

PRPC to handle city drainage, paving

DEDICATION SCENE—The flags of the US and Italy unfurl after being raised by an honor guard from the Hereford chapter of the Civil Air Patrol during dedication services for the restored memorial chapel at the Hereford Prisoner of War Camp in northern Castro County Sunday afternoon. Approximately 250 persons jammed into the chapel's new courtyard for the ceremony, including 24 honored guests from Italy and the US—former prisoners, their wives and children. The security fence surrounding the chapel area is made of four-point barbed wire that once enclosed the POW camp.

The Panhandle Regional Planning Commission has been awarded the contract to administer funds which Dimmitt will receive from the Texas Community Development Program.

The program grant of $191,329 was approved for proposed paving and drainage projects in low-income areas of the city. Program requirements say that the funds must be spent and the projects completed by May 14, 1991.

At their Monday night meeting the Dimmitt Aldermen signed a resolution allowing the PRPC to administer the grant for a fee of $17,506. This amount was included in the grant funds.

According to PRPC representative Judy Munden of Amarillo, the administrative duties will include seeing that all state and federal regulations are met, obtaining an environmental review, providing assistance in setting up a financial management system for the project, arranging for inspections and audits, and verifying contractor and subcontractor eligibility, among other things.

Bids will be called for soon on the engineering services for the two projects. $18,498, or about 8% of the total project amount, was allowed for engineering.

A committee was formed to evaluate the engineering bids that are received by the July 19 deadline and make a recommendation to the entire board of aldermen at their July 24 meeting.

Committee members are Mayor Wayne Collins, City Manager Reefer Burrows, and Aldermen Richard Stahl and Wayne Proffitt.

Alderman Harold Hyman asked when the city's promised 20% payment on the project (estimated at $38,500) would be due, and expressed concern about fund availability in light of the current lawsuit filed against the city.

Munden said the city would customarily pay its portion near the completion of the projects, but emphasized that the projects must be

Nazareth pupils to have NEAT school next year

School is going to be NEAT for students in the kindergarten through sixth grades at Nazareth this fall — they're going to be working on a curriculum geared toward a higher level of thinking.

Nazareth has adopted an enrichment program for its elementary students and will put the program into effect at the start of the 1989-90 school year.

"This won't be a pull-out program like most, because we don't have a big enough enrollment to do that. All of the students will participate and benefit in the program," said Mary Nell King, elementary principal at Nazareth and director of the Nazareth Enrichment Academic Training Program, known as NEAT.

"By the 1990-91 school year, the state requires that we have to have a gifted and talented program in place, so we'll start half of it this year and plan to have the second half going next year.

"I think this will be a successful program and we're really excited about it," King said. "We feel like we're already doing a lot of the work, but we need to push for a higher level of learning skills. All the kids can do it.

will have the opportunity to select his or her own enrichment activities and any child in a class that is capable will have a chance to participate and work on the activities," King said.

"The state requires that we submit the top 5% of the students for the program, but we want to stress that the whole school will be given the chance to learn," King said.

"Only six kids out of the whole elementary school will be turned in to the state. We can only submit the top 5% of all students and we've got to do it to follow state guidelines.

The top six students will be selected on the basis of a scoring system over five categories including the composite achievement test score, the Educational Ability Series score, a teacher's inventory of behavioral characteristics, a creative writing sample graded by an outside person, and a parents inventory on learning characteristics. Each of the five categories will be weighed equally and the total scores will determine the top 5%.

King added that Nazareth will implement the program into the junior high and high school for the 1990-91 school year.

Italians thrilled with chapel

A throng estimated at 250 crowded into a fenced-in walkway Sunday afternoon for the formal dedication of the restored memorial chapel at the site of the former Hereford Prisoner of War Camp.

Just a year ago, the little chapel — one of the last remnants of the POW camp that held 7,000 Italian servicemen during World War II — stood in lonely disgrace, its windows and doors broken out and its interior (including an original bas-relief sculptured plaque) vandalized, broken and defaced.

But Sunday it stood proud, and the 23 Italians here for the dedication were noticeably thrilled over the restoration work by area residents that had brought the chapel close to its original condition.

With its new white exterior and roof, the chapel is now visible from more than a mile away. Its arched doors, window frames and moldings have been meticulously replaced, with clear panes that let the sunlight bathe the repainted interior, altar and new wood cross inside. And the unique bas-relief sculpture behind the altar table — originally done by a prisoner who would later gain fame as an artist and sculptor in Italy — has been replaced by a nearly exact reproduction done by Wayland Baptist University Art Professor Candice Keller.

And soon another valuable piece of artwork will grace the chapel's interior. The returning former POWs brought with them a colorful sculptured plaque of Madonna and Child by the 15th Century Italian sculptor, Luca Della Robbia. They requested that it be hung to the left of the altar.

They also brought a brass plaque to be placed in the chapel, explaining that it was built by Italian prisoners of war in 1945 in memory of five comrades who died while incarcerated at the Hereford POW Camp, and was restored as a joint project of area residents and former prisoners. (The former POWs donated almost $2,000 toward the restoration.)

Sunday's one-hour ceremony, conducted in a brisk hot breeze under partly cloudy skies, was a bittersweet experience.

The entire crowd gathered inside the protective fence that surrounds the courtyard and chapel — 16 strands of four-point barbed wire which once enclosed the POW camp itself. Because of the wind and restrictions of the portable public-address system, most in the crowd couldn't understand what was being said at the dedication podium near the chapel's northeast corner. But area residents stood back — on freshly laid blocks of bluegrass sod — so the Italian visitors could be up front. And they kept the exposed-aggregate walkway clear so people could come and go, and so an honor guard from the Hereford chapter of the Civil Air Patrol could march forward to

Smith to hold tour Saturday

County Commissioner Harold Smith will conduct a tour of Precinct 1 roads Saturday morning from 9 to noon.

"We also will show the crops growing and being harvested," he said.

The tour will start from the east parking lot of the courthouse, and is open to all interested persons. Smith said anyone needing transportation may call him at 938-2166 (office) or 938-2225 (residence).

"We have very good crops in the county, and it will be a good time to take your children to see the great assets we have in the county," Smith said.

Fry gets 16 years

Donald James Fry, 26, of Dimmitt was assessed a 16-year prison sentence this week in 242nd District Court in Tulia.

Fry was on trial for aggravated and unlawful possession of marijuana. The charge stemmed from an inter-agency drug bust in Dimmitt last Oct. 20.

A Swisher County jury of seven men and five women deliberated two hours before finding Fry guilty and another hour before setting the sentence.

The case originally was scheduled to begin in 242nd District Court in Castro County in January, but Judge Marvin Marshall moved it to his court in Swisher County after Fry and his attorney filed a motion for a change of venue.

Castro County-District Attorney Jimmy Davis and Potter County Assistant District Attorney Dennis Boren prosecuted the case. Selden Hale of Amarillo was the defense attorney.

Undercover narcotics agents testified that they arrived in Dimmitt last Oct. 17 and soon were introduced to Fry. They alleged that Fry showed "great interest" in a 50-lb. bag of marijuana which they had in their possession and said he might know of someone interested in buying such a large quantity.

Dept. of Public Safety Agent Brent Clay testified to arranging a meeting the following night near Dimmitt, and said Fry was present when a co-defendant and an unidentified man arrived to discuss the transaction.

Other trial testimony indicated that Fry left the scene and left undercover agents with the co-defendant to make arrangements for the drug purchase. Later the same night, according to testimony, Fry came to a Dimmitt residence, where he discussed the deal in greater detail and allegedly agreed to take five pounds of marijuana for setting up the transaction.

Officers testified that they didn't see Fry again until the afternoon of Oct. 20, when he drove to the residence where the drug arrests had been made minutes before.

Testifying in his own defense, Fry told the jury that he had been "stupid" for doing what he had done. He admitted giving out samples of the marijuana to friends gathered at a mobile home in Dimmitt, admitted to having smoked marijuana in the past, and said he was familiar with the "street prices" of marijuana.

Defense Attorney Hale argued that Fry had been entrapped by the officers and should be acquitted.

Fry's wife, Lupina, offered character testimony for her husband and asked the jury for probation.

Davis and Boren countered with testimony from local law enforcement agents that Fry already had a "reputation" with them before the offense, and argued that the large drug transaction would not have taken place without Fry's actions.

After the trial, Mrs. Fry allegedly struck co-counsel Boren outside the courtroom and made threats toward him. A complaint was filed in Swisher County in connection with the incident, and the matter will be reviewed by the Grand Jury in Tulia, Davis reported.

Davis said other trials stemming from the Oct. 20 drug bust will be scheduled later this summer. No other motions for change of venue have been requested at this time, he said.

On the Go with Mary Edna Hendrix, 647-3343

Bernice Minter of Oklahoma City was the guest of Emily Ramey recently. She was on her way to Wichita Falls. Miss Minter had also visited Mr. and Mrs. O'Neal Watson in Amarillo.

Amanda Annen celebrated her eighth birthday Saturday with a party. Taryn Hays, Aaron Wilcox, Cassie McLean, Heather Wise, Allison Roberson, Shalyn Schaeffer, Heather Jeter, Van Jeter, Wesley Wright, Shawna Kenworthy, Annie and Jessica Lopez, Lezly and Ethan Martin, Al Webb and Amanda's grandparents, Fred and Ramona Annen, and Pete and Mary Dove attended. They were entertained by "Peanut Butter and Jelly," the clowns from Sunshine Clown Co. The clowns painted the kids' faces, made balloon animals and some illusions.

ing of WIFE and Farm Women's Leadership Forum in Washington, D.C.

On Saturday night they attended "American Jukebox" at the Ford Theater. On Sunday the day was spent touring Monticello, President Jefferson's home, and a drive back through the Blue Ridge Mountains overlooking the Shenandoah Valley. It's very beautiful country. Sunday evening the WIFE meeting began with a box lunch and a speaker who talked on "How to enjoy your visit" and who gave a lesson on lobbying. Monday morning began with breakfast and a panel on environmental issues. Business and other speakers filled the rest of the day's agenda. In the evening they enjoyed a pizza party and got acquainted with the congressional staff.

On Tuesday they heard a speaker on GATT about international trade and attended the symphony at Kennedy Center. On Wednesday they enjoyed the legislative breakfast in the Senate office building. The rest of the day they met with different congressmen and other officials.

Thursday began with the Women's Forum, highlighted with the Secretary of Agriculture, Clayton Yeutter, speaking. A speaker on making sense of the food safety mess was also heard. The afternoon was spent visiting congressional leaders.

Friday morning began with a tour of NBC Studios — a very interesting experience with some eye-opening information. The afternoon sessions were about commodity futures trading and how to prepare for a crisis of any kind. The evening meeting included Rep. Charles Stenholm, who talked on what may be included in the 1990 farm bill.

Saturday's programs were on farm safety, crop insurance, food safety, grass roots lobbying and a speech by Cooper Evans, special assistant to the president, on "Ag: View from the White House."

In between the meetings, the women toured some of the Smithsonian Buildings, including Union Station, which has been completely redone, the White House, Capitol Building, Library of Congress, and more. They took a short night tour from different restaurants where they ate. One night they had dinner with Sara McLendon, a free-lance news writer. That was a great time. They said she was a lovely lady who "knows everyone in the know" and was a joy to be with. There's no way to put into words what they learned from the tours, and what they learned from the tours and the people was "mind boggling" to Ysleta. They had a great time and the other ladies were a fun bunch to be with.

On the way from Dallas to Washington, D.C., they visited with Richard Gephardt. They said he's a "very personable young man and is on the side of good agricultural bills for everyone."

George and Irene Blanton attended the graduation of their granddaughter, Leslie Woods, at McKinney. This was a pretty and impressive service. They are so proud of her. They then attended the graduation of their grandson, Jason Stephenson, at Denton. There were 632 in his graduating class. Jason is the son of Gerald and Lanell Stephenson. After the services they all had dinner at George's home. They are proud of the grandchildren, who have both enrolled in college at Denton for the next year.

Out of town visitors at the museum last week were Joseph Seale of Perryton, who was here visiting his grandparents, J.O. and Mattie Seale; Ann Carmacke and Randy Doan of Virginia, who were visiting Billy and Ruth Hackleman; and the Italian POW's, who visited the museum Sunday afternoon.

I visited with Leo Wikowski from Hereford Sunday at the Senior Citizens Center. He is a former Dimmitt resident and he still reads the Castro County News.

I met Dale Winder's brother and they tease each other about age.

Odie Mundell of Roswell, N.M. has been in Dimmitt visiting Cora West and other friends.

Paul and Lillian Shipman and Mrs. Shipman's mother, Grace Josephson of Port Charlotte, Fla., were guests of Ed and Betty Freeman Friday through Sunday. On Saturday Mrs. Josephson celebrated her birthday.

Bill and Eunice Thornton went to Austin and Wimberly to the 7-A ranch resort for a Graham family reunion. There were 41 people who attended from Washington, California, New York, Georgia, Colorado, Utah, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Texas. There was a stream there where the younger ones enjoyed a raft ride and swim. They also played tennis and volleyball. The older ones visited and ate. They hadn't been together for five years, and there were just six who were unable to attend. A nice painted family crest from Scotland, where the family originated, was on display.

There was so much entertainment in Dimmitt over the weekend.

Last Thursday night the Country Caravan from South Plains College in Levelland entertained a large crowd on the courthouse lawn with two hours of music. Some of the songs were old favorites like "Tennessee Waltz," "Rocky Top" and "Bye, Bye Love." The Caravan Cloggers danced to the tune of "Down Yonder." The concert ended with a gospel medley, "Just a Closer Walk with Thee," "One Day at a Time," and "A Light at the End of the Darkness." The last song was an inspirational one, "God Bless the USA."

Lance Martin, husband of Jeanette Annen and son-in-law of Fred and Ramona Annen, plays the electric bass guitar with the Caravan.

Lezly Sawyer, who sings with the group, had relatives in the audience who watched her perform. Melvin and Juanita Summers knew one of the girls and they visited with her after the performance.

Dr. Marvin Baker is president of South Plains College and he and his wife travel with the group. While the Country Caravan is cooking up a great menu of country music, the cast and crew have been busy writing down their families' favorite country recipes. Lance Martin submitted Lance's Ranch Style Biscuits and Sawyer gave her recipe for Lezly's Hominy Casserole.

The Continentals presented a concert at the First Baptist Church Saturday night with the theme, "Let the Whole World Sing." These singers are young people from all over the USA, Australia, Canada and Hawaii. Some of the songs were "What a Mighty God We Serve," "I Will Bless the Lord," and "We Believe." They asked the children to participate in the song, "Fa Me!" The choir consists of 20 singers with several people playing instruments in the orchestra.

The bridal shower for Sabrina Mays, bride-elect of Scott Hiatt of Tulia, was held Saturday afternoon in the lovely country home of Wanda Nelson. Sabrina is the daughter of Anthony and Mary Mays and the granddaughter of Rhoda Mays and Vaden and Aline Kirby. Sabrina is another one of my special friends from my library days!

Bryan Stewart, son of Pete and Darla Stewart, will present a senior piano recital Sunday at 3 p.m. in the First Baptist Church Sanctuary. Bryan has studied with Mrs. Sanders for 10 years. The public is invited to attend.

Jim and Sally Bradford spent the weekend in Dallas. They visited with Sally's sister and her husband, Amy and Dan Becker, and with college and high school friends, Jeff Lindsey, Mike Tucker and Tobin Touchstone.

HISD selected as 'Star School'

Hart Independent School District has been selected as one of 20 schools named to the Star Schools Program by the Texas Education Agency.

Superintendent Phil Barefield told the Hart school board that through the Star Schools Program, HISD will receive, free of charge, the antenna and equipment necessary to receive live, two-way communication to educational programs and classes via satellite.

The estimated first-year value of the program is about $21,000, according to Barefield, however, the greatest advantage will be the possibilities for curriculum and student enrichment through special programs and class offerings. He added that he hopes the system will be operational by fall.

Mark Stroebel, high school principal, was selected by the Texas Education Agency to participate in the Texas School Improvement Initiative.

According to the board's report, Stroebel will receive special training concerning effective schools and will participate in accreditation visits with TEA staff at selected schools.

Richard Davis, elementary counselor and Gifted/Talented coordinator, presented the long-range plan for the G/T program for HISD. This program calls for serving G/T students in grades 1-6 next year and developing a program for students in grades 7-12.

The board adopted a student accident insurance program from Continental Casualty Company. The school will purchase at-school and school activity (including all sports) insurance for each student enrolled from pre-kindergarten through the 12th grade. A 24-hour insurance plan and extended dental will be made available for those who want the insurance in addition to the policy furnished by the school.

The 1989-90 school calendar was amended after legislation passed to allow districts more flexibility in the starting date for school. HISD will start its 1989-90 school year off on Aug. 28.

The board adopted the "Write to Read" program for the kindergarten and first grade and agreed to take bids to place the program in operation this fall. Teachers and aides will receive the training necessary to assist primary-level students in improving their reading and writing skills with the help of this program.

The school district will participate in the capital acquisition program through the Texas School Services Foundation. This program allows school districts to finance capital expenditures by extending the payment period over a number of years while allowing the district to maintain its fund balance for flexible use or investment.

The board voted to advertise for bids to repair extensive hail damage to the school roofs after the recent severe weather. All composite and composition roofs will be replaced through the insurance adjustments. The board also voted to advertise for bids on the computer-assisted instruction laboratory for the elementary school and for two or four new tennis courts.

The board conducted a hearing for the use of Chapter II funds in 1989-90. The primary use of these funds will be for media expenses and supplemental student services.

Shirley Barnes, secondary counselor, presented the 1988-89 TEAMS test results for HISD and gave an overview of the SRA achievement test results.

Departmental budgets were presented by Don Sanders and Jerry Mathis, agricultural science, and James Mireles, athletics. The band budget was presented and adopted.

The bid for depository bank for 1989-90 and 1990-91 was awarded to Hale County State Bank and Brown, Graham and Co. of Tulia was awarded the contract for the school audit.

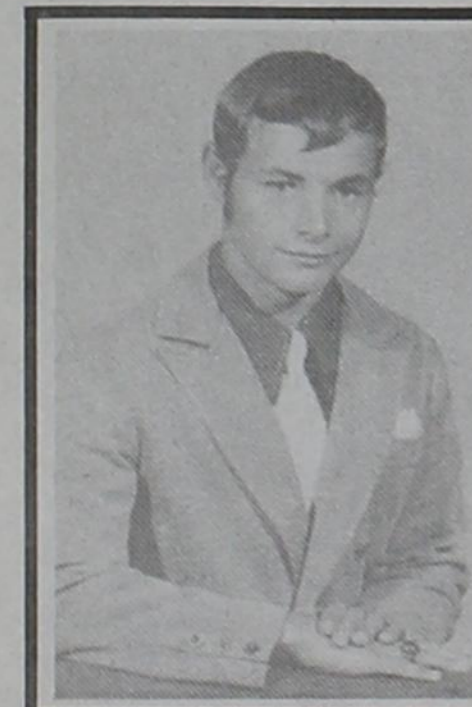

Bids for the construction of the new science laboratories at the high school will be opened June 30.

The board accepted resignations from Anne Burkhalter, junior high English teacher; Birdie Lee, pre-kindergarten teacher; Christine Baca, early childhood; Adalina Garza, teachers' aide; and Francisca Cabezuela, teachers; aid.

New teachers hired for the coming year include Melanie Hart, secondary math; Jean Birkenfeld, secondary math; and Jana Bailes, secondary homemaking.

Claudine Aven, superintendent's secretary; Elsie Black, the high school principal's secretary; and Nelda Ethridge, business office secretary; had their contracts renewed.

Also employed for the 1989-90 school year are Ramona Barretero, Cindy Davis, Sharon Davis, Barbara Diaz, Gloria Diaz, Marsha George, Eloisa Gonzales, Mary Malone, Shirley McLain, Betty Montiel, Mary Reyna, Yolanda Rodriguez, Rosa Sarabia, Juanita Velasquez and bus foreman Elizarr Castro.

We Salute The Country Caravan

"I'm proud to be an American, at least I know I'm free..."

These inspiring words from the popular song, sung by Latrell Houk and the cast of the Country Caravan, provided a rousing climax to the big, energetic musical show presented here by South Plains College last Thursday night.

For 90 minutes, without a break, the talented Caravan cast entertained hundreds on the courthouse square with a lively mixture of country and western and gospel music.

The summer traveling show by the students of South Plains College has become a good, wholesome, entertaining tradition throughout the area served by the college. Produced by the Creative Arts Dept.'s country and bluegrass music program at SPC, the Country Caravan has been "on the road" 12 years now, and has entertained more than 150,000 music fans during those years.

For the talented student singers, musicians and technicians, the show is great experience. We have no doubt that some of the performers chose to attend South Plains College because of the working experience they could get through the Country Caravan and the academic program behind it. (It's the only college-level program of its type in the Southwest.) The Caravan is a well-planned show, conducted and coordinated with professionalism and technical excellence. We won't be a bit surprised when we see some of the Caravan members performing as professionals in future years.

For the college, the Caravan is a great public relations tool, and a fine example of the college's community-mindedness. (Another example, which you may not know about, is that the college lets us use its Texan Dome in Levelland at no charge for our basketball playoff games.) Although the college has a diversified curriculum, excellent facilities and some noted professors and instructors, probably no other single program does more to give the general public in this area a "good feeling" about South Plains College as does the Country Caravan. In the public relations field, this is called "image enhancement," and many corporations spend millions of dollars to achieve the same effect.

And for the public, the Caravan is a treat. It's great to be able to pull up a chair on a warm night, relax, and watch and hear these talented students perform so professionally and enthusiastically, while the president of the college, no less, operates the lighting system.

Thank you, South Plains College, for another great Country Caravan Show. We're glad you came to Dimmitt!

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of ten women will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as a result of breast cancer. Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography, before a lump can be felt, has a 97% five year survival rate and a 90% 10 year survival rate. (The cost is only $55.00.) A mammogram can detect a cancer this small, even before it can be felt.

Joe King is named tennis coach

Joe King of Dimmitt, former tennis coach at Nazareth High School, has been hired as West Texas State University's men's and women's tennis coach.

King replaces Gene Parker, who served as interim head coach following the departure of coach Don Griffith to the College of Charleston during mid-season.

The new head coach announced Tuesday that Mike Mitchell, a four-year letter winner for the Buffs, has been named assistant coach for the upcoming 1989-90 season. Mitchell, a native of Ontario, Canada, was the team captain during the 1989 season when the Buffs won their first-ever Lone Star Conference championship. Mitchell was a member of the top doubles team that qualified for the NCAA National Tournament after winning the Lone Star Conference crown. For his efforts, he and teammate David Olesen were selected to the Lone Star Conference first-team all-conference tennis team in doubles.

"We're looking forward to building a solid program and keeping within our budget," King said. "The secret to success is good help—good players, hard work and good attitude. We're going to try to recruit the very best kids we can from this area. The desire for education will come first and tennis will come second with the kids we recruit. My first recruit will be from this area."

King returns to the coaching ranks after teaching at St. Joseph's School in Amarillo in 1989. Prior to that he was manager of Interest Savings and Loan in Dimmitt from 1981 to 1987. He was the tennis pro and manager of Ruskin Racquet Club in Dimmitt from 1978-81 after retiring as the superintendent and athletic director of the Nazareth Independent School District.

King began his coaching career at Petersburg in 1949 and has served as principal at Tulia High School and coached at Lockney.

He was inducted into the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame as the 1973 Coach of the Year. His daughter, Kim, was also inducted into the PSHOF that year after capturing the singles crown. In addition to his daughter, King also led two other players to the state championship in 1973. He led Nazareth to the state championship again in 1978.

Cheerleading camp is set

The Hart Junior High School cheerleaders will sponsor a cheerleading camp, "Camp Calamity," next Thursday, June 29, through Friday, June 30 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The camp is for boys and girls in the kindergarten through fifth grades. Registration fee is $10 per day or $18 for two days. If two children in a family attend the camp, the fee is $15 per day.

Youngsters may register for the camp from 8:30 to 9 a.m. at the Hart football field next Thursday. Cheerleading skirts are available.

Ramey's team third in Illinois soccer

Lenora Ramey, granddaughter of Emily Ramey of Dimmitt, was on the high school girls' soccer team that placed third in the Illinois State Soccer Tournament this year.

Ramey, who makes her home in Willowbrook, Ill., with the Edwin Rameys, plays for the Hinsdale Central High School Red Devils. Her team posted an overall record of 18-6-1 this year and finished third in the state playoffs among 144 Illinois high school teams.

The Red Devils' toughest game in their climb to the state tournament was against their conference arch-rivals, the Hinsdale Central Hornets. The game was deadlocked at the end of regulation time and also after a 20-minute overtime, and went into a sudden-death shootout. Ramey scored the winning goal.

Ramey, a junior who has been playing soccer since she was 7 years old, was one of the top scorers for her team this year. She hopes to attend a major college on a soccer scholarship.

This was the Red Devils' third trip to the state tournament.

Kim Clark

Former Hart netter attends national meet

Kim Clark, daughter of Donald Ray and Janice Clark of Bogata, formerly of Hart, has qualified for nationals with her tennis team, the Paris Junior College Lady Dragons.

PJC Coach Brenda Burgess said the key to the tennis team's success in reaching the national tournament was the play of her No. 5 and 6 seeds, Maria Hernandez and Clark. That duo earned the most total points for the Lady Dragons.

Clark played tennis in Hart, before moving. She is attending Paris Junior College on a tennis scholarship. She has been listed on the president's honor roll after maintaining a 4.0 grade point average.

Tennis Association schedules tournament

The Castro County Tennis Association will sponsor its annual open tennis tournament Wednesday through July 2 at the Dimmitt High School tennis courts.

Tournament play will be divided into a 12 and under division, 14 and under division, men's and women's A and B divisions and an A and B mixed doubles division.

No-ad scoring will be used and the best two-out-of-three sets wins the match. A 12-point tie-breaker will be played in the event of a 6-6 tie. Pro-sets will be played in the consolation bracket and a 15-minute default rule will be in effect.

The 12 and under boys and girls singles, doubles and mixed doubles will open tournament play Wednesday at 8 a.m. The 14 and under boys and girls singles, doubles and mixed doubles will play next Thursday beginning at 8 a.m.

On June 30, the men's B doubles will start at 6 p.m. and the women's B doubles matches will begin at 6:30.

Sunnyside

Local educators attend DKG meeting

Rev. David and Debra Fletcher, Gerald and Pat Elkins, Clara Vick and Teeny Bowden went to Las Vegas, Nev. last Monday and attended the Southern Baptist Convention as messengers of the Sunnyside Baptist Church.

We probably set a record of having only 46 resident members to start with. We returned home Friday morning exhausted and disappointed that we lost our votes, but we were encouraged to see the opposition from the floor to some of the takeover strategy of the convention.

We also attended the Baptist Committed breakfast and were encouraged by the testimonies of commitment to continue the opposition to the fundamentalist element who have been in control long enough. Daniel Vestal will probably be a candidate for president next year and will have a better chance since it was the second term that persuaded some to vote for the present president. As long as we sit there and protest, they will not be able to hold control much longer.

Teeny Bowden, Clara Vick, Rose Acker and Wynona Day met

Franka Hamber from California, whose father was a former POW at the Hereford Camp, at the plane in Amarillo. They also met with the group of Italians coming in from Dallas. They stayed with them in the Harvey House (formerly the Sheraton Hotel) and rode the bus with them to mass Sunday at St. Anthony's Church in Hereford. They enjoyed dinner at the church and then went to the dedication ceremony of the restored POW chapel.

.65 of an inch of rain was received last Thursday morning.

Larry and Sharon Sadler, and Stacy Norman attended dedication services at the chapel Sunday afternoon. He had spent much of the week welding and putting the fence up.

Carrie Sadler came home from Lubbock for the weekend. Ezell and Verba Sadler and Carrie had a Fathers' Day dinner with Tex and Norma Conard Sunday.

Wheat harvest is underway now. I'll have more about that next week.

Three Dimmitt women attended the Texas State Organization of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society's international meeting last Thursday through Saturday in Abilene.

June Parker, local president; Nancy Greer, vice president; and Jackie McLeroy, a member of the state research committee, attended the 60th anniversary meeting.

In a special judged exhibit of "Women in the Arts," three Dimmitt members were honored.

An oil painting by Helen Richardson was awarded a blue ribbon, and oils by Sue Broderson and Elizabeth Huckabay received red ribbons.

The international society of women educators was started in Austin in 1929. From the nucleus of a dozen members in Texas, the organization has grown to over 18,000 members in Texas and over 175,000 members in the United States, Canada, Norway, Sweden, Finland, Iceland, Great Britain, the Netherlands, Mexico, Guatemala, El Salvador, Costa Rica and Puerto Rico.

ASCS News

By: SCOTTY M. ABBOTT
County Exec. Director

The final date to report your spring seeded crops, ACR and CU will be July 17. This is the final date to file a 0 acreage report for history purposes.

If you are unsure of the acreages you have planted, I recommend that you request measurement service. An inaccurate acreage report will result in loss of program benefits. Measurement service acreages will be guaranteed. Acres that are measured and not paid for will not be guaranteed.

We are in the process of setting up appointments for measurement service and acreage reports. You need to be sure to make your scheduled appointment because failure to do so could result in a late-filed certification fee. I urge each and everyone of you to report your acreage as soon as possible. The sooner your acreage is reported or measurement service is requested, the sooner we can move into our new office building. If you can come in sooner than when your appointment is scheduled, please give us a call and we will try to work you in.

You are reminded that in order for a crop to be considered irrigated, it must have been irrigated. Irrigated acreages must be reported separately.

In cases where less than 50% of the permitted acreage is planted, to receive irrigated CU payments the crop must have been irrigated in 1987 and 1988, and the acreage designated as CU for pay and be considered irrigated.

Provisions of the 1990 wheat program are: target price, $4 per bushel; national loan rate after adjustment, $1.95 per bushel; acreage reduction requirement, 5%; no paid land diversion; 0/92 and additional yield provisions will apply. Signup dates and CU for payment rates will be announced at a later date.

ACR (set-aside) that is reported in excess of the required amount must be maintained as ACR through Dec. 31. ACR that is reported in excess of the required amount cannot be released after July 17. CU for payment acreage that is reported in excess of the required amount must be maintained as CU for payment. CU for payment acreage cannot be released after July 17.

Because of a late change in policy concerning invisible acres, producers may designate as invisible acres a second crop planted at the normal time for planting a double crop if all of the following apply:

The first crop of small grains must have failed after May 15. The second crop is planted at the normal time for planting the second crop in a double cropping situation (June 10 following dryland wheat and June 20 following irrigated wheat). The operator of the farm signs a statement on the application for disaster credit requesting that the acreage following the failed small grain be considered as invisible acres.

Crops that are considered invisible are not eligible for program benefits.

There will be a sign-up for the CRP Program beginning July 17 and continuing through Aug. 4. This will be for 1989 and 1990 contracts. Additional information will be coming soon.

The loan interest rate for June is 9.125%.

Haying and grazing of CU for payment acres and ACR (set-aside) acres has been approved for Castro County. If you intend to graze existing cover or seed a crop that will be either hayed or grazed during the period which began June 1 and continues through Oct. 31, you will need to come to the county office before haying or grazing these acres and sign a register and draw off the fields that will be hayed or grazed.

According to a new policy change you may now sell forage harvested from ACR and CU for payment acreage to anyone at any price.

ACR acreages and/or CU acreages may be planted for wildlife food plots or wildlife habitats and not be charged as crop acreage if the area conforms to the following standards:

1. The wildlife food plot must be a minimum of five acres and a chain wide (66 feet) and may not be larger than 10 acres. No more than one plot may be authorized on any contiguous tract of land.

2. Wildlife food plots are authorized only in areas that provide a natural escape route, such as an adjoining pasture, waterway, etc.

3. Any crop may be included as an eligible cover or food source for wildlife.

4. No grazing or harvesting, other than by wildlife is permitted. The crops on food plots must be allowed to mature, fall down and stay on the land to the extent that it will provide the maximum food and/or habitat. The food plot may not be plowed or otherwise destroyed during the calendar year for which it is designated. The crop may be mowed or shredded and allowed to fall where it stood. No form of gathering or piling will be permitted.

5. Measures to control weeds must be carried out.

6. May be excluded as program crop acreage if meets program requirements and the area and crops are designated in writing by the operator of the farm by July 17 and approved by the County Committee.

Castro County has been approved for the Livestock Feed Program.

The program is designed to assist producers with maintaining their livestock herds until additional feed becomes available.

The first feeding period will end June 30 and conditions will be evaluated at that time to determine whether or not the program will be continued. If you are interested you will need to check with our office as soon as possible to file your request. Your eligibility starts the day the request is filed. To file a request you will need the following information: number and type of livestock, the legal description of pastures you own or lease (leases should be provided), the percent below normal of each pasture, a list of feed on hand broken down between purchased and raised, and the amount of feed you are feeding now, as well as the amount you would normally be feeding at this time of year.

PICKING THE WINNERS — A young draftee from last Thursday night's "Country Caravan" crowd draws the final winner's name in the Chamber of Commerce raffle at the end of the show. Scott Stahl

Stahl attends science symposium

Scott Stahl, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stahl of Dimmitt, joined more than 400 outstanding high school science students and teachers at the 29th annual Texas Energy Science Symposium in Austin, which was held June 12-15.

A student at Dimmitt High School, Stahl was among 40 students and teachers representing schools throughout the Panhandle and South Plains that were sponsored by Southwestern Public Service Company.

The symposium, held at the University of Texas campus, is an annual event sponsored by the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation.

The four-day symposium featured a keynote address by NASA astronaut Kathryn Sullivan. Other events included tours and presentations on such subjects as fusion, a form of nuclear power and the "greenhouse effect," a term that refers to heat becoming trapped in the Earth's atmosphere.

A highlight of the symposium was a tour of the university's Fusion Research center and its tokamak, a machine that uses magnetic fields to attempt to confine the fusion reaction.

Electric safety is looking up...

...for power lines!

On the farm, on the job or at home, you should always be aware of power lines. Touching a power line with anything... an irrigation pipe, tool, a kite string... could divert the electricity through you causing serious injury or death. For safety's sake, look up for power lines.

AND, REMEMBER THESE SAFETY TIPS

- Do not trim trees near power lines.
- Do not shoot at insulators on poles, towers or structures.
- Avoid using electrical tools like lawn mowers or hedge clippers when grass and leaves are wet.
- Be careful when digging. Call SPS to find out if there are any buried electrical lines in the area.
- Beware of exposed wires.

Erik Pohlmeier, a senior at Paris High School in Arkansas recently won the 800-meter run in the State "AA" classification track meet, earning him the title of all-state. Erik competed in 15 events during the track season, finishing first in 14 events. He plans to attend the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville, where he has been awarded a full scholarship.

In addition, he was awarded the Robert Trusty Memorial Scholarship based on participation in athletics, grade point and character.

Erik is the son of Tom and Sharon Pohlmeier of Paris, Ark. and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Pohlmeier of Nazareth and Mrs. W.E. Brown of Paris, Ark.

Geraldine Eckert of San Antonio and Rita Edwards of Houston spent several days in Nazareth with the Hochstein families and friends. On Saturday, Rita and Geraldine; Junior, Catherine and Johnny Hochstein; Brigetta and Ricky Dobmeier; and May Hochstein drove to Albuquerque to attend the wedding of Roger Sparks, a nephew and cousin. While there they enjoyed visiting with relatives from Socorro, N.M., Nebraska and Kansas. On Tuesday they visited in Amarillo with the Alex Hochstein and George Hochstein families.

Betty Wilhelm attended the Fourth Division convention of the American Legion Auxiliary in El Paso over the weekend. Betty is the Fourth Division Parliamentarian. Geneva Williams of Friona traveled with Betty. While there, they enjoyed the dog races in Juarez and bought a little dog food for the dogs. They had a good convention and visited many old friends from the Fourth Division, which is made up of the entire west half of Texas, 53% of the state.

Jey and Shari Penquite and son Tony are visiting with Shari's parents, Roger and Edna Schilling of Dimmitt until their home in Springlake - Earth is vacated. Jey will be coaching at Springlake-Earth this fall.

Congratulations to Barry and Rhonda Boyett of Austin on the birth of a son, Ronald Blake, on June 16 in Austin. Regina flew to Austin on Saturday and spent several days with the family. Grandparents are Ronnie and Regina Hoelting of Nazareth and Mr. and Mrs. Boyett of Austin. Great-grandparents are Toney and Mary Gerber.

Joy Ringwald of Oklahoma City is spending a few days here with her parents, Leonard and Rosemary Wilhelm. Her children, Shawn and Nicole, are spending the summer here with their grandparents. She also attended the Kern-Smith wedding reception Saturday.

Sisters Josella and Adrian left early Sunday morning to drive to Fort Smith, Ark., where they will spend several weeks at their Benedictine Convent. We hope they will have a pleasant vacation.

Carl Dean Kleman was honored on his 60th birthday last week by his family, Mary, Jim and Bobbie Schmucker, Dale and Mona Brockman, Keith and Karleen Hoelting, Doyle and Rosie Kleman and Gerry and Joyce Kleman. They enjoyed eating out in Lubbock and enjoyed the evening at Gerry and Joyce's home in Abernathy.

Joel and Mary Beth Gerber hosted a barbecue at their home Sunday night for the Gerber and Ramaeker clans. Leonard Gerber and Ed Ramaekers were honored especially for Fathers' Day, but of course all the younger fathers were given special treatment, too.

Brigetta Dobmeier and Ann Schulte were among several hundred people who attended the dedication of the restored prayer chapel at the Hereford Prisoner of War Camp Sunday afternoon. It is now a state historical site.

Jerry, Trisha and Eric Rose and Virgie Gerber spent the weekend in Odessa with Gene, Susie and Natalie Gerber. We missed Jenny, who was at a summer camp near Austin. We enjoyed Gene's backyard swimming pool and jacuzzi, especially since the temperature reached 105 degrees.

On Saturday morning, Gene, Natalie and Jerry drove to the Midland International Airport for an air show that featured the C5A, F111's, Ty-38's and KC-10, a refueling tanker.

Early Sunday morning, Natalie and Virgie drove to the Schley-meyer Field Airport where Natalie took her flight training and received her pilot's license a couple years ago. Natalie rented a plane and took us for an hour's flight over Odessa and to Goldsmith over oil fields where Susie works. It was a very exciting adventure that I never thought about doing with her. We later went to mass at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church and afterwards we visited with Father Bridges and the Alan Neff family. It was a very good weekend.

Police Calls

The Sheriff's Dept. is investigating the burglary of a barn northeast of Easter in which more than $3,500 worth of goods were taken.

Jack Bradley told sheriff's officers that someone broke into his barn between June 1 and June 14 and took a 454 Chevrolet irrigation engine worth $3,000, a bench grinder valued at $250, a hand grinder worth $165, and assorted tools worth approximately $100.

Two different men claimed to be the driver of a car that hit a utility pole in the 300 block of Northeast Eighth Street last week, and one of them told city police the car was forced off the street by a pickup.

Police are investigating that allegation, and in the meantime have filed a false-report charge against one of the men and turned the case over to the District Attorney's office.

Officers said a 1983 Pontiac Trans-Am with its driver and three passengers went off the unpaved street at 9 p.m. June 13 and struck a utility pole. The street reportedly was dry in the middle and muddy on the edges. None of those in the car were injured, police reported, although the car received moderate damage.

Ramon Aguero told officers that he was driving the car and that a red Ford pickup occupied by three men had deliberately forced the car off the street where Northeast Eighth intersects with East Andrews.

However, police said they have identified the driver as Jose Angel Aguero, 16, of Dimmitt. He was cited for having no proof of liability insurance, leaving the scene of an accident and having no driver's license.

A charge of making a false report to a law enforcement officer was filed Tuesday against Ramon Aguero. Police turned the case over to District Attorney Jimmy Davis.

Meanwhile, police are still investigating Ramon Aguero's allegation that the car was run off the road deliberately. If proven, it could lead to an aggravated assault charge.

Two Dimmitt men were jailed on charges of theft and public intoxication following an incident last week at Kittrell Electronics.

Scott Sheffy, service manager, reported that a Hispanic male had entered the rear of the store and that, after directing him to the sales department, he noticed another Hispanic male in the alley carrying a piece a gray equipment. Upon checking, he discovered that a stereo cassette player which the First Baptist Church had left for repair was missing. He said he pursued the second man and found him carrying nothing but a paper sack, but then located the missing cassette player in a nearby trash can.

When police arrived, Sheffy pointed out the two men, who were walking together, and officers recovered a sack full of beer. Both of the suspects were intoxicated, police reported.

Christopher Lay reported to police Monday morning that someone had broken into his locked pickup and stolen the radio and booster while the pickup was parked on the First State Bank parking lot. He described the missing radio as a Sparkle-Matic brand. Officers found a claw hammer and a large red screwdriver at the scene, and said the tools evidently were used to force open the window on the driver's side to gain entry to the cab.

Fred Lilley of Dimmitt reported to the Sheriff's Dept. this week that a 550-lb. Charolais steer was missing from a pasture just south of the Hacker Addition near Hart. Lilley said the steer had a run-together HL brand on its left hip and a yellow ear tag. Officers are investigating the case.

During the week local law enforcement agencies jailed a 43-year-old Lovington, N.M., man on a charge of violating probation (DWI), and a 28-year-old Dimmitt man on charges of felony DWI, failure to dim lights and having no proof of liability insurance.

FORMER PRISONERS' GIFTS—Standing at the altar of the memorial chapel at the Hereford Prisoner of War Camp, Valentino Barillaro (left) and Adriano Angerillo of Italy show a brass plaque and a 500-year-old sculptured plaque which they and other former inmates of the camp presented during the dedication of the restored memorial chapel Sunday afternoon. The colorful sculptured plaque of the Madonna and Child was created in the 15th Century by Luca Della Robbia, a famous Italian sculptor.

IN MEMORY—Italian magazine publisher Armando Boscola and businessman Valentino Barillaro unveil a marble monument during dedication services for the restored memorial chapel at the Hereford Prisoner of War Camp Sunday afternoon. The monument lists the names, ranks and ages of the five prisoners who died while interned at the local camp in 1944 and 1945. All five were buried near the chapel during the war, and their bodies were reinterred after the war.
