STATE SUPERVISOR OF FIELD AGENTS OF FARMERS SEED LOAN ATTENDS TO BUSINESS IN FLOYD COUNTY

Carl Ellis, State Supervisor of Field Agents, representing the Farmers Seed Loan Office in St. Louis through which the Drouth Relief Loans were made, was in Floydada last Friday on an inspection tour and also for the purpose of conferring with the local Field Agent, Mr. D. H. Sandidge. Mr. Sandidge has been assigned some six or eight counties of the Panhandle among these being Floyd County. He will, from this time forward, arrange his schedule to be in Floydada on Friday of each week. This regular schedule has been prepared in order that any one desiring to "collateral" or make payment on his loan to the Government may be assisted and advised by Mr. Sandidge. During his visits to Floydada Mr. Sandidge will make his headquarters in the Chamber of Commerce building on West California Street.

Mr. Ellis expressed himself as well pleased with the manner in which the Drouth Relief Loans have been handled to this date under the supervision of Mr. Sandidge for thirteen Panhandle counties. He appreciates the fact that most of west Texas has passed through a series of bad crop years which has seriously affected the financial ability of the farmers of this section to meet their obligations to the government on the Drouth Relief Loans as promptly as was hoped and expected. Also, he discussed at length the prices that are now being received by the farmers for their feed, cotton, and cotton seed. In his words, the government of the United States is not a "shylock", but vitally interested in every individual farmer and expects each individual loan to have consideration on its own merits. No borrower from the government, in so long as he deals on the square and shows that he is acting in good faith, need have any anxiety as to what the attitude of the government is going to be toward him in the final adjustment of his loan.

Information coming from the West Texas Chamber of Commerce under recent date indicates that the policy of the government in making collections on these Drouth Relief Loans and the handling of the matter in general will likely be about as follows:

1. No extensions, in full or in part, where borrowers cannot pay this year, will be definitely granted until after the maturity date of these loans which is November 30th, 1931.
2. Extensions, if granted, must be coupled with giving of security for deferred payments or mortgage on succeeding crops.
3. Borrowers who are compelled to ask for partial or full extensions may make application to Mr. Sandidge, or to the committeemen who handled the loans when made, giving a complete statement of facts as to why the extension is applied for. These applications will be forwarded to the St. Louis office where final disposition will be made of the matter.
4. Mr. Sandidge will have blank forms for these applications which will furnish any applicant upon request.
5. In renewing loans, the government proposes to release enough crops to provide for family living and carry livestock, but will not release enough of the crop to be of any aid to junior lien holders. In other words, the government does not intend to release a mortgage, where extensions are granted, in such way that a junior lien holder will be permitted to step in and take charge of feed, etc., necessary for the borrower to make a crop next year, thereby affecting the borrower to where he cannot make the crop.
6. A greater exemption than $7.50 per bale, plus seed, will not be allowed.
7. The government will allow a borrower to "collateralize" his loan on a basis of SIX CENTS cotton and eight Warehouse receipts as collateral; borrower to determine when crop is to be sold.
8. There are some features of the "collateralizing" scheme that are not generally understood. Substantially, the plan is this: Let's say you are $150.00 for Drouth Relief Loan. You "collateralize" this $150.00 by storing in the local cotton commission, or any bonded warehouse here or elsewhere, five bales of cotton, averaging 500 pounds each. This cotton on a basis of six cents per

DELINQUENT TAX ROLL APPROVED AT CITY COUNCIL MEETING

The City Council met in the regular monthly meeting last Tuesday evening at the City Hall. The Tax Roll delinquents of the year 1930 for the City of Floydada were presented by Tax Assessor and Collector S. E. Duncan and examined and approved by the council members present.

Some due accounts of the fire department were ordered paid and other business was transacted by the body.

Present at the meeting were: W. C. Hanna, Mayor; W. F. Weatherbee, O. W. Kirk, W. U. White, R. P. Brown, T. P. Collins and S. E. Duncan.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Faulkner, of Long Beach, California, arrived Saturday night, for a visit with Mrs. Faulkner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Nelson.

Ralph and O. R. Gordon made a business trip Tuesday to Coleman, Texas. They returned Thursday.

As to the storage being paid in advance, no definite information has been sent out from the department. However, it is probable that this storage charge may be allowed to accrue for perhaps six months or so before the government will insist on its payment. Of course, the policy of the warehouse in which the cotton is stored will have to be complied with. If they do not permit storage to be paid in arrears the one storing the cotton will have to pay in advance.

Under the present arrangement announced by the local compress manager, Mr. Underwood, a charge of 1c per day per bale will be made for stored cotton. By having this same cotton compressed and prepared for shipment, for which no charge is made, this storage charge will be automatically changed to 1/2c per bale per day. In addition to this concession where cotton is compressed, Mr. Underwood states that he will make no charge for the first 30 days of storage to any Floyd County farmer.

The compress company does not carry fire insurance on any stored cotton, so if you store cotton there for collateralizing your government loan, be sure to have it insured at the time. The cotton compress is bonded and meets the demands of the National Government in every way. The local committee which served in making these loans to the Floyd County farmers will be glad to assist any one, at any time, in arranging remittances, collateralizing papers, and other details in connection with these loans. County Chairman, W. Edd Brown, who has given considerable time to this work, when not out of town, can be found at the Chamber of Commerce rooms on West California Street or may be reached by calling telephone number 285.

1827 BALES OF COTTON GINNED TO DATE AT FLOYDADA GINS

Reports from the gins in Floydada last yesterday afternoon indicated that they had ginned 1827 bales of this year's cotton thus far. Cotton picking was delayed for several days last week due to the rains which covered the major part of the county. Ginning activities were delayed by the rains but are again in full swing and much cotton is being brought in. Latest cotton prices yesterday showed an increase of twenty-nine points since Saturday night, top prices being 5.60 for cotton picked before the rain and 5.10 to 5.15 for cotton picked after the rain.

Enough cotton pickers have not been obtained yet to take care of the cotton opened and pickers are in demand.

The Floydada public schools have begun operation on the half day plan again and are now releasing a large number of eligible cotton pickers by noon every day. The regular schedule was followed last week due to the rains but the special cotton picking schedule has been in operation this week.

Carl Minor and family left Friday for Lewis, Denton County, Texas, where they will visit with relatives. They plan to return Wednesday of this week.

FLOYDADA HIGH SCHOOL WHIRLWINDS DEFEAT LITTLEFIELD WILCATS 7 TO 6 IN GRID TILT HERE FRIDAY EVENING

Coach Barkedale's green and white Whirlwinds overtook the Littlefield high Wildcats and downed the maroon and white gridsters by a score of 7 to 6, in a grid tilt played on the High School field here Friday. The game was witnessed by a large number of fans both locally and from Littlefield, who crowded into the new park. A large delegation of Littlefield fans including the Littlefield high pep squad, accompanied the Wildcats who with their coaches, Tucker and Hopping, arrived here at eleven thirty Friday morning.

The game started at three thirty o'clock with the first kick off by Littlefield to Floydada. The ball was received by Floyd Murray, Whirlwind quarter back and returned to the twenty yard line.

Friday's tilt was the hardest fought of the season thus far. In the first quarter Littlefield made the most extensive gain of the two contestants, making eight first downs to the Whirlwinds three. The first touchdown was made by the Wildcats after several completed passes and long gains by end runs and spin plays. The Wildcats marched steadily down the field to the green and white goal line and a line plunge carried the ball over. An attempt to kick goal failed and the quarter ended with no further scoring by either side.

In the second quarter the Whirlwinds settled down to hard fighting and made extensive gains by end runs and line plunges and several exchanges of punts gained ground for the green and white. Floydada's first and only score came when after several long gains by Murray, quarter back and Head, half back, Welch full back, carried the ball through the maroon and white line for the goal. The extra point was made by a pass from Murray to Golightly end.

In the second half, the Whirlwinds played deep in the Wildcats territory the major part of the time with the Wildcats only once threatening the goal line. The third and fourth periods were ball periods for both the Whirlwinds and the Wildcats with neither scoring.

The last few minutes of the game were the hardest due to a punt by the Wildcats which was recovered on the Floydada three yard line. Four attempts to place the ball over failed and the oval became the possession of the Whirlwinds. Murray punted out and the play was in midfield when the final whistle blew.

Littlefield's hardest threat was their aerial play which gained the most extensive yardage. Short bullet passes from Harless, captain and quarter back, to Carter and Cook, half and end respectively were ground gaining plays. Most of the passing was done over the line, which resulted in some of them being intercepted.

The Whirlwinds made extensive gains by end around runs by Head, half back and captain and Murray quarter back. Gains were also made by Welch and Bridges back men. Bruce McLaughlin, tackle, was given the ball twice and waded through the Wildcat line both time for ten yards gain. A number of neat trick plays were used by the Whirlwinds. Excellent line work was done in Friday's game, probably the best line playing which has been done this season due to the threats of Carter and McCurry, Wildcat backs, who resorted to line plays at several intervals. Layton Dorrell, former tackle, filled the pivot position Friday and some fine playing was done by the heavy center.

The Whirlwinds are not due too much honor for their victory Friday, because the Wildcats played a hard game and were splendid fighters though losers. Friday's game was slated as a clash between two of the most powerful B class teams in this district and the final tilt for championship of the north portion of the district will probably be played by the green and white Whirlwinds and the maroon and white Wildcats. Friday's game brought the Whirlwinds their third victory of the season with one conference game to their credit.

Summary of Game
During the game Floydada made 18 first downs, Littlefield made 14; Floydada passed nine times with one complete, Littlefield passed seven.

HAZARDS OF THE GAS BUSINESS

No other public utility operation is as hazardous as the natural gas business.

The duration of the business is limited by nature, because the commodity in which the utility deals is supplied by nature alone. The supply is limited and is exhaustible, and when exhausted can never be recreated.

Artificial gas companies, electric light companies, railroad companies, telegraph and telephone companies create the basic elements of their service; their business is stable and their duration is not limited. But this is not true of a natural gas utility. When the supply of gas is exhausted, the equipment is worthless except for the price it will bring as junk.

It is vital to the progress and welfare of any community that its utility companies be extended a measure of co-operation which will permit them to give the excellent service which they desire to give—and which the citizens have a right to expect.

There's comfort in every drop of this pure vegetable preparation, and not the slightest harm in its frequent use. As often as Baby has a fretful spell, is feverish, or cries and can't sleep, let Castoria soothe and quiet him. Sometimes it's a touch of colic. Sometimes constipation. Or diarrhea—a condition that should always be checked without delay. Just keep Castoria handy, and give it promptly. Relief will follow very promptly; if it doesn't, you should call a physician.

J. S. COLLINS REMEMBERS THE PUBLISHER AND WIFE WITH DELICIOUS BERRIES

The Plainsman is broadcasting for Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Collins of 209 East Marivena Street. Friday afternoon Mr. Collins drove up in front of our office in his automobile and as he was preparing to alight we began to turn our minds over in an effort to figure out, if possible, what we had done that he was driving up in such haste and alighting as if he had his mind made up to "work on" some one close at hand.

From the back end of the work shop the publisher watched his maneuvers until he was entering our front door, when a somewhat soothing sensation tinkled through our body as we discovered that the gentleman in haste was not carrying a brickbat in his hand as we had first detected the object to be. Instead, the object, on closer observation, proved to be a fruit crate. And as he entered the office we heard him say to the lady at the desk, who, by the way, was our wife, that he had a crate of strawberries which he wished to present to the Plainsman force, so we bounced forward to inspect the gift which was an assortment of the finest specimens of strawberries we have ever looked upon and our mouth began to water so badly that it was almost impossible to pucker sufficiently to express our thanks.

By the way Mr. Collins happens to be one of our largest supporters in the way of subscribers to the Plainsman. He has a very select list of friends and relatives scattered over the country who are receiving the paper through his courtesy, and he asked us to report to them that he is getting along fine and that his strawberry patch is one of the most prolific that he has ever cultivated. Personally we would like to say that the berries were the finest we have ever tasted and we have eaten berries from Florida, California, East Texas and the Rio Grande Valley.

As we devoured Mr. Collins' gift of berries it occurred to us that if more of our subscribers would remember us with such delicious edibles there would not be so many meals coming up short at the publisher's house during this period of time which so many people are referring to as a "depression." You can't miss the publisher when it comes to eats. And pumpkins, my goodness, the season is almost here again!

COTTON COOPERATIVE ASS'N SPEAKER TO BE HERE OCTOBER 21

Urging a bloodless rebellion, on the part of cotton farmers, to resist the demands being made upon them to sell their cotton at the present very low prices, B. S. Burgess, director of field service for the Texas Cotton Cooperative Association, will speak to a mass meeting of Floyd county farmers at the courthouse in Floydada next Wednesday, October 21, 1931, at 3 p. m.

Mr. Burgess has been speaking to meetings of farmers throughout the state during the past several weeks and reports that most of them are doing all they possibly can to keep from selling their cotton. It is his contention that all things favor an upturn in the market and that cotton growers will be injuring themselves and their creditors by selling at a price below the cost of production.

"The reason for our present situation," Mr. Burgess declares, "is that 40 years ago only 37 per cent of our farms were operated by tenants, while now there are 73 per cent of them tenant operated. Twenty years ago only six per cent of our farms were mortgaged, while today there are 62 per cent in this class.

"Ninety-three percent of the crops in this region were produced under crop mortgage."

Burgess contends it tragic that the larger the cotton crop the smaller the total price for the crop. He explains that when loans are paid by the growers with their low-priced crops, the same money is sent to New York and other money centers and sent right back to this region to be used by buyers in buying the crop from the grower.

The speculative trade went into the cotton market in August, so Burgess contends, and sold two million bales short, when they didn't own a bale. Now they are buying this cotton at a margin of ten dollars per bale below what they have it sold for. They are thus offering a little more than the present market prices for the cotton for two reasons—to fill their orders and to discredit the cotton cooperative with claiming that they can pay more for cotton than can the cooperative, Mr. Burgess further contends.

"The gamblers knew that cotton is a good investment, the best investment in America today," Burgess continues, "and even the Japs and Chinese, those people whom we despise, came over here and make money out of by selling in August and buying in October, making ten dollars a bale off of us. And they, too, make light of our cooperatives and of our government's effort to bring aid to the cotton grower through the Agricultural Marketing Act and the Federal Farm Board."

Farmers everywhere are rallying to the support of the Farm Board and the Marketing Act, Burgess reports, as in every meeting where the question has been voted upon the unanimous decision is for urging congressmen and senators to back up these institutions.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pennington of Dimmit visited Sunday with Mrs. Pennington's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hilton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Covington visited Sunday in Morton with Mrs. Covington's sister, Mrs. Arthur Beedy and family.

WOMEN: watch your BOWELS

What should women do to keep their bowels moving freely? A doctor should know the answer. That is why pure Syrup Pepsin is so good for women. It just suits their delicate organism. It is the prescription of an old family doctor who has treated thousands of women patients, and who made a special study of bowel troubles.

It is fine for children, too. They love its taste. Let them have it every time their tongues are coated or their skin is sallow. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is made from fresh laxative herbs, pure pepsin and other harmless ingredients.

When you've a sick headache, can't eat, are bilious or sluggish; and at the times when you are most apt to be constipated, take a little of this famous prescription (all drug stores keep it ready in big bottles), and you'll know why Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the favorite laxative of over a million women!
