

Cotton crop best in years

Harvest is in full swing on the county's best cotton crop in years. THE HARVEST is just beginning in some parts of the county, but has passed the halfway mark in other parts. The crop is "looking good" everywhere, cotton men reported this week.

Area gin managers agree that the quality of the cotton is good this year. Most of the fiber harvested so far is short staple, ranging from strict low-middling to middling light.

Clarence Birkenfeld of Nazareth Gin and Grain reported that his customers' cotton is only 10 to 15 percent harvested so far. But Gene Ross at Morrison Gin Co. in Sunnyside said Tuesday that the harvest is approximately two-thirds complete in that area.

SO FAR, approximately 10,000 bales of cotton have been ginned in the county, and gin managers estimated another 1,250 bales are trailed on their gin yards now.

If pre-frost predictions hold up, this means the big harvest is 20 to 30 percent completed overall in the county this week. Castro County has some 42,800 acres planted to cotton this year.

Most of the high yields in the county are running from one and one-third to 1½ bales per acre, but Earl Chaney of the Castro Co-op Gin in Dimmitt reported that one customer was making one and two-thirds bales per acre on some of his cotton.

READING, WRITING and arithmetic are being taught differently this year in South Elementary School's "Follow Through" program. Gone is the multi-row class with a single teacher up front. Here, a teacher's aide works with a small group in reading and pronunciation. At the same time, in the same classroom, another small group is learning arithmetic while a third group receives language training. Between "group sessions," the children get study time during the day to work on their writing, spelling or arithmetic workbooks at their tables and desks. The "Illinois Follow Through" program is supervised by the University of Oregon's College of Education, which monitors the classes via video tape.

New teaching methods yield dramatic results

By DARLA KAY
Elementary education is changing rapidly, and Dimmitt's South Elementary School is an outstanding example of modern teaching methods and materials.

NOW IN its second year with the "Follow Through" program, which involves first and second grades, the school employs 37 professional teachers and 40 paraprofessionals.

In the "Follow Through" teaching program, a teacher and two aides are assigned to each classroom. Students work in groups of seven or eight, and within the some classroom, three subjects may be taught at the same time. The program dwells more upon individual problems and oral communication than elementary education has in the past.

Mrs. Barbara Quinby and Mrs. Barbara Hargrove test young individuals continuously in reading, language and arithmetic to determine the proper level for the student. Each student is tested a some time during every six-week period.

THE PROGRAM is controlled and assistance is offered by the University of Oregon. Mrs. Ellis Mayberry, data-collector and video-tape operator, films teachers each week as they work with their small groups. Teaching is then evaluated via video-tape by the university, and occasionally by the teachers themselves.

The "Follow Through" program is just one of the new ideas in education presently in operation at South Elementary. A bilingual education system is in its second year here, under the direction of the Panhandle Education Service Organization (PESO). Two second-grade classes and two third-grade classes are learning their basic subjects in both Spanish and English from Mrs. Sandra Diaz and Mrs. Diane Axtell.

PESO presently has 20 service centers in Texas. Its personnel are specialists in various areas of curriculum planning. They offer specialized assistance to teachers in various programs, and also bring instruction and workbooks to the schools.

All elementary aides are now receiving special instruction from PESO, both here and in special sessions in Amarillo. Films are available from the service center in Amarillo, as well as other special assistance for teachers.

The elementary library here has changed remarkably from just a few years ago. It contains not only books and periodicals on the grade school level, but also tapes, audio-visual film strips with individual viewing mechanisms, records and record players, and special audio-aids for learning correct pronunciation and new words.

THE STUDENTS are given plenty of time for creativity. Music and art classes are not once or twice a week as they once were, but they are now a part of the daily schedule.

Dimmitt's elementary education system has drawn a number of visitors over the past year. Educators from Pampa and Canyon have visited in the system, and Dr. Tom Loyd, head of the Dept. of Education at Wayland College in Plainview, brought student teachers here to observe the program.

Mrs. Helen Richardson, principal of the school, is very enthusiastic about the new programs.

"THE CHILDREN have gained self-confidence in tackling new material in reading and spelling," she said. "The skills learned in this new program have given them initiative to try new things that was not evidenced in children before."

"Although the actual success of this program will not be evident for many years," she said, "at this point we believe it is highly successful."

Rites are held for Presley boy

Tony Ray Presley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Presley of Dimmitt, died Sunday morning in Plains Memorial Hospital. He was two months old.

HE IS survived by his parents; three sisters, Carla, Paula and Vicki; two brothers, Lynn and Gary; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bradshaw of Dimmitt and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Presley of Pampa, former Dimmitt residents; his great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gunn of Sudan, Mr. and Mrs. John Gunnels of Portland, Ore., and Edgar Presley of Mineral Wells.

Services were held in Dennis Chapel Monday at 2:30 p.m. Rev. Bill Summers, pastor of the First Assembly of God Church of Dimmitt, officiated. Burial was in Castro Memorial Gardens, under the direction of Dennis Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Ray Belknap and Claude Yates.

Candy project is faltering; deadline looms

Friday is deadline day for the "candy for servicemen" project, and according to Mrs. Reta Welch, chairman, the project is dragging.

ONLY 44 names have been received, compared with almost twice that many last year.

"We still need addresses, candy, and also money for mailing," Mrs. Welch said.

The project, which sends homemade candy to county servicemen for Christmas, seems to be running behind schedule this year, and the candy must be mailed next week for the men to receive it in time for the holidays.

ANYONE wishing to donate candy should wrap each piece individually, pack it in one pound coffee cans, and include a name slip in each can. The cans should then be sealed by double taping the top, and candy should be delivered to the Farm Bureau office in Dimmitt.

Those who cannot make candy are encouraged to donate money for postage. This is a necessary part of the project, and can be a great expense on one organization or individual unless donations come in.

Any names of area residents who are in the service should be given to Mrs. Beral Hance at the county agent's office.

"UNLESS there is a last minute surge, it doesn't look like this year's project will be as successful as it has been in the past," Mrs. Welch said.

Gunman robs Easter woman

An armed robber took $20 from an Easter woman Tuesday afternoon, then evaded a dragnet by law officers from three counties.

VICTIM of the armed robbery was Mrs. Charles Springer, who lives 10 miles north and three west of Dimmitt. She told officers she was driving along a narrow dirt road half a mile from her home when a young man stepped in front of her car, flagged her down, then pulled a snub-nosed revolver and demanded money.

She described the robber as a Negro man in his 20's, driving a car with California license plates.

The incident occurred about 4:45 p.m. Tuesday, according to Deputy Sheriff Rex Cowart, who investigated.

COWART notified Highway Patrol and sheriff's units in Dimmitt, Hereford and Canyon, who threw up a net along all paved roads in the area, but the suspect evaded the net.

Fires break out at Morrison Gin

An alarm turned in at 10:30 p.m. Tuesday sent Dimmitt firemen to Sunnyside's Morrison Gin Co.

TWO FIRES were burning — one in the gin's burr box and the other in a trailer loaded with cotton.

High winds made controlling the fire difficult. The burr-box fire was reported still burning Wednesday morning.

The trailer and approximately two bales of cotton were lost, according to owner Gene Morrison. Slight damage may result from the fire in the burr box, but not enough to stop the gin.

A second gin fire occurred Wednesday morning when the burr box caught fire at Ellis Gin Co. on the Hart Highway. Firemen were fighting the blaze at press time.

The Face of Dimmitt

ONE-WAY NEEDED? — This is Stinson Street, in front of South Elementary School, during the 2 o'clock rush. You can see a traffic jam forming here as one car pulls into the left lane to make room for others, while another car approaches in the same lane. It's like this every school day, except that often there's a school bus or truck to add to the snarl. The problem will get much worse this winter—bitter cold weather will bring more cars to the school at quitting time; children will have to shiver outdoors longer as they wait for their parents to get into an open lane; icy street could add to the confusion. A possible solution: Why not make Stinson Street one-way from Seventh to Eleventh, and either eliminate curbside parking or allow it on only one side of the street? What's your opinion?

Here comes Olton

Thriller on tap Friday

By JIM MILLER
Try to remember:

—When Olton's Mustangs burst Dimmitt's bubble last year with a two-point upset victory that started the Bobcats skidding from a No. 6 ranking in the state to a No. 3 finish in the district...

—All the pre-season polls this year that predicted the Bobcats would finish in the District 3-AA cellar...

—The last time Dimmitt defeated Olton...

ALL THESE factors will be part of the game Friday night as the capable Bobcats host the year's final contest.

It will be the "game of the week" in District 3-AA as Coach Brown L. Smith's Bobcats — who already have made the pre-season pollsters eat their predictions — attempt to hobble the Mustangs for a second-place finish in the rugged district.

The Mustangs, whose 8-1 record is one of the best in North Texas, hope to finish a 9-1 season and gain undisputed control of second place by knocking off the Cats. The Mustangs have lost only to Floydada — by a point more than Dimmitt did, incidentally.

A DIMMITT victory would give the Bobcats a 5-2 conference record and a tie with Olton — and possibly Abernathy — for second place. It also would hand Floydada the District 3-AA championship, despite the outcome of Friday night's Floydada-Abernathy contest.

Put mainly, Friday night's bout will be a matter of two long-time rivals wanting very badly to beat each other. And the Bobcats — who have already prevailed against Floydada and Abernathy that they possess the capability — will have a very real revenge motivation.

Directing the Mustang attack is all-state prospect Steve Stockdale, the whiz-kid quarterback who engineered last year's upset over the Bobcats as a sophomore. The lanky junior signal-caller gained all-district and all-South Plains honors last year while directing the Mustangs to an unexpected No. 2 finish in the district.

AGAINST Dimmitt last year, Stockdale proved himself as a triple-threat. He ran for 77 yards, kicked four extra points, and completed 24 of 40 aerials for four touchdowns. Mustang Coach Jerry Blakely merely calls Stockdale "the best I've seen in eight years of coaching."

Senior captains Gary Durham and Jim Key are two other quality gridgers responsible for Olton's fine record this year. And Gale Long, Johnny Arroyos, Steve

23,000 speak out in 'aging' forums

Almost 23,000 Texas senior citizens have voiced their needs in 800 "Community Forums Speak Out" held recently across the state, according to Minnie Bell, Extension specialist in family life education.

ONE NEED expressed by a majority of the oldsters was a greater income to meet new expenses and necessities in being an elder citizen. Many offered solutions to the problem, such as part-time employment, expanded Social Security benefits, or tax exemptions for those with limited income.

More lower rent housing for older persons was also suggested. Transportation problems were discussed by the senior Texans. Not only would they like to get out now and then, but they also mentioned needs for rides to visit the doctor, to go shopping for food and other supplies, and to get to church.

Suggestions were made to increase the number of Senior Citizens Centers available to provide more recreational activities. Many felt that older persons are not aware of this and various other services. More religious activities were also desired.

MEDICAL help in the form of expanded Medicare and a visiting nurse service would aid many, the participants noted. As a result of the "forums," county committees on aging are ready to assist with program development, based on the needs expressed by the senior citizens.

Castro County's forum, coordinated by Mrs. Charles Rickerd has been recognized as one of the most successful in the state.

Without bees, crop is short

One of the major reasons cucurbits fail to produce properly is the scarcity of honey bees to take care of the pollination job. This is especially true for backyard plots in the larger cities, where bees lack natural nesting places, says John Larsen, Extension horticulturist. He listed the most commonly grown cucurbits as melons, cucumbers and squash.

FRANK MEARS SR. is in High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo for treatment. He will have surgery later on. His wife and son Frank Jr. and Louise Mears have been with him.

Leola Haberer spent two weeks with her daughter Betty and family at Rockwell, near Fort Worth. Mrs. Edgar (Edith) Ramey will come home this Tuesday from Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. She is doing fine following throat surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewell McLarty of Seymour and Mr. and Mrs. John Blaine of Plainview were recent guests of Vera Webb. The McLartys also visited their son Lynn at Hereford.

Brian Sinclair and his brother-in-law T. B. English of Houston drove out to California on a sight-seeing trip starting at San Francisco. They will go to another town to visit Brian's son Billie Brooks and family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Jones, Susan and Sondra visited their son Roger and daughter-in-law Sherry in Alpine last weekend. Roger is a student at Sul Ross University there.

Juanell Thornborrow and two boys and a girl from Lubbock were weekend guests of her parents, the R. D. Rodgers. Juanell's husband will be in Vietnam for one more year.

Pearle Shelly and her brother Goodwin and Jeanie Miller attended a school reunion Saturday at Rule, Texas. That is near Sweetwater. They had a big dinner at the school, then later visited old friends Mr. and Mrs. Audie Verner. All grandparents had pictures of their kids to compare.

Our sympathy goes to the family of Iris Touchstone who passed away Sunday afternoon at his home. Mr. Touchstone suffered a stroke a few years ago and has not been well since. His daughter Merle Franklin from Houston will be here and the children here are Jay Lee, Truman and Maxine Children, and the grandchildren.

'PULL!'—Roy Ellis blasts at a clay pigeon during the Dimmitt High School Industrial Arts Club's turkey shoot Sunday afternoon. Ellis was one of the lucky shotguns who won more than one turkey during the shoot. Winners had their choice of turkeys, hams, shooting vests and tool boxes. The Industrial Arts Club boys and their sponsors, G. L. DuBose and Denton Lingle, reported that the club grossed $400 as many local shooters turned out for the event Saturday and Sunday afternoons. Emmett Broderson shot this picture for Managing Editor Don Nelson, who was in the process of losing this match.

The view from your library

By MARY EDNA HENDRIX

The weather was pretty Friday and we had a good group for the Children's Story Hour. There were 10 girls and three boys there to listen to the stories "Drummer Hoff" by Barbara Emberley and "A Little House of Your Own" by Beatrice Ed Regniers. Mrs. Pickens helped with the games.

WANDA NEWBERRY and her son, James, donated several books to the library. Some of these were The Selfish Giant, Harriet, the Spy, The Wizard of Oz, Scarlet Sails, Love Is Something You Do, Cowboy Missionary in Kwangai, The Second Cross, 1 Plus 1 Equals 1, Persons in Crisis, Beyond Belief, I Am Mary Dunne, Too Strong for Fantasy, One Corner of Heaven, Savage Sleep, and two volumes of the Complete Works of Wm. Shakespeare.

Enda Riley brought several Reader's Digest condensed books and these have some good stories in them. Also, Randall and Genell Craig donated several issues of the National Geographic magazine. When we get the new library I hope we can have a room built especially for periodicals, as the library at Dumas has. I had the privilege of visiting the beautiful Kilgore Memorial Library about two weeks ago when the Texas Library Association had the District I meeting there.

On election day several persons visited the library who had not been in since I had been the librarian. Some of these were Geneva Dennis, Georgia Henderson, Muriel Smiley and Helen Bratfladt.

PUSHING GOALWARD, Dimmitt's Daniel Frierson drags Abernathy lineman Larry Klafka (50) for three yards before Bobby Rogers (24) joins Klafka to stop Frierson at the 1-yard line in the second quarter of Friday night's Bobcat-Antelope game. After the Antelopes drew first blood, the Bobcats combined an explosive offense with a stiff-backed defense to topple the powerful Antelopes, 20-6, knock them out of the District 3-AA title race and ruin their Homecoming. The football season will end Friday night when the Bobcats host the explosive Olton Mustangs.

Lindley rites are held

By MRS. OWEN ANDREWS
Funeral services were held at Temple Baptist Church of Hereford Sunday at 2:30 for Mrs. Vera Lindley, 49. She died Friday in Deaf Smith County Hospital after a lengthy illness. She was the wife of Sam Lindley, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Simpson. She also is survived by two sons, Wesley and Lloyd; two brothers, J. C. and Robert Simpson; a sister, Mrs. Leon Roberts of Wellington; and one grandchild.

Burial was in West Park Cemetery of Hereford.

Mrs. Lindley moved to this community with her parents in the 1940s, and she and her husband lived in the community several years after their marriage. They lived at Brownwood several years, then moved to Frio, where they operated a cafe until last December.

Numerous relatives and friends from over the state came for the services. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ridgeway of Arkansas, who are former residents of this community.

DEBBIE OGAN was home from Baylor University during the weekend and her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Sam Ogan, took her back to Waco Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Freelin Suttle of Hereford brought the evening message at Frio Baptist Church. Mrs. Suttle came with him. Rev. Suttle is also a teacher in Hereford school.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Warrick visited J. E. Warrick the last of the week. Lawrence had just been called to leave St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo last Thursday, and they were planning to go home to Eureka, Kan., sometime this week. He is recovering from recent surgery.

Mrs. Annie Lee Dobbins accompanied the Edgar Vinton's Sunday to Winters to be with her brother's family following the sudden death of Rickey Scott, the son of her brother, G. W. Scott. The Robert Dobbins also went. Rickey, 15, died of a heart attack early Sunday morning. The funeral was at Winters Monday afternoon.

been in Deaf Smith County Hospital.

Pesticide user: ultimate loser?

Man could conceivably lose his war with insects because of his method of doing battle with them, according to J. R. Singleton, executive director of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

THIS POINT was recently illustrated in an article on the garden page of one of Texas' major dailies, said Singleton.

The article reported that grubs seemed to be worse this year than in previous years and were killing off large patches of lawns. Several chemicals, the article said, including Spectracide and Heptachlor, have been used for control in the past, but now these preparations apparently are not as effective as they once were.

In fact, landowners were getting results with Heptachlor only by using two to three times as much as previously, and even this heavy dosage does not always work.

THE GRUBS are not the first insecticide resistant insect, according to Singleton, and most probably will not be the last.

"With the insect's fantastic breeding potential it takes them only a few generations to adapt to adverse situations," said Singleton. "Out of millions of insects in a species, only a few individuals may be resistant to a pesticide, but these few may survive a spraying, reproduce and pass this resistance to their offspring."

According to Singleton, by the process of natural selection, the insects will become almost totally immune to pesticides, necessitating a change in pesticides and larger doses.

BECAUSE of this, insects may eventually win out, and man will have dangerously polluted his environment while helping the insects to win, said Singleton. And, since pesticides adversely affect the natural enemies of insects, the predators which have kept insects in check for millions of years may cease to exist.

"WE ruin the lands that are already cleared. A half, a third, or even a fourth of what we mangle, well wrought and properly dressed, would produce more than the whole under our system of management."

Holiday 'sprucing' needn't be costly

By IRENE KEATING
Perhaps you are entertaining the family for the holidays and would like to spruce up the house. Here are some ideas that are fairly economical and that you would be able to do yourself. HAVE YOU ever thought of Dacron draperies? I hadn't, but my sister, Nelle Albrecht, who is an Extension home economist in Arkansas, has a homemaker who made Dacron knit draperies and she says they're beautiful. One nice thing—they don't need lining. Why not try some first in an area where you have only one window? It's a new idea.

Another way to spruce up your house would be through the use of new accent items or just a color change in your accents. This could be done with dye for very little expense. A new area rug is another idea. It is very luxurious to have a rug over carpeting. Also, I think that particularly in a child's room it would be a good idea and reduce wear on the carpet as well as make a room look fresh and perky.

A MORE costly and complicated idea to refresh your house is with the new carpet tiles. They now come in shag and tufted styles as well and the needlebonded olefin. They are made from polyester, Nylon, polypropylene and other yarns in sizes from 9 to 18 inches square. Average cost is 68 cents per square foot. These carpet tiles have many uses such as for wall coverings, decorations, outdoor mats, toy chest linings.

Tea and tour set at Tulia

Power-failure warning system advised in barns

Farmers raising swine under present-day confinement methods should maintain a dependable warning system to alert them to other uncontrollable phenomena, Extension agricultural engineer.

COMMERCIAL suppliers cannot guarantee constant service in the face of storms, floods, sleet and other uncontrollable phenomena. Also service is often interrupted by mistakes made by the farmer. Switches are accidentally turned off. Circuits are overloaded. Fuses are blown.

In such instances, being aware that something is amiss can very easily save a full year's income on your swine program.

Allen reports the development of an emergency warning system to help avert problems associated with electrical power outages in controlled environment-type farm buildings.

The system monitors the electric power at the circuit actually operating the fan, controlling the lights, or powering any other necessary equipment. It can be placed immediately ahead of the fan controls in the building.

It can be equipped with a sensor which activates an alarm if the temperature exceeds a predetermined setting. The temperature monitor gives extra protection in cases of a broken fan belt, a burned-out motor or a defective control. Any of these events could reduce the ventilation inside the building.

When an emergency occurs, a weather-proofed speaker sounds off. Aimed in the direction in which it is most likely to be heard, it continues to "howl" until it is manually turned off.

The speaker is powered by a solid state oscillator from a six-volt fence controller battery. The solid state oscillator is preferred for its ability to operate on low power, Allen said.

CAPT. KENNETH FULFER (left) receives the Army Commendation Medal from Col. Joseph A. Gappa, chief of the US Army's Combat Development Command Experimentation Command at Fort Ord, Calif. Capt. Fulfer's medal was in recognition of his service with the First Air Cavalry Division in Vietnam. Capt. Fulfer is currently chief of the plans and records division of the USACDCEC at Fort Ord.

CAPT. FULFER'S award comes to him for his service in the Republic of Vietnam, where he served with the First AirCav Division. Prior to being recalled to active duty in July 1968, Capt. Cattle feeding in Panhandle still booming

Texas cattle feeders last Oct. 1 reported 1.4 million head on feed, six percent more than on Oct. 1, 1969.

Ed Uvacek, Extension livestock marketing specialist, said the report shows that feeding continues to show the most growth in the northern part of the Panhandle, with declines now developing in the northeast and Gulf Coast areas of the state. More than one million head were on feed Oct. 1 in High Plains feedlots, he said. Uvacek noted that Texas reported 264 feedlots with capacities of 1,000 head or more on Oct. 1, and that they held 1.4 million head of cattle. These large feedlots have a total capacity of 2.4 million head at one time; thus, only 59 percent of their available capacity was in use on Oct. 1.

The Oct. 1 report showed that 80 lots were empty, and that utilization of the 184 active feedlots was at 66 percent of capacity.

Texas feedlots placed 789,000 head on feed during the July-September quarter, down three percent from the same period a year ago. Operators reported intentions to market 796,000 cattle during the last quarter of 1970, about 10 percent more than a year ago. Uvacek said that short-feds were excluded in both marketing figures.

Nationally, on Oct. 1, there were 10,382,000 head of cattle and calves on feed in the 22 major feeding states, three percent above a year ago. Placements during the July-Sept. quarter were just over six million head, or seven percent more than for the same period in 1969. Cattle feeders in the 22 states plan to market 5.8 million head during the last quarter of 1970, three percent more than last year, Uvacek noted.

Hawkins to head WTSU drive here

Willis Hawkins Jr. of Hart has been named chairman for Hale, Castro and Lamb Counties in a drive to help raise $100,000 for the new WTSU School of Agriculture.

AROUND 100 area cattlemen and agribusiness men met last Thursday at the West Texas State University Nance Ranch to launch the drive.

Of the amount to be raised, $35,000 will go to add 150 head of commercial cows to the school's present herd of 70 registered Angus and Herefords, $45,000 for research facilities, and $20,000 for improvements on the ranch and first-year operating expenses.

WTSU's agricultural department was elevated to the status of a complete and separate School of Agriculture beginning with the 1970 fall term, making WT the fourth university in Texas with a separate School of Agriculture.

THE famed George Nance Hereford Ranch was recently donated to the university by Mrs. Lucille Nance Jones, widow of George Nance, and her husband, L. L. Jones. The University will assume control of the 2,393-acre ranch in January 1971. The ranch is located 5 1/2 miles east of the campus.

Dr. Charles Smallwood, dean of the School of Agriculture, said the school is "dedicated to young people and to the development of agriculture in the area." He said the school plans research in such areas as feedlot management, preconditioning feeder cattle, disease control, stress relief, breeding systems and progeny testing.

The school will have cooperative agreements with Texas A&M and Texas Tech universities on some research projects, according to Smallwood. LOOKING FOR a home to rent or buy? A&M will host horse course

The ninth annual Horse Short Course will be held Nov. 20-21 at Texas A&M University. B. F. Yeates, Extension horse specialist, says the program is designed to help both the experienced and novice horseman.

REGISTRATION will begin at College Station's Ramada Inn at 1 p.m., Nov. 20 with the first scheduled session set for 7 p.m. Local county agricultural agents can supply detailed information on program plans and registration, Yeates said.

Save money on Christmas mail by heeding postmaster's tips

Postmaster John Wood has listed six tips on how Dimmitt residents can help meet tight Christmas budgets this year by careful mailing of cards and parcels.

- 1. FOR servicemen overseas — "SAM" (Space Available Mail) Christmas parcels can be sent until Nov. 20 for only the small domestic parcel post charge in volved from Dimmitt to East or West Coast points of embarkation for military mail. Parcels up to five pounds and 60 inches in combined length and girth are accepted at this low rate. 2. Larger parcels (up to 30 pounds and with the same length and girth limitations) can be sent as "PAL" (Parcel Air Lift) mail provided they are mailed by Nov. 27. The charge is only $1 per parcel, plus the regular domestic parcel post postage.

4. INSURE parcels realistically to cover full value, but do not overinsure.

5. Get plenty of stamps on your first trip to the post office to avoid the time and expense of additional trips.

6. Use ZIP Code as a tool for economy in mailing. When it is used consistently on parcels and cards, ZIP Code helps prevent errors in delivery and expedites handling. If only a few Christmas cards go astray, an investment of several dollars may be lost, Wood said.

"THE KEY to efficient Christmas mailing," Wood commented, "is to mail early and carefully. Clear addressing, with the ZIP Codes, proper packaging and early depositing can prevent most problems and provide the greatest value for money spent on postage."

Fire department receives check

The Dimmitt Volunteer Fire Department received a check for $75 recently from Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies as an expression of thanks for the department's work on the property of Homer Newton of Hereford.

THE MONEY will be used for upkeep of equipment.

The TFBI Companies pay volunteer fire departments this amount when the department works at a fire in rural areas, involving property insured by them.

What's cooking at the schools

Wednesday — Hamburgers with lettuce, onions and pickles, French fries, banana cake, chocolate milk.

NEXT Thursday — Fried chicken, potato salad, broccoli, honey butter, rolls, butter, milk.

THE YOUTH revival services of the First Baptist Church are scheduled Sunday through Wednesday. An evangelistic team from Slaton will be in charge of the Sunday services, with Rev. Ron Bartley preaching and Jim Frivett in charge of music.

Rev. Bobo Gibbs, a ministerial student at Wayland Baptist College, will be the evangelist Monday through Wednesday nights, according to Roger Edwards, youth director of the church.

Services Sunday will be at 11 a.m. and 8:30 p.m., with the weekday services from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Rev. C. T. Cunningham, pastor, invited the public to attend each service.

Twenty-one members and three guests enjoyed the program and luncheon. Guests were Ed McCreevy of Tulla, deputy district governor, Pat Carhart of Amarillo and Jean Foster, sweetheart of the club.

In the business meeting, a report was given of some $37.51 gross sales from the concession stands at the Thursday football games when the Longhorn B team and the Hart Shorthorns played at Hart.

The Lions Club is helping to support the Hart High School band.

"Behold! The time has come, is here and now, for sane, discerning ones to get involved with things which make and keep our nation great—alert ones hold the fort, then educate.

"Our land's economy, the handicapped, the poor, the rights of women, raging racism, frenzied, protesting mobs endangering our land—on each of these, we surely must take a stand.

"This contest for the minds of men is on, and we can choose the part that we should play.

"The battle is ours to win or lose, according to procedures that we choose."

Garza and Wohlgenuth share 'Bobcat of the Week' honors

Senior lineman Andrew Garza and senior quarterback Mark Wohlgenuth shared the afterglow of Friday night's big victory over Abernathy by being named the co-winners of the "Bobcat of the Week" award.

IT WAS the second time this season for two players to share the weekly honor, and was Wohlgenuth's second time around as a "Bobcat of the Week."

The two senior gridgers were announced as the Top Cats at Monday night's meeting of the Dimmitt Athletic Booster Club, and were guests of the Dimmitt Lions Club at its Tuesday noon meeting.

Both boys figured prominently in Dimmitt's 20-6 victory over the favored Abernathy Antelopes Friday night, in a game that was full of heroes for Dimmitt.

AFTER spotting Abernathy six points, the Bobcats roared back with a touchdown in the first quarter and another just before halftime to build a 14-6 lead at intermission. In the third quarter when a strong Abernathy drive reached the first-and-goal stage at the 5-yard line, the Bobcats pushed their hosts back to the 13, took over and dominated the game the rest of the way, adding an insurance touchdown in the fourth.

On offense, Garza graded 77 from his guard position, and on defense he sparked the Antelopes chase from his linebacker post, grading 78.

Wohlgenuth graded 72 on offense and racked up a 78 as a defensive halfback.

Under the Dimmitt scoring system, an individual grade of 60 is considered winning football.

Coach Don Parker was selected as sponsor.

Legion joins POW campaign

The Greer H. Estes American Legion Post here is joining in a program concerning the treatment and welfare of our servicemen listed as missing in action or prisoners of war in Southeast Asia.

THE GOALS of the program include identification of our MIA and POW personnel, better treatment for them, impartial inspection by the Red Cross or other neutral agency of their prison facilities, the immediate repatriation of sick and wounded prisoners, and the right of communication between prisoners and their families.

The Legion is encouraging action to make it appear to Hanoi that Americans do care about the 1,600 members of the Army Forces listed as MIA or POW.

The program was undertaken, according to Alfred P. Chamie, national Legion commander, "in order that we may impress the enemy with the unity and sense of urgency the American people feel on this issue."

Children's clothing is also needed for distribution to the needy during the annual Christmas party for children on Dec. 20.

Pupils to get holiday Friday

There will be no school Friday in Dimmitt, Hart or Nazareth due to the Texas State Teachers' Association's annual district meeting in Amarillo.

Financial Facts
By Willis A. Hawkins, Jr.
It is interesting to note some of the forms of money which have been used throughout the world.
A few unlikely units of currency came in the form of slaves, gunpowder and the jawbones of pigs. Probably the heaviest money ever used was the stone money of the island of Yap in the South Pacific. These huge pieces of stone are so heavy that their ownership changes without physically moving the money itself. They are similar to real estate in that respect.
The other extreme is the feather money used in the New Hebrides. The elephant has been used as currency in Ceylon. The ox had a similar status in ancient Greece. Our word "pecuniary" is derived from the Greek word "pekus" meaning ox.

About Dimmitt

men, and all other viewers of the tube, we are now ready to declare the winners in today's election. I get up to let Fokie out again, I don't think it is necessary, but I am afraid not to, all the while I am thinking how can Cronkite declare the winners when the polls have just closed in the East, people are still voting the South and Southwest, and folks are just getting out of bed in California. Be that as it may, the anchor is ready to announce the winners. He says "They have had the returns from a precinct in Southern Illinois with 128 people voting and a polling place in Chicago with 17 votes cast gives us enough information to feed into our super duper computer to make it safe for us to tell you that Adlai Stevenson III has been elected as a senator from Illinois." Then with the assistance of his understudy or two he computerizes the rest of the votes around the country and declares the winners, and all of the fun is gone out of election night. What's the use of holding an election, why not let Walter and his computer declare the winners and save the expense. Next election night I am going to turn that thing off and wait for the morning paper.

GOING DOWN before a wall of Dimmitt tacklers in the third quarter of Friday night's Dimmitt-Abernathy game is Antelope halfback Charles Johnson. Making the tackle for Dimmitt are Henry Rivera (54) and Max Newman (88), while Pat Barrios (70), Lynn Buchannan (78) and Felton Isaacs (85) close in on the runner. Although Johnson finished the play under a big stack of Bobcats, he garnered a first down at the Dimmitt 46 to keep a strong Abernathy drive alive. The Bobcats later buckled down and held the Antelopes at the 5-yard line, then mounted their third scoring drive of the night to gain an important 20-6 victory.

Sharp Cats shock 'Lopes, 20-6; spring Whirlwinds into playoffs

By JIM MILLER
Although no one could question the record Floydada has posted this year, the Whirlwinds must be at least a little grateful to Coach Brown Smith's Bobcats, since their 20-6 victory over Abernathy Friday night boosted Floydada into the bi-district playoff and assured the Whirlwinds of at least a tie for the district championship.

It was only the second conference loss for Abernathy, but it made the Antelopes' meeting with Floydada this week anti-climatic.

COMBINING a ball control offense that would do credit to Ohio State with a swarming defense, the Bobcats rolled to their fourth straight win in one of their best efforts of the season.

With the powerful Olton Mustangs coming into town Friday, the Cats seem to be putting it all together.
Mark Wohlgenuth, senior signal caller, scored once for Dimmitt on a 17-yard quarterback option and pitched a 54-yard strike to end Max Newman for another DHS tally. Running back Matthew Daniel, on a 35-yard jaunt, scored Dimmitt's other touchdown.

ABERNATHY kicked off to the gain to use hard-hitting Charlie Johnson, who showed why many schools are making a bid for his services.

Midway in the first frame, Hoyt Hestand missed a 22-yard field goal attempt. Abernathy soon nailed a Dimmitt fumble as Tom Hodges recovered. After some fine running by Mark Harrison, Dave Davenport hit Jim Rodgers for a 25-yard touchdown pass with 0:12 left in the quarter. Davenport missed the extra point, but the host Antelopes had a 6-0 edge.

In the second quarter, Wohlgenuth hit senior end Max Newman on a 40-yard roll out pass. Hestand converted, giving the Cats a 7-6 margin.

THE Antelopes, getting great running out of their backs — especially Johnson and Mark Harrison — couldn't get their passing game going and soon found the visitors keying on their offensive running threats.

With several minutes left in the opening half, Dave Niro dropped Davenport for a big loss to the Abernathy 20-yard line. Then Nati Anes blasted off tackle for a 32-yard gainer to get the Cats' offense rolling again. Anes, showing great balance and poise for his 165-pound frame, added gains of six and seven yards before Matthew Daniel streaked 36 yards for a touchdown to put the second Dimmitt tally on the board. Hestand notched the extra point making it 14-6 as the first half ended.

Charlie Johnson returned the second half kick-off to the 50 and the Antelopes started mounting a serious drive, only to see the inspired Bobcat defense hold and gain control. The visiting Cats, relying primarily on the rushing of Anes and Daniel Fri-son, resorted to ball control tactics for most of the third stanza.

MATTHEW DANIEL returned to the offense long enough in the early minutes of the fourth period to get the Bobcat offense clanking gain with several nice running thrusts.

Wohlgenuth, relying once again on Anes, moved the Bobcats to the Antelope 17, where he set out on the quarterback option that ended in the Antelope end zone.

The extra point effort failed and the Cats were out in front 20-6, with 7:48 remaining in the contest.

Abernathy, in an attempt to play catch-up football, resorted to the shotgun offense which failed to produce the needed scores. With Davenport at the controls and throwing on every play, the Antelopes moved to the Dimmitt 10. Then Charlie McLean, a junior defensive back, ended the Antelope scoring drive with an interception on the last play of the game.

ALTHOUGH Abernathy notched 16 first downs to Dimmitt's 12, the Bobcats gained 267 yards, rushing to the hosts' 159. Wohlgenuth added 87 yards passing, and Davenport gained only 60 yards in the air.

Amherst wallops Nazareth, 42-6

By "THE SWIFT"
The Nazareth Swifts, playing in a 3-B district game, turned in one of their worst efforts of the year as they were crushed by the Bulldogs of Amherst.

THE BULLDOGS took a 35-0 halftime score and were never threatened as they amassed 42 points in three quarters, to bring the final score to 42-6.

The Swifts, playing with several key personnel out, had to fill in with inexperienced sophomore and freshmen players.

The Bulldogs started the game with a big bang. On the second series of downs, Amherst superstar Bobby Clayton hit an off-tackle play and ran 40 yards to paydirt. The point-after attempt was good, and Amherst took a 7-0 lead with only one minute gone in the first quarter.

THIS SET THE PACE for the remainder of the first half. The Swift offense would sputter and would have to give up the ball on fourth down. Big Bobby Clayton would then take the ball and run for the score seemingly untouched by the Swifts', usually stingy defense.

The Swift defense forced the Bulldogs to punt only once during the first half, while the Swift offense had to punt eight times. Runs of 10, one and eight yards by Clayton and a 20-yard pass gave the Bulldogs an insurmountable lead of 35-0 as the half-time gun sounded.

The Swifts came back in the second half with the determination not to be shut out. Nazareth mounted a drive on its own 25 and marched the length of the field on good runs by Neil Dobmeier and Gordon Wilhelm. On fourth down and goal to go, Dobmeier carried for four yards and seemed to have a touchdown, but the play was called back on an offside penalty. Nazareth then had fourth and goal on the 9. Quarterback Keith Gerber took a play from the bench and drilled a pass to Ben Huseman for six points.

ON THE two-point conversion attempt, Gerber hit tight end Randy Schilling in the end zone, but Nazareth was offside again. Nazareth was set back to the 8-yard line and given another try, which failed, but Amherst was offside. Nazareth tried once more, but failed again.

The Swift defense started outlasted the Bulldogs in the second half, allowing only three first downs and giving up only seven points. Bobby Clayton seemed to be getting tired after four TD's and 23 carries in the first half, plus playing outstanding defense at his middle linebacker spot.

Amherst scored one more TD and conversion late in the third quarter, and that ended the scoring in the lopsided clash.

THE remainder of the game was grueling for the Swifts and they sustained two key injuries in the hard-hitting second half. Halfback David Olivera and tackle Raymond Huseman both suffered knee injuries.

Outstanding on defense this week for Nazareth were Dennis Kern with six tackles and four assists, and Kerry Brockman with six tackles and one assist.

Gordon Wilhelm, who carried seven times for 50 yards, and Ben Huseman, who caught three passes for 20 yards and a touchdown, were both outstanding on offense.

Nazareth will play Anton Friday at 7:30 in Swift Stadium.

Hart falls, 42-14

Refs draw fire in lively bout

By DAVID BASS

The Happy Cowboys scored three early touchdowns, then held on to win, 42-14, over the Hart Longhorns Friday night.

THE SCORE was deceptive. It was one of the most exciting, spirited contests that Hart has played all year.

The game began with Hart receiving. Stanley Dyer took the ball on the 20 and bulled his way to the 28-yard line. Having trouble with their usual slow start, the Horns bogged down after an incomplete third down pass.

After the punt, the Happy Cowboys began punching their way downfield after a pass play that the fans didn't quite believe was complete.

WITH THE ball on the 4-yard line, the Cowboys' Ruben Garcia punched the ball over. Garcia also ran the extra points, giving Happy an 8-0 lead.

Guillermo Carrasco received the Happy kickoff and made a good run of 20 yards, but an untimely fumble gave the ball to the Cowboys, who then moved it to the Hart 3, where Bill Pearson blasted over, making it 14-0.

A run for the extra points was stopped.

Hart began moving on the next drive, but after another of the many controversial calls by the referees, Hart had to punt. The Cowboys also got the aid of another penalty and were on their way to Hart's goal. Ruben Garcia ran in from the 13 after which Bill Pearson ran the extra points, making Happy's lead to 22-0.

HART'S defense then began to work. After the Horns punted, the Cowboys found themselves up against a brick wall. Finally, on a fourth down play, the Horns blocked a Cowboy punt, but somehow the Cowboys ended up with the ball and a first down. This made the Horns even madder and the Cowboys were stopped behind the line of scrimmage the rest of the quarter, which ended 22-0.

The second quarter was all defense with plenty of hard hitting. Only once did either team threaten, and that was when Happy scored but had it called back because of an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty. The Cowboys then started moving toward the Horn goal line again. After another penalty, the Cowboys found themselves with first and goal on the Hart 5. But the Horn defense rose to the test. The Horns held the Cowboys for the remaining time left on the clock to leave the score at 22-0 at the half.

IN THE third quarter, the Horns' good defense paid off. Stanley Dyer and Ralph Bell chased Happy's Mike Hargrave 20 yards back, into his own end zone, where they tackled him for a safety. Then after the Cowboy kicked off, the Horns' Stanley Dyer took off on a 24-yard jaunt to the Happy 15. But then came a fumble — the Horns' chances — a fumble — and the drive was called, ending the third quarter with the score at 22-2.

In the fourth quarter, havoc broke loose with both teams scrambling. First it was Happy on a 31-yard pass from Mike Hargrave to Steve Cole. Ruben Garcia ran the extras.

But Hart came right back on a 70-yard pass and run play from Ricky Farris to Erasmo Castillo. This play carried to the Happy 1-yard line. On the next play, Stanley Dyer blasted over. The try for the extra points was killed, leaving the score at 30-8.

AFTER the tough Hart defense stopped the Cowboys, Hart found itself on its own 14-yard line. Then Stanley Dyer cut right through the middle and shocked the Cowboy defense with an electrifying run of 84 yards for a score. The try for the extras again failed,

Basketball play to start Tuesday

Basketball season begins for Dimmitt High School in just five days, and both Kenneth Cleveland's Bobcats and Bob Askey's Bobbies will begin the season away from home.

TUESDAY night, the teams will travel to Farwell for their opening games. Varsity girls will begin play at 6:30, followed by the boys' game at 8 p.m.

This season finds both coaches short on returning starters. Cleveland will have only two returning for the 1970-71 cage season, and Askey has only one.

For the Bobcats, veterans starters Kent Bradford and Mark Wohlgenuth, both seniors, are back. Kenny Doss and Max Newman, also seniors, saw a lot of action last year, and will aid the Cats with their experience.

THE REST of the varsity this year will be made up of juniors. Danny Ebeling, Felton Isaacs, Jerry Matthews and Jay Stanton, all with "B" team experience last year, will rot for varsity letters this year. Joining them are juniors Charles McLean, David Nino, Ricky Battles, Larry Lanford, Gary Webb, Brent Miller, Bo Myers and Andy Mays.

Coach Cleveland admits that it may be a rough season. The Morton Indians are new in District 3-AA, and they had an excellent season last year, defeating Dimmitt in the bi-district game with a junior-dominated team. All the district teams will be tougher, according to Cleveland.

"They have all improved over last year," the coach said, "and will be stronger." However, the coach seemed enthusiastic about his own team, and has hopes for another District 3-AA crown.

THE BOBBIES, who won the district championship last year, have only one returning starter — senior guard Lee Ann Merritt. But several other girls on this year's squad received valuable game experience last season, and Coach Askey hopes the Bobbies will be district championship contenders again.

Senior Cynthia Henderson and juniors Terrie Newton, Ann Lust, Sarita White and Karen Baldridge all logged varsity time last season. Juniors Nancy Tisdale, Vicki Winders, Sandra Robertson, Diane Dyer and Jeanne Petty, and sophomores Patty Jackson and Dawn Parker also are vying for varsity posts after making last year's "B" team click.

Three of Coach Askey's girls' squads — the Bobbies, B team and freshmen girls — attended an all-day clinic sponsored by Wayland Baptist College in Plainview Saturday in hopes of picking up useful tips. Nancy Greer's junior high girls also attended the clinic.

THE FIRST home basketball games will be Friday, Nov. 20, when the Bobcats and Bobbies host Springlake in North Elementary Gym.

Dimmitt's cage teams will see action in the Plainview, Friona and Tulia tournaments before district opener against Floydada Dec. 15. The district race will get underway in earnest after the Christmas holidays. It's likely to be an uphill climb as the Bobcats and Bobbies seek to repeat last year's enviable record of back-to-back district championships.

We may be studying democracy but we aren't practicing it

Do you think our student body elections are fair?

YOU MIGHT change your opinion after considering our election processes. Education is supposed to be "the backbone of democracy," but some of our practices don't show it.

For example, when classes meet to elect officers, it's usually a free-for-all. Finally, after half the class has been nominated, the students settle down to "voting." The customary voting procedure is for the voters to stand up when it is time to vote for the nominees.

It is possible that many elections would have different outcomes if they were held by secret ballot. When elections are held under our present methods, many students stand simply because someone else is standing. The student isn't voting for the candidate; he is simply standing in a crowd because he doesn't want to stand alone.

Some people feel embarrassed to vote for someone whom they feel is the best qualified because they have everyone staring at them.

Popularity will, unfortunately, always rule elections, but we feel that class officers should go to the most qualified.

Wait until you're voting on Flame Queen or some other honor before turning our elections into popularity contests.

Letter to the Editor

Spirit boost really helped

TO THE EDITOR:
 We wanted results from last week's letter to the editor, and we got it!

ALTHOUGH it was extremely cold last Thursday night, there was a greater number of spectators at our game than ever before. They really uplifted our "Bobcat Spirit" and we hit, ran, hustled, and played harder than ever before.

We think the spectators realized this fact and they enjoyed watching our game with Canyon more than any of our previous games, even though we lost, 46-14.

Floydada has not lost a game and they are a tough team, but we feel we can take those "Whirlwinds," knock the hot air out of them, and scatter them across the Panhandle if Dimmitt will follow us to Floydada and support the freshman team.

We are deeply grateful for you supporting us and urge you to continue to support us Thursday. We guarantee you a superb performance. We may not win, but you can be sure we're going to dedicate our physical ability to playing our best through the first, second, third and fourth quarters, and through the last seconds of the game.

Farrer named chairman of theatre group

DHS speech and drama instructor Bob Farrer attended the Southwest Theatre Conference Oct. 29-31 in Lubbock.

The meeting was hosted by Texas Tech Drama Dept. The Theatre Conference is made up of drama directors from the community, university and professional theatre field in a four-state area.

Plays and various lectures were presented. Demonstrations in movement, acting lessons, children's theater and high school drama were also presented. Lectures and plays were given, featuring such well known theatrical performers as Laurence Luckenbill, star of "The Boys in the Band;" Miss Opsara, director of "Hair;" and Tone Brulin, the director of the Actor's Institute in New York City.

Mr. Farrer was selected as the chairman for the coming year of the Secondary Southwest Theatre Conference.

He said of the conference, "It was enjoyable to see many old directors back. The exchange of ideas was beneficial."

Nous vous presentons maintenant CLAIRE TENAILLON

"Racial problems really aren't a problem and the French student is much more interested in politics and government than are my friends here in DHS," stated Claire Tenailon, American Field Service exchange student.

CLAIRE, a native of Agonac, France, was born in French Morocco. Claire's father is a retired French Army officer. She is the sixth oldest in a family of eight children.

Claire's hobbies are quite varied. They include traveling, listening to classical music and visiting various resort areas in France and Spain. She also enjoys tennis, but soccer (the French national pastime) is just a little rough for her.

Claire attended school in Perqueu, a city of 50,000 people. The average French student attends school for 12 years. Very few attend the very select French universities.

"WE DON'T have the sports scene that you have here," said Claire. "Our sports are played on a club or town basis. We just don't have as much extracurricular activity."

"Instead of going downtown for a Coke after school, we go for coffee," says Claire. "We Frenchmen don't eat quite the same foods that you do. We have no corn or hamburger in our diet. We eat lots of lamb."

"In France we don't start to date quite so young," she continued. "French girls don't begin to date until they're 16 or 17 years old; the boys, not until they're 17 or 18. The major reason for this may be that the French students don't get personal cars until they're 18 to 20 years of age."

THE generation gap exists in France also, according to Miss Tenailon. Many French students are quite irate when it comes to their establishment. In fact, they staged a revolt several years ago to gain more individual rights.

The French student spends many hours each day on academic subjects. When not busy, the French student is probably studying.

Claire, who hopes to become an ambassador in a few years, passed a battery of personality and achievement tests to be elected as one of the American Field Service students. There are currently 108 French students in America in this program. One of Claire's friends is in New York City and another is in Salt Lake City.

Claire will be in America until next July or August, then will return to France for future studies.

Love notes appreciated

Dear Connie Rodgers: The poems were really thoughtful and sweet. I really appreciate them. Yours truly, Deana Hargrove.

Mr. Farrer, was your little trip to Lubbock all business? We understand teachers enjoy trips as much as students do.

Jessie Odom received a 1971 Firebird last week. Real pretty, Jessie.

Byron Hutto and Lonnie Markley seem to have lost something out at the North Gin. Did you ever find it boys?

We wonder what Brenda Seely has planned for Friday night.

Coach Parker has a new name for one of his classes: The Second Period Slop Slinging Biology II Class.

David Musick has been receiving mysterious phone calls from Abilene. Wonder who it could be?

Ann Lust's feet are so big that when Karen Baldrige fell over them she sprained her ankle.

Well, Leslie Harsh finally broke David White's string.

We understand Robert Acevedo's senior pictures need a little touching up.

It's been understood that Roy Garza doesn't want to get involved. Hey Roy, what were you doing with Mary Gaura?

If you will look on Rita Vick's left hand you will find a sparkling diamond. Congratulations Rita.

Ecw, Sandra Robertson sure believes in succeeding when she's on the drop. What's wrong, wouldn't that little ole car get out of your way?

Donna Hudson, Sandra Jones and Pecky Carpenter have been seen sitting in the car during fifth period lunch hour. Hey Fish, was there a fire out there?

Haircuts can really change the Jim Patton really got warmed up last Thursday for not being here second period. Did you really get five hot ones?

Jane Ann Mooney had something in Home Ec that Mrs. Snider didn't like—or did she want it for herself?

Ask Andy Mays and Gary Webb how they get their kicks during fifth period lunch.

Clyde Damron is really in a friendly mood lately.

Boy, Cindy Scoggin really has long weekends.

We wonder why George Vasquez studies a lot nowadays. Could it

Will Junior Espinoza ever speak to Bertha Davila?

Fernando Davila, why don't you stop growing up and start growing from the side instead?

We understand that Mr. Miller dearly misses Junior Espinoza this year. Buck up Mr. Miller, maybe he'll take journalism.

We hope nothing happens to big Nati Anes. He's a fall-running Bobcat.

Spanish Club works for gift

This year the Spanish club counts 26 members.

THE SPANISH CLUB took part in the Lions Club Carnival on Halloween night with a penny pitching booth.

"The profit was not great, but every little bit helps," says Vice-President Mary Cardenas. She thanks the members who helped in the booth.

Dues are $2 a year and anyone can join the club. The only qualification for membership is a year of Spanish.

This year's proceeds go for a present for the school at the end of the school year and a Christmas party for the club.

The club plans to sell candy in the near future.

Mrs. Parker, the Spanish Club's sponsor, says, "The objective of the club is to better our school activities and social program."

The Future Teachers of America went to Canyon for the district convention Nov. 3.

ONE OF the main activities was the speech competition for the title of "Mr. FTA." Lonnie Markley, who represented Dimmitt, received this honor.

Lonnie has competed earlier in Amarillo against eight others. He went on to Canyon and competed with two other finalists.

Lonnie will go to Houston in February to compete in the state finals with 20 other district winners. The winner will receive a $1,000 scholarship to the college of his choice.

FFA is selling holiday fruit

The FFA started selling fruit Monday, and will continue through Nov. 23.

THE FRUIT is expected to be exceptionally good this year. Dec. 15 will be the delivery date. The price will be the same as last year, $5 for a 40-pound box. The FFA boys will be selling oranges and grapefruit.

Player of the week Richard Davila

Richard Davila, end and line-backer, and one of the underdog heroes of the Bobcats, is this week's Fourth Hour Player of the Week.

RICHARD has played football since the seventh grade. He has attended schools in California and in Dimmitt.

When asked his opinion of the season, Richard said, "I think we could have a fine record for this year." Talking in terms of the team next year, Richard said, "I think that DHS will have a good team next year. It will be hard to beat."

Richard lists his favorite teams as Notre Dame and the Dallas Cowboys.

CORNERED at the sideline in the third quarter, Dimmitt's Daniel Frierson ducks his head and prepares for a head-on collision with Abernathy's Bobby Rogers (24) and another Antelope tackler at the Dimmitt 18-yard line. The play was part of the Bobcats' final scoring march, which ended with a touchdown to give the Bobcats a come-from-behind 20-6 victory. Frierson scored one of Dimmitt's touchdowns, with Mark Wohlgenuth and Matthew Daniel running for the other two.

Amazon mission work described

Members of the First Christian Church heard a sermon Sunday morning by J. Fred Bayless, retired minister from Albuquerque. MINISTER Bayless was the last of four mission speakers to speak at the local church in 1970 in behalf of certain missions, Bible Colleges, and the Cookson Hills Christian School and Ranch for Homeless Children.

At the 6 p.m. service he showed slides of Belem, Brazil, and nearby areas where his son, David, and co-workers have built an active mission work, known as "Christ for the Amazon." Bayless accompanied to Dimmitt by his wife, is the forwarding agent in the US for this mission.

WEDNESDAY evening the local church will host another minister, Ernest Galloway of Anthony, Kan., who conducted a revival here several years ago while serving an Amarillo congregation. The public is invited, and all members of the congregation are urged to attend.

While in Amarillo, Minister Galloway helped area churches plan their building programs. Before becoming a minister he was associated with his father, a building contractor. He was for several years the business manager for the El Porvenir Christian Corporation, of which the Dimmitt church is a participant.

The exact time of the Wednesday evening service will be announced Saturday when Minister Bedford W. Smith broadcasts over KDHN in the church sponsored program: "Understanding Your Bible" following the regular Saturday Library Program. Time of Minister Smith's broadcast is about 9:48 a.m. each Saturday.

Minister Smith's Sunday sermons this week will be at the 10:50 a.m. hour, "Living Stones," and "Altogether Holy" the 6 o'clock theme.

Quail season to open Saturday

Quail season will open Saturday in Castro County.

IF YOU plan to take to the field, however, you'll need to be selective about which direction you travel, and how far. A county line can make the difference between legal and illegal hunting in this area.

Although the quail season in Castro and most other Panhandle counties runs from Nov. 14 to Jan. 31, the season in neighboring Lamb County doesn't open until Dec. 1, and will close Jan. 16.

And in Briscoe, Hall, Childress, Motley, Cottle and Wheeler Counties, the season won't open until Dec. 1, but will run until Jan. 31.

THE LONGEST quail season in North Texas will be in Lubbock, Hockley Cochran and Crosby Counties — and most of the counties south of them — where hunting will start Saturday and won't close until Feb. 15. In these counties, the limit is higher, too — 15 per day or 45 in possession.

North of this area, though — in the 26 counties of the Panhandle — the limit is 12 per day or 36 in possession.

STOP RIGHT THERE! — Dimmitt's Felton Isaacs (85) and Henry Rivera (54) apply the brakes to Abernathy halfback Charles Johnson at the Dimmitt 30-yard line in the fourth quarter of Friday night's Bobcat-Antelope game. At this point the Antelopes were two touchdowns behind and were pushing desperately for a score, using the shotgun formation. But the Bobcats, giving one of their best defensive performances of the year, held off the favored Antelopes for a big 20-6 victory.

ASCS notes

It's important that you keep good records on 1970 cotton

By CHARLEY E. HILL
County ASCS Secretary

We would like to remind you again that all cotton ginned must be identified as to producer and farm number to be acceptable in establishing future farm yields. You are urged to cooperate with your gin to see that this information is put on your records, because it could be of the utmost importance in establishing your cotton farm yield.

1970 WOOL PROGRAM
Applications for 1970 wool incentive payments must be filed on or before Jan. 31, 1971. If you have questions concerning your eligibility to receive wool incentive payments, please contact the county ASCS office.

CROP REPORTS NEEDED
During this month some 25,000 farmers will receive crop questionnaires from Cary Palmer of the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

Accurate estimates are of great importance to producers for providing an accurate picture of their county and Texas Agriculture. Each farmer receiving a questionnaire is urged to fill it out carefully and return it promptly to the agricultural statistician in Austin.

1968 WHEAT EXPORT POOL
The 1968 wheat export certificate pool of about $12 million is the result of legislation passed several years ago that provided for excess collections of export certificates to be distributed pro rata among wheat producers. Wheat exporters are required to buy export certificates for any lot of wheat exported whenever the US price is less than world price. Whenever the US price exceeds the world price, an export subsidy is paid to the exporter to make the wheat competitive in world markets.

The world market price for the 1969 crop of wheat was at times higher than the US price, and an export pool accumulated. The original law provided for this pool to be divided pro rata among wheat producers. For most producers, it would be a payment of only a few dollars. In most cases it would amount to less than one dollar.

Local wheat growers whose share of the export certificate amounts to $3 or more will receive notice directly from the county ASCS office telling them what their share of the pool is.

A producer may choose to receive his share of the export certificate pool, or he may leave it in the pool to finance the research and promotion program for wheat.

Wheat growers in Castro County who are entitled to receive less than $3 will not receive a special notice, but they can nevertheless claim their share of export certificates by filing a written request for payment with the county ASCS office.

Growers will have until Dec. 25 to notify the county ASCS office of their choice.

HOLIDAYS: Our office was closed Wednesday in observance of Veterans' Day and will be closed Nov. 26 for Thanksgiving.
