State of the area

City, county leaders to give updates at Chamber event Tues.

BY LYNDEL MOODY
 Staff Writer

What is in store for Big Spring and Howard County?

Hopefully, city leaders will provide at least their vision of that question Tuesday when they speak during the annual State of the City/County Address sponsored by the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce.

"This is a time for the community to have a chance to stay informed about what is happening locally in the city and the county and it gives them a chance to meet and speak with their elected officials," said Debbye ValVerde, chamber executive director.

Big Spring Mayor Larry McLellan and Howard County Judge Kathryn Wiseman are both scheduled to speak at the event which is at the East Room of the Dorothy Garrett Coliseum located on the Howard College campus, 1001 Birdwell Lane. Ticket sales for the event ended Thursday.

The event will be held during the

And the bands will play on. It was a stellar day for all three Howard County high school bands Saturday. Big Spring, Coahoma and Forsan bands all earned Division I ratings for their marching performances at the Region 6 contest held in Odessa.

"All the judges were complementary. It was the kids' best performance both musically and marching," said Big Spring High School band director Rocky Harris.

Led by drum majors Abbey Bryan and Danelle Conner, the band's half-time routine of "Superstar" garnered several positive remarks from the judges, Harris said.

"My favorite remark from a judge was 'good marching, well taught and smart band.' That is just what you want to hear," Harris said.

The Division I rating places the band on track for another consecutive sweepstakes. Now, Harris and his assistants can turn the students' focus toward concert season in the fall. This is not a state-qualifying year for 4A march bands.

As for the Coahoma and Forsan bands, the (marching) show goes on. Because both bands earning Division I rating, they qualify to move on to the area round of competition set for Saturday in Amarillo.

A powerhouse in its class, Forsan High School has earned a number of consecutive trips to state competition for the last 15 years or more. Under the leadership of Director Jim Rhodes, the FHS band has proved to be a regular favorite to win state honors.

Wiseman said she hopes to spend most of her allotted time to introduce county officials and possibly have some of them speak to the audience.

"I want to be able to at least introduce all our elected county officials, so the public knows who they are and can have a chance to speak with them at the luncheon," Wiseman said.

For more information about the luncheon, call the Chamber at call 263-7641.

BSHS defeats Estacado

The Big Spring Lady Steers earned a key district volleyball victory by downing Lubbock Estacado, 25-13, 25-15, 29-27 Saturday afternoon.

Katie Wash led Big Spring in assists with 11, while Addie Jimenez was the top spiker with eight kills. August Alexander tallied five digs to lead the Lady Steers in that department.

Big Spring's JV also was victorious, taking a 25-14, 25-13 victory over Estacado Saturday. Ashley Gonzalez had a tood all-around game with nine assists, four aces, and a kill and a dig. Jaryn Vanover added seven kills and an ace, while Kayleigh Penny and Marilyn Cerda each had five kills.

The BSHS freshmen made it a clean sweep, knocking off Estacado, 25-16, 25-16. Keila Yanez had three aces and three kills to lead Big Spring.

Forsan's Walker Park (11) tries to elude a trio of McCamey defenders during their football game Friday in Forsan. FHS defeated the Badgers to improve to 6-2 for the season.

Hopkins puts on a show as Texans win

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — DeAndre Hopkins could be a huge problem for the Jacksonville Jaguars for years, maybe even the next decade.

The budding star caught 10 passes for 148 yards and two touchdowns, helping the Houston Texans beat the lowly Jaguars 31-20 on Sunday. It was Houston's eighth win in the last 10 meetings.

And unless Jacksonville finds a way to slow down the 23-year-old Hopkins, the recently lopsided series may not turn.

"When you see a guy like that who wants the ball, who wants it in crunch time and who has the ability to go out and do it, it's fun to have him on your team," quarterback Brian Hoyer said.

Hopkins put on quite the show against the Jaguars (1-5), who lost their fourth straight.

The third-year pro made a catch down the sideline in which he trapped the ball with one hand against his helmet just before going out of bounds. He bobbled a ball briefly in the back of the end zone before securing it for a 9-yard touchdown. And he smoked cornerback Davon House with a double move on the next possession before hauling in a 26-yard score.

And that was just Hopkins' fourth-quarter highlights for the Texans (2-4).

"We played complimentary football," Hopkins said. "It wasn't just the DeAndre Hopkins show. This was the Houston Texans show."

Try telling that to the Jaguars, who felt like they did a good job on Hopkins for three quarters. House shadowed Hopkins all over the field and even made some plays early.

But the Texans adjusted and found ways to get Hopkins the ball.

"One or two plays can determine how you do out there," House said. "In the first three quarters, we shut him down with a few pass breakups. Then the fourth quarter came, they took some shots and capitalized."

Here are some things we learned about the Texans and the Jaguars:

HOYER SHINES: Hoyer looked every bit deserving of the starting job. A week after regaining the position from Ryan Mallett, Hoyer threw three touchdown passes on third down, two to Hopkins. Hoyer completed 24 of 36 passes for 293 yards. He even bounced back from a vicious hit in the fourth quarter, a shot that forced him to the sideline for one play.

"You never want to get hit like that," Hoyer said. "It's one of those things where you get hit, you kind of have to assess yourself and there's a little bit of showmanship, too, to make sure you get the penalty. I didn't know I would have to come out of the game. I guess I stayed down too long, but I was able to bounce right up and get back in the game."

Murphy and Mets amazing once again

NEW YORK (AP) — Say this for Daniel Murphy and the New York Mets: They have their October formula down and are sticking with it.

Murphy homered off yet another ace to provide an early cushion for Noah Syndergaard, and the Mets breezed past Jake Arrieta the Chicago Cubs 4-1 Sunday night for a 2-0 lead in a surprisingly one-sided NL Championship Series.

Power, pitching, plus some dazzling defense

— just like the Amazon' Mets of 1969.

"We've beaten some of the best the game has to offer," Mets captain David Wright said.

Baseball's most dominant pitcher since the All-Star break, Arrieta had not even settled in when Murphy homered for the fourth straight game, a two-run drive just inside the right-field pole in a three-run first inning.

"We're having a whole bunch of fun right now," said Murphy, who homered in the first inning for the second straight game and seems to have a reserved star-of-the-game seat in the interview room.

Given the quick lead on a chilly night, Syndergaard kept the bats of Chicago's young sluggers on ice with shutout ball into the sixth.

Curtis Granderson robbed Chris Coghlan of a likely home run with a leaping grab at the center-field wall, swiped a pair of bases and scored two runs for the Mets.

After beating Clayton Kershaw, Zack Greinke, Jon Lester and Arrieta, the Mets are two wins from reaching their first World Series since 2000.

New York starts NL Rookie of the Year Jacob deGrom on Tuesday night at Wrigley Field. Rookie left-hander Steven Matz is set for Game 4, followed by Game 1 winner Matt Harvey on Thursday, if needed.

NFL roundup:

Brady, Patriots keep rolling, down Colts

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Tom Brady threw for 312 yards and three touchdowns and New England took advantage of a botched fake punt in the Patriots' 34-27 victory over the Indianapolis Colts on Sunday night.

The Patriots improved to 5-0 for the first time since 2007. It was the first meeting between the rivals since the "Deflategate" storm erupted after the AFC title game in January.

For a half, the teams traded jabs.

But New England seized control in the second half.

Brady's 25-yard touchdown pass to Rob Gronkowski gave New England a 27-21 lead. And when the Patriots stopped the Colts (3-3) on an odd-looking and ill-advised fake punt, the scrambling Brady eventually found LeGarrette Blount for an 11-yard scoring pass that made it 34-21.

Andrew Luck was 30 of 50 for 312 yards and three touchdowns in his first game back from an injured right shoulder.

BENGALS 34, BILLS 21

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y. (AP) — Andy Dalton threw three touchdown passes and Cincinnati beat Buffalo to improve to 6-0 and match the best start in franchise history.

With star receiver A.J.

Green covered much of the game, Dalton completed touchdown passes to Marvin Jones, Tyler Eifert and Jeremy Hill. Dalton finished 22 of 33 for 243 yards for Cincinnati, which was also 6-0 to start the 1975 and '88 seasons.

The Bengals broke the game open by scoring 17 points on their first three second-half possessions to build a 34-14 lead.

BRONCOS 26, BROWNS 23, OT

CLEVELAND (AP) — Peyton Manning shook off three interceptions and drove Denver in range for Brandon McManus' 34-yard field goal with 4:56 left in overtime.

Manning took the Broncos from their own 12 to Cleveland's 16 before McManus kicked his game-winner to make Denver 6-0 for the seventh time in franchise history. The Broncos only rallied thanks to their top-ranked defense, which came up big in overtime.

After Manning's third pick, Denver recorded two sacks to push the Browns (2-4) out of field-goal range.

PACKERS 27, CHARGERS 20

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Green Bay stopped San Diego on fourth-and-goal from the 3 with 15 seconds left and overcame a career day by Philip Rivers to hold off the Chargers.

Rivers set career highs with 43 completions, 65 attempts and 503 yards passing. He threw for two touchdowns for the Chargers (2-4). But he needed one more completion.

Rookie cornerback Damarius Randall lunged to poke away Rivers' short pass to Danny Woodhead near the front right pylon in the final seconds.

The fans inside Lambeau Field erupted with a collective sigh of relief. Green Bay (6-0) survived its biggest scare of the year to stay unbeaten.

The Packers started strong and finished barely in front. Running back James Starks had touchdowns on a 65-yard run and a 5-yard pass in the first quarter.

LIONS 37, BEARS 34, OT

DETROIT (AP) — A win, finally. Matt Prater kicked a 27-yard field goal with 2:29 left in overtime, and Detroit won for the first time this season.

Matthew Stafford heaved a 57-yard pass to Calvin Johnson to set up the kick for the Lions (1-5). Johnson finished with six receptions for 166 yards.

The Bears (2-4) had chances for a third straight comeback win.

Chicago's Robbie Gould kicked a 29-yard field goal as time expired in regulation. The tying score was set up by Darius Slay getting called for interference after Jay Cutler's 25- and 24-yard passes to Alshon Jeffery.

PANTHERS 27, SEAHAWKS 23

SEATTLE (AP) — Cam Newton threw a 26-yard touchdown pass to Greg Olsen with 32 seconds left and Carolina remained unbeaten, rallying for a stunning win over Seattle.

Newton led the Panthers (5-0) to touchdowns on their final two possessions after trailing 23-14, the second straight week the Seahawks collapsed in the fourth quarter. Newton found Olsen wide open down the seam as All-Pro Earl Thomas and Richard Sherman looked at each other in confusion.

Newton was 12 of 15 for 162 yards in the fourth quarter and threw for 269 yards overall. He led the Panthers on a pair of 80-yard touchdown drives in the final period as the Panthers improved to 5-0 for the second time in franchise history.

JETS 34, REDSKINS 20

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP) — Ryan Fitzpatrick threw two touchdown passes and ran for another score, and the Jets over-

Tomorrow's Horoscope

HOLIDAY
MATHIS

Five Days of Libra

These final five days of the Libra sun are an ideal time for taking stock of your relationships of all kinds, especially those breezy daily contacts. Casual daily connections can impact your life more than blood-level connections with far less frequency. How you receive and give to the people in your daily life defines you to some degree.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). It takes courage to poke holes in your own theories. Just don't poke so many that the theory totally sinks before it's ever had a chance at a test-float.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). "Let's do this. Let's go there," they say -- usually an indication that whatever is going on right now has either played its course or is just not getting off the ground. Ask yourself why "there" would be any better.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Maybe you've drifted from knowing what you want and who you are. That's natural for these transitional times. The questions you ask will tell you more about that than the answers will.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). What if your life is not defined by what you do, but by what you long to do? Where would that put you now in your own estimation? Your consciousness on this matter will make a difference today.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). What you're going through is unique and universal at the same time. You're not entirely alone in it, and yet, at the end of this chapter, no one will have a story like yours.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). You're one of the most authentic and grounded people around, and yet even you wonder sometimes whether you're faking it. Take comfort in the fact that, to varying extents, everyone is.

ing challenges will demand a clear and quick mind. That's why, if you can get out and do some exercise, it will be worth your while -- or, more aptly, absolutely crucial to the success of your day.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). You're going to speak up about something. Here's a radical idea: Why not have it be about you? No one will organize around your secret wish, but your public request will be honored.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Nerves are like pepper. A pinch will give your efforts an exciting edge. Too much, and the soup becomes inedible. Regulating your nerves will be the challenge of the day.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). What would you have to do to impress yourself today? A goal with just the right amount of elasticity to stretch you to your potential will be a game changer.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Family knows you best and therefore works you best. Beware of emotional manipulation traps. Don't do anything that will make you feel like the sap of your family tree.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). The one who expresses him or herself freely (risking possible rejection and/or personal embarrassment) will get the ball rolling so everyone feels comfortable enough to chime in.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Oct. 19). You'll make a commitment and tenaciously pursue it through the end of the year. There will be a cash-out opportunity in December. Cultivate your burgeoning talent in January; try apprenticeship or internship. May and July are the most interesting months for your love life. Friends influence you, and you could even move. Aquarius and Scorpio people adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 30, 2, 14, 38 and 5.

ASTROLOGICAL QUESTIONS: "This is embarrassing, and I would never tell it to anyone, not even my closest friend. I'm a Capricorn housewife with a 9-year-old son. For the past three years, the happiest part of my day has been taking my son to football practice, not because I like watching him play, but because there's this dad I would run into and talk to who made my heart feel like it was going to explode. This person was friendly and kind, and I melted just looking at him. We talked mostly very casually, but he would always make me laugh and feel pretty and carefree for a few minutes. I found myself thinking about him constantly and putting special effort into my appearance before drop-off. It's sad to say, but sometimes he was the only thing I looked forward to in my day. I kept this all to myself. I never said anything inappropriate. Somehow I think he knew, and I could have sworn we were quietly falling in love.

"Well, now he's moved. I miss him so much. I cry to myself when I'm home alone. How can I get over something that was never really a proper relationship to begin with?"

Time. Your sign is ruled by Father Time, a.k.a. Saturn, whose influence will help you work through your very real sorrow. There is healing power in every teardrop.

CELEBRITY PROFILES: Beauty and relationships are key tenets of the Libra personality, and Ty Pennington brings them together as the host of "Extreme Makeover: Home Edition," helping families improve and beautify their living conditions. The host is also a model, carpenter, designer and philanthropist -- all job titles that fit nicely with Libra's aesthetic values. Pennington has his sun and Mercury in Libra and Mars in Leo.

Annie's Mailbox

Dear Annie: About four years ago, after 17 years of marriage (no children), working full time, having a part-time cleaning job, doing 90 percent of the housework and doing 80 percent of the yardwork, I asked my husband whether I could quit my full-time job.

I was 42 and in good shape but was having painful back problems from the type of work I did. My husband had a good job, and with a little bit of corner cutting, we didn't need the money from my job. He agreed, but after a while, he began to seem distant and started talking constantly about a girl at work -- how amazing she was because she worked full time and went to school while caring for her two children.

After months of this, I thought a second part-time job might make him treat me with more respect. Then my mother broke her arm, and my father needed treatment for prostate cancer. So I helped them, along with working two part-time jobs and doing the housework and yardwork. It didn't help. My husband hung out with that "amazing" girl. He also spent a lot of time with a guy who convinced him that I was a freeloader. After a horrible vacation where he bought earrings for Ms. Amazing and presents for her sons, I found emails between them. He admitted he was in love with her but said nothing had happened. He eventually moved out and filed for divorce, but when he heard that I had moved to Hawaii, he tried to woo me back. After six months of promises that he had changed, I returned home.

I recently found a text from this same girl, asking when he'll be working with her again so they can go to lunch. I left the house. He says the girl has a boyfriend and I'm overreacting. Am I? -- Hawaii-Bound

Dear Hawaii: You never actually resolved the issue with Ms. Amazing, so any contact your husband has with her is going to set off all of your alarms. The fact that he wooed you back doesn't mean he is no longer vulnerable to her charms. In order for your marriage to survive, he needs to stop all contact with this woman, not only for your sake but for his. Get counseling, with or without him, so you can move forward one way or the other.

Dear Annie: This is about the letter from "Miffed," whose 10-year-old grandson doesn't like to be touched.

I was the same. From age 9 through my teenage years, I hated it when people touched me, even my parents. Hugs and kisses were hard to tolerate. I think some of it was from being bullied so much at school, but mostly, it was just the way I was.

Touching is extremely personal, and I show my affection in other ways. In my family, we compromised by my greeting close relatives with a short hug and a peck on the cheek, and then they would leave me alone for the rest of the day. I wasn't crazy about doing it, but my mother insisted. I managed to buy my peace with a kiss. -- Didn't Like It, Either

Dear Didn't: We're glad that you and your mother reached a compromise that was OK with you. But no parent should insist that a child hug or kiss anyone.

Opening lead — four of clubs.
This deal occurred in a match between the United States and New Zealand during the 1983 world team championship.
At the first table, Mike Passell and Eddie Wold, North-South for the U.S., quickly arrived at six notrump on the sequence shown. The New Zealand West led the four of clubs, and declarer won East's jack with the ace. Wold then lost the king of spades to East's ace, and East returned the club eight to South's king. Declarer now cashed the ace of hearts and three spade tricks, on which West discarded his two low clubs and the seven of diamonds, producing this position:

NORTH

East

Wold next cashed the king and ace of diamonds, West following with the 9-1, and then led the heart six, on which West played the four. At this point, Wold paused to review everything that had happened so far, and came to the conclusion that West had started with exactly five clubs, three diamonds and one spade, and, therefore, four hearts. Accordingly, he played the eight of hearts from dummy to bring the slam home.
At the second table, where the contract and all the preliminary plays leading to the diagrammed position were virtually the same, the New Zealand declarer went up with the king of hearts and so finished down one. Apparently, either his courage failed him at the crucial moment, or he had not kept track of the highly significant clues along the way.

This Date In History

Today is Monday, October 19, the 292nd day of 2015. There are 73 days left in the year.

Today's Highlight in History:

On October 19, 1765, the Stamp Act Congress, meeting in New York, adopted a declaration of rights and liberties which the British Parliament ignored.

On this date:

In 1781, British troops under Gen. Lord Cornwallis surrendered at Yorktown, Virginia, as the American Revolution neared its end.

In 1789, John Jay was sworn in as the first Chief Justice of the United States.

In 1814, the first documented public performance of "The Star-Spangled Banner" took place at the Holliday Street Theater in Baltimore.

In 1864, Confederate Lt. Gen. Jubal A. Early's soldiers attacked Union forces at Cedar Creek, Virginia; the Union troops were able to rally and defeat the Confederates.

In 1914, the U.S. Post Office began delivering mail with government-owned cars, as opposed to using contracted vehicles. The First Battle of Ypres (EE'-pruh) began during World War I.

In 1935, the Council of the League of Nations imposed sanctions against Italy for invading Abyssinia.

In 1944, the U.S. Navy began accepting black women into WAVES (Women Accepted for Volunteer Emergency Service). The play "I Remember Mama" by John Van Druten opened at the Music Box Theater on Broadway.

In 1951, President Harry S. Truman signed an act formally ending the state of war with Germany.

In 1960, the United States began a limited embargo against Cuba covering all commodities except medical supplies and certain food products.

In 1977, the supersonic Concorde made its first landing in New York City.

In 1987, the stock market crashed as the Dow Jones Industrial Average plunged 508 points, or 22.6 percent in value, to close at 1,738.74.

In 1990, Kevin Costner's Western epic "Dances with Wolves" had its world premiere in Washington, D.C.

Ten years ago: A defiant Saddam Hussein pleaded innocent to charges of premeditated murder and torture as his trial opened under heavy security in the former headquarters of his Bath Party in Baghdad. The Houston Astros clinched their first World Series berth with a 5-1 win over St. Louis in Game 6 of the National League Championship Series.

Five years ago: The Pentagon directed the military to accept openly gay recruits for the first time in the nation's history. Hosam Smadi, a Jordanian man caught in an FBI sting trying to blow up a Dallas skyscraper, was sentenced to 24 years in prison after telling the court he was ashamed of his actions and renouncing al-Qaida. "Happy Days" patriarch Tom Bosley died in Rancho Mirage, California, at age 83.

METS

"They don't have the credentials that Kershaw and Greinke and Lester and Arrieta have, but they're going to be good pitchers," Mets manager Terry Collins said. "We think we can stack up with anybody."

Chicago goes with Kyle Hendricks in Game 3. If the long-downtrodden Cubs are to reach the World Series for the first time since 1945, they must first force the best-of-seven NLCS back to Citi Field next weekend.

"We're all about one-game winning streaks," Chicago manager Joe Maddon said. "I know it's psychobabble 101, but it actually works."

After homering off Kershaw, Greinke and Lester, Murphy added his fifth home run of the postseason, giving him eight RBIs in seven games. He's one from matching Carlos Beltran's record of homering in five straight postseason games.

"He's about as locked in as I've seen a hitter," Wright said.

Long, blond locks flowing out the back of his cap, Syndergaard seems to be taking on a bit of Harvey's cockiness. He gained the nickname Thor — the Norse god known for fierce storms — after he tweeted a photo of himself in costume doing squats on Halloween two years ago.

Having made the first relief appearance of his big league career in Game 5 against the Dodgers, Syndergaard came out throwing darts at up to 99 mph until the sixth, when Dexter Fowler singled and scored on Kris Bryant's two-out double off the left-field wall.

"It makes pitching a lot more easy when you go out there and offense puts a three-spot on one of the best pitchers in the game right now," Syndergaard said.

Jon Niese came in and struck out Anthony Rizzo. Chicago didn't advance another runner past first.

Syndergaard allowed three hits, struck out nine and walked one. Jeury's Familia's fourth postseason save finished a five-pitcher five-hitter and sent the Cubs to consecutive losses for the first time since they dropped three in a row from Sept. 23-26. Arrieta had not lost since July 25.

It was 45 degrees at game time with an 18 mph northwest wind. Some players wore balaclavas that covered their faces, including Mets outfielder Yoenis Cespedes, who played on his 30th birthday.

Arrieta, who wore short sleeves, had not given up a first-inning run in 25 consecutive starts since May 29. With his velocity down slightly, he found himself trailing after nine pitches and down 3-0 after 13.

Granderson singled through the shift into right field for his ninth hit in 22 postseason at-bats. Wright, in a 1-for-19 playoff slide, drove a fastball on a hop off the center-field wall with Granderson running.

Murphy hit an 0-1 pitch about 10 feet to the foul side of the right-field pole, then reached down for a shin-high curveball and with a one-handed swing sent it just inside the pole. Murphy raised his right fist in triumph while rounding first base and took a curtain call after a prolonged ovation.

"The ambush early got us," Maddon said.

Granderson made his dashing defensive play in the second, leaping to get his glove to the top of the 8-foot wall just to the right of straightaway center.

"I was able to time it up, reel it in," Granderson said.

He walked leading off the third and stole second as Wright struck out. After Murphy was walked, Granderson swiped third, too — at Murphy's suggestion. He came home when Cespedes grounded to the shortstop hole for an infield single.

"Two tough games here, but the series is not over," Arrieta said. "We feel good where we're at."

UP NEXT

Cubs: Hendricks (8-7) did not get a decision in the Division Series against St. Louis, allowing three runs and four hits in 4-2-3 innings with seven strikeouts and no walks.

Mets: DeGrom (14-8) got the wins in Games 1 and 5 against the Dodgers.

came a sloppy first half.

Chris Ivory ran for 146 yards and a TD on 20 carries for the Jets, who improved to 4-1 for the first time since 2010. Brandon Marshall had seven catches for 111 yards, and Eric Decker also caught a TD.

The Redskins are 2-4 for the season.

STEELERS 25, CARDINALS 13

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Landry Jones threw two touchdown passes to Martavis Bryant in relief of Michael Vick and Pittsburgh rallied for the win.

Vick left in the third quarter with a hamstring injury and Pittsburgh's offense took off when Jones took over. Jones hit Bryant for an 8-yard score to give the Steelers (4-2) the lead. The two hooked up later for an 88-yard strike.

Jones completed 8 of 12 passes for 168 yards and the two scores. Bryant caught six passes for 137 yards in his first action of the season.

Carson Palmer threw for 421 yards with a TD and two interceptions. John Brown caught 10 balls for 196 yards for the Cardinals (4-2).

VIKINGS 16, CHIEFS 10

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Despite an erratic performance by Terry Bridgewater, Minnesota's tough defense and rookie wide receiver Stefon Diggs came through over mistake-prone Kansas City.

Alex Smith's 42-yard touchdown pass to Albert Wilson midway through the fourth quarter pulled the Chiefs within three points, but the Vikings (3-2) played well enough early to survive their ragged finish.

The Chiefs (1-5) had eight penalties for 95 yards.

Diggs had 129 yards on seven catches.

Bridgewater threw two interceptions. Adrian Peterson, who was on the sideline late in the game with the Vikings trying to put it away, finished with 60 yards on 26 carries.

49ERS 25, RAVENS 20

SANTA CLARA, Calif. (AP) — Colin Kaepernick completed a 76-yard touchdown pass to ex-Ravens star Torrey Smith, Joe Flacco threw two interceptions and San Francisco beat Baltimore to snap a four-game losing streak.

Phil Dawson kicked four field goals in the first win since Week 1 for San Francisco (2-4), while Anquan Boldin — a Super Bowl star for the Ravens against the Niners — made a 51-yard reception late that set up Quinton Patton's 21-yard TD catch.

Flacco's desperation pass to the end zone on the final play went incomplete.

The rematch of the Super Bowl three seasons ago featured a pair of last-place teams trying to turn around their seasons, and it showed in some sloppy play.
