Houston, October 9.—The basis on which appraisals are made in connection with applications for loans from the Federal Land Bank and the Land Bank Commissioner was outlined recently by A. C. Williams, president of the Federal Land Bank of Houston. The statement was made, Mr. Williams said, because many persons have evidenced a lack of understanding of the appraisals made of farm properties offered as security for loans.

It was explained by Mr. Williams that the basis of appraisal is the normal value of the land for agricultural purposes and its earning power for such purposes is a principal factor. Average prices of farm commodities during the five year period from August 1909 to July 1914 are now being used as a principal guide in determining the earning power and normal value of farms allowance being made, of course, for changes in taxes and other costs and in the economic position of commodities produced.

"Loans by the Federal Land Bank and the Land Bank Commissioner ordinarily are made for periods of from around ten to thirty six years," Mr. Williams said. "In order to arrive at an estimate of the earning power of a farm, over a period of years, many things must be considered by the appraiser. He must determine the number of acres of good crop land, the number in pasture, and the number in orchard, timber, or waste; the character and condition of the soil; water supply; average rainfall; drainage; susceptibility to erosion; the carrying capacity of the pasture land; the prevalence of insect pests and plant diseases; the condition of the roads; and accessibility to markets. He must estimate production costs and the amount and kind of livestock that can be carried on the farm and the probable income from that source."

"Although earning power is given the greatest weight, other factors are of course considered in determining the value of a farm for loan purposes. These include anything that affects the salability of the farm, such as the location, the size and type of farm, community and development, and the distance to markets, schools, and churches. The amount and condition of the farm improvements on a farm may be inadequate or the farm may be top-heavy with improvements with the result that the cost of up-keep may reduce the net income over a period of years. Sale prices are considered, but distress sales during bad years and high sale prices during boom years do not fix normal agricultural values. Since the repayment of the loan ordinarily will extend over a long period of years and the money must come from the earnings of the farm, emphasis is placed upon the normal earning power of the farm for agricultural purposes.

"The standing of the applicant, the amount of his equity in the farm, and his ability as a farmer are also considered in making an appraisal. Many creditors are recognizing that where deserving farmer-borrowers owe more against their property than can be repaid from the earnings of the land, it is to their advantage to make some concessions so that these farmers may now obtain loans from the Federal Land Bank and the Commissioner and have an opportunity to save their farm homes.

Car Occupants Escape Injuries In Accident Sunday Night

No one was seriously injured in an automobile collision Sunday night at 9 o'clock. The accident occurred at the first railway crossing leading north from highway 28.

According to Dr. Miles Frost, driver of one of the cars the accident occurred when a Chevrolet coupe bearing three people left the highway and hit his car which had come to a standstill on the railroad. He said that he saw the lights of the oncoming car the driver of which had apparently mistaken the side road as a continuation of the highway, and stopped to let it pass. The Chevrolet missed the culvert and angled across the road and crashed into the front of his car, a Pontiac two-door sedan.

No one was injured in the accident. John M. Allen, of Oklahoma, was said to have been driving the car enroute to Muleshoe. The Frost car was occupied by Dr. and Mrs. Frost and their infant daughter. Dr. Frost estimated his damage at $50.00.

Whirlwinds Meet Defeat At Hands Of Class A Bulldogs

Floydada High School's Whirlwinds met defeat at the hands of the Plainview High School Bulldogs in a game there Friday afternoon by a score of 46 to 0. The game was played on Junior high school field before a fair sized crowd.

Outweighed by several pounds to the man the inexperienced Whirlwinds failed to make much showing on their powerful class A opponents. Last year the Whirlwinds handed the Bulldogs a good defeat on Wayland field.

Floydada won the toss and decided to defend the north goal. From the time that Plainview received the first kickoff the game from then on was theirs. In the first few minutes of play Plainview scored a touchdown but failed extra point. The first half ended with the score Plainview 26, Floydada 0.

The second half went just as the first as far as the Bulldogs were concerned and they chalked up 20 more points with a great deal of ease.

Floydada's starting lineup included: Jenkins, Dennison, Mooney, Asiter, Alexander, Smith, Golightly, Cothern, Hollingsworth, Badgett, Linder.

State Veterinarian Treating Diseases In Horses in County

Dr. Lewis Crabb, of Fort Worth, Dr. Geo. Reagan and Dr. Holzman, all state veterinarians, arrived the latter part of last week to treat and investigate the diseases in horses of this county.

The diseases, encephalomyelitis and botulism, began spreading several days ago and finally reached a degree that it was estimated that there was 300 cases in Floyd county. Of the total cases it is estimated that 150 have been treated and first steps to check the disease in horses taken.

Colder weather, it is believed will be an aid in stamping out the disease as it is thought that the germs are carried by flies and mosquitoes. First symptoms shown by stock with the disease are uncertainty in gait and droopiness. The stock with the first stages of encephalomyelitis stand with their heads down.

Ben Gully has been employed to assist the state veterinarians in their fight against the disease.

Floydada Gins Turn Out 846 Bales Of Cotton To Date This Season

Up to four o'clock yesterday afternoon a total of 846 bales of Floyd County cotton had been ginned by the three Floydada gins. This number does not represent a substantial majority of the cotton ginnings of the county.

Cotton harvest in Floyd County is now getting into full blast with a demand by farmers for cotton pickers at several places.

Miss Selma Linder, student in Wayland Baptist College, spent the past week end visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Linder.

Truett and Carrol McClung, who are students in Wayland College, visited in Floydada last week end with their parents, Rev. and Mrs. S. R. McClung.

Recognizing the present and immediate aid of a county farm advisor, the Floyd County Commissioners Court in regular session Monday voted to help pay a salary to employ a county agent.

Glen A. Lindsey, who is conducting the wheat reduction plan for Floyd County and who supervised the completion of the cotton plow up payments, was selected as the county agent. Mr. Lindsey will continue to make his headquarters in the court house. Naming the move as an emergency the court voted the action to go into effect on November first.

Mr. Lindsey stated that he would be busy for some time in the future on the cotton and wheat programs of the government and that after that he would be primarily used as an advisor on farm problems.

County Agent Lindsey and assistants are busy this week checking over the upward of 700 wheat reduction applications that have come in from Floyd County farmers thus far. No other cotton checks had arrived as yet.

CREDIT CORPORATION TO LEND CASH ON COMMODITIES OF FARM

Corporation Is Formed For Extending Credit to The Cotton Farmers.

Washington, October 6.—President Roosevelt announced today a commodity credit corporation would be created immediately with an initial capital stock of $3,000,000 with authority to borrow from the Reconstruction Corporation and to lend funds on the security of commodities. The President said the first duty of the corporation would be to carry out the pledge to loan farmers 10 cents a pound on cotton in an effort to raise cotton prices and increase farm purchasing power. Indications are the corporations may later be called upon to loan on other commodities.

Personnel Unfinished

President Roosevelt made the announcement at his regular press conference.

Personnel of the corporation has not been completed but probably will be conducted through Secretary Wallace.

The effect of the cotton loans will be to guarantee farmers against loss if cotton goes below ten cents. However, there will be restrictions to prevent prices going too high. It was indicated if the price went above 15 cents the farmer could be compelled to sell.

At Nearest Warehouses

The loans will be made at the nearest acceptable warehouse on all cotton above low middling grade of 7-8 inch staple.

The loans will bear interest at 4 per cent and will be made only between now and June 30, 1934. This means that only the present growing crop will be eligible for the loans and not surpluses in warehouses.

Farmers must agree to rent 40 per cent of next year's cotton acreage to be eligible for loans.

The $3,000,000 initial capital will come out of an NRA fund of $100,000,000 provided the agricultural adjustment administration to remedy the crop surplus situation.

PEOPLE AND LIGHTING

Why is it that good lighting draws people as tho by magic? It may be that people do not like darkness . . . that light has some definite but unexplainable charm. But is it true.

Aggressive merchants have known this fact for years and have brightened up their show windows. They know it draws people to their store front—and they know it pays.

They have provided good lighting in their store interiors as well. It draws customers into the store.

With prosperity again on the way, merchants should realize the benefits to be had from proper lighting.

LUBBOCK BURGLAR GETS 99-YEAR TERM

Lubbock, October 6.—After a half hour's deliberation, a jury in 99th district court Friday afternoon found Burton Huston, charged with burglary, guilty and, under the habitual criminal statutes, his punishment was fixed at 99 years in prison.

Conviction was the second this week in district court under the new habitual criminal statutes. The first, Jack Froese, drew a 12-year sentence. Huston was twice convicted in Hale County on similar charges and was said to have served time.

Defense attorney W. F. Schenck tonight said he would file a motion for a new trial Saturday and in the event it was denied, would file an appeal to the state court of criminal appeals.

Public Health Work Has Demonstrated Value of Disease Prevention

Austin, Texas.—The value of disease prevention or public health work has been clearly demonstrated in the storm stricken area of the Rio Grande Valley where state, county, and city health officers have pooled their abilities and resources to the end that there has not been any outbreak of communicable diseases following that disaster. Private interests have also assisted by supplying materials that could not be purchased by the officials on account of a lack of available funds.

There was great danger immediately following the storm that typhoid fever might become epidemic due to contamination of water supplies. Chlorine, in proper amounts, was put in these supplies and an extensive campaign of immunization against typhoid fever was started, which up to this time has reached over sixty thousand persons. The proper disposal of sewage was another problem that had to be attended to immediately.

Much of the land was covered with water and this created a wonderful chance for the multiplication of mosquitoes and the attendant danger of malaria. These places were drained where possible, and if impossible, they were oiled. The mosquito eradication work being done in the valley is one of the largest ever attempted in the United States.

Exactly how much sickness and suffering has been prevented cannot be accurately estimated, but, from past experiences, it is safe to say that the actual saving in money is many times more than the amount which has been spent for prevention.

PRECINCT TWO TURNS THUMBS DOWN ON BEER

Total Vote in Quitaque District is 93 to 59 With the Drys Leading in Decision.

Precinct two turned "thumbs down" on the sale of 3.2 beer last Saturday, when the voters went to the polls and cast 98 votes against the sale of beer while 59 were being cast for the sale of beer.

In the Quitaque box, 84 votes cast dry and 58 wet. In the Gasoline box, 14 votes were dry and 2 were wet.

The Quitaque box gave 78 votes against beer and 58 for beer in the State-wide election August 26th.

Beer will be legally served in Quitaque until November 8th. The County Commissioners will meet next Monday in their regular session, and canvas the votes. After that, the dry law must be published for four weeks before the law becomes effective.

As Quitaque has been the only wet spot between Amarillo and Paducah, the local beer dealers have been enjoying a good business since September 15th, when the drink was legalized in Texas. People from all neighboring towns have gathered here to quench their thirst.

It is understood that the "wets" will call another election after six months have passed.—The Quitaque Post.

"We owe his life to that faithful friend"

Peaceful stillness of a winter night was broken by the hoarse cough of a child. Mrs. Peery bent over the little white crib for a minute. Then, she hurried to the telephone.
"Doctor... please hurry!"
The doctor's face was grave... "Diphtheria. It's going to be a hard fight. We must operate. It's our one chance."
Along the wires another message flashed. A skilled surgeon and a trained nurse came. A child's life was saved.
Mrs. Peery says: "Today, as I look at my sturdy boy, I know we owe his life to that ever faithful friend within our home."

Wake Up Your Liver Bile — Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at drug stores. ©1931 C. M. Co.
