Floyd County Farmers Received $179,551.50 In 755 Cotton Checks Tuesday

Floyd County farmers are now receiving first payments on their cotton plowed under or retired under the government cotton acreage movement. The first checks arrived Tuesday morning and are now being issued through the office of Emergency Agent Glen A. Lindsey.

A total of $179,551.50 was received in a total number of 755 cotton checks to Floyd County farmers from the United States Government. 288 checks are due yet to arrive in Floyd County, 1943 farmers contracts having been approved. A total amount of more than $83,000.00 is yet to be paid. The remaining checks are expected within the near future.

Floyd County farmers kept Floydada crowded this week as they came to town to receive their checks from the government. Checks are being issued in alphabetical order by Emergency Agent Lindsey and his assistants.

B. B. Gully, who farms four miles south of Floydada, has the distinction of being the first man to pledge to plow up his cotton, first to have his contract approved and first to receive his cotton check.

Up until late yesterday Mr. Lindsey had not had time to send out notice to farmers to come in to get their checks as they came in quickly and were receiving payments.

Attendance at the quilt show held Friday and Saturday in the Baker-Hanna Company former location, was good. Many quilts were entered in the two day exhibit, which was sponsored by the Womens Council of the First Christian Church.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Deward D. Stacey, Friday, September 22, a son.

As foreign restrictions on our wheat mount higher, more of it piles up in this country. That is the lesson of this chart of United States wheat stocks and the rate of import duty imposed by representative European consuming countries. In 1925 these duties first became general and since that time our wheat supplies have climbed. The German duty of $1.62 is highest of all, as the picture shows. Next comes Italy with a duty of $1.07 a bushel and finally France is lowest with a duty if $0.85. The black bars, representing the wheat stocks in the United States, show that while these restrictions have been in force, the stocks have climbed to more than 360 million bushels. Even with the short crop in the United States this year, the black bar representing the stocks for this country a year from now probably will be near the 200 million bushel mark. The following year, if nothing is done to prevent it, the carry-over is again likely to be around 350 million bushels.

—url Bedford, local administrator for unemployment relief funds, is in receipt of a letter from Byron Mitchell, State Reemployment Director, stating that bids will be opened today for construction on the Floyd County road project.

Mr. Bedford is busy this week registering men in the divisions requested by Mr. Mitchell to work on the construction of the 18.32 miles of drainage, grading, caliche base and asphalt top road from Floydada east to the Motley County line. The Floyd County road project has been before the State Highway Department for consideration for some time.

Approximately 125 men will be employed out of Floyd County residents to work on the road building. These men will work about six months from October 25, when the operations of the contractor are expected to begin, to April 15, 1934, when the project is to be completed.

Floyd County's long-looked-for highway improvement is soon to start, it now appears. With the announcement that 755 cotton checks amounting to $179,551.50 had arrived early Tuesday morning in Floydada for farmers of the county, people immediately began to take on new life. There is nothing which stimulates like the announcement of more funds with which to carry on with. Farmers have been smiling this week with a deeper impression on their faces than has been displayed in nearly four years. We wouldn't be surprised if some neighbors have had to inquire as to who was visiting at the adjoining farm home, as there is so much difference in the expression on Floyd County faces.

The arrival of the cotton checks is not all that is making our people smile. They have the best crop prospect this fall that has been in the making in the county in several years, and most people believe that their chances for better prices for their products will continue on through the harvest period. Under such conditions why should not the people of the county be smiling? The Plainsman believes that we are entering a period of better times, and that our neighbors will make enough and some to spare that we may, also, have a smile coming along with the rest of the folks. We are hoping anyway.

It's Smart
TO BUY TIRES
NOW...

Now... is the time to buy tires. Prices may be higher. If they do, it will actually cost you money to use old tires.
And with fall and winter weather and wet and slippery roads just around the corner, it's a good idea to have the protection of safety tires all around. And remember this—tire wear is slower in winter than it is in summer—the tires you buy now will give you full protection all winter and you will still have good tires for next spring and summer to withstand the rough roads of hot summer roads. We carry the complete line of Goodyear Tires—Speedway, Pathfinder and All-pay we have a Goodyear Tire. Why Trading in Floydada last Saturday showed the "Heads Up" spirit of the people was really here. For the first time in many months people were buying merchandise as if they really were interested in what they were doing. Every store in town had good crowds and the picture show was filled like old times had returned.

Some of the merchants reported 100 % increase in their business over the previous week.

With harvest time here again and many of the people already working full capacity in their crops in an effort to save everything which has been produced folks are again beginning to put on a smile to replace the frown which has been prevalent for so long and which, we believe, has done more to cause the depression than the lack of spending money.

With the arrival of the consignment of cotton checks this week for the farmers of Floyd County coupled with the bountiful farm crops which are reported from almost every farm in the county, people in this territory will forget many of their imaginary aches and pains as they again take a new hold on life and the things which go for the development of a community.

The Plainsman is more thoroughly convinced than ever that good times will prevail again in Floyd County, and this immediate section of the plains, as we watch the actions of our people as they go about their business. It is the people, not the country, that do things in a community. And the people have taken on new life and have begun to indicate that they are ready and willing to push again.

To push, we mean your business, your farm work, your school work, or what have you to do? Push is the only thing that will put depression in the back-ground, and we believe Floyd County people are equal to the occasion.

Did you ever hear of a fellow who would pat you on the back before your face and hit you in the face behind your back? We have one in Silverton.—R. B. Boyle, in the Briscoe County News.

We don't hesitate to say that we were in Paducah last Saturday night and Sunday. And while there, we can truthfully say that we saw 75 other people from Matador on the streets.—G. C. Mitchell in the Motley County News.

BILLIONS IN BANKS
WILL BE RELEASED

Roosevelt Stands Pat On Expansion As Sufficient Inflation.

Washington, Sept. 25.—President Roosevelt today sought to release billions of dollars impounded in closed banks. He stood pat on his policy of credit expansion as a sufficient inflationary movement at this time.

This was revealed after a three-hour White House conference at which the Nation's entire financial situation was reviewed. Participating administration leaders shied away from the subject of direct inflation.

The conference was summoned by the President immediately after he returned from a week-end aboard the yacht Sequoia last night. Secretary of the Treasury Woodin, Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, Attorney General Cummings, Budget Director Dougllass, Governor Black of the Federal Reserve, Chairman Jones of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and J. E. T. O'Connor, Comptroller of the Currency, attended.

"No new move on inflation is contemplated," Stephen T. Early, White House secretary, announced afterward.

The conferees indicated the President was interested solely at this time in further boosting commodity prices and releasing several billion dollars in closed banks. It was stated that most of the discussions were devoted to the banking situation.

It has been argued by close friends of the President that the release of frozen deposits and assets of closed banks would provide all the stimulus needed to assure success of the administration's recovery program.

No hint was given of what closed banks would be involved in the administration program of releasing deposits, whether it would be those closed during the last two years, or those that failed to open after the March banking holiday.

Well-informed observers expected Mr. Roosevelt to hold further conferences at Hyde Park this week on plans for extending further credit to the Nation's banking structure, first, by calling on communities to assist wherever possible, and this failing, by having the R. F. C. purchase preferred stock in banks.

This credit program, it was explained, would be one of the steps toward assisting the "little fellow" get back on his feet through loans from the banks on "character," where collateral was lacking. Jesse Jones, for example, feels that the time has come when bankers should go back to the old-time method of lending on "character" as a means toward national recovery.

The White House conference took place in the oval room, study of the President. Budget Director Dougllass said "unfreezing of frozen assets" in banks occupied chief attention.

It was believed here that in the seclusion of Hyde Park, to which Mr.
Roosevelt will return tomorrow, he will be able to study further the closed bank situation.

His fiscal authorities here planned to work on a concrete program for his approval.

Secretary Wallace delivered an address in which he reiterated a warning which he delivered first at Chicago last week.

"No amount of inflation," Wallace declared, "no dumping or stabilization efforts, no attempts at price fixing, will by themselves prove enough."—The Dallas Journal.

The World's Best
Cup of Coffee
What would you consider the world's best cup of coffee?
Wouldn't it be your favorite blend brewed so that each drop of water would contain its full aromatic fragrance? Very well, then, you can pour the "world's best cup of coffee" into your cup every morning if you'll use an Electric Percolator.
An Electric Percolator brings out the best that is in any blend of coffee because it sprays water uniformly through the grounds, effecting a perfect mixture. The glass top enables you to judge just when the coffee is right for your taste. Made right at the table, it saves many steps and can be kept piping hot and fragrant until the moment it's served. See your Electrical dealer's complete display of Electric Percolators and Urns.

Growers Signing Contract Removing Gamble Belief of M. L. Wilson

Growers who sign contracts under the national wheat adjustment program are removing some of the gamble in wheat farming, according to M. L. Wilson, chief of the wheat section in the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

"We ask the contracting farmer to reduce acreage and meet certain other requirements," says Wilson, "and in return he receives adjustment payments which assure a parity return on the part of his crop which is covered by the processing taxes. The farmer who stays out of the plan is under no regulations or compulsion, but neither has he any of the protection or stabilizing features offered in the wheat plan. In short, he takes greater chances.

"The plan is a three-year program but those growers who intend to take part are signing contracts this year for the whole period.

"It is important to remember," continues Mr. Wilson, "that the wheat plan guarantees to the contracting farmer a parity price, or fair buying power for that portion of his crop that is destined to be used for human consumption in the United States. If the world wheat prices should be low as a result of world-wide competition for export markets, the farmer who is under the plan would have protection while the farmer who stays out might face low world market prices for his grain without the protection of the adjustment payments. If the prices of things farmers buy are on a higher level than the prices of farm products, the adjustment payments will still give wheat full parity purchasing power.

"The wheat plan tends to stabilize the wheat business and places the farmer who participates in it on a much more sure basis than is possible for those who do not take part."

Diphtheria Cause of 800 Children Losing Lives Past Year

Austin, Texas, September 26.—Texas lost over eight hundred of its children last year from one preventable cause. The disease responsible was diphtheria. Dr. H. N. Barnett, director, Bureau Child Hygiene, in commenting on this loss, said, "Diphtheria could be practically eliminated if parents would take their children to their family physician and have them immunized as soon after they reach six months of age as possible. Parents would not allow their children to walk in front of a moving car, so why will they allow them to run the danger of contracting diphtheria. This immunization should be done as soon as possible as the winter months are the ones in which the most deaths occur and it takes some time for immunity to occur."

Why Liquid Laxatives are Back in Favor

The public is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have learned that the properly prepared liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement without any discomfort at the time, or after.

The dose of a liquid laxative can be varied to suit the needs of the individual. The action can thus be regulated. A child is easily given the right dose. And mild liquid laxatives do not irritate the kidneys.

Doctors are generally agreed that senna is the best laxative for everybody. Senna is a natural laxative. It does not drain the system like the cathartics that leave you so thirsty. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a liquid laxative which relies on senna for its laxative action. It has the average person's bowels as regular as clockwork in a few weeks' time.

You can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drugstore, ready for use. Member N. R. A.

Tinkling Bells, And The Click Of Silver

In a Chinese fairy story one reads about the Emperor's garden, where rare and colorful plans from all over the world were constantly flowering.

It was the duty of the honorable head gardner to watch for the most beautiful of the blossoms and tie to the stem of each a little silver bell. As the flowers swayed in the breeze, the bells tinkled with sweet music. Thus the courtiers and the distinguished visitors, strolling along the paths, were sure to see the finest specimens.

This was the Emperor's way of saying "I have something extra fine that you should see: Look this way and you'll be repaid."

In the advertising columns of this paper are similar messages addressed to YOU. Read them and you will hear the clink of silver. Our merchants are saying "We have some extra values. We have some especially seasonable articles that you should see. Come to our stores and you will be repaid."

You have nothing to lose when you accept this invitation. In fact, when you fail to do so, you're missing some of the very news for which you bought this paper!
