Floyd County Cotton Farmers may Get Loans

Floyd County cotton farmers who are cooperating with the AAA program can obtain 85 percent of parity government loans on their 1941 production, Paul Snodgrass, chairman of the county AAA committee, points out.

Although the loan rates for Floyd County have not yet been announced, the AAA official said that the basic loan for the nation would be 14.02 cents per pound for 7.8 inch middling cotton gross weight, based upon the parity price of 16.49 cents per pound as of August 1. That rate compares with the 8.90-cent rate available in 1940. The average loan rate for 15-16 inch middling cotton, net weight, was 14.82 cents per pound on August 1, the beginning of the marketing year.

The full loan rate is available to producers planting within established cotton acreage allotments for the 1941-42 marketing year, and producers who knowingly exceed their allotments will be eligible for loans at 60 percent of the rate available to cooperators on that part of the cotton subject to penalty, Snodgrass continued.

Differentials for grade, staple and location in the new program will be calculated in relation to the loan rate of 15-16 inch middling cotton which is the basic description of all future and spot contracts. The rate for middling 15-16 inch cotton will be 20 points, or 2 cents per pound, above the basic rate for 7.8 inch middling cotton.

As in 1940, the loan rate will be based on net weight of cotton and will be 60 points above that for gross weights to compensate for the lesser pounds on which the loan is extended. All grades and staple lengths of cotton approved by the USDA Board of Examiners are included in the schedules of loan rates, he said. A classification fee of 15 cents per bale will be made.

Loans will be made directly by the Commodity Credit Corporation through approved lending agencies. The execution of loan papers will be under the supervision of local county AAA committees with such agencies as banks, warehouses and county AAA officers being designated by the AAA committees to assist producers in preparing and executing loan papers.

The notes which will mature July 31, 1942, bear interest at 3 percent per annum, and are callable on demand, Snodgrass said. Loans will be available until May 1, 1942, and will be made only on cotton represented by warehouse receipts issued by warehouses approved by the Commodity Credit Corporation.

FLOYD RURAL ELECTRIC CO-OP GIVEN $152,000 ALLOTMENT; TO EXTEND LINES 232 MILES

The Rural Electrification administration at Washington announced Saturday allotments totaling $1,195,000 for rural power projects in 14 states, including $152,000 for Floyd County Rural Electric Cooperative, Inc., of Floydada.

L. W. Chapman of Floydada, project superintendent of the Floyd cooperative, told the Avalanche-Journal when in Lubbock Saturday that the new allocation would boost the miles of transmission line to 548, serving approximately 1,000 cooperative members.

Chapman, 1932 graduate of Texas Technological college and a former assistant county farm agent, said 46 miles of a $35,000 project, allocation for which was granted early this year, had been completed except for "conductors," and added to the original section of 280 miles.

The new allocation will result in 232 miles of transmission line serving 429 members in Crosby, Hale and Floyd counties, he explained.

Chapman and A. H. Kreis, president of the board of the cooperative, recently returned from Washington where they appeared in support of the allocation application. They and H. N. Roberts of Lubbock, project engineer, said the manner in which members of the cooperative are using electricity can be determined from the fact they average $3.70 a month in bills paid. Members use electricity for appliances, radios, cooking, water heaters and for machinery.

Most of them had wind chargers or their private light plants but agreed they "needed more power, so subscribed to REA service," Chapman explained.—The Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

Wheat Tests on R. M. Battey Farm Show Comparative Yields per Acre

The Floydada cooperative wheat variety test, conducted on the R. M. Battey farm, was of much importance to the farmers of this county in determining what variety of wheat is best adapted to this county, according to D. F. Bredthauer, county agricultural agent.

The following is a list of the different varieties of wheat planted and the yields per acre.

Table with 2 columns: Variety and Yield per acre. Includes Tanmarq (15.1), Blackhull (5.0), Kanred (11.0), Certified Turkey (10.6), Kharok (9.9), Early Blackhull (12.5), Cheyenne (12.8), Kawvale (12.6), Chiefkan (15.1), Oro x Tenmarq (22.5), Kawvale x Tenmarq (27.7), Martin x Tenmarq (17.3).

The Kawvale variety apparently stood up the best of any of the varieties and apparently the least affected by the Septoria disease; however, it is a semi-hard wheat and shatters badly, so that it is not recommended for this area.

Excess Cotton Will Be Penalized 7c Per Pound

Cotton marketed in excess of 1941 farm quotas will be subject to a penalty of seven cents a pound, according to Paul Snodgrass, chairman of the Floyd County AAA committee.

A recent amendment to the AAA act set the penalty rate on excess cotton at 50 percent of the basic loan rate. The basic loan rate, which is 85 percent of the parity price of cotton, was announced at 14.02 cents a pound on August 1 and automatically fixed the penalty, Snodgrass explained. Parity price of cotton on August 1 was 16.49 cents a pound.

A marketing quota for a farm is determined as it was last year and is the largest of the normal or actual production times the acreage allotment plus any carryover penalty free cotton, Snodgrass pointed out, and all cotton marketed in excess of the quota is subject to the seven-cent penalty.

Two types of marketing cards will be issued for the year beginning August 1 and continuing through July 31 of next year. White cards will be issued to producers planting within their acreage allotments and having no penalty cotton on hand. Red cards will be issued to producers who have exceeded their allotments, have carry-over penalty cotton on hand, or whose cotton acreage was not measured.

Since only one rate of penalty will be in effect this year, any carryover penalty cotton which a producer has on hand will be converted into an amount of seven-cent penalty cotton equal to the amount due under the lower rate. The remainder of the cotton will then become penalty free.

In clarifying this statement, Snodgrass assumed a producer had 700 pounds of penalty cotton carried over from last year on which the three cent per pound penalty, or a total of $21, would have been due under the lower rate. The seven-cent rate, 300 pounds would be sufficient to clear the penalty and the remaining 400 pounds would then become penalty free.

Penalties will not apply where acreage allotments have been established and the total production is 1,000 pounds or less of lint, or on cotton one and one-half inches or more in staple, or cotton grown in publicly owned experiment stations for experimental purposes, Snodgrass said.

Farmers planting within their acreage allotments may place their cotton under the loan at the full rate. Farmers knowingly exceeding their allotments will be eligible for loans at 60 percent of the loan rate made to cooperators. The excess cotton placed under the loan will be subject to penalty when marketed later.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thurmon, city, and daughter, Miss Mary Louise, of Lubbock, returned Monday from a trip to New Mexico where they went through Carlsbad Cavern Sunday.

Cotton Insurance Officials Are Named

College Station, Texas—Two Texas dirt farmers, former state AAA committeemen, have been named to important positions with the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation to administer the insurance program for cotton.

Bonnie B. Ingel, cotton farmer of Grandview in Johnson County, will assist Jess H. Watson, Texas farmer who will be branch manager for the FCIC at Dallas.

Ingle has been connected with the AAA since its beginning, first as a county committeeman and then as a state committeeman. He was named to the state group in 1937 when it was organized in its present form and served as vice chairman until his resignation. In addition to cotton, he raises livestock on his farm and will continue his farming operations despite his new position.

Cothran also started out with the AAA program in 1933 when he was elected community committeeman. From 1935 to 1938 he was county committeeman. In the latter year he was named to the state committee. He will continue to operate his farm in Lamar County.

Kerosene Effective In Killing Mesquite Trees

College Station.—A demonstration on the San Pedro ranch near Carizo Springs shows that kerosene is effective and economical in killing mesquite trees and brush, says Robert R. Lancaster, extension service pasture specialist.

In 1939, 2,000 acres were treated, 3,459 in 1940 and this year's program calls for another 3,000. There was some resprouting, but such instances were readily found and treated the next year.

The oil is applied by means of a two-foot spout attached to a two-gallon can equipped with a carrying bail and side, or pouring, handle. The spout opening is about the size of a lead pencil. Approximately 12 inches of the base of the tree is thoroughly saturated with oil to a point where some of it flows into the ground. It is the kerosene on the roots which kills the shrubs and trees. Special care should be taken in treating bushy and "slick" bark mesquite, as these have been found to be more resistant to the oil.

The spray program on the San Pedro ranch, carried on under the supervision of county agricultural agent A. L. Sebasta, starts in July runs through September. No more than government allowance has been used in the eradication work.

Mrs. Jim Holligen, city who underwent a minor operation several days ago is improving nicely, it was reported this week.

Treat Black Spots On Roses With Sulphur

The disease black spot on roses means just what the name signifies.
Small black spots form on the leaves, then grow larger. The leaves turn yellow and fall off. Sadie Hatfield, extension service specialist in landscape gardening, says if a great many leaves are lost the branches begin drying at the top and continue drying even into the ground. Keep leaves on your roses if you want them to thrive," is Miss Hatfield's comment. This can be done by dusting sulphur on the leaves once a week until healthy new leaves have formed.

Hot Weather Tips On Care of Food Supplies

College Station. — Keeping the family's food supply in good condition is more difficult than usual these hot summer days when things spoil easily. To help homemakers protect and conserve the food they have on hand, Grace I. Neely, extension service specialist in food preservation, offers some special hot weather tips.

Milk, cream and raw meat head the list of foods most likely to spoil, she says, and all three should be kept at a temperature as low as 45 degrees F. Raw meat should not be kept on hand more than two or three days at normal refrigerator temperatures, and ground meat should not be kept for more than 24 to 48 hours. Liver and other meat organs should be used the same day they are bought.

"If you have a special meat compartment in your refrigerator, keep raw meat there," the specialist advises. "If you don't have one, take the wrapping off your meat as soon as you get home. Then keep it in a shallow dish covered with paraffin paper."

Since butter picks up odors easily it should be kept covered tightly.
Hard cheese should be wrapped up securely in waxed paper, and soft cheese should be kept in its original container, either tightly covered or wrapped.

The specialist warns that special care should be given to egg dishes, since many cases of summer food poisoning can be traced to them.
Eggs should be placed in the refrigerator as soon as they are gathered and kept there. Egg dishes should be prepared the same day they are to be eaten and kept in the refrigerator until serving time.

City Park Church

J. G. MALPHURS, MINISTER

We are getting started off in a good way on our teaching duties. At ten o'clock the minister will begin a class in the study of Genesis. The purpose of the course will be to strengthen the faith of each individual in God's wisdom in creating the earth on which man lives, and His plans for a better home than this world when man has to leave it.
We shall apply the facts and stories of the Book of Genesis to the fulfilment in the New Testament. The course will be equal to a college course. A bible, notebook and pencil are needed. Every one is invited to take this course with us.

On Wednesday nights we are offering another course which will be equal to that offered in college, "Church Organization." All who can attend will learn from the bible how God wants a church organized, and how to operate the church after it is organized. We feel sure bible lovers the design of the Canadian Cruiser Tank. The Canadian tank program calls for the production of 800 infantry and 1000 cruiser tanks. The photograph shows workmen putting the finishing touches on one of the

Let Good Lighting Help You to Live . . . to Entertain

Light conditioned living room can add much to comfort and enjoyment of guests whether playing cards or nibbling tidbits here.

By Carlene Waldo
NOW is the time for all good American housewives to make home a place of greater cheer. Evenings are growing longer, blackness is gathering outside, but indoors the living room lighting can be more cheerful and easier on the eyes than ever before.

The new light conditioning that scientists have designed is intended to help conserve the eyesight, help relax the nerves and lift the spirits psychologically . . . all very important in times like these. Softness and smoothness are characteristic of the new lighting which eliminates harsh distracting shadows. Scientifically-designed lamps are placed in good balance throughout the room, they send some of their light upward and use at least 100-watts each. Every chair where eye-work is done is provided with a lamp. And helping to send cheer through the room is a good fixture. It can be either a well-designed new one or a modernized older one. Lamps Stay Put

In a well-lighted room like this, games may be played at a card table, or refreshments enjoyed, without moving a single lamp out of place. All the activities of the family have been considered in planning the lighting, and father can read in his favorite chair or mother sew in hers with the assurance that eyesight-saving lighting is right at their elbows. The skies may darken outside but the American home can be filled with heart-warming cheer.
