SUPPORT OUR HOME TOWN

PROCLAIMS CHRISTMAS SEAL DAY—Governor Price Daniel has proclaimed "Christmas Seal Days" as that period from November 15 to December 24. Bearing the request for the proclamation was Miss Carolyn Calvert of Austin, Texas' first Miss Christmas Seal and the reigning Miss Texas. Christmas Seals are being mailed over Texas Friday. They support work of voluntary tuberculosis associations toward control of the disease.

Governor Price Daniel today asked Texans to remember that the fight against tuberculosis continues in Texas.

In proclaiming the period November 15 to December 24 "Christmas Seal Days" the governor stated that "modern drugs, medical science and better living conditions have lowered the once-terrible death rate of tuberculosis in Texas, but there has been no such decline in the number of new tuberculosis cases found each year.

"It is estimated that 22,000 people in our state have active tuberculosis. In the nation in 1956, 100,000 new cases were discovered. Every five minutes, another American falls prey to tuberculosis, and last year 15,000 persons died of this disease."

The governor signed the Christmas Seal proclamation in the presence of Miss Carolyn Calvert of Austin, Miss Christmas Seal of 1957. She also bears the title, Miss Texas. Miss Calvert is the daughter of Supreme Court Justice and Mrs. Robert W. Calvert, and her mother has long been active on the board of the Texas Tuberculosis Association. This and local tuberculosis associations over the state are supported by the annual sale of Christmas Seals. Seals will be in the mails November 15.

Local Ministers Oppose Dancing

We, the undersigned, stand opposed (personally) to dancing being taught as a part of the school curriculum and to the use of tax supported property for dances. We also stand opposed to games of chance, bordering on illegal practices, as school activities.

We further commend the Board of Trustees and administration for eliminating such practices as tend to lower moral standards in our school.

County Library To Observe Book Week

Mrs. Rosa Ryan has been clerk of the library and museum for several years.

Baird Winner Over Jim Ned

The Baird Bears used the running of fullback Norman Smith to pick up an easy 26-6 win from the Jim Ned Indians in District 8-B action at Tuscola Saturday night.

Roger Corn started the Bears' scoring in the first quarter as he crossed the goal from 15 yards out. Barnes kicked the extra point.

In the second quarter Smith broke loose for 18 yards for a touchdown, but Barnes' kick was no good.

Later in the second period Smith went 18 yards off tackle for another TD.

In the fourth quarter Terry Joy passed 30 yards to Smith for the final Baird touchdown. Barnes kicked the extra point.

Jim Ned's lone TD came in the fourth quarter as Bill Swindle went six yards off tackle.

The win gave Baird a 2-0 record in district play.

Albany Swamps Bulldogs, 39-7

Albany's loop-leading Lions roared on Friday night, easily disposing of the Clyde Bulldogs 39-7 in a District 10-A district encounter, played at Clyde.

The Lions now have a 3-0 mark and Clyde 0-3.

Albany's Jerry Atwell led the assault, scoring on runs of 40 and 15 yards and another on a pass from Quarterback Jack Eubanks that covered 35 yards.

Wasting no time showing who was boss, Atwell burst through on his 40 yard scamper the first time Albany got the ball. The point try failed.

Still in the first period, halfback Jimmy Evans tallied on a 20 yard scamper and Eubanks kicked the only Lion conversion of the night.

Eubanks then lofted his scoring aerial to Atwell, but the conversion failed.

In the second period Halfback Jimmy Ellis scored on an eight-yarder, and Eubanks added another tally with a three yard quarterback sneak.

Last score of the half was a safety scored by Albany, making it 33-0.

Clyde tallied its only score in the third period as Leon Chrane passed 25 yards to Billy Ray Cullen. Cullen converted.

In the fourth period, Atwell scored on a pitchout, going 15 yards.

Soil Conservation District News

Moisture penetration in general throughout our area has been good. Some penetration tests have been made. Where the cover is sufficient on ranges, tests reveal that moisture has reached a depth of 3½ feet or better.

Where cover is scarce or absent penetration is about 10 inches. Where weeds and other annual plants were present moisture had penetrated to a depth of 19 inches. These tests were made after recent rains which came in October and November.

Since the temperature during this period has not been above 90 degrees, and the wind has not been exceptionally high, we can not blame evaporation for not getting the water in the soil. Much of our moisture has been lost through runoff.

The ability of a soil to take water at any rate is primarily controlled by the amount of cover on that soil. A soil with a good cover of grass might be able to take water at the rate of three to four inches per hour. If this cover is removed the ability of this soil to take water is practically eliminated.

When 2,000 pounds or more of either growing or dead cover is present on the soil the most economical protection is obtained. On range land that has little or no cover, very little of the moisture received has entered the soil.

Rainfall in itself means nothing to the farmer or rancher unless he is equipped to handle it. Armed with a good cover on the land, then he can expect to farm or ranch at a profit.

It's not the rainfall we receive that counts but the rain we keep that counts.

Accompanying Mr. Kyger on the trip from Fort Worth were Champ Clark and John Geis, both vice-presidents of the Fort Worth Bank and Gordon Crow, assistant cashier.

Baird Bears Meet Gorman Panthers Tonight For District Championship

The Baird Bears carry a season record of 6 wins against 2 losses this Friday night when they meet the Gorman Panthers for the 8-B championship.

The Panthers are the defending champions and are hoping to carry away the laurels for the second straight year. The Panthers are 5-4 for the season. All their losses being to upper class teams. The only mutual opponent has been Moran which Gorman mauled 41-6, while Baird could do no better than a 13-0 win. One of Gorman's wins was a forfeit from Jim Ned.

The Panthers are led by 9 starters from last year's team, three of them being former all-district players - Larry Grice, end; Bobby Standridge, guard; and John Brenger, back. However, the man to watch will be Eddy Gregg, a flashy, shifty back who has done most of the scoring for Gorman this year on his end sweeps. He will be

Mrs. McElroy Guest Of Clyde Study Club

The Clyde Study Club sponsored a Guest Day book review Thursday, Nov. 7 in the home of Mrs. J. E. Burdick. Guest speaker was Mrs. S. L. McElroy of Baird, who is well known in Texas Federated Club work.

Mrs. Homer Kennard and Mrs. Clark Tabor assisted Mrs. Burdick as hostesses. Special guests for the program were members of the Thursday Club of Clyde.

Mrs. McElroy reviewed the book "The Confessions of a Beauty Operator," by Hazel Van Mayes of San Antonio. The book reveals the most amusing accounts of Mrs. Van Mayes' customers, who "tell all" at the beauty shop.

Guests present were: Mmes. Don Allen, E. J. Barton, Hal Broadfoot, Ed Craig, E. G. Hampton, A. N. Johnson, Milton McWhorter, Tommy Odum, J. B. Paylor, Jess Pyatt, Harry Steen, A. E. Stevenson, De Witt Chandler, Lee Crouch, Thelma Berry, Jimmie Briscoe, Von Ray McClure, Weldon Edwards, Jewel Swanzy, Ben Wilson, Blanton Scott, Dub Cook, J. C. Snow, Troy Cummings, Bill Bone and Misses Anna Bell Tabor and Aida Nurdyke.

backed up by hard running John Brenger, fullback. In the line will be 210 pound tackle Ed Rodgers, 198 pound tackle Jimmy Brightwell and 190 pound Johnny Rodgers, center. All 3 of these boys made the second team all-district last year.

Thus appearing on paper, the Panthers rate a big edge, with Baird having only three men back who started against them last year in a 13-6 loss. However, the Bears are giving the Panthers nothing and if all appears well, the Bears just might be victorious come Friday night. The game could well be decided on breaks, fumbles, punts, or intercepted passes. Baird has been fortunate in the fumble department having yet to yield over one a game and none in five of the games. As for punting, Baird has the edge with Jimmy Barnes quick-kicking Baird out of several holes.

Of course, Gorman having scouted Baird 5 times this season will be well prepared to defend against the quick kick. However, something new may be in the offering come Friday night according to Coach Jefferies. Baird pass defense is equal to Gorman. Thus, the great advantage Gorman will have will be in the person of Eddie Gregg. Baird has met backs who are as swift and with fine outside defensive play by the ends and outside linebackers, Baird could well win the district championship.

Baird will also be celebrating Dad's Day with the football boys Dads sitting along the side of the field.

SWEET N' SOUR

By A. Dill

Did you ever see the Autumn leaves any prettier than they are now? -- we mean when the sun comes out long enough for you to get the full effect of that crimson and gold, russet and amber. By the way, do you know why leaves turn to these glorious colors in the fall? Surrre you do! Jack Frost paints 'em, but did you know there's a malicious rumor being breathed about that it's all a scientific process brought about by leftover sugars and carbohydrates in the leaf structure? Disgusting, isn't it? Well, they'll have a hard time displacing Jack Frost with all that gibberish around our house, won't they? Next thing you know some smart aleck will try to tell us there ain't no you-know-who and then we'll fight!

Some most important events are coming up this month and one of the most important is the Band Mothers annual Turkey dinner. This year the dinner will be served in the Cafeterium. Doors will be open at 11 a. m. and a generous plate of roast turkey with all the trimmings is only one dollar for adult portions and 75c for child's serving. This year the Band mothers have added taxi and delivery service at no additional charge. If you want to come to the cafeterium for lunch and lick transportation just call and a band member will be by for you -- or, if you prefer, call and have your meal delivered. You can't beat that for service, can you? Don't forget the time -- Saturday, Nov. 16th.

Another high spot in November will be the annual Talent Show, sponsored this year by the Junior class, Mrs. Clyde White and Jerry Cochran. The talent show has a reputation of giving you sparkling entertainment that moves along at a spritely pace, covering just about all forms of talent from the dramatic to the comical, with a liberal dash of music and song in between. This year's show, using Space Travel as its theme, has been dubbed "The Whatnik Revue," which is another way of saying that it's entertainment values is sort of "out of this world."

New to the show this year will be a division for pre-school age children and youngsters in this class are urged to register now. Other divisions will include the elementary and high school groups. Dale Glasson will be the master of ceremonies and rehearsal date is set for Nov. 21. Show itself will be Nov. 25, and prices will be 25c and 50c. Entrants will please contact Mrs. (Continued on Page Six)

Oplin Observations

By Daphne Floyd
If this column smells, think nothing of it friends! It is only a musty smell caused by mildew from the continuation of rain the past week.

I might say that most everyone is getting along swell at Oplin these days after quite an epidemic of mumps. Mr. Ira Crawford and Dave Poindexter head the list, being adults. Some of the small fry having the mumps are J. D. Windham, Eddie Johnson, Junior Poindexter, Lynda Crawford and Patricia Breeding.

Mrs. Joe P. West was on the sick list last week due to a cold. The first of last week, Ed Kirkindoll wasn't doing too good either. Hope this finds you feeling better, Uncle Ed.

Mrs. Ray Floyd visited with Mrs. Clint McIntyre last Thursday afternoon.

Shirley Nobles, who is teaching school at Fannin in Abilene, was home over the week end visiting with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. John Jordan and her mother, Louise Nobles.

Since Ira Crawford has the mumps this week, Clarence Breeding is driving the Clyde school bus in his place.

Well, its Sputnik, rain and mumps for news this week. Guess Sputnik will be circling around, but the rain clouds are hovering over us to dump more moisture on the already soaked fields.

About the mumps, if you want 'em, go to the Clyde school. They have 'em to give away.

Ira Crawford (school bus driver) is absent from school duties this week on account of having mumps.

One little school lad said, "Oh, boy! We can talk loud on the bus now," but we'll hear more about it later and will probably hear whether or not Clarence Breeding will want a steady job of bus driving, since he is substituting for Ira this week.

Lynda and Stanley Crawford are also absent from school on account of the mumps. I somehow wonder what day your reporter will be heir to the mumps.

Mrs. Kate Crawford and Irene, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sherrod visited Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Harris Sunday.

L. V. Harris visited Dolph Hodges Saturday and found him feeling a little better the last few days.

When a person is saddened by the loss of our beloved husband and father, the grief is lightened by the many acts of kindness and sympathy of a host of friends. May God's blessings rest on each of you.

BEING JUST A CHRISTIAN

We invite you to become a 'regular' with us, with this new column. We expect to be with you each week under the above format, and hope that you will find the material discussed of benefit to you.

Permit me to introduce myself. I have recently moved to Baird to work with the Church of Christ here. It is my desire to serve you in any way that I can. I appreciate the friendliness and hospitality that has been shown me and my family by so many since coming here, and I am looking forward to a most pleasant work in Baird.

I have just one purpose in this column: to bring to your attention truths from God's Word. I believe the Bible to be the inspired message of God for mankind. I believe the Bible is TRUTH. I believe it is THE TRUTH for all ages — that its truths are just as vital and real and liveable today, in 1957, as they were when they fell from the lips of Jesus himself, or when they were penned by His inspired Apostles. It is on this premise that we will approach a study of the Word and we will know that if the Bible teaches it — IT MUST BE TRUE.

We offer as strong a guarantee as is humanly possible, that the teachings in the column will be free from any sectarian bias. The question will be, What Does The Bible Say?; not what does the Church say. As the format suggests, I believe it is possible to be JUST A Christian today, nothing more than a Christian, and nothing less, and nothing else. I believe the Bible can be studied free from any sectarian bias and prejudice, but to do so calls forth the very best in us. To this end we pledge ourselves.

I hope the column can be of direct benefit to you. If at any time you have a Bible question that would like answered, either in the column, or privately, we will do all we can to provide a Bible answer, if there is one. Simply address your question to the Baird Star, and it will give you immediate attention.

It is our plan to include in the column a series of short articles from a special issue of the 20th Century Christian, a monthly Christian journal, entitled "You Can Be Just A Christian." You will find these lessons short and to the point — yet scriptural in every way. After reading one, I am sure you will want to read every one.

(The space for this column is purchased by the Baird Church of Christ for the purpose of communicating to you New Testament Christianity. It is our aim to exalt Christ and His Word, and to show the fallacy of any human substitute.)

Why Should I Be Concerned About Becoming A Christian?
By ALAN BRYAN
Dallas, Texas

Through the centuries man has faced many conditions of living. Civilization is never constant but is constantly changing. Man has had many urgent needs. These have changed as circumstances have changed. One need, however, has remained constant. Man needs redemption. "All have sinned and fallen short . . ." (Romans 3:23). The fact that man is sinful calls for justice to be given. Guilty man therefore must be cleansed of that sin that he might be redeemed.

Being conscious of my guilt, I must find a way to be cleansed that I might spend eternity in heaven with the Heavenly Father. My desire for redemption and the longing for eternal habitation with God is coupled with a fear of eternal damnation if I fail to be justified eternally. These motivations cause me to realize that I cannot save myself (Romans 3:10, Jeremiah 10:23), and to seek Christ and his way (John 14:6). I further realize that Christ died on the cross to make salvation available to all (Matthew 11:20, 30; 1st John 1:7). Christ then died for my sins; he died that I might be redeemed! In order to receive benefit of the cross of Christ, I must believe in Christ and obey his word (Mark 16:15, 16; Acts 22:16). "He became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him" (Hebrews 5:9).

Therefore, I want to become a follower of Christ, that I might be cleansed of my sins and spend eternity in heaven.

Mr. D. C. Cox was guest speaker and his subject was "Solls in this Area."

Mrs. John Tolar brought mats, planters and plaques made by the Arts and Crafts class at the new high school taught by Mrs. Hamrick. Mrs. Hubert Ross showed flowers and shrubs which she had dried and preserved.

A dessert course was served by Mmes: Ellis Warren, Bill Ford, Harold Hart, Leo Tyler, Rod Kelton, Maria Leach, J. G. Hendricks, J. Crutchfield, Hubert Ross, Ben Ross, Ace Hickman, Al Young, Lee Ivey, B. H. Freeland, Cunningham, E. B. Posey, S. W. Lilly, W. A. Fetterly, Virgil Hughes, Felix Mitchell, and three guests, Mrs. Joe Pat McHaney, John Tolar and Mr. D. C. Cox.

Margaret Murphy Weds B. E. Abernathy

Margaret Lynn Murphy and Benjamin E. Abernathy were married at the bride's home Oct. 19, in a double ring ceremony. Rev. Davis Harrell, pastor of Baird Baptist Church, performed the wedding rites.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Mitchell, was escorted by her father.

Mrs. Jerry Abernathy, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor.

Abernathy, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Abernathy of Putnam, had his brother, Jerry Abernathy as best man.

Miss Pat Jeter played the wedding march.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony.

The couple made a trip to Lawton, Okla., as their wedding trip. Abernathy is stationed at Ft. Hill.

The bride is a junior in Baird High School and will remain in Baird until June when her husband is discharged from the service.

State CAPITOL

AUSTIN — Days of old seem to have dawned over Texas lawmakers. They ended their first called session this week and launched into number two.

It's the first time in more than a decade that a governor has convened a legislature in two rapid-fire special sessions.

Main topic for the second session is a bill to authorize closing of public schools threatened by occupation by federal troops.

Gov. Price Daniel issued the second call when it became apparent that this issue couldn't be squeezed into the final days of the first session.

House and Senate had difficulty coming to agreement on details of the first session's five-point program: water planning, lobby control, crime study, practice before state agencies and money for an Insurance Department building.

Delay Spotlights — Senate Investigating Committee is continuing its drive to establish whether the Insurance Commission dilly-dallied with reports of irregularities in a Dallas firm.

Former Insurance Department Examiner Wayne Tinkler told the committee that he began an examination of Preferred Life last March. He ran into difficulties, and asked for help from the department's legal counsel. He didn't get it, said Tinkler, and finally turned in a report in June.

His audit indicated that Preferred's president owned the company some $194,000 due to stock manipulations, Tinkler reported. "But no action was taken in the Department until September, when a brief conference was held."

Bond Program Launched — At least one phase of Texas Water conservation program now has the official go-ahead.

By approving a constitutional amendment, voters cleared the way for issuance of $200,000,000 in bonds to finance local water projects.

Though only about one-tenth of the electorate (185,000) turned out, all three proposed amendments received approximately 3 to 1 majorities.

Other two will provide increased retirement benefits for state employes and authorize higher old age pensions.

Who Foots The Bills — Texans depend on severance taxes—mainly on oil and gas, for nearly one out of every three state tax dollars.

Tax Analyst John F. Sly of Princeton said this reliance on natural resource taxes has been increasing over the years. Sly, in addressing a meeting of the Texas Research League in Austin, gave what may be a preview of the searching study of Texas' tax structure being undertaken by the League.

Some Sly statistics: State taxes increased from $123,000,000 in 1940 to $825,000,000 in 1957. Severance taxes jumped from 16 per cent to 30 per cent of the total in that period. Texas' state and local taxes are $130 per capita compared to the national average of $158.

Embarrassment Of Riches — Combination of late spring rains and early fall rains has caught many Texas farmers in a squeeze.

There wasn't enough time in between to raise a crop and get it out of the fields. Agriculture agents in North Texas reported that farmers there stood to lose millions from ruined cotton.

Some ranchers, according to the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, have "a very unusual situation -- more grass than stock to eat it." This time last year those same ranchers were selling off stock at a sacrifice because they had no feed.

Small grain and winter legume prospects are extremely good, says USDA, though dry weather is needed for additional planting.

Cotton Acreage Tussle — For the third straight year East Texas and West Texas cotton farmers are at odds over acreage allotments.

State and county allotments are to be announced by USDA before Dec. 14 when cotton farmer will vote on whether they want a market quota program for 1958.

West Texas farmers contend that their area has been penalized. They say an undue portion of the state's cotton acreage is allotted to the older cotton-growing counties of east and central Texas. One group of West Texans went to federal court last year to try to get the allotments changed.

Opposing them is the Old Cotton Belt Association which has announced it will fight new efforts to wrest acreage from its area.

Speed Law Questioned — Governor Daniel has been requested to ask the Legislature to rewrite the automobile speed limit law.

A recent opinion from the Court of Criminal Appeals called the law "vague and indefinite and therefore invalid." Involved was a conviction for driving 90 miles an hour.

If this law is too shaky for court tests, the Harris County district attorney told the governor in effect, a new and stronger one should be written immediately.

Engineers Urge Water Plan — Texas Society of Professional Engineers has added its voice to those urging an extensive, long-range water program.

Importance of water to Texas' future justifies an annual expenditure of $100,000,000 in the opinion of TSPE's special water study committee.

TSPE's report recommended: (1) adoption of the governor's proposed legislation, (2) salary increases for the Water Board members, (3) planning on the lowest level possible to allow proper development of an overall program, (4) sale of water storage acquired by the state in federal reservoirs to any qualified political subdivision, as quickly as possible.

School Work Okayed — Improvements have been authorized by the State Board for Hospitals and Special Schools for nine schools and hospitals. Included are state schools at Abilene and Austin, state hospitals at San Antonio, Kerrville and Harlingen, the Austin State School Farm Colony and the Confederate Home for Men. Costs will total $261,000.

Mrs. Cora Work, Pencie Work, Mrs. Maunle Brumbaugh and Eddie have returned home after spending a few weeks in Phoenix, Ariz.

About Your Health . .

AUSTIN — Now that school days are routine and winter is starting to push fall aside, there will probably be the usual increase in communicable diseases common to children.

Thousands of unnecessary cases of communicable diseases -- and deaths -- could be prevented every year in Texas, if all parents would only realize the danger of the common cold.

Colds, especially a child's cold, should never be neglected.

But how many times have you heard a parent mention that Junior or Susie "have the sniffles," but they "seemed" well enough to go to school.

And what's more they will continue to go to school as long as they're able to walk, and only when they become seriously ill does the careless parent call the family physician.

But by that time a good many children in Junior or Susie's classroom have become exposed, thus setting up a chain of sickness and time lost from school.

And with the threat of the Asian flu hanging over the state, the common sense protection of keeping a child home when he or she is not feeling up to par makes more sense than ever.

A child who is sent to school feeling tired, perhaps because of inadequate meals, is handicapped. He not only lacks the aptitude for learning, but he is running the chance of falling prey to disease germs.

A youngster who is allowed to go to school suffering from a cold or the flu, runs the risk of serious complications. These troubles may develop into pneumonia, or if his resistance is low, signs of tuberculosis may appear.

However, when a slight illness is promptly and properly cared for, the child is usually well in a day or so.

The teacher can also be alert to notice if a child isn't feeling well. Of course, she is not expected to diagnose disease, nor is it her province to give health examinations, but she can recognize the common signs of pallor, a cold, and fever.

For his own protection and of other children in the classroom, a sick child should not be allowed to stay in school.

"Can you imagine anybody crazy enough to get up this early in the morning to go fishing?"

Baird Invited To Have 'Day' At Stock Show

Baird has been invited to have a "day" at the 1958 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth by President-Manager W. R. Watt.

In his letter to Baird, Watt urged that a cowgirl sweetheart be named so that she can be introduced to the rodeo audience in Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum. The city also is invited to send its high school band so the students may give a concert on the stock show grounds. The band members will be guests at the rodeo performance.

Watt expressed the hope that the city also would have a delegation of citizens wearing hatbands or badges proclaiming their hometown. They will be offered a special section of seats at the rodeo.

Annie Oakley, western heroine of TV and motion pictures, will be star of the 1958 rodeo. Dates of the Fort Worth Exposition are Jan. 24 through Feb. 2.

"We believe you will agree," Watt's letter states, "that each city having a day will derive worthwhile recognition and that everyone participating will have a good time."

"You also will be giving wonderful assistance to your fat stock show -- oldest in the nation -- which has been serving the great livestock industry for 62 years. We are grateful for your cooperation."

stroy us? Why would anyone want to harm us?

The Russian Government under Communism has vowed it would destroy us. We are standing between the Russian government and a world wide communism. Russia could easily take the world for her own brand of International Communism were it not for us, the United States of America. It is for this reason: We are hindering the success of world communism, that we are marked for destruction. The Russian government would not only harm us, but it would seek to destroy us, because we oppose their plan for world domination. Yes, Russia wants to destroy us. More than that she has told us in her Communist Manifesto her world wide plans. We cannot plead ignorance as to her intentions. Hitler told the world his plans to conquer it, but at first most people would not believe him. He was not bluffing as we found out. Russia is not bluffing as we will soon find out.

Why has Russia built a navy that may not long be second to our own? Why has Russia built more than four hundred modern submarines? Why has she the greatest and best air force in the world? Why has she trained more than two hundred divisions of soldiers and armed them with modern arms? Do we really think that the Russian government has builded the greatest military power in the world just to amuse herself? Why has Russia stock-piled her atom, hydrogen, and cobalt bombs? Why does she have 20,000 airplanes that can deliver these bombs to points 5,000 miles away and then return without refueling? All of these things mean aggression. That means war against all non-Communist countries, and our nation in particular. Millions of Americans cannot believe it. It seems fantastic that Russia would destroy or try to destroy us. May be so it seems to millions of Americans, but to those of us who know the Russian Manifesto, know that we are marked for destruction.

When Russian captured East Germany, she got thousands of German scientists. She made them her teachers as well as her inventors of scientific instruments of war. Already Russia has a rocket that shot itself more than five hundred miles into the stratosphere, or beyond the stratosphere. It carried with it the man-made satellite. Now both are circling our globe every 96 minutes. What does this mean? It can mean among other things, that Russia has a rocket powerful enough to travel 5,000 miles in a matter of a few minutes and carry an atom bomb to a pin-pointed position. It means that Russia can send these robots of the air, direct their flight, pin-point their destination, and explode them by radar or electronic control from their own home bases. Such monsters of destruction could wipe out every major city in our nation and in our world in a matter of a few hours. One night would be long enough to destroy us and Europe. We do not believe that she has such instruments of war in stock-pile yet. We cannot be sure. But one thing we can know: give her three to five years and she will have enough of such machines of war that she can destroy the world and never leave her home base with her men.

What have we got to retaliate? I do not claim to know. I am afraid we are not fully prepared to defend our nation as we should be. What has slowed our scientists in their labors to achieve what Russia has already accomplished? Who knows the answer? We do know that the communists have infiltrated our government in the past. There are names of many men who were traitors to our government and yet many of them were in government. How did they get there? Why were they there? Who are some of these traitors who were working for the Russian government and for the destruction of our nation? Do you recall Harold Laski, Alger Hiss, Whitaker Chambers, Harry D. White, Lawrence Duggan, Noel H. Field, Lee Pressman, Nathan Witt, Henry G. Collins, Nathan G. Silvermaster, William L. Ullman, Harold Glasser and Abraham G. Silverman? Were these men our friends? What about the Frederick Vanderbilt Field, the millionaire who backed Red causes, who went to prison for a spell? There was Lauchlin Currie, who was presidential assistant who at one time directed the Far East policy of the war in one particular area.

Who were Franklin D. Roosevelt's advisers while he was president? Do you recall the names of James M. Landis, Francis B. Sayre, James P. Warburg, Adolph A. Berle, Jr., Archibald Macleish, David A. Morse, Leon H. Keyserling, Francis Biddle, Benjamin V. Cohen, Thomas C. Corcoran, Edward F. Prichard Jr., Thurman W. Arnold, Stuart Chase, Robert E. Sherwood, Oscar R. Ewing, and others. These men have made records which have been much help to the Russian cause. These were the men who helped to bring into the American way of life what is called FABIAN SOCIALISM.

It is interesting to note that Harvard University contributed a majority of all the New Dealers during the terms of Franklin D. Roosevelt while he was president of our nation.

Be it remembered that Joe McCarthy, Senator from Wisconsin, knew what he was doing when he was investigating communists in the government. He was rebuked by the U. S. Senate and silenced. His heart was broken, and a few months later died, a young man. The other day he was dug up so to speak, and great honors heaped upon his remains. What a farce of justice?

This article will be discounted by many good citizens. Many will scorn the writer and the message. That is to be expected in this age when the nation is still asleep. I am concerned with one thing only: "Wake Up America If You Want To Live."

TB Patients Need Your Deer Hides

Mr. Hunter, when you bag that buck, tag the hide for a TB patient.

That is the word from volunteers who work in the state tuberculosis hospitals and who will have the hides tanned into buckskin for use in occupational therapy.

Joseph Hennessy of San Antonio, chairman of the State Volunteer Council for the TB Hospitals, says the hides should be salted, drained, tied and turned over to the motor freight lines for shipment to the Austin Taxidermist Studio, 2708 Fredericksburg Road, Austin, where the owner, L. M. Rathbone will handle them for consignment to the tannery.

The salt is necessary to help the drainage and to prevent spoilage, Rathbone says. The tag should read "for TB patients," so the motor freight lines can haul them without charge. The volunteers will take it from there.

"That buckskin can mean a lot to a guy in the TB hospital who won't be going hunting for some time to come," Hennessy says.

The deer hide collection has the endorsement of the Game and Fish Commission and the Sportmen's Clubs of Texas. Last year, Air Force Reserve members took training mission time to fly the hides to the California tannery. It is hoped they will again be able to provide this service, Hennessy said.

IT'S THE LAW In Texas...

PROBATE LAWS RECENTLY CHANGED

Easier handling of the estates of deceased persons, and at less cost, will result from laws recently passed by the Texas Legislature.

During its regular session in early 1957, the 5th Legislature enacted a number of amendments to the Texas Probate Code. The changes became effective on August 22nd.

Here are a few of the new provisions:

1. Some of the notices issued in probate proceedings may now be served by Certified Mail. Formerly the law required service by Registered Mail, which is more expensive.

2. The amount of bond required of an executor or administrator has been reduced under some circumstances. The estate will thereby save on bond premiums. The old law required a bond to be double the value of all personal property in the estate, even if issued by a corporate bonding company. Now a corporate bond need only match equally the value of the property.

3. Sometimes it is desired to use a bond signed by individuals rather than a bonding company. The old law required these individuals to own real property worth double the value of the estate. Personal property could not be considered. The new law allows personal property to be used in qualifying as a bond signer. However, the two-for-one requirement is retained on this type of bonds.

4. The old law providing for compensation of the executor at not less than 2 1/2% of the value of the estate has been eliminated. Now this compensation is left for the courts to fix on some reasonable basis -- this will mean lower costs to many estates.

5. Where a husband or wife is adjudged mentally incompetent, the other spouse now acquires full control of the entire community estate without any type of legal proceedings and without having to furnish a bond.

Union Usuals and Unusuals

By Veda Yarbrough

Hi, neighbor. We are still having rain. This ground here is really getting soggy and believe it or not we had some snow this afternoon. Of course, it melted as it fell, but it was snow just the same. Looks like no cotton will be gathered this week.

I went to Sunday School this morning, didn't have church services.

Retha Burnam is spending the week end and holiday with her parents, Mark and Ollie Burnam. Mrs. Mary Ramsey had dinner with the Burnams today.

Alice and Dian Everett spent Friday night and Saturday visiting grandpa and grandma Burnam.

Kathy Ricks spent the week end with Gayle Burnam.

Mark Burnam has been on the sick list the past week. Was feeling better today.

Burette and Johnny May Ramsey came by a while Thursday afternoon and visited with us. We were glad to have them.

The Burette Ramseys went to Weatherford Saturday to see about buying some more Holstein cows for their dairy.

Johnny May visited her mother the first of last week. Mrs. Jeter is able to be moved out of the hospital to the rest home.

We were very sorry to hear this morning of the death last evening of Mrs. Nellie Smith of O'Keene, Okla. Mrs. Smith was Hulon Smith's mother, also a sister of Press and Lee White and a sister to the late Mrs. Robert Buchanan.

Roma McIntyre spent the week end in bed, still hasn't gotten over the flu.

D. A. and Jim Yarbrough visited in Cross Plains, Saturday afternoon with W. P. Yarbrough. He has just returned from visiting in Crosbyton with his daughter and family, the LaRues.

I visited a while Saturday afternoon with the Emmett Woods in Cisco. They have escaped the bad colds and flu so far.

I made chow chow last Thursday afternoon. Little Boy Jim helped me. He did all the grinding of the cabbage, tomatoes and onions. Then I took pity on him and ground the pepper, which took about three minutes. Got some more to make this week. Hope he grinds the cabbage and tomatoes for me. Doubt if I could get it all done, so am sure he will help.

Mike and Stella Hughes and girls visited last week end with the Burette Ramseys.

Glen Burnam and family spent

The Baird Star, Baird, Callahan County, Texas, November 15, 1957

Still raining, so if I don't bog down, I'll be seein' you next week.

How to Keep a Free Press FREE

SELDOM does Freedom of the Press disappear in one annihilating blow.

In countries where the Press has been chained, there was first a period when it failed to realize and resist the beginnings of its end — the first encroachments on its freedom. There were powerful interests which wanted certain facts "kept out of the newspapers." There was pressure here and pressure there to have the truth withheld.

Before the Press of any nation succumbs to tyranny, there always has been a period of failure to speak out.

Here in America there is only the limitation of national security — the necessity to protect and preserve confidential military and scientific information — which can be accepted by a Press that is determined to stay free.

America's newspapers have made, and will continue to make, a conscientious effort to protect that security — at the same time keeping the people informed as fully as possible on all matters concerning their welfare. So long as American newspapers pursue that policy fearlessly, our Press, our people and our country shall remain free of tyranny.

What Is The Community's Responsibility In Juvenile Delinquency?

By Judge Sarah T. Hughes

Ed. Note: This is one of a series of articles on the state's growing problem of juvenile delinquency by one of Texas' foremost authorities on the subject, District Judge Sarah T. Hughes of Dallas, who has handled more than 25,000 juvenile and family relations cases, along with an even greater number of other civil cases in 22 years on the bench. "Family law is probably the most important phase of the law," says this internationally known jurist, whose work has been honored throughout the United States and in Europe and Asia as well, and whose name was put in nomination for vice president of the United States in 1952. A discussion of a different aspect of the problem will appear every other week.

... We are no longer trying to revenge ourselves upon erring youngsters, as they did, not so long ago -- 1838 -- in New Jersey when they hanged a 13-year old boy for theft. We are trying, first to rescue the children, and second, to protect society.

This is not to say that children should never be punished. A good old-fashioned spanking sometimes gets results in inculcating the "old-fashioned" eternal virtues so much needed.

But society has another role toward children who have to grow up in the drastically changed conditions society has created for them as compared to the old-fashioned days. It is to try to provide other and counteracting conditions tending to prevent delinquency, to try to rehabilitate the delinquents, and to protect ourselves as well.

What you, as a member of the community, as a church and club member, as an individual, can do about the first aim includes more than you might think. It is to help create a climate of public opinion in which more means will be provided to take care of the idle time our society has forced upon children... to provide constructive outlets for their energies instead of destructive. It is to volunteer for work in these projects -- scouts, campfire, junior achievement, teen canteens, playgrounds, club and church jobs, church youth groups, and similar character building work, and recreational organizations.

Your help in the development of public opinion -- and your dollars in support of Community Chest and United Fund drives -- are also needed for another means of preventing delinquency. We do not have nearly enough child guidance clinics, family counseling services, vocational advisers, or similar agencies where trained psychological workers can offer do some positive steering in the right direction which may turn a potential delinquent into a prospective good citizen.

Next, how do you as an individual, as a member of the community do these two things which help discharge the community's responsibility in the effort to prevent delinquency? You can be quite a force in (1) developing public opinion; so how do you go about it?

Conversations with friends is a potent method. Bring your idea of the bee into the conversation; ask your friends to urge their friends to spread the idea.

Talks to clubs is another excellent method. Clubs are always looking for a speaker and a subject, and many of us have opportunities to make such talks.

You can also "speak out at meeting" at every opportunity for a floor discussion of possible projects for your church or club. General topics often present a similar chance to speak from the floor on this, also.

(2) The time and energy of many more individuals are greatly needed for work as adult leaders in youth groups. You can volunteer to serve in one of the numerous such organizations crying for help on every hand. Forget about training -- the need is for people far more than it is for trained people.

You can even teach without previous training. To help relieve the great shortage of teachers, Texas authorities are issuing temporary certificates to enable you to teach during the time that you are taking a television course in your own home on teaching methods.

You can be a personal friend to children you know or can become acquainted with, talking to them, listening to them, giving them jobs...

SWEET AND SOUR

Clyde White and the rest of you get ready for the best talent show ever.

Happy birthday to some mighty important birthdays. Jeff Jackson and Jim Snyder have birthdays and they'll celebrate Saturday with a party at the Legion Hall.

November is Jim Jackson's birthday too and he'll be eleven -- so that makes it really important, doesn't it?

Dorothy Carrico is a Novemberite and so is couz' Shline Griffin up in Snyder, and ditto for Larmer and Willie Henry -- lots of November celebrating there.

But if you want to know where November is really a holiday for natal days you'll have to look to the Reed's and Johnson's out Oplin way. Nov. 14 J. P. Reed was 86 years old - he's one of the people who helped build the home town and lived here for 60 of those 86 years. Mr. Reed's son-in-law, Andrew Johnson of Oplin had a birthday on Nov. 1, two grandsons, Winford Glenn Reed of Merkel has a Nov. 24 birthday and Milton Reed of Abilene claims No. 11 -- but that's not all, a great grandson, Terry Dee Reed of Merkel has a Nov. 21 birthday.

Oh, by the way, Marguerite Snyder is an October child, (and such a pretty one) and her son Jim's birthday falls on his grandmother's day so it's a three way celebration at their home.

Two senior girls will have birthday cakes this month -- Rosalind Dunlap and Martha Faye Payne -- best wishes to both of 'em.

If this weeks chat seems a bit short or on the sketchy side, please have patience with us (as you always do) because we're having static in the health department. The most important thing you can ask from a friend or receive from one is a prayer, and if you have an extra one, won't you tack our name on it and send it on it's way?

The following were visitors in the home of Myrtle Reed over the week end: Mrs. Jody Crutchfield and Mrs. L. R. Bell of Breckenridge, Mrs. Aubrey Ground and boys, Mr. and Mrs. Harvie Calfee and Mrs. Jack Raymond all of San Angelo. Mrs. Stella Haley of Ft. Worth visited friends and relatives here over the week end.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation for our many good friends whose comfort during our recent sadness meant so much to us. We wish to especially thank Dr. Jackson and the nurses, also everyone who sent cards, flowers, and food. We thank each of you from the bottom of our hearts.
The N. L. Dickey Family

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere thanks to my many friends for the cards, flowers and other acts of kindness shown me during my recent stay in the hospital. Special thanks are extended to Dr. Stubblefield and the nurses at the hospital. May God bless each and every one.
Jack Smith

John R. Dawkins returned to Santa Barbara, Calif. last week, to spend the winter. He plans to return to Baird in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Scat Russell and family of Herford visited Bill Work and family over the week end.

Week end visitors in the Earl Blakley home were; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Whitt and boys of Waxahachie, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Whitt of Abilene.

Mrs. M. D. Oliphant and daughter, Dolly, of Ft. Worth, visited friends here Tuesday.
