

Drug charge draws 30-year sentence

AERIAL AEROBICS—Dimmitt's Leslie Shippy (40) almost does a back-flip to grab a rebound away from Farwell's Steerettes in the Bobbies' final non-conference game Friday night at Farwell. The state-ranked Bobbies won by a convincing 94-37 score.

Arturo Leyva Rueda, 32, of Dimmitt pleaded guilty in 242nd District Court Tuesday afternoon in Dimmitt to felony charges of aggravated unlawful possession of marijuana (more than 50 pounds and less than 200 pounds). The jury sentenced him to 30 years in the penitentiary and assessed a fine of $10,000 after 40 minutes of deliberation Wednesday morning.

The charges stemmed from the October 1988 seizure of 100 pounds of marijuana during a drug bust operation in Dimmitt, coordinated by county, regional and state law enforcement officers.

Rueda's application to the jury for consideration of probation was also filed Tuesday. Punishment could have ranged from life imprisonment to not less than five years nor more than 99 years in prison, and the fine could not exceed $50,000.

Undercover drug agents testifying in court Tuesday indicated that Rueda had expressed an interest in 100 pounds of marijuana on a weekly basis, and that two bags containing such a quantity of marijuana were shown to Rueda in an Amarillo motel room in October of 1988. The following day Rueda allegedly made arrangements for the substance to be delivered to a southwest Dimmitt home near the Dimmitt Middle School, and the substance was allegedly sold to Rueda for $30,000.

Officers testified that only $29,500 was actually delivered to them at the time of the drug offense. That money and several vehicles were forfeited to the government following the arrests Oct. 20. The raid resulted from 11 months of investigation by sheriff's officers and Dept. of Public Safety undercover agents.

In other court action in 242nd District Court last week, Geneva Marie Malone, 56, of Lubbock, pleaded guilty to defrauding Dimmitt Agri Industries with a worthless check. Malone, who has already made full restitution of the $6,000 check, was sentenced to serve a five-year prison sentence on felony probation for three years. She will pay $40 per month as a probation fee and will donate $50 to the Castro County Crime Line. 400 hours of community service were also ordered. [Editor's note: The defendant is not to be confused with Geneva Faye Malone of Dimmitt.]

Javier Anes, 22, of Dimmitt, was sentenced to six years in prison and assessed a $2,500 fine after pleading guilty to breaking into a local liquor store Nov. 20. Anes admitted taking approximately $50 in beer and causing an equal amount of glass damage during the incident.

Bautista J. Domingus, 61, of Dimmitt, was sentenced to 90 days in jail and assessed a $500 fine for driving while intoxicated.

Jesus R. Robles, 28, was sentenced to serve a five-year prison sentence on felony probation and was assessed a fine of $750 after pleading guilty to a felony offense of driving while intoxicated. Robles will serve 10 days in jail as an additional term of probation and will pay $40 per month as a probation reporting fee and must donate $50 to the Castro County Crime Line.

DISD sets attendance policy

Monday night, the Dimmitt school board approved revisions to the school attendance policy that will implement recent legislation that requires students to be present 80 days per semester in order to receive course credit.

DISD Superintendent Robert Ryan noted that current semester lengths are set at either 87 or 88 days, which would allow a student to be absent either seven or eight days in a semester without jeopardizing course credits.

However, additional absences could cause a student to fail a course or grade level.

The new provisions establish attendance committees for each building, including the building principal, building nurse and building counselor. Also, middle school assistant principal T.J. Parks will be a member of each committee in an effort to maintain consistency in enforcement.

The attendance committees will consider cases of extenuating circumstances when a student's absences exceed the allowed number.

The parent or guardian of the student is required to appear before the committee and should be prepared to present documentation of the reasons for the excess absences.

If the committee decides the reasons are insufficient, credit for missed courses or grade level may be denied, even if makeup work is completed. An appeals process is also provided.

Current absence policies not in conflict with the new provisions will remain, Ryan said. He noted that in case of a student's absence, parents should notify the school. On the student's return to classes, parents must send a note stating the reason for the absence before the student will be admitted back to class.

Students should complete makeup work within five school days of the absence.

The new provisions of the policy will not come into play until absences exceed the number allowed by law, or until the end of the semester.

Ryan said that eligibility rules for extra-curricular activities will basically remain the same, except at year's end. He said UIL spokesmen explained that loss of credit at the end of the year would affect eligibility at the beginning of the following school year.

Ryan also said that the 10-day rule for participation in extra-curricular activities would remain unchanged.

The board approved draft letters that will be sent to parents of students whose number of absences approaches the limit allowed by law. Notification would also be sent at the time the limit is met, and warnings would be sent when the limit is exceeded, including the mention of possible legal action for thwarting mandatory attendance laws. Board member James Sims said, "I'd like to see the committees be pretty firm."

Excused absences are proscribed by law, along with what may be considered as extenuating circumstances.

The new policy goes into effect the second semester of this school year, which begins Jan. 22.

In other business, the board voted to extend Ryan's contract through June 30, 1993.

The board also approved the tax addition - deletion report and approved the Texas Association of School Boards proposed policy update 35.

Commissioners accept bid on generator installation

The Castro County Commissioners voted Monday to accept Newton Electric's bid for $6,339.27 for installation of the emergency generator for the courthouse.

The company's owner, Danny Newton, said the bid includes running the wiring in conduit from the courthouse to the generator and installation of a switch and a circuit panel. Newton said a conduit will also be installed for wiring heating and lighting systems for the building that will be installed to protect the generator.

The bid specified that the building and its fixtures, as well as the concrete slab for placement of the generator, are not included in the quoted price.

Holidays for county employees were set for 1990, with nine days allowed. Also, the courthouse will be closed on three election days. Precinct 1 Commissioner Harold Smith voted against the holiday calendar, because he objected to his employees being given Memorial Day off. He said that holiday falls during a heavy irrigation period, when road maintenance would be required.

The other commissioners said that he could still make arrangements with his employees to work without penalizing all county employees.

The commissioners voted to advertise for bids for personal computers and software for use in the county auditor's and county treasurer's offices. Auditor Shirley Brockman and Treasurer Oleta Raper presented three proposals they had received on sample systems.

The system they preferred was estimated to cost around $40,000 for hardware and software. Brockman noted that only $19,000 has been budgeted for the expenditure. However, she told the commissioners that the preferred system included several features that cheaper systems did not, including 10 days of on-site personnel training.

Teeny Bowden and Clara Vick presented the annual report for the Castro County Historical Commission, and suggested a centennial project for the commissioners to sponsor — the installation of permanent survey markers at each section corner in the county.

The commissioners agreed to invite County Surveyor John Alldredge to explain the type of markers needed and the extent of the project and any estimated costs.

County Tax Assessor-Collector Billy Hackleman told the commissioners that the county's contract with KMK Enterprises of Plainview, supplier of computer services including the voters' registration list and cards, needs to be renewed.

Meeting will offer help with histories

Need help writing your story for inclusion in Vol. II of the Castro County History Book, 1891 to 1991?

Your questions will be answered at a meeting today (Thursday) from noon to 1 p.m. at K-Bob's Steak House and from 1 to 3 p.m. at Rhoads Memorial Library.

Representatives of the County Historical Commission will be present at the meetings to answer questions and help individuals get started on writing their stories.

Feb. 1 is the deadline for submitting a family history or other write-up. Articles may be up to 500 words in length and one photograph may be included free of charge. Additional words will cost 10 cents each and extra photos will cost $10 each.

Completed articles may be turned in at Cowsert Abstract, Rhoads Memorial Library or the Castro County Historical Museum in Dimmitt or they may be mailed to Castro County History Book, Box 457, Dimmitt, Tex. 79027.

"Please remember, when you write your story, to place a cover sheet over it listing the surname of the family and an alphabetical listing of the first name of each person in the family history for indexing purposes," a spokesperson for the project said. "Also, on a separate sheet of paper, write the caption you would like to be placed under your picture."

Meetings are held at the library every Thursday at 2 p.m., weather permitting, for working on the ranching, farming, cattle and other heritage sections to be placed in the book.

Anyone wishing to help or wanting to submit information is welcome, a project spokesperson said.

The book is scheduled for a Christmas 1990 release, with a pre-publication price of $60, and an after publication price of $75.

Senior Citizens' Housing will get five more homes

Developers of the Dimmitt Senior Citizens Housing addition along Northwest Fifth Street will start construction "within the next couple of weeks" on five new multiplex homes, the Dimmitt Board of Aldermen learned Monday night.

City Manager Reeford Burrous told the aldermen that he had met Friday with Dick Sorrell of S&S Properties, Inc., to go over plans for initial homes in the second phase of the retirement neighborhood. The new units will go up just south of the 10-building first phase, which was completed last year.

Utility extensions will be required, Burrous said, because the new homes apparently will not be built on available lots closest to existing lines. He said the city—and apparently Southwestern Public Service Co. and Energas also—will require Sorrell to reimburse them for the utility extensions if the homes aren't sold within a year.

The city governing board voted to close two alleys in a mobile-home park in southeast Dimmitt and deed them to the park's owner, Richard Rickert. The action was in response to a petition by Rickert, and leaves the owner responsible for maintenance of the water and sewer lines in the alleys. One of the alleys runs north-south and the other east-west, Mayor Wayne Collins said.

In other action, the board: — Adopted a resolution commemorating Fred Anen, former city alderman who died in a traffic accident Jan. 1 east of Dimmitt.

—Tabled action on a request from the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission to participate (at a cost of $500) in a "High Ground of Texas" promotion initiated by Southwestern Public Service Co.

—Noted that the second meeting of the City Charter Commission will be held at 6:30 this evening (Thursday) in the city hall meeting room.

Ethanol's 'grand opening' scheduled next Thursday

A "grand opening" for the sale of ethanol-blend gasoline in Dimmitt will be held next Thursday at the Allsup's convenience store, 501 W. Bedford St.

From 11 a.m. to noon, representatives of Women Involved in Farm Economics (WIFE) and the Texas Corn Growers Association will be on hand at the store's fuel islands to distribute literature on ethanol as an alternative fuel source. Ethanol is distilled from corn and other agricultural products.

And during the entire day, motorists will receive a 10-cent per gallon discount on the ethanol-blend gas they buy there.

Ethanol-blend fuel is being marketed here through a joint project by Bell Gas and the Tropicana Energy Corp. of Irving.

Hadley Paul, president of Tropicana, which produces ethanol for commercial uses, commented, "Our goal is to sell several million gallons of ethanol-blend gasoline monthly in West Texas and the Panhandle, and Tropicana is especially proud to sell motor fuel which is partially produced from Texas-grown corn rather than from OPEC oil."

Paul said he is optimistic that other gasoline distributors and ser-

E.D. and Grace Morgan have been "Home for the Holidays", in Dimmitt, but are ready to go back to work with the Baptist Men's association. They will be at Northwest Baptist church in Austin to help complete the Educational Building. Authur Fray is pastor. Another church will be Morent Rose Baptist in Bastrop, Tx. where they will be helping build a new church, with R.D. Smith as the pastor. On to First Baptist church in Burton, where they will be building more educational space, Ray Raddin is pastor. These churches will be in revival during this time and E.D. will be preaching at least once during each revival.

Harold and Martha Jo Hyman and daughter Jo and Leigh went to Levelland on New Years Day where they attended the wedding of Carol Howell and Jim Gotch. Carol is the daughter of Ellen Howell who is the sister of Frances Frazier. This was an impressive 11:00 a.m. service and the theme centered around Christ.

Max Hastings from Grand Junction, Colo., and Decimac Dennis from Midland were among the out of town visitors at the museum during the holidays.

Ysleta Ball brought the devotional at Canterbury Villa on Thursday morning. She read a humorous poem, "I'm OK for the Shape I'm In". Her Scripture was Matthew 7:7-8. Renise Blair sang, "He will Come like a Thief in the Night". Others enjoying the singing and fellowship were: Dorothy Hopson, Grace Morgan, Mauzee Youts, Martha Jo Hyman, Phyllis Mooney (pianist), Gertie Waggoner, and Mary Edna Hendrix. Geneva Justice sang "She'll be Coming 'Round the Mountain when She Comes", and she gave her famous "rooster crow", at the last song.

Edith Graef was hostess to the Thursday Bridge Club that met at the Senior Citizens Center for lunch and a day of bridge. Dugan Butler won high score. Others playing were Cleo Forson, Susie Reeves, Sal DiCuffa, Bernice Hill, Emily Clingsmith, Neva Hickey, Johnnie Vannoy, Louise Mears, Helen Braafladt, and Ferne Dickey.

Houston and Doris Lust celebrated Christmas with their entire family coming in for all the fun. Keith and Ann Cayton and children Tonya, Sean, Lindsey, and Brittany from Gilbert, AZ., Kyle and Flo Touchstone and family from Lubbock, Joe Lust and family, Rex Lust and family and Charles Summers and family all from Dimmitt. They all went to Lazbuddie one night to watch Casey Summers play basketball with the Dimmitt Junior Varsity. Glenn and Barbara Lust and family from Lazbuddie came over one evening for supper and a visit with the family.

Tricia Touchstone Campbell from Muleshoe was hostess to a lingerie shower for Kyla Boozer on Friday in the home of Oleta Gallehon. Two cheese balls in the shape of a pineapple covered with sliced almonds was served with crackers and punch. Kyla's attendants were among the guests.

A pretty wedding for a lovely couple was held in the First United Methodist Church Saturday night with Rev. Vernon O'Kelly performing the ceremony. Kyla Boozer, daughter of Monty and Sue Boozer, and Jodie Riley, son of Ray Joe and Jo Eddie Riley, exchanged vows.

The reception was held in the country home of the bride's parents. A band played throughout the evening. A large crowd enjoyed all the food and fellowship.

Two weeks in Chicago this time of the year made Aural Davis wish for her "long handles" and Texas; however, it wasn't much better here. It still didn't get to a -54 degrees as it did in Chicago, though.

Aural visited her daughter, Janis and her husband, George and their daughters, Erica, Erin and Emily through the Christmas holidays. They all attended a "Concert of Advent and Christmas Music" at the Grace Lutheran Church in River Forest, Ill., one night. On her first Sunday there they were offered tickets to the Chicago Bears game, but she politely refused, even though the temperature was a warm -10 degrees. She forgot to take her electric blanket!

One day Janis took Aural to downtown Chicago shopping in -44 degree weather. They rose the El Train because it stops just outside the door of Marshall-Fields and they could avoid the parking hassle and walking in the cold. It was lovely having lunch at the "Walnut Room" and walking along State Street and looking at the decorated and animated windows. Aural especially enjoyed the antics of real live mannequins who looked mechanical.

Another nice luncheon was enjoyed with a group of Janis' friends at Oprah Winfrey's new restaurant, the Eccentric, in downtown Chicago. It is quite modern and the service is excellent.

Shopping at the "Watertower" is a must for a woman in Chicago especially during Christmas so Aural did what she must do! Shop until you drop!

Chicago and all its suburbs are really beautiful this time because the snow covers all the ugly parts and makes it a Winter Wonderland. It's really comical to see the joggers out in their shorts when the weather is barely above freezing. Those people are unique and a little crazy.

Aural was happy to come home, especially after having to taxi back to the terminal to get the plane deiced before they could take off. She said one of her least favorite gifts from the windy city was a severe cold!

Sunday was Suzie Phillips' birthday (Aural Davis' daughter), so Aural Davis went to Amarillo for the celebration. They went to St. Paul's Methodist Church Sunday morning, out to lunch, then on to the theater to see Back to the Future II.

Bill and Joan Ballentine spent the holidays in Decatur, Ala. with their family and friends.

They had a wonderful time and enjoyed a white Christmas which they hadn't seen since they have lived in the south.

It started to snow softly on Christmas Eve and everything was white and beautiful with the snow and the outdoor Christmas decorations on Christmas day. The next day the snow was gone, and it warm and like spring.

The baby dedication service at the First Baptist Church in Dimmitt was held recently with Rev. Paul Kenley, pastor, talking to the babies and their parents. Each baby was interested in the microphone.

Babies honored in the ceremony were Houston Tate Sutton, Laura Katherine Rasor, Michael Odell Rasor, Brandy Renea Smith, Tyler Ryan Smith, Kaden Will Griffith, Donovan James Parsons, Brittany Elaine Heard, Dennis Grant Underwood, Regan Terrell Stanton, Joshua Kyle Smothermon and Skylar Dane Smothermon.

Nazareth

By Uirgie Gerber, 945-2669

Congratulations to Nazareth's coach, Sandy Heiman, who has been named the Basketball Coach of the Year by the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame. She will be honored during ceremonies scheduled Jan. 21 at Amarillo College's Ordway Auditorium.

Our sympathy to the family of Fred Annen, 64, who was buried in Castro Memorial Garden in Dimmitt on Wednesday.

Lucille Schacher is home after being treated at High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo. She is doing well.

Walter Schulte, a resident of Canterbury Villa Nursing Home in Dimmitt, is a patient at Plains Memorial Hospital. He is being treated for pneumonia.

Father Neal Dee, pastor of Holy Family, is visiting his mother, Stephanie Dee, who is a pneumonia patient at Ball Memorial Hospital in Muncie, Ind. He should return to Nazareth sometime this week.

Bert Venhaus, a resident of the Dumas Nursing Home, is a pneumonia patient in the Dumas Hospital.

Gaylene Wilhelm, daughter of Francis and Betty Wilhelm, recently received her associate nursing certificate from Vernon Junior College in Wichita Falls. Francis and Betty Wilhelm attended the ceremony, which was held at the Women's Forum in Wichita Falls.

Francis and Betty Wilhelm attended the John Hancock Bowl game in El Paso, where Texas A&M played Pittsburg. Doug and Alice Wilhelm and girls from Littleton, Colo., and Gordon and Terry Wilhelm and Liz of Snook also attended the ballgame.

Harry and Georgina Flanigan of Aurora, Colo. visited with Dora Albracht, Francis and Betty Wilhelm and Ed and Leola Ramaekers, who are cousins of the Flanigans.

We Salute Fred Annen

Fred Annen touched our community in many ways before his tragic death in a traffic accident last week.

One of the many ways in which he took an active part in the life of his community was as a city alderman. In that capacity alone, this well-known business man left his fingerprints permanently on the character and progress of Dimmitt.

At its meeting Monday night, the Dimmitt Board of Aldermen recognized Mr. Annen's past service to our city by adopting a special resolution commemorating him. We'd like to share that commemoration with you.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, FRED ANNEN, a former member of the Board of Aldermen of the City of Dimmitt, departed this life on January 1, A.D. 1990; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Aldermen of the City of Dimmitt, Texas, desire to recognize the contributions made to the administration of the City Government by FRED ANNEN while serving as a member of the Board of Aldermen; now, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of Dimmitt, Texas, that this Resolution be adopted recognizing the benefits derived by the City of Dimmitt, Texas, from the leadership and service rendered to the citizens of the City of Dimmitt, Texas, by FRED ANNEN. The citizens of the City of Dimmitt, Texas, express their gratitude for the business-like manner in which FRED ANNEN conducted the business of the City and for the progressive thinking and idealism reflected in the programs initiated during the term of office of FRED ANNEN and in the Ordinances and Regulations instituted with his approval.

PASSED AND APPROVED this 8th day of January, A.D. 1990.

Police Calls

City police arrested and jailed an 18-year-old Dimmitt man last Thursday in connection with the Dec. 26 theft of radio equipment from the American Fructose Corp. plant site.

The young man, who reportedly is married and unemployed, has been charged with felony theft over $750 and under $20,000. He was arraigned last Thursday and is now free on $3,000 bond pending grand jury action.

The stolen radio equipment—three two-way radios and a charger, valued at $3,600—belongs to Merit Construction, Inc., the main contractor on the American Fructose expansion project.

City, county and state officers made a rash of arrests during the week on alcohol-related charges. Four men—two from Dimmitt, one from Amarillo and one from Earth—were jailed on charges of driving while intoxicated, and three others were jailed on public intoxication charges. An Earth man was charged with public intoxication Saturday night, released after court, and jailed for public intoxication again Sunday morning.

The Sheriff's Dept. Friday charged a 17-year-old Dimmitt boy with indecency with a child. The youth was arraigned in district court on the felony charge the same day, and is free on $2,500 bond pending grand jury action.

A housekeeper reported to city police last Wednesday that she had discovered an apparent burglary when she reported to work at her employers' home that morning. The home's owners were out of town at the time.

Blanch Soler told police that she noticed a glass sliding door at the rear of the home standing open, items on the floor nearby and a pillow case that had been taken from a bedroom. Investigating officers said it was possible that someone was scared away while attempting to put the items into the pillow case. The investigation continues.

A homeowner in the 700 block of Oak Street reported to city police last Thursday that someone had thrown eggs against his home and pickup and on his driveway. The incident happened between 8:30 p.m. last Wednesday and 7 a.m. Wednesday, he said. Police are investigating.

A 21-year-old Dimmitt man paid $202 in fines after being arrested at a local parking lot Sunday on two outstanding warrants from the Dept. of Public Safety.

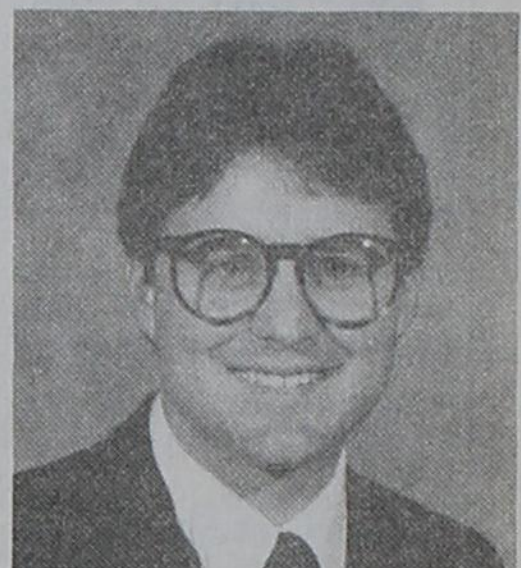

Only one traffic accident was reported in the city during the week, a minor backing mishap. City police said a 1983 Chevrolet Suburban driven by Rhonda Killough and a 1982 Chevrolet sedan both received minor damage when Killough's vehicle struck the parked car as she was attempting to back around it and into her driveway Saturday afternoon.

Hearing Tests Set For Senior Citizens

Dimmitt—Electronic hearing tests will be given at the Senior Citizens Center on Friday, January 12th, from 10 a.m. until 12 noon.

Randy King, Licensed Hearing Aid Specialist will be present to perform the tests.

Everyone should have a hearing test at least once a year—even people now wearing a hearing aid or those who have been told nothing could be done for them. Only a hearing test can determine if you are one of the many a hearing aid can help. The free hearing tests will be given Friday, January 12, from 10 a.m. til noon at 218 W. Jones. If you can't come in, call 647-2654 for in-home service.

Influenza season is here

Influenza season is on the way and the flu strain considered most likely to appear this year is one that frequently brings a higher mortality rate, according to researchers at the National Influenza Research Center of Baylor College of Medicine in Houston.

Particularly susceptible to possible complications from this A-Shanghai strain of flu are older people, reports Dr. W. Paul Glezen of the flu center.

There is good news; however, because this year's flu vaccine covers A-Shanghai as well as A-Taiwan, considered the second-most likely strain to make an appearance during the 1989-90 flu season.

Glezen considers it unlikely there will be much influenza B this year, because it has appeared the past two years, lessening the chances of an immediate recurrence.

He does caution that a new strain of influenza called B-Yamagata has appeared in Asia and could make its way to the United States; however, it too is covered by this year's vaccine.

Glezen said four categories of people should receive flu shots. They are people with heart and lung diseases including asthma and chronic bronchitis, people age 65 and older, people with diabetes, chronic kidney disease and chronic anemia, including sickle cell anemia, and people likely to come into contact with those in the three high-risk groups.

People in high-risk groups are more prone to life-threatening infections, such as pneumonia, after contracting influenza.

Health care workers should be vaccinated, Glezen said.

"The vaccine will help prevent them from contracting the flu and spreading the virus to their patients."

The flu vaccine is available from most physicians and at community health clinics.

The US Centers for Disease Control in Atlanta and the Food and Drug Administration in Washington, D.C., decide on the composition of the coming season's influenza vaccine based on viruses circulating worldwide.

Influenza usually strikes suddenly and produces symptoms such as fever, generalized muscle pain, weakness and a dry, hacking cough. It is caused by variants of types A and B influenza viruses. Variants are classified according to where they were first identified.

CARD OF THANKS

Dear Friends,
We would like to take this opportunity to express our appreciation for a community that truly knows how to care for its bereaved.

For this family, Fred was a pillar of strength, and he will always be remembered and missed for the rest of our lives.

All of our lives are richer because he chose to share his life with us. He was the Rock on which this family could always stand and depend on, and we will always be grateful for the Love, care, compassion, and especially the Prayers this community shared with us in our time of pain and grief.

Throughout this vast country in which we live, there may be other communities with more money or more people, but we believe there is no equal to the Love and caring in the "community" of Dimmitt.

Thank you for being there for us when we needed you most.

Social Security in Castro County

By MARY JANE SHANES

It's important to remember that Social Security is a base on which to plan for retirement. It was never intended to provide 100% replacement of earnings or to guarantee everybody the same standard of living in retirement.

In planning for retirement, a person should know how to build on that base. As a start, you should know generally how much to expect in retirement benefits from Social Security so you can plan how much you need from other sources. A person should also have some idea of how other types of retirement income will affect Social Security benefits.

It is estimated that a person will need about 75% of his or her pre-retirement earnings to maintain the same standard of living in retirement as he or she had before.

The amount of Social Security benefits depends on a person's earnings over a working life. People earning the maximum covered by Social Security can generally expect to receive initial benefits which replace approximately 29% of pre-retirement earnings. People with average earnings can expect to receive 43% of pre-retirement earnings and people earning at the minimum wage level over their working lives may expect to receive initial benefits equaling 60% of their pre-retirement earnings.

The replacement rate is higher for low earners because they are less able to tolerate a reduction in income. Higher earners are expected to have more resources to build a base of retirement income, including investments, savings and private insurance.

This brings me to the second important point to remember in and Commerce Code, and Section 35 of Article 6132b of the Texas Revised Civil Statutes Annotated.

15—Legal Notices

Keeping these facts in mind, a person can build a retirement income that will sustain his or her standard of living in retirement and assure that they are indeed the "golden years."

KARA SCHULTE sinks a basket to give the Bobbies a 15-3 lead over the Farwell Steerettes in the first quarter Friday night at Farwell. Following Schulte's shot at left is teammate Wendi Ethridge, and in right background are Dimmitt's Becky Rodriguez (43) and Renae Josselit (13). The Bobbies won by a lopsided 94-37 score.

Cotton Talks

Officials of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., are now projecting a final 1989 crop cotton deficiency payment of about four cents per pound.

The total payment for the year will equal the difference between the 73.4-cent 1989 target price and the January-December weighted average price paid to US farmers for cotton. PCG expects the farm level price for the year to be 60.9 cents per pound, 12.5 cents below the target. However, most producers late in 1988 or in early 1989 requested and received advance payments of 8.56 cents. If PCG's estimate of the calendar year farm price should prove accurate, the exact final payment would be 3.94 cents.

With the monthly average prices and marketing totals in hand for 11 months, leaving only the figures for December to be plugged into the calculation, PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson says, "I don't think there's any way our projections can be very far off the mark."

USDA's National Agricultural Statistics Service reports the average price and marketing volume for each month during the year. NASS compiles its figures from a statistical sampling of sales figures supplied by members of the cotton trade. This procedure creates a 30-day lag in the release of each month's figures.

Through November, NASS has reported total marketings of 11,809,000 bales at a weighed average price of 60.2 cents. Almost a fourth of that volume, 2,879,000 bales was traded in November alone at an average price of 65.8 cents per pound. Although the mid-month December price has been reported at only 62.7 cents, mid-month prices in the past have often been misleading. PCG's projections couples a 64-cent December price with a three million bale volume to come up with its 60.9-cent weighted average price for the year.

Each producer's total payment, exacted in February, will be determined by multiplying the payment rate times his farm's established per-acre program yield times planted acres.

Marcie and Megan Cowley of Balmorhea, daughters of Tamera Cowley, were killed in a one-car accident near Pecos Friday night.

Tamera apparently was driving the car and lost control while trying to dodge a cow on the road.

She suffered broken ribs and broken vertebrae in her neck, but was dismissed from the hospital Sunday.

Her step-son suffered a broken back and remains hospitalized. Her son escaped with only scratches and bruises.

Funeral services for the girls were held Tuesday afternoon at 2.

Marcie was in the first grade and Megan was enrolled in a headstart program.

Linda of Albuquerque, N.M., arrived in Pecos Saturday morning. Leona Blanton, Tyson and Marsha Cowley and Chelsey and Kurt Blanton left for Pecos after dinner Saturday.

Claudia Porter and Merle McFarland of Floydada, Leona's sisters, stayed to help Randall Blanton of Friona take care of Ronnie.

Leona will spend a week with Tamera and her sisters will take Ronnie to a convalescent home in Lubbock Tuesday for a week so Randall can go back to work.

Mary Porter, Claudia's daughter-in-law, also stayed with them Saturday. A cousin from Littlefield went with Leona and the others Saturday.

Jodie Riley and Kyla Boozer were married in a double-ring ceremony at Dimmitt Saturday afternoon. Kevin Riley was best man and several from the community attended the wedding.

Gale Sadler brought the Sunday morning message and told a little about their work. The pastor presented the money the Vacation Bible School brought in from August to Gale and Verna Sadler after the song service. Gale explained how many Bibles had been purchased with their pennies last year and how a church was started as a result of the Bibles. He said this money would be used in like manner.

The pastor presented certificates and recognized Cleo Carr and Don Fry for having read the Bible in 1989.

Lillian Carson has been with her mother while she had the flu. She spent Thursday and Friday in Central Plains Regional Hospital in Plainview, but is home now. Lillian came home Friday night for the first time.

Ronnie and Leona Blanton went to Veterans' Hospital in Albuquerque recently for his check-up, and they have some new doctors there and one suggested he believed he could do surgery on Ronnie's tumor and he would get 90 percent better, but the 10 percent could mean he could also be permanently paralyzed. Since he is near that now they are considering that seriously.

LaWanda Wilson went to El Paso over the weekend with their son-in-law, Alan Turnello to help him move the rest of their things. Glenda and the children have been there quite awhile, but he is just now getting his transfer.

Rev. David Fletcher visited with Phillip Jones in University Hospital, formerly Lubbock General, in Lubbock Thursday. Teeny Bowden talked to Flossie at the hospital Sunday night and he is improving right along and may get to come home in a few days. His lung has cleared up, but he does not have his blood pressure stabilized yet.

Teeny Bowden spoke to the Rotary Club at their noon meeting at K-Bobs Thursday about Vol II History book and writing their family stories. She then attended the annual meeting of the Castro County Historical Commission and the Ranching Heritage section of the book meeting following the Commission meeting.

Verna Sadler showed slides on the Woman's Work in Moshi, Tanzania to the Baptist Women before supper Wednesday night and an introduction to the January Bible Study from 2 Corinthians. It was very interesting.

Rev. David and Debra Fletcher and Harmony took Hadley and Haley to Borger to their allergy doctor Friday and went on to Gruver and visited their parents until Saturday night.

We received a trace of rain Tuesday morning.

Clara Vick and Jim Fleming visited with Teeny Bowden Friday night and Jim helped change the monitor for the computer which was too heavy for her to get out of the car. They played with it a little and everything works, but they didn't learn much.

Teeny Bowden visited in the Museum of the Llano Estacado in Plainview with Eddie Guffee Friday afternoon. He looks much better and is gaining weight, but is still having trouble with his shoulder. Pinched nerve or something.

Emma Jean King went to get her mother, Ruby Oller from Happy, Saturday and bring her home with her since she was sick. She still was not doing well Sunday.

Adult education classes begin

The adult basic education program is underway in Dimmitt.

Classes meet Monday and Thursday nights from 7 to 9:30 at Dimmitt High School.

The classes are sponsored by the Region XVI Education Service Center.

Objectives of the program are: —To provide adults with basic reading, writing and math skills, and English as a second language.

—To prepare adults for competitive and successful results in the General Education Development (GED) test battery.

—To provide educational prerequisites to vocational training or post-secondary education.

Candlelight ceremony unites Graf, Bagley

Mr. and Mrs. Steven Andrew Bagley are home in Lockney following their Jan. 6 wedding and a honeymoon trip to Dallas.

The bride is the former Wyona Rene Graf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Albert Graf of Vernon. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Robert Bagley of Dimmitt.

The couple exchanged wedding vows in an evening candlelight ceremony at the St. Paul Lutheran Church in Vernon.

Rev. Rossetter Taylor Leavitt, pastor, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

An arrangement of white roses, gladioli and gypsophilia graced the altar. The communion rail held votive candles amid garlands of greenery. Pew markers with crystal hurricane globes banked with greenery and decorated with white satin bows lined the aisles of the church.

Traditional pre-nuptial music was presented by the organist, Mrs. Willie Kieschnick Jr., and the pianist, Mrs. Leroy Conner. Selections included Angels Ever Bright and Fair by Handel, Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring by Bach, The Swan by Saint-Saens, and My Heart Ever Faithful by Bach. Joyful, Joyful by Beethoven was performed as the couple's mothers were seated. Following the chimes of the wedding hour, Mrs. Johnny Walker, soloist, sang Whither Thou Goest by Singer. The processional began with Trumpet Voluntary by Clarke and the bride entered to the Bridal Chorus by Wagner. Mrs. Walker sang The Lord's Prayer by Malotte after the ring ceremony. The recessional was Wedding March by Mendelssohn.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original gown by Phyllis for Bianchi. It was created from regency satin in candlelight. The formal gown was enhanced by the fitted bodice of appliques of re-embroidered French Alencon lace with delicate traceries of tiny seed pearls cascading from the center-back.

The bride's veil of pure silk candlelight English illusion extending the length of the chapel train was held by a caplet of Alencon lace and pearl flowerettes. Sprays of tiny pearls accented the cap.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white roses and stephanotis entwined with English ivy, gypsophilia and white tulle tied with white satin picot streamers. Tucked into the bridal bouquet was the bride's maternal grandmother's gold wedding ring.

For good luck, she placed a sixpence in her shoe. She "borrowed" a pair of diamond earrings from her mother, which had been a gift to her mother from her father. To carry out the wedding tradition, she wore a blue garter, a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Dee Wayne Waggoner. The groom tossed a maroon and white garter with the lettering, "I'm an Aggie's girl!"

The bride completed her ensemble by wearing a single strand of pearls.

Maid of honor was Melanie Faye Graf of Lubbock, sister of the bride. Matron of honor was Jill Henson Read of Dallas.

Bridesmaids were Kelly Jo Bagley of Amarillo, sister of the groom, Lisa Marie Berger of College Station, Lynne Louise Brown of Marietta, Ga., Tracy Roberson Harvey of Arlington and Amy Kathleen Hendrickson of Houston.

MRS. STEVEN ANDREW BAGLEY
... nee Wyona Rene Graf

The bride's attendants wore identical gowns of deep rich burgundy. Elegant pouf sleeves of sil moire taffeta adorned the fitted velvet bodice. A single strand of pearls complemented the scooped neckline which fell into a deep plunging back. The waltz-length skirt of silk moire taffeta was enhanced by a basque waistline.

Each bridal attendant carried a nosegay of American Beauty roses and white miniature carnations accented with ivy and gypsophilia.

The bride's namesake, Heidi Rene Word, was the flower girl.

She wore a floor-length gown of burgundy moire taffeta and carried a white wicker basket containing rose petal potpourri. In her hair she wore white miniature roses and English ivy.

Joe Ed Word, the ring bearer, carried a white satin pillow edged in double lace ruffles with ribbons.

Scott Lee Bagley of Dimmitt served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Tod Eugene Bradley of Dimmitt, Joel Kent Carpenter of Silverton, Phillip Curtis Graf of Vernon, brother of the bride, Arthur Lloyd Miller of Garland, Brett David Scott of College Station and Baret Boyd Stephenson of College Station.

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple was honored with a reception at Hillcrest Country Club.

The foyer featured an arrangement of the bride's and bridesmaids' bouquets on a low table. The registry table was covered in white gathers to the floor and layered by a round white opaque cloth lavished with three-dimensional hand-embroidery.

Brenda Hildebrand of Memphis

registered guests. A candle used at the bride's parents wedding was nestled in greenery and graced the table.

The bridal table was covered with a family heirloom cloth of winter white Austrian linen featuring garlands of medallions of delicate handmade lace. The same classic motifs were repeated along the bands of scallops at the hem. Layers of crystal white satin skirted the table, which was centered by a fresh floral arrangement of flowing white roses, gladioli and gypsophilia.

The four-tiered wedding cake featured delicate stringwork and arrangements of hand-molded confectionary roses and stephanotis. The second tier of the large cake was centered over four round cakes which formed the base of the white-on-white English-style wedding cake. Floral arrangements on the cake were white with soft touches of burgundy in the throats of some flowers and the picot ribbons. The third and fourth tiers of the cake were elevated atop Grecian columns which framed larger floral bouquets. The cake was topped with a bride and groom figurine which had graced the wedding cake of the bride's maternal grandparents.

A raspberry punch was served from a silver punch bowl. Two three-pronged silver candelabras holding white tapers completed the setting.

The groom's table was covered with a champagne chintz cloth designed with tailored pleats and an overlay cloth of crisp champagne natural cotton with cutwork and re-embroidered octagonal lattice designs.

The groom's German chocolate cake was topped with a Texas

A&M University crest prepared by the groom's mother.

Silver candelabras bearing white tapers banked a silver epergne holding an arrangement of American Beauty roses. White bell mints and chocolate boot candies made by the bride's maternal grandmother were served from the table. Coffee and spiced tea were served from a silver service.

A round table covered with a white floor-length skirt held a champagne fountain. The couple performed a traditional toast with silver flutes presented to them by Lori and Ladd Mitchell.

The buffet table was covered with a white satin floor-length cloth with an overlay of gleaming white linen with streams of sculptured cutwork and lace ribbon. The table was centered with an arrangement of various fresh fruits. Assorted sandwiches and hors d'oeuvres were served from silver appointments. Trays of canapés were passed among the guests.

White wicker baskets held rose petal potpourri prepared by Mrs. Gene Willingham and Mrs. Marilyn Synatschik. The potpourri was distributed by Kodie Christa Ellis and Kori Marie Ellis, the groom's nieces. The couple was showered with the potpourri upon departure for the honeymoon.

The bride's traveling attire consisted of a winter white two-piece dress of ultra suede. The ensemble was enhanced with bright red accessories.

The bride, a graduate of Vernon High School, holds a bachelor of science degree in animal science and a master's degree in land economics and real estate from Texas A&M University.

The groom is a graduate of Dimmitt High School and holds a bachelor of science degree in animal science from Texas A&M University. He is employed in Plainview as procurement manager at Excel, Corp.

The bride was honored with several showers and receptions before the wedding including an "Around the Clock" bridal shower, a cocktail buffet, a miscellaneous shower, a "Trim the Tree" shower and buffet, and a brunch and kitchen shower.

A dance was held in honor of the couple following the rehearsal dinner, which was hosted by the groom's parents at Paty's Restaurant Mexicano. At the dinner the couple exchanged gifts and presented mementos of the wedding to the bridal party.

Other courtesies included a bridegroom's brunch and a bridesmaids' luncheon.

Kelly Howell is honored

Kelly Howell of Dimmitt has been named to the president's list at Panhandle State University in Goodwell, Okla., for the fall semester.

Howell, a freshman at PSU, is the starting tailback for the Aggie football team. He maintained a perfect 4.0 grade point average while taking 13 hours last semester.

MR. AND MRS. BRETT CAFFREY SHEFFY
... She's the former Kathy Lee Stafford

Vows are exchanged

Kathy Lee Stafford and Brett Caffrey Sheffy were wed in an informal, double-ring ceremony Saturday at the home of the groom's parents, Rex and Dorothy Sheffy.

Rev. Van Earl Hughes of Dimmitt officiated at the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Dean Stafford of Tulane, Calif.

The couple exchanged wedding vows in front of the fireplace decorated with greenery and lighted candles on the mantle.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, wore her older sister's candlelight ivory wedding gown. It was trimmed with lace and waterfall pleats. The bodice had a Victorian neckline with satin embroidery lace and pearls.

Her veil fell from a pearl and satin lace headpiece with pearl flowers surrounding the edge.

For "something old" the bride wore her grandmother's wedding ring. "Something new" was a gold bracelet from her grandmother and "something blue" was a blue garter.

She carried a cascading bouquet of candlelight roses, pink roses and baby's breath.

Maid of honor was Bea Vallejo of Lubbock.

She carried a smaller bouquet of candlelight roses, pink roses and baby's breath.

Best man was Scott Sheffy of Dimmitt, brother of the groom.

A reception followed with wedding cake and punch served to the guests by Driscilla Storrs, sister of the groom, and Shawn Sheffy, the groom's sister-in-law.

The bride is employed with Dr. Karkoutly.

The groom is a 1989 graduate of Texas Tech University and is employed at Stephen Craig.

The couple will make their home in Lubbock.

Commissioners ...

County/District Attorney Jimmy Davis recommended a few changes in the contract, and the commissioners tabled the matter until the next meeting.

The commissioners voted to reschedule the regular Jan. 22 meeting, postponing it until Jan. 29, because of a conflict with the County Judges and Commissioners Conference.

In approving payment of accounts, the commissioners refused payment of a $1,877.50 bill from Tom McLain for services performed at the behest of Smith. The bill listed delivery of water for road work and use of a loader. Smith told the commissioners he had received a $500 contribution toward the cost from a private individual and indicated that he would seek other means of payment of the bill.

County Judge Polly Simpson said she had trouble with the bill because she had asked Smith to bring in an estimate of the work needed and let bids on the project, which Smith did not do.

Smith asked that items of business he had placed on the agenda be tabled until the next meeting.

He had asked approval of custom hire for crushing of caliche to be used in road improvements, and for hauling of the caliche.

Smith had also suggested that the commissioners hire a detective to help the sheriff and the district attorney in investigating sale of drugs and alcohol to underage persons.

Sheriff Lonny Rhynes said that such a detective would have to work under direction of his office and would not be able to do any more than is being done now. He added that the Panhandle Regional Task Force supplies some undercover agents, but recently suffered a funding cut.

Concerning custom hire, Davis read civil statutes that spell out budget procedures the commissioners must observe.

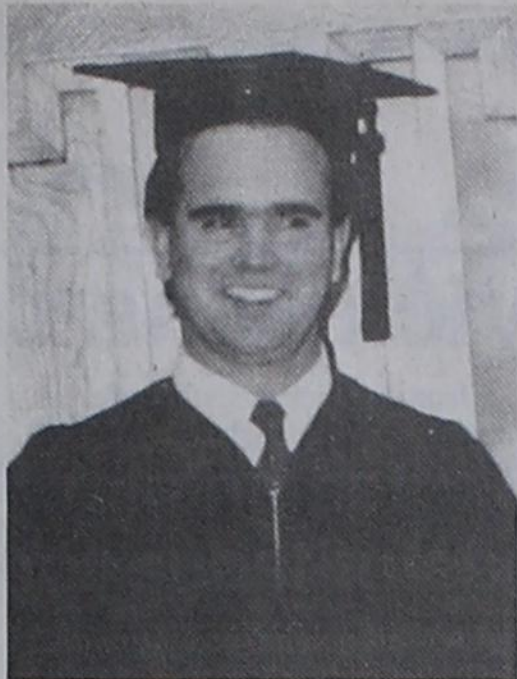

The commissioners told Precinct 1 residents who appeared at the meeting that there was very little recourse for this budget year.

Several residents asked that consideration be given to the matter for the next fiscal year.

The commissioners acknowledged the residents' concerns about the roads in their precinct and offered to work with Smith in rearranging his budget according to law, including line item transfers. But Davis pointed out that new budget categories could not be added.

Precinct 2 Commissioner Dale Winders recommended to Smith that he hire several full-time employees to perform work being done by volunteers and "custom hire" firms, since Smith has sufficient funds in the salary budget category.

Smith objected, saying he refuses to pay "$12 an hour" to laborers. He cited the value of job benefits and paid holidays and sick leave as contributing to the inflated wage level.

MARK L. KLEMAN, son of Alphonse and Viola Kleman of Nazareth, recently graduated from Texas Tech University in Lubbock. He graduated Dec. 19 with a degree in agricultural economics. He is employed with Production Credit Association in Dimmitt.

Lions set raffle to benefit White

The Dimmitt Lions Club voted Tuesday to raffle a color TV set, a VCR and a microwave oven to raise money for the Justin White Medical Fund.

White, 19-year-old son of Lions Club member Lloyd White, has a serious liver disease and will need a transplant.

The Lions voted to sell tickets to the three prizes for $10 each. Names of first-choice, second-choice and third-choice winners will be drawn at a date and place to be decided by the club's board of directors.

Tickets should go on sale within the next week, Boss Lion Jim Baker said.

Children's behavior can be embarrassing

Parents who are embarrassed by their young child's behavior in public have obviously not done their homework, according to a specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Because children are not born socialized or to mind in public, they have to be taught social rules at home," said Dorothy Taylor, family life specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at College Station.

"Threats to go to the car or to go home, pinching or kicking a child under the table or to ignore a disruptive, attention-seeking child reflect the parents inability to take charge of the situation," she said.

Taylor said that most parents have been or will be embarrassed in public at some time by a child's behavior. She suggested several steps to minimize these occurrences.

"Plan public times or expeditions to take advantage of 'up time' for the child," she said. "Avoid taking a hungry, sleepy or tired child anywhere but to home and his or her bed."

She also suggested making common sense rules, such as young children should sit in shopping carts or in strollers, children should walk with the parent and never run.

Parents should accentuate the positive, the Extension Service specialist said. Tell children you know they will try to be good. Let them know you'll remind them gently if they forget. "A quiet whisper will do more good than all the threats in the world," Taylor said.

"Controlling one's behavior is tough, especially if you haven't had many years to practice. Promise the child a reward for helping you and everyone else have a pleasant time," she said.

"When a child needs correcting, take him aside — leave," Taylor said. "Throwing a fit is an historical, worldwide event known best by children. Removing him from his audience removes his support or power and parents can take charge again."

"Parents are responsible for their young child's behavior," Taylor said.

vice stations in the Panhandle will begin marketing the ethanol-blend fuel.

Ethanol's main benefit is that it burns cleaner than fossil fuels, TCGA President Carl King of Dimmitt said.

"We want people to realize that ethanol is a clean-burning motor fuel," King said. "While providing a market for Texas corn, ethanol can go a long way in helping clean up the air in major metropolitan areas."

This session is for any who wish to substitute teach in Dimmitt schools, and who have not yet completed a training session.

Business "Directories" not always good business for merchants

By: JIM MATTOX
Attorney General

Businesses, like consumers, can fall victim to fraud and because advertising is a vital part of doing business, the fraud often involves deceptive ad schemes.

Business "directories" for example, can be a good way for local merchants to introduce their products to new customers. Unfortunately, they can also be a good way for merchants to get ripped off.

Recently, a few unscrupulous operations have bilked Texas businesses of hundreds of thousands of dollars. As a result the attorney general's office has filed deceptive advertising lawsuits against some publishers of business directories, "coupon books" and so-called "Yellow Pages."

In one case, a company sold ads and published a coupon book the first year of business, then continued selling advertising for directories that were supposed to be published over the next three years. Our Consumer Protection Division alleged that at least $140,000 was collected from local businesses for directories that were never published.

Another company sent solicitations to businesses for "Yellow Pages" ads. Our office alleged these advertising solicitations were deceptive because they created the impression that they were from Southwestern Bell Yellow Pages, when they were not. We also alleged that the solicitations created the impression they were "invoices" for ads that had been placed in the past, when they were merely solicitations for publications in which the businesses had never advertised before.

Some business directory companies have collected advertising money from merchants, then gone out of business before publishing a directory. If the company files bankruptcy, merchants might recover a portion of the money by filing a claim with the bankruptcy court.

Don't be fooled by an ad solicitation in the mail that is in the form of an invoice. If it looks like an invoice, be sure you already have an agreement for this particular advertising.

Beware of directories with names similar to well-known advertising outlets such as "Yellow Pages."

If you have a complaint about a business directory or any other consumer complaint, call your nearest Consumer Protection Office in Austin, Dallas, El Paso, Houston, Lubbock, McAllen and San Antonio.

BILLY RAY THOMAS snares a defensive rebound for Dimmitt in the Bobcats' game against the Farwell Steers, the state's top-ranked Class AA team, Friday night at Farwell. At left, Jermaine Williams (22) gets ready to head south on the break while Justin Shultz hits the floor. The Bobcats led until late in the third, but hit a cold streak in the fourth and lost to the tall, strong Steers, 50-61.

Vick wins competition Friona sets chili supper

Jennifer Vick, a sixth grader at Dimmitt Middle School, won a gold medal for overall in the 9 to 12-year-old class eight open division, with a winning score of 28.7 in the recent US Gymnastics Federation-sponsored meet held in Altus.

Vick placed first in vault, uneven bars, balance beam and floor exercise. She is a member of Hamilton's Gymnastics Club of Canyon, and is coached by Pat Hamilton. As a member of the Capitol Gymnastics of Austin, Vick competed in the state gymnastics meet last year.

Vick is the daughter of Johnny and Janie Vick, and the granddaughter of Clara Vick and Bob and Mildred Sheffy, all of Dimmitt.

White asks for chance 'to become a success'

Dear Editor:

My name is Justin White. I reside in Dimmitt, Texas. I am 19 years old and would like to have a chance in life to make something successful of myself.

Unfortunately, I have a very serious liver disease. I have been told I have three months to a year to live unless I have a liver transplant.

This transplant requires a $230,000 deposit and has to be done in Houston. I URGENTLY need ANY donations that can be given. I appreciate everyone's prayers for me and their concern and support.

MAY GOD BLESS YOU ALL.
JUSTIN WHITE

Assembly of God to host McGee

Rev. Michael McGee, Assemblies of God missionary to Mexico, will be the guest speaker at the First Assembly of God, Southeast Second and Belsher in Dimmitt at 11 a.m. Sunday, according to Claude Hendricks, pastor of the local church.

The public is invited to hear the missionaries' presentation Sunday.

While the Assemblies of God has been evangelizing Mexico since the early 1920's, Rev. McGee and his wife, Becky, are currently the only Assemblies of God missionaries working in Guadalajara, a city of six million people with an additional four million people living in the area. Through a series of tent crusades and construction programs during the past four years, the McGees have already seen the planting of four churches.

Two years ago they established the first Biblical Institute of the Assemblies of God in the region. The McGee family directs and produces many city-wide drama presentations. Their vision goes beyond the borders of Mexico. They opened a new ministry, Latin America Drama Development (LADD). During their next term the McGees desire to promote drama throughout all of Latin America. They sense a new awakening among the Latin people, and believe the next 10 years will provide greater opportunities for spiritual awakening.

CPS fiesta set Sunday

Child Protective Services will hold its second annual Mexican Fiesta Sunday from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the Expo Building.

Adult tickets can be purchased for $4 and children under 12 will be admitted for $3.

The Castro County CPS board is holding the fiesta to help raise funds to purchase an educational program.

WHO, We Help Ourselves, is an educational program designed to help children and teenagers learn how to avoid all kinds of victimization such as abuse, neglect, violent, assault, rape and sexual assault, kidnapping, peer pressure, domestic violence and emotional abuse.

The program will be made available to schools, churches and special groups in Castro County.

The board wants to thank the people in the county for supporting the organization's work and invites everyone to attend the Mexican fiesta.

Self-concept workshop set

The self-concept improvement workshop, "It's Up to Me," will be held Saturday in the courthouse assembly room in Dimmitt.

The session will begin at 8:30 a.m. with registration. The program will be presented at 9 a.m., and those attending will view the movie, "The Land Before Time," at 2:30 p.m.

Participants need to bring a sack lunch. Drinks will be provided.

The workshop is targeted for nine to 12-year-olds. Topics will include accepting others, dealing with peer pressure, setting goals, competing instead of comparing, and being yourself.

The event is sponsored by the Castro County 4-H Parent/Leader Association, 4-H & Youth Committee and the Castro County Extension Office.

WT students are honored

Several Castro County students have been named to honors lists at West Texas State University for the fall semester.

Dimmitt students named to the deans' list include Carole D. Baker, senior art major; Cary D. Buchanan, sophomore accounting major; Jerral G. Hopper, junior nursing major; Davis S. Sava, sophomore accounting major; and Alicia L. Shippy, freshman reading major.

Amy Salinas of Dimmitt, a freshman at WTSU, was named to the president's list.

From Nazareth, students making the deans' list include Gail V. Birkensfeld, senior business major; Brenda K. Goad, senior business major; and Tamara Y. Robb, senior reading major.

Bart Huseman of Nazareth, a senior computer information systems major, was named to the president's list.

Students earning president's list recognition achieved a semester grade point average of 3.850 or better with a minimum class load of 12 hours.

Students on the deans' list achieved GPA's of at least 3.25.
