Human Development

Dr. Leweilys F. Barker has ex plained in Hygeia Magazine how it happens that each individual is different from another. Since no two fertilized egg cells, even from the same parents, except perhaps in the case of identical twins, are ever precisely alike at the start, and no two developing human beings are ever exposed to precisely the same series of environmental influence, each human being is a unique individual, differing somewhat from any other living person, and should be considered as such.

Fast-Flying Birds

The speed of migrating birds has been variously estimated. Airplanes and stop watches have been used to gather information on this point. The slower birds fly about 20 miles per hour, and the fastest birds recorded with accuracy are two species of swifts in India. Their speed was found by E. C. Stuart-Baker to be nearly 200 miles per hour across a two-mile course.

Intaglio is a term applied to any recessed carving, in which no part projects beyond the original face of the material. In some cases, as in gem cutting, the entire relief is reversed. In others, as in some Egyptian wall carvings, the outline is sufficiently incised so as to allow normal relief. This type is sometimes known as cavo rilievo or sunken relief.

NOT YOUR LIGHTING BILL BUT YOUR ELECTRIC SERVICE BILL

If we itemized your electric bill you would then see that lighting is really only a small part. So accustomed have we become to the other electric services that we sometimes forget how many times a day electricity serves us. It makes our toast in the morning. It sweeps our rugs. It washes the clothes. Then it irons them. And almost everyone of the many services electricity performs in the home cost only a cent or so . . . many cost less. In fact if you paid for electricity as you use it, you could really let your pennies pay your electric bill. Considering the time and labor it saves you, what other money you spend brings greater return in comfort and convenience?
