As a service to the citizens of Castro County the First State Bank of Dimmitt is sponsoring the publishing of the ballot, with nine constitutional amendments, to be voted on Tuesday, Nov. 6, on page seven of this issue of the News. Also as a public service, the Castro County Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the publication of the resumes of the amendments on page fifteen in this newspaper.

Whether you are interested or not, a brief trip to Central Texas last weekend convinced this writer that Texas is in the process of harvesting one of its largest cotton crops. Viola and I went to Rosebud and Rogers to visit her relatives and my relative.

Cotton was being harvested from Lamb County to Falls County. Only the fields that had been defoliated were being harvested, all other fields were green and were either waiting for frost or to be defoliated before harvesting operations could begin.

We had a coffee break at Gustine, just south of Comanche, where an elderly friendly gentleman informed me, after questioning, that peanuts, throughout the peanut growing area, were producing in the neighborhood of one hundred bushels per acre and that prices were running from four to five dollars per bushel. You might say that that is not hay, but you would be wrong. They bale the vines after the nuts are harvested and it is good hay.

Field crops are not the only things that are looking good in the agricultural area. Seldom have I seen as many cattle as there are in the fields and pastures from the Caprock south, however I was afraid to mention price regarding that particular commodity.

Apparently the attitude of Congress has been a type of head-in-the-sand stance regarding the possible impeachment of the president. Even to mention the idea has been a no-no in the hallowed halls of compromise. But the unrest of natives back on the reservation is being felt by those entrusted with our national well-being. The mail from back home is causing the congressmen to wonder if there has really been something unusual going on in the presidency. Once they get their collective minds made up that we have on our hands an intolerable situation, they should get on with the business of confirming Congressman Ford as vice president and the impeachment of Nixon as president. From a narrow-minded, hard-headed point of view, that is the only reasonable solution to the problem.

CROP drive nets $1000 locally

The chairman of this year's CROP drive in Dimmitt, Gene Wisdom, announced Monday that the people of Dimmitt and Castro County had donated just over $1,000 in the canvass which took place Sunday afternoon, Oct. 28.

"THESE GENEROUS gifts will help to feed hungry children and to give people around the world a chance to change their lives," said Wisdom.

"As the chairman of our local campaign and representative of the national CROP office, I want to thank all of the people of Dimmitt who gave so graciously. Also, a special thanks to the junior and senior high youth fellowship of the First Methodist Church and the fifth grade Camp Fire Girls who gave their time and helped collect these gifts," he added.

Anyone living outside the city can still make a contribution to CROP at the First State Bank in Dimmitt. All contributions should be made before Dec. 15.

Although the Constitutional Revision Commission has finished its work and will present it to delegates soon, Tuesday's election deals with some areas in the present state constitution.

A new constitution may not be adopted by the voters, and should this occur, the state will continue to operate under the present constitution.

Voters will consider nine amendments in Tuesday's election. State Representative Bill Clayton of Springlake has summarized the amendments and his summary follows:

AMENDMENT NO. 1 on the ballot authorizes annual sessions of the legislature and increases the legislative pay from $4,800 to $15,000 per year. Those for this amendment say Texas government is a $5 billion a year business and requires more attention than it did in years past; therefore it requires full-time representatives and compensation to retain or to get good people interested in serving in the legislature. Those against this amendment say $4,800 a year is what the pay was when a representative ran for the job and that the cost of government is high enough now.

AMENDMENT NO. 2 on the ballot is a proposal that would give single adults with real property the same protection and security from forced sale for debt of their homestead as is now given to families. It also provides that a family homestead may not be abandoned without the consent of both spouses. Proponents of the amendment argue that single adults deserve the same protection against creditors as do married adults and there should be no discrimination. Opponents say there is an increasing number of single adults and because the homestead exemption was designed primarily to protect innocent family members of the debtor and not the debtor himself, it therefore should not be extended to single adults.

AMENDMENT NO. 3 would extend the $3,000 ad valorem tax exemption to the homestead of unmarried adults. Those for the amendment say that the present law that partially exempts homesteads from state and county tax purposes for persons 65 and older discriminates against single persons. Those who oppose the amendment say that the exemption could sharply reduce tax revenues that are urgently needed at this time and unfairly shift the tax burden.

AMENDMENT NO. 4 would provide notice to cities and counties and give them the authority to approve or disapprove the creation of conservation-reclamation districts. Those for this amendment say that it will give those cities and counties some responsibility for the bonded indebtedness of these districts that lie within their territories. Those against say that the cities and counties already have ample opportunity to voice their approval or disapproval of plans of a municipal water district when state agencies and legislators are considering their creation.

AMENDMENT NO. 5 would provide that counties and cities bordering the Gulf of Mexico may levy a tax for construction of sea walls and breakwaters by majority vote of the resident taxpayers. This would not affect our area; however, supporters of the amendment say many of the Texas coast line communities cannot raise enough tax to adequately protect themselves against hurricanes, while on the other hand, the opponents say that man-made barriers such as sea walls will speed erosion of the beaches and destroy the recreational value of the shoreline.

AMENDMENT NO. 6, if passed, would grant the district court the general jurisdiction of a probate court and would authorize the legislature to adjust the jurisdiction of the courts in probate matters. Those who are for this amendment say it is needed to meet public demand for a simplified, efficient probate system. Those who oppose this amendment say the legislature, under present constitutional authority, already has created county probate courts and county courts with sufficient probate jurisdiction.

AMENDMENT NO. 7 would provide an additional $100 million in state bonds for the veterans land fund and would also extend the classification of those eligible to include surviving spouses of an eligible veteran. Those who favor the amendment say that there are veterans who have not exercised their rights under the Texas veterans land program of buying land with money from the state at low interest rates. Those that oppose the program say the high cost of land makes the small amount you receive from the veterans land fund insufficient to purchase a tract.

AMENDMENT NO. 8 would authorize and require cities, towns, and villages to levy ad valorem tax sufficient to pay principle and interest on their general obligations issued in the future. Those who support this amendment say it would allow cities and towns to live up to their obligations on bonds they issue after voter approval without deleting funds from other sources. Opponents argue that the proposal creates a possibility of more taxes on already burdened taxpayers.

THE LAST amendment on the ballot, amendment no. 9, would exempt certain personal and real property of non-profit water supply corporations and cooperatives from property taxation. Those who support this amendment simply indicate that a rural water supply should be treated the same as a city water supply and that it should not be taxed for state and county ad valorem tax purposes. Those who oppose this amendment say that such an exemption would give the non-profit organization an advantage over privately owned water supply corporations that are in the business of selling water for a profit.

$1,650,000 expansion planned

Schools to call bond vote

The Dimmitt School Board plans to call a $1,650,000 bond election for December to upgrade the district's classroom, athletic, resource and administrative facilities.

PROPOSED in the plan will be:

— Conversion of Dimmitt Junior High School and North Elementary School into a large, connected "middle school" complex, with new buildings replacing the present barracks buildings;

— A separate, 1,500-seat gymnasium just east of Dimmitt High School, to make a complete physical education program possible;

— A 3,500-seat football stadium on Western Circle Drive, east of the proposed new gym, with a paved parking lot to accommodate both school day parking and game crowds;

— Enlargement of the administrative offices on the west end of Dimmitt High School to get all district-level administrators into one office complex;

— Construction of a large new media center in the DHS courtyard, next to the student patio;

— CONVERSION of the present DHS library into an art department;

— Addition of an office duplicating center next to the new media center, to meet the district's basic needs for lithographed and duplicated materials; and

— Conversion of the present teachers' lounge and workroom at DHS to a choral room to handle up to 75 students.

SUPT. CHARLIE White said he expects the bond election to be held the first week in December.

"The board is planning to have a called meeting within the next week to officially set the bond election date," White said.

The school board's consultants estimate that the project would take two years to complete, White added. Dimmitt school trustees have been studying tentative plans for an expansion and upgrading program since 1968, after the district's facilities and programs were evaluated by local committees, a visiting committee of educators and Texas Education Agency appraisers.

THESE evaluators recommended larger and better junior high facilities, more elementary playground space, better physical education and athletic facilities, more counselors, a separate district business manager, media centers to replace the school libraries, and more emphasis on certain academic and cultural subjects.

While continuing their study of the district's building needs during the past five years, trustees initiated several of the evaluators' program recommendations that could be fitted into the existing facilities. They've hired a full-time business manager, established a high school art department, expanded the counseling services, added administrative specialists, etc.

"The board has been working pretty hard on this expansion plan for the past three years," White said.

IF VOTERS approve the expansion project, the $1.65 million bond issue would hike the district's bonded indebtedness to 4.9 percent of its assessed valuation, "which is considered excellent," White said.

By law, a school district is allowed to have a bonded indebtedness as high as 10 percent of the assessed valuation of all property within its boundaries.

School trustees, administrators and faculty are still working on the finer points of the ambitious, multi-phase project, and plan to have all the specifics ready by mid-November.

THE BOARD members and I will be speaking to community organizations and will have detailed information worked out on specific plans, bonded indebtedness, per-pupil cost, payoff schedule on the bonds, and so forth," White said. "We'll have this information ready in two weeks."

Also, the News will publish articles describing all phases of the proposed expansion plan between now and the bond election.

RUNNING OVER—Milo yields across the county have been good and some elevators have received grain beyond their storage capacity, forcing them to dump the red grain on the ground until storage space becomes available. These mountains of milo are piled up at a small boot elevator north of Hart.

Corn, milo harvest ending

After a month of ideal harvesting conditions county grainmen have virtually completed corn and milo harvesting operations and yields have been impressive.

BILL CLARK of Dimmitt Agri-Industries estimated average corn yields at 145-150 bushels, and added that he has received corn from several farms which averaged 165 bushels. He reported some isolated 200 bushel yields.

"The corn harvest is just about over and we have had a good crop, good weather, and we still have good prices," he said.

Clark reported that milo yields are also high, and, with another week of sunshine harvest should be completed.

J. R. Brown of Flag Grain

Co. said that milo harvest is about 95 percent complete in the Flagg area and yields have been outstanding.

"We have had a lot of yields which have averaged 8,000 pounds per acre and over. We're in a good area, but this year the yields have been absolutely tremendous," said Brown. "We've been able to contain only about two-thirds of the grain we've received," he added.

Aubrey Myers of Farmers Grain Co. of Hart reported that milo yields in the Hart area would probably average between 7,200 and 7,500 pounds, and some corn yield had run as high as 9,000 pounds. He reported that spider mite damage was spotty, but added that "yields are too good for the damage to have been very bad."

Kenneth Slough of the Nazareth branch of Dimmitt Agri-Industries reported that corn and milo harvest are both near completion and added that, with a freeze, milo harvest would probably conclude in about a week. He estimated milo yields at 7,000 pounds.

BILL Gregory of Castro County Grain Co. reported that corn harvest is virtually complete and yields may average between 8,000 and 9,000 pounds.

Fred Bruegel Jr. of Bruegel & Sons Elevators reported average corn yields of between 140 and 170 bushels per acre. "We've had a few 200 bushel yields, overall the yields have been darned good," he said.

Bruegel said milo yields have ranged from 6,500 to 8,500 pounds and estimated the average yield at between 7,000 and 7,500 pounds.

Markets for both corn and milo remained good late Tuesday with corn going at $4.10 and milo selling at $3.95.

The same weather which has provided excellent conditions for harvesting corn and milo has also proved a boon to cotton producers as cotton has continued to open throughout the warm fall weather. Fields across the county have turned white under the warm fall sun and with the prospect of a good market before them farmers will be looking to get the cotton strippers rolling soon after the combines have shut down.

Chamber to hold program Tuesday

The Castro County Chamber of Commerce and the Dimmitt Police Department will present a program on the shoplifter and paper hangers Tuesday at 7:30 at Ann's Steak House.

A COMPLETE buffet meal will be served at a cost of $1 per person to each employee of Chamber members. The remainder of the tab will be picked up by the Chamber of Commerce.

"With the holidays just around the corner, we feel that this is a good time to show these films, and we urge all Chamber members and employees to attend," said Chamber president Bill Behrends.

Interested businessmen should call 647-2524 to make arrangements to attend the program.

Shooting under investigation

County sheriff's officers are continuing their investigation of the shooting death of Jake Ward, a farm laborer found dead in his home near Easter Sunday. Ward received gunshot wounds in the head.

COUNTY attorney Robert Buntyn reported that he was awaiting an autopsy report Tuesday afternoon.

Ward was found shot to death at his home five miles north of Easter. A 22 caliber rifle was found near his body. He was slumped over a chair in a bedroom.

The Deaf Smith County Sheriff's office turned the case over to Castro County officers when they arrived at the home. Ward's body was to be taken to Corsicana late Tuesday where funeral arrangements are pending with Calhoun Funeral Home.

Brother charged after shooting

Melvin Robert Lewis, 42, of Flagg faces a charge of assault with intent to murder in connection with the shooting of his brother, Gene Lewis, 36, of McAllen, last Thursday night.

SHERIFF'S officers said the incident occurred about 10 p.m. at the home of the men's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lewis, eight miles south and half a mile west of Dimmitt.

Gene Lewis was admitted to Plains Memorial Hospital with a superficial gunshot wound in the back. His wife, Gay, received emergency treatment for a head abrasion.

Sheriff Jack Cartwright and Deputy Jim Cooper said they recovered a .22 caliber pistol at the scene, and that Gene Lewis signed a complaint against his older brother.

AFTER HIS arrest last Thursday night, Melvin Lewis was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Mary Jo Smith who set his bail at $2,500. He posted bond Friday morning, sheriff's officers reported.

Gene Lewis' physician reported that the pistol slung entered Lewis' back, apparently ricocheted off a bone and lodged in his upper hip. The slug was removed Friday morning. Lewis was listed in satisfactory condition Wednesday morning.

SURE HANDS OF THE SURGEON. A child walks... an arm is straightened... a growth is removed... these and many other things are the result of the fine work of the surgeon. This is an occupation and a labor worthy of appreciation. A star... a new born baby... the world itself... these and many other things reveal God to us. "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork." Psalm 19, 1. God has wrought a great work. Let us show our love and appreciation by worshipping him in Church. The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God. TOM MOSS, district probation officer, addressed members of the Dimmitt Rotary Club at their noon luncheon Friday. Moss reported that there have been some changes in thinking in the Justice Department.

Moss speaks to Rotarians about criminal justice

"Ninety percent of the people who are in prison today will be back on the street within the next few years," Tom Moss, district probation officer, told members of the Dimmitt Rotary Club at their noon luncheon Friday.

MOSS TOLD the Rotarians that one of the major criticisms of the criminal justice system today is that the system does not rehabilitate criminals.

According to Moss, severe punishments have little crime deterrent value, it is the swiftness and sureness of the sentence which has deterrent value.

"Regardless of the sentence a man is given, he is eligible for parole after 20 years," said Moss.

Moss told the Rotarians that the Justice Department has begun to change its thinking concerning so-called "victimless crimes" such as gambling and prostitution.

"SOME OF the things which should have been moral issues have been felonies up until now, but this may change," he said.

Moss reported that the probation officer may become involved in a case after a person is convicted. "We examine the person's background thoroughly and place the details of his background into a presentence report that is given to the judge before sentencing, so the judge knows as much as possible about the person and his background," he said.

Moss reported that the courts are looking more and more to probation, especially for first offenders, and probation officers try to help those on probation to obtain jobs and other needed things.

"In order for probation to be successful we must get the criminal to the point where he wants to be helped. We can show a man the options he has, but once we do this, he must pick it up and go himself," said Moss.

The view from your library

By MARY EDNA HENDRIX

The rest of our furniture came in and Mr. Carlton was here all last week installing it. It is beginning to look like a big city library now. It is so pretty and we are so proud of it. Now we can start making plans for the formal dedication of the building, which will be Nov. 18, so keep that date open.

THE LIBRARY board members have had several called meetings and one special meeting with the Friends of the Library. There is so much to be done before the dedication.

THE Genealogical Society gave a micro-film reader to the library several years ago but we never had a good place to put it so it would be convenient for the public to use. Now that we are in our new library we have a special corner just for the Genealogical Society and the micro-film reader. Anyone who needs to use this reader may do so, in fact we had three ladies from Hereford, Mrs. T. J. Carter, Mrs. L. W. Norvell and Mrs. Jess L. Robinson, who came over and spent the day reading several films. Teeny Bowden and Naomi Brown volunteered their services for two days last week. They looked through some boxes of books to find a few we had misplaced. We appreciate everyone helping us.

ASKED ABOUT some of the main reasons youth get into trouble and must be put on probation, Moss reported that the drug scene is a major source of the problem. He pointed out that oftentimes youths have too much free time.

"Many of the kids who get into trouble come from middle and upper class families," said Moss. "Parental supervision also plays an important part in keeping kids out of trouble," he added.

Moss reported that there has been a change in thinking in the justice department and the department will probably deal more freely with the news media in the future.

"We need to change a lot of things in the criminal justice system, but no man knows all of the answers," he concluded.

LAST WEEK Sam Levenson was on the TV program "What's My Line", and they discussed his new book "In One Era and Out the Other". We have this book in the library and those who have read it say it is quite good.

More donating books: Maxine Tidwell, Mrs. Byrnes and the Dyrle Maples.

More donations: Mr. and Mrs. Buster Tidwell, Mr. and Mrs. David Behrends, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Lee, and a new life member of the Friends Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Killingsworth.

WE HAD 16 at Children's Story Hour and Mrs. Witt and Mrs. Handley told stories and Mrs. Malone served cookies and punch. Mrs. Shive and Mrs. Killingsworth stayed during the Story Hour and helped serve.

Veterans' Services

By BEDFORD W. SMITH
County Service Officer

Tuesday, Nov. 6, 1973, is General Election Day in Texas, and is of particular significance to veterans who reside in the State.

The voters of Texas will this year be asked to vote "for" or "against" a proposal to add $100 million to the Veterans Land Program to finance purchases of farm and ranch lands by eligible veterans. The 1973 General Election ballot will contain a number of constitutional amendment proposals, and this will be Number 7 on the form. The proposal is to increase the Veterans Land program bond issue from $400 million to $500 million.

The Veterans Land Program has been in existence since 1949, and has helped thousands of wartime veterans to purchase farms and ranches. Under the program, a maximum loan of $10,000 may be made to an eligible veteran for the purchase of ten acres or more of rural property. Eligible are persons who served 90 days or more in the Armed Forces of the United States since Sept. 16, 1940, and whose service terminated under other than dishonorable conditions. Included are veterans who were legal residents of Texas at the time they entered service, or who have now been residents for five years or longer.

This program has operated at no cost to the taxpayer and at considerable benefit not only to veterans but to the economy of all Texans. It is one of very few programs ever established which will make a profit for the State. Statisticians have determined that the State of Texas will eventually realize a profit of from $100 to $200 million on the Veterans Land Program.

Every citizen of Texas should exercise his or her right to vote on Nov. 6, 1973, and each should cast his ballot for each candidate or issue in accordance with the dictates of his conscience. But let me urge you to vote for this benefit. Also, veterans who need this low interest small acreage loan see me for details.

A LARGE number of veterans now have a period of less than one year to use their educational assistance benefits which are provided by the Veterans Administration through the GI Bill. Unfortunately, many of these veterans are unaware that they are nearing the end of their eligibility period to use the GI Bill to complete their education.

Veterans who were discharged or released from military service at any time between Feb. 1, 1955 and June 1, 1966 have a period of eight years to use their GI Bill entitlement, and such period commenced on June 1, 1966, the date Public Law 89-358 went into effect. This means that all veterans who got out of service prior to June 1, 1966, will lose their entitlement on May 31, 1974.

Veterans who have been discharged or released from service since June 1, 1966, have a period of eight years from their release to use their GI Bill entitlement to go

Bumper 1973 cotton crop is expected, quality may be average says researcher

The 1973 cotton crop looks good for High Plains producers. The expected bumper crop, due to expanded acreage, uniform earliness of planting and favorable weather conditions, may bring an additional bonus, says a research scientist with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station in Lubbock.

MICRONAIRE values, based on data taken from daily temperature readings, could top 3.5 or higher, he says.

Dr. Jack Gipson, cotton physiologist based at the Texas Research and Extension Center, explains that research shows a strong correlation between the average prevailing temperatures of the late summer months and the fiber quality of High Plains cotton.

"While several factors influence the quality of cotton," he says, "micronaire (a fiber quality measurement) and oil seed content are determined in large part by prevailing temperatures during August, September and early October.

"Of the various fiber quality measurements used in the cotton industry," Gipson explains, "micronaire is of most concern to area producers since it is invariably the limiting quality character for this area.

"MICRONAIRE provides a measure of the maturity of cotton fibers. Although it is not a measure of fiber diameter it is so closely correlated with diameter (or fineness) that it serves the cotton industry as a reliable indication of fiber fineness.

"Cotton prices are based on this quality measurement," he notes. "Producers are paid the greatest prices if their cotton is in the 3.5 to 4.9 range. Reading above or below this range are penalized."

The researcher explains that in practice a particular cotton variety will have the genetic potential to develop fiber with a particular degree of fineness. But if environmental conditions, particularly temperature, are unfavorable, this level may not be achieved.

Such is the case with much of the cotton grown in this area, Gipson adds.

"FOR THE current season," he says, "it appears there will be 32 days with 75 degrees F or below in the critical period. This pegs the current season's micronaire at about 3.5, based on the varieties grown in the past.

"For the current season, however, there has been an appreciable shift to varieties with a higher micronaire potential which will be reflected in a higher overall average," he observes. "Taking these into account, it seems likely that micronaire values may average 3.6 for the 23 county area."

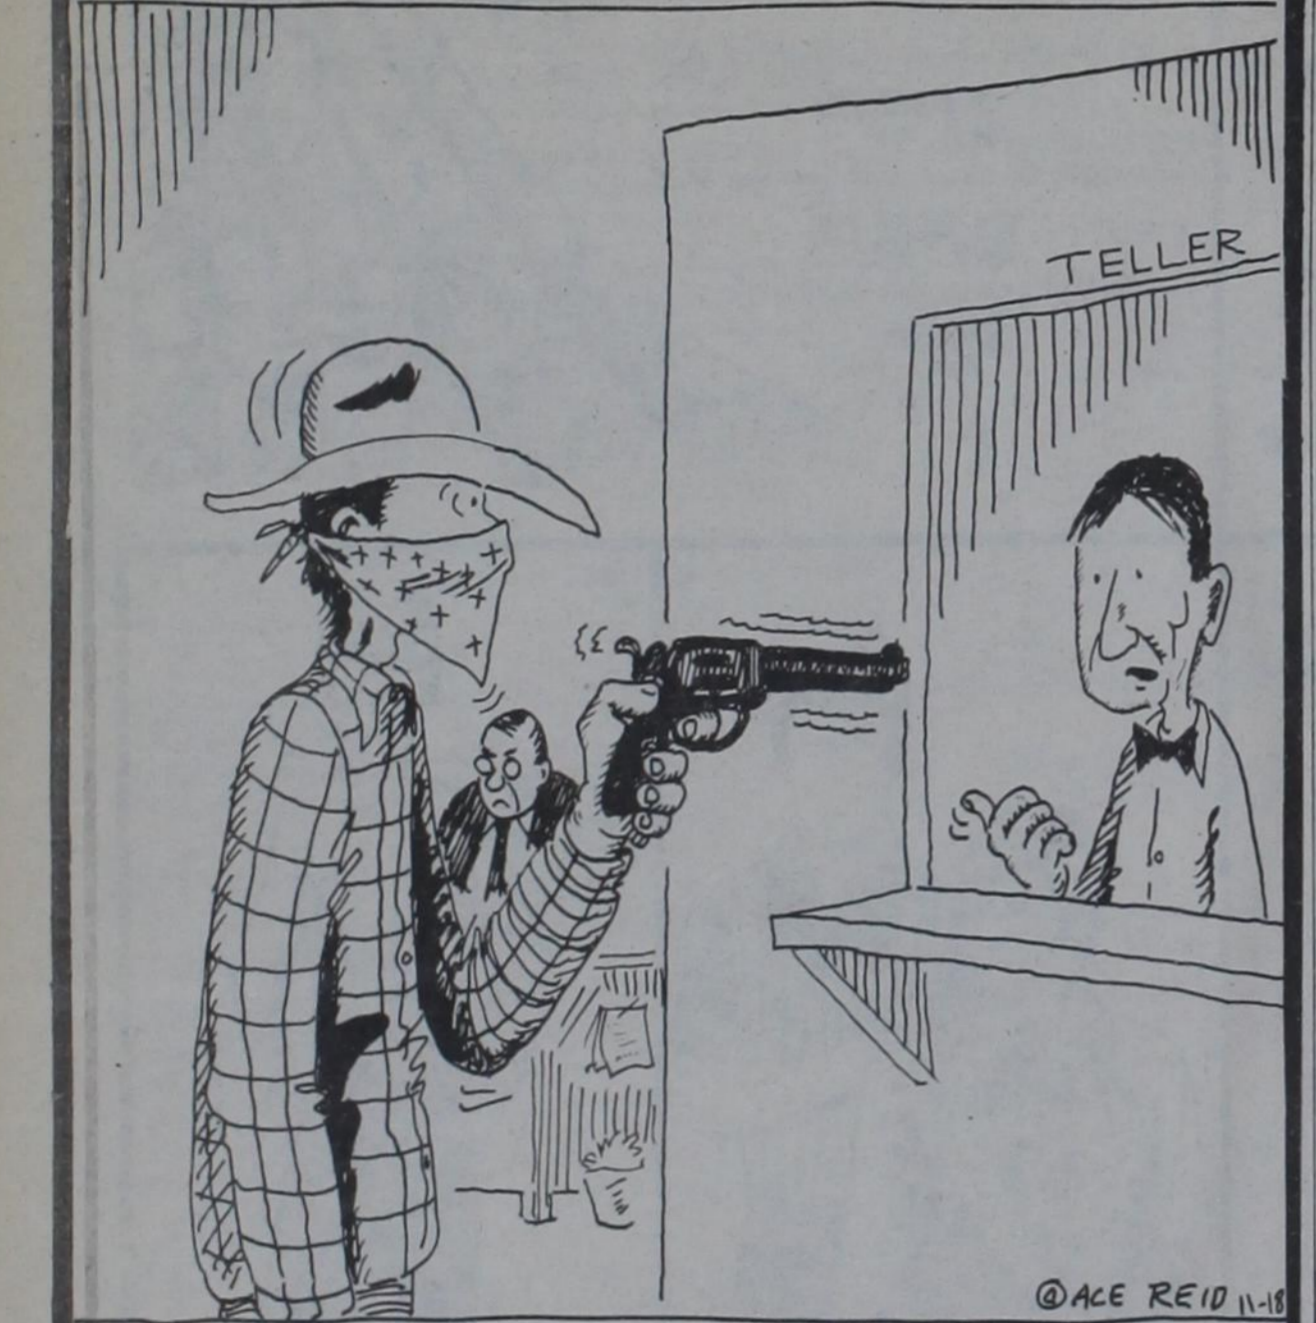

"Extreme micronaire values over the High Plains may range from a low of 2.4 (very fine fiber) to a high of barely over 5.0 (coarse fiber), he explains. The average for the High Plains area from 1957 through 1972 is 3.43."

The scientist reports that the highest micronaire recorded on the High Plains since 1957 was 3.93 in 1958. "In that year there were 37 days between Aug. 1 and Oct. 15 when the average temperatures were 75 degrees F or below.

The lowest value was recorded in 1971, he notes. That average was only 2.91, with 66 days averaging 75 degrees F or less from August first to October fifteenth.

"WHEN YOU get right down to it," Gipson concludes, "higher temperatures during the latter part of the growing season can increase micronaire values and that means money for High Plains producers."

WASHINGTON AND SMALL BUSINESS

AS HEARD BY HEARD

Futility of Fanfare

A substantial number of independent business people complain to the National Federation of Independent Business that the televised hearings on the Watergate scandals have gone far enough.

The basis of these comments appears to be that they are not accomplishing any worthwhile reforms. In this respect, they apparently have a point.

Perhaps the chief lesson of Watergate is the assumption of vast powers over the people of the United States by non-elected, and at times almost anonymous bureaucrats.

A case in point is the recent declaration by one Richard O. Simpson, chairman of the new U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission. He has announced that he is contemplating an edict prohibiting sale of all, or some brands of cigarettes.

This is not to be construed as a defense of cigarettes, but rather a defense of liberty.

There is probably not a man, woman, or child alive in these United States who are not conscious of the fact that cigarettes may be harmful to health. But so can sky-diving, skiing, driving on a freeway on a holiday, swimming in the surf, or eating mushrooms involve danger to health.

The fact remains that millions of people do smoke cigarettes, and are fully conscious that they are perhaps running a risk.

HESSTON ROW HARVESTERS

are the best "Crop Insurance" you can buy!

Save up to 90% of downed crops with a Hesston Row Harvester. In fields considered lost to conventional harvesting methods, the Hesston Row Harvester has demonstrated that it can "save" downed crops. It can pay for itself many times over in just a single drought-lodged field, or one leaning or even flattened by storm.

In normal harvesting conditions the Hesston Row Harvester eliminates reel shatter and "slobber." Experience in the heavy sorghum areas shows that you get more grain with the Row Harvester than you get with straight combining...enough in fact, to more than pay for one quickly.

Easy Adjustment Matches Row Harvester To Crop Conditions

Harvest up to 8 rows of standing or down crops planted as close as 24" or on double rows.

4-H awards program slated

By IRENE KEATING
This is the big week for our 4-Hers as the annual county awards program and supper will be held Saturday night at 7 p.m. at the South Grade School Cafeteria in Dimmitt.

THE HIGHLIGHT of the event will be the revealing of the 1973 Gold Star girl and boy, outstanding 4-H girl and boy and outstanding woman and man leaders. This year about 160 persons (adult and youth) will be recognized for their outstanding work in 4-H.

HERE ARE some interesting facts about working women. In 1920 about 23 percent of the labor force was women and now it's over 43 percent. In 1920 she was 28 years old, single, a factory worker, supporting herself or contributing to the family household. Other jobs available were low-skilled clerical jobs, household labor or farm work. Today's employed woman is 39 years old, married and working in one of 479 jobs. Today more than two out of three women workers have at least a high school education and one in ten are college graduates.

Almost 60 percent of these women are married and 20 percent are widowed, separated or divorced. One of the main reasons women are working is to help supplement family income and make it possible for the family to save money for education or other things they value.

Our Second Biggest Step.

On Oct. 17, Bob, Robert and Charles McLean of the Dimmitt banking family and Wallace Emerson of Dallas purchased controlling interest in the Bank of the Southwest in Amarillo.

With total resources of $26,916,665.29 and total deposits of $24,256,999.05 as of Oct. 17, 1973, the Bank of the Southwest is a little larger than the First State Bank of Dimmitt.

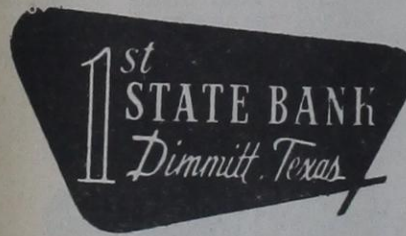

The Oct. 17 transaction was the second biggest business step our banking family has ever taken.

Our biggest step, of course, was the founding of the First State Bank of Dimmitt.

A bank isn't just a holding house for people's money. It is an investor in its customers' dreams, a partner in their future, a gambler on their abilities.

Your success has made our success possible. We thank you for your trust and patronage through the years.

Let's continue to grow and prosper together.

Horns have sweet Homecoming, shut out Kress 28-0

By JIM STEIERT

The Hart Longhorns enjoyed a sweet Homecoming as they avenged last year's penetrations loss to Kress Friday night with a 28-0 shutout of the Kangaroos.

THE LONGHORN defensive unit finally yelled Friday night as they turned in an outstanding performance and thwarted every offensive effort by the Kangaroos.

Tailback Jimmy Brown racked up 183 yards rushing and tallied three touchdowns and a two point conversion to pace the offense. Junior tailback Gilbert Rodriguez also raked for a touchdown, his first of the year.

Hart rolled up a total of 365 yards on offense, compared to a total of 126 for Kress.

The first quarter began as a defensive battle as neither team could move effectively against the other. Hart lost the ball on a fumble, but later James McLain intercepted a Bobby Street pass at the 48, but the Horns were unable to capitalize on the turnover.

LATE IN the first period the Kangaroos drove to the Hart 29, but the Horns held on fourth down and the ball went over.

On the first play after the turnover Jimmy Brown took a handoff and romped 72 yards down the middle of the Kress defense for his first touchdown with 31 seconds remaining in the first quarter. The try for two failed and Hart led 6-0.

The Kangaroos were guilty of clipping following the Hart kick and the penalty set them back to the seven. Unable to move against the fired-up Horn defense, the Kangaroos punted and the ball sailed out of bounds at the Kress 30, giving the Horns excellent field position.

Flanker Barry George moved the ball to the 24 and a piling on penalty against Kress moved it to the 11. Brown picked up six on the next snap, then went the final five for the score with 9:47 remaining in the half. Brown got the call again and fought his way into the end zone for two to up the score to 14-0.

KRESS DROVE to the Hart 15 with the aid of two penalties, following Hart's kickoff, but the determined Horns dug in and held the Kangaroos on four consecutive plays and took over on their own 11.

A delay of game penalty set the Horns back to the six, and the Horns were in big trouble as they were only able to move the ball to the 10 in three plays, but sophomore fullback Terry Hill got the Horns out of trouble as he punched through the middle of the Kangaroo line and moved the ball to the 21 for a first down. The bread-and-butter man consistently gained tough yardage for the Horns all night as he would often appear to be stopped, then break tackles and turn apparent losses into gains.

The Horns drove to the Kress 40 before the ball went over but neither team was able to mount a scoring threat as the half ended.

Kress found the going no easier in the second half as the Kangaroos were only able to move the ball to their own 32 on their first possession of the second half. Hart took over on its own 48 following the Kangaroo punt and the offense went to work.

THE OFFENSIVE line did an outstanding job of getting off the ball quickly and moving defenders out of the play and the Horns quickly moved to the Kress two. From there Jimmy Brown went across for the score with 6:23 remaining in the third period. McLain faked a handoff to Brown and raced to the corner of the end zone for two to up the score to 22-0.

The Kangaroos drove to the Hart 19 following the kickoff, but the shut-out minded Horns denied them a score again and took over.

Hart drove to the 50 before being forced to punt and Kress took over at the 29. The Kangaroos moved to their own 46 but were forced to punt and the Horns took over on their 10. The Horns had to punt again and Kress drove to the Hart 39 before being stopped on fourth down.

McLain, Hill and Rodriguez shared ball carrying duties and quickly moved the ball to the Kress 20, and from there Rodriguez ran for his first touchdown with 50 seconds remaining.

Time To Run to show here

"Time To Run," a new film that is a mixture of problems and solutions, is scheduled to play for two days at the Carlile Theater in Dimmitt Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 13-14. The full-length feature will be shown twice each evening.

FILMED ON location in the Southern California area, "Time To Run" stars Ed Nelson, Randall Carver, Barbara Sigel, Joan Winnill and Gordon Rigsby. Ed Nelson is perhaps best known for his portrayal of Dr. Rossi on television's "Peyton Place." In "Time To Run," Nelson plays Warren Cole, a hard driving success-oriented industrial and scientific engineer who, because of over-involvement with his work, has failed to communicate with his wife Fran, played by Joan Winnill, or their son Jeff, played by screen newcomer Randall Carver.

"Time To Run" allows the viewer to become involved on any one or more of three different levels. Viewed purely as entertainment, it's the suspenseful story of Jeff's attempts at sabotage in the nuclear generating plant, conceived, designed and managed by his father. Jeff strongly feels that the plant is a threat to the environment, and he puts his feelings in action.

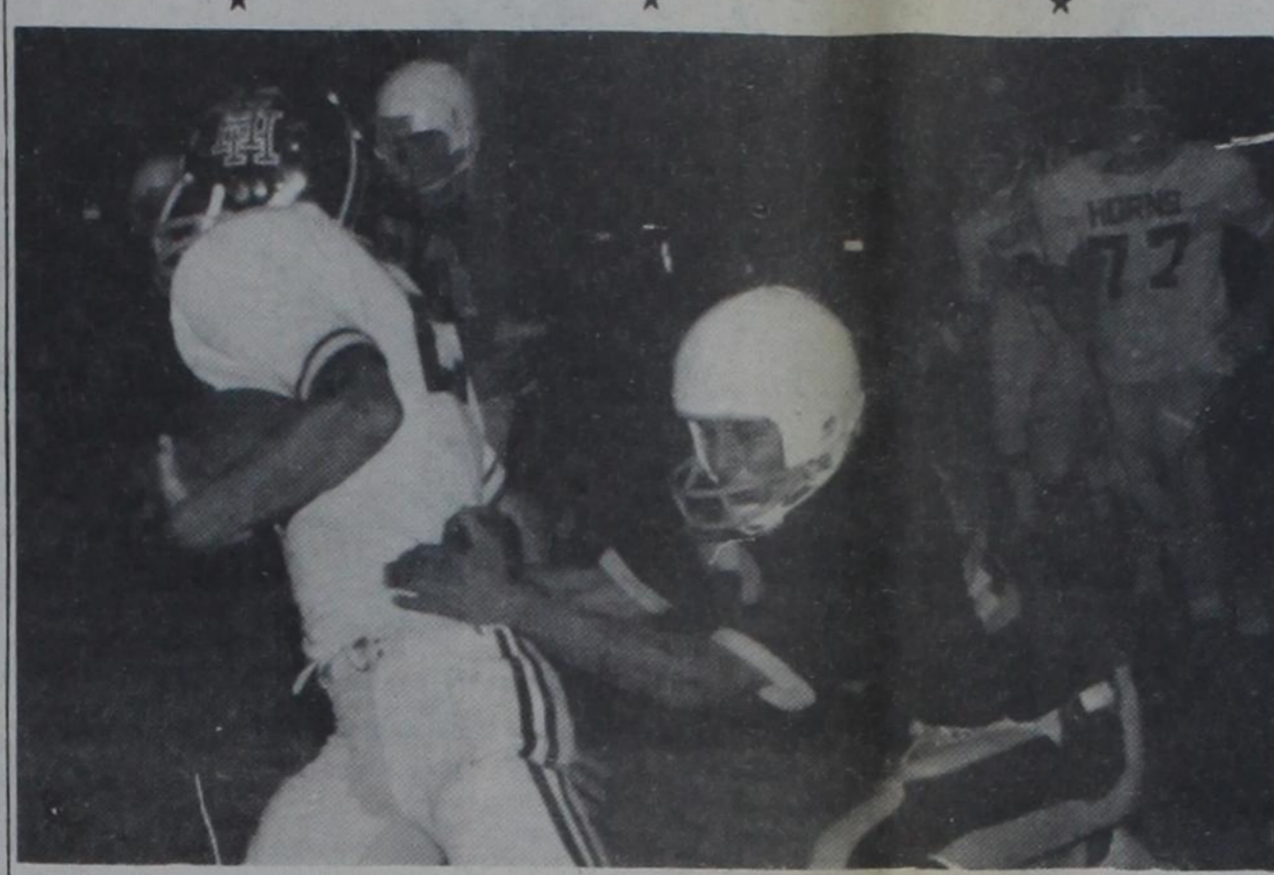

Viewed on an emotional level, "Time To Run" is the deeply moving drama of the conflicts that are tearing a family apart—conflicts that develop between husband and wife, and between father and son. In an attempt to find freedom from the ever-growing hostilities, Jeff takes to the road, hoping to discover some meaning in his confused life.

APPROACHED from a religious perspective, "Time To Run" is also a story of friction between Jeff and his girlfriend, Michelle, played by Barbara Sigel, who is a familiar face to television viewers. Michelle has discovered a spiritual dimension in her life, and this aspect is very confusing to Jeff, who has little time for "a God who would allow war, hatred, and suffering on earth." But his life is shattered by an avalanche of personal problems, and he finds himself at a Jesus people gathering with Michelle, where he glimpses the possibility of a new life-style based on love and understanding.

Regardless of what the viewer draws from the film, "Time To Run" is a film that can help strengthen love relationships between people. It's a film that was made for families to attend together.

ing in the game. The try for two failed and the game ended with the score at 28-0.

GRAB 'EM—A Kress tackler grabs Hart quarterback James McLain from behind and wrestles him out of bounds after McLain has picked up good yardage on a keeper in Friday night's Homecoming game at Hart. Following the play is Hart's Cecil Jackson, 77.

A large Homecoming crowd had a lot to cheer about as the balanced Longhorn offense tallied 28 points while a tenacious Horn defense denied the Kangaroos a score.

Matadors down Swifts

By MARTHA CATOE

District 2-B's top team, the Matador Matadors downed the Nazareth Swifts 28-6 Friday night at Matador, but the Swifts proved to be tougher than either the polls or the scoreboard showed. The Matadors, 42 point favorites going into the tilt, found the rugged Nazareth defense a little more than they had bargained for as the Swifts held them scoreless for almost the entire second half.

THE MATADORS scored twice early in the first period. Cleddell Campbell scampered 35 yards for the first score, but the Matadors failed on an attempt for two extras.

Troy Taylor came back to score on a 31 yard run and quarterback Steve Stevens carried on the two point conversion. Less than four minutes had elapsed.

The Swifts regrouped and came on strong defensively. The Matador offense was stymied until the last 30 seconds of the first half when Cleddell Campbell scored on a ten yard run. The try for two was stopped short and the teams retired at the half with Matador leading 20-0.

The Swifts scored early in the second half on a ten yard run by Pete Gonzales. Gonzales' score capped a 67 yard drive engineered by Charles Heck, who stepped into the quarterback slot from his position at wingback.

THE SWIFTS attempted a two point conversion, but it was unsuccessful.

The outgunned Swifts dug in during the second half and thwarted every Matador scoring effort until the final 27 seconds of the game.

Aided by two 15 yard penalties, the Matadors moved to the Swift 12, and from there quarterback Steve Stevens scored on a 12 yard run. Stevens caught a pass from J. D. Hurt for the two point conversion and the game ended with the score 28-6.

Pete Gonzales paced the

James McLain, Randy Finch, Kent Irons, Mario Martinez, Sonny and Freddy Mancias, Danny Carson, Barry George

and Jimmy Brown all turned in outstanding defensive performances for the Horns. Sophomore fullback Terry Hill thrilled the partisan crowd with powerful running as he turned in a sparkling performance offensively.

Tomorrow (Friday) night the Longhorns take on the Springlake-Earth Wolverines at Springlake.

The Wolverines have size and quickness and senior halfback Pete Rodriguez has 10 flat speed in the 100. Directing the Wolverine Veer attack is Hal Wood, a fine District 3-A quarterback last year.

THE WOLVERINES also boast a potential all-stater in Brian Britton, 295 pound senior tackle.

Competition between the Wolverines and the Longhorns is always spirited, and fans can expect a good, hard-hitting game.

The Horns go into the contest with a 6-2 season record. The defense showed tremendous improvement against Kress and head coach Lonnie Phillips pointed out that the tilt against Kress was the first game his team has played with a good deal of emotion this season.

The Longhorn secondary, which has been a bit porous this season, solidified Friday as the Horns effectively shut off the long pass and gave up short gainers only grudgingly. Outstanding pressure from the defensive line was also effective in shutting out the Kangaroo passing game.

PHILLIPS CAN be proud of the speed with which his linebackers have learned to play their positions. Juniors Mario Martinez and Kent Irons are reading plays effectively and have begun to seal off the inside runs.

Nazareth goes into the tilt with a 1-6 record. The Roughnecks have posted a 3-4 mark for the season thus far.

Sundown has been faced with some of the same problems as Nazareth. The Roughnecks lack size and have only a small number of experienced returnees.

The Swifts, looking for their second win of the season, put on an impressive defensive show against the explosive Matador offense Friday night. Although the scores of past games would indicate that the Swifts have suffered one-sided defeats, bad breaks have cost them several victories and possibly a couple of victories this season.

THE ROUGHNECKS will meet a determined Nazareth defense as they go into tomorrow night's game.

Harvest finishing up

By MRS. AGNES BROCKMAN

We're still having nice weather here, and the farmers have been very busy getting their crops in. Some are all together finished and most of the others will probably finish up this week. We are very dry at present, and the wheat really needs some moisture.

SEVERAL COUPLES from Nazareth attended the American Legion Convention in Amarillo Saturday and Sunday. Those attending were the Francis Wilhelms, Albert Hartmanns, Ed Raemakers, Junior Hochsteins, and Gilbert Schulte. Mrs. Francis Wilhelm was elected vice president of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Albert Venhaus is very sick in High Plains Hospital in Amarillo. He is scheduled to have surgery Tuesday morning.

Ann Kern returned home Monday from Plains Memorial Hospital in Dimmitt after having surgery last week. Larry Acker, son of the Fred Ackers, is still in the hospital at Dimmitt after breaking his leg a couple of weeks ago. He is doing quite well and hopes he can be home pretty soon.

MRS. ANNIE Hilvers, Mrs. Eleanor Hillvers and children from Clovis, N.M. had dinner with the Paul Venhaus family Sunday. Also attending the dinner and spending the afternoon with them were Mr. and Mrs. George Venhaus and girls from Happy, Helen Backus and Agnes Brockman.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Steffens and baby from Dallas spent last weekend with Sybil Steffens. On Saturday they also went to Friona to visit Mr. and Mrs. Greg Venhaus and family.

The Dennis Warrens also visited their folks the Paul Warrens over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Hoelting and family from Amarillo spent Saturday and Sunday with the Frank Hoeltings and Tony Gerbers.

Rose Hindman and Elizabeth Britting from Amarillo spent last week in Dallas at the home of Mrs. Britting's daughter.

MRS. MARIE Hanson and daughter Agnes, also Mrs. Dan Koeltzer and Anna Marie attended the wedding of Andrew Hanson and Beth White of Kenton, Okla. on Oct. 21. They will make their home at Boise City, Okla.

Miss Beth White graduated from Memorial Hospital School of Vocational Nursing Sept. 27 at Dumas. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hanson visited in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Koeltzer and family of Bovina, also Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Hanson and girls at Dimmitt and his mother Mrs. Marie Hanson, over the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hoelting spent Sunday in Anarillo at the Eddie Venhaus home.

Texas teachers form action arm for state improvements

Texas teachers have formed a new statewide political action arm to work for improvements in public education.

THE TEXAS Educators Political Action Council (TEPAC), an independent arm of the 157,000-member Texas State Teachers Association, was officially organized in Austin recently by a majority of the TSTA executive committee acting as individuals.

TSTA Pres. Johnny Clark said the Council is comparable to those formed by the Texas Medical Association and other professional groups.

"Educators realize that, more and more, educational decisions are controlled by political decisions," Clark said. "Those in education must, therefore, participate in those political decisions."

TEPAC will raise its own funds through voluntary contributions and membership. It will neither receive nor expend funds of TSTA.

THE TEPAC "articles of association" describe the organization as follows:

"TEPAC is a non-profit, unincorporated, multi-partisan political committee organized for the purpose of advancing public education in Texas.

"In carrying out this stated purpose, TEPAC shall encourage all educators to exercise their basic political rights, shall support candidates and nominees for public office without regard to party affiliation, and shall encourage the people of Texas to vote on matters submitted to the people according to the needs of public education.

"TEPAC shall solicit contributions and make all decisions on the expenditures of TEPAC funds."

TSTA MEMBERS long have been active in Texas politics at the local level, but the effort has been spotty and there has been no formal statewide organization for this purpose. A number of local teacher political action arms have been operating, the oldest one being in Bexar County.

Creation of a statewide political arm for TSTA has been under consideration for more than a year by a special committee headed by Mrs. Carolyn Harrell, a Gonzales teacher.

Clark said that at least four factors led to formation of TEPAC:

- Spontaneous formation of

CROWNED HOMECOMING QUEEN at Hart High School Friday night was Becky Miller, HHS senior. Her escorts include David Armstrong, left and Brent Lemons.

the local groups, with the need for coordination;

- reform legislation enacted by the 63rd Texas Legislature this year, severely limiting what TSTA can do as a corporation;

- failure of the 63rd legislature to enact legislation to improve public school finance;

- impetus by the National Education Association, which has such a national group to coordinate state activities.

A 35-member board of trustees, made up of those actively engaged in public education in Texas, will manage TEPAC, whose headquarters will be in Austin. At least three-fourths of the board must be classroom teachers.

THE BOARD, which is not yet organized, will include the president, president elect, and immediate past president of TSTA; Mrs. Harrell, representing the TSTA legislative committee; and one member from each of the 31 Texas state senatorial districts.

Water systems seek new base

Vital services insuring growth and development in rural Texas is the driving force behind leaders of non-profit water systems attempting to gain passage of Amendment Nine appearing on the Nov. 6 ballot.

"WE'VE SPENT the past weeks informing our membership of the importance of this vote and now we invite our urban neighbors to join in voting for Amendment Nine next Tuesday," stated Bob Elder, president of the Texas Association of Rural Water Corporations. Elder referred to the fact that 300,000 eligible voters are members of the non-profit rural water systems and he urges each of them to vote Nov. 6.

"A major problem exists for Amendment Nine in the State's urban areas," Elder commented. He pointed out that Houston alone is expected to have a quarter of a million voters go to the polls Nov. 6 and "giving those individuals ample information on Amendment Nine is a great hill to climb."

The non-profit rural water systems are seeking, through Amendment Nine, to place their systems on the same tax base as the urban municipal systems. "We operate much in the same manner as a municipal system except we are in the sparsely populated rural areas and we are taxed," Elder said. He continued, "The non-profit rural water systems are vital to the State's continued growth and development and we feel an obligation to make certain that agriculture production continues to be highly efficient to allow the cost of food to remain as low as possible."

PEP SQUAD KING—Jimmy Brown, Hart High School junior was crowned pep squad king during a pinning ceremony Friday morning at Hart. Other candidates included James McLain, George Hernandez, Cecil Jackson and Gilbert Rodriguez.

Greetings Comrades,
Next Monday night, Nov. 5, we will have our regular meeting. Starting time is 8:00 p.m. We are closed for regular business and only members will be admitted. At the meeting we will finalize our Veterans' Day activities slated for Nov. 11. Won't you please make an effort to be there? You'll enjoy it, I'm sure, plus you'll find it very informative. Keep in mind, Comrades, our good Ladies Auxiliary provides a covered dish supper immediately after the meeting, so you don't have to eat supper before you come out.

COMRADES, our Post Custodian, Howard Cook, reports that the dance last Saturday night was most successful and everyone attending seemed to have a most enjoyable time. I would like to mention that our membership is now 135 members paid to date. Do you realize that is only 28 members shy of our quota of 163 members? Comrades, if you have not paid your 1974 dues or if you know of someone that hasn't, please make an effort to do so and encourage others to do this. This is our 75th anniversary year and we most definitely want it to be one to be remembered. The best way to do this is to do everything in record time and record numbers. The National VFW has set up a program whereby anyone who signs up a new or reinstated member will be eligible for a drawing. First prize is a trip to Hawaii, second a Cadillac car, third a new Oldsmobile and eight color television sets. Every time you sign up a new or reinstated member your name goes in the pot for the drawing. So let's get out there and hustle you might be a lucky winner.

SAY, PEOPLE, if you didn't attend the Ladies Auxiliary Course presented by Larry McLendon of the Texas Dept. of Public Safety, you certainly missed a good program. This was a two day, 8 hour course and we learned many facets of safe driving, and by attending in husband and wife teams we will be able to get a ten percent reduction on our auto insurance. Due to public response we will probably have the program again in the future, so keep your eye on the newspaper and I'll let you know at the earliest date possible.

COMRADES, did you read your Texas VFW News that is mailed to you each month from Dept. Headquarters in Austin? If you did then you noticed how our Dist. 13 made headlines on page 5 since we were leading in Division II through the month of September. Needless to say I am most proud of the work our good Comrades in District 13 are doing and I sure hope we make it to the number one spot in district standings.

State FHA president speaks at Nazareth FHA banquet

Annette Reznik, state FHA president told a crowd of over 100 Nazareth High School students and their parents Saturday night that the young people of today tend to forget their responsibilities at times, but they must accept their responsibility to lead this land on.

MISS REZNIK was guest speaker at the Nazareth FHA Best Beau Banquet Saturday at the Nazareth School Cafeteria.

A student at Friona High School, Miss Reznik told her audience that their first responsibility at this time is to their country.

"In my travels with the FHA I have seen many people laughing at patriotism. I doubt if those before us would have given their lives for this country; if they could see the current apathy," she said. "A walk through Arlington Cemetery is touching when you realize that all these men died for freedom," she added.

She told her audience that if the youth of today cannot become leaders, a situation of hopelessness, despair and confusion will prevail.

"WE ARE all becoming old enough to vote, and when we begin to vote we should make a big thing out of it, remembering that when we vote there are several candidates and we should give each one consideration," she said.

Miss Reznik told her audience that the responsibility of preparing to establish homes and raise children in the future is probably one of the greatest responsibilities of life.

"The home is the backbone of our nation, we must have good homes for our nation to endure. All the priceless things we have on earth come from the home, we must start now and promise to make future homes ones which will be filled with warmth, faith, security and trust, we must put the home above money, fame and self," she said.

Miss Reznik concluded by pointing out that all responsibilities are linked with brotherhood, and that individuals should consider what is in the hearts and minds of their fellow men.

Wilson to conduct 1974 spelling bee for county

County Judge Raymond E. Wilson will direct the 1974 Spelling Bee for Castro County. THE AMARILLO Globe-News and West Texas State University have joined forces for the word contest in preparation for the 46th National Bee to be held in Washington, D.C. in June.

Students in public and parochial schools are invited to compete.

All rules are established by the Scripps-Howard Newspapers, national sponsors. Any student who will not have reached his 16th birthday or gone beyond the eighth grade by June 1, 1974, is eligible to enter.

Directors in the 46-county area, including 26 Texas counties, 10 in Oklahoma, four in New Mexico and three in Kansas, have complete control over their respective contests and may conduct them either orally or as written tests. The Amarillo regional event will be oral competition.

ORDERS FOR the 1974 copy of "Words of the Champions", a study book used in most school and county contests may be placed by writing, Spelling Bee Editor, Amarillo Globe-News, P. O. Box 2091, Amarillo, 79166. The price of the study book is 25 cents.

The 1973 champion from Castro County was Twila Ball, a student from Nazareth.

The junior champion was Patricia Kern, also of Nazareth.

Only the Amarillo-WTSU area conducts a secondary bee for students in the sixth and lower grades. The county junior winners will be special guests of the sponsors in Amarillo on April 27, but will not compete unless he has won both divisions in his respective county.

A LIST of all prizes will be made available at a later date.

Jack Edmondson, head of the special services department at WTSU, is bee coordinator. Mrs. Jeane Bartlett is Spelling Bee Editor.

All county champions must be named no later than March 30, 1974 in order to compete in the regional contest in Amarillo on April 27, 1974.

Interested students, teachers and school officials may contact the Globe News for additional information.

The youngster who takes first place in the regional bee will receive an all-expense trip to Washington for himself and a chaperone, courtesy of the Amarillo Globe-News. He will take part in the 47th national event where the top award will be $1,000 cash.

WTSU offering speakers bureau

Looking for a speaker or program for your club or organization?

THE NEWEST service being offered by West Texas State University's dedication to the Golden Spread is a Speakers Bureau. There is no charge for the service.

"We have people on campus with a wide variety of experiences, knowledge and background," says Keith Winter, new director of development. "We want to be able to share that with citizens of the Golden Spread."

The WTSU Speakers Bureau will involve approximately one-half of the university administration, faculty and staff personnel with more than 300 topics available for presentation.

"Our people are volunteering their time and expertise to bring programs of interest to civic, church, school, professional and other organizations throughout the region," Winter says.

"A BROCHURE is being prepared for mailing to various clubs and organizations throughout the Golden Spread detailing what the Speakers Bureau has to offer," he adds.

For information regarding the Speakers Bureau, write the WTSU Department of Public Information, Canyon, 79016.

BLENDERS turn throw-away foods into nutrition boosters. Cook tough ends of asparagus, broccoli or carrots until tender in a meat stock or water, and blend into a soup or sauce base, suggests Lynn Bourland, home management specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service.
