Medics Report Ike Condition As 'Excellent'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three physicians examined President Eisenhower today and reported that "his physical condition is excellent."

The new medical report on the convalescing President's health recalled his own statement Sunday that his health will be a very important factor in determining whether to seek re-election.

Today's White House examination, which came without advance public notice, was conducted by Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, the White House physician; Col. Thomas W. Mattingly, chief specialist at Walter Reed Army Hospital here; and Col. Byron E. Pollack, chief heart specialist at Fitzsimons Army Hospital in Denver.

After today's examination in the President's White House living quarters, press secretary James C. Hagerty issued this statement on the behalf of the three physicians:

"The usual electrocardiogram and blood tests were good and the President's recovery continues to progress satisfactorily."

"His physical condition is excellent and he benefited greatly from the exercise and relaxation obtained during his recent visit to Key West."

Eisenhower was reported to be especially pleased with comments that he looks as well as he says he feels — a point that is not lost on television-minded politicians.

Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall said yesterday he is sticking to his thesis that Eisenhower will seek a second term "if he thinks he is able."

In the light of this statement, the President's own expression and those of the men around him appear to have added significance.

Chairman Bridges (NH) of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, reported after a White House meeting of legislative leaders that Eisenhower looks "just fine."

CITY'S NEW POLICE CHIEF
Conrad L. Rogers appointment approved by commission

Conrad L. Rogers New Police Chief

Capt. Conrad L. Rogers was named the new Big Spring chief of police at Tuesday evening's city commission meeting. On City Manager Herbert Whitney's recommendation, the commissioners approved Rogers to take over the post made vacant by the resignation of E. W. York.

York's resignation was accepted by the commissioners with no comment, Whitney read the letter of resignation which stated simply that he had enjoyed the work and regretted to leave, but under the circumstances, he felt it was all he could do.

Rogers thanked the commission for the appointment and said he would do the very best he could with the job. He said he hadn't asked for the position and that it was a surprise to him.

Rogers has been on the local police force over five years, starting Oct. 1, 1949 as a patrolman and working up to be night captain. He was promoted to captain in October, 1954. He has completed the A&M College 30-day Municipal Police School.

He worked in the Stamford police department two years, was an investigator for the Harris County Sheriff's department two years, and was a plant guard for North American Aviation Corporation two years.

Other business at the meeting Tuesday included approving a plat of land to be subdivided by Cecil Hamilton on the Andrews Highway west of the State Hospital. The commissioners told Hamilton that they could not guarantee water to the area.

Bracewell Resigns Probe Post In Anger

AUSTIN (AP) — Sen. Searcy Bracewell of Houston resigned from the Senate Investigating Committee today after it voted to hold a secret session in an inquiry of the affairs of U. S. Trust and Guaranty Co. of Waco.

Bracewell's unprecedented action came a few minutes after he angrily walked out of the committee session that had voted four to one to close its doors.

Bracewell sent a telegram to Rep. Wade Spillman of McAllen, chairman of the House Investigating Committee, calling on that committee "to investigate the use of political influence in connection with matters relative to current insurance troubles in Texas."

The sensational developments in the Senate committee came as it was scheduled to dig into lobbying advertising and public relations of the defunct U. S. Trust and Guaranty Co. of Waco.

The investigators closed the doors after a heated exchange between Bracewell and committee members as State Auditor C. H. Cavness was preparing to give his report on who was paid legal and other fees by the defunct combination banking and insurance firm.

Bracewell quickly dictated his letter of resignation to Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey, saying: "Due to irreconcilable conflicts between myself as chairman and members of the investigating committee, I hereby resign from such committee."

Committee members who backed the closed-door move insisted it did not necessarily mean the doors would be closed permanently. They said they wanted to have a look at the Cavness report before making it public.

Sen. Wardlow Lane of Center offered the motion for an executive session, asserting the committee should have its first look at Cavness' report in secrecy just as a grand jury considers cases behind closed doors.

"This is the public's business and the public is entitled to know what's in the report," Bracewell said. "The public is losing confidence in the state government and if you vote for an executive session what confidence the public has will be destroyed."

Sen. Johnnie Rogers heatedly accused Bracewell of being "unfair" in presenting this as an effort to stifle public information.

"Let the public be the judge of that," Bracewell retorted. "He then called for the vote. For the motion were Sens. Lane, Rogers, Otis Lock of Lufkin, and Jarrard Secrest of Temple."

Bracewell, who had warned the committee in his opening remarks he would have "no part in an executive session," stalked out of the jam-packed committee room.

Bracewell had promised he would dig deep into the matter of who got the cash on legal and advertising expense checks made out by the defunct combination banking-insurance firm of Waco.

The U. S. Trust and Guaranty Co. had more than 5,000 depositors and 120,000 policyholders. Its president, A. B. Shoemaker, attempted suicide Saturday at Waco but was still alive and improving from a bullet wound in the head today.

Some of the U. S. Trust legal fees were made out to senators and other members of the Legislature. Some of those made out merely to "cash" were written during a period when the Legislature was in session last year.

The committee had barely started when the flareup came over secrecy.

Bracewell said he thought the committee would commit the "greatest error possible" if it went behind closed doors.

Lane replied: "I don't say the Cavness report won't be made public. I spent years as a district attorney and I know this committee should proceed in an orderly fashion. Let's don't tip off any possible offenders."

"There's no harm in getting together and looking at this report, then deciding I'm also interested in seeing that any who may have violated the law face justice."

'Plain Look' Featured On Some 1956 Styles

By DOROTHY ROE
NEW YORK (AP)—More than any contemporary designer, breezy Claire McCardell has become identified with the casual American look, beloved by women who hate to look dressed up.

She is the high priestess of understatement, of the carefully careless effect, of the easy slouch and the stringbean figure. The 1956 version of the famous McCardell stringbean dress shown on the opening day of New York's Fashion Press Week is merely a straight, unbelted, unfitted tube of carefully checked wool jersey, with no trimmings, no collar, no buttons, no gimmicks.

Its only concession to design is two narrow slit pockets, one just above the right breast, the other on the left hip. She shows it with a severe white pillbox hat, white gloves and a gold chain necklace. On the girl with the McCardell figure it is effective. But ladies of ample curves should beware.

Pauline Trigere gives movement to the sheath with her "Wings Away" silhouette, which consists of a split overskirt over a sheath, separated at the front to reveal the narrow skirt beneath. Trigere's new term for suits is "diets" or "trios," and her latest trick is to team a waist-length fitted jacket with a skirt having a brief peplum at the top, just meeting the jacket at the neckline and giving the effect of a short, flared jacket.

Cell Chapman, famous for glamorous gowns, introduces the "neo-classic" silhouette, a sheath with back talk. In most cases the back is bunched to the hipline where it is caught in a band and released in a floating back panel. As always, this designer glorifies the feminine figure by means of drapery, tucks and skillful sculpture of cobwebby chiffons and laces.

Radioactive Device Missing

MILFORD, Conn. (AP)—A trinket-sized device with deadly radioactive rays is missing from a construction site here and police fear someone may have picked it up, not knowing its danger. The object is an inch and a half long. Shortly after the device was reported missing from property of the Connecticut Light & Power Co. yesterday, police issued a public appeal for the person who may have it to dispose of it in a vacant lot, telephone police and report immediately to a hospital. The shiny device, used by the United Engineers Construction Co. to photograph steel, was left hanging on the end of a card on the construction site yesterday. It was set in position to make a 30-minute exposure of steel. Officials of the construction firm said the invisible rays emanating from the device would not kill instantaneously but would bring about a deadly illness. The rays kill off white blood corpuscles in the body, they said. The firm said there was a possibility it could have fallen to the floor of the building in which it was hung. A Geiger counter search of the entire area failed to turn it up.

Giles Enters Guilty Plea In Land Trial

AUSTIN (AP)—Bascom Giles, who once cautioned veterans to be careful in buying land under the state's 100 million dollar aid program, pleaded guilty again yesterday to wrongdoing as administrator of that program. Waiving his right to trial by jury, Giles listened grimly as Judge Charles Betts sentenced him to six years on each of nine convictions of being an accomplice to felony theft. The total involved in the nine cases was $58,875. The sentences were ordered to run concurrently with previous six-year penalties assessed in Bexar and Zavala counties for agreeing to accept a bribe. It was indicated—without confirmation or denial by District Atty. Les Procter—that the trial might complete state prosecution of criminal cases against Giles. The tall, greying former land commissioner, now under conviction on 12 charges, has one more indictment pending against him. It charges him with conspiracy to commit theft of $85,500 in state funds. Maximum penalty on that charge would be five years. Giles, 55, remained free on bond after giving notice of appeal. His attorney, Clint Small Sr., said all 12 sentences have been appealed so the sentences would start on the same date if affirmed. Giles' first conviction was in Austin on an accomplice to theft charge in the same Kinney County ranch transaction involved in yesterday's two and a half hour trial. To save time, the defense agreed that testimony given in that first trial would be substantially the same that they would give if called in the latest cases. One witness in that first trial, a veteran, testified he did not know he was listed as one of the purchasers in the block sale of the 10,000-acre Rosenow Ranch under the veterans land program. Giles, credited generally with originating the veterans land program, offered this advice Nov. 14, 1951, to Texas veterans: "Proceed carefully and sensibly with plans to buy land under the expanded program. Take a good look at it. Remember you will have to pay every dollar of it." Though Giles pleaded guilty, the state had to produce evidence to support its charge. Betts asked Giles if he understood the charge. "I guess so," Giles replied in a low voice. "You'll have to say yes or no." "Yes." "How do you plead?" "Guilty," said Giles.

Receiver Accused Of Letting Insurance Funds Depreciate

WACO (AP)—J. D. Wheeler, receiver of the defunct U.S. Trust and Guaranty Co., was accused yesterday by an attorney for creditors of having allowed a depreciation of $150,000 to $200,000 in the company's assets. John Bates wrote Judge Charles Betts in Austin, asserting the loss was caused by the recent action of the State Insurance Commission in putting the U.S. Insurance Co., a subsidiary of U.S. Trust, out of business. He said U.S. Insurance, worth $150,000 to $200,000, was proven solvent. Bates said Wheeler as receiver made no attempt to fight the order and have the U.S. Insurance Co. placed under a different management.

Cold Snap Holds Sway In Florida, Southeast Areas

By The Associated Press An unseasonable cold snap held a tight grip over Florida and other Southeast areas today with no indication of immediate relief. A storm center off the east coast of New Jersey was blamed for the cold weather. Northerly winds continued to feed colder air southward into the Gulf states. Snow was reported on the ground at Knoxville, Tenn. The chilly air draining into the Southeastern states kept temperatures far below seasonal normals all yesterday with readings in the 40s and 50s in Florida, the Carolinas, Louisiana, Georgia and Alabama.

SOME COMPLY, SOME DON'T ICC Segregation Ban Takes Effect

By The Associated Press An order by the Interstate Commerce Commission to end segregation on railroad and bus facilities in waiting rooms became effective yesterday. Some Southern officials began at once to comply with the order. Others voiced strong opposition. In Louisiana, Gov. Robert F. Kennon gave orders for continued segregation of white persons and Negroes on public carriers within the state's borders. Steps were also taken in Mississippi for continued enforcement of segregation laws in rail and bus stations. Signs separating the races remained posted in rail and bus stations at Jackson, Gulfport and Greenwood. Police stood by to enforce segregation measures at the Illinois Central rail station at Jackson, if necessary. Mayor A. S. Scott of Laurel, Miss., said the city will erect new signs at train and bus stations if the carriers remove those already up. Segregation will continue, he declared. Signs denoting segregated facilities in railroad stations at Montgomery, Ala., came down yesterday but Police Commissioner Clyde Sellers promised nevertheless to enforce state and city segregation laws. W. P. Glover, trainmaster of the Louisville and Nashville line at Montgomery, said the L&N plans to comply with the ICC rule. At Birmingham, Ala., the waiting room for Negroes at the terminal station was marked "colored Intra state Passenger Waiting Room." The room reserved for white passengers before the ICC order now is marked by a sign reading simply: "Waiting Room." L&N employees at Birmingham had been instructed to remove all signs designating white and Negro waiting rooms at Alabama terminals. Drivers for the Southeastern Greyhound Bus Line were told by company officials that "intra-state passengers may be courteously requested to comply with the law" but that nothing further be done if a passenger declines to do so. Agents of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad were directed to remove all "Colored" and "White" signs in passenger cars. The line serves six Southern states. No incidents were reported when segregation signs were removed at white facilities in Atlanta and Savannah, Ga. Three other rail lines serving the South—the Frisco, the Rock Island and the Missouri Pacific—took different tacks. An official for the Frisco said at Little Rock, Ark., that the line was removing "white" signs in rooms formerly reserved only for white passengers. The Missouri Pacific said waiting room signs may be done away with entirely. The Rock Island said separate waiting rooms would be continued but that the Rock Island doesn't intend to police them.

$50 Million Aid For India Okayed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Foreign Aid Director John B. Hollister has approved 50 million dollars in economic aid for India, thus reversing his move to cut such assistance by 10 million dollars. The International Cooperation Administration did not directly announce restoration of the cut but merely said yesterday that the full 50 millions voted by Congress would be allocated. Secretary of State Dulles is understood to have ordered reinstatement of the aid. John Sherman Cooper, U. S. ambassador to India, reportedly had protested such a cut would undermine U. S. prestige in that country.

Uncle Ray:
Abraxas Stones
Served As Charms

By RAMON COFFMAN An old, and queer word is "abracadabra" (pronounced AB-rub-cub-DAB-rub). We seldom hear anyone use it nowadays, but it used to be important. The word has been traced back to the Latin language, and from the Latin to Aramaic. The early meaning was "Disappearing!" It was a kind of order to disease, or the evil spirit which was said to cause disease, to leave the body and let the person alone. The word was placed on amulets or charms which were worn around the neck by various persons. There was a strong belief that a charm would save a person from illness. If he put it around his neck after he felt sick, the magic word was supposed to cure him. Someone learned that AB-RACADABRA could be made into a kind of pyramid with 11 lines or levels. As given today, the pyramid is upside down. At the top is the complete word. On the second line, the last letter is left out. The third line has the last two letters missing. That goes on until only "A" is left at the bottom. When we study the upsidedown pyramid, we find nothing but the letter "A" at the left edge. Only the letter "B" is on the next diagonal line. This strange word seems to have grown from the name of an ancient god, ABRAXAS. Little is known about the origin of this god, but he was an object of prayer to Greek residents of Alexandria 18 centuries ago. The name Abraxas was cut on small stones, and these were hung around the necks of those who believed in the god. Sometimes a stone had an image of the god on one side. The cult of Abraxas passed away, but thousands of persons kept alive the idea that the magic word, Abracadabra, could save people from illness. This idea was expressed in Europe during the Middle Ages. For GENERAL INTEREST section of your scrapbook. MYSTERY FARM

Hard Work, Experimentation Profitable For M. H. Ulmer

Last week's Mystery Farm was that of M. H. Ulmer, but there's no mystery about why it is one of the most versatile and productive farms in the county. The reason is M. H. Ulmer.

Back in 1947, Ulmer was chosen as the outstanding conservation farmer of the Martin-Howard County Soil Conservation District. He still believes in treating his land tenderly.

Another thing Ulmer believes in is work — plenty of it. In addition to the 320 acres he owns, he works about 700 rented acres . . . all of it in cultivation. Except for labor for hoeing and harvesting, Ulmer does all the work himself. Occasionally he does break over and use a hired hand for a few days during a rush season. Interestingly enough, his operation is the case of a pair of 4-row tractors being required for one man.

Still another peculiarity of Ulmer's is that he is one of the decreasing tribe who believes in raising what you need to eat on the farm. He and Mrs. Ulmer have two freezers full of stored food, and several hundred jars and cans of fruit and vegetables in their basement.

Born in Sulphur Springs, Ulmer moved to Stamford with his parents when he was a lad of 7. After 20 years there, he moved to Howard County 30 years ago, buying a small place just north of where he purchased his 320-acre farm 20 years ago. The tract is 16 miles north and slightly west of Big Spring. For many years he operated 1,144 acres. One of the first things he did was to build terraces when the late P. O. Griffin, county agent, began preaching the doctrine of holding water where it fell. He's been building terraces ever since and has more than 30 miles of them on the place.

"I've built every terrace the

Evidence Points To Nationalists In Chinese Air Crash

LONDON (AP)—The Colonial Office announced today it had evidence Chinese Nationalists bribed a cleaner at the Hong Kong airport to time-bomb the Indian plane which crashed last year with a party of Chinese Communists bound for the Bandung conference.

A Colonial Office statement said the cleaner, Chow Tse Ming, stowed away to Formosa five weeks after the crash. It explained that Nationalist officials had refused repeatedly to extradite him for trial on a charge of conspiracy to murder.

"Despite intensive and continuing investigation it has not yet proved possible to bring charges against any other persons who participated in the crime," the statement said.

The Air India plane collected the Red party at Hong Kong April 11. It crashed in the South China Sea after an explosion while approaching Indonesia. Fifteen persons, including Chinese Red officials and Communist newsmen, were killed.

The Peiping government accused the Nationalists and the United States of sabotaging the plane, and British authorities in Hong Kong of ignoring a Red Chinese warning. The United States denied the charge, and the British said all possible precautions were taken.

The Colonial Office said investigators learned after Chow fled May 15 on a plane for Formosa that he admitted complicity in the crash on four separate occasions. The statement added that he had had hundreds of dollars beyond his normal means and also told of being promised a reward of 600,000 Hong Kong dollars ($84,500).

Port Houston Fire Damage Estimated At $3 Million

HOUSTON (AP)—The worst fire in the 40-year history of Port Houston burned a 1,080-foot pier and a 12,500-ton drydock yesterday and caused an estimated three million dollars damage.

The burning drydock broke from its mooring and floated out into the channel and threatened the Houston Channel ship traffic.

A three-hour fight by firemen from nine cities and the Coast Guard finally brought the pier blaze under control. The drydock burned itself out about an hour later.

Child Bureau Enters Utah Polygamy Fuss

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — State child welfare officials are returning to the courts in efforts to make a Short Creek, Utah, couple either give up their children or sign affidavits saying they won't teach them to practice polygamy.

A party of welfare workers, led by Lamar Andrus, went into the isolated Utah-Arizona border town yesterday to take custody of the eight children of Leonard and Vera Black. They gave up the attempt when townspeople barred their way.

Last night, Director John Farr Larson of the state's Bureau of Services for Children, said he was instructing Andrus, a child welfare consultant, to:

1. Secure complaints against the people who barred the way, charging them with "interfering with an officer in performance of duty."
2. Ask Cedar City, Utah, juvenile court to start contempt proceedings against the Blacks.

Utah's attempt to take custody of the Black children started after Arizona raided the settlement in July 1953 and jailed several townsmen in efforts to stamp out the practice of plural marriage there. The Blacks live on the Utah side of Short Creek.

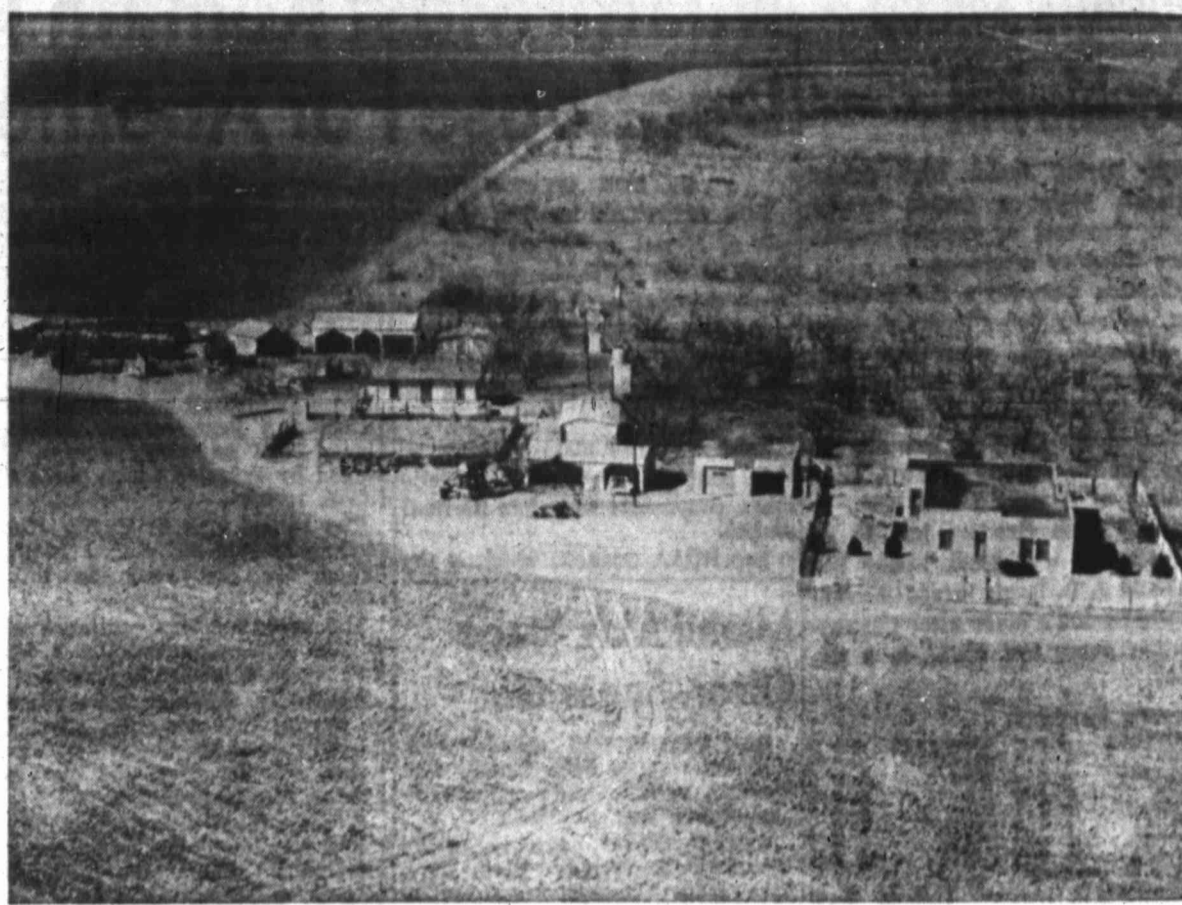

Many residents of the hamlet are "fundamentalists" who believe that plural marriage is the law of God. Though they insist this is the true doctrine of the Latter-Day Saints (Mormon) Church, the church outlawed polygamy in 1890 and excommunicates members who won't observe the ban.

When Andrus entered Short Creek armed with the court order, Mrs. Black read from a statement:

"Why should I be required to sign an unconstitutional loyalty pledge or any oath of any kind in order to keep the children I have honorably borne unless all mothers in our state be required to sign an oath?"

Andrus and his party left Short Creek without the children after several men blocked the doorway leading to the room in the Black home where the youngsters were waiting.

Walter L. Budge, assistant state attorney general, said testimony at previous custody hearings indicates Leonard Black had been married to two other women and had fathered a total of 24 children.

U. S. Missionaries Believed Victims Of Wild Amazon Tribe

QUITO, Ecuador (AP) — Planes combed the Amazon jungle today for five Protestant U.S. missionaries believed seized by savage Indians. Air Force reports of a body lying near their plane's stripped skeleton aroused fear for their lives.

A U. S. Army helicopter was dispatched from the Canal Zone today to take part with Air Force planes in the hunt for the men, missing in a remote jungle region of northeastern Ecuador.

The five men flew their small Piper Cub into the bush area last week to do mission work among primitive tribesmen. They were identified as Nat Saint, Huntington Valley, Pa., a Philadelphia suburb; Edward McCully, Milwaukee; Peter Fleming, Seattle, Wash.; James Elliot, Portland, Ore., and Roger Youderian, Billings, Mont.

The Air Force joined the search after another flying missionary, John Keenan, made a reconnaissance flight over the area and reported seeing the stripped Piper Cub. He said he saw no sign of the missionaries but spotted several Indian canoes heading down the river.

Keenan made his investigation after the mission party radioed it had encountered a group of Indians, then broke radio contact.

Soon after the hunt began, a Quito radio station relayed a message from a U. S. search plane that it had sighted the Piper Cub—stripped of its fabric—and alongside it a body pierced with an Indian lance.

However, Air Force headquarters in the Canal Zone said its report from the search pilot placed the body about 300 or 400 yards from the plane and made no mention of a lance.

The Air Force emphasized that this report made no identification of the body, either as that of a white man or an Indian.

The mission party set up its base about a week ago at Shell Mera, an oil company headquarters. Saint first flew McCully and Youderian to the jungle clearing, then returned to Shell Mera, where his wife had remained to receive communications from the party.

On Saturday, McCully and Youderian reported friendly contact with the Aucas Indians. Saint took off again Sunday with Elliot and Fleming.

The last message: "Here come a group of Aucas whom we have not known before."

The Aucas, described as the least civilized of Ecuador's Indian tribes, have rarely been seen by white men.

All five men have been in mission work in South America from 3 to 10 years. All were married and had their families with them. Saint has a 10-month-old daughter, Youderian two children, Elliot a 1-year-old daughter and McCully two small sons. The Flemings have no children.

Youderian was a member of the Gospel Missionary Union and the others of an organization named Christian Missions in Many Lands.

Union, Company Officials Resume Negotiations Today

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Spurred by federal mediators and a plea from the mayors of 16 affected cities, union and company officials resume negotiations today in the three-month-old Westinghouse Electric Corp. strike.

Concerned over a deadlock which has closed 40 plants across the nation since mid-October, the city officials met with both sides in Pittsburgh yesterday.

After separate parleys, they issued a statement strongly recommending continued negotiations "starting tomorrow and carried around the clock without interruption or recess in order to arrive at a final settlement."

Further, they asked for an "interim arrangement" by which some 54,000 striking employees could return to work pending the final agreement.

To this both sides issued replies praising that portion of the statement which each had supported in the past.

The company said it was in favor of the return to work proposal and a union spokesman endorsed the uninterrupted negotiations suggestion.

The mayors expressed their "grave concern about this dispute, and its effects on the company, the employees, our communities and the nation as a whole," but said they "could not and should not (consider) the relative merits of either side's position."

At its last session here, the CIO-AFL International Union of Electrical Workers agreed to a federal mediator's proposal that a three-man board be set up to consider the issues in dispute with the understanding the recommendations would not be binding.

The union added that if Westinghouse would agree to a binding set of proposals — in effect, arbitration — it would ask its membership to return to work under the present contract, "modified" by the subsequent findings of the board.

The company declined the proposal even without arbitration and suggested instead that the mediation service conduct a secret poll of the union membership on whether they would accept a company-proposed five-year contract.

The IUE, representing 44,000 strikers, rejected this proposal.

Ten of the struck plants are manned by members of the Independent Electrical Workers, which also was represented at yesterday's session in Pittsburgh.

The IUE organization director, James Matties, announced his union committee also would meet with Westinghouse officials here today.

It was not determined immediately whether a joint session of representatives of both unions, the company and the mediator was planned. Similar points are in dispute in the separate strikes.

The company told the group yesterday the "bedrock issue" is the length of proposed new contracts.

The company says its offer of a five-year pact provides a total increase of 23 1/2 cents an hour and other benefits equal to the contract IUE signed with the General Electric Co., Westinghouse's chief competitor. Only because of this competition, the company said, it offered what it termed a very liberal five-year contract.

The strikes were called with another year to run on current two-year contracts when demands for a 15-cent-hourly wage hike were refused by management. Also in dispute was the time study plan. The pre-strike average wage was $2.10 an hour.

Yank Troupe Takes Moscow

MOSCOW (AP) — The "Porgy and Bess" company has added Moscow to its long list of conquests.

An overflow audience wept, cheered and applauded for 8 1/2 minutes after the final curtain of last night's opening performance in the Soviet capital.

The touring American Negro Company had won the same reception in a Leningrad engagement which began Dec. 26. They will play six more nights in Moscow, the first American opera presentation since before the 1917 Bolshevik Revolution.

Although most couldn't understand the dialogue of the George Gershwin-Dubose Heyward opera, Gershwin's music and the colorful production were a smash hit. As the lights went up at the end, many of the audience had tear-stained faces.

Pensioner Once Was Millionaire

CHICAGO (AP) — An 88-year-old pensioner who died Sunday in a North Side hotel room has been identified as a onetime Chicago millionaire.

The man was Ellsworth B. Over-shiner, who 40 years ago was president of two independent telephone companies and a stockholder in several other Chicago firms.

Deputy Coroner Alex Loeffler said a friend estimated Over-shiner once was worth about 1 1/2 million dollars. He said he lost his wealth through bad mining investments.

El Paso Gas Buys New Mexico Plants

EL PASO (AP) — A 20 million dollar expansion program and the purchase of two New Mexico refineries was announced yesterday by the El Paso Natural Gas Co.

Building plans call for two gas treating plants and a 240-mile pipeline to bring raw materials to El Paso from the Permian Basin where the company has a large production of natural gasoline, butane and propane.

The two refineries near Prewitt and at Bloomfield were bought from the Malco Refineries of Roswell.

We've said it before, and we'll say it again:
If you can afford any new car, you can afford a Buick — and the sales figures make the proof of that stronger and stronger.

Just ask yourself: which cars would normally be in the top 3 of America's best sellers? The well-known smaller cars — naturally.

But which cars are in that Big 3? Two of the well-known smaller cars, and Buick — for over two years running now.

That means Buick prices are well within reach of more and more people — thanks primarily to the budget-tagged Buick SPECIAL, like the one pictured above.

And that's the whole point of the matter.

For this low-priced Buick SPECIAL — so close in cost to the smaller cars — is so much more automobile for the money, it's the stand-out buy of its field.

It's the biggest of the Big 3 in power, thrill, in comfort, in size and breadth and luxury and sheer roadability.

It's the biggest of the Big 3 in the solidity and softness of its all-coil-spring ride — in the sweep of its styling — and in the pure thrill of its performance.

For where else but in Buick can you get the nimble getaway, the gas-saving mileage, the electrifying switch-pitch action and the absolute smoothness of the new Variable Pitch Dynaflo?*

Come in to see and drive the biggest bundle of high-powered beauty and energy ever offered in Buick's lowest-priced Series.

It's proud we certainly are to be able to offer so much car for the money — but nothing to how proud you'll be when you boss a new SPECIAL. Can you come in tomorrow?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century — optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Cost Of Bowl Would Run To $97,000, Board Told

Essentials of a bowl-type stadium seating 10,000 people could be built for around $60,000, the Big Spring Independent School District trustees were told Tuesday evening.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Now that he's been selected on every all-state team published so far, Big Spring's Jerry Graves' next objective is to play in the North-South All-Star game at Lubbock in August.

Duke Ellington, Garland coach, heads the committee to name the North squad, with which Jerry would play. It would be hard for any committee to ignore Graves, now that he has fared so famously in the post-season polls.

Jerry, along with Lowell Baker, Garland end, lacked only one vote of being unanimous choice for the AAA All-State team chosen by the Texas Sports Writers Association.

Probably the dissenting vote for Graves came from the Texarkana area, where the committeemen were fighting a hopeless battle in trying to get Dan Petty on the team but wanted to make sure that the Texarkana boy landed on the second club.

Graves was one of three boys named to the first team chosen by the sports writers whose teams failed to get out of their own districts. The other two were Clifford Grubbs, Harlandale back; and Charles McKenzie, Grand Prairie tackle.

Ears Whitworth is probably glad he moved from Oklahoma A&M to Alabama as head football coach but his predecessors could have picked an easier schedule for him.

Of the Tide's ten opponents, four wound up in bowl games. The Tide lost to Auburn, bound for the Gator Bowl, 26-0; Vanderbilt, which conquered Auburn at Jacksonville, 21-6; Georgia Tech, the Sugar Bowl champion, 26-2; and TCU, Cotton Bowl entry, 21-0.

Scotter Hughes, the former Midland shortstop, will probably play for some Southwestern League team next summer. He has been offered for sale by Abilene.

A District 1-AAA basketball jinx that has more than a few observers perplexed is the one retained by Sweetwater over Plainview. Plainview appears to have as much height and far more speed than the Mustangs but can't keep up with Bill Savage's team. Sweetwater felled the Bulldogs in the HSU Tournament and again in conference play last week.

Plainview coach Bob Clindaniel has been asking other 1-AAA mentors how to cope with the Ponies.

When Breckenridge was demoted to Class AA football last year, more than a few sports writers around the state expressed sympathy with the other schools in that division over having to compete against the likes of the Buckies.

The general sentiment was that, if the AAAA and AAA schools couldn't wrestle successfully with the problem, the AA teams didn't stand a chance.

The task didn't awe Gordon Wood and the Stamford Bulldogs, however. They and not Breckenridge are occupying the throne. It all goes to show that the good AA teams are capable of playing with the so-called schoolboy titans, week in and week out, year in and year out.

One of the most improved basketball players in the HCJC camp is Jim Blasingame, the 6-foot-4 freshman from Mineola.

Jim is handicapped by the fact that he has to wear glasses but of late he's been mixing it up under the baskets and more than holding his own in the scrap to control the backboards.

Blasingame came here from Mineola but he was ineligible there last year, due to the fact that he moved from Alexandria, La., the previous year. At Alexandria, he was captain of his high school team.

LOBOS OUTLAST STEERS, 75-68

LEVELLAND (SD) — Levelland waged war in the second period and held on to defeat the Big Spring Steers, 75-68, in an exciting District 1-AAA basketball game played here Tuesday night.

The Longhorns made a game of it throughout. The issue was probably swung when Jesse Suderth three times stole the ball from Big Springers and went in for successful crisp shots.

Big Spring trailed only by one point at the end of the initial period but the Lobos outdistanced the visitors, 20-10, in the second period.

Charles Johnson paced Big Spring in scoring with 21 points. Larry Corbin led the home club with 24, all but two of which he sunk from the field.

Levelland also won the B game, 66-60. Big Spring's reserves played their best game of the season but fell behind after losing three players on fouls.

The Steers take a recess from District 1-AAA play this weekend to compete in the Odessa Tournament.

Rizzuto To Doff His Spectacles

NEW YORK (AP) — No more glasses for the Scooter.

"No, sir," said little Phil Rizzuto today. "I visited my eye doctor yesterday and he told me that my eyes were stronger than at any time in recent years."

The veteran New York Yankee shortstop, who probably will look like a collegian when he is 77, said his sight was even better than normal.

"Therefore," he added, "I don't need them, not even for reading. So I won't wear them in spring training."

Rizzuto, who is 37 and the oldest Yank of them all, was strictly a part-time operator last season when he donned the specs. It was an unusual sight to watch him dig into the dirt for a grounder with the glasses exposed.

After having his eyes examined, he breezed into the Yank office and signed his 1956 contract, the first member of the American League champions to come to terms.

The figures weren't announced, but estimates ranged from $25,000 to $30,000. He took a healthy cut, he admitted, and there was some dickering with General Manager George Weiss.

Juniors Sweep Double Bill

Big Spring Junior High School quintets swept a double header from Crockett of Odessa cagers here Tuesday afternoon.

Charles Caraway's Ninth Graders, with Jo Bob Clendenin doing a standout job, won their first game of the season by registering a 45-42 success.

The Ninth Graders led all the way but the visitors made a close contest of it with a late rush.

The Eighth Graders had to go overtime to win, 33-29. Bobby Evans and J. B. Davis turned the tide in Big Spring's favor after the regulation game had ended in a tie, 27-27.

Other additions such as press box, dressing rooms, concession stands, ticket booths, public toilets, fences, etc., could run the estimated cost to as much as $97,000. He thought his figures might be long on the margin of safety.

Water from the Birdwell detention reservoir, would be diverted around the east slopes of such a stadium, and the 12-inch discharge line through the dam would be carried under the stadium.

Thompson said that he thought present and potential parking space would be adequate. He also thought Eighth and Owens streets might be extended into the area to offer quick traffic outlets.

Board members took no action but asked Thompson to file a formal report.

Previously, they had indicated that extensive rebuilding would have to be effected on the present stadium or a new one provided since Big Spring has been reclassified in AAAA football with Odessa, San Angelo, Midland and Abilene.

Miami Must Remain In NCAA Doghouse For Another Year

By BOB MYERS
LOS ANGELES (AP)—The University of Miami in Florida must remain in the doghouse for another year, the matter of football television must be settled and a lively fight involving small college basketball and track meets is in prospect.

That was the picture today as the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. convention went into its final stages.

The NCAA Council, which is the powerful policy directing body of the organization, last night extended the probation of Miami for one year.

The probation, second most stringent punishment in the books, keeps Miami ineligible for all NCAA championship events and participation in such invitational affairs as football bowl games, the Drake and Penn relays, and the Sugar Bowl midwinter games, all staged by agencies which abide by NCAA rulings.

The school was originally cited in October 1954 and placed on probation for one year on three counts.

The probation was continued until this convention pending a further study of affairs in Miami.

Originally, Miami was accused of paying transportation costs to the campus of prospective athletes, trying out the prospects and excessive use of grants in aid.

A subsequent examination by a representative of the committee on infractions brought the allegation of rule violations involving a loan fund for medical students and athletes, known as the Eaton Foundation.

Also suspect was a matter of outside financial aid rendered to two unidentified athletes during the period of probation.

The NCAA in its business session today was expected to ratify the council's action.

Up for action too was a recommendation that television controls be continued in 1956, patterned after the 1955 program.

This consisted of eight national and five regional telecasts.

The expected controversy over the small college tournament activity centered on the proposal that the NCAA stage an annual basketball and track and field meet restricted to this class of school.

The issue was whether this proposal would wreck the already established National Intercollegiate Athletic Assn., which has been conducting meets for five years.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—After talking to Doak Walker, Matty Bell, SMU athletic director, said last night there still was a chance the All-America halfback might return to the Dallas school as backfield coach.

Bell and Walker talked at length yesterday.

"We are going to talk it over more with Doak when we get back to Dallas next week," Bell said.

"There is a chance that we might work something out on a part-time coaching basis."

Walker, former star for the Pro Detroit Lions, is in town for the last game of his career, the Pro Bowl, Sunday.

Colorado City Edges Stamford Five, 60-54

COLORADO CITY — Colorado City edged the Stamford Bulldogs Tuesday night in the conference opener for each team, 60-54. The Wolves jumped to an early lead and held a 9-point margin as the first quarter ended, and apparently were headed for an easy win.

In the second quarter, the Bulldogs tightened their defenses holding the Wolves to 2 points — both on free throws, and taking a half-time lead of 25 to 18.

The third quarter and most of the fourth were nip and tuck affairs with the lead changing hands three times and the score tied three. After the half, the Wolves began to find the target, and with Jim Hock, Billy Simmons, Jim Richardson and Frank Mackey contributing the Wolves began to pull abreast. Simmons put the Wolves back in the lead with a shot from under the basket 30 to 29. Richardson added two on free throws, Charles Stenholm netted a two pointer for Stamford; Don Black brought the Wolves to 33 on a free throw and Rick Giles counted for Stamford to make it 33 all.

Simmons broke it up with a long one for a 35-33 lead and Truman Childress promptly knotted the count with a shot from midcourt. Simmons got two points with his short jump shot and Saunders sank another long one to tie it up. A hook shot by Hock and a free throw by Saunders, gave the Wolves a 39 to 38 lead at the three-quarter mark. Saunders, who was sinking a long push shot with remarkable success, pulled the Bulldogs ahead briefly, but Simmons set the Wolves in front with his specialty — a jump shot at the basket.

Fouls called on the Bulldogs began to hurt as Richardson counted 7 to 8 attempts from the free throw line in the final quarter. Simmons scored 11 points in the fourth for his biggest quarter, and the combination gave the Wolves their initial win in AAA.

Simmons was the game's high pointer with 27 and Saunders' 19 led the Bulldogs.

Stamford won the B game 56 to 39. Larry Ivy netted 22 points for the Bulldogs and Coy Dillard 11 for the Cee City B string.

Radford Heads Home After Inspection Trip
TOKYO (AP)—Adm. Arthur W. Radford headed homeward today after a worldwide inspection of U.S. and Allied military strength.

Told of a news report from Europe that the NATO commander, Gen. Alfred Greuther, would soon replace him as Joint Chiefs of Staff chairman, the admiral said: "I'll be very glad to turn over the job to him."

Radford will return by plane to the United States by way of Hawaii.

Former CAA Head Defended By Solon

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Monroney (D-Okla.) said today Frederick B. Lee has effectively answered what he called "planted stories" that Lee dragged his feet on needed improvements in the nation's airways system.

The senator is chairman of a Commerce subcommittee on aviation which has been probing Lee's firing as head of the Civil Aeronautics Administration.

Monroney said in an interview the testimony also makes clear the need for an independent CAA. The agency now is under the Commerce Department.

But Sen. Payne (R-Maine), a subcommittee member, said in a separate interview he believed the investigation had shown there was "nothing illegal" about the firing.

"I have the greatest respect for Fred Lee," said the Maine Republican. "But the head of a Cabinet department is entitled to have administrators work for him in whom he has confidence and with whom he gets along. That is what is involved here. These clashes have happened under Democrats and Republicans."

Lee has testified that Secretary of Commerce Weeks and Undersecretary Louis Rothschild repeatedly asked for his resignation before he sent it to President Eisenhower last month. It was quickly accepted.

Lee testified yesterday he felt the need to improve navigational facilities along the nation's airways system had become critical last fall, and that he pushed for a 250-million-dollar, five-year improvement program worked out by CAA experts.

The situation had become critical, he told the senators, because of low appropriations over a number of years, a big increase in plane flights, both military and civilian and the advent of jet planes.

But Lee testified that after the big program had been prepared, Rothschild called him on the carpet, cited the large increase in proposed spending, and told him it

Baptist Urges Prayer For Rain

FORT WORTH (AP)—A Texas Baptist official has urged that Feb. 11 be set aside as a day of prayer for rain.

The request came from Dr. Forrest Feozor of Dallas, executive secretary of the Baptist General Convention of Texas. He spoke at the statewide Baptist Evangelistic Conference attended by 3,100 yesterday.

"I believe God has brought this drought on us to turn our attention to Him and when we have learned what He wants us to know, then He will break the drought," Dr. Feozor said.

He urged that Baptists go "two by two to the churches and pray, with the entire church joining in the prayers the next day, Sunday."

He said Dallas, paying a company to augment its rainfall, "ought to ask God for rain."

"While I do not criticize them for doing so (hiring a rain increasing company), I believe they should see the futility of it and try something else."

The reason he set such a later date, he said, was that "I don't think we should rush into such a matter but should prepare ourselves for it."

Dr. Feozor cited from the books of Haggai, Jeremiah and Second Chronicles to show God punished his people by refusing to send rains.

Widow Wins $32,000 In TV Quiz On Charles Dickens

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Mabel Morris, a 74-year-old London-born widow who receives support from the Welfare Department, came through with answers to a complex question about Charles Dickens last night and won $32,000 on a television quiz show.

She will get a chance to double her money next week when she returns to CBS' "The $64,000 Question," or she may elect to stop with $32,000. If she misses the next question she will get a Cadillac.

Mrs. Morris was asked to identify where in Dickens' works certain events of his own life were reflected. Without hesitation she gave this information:

A family with which Dickens lived while his father was in Marshalsea Prison was the model for the Garlands in "The Old Curiosity Shop."

Like Dickens, his character Martin Chuzzlewit visited America.

Dickens' pet raven was named Grip and appeared in the novel "Barnaby Rudge."

Dickens' father's advice about living within one's income was later repeated by Mr. Micawber in "David Copperfield."

The benevolent brothers, Ned and Charles Cherrible in "Nicholas Nickleby" were modeled after two merchants, William and Daniel Grant, whom Dickens met in Manchester.

A schoolteacher for many years, Mrs. Morris now lives in a home for aged and infirm Hebrews. She has said she will use $7,000 of any winnings to repay the city for money it spent on her in the past several years.

Fair Skies For Texas

Fair skies and little change in temperatures were forecast for Texas for at least the next two days.

The Weather Bureau said there was no possibility for rain soon. Farm experts say if Texas does not get moisture soon, the state may be in for severe dust storms.

About two-thirds of the state reported freezing temperatures or below Wednesday morning. Junction had the lowest, 20 degrees.

Lubbock and Dalhart had 21, Wichita Falls 22, Abilene 23, San Angelo 25, Dallas and Amarillo 28, Texarkana 29, Fort Worth 30, Del Rio 32, El Paso 36, Houston 38, San Antonio 41 and Corpus Christi 44.

2 Agents Convicted Of Contempt After Courtroom Arrest

ARDMORE, Okla. (AP)—Dist. Judge John Caldwell found two state Bureau of Investigation agents guilty of direct contempt yesterday in their arrest of City Commissioner Joe Taylor in his courtroom Saturday.

The judge only reprimanded Hubert Bartlett and Golden Kennedy. The officers arrested Taylor, 51, and jailed him in neighboring Garvin County, where he is charged on six burglary counts in connection with his alleged masterminding of a series of Oklahoma and Texas burglaries.

Bartlett and Kennedy said they arrested Taylor under the impression that his habeas corpus hearing before Caldwell had been adjourned. The judge said the hearing was only in recess when the agents arrested Taylor and took him to jail in Pauls Valley.

Taylor still is in jail at Pauls Valley in default on $10,000 bonds. Garvin County Atty. Raymond Burger said if he makes bond he will be turned over to Lincoln County authorities at Chandler, where he faces two other burglary charges. Also pending against Taylor are 17 burglary charges in Wichita Falls.

Taylor's attorneys filed a request for a writ of habeas corpus before the Criminal Court of Appeals in Oklahoma City. They asked for a formal order from the court for reduction of Taylor's bond to "a reasonable amount," and filed a mandamus action against Garvin County Sheriff Claude Swinney, seeking to force him to produce all warrants.

Taylor has denied the charges, asserting they are part of a "political smear."

10 Oil Firms Face Suit By Midlander

EL PASO (AP)—Ten major oil producers have been ordered to trial in a $372,000 anti-trust suit brought by a Midland wholesale oil distributor.

R. B. Baker charges the concern entered into a conspiracy to force him out of business through a price war in August 1954.

The case probably will be heard in May. Defendants are Humble Oil, Standard Oil of Texas, Magnolia, Sinclair, Continental, Texas Co., Couden, Shell, Phillips and Gulf.
