

'Water/Energy' tour to be today

Tour buses will leave the Dimmitt City Hall at 1 p.m. today (Thursday) on a "Water and Energy Conservation" farm tour in the western part of the county.

The tour will demonstrate practical methods being used by local growers to conserve irrigation water and fuel in light of spiraling production costs and projected future shortages.

The tour is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with the Extension Service and the Soil Conservation Service, and is open to all interested persons.

Those taking the tour may ride school buses which will leave the city hall at 1 o'clock, or may follow the buses or "pick up" the tour along the way in their own vehicles.

The first stop will be the George Sides farm eight miles west of Dimmitt, where a corn irrigation demonstration will be given.

Other stops, in order, will be:

—The Ronnie Gfeller farm five miles west of Dimmitt, for a demonstration of furrow diking equipment.

—The James Sims farm west of Dimmitt for a demonstration on minimum tillage of cotton.

—The Bart Kaderly farm at the intersection of FM 1055 and Hospital Road, for an irrigation efficiency test. Dr. Leon New, area Extension irrigation specialist, will conduct the test, using equipment that is available through the local Soil Conservation Service office.

—The Trent Downing farm two miles east and one south of Easter, where an operating alcohol still will be shown in operation, providing an alternative fuel for farm equipment and vehicles.

The tour will take approximately three hours, County Agent Charles Hottel said.

Dimmitt gains in census recount

THE BIGGEST SHINGLING JOB in Dimmitt is now underway as the huge First Baptist Church gets a new set of cedar shakes. The job requires 575 squares [2,875 bundles] of shingles, according to the contractor, Killingsworth Construction Co. And for this steep chore, the roofers aren't just using toe-boards — they're using bracketed walkways to work their way up the slopes. Roofers report that they're "beginning to get caught up" on the massive job of re-roofing virtually every building in town in the wake of the May 28 hailstorm that caused millions of dollars' worth of damage here. By the time the first snow flies, Dimmitt will be a city with all new roofs.

Dimmitt does, too, have at least 5,000 residents.

The official count now stands at 5,001.

The Census Bureau has confirmed the new population figure in an "updated census count" that was announced at Monday night's meeting of the Board of Aldermen.

Dimmitt gained 165 in the update.

City and Chamber of Commerce officials and utility-company managers all were confident that Dimmitt would top the 5,000 mark in the 1980 census, especially when the population of the Agricultural Housing Project was included.

When the Census Bureau announced a preliminary population count of 4,836, everybody yelled in disbelief.

It wasn't just a matter of pride. Revenue Sharing funds, state tax funds and other revenue sources were at stake.

The Dimmitt Board of Aldermen lodged an official challenge, just as state and local governments throughout the US were doing. The Census Bureau explained that it had expected the preliminary figures to be a short-cut, and that it had provisions for communities to review the census counts for completeness and accuracy.

The city governing board found several discrepancies in the preliminary count and called them to the attention of Census Bureau's district office in Amarillo.

Notification of Dimmitt's new population estimate came from the Census Bureau's regional office in Dallas.

"I imagine this figure will probably be the final one," City Attorney Jack Edwards said. "They may find a few more here or there, but I doubt that it will vary by 50 people one way or the other."

Reward fund climbs to $300

The reward on Dimmitt's window-shooter climbed to $300 this week.

The money is being offered through the Dimmitt Police Dept. for information that would lead to the arrest and conviction of whoever has been shooting out business windows with a small-caliber weapon.

Window glass was shot out of six or more business buildings in and around Dimmitt within a week's time. However, no further incidents have been reported since last week.

Police Chief Ronald Mitchell announced a $200 reward in the case last week, and over the weekend a local business kicked another $100 into the reward fund.

UW drive reaches two-thirds point

"We're two-thirds of the way to our goal," United Way Campaign Chairman Dale Wells reported Wednesday.

He said the drive has brought in $7,709.50 in contributions and pledges so far, with approximately two-thirds of Dimmitt's businesses reporting in.

This year's goal is $11,575.

"We're going to try to initiate our contacts with the farmers the first part of next week," Wells said.

The Dimmitt United Way uses the boundaries of the Dimmitt Independent School District as its solicitation area. Contributions this year will benefit five organizations and programs — Dimmitt Kids, Inc., Meals on Wheels, Girl Scouts, American Field Service and the USO.

Wells said most contributions and pledges so far have come from individuals and families, although several businesses have made separate contributions.

"The fact that we're including individual pledge cards in our envelopes does not in any way indicate that we do not want company contributions," Wells explained.

United Way packets have been delivered to virtually all business firms in and around Dimmitt, with business owners requested to distribute individual pledge cards to employees. Farm families will receive their pledge cards in the mail.

Hart blast injures two; cause still a mystery

Fire and utility inspectors are still trying to determine the cause of an explosion that caused severe burns to two Hart men Saturday afternoon.

The blast occurred shortly after 5 p.m. inside Danny's Garage, 402 Fifth St., while Willie Diaz and Rodolfo Gonzales were working on Diaz's pickup.

Diaz received third degree burns over 60% of his body, and Gonzales suffered first and second degree burns. Fire Chief J. B. Allensworth reported. Both men were taken by ambulance to Central Plains General Hospital in Plainview, then were transferred to the burn unit in Lubbock General Hospital.

Both men were reported doing "as well as could be expected" Wednesday.

The explosion inside the steel building blew sheet metal out of the roof, blew out a section of wall, and "almost blew one end out of the building, too," Allensworth said.

A witness who was a block or more away from the explosion reported that flames shot 200 feet into the air. Afterward, the Hart Volunteer Fire Dept. extinguished a small fire in the building's rafters and some burning boxes on the floor.

Cause of the blast is still a mystery, Allensworth said.

"It has all the earmarks of a natural gas leak," the fire chief said, "but a serviceman for the gas company checked the place out with his leak detector and couldn't find anything."

"We had the Plainview fire marshal inspect the building, too, and they couldn't determine the cause, either," he said. "They suggested we have another check made for natural gas leakage."

Josselet resigns; election called

The City Board of Aldermen Monday accepted the resignation of Alderman Joe Josselet, and Mayor Elmer Youts called an election for Nov. 4 — the same day as the general election — to fill the vacancy.

Josselet's resignation as an alderman will be effective Sept. 30 when he becomes assistant vice-president of the First State Bank of Dimmitt. The bank is a depository for city funds, so its officers may not serve on the city governing board.

"It has been my pleasure to serve the city for the last few months," Josselet said, adding, "I would like to thank the mayor, the aldermen and especially the people of Dimmitt for allowing me to serve."

The board accepted his resignation "with regrets."

Persons wishing to run for the unexpired term must turn in their applications to the city office by Oct. 3, a minimum of 31 days before the election as required by law. The term will expire April 30, 1982.

Aldermen discussed the recent ordinance amendment that allows double-wide mobile homes and modular homes to be placed anywhere west of Sixth Street except in restricted additions, provided that all home owners and renters within 600 feet of the property line sign a consent form.

Aldermen wanted to know if their action last month had been legal.

City Attorney Jack Edwards said that the amendment was not a zoning question since it was "not changing the use of the property," and that it was legal under the building code.

Edwards further informed the aldermen that a double-wide mobile home had been moved out of Sheffy Addition in West Dimmitt because its owners were unable to get the required signatures.

Aldermen felt they would never have a problem with this amendment since it was basically "inoperative." Mobile home owners acquiring the necessary consent-form signatures from as many as 200 families living within 600 feet of a property line would be unlikely, they felt.

Police Chief Ron Mitchell discussed the traffic problem south of Richardson Elementary School on Stinson. The street is congested each morning before school and each afternoon at the end of classes.

Mitchell said that the "terrible congestion" would make it impossible for an ambulance to "get in, in case of an accident." He added that no one had yet been injured there, but several "fender-benders" had occurred.

The aldermen offered quite a few suggestions, but felt that a meeting with the Dimmitt School Board was in order. They asked City Manager Garnett Holland to arrange such a meeting next month.

In other action, the city board:

—Discussed the recent vandalism and broken windows in the city. Mitchell said that the investigation was "at a standstill until we get some information on this." He also said that Hereford was having similar problems

Pre-game feast slated at Hart

Those attending the Hart-Nazareth football game Friday night will have the chance to eat their fill of enchiladas beforehand.

Hart's Xi Mu Iota chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority will serve an enchilada supper with all the trimmings from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Friday in the Hart school cafeteria.

Prices are $3.50 per plate for adults and $2 for children 12 and under. Take-out plates will be available also.

Farmers State Bank names new president

Jim Purcell, a Dalhart banker for the past five years, is the new president of the Farmers State Bank of Hart.

He assumed his duties at the Hart bank Monday.

Purcell's appointment by the bank's directors fills a six-month vacancy that was created by the death of James Werner. Ed Harris of Tulia, one of the bank's founding directors, has been serving as interim president.

Purcell has been associated with the Citizens State Bank of Dalhart for five years. He was a vice-president of that bank when he was named to his new post.

A native of San Jon, N.M., Purcell attended New Mexico State University and Eastern New Mexico University. He graduated from ENMU with a degree in business administration, with a major in finance and agribusiness and a minor in accounting.

He later graduated from Southern Methodist University's Intermediate School of Banking and the New Mexico

School of Banking at the University of New Mexico.

He is president this year of the North Panhandle Bankers AIB Chapter.

His wife, Vickie, grew up in Portales and holds a legal secretary's degree from New Mexico State University.

The Purcells have three children — Cody, 4, Lance, 3, and Brandi, 16 months. They are members of the Church of Christ.

Farm Bureau to hold convention Saturday

The Castro County Farm Bureau will hold its annual convention Saturday evening in the Dimmitt High School cafeteria.

The meeting will begin with dinner at 7 p.m., catered by Southern Seas and topped off with homemade ice cream.

The convention also will feature upbeat entertainment by the Sunnyside Uppitts and reports from students who attended the Texas Farm Bureau's summer citizenship seminar.

During the business session, members will hear reports on the previous year's progress, and will develop policy positions on issues pertaining to agriculture, with the goal of furthering a prosperous and lasting free-enterprise approach for farmers and ranchers.

"Local farmers and ranchers can have a voice and make positive contributions toward a better agriculture if they involve themselves in the Farm Bureau," County President Gale Sadler said, in urging members to turn out and take part in the convention's decision-making process Saturday night.

"Farmers often visit on turnouts or over a coffee cup about the problems that adversely affect their operations," Sadler said. "Maybe a solution is proposed during the conversation, but it dies there because no action is taken. This is where the Farm Bureau organization can be effective — by putting these ideas into action."

He explained that policy positions developed and adopted by local members at the county convention Saturday night will be introduced at the Texas Farm Bureau convention later. The state organization will then work through its various channels — with the legislature, Congress, governmental agencies, National Farm Bureau Federation, etc. — to bring about the solutions proposed at the local level.

Saturday night's annual convention is open to all active and prospective members of the Farm Bureau and their families.

TIM LAY, Dimmitt fullback, breaks loose for 22 yards around left end in the third quarter of the Bobcats' game against Hale Center Friday night. The play carried to the Owls' 36-yard line. Both teams' offenses committed costly mistakes throughout the game and the defenses ruled the field as Hale Center won, 12-0.

Sheffy's Chatter

Willises' move causes 'chain reaction'

By MARILE SHEFFY
Well, I tell you the Willis family had a moving spell last week. G. L. and Ouida bought and moved into a pretty house on Live Oak Street in the northwest part of Hereford. Their daughter Shari and husband Gene Bradley and children moved to the home place one mile on South Front Street. Kay and Andy Rogers and baby who have been living on the ranch near Santa Rosa moved to the W. J. Hill place at 1001 Oak. And Dr. and Mrs. Hill have bought and moved to the 300 block on West Etter.

(this) Tuesday evening with an ice cream supper in Helen's backyard carport. This is for the administrative staff and spouses, Ruth Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Gene King, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Glass, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Froehner, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Berryhill and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Broderson. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Berryhill and Helen Richardson spent several days at Helen's place in south Ruidoso. They rest, read and Elmer hammers and fixes things. Juanita Bruegel and Mary Bechtol of Canyon flew out to California and went out to the Bruegel ranch, horses I believe. Its name is Ranch 6B. They were joined by Carl and daughter Sherri Bruegel who drove out there from Ruidoso. Juanita says it is a beautiful place, those big redwood trees, flowers and hills. It is in northern California. They went to see the old mines at Old Nevada, California and Auburn, where they saw the big old three-story houses full of antiques. The niece Andrea Bruegel went home to Germany after the wedding.

Sherri Bruegel, daughter of Carl and Gail, was the honor guest as was her fiance Rodney Parker at a big party at the Expo building Friday evening. Much food and dancing and talk by the 135 guests. Host and hostess were uncle Fred and aunt Bobbie Bruegel and grandmother Juanita. The music was by the boys from Nazareth. Rodney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Parker, came from Amarillo. Several school friends of Sherri's came from Dallas, San Marcos and Stephenville. These I heard about came, Ka Ka Bruegel of TCU in Fort Worth, Heidi Bruegel from Trinity in San Antonio, Teresa and Andy Kemp of Fort Worth, Nita Singer and her husband, (she has an Italian name I can't spell), Rebecca Stanford Wilson and husband, Martha Jane Bates and husband Ernie McBrayer. Sherri and Rodney were married Saturday evening. That story will be on the society page.

Mary Burnham of Albuquerque is visiting her dad B. M. Nelson for a few days. You are invited to the reception to celebrate the golden wedding of Curtis and Marie Tate Sunday afternoon at the Fellowship Hall at the Methodist Church. We will see you there. Ten members of the Dimmitt High School Arts Club went to Mrs. Byrnes' Kindergarten Room to paint different pictures on the children's faces like clowns or hearts or dogs or whatever. Shirley Norris says the children were excited and had as much fun as the students who were Shirley, Candace Stewart, Tammy Ross, Joe Nino, Tim Lay, Zeke Garcia, Maja Martinez, Mario Moreno, Larry Espinosa and Albert Fuentes. The sponsor is Sue Broderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt Runnels of Snyder and Vicki Holt of Midland were Sunday guests of Ronnie and Sharon Travis and children. The third one is a pretty two-weeks-old girl baby. Her name is Kendra Lea. Ronnie is pastor of the Lee Street Baptist Church. Richard and Linda Perry of El Paso were weekend guests of her parents Fred and Helen Kuntz and brother Rick. Grandmother Alice Anthony went out to Flagg to have Sunday dinner with the family. M. A. and Christine Pennington went to Roswell on a recent weekend to visit their youngest daughter and M. A. preached at the Midway Baptist Church there at the morning service, then on to the Dora Baptist Church enroute home. He was working on or for a Crusade. And last weekend M. A. went to Dallas for a talk and meeting, then on to Corpus Christi where he preached at two different churches. Then a return back by Dallas for a Sunday night talk, then attended a church staff meeting on Monday evening.

Alice Parsons of Graham has been here for a visit with her son Percy and Margaret Parsons. The Parsons were in Dallas last week on business. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Swaringen of Decatur are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stahl and family. Also a sister of Mrs. Stahl (and husband Terry) and Nancy Isaacs and Tera came from Levelland. They had a birthday dinner for the mother Mrs. Swaringen. Jerry Lilley and daughters, Jo Beth Bates and Sally Stewart went to Goodwell, Okla. to Panhandle University for the football game with St. Mary's at Plains. Jerry's son Jack Stewart plays with the University at Goodwell. Wayne and Nancy Woodyard of Manhattan, Kan. have been here for a visit with her aunt and uncle Gordon and La Verta Fore.

Mrs. George Bradford spent a week in Lubbock visiting her nephew Herbert and Irene Boswell. They came home with her for a few days and have been canning blackeyed peas for next winter's food. Mrs. Jeannie Reitzer is home from her trip to Alta Loma. That is near Galveston. She visited her daughter. La Wanda Gilchrist of Austin has been here for a visit with her dad Dr. Bill and Ann Murphy. Flo and Kyle and little baby have been to see his mom Ann, also. Copied from Church of Christ Bulletin: Congratulations to Keith and Janna Mussett on the birth of their new son Jeffrey Alan. He is a big 22 1/2 inches long and weighed almost 9 pounds. Thursday, Sept. 11, Janice Bell was hostess at a shower for Jeffrey and also for baby Kristi, the new baby of Dennis and Laura Scrogum. They have a son named Heath. Dennis works at Goodpasture. Dalia Gregory treated her Tuesday bridge bunch to a few days at the Gregory home in Angel Fire last week. Festivities included lunch and shopping in Taos, bridge and visiting. The group enjoyed coffee with the Woodrow Killingsworth's and a tour of their mountain home one morning. With the high total score, Brenda Andrews was awarded the T-shirt that declared her "#1 for 1980." Those attending were Dalia, Brenda, Betty Dennis, Hazel Nelson, Darlene Dowell, Mona Merritt and guests Jimmie Glenn of Canyon and Dorothy Hopson. Dorothy Elder had some of her friends out to the farm home for apple pie and whipped cream, coffee and some homemade candy called The Rocky Road. They played games of bridge all afternoon. Guests were Maxine Tidwell, Ann Carpenter, Anita Morris, Bobbie Damron, Jeannie Miller, Gladiola Shipley and Virginia Gilbreath. Carolyn Copeland was hostess to the Friday bridge club. They met at Senior Citizens Party Room for games, had a good beef tips dinner with Jessie Silva and the girls. Her guests were: Josie Bradford, Betty Cartwright, Bobbie Damron, Dorothy Elder, Retta Cluck, Myrtle Sheffy, Gladiola Shipley and Opal Bearden. Elizabeth Huckabay and Tina Rawlings won high score. Polly Simpson was hostess to her bridge club Thursday afternoon in the home of her son Bill Sanders. She served a dessert plate to Carolyn Jones, Dorothy Gilbreath, Ruth Jackson, Dorothy Mayfield, Shirley Wise, Lois Wales, Ina Cleavinger and Jo Eddie Riley. Dale Winders tells me the Flatland Bluegrass band will be performing the first four days of the fair at Lubbock. They will start Sept. 20 at 6 and 8 p.m. John Darryl McLain, the son of Darryl and Linda McLain remains in the Surgical Intensive Care Unit at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock after receiving injuries in a fall from a pickup a week ago Saturday. His grandparents are Bill and Paula Harman and L. C. and Marguerite McLain.

Don Carter came up from Dallas for a short visit with friend Barbara Snell. She lives at the Hestand Apartment. Joe and Nancy Upton of Madill, Okla., have been here for a visit with her dad Leland Lee and sister Carolyn Copeland. They were trying to help with some of the Willis moving. Dwight Joiner is recuperating nicely from a recent appendectomy he had at Plains Memorial Hospital. Dwight is a school teacher of music and other topics. Jack R. Miller was the birthday fellow Saturday, so his children came home in the wee hours Saturday to help him celebrate his 50th (to him old - to me very young). Anyway a surprise party by the family from Abilene and daughter Kim and Norman Hays from Dimmitt and Karl Langford from Lubbock. They hit the front porch singing "Happy Birthday." The group gift was a beautiful gold pocket watch inscribed with all their names. Seems the mamma Murna Miller baked the cake, decorated in gold and white. She probably cooked breakfast for the bunch who are Brent and Linda Miler, Norman and Kim Hays, Hal and Cindy Miller, Cara Sue Miller and Karl Langford.

"I DON'T SEE ANYTHING"

THERE IS ONLY ONE WAY TO SEE THROUGH A CAMERA
Did you ever try to look through a camera from the front side? Yes, most of us have... out of curiosity... but we would not even consider trying to take a picture in such a manner. There are many though, who go through life never giving themselves a chance to really see God. In order to see God, one must look at him through faith. Attend church regularly, seek God where others can help direct you in your search for God.
"so then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Public meetings set on farm-worker laws

Public discussions on labor laws affecting the hiring of migrant and seasonal farm workers will be held in Lubbock Oct. 21.

Two meetings are scheduled in Room 107 of the Lubbock Memorial Civic center. The first will be from 2 to 5:45 p.m. and the second from 7 to 10 p.m.

The meetings are sponsored by the US Dept. of Labor and its Dallas Regional Farm Labor Coordinated Enforcement Committee.

Purpose of the meetings is to provide information on labor laws pertaining to migrant and seasonal workers, and to provide an opportunity for public discussions about the coordinated enforcement efforts of the Dept. of Labor.

Other meetings are scheduled in Weslaco, Eagle Pass and El Paso later this year.

A panel of Labor Dept. officials, assisted by Texas Employment Service officials, will discuss the Farm Labor Contractor Registration Act, the Fair Labor Standards Act, Wagner Peysor Act and the Occupational Safety and Health Act as they affect migrant and seasonal farm workers, farm labor contractors and employers.

Time will be allocated for individual and group comments and discussions following each panel presentation.

"It is hoped that all interested parties will take this opportunity to express their concerns and make constructive suggestions regarding the farm labor coordinated enforcement activities of the Dept. of Labor," a department spokesman said.

Interested individuals and groups are invited to submit written date, views, and suggestions concerning the enforcement activities of the Dept. of Labor. These comments should be submitted to the Dallas Regional Farm Labor Enforcement Committee, c/o Regional Administrator, ESA, 555 Griffin Square Building, Room 800, Dallas, 75202.

Any person or group wishing to make a formal presentation at one of the meetings should submit the following information by Oct. 6: (1) Name, address and telephone number; (2) If you will be representing yourself or, if a group or organization, the name of the group or organization; (3) the specific act, area or issues in which you are interested; and (4) the location of the meeting and the approximate time you prefer.

Anyone making a formal presentation is requested to limit it to approximately five minutes. The regional administrator will make the final determination on all presentations to be made.

Hey -- where is Cowsert's office?

For the first time in 71 years, there isn't a Cowsert in a downtown Dimmitt office anymore.

When Jack Cowsert moved his real estate and loan business from 106 W. Bedford St. Friday, it marked the first time since 1909 that a member of his family had not been officed within a block of the city square.

The 78-year-old Cowsert isn't quitting or retiring, though. He just moved out because the building is going up for lease. He plans to continue his real estate and loan business from his home.

"I plan to keep my hand in, but I don't need a fulltime office or secretary anymore," he said.

His father, Mark Cowsert, was the first member of the family to establish a downtown office. He was appointed county attorney in 1909, and was provided with an office in the courthouse for his law practice.

Shortly after he came here, Mark Cowsert went into partnership with E. S. Ireland in an abstract business. When Ireland moved to Hereford about 1920, Cowsert bought his interest and renamed the business Mark Cowsert, Abstracter.

Mark Cowsert continued as county attorney until 1929, then established an office in the then-new First State Bank building at the corner of West Bedford and North Broadway. Meanwhile, Ray Cowsert had joined his father in the firm, and succeeded him as county attorney.

In the 1930s the Cowsert office was moved to the Rawlings Hotel building. Jack Cowsert joined his father in that office in 1945. Ray Cowsert, meanwhile, moved his law practice to Hereford.

Cowsert bought the building at 106 W. Bedford in 1953 and moved his Cowsert Abstract Co. into it. The building is specially outfitted for security, with a built-in vault and steel-girded walls.

He operated his abstract company, real estate agency and loan firm out of this building until 1972, then sold the abstract business to his longtime associate, Clara Vick. She later moved the business back to the original bank building next door, but kept "Cowsert" in the name because of the firm's reputation and the name's long standing in abstract matters here.

Cowsert continued his real estate and loan business at 106 W. Bedford, even after he sold the building to E. B. Noble three years ago to house the Credit Bureau and H&R Block tax service.

Noble has purchased the Sears Catalog Sales Merchant business at 210 W. Jones, and is moving his Credit Bureau and tax service offices into that building.

And when Noble moved over the weekend, so did Cowsert.

He didn't use his office much anymore, so moving out won't require much of a change in his routine. Still, things won't be quite the same anymore.

"The main problem is that on Monday mornings when I go downtown, I won't have anyplace to report in to," Cowsert said.

Longhorns, Ponies tie at 7-7

Box 484 Phone 684-2535

The Hart Longhorns traveled to Shallowater Friday to face the Mustangs before a packed homecoming crowd. Both teams scored early and the Mustangs survived four Longhorn threats to manage a 7-7 tie.

After the Longhorns received the opening kickoff and were forced to punt, the Mustangs took the ball at their own 32-yard line and drove 68 yards in 11 plays for the first score of the game. Rufino Maldonado took the ball in from two yards out. Robert Sanders added the PAT, so with 3:29 left in the first quarter the Mustangs led, 7-0.

The drive was highlighted by a 16-yard run by R. Maldonado. Also, QB Mark Jungman hit R. Sanders with a 20-yard pass to set up the touchdown. This TD marked the first score of any kind against the Longhorn defense.

After an 18-yard runback of the ensuing kickoff by Clay Barnes, the Horns' offense began to roll. Starting from the 39-yard line, QB Derek Rich wasted no time putting the ball in the air. Rich hit end Chad Black on successive pass plays for 19 and 13 yards. After several running plays up the middle, Rich, behind good line blocking, found Black wide open for 22 yards and the score. The TD capped an 8-play, 61-yard drive. Clay Barnes added the PAT, and with 2:26 left in the first quarter the score was knotted, 7-7. Neither team threatened in the second quarter as both defenses settled in and played good ball.

On the first play of the second half, Isaias Ponce caused Mustang FB Richard Smith to fumble, and DE Benny McLain pounced on the loose ball at the Mustangs' 30-yard line.

Spurred by runs from Leonard Washington and Ponce, the Horns reached the 13-yard line before a fumble halted the drive.

But the Mustangs could not move the ball against a fired-up Longhorn defense. After a short punt, the Horns found themselves again in good field position. The running of Washington and Ponce, and the passing combination of Rich to Black, moved the ball down to the 5-yard line. But on fourth and two from the 5, the Longhorns again fumbled and the Mustangs recovered at their own 2-yard line.

Shallowater never presented a real threat after its first scoring drive, but the Longhorns came close several times. Behind the running of Daniel Guzman and the passing of Derek Rich, the Horns again knocked on the door late in the game. With time running out, Manuel Castenada intercepted a Mustang pass at the 16-yard line. QB Rich went to the airways and threw what appeared to be the game-winning TD, but the Horns were flagged for an illegal man downfield. The Longhorns moved down to the Mustangs' 23 before a last-second field goal attempt was short, leaving the game in a 7-7 tie.

Even though the Horns were at a size disadvantage, they kept on fighting until the final seconds ticked off the clock.

Top offensive players for Hart were Derek Rich, Kevin Belt, Danny Rodriguez, Benny McLain, Roy Martinez and Chad Black. Leading the Longhorn defense were Kevin Belt, Chad Black, Clay Barnes, Isaias Ponce and Manuel Castenada.

Hart won the battle of statistics, earning 14 first downs to Shallowater's 13, and compiling 218 total yards on offense to Shallowater's 170.

In the rushing department, Daniel Guzman gained 44 yards in eight carries, Leonard Washington earned 45 yards in nine attempts, and Isaias Ponce toted 14 times for 41 yards. Chad Black had a great night on the receiving end of the ball as he caught five passes for 80 yards.

The Longhorn record is now one win, no losses and one tie.

The Longhorns will renew their neighborhood rivalry against the Nazareth Swifts Friday night at 8 at Longhorn Field.

Wolverines ramble, 40-12

By CHRIS ALBRACHT
When the Nazareth Swifts made out their scouting report on Springlake-Earth, someone should have written down Ronnie James's and Ronnie Smith's license numbers.

James ran wild over the Nazareth defense for 226 yards and three touchdowns on seven carries to lead the Wolverines to a 40-12 victory over the Swifts at S-E Stadium in their first-ever meeting Friday night.

His backfield cohort, Smith, raced 160 yards on 16 carries and scored two long-distance touchdowns.

It was the first loss of the year for Coach Bruce Bagnall's Swifts.

After the Swifts' opening possession and punt, the Wolverines wasted no time. On the first play from scrimmage, James broke loose and scored on a 67-yard run. Mike McCarty's extra-point attempt was blocked by Calvin Schulte, and the Wolverines owned a quick 6-0 lead with 8:50 left in the opening stanza.

After the ensuing kickoff, the Swifts were running their fourth play, from the Nazareth 44, when Virgil Huseman lost the handle on the ball and the Wolverines recovered at their own 47. The Wolverines scored seven plays later as Smith capped a 53-yard drive with a 29-yard TD run. McCarty added the extra point and Springlake-Earth led, 13-0, with 3:37 still left in the first period.

Following an exchange of punts, the Swifts got their first score of the night as they used a time-consuming drive that carried 56 yards in 12 plays.

Bryan Huseman sparked the drive with 35 yards on seven carries.

Calvin Schulte scored the TD from three yards out. Huseman's extra-point kick was wide, and the Swifts were within seven points at 13-6 with 7:25 left in the second quarter.

After the Wolverines returned Nazareth's kickoff to the 25 and got pushed back to the 10 by a clipping penalty, James pulled his hit-and-run act again, racing 73 yards to the Nazareth 17. Two plays later, after Smith had gained 10 yards on two carries, QB Jim Gonzales took the ball the final seven yards into the end zone. McCarty's extra-point kick was good and the Wolverines led, 20-6, with 6:00 remaining before halftime.

The 90-yard scoring thrust took less than a minute and a half.

After a rousing talk by Coach Bagnall at halftime, the Swift defense came out and held the Wolverines to eight yards on their first three plays of the third quarter. But on fourth-and-two from the Nazareth 47, Smith broke loose around right end and raced the distance for S-E's fourth touchdown. Despite an offside call that moved the Wolverines back to the 7-yard line for their extra-point play, McCarty's kick split the uprights and the hosts led, 27-6, with 9:50 left in the third period.

The Swifts fought back with a 70-yard scoring drive that saw Bryan Huseman carry six times for 37 yards. Huseman got the last three yards himself as he powered into the end zone to cap the drive. The Swifts went for a two-point conversion with Calvin Schulte bootlegging the ball, but he was dropped a yard short of the goal line. The score stood at 27-12 with 5:20 left in the third.

Springlake-Earth wasted no time finding the end zone again. After the kickoff return to the S-E 37, Ronnie James - again - broke loose and scampered down the right sideline on a 63-yard touchdown run. McCarty's kick was wide, and the Wolverines now held a 33-12 advantage with 5:00 left. Only 20 seconds had run off the clock [See SWIFTS, Page 11]

Bobcats suffer 12-0 loss at Hale Center

By JOHN BROOKS
You could ask Coach Wayne Garner how to spell "gloom" after Friday night's 12-0 loss to Hale Center, and he would come about as close as the folks on the anticid commercials.

You could spell it nine penalties for 104 yards, most of them coming on deep drives into Hale Center territory that spelled, well, gloom and doom for the Bobcats.

You could spell it passes just overthrown, just dropped, or, seemingly, just uh, missed by an official.

But it was all gloom for the Bobcats after a disappointing 12-0 loss to the Owls in a game that saw the Bobcats unable to capitalize on seven Owl turnovers.

The game started out like the previous week's battle with Floydada — the Owls took the opening kick-off and moved from their 29 to their 28. Dimmitt took the ensuing punt at the Bobcat 36 and drove to the Owl 35. That's where the gloom started.

Running backs Adrian Stanton and Tim Lay combined for most of the yardage on the 29-yard drive, with Stanton picking up 19. The Bobcats opted to go to the air, and the officials decided to go to the pocket, whistling the Bobcats for back-to-back holding penalties and forcing them to punt from their own 35. The Bobcats ended up just as the Owls had — a yard farther back than where they had started.

Punter Ricky Gonzales got a 49-yarder to roll to the Hale Center 18. Quarterback Freddy Palacios, who would go on to complete seven passes for 87 yards, flipped one to tight end Matt Lotspeich for eight yards. But the Owls, even with returning All-South Plains running back Gordon Compton, couldn't muster anything on the ground, and were again forced to punt. After a 35-yard boot, the Bobcats took over in good shape at their own 47.

The Cats went with sophomore Richard Guzman at quarterback on their second possession, and he promptly completed a 10-yard throw to flanker Ricky Gonzales. The Bobcats again picked up fairly good yardage with their outside game; however, the Owl defense showed early the Bobcats were not going to gain any yardage on the inside.

The Bobcats, forsaking the punt, were stopped on downs at the Hale Center 40.

As the first quarter ended, Hale Center staged an impressive drive, mixing off-tackle gives to tailback Compton and two passes from Palacios to ends Lotspeich and Kyle Carver to move to the Dimmitt 15. But on first down from there, Hale Center coughed up the ball.

Dimmitt again relied on its outside game to move upfield. Lay carried twice for 11 yards and Stanton raced for 22. But the Bobcats lost yardage trying to go inside, and a Gabriel Montiel pass fell incomplete, forcing the Cats to punt.

The Owls decided they weren't quite ready to try anything on offense as they fumbled the ball on first down, giving the Bobcats possession at the 48. A five-yard procedure penalty and two losses later, the Bobcats set up in punt formation again. Dimmitt fans

DISPUTED PLAY—Dimmitt end Fermin Gonzales snares a pass in the corner next to Hale Center's goal line in the fourth quarter of Friday night's Bobcat-Owl game. This photo shows Gonzales planting one foot inbounds as Hale Center's Charlie Rigsby [40] rushed in to try to knock him loose from the ball. Gonzales hung on as he was knocked out of bounds to the right, but officials ruled the pass incomplete. At this point the Bobcats were trailing by 6-0. Hale Center later scored again with 4:34 remaining to take a 12-0 victory.

gaped as the center snap sailed over the head of Ricky Gonzales. He chased it down at the Hale Center 4.

Three plays later, the Owls cashed in on the break. After Compton carried into the line for nothing, quarterback Palacios carried twice — first to the 2 and, on the second try, through a gaping hole for the score. The extra-point try was short, and Hale Center led, 6-0, with 5:08 left in the first half.

The following kickoff was almost as short as the extra point kick, setting up the Bobcats at their own 38. But the staunch Hale Center defense again denied Dimmitt any inside room, and this time halted Dimmitt's outside game as well. The Bobcats opted to go for the first down on fourth and short, and Tim Lay was stopped at the line by defensive tackle Tim Jones.

Hale Center opted to go for broke on first down. As quarterback Palacios faded back, so did safety Richard Guzman, who beat Owl end Carver to the ball at the Dimmitt 16. Then the Bobcats decided to return the earlier favor done them by the Owls, and coughed up the ball at the Dimmitt 12-yard line with just over 90 seconds to play in the half.

Hale Center ran eight plays, moving down to the 2 with all the running done by Palacios and Compton. They got the first down at the 2 on just three plays, but the Bobcat defense showed its mettle with a fierce goal-line stand. The Dimmitt defense pass incomplete.

When the Owls again took control, they moved with fluidity for 70 yards. Using two power sweeps by Wade and six running plays by tailback Compton, the Owls moved through a Dimmitt defense that seemed without heart after the incomplete call. Compton highlighted the drive with two 12-yard off-tackle runs, and scored the clincher with 4:34 to play.

Dimmitt players and coaches were disheartened after the game. Dimmitt had been penalized a total of 104 yards on nine penalties, including a 15-yarder that doomed the Bobcats in the fourth quarter. They had the ball in Hale Center territory, and were talking things over on the sideline during a time-out, when they were whistled for a foul. The Bobcats had only nine players on the field when quarterback Montiel was talking with his coaches. The Bobcats were penalized for not having 10 men on the field — "illegal participation" — and were forced to punt the football.

Dimmitt was also unable to open up its passing game, completing only three of 19.

This week, it's back on the road for the Bobcats, this time to Amarillo to take on the River Road Wildcats. The Wildcats are 0-2, and are coming off a 35-7 pasting by Gruver. Gametime is 8 p.m. Friday.

River Road is a fairly new high school, on the far north side of Amarillo on the Dumas Highway. The school is a member of District 1-AAA.

River Road had its best season in its short history last year at 3-7, but has suffered back-to-back defeats, to Panhandle in the season opener, and last week to Gruver.

Swifts lose, 40-12...

between touchdowns.
A Swift fumble at the Nazareth 21 late in the game set up Springlake-Earth's final score. The Wolverines needed only three plays to score, with the all-too-familiar James racing the final seven yards with 1:11 left for his third TD of the night. McCarty's kick was true, giving the Wolverines their final victory margin of 40-12.

For the Swifts, Bryan Huseman was the leading rusher with 139 yards on 29 carries. Virgil Huseman gained 27 yards in six totes, while Hugh Wilhelm gained 21 yards on six carries. Calvin Schulte ran 15 yards on four carries and completed four of 11 passes for 33 yards, but had two passes intercepted.

For the Wolverines, both Ronnies had a big night. James rang up 226 yards and three TD's on only seven carries, while Smith carried 16 times for 160 yards and two TD's. Wolverine QB Jim Gonzales was 0-for-9 in passing, but it didn't matter.

The Swifts will continue on the road this week, although it will be their shortest trip of the season. They'll play arch-rival Hart at Longhorn Field Friday night at 8.

Chicago, Ill.—A free offer of special interest to those who hear but do not understand words has been announced by Beltone. A non-operating model of the smallest Beltone aid of its kind will be given absolutely free to anyone requesting it.

So, send for this free model now, and wear it in the privacy of your own home. It is not a real hearing aid, but it will show you how tiny hearing help can be. It's yours to keep, free. The actual aid weighs less than a third of an ounce, and it's all at ear level, in one unit.

These models are free, so we suggest you write for yours now. Again, we repeat, there is no cost, and certainly no obligation. Thousands have already been mailed, so write today to Dept. 52327, Beltone Electronics, 4201 W. Victoria, Chicago, Ill. 60646.

Young foreign visitors find Americans 'nice, friendly'

Two young visitors from different parts of the world have spent part of the summer here, and both said they found Americans to be "friendlier" and "more genuine" than they expected. Both jumped right into the family and community life here, and learned for themselves how we live, work and celebrate.

What does a tall, dark, handsome young New Zealander have to say about Dimmitt and the United States?

"The people are really friendly," 22-year-old Matthew White said. He added that Americans were misrepresented by the television programs he had seen in his home country. He lives in Ngatapa, about 16 miles from Gisborne, New Zealand. "I've had no real hassle with anyone," Matt said, and the people are "more genuine than I thought they would be. It's really great."

Matt, a diesel mechanic, decided to travel to the US "because I felt it had a good contrast of life, from wilderness to big cities."

He arrived in Los Angeles Aug. 3 and stayed there three days before spending a week in Phoenix. Then he came to Dimmitt.

Matt has been staying with Ernest and Marie Sammann since mid-August. He met them in June at Agricultural Field Days in Hamilton, New Zealand, where the Sammanns were demonstrating their Corn Saver pickup attachment for corn headers to the farmers of that area. Matt came to Dimmitt because the Sammanns said "if I'm out this way to drop in. So I did."

MATTHEW WHITE OF NEW ZEALAND ... Says Americans are "misrepresented" in his country

Matt has been to see "Texas" at Palo Duro Canyon and went with the Sammanns to water ski at Lake Buchanan over the Labor Day weekend. He has also seen his first snakes (New Zealand has none). They were rattlers. And he has been helping out at the Corn Saver Manufacturing Co.

"He fits into the family just fine," Marie Sammann said. Matt's parents are engaged in farming and custom picking of maize (corn to us) and sweet corn. They also have 10 acres of wine grapes. He has two sisters. One is a 20-year-old nurse trainee, and the other is a 16-year-old high school student.

Matt will be in Dimmitt only a few more days before moving on. For traveling of "about six months all around" in the US and Canada, Matt said he is looking to buy a "durable car." He plans to return home sometime in January - which will be mid-summer in New Zealand.

After visiting 17 states, what is Andrea Bruegel's favorite part of America? "Texas!" the German girl answered without hesitation.

"That's because my family lives here," she explained. Andrea is the great-niece of Fred Bruegel Sr. She spent seven weeks visiting her relatives in the US as a high-school graduation gift from her family.

ANDREA BRUEGEL OF GERMANY ... "I knew what Texas would be like"

Andrea, 18, graduated in June from gymnasium (high school) in her hometown of Ingolstadt, Germany, an industrial city on the Danube River, between Nuremberg and Munich. Ingolstadt is the home of an Audi auto-assembly plant and other industries.

Many here may remember her father, Rudolph "Rudy" Bruegel, who spent two months here and worked on his uncle's farm 25 years ago, when he was in his 20's. He went on to college at Los Angeles for two years before returning to Germany, and is now a civil engineer on assignment in Saudi Arabia. He's helping build what will be the largest airport in the world, at Jeddah. Andrea is the oldest of three girls in her family. Her sisters are Silke, 17, and Melanie, 15.

Andrea flew from Germany to Chicago where she visited first with her other great-uncle, Carl "Unk" Bruegel. She came to Texas in late July for the wedding of her cousin, Teresa, then she and a friend from Minnesota toured 15 other states and Washington, D.C. Her summer stops extended all the way from New York to California.

But Texas is her favorite part of the US - as she expected it to be.

"I knew what Texas would be like because my dad had told me about it and we had received many letters from our relatives here," she said. "I knew it would be very modern, with big farms and big houses."

The Americans she has met, she said, "have all been very nice. I've met more nice people than I thought I would." Otherwise, she said, "I wasn't really surprised about anything in America. The teenagers here are not very different from our teenagers in Germany. We have many movies in Germany about America, so I had an idea what it would be like. America is very interesting."

Andrea is fluent in English, having studied it seven years in school, so she fitted right in on this side of the Atlantic. In fact, you may have seen her downtown by herself and not realized she was from another country.

She also speaks French, and has studied Latin seven years.

While here, she helped build a float for the Harvest Days Parade, rode on a combine and grain trucks, and learned to make cinnamon rolls and apple pie.

"We buy our cinnamon rolls in Germany," she explained, "and we don't have apple pie there. But we will have, because I'm taking all the recipes with me home."

She left last week to return to Germany. But next month she'll take to the air again to spend October and November with her father in Saudi Arabia. She plans to follow in her dad's footsteps by studying civil engineering at a university in Munich.

Does she plan to ever return to the US? "Sure," she said.

Corn growers concern for greater energy efficiency is being rapidly reflected in crop trends all over the country. Corn crops are being planted earlier and developers are working to get out varieties with sufficient cold tolerance to begin growing in 40 degree soil. Greater numbers of plants are being grown in the same area to make maximum use of all sunlight. Research is moving as quickly as possible into more efficient drying systems to cut energy use after harvest. Some of the best results using simplified solar collectors are being reported this season. Energy efficiency has quickly become one of the keys to even greater farm productivity, and will continue to challenge producers in the future.

Book Club opens year

Mrs. Ronnie Farris of Dalhart reviewed the historical biography, "Love Is a Wild Assault," at the Dimmitt Book Club's first meeting of the club year last Wednesday.

The book, written by Edithe Hamilton Kirkland, is set in the Texas of the early 1800s. It's the story of Harriet Paige Potter, who gained notoriety while being duped by two husbands.

Her first husband deserted the family to join Gen. Houston's army, leaving her and her children to cope with life in the wilderness of East Texas. Later, Congressman Potter, to get her to marry him, told her that Paige was dead — although he wasn't. She married not realizing how unprincipled a man he was. When he died, he left all his land to "women friends" in Austin. Potter County, incidentally, was named after him.

Prior to the book review, Mrs. Ruth Coleman, president, conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. Frank Wise and Mrs. James Welch served fresh fruit and hot punch from brass appointments. The table was covered with a peach-colored cloth and held an arrangement of fall flowers.

Approximately 40 members and guests attended the meeting, which was held in the Rhoads Memorial Library community room.

They included the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Woodard of Vernon, and her brother, Reggie Quiett of Dimmitt; and the groom's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Morgan of Lubbock, and his brother, Bryan Mayfield of Houston. The bride and groom were escorted down the aisle by their parents.

The bride's and groom's sisters wore pink chiffon floor-length dresses with bishop sleeves and lace accents, and each carried an ivory fan with pink roses and streamers. The mothers wore blue floor-length dresses.

The men in the wedding party wore burgundy tails with pink ruffled shirts.

The bride's wedding dress was designed and created by her mother. It was a formal length gown of ivory chiffon over taffeta, with hand-tinted Alencon lace in a rose motif.

Its Empire bodice was outlined in crystal pleated ruffling to give a jacket effect. The split bishop sleeves were accented with hand-tinted lace on the inner sleeve, and long fitted cuffs. Her headpiece was a derby bridal hat with hand-tinted lace and a fingertip illusion veil that was fastened to the hat with pink silk roses.

She carried a bouquet of bridal roses and needlepoint ivy cascade atop a family bridal Bible.

Mrs. Bill Clark played traditional wedding music at the piano, and accompanied Mrs. Roger Springstead of El Paso, the bride's aunt, who sang "Longer," "The Rose" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Ushers were Tim McNair of El Paso and Bud McLain of Dimmitt. Shelley McNair of El Paso was the candlelighter.

A reception followed in the church's Lamar Fellowship Hall. A four-tiered wedding cake, two two-tiered family cakes, punch and coffee were served by Mrs. Gaylon Betts of Quanah and Mrs. John Davis, Mrs. Goldie Stanton and Mrs. Bud McLain, all of Dimmitt.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's grandmothers, Mrs. Dona Reed of Colorado City and Mrs. C. H. Quiett of Snyder, and her great aunt, Mrs. Della Fox of Colorado City.

Patricia Kern to go to Rome

Patricia Kern of Nazareth will be among the 100 students this fall participating in the University of Dallas European program in Rome.

Over 1,500 students have participated in the Rome program since its inauguration in 1970. Sophomores at the University of Dallas are encouraged to spend one semester in Rome to understand the liberal arts heritage of the school and the tradition of western civilization.

The Rome curriculum is designed to complement these values with such courses as the Origins of Western Civilization, Greek and Roman Tragedy and Comedy taught in the environment of their foundations. Each Rome semester also includes a 10-day trip to Greece.

The university's campus is located on the outskirts of the city and consists of dormitories, classrooms, a dining facility, a lounge and a small library.

UD is an independent, Catholic church related, liberal arts institution with a total enrollment of approximately 2,500.

BRUCE WIKE
Youth Rally Speaker

Youth rally slated Monday

A district-wide youth rally will be held Monday at 7:45 p.m. at the First Assembly of God.

Speaker for the rally will be gospel singer Bruce Wike, son of the Rev. Monte Wike. The youth of the Assembly of God urge all youth of the Dimmitt area to come to the rally and enjoy the concert. After the concert, there will be a time of fellowship where sandwiches and Coke can be purchased.

Bruce Wike was born in Barstow, Calif., but has lived most of his life in West Texas. While in high school he was active in band, choir, Student Council and Pacesetters. On the trombone, he competed as far as the state level in solo and ensemble and received superior ratings. During his senior year, he made all-area band, was president of the choir, served on the Student Council, was voted by the teachers as Most Outstanding Senior Boy during the Optimist Club Week, and was chosen by the student body to be the Most Academic.

After graduation from high school at Colorado City, he attended West Texas State University as a music education major for one year. During this time he served as the freshman band representative and was vice-president of Chi Alpha. At present, he is in full-time evangelism and also does piano-tuning.

He will be singing songs recorded by Andre Crouch, Dallas Holms and the Imperials, as well as songs that he has written.

Sunday declared 'Kiss Your Baby' day for CF drive

Mayor Elmer Youts has declared Sunday as "Kiss Your Baby" Day in Dimmitt. "Kiss Your Baby" Day will be held as part of National Cystic Fibrosis Week and the local CF Breath of Life Campaign.

Stressing the need for greater public health education in Dimmitt, the mayor said that "Kiss Your Baby" Day is designed to help parents recognize the symptoms of cystic fibrosis in their children.

One of the signs of CF is a salty taste to the skin. Mothers have sometimes alerted doctors to the possibility of CF when kissing their babies and tasting salt, explained Mayor Youts.

Cystic fibrosis is inherited by approximately one of every 1,600 American babies. It occurs when a child receives a gene from the disease from each parent. So far, there's no cure for CF, but early diagnosis and treatment are helping to lengthen lives. Today, 50 percent of CF patients can be expected to live past age 19, where once few survived to school age.

The signs of cystic fibrosis include: recurrent wheezing, persistent coughing with excessive mucus, pneumonia more than once, excessive appetite with poor weight gain and clubbing (enlargement of fingertips). Cystic fibrosis signs also include a salty taste of the skin, persistent bulky diarrhea and nasal polyps.

The mayor joined the Lone Star Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation in urging everyone to "Kiss Your Baby" and watch for the signs of cystic fibrosis in all children.

ASCS notes 1981 wheat program provisions outlined

By CHARLEY E. HILL
County Executive Director

The Secretary of Agriculture has announced the 1981 wheat program. The provisions outlined in the announcement are being furnished for informational purposes. It should be specifically noted that some provisions are preliminary, as noted, and subject to change.

PROGRAM PROVISIONS
Set-Aside — There will be no required set-aside for 1981 wheat.

Normal Crop Acreage — Producers on farms with planted wheat must ascertain that the farm NCA is not exceeded to be eligible for program benefits on any NCA crop, except sugar.

Cross Compliance — For producers on farms with planted wheat to be eligible for program benefits on any NCA crop, program or non-program (except sugar), the farm NCA must not be exceeded.

Off-Setting Compliance — In addition to planting within the NCA on a participating wheat farm, owners and operators must ascertain that the NCA is not exceeded on any other farm with wheat planted which they own or operate.

Paid Diversion and Haying and Grazing — If conditions change and it becomes evident that wheat supplies will be excessive, a paid diversion will be offered. A final decision on haying and grazing will be made before the beginning of the spring grazing period.

National Program Acreage — The PRELIMINARY NATIONAL PROGRAM ACREAGE (NPA) is 71 million acres. This figure, however, is subject to adjustment based on later developments.

Target Price — The 1981 target price will be set at a MINIMUM of $3.81. The FINAL figure will be dependent on the size of increase in short run production costs.

Producers on farms complying with all program requirements and on which the wheat acreage for harvest is no more than the 1980 planted and considered planted acreage (planted plus approved prevented planted for 1980) will have target price protection on the entire 1981 acreage planted for harvest. Farms on which the 1980 acreage is exceeded will be subject to an allocation factor based on the final NPA and the estimated harvested acres.

Loan Rate — The 1981 loan rate will be a MINIMUM of $3.00 per bushel. A FINAL determination will be made after supply prospects and other factors become clearer.

Payment Limitation — The $50,000 payment limitation for the total deficiency and voluntary diversion payments for any combination of wheat, feed grain, upland cotton, and rice remains in effect for the 1981 crop year. This limitation DOES NOT apply to loans or purchases.

Disaster Provisions — The Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1980 provided for an extension of the disaster provisions only for the 1980 crop year. Legislation now pending in Congress, however, could make the current ASCS disaster provisions an option to producers for 1981.

USE A small date book for noting all car repairs, tire rotation, oil changes and gasoline purchases, and keep it handy in the glove compartment, suggests Linda McCormack, a family resource management specialist, with the Extension Service.

DALE MAXWELL, senior operations officer of the Civil Air Patrol's Amarillo Squadron, shows one type of emergency locator transmitter that can be activated by a downed pilot to signal his location, during a talk to the Dimmitt Kiwanis Club Monday. The Dimmitt pilot explained that every aircraft is required to have an operational ELT aboard, but that many don't.

Civil Air Patrol's make-up is explained

The Civil Air Patrol conducted 1,000 search missions in the US last year, was successful in 499 of them, and saved the lives of 55 pilots and passengers, a local CAP officer told the Dimmitt Kiwanis Club Monday.

Dale Maxwell, senior operations officer for the Amarillo Squadron of the CAP, told of the organization's make-up and purpose, and presented a slide show depicting the CAP's operations for preparedness.

He explained that the CAP is a civilian auxiliary of the US Air Force, made up of 60,000 volunteer men and women, 18,000 of whom are pilots.

Nationally, the CAP is organized into eight regions with 52 "wings" — one for each state plus the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico, Maxwell said. The organization uses both CAP-owned and member-owned aircraft in its search missions and emergency assistance operations.

The main mission of the CAP, Maxwell said, is the one that most people are familiar with — emergency services. This includes search and rescue missions, life saving, and civil defense services.

Maxwell explained that the CAP, in carrying out its emergency services, always works in cooperation with the US Air Force, local law enforcement agencies that are responsible for search and rescue in their jurisdictions, and with the Red Cross, Salvation Army and other agencies that have emergency-service programs.

Two other missions of the CAP, Maxwell said, are an aerospace education program for members and a cadet program for youths 13 through 17. The cadet program, he said, is intended to motivate youths toward leadership and citizenship in an aerospace environment.

He said that any CAP pilot on a search-and-rescue mission is confronted with three main problems: (1) the chancy nature of searching large areas for a small aircraft, (2) the high mortality rate of air-crash victims, in which rescue time can play a vital role, and (3) the lack of operational emergency transmitters aboard many aircraft.

He showed several types of emergency locator transmitters (ELT's) which send a non-directional radio signal which searching pilots can "home in" on. All aircraft — domestic, commercial and military — are required to carry ELT's aboard, he said, but many don't. The last three downed planes that he helped look for didn't have operational ELT's, he said.

Pest program reduces Hart enrollment costs, Knudson says drops below 600

A pest management program devised by the Extension Service here has reduced the cost of greenbug control in grain sorghum from more than $4 per acre to $1.69 per acre, County Entomologist Allen Knudson told the Dimmitt Rotary Club Friday.

He said the pest management program not only lowers spraying costs, but also educates producers on proper pest control, re-establishes a scientific and economically sound program of pest management, and prevents future ecological problems in agriculture.

"Insecticides are very useful," Knudson explained. "We must just know when to use them, and in what amounts, for maximum efficiency."

Knudson said that one of the main things a grower needs to avoid is killing off the beneficial insects along with the harmful ones.

He noted that the "greenbug crisis" of 1968 spurred a dramatic increase in the spraying of insecticides on grain sorghum crops. This "total kill" approach is unscientific, he said, because it can lead to the development of an insecticide-resistant strain and an outbreak of secondary pests such as spider mites.

Management of insects, not the destruction of them, should be the main goal of the producer, Knudson said. For instance, a certain level of greenbug population won't cause significant damage to a grain crop, but will provide food for such beneficial insects as ladybugs, spiders and wasps.

Knudson presented a slide show of pests that affect grain sorghum crops in this area.

He noted that the advent of corn as a major crop had a significant effect on pest populations and balance. Corn is not as good a "host plant" for some of the harmful insects that the beneficials feed upon, he said, so when the harmful ones reach damaging population levels in grain sorghum and cotton, there aren't as many beneficials to control them.

Enrollment in the Hart Public Schools has dropped below the 600 mark, Supt. Ted Averitt reported at the Hart School Board's September meeting.

Averitt said enrollment stood at 596 as of last Wednesday, down by 47 students from approximately the same time last year. Mid-September enrollments for the past five years were 648 in 1976, 681 in 1977, 640 in 1978 and 643 last year.

Enrollment in the elementary grades is 338, Averitt reported, with 39 in kindergarten, 53 in first, 60 in second, 53 in third, 34 in fourth, 54 in fifth and 45 in sixth. Enrollment in the junior high and high school grades totals 258, with 40 in seventh, 48 in eighth, 49 in ninth, 47 in 10th, 37 in 11th and 37 in 12th.

The board approved a budget of $1,250,155 for 1980-81, and raised the school property tax rate by a penny, to 66 cents per $100 assessed valuation. Federal, state and local tax sources are expected to provide approximately $1,199,106 of this year's operating funds.

Elementary Counselor Shirley Barnes presented her survey on adult education for the Hart area, and recommended that adult education be held one night a week beginning in October. The board approved her recommendation.

The board approved a Halloween carnival for pupils in kindergarten through sixth grade, to be held Oct. 31 from 1 to 3:45 p.m.

The board also approved six emergency transfer students and met Ken Hoskins, new head boys' basketball coach.

More about Hart blast...

"I won't rest easy until we know what caused it," Allensworth said. "It's spooky, and we don't want it happening again."

Diaz, an employee of Danny's Garage for many years, told firemen he was bent over the fender of his pickup inside the garage building when the explosion occurred.

"He said he was blown away from the pickup, and that it looked like the whole inside of the building was a big ball of fire," Allensworth reported.

Gonzales was just on his way outside the building when the blast blew him through the open door.

"It looked like most of the damage was from waist-high on up," Allensworth said. "There didn't appear to be anything scorched down around the floor. But from all indications, the heat above waist level was awfully fierce there for a minute or two."

The blast did no apparent damage to Diaz's pickup, he said, "but it demolished about half of the shop."

Grand Jury session set

A 242nd District Court Grand Jury will convene Tuesday to investigate six felony charges, County Attorney Jimmy Davis said this week.

The Grand Jury docket includes four DWI cases, one theft with an arrest and one theft that's still being investigated.

Also, Davis has scheduled a demonstration for the Grand Jury on how the "breathalyzer" works in determining the level of a person's intoxication. Dept. of Public Safety officers will give the demonstration.

Price to talk to Rotarians

State Sen. Bob Price will speak to the Dimmitt Rotary Club at its noon meeting Friday.

The meeting will be in the Colonial Inn dining room, and is open to all interested persons.

Vaccine clinic slated at Hart

A free vaccination clinic for children will be held at Hart Elementary School from 9 to 11 a.m. next Wednesday.

The clinic will offer vaccines that give protection against polio, diphtheria, lockjaw, whooping cough, measles, rubella and mumps.

The Texas Dept. of Health will conduct the clinic.

Court revokes man's probation

District Judge John T. Boyd Tuesday revoked the probation of Billy M. Lloyd, 19, and ordered him to serve 50 days in the County Jail.

Lloyd was on probation after pleading guilty last February to breaking a window at Pat's Electric, 214 E. Bedford St. At that time he was fined and ordered to make restitution for the window's cost, and to pay legal fees and court costs.

His probation was revoked upon motion by County Attorney Jimmy Davis, who said Lloyd had not complied with the terms of his sentence.

Woman, baby hurt in Tuesday mishap

An Olton woman and her year-old daughter received minor injuries Tuesday afternoon when their 1976 Fiat collided almost head-on with a 1978 Chevrolet Impala in the 300 block of South Broadway.

Melba Carr Vassar and her daughter, Autumn, received bruises and abrasions in the accident, police reported. They were taken to Plains Memorial Hospital for treatment.

The Chevrolet's driver, Jim Bagwell, apparently wasn't hurt, police said.

FERMIN GONZALES, speedy Dimmitt end, leaps high to snare a pass on the Bobcats' first play of the fourth quarter at Hale Center Friday night. However, the Owl defender at right rushed in to knock him loose from the ball as he came down.

On the following play, though, Gonzales caught a David Montiel pass at the Hale Center 30-yard line to keep the Dimmitt drive going. Hale Center won the game, 12-0.

Big finish highlights Hart 7th grade opener

Hart's seventh grade team opened the season with a thriller against Shallowater last Thursday as the two teams battled to a 20-20 deadlock.

Hart got on the scoreboard first when Abel Martinez skirted end and raced 35 yards for a TD. The extra-point attempt failed.

Shallowater came back to knot the score at 6-6, then Martinez broke loose on another long touchdown run — this one a 65-yarder — and added a two-point conversion with an off-tackle run to give Hart a 14-6 advantage.

But Shallowater scored twice in the second half, taking a 20-14 lead with just 18 seconds left in the game.

Shallowater kicked off and Ronnie Rodriguez returned the ball 60 yards for the scoretying touchdown. Hart's extra-point attempt with 10 seconds left in the game was no good.

Martinez was named by the coaches as Hart's Outstanding Player of the Week in the seventh grade.

Hart's eighth grade team lost its season opener to Shallowater, 28-0.

Shallowater had only one sustained drive during the game; its four touchdowns resulted from Hart's offensive mistakes, coaches reported.

The score was 8-0 after the first quarter, 14-0 at halftime and 22-0 after three quarters.

Darrell Ethridge was named Hart's Outstanding Player of the Week in the eighth grade.
