Council approves seven ordinance changes

By ROGER CLINE

Staff Writer

At a relatively uncontentious City Council meeting Tuesday evening, council members approved seven alterations to Big Spring city ordinances. All measures passed unanimously and Terry McDaniel were absent from the proceedings.

The first three ordinances passed by the council were located on the "Consent Agenda" for the meeting; the portion of the agenda for non-controversial items, which are usually single council vote. Ordinances approved on final reading on the Consent Agenda included an amendment to the Traffic Code allowing city personnel to enforce "No Through Trucks" zones on streets in residen-councilmen Raul Marquez handled as a package with a tial neighborhoods; as well as two ordinances restricting donations by the Big Spring Area Community Foundation to be used for their intended purposes. Earlier this month, the BSACF presented grants of $37,000 and $15,000 to the city; the former to be used for the planned Downtown Plaza project, and the latter for the planned Heart of the City Plaza project.

United Blood Services (UBS) and the Big Spring Center for Skilled Care will host a community blood drive on Tuesday, August 7th. The Bloodmobiles will be at 3701 Wasson from 9 a.m. to 11.45 a.m.

"We just started doing this blood drive at this spot in 2017," said Linda Grace, senior donor recruitment representative. "It is a wonderful facility. We've teamed up with them and they have a lot of things donated for us."

UBS has been teaming up with others and saving lives since 1943, with the help of those who donate their blood.

Trinity Baptist Church hosts a Fostering informational meeting on the fourth Thursday of each month. The photo above was taken at their meeting on May 24, 2018, which was the first ever foster informational meeting they have had since teaming up with more child advocacy agencies in Texas, all in efforts to help spread the importance and the need of foster parents in our community.

For a child, entering the foster care system is often a frightening and stressful experience, especially after what they have been through that resulted in them being placed in foster care in the first place. Foster carers have the ability to be a safe, loving environment for these vulnerable children. Sadly though, not a lot of people know much about being foster parents, and what they have heard is just the horror stories. Lucky for us, Trinity Baptist Church is hosting another Fostering Informational Meeting, on July 26 at 7 p.m. "This will be a meeting for anyone who may have been curious about fostering before, or just want to know more about being a foster parent. This is a chance to bring fostering awareness to Howard County," said Monica Hull, a member of Trinity Baptist Church and a foster parent herself. "When my husband and I started fostering two years ago, it really opened our eyes to how bad foster parents are needed in our county." When Hull started fostering, she said it opened her eyers to a whole world of children who are in need. According to Hull, 91% percent of the children who have to be placed in See ANCHOR, Page 3

General Dwight Eisenhower. When former fashion model Kay Summersby is assigned to drive General Eisenhower in war-time London, they quickly become involved in spite of Ike's marriage to Mamie and Kay's engagement to an American colonel. Ike's celebrity at war's end brings new battles for all three. Ike and Kay may wish desperately to stay together after the war, but history has something else in store. Their untold story of love, loss, and divided loyalties continues into their postwar lives.

In "The Silent Wife" by Kerry Fisher (F FIS K), Lara's life looks perfect on the surface, but Lara knows something about her husband Massimo

In "An American Marriage" by Tayari Jones (F JON T), newlyweds Celestial and Roy are settled into the routine of their life together until they are suddenly ripped apart by circumstances neither could have imagined. While visiting Roy's parents, Roy is arrested and sentenced to twelve years in prison for a crime Celestial knows he didn't commit. Celestial finds herself taking comfort in Andre, her childhood friend and Roy's best man at her wedding. As Roy's time in prison passes, she is unable to hold on to the love that has been her center. After five years, Roy's conviction is suddenly overturned, and he returns ready to resume their life together. Celestial is faced with a soul-wrenching decision: whether to let go or to try to rebuild a marriage that has lost its underpinnings.

"If You Love Me" by Alice Keale with Jane Smith (F KEA A) is the chilling true story of a woman trapped in a devastating relationship as she tries to prove her love over and over again. Within days of spending their first evening together, Alice and Joe were talking about getting married and spending the rest of their lives with each other. One day Joe saw a message on her phone from an old love, and that changed everything. He ignored Alice's explanations and desperate pleas, and soon the violence and abuse began. As she attempted to prove to Joe that he was her world, Alice gave up everything that mattered to her. approved by the council; the measures will still have to be confirmed by a final reading, likely on the Consent Agenda the the next meeting, scheduled for

Two of the new ordinance changes amended the city's Traffic Code. The first updated the definition of "truck" as it applies to city traffic statutes. The previous definition in the Traffic Code read "'Truck' defined. For the purposes of this section, a truck shall be defined as every motor vehicle designed, maintained or used primarily for the transportation of property, which has three or more axles and/or a gross vehicle weight of more than 10,000 pounds."

The new definition approved by the council reads "'Truck' defined. For the purposes of this section, a truck shall be defined as a single-unit vehicle with a manufacturer's gross weight rating of more than ten thousand pounds (10,000 lbs.), a single-unit vehicle with tandem axles, or all truck-tractor/semitrailers. This definition does not include a 'light truck' as defined by the Texas Transpor-

City Attorney Marianne Banks said the specific exclusion of "light trucks" from the definition was made to clarify the intent of the city's Traffic Code.

"I think it's clear that the definition of "truck" in the ordinance as it is is alright; it meets the current needs and it meets the standards and it conforms with the other provisions of the transportation section," she said. "But when we were looking at other cities' ordinances, it was Odessa. They added this language at the end and we liked the way they had written that. We thought it clarified it."

The other Traffic Code amendment approved by the council updated the times 20-mph speed limits will be in effect in school zones around many Big Spring ISD schools when the fall semester starts. New times which will go into effect this fall include (assuming the measure passes on final reading): Around Goliad Middle School and Big Spring Intermediate School from 7:15 to 8:30 a.m. and from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m., instead of 7:30 to 9:30 a.m. and 2:45 to 4:30 p.m. as are currently required; around Kentwood, Marcy, Moss, and Washington elementary schools from 7:15 to 8:30 a.m. and from 2:15 to 4:15 p.m., instead of 7:30 to 9:30 a.m. and 2:45 to 4:30 p.m.; around Big Spring High School and Big Spring Junior High School from 7:30 to 8:30 a.m. instead of 7:30 to 9:30 a.m., and from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. instead of from 2:45 to 4:30 p.m.; around Anderson School from 7:30 to 8 a.m. instead of from 7 to 9 a.m., and from 3 to 4 p.m. instead of from 2:45 to 4:30 p.m.

Air Conditioner Ready For Spring & Summer?

The ordinance makes no changes to the school zone slow-down times at Bauer Headstart School Readiness Academy or New Hope Christian School, nor at the bus loading zones on Airbase Road and West 16th Street (7:30 to 9:30 a.m. and 2:45 to 4:30 p.m. for all).

Big Spring Public Works Director Johnny Womack said the city looks at the school zones every year.

"It's that time of the year, getting ready for school zones," Womack said. "The district sent us the times, and the (Big Spring Police) chief and I met, and Coach (BSISD Auxiliary Services Director John) Sparks, and visited with them, and they're good with all this."

Another ordinance approved by the council was described by City Attorney Marianne Banks as a simple "housekeeping" issue. The measure confirms that the Big Spring City Manager or his designee is responsible for inspecting and enforcing garbage disposal procedures in the city, rather than (as the ordinance said previously) the "Manager of the Municipal Solid Waste Collection Department." Banks said, despite the ordinance, that the job is currently being performed by Code Enforcement.

The final ordinance considered and approved by the council formally annexed 17.58 acres of land out of two tracts located northwest of West Seventh and Lorilla streets.

In other business, the council:

- Approved an agreement with KDC Associates for the architectural design work for the Comanche Trail Park Amphitheater Improvement Project.
- Approved allowing the Big Spring Convention and Visitors Bureau to seek grants for the Amphitheater Improvement Project.
- Approved an interlocal agreement for the assessment and collection of taxes; the measure is a routine one, up for consideration every
- Approved an amendment to the performance agreement with the Big Spring Economic Development Corporation for rail infrastructure.
- Heard a quarterly update by the Big Spring Economic Development Corporation Director Terry Wegman, including a video highlighting progress on rail development at the McMahon-Wrinkle Airpark.
- Met in closed executive session to discus purchase, exchange, lease or value of real estate property. No action was taken when the council returned to open session.

the foster care system in Howard County have to completely leave the region because of the lack of foster parents here in Howard County. That's why her and her husband started Wildflower Ministries, an organization that went around to churches and dedicated their time to educate the public on the importance of foster parents, and what happens when we don't have enough foster parents.

"We are a 31 area wide region, and we have to send our children away because of the lack of foster parents when they are already going through a tough time with no friends or family close by. It can make for their horrible situation to become even worse," said Hull. "We recently teamed up with more child advocacy agencies to expand our goal of teaching the public on the importance of foster parents, and started Fostering Howard County Kids. The meeting on May 24 was our first one, and served as an opportunity to spread and share with the community on how bad our children need foster parents."

The work that foster carers do within society really does make a difference. Not only that, but it's a rewarding job that works both ways. It doesn't just make a difference to the children, but it also changes the life of the carer too. Seeing a child start to achieve things because they are happy and content, despite the things they have been through, is extremely humbling for a foster parent. "Being a foster parent does have its rewards, and I want to be able to answer any questions and share with the community my experiences, and with how bad foster parents are needed" said Hull. "It's one of those things we don't think about very much, kind of like out of sight out of mind, but it's not."

Come learn about being foster parents and see how you can be an anchor or safe place for a child who has nowhere to go but you. For more information, check out Wildflower Ministries' Facebook page or Fostering HowMYERS & SMITH FUNERAL HOME & CHAPEL

Fire fails to ignite explosives at burning Texas facility

ZEPHYR, Texas (AP) — Fire officials say a grass fire "burned through" a dynamite storage facility, prompting the evacuation of a tiny West Texas community, but the explosives were untouched.

Some 200 residents were evacuated from Zephyr around 6 p.m. Monday when the fire neared the Orica facility. No injuries have been reported.

Clay Bales, a forester with the Texas A&M Forest Service, says the fire damaged some buildings at the Orica facility but none that housed explosives.

The residential evacuation order was lifted Tuesday, after the storage facility was deemed safe.

Bales says authorities don't know what sparked the fire Monday afternoon. It has scorched 1,200 acres (5 sq. kilometers) and was 50 percent contained Tuesday. The fire destroyed one

Trump plans emergency aid to farmers affected by his tariffs

By KEN THOMAS

Associated Press WASHINGTON

The U.S. readied a plan Tuesday to send billions in emergency aid to farmers who have been hurt by President Donald Trump's trade disputes with China and other American trading partners.

The Agriculture Department was expected to announce the proposal that would include direct assistance and other temporary relief for farmers, according to two people briefed on the plan, who were not authorized to speak on the record.

The plan comes as City in the heart of the nation's farm country.

Trump declared earlier Tuesday that "Tariffs are the greatest!" and threatened to impose additional penalties on U.S. trading partners as he prepared for negotiations with European officials at the White House. Sen. John Hoeven, R-N.D., said the funding may need to be approved by Congress and the aid would be temporary. "The administration is trying to negotiate better trade deals," he said. "In the near term with Tariffs. It's as simple as that."

The president has engaged in hard-line trading negotiations with China, Canada and European nations, seeking to renegotiate agreements he says have undermined the nation's manufacturing base and led to a wave of job losses in recent decades.

The imposition of punishing tariffs on imported goods has been a favored tactic by Trump, but it has prompted U.S. partners to retaliate, creating risks for the economy.

Trump has placed tariffs on imported steel and aluminum, saying they pose a threat to U.S. national security, an argument that allies such as the European Union and Canada reject. He has also threatened to slap tariffs on imported cars, trucks and auto parts, potentially targeting imports that last year totaled $335 billion.

During a Monday event at the White House featuring American-made goods, Trump displayed a green hat that read, "Make Our Farmers Great Again."

The president is meeting with European Commission President Jean-Claude Juncker on Wednesday. The U.S. and European allies have been at odds over the president's tariffs on steel imports and are meeting as the trade dispute threatens to spread to automobile production.

Police bullet killed market employee during LA gunbattle

Paolo Singer, 27, a Silver Lake resident, prays at a makeshift memorial of flowers, candles and notes growing on the sidewalk outside the Silver Lake Trader Joe's store in Los Angeles, Monday, July 23, 2018.

By MICHAEL BALSAMO

Associated Press

LOS ANGELES — A store worker killed in a gunbattle before a suspect took hostages in a crowded supermarket was hit by a police officer's bullet, Police Chief Michel Moore said Tuesday.

The employee, Melyda Corado, 27, was leaving the store Saturday as the suspect, Gene Evin Atkins, 28, was going into the store after firing two rounds at officers pursuing him, Moore told reporters.

The two officers each fired back at Atkins and one of their rounds went through one of Corado's arms and into her body. In deciding whether to open fire, the officers had to consider whether the suspect in what was already a long-running series of violent events would become an active shooter in a market crowded with weekend shoppers, Moore said. "That is the worst, worst decision that any officer ever wishes to have to make," the chief said. Atkins was scheduled to be arraigned later Tuesday on numerous charges.

The events began about 1:30 p.m. in South Los Angeles when Atkins allegedly shot and wounded his 76-yearold grandmother and fled in a stolen car, taking along a 17-year-old girl who was grazed by a bullet. Moore said the abduction of the girl was kidnapping. Around 3 p.m., officers spotted Atkins in Hollywood and got into a car chase with him.

Moore said Atkins fired at the officers through the rear window of his vehicle but the officers did not fire back at that time. About 15 minutes later he crashed into a utility pole outside a Trader Joe's market in the Silver Lake neighborhood, where the gunbattle erupted. Corado was fatally struck and Atkins was wounded in the arm.

Store employees and customers fled or hid. Atkins held some as hostages, let some go and then surrendered several hours later.

Investigators recovered casings of the two bullets fired at the officers after the car crash, Moore said.

Houston Astros' Tony Kemp celebrates as he scores on a triple by pinch-hitter Kyle Tucker off Colorado Rockies relief pitcher Wade Davis, back, during the 10th inning of a baseball game inning with a single Tuesday, July 24, 2018, in Denver.

DENVER Houston Astros debated whether to have Tony Kemp bunt or swing away in a pressurepacked situation.

Swing away won out. It ignited quite a rally.

Kemp lined a go-ahead single off closer Wade Davis as part of a sixrun 10th inning and the Astros beat the Colorado Rockies 8-2 on Tuesday night. "He's a good bunter but he's a really good hitter, so we told him hit the ball to the outfield," Astros manager A.J. Hinch said. "He's a good listener."

Kemp's one-out hit brought in Josh Reddick, who led off the to center that Charlie Blackmon misplayed and had bounce by him for his first error of the season. A hustling Reddick wound up on third and set the stage.

"I went up to the plate and (Hinch) just said, 'Hey, you're a good hitter," Kemp recounted. "That's all I needed to hear right there."

Davis (0-3) later surrendered a two-run triple to pinch-hitter Kyle Tucker and a two-run homer to George Springer as the Astros beat the Rockies for the seventh straight time in a streak that dates to 2013. Davis was charged with five runs. It's the most runs he's allowed as a reliev-

The six runs allowed in the 10th are the second-most allowed in extra innings in Rockies franchise history.

Yuli Gurriel added an RBI single during an inning in which Houston had seven hits.

Hector Rondon (2-2) pitched a clean ninth to earn the win, with Brad Peacock finishing the 10th.

The Rockies trailed 2-0 going into the seventh and had two hits off starter Gerrit Cole before solving the All-Star right-hander. Nolan Arenado led off with a double and Carlos Gonzalez brought him in with another double. Gerardo Parra tied the game on a single to right-center.

Davis' 3-run HR in 10th rallies A's past Rangers 13-10

By DAVE JACKSON

Associated Press

ARLINGTON, Texas — The Oakland Athletics kept up their power surge and took advantage of Texas' bullpen struggles to get a rare lateinning comeback win from an eightrun deficit.

Khris Davis' three-run homer in the 10th inning capped the Athletics' big rally in a 13-10 win over the Rangers on Tuesday night.

Davis' went deep against Austin Bibens-Dirkx (2-3) as the Athletics scored 11 runs over the final four innings to rally from 10-2 down. It was Oakland's fourth homer of the night — their club-record third consecutive game with that many. Oakland's 92 homers on the road lead the majors.

"Honestly, it didn't feel like we were down that many runs," Davis said. 'We were just playing the game like we're supposed to. This team is really

The last time the Athletics rallied from eight runs down after six innings came on Aug. 30, 1939, when the team was based in Philadelphia.

The Rangers, meanwhile, were 471-0 in franchise history when leading by at least eight runs in the seventh inning or later, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

Oakland scored three in the seventh and four more with just one hit in the eighth. Stephen Piscotty's solo homer leading off the ninth tied the score against Keone Kela, who blew his first save of the season in 24 chances.

Elvis Andrus hit his first career grand slam and tied his career high with five RBIs for Texas, but his error in the eighth inning on a potential inning-ending double play ball aided Oakland's comeback.

"Seven walks late, a costly error," Rangers manager Jeff Banister said. "In winning situations, you've got to be able to throw strikes and get hitters out."

Marcus Semien and Jed Lowrie also drove in three runs each for the A's in a spirited comeback against a wild Rangers bullpen. Brandon Mann walked the first two batters of the seventh and both came around on Semien's two-run double in a threerun inning.

Jake Diekman then walked the bases loaded in the eighth, and Andrus booted Semien's hard grounder to score one run, then Diekman hit Nick Martini to push across another run.

Kela relieved and gave up a two-run single to Lowrie before getting out of the inning with a one-run lead. But Piscotty connected on the reliever's first pitch of the ninth to tie it.

"Kind of running out of words to describe these comebacks," Piscotty said. "That was a special one. In the seventh, we got some runs to get it semi-close and then the huge eighth put us right there. We could taste it."

Andrus hit his grand slam off reliever J.B. Wendelken in the Rangers' six-run sixth that gave them their eight-run lead. But that was Texas' for his 25th save in 29 chances. last hit of the game as the A's bullpen gave up just one walk over the final 14 hitters.

Jeurys Familia (2-0) pitched two perfect innings for his second win in two appearances for the A's since being acquired from the Mets on Saturday. Blake Treinen pitched the 10th

Willie Calhoun's first home run of the season snapped a 2-2 tie in the fifth, and Joey Gallo hit his 25th homer of the season on reliever Ryan Buchter's first pitch of the sixth as Texas batted around.

The Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT) in conjunction with the Glasscock County Government, is proposing to construct an overpass on SH 158 over SH 137 in Glasscock County, Texas. The total distance of the project is approximately 2.5 miles. Pursuant to Texas Administrative Code, Title 43, §2.106 this notice is affording an opportunity for a public hearing on the proposed project. The environmental review, consultation, and other actions required by applicable Federal environmental laws for this project are being, or have been, carried-out by TxDOT pursuant to 23 U.S.C. 327 and a Memorandum of Understanding dated December 16, 2014, and executed by FHWA and

The proposed project includes the construction of an overpass on SH 158 over SH 137 in Glasscock County, 13 miles west of Garden City. The project will include roadway modifications on approximately 1.5 miles of SH 158 and 1 mile on SH 137. The project includes the addition of exit and entrance ramps to facilitate access between SH 158 and SH 137. This proposed project is aimed at re-

Declarer had lost three tricks and now had to make the rest to avoid going down two. He won the heart with the king, eashed the acc of spades, ruffed a diamond in dummy, then led a spade on which East followed low. The question now was whether to finesse or play for the queen to fall. After considerable thought, South played the king and so went down two.

It is true that declarer is better off in the long run to play for the queen to drop rather than finesse when he is missing Q-x-x-x of a suit. However, this was a special case where declarer should have finessed.

South's assumption, at the critical point, that West started with Q-x is not valid because it means that West could not have made five diamonds, since he would have had to lose two spades and a heart. This in turn meant that a score of minus 200 when East-West would not have made their contract would yield a poor result.

Declarer must therefore assume that the spades are divided 3-1—in

LEADING OFF: Pirates go for 12th straight, eyes on Eovaldi

Associated Press

A look at what's happening around the majors to-

STEEL CITY STREAK

The Pirates aim for their 12th straight win in a series finale against Cleveland. Pittsburgh pounded starters Corey Kluber and Shane Bieber for seven runs apiece in the first two games of the series. Starling Marte has a career-high 17-game hitting streak, and Pittsburgh is averaging 6.6 runs per game during its streak, which has pushed the team to 53-49 overall. Trevor Bauer will try to slow the Buccos and rediscover his command after walking a season-high five in a game against Texas last time

DEADLINE WATCH

Many of baseball's top teams will likely be watching Nathan Eovaldi's start against the Yankees closely. Eovaldi (3-4, 4.26) has been the subject of trade speculation after making a strong return with Tampa Bay following Tommy John surgery. New York may even be among the teams looking to acquire Eovaldi. The Yankees could use another starter, and they know the right-hander well — he pitched in 51 games for New York between 2015 and '16 before tearing the ulnar collateral ligament in his right elbow.

The Mets say they're still waiting for a diagnosis from a second opinion on Yoenis Cespedes' troubled heels. The team is trying to decide if the oft-injured slugger needs surgery on both feet that would require an 8-to-10 month recovery. An announcement had been expected before Tuesday night's game against San Diego, but about 35 minutes prior to the first pitch, Mets spokesman Harold Kaufman said the team was waiting to receive a second opinion and it was unlikely the news conference would take place until after the game. After the game, the team said it was still awaiting word from doctors. GOTTA RUN

Trea Turner may return to the Nationals' lineup a day after being benched for a lack of hustle. Turner failed to run to first base after a bunt Monday, angering manager Dave Martinez. Turner said he put the bat up in "self-defense" because he thought he was going to be hit by the pitch and inadvertently put the ball in play, but added that he "probably should have run to first." that Turner needed time to think about his actions.

"I felt after yesterday that he probably needed a day off," Martinez said. "Let him ponder about it. We need Trea, and he's a very good player. I don't ask these guys to be perfect, but I want them to be present, and I know he knows that. I've got a lot of respect for him."

STILL HURTING

The Cubs are monitoring star third baseman Kris Bryant as he deals with a recurrence of the left shoulder inflammation that caused him to miss 16 games. Bryant was held out of the start-

"Sam caught a monster," said Iannetta, who left the game in the eighth after being hit by a pitch on his right arm. "The thing looks like a mutant. Definitely fun to see him hook something that big."

UP NEXT

Astros: RHP Charlie Morton (11-2, 2.96 ERA) makes his ninth career start against Colorado on Wednesday. He's 2-2 with a 4.53 ERA versus the Rockies.

Rockies: RHP Jon Gray (8-7, 5.44) allowed one run over 7 1/3 innings against Seattle on July 14 in his return to the rotation. Gray, the team's opening day starter who was sent to Triple-A Albuquerque to hone his mechanics, has never started against Houston.

Rangers starter Mike Minor needed 104 pitches to get through five innings, but he gave up just two runs on solo homers by Mark Canha and Lowrie. He crossed the 100-inning mark for the season after pitching only 77 2/3 innings in the previous three seasons combined.

Oakland's Frankie Montas, recalled from Triple-A Nashville earlier in the day, gave up five hits and four runs in five innings.

MOUND WOES

Texas pitchers have given up 53 runs in five games since the All-Star break, and that includes a shutout Sunday against Cleveland. Nothing Banister has tried has seemed to work.

In a 16-3 loss to Cleveland on Saturday, Bibens-Dirkx gave up 11 runs, a club record for a reliever. And the Rangers used outfielders Carlos Tocci and Ryan Rua to pitch in the Athletics' 15-3 win on Monday.

Diekman's three earned runs allowed swelled his ERA to 7.94 at home, compared to 0.47 on the road.

he may sit Wednesday as well. Bryant did not play between June 22 and July 11 because of the shoul-

"He's a little bit sore and I have to be proactive with that," Maddon said. "I want to be sure we're not pushing him too hard right now."

And while Mann lasted only four batters and gave up three runs, DeShields' replacement in center field, Tocci, was hit on the right hand by Montas' pitch in the fifth inning. However, X-rays were negative and Tocci remained in the game and singled in a run in the sixth inning.

TRAINER'S ROOM

Athletics: The team's opening day starter, Kendall Graveman, will have Tommy John surgery, which will be performed by Texas Rangers team physician Dr. Keith Meister. Graveman had an 8.89 ERA in six April starts before getting sent down to Nashville.

Rangers: Gallo was back in the lineup Tuesday after missing one game with a sprained left ankle.

UP NEXT

Oakland's RHP Edwin Jackson (1-2, 2.93) will make his sixth start of the season, and his first start against the Rangers since 2011 when he pitched for the Chicago White Sox. LHP Martin Perez (2-4, 8.05) will make his eighth start of the season for the Rangers.
