Park 35 Circle, Building E, First Floor, Austin, Texas; the TCEQ Midland Regional Office, 3300 North A Street, Building 4-107, Midland, Texas 79705-5406; and the Howard County Public Library, 500 Main Street, Big Spring, Texas, beginning the first day of publication of this notice. At the TCEQ Central and Regional Office, relevant supporting materials for the draft permit, as well as the New Source Review permits which have been incorporated by reference, may be reviewed and copied. Any person with difficulties obtaining these materials due to travel constraints may contact the TCEQ Central Office file room at (512)239-1540.

PUBLIC COMMENT/NOTICE AND COMMENT HEARING. Any person may submit written comments on the draft permit. Comments relating to the accuracy, completeness and appropriateness of the permit conditions may result in changes to the draft permit. A person who may be affected by the emission of air pollutants from the permitted area may request a notice and comment hearing. The purpose of the notice and comment hearing is to provide an additional opportunity to submit comments on the draft permit. The permit may be changed based on comments pertaining to whether the permit provides for compliance with 30 TAC Chapter 122 (examples may include that the permit does not contain all applicable requirements or the public notice procedures were not satisfied). The TCEQ may grant a notice and comment hearing on the application if a written hearing request is received within 30 days after publication of the newspaper notice. The hearing request must include the basis for the request, including a description of how the person may be affected by the emission of air pollutants from the application area. The request should also specify the conditions of the draft permit that are inappropriate or specify how the preliminary decision to issue or deny the permit is inappropriate. All reasonably ascertainable issues must be raised and all reasonably available arguments must be submitted by the end of the public comment period. If a notice and comment hearing is granted, all individuals that submitted written comments or a hearing request will receive written notice of the hearing. This notice will identify the date, time and location for the hearing.

Written public comments and/or requests for a notice and comment hearing should be submitted to the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality, Office of the Chief Clerk, MC-105, P.O. Box 13087, Austin, Texas 78711-3087, or electronically at www.tceq.state.tx.us/about/comments.html and received within 30 days from the date of newspaper publication of this notice.

A notice of proposed final action that includes a response to comments and identification of any changes to the draft permit will be mailed to everyone who submitted public comments, a hearing request, or requested to be on the mailing list for this application. This mailing will also provide instructions for public petitions to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) to request that EPA object to the issuance of the proposed permit. After receiving a petition, the EPA may only object to the issuance of a permit which is not in compliance with the applicable requirements or the requirements of 30 TAC Chapter 122.

MAILING LIST. In addition to submitting public comments, a person may ask to be placed on a mailing list for this application by sending a request to the TCEQ Office of the Chief Clerk at the address above. Those on the mailing list will receive copies of future public notices (if any) mailed by the Chief Clerk for this application.

INFORMATION. For additional information about this permit application or the permitting process, please contact the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality, Office of Public Assistance, MC-108, P.O. Box 13087, Austin, Texas 78711-3087 or toll free at 1-800-687-4040. General information about the TCEQ can be found at www.tceq.state.tx.us.
