San Francisco lawmakers try new tacks to curb soda drinking

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — San Francisco lawmakers are taking another stab at curbing soda consumption seven months after local voters rejected taxing sugary drinks in the name of public health.

A Board of Supervisors committee is expected to take up three pieces of legislation on Monday that represent a new front in the sweetened-beverage wars, the San Francisco Chronicle reported.

One proposed measure would require soda ads posted on buses, billboards and other city surfaces to carry warnings stating that drinks with added sugar contribute to obesity, diabetes and tooth decay. The rule would also apply to sports venues.

The other laws under consideration would ban soda ads on public property and prohibit city funds from being used to buy soda.

Industry groups that spent $10 million to defeat the proposed soda tax on the San Francisco ballot last November plan to fight the bills, American Beverage Association spokesman Roger Salazar told the Chronicle.

"We believe that all sugars are the same," Salazar said. "No one product can be singled out more than anything else."

A bill that would have required health warning labels on individual bottles and cans of sugar-sweetened drinks sold in California, the Sugar-Sweetened Beverage Safety Warning Act, was introduced in the state Senate this year. It died in committee on a tie vote with one abstention.

Members of the San Francisco Medical Society and the American Heart Association plan to speak in favor of the proposals on Monday. Dr. John Maa, a surgeon at the University of California, San Francisco, said sodas deserve special treatment because, unlike foods with added sugar, the calories in sweetened beverages pile up quickly without sating consumers' appetites.

Pinch-hit hero

Hamilton's walk-off two-run double gives Texas come-from-behind win over Boston

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — Josh Hamilton was watching from the bench for the first time since rejoining the Texas Rangers.

Then with one swing, he won the game that gave the Rangers their first series victory at home this season — in the 2010 AL MVP's first home series for Texas since 2012. "It feels like old times," Hamilton said. "It really does. It's a lot of fun. Coming back home and having some good games against Boston and then having a game like today reminds you of some good times for the Rangers."

Hamilton had a pinch-hit, two-run double with two outs in the bottom of the ninth inning Sunday for a 4-3 victory over the Boston Red Sox, lining a 1-1 splitter off Koji Uehara into the left-center gap.

Hamilton was pinch-hitting for Adam Rosales, who had earlier replaced Adrian Beltre after the third baseman sprained and cut his left thumb sliding in the fifth inning. Beltre is out at least two weeks.

Hanser Alberto, the rookie in his third major league game, led off the ninth reaching on third baseman Pablo DeShields' second fielding error. Delino DeShields then a sacrifice bunt and Shin-Soo Choo grounded out. AL batting leader Price Fielder was intentionally walked — and scored the game-winning run from first with a belly flop into the plate.

Rangers manager Jeff Banister, watching the game on television in his office after being ejected in the top of the ninth, heard the roar of the crowd before seeing the slightly delayed video.

"I knew that we at least tied it, and got to watch the big man go across home plate," Banister said.

Hamilton, who had started his first six games since rejoining the Rangers on the road last Monday and homered twice Friday night, had his eighth career walk-off hit.

It was his sixth game-winner for Texas, and first since May 26, 2012. That was in the last of his five consecutive All-Star seasons with the Rangers, including their only two World Series appearances, before leaving in February to the Angels. Los Angeles traded him back to its AL West rival on April 27.

At 26-25, the Rangers moved over .500 for the first time in nearly a year — since being 31-

30 last June 6. They won three in a row over the Red Sox.

Boston has lost six of its past seven games.

Uehara (2-2), a former teammate of Hamilton's in Texas, thought he threw a good pitch.

"I put extra pressure on myself to get out of that inning," Uehara said through an interpreter, referring to the error. "I wanted to have my teammates back. I wasn't able to."

Ross Ohlendorf (1-0), the fifth Texas pitcher, threw a scoreless ninth when the Red Sox left a runner stranded at third base.

BYE-BYE BANISTER

The Rangers manager was ejected in the top of the ninth after umpire Todd Tichenor ruled Rusney Castillo had been shoved off second base by shortstop Elvis Andrus on a stolen base.

Banister went out to discuss the non-reviewable play, and the conversation got heated. Replays showed that Castillo's momentum took him past the base as Andrus reached back to apply a tag.

Castillo got stranded at third.

NASCAR:

Johnson a perfect 10 at Dover

DOVER, Del. (AP) — Jimmie Johnson took the congratulatory call from his boss, then flipped the phone for a selfie.

The six-time series champ and crew chief Chad Knaus sandwiched the 60-pound trophy and smiled for a familiar photo.

"You've only got 10 of 'em," a fan yelled at the victory lane celebration.

Johnson said: "We'll keep them coming!"

Johnson had already mastered the Monster Mile like no other driver. His latest win earned him a slice of NASCAR history that etched his name in the same class as five Hall of Fame drivers.

With his No. 48 Chevrolet on cold tires, Johnson got hot down the stretch Sunday to win at Dover International Speedway and become the fifth driver with 10 or more Sprint Cup victories at a single track.

"It was cool to have a track that I enjoyed so much turn into a track I could win at," Johnson said. "We've been able to keep that feeling going for a lot of years."

Unlike his other nine Dover wins when he led at least 175 laps in each race, Johnson led only 23 laps for this perfect 10. Johnson has 10 wins in 27 career starts on the concrete mile track. He needed five extra laps beyond the scheduled 400 because a late accident brought out the caution.

He has four wins this season, 74 in his career and has won at least four times in a season 11 times.

On deck, Johnson could catch Dale Earnhardt for seventh on the career wins list with 76.

"It's right there in front of me, so I look at it and think, wow,

Danks blanks Houston, 6-0

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Astros had plenty of hits against Chicago White Sox starter John Danks.

But they couldn't figure out how to score on him.

Danks allowed 10 hits, including five extra-base hits, to earn his first shutout of the season to help the White Sox defeat the Astros 6-0 on Sunday.

According to STATS, Danks is the only pitcher to give up at least 10 hits and at least five extra-base hits in a shutout going back to 1914.

The most recent pitcher to give up at least 10 hits in a shutout was Carlos Silva on August 3, 2004, against the Angels.

"I caught some breaks," Danks said. "I was really just trying to keep the ball in the ballpark and let these guys do work. It worked out."

Adam LaRoche homered and Conor Gillaspie went 2 for 4 with two RBIs for the White Sox, who won two of three against the first-place Astros.

For the first time all season, Houston has lost consecutive series, going 2-4 against Baltimore and Chicago.

Houston's Jonathan Villar was thrown out at the plate in the fifth inning as he was trying to stretch a triple into an inside-the-park home run. His shot to center sailed over Eaton's head and rolled to the wall atop Tal's Hill before he was thrown out.

In his next plate appearance, Villar doubled in the seventh inning. He was thrown out in a rundown between third base and home on Jason Castro's single. Villar also committed one fielding error on a wild throw to first base.

"It's a work in progress," Houston manager A.J. Hinch said of Villar's defense. "Today shouldn't reflect on the progress that he's made throughout the year, but today wasn't his best."

A day after being blanked by Dallas Keuchel's four-hit shutout on Saturday, the White Sox responded behind a solid performance from Danks (3-4).

Danks entered Sunday with an 0-2 record and a 9.28 ERA in two starts at Houston. He was 0-3 with a 9.15 ERA in four starts against the Astros, but put it all behind him on Sunday.

It was Danks' third career shutout and first since August 2011 against Seattle. Danks threw 118 pitches, 82 for strikes, walking one and striking out six.

Texas A&M beats Coastal Carolina 8-1 in NCAA play

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) — Andrew Vinson allowed five hits in 7 2-3 shutout innings and Texas A&M beat Coastal Carolina 8-1 on Sunday in an NCAA regional elimination game.

Vinson improved to 5-2. Nick Banks and Logan Nottelbrok homered for the Aggies.

Texas A&M (47-12) has allowed only three runs over 32 innings in the regional, with a shutout over Texas Southern University and a 2-1, 14-inning loss to California on Saturday night.

The Aggies faced Cal again Sunday night, in hopes of forcing a final title game Monday.

Coastal Carolina finished the season 39-21.

Rice edges Houston Baptist 3-1

HOUSTON (AP) — Ryan Chandler had two hits and two RBIs to lead Rice to a 3-1 win over Houston Baptist Sunday in the completion of a suspended elimination game.

The game was suspended in the top of the fourth inning due to lightning and rain on Saturday.

Rice (36-21) moves on to face the loser of Louisiana-Lafayette and Houston in another elimination game later Sunday. Houston Baptist (28-27) was eliminated.

Chandler put the Owls on top 1-0 in the fourth with an RBI double before the rain delay started Saturday.

After the game resumed on Sunday, Chandler scored off a wild pitch by

Tomorrow's Horoscope

Cosmic Pre-Game Speech

HOLIDAY MATHIS

The laser focus of the Scorpio moon rules the morning, and there's an auspicious lunar trine to Venus, as well, making the a.m. hours the perfect time to get clear on what you'd like to bring into your world during tomorrow's Sagittarius full moon. This is like the locker room speech before the big game or the backstage huddle before show time.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). Reality is what it is, not what you think it must be. Reminding yourself of this will help you to be patient with yourself and the world around you. From this relaxed place, you'll make a brilliant move.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). Your success formula is rather straightforward these days. Get organized and keep your priorities straight, and as a result, you'll be personally and professionally productive.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Will the good you do today be forgotten tomorrow? If it is, this won't sway you from your course. After all, you do good for its own sake. Your life is more meaningful when you abide by what you know is right.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). You'll make a casual presentation. This is getting you ready for something bigger. You may feel like you're awkwardly floundering through it, but this is a blessing. A stumble can prevent a fall.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Your playfulness opens social horizons. That said, try to stay out of the spotlight. Not needing to be the center of attention shows confidence. (But you may accidentally get the most attention anyway.)

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). You see clearly how everyone is just looking for the way -- for the way in love, in vices, in religion, in work... You have compassion for all. You refuse to pass judgment.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). This is where you prove that you're tenacious. If you fail to sell an idea today, you'll succeed in gaining more information to help you sell it later. Make notes after the interaction so you can learn from what happened.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). People need closure. It might not even be your responsibility to give it to them, but if you can do it, you will. You understand the value in a feeling of completion.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). It's been said that all fires start small. There's one growing inside you today that begins as a warm ember. You'll fan it with the kindling of your mind and the passion of your heart.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). Everyone else could be wrong about what's right for you. You're the only one who really knows. You may listen to their advice and even try it out, but ultimately your own decisions are the ones you'll stand behind.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). You don't have to know everything about art to know what you like. The same goes for music, food and people. You'll sample many delights and land on a few favorites.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). You may realize that you are developing certain expectations of a relationship. This is a good time to check them against reality to make sure you're wanting something that's reasonable.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (June 1). The work you'll do over the next 10 weeks will lead to more money and travel, too. Challenges will be solved by drawing on diverse ideas or knowledge. Friends with a background very different from yours will be especially helpful to your life. August features a lovely mystery. September has you contemplating a major change. Aries and Leo people adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 40, 15, 3, 33 and 16.

ASTROLOGICAL QUESTIONS: Where is the planet Uranus now, and what does that mean?

If you ever find that you have 42 or so Earth years to burn, here's an interesting way to spend them. Go to the North Pole of Uranus, and watch the sun rise and dance around in the sky for 42 years. When the sun finally sets, unless you brought a long-lasting flashlight, you may as well leave the planet, because you're in for 42 Earth years of darkness before the next Uranus sunrise.

Uranus spends about seven years transiting each sign of the zodiac, and so its effect is considered more generational than personal. In astrology, Uranus is the planet of revolution. It is a freedom cry and a rock 'n' roll rebellion. It's the planet of surprise and uproar and innovation. It's also the planet that rules science and technology. Uranus entered Aries on March 11, 2011, and will transit this part of the sky until May 15, 2018. It's a highly energetic, if not radical placement for the already rowdy planetary influence, indicating rapid changes and breakthroughs for mankind. Advances from medicine to social media to weaponry will continue to shape the new decade in surprising ways.

CELEBRITY PROFILES: Maybe it's his authoritative voice, or maybe it's the glow of kindness and goodness that radiates from his presence, but for some reason, Morgan Freeman usually gets cast in the godly role. Born when the sun was in versatile Gemini and the moon was in spiritual Pisces, Freeman has a varied natal chart in which all elements are well represented. Look for him the upcoming comedy "Ted 2."

The bidding:
West North East South
1♥ Pass 2♥ 2♠
3♥ 3♠ Pass 4♠
Opening lead — ace of hearts.

This deal occurred in the very first Bermuda Bowl world championship, way back in 1950, in the match between Great Britain and the United States. Despite the fact that the North-South hands contained only 20 points in high cards, both the English and American pairs arrived at four spades after identical auctions. At the first table, with a U.S. pair North-South, the British West led the ace and another heart. Declarer (Sam Stayman) ruffed the second heart and played the ace and another spade. West rose with the king and led a third round of hearts. Stayman ruffed and led a spade to the queen followed by a club to the ace. When West's queen appeared, Stayman could claim 10 tricks — five clubs, four spades and the ace of diamonds — for a score of 620 points. At the second table, with a British pair now North-South, the play differed considerably. West (John Crawford) chose the singleton queen of clubs as his opening lead. Declarer won with the ace and also played the ace and another spade. Crawford went up with the king and then made the dramatic — but absolutely necessary — lead of a low heart. East won with the jack and returned a club, ruffed by Crawford, and declarer eventually lost a diamond trick for down one. Thanks to Crawford's inspired defense, the U.S. team gained 720 points on the deal.

This Date In History

Today is Monday, June 1, the 152nd day of 2015. There are 213 days left in the year.

Today's Highlight in History:

On June 1, 1915, the T.S. Eliot poem "The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock" was first published in "Poetry: A Magazine of Verse" in Chicago.

On this date:

In 1533, Anne Boleyn, the second wife of King Henry VIII, was crowned as Queen Consort of England.

In 1792, Kentucky became the 15th state of the union.

In 1796, Tennessee became the 16th state.

In 1813, the mortally wounded commander of the USS Chesapeake, Capt. James Lawrence, gave the order, "Don't give up the ship" during a losing battle with the British frigate HMS Shannon in the War of 1812.

In 1868, James Buchanan, the 15th president of the United States, died near Lancaster, Pennsylvania, at age 77.

In 1933, in a bizarre scene captured by news photographers, Lya Graf, a female circus dwarf, sat in the lap of financier J.P. Morgan Jr. during a recess of a Senate hearing on the stock market crash of 1929.

In 1943, a civilian flight from Portugal to England was shot down by Germany during World War II, killing all 17 people aboard, including actor Leslie Howard.

In 1955, the romantic comedy "The Seven Year Itch," starring Marilyn Monroe and Tom Ewell, had its world premiere in New York.

In 1968, author-lecturer Helen Keller, who'd earned a college degree despite being blind and deaf almost all of her life, died in Westport, Connecticut, at age 87.

In 1980, Cable News Network made its debut.

In 1990, President George H.W. Bush and Soviet leader Mikhail S. Gorbachev signed the foundation of a landmark treaty for the first-ever cuts in strategic nuclear missiles and a pact to slash chemical weapons stockpiles.

In 2009, Air France Flight 447, an Airbus A330 carrying 228 people from Rio de Janeiro to Paris, crashed into the Atlantic Ocean with the loss of everyone on board.

One year ago: Freed American soldier Sgt. Bowe Bergdahl entered the Landstuhl Regional Medical Center in Germany, a day after he was released by the Taliban in exchange for five Guantanamo terrorism detainees. (Bergdahl was later charged with desertion.) Ann B. Davis, 88, who became America's favorite and most famous housekeeper as the devoted Alice Nelson on television's "The Brady Bunch," died in San Antonio, Texas.

Thought for Today:
"Our age knows nothing but reaction, and leaps from one extreme to another."
Reinhold Niebuhr, American theologian (1892-1971).

"this is incredible," Johnson said. "Yes, it's a priority for me and something I want to do. But I'm almost in shock that we're there. Seventy-four race wins, 10 here, you can't dream that big."

Johnson drank a beer in victory lane and took a quick call from team owner Rick Hendrick.

"I know what I'm capable of and felt just fine doing it," Johnson said. "And, I've got a great rhythm. I've got great support at home."

No active driver owns a track like Johnson does Dover.

Johnson joined NASCAR Hall of Famers Richard Petty (Martinsville-15, North Wilkesboro-15, Richmond-13, Rockingham-11, Daytona-10), Darrell Waltrip (Bristol-12, Martinsville-11, North Wilkesboro-10), Earnhardt (Talladega-10) and David Pearson (Darlington-10) as drivers to win 10 races at a single track.

The Hendrick Motorsports driver swept Dover in 2002 and 2009 and also won races in 2005, 2010, 2012, 2013 and 2014.

Kevin Harvick was second, followed by Kyle Larson, Kasey Kahne and Aric Almirola.

"I figured it would be tough to have a shot at Jimmie," Larson said.

Harvick held a comfortable lead until the field was bunched on a late caution. Kyle Busch, who was in the top five, connected with Brian Scott to end the race for each driver. Busch, who poked his head inside Scott's window for a chat, was unhurt in his second points race since he suffered leg and ankle injuries at Daytona.

Busch needs a win and to hit the top 30 in the points standings to become eligible for the Chase for the Sprint Cup championship.

Harvick and Johnson both stayed out on old tires during cautions. Knaus gambled that the No. 48 Chevrolet was as stout on four cold tires as others would be on two or four fresh ones.

He was right. Johnson never lost control, even with two more cautions, including one that that came after Clint Bower, Denny Hamlin and Kurt Busch all tangled on the track. Casey Mears wrecked to bring out the final caution with three laps remaining.

"I was trying to be smart with my line and I guess guys on two tires weren't all that fast," Johnson said.

"Tonight, we were shut down, but for the most part, our offense has been very potent and very dangerous with home runs, with some extra-base hits," Hinch said. "We need to continue to play clean baseball in order for us to get where we want to get."

Leading 1-0, Chicago used a three-run third inning to extend its lead.

With the bases loaded, Gillaspie singled to right, scoring Adam Eaton and Melky Cabrera.

Alexei Ramirez followed by grounding into a force out that scored LaRoche.

The White Sox took an early lead in the second inning when catcher Tyler Flowers dribbled a single to center that scored Gillaspie. It was just Flowers' second RBI in his previous 20 plate appearances. After going 0 for 5 with three strikeouts on Friday, he did not play on Saturday.

Flowers entered Sunday's game with a .139 average in his previous 11 games.

Chicago went up 5-0 in the top of the sixth when Carlos Sanchez singled to center to score Ramirez.

LaRoche extended the lead to 6-0 with a solo homer for his sixth of the year.

Houston starter Roberto Hernandez (2-4) took his second loss in his past seven starts, allowing five runs and eight hits in 5 2-3 innings pitched.

Ford Stainback had four hits and scored twice for Rice.

Jordan Stephens went three innings. He allowed no runs and one hit with three strikeouts Saturday before the game was suspended. Ricardo Salinas (3-2) threw 2 2-3 innings of relief for the win.

Rangers' Beltre out at least 2 weeks with sprained thumb

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — Texas Rangers third baseman Adrian Beltre will miss at least two weeks with a sprained thumb that he also cut while sliding into second base Sunday.

X-rays were negative, and team physician Dr. Keith Meister diagnosed a sprain after examining Beltre. The third baseman, who was being fitted for a splint, also needed four stitches for a cut he sustained on the play.

Beltre was slow to get up after sliding into second base in the fifth inning of the series finale against Boston. It was on a play when he was retired on a fielder's choice.

Replays showed Beltre's left hand was sliding across the ground when it got close to the base. The Rangers initially said he jammed his left thumb.

Adam Rosales replaced Beltre at third base when Texas took the field in the sixth.

Manziel tosses water bottle at heckler during PGA event

IRVING, Texas (AP) — Troubled Cleveland Browns quarterback Johnny Manziel threw a water bottle at a heckler in an incident that didn't lead to any arrests or charges at the AT&T Byron Nelson golf tournament.

Manziel had been turning away autograph requests from the fan for about two hours Saturday during the third round when an exchange escalated in the pool area of the Four Seasons Resort where the PGA Tour event is held, Irving police spokesman James McLellan said.

The water bottle missed the 18-year-old male, and someone who was with Manziel pushed the fan, leading officers to intervene.
