

Roundup Week To Kickoff Saturday

Castro County's second annual Roundup Week will kick off Saturday evening with the contest for "Miss Grain Sorghum of the Nation."

The celebration will continue for seven big days with contests, fireworks, a parade, singing, dancing, sky-diving, an old settler's reunion, barbecues pony shows, art exhibits trap shoots and a big three-day rodeo.

Activities are scheduled every day, and meetings are being held nearly every night among Roundup Week officials to iron out last-minute details of the ambitious week-long festival.

Throughout the county, people entering in next Thursday's parade, expect it to be the largest her in years.

Meanwhile, workers and committee chairmen are buying, borrowing and scrounging the materials and talent that will go into their part of the 16-event celebration.

For next Thursday's barbecue, co-chairmen Maurice Campbell and Dale Carmichael have ordered enough beef, beans, bread and drinks to feed around 600. Tickets to the barbecue will be available at the door at 5:30 p.m. Thursday evening.

The barbecue will be cooked in an underground pit by V. C. Hopson. The beans will be cooked in open iron kettle over camp fire.

Dimmitt Rodeo Association, Inc., sponsor of the three-day Roundup Rodeo, announces this week that the "All Around Cowboy" will be awarded a sterling silver belt buckle in addition to prize money. Fifty dollars will be added to the saddle bronc riding purse.

Events to be featured at 8 p.m. each evening, Thursday, Friday and Saturday include saddle bronc riding, bareback riding, bull riding, tie-down calf roping, bull dogging, barrel racing and calf scramble for children. No entry fee will be charged for the calf scramble.

Stock will be furnished by Glen Green of Amarillo.

Rodeo dance will be held each night at 9 p.m. following the performances. Dance will be in Catholic Community Center. Music will be furnished by Don Allen and his Sunset Ramblers.

Roundup Week Pony Show has been scheduled for 4:30 p.m. at the Dimmitt ball park. All Castro County youngsters are invited to exhibit their horses and ponies at this county pony show, states Mrs. Bill Swindle, chairman of Pony Show. Awards will be given to winning entries.

It's seldom that people from different churches get a chance to sing together, but they'll have their chance Wednesday night during the old fashioned hymn singing, to be held at 8 p.m. on the courthouse square under direction of Rev. Johnny Burnett.

For those enjoying art, there will be an exhibition of local artists' work throughout the week at old lumber building north of Bruegel Elevator on Highway 385, announces Theo Campbell, Chairman of Art Show.

Exhibition times are Saturday, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Monday and Tuesday, 2 p.m. to 6 p.m.; Thursday, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.; and Friday and Saturday, 2 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Anyone interested in Frontier Costumes are urged to attend the Frontier Costume Contest to be held at 2 p.m. next Thursday on the courthouse steps during the Old Settler's Reunion. This event is sponsored by the Dimmitt Jaycee-Ettes. Everyone is invited to participate in the contest. Trophies will be awarded to the "Best Dressed" man and woman.

The ambitious Roundup Week is being completely sponsored by the Castro County Activities Committee. To help defray expenses, the Committee uses proceeds made from the Rhodes Carnival, which appears here twice yearly.

Full day of Roundup Week will treat people to the annual Old Settlers Reunion, Frontier Costume contest, parade, pony show, barbecue, opening of rodeo and a rodeo dance. But every day of Roundup Week will feature a major event. If you're looking for entertainment of any variety, just check the schedule of events, pay your money, and take your choice.

Old Fashion Hymn Singing Scheduled For Wednesday

One of the events which attracted the most people last year during Roundup Week was the Old Fashion Hymn Singing.

This important event has been scheduled for Wednesday night of Roundup Week and will be under the direction of Rev. Johnny Burnett. Hymn time starts at 8 p.m. on the courthouse square.

"We are in need of special numbers for the singing", says Burnett. All the churches in the County are asked to participate and work up a special number. The songs can be performed by solo, duet, trio, quartet or any number of singers according to Burnett.

If your church has a special group of singers or a singer contact Johnny Burnett at 647-3224 during business hours or at his home, 647-3927.

Order of the program will be hymn singing by the congregation interspersed with special numbers from the various churches says Burnett.

Mrs. Phyllis Mooney will be pianist for the songfest. Mrs. Keith Howard will be at the organ.

If you wish to attend the Old Fashion Singing, please bring something to sit on, blanket, quilt or folding chair.

Sunday's Program Will Feature Skydives, Air Rides, Barbecue

A special fly-in barbecue and air show sponsored by the Dimmitt Jaycees, will be the main event Sunday as Castro County Roundup Week enters its second day.

Celebrants will cast their eyes to the sky and their appetites toward hefty plates of barbecue, beans, potato salad as sky divers from Fort Hood, local pilots stunt flying and Dan True offer a thrilling air show above Dimmitt Airport north of town.

Between sky dives and plane hops those attending will queue up at the barbecue table as chief Rayphard Smithson and his co-workers serve 1,200 lbs. of pit cooked beef, 100 lbs. of red beans with hambocks and heaping bowls of potato salad. For those extra hungry people, the Jaycees are offering all the barbecue they can consume, it will be polite to eat second, third, and even fourth or more refills.

The open pit barbecue will be cooked all night over live coals and saturated with special Jaycees barbecue sauce according to Rayphard Smithson, chief cook. The Jaycees plan to start cooking at 4 p.m. Saturday until serving time Sunday.

Another added attraction will be in Fred Bruegel, Jr., will prepare the Red Hill with 12 hambocks over an open camp fire in a cast iron kettle. Jaycee-Ettes will be peeling hundreds of potatoes in preparation for the pounds and pounds of potato salad that will be served. Buckets and buckets of ice cold tea will be proffered to the Sunday diners. Jaycee-Ettes will assist the Jaycees in serving the meal.

Highlighting the air show will be free-falls by members of the Fort Hood Skydiving Club. These men will attempt to conquer the famous High Plains wind as they jump from high-flying planes, fall hundreds of feet through the air, then pull their rip-cords and attempt to guide their parachutes to target marks at the airport.

Also on tap will be Dan True, Channel 10-TV, Amarillo with his Pre-World War II Fairchild. He will be offering rides to passengers and taking up the skydivers for their tremendous jumps.

Rayphard Smithson, chairman of the Dimmitt Jaycee Air Show Day committee, said those who wish to get a bird's eye view of the nation's grain sorghum capitol may purchase airplane rides on a first-come, first-served basis. Most of the planes at the airport will see duty during the all afternoon show, Bruegel said.

Local pilots will be giving spectators a thrill as they do some stunt flying for the Air Show Day.

The Jaycees are trying to arrange for a fly-over of jets from Cannon Air Force Base in Clovis, N. M. This show has not been confirmed yet.

The fourth day of the gala Roundup Week will start with a colorful display of streaming stars, bursting rockets and booming reports as the annual fireworks display gets underway at 8:30 p.m. in the Dimmitt rodeo arena.

Water Polo To Be Big Event During Roundup

For a quick cool-off during hot weather, there is the game of water polo. This will be one of the main events scheduled Monday at 4 p.m. of Roundup Week.

Game will be run according to national rules of water polo says Guy Waldrop, Fire Marshal.

Rules are:

1. Start on signal.
2. No pinching of hoses.
3. No squirting of each other with water hose on purpose.
4. Judge placed on each end of line.
5. No time limit. Play until one team gets the ball to their opponents' far side.

Violation of any above rules will automatically disqualify the team. They will lose the match.

Dimmitt fireboys will "wet the hose" or give a short demonstration of how to play the match. Water polo was originally set up to help firemen become accurate in hitting an object 75 feet or more above them without an excess of water being sprayed elsewhere.

Women are eligible to participate in this "wet fun." Bring your bath-

SPORTS AFIELD

By Ted Kesting

It was once believed that the light of the full moon spoiled the flesh of a fish. To protect his catch, a surf fisherman would bury it in moist sand. Today, the full-moon theory is considered ridiculous — but anglers still cover their bules and stripers with wet sand, at least when they are fishing under a hot summer sun. This an old belief has evolved and remained useful.

The theory that the rays of a lamp striking the surface of the water at night will scare off fish still persists in New England. Here there seems to be some modern proof that light on the surf spoils the night beach fishing. But in the South, where there is considerable fishing done at night from the bridges and piers, nearly every fisherman uses a lantern suspended over the water to attract baitfish — which in turn attract larger fish. A lighted flashlight put in a sealed bottle and lowered to the bottom will often act better than a chum pot for night fishing.

We have learned from the experience of various anglers that any disturbance on or in the water will frighten fish in some instances and attract certain species of fish at other times. The old, experienced salmon anglers of Europe found that by stoning a pool they could cause inactive salmon to strike. It is a fairly common practice of southern sea trout anglers to use popping floats to draw trout to their baits. Some market fishermen strike the surface of the water with long, slender bamboo poles to simulate a school of baitfish. This, in turn, attracts the desired quarry.

"The more you fish, the more you realize how little solid information is available on the habits and feeding characteristics of marine fish," ponders Robert D. Hall, Salt-Water Fishing Editor of Sports Afield Magazine. Why certain fish will strike a particular color today and refuse it tomorrow in favor of another is difficult to understand. There is little doubt that fish have various degrees of intelligence, and whether or not they can distinguish colors or shades of colors, they certainly seem to know what they like.

Fireworks —

A weeping willow shell will eject branches of prismatic fire outward and downward toward the ground in brilliant green to delight the spectators' eyes.

Three Chrysanthemum shells will fill the air with a quantity of golden streamers, then suddenly a loud break will be heard, and a Japanese Chrysanthemum in full boom will be released.

After giving the first report, the Silver Mist shell, will repeat again, throwing out silver threads among the golden heavens.

Shower of Pearl shells will open with a loud sound when shooting skyward, it will then open with one solid sheet of golden glitter of fire.

Two comet shells will release forty comets with great force in mid-air leaving long trails of golden fire and tints of cloudland with the beautiful colors of sunset.

There will be many more colorful shells which will be set off to delight the viewers.

The show will end with a grand finale consisting of 300 shot machine gun battery and the ground will be filled with bright lights and detonations.

So for a colorful evening of fun and enjoyment bring the kids and attend the annual fireworks display to be followed by an exhibition square dance Tuesday night of Roundup Week.

Special notice will be given to the Old Settler who has traveled the greatest distance for the Reunion and also to the oldest person attending the Reunion.

Castro County's pioneers will gather on the courthouse lawn for registration at 10 a.m. next Thursday, and will eat basket lunches at noon, with tables, chairs, drinks and bread furnished by the Chamber of Commerce. The main program will start at 1 p.m.

The building will be open from 2 to 5 p.m. each afternoon. A painting by a member of Dimmitt Art Guild will be given away at 5 p.m. Saturday, August 15, as a door prize.

Mr. Larry Hilburn, artist from Amarillo, will hold classes this fall in Dimmitt on Thursday nights. The Dimmitt Art Guild members are very pleased at this opportunity to study under such an accomplished artist.

be given individual prizes, their class will receive the prize. Grades 1-6 will receive individual prizes.

At 4 p.m., Monday another hilarious contest will open when the Dimmitt Volunteer Fire Dept. sponsors its water polo match in front of city hall. With slickers on their backs, fire-hats on their heads and hoses in their hands, fireboys and the "Pigeons" they line up as teammates will square off and try to nozzel a volleyball over or around their opponents. Other challengers include Jaycees versus KDHN disc jockeys according to Jimmy Presley, president of Jaycees.

The water polo game will be run by the national water polo rules. More challengers are needed for teams. It takes two per team.

Spectators without swim suits will have to maintain a respectable distance.

Another contest involves kids, and their ponies. The pony show will be at Dimmitt Baseball park, and animals will be judged in three different classes of ponies and big horses — mares, geldings, and colts youngsters will ride their ponies before the judge. All Castro County youngsters are eligible to participate in the show, and ribbons will be awarded in all categories. Each class of horses will ride through a given course says Mrs. Bill Swindle, chairman of the Pony Show. Age limit for entering the contest is 19 years.

One of the biggest contests scheduled during the week is the Roundup Rodeo, which will run for three nights starting at 8 p.m. next Thursday. A rodeo dance will follow each night's performance.

Rodeo contestants will be competing for money and silver belt buckle. Events include saddle bronc riding, bareback bronc riding, bull riding, tie down calf roping, bull dogging, barrel racing and calf scramble for the kids.

The Roundup Parade next Thursday will involve a contest, also, with riding clubs, civic groups, business firms, communities and organizations competing for trophies.

A trap shoot which tests accuracy of the gunmen will be held Saturday, August 14 at 1 p.m. on Western Circle Drive. According to Gerald Harden, chairman of the Shoot, merchandise and money will be awarded to winners.

Frontier Costume contest will be held next Thursday at 2 p.m. on the courthouse steps following the Old Settlers' Reunion. Jaycee-ettes are in charge of this contest. A trophy will be awarded to the best-dressed man and woman in early-day attire. And of course, one of the biggest contests of them all is coming up Saturday at 7:30 p.m. — the contest for Miss Grain Sorghum of the Nation.

Hi folks! The two firemen that attended Firemen's Training School at Texas A & M University this past week have returned.

We had one fire last Friday, July 30 at Mrs. Hackleman's place east of Dimmitt, farmed by Ray Robertson.

Mr. Robertson's men were burning weeds with a weed burner when the hose came loose, the butane ignited at the end of the hose causing it to get out of control and hit one of the men directly with the flame. He had 3rd degree burns over most of his body. He was taken to the hospital where he died several hours later.

Any kind of accident can happen and we wonder why. If a little more time and precaution are taken to see that the hose does not catch on something to cause it to pull loose we might avoid such an accident.

Our new fire truck is here but we are waiting to have a State check made before we can put it into operation. The truck is a vie-man cab, custom built, Howe truck withan 817 cubic inch motor. We want to thank the city commission, Mayor and patrons of Dimmitt for this piece of equipment. We know it will be ready when we need something in a hurry.

This will help the people as a whole through their insurance rates by having a truck that will pass the pumping test. It will earn approximately 3 per cent on our key rate. We will be practicing with this truck soon. If you haven't seen this truck come by the Fire Station and see it. The firemen are proud to show it off.

The drill for Thursday, August 5 will be our reguar business meeting.

H-D NOTES

By Rebecca A. Gaddis County Home Demonstration Agent

Six tired, but happy, Castro County delegates returned from 4-H Electric Camp near Clouderoft last Friday afternoon. Attending were Carolyn Simpson, Rodney Hutto, Ronnie Burks, Lewis Heck and the county extension agents.

Each can certainly give a vivid account of all the happenings - including the rain, two buses getting stuck, the appearance of several bears near the campsite, as well as the classes and recreation participated in by all.

You know, some of us have a tendency to scan, or perhaps not even open, unsealed or franked envelopes. This often includes mimeographed letters and other material containing vital information.

Speaking as one who has the privilege of using franked envelopes and cards, I encourage you to always investigate the contents of such mail that you receive.

Often I send out as many as 150 copies of one letter. In order to save time, these letters are often mimeographed. However, they are just as important as individually typed letters and contain timely information.

So, again, please open and read all mail that you receive.

Featured on the plentiful foods list of the U. S. Department of Agriculture are fresh plums. Also included are grapes, frozen concentrated orange juice, and broilers.

For some of the very best in summer eating and an aid to the family food budget attach these items to your August shopping lists now.

The new fall fabrics almost dare you to guess the fiber content without reading their labels.

Washables such as cotton, acrylics, nylons, and silks are disguised with coatings, bondings, and new kinds of knitting processes to achieve a new look.

For example, nylon is textured to achieve the look, feel, and bright colors of silk.

Jersey achieves a frosted look with a blend of Antron and Orion acrylic fibers. Other acrylic fiber fabrics masquerade as wools and worsteds in tartan plaid, herringbone, and blanket-check patterns. These fibers have the construction and feel of wools, are wrinkle resistant, permanently pleated and are completely washable.

A cotton-blend has been developed with its texture woven in for permanence, instead of just stamped.

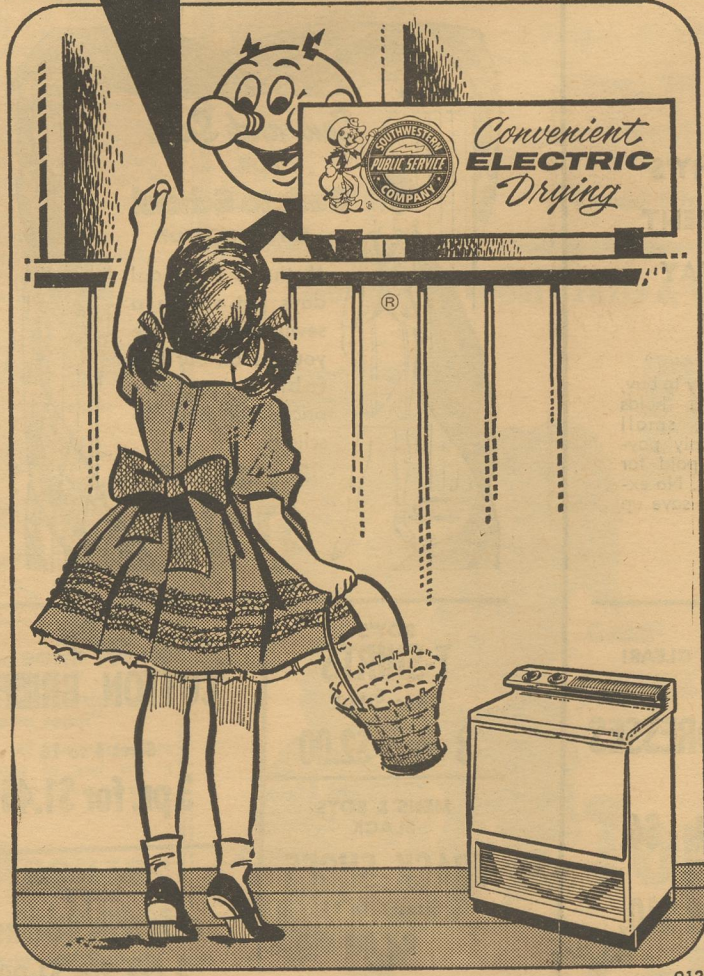

Even silk has been transformed by a cure process which gives fabric the wet look of vinyl. This new silk is waterproof, crackproof, easy to manipulate and completely washable.

about dimmitt and castro county

by b. m. n.

Round-Up Week pushed this column, if it turns out to be a column, off the front page this week. I am happy to relinquish the space, however, for Dimmitt's biggest special events week of the year.

The week of festivities will get underway Saturday night when the "Miss Grain Sorghum of the Nation" pageant is staged in the Dimmitt High School auditorium. This has developed into one of the most popular community programs in the tri-state area, and in which we are centrally located. A well-turned ankle will still attract the attention of a nearly sixty year old man, this I can testify to, and considering the fact that the area, in the main, is populated by younger people it is no wonder that this particular program attracts a larger crowd each succeeding year.

Tickets for the Miss Grain Sorghum pageant are on sale at a number of local business places including Southwestern Public Service Company office, Parsons Spud, Cobbs, Castro County News, Drug-Shop, Harmon's and Anthony's, as well as the Chamber of Commerce office. All members of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce can also supply your ticket needs. The price: adults, $1.50; children, $1.00.

A complete list of Round-Up Week activities, as well as the week's program appears on page one of this issue of the News, and from all reports all committees have been functioning in high gear. This should be one of the most enjoyable and entertaining celebrations in Dimmitt's history.

If you have been a consistent reader of the Castro County News you will probably remember the progress reports we made from time to time on the production, or lack of production, of the peach trees in the Nelson's back yard. I mentioned here last year that the trees were dying and that there were more dead limbs than green ones. I can report now that they have just about reached their total demise, this year there are three peaches in our entire orchard, and for the remaining green limbs available for production I would say that three peaches constitute a fairly heavy crop. I will retract all objections thus clearing the way for Viola to plant all of the rose bushes she wants to in what at one time was our peach orchard.

To appreciate this wonderful Panhandle-Plains area it is necessary that you have at least a smattering of knowledge about the production of cotton, and for that matter other crops, and the effect of weather conditions on growing and producing crops. Cotton needs a certain amount of warm to hot weather, that is provided here in the daylight hours while the nights are cool and just right for the sleeping needs of humans, animals and fowl. Ours is truly a summer resort climate.

Viet Nam takes on all the aspects of a nightmare. Try as you may, it is difficult to determine the beginning of the trouble we are in in that stricken country and it is impossible to have any idea as to what the outcome of the struggle will be. If it was a conventional war we could win it in short order as we would know where and how to engage the enemy. But apparently that is not the case in this most of all old conflicts. Our troops can march out to do battle and the enemy has disappeared, either into the dense jungle or to mingle with the South Viet Namese with the result that we have waged a costly campaign with very little if any results. It is a dilemma, and I for one would abhor the task of trying to find a solution to this trying problem.

Any equal action now by Mexico probably would require action of the Mexican Congress, and the initiative lies, quite correctly, with Mexico. There were a number of flags at the Alamo on the day it fell, but only one was sent by General Santa Anna to Mexico City. This was the sky-blue banner of the "First company of Texan Volunteers from New Orleans." It was inscribed "God and Liberty."

The flag lies today in the Mexican National Archives at Chapultepec Palace in Mexico City. With the passing of the years

Mechanical Pickle Picker Used On Castro County Farm

Truman Touchstone, local farmer, has been picking a special test-plot of cucumbers with a mechanical picker made by Chisholm-Ryder Co. of Niagara Falls, N. Y. This picker is the only one of its type in the state of Texas. There are 16 Chisholm-Ryder pickle pickers in the United States and Canada according to Arthur Lee Towson, Jr., agricultural engineer who helped design the machine. The Company has been developing this particular machine for six years. Commercial operations completed by the pickle harvester include sites in Ontario, Canada, Michigan, New York, Colorado, Pennsylvania and North Carolina. These commercial operations were successful last year according to Towson. Working order of picker follows: Since cucumbers lie under the vine, the machine has a bar across the front which goes under the vine and knocks the cucumber onto a carrier belt which takes the pickle to the rear of the tractor-type machine and drops it into a tow sack. The picker has an opening in the center which allows the vine to slip through the machine without severe damages. About 5 to 6 pickings can be made on the same field. A hybrid pickle was used on the test plot.

The picker will harvest about 1/2 acre per hour. Touchstone was experiencing a few problems with the picker which will have to be ironed out by the engineers.

ALAMO FLAG NEGOTIATIONS PLANNED

As you know, many persons in our state have joined in a campaign seeking return to Texas of the flag that flew over the Alamo during the Siege of 1836. A number of talented historians and newspaper columnists have suggested that overtures be made to Mexico, asking that Republic to consider returning the valiant banner. In addition, our Legislature has passed a resolution on the subject, and I have introduced in the U. S. Senate a resolution asking the State Department to initiate talks about the Alamo flag with appropriate Mexican officials.

As you know, the exercise of foreign relations is a constitutional function of our President, and the State Department acts as his agent. It was not legally possible for newspapermen or even the State of Texas to negotiate directly with Mexico about the flag, but the U. S. State Department can legally negotiate.

I am, therefore, most pleased to report to you that the State Department has agreed to undertake this task. It is now engaged in preliminary arrangements and will introduce the subject of the Alamo flag into talks with Mexican authorities.

While the return of captured flags is ordinarily not a matter for formal negotiation between sovereign nations, there is precedent for such returns when nations have advanced beyond past disputes into a good-neighbor status such as we now enjoy with Mexico.

In 1950 the United States returned a number of captured flags to Mexico. It was an action of friendship unique in history.

An act of our Congress, approved just 15 years ago this week on August 4, 1950, authorized President Truman to return to Mexico the flags, battle-standards and emblems of that nation which were captured by United States forces in the War of 1846 to 1848. That return by the U. S. establishes precedent under which we now hope Mexico will reciprocate. The U. S. action of 1950 was an act of friendship and good will taken without qualification or condition.

since the Alamo Siege and since the Border War between U. S. and Mexican forces, there also has been the passing of bitterness between our two nations.

Now, the people of our two countries are good and peaceful friends. Mexico has had its own revolution, and she proudly champions the principles of liberty and freedom. We march together in the quest for human betterment through peaceful means.

We have joined in such projects as the Chamizal and the Amistad Dam — upon which the first concrete is being poured this very weekend.

It is fitting at this time, and in light of present good will between the people of Texas and the people of Mexico, that the flag of the Alamo be returned to its home.

It is most gratifying that the U. S. State Department should feel it appropriate to undertake talks with Mexico about the Alamo flag's return, indicating to Mexico through official channels the depth of feeling which Texans have for that flag.

I regard present U. S.-Mexican relations to be at a peak of good will and understanding. The friendship of our two nations is a graphic example to the entire free world that nations can live and work in peace and harmony.

Certainly, in these times when some Communist nations blatantly breach their neighbors' borders and openly terrorize adjacent countries, we are especially thankful that Texas and Mexico enjoy a peaceful, cooperative border.

MRS. THOMAS ELDON KELLAR
 nee Almota Kay Settle

Almota Kay Settle - Thomas Eldon Kellar Wed July 24 In Double Ring Ceremony

Almota Kay Settle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Settle, Rt. 1, Meadow and Thomas Eldon Kellar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kellar of Dimmitt exchanged wedding vows Saturday, July 24 at 7 p.m., in the Key Baptist Church of Lamesa.

Rev. Alton West read the double ring ceremony before an archway covered with greenery. Two candelabra and baskets of flowers flanked each side of the arch. White bows accented the pews.

Miss Linda Horton of Meadow was soloist. She sang "Because." Organist was Mrs. Dock Perry of Brownfield.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of band-chipped Chantilly lace. Pearls and sequins trimmed the scalloped neckline of the puffed bodice with long tapering sleeves. Alternating tiers of scalloped lace formed the bouffant skirt terminating in a pointed peacock chapel-length train. Her bridal bouquet was composed of white roses.

Mrs. Michael Settle of Tulia, sister-in-law of bride, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaid was Dina Gilbert of Amarillo. Bridematron was Mrs. Harvey Ritchey of Paris.

Attendants wore floor length dresses of pink broadcloth with soles featuring sleeveless bodices with scoop necklines. Overlapping side pleats gave fullness to dome skirts. They wore clusters of wired petals of tulle with matching maline for hairpieces. Each carried one long stem rose.

Earl Kellar of Earth, brother of groom, served as best man. Groomsmen and ushers were Muriel Bussey of Tulia and Billy Settle of Tulia, brother of bride.

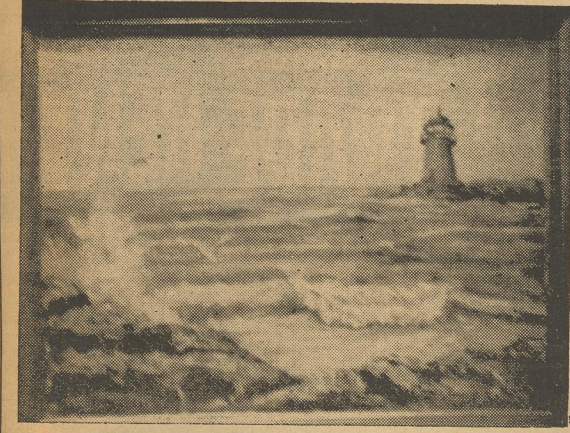

Flower girl was Elizabeth Kellar of Earth, niece of groom. Ring-bearer was Warner Bill Settle of Tulia, nephew of bride.

Reception followed the ceremony in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Couple were assisted in receiving by parents of the bride and groom. Serving at the reception were Mrs. Joe Burleson of Meadow, Mrs. Morris Tyler of Slaton and Mrs. James Bartlett of Meadow.

Following a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N. M., the couple are home at Rt. 5, Dimmitt. For going away, the bride wore a pink three-piece silk suit and white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Meadow High School and West Texas State University. She is a member of Alpha Delta Pi social sorority. She is employed by Dimmitt Public Schools.

The groom attended Springlake High School. He is self-employed in farming near Dimmitt.

Dimmitt Artist To Exhibit Work At Wolfin Village

Paintings by a Dimmitt artist will be displayed in the art show scheduled for Monday, August 2 through Friday, August 13 at First Federal Savings and Loan Association's suburban location, Wolfin at Duniven Circle, Amarillo.

On exhibit will be art work by Theo Campbell, a traditional artist who paints from antic realism.

Though he has had little formal art training, Campbell has visited and observed noted artists at work in their studios. T. Edgar Johnson, Clovis, Webb Young of Santa Fe, Kelly Pruitt, Taos, Larry Hilburn and John McCarty of Amarillo are artists whose work Campbell has observed and whose suggestions he has followed.

Theo Campbell says, "I try to capture and hold forever on canvas the beauty and mystery of a subject -- the simple things that people occupy by their own thoughts might otherwise pass by and not notice until it is seen on canvas through the eyes of an artist."

The paintings Theo Campbell has selected to display at the First Federal show are in oil employing the use of the brush and-or knife. The Campbell show may be seen during regular office hours, 9 to 5, Monday through Friday. There is no admission charge and the public is cordially invited to view this art show at First Federal of Amarillo.

Gets Rid of Fish Smell
 To remove the fish smell from your hands after cleaning your catch, try washing your hands with chlorophyll toothpaste.
 Lemon juice also will deodorize the fishy smell.
 Better yet, avoid the smell in the first place by wearing thin rubber gloves while cleaning the fish. A pair of gloves like housewives use while washing dishes will fit nicely in the tackle box.

Keeps Hunter's Seat Dry
 When deer hunting, tuck a square piece of heavy weight, waterproofed canvas in your belt. You can use it to keep your seat dry while sitting on damp earth.

Dear Blabby:
 By Oma Siler
 MAKE THE BEST OF IT

Dear Blabby: Our 19 year old son and the 16 year old girl next door ran off and got married last night. Blabby, she's a wonderful child, and he is too . . . both very sincere and serious about each other. But they're just too young. We and the girl's parents are all wondering what we can do. Do you think we should have the marriage annulled?—SHOCKED.

DEAR SHOCKED: By no means get an annulment. If they are serious and sincere about each other, help them get started. Figure out how much you and the bride's parents can spend for down payments, then take the youngsters to ALLENS HOME FURNISHINGS. Between their appliance department and their fine furniture section, ALLENS can outfit the bride and groom with the range, refrigerator and TV they'll need, plus nice living room and bedroom furniture . . . all on payments your son can meet. Do it now and save this marriage.—BLABBY.

Report Issued On Study Of Pesticide Residues In Foods

The report of a study conducted by the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council on the question of pesticide residues in foods has been submitted to Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman and Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare Anthony J. Celebrezze and was made public by the two Departments July 14.

The study dealt with the "no residue" and "zero tolerance" concepts as they relate to pesticide registration, the setting of residue tolerances, the enforcement provisions of the Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act relating to residues in food, and the recommendations of the Federal and State agencies concerning pesticide uses.

The study was conducted by the National Academy at the request of Secretaries Freeman and Celebrezze and was done under contract with the two Departments. The two Secretaries currently are reviewing recommendations of the report.

Eleven recommendations were made in the report. They are:

"1. The concepts of 'no residue' and 'zero tolerance' as employed in the registration and regulation of pesticides are scientifically and administratively untenable and should be abandoned.

"2. A pesticide should be registered on the basis of either 'negligible residue' or 'permissible residue', depending on whether its use results in the intake of a negligible or permissible fraction of the maximum acceptable daily intake as determined by appropriate safety studies.

"3. Where the use of a pesticide may reasonably be expected to result in a residue in or on food, registration by the U. S. Department of Agriculture should not be granted unless (a) it is established that the residue is a negligible residue or (b) such residue is not more than a permissible residue established by the Food and Drug Administration.

"4. When a pesticide is registered on a negligible-residue basis, the negligible-residue figure should be published, as well as an analytical method for determining whether or not a food contains a residue in excess of the negligible residue. Both the amount and the analytical method should have the concurrence of the Food and Drug Administration and be controlling for its enforcement purposes.

"5. The Food and Drug Administration's regulations on permissible residues should include a published description of the analytical methods used for enforcement purposes and should not be changed without notice and opportunity for comment by interested parties.

"6. If a pesticide is known to be too hazardous for a particular use, registration for such use should be refused.

"7. Because of the importance that pesticides play in the production of our food supply and the many non-food uses necessary for protecting the health and economy of the nation, it would seem appropriate that the registration of pesticides should continue to be the responsibility of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

"8. The publication of a reasonable schedule for an orderly transition from the present procedure is necessary, and its duration should be decided by mutual agreement between the Department of Agriculture and the Department of Health, Edu-

MRS. GERALD MELVIN SUMMERS nee Patricia Ann George

Patricia George - Gerald Summers Wed Friday, July 23 In Plainview Church

A double ring ceremony united Miss Patricia Ann George, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. George Jr. and Gerald Melvin Summers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Summers, all of Dimmitt, Friday evening, July 23 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hollister, Plainview.

Nuptials were read by Rev. Weldon McCormick of Dimmitt.

The improvised altar was decorated with a sunburst arrangement of gladioli flanked by potted palms. A kneeling bench and aisle posts marked the nuptial area.

Miss Jane Cleavinger of Dimmitt was pianist and Mrs. J. E. Peggarr was soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a street length dress designed with a scalloped neckline and short sleeves. The skirt, scalloped at the hemline, was fashioned of Chantilly lace over peau de soie. She wore a waist length veil held to a headpiece of pearls and sequins, and carried an arrangement of gardenias and feathered carnations.

Miss Janis Moore of Dimmitt was the bride's honor attendant. She was attired in a red peau de soie frock with red chiffon over-skirt. The dress was designed with scalloped neckline, short sleeves and full skirt. She wore a brief veil of red chiffon caught to matching bows. Her train-drap hand bouquet was fashioned of white carnations.

Kathy George, sister of the bride, served as flower girl. She wore a dress of red peau de soie and net styled similar to that of the maid of honor and carried a lace basket of red and white carnations.

Gene Bradley of Dimmitt was best man for the groom. Ushers were Charles Summers, brother of the groom and C. W. George, Third, brother of the bride.

The reception table in the Hollister home was covered with white linen under red net, decorated with red hearts and wedding bells. Crystal candelabra and red candles were used with the bridal bouquet for the centerpiece.

For a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N. M., the bride wore a gray A-line dress with white eyelet long sleeved jacket.

The bride is a 1965 graduate of Dimmitt High School and the groom graduated from Dimmitt in 1962. He is employed at Western Ammonia Corporation in Dimmitt where the couple will reside.

The groom's parents were hosts for a rehearsal dinner held at the Alcove Restaurant Thursday night in Plainview.

Every person requires air, minute by minute, in order to live. And, we take air as it is, not knowing what debris or chemicals are in it. It's a pleasure to breathe on a brisk day with breezes blowing and a clear blue sky overhead. But we've coined a word - we call it smog - for over-cast days when the supply of air and wastes hangs heavily about us.

Further, air pollution costs us - as a nation - an estimated seven and a half billion dollars, or $25 per family annually by ruining the paint on our houses and cars, soiling our clothes, corroding our buildings, tainting our crops and making our cattle sick.

The pollution of our air and water is something we can no longer afford. Your State Health Department has air and water quality surveys and other programs across the State.

But you as an individual have an important part to play. Support pollution control programs in your community, and think twice before you dump trash into your air or water.

Accent on Health

J. E. PEAVY, M.D.
Commissioner of Health

Take a serious look at our country and you'll see some of the greatest achievements in the world's history.

Take a second look and you'll see our trash and garbage and debris - pouring into our air, into our water.

No matter, you may think, we have plenty of water to carry this waste away. But this is not true. Our needs for good water and good air continue to grow while our supply of water and air remain the same, and we spoil much of what we have by dumping wastes into them.

Every person needs water to live. The basic water needs of each person - drinking, washing and such - average about 20 gallons per day. Today, however, the average American uses about 150 gallons a day. We soak our lawns, wash the car, fill our swimming pools and bathe as often as we wish.

Industry and agriculture have an even greater thirst for water. For example, production of one ton of synthetic rubber requires 600,000 gallons of water.

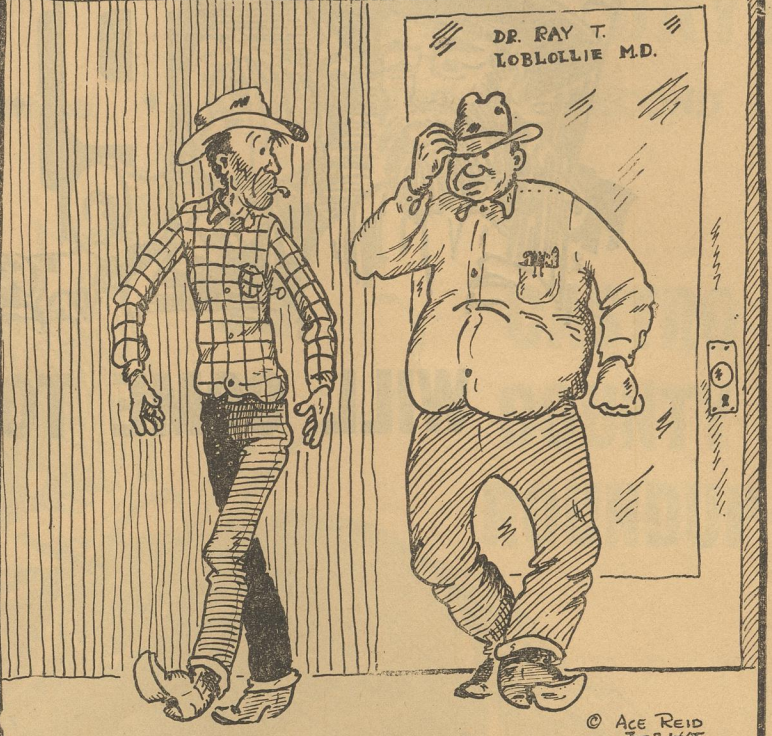

Every person requires air, minute by minute, in order to live. And, we take air as it is, not knowing what debris or chemicals are in it. It's a pleasure to breathe on a brisk day with breezes blowing and a clear blue sky overhead. But we've coined a word - we call it smog - for over-cast days when the supply of air and wastes hangs heavily about us.

Not even prolonged spring rains were enough to dampen Texas tourism this year.

Attendance at tourist attractions the first six months of 1965 increased 14 per cent over the same period last year.

A mid-year survey by the Texas Tourist Development Agency shows that 14,069,333 visitors were counted by 18 attractions and the state parks, with some places showing a 25 per cent increase in out-of-state visitors.

Largest single increase was reported by the Fort Davis Historic Site in far West Texas. Although the fort still is undergoing restorations, the tourist load there increased almost 50 per cent.

Other leaders in the visitors' increase were the Old Stone Fort at Nacogdoches, Bid Bend National Park, and a replica of the original Fort Bliss in El Paso.

SCREW-WORMS BACK — A combination of mild winter weather and inattentiveness on the part of livestock producers is believed to be behind a sudden spiral upward in the number of screwworm cases reported last month.

In a joint report the Texas Animal Health Commission and the US Department of Agriculture reveal that 129 Texas cases were confirmed between May 30 and June 26. Only 35 cases were reported in the entire Southwest in June, 1964.

FEDERAL MONEY — Austin, Corpus Christi, San Antonio and Houston are hub-cities in areas given top priority in a matching-fund program for construction of facilities for the mentally retarded. They will get first shot at some $500,000 in federal funds soon to be available.

Priority list, which will be one of the controlling factors in the allocation of the federal funds by the State Health Department, is part of a plan now in the hands of the US Surgeon General. He has authority to approve it or ask that changes be made.

Applications for funds first go to the State Advisory Council for Mental Retardation Facility Construction. Applicants must have their half of the funds for any proposed project in hand, in liquid assets.

AG OPINIONS — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has ruled that:

A county may not legally operate a "translator system" to bring TV to its people.

Garza County cannot close the county hospital, but it may lease or sell it.

A prisoner "laying out" fines at $3 a day in the county jail may not get credit on two cases at the same time. In other words, the two jail terms follow each other instead of running concurrently.

TRAINING MANPOWER — Texas Industrial Commission is urging Texas communities to look into benefits of the Manpower Development and Training Act as a way of adding impetus to industry attraction.

In Texas, the act is administered jointly by the Texas Education Agency and the Texas Employment Commission.

Industrial Commission has scheduled six Industrial Planning Seminars to explain the Act. They will be held in August in Austin, Dumas, McAllen and Sweeny.

NYC PROJECTS APPROVED — Neighborhood Youth Corps job projects continue to get approval all over the state. Gov. John Connally announced final clearance for grants in the following areas:

Aspermont, Denton, Snyder, Del Rio, Quinlan, Mineral Wells, Robert Lee, Comanche County, Beaumont, Breckenridge, Matador, Waco, San Angelo, Round Top-Carmine, Fort Worth, Hempstead, Roma, Lubbock, McKinney, Hemphill, Amarillo, Texas City, Bridge City, Mason, Childress, Groesbeck, Quanah, Laredo, Eagle Pass, Wichita Falls and Mt. Vernon.

COMMITTEE APPOINTMENTS — Lt. Gov. Preston Smith has made several committee appointments. To the Texas Legislative Council, research arm of the Legislature, he appointed Sens. Neveille H. Colson of Navasota, Louis Crump of San Saba, George Parkhouse of Dallas, Murray Watson of Mart and J. P. Word of Meridian.

Sen. Jim Bates of Edinburg will head the Senate Investigating Committee. Other members are Sens. H. Blanchard of Lubbock, Dorsey B. Harleman of San Angelo, Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo and Bruce Reagan of Corpus Christi.

Sens. Culp Krueger of El Campo, Criss Cole of Houston and Charles Herring of Austin will serve on the Legislative Study on Multiple Use and Pollution of All Waters of Texas, with Krueger as chairman. Three representatives and five private citizens also will serve on panel.

COURTS SPEAK — Third Court of Civil Appeals, invalidating part of Texas Regulatory Loan Act, has held small loan companies dealing in bonds and securities are subject to inspection by State Banking Department.

Forty-four Allied Finance Companies sued the Banking Department claiming they are exempt from its examinations. Appeals court instructed district court to reopen case as to penalties against 40 of the Texas-based concerns.

An Austin district court enjoined Texas Railroad Commission from enforcing order that natural gas purchasers must extend lines to all producers in a field. Rio Grande Valley Gas Company, ordered to run its lines to West Port Isabel Field, brought the suit.

BOUNDARY MEETING SET — First formal meeting of new Texas-Louisiana boundary commission will be held here August 10.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler expressed hope a line between the two states can be agreed on for submission to their legislatures and congress. Agreement would prevent litigation and permit both states to be able to identify their land for purposes of oil and gas leasing and other useful purposes, he said.

Texas members of the commission are Sadler, Attorney General Carr, Sen. Martin Dies Jr. of Lufkin, Sen. Jack Strong of Longview, Rep. David Crews of Conroe, Rep. Charles Wilson of Lufkin, and Larry Temple, executive assistant to Connally.

REDISTRICTING SUIT FILED — Nine Republicans filed a motion to intervene in a federal court challenge of constitutionality of the new congressional redistricting act.

They charged the Texas Legislature failed to create 23 districts of equal population as ordered by the court in 1963 and that the redistricting act "constitutes an extreme and indeed classic case of gerrymandering against certain political and metropolitan groups."

Inequalities were cited in Dallas, Bexar, Jefferson, Orange, Ector and Midland counties. Districts, the new plaintiffs maintained, vary from 9.7 per cent above the average to 9.7 below. They asked the court to apportion the state into proper districts after an investigation supervised by a mastery in chancery.

SHORT SNORTS — Governor Connally has named Jack Goren of Dallas, vice president of Neiman-Marcus, as state chairman for United Nations Day, Oct. 24.

House Speaker Ben Barnes represented Texas on the proposed Guadalupe National Park near El Paso at a hearing before House and Senate committees on interior and insular affairs. State Parks and Wildlife Commission has endorsed conversion of an area near El Capitan Moun-

SPORTS AFIELD

By Ted Kesting

When the hunting seasons are over, don't lay that good hunting dog on the shelf like an old hunting coat. Sure, he's earned the right to a good rest; but you will not be doing him any favor by letting that rest develop into a protracted period of inactivity in which his muscles grow soft and flabby, his interest wanes and he takes on unnecessary and harmful fat.

Early-morning or late-afternoon jaunts afield, when the summertime weather is the coolest, can help keep the dog in good condition during the off-season, particularly if this practice is carried on regularly — even if the jaunt last only 15 or 20 minutes. If it is not practical to allow him to run free, take a good, long daily walk with the dog on leash. But regularity is the important thing. It will do little good to exercise a dog regularly for two weeks and then let him lie idle for a similar period.

A lot of good training lessons can be taught that entail summertime exercise. If the dog is a natural retriever or has been taught to retrieve by the force method, he can be given a refresher course in this accomplishment to improve his efficiency and give him the needed exercise at the same time. If he is not a retriever, summer is a good time to develop it by teaching him the art. "Roading from horseback is a favorite and effective way to develop the dog's muscles and keep him in hardened condition," states Henry P. Davis, Sporting Dog Editor of Sports Afield Magazine. This is a common practice with professional bird-dog trainers in the wadis between, or even during, field trials.

The dog is buckled into a roading harness attached to a long, stout check cord. The trainer or his assistant mounts a horse and allows the dog to pull against the harness as he roads him along country lanes or cross-country. Usually a roading session lasts from 30 minutes to an hour. The dog's desire to run free cross-country keeps him eager to go, he pulls as hard as he can and all the muscles in his legs, quarters, shoulders and back are employed, getting the exercise needed to keep them in trim for the long hunt.

Conversely, the beginner may take go-light advice too literally and again snafu his outing for lack of needed items. One eminent backpacker advises about 1 1/2 pounds of entirely dehydrated food per person per day. This is average for most people. Some require a pound, some an additional half pound. This standard is for short trips, two to seven days. It may not suffice (a) for trips of longer duration or (b) if two trips follow one after the other — as a person will use up some body fat on the first short trip to meet his energy requirements. On a two-week backpack trip, increase the daily amount of dehydrated food (meals), as no doubt you'll be happy you did. Don't ever depend on game, fish and edible plants for enhancing the ol' diet, by the way.

The overall and daily menus should be planned at home — well in advance. This is quite time-consuming but absolutely mandatory for beginning backpackers (especially). Refer to your menu at each mealtime, and follow it.

Some of the newer camping enthusiasts may be amazed to learn that many veterans of the game make exceedingly successful backpack camping trips totalling less than 18 pounds. "The secrets," point out John Jobson, Camping Editor of Sports Afield Magazine, "are (1) proper planning, (2) lightweight equipment and (3) modern dehydrated foods."

A complete modern pack frame weighs from around three to four pounds, and a sleeping bag about three pounds. Some prefer a light mountain-type backpack tent; others sleep with a poncho and-or light ground cloth as their protection from the elements. Many experienced campers prefer to pack the little tent (the two-man type ranges from two to over five pounds) — especially above timberline, where highwinds are encountered, and in rainy regions.

Sen. John Tower's

Washington Report

The Congress has been busily engaged this past week with bills concerning our military servicemen and the nation's defense forces. I have long believed new initiatives were needed in this field, and the past week has been a most beneficial one as the nation faces up to the tense international situation.

The House of Representatives has passed 410 to nothing a military pay raise bill giving our servicemen an average 10 percent pay increase. I regard this as a vitally important bill, and the Senate Armed Services Committee, upon which I serve, will proceed quickly to its consideration.

The Defense Secretary has asked that the military pay increase be limited to only one-half as much as the House of Representatives thought necessary. But, I feel an increase in the area of 10 percent is vital if the Armed Services are to retain the skilled technicians they need today.

I will be doing all I can to obtain Senate approval of a meaningful military pay raise, so that we no longer will be faced with the stigma of seeing military families need public welfare funds and of having servicemen "moonlighting" in second jobs so as to make financial ends meet.

The defense of our nation is a full time job. It demands full time attention, and it must provide full time pay. As matters now stand, untrained youths who enter the anti-poverty Job Corps are paid more per month than are Army privates, Navy seamen, and the Air Force's basic airmen. And, quite often these basic soldiers are high school graduates with substantial skills.

This situation must be immediately corrected with a pay raise for the servicemen. Over here on the Senate side of the Capitol Building, two major actions were taken during the week which add to the benefits provided military servicemen and military veterans.

The Senate adopted a "G. I. Bill" that would provide education and loan benefits for all veterans who have served since the Korean War. This omnibus bill is particularly expensive and is opposed by the Administration, the Defense Department, and the Veterans Administration.

As you know, I have urged through out this year that a "Vietnam G. I. Bill" be enacted so that veterans of service in Southeast Asia may receive education and loan assistance upon their return home. I believe the face of our increasing manpower this is needed even more today in commitment to Vietnam.

Because of the opposition to the omnibus G. I. Bill, the House of Representatives has refused in the past to accept it. Again this year, House veteran's affairs experts say they cannot accept a bill covering all veterans who have served since Korea.

But, I voted to send the Senate bill to the House in the hope that the House will consider the general need involved and will compromise with the Senate. Such a compromise will result, I expect, in enactment either this year or next of the "Vietnam G. I. Bill" we so badly need.

The Housing Bill recently passed by the Senate also contained provisions designed to help both servicemen and civilians connected with the Defense Department. One provision of that bill - an amendment which I offered during committee work on the measure - provides a moratorium upon housing loan payments for civilians displaced or laid off because of closing of a military base or installation. This will be beneficial to those persons in Waco and Amarillo whose bases were ordered closed last November.

Another part of the Housing bill - this one a joint amendment offered by myself and Senator Sparkman of Alabama - provides that the Defense Department can buy up houses in areas affected by base closings. This, too, is designed to provide temporary resettlement assistance to affected civilian and military personnel.

And, the Senate accepted another of my amendments during floor debate on the Housing bill. This amendment provides for a new FHA loan-insurance program, affecting all veterans who have not previously received government loan benefits. It would enable veterans to obtain a no-down-payment, insured mortgage for the first $15,000 of cost of a house. And, it would insure a loan for a $30,000 house if the veteran provided only a six percent down payment.

Our nation always has provided special benefits for our fighting men: benefits that accrue to them during their service and resettlement benefits applying to them when they are veterans. As a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, I will be doing all I can to see that we continue to provide veterans benefits; that we provide a substantial military pay increase; and that we achieve eventual enactment of a "Vietnam G. I. Bill."

Every year Texas newspapers publish articles on water safety. Yet every year people are hurt or killed while boating, swimming, wading, skiing, fishing, or just plain falling into the water. There are all kinds of accidents—minor, painful, fatal. Most of them are caused by failure to THINK.

Little is written about what can happen to the fisherman. So lets talk about the angler and his safety problems. Here's a guy who doesn't want to think about anything but catching fish. One friend of mine didn't even have to go near the water to get himself full of fish-hooks. He laughs as he tells it on himself now, but it wasn't so humorous at the time it happened. He kept lures hooked into the liner of a minnow bucket suspended from a garage rafter by a cord. One day he undertook to reach up and get some lures for a fishing trip, and the whole apparatus fell down on his head. For awhile he looked like a walking tackle shop, with baits festooned all over him. Some of the hooks were in his clothes, but others were snared in his hide. He had quite a session with the doctor before all the hooks were removed. Let's suppose that you are out on the river or lake fishing and a hook gets imbedded in you. Do you know how to remove it? This is something every angler should know. No matter how careful you may be, you are going to get hooked sometime either by your buddy or by your own carelessness. If the point has penetrated deep into the flesh, it is next to impossible and very painful to extract a hook by trying to take it out the way it went in. After all—barbs are there to hold the hook securely in place. And they do a good job of it.

Problem then is to remove the barb. So take your pliers (don't ever go fishing without wire cutting pliers) and cut the shank of the hook. This is done to remove the eye. Next push the hook so that its point will move forward. That is, so that its movement will not be impeded by the barb. With a little pressure the point will move through the flesh, puncture an exit in the skin and emerge there. Let the wound bleed a little. Blood washes out the wound and removes whatever impurities there may be on the hook. Now take your safety kit (you do carry a safety kit, don't you?) and apply iodine, mercurchrome, or whatever disinfectant is available. After the disinfectant, apply a Band-Aid and you're as good as new.

HEY! OLD PODNER....

Let's wait about this until after the CASTRO COUNTY ROUNDUP

As for hook accidents—the best idea, of course, is for them not to happen. A few simple precautions will prevent them.

If two men are in a boat, both should cast from the same side and in the same general direction. Never cast in opposite directions or toward the bow or stern.

If you cast longways of the boat, your backswing will put your lure right in your partner's face. If it doesn't hook him it will scare him to death, or nearly so, and even if he survives you will have lost a fishing buddy.

You're going to get lures hung in bushes, trees, and weeds near the shore. When you do, avoid trying to free them with a hard, steady pull. Use a series of short, sharp yanks on the line, and even then look out! Even the latter method sometimes will free a lure so that it will come flying right back at you. Be ready to duck anytime either you or your buddy is trying to free a hook that's snagged.

If you hold your rod out to one side, in trying to free a snagged hook, the lure, suddenly loosened, is more likely to miss you in its return flight. If you want to play it safe, simply move the boat to the lure and free it by hand. There's a good rule about safety in small fishing boats. Watch your partner, and when he moves to one side, you move to the other. If he leans over the side to pull up a heavy anchor and you lean over the same side at the same time, to reach for the floating minnow bucket—don't be surprised if you both get a bath, even if it isn't Saturday.

Keep the boat in balance at all times! And don't stand up in a small boat unless you absolutely have to.

Don't fool around in swift, rocky waters in your fishing boat. If you're going upstream and hit a rock with your propeller shaft, your motor will tilt and the boat will go out of control and possible overturn. If you're going downstream, put your motor in reverse to reduce speed and try your best to avoid the rocks.

Best of all though, avoid that kind of water whenever possible. If you must get into it, or through it, to catch fish, get out and tow the boat through the shallow, dangerous places. Or go to the bank and pull the boat along until you reach deeper, quieter water. You'll have to be quieter by the situation, but in case of doubt, don't take chances. It's not worth it!

Another thing—don't fool around with storms. Head for home as fast as possible! You don't have to be in a boat to get into trouble while fishing.

I'm thinking of some places, below river dams, where the white bass bite fabulously. Here the banks are usually rocky and steep. When power is being generated, the water comes out of the tail race in a great rush.

There is a giant sort of whirlpool effect; the currents smash against each other and against the boulders as the water fights for a route downstream. Little springs ooze out of the cliff-sides, and the rocks along the precipitous banks are slippery. One false step and you're in that terrifying current. I wouldn't give a dime for your chances.

These are just a few of the hazards of fishing, and a few precautions. Anytime you're fishing you're in danger of drowning—so if you value your life—wear a life-saving jacket. You'll never know in advance when you need it.

None of these accidents or incidents are very likely to happen to you, if you think before you act and use ordinary precautions.

So good luck, enjoy some fishing, and keep your head. Literally, that is.
