Adlai Stumps L. A. Area In Demo Vote Bid

By The Associated Press

Adlai Stevenson stumped the Los Angeles area today in his bid for the Democratic presidential nomination but Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee cut short his Western campaign trip to return to Washington for an important Senate vote.

Kefauver, who will oppose Stevenson in California's June 5 Democratic primary, flew back to the capital to vote against the controversial natural gas bill, up for a Senate decision today. A close vote is expected.

Stevenson, meanwhile, scheduled eight public appearances in the Los Angeles area.

A leading California Republican, Senate Minority Leader Knowland, said yesterday he doesn't think his party need fear any candidate the Democrats may name at their August convention.

Knowland said in a television interview that he believes any "likely" GOP candidate will capture the presidency because "we have had a constructive record of accomplishment under the Eisenhower administration."

If President Eisenhower does not seek re-election, Knowland is expected to go after the nomination.

Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall drew some sparks from Harry Truman during the weekend, challenging the former President to show when or where Vice President Nixon ever called Truman a traitor.

Truman, Stevenson and Kefauver all made major political speeches Saturday night. Stevenson and Kefauver appeared on the same platform at Fresno, Calif., bidding for the support of delegates to the California Democratic Council convention. Convention rules precluded any endorsement.

The two candidates agreed that Democrats, in Kefauver's words, "cannot afford the luxury of an intraparty fight" which would injure the party's chances in November.

Truman addressed a Jefferson-Jackson dinner in Boston and described Eisenhower's recent proposals on matters of health, education and welfare as "somewhat more humane" than in the past.

"It may be," he said, "that this is just the kind of deathbed repentance that comes to them in an election year."

The California Democratic Council endorsed Sen. Richard Richards for the U.S. Senate seat now held by Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, a Republican. The council, whose endorsements are advisory only, voted 1,480-127 for Richards over former Rep. Samuel W. Yorty, who lost to Kuchel in 1954.

Yorty denounced it as a "rigged" victory for a big city clique and announced he will run in the June 5 primary anyway.

Kefauver winning California Negro support, is claim

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver is winning California Negro support away from Adlai Stevenson, two Negro leaders said last night.

The Negro leaders said they were "very satisfied" and "tremendously impressed" with Kefauver following a meeting with him after the California Democratic Council sessions in Fresno. Both candidates addressed the meeting Saturday.

Commissioners May Interview Engineer

County commissioners this morning requested a legal opinion on whether they can pay expenses for a New Jersey engineer to come to Big Spring for an interview concerning the position of county engineer.

Where's The Car, Daddy?

WARMUP BEGINS

Sun Smiles Over Frozen Panhandle

By The Associated Press

The sun broke through over Plainview Monday morning ending at least temporarily the icy ordeal clamped on the Texas Panhandle and South Plains by the state's worst snowstorm in half a century.

Plainview was the hardest hit of Panhandle cities by the mammoth blizzard that began last Wednesday and rose to a roaring climax Friday night and Saturday.

Although some accumulated snow was expected to melt away Monday with a predicted maximum of 40 degrees in Plainview, the local forecast said there was a possibility of light snow again Tuesday.

Business streets were being cleared in Plainview early Monday but most residential streets were still impassable.

Lubbock, Amarillo and a score of smaller cities also were virtually paralyzed Sunday by the accumulated snow. Milk and bread trucks managed to break through to Otton, the first deliveries since Friday.

A Hale County farm woman died in childbirth because an ambulance could not reach her.

The Panhandle-South Plains storm climaxed a blizzard that swept into the state last mid-week, covering most of the state with an ice and snow cap, and resulting in the death of at least 20 persons.

Moderating weather in Central North and East Texas over the weekend erased the last vestiges of the storm but the northwest part of the state remained encased in snow and ice.

Minimum temperatures Monday ranged from 4 at Lubbock to 49 at Galveston. Dalkart had 15, San Angelo 25, Midland 23, Dallas 31, Wichita Falls 21, Houston 36, San Antonio 30, Beaumont 41, Lufkin 30 and Texarkana 35.

Huge drifts that in places blocked more than six feet still blocked many highways and still left two small communities, Dimmitt and County Line, isolated.

Builders and other road grading equipment were pressed into service to clear highways and streets. The Lubbock-Plainview highway was reported passable late Sunday but permission of the Highway Patrol was necessary to make the trip.

City bus systems in Plainview, Amarillo and Lubbock ceased operation Friday afternoon when the snowstorm reached blizzard proportions. Taxicabs suspended in Plainview. Virtually all schools in the Panhandle and South Plains closed the latter part of the week.

At Otton the bread and milk supply became critically short. A milk truck from Plainview and a bread truck from Lubbock reached the Lamb County town Sunday but hungry citizens who greeted them quickly took their supply.

Mrs. Norberto Perez died in childbirth on a farm four miles from Plainview as an ambulance sought the deeply-plunged snow in a futile attempt to reach her.

The ambulance, which had to go in a round-about way, required two and a half hours to reach the farm house.

In Amarillo, John Barron dropped dead while trying to free his car stuck in the snow. Alan Beene, an Amarillo grocer, died of a heart attack from shoveling snow.

Near Claude and Clarendon, Tex., Fort Worth and Denver Railway trains stopped along the highway Saturday night to pick up stranded motorists and bus passengers.

The U.S. Weather Bureau in Chicago said today that the storm front, or what remained of it, seemed to be headed northeastward.

The Texas-New Mexico area "should have a respite" from the storm with above-freezing temperatures bringing about a general thawing-out, the bureau said.

Elsewhere in the nation, fair weather prevailed today except for an area of precipitation stretching from eastern Kansas in a southeasterly direction to the Gulf and Atlantic coasts.

Light snow fell in Kansas, Nevada and Utah.

Wayne White, Coahoma FFA Leader, Dies

Wayne T. White, popular young vocational agriculture teacher at Coahoma, died unexpectedly Sunday morning in a hospital here.

Mr. White, 25 and a native of Howard County, had entered the hospital Saturday and died about 5:30 a.m. Sunday of a heart disease.

Funeral services will be conducted at the First Baptist Church in Coahoma at 2 p.m. Tuesday, and interment will be in the Coahoma Cemetery.

Officiating will be Rev. Mark Reeves, pastor of the church, and he will be assisted by Rev. L. W. Tucker, pastor of the Coahoma Methodist Church. Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home is handling arrangements.

Born in Big Spring Jan. 13, 1931, Mr. White attended and was graduated from Coahoma High School. He attended Sul Ross State and received his bachelor's degree from Sam Houston State College at Huntsville.

Wayne was well-known throughout this area, both as a 4-H Club livestock exhibitor and as leader of the Coahoma FFA chapter. He showed the grand champion steer at the Abilene Fat Stock Show in Abilene in 1948, at San Angelo's show in 1949 and won several other livestock show awards at the time the Howard County 4-H Club was starting its fabulous record of winning practically every major title in the country.

Three years ago he returned to Coahoma to teach vocational agriculture. At the time of his death, he was serving as secretary and treasurer of the recently organized Coahoma Lions Club.

Mr. White was married to the former Martha Hill of San Antonio in April of 1951. Mrs. White is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Austin E. Hill now of Houston.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Martha White; two sons, Tommy and David; and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph White, all of Coahoma.

Pallbearers will be Ed Seay, Clovis Phinney Jr., Fred Salling, W. L. Fishback, G. W. Walker, Paul Sheedy, Clint Vaughn, and Ray Echols.

Ex-Treasury Aide Dies At U.S. Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Randolph E. Paul, a high-ranking Treasury official under Franklin D. Roosevelt, collapsed and died today at a Capitol hearing.

Dr. James L. Keating, a Capitol Hill physician, pronounced Paul dead 20 minutes after he slumped forward against a table in the hearing room.

Dr. Keating said that on the basis of past history, he was probably "a victim of a coronary attack."

Paul's wife was with him in the hearing room. She rushed to his side when he collapsed and began ministering to him. Doctors were summoned at once.

The 65-year-old Paul slumped forward, his head hitting the table before him, while he was being questioned by Rep. Mills (D-Ark.), a member of the Senate House Committee on the Economic Report.

Senate In Wrangle On Gas Bill Probe

Attorney Denies Money Intended As Vote Bribe

LEXINGTON, Neb. (AP)—Lexington attorney John M. Neff said today he assumes he is the man referred to by Sen. Case (R-SD) as the source of a $2,500 campaign fund.

Neff, 47, denied the money was intended to influence a vote for the controversial natural gas bill.

He said he raised the money "as a campaign contribution without any strings attached."

Neff made public a copy of a telegram to Case, Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson of Texas, and Minority Leader William Knowland of California.

"I was incensed to learn that you mentioned this matter to the Senate floor without divulging the name and with the implication and inference that it was some kind of a shady deal," it said.

The Omaha World-Herald, which first reported Neff's telegram, quoted him as saying that he would defer any answer in connection with when he had natural gas interests until questioned by the FBI or Senate investigators. He gave a similar answer to where he obtained the $2,500.

In the telegram, he described himself as favoring passage of the Harris bill exempting producers of natural gas from direct regulation by the Federal Power Commission.

Neff, who described himself as a "conservative Republican," said he telegraphed Sen. Case Saturday that he "was amazed and shocked at the news released in the papers, on the radio and TV concerning your speech in the Senate."

"I assume I am 'the man' you referred to, since I delivered a contribution to your campaign fund several weeks ago."

Sen. Case told the Senate Friday he had rejected a $2,500 campaign contribution from an out-of-state lawyer who "was not an opponent of the bill." He said he had been disposed before to vote for the bill but now planned to vote against it.

Senate leaders promptly announced plans for a formal probe to see whether federal law had been violated.

The natural gas bill, the Harris measure, would exempt producer prices of natural gas from district federal controls.

Embalmer Aide Held In Slaying

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—An apprentice embalmer faces charges today of following a 7-year-old boy to a movie theater, restroom and stab him to death.

He is Thomas Lynn Johnston, 24, whom Police Capt. Michael Strazzo quoted as saying he jabbed a pocket knife blade into the throat of Ronald Wendorf "just to see what he would do."

Petition Supports Gas Bill

Sen. William Fullbright (D-Ark.), author of the natural gas bill before the Senate, checks over a long petition bearing more than 200,000 signatures which urges passage of the bill to exempt natural gas producers from direct federal price control. The petition, almost a mile long, was delivered in Washington by William Jackman, right, president of Investors League, Inc.

AIRMAN'S WIFE

Officer Delivers Baby Over Pacific

HONOLULU (AP)—An Air Force doctor says he relied on "backwoods obstetrics" and scissors to deliver a premature baby in a military plane 11,000 feet over the Pacific.

Mrs. John Garnett and her 4-pound, 10-ounce daughter were "doing fine" today at the Army Tripler General Hospital here.

Mrs. Garnett, wife of an airman from San Antonio, Tex., started the 700-mile flight from Johnston Island to Honolulu when she developed premature labor pains. There is no incubator on Johnston, where her husband is stationed.

Lt. Col. John A. Norcross, Silver Spring, Md., who happened to be aboard, said the mother "was in labor seven hours but had no trouble at all. It was her third child. I did more worrying than anyone else."

"It was strictly backwoods obstetrics. The baby was a seven-month baby and the problem was keeping it alive. It looked awfully blue and couldn't breathe by itself. I gave it artificial respiration all the way."

The doctor held the child for the last 35 minutes of the trip and crewmen rigged a an incubator around his hands with a curtain, an oxygen mask and a thermos of hot coffee.

Maj. John Caulfield of Yonkers, N.Y., the pilot, turned on all the plane's heat, which resulted in a lot of perspiration for the adults.

This was the second birth over the Pacific in less than three weeks. On Jan. 20, a Pan American Airways Clipper bound for Honolulu turned back to San Francisco as Mrs. Robert Henderson of Nashville, N.C., gave birth to a girl two months prematurely.

Applications for additional cotton acreage in Howard County will be held here Feb. 27.

Gabe Hammack, director of the Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation office, reported the committee would hear the 96 requests that day at 10 a.m.

Johnson Urges Investigation Of Money Offer

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate wrangled bitterly today over a proposed investigation as to whether a proffered $2,500 campaign contribution to Sen. Case (R-SD) was an attempt to influence his vote on the gas bill.

It was not immediately clear whether this would delay a scheduled vote late today on the bill. The measure would exempt natural gas producers from direct federal price regulation.

There were efforts to broaden the proposed inquiry to include all attempts on both sides to influence votes, and differences as to who should do the investigating.

Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex) asked creation of a special committee of two Democrats and two Republicans — to be appointed by the vice president — to make an inquiry limited to the Case incident. He had backing from GOP Leader Knowland (Calif.).

Johnson asked unanimous consent for his plan, but Sen. Langer (R-ND) objected.

Langer said the Senate Privileges and Elections subcommittee had authority to conduct hearings. He is a member of that group.

Chairman Hennings (D-Mo) of the Privileges and Elections subcommittee tried to get Johnson to agree to broaden the inquiry to cover all attempts to influence votes.

Johnson declined to agree. Confronted with Langer's objection, Johnson said he would renew his request for consideration of his investigating resolution after the Senate acted on the gas bill. It would not require unanimous consent at that time.

Hennings, an opponent of the bill, argued that the inquiry should cover "all alleged and improper influences" whether in the form of political contributions or other expenditures.

Johnson said he had no objection to Hennings' proposal but did not want it tied "like a cow-catcher" to his own. If Hennings offered it as a separate proposal, Johnson said he would not object to it and thought no other senator would.

Sen. Thye (R-Minn), who opposes the bill, said he agreed with Johnson on this point. Hennings' proposal "goes too far afield," Thye said.

Case, in a Senate speech, named John M. Neff, a Lexington, Neb., lawyer, as the man he contends offered the money. Case read to the Senate a telegram from Neff denying that any attempt to influence Case was involved.

In his speech today Case replied to what he said were remarks by Democratic Leader Johnson implying "that in some way the timing" of his disclosure of the incident last Friday "was a part of an effort to defeat" the gas bill.

"The timing," Case said, "was not under my control, but he added that this was not the appropriate time or place to explain why it was not."

Col. Charles M. Young, wing commander at Webb AFB, Monday gave 29 members of class 56-II good reason for their being jet pilots.

Young Airmen Told Why They're Pilots

Speaking to the graduating class at the base chapel, Col. Young told them that they stood between Communist leaders and their aims of world domination.

"Either we must do something to change the minds of the men leading Communism," he declared, "or we shall be the subject of hydrogen bomb attack."

United States and Allied strength is the only real deterrent, he said, and Lt. Robert F. Abbott was recognized by Col. John L. Webber, commander of the 3560th Pilot Training Group as the graduate with the highest academic standing in his class.

Col. Webber told the young pilots that in the words of an old instructor "When you don't learn something every time you go into the air, it is time to hang up your flying togs."

The Choraleers, under direction of Lt. Charles Webb, sang two selections a capella. Members of the class, their families and friends were honored at a reception given by the Officers' Wives Club immediately after the ceremonies.

"You have been called to the service of your country because there is a small clique of men who have as their aim the conquest of the world," Col. Young told the new pilots.

The philosophy of Communism is purely materialistic, non-religious, state supreme, and designed to imbue its servants and leaders with a "burning hatred" of all agencies and governments to the contrary.

Communist leaders are convinced that history has destined them for world domination, he said. The only reason they maintain diplomatic relations is to spy.

So thoroughly patterned after the military is the party organization, continued Col. Young, that were its chart to be laid along side that of an army, it would be almost a duplicate down to the squad (cell). It has its hard core of regulars, reserves and "draftees." It is a fanaticism that places no value on human life. It is immoral and unnormal.

Despite the iron grip of Russian leadership on the people, Russia is still capable of great progress, warned Col. Young. Four years after a ranking U. S. officer predicted Russia would never have the A-bomb, she exploded one. Four years later she had produced a hydrogen device. Today Russia is capable of delivering a hydrogen blast anywhere in the world. She

9 Persons Hurt In Bus Accident

HUNTINGTON, Ind. (AP)—Nine persons were hurt in a Greyhound bus that skidded down an icy hill and hit a tree south of Huntington this morning.

Most seriously injured were the driver, Glen C. Lannom, 41, Indianapolis, and Mrs. Ruth E. Spriggs, 46, Detroit. Both were reported in fair condition in Huntington County Hospital.

Youth Authority Locks Himself Up

CLEVELAND (AP)—A British authority on juvenile delinquency accidentally locked himself in his hotel room last night.

However, that didn't stop Sir Basil Henriques, former chairman of the East London Juvenile Court, from giving an interview. His voice carried over the hotel transom.

"In England we do not lock up juvenile delinquents," he said.

Principal W. M. Romans also has accepted a new contract. The Romans pact is for two years.

Winner Of $100,000 TV Prize Returns To School

NEW YORK (AP)—As he would on any other school day, 14-year-old George L. Wright III returns to the classroom today even though he won $100,000 over the weekend.

The young ukulele player, who won television's biggest quiz prize Saturday night, planned to leave St. Agnes High School a little early, however, for a business conference at the Chase Manhattan Bank.

There he and his lawyer, together with producers of The Big Surprise TV show, will discuss terms of the trust fund to be set up with George's TV winnings.

The government will get the biggest slice of the $100,000. Federal and state income taxes are expected to whittle George's net winnings down to about $25,000.

The freckle-faced youngster also has other decisions to make besides how to handle his money. Shee winning the prize, and even before, he has been sought by television, movies, recording companies and the theater.

He missed the first time but got another chance the following week when a "rescuer" in the audience knew the answer to another question and thereby reinstated him.

He got a third chance last Saturday because a question that he missed the week before was judged to have been unfair. He finally won the $100,000 by correctly identifying a song as "Me and My Shadow" and singing a chorus of it.

Four Die In Smashup

A truck driven by Clyde Acray, 25, New Braunfels, hit this parked Colorado State Patrol car near Hugo, Colo., killing Patrolman Melvin Phillips, 28, and Floyd Gresham, 23, both of Limon, Colo., and Acray and James R. Harmon, 30, of Crane, Mo. The impact jammed the patrol cruiser, in which Harmon and the two patrolmen were sitting, into Harmon's parked truck.

OVER RED AREAS

Russians Protest Yankee Balloons

MOSCOW (AP)—Russia charges that U. S. military forces are dispatching fleets of huge balloons carrying automatic cameras and radio equipment over Soviet territory from West Germany and other border nations.

(In Washington, a State Department spokesman indicated the Russians apparently were objecting to high-altitude weather balloons the U. S. Air Force announced last month it would send up in Europe in preparation for the International Geophysical Year.)

A Soviet note published by the official news agency Tass demanded that the United States immediately stop such activity. It said the balloons were a menace to aircraft.

It demanded a halt also to propaganda-carrying balloons by private U. S. organizations.

Tass said the Soviet protest was handed to U. S. Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen by Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko. A similar protest went to Turkey.

The Soviet note complained that the balloons, weighing nearly three-quarters of a ton when loaded, "are launched by United States military organs from the territory of Western Germany and from United States air bases on the territory of several states bordering on the Soviet Union."

"The apparatus suspended from the aerial spheres includes automatic photographic cameras for aerial photography, radio transmitters, radio receivers and other things," the note said. "Investigation shows these spheres and the suspended apparatus are manufactured in the United States."

The protest charged that the activity is "a gross violation of Soviet air space . . . contrary to obligations assumed by the U. S. government in accordance with the U.N. Charter and incompatible with normal relations between states."

The note was the first Soviet ac-

Polar Rescue Teams Awaiting Clear Weather

By SAUL PETT ABOARD U.S.S. ARNEB, in Ross Sea, Antarctica (AP)—The command of Operation Deepfreeze hoped today for clear weather to throw all available aircraft into a search for a Navy plane missing with seven men aboard.

Two ground search parties crossed the ice yesterday between the Little America V base and a trail post 400 miles eastward from which the missing craft took off. But they found no trace of the missing men.

The plane, a de Havilland Otter, was flying Friday from Marie Byrd Land to Little America with some members of a trail-blazing party whose vehicles had broken down. It made its last voice radio contact 67 minutes after takeoff. An SOS signal believed from the plane was heard Saturday.

Bad weather hampered an air survey. Twice an Otter has attempted to reach the area where the plane was believed down, but both times it was forced to turn back.

The trail party left Little America in mid-January to mark off a route to the proposed site for an observatory 650 miles away. But the breakdown of their tracked vehicles stopped them 250 miles short of their goal.

Russians Reported Ahead In Missiles

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Symington (D-Mo) says the Russians "have fired test missiles hundreds of miles farther than anything this country has ever tested."

He did not give figures for either country but he said, during an NBC-TV interview, that "there is no question in my mind whatsoever that the Russians are ahead of the United States in developing intercontinental ballistic missiles. This country hopes to develop such a weapon with a 5,000-mile range."

The U. S. Air Force prior to this year had used its huge "Moby Dick" weather balloons only in the United States. Its January announcement said the program was being expanded to other areas in the Northern Hemisphere, including Europe, Alaska and Hawaii.

The giant plastic balloons carry weather instruments, cameras and equipment registering cosmic rays and other data which is radioed automatically to ground stations.

The Air Force said such information would be of great use in the 1957-58 Geophysical Year. Then two score nations including Russia will join in gathering a vast amount of information about weather, terrestrial magnetism, earthquakes and other geophysical data.

The apparatus suspended from the aerial spheres includes automatic photographic cameras for aerial photography, radio transmitters, radio receivers and other things," the note said. "Investigation shows these spheres and the suspended apparatus are manufactured in the United States."

The protest charged that the activity is "a gross violation of Soviet air space . . . contrary to obligations assumed by the U. S. government in accordance with the U.N. Charter and incompatible with normal relations between states."

Algiers In Bad Mood As Mollet Arrives

ALGIERS, Algeria (AP)—Premier Guy Mollet landed here today to confront a metropolis massed in ugly opposition to his policies for settling the Algerian Nationalist rebellion.

Most shops closed in protest. One tobacco shopkeeper who remained open was threatened by an angry crowd of French residents. Police dispersed the crowd and the shopowner decided to close.

Special police lined the Rue Michelet, which runs from downtown Algiers toward the governor general's official residence. Other police lined the Rue d'Italie, main shopping street leading to the war memorial. Mollet was due to lay a wreath on the memorial this afternoon.

Angry French settlers who oppose any concessions to the Nationalists threatened bloodshed if Mollet carried out his intent to bring Gen. Georges Catroux here as resident Cabinet minister. Catroux is known to favor more rights for the North African territory's native Moslems.

Although no personal attacks on Mollet were expected, some 3,000 Foreign Legionnaires and 2,000 riot police with armored vehicles encircled the tense city. Strong military guards were planned for Mollet.

Tension increased over the weekend as French war veterans led European crowds through the streets of Algiers and other major cities demonstrating against any softening toward the Nationalist terrorists.

The rebels, who have kept 200,000 French troops tied up, were expected to continue their pressure during Mollet's visit to underscore their autonomy demands. Mollet has promised quick elections to pick Algerian leaders to negotiate with France on a measure of self-rule.

Before taking off from Paris to tackle the main problem facing his six-day-old government, Mollet said he would stay in Algeria "three weeks if necessary" to quiet the 15-month Moslem rebellion.

"I will do my best to avoid all bloodshed," he said. Most of the eight million Algerian Moslems are clamoring for independence. But the million Europeans, mostly French, want to retain Algeria under French rule.

Many Algerian French view the 79-year-old Catroux as a "liquidator" of France's former Empire. He is held at least partly responsible for successive French loss of Syria and Indochina. He is also blamed for playing a major role in bringing exiled Sultan Mohammed ben Youssef back to Morocco.

Present plans call for Catroux to arrive here Friday. Mollet will spend the intervening days trying to keep things quiet before seeing him officially installed.

Ladejinsky Out Of Job Again On 'Interest' Charge

WASHINGTON (AP)—Wolf Ladejinsky has lost a second overseas job with the U. S. government, this time on a "conflict of interest" charge.

Ladejinsky is the Russian-born land-use expert whom Secretary of Agriculture Benson discharged in December 1954 on security and technical grounds. He then was agricultural attache in Tokyo. After a lengthy dispute, he was cleared and hired for a foreign aid job in Viet Nam.

The International Cooperation Administration announced it had asked and accepted his resignation from the post. It said he had purchased $3,000 worth of stock in a Chinese glass factory receiving U. S. aid.

In Saigon, Ladejinsky said he acted "unwittingly, but that, I know, is no excuse." He said he didn't know the company was receiving U. S. aid, he said he had since sold the stock at a profit of $790, and "I thought that was the end of the matter."

Crooks Find More Danger In Dope Trade, Report Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Cabinet committee says the underworld is finding the drug traffic "increasingly hazardous . . . though still supposedly profitable."

To help stamp out the traffic and the crime it breeds, the committee recommended a series of actions, including stiffer prison sentences, more federal narcotics agents and increased control over manufactured drugs.

The report, released last night by the White House, was prepared for the President by the Treasury, State, Defense, Health and Justice departments. Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey, who has general supervision over the Narcotics Bureau, was chairman of the Cabinet committee.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

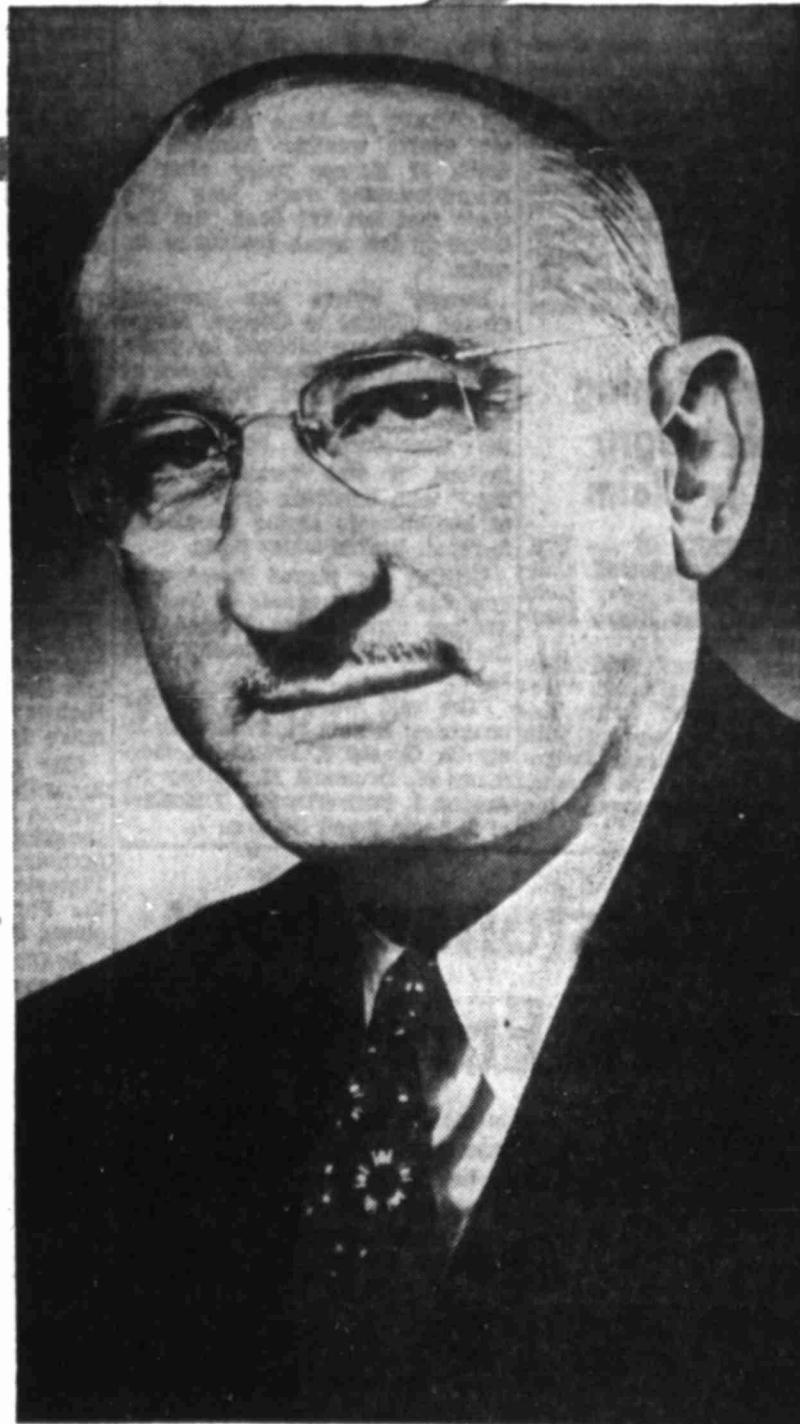

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

PART OF YOUR PRESENT INCOME SHOULD GO INTO U. S. SAVINGS BONDS!

By Mr. Fred S. Florence President, Republic National Bank Dallas, Texas, and President, American Bankers Association

Most of us Americans are earning more now than ever before. But when money comes easy, we have a tendency to let it go just as easily. If we're wise, we'll be sure and save part of every paycheck and invest it for our own future benefit.

Here are three good reasons why U. S. Series E Savings Bonds make a good foundation stone for any investment program.

- You're sure of your principal in Savings Bonds. It isn't subject to market fluctuations.
You're sure of your returns in Savings Bonds. Your Government guarantees you an average interest of 3% per year, compounded semiannually, when your Bonds are held to maturity.
You're sure of the future when you invest regularly in Savings Bonds. There's nothing like the feeling of security that a backlog of at least 6 months' living expenses in safe, sure U. S. Savings Bonds will bring you.

I sincerely recommend to every one of my fellow citizens that he talk with his banker or investment counselor about making U. S. Savings Bonds a part of his investment program.

If you want your interest as current income, ask your banker about Series H Bonds that pay interest semiannually by Treasury check. They earn an average 3% when held to maturity.

For the big things in your life, be ready with U. S. Savings Bonds

Wife, 3 Children Shot To Death

GARDINER, N.Y. (AP)—A rural housewife and her three children were found shot to death in their home and authorities sought today to establish a motive for the apparent triple slaying and suicide.

Robert Tattersall discovered the bodies of his wife Alma, 28, and children Robert Jr., 3; Alma, 5; and Veronica, 8.

Ulster County Dist. Atty. Howard St. John said Mrs. Tattersall apparently called the children into the living room one by one yesterday and shot them in the head before turning the gun on herself.

The district attorney's office said Mrs. Tattersall had no history of mental illness and her husband said she had given no indication of despondency.

An assistant district attorney radioed that he reported that the Tattersalls appeared to be a happy family.

Mrs. Tattersall's body was found in a bedroom of the family's frame bungalow. She lay on a 22-caliber rifle, owned by her husband.

The children's bodies were found in the living room. They lay face down, side by side on the floor.

Tattersall, 34, a town street department employe, reported finding the bodies when he returned from work about 1 p.m. He said he had left the house about 5 a.m.

Comedian Robbed

Union To Consider Westinghouse Plan

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Leaders of the AFL-CIO International Union of Electrical Workers gathered today to decide whether to accept a government proposal designed to pave the way for settlement of the 113-day-old Westinghouse Electric Corp. strike.

The proposal calls for both sides to temporarily set aside a dispute over whether the company has the right to make efficiency studies of certain workers' jobs. Negotiations on other issues would continue.

Joseph Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, submitted the plan and Westinghouse accepted yesterday.

Some 44,000 IUE members are on strike at 30 Westinghouse plants.

Finnegan described the efficiency or time study issue as the "focal point" of the negotiations and said the question "has become so obscured by the tensions and bitterness engendered by this protracted work stoppage that I do not believe that it can be successfully resolved at this time by normal collective bargaining procedures."

With the time study issue set aside, Finnegan proposed that negotiations continue on other disputes. These include wages, arbitration proceedings, length of contract and strike-settlement terms.

Finnegan said that when these other issues are settled the strikers would return to work and the negotiators would resume their discussion of the time study issue under a moratorium of 90 days.

Sixty days after the start of the moratorium, the company and union would report to Finnegan any progress on unresolved issues in the time study dispute.

Finnegan said he then will recommend that both sides "voluntarily" submit any unresolved aspects of the dispute to "fact-finding" or other appropriate procedure.

New State Banking Bill Is Predicted

DALLAS (AP)—The vice-president of the Texas Bankers Assn. said yesterday a bill to place firms advertising for deposits under the supervision of the state banking commission will be offered at the next Legislature.

"The bill will probably pass," Joe Clarke, vice-president of the Fort Worth National Bank, said. Clarke said the U.S. Trust & Guaranty Co. of Waco, which has been placed in receivership is "an excellent example" of the kind of firms that should be controlled by the banking commission.

Laredo Man Lost 64 Pounds With Barcentrate

"I have used 9 bottles of Barcentrate in 3 months and lost 64 pounds in weight and 13 inches in my waist line, but I still take Barcentrate for regularity and pep," signed Raymond S. Thompson, 2125 Ash Street, Laredo, Texas, —and Mrs. M. C. Parker, Route 2, Mesquite, Texas, says she lost 16 pounds taking Barcentrate.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the way to take off ugly fat, return the empty bottle for your money back. Get Barcentrate from any Texas druggist.

Dependable Transportation

A man plods through heavy snow on an Amarillo street after continued snowfall for several days left some 10 inches on the ground. Many stores in the city and all schools were closed. Most public transportation in the area was stalled with practically all roads in the Panhandle and South Plains section of the state closed from the heavy fall. Some motorists were rescued from stalled cars in the area.

ONLY 13 FATALITIES

Storm Helps Reduce Weekend Highway Death Toll In Texas

By The Associated Press

Ice and snow, which was blamed for a number of violent deaths when the mid-week blizzard struck Texas, apparently helped reduce the number of traffic fatalities over the weekend in the state.

No traffic fatalities were reported in snow-bound West Texas through Sunday as the violent death toll mounted to at least 13. Traffic mishaps accounted for seven of the deaths, fire and explosion four, suffocation one and suicide one.

The violent deaths do not include deaths due to heart attacks or failure to obtain medical aid as result of the ice and snow.

Three persons were killed Sunday when two cars collided head-on 4 miles east of Willis Point. Dead were Zedic B. McAdams, 68, Dallas; De Laine Scarborough, 46, Texas. Susan Giza Johnson, about 30, and a baby, Iris, one month old died in a San Antonio fire Sunday. The child was a State Welfare Bureau child that had been placed in the home.

Annabelle Gramley, 46, was killed Saturday night when the car in which she was riding was struck by a freight train at San Antonio. William Roy Hicks, 40, was killed Saturday in a collision of his automobile and a passenger train in Queen City.

A verdict of suicide was returned in the shotgun death Saturday of Harry S. Pedigo, 83, retired Brownwood farmer.

J. C. Harrison, 52, Dallas, was fatally injured Saturday night after he was hit by a car and knocked into the path of another vehicle in Dallas.

Alejandro Flores Jr., 3, son of Mrs. Maria Flores, burned to death in an apartment fire at San Antonio Friday night.

Troyce Samford, 16, was killed Sunday when the car in which he was riding overturned near Center.

A woman in Gordonville on the edge of Lake Texoma, Mrs. Eura Etta Smith, 59, was fatally injured Saturday when an explosion blew apart a tourist car building.

In Austin, a three-month-old boy, Roland Bolden, was accidentally suffocated early Sunday while sleeping.

Douglas Says Reds Eye Middle East

DALLAS (AP)—Communism is likely to spread next to "feudalistic countries" in the Middle East where poverty is great, Supreme Court Justice William Douglas said yesterday.

Douglas, speaking to the United Jewish Appeal, said the United States needs Israel in the ideological war against Communism.

Douglas described the Russians as "fine people as individuals" and said he believed Russia is anxious to have peaceful coexistence with the West.

Animal Lovers Blast Archbishop

LONDON (AP)—A group of animal lovers is sending the Archbishop of Canterbury today for ducking a chance to denounce fox hunting.

"Utterly unworthy of a leader of a Christian church," stormed the National Society for Abolition of Cruel Sports after receiving the Church of England prelate's reply to a letter asking his views.

The group recommended a 575-million-dollar fund for payment this year to farmers using less than their allotments of cotton, wheat, corn and rice and the binder tobacco grown in Connecticut and Wisconsin. Called an acreage reserve, this program would operate for four years.

The group recommended a 575-million-dollar fund for payment this year to farmers using less than their allotments of cotton, wheat, corn and rice and the binder tobacco grown in Connecticut and Wisconsin. Called an acreage reserve, this program would operate for four years.

Also approved in the omnibus measure were:

1. A special 250-million-dollar fund to be used in bolstering prices in pork, beef and other perishable farm products not eligible under regular price support programs. This would be in addition to several million dollars of customs receipts which can be used for similar purposes.
2. A trial of a two-price plan on rice under which cooperating growers would get a special payment on that part of their crop used for domestic food, with the remainder selling at world market prices.
3. A 2 1/4-billion-dollar "national security reserve" of cotton, wheat and corn that could be used only in time of war or special emergency. It would replace a similar "set aside" under which the crop surpluses could be disposed of gradually. The idea is to prevent price-depressing effects of the surpluses.

Alabama College Chiefs Head Off Racial Disorders

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP)—University of Alabama authorities promised steps today to head off further disorders resulting from presence of the first Negro student on its campus.

Dr. O. C. Carmichael, university president, revealed that disciplinary action is being considered against students responsible for two noisy demonstrations Friday and Saturday night.

Meanwhile, at New Orleans, the Board of Supervisors of Louisiana State University was considering ways to bar a flood of Negro enrollments. The group of deans and board members also took up the issue of LSU athletic teams playing teams with Negro players.

Lewis Gottlieb, a Baton Rouge banker and chairman of the group, said the board will meet Feb. 18 "with the deans of the colleges to discuss the possibilities of changing entrance requirements."

LSU in the past has admitted Negroes under federal court order.

Fifty crosses were burned and students sang "Dixie" and shouted "Keep Alabama white" during demonstrations here that lasted for several hours each night.

Atherline Lucy, 26-year-old Birmingham Negro, said she planned to continue classes in spite of the student protests.

She was admitted after a federal court ruled that the university could not deny Negroes admission because of their race. However, she has been denied use of college dormitory and restaurant facilities.

Dr. Carmichael said the school is taking steps "to avoid any further displays which might lead to disorder of any sort and of course to protect the welfare of all students committed to its 'the university' charge."

Powell Offers To Withdraw School Aid Bill Amendment

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr. (D-NY) says he has offered conditionally to withdraw from a federal school aid bill his amendment which would bar federal funds to states practicing classroom racial segregation.

He said yesterday he had messaged President Eisenhower that he would withdraw the amendment if the President would enforce the Supreme Court's ruling that racial segregation is unconstitutional.

Powell, a Negro congressman from Harlem, asked, "How can you morally or legally take federal funds and spend them for people who are disloyal to the basic precepts of our government?"

Powell's controversial amendment faces probable filibuster in the Senate and could mean the death of the entire school aid program.

He spoke on the locally televised Philadelphia Bulletin Forum where he debated with Rep. Fulton (R-Pa.).

Fulton said that "progress is being made and desegregation is moving." He said he wondered whether Powell's proposal to cut off federal aid to state's practicing segregation would not have the effect of lowering educational standards in the South for both Negroes and whites.

Powell answered that he agreed with the school aid program in general but asked if it were morally or legally right to spend federal money for persons practicing segregation in violation of the Supreme Court ruling.

He then disclosed his proposal to the President.

Hunt For Badman Nets A Tourist

DALLAS (AP)—An intensive hunt for Charles Renals, one of the men most wanted by the FBI, ended abruptly yesterday when a man thought to be Renals proved to be a tourist.

For more than five hours officers combed the East Texas area between Marshall and Dallas for a man answering Renals' description who was accompanied by a red-haired woman and driving a Tennessee car.

The car was finally stopped in Dallas but W. A. Murphy of the FBI said "He wasn't our man, just a traveler going through Dallas."

Asthma and Hay Fever Relief Comes in Minutes ... and Lasts For Hours

Tiny Tablet Now Available Without Prescription!

New York, N. Y. (Special)—Medical science has developed a new, tiny tablet that not only stops asthma spasms ... but brings relief to those who also suffer from hay fever attacks.

Authoritative tests have proved that this remarkable compound brings blessed relief in mere minutes—and gives hours of freedom from recurrence of painful spasms.

This fast-acting formula is prescribed by doctors for their private patients who suffer from both asthma and hay fever. And now sufferers can obtain this formula—without prescription—in tiny, easy-to-take tablets called Primatens.

New Primatens opens bronchial tubes, loosens mucous congestion, relieves taut nervous tension, helps dry up nasal passages.

All this without taking painful injections, and without the inconvenience of nebulizers.

The secret of Primatens is that it contains medicines found most effective in combination for those who suffer from asthma and hay fever distress.

Primatens is available at all drug stores. The price is only 98¢ for a bottle of twenty-four tablets. And remember—if not entirely satisfied, your money will be refunded promptly.

So look forward to sleep at night and freedom from anxiety by day. Get Primatens today!

1930 Hyperion Club Hears Book Review

"A Solo In Tom-Toms" was reviewed for the 1930 Hyperion Club by Mrs. Marie Carter Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Chester Barnes, Mrs. Morris Patterson was cohostess.

The book, an autobiography of Gene Fowler, tells of his quest for happiness and success, but most of all for his father, who left home before Fowler was born.

The author's grandmother characterized the boy as one "who would have been the first to follow the Pied Piper."

Mrs. Carter also reported on the recent meeting of the City Federation. She is club representative to the organization.

As is the custom of the club during this year, part of the program was based on happenings through the years. Clara Secret spoke on "Americanism Through The Years."

The club voted to send a sum of money to be applied on a gift for Mrs. J. S. Hendricks of Acala, outgoing president of District Eight.

Members accepted the resignation of Mrs. Vic Alexander, who has accepted a position as secretary of First Methodist Church. It was voted to enlarge the size of the club, not to exceed 30. Vacancies were filled. Miss Secret was elected corresponding secretary to take the place of Mrs. Alexander.

Mrs. Patterson reported on the work done at the Westside Recreation Center. A report was given from the executive board. The group will buy a record player and some albums for the Center. Mrs. Bill Griese, Mrs. Maurice Ko-

Vealmoor HD Has 'Kitchens' Program

A program on "Backgrounds for Kitchens" was given by Elizabeth Pace for the members of the Vealmoor Home Demonstration Club Friday when they met in the home of Mrs. Lucille Hicks.

Miss Pace told the group that the color scheme was the first thing to consider. She said to choose the floor and wall coverings that would give the best appearance and also have a nice appearance.

Roll call was answered with "Women In The News." Devotion from Luke 13:22-30 was given by the hostess.

Mrs. Porter Hanks was elected as nominee for a delegate to the District Home Demonstration meeting. Mrs. Bill Sims was welcomed as a guest. The special prize was won by Mrs. Raymond McFerran.

Ten were present. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Hanks.

Trial And Error

Pat Hitchcock believes in the trial and error method in everything—to find the right method for you. She finds this true of hairdos, cleaning routines and diets. Pat is the actress-daughter of Director Alfred Hitchcock and has appeared with her father on his CBS-TV series.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

She Manages To Keep That Youthful Look

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — Pat Hitchcock came to Hollywood as a child with her famous father and people who have known her for a long time find it hard to realize that "little Pat" is now a married woman with two children. Although she is 27, she looks like a girl in her teens and while most women would think this was wonderful, Pat sometimes finds it a nuisance.

"It used to irk me to be asked to show my identification in order to get a drink," Pat told me. "But I suppose as I get older I will be flattered."

"When I was in my teens I was terribly eager to be grown up and I used to spend hours dressing to look older. I've always looked younger than my years. But now I know that the emphasis doesn't have to be on how you look—it's how mature you feel that counts."

Pat has traveled back and forth a great deal between here and England with her father and she said she has noticed the difference in the effect of the two climates on her skin.

"Here in California I've had to give up soap and water as a cleanser. I remember how frightening I looked with my first permanent which turned out too tight. I became a slave to the bobby pin after that. Then when I planned to be married I decided I had to find a better solution because I certainly didn't want to have to wear pin curls on my honeymoon."

"How did you solve your problem?" I asked.

"With a home permanent—the pin curl type. I put my hair up in large curls and it turned out to be soft and natural looking."

When I first met Pat she was considerably overweight.

"It wasn't that I had such an enormous appetite but Dad liked to eat so our meals at home were always heavy. Of course he's cut down now and concentrates on low calorie menus, and since I've become a mother I've had no problem at all maintaining my figure."

I mentioned to Pat that I had caught several of her appearances on her father's show on CBS, "Alfred Hitchcock Presents," and she was very pleased. I asked her if working for her father made her nervous.

"No," she replied, "because I know he wouldn't use me unless he felt I was the right one for the part. I've wanted to be an actress for a long time and when I talked it over with father, he told me, 'If you want to be an actress, learn your craft. The more you bring to your job the more you will take away from it.'"

Waistlines Highlight Fashions For Spring

By NADEANE WALKER
PARIS, Feb. 6 (AP) — Waistlines made headlines in Paris spring fashion openings this week. They're high and handsome.

Nothing really revolutionary enough to wipe out entire wardrobes has come out of the current style season. Dior's "F" or "arrow" silhouette was top attention-getter, but this has become a habit with Dior.

Good news for the ladies was the reappearance of the fitted, small waist, which has too often been swaddled loosely of late. No doubt about it, the new 1956 fashions are more flattering than they have been for several seasons.

Off-white emerged as "the color" for spring, with popular support for the coral, pink and red range, watery and intense blues, navy, and green, with multicolor flower prints on white. Smooth wools almost crowded out tweeds, and chiffon-type gauzy materials were leaders for late day and formal wear.

Pin and chalk stripes, small pastel checks and polka dots were all very a la mode. So were pleats, buttons and a new short loose jacket something like a bolero and called a "canzou" or "caraco."

These are the obsolete French words for the combing jacket grandma used to wear while she pinned up her hair.

Henlines held the status quo — a decent few inches below the knee — and necklines, while generous enough in certain cases, were nothing to knock your eye out.

Jackets got shorter — some are just waist-length — and flat panels fluttered from many models. The cone-shaped flaring skirt was highly popular, but not to the exclusion of the sheath. Big bells blossomed out for cocktails, dinner and dancing. Embroideries were largely in multicolored delicate pastel flowers on white grounds.

Several designers played around with the empire or infantia waistline. Dior did it with a belt or horizontal pleat well above a small natural waist. Lanvin curves the waistline up in front and puts a bow trailing draperies over one side of the breast. Dresses gave the waistline a lifted effect by curving belts down behind and putting detail just under the bust.

Griffe went in for harem hemlines, gathered in like baggy Turkish trousers, and Magey Rouff, practically alone of all the designers, put in a few shapeless 1920ish sheaths.

Patou, opening the season, correctly forecast what was to follow with his normal silhouette, and a line that was curvy, neat and discreet. Hard on his heels Heim showed more small waistlines, sometimes with flat panels falling from just below the bust in front or shoulder blades behind.

Balmain's collection, another in the series he aptly calls "Pretty Lady," were as wearable and as unseasonal as usual. The cowl neckline, puffed out just in front, was his new obsession. Like a great many others, he liked wide corset belts of draped or pleated fabric to underline the high bust and emphasize a small, natural waist.

A Spanish, Goyasque influence dominated Lanvin's show, but he also stitched up some hooded capes and coats borrowed directly from the Arab's profusion.

Dior's "F" profile was a bit hard to follow, but the "arrow" described it better, with slanting width in the cut of the sleeves and bust. His dressy dresses were so full they looked like animated clouds.

Methodists Entertain With Teas

The members and their husbands of the Susannah Wesley Sunday School Class of the First Methodist Church were honored Sunday afternoon with a tea in the home of K. H. McGibbon, 108 Cedar Road. Mrs. Maud McGibbon was the hostess.

The hostess and Mrs. K. H. McGibbon greeted the guests at the door.

An arrangement of red and white carnations were centered on the serving table laid with a hand-painted tablecloth. Silver appointments were used to serve coffee, punch, sandwiches, cake, nuts and mints. Assisting in the serving were Mrs. N. McCleskey and Mrs. W. D. McDonald.

Decorations of flowers were throughout the house. Organ music during tea hours was furnished by Kenda McGibbon.

About 50 called during the afternoon.

Sgt. Harry Dorman Now Home On Leave

Garden City Coffee Raises MOD Money

GARDEN CITY — A coffee for the March of Dimes in Garden City raised $158 for the fund Friday morning. Over 50 guests called at the Presbyterian Church.

Hostesses included Mrs. Dick Mitchell, Mrs. Lorin McDowell, Mrs. J. W. Cox, Mrs. Steve Calverley and Mrs. John Cox.

The serving table was laid with a brown lined cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink carnations. Copper and brass appointments were used. Mrs. Mitchell presided at the coffee service.

Landslide Blocks Highway

Workmen try to clear tons of earth off U. S. Highway 101 north of Santa Monica, Calif., where a landslide completely blocked the six-lane highway up to a depth of 40 feet. Police said they had no evidence that any autos were trapped beneath the slide.

A&M EXPERT

Sunspot, Weather Relationship Noted

COLLEGE STATION (AP)—Texas A&M weather expert says there is a connection between sunspots and Texas weather—but the relationship varies according to where you live. "Sunspot activity which might mean more frequent low-pressure areas and rainy weather in one geographical area might easily mean high-pressure areas and fair weather in another—but the relationship is there," said Dr. Walter Saucier of the Department of Oceanography and Meteorology. "This is not a weather forecast," Saucier says, "but it might be interesting for persons interested in the weather to watch for a time—especially since sunspot activity is comparatively low just now and is expected to rise. We hit a peak of activity in 1947—the highest on record—and these peaks usually run on about an 11-year average. "Sunspots are deep whorls in the gaseous face of the sun. They're like the whirling actions of the flames seen in some large fires—or, more distantly, like the little whirlpools and eddies on the surface of a swollen stream. "They range in size from about 500 yards across to distances greater than the diameter of the earth.

Variety Of Items Reported Stolen

A car, a dog, a pair of seat covers, and some hub caps were reported stolen over the weekend. A 1949 Ford was reported stolen at the Emmet Hull Car Lot on East Third. The car was later returned, however. James N. Bowen, 1404 Austin, reported his dog was taken sometime Sunday. Raymond White reported the theft of three hub caps, the front seat covers, and about $85 in tools from his 1953 Plymouth.

Offset To Martin Discovery To Be Finaled Above Devonian

Pan American No. 1 Singleton, west offset to the No. 1 Shook Devonian discovery well in Martin County, is preparing to complete. Insurance Panel Okays Change In Shoemaker Firm

AUSTIN (AP)—The Insurance Commission approved today the new management of Southern Medical and Hospital Service of Waco, previously an A. B. Shoemaker concern. The action frees the company from direct commission supervision that has been imposed a month ago. Commission approval was based on two major changes in the company set-up: Election by the stockholders of officers who had no previous connection with the firm and revised policy of revenue split to give policy holders stronger protection and to reduce the amount allowed for management expense. New Officers include F. L. Downs, secretary-treasurer and general manager; Dr. Herbert Schwetman of the Baylor Physics Department. Both are Waco residents. Downs advised the commission that after Southern Medical pays off certain obligations in the receivership action against U. S. Trust and Guaranty Co., there will be about $50,000 left to transfer to Southern Medical's claims fund. The expense connected with demise of U. S. Trust is based on the fact that Southern Medical, as a subsidiary, shared offices with the parent firm. Commission Chairman Byron Saunders said one reason the commission was approving the new management was the disclosure that Downs had had previous management experience in the Texas Fire Insurance Co. of Waco from 1925 to 1927. "Is it your intention to operate in accordance with the law and to the best interest of policy?" "I see no reason it shouldn't be approved," he said. Fire Insurance Commissioner Mark Wenz said it appeared to him the company had "complied with the order of the court."

Lamesa Lions Plan New Club

LAMESA—Directors for the Lamesa Lions' Club have voted to sponsor an evening Lions' Club here which will be entirely separate from the present club. Tuesday night at 7:30, all men interested in being a member of an evening service club are asked to meet at the Caprock Room at Turner's Cafe for a dinner and discussion meeting. If possible, those intending to attend the meeting are asked to contact Tim O. Cook, president of the Lamesa Lions' Club, or R. A. (Skeet) Norret, chairman of the sponsoring committee. Purpose of the organization will be to give men who cannot attend the meetings an opportunity to belong to a service club. Attending the meeting tomorrow night will be special representatives from Lions International, including Lion Tom Kirkham, Southwestern State field representative, of Brownsville, and Dr. David Ellis, Midland, district director of public relations. Cook is to preside at the meeting.

Bald Calf's Coat Is Wearing Thin

BARBY, England (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Haddon have a somewhat unusual farming problem: How long does an overcoat last a winter? The calf in question, a bovine freak, was born completely hairless six weeks ago. A veterinarian predicted he would never survive the winter, but Mr. and Mrs. Haddon took a fancy to the little fellow and decided he must be saved. So they tailored a warm woollen overcoat. The calf—called Baldy, of course—is doing fine but the overcoat is beginning to get a little tight around the chest.

Small Shoe Found

A small girl's right shoe, black and for the right foot, is being held at the sheriff's office. The shoe, found on a downtown sidewalk was turned in during the weekend.

Auto Licenses Going Rapidly

Registration of cars for the coming year continued at a steady pace last week, as over 450 autos were licensed since Wednesday morning. Sale of the new 1956 tags started Wednesday morning, and approximately 450 of the tags were sold since then. They are on sale at the county tax office. The registration period will continue through March 31.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our deepest appreciation and thanks to all for the many expressions of sympathy given to us during our recent bereavement. The Family of B. S. Hubbard

Carlton Provides Cleaning, Repairs

"Don't you worry about your clothes. Let us worry about them."

Carlton's Edwards Heights Cleaners, 1905 Gregg, takes the responsibility to see that your clothes are given expert cleaning service. Travis and Emma Mae Carlton are careful to see that all minor rips and tears are repaired on your cleaning before you pick it up.

This is just one phase of their motto. Missing buttons are replaced too. The Carlton's Cleaners are your clothes' best friend. If you have some clothes that need alteration, the Carltons can handle that for you, too. An experienced tailor is on hand at all times to handle any alteration problems you may have.

Proper measurements are taken and your clothes are brought back to the right size at little inconvenience to you. And the cost is economical. Get your alterations done where the cleaning is done and your clothes will look the better for it.

Convenience might well be another motto at the Carlton Edwards Heights Cleaners. The office is open from 7 a. m. until 6:30 p. m. Almost 12 hours each day, except Sunday. Carlton is open to serve you.

also. Carlton is prepared to make your trip to the cleaners as convenient as possible. You can leave your laundry with Carlton too. He will see that it gets the same careful care as your cleaning and it will be returned to you at the same time. Hats, too, will be taken care of by Carlton. He will have them cleaned and blocked for you.

Carlton Edwards Heights Cleaners have a complete and experienced service to offer. Stop by at 1905 Gregg the next time you have clothes headed for the cleaner.

tax due on the above earnings, a dependent on his return since he contributed over half to the child's support. A child earning less than $600 who has had tax withheld should file a return so that the tax withheld may be refunded to him.

Children Must File Tax Returns On $600 Earnings

A child earning $600 or more within a year qualifies as a taxpayer and must file a return and pay any tax due. The Internal Revenue Service has announced.

This is true whether the parent claims the child as a dependent or not. Parents are responsible for the tax due from minors.

"Parents may claim the dependency deduction for a child earning $600 or more under certain conditions. The parent must furnish more than half the support of the child to qualify the child as a dependent.

The child must be under 19 years of age, or if 19 or over must meet the qualifications of a student. A student must attend a full-time school during at least five months of the calendar year. Such schools include only institutions with a regular faculty and student body and do not include correspondence schools, night schools and employer training schools.

"For example, a child 21 attending a college as a full-time student during 1955 and earned $720 which he used for school expenses. The father spent $850 for the child's support. The child is required to file an income tax return and pay the father can claim the child as

Jones And Jones Thorough In Servicing Customers' Autos

When your drive into Jones and Jones Service Station at the corner of 18th and Gregg and ask for a wash and grease job, you mean just that.

But when they get to work on your car, you get more than that for the same price.

The wash and grease job is just the beginning.

Jones and Jones has a complete line of lubrication equipment and plenty of room for washing. They are equipped with a rack for each, and the ceiling is high enough to handle pickups as well as cars.

Washing the car is just part of their service. First the car is carefully washed underneath so the lubrication job can be completed easier as well as faster and more completely. When the car has had a Jones and Jones wash job prior, there is no grit and dirt remaining to work its way into the grease fittings while they are greasing the undercarriage of the car.

All fittings are greased, too, and not just the ones within easy reach. Those out-of-the-way points take time and effort, but Jones and Jones' employees take that time and effort to do a good job.

Following the thorough washing and under greasing, the car is cleaned inside, and the seats and ceilings are vacuumed. No dirt is left when Jones and Jones gets through. Doors are greased, the motor is checked and chrome is shined to a high gloss.

In addition, when you jump in your car, the floorboard will have been cleaned and rubber black placed on the rubber mats. And those greasy finger prints which are commonly left are also removed. The employees at Jones and Jones are never in a hurry when it comes to giving your car the 'once over' but still the jobs are done in record time.

There is no wasted motion, but there is no part of your car that is overlooked.

Jones and Jones carries a complete line of Conoco products, and has oil filter cartridges if you wish an oil and filter change along with your wash and grease care.

Conoco's special 10W-30 oil is just the oil to fill your car with, for it is specially treated to work either in winter's worst blizzards or during the hottest days of summer.

So if you ask for a washing and greasing at Jones and Jones Conoco Service Station, you can expect more than that at the same price.

You can expect the 'works' and your car will certainly respond to the expert care given it at Jones and Jones—located at the corner of Gregg and 18th Streets.

and other gift items. In the sterling silver department, Lynn's has a wide assortment of patterns in Gorham, International, Lunt and Heirloom.

Syracuse china in all the modern patterns and styles also is available, along with a big assortment of patterns in Franciscan pottery.

Waits said the Lynn's store is maintaining its large stock of costume jewelry, one of the biggest assortments in this area. The newest creations of the industry are included.

Rounding out the variety of merchandise to be seen in Lynn's are crystal and milkglass items, both produced by Fostoria, one of the most widely-known names in the field. Among the Fostoria crystal patterns is the "Wisteria Rain" with a variable tint.

Waits invited Big Springers to make Lynn's their Valentine gift headquarters, as well as the shopping place for weddings, anniversaries, and other occasions.

Waits Manager Of Lynn Jewelry

Now manager of Lynn's Jewelry, 221 Main, is Clyde Waits, veteran Big Spring jeweler.

Waits took over management of the store shortly after closing out his own jewelry business here. He has been associated with the jewelry business here for a quarter of a century.

"We'll enjoy meeting all our old friends in Lynn's," Waits said this week. "We believe we're in a better position than ever to fill the jewelry and gift needs of residents throughout the area."

Waits succeeds J. T. Grantham as manager of Lynn's. Grantham has returned to his "first love," watch and jewelry repair. He is now in charge of the repair and service department of the jewelry store.

The new manager called attention to the complete stock of jewelry and gift items on display in the Lynn's store.

"We have a complete line of all the nationally advertised watches, in every price bracket," he said. Waits mentioned Bulova, Elgin, Gruen, Longines, Mido, Benrus and Rolex watches.

He said the store also has a full line of diamonds available in a wide variety of prices. Among these are the famous "Keepsake" diamonds.

Gifts for the bride may be inspected throughout the store. Mrs. R. L. Penney is serving as bride's consultant in china, silver, crystal

Magnates Could Place Ceiling On Salaries

By ORLO ROBERTSON
NEW YORK (AP)—Major league baseball club owners, harassed by player efforts to raise the minimum salary from $6,000 to $7,500, may retaliate by attempting to place a maximum on the amount of money a player can receive. Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick said "definitely not" when asked whether the club owners were considering maximum salaries, if forced to raise the minimum, and club owners declined to comment. But a high official (not a club owner) said "maximum" was the key word in the statement issued after a joint meeting of the American and National leagues Saturday.

The leagues reaffirmed the decision of last December in keeping the minimum salary at $6,000. But they approved the appointment of two three-man committees from each league to meet with the player representatives "to review the present league salary structure and ascertain whether the present minimum and unlimited maximum standards are equitable."

"I've definitely the owners had maximum salaries in mind when they made that statement," said the official, who asked that his name not be used. "It is only natural that if the owners are forced to raise the minimum that they'll look to save money by cutting down on the maximums. That's business."

The National League committee consists of John Galbreath of Pittsburgh, Dick Meyer of St. Louis and Joe Calkins of Milwaukee. The American League group includes Tom Yawkey of Boston, Walter (Spike) Briggs of Detroit and Hank Greenberg of Cleveland.

Nothing is expected to be resolved before the season opens in April. But Commissioner Frick said he expects the meetings to be "shortly after the season opening."

Bobby Feller of Cleveland and Robin Roberts of Philadelphia, league player representatives, said they were "gratified" that the owners had taken constructive action on their request.

Middlecoff Is Phoenix Champ

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Cary Middlecoff won the $15,000 Phoenix Open Golf Tournament and he thought a 10-foot putt he sank for a birdie on the first hole of the final round was the key shot.

The 35-year-old veteran might have added another stroke — the one from the tee that young Jim Blair III of Missouri put into a pond on the 15th. That broke a dead-even battle and cost the amateur sensation of the event a chance for victory.

Middlecoff went on to shoot a 68 for a 72-hole score of 276, eight under par. He had $2,400.

Blair came in with a 1-under-par 70 and a tie for third with Jimmy Demaret at 280. The man Middlecoff really feared, Big Mike Souchak, wound up second with a 69 for 279.

The tournament scene shifts to Tucson and the $10,000 Open this weekend—minus Middlecoff. He is heading home to finish work on a golf book.

Souchak collected $1,800, Demaret $1,400 and Gene Littler, with a final 69 and 281, won $1,200. Ken Venturi, the San Francisco amateur, finished with a 69-283 and a tie with Jay Hebert, who had a 69.

Other contenders who drifted back included: Lionel Hebert, 74-285; Ted Kroll, 76-287; Bo Winger, 77-289; Johnny Palmer, 72-289; Paul McGuire, 75-288, and Eldon Briggs, 79-292.

Coahoma Plays Here Tonight

Two Big Spring High School reserve basketball teams see action tonight at the local gym.

The B team takes on the Coahoma Bulldogs in the feature attraction. Coahoma's B quintet tangles with the local C's in the preliminary go.

The same teams clashed in Coahoma recently and Big Spring won both games. However, the going was extremely close in both outings.

The first contest goes on at 6:30 p.m. and the feature game is booked for 8 p.m.

Probable B team starters for Big Spring are Frank Hardesty, Don Anderson, Jess McCreath, Billy Blumh and Billy Bob Satterwhite.

Trotter Tickets Go On Sale Here

The tickets are $2, $1.50 and $1.

Pressure On Squaw Valley In 1960 Winter Olympics

By Ted SMITS
CORTINA D'AMPEZZO, Italy (AP)—The most lavish and best run Winter Olympics in history are at an end, and the youth of the world has been summoned to gather at Squaw Valley in California in 1960 for the next games—already the center of controversy.

The Italian Olympic Committee, dipping into a big pile of money from its percentage pool, spent eight million dollars to make these games a model of efficiency.

Squaw Valley has been told by the International Olympic Committee it must get another four million from the California Legislature by April 3 to start the wheels going. It already has one million. Innsbruck, Austria, will get the games if Squaw Valley defaults.

The California sponsors are confident they can build the hotels, dormitories, restaurants, bob run, bobsled jump and ice rinks needed. Many Europeans are doubtful. If Cortina provides a basis for judgment, five million will hardly get Squaw Valley off to more than a good start.

Cortina started off with hotels, a bob run and a tradition as a fine sports resort, yet still spent far more than that.

The games that ended here in solemn ceremonies were won by Soviet Russia. Using the traditional 100-5-4-3-2-1 points in all events where gold medals were awarded, Russia had 121 to 78 1/2 for tiny, recently liberated Austria. Other leaders were Finland 66, Sweden 62, Switzerland 55 1/2 and United States 54 1/2. Thirty-two nations competed and 18 scored.

The Olympics recognize only individual champions and try to discourage unofficial team scores.

Only one event was run off yesterday, the special ski jump. Antti Ilvavainen and Aulis Kallakorpi of Finland took first and second, with Harry Gump of Germany third. All had jumps over 80 meters (about 262 feet).

Americans were outclassed. Art Devlin of Lake Placid, N.Y., did 244 feet 5 inches and 237-10 for 194.5 points and 21st place in the field of 32. Dick Bahol of Iron Mountain, Mich., made the best jump by an American, 255 feet 10 inches, but fell and got only 158 points for this and his other jump of 244-5. He was 51st.

Local Team Starts Back From Amarillo

Snowbound in Amarillo since Saturday, the Big Spring High School basketball team started the trip home this morning.

Although the going was due to be slow around Plainview, where conditions continue bad, the team was due to arrive here sometime this afternoon.

The Steers are not scheduled to return to court action until Friday, at which time they visit Lubbock for a game with Monterey.

Lamar Tech Faces 3rd Place Team

By The Associated Press
 A crucial week that brings the three leaders against each other should clear the picture in the Lone Star Conference basketball race.

Lamar Tech, riding on top with a 3-0 record, clashes with third place Stephen F. Austin (4-1) Tuesday night at Beaumont. East Texas State, in second place with a 5-1 record, takes on Stephen F. Austin at Commerce Friday night.

Sul Ross, pretty close to elimination, plays winless Texas A&I at Alpine Monday and Tuesday nights. East Texas State engages Sam Houston State at Huntsville Tuesday night. Thursday night Lamar Tech gets Southwest Texas State, a four-time loser, at Beaumont. Sam Houston plays Texas A&I Friday night. Southwest Texas State goes outside the conference to meet McNeese of Louisiana the same night.

Hayes Says Ponies A Choice Target

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
DALLAS (AP)—Southern Methodist is being rated in some quarters as the best basketball team the Southwest Conference ever saw and this week the Methodists set out to prove it.

Winner of 16 games out of 18 for the season and unbeaten through the first half of the conference race, the defending champion Mustangs have played every other member of the league and now begin the second round.

Tomorrow night SMU meets Texas in Dallas. Texas gave the Methodists one of their hardest fights before losing by three points and Coach Doc Hayes says he expects even more trouble this time.

"I think our race will be tougher than last year," said the worrying headman of the Mustangs. "You know what happens to teams that step out and take a long lead. Remember Texas Christian last season. It was as heavily favored for the championship as we are now but TCU didn't win it. The others start leveling on you when you get up there on top."

Hayes declined comment on a forecast that SMU would be the first school to win all its conference games since Texas turned the trick in 1947 but he does admit that he has the best talent yet. "But I claim very little credit for it," he declared.

"You know four of our five starters are from out of the state. Henry Spragins got us some boys from Missouri (Jim Krebs of Webster Groves, and Bobby Mills of St. Louis), Joel Krog came to us from Ashland, Ky., on his own and Ronnie Morris is an ordained Methodist minister from Shawnee, Okla., who came to SMU to study for the ministry. All the boys on the team had excellent high school coaching before they came here."

Spragins is the long-time SMU backer who now resides in St. Louis.

The only Texan on the starting team is Larry Shewalter of Dallas, who is generally regarded as about the best outside shooter in the conference.

Hayes was still talking about the ability and poise shown by his boys in beating Arkansas Saturday night in one of the crucial games of the season. Beating Arkansas in Fayetteville always is a strong task but the Mustangs never were behind in the game. The Razorbacks 58-53 in a tense, pressure-packed battle.

Williams Signs Contract
 Ted Williams (left) signs his contract to play another year for the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park in Boston, Mass. Terms of the contract were not announced but Williams told newsmen that he was "very pleased." (AP Wirephoto).

It would probably be easier to pick a ten-man All-District 1-AAA basketball team than it is going to be a five-player squad.

Each team in the circuit has at least one standout performer and some of the clubs have three or four.

There's no one on the Lamesa team heads and shoulders above every other Tornado. All the boys up there seem to be of equal ability, which may be to the credit of O. W. Follis' coaching ability.

The same holds true here, although Jan Loudermik and Charles Johnson have both had their outstanding games and Mike Musgrove, Jimmy Bico and Jimmy Evans are all capable of playing some great ball.

Monte'rey's Carroll Stephens, James Wiley and Gene Pinson; Palo Duro's Gene Arrington and Robert Hoyer; Levelland's Larry Corbin and Chester Jackson; Billy Tegel and Clifton Hartley, both of Plainview; and two Sweetwater boys, Dale McKeenan and Bubba Meyer, are all worthy of all-district consideration.

McKeenan is improved over his form of a year ago. If he fails to repeat as an all-star, it will only be because his team is down. He still stands a good chance to make it, however.

Here's a now-it-can-be-told story: Big Spring was able to beat Sweetwater the first time the teams met in district play this season mainly because Coach Johnny Johnson put two men on McKeenan and let John Craft go. McKeenan still had a good night but not good enough to swing the issue.

Argentine Rocca, who says he's made $2,000,000 in the wrestling game, once appeared before 103,000 fans in a match in Venezuela.

HC Must Face Rugged Foes

By the end of the week, the West Zone basketball race could be crystallized to the point that it will be known which two teams will be eligible to compete in the state meet, or it could be in a worse snarl than ever.

The HCJC Jayhawks, still very much in the running for first place, face their toughest games of the season. They meet a vastly improved Odessa Wrangler team here Tuesday night, then go to Amarillo for a set to for Bob Carter's Bearcats Friday.

The schedule is on the side of the Hawks in their race to overtake Frank Phillips of Berger in the battle for first place.

Phillips meets his three toughest opponents — HCJC, Odessa and Amarillo — on the road.

Odessa will come to Big Spring Tuesday with 'blood in its eye.' The Hawks defeated Odessa recently in Odessa, 99-75. That was the one the Wranglers were supposed to win.

Since the game, Odessa has added two tall boys to their lineup, Duane Jeter, 6-5, and the 6-7 Wayne Evans.

Jeter was with the Odessans part of the 1953-54 season and again last year.

Evans came at mid-term from Tyler Junior College in East Texas where he played behind the great Russell Boone.

HCJC, too, has been strengthened with the addition of Buddy Mayes, 6-4, of Midland; and Clint Alexander, 6 feet, a McKinnney product.

The biggest crowd of the Hawks' home season should be on hand. Odessa always draws well here.

REID BRIGGS GETS 'E' AWARD AT C-C BANQUET

COLORADO CITY — Colorado City football players, the Wolverines, the High School band and the Colorado City coaching staff were honored Saturday night at the annual banquet of the Quarterback Club.

Pete Shotwell, athletic director at Abilene, was the principal speaker and told the group of two hundred that he considered football one of the most important subjects in school—"I think football contributes as much to your development as any other subject." Shotwell pointed out that football was a test of strength, skill and a continual battle of wits. "A dumb boy can't play football," he said. "If they've got enough sense to play football, they can do any work in their classrooms if they are incentive is there."

The speaker followed the presentation of an "E" award by Joe Bell, Colorado City newspaperman, to Reid Briggs, center on last year's district runner-up. The award was made, he said for extra effort on the practice field and at game time and was for that "something extra" contributed by Briggs to team play.

Miss Joan Warner was presented as sweetheart of the Colorado High School Band; and both Miss Warner and Miss Kay Stewart were presented with awards won at the regional band contests held at San Angelo in December.

Jess Taylor, president of the Quarterback Club presented Coach Bob and Mrs. Reilly with a television set, a gift from the club, and Coaches Dan Powers, Ronald Sampson, Ocie Lambeth and Floyd Sarpien received cash gifts. In turn, Taylor was presented with an engraved watch band by Perry Barber on behalf of the team.

Winless McMurry Tries Jackets

By The Associated Press
 Howard Payne seeks a return to the lead in the Texas Conference basketball race this week when the Yellow Jackets play winless McMurry Tuesday night at Abilene and Saturday night at Brownwood.

They are the only conference games scheduled for the week.

Eastern New Mexico, which went into a tie for first with Howard Payne last week by beating McMurry 88-84 and 79-67, confines itself to non-conference games with New Mexico Western Monday night and Abilene Christian at Abilene Saturday night. McMurry also plays an outside game, clashing with Midwestern at Abilene Friday night.

Local Woman's Son Hired By Huskers

Don Scarbrough, son of Mrs. Kenneth Manuel of Big Spring, has been named to the coaching staff at Nebraska University.

The announcement was made this morning by Pete Elliott, former assistant to Bud Wilkinson at Oklahoma University, recently hired as head coach at Nebraska.

Scarbrough, who attended college at Tulsa, was later coach at his alma mater but more recently has been head football and basketball coach at Lawton, Okla.

Red Top Davis And Jorgensen Clash

HOUSTON (AP)—Teddy (Red Top) Davis meets Paul Jorgensen of Port Arthur here tomorrow night in a return bout.

The veteran Davis won a split decision over Jorgensen in their previous match.

They are to come into the ring at 128 pounds.

Court Powers Face Big Week Over Country

By ED WILKS
 By The Associated Press
 A week of decision lies ahead in most conference basketball races today. The leading independents will try to bolster bids for post-season tournament berths while San Francisco shoots for 44 consecutive victories.

The pressure is on in all the league title scraps, of course, but the kettle's really boiling in the Southeastern, Southern, Atlantic Coast, Big Seven, Skyline and Missouri Valley.

Only five leaders—Illinois in the Big Ten, UCI in the Pacific Coast, Connecticut in the Yankee, Columbia in the Ivy and Southern Methodist in the Southwest—can breathe with relative ease.

The independent clubs have things a bit easier this week. Memphis State, however, in an exception with a date at West Virginia, the Southern Conference leader, tonight Memphis State's tournament stock was tarnished somewhat over the weekend with a 78-67 defeat by St. Bonaventure that left a 15-3 record.

San Francisco's Dons have only to meet College of the Pacific tomorrow night and Fresno State Friday to stretch their record winning string to 44 games. St. Francis of Brooklyn, the only other major unbeaten left, goes after No. 16 at Bridgeport (Conn.) Wednesday.

Vanderbilt, still unbeaten in the Southeastern Conference after clubbing Georgia 69-56 Saturday, hits the road tonight to play Alabama, the only other SEC club without a defeat. The Tide (5-0) spilled Georgia Tech 93-60 Saturday. Vandy is 7-0.

Kentucky, its domination at an end in the SEC, meets Florida. The Wildcats narrowly topped Auburn Saturday 82-81.

In the Big Seven, Kansas State (5-1) is at Nebraska after cementing its first-place role with an 82-51 decision over Colorado Saturday. K-State and the Buffs meet again Saturday, this time at Colorado. Iowa State (4-2), now second after ambushing Kansas 79-63 Saturday, is at Missouri this weekend.

George Washington, the Southern runner-up, is at Furman, in fourth, tonight. Richmond, in third place, lights the fuse by upsetting West Virginia Saturday 84-78. Richmond is at George Washington Thursday.

Suke, the new ACC leader (7-1) after disposing of ex-leader North Carolina 64-59 Saturday, runs the rapids by meeting Maryland tomorrow, Virginia Thursday, Wake Forest Saturday and North Carolina State next Tuesday.

St. Louis virtually can wrap up the Missouri alley crown this week with two home games—Oklahoma A&M tonight and second-place Houston Saturday. The Billies, only unbeaten club in the league, whipped Tulsa 73-66 Saturday while the fading Aggies were surprised by Detroit 61-51.

In the Skyline, Brigham Young has taken over at 5-1 while ex-leader Utah, shocked by both Colorado A&M and Wyoming last weekend, now is 5-2 and tied for second with Utah State. Utah meets New Mexico tonight while BYU puts it on the line against Utah State Thursday and Utah Saturday.

Tough Steers Title Hurdle

By The Associated Press
 Southern Methodist starts down the stretch of a raucous Southwest Conference basketball race this week with tough though erratic Texas the first to attempt a derailment of an unbeaten record.

SMU, riding high and handsome through the first half of the campaign, will be moving into the second six games on the schedule. Texas, which won its first conference battle of the season last week—an 80-73 triumph over Baylor—meets Southern Methodist in Dallas Tuesday night.

The high-scoring Mustangs notched the big one last week—they beat Arkansas 58-53 in Fayetteville and took over the undisputed conference lead, dropping the Razorbacks to second place.

Six conference games are scheduled this week. In addition to the SMU-Texas struggle Baylor meets Arkansas at Fayetteville Tuesday night. Wednesday night Texas Christian and Rice clash at Fort Worth. Saturday night Texas Christian and Texas play at Austin. Rice and Arkansas at Houston and Baylor and Texas A&M at Waco.

Dick O'Neal, the big Texas Christian center, took over the lead in season scoring as he ran his total to 423 points. Temple Tucker of Rice, who had been tied with O'Neal, fell to second place with 418.

Local Woman's Son Hired By Huskers

Don Scarbrough, son of Mrs. Kenneth Manuel of Big Spring, has been named to the coaching staff at Nebraska University.

The announcement was made this morning by Pete Elliott, former assistant to Bud Wilkinson at Oklahoma University, recently hired as head coach at Nebraska.

Scarbrough, who attended college at Tulsa, was later coach at his alma mater but more recently has been head football and basketball coach at Lawton, Okla.

Jim Swink Gets 2 Awards At Dallas Party Tonight

DALLAS (AP)—Jim Swink, Texas Christian's All-American football player, will get two awards tonight at the annual sports achievement dinner of the Dallas Saturday Morning Quarterback Club.

Swink will be hailed as Southwest's "Player of the Year" and Athlete of the Year by the Texas Sports Writers Association.

Other award winners: Abe Martin, coach of Texas Christian's Southwest Conference football champions, senior college coach of the year, will be nominated by the Southwestern Max Bumgardner. San Angelo Junior College, junior college coach of the year.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart
 Local fans are getting a break on their tickets for the Feb. 15 appearance of the Harlem Globetrotters here.

In Odessa, the asking price is $2.50 and $2. There are no student discounts available.

Here, the pasteboards are scaled to $2 and students can get in for a buck.

The sponsoring organization, the Big Spring Junior Chamber of Commerce, would give the kids an even bigger break but for a Globetrotter policy that puts a minimum on the price of tickets.

The contracts of seven players are still owned by Pepper Martin, the local baseball operator who is quitting the game.

They are Nick Cappelli, Luis Caballero, Huck Doe, Jim Barr, Manny Sabari, Marcus Job and Aga Baca.

Cappelli, a Pennsylvanian, wanted to play winter ball but didn't get the chance, so he went home. Caballero would like to continue his baseball career in the states, if possible, as would Sabari.

Do not continue in the game. He has a full-time job here. Barr is in Houston, where he will probably seek another means of livelihood. Baca may not be planning to return to this country. He lives in Chihuahua, Mexico.

Mike Fornieles, the one-time Big Spring, wound up with nine mound victories in the Cuban Winter League.

Jim Tugerson, who, while with Artesia, could beat Big Spring by throwing his glove onto the field, has spent the winter in the warm climes of Central America.

He pitched for the Spur Cola team in Panama.

It would probably be easier to pick a ten-man All-District 1-AAA basketball team than it is going to be a five-player squad.

Each team in the circuit has at least one standout performer and some of the clubs have three or four.

There's no one on the Lamesa team heads and shoulders above every other Tornado. All the boys up there seem to be of equal ability, which may be to the credit of O. W. Follis' coaching ability.

The same holds true here, although Jan Loudermik and Charles Johnson have both had their outstanding games and Mike Musgrove, Jimmy Bico and Jimmy Evans are all capable of playing some great ball.

Monte'rey's Carroll Stephens, James Wiley and Gene Pinson; Palo Duro's Gene Arrington and Robert Hoyer; Levelland's Larry Corbin and Chester Jackson; Billy Tegel and Clifton Hartley, both of Plainview; and two Sweetwater boys, Dale McKeenan and Bubba Meyer, are all worthy of all-district consideration.

McKeenan is improved over his form of a year ago. If he fails to repeat as an all-star, it will only be because his team is down. He still stands a good chance to make it, however.

Here's a now-it-can-be-told story: Big Spring was able to beat Sweetwater the first time the teams met in district play this season mainly because Coach Johnny Johnson put two men on McKeenan and let John Craft go. McKeenan still had a good night but not good enough to swing the issue.

Argentine Rocca, who says he's made $2,000,000 in the wrestling game, once appeared before 103,000 fans in a match in Venezuela.

Fox In New Job

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Jimmy Fox, former slugger with Philadelphia and Boston and recently admitted to baseball's Hall of Fame, enters a new field today as head coach of the University of Miami team.

Local fans are getting a break on their tickets for the Feb. 15 appearance of the Harlem Globetrotters here.

In Odessa, the asking price is $2.50 and $2. There are no student discounts available.

Here, the pasteboards are scaled to $2 and students can get in for a buck.

HC Must Face Rugged Foes

By the end of the week, the West Zone basketball race could be crystallized to the point that it will be known which two teams will be eligible to compete in the state meet, or it could be in a worse snarl than ever.

The HCJC Jayhawks, still very much in the running for first place, face their toughest games of the season. They meet a vastly improved Odessa Wrangler team here Tuesday night, then go to Amarillo for a set to for Bob Carter's Bearcats Friday.

The schedule is on the side of the Hawks in their race to overtake Frank Phillips of Berger in the battle for first place.

Phillips meets his three toughest opponents — HCJC, Odessa and Amarillo — on the road.

Odessa will come to Big Spring Tuesday with 'blood in its eye.' The Hawks defeated Odessa recently in Odessa, 99-75. That was the one the Wranglers were supposed to win.

Since the game, Odessa has added two tall boys to their lineup, Duane Jeter, 6-5, and the 6-7 Wayne Evans.

Jeter was with the Odessans part of the 1953-54 season and again last year.

Evans came at mid-term from Tyler Junior College in East Texas where he played behind the great Russell Boone.

HCJC, too, has been strengthened with the addition of Buddy Mayes, 6-4, of Midland; and Clint Alexander, 6 feet, a McKinnney product.

The biggest crowd of the Hawks' home season should be on hand. Odessa always draws well here.

REID BRIGGS GETS 'E' AWARD AT C-C BANQUET

COLORADO CITY — Colorado City football players, the Wolverines, the High School band and the Colorado City coaching staff were honored Saturday night at the annual banquet of the Quarterback Club.

Pete Shotwell, athletic director at Abilene, was the principal speaker and told the group of two hundred that he considered football one of the most important subjects in school—"I think football contributes as much to your development as any other subject." Shotwell pointed out that football was a test of strength, skill and a continual battle of wits. "A dumb boy can't play football," he said. "If they've got enough sense to play football, they can do any work in their classrooms if they are incentive is there."

The speaker followed the presentation of an "E" award by Joe Bell, Colorado City newspaperman, to Reid Briggs, center on last year's district runner-up. The award was made, he said for extra effort on the practice field and at game time and was for that "something extra" contributed by Briggs to team play.

Miss Joan Warner was presented as sweetheart of the Colorado High School Band; and both Miss Warner and Miss Kay Stewart were presented with awards won at the regional band contests held at San Angelo in December.

Jess Taylor, president of the Quarterback Club presented Coach Bob and Mrs. Reilly with a television set, a gift from the club, and Coaches Dan Powers, Ronald Sampson, Ocie Lambeth and Floyd Sarpien received cash gifts. In turn, Taylor was presented with an engraved watch band by Perry Barber on behalf of the team.

Winless McMurry Tries Jackets

By The Associated Press
 Howard Payne seeks a return to the lead in the Texas Conference basketball race this week when the Yellow Jackets play winless McMurry Tuesday night at Abilene and Saturday night at Brownwood.

They are the only conference games scheduled for the week.

Eastern New Mexico, which went into a tie for first with Howard Payne last week by beating McMurry 88-84 and 79-67, confines itself to non-conference games with New Mexico Western Monday night and Abilene Christian at Abilene Saturday night. McMurry also plays an outside game, clashing with Midwestern at Abilene Friday night.

Don Scarbrough, son of Mrs. Kenneth Manuel of Big Spring, has been named to the coaching staff at Nebraska University.

The announcement was made this morning by Pete Elliott, former assistant to Bud Wilkinson at Oklahoma University, recently hired as head coach at Nebraska.

Red Top Davis And Jorgensen Clash

HOUSTON (AP)—Teddy (Red Top) Davis meets Paul Jorgensen of Port Arthur here tomorrow night in a return bout.

The veteran Davis won a split decision over Jorgensen in their previous match.

They are to come into the ring at 128 pounds.

Congratulations In Order
