Is Mom's Face Red!

That mustached visage belongs to Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, but the figure is West Germany's idea. The tongue-in-cheek float, part of Cologne's pre-Lenten carnival parade, depicts the Red statesman as a busy mother telling an unruly child - West Germany - to remove his helmet, symbol of rearmament. Crowds throng the steps of Cologne's famed cathedral to view the procession, similar to Mardi Gras and featuring lampoons.

COLD FRONT

Tornado Warnings Out In North Texas

By The Associated Press. Boiling thunderheads kept much of North Texas under tornado alert Friday morning. The tornado warnings came as a new cold front moved from the West, and after a night that included freezing drizzle, heavy fog, rain and a freak windstorm at Texarkana. The Texarkana storm ripped off roofs, destroyed one building and flattened telephone poles.

Blinding Duster Wipes Out Balm Weather Here

A blinding sandstorm, striking suddenly, wiped out balmy spring weather here Friday as this area got a gritty backlash from storm conditions in the north and east parts of the state. Webb AFB had nine planes aloft at the time. The wall of sand rolled in so rapidly the planes had to land instead at Goodfellow Field in San Angelo. An SA-16 plane participating in an aerial search for a missing plane from Webb also had to retreat to San Angelo.

Soviet Scientists Pushing Exploration Of Both Poles

By STANLEY JOHNSON. MOSCOW (AP) - Soviet scientists float on arctic ice islands this winter while their colleagues whirl in helicopters over antarctic glaciers. They are spearheading exploration campaigns near both poles. The Soviet Union opened full-scale arctic operations in 1952. It probably has done more exploration there than any other country.

With Moscow shivering in 40 below zero weather readers were surprised to learn sunburn was the greatest health threat to the antarctic expedition and melting ice the chief hindrance to the establishment of permanent camps. Why has Russia renewed her interest in the antarctic? Because, says Evgeny Suzumov, scientific secretary of the expedition, "at long last we hope the antarctic will lose its name of the 'unexplored continent.'"

It appeared obvious prestige was also an important factor. Moreover, Soviet whaling fleets have been increasingly active in the southern oceans. The new weather and oceanic information should be of considerable value. The Soviet expedition plans to establish three bases. The first, Mirny (Peaceful), is named after Bellingshausen's flagship which was located in Queen Mary's Land.

Union, and son of the man who opened the modern era of Soviet arctic exploration in 1932. Meanwhile, men on the floating ice islands in the north maintain their study of arctic weather and ocean currents, cosmic rays and underoceanic geography. They are in constant air communication with Moscow. Tens of thousands of square miles of the Soviet Union lie north of the Arctic Circle and its only long season is that along the Arctic Ocean.

Senator Thinks Ike Will Sign Farm Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) - Sen. Ellender (D-La.) said today he believes President Eisenhower will sign the farm bill approved by the Senate Agriculture Committee.

"I don't think the President will veto the bill" even if Secretary of Agriculture Benson urges such action, said Ellender, chairman of the committee. Benson has said he would recommend a veto if the final version provides for a return to high, rigid supports.

Speaking for a slim eight-man committee majority, Ellender filed a 44-page report detailing the billion dollar a year soil bank asked by Eisenhower and many features it opposes. The report asked Senate approval of the catch-all bill that would increase government price support levels for wheat, cotton, corn, rice, peanuts, milk and dairy products.

The report asked Senate approval of the catch-all bill that would increase government price support levels for wheat, cotton, corn, rice, peanuts, milk and dairy products. Opposing this in blistering terms, five senators said a combination of the soil bank and high price supports "directs the farmer to go in opposite directions."

The committee bill would require the government to support prices of wheat, cotton, corn, rice and peanuts—classified as "basic crops"—at 90 per cent of parity. Under the flexible support system now in effect, and vigorously defended by the Eisenhower administration, prices of these crops may be supported at between 75 and 90 per cent of parity, at the discretion of the secretary.

The Senate committee bill would require also that dairy products be supported at 90 per cent of parity. Under present law, the minimum level is 75 per cent. The minority report was signed by Sens. Holland (D-Ia.), Anderson (D-NM), Aiken (R-Vt.), Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) and Williams (R-Dele.).

Of the proposed return to high, rigid price supports, they said, "Going back to 90 per cent rigid supports regardless of how high surpluses pile up, is like eating more green apples to cure a stomach ache caused by eating green apples."

Adlai Sets Talks With Demo Chiefs

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) - Adlai E. Stevenson, working the western hustings in his campaign for the presidency, meets with a succession of local Democrats today and tops it off tonight with a major address. He'll confer with Democratic party leaders from eight Western states sometime during the day to discuss Western politics and problems.

Then he'll meet with young Democrats from the University of Utah, Utah State Agricultural College and Brigham Young University. He'll speak informally at a Democratic fund-raising dinner tonight before making his major speech in Salt Lake City's assembly hall.

He'll wind up his visit here with a breakfast tomorrow for Utah Democratic party workers. Attending the major conference of the day will be party leaders from Utah, Idaho, Wyoming, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Colorado and Arizona. Reclamation is expected to be a primary topic.

Stevenson's face showed the strain of his current Western tour when he arrived in Salt Lake City. But his smile flashed when he told placard-carrying well-wishers: "At first I thought I was being picked, but it is a very pleasant kind of picketing."

Stevenson paid a brief call on leaders of the Latter-Day Saints (Mormon) church within an hour after his arrival, then retired to his hotel room to rest and work on tonight's speech. In interviews here and at Boise, Idaho, Stevenson expressed himself on a variety of issues.

Stevenson took another swing at Vice President Richard Nixon, a prominent target during the Democratic leader's Western tour. Stevenson said he was "shocked" by Nixon's assertion that "a great Republican chief justice" had led the Supreme Court in outlawing public school segregation, and declared he thought that statement "a very calculated one."

He was "fearful," Stevenson remarked, that politics had been injected into the segregation issue because of Nixon's statement. Necessary to solve the problem of atmospheric circulation around the earth. They will study... the magnetic field, aurora borealis, cosmic rays, seismic activity."

President Vetoes Natural Gas Bill

British Law Urged To Ban Death Penalty

LONDON (AP) - The House of Commons ordered Prime Minister Eden's government last night to draft a bill abolishing the death penalty in Britain. Eden indicated he hoped the deputies would change their mind when voting time comes again.

The House voted 293-262 to direct the government to introduce legislation removing capital punishment from the statute books, either permanently or for some specified trial period to allow reconsideration. Cheers rang through the Commons chamber when the tellers announced the vote. Women in the public galleries excitedly waved their arms.

Eden, whose government urged retention of the death penalty, assured the House there would be "no undue delay" in introduction of the necessary legislation. But he added the government would "make a considered statement of consequences" of abolition.

The House action apparently spared the lives of three young condemned killers awaiting hanging. Britain's only form of capital punishment. It was understood no death penalties would be carried out before the abolition legislation introduced.

Those now under death sentence include William C. Edmunds, 21, convicted of killing a 70-year-old woman; Robert J. Boyle, 24, sentenced for the murder of a baby; and Patrick Ross, 22, convicted of killing a woman.

Presumably their sentences will be commuted to life imprisonment. Although the government wanted capital punishment retained, the vote to abolish technically did not constitute a defeat for the Cabinet. All parties freed their members to vote as they wished.

The government had expected to win by a small margin. Instead 37 of the Conservative majority and 4 Liberals joined the almost solid Labor opposition. However, it may be many months before the death penalty is officially lifted. The present parliamentary program is so heavy that the Cabinet may not get a bill drafted for several months. And even if the Commons repeats its vote, the House of Lords could delay action for months more.

Missing Airman Search Is Begun

SAN ANTONIO (AP) - Recovery of a missing airman's blood-stained auto started an extensive search today. The vehicle used by Roger Timm, 20, of Evanston, Ill., contained bloodsoaked shirts and slacks. A bullet hole was in a window and a slug was in the right front door.

Timm was to have reported Wednesday for assignment at an Abilene Air Force installation. He left Evanston Monday after a visit with his parents. The auto belongs to his father, Harlow Timm. Police said the airman may have been the victim of a hitchhiker. No weapon has been found.

2 West Texans Killed In Crash

SAN ANGELO (AP) - Two persons were killed today in a head-on collision five miles west of here on Highway 67. They were Mrs. Donna Jerome of Crane and Robert McGuire of Big Lake, both 25.

Patrolman Glen Geeslin said both cars were apparently riding the center line of the highway. McGuire, a geologist for Phillips Petroleum Co., was thrown from his car which burned. Both drivers were alone.

Production Of Film In Spain Is Halted

MADRID, Spain (AP) - Production of a Spanish film starring American actress Betsy Blair has been halted. Its director is reported in jail on suspicion of having leftist tendencies. Informants said director Jose Antonio Bardem was arrested as an aftermath of last week's student riots against Generalissimo Francisco Franco's Falange party. Police declined to confirm or deny the report.

Ike Sharply Slaps Offers Of Money

THOMASVILLE, Ga. (AP) - President Eisenhower today vetoed the controversial natural gas bill. Bitter Senate debate on the measure touched off an inquiry into a $2,500 campaign contribution spurned by Sen. Francis Case (R-S.D.).

In a sharply worded obvious allusion to the offering of that contribution, Eisenhower said: "Since the passage of this bill, a body of evidence has accumulated indicating that private persons, apparently representing only a very small segment of a great and vital industry, have been seeking to further their own interests by highly questionable activities."

"These include efforts that I deem to be so arrogant and so much in defiance of acceptable standards of propriety as to risk creating doubt among the American people concerning the integrity of governmental processes."

The bill, sponsored by Rep. Harris (D-Ark.) and Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.), grew out of a 1954 Supreme Court decision which said the Federal Power Commission must fix producers' prices for gas sold to interstate pipelines. The FPC itself had given a contrary interpretation of the existing gas law.

In its journey through Congress, the measure stirred some of the warmest debate of recent years. The Senate passed it 53-38 on Feb. 6 and sent it on to Eisenhower. The House passed it last July 28 by a 209-206 vote.

Case explored his story of the proffered campaign contribution in a speech on the final day of a three-week Senate debate. He viewed the money as a possible effort to influence his vote; rejected it, and voted against the bill. A special committee headed by Sen. George traced the $2,500 to the personal funds of Howard

Webb Trainer Wreckage Found

Two officers, an instructor and his student, from Webb AFB, were killed in the crash of a T-33 jet trainer seven miles southwest of Forsan Thursday evening. They were 2nd Lt. Billy Stephens, the instructor, and 2nd Lt. Tex L. Mains, the student pilot. The plane crashed and exploded about 8:30 p.m. in open rangeland.

L. Stephens, a native of Georgia, is survived by his wife, Mrs. Marilyn D. Stephens, 1502B Virginia, Big Spring, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Stephens, Box 124, Wrightsville, Ga. L. Mains, a native of Washington, is survived by his wife, Mrs. Joyce Springer Mains, of 608 E. 15th, Big Spring, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mains of Bickleton, Wash.

The remains were taken to Nalley-Pickel Funeral Home in Big Spring. Ranchers in the area had notified Webb AFB Friday evening they had seen and heard an explosion in the area. Time of the crash was estimated at 8:30 p.m. Planes from Webb as well as an SA-16 amphibious craft from the Air Rescue Service unit at Dallas joined in the search during the night. Wreckage was sighted from the air shortly after 9 a.m. Friday. While the SA-16 hovered over the area, a ground convoy was directed to the scene.

Although there were some conflicting reports from several received at the base, authorities were able to pinpoint fairly accurately the approximate location of the scene. So far as records immediately available were concerned, this was the first fatality in training operations for Webb personnel since April 22, 1955.

Bomber Explodes In First Loss Of B52

TRACY, Calif. (AP) - One of the Strategic Air Command's swept-wing intercontinental B52 jet bombers exploded high over northern California late yesterday. Three of the eight crewmen were killed. Four parachuted to safety and one was missing.

Three bodies were recovered from the widespread burned wreckage of the eight-million-dollar nuclear weapon carrier which was based at nearby Castle Air Force Base. It was the first crash of a B52. The giants are manned by crews of the earlier B36 propeller-jet bombers. The all-jet B52 was on a training flight.

The Air Force said none of the three bodies recovered had been identified and that all four were listed as missing. They were Col. Patrick Fleming, 38, deputy wing commander of the 93rd Bomb Wing at Castle

Keck, president of the Superior Oil Co., Los Angeles. The bill split party lines. Rep. Harris and Sen. Fulbright contended the bill was patterned after recommendations made a year ago by the President's Cabinet Committee on Fuels. The FPC endorsed the measure.

Opponents predicted its enactment would mean a rise of 600 to 900 million dollars a year in consumer gas bills and an 18-billion-dollar "windfall" to big oil companies owning most of the gas. The "windfall" would come, the opponents said, from enhanced values of known reserves. Eisenhower said he regretted having to veto the bill because "I am in accord with its basic provisions."

The measure would free natural gas from direct federal price regulation at the well. "I feel that any new legislation, in addition to furthering the long-term interests of consumers in plentiful supplies of gas, should include specific language protecting consumers in their right to fair prices," he said in his veto message.

The message was dispatched to the House, where the legislation originated. A two-thirds majority of those voting in both the House and Senate is required to override a presidential veto.

On the final Senate test, 3 Republicans and 22 Democrats voted for the bill. Opposing it were 14 Republicans and 22 Democrats. FPC Chairman Jerome Kuykendall testified that in his opinion the ultimate cost of gas to consumers in the long run would not be less regulated than if competitive forces were allowed free play.

Proponents argued that "burdensome federal controls discourage producers from developing new gas reserves. Shorter supplies would mean higher consumer prices in the long run, backers argued.

FLORENCE, S.C. (AP) - An 8-year-old boy was in critical condition today after eating enough deadly poison to kill 25 men. The poison was in a hot dog the lad found on his front porch. At least two other poisoned hot dogs were found last night in the same block by police and frightened parents forbade their children to leave their houses alone. Police theorized the poisoned wiener was tossed on the porch of Larry Mathews by a passer-by trying to kill neighborhood dogs. Dr. J. L. Bruce estimated "at least five grains" of strychnine was in the meat. He said ordinarily a fifth of a grain would be fatal to an adult. He said prompt action by Larry's grandmother, Mrs. Cindy Mathews, probably will save Larry's life. She poured a quantity of milk down Larry's throat when he came staggering into the house on the verge of a convulsion.

Westinghouse Union OKs Mediation Offer. PITTSBURGH (AP) - The AFL-CIO International Union of Electrical Workers today accepted the Federal Mediation Service's recommendations to resume negotiations in an earnest effort to end the 124-day Westinghouse Electric Corp. strike.

The other three survivors parachuted to safety in this area, about 65 miles southeast of San Francisco. They are Maj. Michael Shay, copilot, Gary, Ind.; Maj. Billie M. Beardsley, M. E. C. d., Calif.; and Sgt. Willard M. Lucy, Sacramento, Calif. Their injuries were minor. They were transferred to the air base hospital.

The B52, which has a wing spread of 185 feet and eight huge turbojet engines, flew apart in three great flaming sections after the second explosion. "It looked like ball of fire," said A. I. C. John Stowe of Parks Air Force Base. "Then it broke up into little balls of fire."

The Air Force said the bomber had caught fire and exploded in flight. There was no explanation.

Slash Ordered For March In Oil Allowable

AUSTIN (AP) - A reduction in the allowable for Texas crude oil producers during March was ordered by the Railroad Commission today after a statewide hearing. A flow of 3,366,238 barrels per day will be permitted beginning March 1, 16,838 less than allowed as of Feb. 11.

The new rate results from 17 producing days statewide and in East Texas during 31-day March, compared with 16 days during 29-day February. Exceptions to the 17-day pattern are 16 days for South Cowden and Foster, 13 for Sandusky (Oil Creek), and 11 for Fort Chadbourne.

The Bureau of Mines forecast of market demand for Texas crude during March is 2,950,000 barrels per day, 30,000 less than estimated for February. Purchaser nominations for March totaled 2,983,083 barrels daily, up 14,075 U.S. crude stocks stood at 253,484,000 barrels Feb. 11. Nominations based on 17 days statewide were filed by Humble, Magnolia, Sun, Phillips, The Texas Co. and Gulf.

Cities Service, Sinclair, Stanolind and Continental asked for a 16-day producing pattern. Shell Oil Co. requested 15. The next statewide hearing will be held here March 16. Heads of the main purchasers of Texas crude will testify of what constitutes desired national levels of crude and products.

Snow In Southern Italy

Workmen dig at a pile of snow in a street in the city of Bari on the Adriatic Sea in southern Italy. Unusually heavy snow has accompanied severe cold weather throughout Europe during the last four weeks.

Food Shortage Adds Misery In Europe Blizzard

LONDON (U-P) — Frozen Europe, counting at least 611 dead from its worst winter of the 20th Century, faced the peril today of food shortages. Crops worth hundreds of millions of dollars already were ruined.

Floods ravaged Yugoslavia and Turkey, covering farm lands. Ice packs trapped fuel-carrying ships in the northern seas. Tempests of rain, snow and winds swept the usually sunny Spanish peninsula and North Africa.

The French government estimated crops worth more than half a billion dollars were lost in France, most of it wheat. The Italian Ministry of Agriculture warned Italy's crop damage "will be tremendous."

The sun came back to northern Italy but the temperature was still down to 5 below zero. Snowplows and ski teams broke snowbound communities.

The subzero weather so far averted floods. But officials in Sicily and southern Italy warned many communities would be in danger if sudden thaws started.

An ice pack narrowed the only sea lane between east and west Denmark, across the Store Baelt Sound. More than 2,000 railway freight cars were piled up on both ends of the route. The government banned all unnecessary shipments.

Ice barriers stretched almost 30 miles across the North Sea from Germany to Helgoland Island.

A special German-Austrian committee met at Passau to make emergency plans for the floods expected after the end of the cold wave. The committee was reported planning to ask the U. S. Army to blast the Danube ice blocks.

The East German press reported some Communist power stations were running too low on coal to maintain a full output.

Heavy snow covered the Pyrenees in northwest Spain. Atlantic gales roared over the Canary Islands. Three persons died in Spanish Morocco when torrential rains caved in their homes.

Doctor Declares Graham Suicide Try Did No Damage

DENVER (U-P) — A state psychiatrist says John Gilbert Graham's sanity was not impaired by a suicide attempt in his county jail cell one week ago.

Dr. James Galvin, director of Colorado Psychopathic Hospital, completed an examination of the accused plane dynamiter and made that official report late yesterday.

Graham is charged with murdering his mother Mrs. Daisie E. King, 54, one of 44 persons who perished in the bombing-crash of a United Air Lines plane near Longmont, Colo., last Nov. 1. He was scheduled to be returned to county jail today.

One week ago he tried to strangle himself with a noose fashioned by tying his socks together. An alert guard foiled the attempt after Graham had been unconscious for about five minutes.

Dr. Calvin reported to Dist. Judge Joseph M. McDonald that the 24-year-old defendant suffered no brain damage in the suicide attempt.

UNDER RED RULE

Wicked Shanghai Retires Early Now

By LOIS MITCHISON SHANGHAI (U-P)—Once the gayest, wickedest city in the Far East, Shanghai now goes to bed at 9 p.m. every night.

Six years of Communist rule have wiped out the city's colorful night life. Its gray, grime-encrusted streets are cold and drab.

In the old days, both foreigners and Chinese made money in Shanghai. The wealth here went for exotic meals — champagne with shark's fin soup and monkey brains entree. The gambling halls, race course, night clubs and brothels all prospered.

But today, the last Western bar in the city is ready to close as soon as the owner's wife has her exit permit. Located in the port area, it is named "Toby's Bar. The Golden Sun, New Harlem." Its owner, Toby Embielis, is a British subject born in Nigeria.

Toby's Bar is a warm and cozy place. Most customers are sailors from foreign ships. Toby was once a sailor himself.

But he thinks he is losing business to the new government seaman's institute nearby. Sailors arriving in Shanghai are told officially of the institute.

"But I am not allowed to send a card down to the ships," Toby said.

"I just depend on old patrons recommending the place to one another. At present they just about bring me in enough to live on."

Foreign newsmen seeking night life now are sent on a tour of "workers' cultural clubs." I went one evening to one in the Cheng Ning district. The club was housed in several buildings, surrounded by a rose garden, that once had been a gambling hall.

In the courtyard, two factory teams were playing basketball. In an upstairs hall, a group of community singers were working on a new song to celebrate China's manufacture of iron and steel.

Another hall had an exhibition of cartoons. Some of them were labeled as teaching Red China-style moral lessons—the need to liberate Formosa, the danger from U. S. Asian policies, the threat of counterrevolutionaries in China.

We also saw a competition for amateur plays and humorous dialogues.

The club has dancing on some Saturdays, the manager explained, but not "immoral dancing" with couples pressed cheek to cheek nor any "yellow American music."

He said he thought the "Blue" waltzes were the tunes most often played. He had never heard of "jiving."

These clubs are fully backed by the Communist regime.

"The dark sights of old Shanghai—its bars, brothels, night clubs—have all been transformed," said Li Kan-chuan of the Shanghai Municipal Council.

"These places were for idle, good-for-nothing people who led a very luxurious life. After liberation (arrival of the Communists) such people ceased to exist."

"The laboring people have their proper work to do and after work they need rest," he added. "But we have also built up a moral and cultural recreational life for the laboring people."

Nine Youths Sentenced In Gang Slaying

CHICAGO (U-P) — Nine teen-age youths were sentenced to prison yesterday for the gang war shotgun slaying of a 17-year-old boy.

One youth, Clement (Cookie) Macis, 15, the youngest of the nine, was convicted of the murder by Criminal Court Judge Thomas Kluczynski and received the heaviest sentence, 16 years in prison.

The other eight who entered pleas of guilty to involuntary manslaughter last week were sentenced to terms ranging 1 to 5 years up to 4 to 14 years. Five other teen-agers in the gang, who turned state's evidence and testified for the prosecution, are to be sentenced later.

Macis, a tall, slender high school freshman, was 14 when the gang set out last July 1 to avenge a beating of one of their members by another teen-age group. The victim of the shotgun blast was Kenneth Sloboda, 17, fatally wounded as he stood on a South Side street corner with other youths.

Macis said the shotgun he was holding went off accidentally. The youths with him carried baseball bats, tire irons, clubs and a rifle.

Kluczynski denounced adults who refuse to accept jury service in cases where they have to send teen-agers to jail. He said 173 prospective jurors refused duty before the eight youths pleaded guilty and Macis agreed to a bench trial.

St. Patrick's Day Turns International

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (U-P)—St. Patrick and the Irish might not have much in common with the committee, but St. Patrick's Day will be celebrated at Goodfellow Air Force Base here.

Named to plan the officers' club party are Maj. Robert Holcomb (the is of Dutch extraction), Capt. Fred Cronn (German), Capt. Maurice Lien (Norwegian) and Lt. Arno Poggi (Italian).

The official order for the party was signed by Maj. Theodore Greer (Greek).

Views Of A Britisher

British Actress Valerie French, who is now in Hollywood where she made "Jubal" for Columbia Pictures, passes on some thoughts on diet. She also passes on some make-up and complexion secrets.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

There's No Short Cut To Reducing, She Finds

By LYDIA LANE HOLLYWOOD—Valerie French started in the theatre in the production end, since her parents were opposed to her being an actress but she gradually worked into acting. Columbia Pictures brought her over from England for a role in "Jubal." Valerie is very articulate and her impressions of Hollywood literally poured out of her. "I've never seen so much beautiful food in my life," she exclaimed. "I go out of my mind in your fancy delicatessens and your lush restaurants. My saving grace is that I love cottage cheese and buttermilk so I isn't any hardship when I have to cut down. I remember my first encounter with buttermilk. I was in Spain and there was an American boy who practically combed the country looking for buttermilk. My curiosity was aroused, and when we couldn't find any I found myself craving something I had never even tasted," she laughed. "One thing I've learned about reducing," Valerie confided, "is that there is no short cut. I tried

Cost Of Design Change Probed

WASHINGTON (U.S. Rep. Hebert (D-La.) said today a House investigating group he heads wants to know how much the government's airplane bill is run up by changes in design made after a model is in production.

Hebert said the Armed Services subcommittee also wants to know how much the changes in design cost.

"It's one thing if the Air Force or Navy orders a change and the costs go up," Hebert said in a prehearing interview. "It's another if the company suggests changes right along."

The subcommittee is looking into costs and profits of the 15 aircraft manufacturers who have the government as virtually their only customer.

First witnesses to be questioned on change orders is J. L. Atwood, president of North American Aviation, Inc., who was called after a full day on the stand yesterday.

In his first appearance, Atwood defended the government policy of letting his company, whose armed services contracts amounted to 99.66 per cent of its business last year, use 95 million dollars worth of government manufacturing facilities rent-free. If it paid rent, he argued, this would only become a cost item charged back to the government.

Jesus Demands a Choice

SALVATION IS WON BY CHOOSING THE GOOD WAY

Scripture—Luke 18:18-19-10.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

THE STORY of the rich young man who came to Jesus because he was dissatisfied with his life and wanted to insure life eternal is told by Matthew and Mark as well as Luke.

This man was a ruler of the synagogue; he led an upright life, but he was not satisfied, so he sought out Jesus and said to Him, "Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

Jesus told him to keep the commandments, and he said he had done so all his life. Then Jesus said, "Yet lackest thou one thing; sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me."

The man's wealth and position meant much to him. How could he give them up and become a poor follower of this Man? He felt he could not do so. It was too great a sacrifice. So he went away, and he was sorrowful, for he meant more to him than his salvation.

And then he said, "Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken anything from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold."

These tax gatherers differed from our own because ours have a fixed salary, but these men sought the privilege of gathering taxes, often paying quite large sums for the job, and the money they collected was their own.

Taxes were probably fixed by law, but the gatherer was under the temptation to extort more money than the tax demanded and to oppress the payers. So he was despised and ostracized by his fellow men.

To this man, who was truly repentant for his misdeeds and sought to atone, Christ said: "This day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham."

Zacchaeus had become a true son of Abraham, changing from a low moral scale to a high one.

We too must take our choice of our course in life. If we choose the right one with God to guide us, we too may inherit the kingdom of heaven.

MEMORY VERSE

"Choose you this day whom ye will serve; . . . but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."—Joshua 24:15.

When Peter asked Jesus, "Who then can be saved?" He answered, "The things which are impossible with men are possible with God." Jesus then took the Twelve and started for Jerusalem, where He again prophesied His arrest, trial, the abuse He would suffer, and His death, but ending that in three days He would rise again. "But they understood none of these things."

Phillips Honors Employees For Safety Record

Phillips Petroleum Company employees assigned to the Big Spring production department Thursday evening were honored for having completed a year without a lost time injury.

During that time, the district did not even have a reportable minor or vehicular accident.

Receiving awards for 21 years of accident free driving were H. E. Armor, lease foreman of the Tex Harvey area, and H. T. O'Brien, development foreman of the Big Spring district headquarters.

Special awards went to lease foremen in the Big Spring district. They were L. R. Harlan, foreman of the Warren area headquartered 20 miles northeast of Rankin; H. E. Armor, foreman of the Tex Harvey area headquartered 20 miles southeast of Midland; J. M. Miller, foreman of the Warner area headquartered three miles southeast of Forsan; and J. O. Several area and division officials were here for the banquet affair held at 7:30 p. m. in the Waggon Wheel Cafe. C. M. Boles, district superintendent, presided over the dinner. Approximately 60 took part.

Among those making short talks were D. A. Miller, Bartlesville, Okla., area manager for Phillips; M. R. Hayes, Midland, division superintendent; Joe Hinman, Midland, and C. E. The district has accumulated 360,236 man hours since the last lost time accident. These include 146,823 in the district office, 25,917 in the Snyder area, 90,648 in the Tex Harvey area, 16,529 in the Warner area and 98,219 in the Warren area.

The First Production
President Dewey Magee (left) hears the explanation of Director John Davis concerning the lovers who kiss through a chink in the wall in a scene from "Pyramus and Thisbe," a play by William Shakespeare presented by the Veterans Administration Hospital Thursday evening. Don Shore (center) played Pyramus, the Wall is Janie Griffin, and Jan Downing (right) played Thisbe. The farce was one of the two plays presented by the Big Spring Civic Theatre for the hospital patients.

CRITIQUE

By Glenn Coates

The Big Spring Civic Theatre proved it had talent and professional make-up and direction Thursday night at the Veterans Administration Hospital. The BSCT combined efforts with two elementary school classes to present a program for the patients.

"I had rather see a program like that than watch television all evening," an elderly patient said. Another patient, a member of the cast and thanked him for the entertainment.

All the patients appeared to enjoy the program and they interrupted the program several times with applause. The two plays of the BSCT appeared to turn out so well that President Dewey Magee said afterward, "plans may be completed to perform these plays for the public."

Magee introduced his theatre group following the program of the school children. He told the patients that this was the first effort of the BSCT and that the members worked on the plays only because they enjoy doing it.

He introduced John Davis, director of one of the plays, who acted as emcee for the evening. Davis explained the nature of the plays and warmed the audience toward what they were about to see.

"The Happy Journey" was the first play and it was an immediate hit with the audience. The comedy sparkled with expert acting of Mary Archer, Marilyn Morris, Cyril Devery, Nick Trepatsas, Joan Stowe, and Barrett Thiele.

It was unfortunate that Paul Ritterbrow, the director, could not see his play. After working over six weeks on the production, Ritterbrow was sick with pneumonia Thursday and was forced to stay in bed. But his actors gave a performance that would rival any professional group. The pantomime in the play was very realistic of a real car and the patients enjoyed it immensely.

The second play was directed by John Davis and was a short Shakespearean comedy, "Pyramus and Thisbe." Davis proved that the drama master could be extremely funny and Don Shore, the leading character, is a natural actor. This short play had all local students in the cast. Besides Shore, there were Jan Downing, as Thisbe; Betty Meek, as Moonshine; Janie Griffin, as Wall; and Barbara Thiele, as Lion.

The makeup for the BSCT was the excellent work of Wilma Rude, Selma Gayle Johnson, and Pat Rivard.

Mrs. Ara Cunningham, VA representative in charge of the program, was very helpful to both groups and introduced the program.

Prior to Thursday, Big Spring only had the beginnings of a drama group. But after the performances of Thursday, there is no doubt about it. Big Spring has a "theatre." It is far superior to the average amateur group.

The BSCT will present three plays at the State Hospital Monday evening.

The sixth grade from Washington.

Seversky Says Only 'Accident' Can Avoid War

DALLAS (AP)—Maj. Alexander de Seversky, 61, pioneer aircraft designer and inventor, said today war between the United States and Russia can only "accidentally" be avoided.

"Both sides will try to settle their differences peacefully, but the two ideologies cannot exist in one world," he said.

The Russian-born aeronautics consultant, here to address the Engineers Club of Temco Aircraft Corp. tomorrow, said that the Russians are in many ways ahead of the United States in the air.

"We have missed much in engine development," he said. "The Russians obviously have the four-engine plane, since their four-engine planes get the same performances as our eight-engine B2."

Ellis Funeral Services Set

COLORADO CITY — Funeral services for John L. Ellis, 88-year-old retired real estate operator, will be held Saturday at 10:30 a. m. in the Kiker and Son Chapel. The Rev. Jack Ellzey, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will officiate. Burial is to be in the Colorado City Cemetery.

Ellis was born July 12, 1867 in Winston County, Ala., and moved to Colorado City in 1889 with his wife and six children. Sometime after 1900, he bid in the star route contract to carry the mail from "Colorado" to Snyder and Clairmont. During that period of time Snyder County was rapidly filling with settlers who were homesteading or acquiring land. Ellis put on four mail trucks at one time to carry the volume of mail between Clairmont and "Colorado." In 1919 he tried cotton farming when cotton was selling for 45 cents a pound. Later he entered the insurance business as a partner to the late W. W. Porter.

He is survived by three sons, Melvin Ellis, Westbrook, Bolden Ellis, Fort Worth, and Van Ellis, Peecos; four daughters, Mrs. Frank Smith, Mrs. A. R. Wood, and Mrs. A. F. Callan of Colorado City and Mrs. A. M. Seale, Arroyo, N. M.; one sister, Mrs. Leona Henson, Peecos; 23 grandchildren and 45 great-grandchildren.

Minstrel Soloist

Among the soloists with the ninth annual Lions Minstrel — which has its final performance in the City Auditorium at 8 p. m. today — is Dee Phillips. He is shown here with part of the minstrel chorus. Last night a medium-sized crowd gave the show a good round of applause, and particularly Bill Adams in his salad making skit. The colorful production, directed by Orland Johnson, moved off with remarkable smoothness and in record time. The show includes the chorus as well as specialty numbers and dances. Proceeds go to welfare and youth activities.

Grandmother Lovelace Will Be 103 Years Old Saturday

GARDEN CITY—Grandmother of D. M. Lovelace will celebrate her 103rd birthday here Saturday.

As a special concession to the occasion, she plans to put on her silk stockings. This she will do almost grudgingly, because she said she had worn cotton hose all her life and that they are "good enough for me."

Mrs. Lovelace, whose hair is not so gray despite her years, had a formula for longevity—at least in her case.

"I never missed a meal," she said.

She also has all her teeth, and again Grandmother Lovelace has a simple explanation for that—she dipped snuff.

In a good health for a woman of her years, she explained that her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Williams, with whom she resides, wouldn't let her work around the house. She wanted to sweep the house and make the beds.

No special celebration is planned, but T. R. Lovelace, Big Spring, a son, and Mrs. Lovelace, Mrs. A. T. Rogers, another daughter, and Mr. Rogers, as well as E. M. Bailey, Abilene, a grandson, and Mrs. Bailey plan to visit in the Williams home Saturday with their mother.

Recently Mrs. Lovelace's half sister, Mrs. John Knight of Abilene paid her a visit.

Mrs. Lovelace was born in Arkansas but moved to Dallas when three years old. Her father hauled some of the lumber for the earliest buildings in that city. Later he moved to Hamilton and then to Midland. After a short time the family moved into the Big Spring-Garden City area. Nine children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Lovelace. He died in 1925.

Besides the three surviving children, there are 17 grandchildren, 38 great-grandchildren and 15 great-great-grandchildren.

BIG EGG FROM A SMALL HEN

A giant-size hen egg showed up in a nest at the Glenn Overton place a Wednesday, and the wonderworking child of six fairly small hens could have achieved such a feat.

The egg measure slightly more than seven inches around its circumference. It weighed four ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Overton, who live in the Lees Community, said their six hens, of White Leghorn strain, had been laying fairly regularly, but certainly had produced nothing like that whopper. They found it as they collected eggs Wednesday afternoon.

Four Lamesans At Chamber Parley

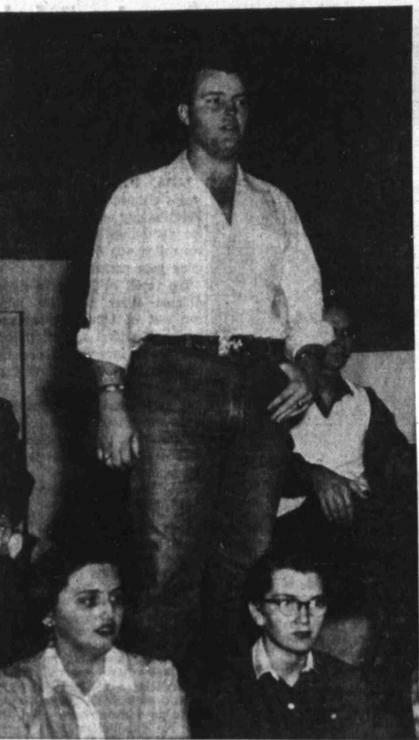

LAMESA—Four Lamesans were in Lubbock Friday for the community leadership training conference sponsored by the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Those attending were Jake Lipard, vice president, and DeWayne Davis, manager, of the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce, Mayor Bob Crawley and Tim O. Cook, president of the Lamesa Lions Club. Theme of the meeting is "People, Products, and Progress."

Barrett Funeral Slated Saturday

LAMESA — Funeral for Lester J. Barrett, 71, O'Donnell, has been set for 3 p. m. Saturday at the First Methodist Church in O'Donnell. Interment will be in Lamesa Memorial Park with Higginbotham Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Barrett, a resident of O'Donnell for 29 years, was killed when his car overturned 10 miles north of here on the Woody Road Wednesday evening. He leaves his wife, three daughters and a son.

Among the soloists with the ninth annual Lions Minstrel — which has its final performance in the City Auditorium at 8 p. m. today — is Dee Phillips. He is shown here with part of the minstrel chorus. Last night a medium-sized crowd gave the show a good round of applause, and particularly Bill Adams in his salad making skit. The colorful production, directed by Orland Johnson, moved off with remarkable smoothness and in record time. The show includes the chorus as well as specialty numbers and dances. Proceeds go to welfare and youth activities.

Grandmother Lovelace Will Be 103 Years Old Saturday

GARDEN CITY—Grandmother of D. M. Lovelace will celebrate her 103rd birthday here Saturday.

As a special concession to the occasion, she plans to put on her silk stockings. This she will do almost grudgingly, because she said she had worn cotton hose all her life and that they are "good enough for me."

Mrs. Lovelace, whose hair is not so gray despite her years, had a formula for longevity—at least in her case.

"I never missed a meal," she said.

She also has all her teeth, and again Grandmother Lovelace has a simple explanation for that—she dipped snuff.

In a good health for a woman of her years, she explained that her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Williams, with whom she resides, wouldn't let her work around the house. She wanted to sweep the house and make the beds.

No special celebration is planned, but T. R. Lovelace, Big Spring, a son, and Mrs. Lovelace, Mrs. A. T. Rogers, another daughter, and Mr. Rogers, as well as E. M. Bailey, Abilene, a grandson, and Mrs. Bailey plan to visit in the Williams home Saturday with their mother.

Sen. Kefauver Takes Time For Baltimore Talk

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Estes Kefauver, making a whirlwind stumping tour of Florida, took time out today to fly to Baltimore for a luncheon address but will be back in Florida tonight.

In Miami yesterday he said the racial integration issue should not stand in the way of federal aid to public school construction.

He pointed out that Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D-NY), a Negro, has indicated he may try to amend federal aid bills for schools to deny funds in states which have not completely desegregated public schools.

Fetchick Takes 1-Stroke Lead In Alamo City Play

De La Torre Is 2nd With 66

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Mike Fetchick, a big, muscular man from Mahopac, N. Y., who never has won a big one, led the $20,000 Texas Open Golf Tournament into its second round today. He had a 9-under-par 63.

"Unknowns" took over yesterday as 57 in a field of 157 cracked par from here to there on the 6,566-yard Ft. Sam Houston course that was supposed to replace the "joke" of Brackenridge Park.

Manuel de la Torre of Milwaukee, who hasn't won a nickel on the tour this year, pushed into second place with 66.

Tied at 67 were Al Bessell, Grossinger's N. Y.; Paul McGuire, Wichita, Kan.; and John Custin, Charlottesville, Va., all of whom haven't been doing much winning lately, and Tommy Bolt, Chattanooga, an always well-regarded entry.

Mike Souchak of Grossinger's, who set a new PGA record of 237 in winning the tournament last year, had a 69.

It was the fantastic shooting, headed by Souchak with his 257 and a 69 shot, last year at Brackenridge that caused the tournament to be shifted to what was thought to be a much tougher course.

Those who know the Army course still contend that there'll be no 69s shot there and that if the wind rises the scores will soar greatly.

Thus far perfect weather has greeted the star-studded field. It was 85 degrees yesterday and there was no wind. This is expected to change this afternoon.

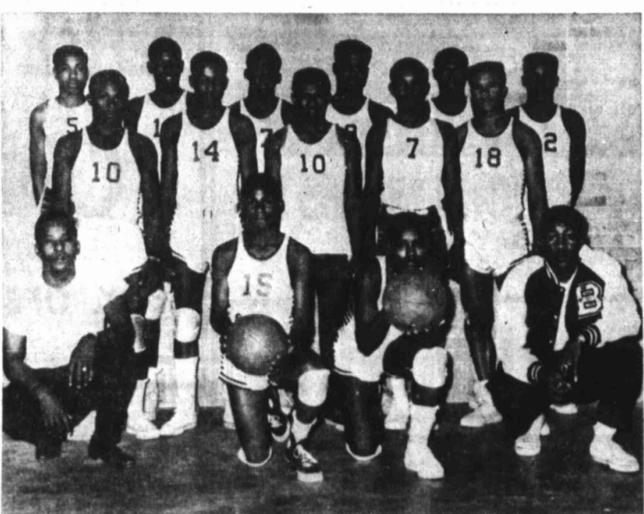

Seven players were bunched at 66, these including Chandler Harper of Portsmouth, Va., Texas Open champion in 1954, and Gene Littler of Palm Springs, Calif., a player highly rated here.

Others in the 66 brackets were Bill Ogden of Chicago, Shelley Mayfield of Westbury, N. Y.; Don Palmer of Dubuque, Iowa; Buster Cupit, Ruston, La., and Bill Casper Jr., Chula Vista, Calif.

Fetchick said his 63 was the finest round he ever shot. He missed only two greens and he was sinking the putt like a machine. He broke the course record by a stroke and came close to making it two. He missed a 35-foot putt by inches on the eighteenth green that would have given him an eagle.

Big Mike—he weighs 205—has won only one tournament in three years of campaigning and this year hasn't taken any although earning $1,456.11. His tournament victory was at Brawley, Calif., last year.

After today's round the field will be cut to the 60 low shooters and ties for the final 36 holes Saturday and Sunday.

Bengals Shade Big Springers In Cage Final

SNYDER, (SC)—Snyder's Tigers defeated Big Spring for the second straight time here Thursday night, 71-65.

The defeat dropped the Longhorns into next-to-last play in I-AA-A standings and left them with an overall record of eight wins against 21 losses.

With 1:20 to go, the two teams were tied but Snyder pulled away, with Big Spring's two 'big' men, Jan Loudermilk and Jimmy Bice, sitting in the penalty box.

Loudermilk scored 27 points before he departed. Milton Ham led Snyder with a 25-game tab.

Snyder hopped off into an early lead but Big Spring pulled up. Big Spring actually bested Snyder from the field but the Tigers made 29 free tosses, compared to only 15 for Big Spring.

Bice fouled out with 4½ minutes to go. Loudermilk with 1:45 left. Snyder also won the B game, 56-55, a real thriller. Kenneth Free paced the scorers with 14 points. Donnie Anderson led Big Spring with 12.

'Middle Class' Doesn't Exist

By The Associated Press

There just isn't any "middle class" in this season's Southwest Conference basketball race.

With less than two weeks left in conference play, the loop has been divided into two widely separated camps—"the haves" and "the have nots." And there's not a single team close to the 500 per cent dividing line.

The pluckiest of the pluck teams is Southern Methodist. The Mustangs, now rated 12th in the nation by The Associated Press poll, have a perfect conference record of 8 victories against no defeats. Right behind them come the Rice Owls and Arkansas Razorbacks with respectable 7-2 records.

Across the line and deep in the lower realms dwell Texas A&M, Texas, Baylor and Texas Christian. Of the low percentage teams, the Aggies with a 3-5 record have the best conference mark which gives them the dubious honor of being the most prosperous of the poverty-stricken members of the league. Crowded at the bottom are Texas with a 2-6 mark, Baylor with a 2-7, and Texas Christian with a 1-8.

Proving "them what has gets," the three top teams have taken 22 of the 30 conference games while the four low teams have had to divide the remaining eight victories.

This Saturday all teams except Rice will see action. SMU meets the Aggies at College Station, Arkansas is host to Texas at Fayetteville, and TCU journeys to Waco to play Baylor.

Phillips' Team Registers Win

MIDLAND, (SC)—Arah Phillips' Big Spring High School girls' volleyball team got off on the right foot in District 1-AAA competition here Thursday night, subduing Midland, 29-20.

The Steerettes, in enjoying their fourth win in seven starts, led only by 15-11 at half time but gathered steam as the game progressed.

Freda Donica scored 12 times for Big Spring. Elaine Russell and Nita Farquhar each had five. Griffin led Midland with six.

Big Spring also won the B game, 47-17.

In that one, Barbara Burchett counted 14 points and Isabel Holquin 13 for Big Spring.

The Steerette reserves led at half time, 19-7. The B's record is now 7-3.

Fullmer Tries Gil Turner

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—The sizzling middleweight division promises to come up with another good fight tonight in the "rubber" match between Gene (Cyclone) Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, and Gil Turner of Philadelphia at Madison Square Garden.

Each fight seems to scramble the ratings in the 160-pound class. First it was Fullmer upsetting high-ranked Rocky Castellani in Cleveland Jan. 4. Then it was Bobby Boyd whipping favored Eduardo Lausse, the fiery Argentine on the Wednesday show at Chicago.

Turner has a great chance to wreck the rankings tonight for he is not listed among the top 10 in the division while Fullmer is in the No. 6 spot.

The odds favor Fullmer at 8-5 to continue his advance toward a contending position. If he gets past Turner, the next stop for the 23-year-old cyclone may be a late March date at the Garden with Charles Hume of France, who is rated right behind ex-champ Bobo Olson among Sugar Ray Robinson's challengers.

Turner ended Fullmer's 29-fight winning streak in Brooklyn last April 4, the first defeat in Gene's budding career. Fullmer reversed it, winning a decision in a June 20 rematch at Salt Lake City.

NBC will broadcast and telecast at 10 p.m., EST.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

The Region V basketball tournament takes place in Amarillo March 5-7.

Whether HCJC gets to go depends largely on how it fares against Frank Phillips of Borger here next Monday night. That game should pack the Jayhawk Gym again. Incidentally, the National Juco Tournament starts March 19 in Hutchinson, Kansas.

Observers around the new district, 2-AAAA, are expecting Big Spring and Midland to fight it out for championship honors in basketball next season.

That is amazing, in view of the fact that the Steers are occupying the next-to-last rung in District 1-AAA standings at the present time.

Still, the Longhorns may not disappoint. For one thing, all schools but Big Spring and Midland get hit hard by graduation. For another, the new circuit probably won't be as tough as the present lineup in 1-AAA.

Big Spring loses only LeRoy LeFevre and Charles Johnson and has some fine replacements coming on. Jimmy Bice, Jan Leuder-milk and Jimmy Evans are a trio who should be ready for Big things.

Midland must find replacements for Gary Roberson, a 6-foot-5 lad, and Herschel Allene, a guard. Back will be Jim Owens, Larry Cooper and Jerry Wright, all regulars on a good Midland team this year.

Gene Sarazen's development of the sand wedge, said to cut two strokes off the scores of the best golfers, was developed from the elevators on airplane wings.

Mike Powell, the HCJC cager from Coleman, is also quite a golfer. He may team with James Lee Underwood in the college's links wars this spring.

Dave Sime, Duke's star sprinter, enrolled college on a baseball scholarship and is supposed to be good enough for the major leagues.

Bennie Williams, Howard Payne College's new head football coach, was the college roommate of Bob Clindain, basketball mentor at Plainview, and attended school with Big Spring's Good Graves.

Art DiCesare, who pitched for Big Spring last year until he was sold to Abilene for $2,000, is a holdout. DiCesare wants the same sort of clause in his contract that he had when he signed on with Pepper Martin, wherein he gets 25 per cent of his sales price, any time he's sold.

Abilene probably won't stand still for such an arrangement. At least, club officials have indicated as much.

DiCesare indicated he could make much more money outside of baseball than within—his folks are building contractors in New York City. He'll probably play, however, whether or not he gets his way.

Andrews will probably lose J. D. Partridge, one of his assistant coaches, within a few days.

ROBINSON HURT

HC Is Defeated By San Angelo

SAN ANTONIO (SC)—San Angelo College enjoyed one of its most productive nights of the year in subduing the Howard County Junior College Jayhawks, 97-76, here Thursday night.

The win was the second of the season for San Angelo over the Hawks and left HCJC with a 15-11 won-lost record.

Ertis Davis, starting guard for the Hawks, did not make the trip due to illness. In addition, the Big Springers lost Jimmy Robinson early due to a collision on the court.

Robinson suffered a cut face that required 11 stitches to close.

Al Kloven played his best game for HCJC, bucketing 17 points. Wiley Brown and Ray Crooks each had 14 for HC.

For San Angelo, Ray Senterfit led with 20 points.

San Angelo also won the B game, 87-56, inflicting the first defeat in GARDEN CITY (SC)—The Coahoma-Garden City basketball contest, scheduled to be played here tonight, has been cancelled due to the fact that the Coahoma girls are engaged in a playoff for the District 4-A championship with Morton.

ACKERLY EAGLES MOVE UP IN 8-B TOURNEY

DAWSON (SC)—Gail and Ackery emerged as winners in the first round of play in the District 8-B girls' basketball tournament here Thursday night.

Gail ousted Klondike, 65-57; while Ackery won over Dawson, 47-35.

Wanda and Dot Williams set a torrid pace for Ackery, bucketing 18 and 24 points, respectively. Patricia Iden contributed five.

For Dawson, Kelly had 21. Blair eight, Keener four and Hogg two. Ackery led at the end of the first period, 10-4; at half time,

15 Braves Still Outside Fold

MILWAUKEE (AP)—General Manager John Quinn today shrugged off the fact that 15 Milwaukee Braves players, including 10 of his regulars, still haven't signed on dotted line for 1956.

Among those known to be unhappy with contracts offered them are outfielders Henry Aaron, who led the club in batting last year with a .314 effort; Chuck Tanner and veteran Andy Pafko; catcher Del Crandall; and utility infielder Jack Dittmer, who recently denied he had tried to buy up his contract so he could make a deal for himself.

Others on the unsigned list are five of Charlie Grimm's front-line pitchers, righthanders Bob Buhl, Lew Burdette, Ray Crone and Ernie Johnson, who were credited with 44 of the Braves' 85 victories last season, and lefthander Chet Nichols, who chipped in with 9 wins.

Outfielder Billy Bruton also is on this list along with first baseman George Crowe, pitcher Hubert Robinson, a late-season addition who won 3 and lost 1; and rookies Felix Mantilla and Wes Covington.

Campanella Drops Court Decision

NEW YORK (AP)—Roy Campanella, the National League's Most Valuable Player whose big bat did much to lead Brooklyn to its first baseball championship in 1955, dropped a decision in court yesterday.

The umpires—a Supreme Court jury—awarded Dr. Samuel Shennan $5,000 in his $9,500 suit against Campanella for an operation performed on the catcher's hand Oct. 20, 1954.

Baylor Tackle Wins GG Feature At Fort Worth

FORT WORTH (AP)—A roaring bout between 240-pound and 234-pound heavyweight and a freak accident that eliminated two boxers marked last night's 30th annual Texas Golden Gloves Tournament program.

Twenty-nine more bouts are scheduled for tonight, with the semi-finals tomorrow night and the finals Monday.

The bout of Bob Prignore, 240-pound Baylor tackle, and Howard Case, 24-pounder from Wichita Falls, had last night's crowd of 4,541 roaring.

Case was leading on points when he knocked Prignore down in the second. Getting to his feet at the count of 8, the huge Baylor football player took the offensive during the remainder of the round, floored Case for a nine count in the third and then knocked him out shortly before the round ended.

Two top welterweight boxers were lost to the tournament when Paul Burton of Fort Worth and Jerry Turner of San Antonio both suffered eye cuts when they bumped heads in the first round.

The bout was called a no contest when the doctor refused to allow either boxer to continue.

In two spectacular featherweight knockouts, Ferral Snyder, Fort Worth, bested Alberto Cavazos, Odessa, beat Sylvan Carlin, Beaumont. One of the best boxing exhibitions of the evening was given by Mike Ramirez, El Paso middleweight, before he knocked out Stafford Reeves of Fort Worth in the third round.

The 1953 state and Chicago flyweight champion, Pete Melendez, El Paso, succeeded in stopping Don Roberson, Lubbock, in the second round, and Henry Salcido, Odessa, beat Sylvan Carlin, Beaumont. Lightweights: Ducky Don Wood, 135, Wichita Falls, best Tommy Lamar, 135, Amarillo (3); Buddy Wade, 135, Odessa, best of George Lee, Dallas (2); Victor Griffin, 132, Beaumont, best Manuel Paz, 124, Houston (2). Welterweights: Teddy Shores, 145, Dallas, best Richard Parrell, 145, Dallas (2); Doyle Mar, 145, Lubbock, best Billy Strider, 144, Houston (2). Middleweights: John Koley, 161, Waco, best Tommy Davis, 155, Tyler (3); Bill Madry, 158, Beaumont, best Bob Smith, 157, Dallas (2). Light-heavyweights: Roy Wallace, 160, Odessa, scored TKO over James Allen, 175, Brownwood (1); Jack Warrick, 176, Waco, best Gerry of Waco, (2). Frank Warrington, 164, Fort Worth, best Merle Young, 172, Lubbock (2). Heavyweights: Bob Prignore, 240, Waco, knocked out Howard Case, 224, Wichita Falls (3); Don Manis, 183, Abilene, best Larry Brooks, 198, Odessa (3).

Grid TV Bill Looks Same

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The NCAA has come up with the 1956 version of its football television program, and in all essentials it looks just about like last year's offering.

There are to be eight national Game of the Week telecasts and five regional TV showings. The '56 format was disclosed by Walt Byers, executive director of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. It represents the plans of the NCAA's Television Committee. Ratification by the membership is expected to be mere formality.

Following closely the outlines of last year's television setup, the 1956 plan specifies four dates—Sept. 22, Oct. 6, Dec. 1 and Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 22—for national telecasts.

An additional four dates are left open, to be selected by sponsors of the program. The remaining five Saturdays are set aside for intra-district telecasting. Member institutions will again be allowed to make their own arrangements.

Once again, a member will be limited to appear only on a national and once on a district telecast—or twice on district showings.

Last year, NCAA refusal to permit telecast by certain stations of the sell-out Notre Dame-Jowa and Oklahoma-Texas games caused an uproar. Under the 1956 plan again these telecasts would be banned.

Differences in the '56 setup compared with the previous year include: 1. A game played more than 400 miles away from the visiting team's home may be telecast back to the team's home TV area. 2. Sell-out games may be telecast to the home TV area of the home and visiting teams in the TV locale of the game—if it is played off-campus. 3. A team may participate twice in a telecast not released in its home NCAA district and these appearances.

Small colleges will be exempt from all appearance restrictions.

Dons Favored To Extend Winning Streak To 46

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

San Francisco's Dons should push their major college winning record to 46 straight games tonight against St. Mary's of California, but if you're looking for the really big basketball action of the night, pal, hustle on to the Louisville Army. That's where Dayton's flyers get another crack at the Louisville Cardinals.

Dayton, ranked second only to the Dons in the Associated Press poll, has won 19 of 20 games this season. The one that got away was filched 64-62 in overtime by Louisville, ranked fourth and currently 20-2.

The return match between the two NIT-bound clubs should be a pip. These two outfits have battled into overtime in their last three meetings.

Another important game tonight sends UCLA to Oregon State for the first of a two-night pair. UCLA tops the Pacific Coast Conference at 8-0. Oregon State, the defending champ, is only 2-8.

None of the ranked teams were in action last night, but West Virginia's Hot Rod Hundley filled the void with an entertaining exhibition at the Mountaineers defeated St. John's of Brooklyn 82-75 at Madison Square Garden.

Hundley, an accomplished clown who also can score, popped in 40 points—then, standing near mid-court, urged (and got) applause as it was announced he had bettered the previous one-game high for the season by a collegian in the Garden (Duquesne's St. Green and NYU's Tom Deluca each hit 39.)

The garden record, incidentally is 54 points, by St. John's Harry Boykoff in 1947.

Hundley's 40 points also gave him a two-year, sophomore-junior total of 1,338—bettering the NCAA-recognized record of 1,335 held by Virginia's Buzz Wilkinson and Furman's Darrell Floyd.

In the other half of the Garden twin bill, Niagara unofficially nailed down a return to the NIT by banging Seton Hall, already on an NIT entry, by a surprising 87-56 margin. Seton Hall looked atrocious for a team that had lost only 2 of 19.

In other games, NIT-bound Xavier (Ohio) lost a second time to Western Kentucky, 74-65; and Richmond got a good grip on third place in the Southern Conference by beating Virginia Military 90-68 while Virginia Tech held off Furman's second half charge, led by Floyd, who wound up with 25, for a 77-75 decision.

Utah regained the Skyline lead by a half-game over idle Brigham Young, wallowing New Mexico 101-74.

Rockets Oppose Odessa Tonight

Lakeview's Rockets host the Odessa All-Stars in a benefit basketball game here tonight.

Proceeds will go toward the purchase of jackets for the football boys, who won eight out of 14 games.

Lakeview's basketball record is 11-12. Midland's All-Stars play here next Wednesday. The Rockets are due to wind up their season in Hamlin.

Tonight's game starts at 8 p.m. Admission prices have been pegged at 50 and 25 cents.

Something new under the sun! This is an experimental Bell Solar Battery installation of Americus, Georgia—where, for the first time, the sun is furnishing power directly to a telephone line.

New idea! Sun power for your telephone calls

Thanks to a remarkable telephone invention called the Bell Solar Battery, energy from the rays of the sun may someday send your voice over telephone wires . . .

by Don Davis, Telephone News Reporter

DON DAVIS

Remember how you used to flash messages with a mirror on a bright, sunny day? Or burn holes in dry leaves? Well, you were using "sun power." A simple form of it, yes—but it was still power converted from the greatest source of energy man has ever known—the sun.

For centuries, men have been intrigued with the idea of capturing and storing up

Old Sol's limitless energy. But up until just recently, no one had found a practical way to do it.

Now telephone scientists have come up with the first workable device to do the job. It's called the Bell Solar Battery. Not since the birth of atomic power has any discovery promised more benefits. Certainly, no other form of power starts with greater natural advantages. Sunshine is super-plentiful and it doesn't cost a dime.

LOOKS ARE DECEIVING
The Bell Solar Battery isn't nearly as awe-inspiring in its appearance as it is in its potential. It looks like a square tray full of small disks, each about the size of a quarter.

The heart of the Bell Solar Battery is sand—common, ordinary sand. From sand, specially prepared silicon disks are produced (and this is where it took years of hard work and a lot of know-how) which are capable of converting sunlight directly into electrical power.

NOW BEING TESTED
How will this remarkable invention affect your telephone service? And how soon? It's still too early to say exactly. Right now, some of the answers are being worked out in the town of Americus, Georgia, where an experimental installation of Bell Solar Batteries is supplying power to amplifier stations on rural telephone lines. And doing it very well, it might be added.

Simple in appearance, this Solar Battery is made up of 432 wafer-thin silicon disks electrically linked together. There are no moving parts to wear out nor any corrosive chemicals.

OUT OF THIS WORLD
Like many telephone inventions, solar batteries will have uses in other fields. Indications are that they can be used as a power supply for low-power portable radios and similar equipment. And like so many other telephone inventions, the Bell Solar Battery is dramatic proof of the lengths to which telephone scientists will go to find new ways of improving what is already said to be the finest telephone service in the world.

This time, they've even brought the sun into the act.

Uncle Ray: Block Books Were Printed In Europe

By RAMON COFFMAN

The art of printing was known in Europe before the end of the Middle Ages. It was developed shortly before the year Christopher Columbus was born. Q. If printing was invented in China more than a thousand years ago, why did so much time pass before it became known in Europe? A. There is doubt about the right answer to that question, but in that period Asia was cut off from Europe to a large extent. There is a theory that knowledge of printing was obtained by Crusaders who talked with Muslims in Palestine. This is hardly likely because too much time passed after the last Crusade before the first known printing was performed in Europe.

Early printed picture of St. Christopher carrying the infant Jesus across a river.

Other theories suggest that the Moors passed on knowledge of printing to the Christians in Spain, or that the Mongol armies of Jehiz Khan transferred facts about printing to Europe during the thirteenth century. None of those theories would seem to have much reason behind it. For the present, at least, we should admit that there is mystery about the way the knowledge of printing reached Europe.

Q. Was Gutenberg the first printer in Europe?

A. Sometimes an assertion like that is made, but most scholars agree that block books were printed in Europe a quarter of a century or more before Gutenberg set up a print shop.

Most of the block printing in Europe was concerned with making copies of pictures. Usually a few words were carved under a picture to tell what it was about. The letters in the words were carved in reverse. This was hard for anyone to learn to do, but it was necessary to make the printing come out right.

One early example of block printing in Europe is a picture of St. Christopher carrying the infant Jesus on his shoulders. This picture carries a date which shows that it was printed 533 years ago.

Lamesa Council To Ask Change In Road Plans

LAMESA — Several property owners along North 4th and Dallas Street met with the Lamesa City Council Thursday afternoon and pleaded successfully with the city to ask the highway department for a different type of intersection than the one planned.

The property owners point of contention is the proposed raised center median one block each way from the intersection.

"Traffic would not be able to cross the median, they said. As a result they claimed their businesses would be damaged. Gordon McGuire told the council he would have to move his truck stop if plans went through as trucks from the west would not be able to enter or leave. Others estimated their businesses would be hampered from 20 to 50 percent. A cafe man, Jimmy Edwards, said he probably would have to close up and move his cafe, but that if the change would make it safer, and if the highway department would rebuild the intersection without the median, he was for the new construction.

Gene Pierson, member of the Citizens Traffic Commission, said the CTC had discussed the changes with the district highway engineer, and the safety feature was the reason for the median. Lamesa police department records show 13 accidents, with a damage bill of over $5,000, occurred at the intersection in 1954-55. The council agreed to ask the highway department to redesign the proposed intersection.

The council heard a resolution from the park board reaffirming its backing of park Superintendent J. Rosson and his ability to administer the parks system. The reason for the resolution from the park board was Rosson's dismissal of W. C. Grisson and R. C. Glasson from the park staff.

Reds Laud Krushchev's Attack On One-Man Rule

MOSCOW (U)—Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev's assault on one-man rule is receiving loud support from the Soviet hierarchy. Echoing Khrushchev's keynote speech at the 20th Congress of the Communist party this week, Deputy Premier Mikhail Suslov leveled an attack on the cult of "one leader" before yesterday's session of the Congress. First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan was also reported to have blasted government by the individual and extolled the merits of collective leadership. Mikoyan's remarks were not reported in any detail, however. Khrushchev had delivered a strong blast against the personality cult. Without naming Stalin, he declared Lenin's principle of collective leadership had been violated until a few years ago. (Western newspaper commentators abroad felt that, despite Khrushchev's trumpeting of the collective principle, his overshadowing role before the Congress showed him to be a full-fledged dictator.) The Soviet news agency Tass, only agency allowed in the meeting room, quoted Suslov as saying that up until the last Congress in 1952, considerable damage had been inflicted on the party by practice of the one-person cult. "Under this role," he declared, "the masses and the party in general were belittled and the idea of collective leadership lowered. "Internal party discipline was undermined and the independence, activity and the initiative of individual party members were suppressed. This led to lack of control and lack of responsibility and even arbitrariness of separate persons. "The principle of collective leadership at all levels... is now being successfully revived."

Quiz Readied In Miss Lucy's Alabama Suit

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (U)—University of Alabama attorneys plan to question Autherine Lucy next Tuesday in connection with her federal court suit to force the school to readmit her to classes. Andrew Thomas, university attorney, said he would take a deposition (statement under oath) from her at the Jefferson County Courthouse in Birmingham. Arthur Shores, Miss Lucy's attorney, said last night he hasn't made up his mind whether he will take similar action in connection with university authorities named in Miss Lucy's suit. Depositions are usual in federal court cases. The 26-year-old Birmingham Negro is petitioning the court to force the university to readmit her to classes, from which she was excluded Feb. 6, after a tumultuous demonstration drove her from the campus. A hearing is scheduled in Birmingham Feb. 29. University trustees met in Montgomery yesterday to discuss the hearing. Miss Lucy is at present a guest of Talladega College at Talladega, Ala., a private liberal arts school sponsored by the Congregationalist Church. She could not be reached for comment. Dr. Arthur Gray, president of the college, said she is tired and needs to rest. Before leaving her home at Birmingham, Miss Lucy said she had received several threatening telephone calls. Talladega College has no racial restrictions, but in the past the greatest part of the student body and faculty has been Negro. Dr. Oliver C. Carmichael, university president, yesterday pleaded with the more than 7,000 students who attended a convocation for "time, patience, wisdom and good will." The greying, 64-year-old educator told the students: "I know you will do your part." Carmichael has talked with the 400 faculty members on two occasions, and yesterday he met the students for the first time since the violent demonstrations earlier this month. He re-emphasized that Miss Lucy was excluded from classes for her own safety. "I declare to you, that this was the sole reason, whatever the critics may say," he said.
