The Floyd County Plainsman

Floydada, Floyd County, Texas, August 21, 1941

Number 37

VOLUME No. 12

Great Issue Will Come up for Vote 1942

Floyd County wheat growers will vote on a national referendum before the 1942 election, to determine whether to continue marketing wheat under the AAA Act, according to A. A. Hoots, secretary of the Floyd County AAA.

The referendum, which was passed several days ago by Secretary Claude R. Wickard, gives growers sufficient time to study the 1942 plantings.

Under the AAA Act, a producer must make prior to May 15 of each year when it is expected that the wheat supply will exceed the year's domestic consumption and exports by more than 100,000 bushels. The referendum must be held by two-thirds of the farmers before quotas are in effect for that year's crop.

Under the carry-over we will have on August 1, 1942, will be one of the lowest in the history of the program since our exports have been reduced and we are having an above-normal yield this year. The AAA official explained that the quotas in effect for the 1942 year, were approved by 94 percent vote in Texas and county wheat growers approved by 88 percent favor.

Marketing quotas protect the farmer, a government loan must be made on the 1942 crop before it is marketed. Loans at 10 percent of parity are in effect on the 1942 crop because quotas were in effect.

The purpose of wheat marketing is to divide a limited wheat supply equally among producers. Marketing within their allotment adjustments at seeding time farmers exceeding their allotment are called upon to adjust. Marketing penalty on excess wheat this year amounts to 50 percent of the basic loan rate. Since the average loan rate is 98 percent, the penalty on excess wheat is 48 percent.

Cotton Leaf-worm May be Expected To Sprean

Within the coming month cotton leafworm may be expected to spread over a considerable area of the state, according to Cameron Siddall, entomologist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service. The Texas Agricultural Agricultural Experiment Station, he says, recommends application of five to seven pounds an acre of calcium arsenate as a dust for control of the worms.

Lead arsenate applied in the same quantity also may be used as a means of control, although it kills more slowly. By adding lime, talc, or clay the dusting qualities of lead arsenate are improved. Paris green also provides a control element, but it should be mixed with an equal amount of flour to increase adherence, and with five parts of hydrated lime to offset danger of burning the plant foliage. In other words the mixture should comprise one part each of poison and flour, and five parts hydrated lime.

At the meeting the retailers endorsed full participation in "Retailers for Defense" Week, September 15 to 20, when the stores of every state will concentrate their efforts to enlist customers to buy Defense Savings Stamps. Before that time, most stores from coast to coast are expected to have Defense Stamps on sale.

Bell County Farm- ers' Coop Is Called A Success

College Station, Texas.—A success story generally is associated with the home town boy who makes good in the big city, but a group of Bell County farmers have proved that a success story also may be written far from the bright lights.

According to C. E. Bowles, of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, this group who live in the vicinity of Belton, banded together 12 years ago and set up a little cooperative to buy some of their supplies and market some of their produce. From a small beginning this undertaking has grown into a husky business which is serving its members well.

Reasoning that if cooperation worked successfully in buying supplies, it should work as well in other fields, these farmers in 1935 set up another cooperative and bought a cotton gin. After tasting success in their two enterprises they decided in 1939 to add another service, a cotton warehouse. Now a part of the storage payments on loan cotton go to the members as a saving.

Cooperators got interested in frozen food lockers. But it was a big undertaking. They had to be sure before going into debt $12,000 or more. At times it looked discouraging.

"I've lived 50 years without a freezer locker," said one man, "and I reckon I can make it for 20 more." County extension agents and farm security supervisors were called in. Educational meetings were held, motion pictures shown and committees drove many miles to obtain information. Finally, 300 families agreed to rent lockers and the directors of the cooperative gin arranged to finance the plant with the aid of the Houston Bank for Cooperatives. Today some 300 families are enjoying the benefits of modern frozen food storage.

Income from locker rentals and processing charges above actual cost of operation is used to repay borrowed money. Since the locker system is cooperatively owned, Bowles says, the members will not have to pay for it but once.

"Each new service, each added saving increases the buying power of the members," Bowles observes, "and this, in turn, means better business for merchants and others who serve them."

Nov. 30, Date Set For Accepting
Requests for '42
New Growers

Paul Snodgrass, chairman of the Floyd County AAA Committee, has been advised by the state office that November 30, 1941, is the closing date of accepting requests for 1942 new grower wheat allotments.

Farmers who have not planted any wheat for harvest during 1939, 1940, and 1941, but desire to plant wheat for the first time in 1942, are considered new growers. The acreage which new growers will receive is taken from a county reserve, which in most cases, represents approximately 3 percent of the county allotment.

All farms receiving wheat acreage allotments for the first time this year, regardless of the size of the acreage, will be classified as non-allotment farms. Regulations also state that the larger of the wheat acreage allotment or 15 acres may be harvested without incurring deductions. Non-allotment farmers will not be eligible for either conservation or parity payments, but in case marketing quotas are in effect loans may be made on that portion of the wheat in excess of the farm marketing quota.

Requests for new grower allotments should be filed in the county AAA office as soon as practicable, Snodgrass pointed out, since no applications may be filed after the closing date.

Secretary Floyd County A. C. A.

Correct Vitamins Necessary for Eyesight

A warning to parents to be certain their children are getting plenty of vitamins is being voiced by Dosca Hale, specialist in parent education and child development. She says when a child goes without the right food for too long the lens of the eye may cloud over, and blindness may result.

The specialist tells this story. Some worried parents recently had their five-year-old child's eyes examined. The child had complained that his eyes itched and burned, and the parents had observed his eyes were sensitive to light. They thought he needed glasses. Instead of putting glasses on him the doctor gave the child a big dose of vitamins and put him on a diet which was exceptionally rich in vitamins.

"Vitamins keep eyes seeing well and feeling well," the doctor said. "We know of nothing else that will do this."

This is the diet he recommended: A quart of milk every day, an egg a day, a serving of whole grain cereal every day, plenty of fresh green and yellow vegetables every day, yellow fruit or tomatoes every day, and some liver, fish, and other meats several times each week.

Here are some other facts the doctor gave these parents:

Some children "pile" sugar on their food. Too much sugar dulls the appetite for other foods and may blur the eyesight or injure the health. Too much sugar may do damage. Rats living on food containing too much of a certain kind of sugar always develop cataracts on their eyes. Cataracts are common among people with diabetes.

Eggs have fat of a quality which supplies quick energy, but fat that is not fattening.

A study of 629 Negro families in one Northwest Texas town recently revealed that only eight had home gardens. Twenty-six were home owners.

More than 2,000,000 trees were planted this spring by farmers and ranchers in the Southern Great Plains. Trees and shrubs were furnished for erosion control purposes by the Soil Conservation Service.

More than 40,000 tung trees were planted last spring in best orchards throughout the Gulf Coast region. Department of Agriculture scientists expect this will be the beginning of a successful tung oil industry in the United States.

A California scientist says inexpensive substitutes for novocain, antiseptics, and possibly sulfanilamide and its derivatives may soon be made from corncobs, oat hulls, and other farm waste materials.

Eggs provide proteins of a quality which are easily and quickly digested, absorbed and used in building and mending tissues.

Mr. Curtis moved to Floyd County May 1, 1941, from Big Spring, and had resided at McCaulley, Fisher County a number of years before coming to Floyd County. He was married to Miss Matis L. Mayo in Fisher County about 1906. Mr. Curtis was a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge and Woodman of the World.

Aeronautics. A Growing Field for Young Men

Young men with 60 hours of college work, age 20 to 26, inclusive, unmarried and with no dependents, now have the opportunity of training as aviation cadets. The new war department program of 30,000 pilots a year offers to qualified young men the finest instruction in the world in the operation of aircraft.

Aviation is in its infancy and regardless whether one stays in the service or returns to civil life, there will always be a growing need for trained pilots. During their training period, young men, as aviation cadets, receive $75.00 a month, board and room, clothing, medical attention and a $10,000.00 life insurance policy with the premiums paid.

Graduating after seven and a half months of training, they are commissioned, 2nd lieutenants, air corps reserve, with the opportunity of three years active duty with the United States Army air corps. Pay while on active duty ranges from $205.00 to $245.00 a month. Upon completion of active duty they will receive a cash bonus of $500.00 a year for each year of such duty.

Should the young man not have the required 60 hours of college work he will be given the opportunity of passing a mental test covering the subjects he should know.

All eligible young men or young men who think that they might be eligible for aviation cadet are asked to write or call at the U. S. Army Recruiting Station, Lubbock, Texas. It is expected that an aviation cadet board will be in Lubbock on or about the 23rd of August to save any applicants the expense of going to Fort Bliss or Fort Sill for their examination. All applications must be completed before arrival of the board. Birth certificate, transcript of college credits, and three letters of recommendation must accompany application.

United States farms using electricity doubled during the decade 1930-1940, according to a study made of the 1940 Farm Census.

"Enriched" flour is white or near-white flour which has in it specified amounts of at least two vitamins, thiamin (B-1) and nicotinic acid, and one mineral, iron.

In low cost diets milk is prominent because it provides high quality protein, calcium, and vitamins A and G cheaply, according to a U. S. Department of Agriculture bulletin.

Grasshoppers Are Spreading Over Floyd County

Due to the heavy grasshopper infestation in the county D. F. Bredthauer, county agricultural agent, advises farmers that the mixing plant has been reopened at the old Boothe elevator in Floydada and all farmers needing poison bait can secure same by calling at the above place to secure their needs; however, it must be remembered that farmers should use every precaution in the distribution of this bait, because it is not fit for human and animal consumption. The sacks should be returned to the mixing station.

A prepared mash should be thinly and evenly scattered over infested fields at the rate of 10 to 15 pounds wet basis per acre. It is most commonly spread by hand. Every precaution should be taken to see that it falls apart into flakes. Casting it into the wind with a snap of the wrist helps to accomplish this.
Several casts should be made with one handful of bait.

If large quantities of bait are to be distributed, scattering it from the rear end of a wagon or truck permits two men to scatter it at one time as the vehicle is driven slowly over the field. One man scattering from a wagon can cover 10 acres per hour; two men in a truck can cover 20 acres. An endgate seeder can be used, but it must be carefully watched and not allowed to clog because of too rapid feeding.

The best time to put out poisoned bait is while the grasshoppers are on the ground, doing their first feeding of the day. This occurs as soon after sunrise as the air temperature reaches 70 degrees to 80 degrees F., usually between 6 and 10 a. m., but if it is cold or cloudy early in the morning it may take place later in the day. The bait should not be scattered when the temperature is below 70 degrees or above 85 degrees or if there is prospect of rain within a few hours. Cloudy and windy weather are also unfavorable for feeding. An easy way to determine whether conditions are right for bait spreading is to scatter a few handfuls of bait where grasshoppers are thick, and to observe them carefully for several minutes. If feeding on the bait begins at once, spreading should be continued. If grasshoppers refuse the bait, spreading should be delayed until more favorable conditions prevail. Spreading the bait when conditions are not right for feeding is the most common reason for poor kills and frequently results in wasting large quantities of bait.

Light Tare on Cotton Wrapped Cotton Bales

College Station.—The marketing division of the Surplus Marketing Administration is asking approximately 5,500 buyers of cotton to sign an agreement to make an allowance of seven pounds for lighter tare on cotton wrapped cotton bales. According to George E. Adams, vice director and state agent of the Texas Extension Service, county agricultural agent and county AAA committeemen will cooperate in obtaining the signatures.

The Surplus Marketing Administration estimates that approximately 2,000,000 bales of the 1941 cotton crop will carry cotton wrapping. A cotton pattern weighs 4½ pounds compared with about 12 pounds for a pattern of jute. Due to gross weight trading this difference in tare penalizes farmers who use cotton bagging about seven pounds a bale unless merchants make an allowance differential.

The SAM points out that mills have 60 percent of the spindles in the United States now are cooperating in making the allowance.

M. L. Wilson, director of extension work, and I. W. Duggan, director, Southern Division, AAA, in a joint statement said: "We are advised that other mills will cooperate if the allowance is made by the cotton buyers to farmers. For cotton buyers not to make the allowance will deprive farmers at present price levels of about $1.00 a bale and unjustly enrich themselves of a possible total of $2,000,000."

The objective of the plan is to obtain for cotton farmers improved marketing practices and to encourage the use of cotton for bagging as a means of increasing domestic consumption.

School Lunch Pro- gram Now More Flexible

Texas' 215 county home demonstration agents and assistant agents have been asked to help families in their counties know how to obtain or expand community school lunch programs.

According to information received by Mildred Horton, vice director of the A. and M. College Extension Service, and passed on to the county workers, several changes in policies governing the program will make possible expansion of the service.

For example, WPA will now permit the assignment of its workers for the preparation and serving of meals to all children provided all needy children are furnished free lunches. A change in regulations of the Surplus Marketing Administration makes it possible for that agency to purchase and distribute a wide variety of protective foods to the states. In addition, state directors of commodity distribution will be notified in advance of delivery what foods and what amounts will be available for school lunch distribution.

"The combination of wider variety of foods and advance knowledge of the kinds and amounts to be distributed should give school lunch supervisors a great deal more freedom in planning well-balanced and nutritious meal," the announcement said.

To aid volunteer or sponsor-paid workers on the school lunch room projects, WPA in-service training institutes will be held under supervision of trained home economists.

Plenty of Cotton Stocking Designs Are Available

More than 150 different cotton stocking designs now are available to the hosiery industry as a result of investigation by the Bureau of Home Economics at the Beltsville, Maryland, research center. Three years ago Congress appropriated funds to the department of agriculture for investigating the use of cotton for women's hosiery.

According to Dora R. Barnes, specialist in clothing for the A. and M. College Extension Service, the designs vary from cotton web mesh for evening wear to plain knits in various weights for sports wear, and for around the house and garden.
Several are in production and more will be soon. They are produced on a modern full-fashioned knitting machine and undergo severe laboratory and "field" tests for wearability, washability and appearance.

Surveys made in 1940 showed that 89 percent of the 16,200 full-fashioned knitting machines in the United States are suitable for knitting cotton as well as silk, while only 47 percent can handle nylon yarns. Last year, American women bought more than 43,000,000 dozen pairs of full-fashioned stockings. If these had been made from cotton, it is estimated that nearly 300,000 bales of long-staple fibre would have been required.
